

THE ORD QUIZ.

Established April 1882.

Ord, Valley County, Nebraska, Thursday, May 7, 1908.

Vol. 27, No. 5

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT

By MRS. C. E. WELLMAN

Dr. Higgins was a Greeley visitor Sunday.

Miss Melzacher was in Ord over night Monday.

H. B. Werner is back in town greeting his friends.

E. J. Babcock was in Cotesfield between trains Monday.

Dr. McCall and wife were down the line Saturday.

Mr. Draper was down from Ord Friday on business.

Miss Olive Webster was a Scotia visitor Saturday.

Dr. Higgins went to Scotia Friday returning the same day.

Mr. Loudon and wife were up from Scotia last Thursday.

Ira Cruzan returned Monday night from a trip down the road.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvord from Springdale near Ord, visited the Walker family over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Thomas went to Clarks last Wednesday for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. A. M. Stewart went to Grand Island Monday to visit her daughter Mrs. Pearl McDermott.

Mrs. Rose Applegate is here from Cheyenne visiting her mother Mrs. Kildow and other relatives.

George Johnson left last Wednesday for different parts of the state on business. He returned Tuesday.

John Sears came up from Cotesfield Saturday night to spend a few days with his sister Mrs. Mayo.

Prof. Hillyer went to Beatrice and Lincoln Friday morning looking after school matters. He returned Monday.

Mrs. Lavanche Edwards and two children came Saturday for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Young.

Mike Shubert returned last Wednesday from his trip to New York City. Anna Shudel returned with him.

Mrs. Dr. Fische and little daughter came up from Cairo Saturday night to spend Sunday with their relatives the Hansens.

Carl Stewart and Miss Martha Lee were married in Grand Island one day last week. Their future home will be in that city.

Mrs. Fred Larkin left Friday morning for her home in Omaha after spending a week at McClellan's. Fred met her in Grand Island.

Three children of Rufus Lawton's living a few miles south of town are victims of small-pox. It is hoped that this dread disease will not get scattered.

Drs. Johnson and Higgins were called to Scotia Saturday morning to investigate matters concerning the death of Mrs. John Sauter of that place. Mrs. Sauter underwent an operation three weeks ago and was apparently nearly recovered. It is thought heart trouble was the cause of her sudden death as it came without warning and nothing else appeared to be the matter.

Earl Hoffman, who was a pupil in the schools here a few years ago, is here visiting friends. His folks live near Comstock but he is considerable of a traveler himself, having been in the Philippines and on other foreign shores.

Mrs. Shepard entertained the Methodist ladies and a few others on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Light refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed by those fortunate enough to be present.

George W. Moore is a very sick man and it is reported that he cannot recover. His daughter, Mrs. John Boons came up from Central City Wednesday to be at his bedside.

Eyerly, Mayo, Williams and Clark have completed the cement walks in front of their respective business properties. Wellman's expect to have theirs laid this week.

Edna Loudon came up from Scotia Friday and visited Mrs. Jones until Saturday morning. Mildred Jones went home with her returning in the evening.

Quite a number of North Loup people went to Ord to attend the circus Wednesday despite the bad roads and threatening weather.

Drs. Higgins and Johnson performed a surgical operation on John Trimble at the home of his son Tuesday. He is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Eva Hill came home Tuesday night, after having traveled as singing evangelist with Enslow Brothers most of the winter.

E. A. Hutchins was appointed marshal and H. L. Ressigie street commissioner at the first regular meeting of the town board Monday night.

Dr. Higgins has closed up his business affairs in North Loup and drove Thursday to the home of his parents near Spaulding.

W. P. Everingim came up from Kearney Wednesday to attend to some business affairs and greet his many friends.

Lena Flint returned to her school work at Cotesfield Monday morning, having spent Sunday at home.

A trained nurse came up from Grand Island Tuesday noon to care for John Trimble for a week or so.

The choir practiced at C. C. Haught's Friday evening.

O. M. Seerley took a look at things on the farm last Wednesday.

Pete Jensen and family made Lars Hansons a pleasant call Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haught and son were at C. C. Haught's Sunday.

Mrs. Will Stanton visited at the Pierson home a week ago Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmore Gray visited at the home of the latter's father Sunday.

Several of our eighth graders wrote on eighth grade examinations last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Turner and family were at H. M. Timmerman's Sunday.

Joe Haught and family from North Loup visited at C. C. Haught's Sunday.

Chris Thompson and family spent Sunday afternoon with J. C. Neelson and family.

Remember Tuesday is news day. Send your items of interest to school on that day.

Lars Hansen and family were the recipients of a pleasant call from Ed. Hanson Sunday.

The fourth and fifth language are becoming more familiar with simple sentences at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joan VanWie and Jessie spent Sunday with their old friend, George Cummings.

David Haught from Webster county, father of C. C. Haught, is visiting at the home of his son. He arrived Tuesday evening.

The sixth geography discussed Africa this week. The causes, nature and results of the Boer war were taken up in a supplementary work.

The sixth grade reading had several interesting lessons on the different classes, habits and manner of living of birds, during the past week.

The first grade are drilling on the diacritical markings this week. These drills prove invaluable in pronunciation and articulation later on in reading. They cannot be impressed to soon.

Verl Arnold's home duties were particularly strenuous during the past month that he was compelled to discontinue school work. Conditions were easier however this week and Verl took up his school duties again. We are pleased to have him with us.

Being a rural community and existing under a different school environment from the city school organization, all of us are interested in building up and improving the surroundings of the country school. The country school problem is indeed a formidable one and its solution invites the best thought of the country. Consolidation and centralization have been advanced by some as the panacea for all the ills the country school is heir to. While in some instances this plan is feasible in a majority of places in Valley county it is entirely impractical. The time is not very far remote however when the centralization of several districts into one strong vigorous, well equipped unit will prove the catholicon for the prevalent diseases under the present system. Whether you believe that the consolidation plan will ever be successful in operation or not all must agree on the following points: That many school districts are so small and weak that no school is conducted. Many others consist of less than ten pupils and the expense for schooling exceeds tuition for instruction. One third of the country schools are too small to be even fairly successful. When the school is of fair size, consisting of many classes of few pupils each, with but one teacher to do the work the time is frittered away in a large number of short recitations often not over ten minutes each. Fully one-third of all the teachers have had less than one year's experience. The best teachers are taken for graded schools and that those available for country schools are young girls who have had little or no normal training and are possessed of no more executive ability than is learned in the schools they attempt to teach. The solution of the problem is up to the patrons in every rural school. Who will make the first moving toward improving conditions?

John Long, who has been spending the winter with his parents, departed for Colorado Monday morning. His destination was Colorado Springs. For the past two years John and his partner have been engaged in the contracting business, having done work in a number of Colorado towns. They may not remain in Colorado this year as they have received several good offers for work from places in Old Mexico. Before locating permanently for the year they intend to look into the latter proposition most carefully.

No race suicide complained of in Springdale. We certainly would pass muster under President Roosevelt's eye this week at least. The stock certainly delivered the goods at the George Morris home Friday evening in shape of an eight pound boy. All parties concerned are doing well.

Those individuals who have observed the countenances of Springdale farmers have noticed a decided change of facial appearance from that of last week. The copious rain that fell Monday and Tuesday was enough to warm the heart of any farmer. Springdalers are no exception to the rule.

Our Washington Letter

The leaders among the national lawmakers are decidedly sore, not to say chagrined. Ever since the Senate stood by the House in defeating the president's naval program, immediately following which action the chief executive sprung another special message on congress, the belief has been gaining ground that Mr. Roosevelt has successfully culminated a political coup that for shrewdness and strategy seldom has been equalled. The gentleman in question long has been accorded the name for being the greatest politician of his time, but the men who pay close heed to the why's and wherefore's of his every move are practically agreed that he has virtually out-Roosevelted Roosevelt—practically broken his own record. For months the ill feeling existing between the legislative and executive branches of the government has been cropping out almost continually, but of late it has been most intense, and speculation has been rife as to the outcome of the clash which has seemed impending. The president has been very insistent that certain legislation which he deems important be passed before the close of the session. The party leaders in the two houses have been just as determined not to accede to the executive's demands. They have been inclined to resent what they term executive interference for one thing, and, this being a presidential year, they would rather postpone all constructive legislation until after the election, at any rate. Mr. Roosevelt for months has been publicly and privately urging favorable action on his pet measures, and the administration forces entered the lists in the senate naval fight last week buoyantly and determinedly, but without hope of success. Immediately the four-battle ship plan was defeated, another special message from the White House was rushed to the capitol, earnestly reiterating President Roosevelt's wishes as to certain pending bills, and now it is figured by students of the president's methods that in making the battleship fight and submitting himself to defeat in both houses, if he has really had in mind to increase the embarrassment of congress in continuously rejecting his proposals. The general impression is strong that, confident of an overwhelming popular support, he has taken this course in order to make the strongest possible showing to the country at large of the refractoriness of congress.

According to the Bureau of Manufactures this country is increasing its sales of telephone apparatus abroad, meeting and beating the Swedish competition. Nothing is more remarkable in the growth of the telephone industry, which, as shown in President Theodore N. Vail's recent report to the stockholders of the American Telephone and Telegraph company has now reached a magnitude of nearly four million Bell telephones in this country alone, than the extent to which other countries are now demanding the standard Bell apparatus, manufactured by the Western Electric company at its factories in New York and Chicago, which under Mr. Vail's new policy is now sold outright. A very large shipment of underground cable has just been shipped from this country and is due to arrive in the city of Mexico early this month, where it will be immediately installed in completing the new underground telephone system of that Spanish American metropolis, where a new central energy switchboard has been installed. The whole republic of Mexico is becoming a remarkable good customer of late for American telephone apparatus. The principal railroads, for example, such as the National Lines of Mexico and the Mexican Central have had installed in their offices in the leading cities switchboards of the same type as are used by big business concerns in the United States, enabling them to connect all the different departments as well as facilitating connection with all the subscribers of the Mexican Telephone and Telegraph company. Inasmuch as there is traffic connection between the lines of the Mexican company and those of the Bell system, the rapidly growing network of wires in the republic to our southward may properly be accounted a part of the comprehensive system of the North American continent which, in the United States alone, has nearly 7,000,000 miles of wire, "the whole," as Mr. Vail says, "inter-dependent and inter-communicating, an aggregation or union impossible to destroy in detail, and impossible to reproduce as a whole."

Ord Chatauqua Talent.

The Royal Hungarian Orchestra, a company of eight fine artists. This is not the same company that was with us last summer. It includes some fine soloists.

The Hesperian Male Quartet, said to be the best organization of the kind on the Chatauqua platform. Formerly Chicago University Male Quartet.

The Sterling Jubilee Company, comprising seven colored singers and under the personal management of Frank Dixon, the pioneer jubilee leader.

The Kirksmith Concert Company of young lady artists. This is the aggregation that made such a big hit at the Lincoln indoor Chatauqua last week and that pleased an Ord audience on the lecture course last winter.

Dr. Frank G. Smith the successor of Gunsaulus and one of the leading Chicago pastors of today.

Dr. Pritchard, one of the leading pastors of the Christian denomination and a graduate of several of the big eastern colleges.

The only Ralph Bingham, the fun maker musician, monologist and raconteur. Big enough jolly enough to take all criticisms and crave for more.

Dr. Peter MacQueen, perhaps the most widely traveled lecturer in the world. Dr. MacQueen presents a number of beautifully illustrated travelogues.

Col. Robert Seeds, a national character and one of particular interest to the farmers.

Hon. Warren G. Harding of Ohio, one of the biggest political men in the United States and a real head liner.

Prof. Persinger in historical instruction and illustrated sketches and lectures.

Hon. E. W. Hoch, the eloquent and popular governor of Kansas.

William Rainey Bennett, of Indiana, dramatic lecturer.

Hon. Carl Thompson of Wisconsin, who lectures on pertinent subjects.

Judge Lee Estelle the pioneer juvenile court man.

Judge David De Armonud one of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democratic members of that body.

Dr. Hugh Orchard, a new big one from the south.

Dr. Allan A. Tanner, who was associated so prominently with "Golden Rule" Jones in his magnificent work in Toledo.

The Edison Kinetoscope in up to date moving pictures.

Alton Packard the world's foremost cartoonist and crowd artist.

J. Mohammad Ali, of LaHore, Indiana, a most unique and interesting character and one of the big numbers to the Chatauqua.

Burlington Time Card

East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.

East bound freight leaves: Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.

Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 6:30 a. m.

Friday and Saturday 9:00 a. m.

West bound passenger arrives 6:25 p. m.

West bound freight arrives 3:00 p. m.

Sit Up and Take Notice

For One Week Only

We will sell our thirty-cent canned pears and apricots for twenty-five cents. This fruit is the highest grade, packed in heaviest syrup. Is cheap at thirty cents—our regular price. It is only that we are a little over-stocked that we make a twenty-five cent price on this time limit of one week.

German American Coffee

is grown in the high elevations of Southern Mexico. Its superior quality is recognized in every market. We sell it in 20, 25, 30, 35 and 40 cent grades. The quality in the cup for the price is unexcelled.

Fine quality of berries are now coming in and we look for lower prices.

Fackler & Sutton

CASH GROCERS

A CARLOAD

of barrel and a carload of rock

SALT

now on track. Now is the time to feed your stock salt and plenty of it. My rock salt cannot be beat. Barrel salt is in nice soft coopperage. Special rates to feeders when buying large quantities

The Blue Front

F. J. Dworak, Proprietor

The First

thing to consider in depositing money in a bank is security. The capital and surplus are the depositors' protection fund. The government superintends and examines this bank. Our stock-holders and directors are responsible, well-to-do business men and farmers. This has been established twenty-five years, during which time it has served the banking public faithfully and built up a large and prosperous business. We have just installed a set of safety deposit boxes which we rent for $1.00 a year. These boxes are designed for storage of valuable papers. The best service possible is none too good for our country customers and the people of

National

Bank

Ord

WINCHESTER

Smokeless Powder Shells

"LEADER" and "REPEATER"

The superiority of Winchester Smokeless Powder Shells is undisputed. Among intelligent shooters they stand first in popularity, records and shooting qualities. Always use them For Field or Trap Shooting.

Ask Your Dealer For Them.

SPRINGDALE DEPARTMENT

By G. R. MANN

Problem for Eighth Grade

Two-thirds of John's age equals four-fifths of William's, and the difference between their ages is ten years. How long since John was three times as old as William?

Remember patron's day, May 29.

Roy Hanson returned to school Monday morning.

Patrons day exercises on Friday May 29. Be there.

The fourth and fifth reading take up their new texts Monday.

Henry Vodehnal finished plowing at McLain's a week ago Tuesday.

Maybelle Hansen entertained her cousin, Alga Jensen, Wednesday.

The fourth and fifth geography are working on the continent of South America this week.

Are you interested in forming a "School Improvement League"? Watch Springdale department next week for the purpose, plans of organization and the work of the proposed

The following pupils received perfect attendance certificates for the school month of April ending May 1, 1908. Mary Valosek, Emma Valosek, Elmer Hanson, Herman Stowell, Joe Valosek, Amy Haught. As the majority of you already know, the custom is to issue an award of this nature to any pupil who is neither absent or tardy for twenty consecutive days. The pupils are determined to put forth every effort to retrieve themselves from the standpoint of attendance during the month of May. Patrons help us.

The ladies aid society will hold its next afternoon meeting on Wednesday, May 31, at the home of Mrs. William Timmerman. The regular meeting of this organization takes place on the first Wednesday of the month as a general rule, but on account of the circus it was deemed wise to postpone the meeting till May 13. Liberal attendance is desired.

The sixth grammar are doing work in analysis this week. Discussions on the preposition, interjection and conjunction are also being enjoyed.

Misses Elanor and Jane Hastings of Mira Valley are visitors at the home of Mrs. Scott White this week.

THE ORD QUIZ

By W. W. HASKELL

NEBRASKA

Some of the candidates who do the most promising are not by any means the most promising.

Sir Frederick Bridge is going to Quebec, but he will scarcely fill the gap left by the bridge that went down.

Mrs. Eveline Wright Allen, a graduate of Stanford university, has been appointed dean of women for that institution.

However, even $300,000 a year might not be despised by Prince Helle de Sagan, considering that he has not the price of a meal.

Minister named Fyche jumped from an ocean liner and was drowned. And now there are more good fyshes in the sea than ever before.

Foreigners can never say we're impotent in one respect. When counts come fortune-hunting you never hear of American competition.

The Eaton county farmer who blew off his head because he couldn't quit drinking evidently didn't have much faith in the prohibition wave.

While no official word has been sent out as to the result of the shooting in Magdalena bay, we fancy that the tar-tar would come in handy for sleeves.

A poet has been shot by the Haitian soldiery. While we haven't read any of his poetry, we should say off-hand that the punishment was rather too severe.

It is the proud right of the American hen to cackle since she is producing more wealth than steel and iron combined. The consumer knows who settles.

If war is "hellish," as Takahira says, and stock gambling is "devilish," as Senator Tillman says, a battle between the bulls and bears must be nothing if not "fendish."

Mr. Balfour is reported writing a book on a political-philosophic subject in intervals of parliamentary business. This ought to afford a consoling prospect to the enemy.

A rich Chicago boy married a chorus girl before he was 19 years old, having doubtless heard that if you are going after the matrimonial sweepstakes you had better get an early start.

A Belfast girl who was scalped by a laundry machine has grown a new head of hair, as the report goes. Yes, and no doubt its shade is much more to her liking than the first crop was.

And doubtless in Paris there is some other nobleman in training all ready to take Prince Henri de Sagan's place in Anna Gould's affections, when Anna gets tired of giving Henri money.

Metals get tired as well as living things, a scientist declares. Telegraph wires are better conductors on Monday than Saturday on account of their Sunday rest, and a rest of three weeks adds 10 per cent. to the conductivity of a wire.

A Turin, Italy, paper accuses d'Annunzio with plagiarism because he has transferred a number of passages from the Bible to his new drama "La Nef." Thus it is, we find, that the devil not only quotes Scripture but on occasion even claims authorship.

Prof. Barus of Brown university recommends as a motive power for skyscrapers some form of high explosive, particularly those which can be worked up into wicks and ribbons. He proposes obtaining a continuity of power values from nitrogen explosives by using cold storages.

If the finances of the Gould family are in such shape that Helen Gould has been obliged to close two of her charitable institutions the family has little occasion to kick on Anna's matrimonial aspirations. If they are poor she will have to take what she can get in the way of a husband.

An observer in Milwaukee has discovered three big new spots on the sun. Two are calculated to be more than 8,000 miles across, dimensions which would permit the earth to drop through. If the theory that connects meteorological disturbances with the appearance of sunspots may be relied on some pretty lively shakeups may be anticipated. But sunspots are not always reliable prophets.

Chile is starting out on a search for new artillery equal to the most modern requirements, and invites gun-makers of all countries to send representatives to the tests that will be made next October. Here should be a chance for Americans. The United States is turning out about the best weapons of this sort that can be produced. The Watervliet factory has done much to establish the present high standard.

President G. Stanley Hall is "catching it" from women all over the country because of his recent assertion that female teachers are "feminizing" the boys of the United States. The general opinion is that if Mr. Hall is right he should have had the privilege of instructing the Creator when the human race was placed upon the earth, and should have told him that mothers were a mistake. If the professor notes this feminine sarcasm it will probably only confirm him in the theory that boys can not safely be trusted to women.

Another great tunnel, that through the Ricken mountains in Switzerland, has just been completed. The tunnel is five miles in length and was begun four years ago. Like other famous undertakings of its kind, the cut through the mountains is intended to expedite railroad communication. Switzerland is famous for scenic attractions, but is becoming so honey-combed with tunnels that it is almost possible to pass through and under the country without a sight of the wonderful peaks, glaciers and water-

NEBRASKA NEWS

STATE'S INVESTMENTS TOUCH A NEW HIGH MARK.

MORE THAN EIGHT MILLIONS

Temporary School Funds Soon to Be Disbursed—Financial Condition Generally Most Gratisfying.

In the absence of State Treasurer Brian who is in charge of the office are at present busy taking care of $484,096.17 in money and $8,099,388.06 in securities. These are the amounts on hand as shown by the report of Deputy Treasurer Henry Lehr for the month ending April 30. Of the money accounted for all but $14,301.99 in cash items is on deposit in state depository banks. Last week $75,000 was received from Adams county for the redemption of county bonds owned by the state, but this money was immediately paid out for $75,000 of certificates of indebtedness of the University of Minnesota, which still leaves $46,409.07 of uninvested trust funds on hand.

The balance on hand in all funds April 1 was $510,153.58. The receipts during the month were $480,955.54 and the disbursements amounted to $507,013.95. The largest balance in any fund is $316,731.06 in the temporary school fund. This fund will be disbursed the latter part of May for the support of school districts throughout the state. The receipts from the one-half levy for the redemption of state warrants were $22,919.55 and the payments $17,829.17.

At the beginning of the month the various state institutions had on deposit in the state treasury, as cash funds, $9,798.26. During the month $6,823.66 was added to this and $1,323.05 drawn out by the various institutions, leaving a balance of $12,998.87.

The state now has $8,099,399.05 invested in interest-bearing securities, of which $7,033,687.53 is in bonds and $1,065,700.46 is in Nebraska state warrants.

KILLED BY HIS COMPANIONS.

Child Induced to Drink Phosphorus-Impregnated Water.

To find whether drinking of water in which matches had been soaked would render the breath inflammable, older companions tried to experiment on little Aage Peterson, the five-year-old son of Mr. J. Peterson of Council Bluffs, Ia. The lad became ill during the night and died early the next morning. The story was told by Torkel Peterson, brother of the dead child, at the coroner's jury. Several boys, he said, soaked the matches in a cup of water from a ditch, gave it to the smaller lad, and then held lighted matches to his mouth to see if his breath would burn. Just before his death, the little fellow told his mother that the mixture tasted good and he thought it was pop.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR CONNER.

Justice Acts Quick in Case of Wife Murderer.

John Frank Conner, who murdered his wife on the farm about 15 miles south of McCook, Neb., and who has since been held in the county jail at that place, waived his preliminary hearing in justice court and was bound over to appear forthwith in district court. The prisoner pleaded guilty to murder in the second degree and was sentenced to the state penitentiary at Lincoln for life. He was taken at once to Lincoln to enter upon the sentence. The prisoner made a statement, the gist of it being that the murdered woman had stated she was going to leave him and that he felt she was the last one to turn against him and he shot her to death.

Pensions for Nebraskans.

Mr. Hinchshaw has been advised by the bureau of the following pension allowances: Phillip Christ of York, $3 per month; Norman Hill of Seward, $3 per month; John W. Adams, John H. Miller of Fremont, William Ledford of McCook Junction, $12; John W. Cadwallader of Milford, $15; William N. Taylor of Blue Springs, $17; Hopewell P. Shore of Osceola, $17; Allen Woods of Ulysses, John P. Harris of Fairbury, Samuel S. Hare of Beatrice, each $20. Other pensions granted were: Rufus G. Tole of Omaha, $30 a month; David H. Johnson of Central City, $12; Daniel B. Wesson of Fremont, $20 a month. A special act has passed both the house and senate granting Mrs. Susan M. Lowry of Nebraska a pension of $16 a month. The beneficiary is the widow of the late Captain Lewis Lowry, of company K, First regiment of Nebraska volunteer cavalry.

Fremont Pioneer Dies.

H. A. Mullenken, a pioneer of the county and a retired farmer residing in Fremont, dropped dead while walking on the street, from a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Mullenken homesteaded north of Fremont in the sixties. He was at one time a member of the board of county supervisors. A little more than an hour after Mullenken's sudden death, one of his neighbors, Miss Lillian Suchy, aged 30 years, dropped dead from heart failure at the home of her mother, Mrs. Charles Suchy.

Fremont Man Gets Medal.

Upon recommendation of the interstate commerce commission, Frank Larson of Fremont, Neb., was decorated with a medal of honor by President Roosevelt. Larson is a locomotive fireman on the Chicago & Northwestern railway. On January 19 last at Exeter, Neb., he distinguished himself by crawling out onto the pilot of his engine and saving the life of a three-year-old child which was in the center of the track, and but for Larson's heroism would have been run over.

Young Man Reported Murdered.

John Lampe, a young man, a native of West Point, Neb., who has been a resident of South Dakota for the past year, is reported to have been murdered at Sioux Falls, S. D. The rumor has it that he was strangled and his body thrown into the Sioux Falls river at that place.

Stabbing Affair at Orleans.

Ben Coe was seriously stabbed at Orleans, Neb., by his neighbor, Oliver Stephens. The men had a dispute

ORGANIZATION COMPLETED.

Farmers' Elevator Company Ready to be Incorporated.

The adjourned meeting of those interested in the organization of an independent elevator company assembled at St. Paul, Neb., pursuant to adjournment. From the report of the soliciting committee it was learned that $4,300 had been subscribed to the enterprise. A goodly attendance was present and great interest manifested. Articles of incorporation were offered and adopted and are now ready to be filed. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws, and to report to a subsequent meeting. The soliciting committee was continued and several new names were added to it. The official name of the corporation will be the Farmers' Grain and Supply Company, with the principal place of business in the city of St. Paul. The activity and earnestness exhibited by those at the head of the matter reminded one of the intense feelings of some of the early Populists. They seem to be in perfect harmony and apparently know how to get what they want.

SHE FEARED HER HUSBAND

Mrs. Fenner Stayed Awake to Prevent His Killing Her.

Mrs. Edward Fenner, the wife of the groceryman who blew the top of his head off with a shotgun at Nebraska City because his wife took their little girl and left home, was located in St. Joseph, Mo., and arrived in Nebraska City to take charge of her husband's remains and their worldly goods. She says she left home because she could not stand the strain of remaining awake every night to prevent her husband from killing her, and the child, as he had often threatened. The deceased left considerable money and property, all of which goes to the wife and child.

MORTGAGE FOR TEN MILLION.

Pabst Brewing Company Files Largest Mortgage Ever Recorded.

The Pabst Brewing Company of Milwaukee filed a mortgage for $10,000,000 with the register of deeds of Douglas county. This is one of the largest mortgages ever filed in the county. It is given to secure a bond issue of that amount and it will be filed in every county in the United States where the brewing company has property. It has already traveled over the greater part of the United States and has been as far as Boston. The document makes a good sized volume and is securely bound in leather covers.

SAFE CRACKED AT WESTON.

Two Burglars Got Away on Freight With Twenty-five Dollars.

During the early morning hours, burglars blew open a safe in the elevator of the grain and lumber company at Weston, Neb., a town seven miles west of Wahoo on the Union Pacific. There was two parties, one dressed as a woman and the other a man, who left there on the early freight running through Weston. They are suspected. The safe was badly damaged. The burglars succeeded in getting about $25.

Baby Found in Sack of Grain.

A mild sensation was caused in Palmer, Neb., when it became known that Mr. Bothwell, a citizen of that place, had discovered a baby girl in a sack of feed in his barn. He had just gone out to feed his stock and, upon reaching into a sack for some ground feed, found the mite of humanity alive and dressed. The infant was about a day old. Immediate steps were taken to find the parties who were responsible for abandoning the child. No complaint has yet been filed and it is apparent that no clue as to the parents of the child has yet been unearthed.

Fatally Injured in a Runaway.

Andrew Higgins, aged 76, a wealthy farmer and old settler living six miles north of Auburn, Neb., was hurled from a wagon during a runaway and fatally injured. His skull was fractured and his leg broken. The physicians hold out no hope for his recovery. The tragedy occurred a mile north of Auburn while Mr. Higgins and his son John, aged 40, were returning home. The son who was driving, had been drinking during the day.

Violates Pure Food Law.

One day last week a deputy state food inspector visited David City, Neb., and calling on a local butcher, purchased a small amount of sausage. This was inspected and found to contain a quantity of sulphides. A complaint was filed in the county court and Henry Knott, the local butcher, pleaded guilty and paid a fine and costs amounting to $17.50. The deputy also visited the other meat market and asked to purchase some sausage, but the customer was informed that they had just sold the last they had in stock.

Jumped from a Window.

Haunted by a love affair, with the daughter of a prominent citizen of his home, Geneva, Neb., George W. Epley, a graduate of the University of Nebraska, and at one time a leader of Geneva society, attempted suicide at Denver, Colo., by hurling himself through a large glass window on the third floor of a rooming house. When he was picked up on a platform about 30 feet below, he was a bleeding mass. Epley was 35 years old and came from McCook, Neb. He was the son of the president of the First National bank of Geneva.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Most Important Happenings of the Past Seven Days.

Interesting Items Gathered From all Parts of the World Condensed Into Small Space for the Benefit of Our Readers.

Congressional.

Representative Williams presented a petition to Speaker Cannon recently signed by 164 Democratic members of the house asking that a vote be taken on the Stevens bill placing wood pulp and print paper on the free list.

Because of illness Senator Warner was unable to finish his speech on the Brownsville affair. The balance of the address will be read to the senate by some of his colleagues in order to get it in the record.

The senate has passed a bill providing for the appointment of an additional assistant secretary of the United States to be located at Seattle, Wash.

Minority Leader Williams has announced in the house that the Democratic filibuster will continue until the house decides to consider the campaign publicity bill, a bill putting print paper on the free list and the anti-injunction bill.

The senate by a vote of 50 to 23 defeated an amendment to the naval appropriation bill calling for the building of four battleships.

The naval appropriation bill as it passed the senate carries an appropriation of $123,115,659.

A resolution has been introduced in the house authorizing the ways and means committee to sit during the recess of congress to gather information looking toward the preparation of a bill for the revision of the tariff.

After a debate lasting four hours the house agreed to an amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill setting aside $350,000 to enforce the publicity clause of the Hepburn railroad rate bill.

Speaker Cannon has declined to allow the house to pass an anti-injunction law and a law to amend the Sherman anti-trust act.

Opposition to the agricultural appropriation bill has developed in the senate.

Miscellaneous

Kansas Prohibitionists in state convention at Peabody nominated a full state ticket headed by Rev. Albert L. Hope of Abilene for governor. Rev. E. C. Shouse of Parsons was named for United States senator.

The Kansas state tax commission has decided that the general fund of all secret societies is taxable.

The Pennsylvania Republican state convention at Harrisburg instructed the delegates to the national convention for Senator Knox for president. The platform endorsed the Roosevelt administration and favored a modification of the present tariff laws.

A mass meeting of several hundred employees at Omaha, Neb., passed resolutions asking the State railroad commission to order no more reductions in either passenger or freight rates.

Catholics of the arch-diocese of New York are celebrating the progress Catholicism has made since it was formally established there 100 years ago.

The operation of extracting the venom from a lance-head viper, was most deadly of known reptiles, was performed in New York on a specimen brought from the head waters of the Amazon river. The reptile yielded one-third of a teaspoonful of serum which is so strong that it is said to be sufficient to last the world for 50 years in the treatment of malignant diseases such as typhoid and scarlet fever and diphtheria.

The net earnings of the United States Steel corporation for the quarter ending March 31, were $18,229,005.

The Republican state convention of Colorado selected Taft delegates to the Chicago convention.

A stock exchange has been formally opened at Joplin, Mo.

A jury at White Plains, N. Y., has returned a verdict allowing a passenger injured in a wreck on a New York Central train damages to the amount of $32,500.

Worcester, Mass., a city of 130,000 population has voted to issue no more saloon licenses and claims to be the largest city in the United States, if not the world, to banish the saloon.

The Chanute (Kan.) Refining company has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce commission against five railroads alleging discrimination in rates on crude oil between Oklahoma points and Chanute.

The British torpedo boat Gala was cut in two and sunk off Kentish Knock in the North Sea by the Scout Attentive.

London postal authorities assert that two bags of mail containing valuables worth $500,000 from that city were stolen in New York recently.

A remarkable storm has swept over the south of England accompanied by violent northerly gale and low temperature and in many places the snow drifts were eight feet deep.

Reports are in circulation at Tangier that Raisuli, the Moroccan bandit, has been assassinated.

The Canadian government has sent an invitation to the United States government to have the battleship fleet visit Victoria and Vancouver while in the Pacific.

Damage to fruit in the Arkansas and Grand valleys of Colorado by frost is estimated at $1,000,000.

Three men were killed in an explosion of the Egyptian Powder mills five miles from Marlin, Ill., and considerable property was damaged.

Six persons were killed and 20 injured in a collision between two electric interurban cars near Detroit, Mich.

By the explosion of a boiler on a German battleship at Kiel, two seamen were killed and six others painfully injured.

Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to observe May 7, as a legal holiday when mass meetings will be held and a memorial to congress adopted asking that five amendments to the federal constitution be proposed.

The Pennsylvania railroad 4 per cent bonds amounting to $40,000,000 half of which were sold in London and half in New York were oversubscribed many times and the subscriptions closed one hour after being opened.

Lawrence O. Murray, former assistant secretary of the department of commerce and labor has taken the oath of office as comptroller of the currency.

Gov. Frear of Hawaii has arrived in this country to attend the conference of governors called by President Roosevelt to meet soon at Washington.

A resolution introduced in the Democratic state convention of New Jersey to instruct the delegates for Bryan was voted down and no instructions were given.

The entire Salvation Army of South Bend, Ind., 25 persons in all, have been arrested as a public nuisance because they refuse to keep off the streets.

The itinerary for the battleship fleet as approved by the president provides for leaving San Francisco July 7; thence to Honolulu, Auckland, Sydney, Melbourne, Albany, Australia (for coal) and arrive at the Philippines October 1. After a stay of nine days it will go to Yokohama and thence to Amoy and return to Manila reaching there November 7.

Selig Silverstein, the anarchist who attempted to throw a bomb into a group of New York policemen and was injured by the premature explosion of the bomb is dead from the injuries received.

The recent wind storm in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia, which continued intermittently for three days, killed 350 persons and seriously injured 1,200 others. Forty-six towns report serious loss and 2,500 dwellings were destroyed.

John Douglas, a driller who was in the habit of inhaling natural gas as a stimulant, was found dead lying on the platform of a derrick at Bartlesville, Ok., with his mouth close to a gas pipe.

In the trial of H. H. Tucker at Topeka it developed that no trial balance of the books of the Uncle Sam Oil company had ever been taken until the receiver took charge.

A receiver has been appointed for the True American, a daily newspaper at Trenton, N. J.

The New York brokerage firm of Coater, Knapp & Co., has suspended, following the suicide of the senior partner, who was prominent in financial and society circles.

The Missouri State University debaters defeated the Kansas university men at Lawrence recently. The question related to the primary law and Missouri had the negative side.

The British cruiser Gladstone was struck by the American liner St. Paul off the Isle of Wight and so badly damaged that it sank in a few minutes carrying down 28 of the crew.

By an explosion on board the Japanese cruiser Matsushima while at Makang, Pescadore Islands, 200 officers, men and cadets lost their lives. The cruiser was being used as a training ship by the Japanese naval authorities. The vessel is a complete loss.

A heavy snow recently fell throughout the Ohio valley breaking down thousands of fruit trees which were already in bloom.

The second Atlantic torpedo flotilla from Magdalena bay has arrived at San Diego, Cal.

The private bank of Malone & Son at Cayuga, Indiana, has been closed.

Personal

L. H. Bickford, associate editor of the Chicago Inter-Ocean is dead following an operation for appendicitis. He was 37 years of age.

Secretary Straus has been reappointed for another term of six years as one of the American members of the Permanent Court of Arbitration at The Hague.

Admiral Evans has notified the officers of the fleet that he will rejoin the ships at Monterey, Cal.

Secretary Taft has left Washington for Panama on a mission of diplomacy.

United States Judge Ralph E. Campbell of the eastern district of Oklahoma has resigned, giving as his reason the desire to resume the practice of law.

Rev. Morgan Dix, rector of Trinity Protestant Episcopal parish in New York since 1862 is dead. He was 81 years of age.

President J. H. Main of Iowa college has been elected first president of the newly organized Congregational Brotherhood of America.

Gov. John Sparks of Nevada has been stricken with paralysis and is in a serious condition.

Prof. Ephraim Miller, who for 34 years has been at the head of the mathematics department of the University of Kansas, has been teaching 61 years and has just celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday.

Gov. Haskell has issued a proclamation making May 7 a legal holiday in Oklahoma that the people may meet and discuss several proposed amendments to the federal constitution.

Maj. Gen. Charles B. Hall, a veteran of the Civil war, has been placed on the retired list on account of age.

Carl F. Deichman of Missouri has been appointed consul at Tamul, Formosa, and Charles E. Eberhardt of Kansas at Baranquilla, Colombia.

Secretary of the Navy Metcalf has left Washington for San Francisco to participate in the reception to the fleet.

Secretary Cortelyou has called upon the national banks for $45,000,000 of the national cash, one half to be paid before May 9, and the balance on or before May 23.

Former President Grover Cleveland who is ill at Lakewood, N. J., is reported to be improving daily.

Prof. Alexander Agassiz of Harvard and his son Max have returned from Africa with valuable information, having explored a large range of territory of which very little had been learned previously.

Miss Minnie Cox of Martins Ferry, O., is dead from a snider bite.

JAP CRUISER SUNK

MANY LIVES ARE LOST IN MAKANG HARBOR.

STERN MAGAZINE EXPLODES

Rescue Work Promptly Undertaken, and 141 Men Saved—Accident Supposedly Due to Defective Electric Wire.

An explosion occurred in the stern magazine of the cruiser Matsushima Friday morning while anchoring at Makang, a harbor on the Pescadore Islands. The Matsushima immediately sank until only the bridge was visible. Efforts at rescue by boats from the cruisers Hashitate and Itaukuma succeeded in saving the lives of 141 men, including some officers. The majority of the officers were not saved and at the time of the admiral's report the cadets numbered 58 out of a complement of 300. The sons of Baron Chinda, vice-minister of the foreign office, and of Prince Oyama, field marshal, were among the cadets who, it is feared, are lost. Also Captains Name, Yoshimori and Yashiro.

Naval experts infer that the explosion was caused by either a defective electric wire, an electric fuse or deterioration in the stock of smokeless powder, affected by heat. The deterioration of powder, causing it to ignite and explode, is one of the constant dangers aboard war vessels. Every navy except the United States has installed cooling machines in the magazines of their ships of recent type for the purpose of maintaining an even temperature. It is not regarded as probable that the Matsushima had such apparatus installed as she was considered out of date as a fighting ship. A dispatch to the naval attaché of the Japanese embassy from Tokyo says that those saved include three officers, 24 cadets, seven non-commissioned officers and 141 of the crew.

RELIGIOUS OGGY STILL ON.

Mother of Murdered Child Heart Broken and Repentant.

Coroner Fetherol at Nazarus, Pa., began an inquest into the death of Irene May Smith, the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Alliance, Pa., who was offered as a sacrifice by her parents and uncle, members of the fanatical religious sect. The Smiths and Bachman, who is an uncle of the child, and who killed her during his frenzy, are in the county jail. Bachman insists that the child was possessed of the devil and that he killed her by command from heaven. He maintains that he did no wrong and that God will protect him.

Smith is in a pitiable condition both mentally and physically. He was seized with several fits and rolled from his cot to the floor where he tossed about, shouting and praying. He appears to know little or nothing of the killing of his daughter.

Mrs. Smith is heartbroken over the tragic death of her child. She declares that she never had much faith in the teachings of the sect. During the progress of the religious sessions she says she lost her power of reason and did not realize what was going on when Bachman choked and beat the life out of the little child.

SIXTEEN MILLION DEFICIT.

Receipts Less Than Expenditures for Month of August.

The monthly statement of the government receipts and expenditures for the month of April, 1908, shows the receipts to have been $43,939,391 and the expenditures $59,888,784, leaving a deficit for the month of nearly $16,000,000; a deficit for 10 months of the present fiscal year of $51,644,615, as against a surplus for the corresponding period last year of $56,475,751.

The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business April 30, 1908, the debt, less cash in the treasury, amounted to $28,167,236, which is an increase as compared with March 30, 1908, of $15,445,899.

The monthly statement of the director of the mint shows the total coinage issued at the mints of the United States during April, 1908, was $28,230,632, as follows: Gold, $27,367,560; silver, $767,000; minor coins, $156,122. In addition to the above, 3,593,504 pieces were coined for the Philippine government.

Passes Nepotism Bill.

The house passed the nepotism bill previously passed by the Oklahoma senate. The bill is very stringent, and provides that no one shall be employed in any judicial, executive or legislative department, where a relative within the third degree is an officer. The penalty is $150 to $1,000 fine and works a forfeiture of office.

Bomb for Mine Foreman.

The home of J. G. Wicklund, the foreman of the quarries of the Washoe Smelting Company, near Anaconda, Mont., was demolished by a charge of giant powder at Butte, Mont. His wife and baby escaped unhurt, but Wicklund was injured. Several hundred Austrians and Italians who had been employed at the quarries before the panic, were not employed when the Amalgamated Copper Company properties resumed last winter and Wicklund has frequently received letters threatening his life.

Bank President a Suicide.

The Ord Quiz

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. C. PARSONS, City Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at Ord as second class mail matter.

Advertising Rates.

	1 Wk	1 Mo	1 Year
Less than 5 inches, per inch	55	75	6.00
5 to 10 inches, per inch	30	50	5.00
10 to 15 inches, per inch	20	35	3.50
15 to 20 inches, per inch	15	25	2.50
20 inches and over, per inch	10	15	1.50

A month is four insertions.
Want locals 5 cents a line.
Regular locals 10 cents a line.
Black locals 15 cents a line.

Subscriptions may begin or end at any time. Notice to stop this paper will be promptly obeyed. All subscriptions are received with the express understanding that the subscription may continue until the subscriber notifies the publisher of his desire to terminate the subscription.

Subscription Rates.
One copy, if paid in reasonable time, $1.50.
If unpaid year after year, $2.

Because the populist national convention failed to nominate Bryan is no good reason that he is not a pop.

Every week adds a few more delegates to the Taft list and it looks very much at this time as if he would be the republican presidential nominee with plenty of votes to spare.

Now that Illinois has indorsed Bryan and there is talk of abolishing the two-thirds rule of nominating in the Denver convention the stock of the Nebraska statesman has gone up several points.

While Walter Johnson and Norm Parks have been wasting valuable space in the Quiz columns settling the question of whether or not Bryan should be the Democratic nominee for president, the writer has been wondering why Walter and Norm should make all of this ado about nothing. Bryan's chances of election if nominated are certainly about a good as those of any other democrat and we believe that the reins of the government might be in worse hands than those of the Nebraska statesman. True we can see where a bred in the faith democrat has cause to raise objections to a standard bearer that has no more use for his party than the advancement of his own personal ambitions. On the other hand we can see where Walter can don the Bryan toga without the least inconvenience, for who has worn more kinds of political raiment than Walter? It is true that Bryan has tirted outrageously with the pops and at times it has been hard to put your finger on him as a pop or democrat but we have never heard of him affiliating with others than these two, while on the other hand we think that Walter has in his time been enrolled in each of the various parties. But as we said before why so much ado about nothing, Walter knows and Norm knows, if they will use the gray matter that we give them credit for having, that neither Bryan, Johnson, or any other democrat, pop or socialist stands any show of election. It is written down in the book that a republican will fill the president's chair for another four years in spite of Walter's statement that nine out of ten people are for Bryan.

Council Proceedings.
Ord, Nebr., April 30, 1908.
Adjourned meeting of council called to order by mayor. Roll call showed all members present except Stover. Minutes of last meeting read and on motion of Taylor were approved as corrected. The reports of city treasurer, city clerk and water commissioner were read and referred to judiciary committee who submit the following to full board.
We, your judiciary committee, have examined the reports and books of the city treasurer, clerk and water commissioner and find them correct as per voucher presented.
Signed, G. W. Taylor, H. S. Botts, G. R. Gard.
The above report adopted by full vote of board.
Report of cemetery committee read and placed on file.
Finance committee report on claims to wit:

Grant Arnold, hauling water	$4 65
Lewis Peters, water fund	5 00
Loup Valley, lights	25 60
O S Jones, labor	1 75
Wm Rasset, labor	4 20
G O Reeves, labor	8 97
H C Potter, labor	5 25
F Canfield, labor	3 50
T Van Slyke, labor	2 27
J B Brington, labor	3 10
Wm Frungel, labor	1 75
Wm Wallace, labor	7 40
Bailey & Detweiler, misc	1 65
A J Shirley, dray and postage	2 25
H D Heuck, salary	58 00
G R Gard, salary	6 50
H S Botts, salary	6 50
G H Stover, salary	9 00
W L Stevens, salary	6 00
G W Taylor, salary	6 50
E W Gruber, salary	4 00

Water commissioner read list of all unpaid water consumers

Meeting of council called to order by mayor, roll call showing all members present except Stevens. Minutes of last meeting read and on motion of Gruber were approved as read.

Moved that the council adjourn sine die. Carried.
A. J. Shirley, Clerk.
May 1, 1908, 9 o'clock a. m.

Meeting of council called to order by mayor, roll call showing Taylor, Williams, Stover, Gruber and Sershen present, Stevens absent. New members of council sworn by clerk.
Council organized by electing G. H. Stover president for the ensuing year.
Mayor appointed committees as follows:
Streets and alleys—Gruber, Williams, Stover.
Judiciary—Taylor, Williams, Sershen.
Water—Stevens, Gruber, Taylor.
Cemetery—Stover, Stevens, Taylor.
Fire—Sershen, Stover, Stevens.
Finance—Williams, Sershen, Gruber.

Mayor appointed the following: Chief of police, street and water commissioner, H. D. Heuck. Water works engineer, Lewis Peters. City attorney, H. E. Olsson. City physician, Dr. C. C. Shepard.
Roll call showed all members voting yea on the above appointments.
The bond of city treasurer was read and approved by board as was also plumbing bond of R. W. Gass.
The petitions and bonds of A. J. Hall, Jos. Adamek, S. G. Dumond, White & Harris and W. F. Adamek, applicants for saloon licenses, were read and referred to judiciary committee. Approved by said committee and on motion of Gruber the bonds were approved and the licenses ordered issued by the following yea and nay vote.
Taylor yea, Gruber yea, Sershen yea, Stover yea, Williams no, Stevens absent.
On motion council adjourned.
A. J. Shirley, Clerk.

Poplar Grove People
Poplar Grove's habitation has been increased by a daughter at Jos. Holoun's and a son at Frank Vanek's.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Meese and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adamek of Elm Creek were visitors in this community Saturday and Sunday.
The school board have ordered a bell to be placed on the school house as soon as it arrives. Lola Bros. have been engaged to put it up.
The big wagon of the Ord Mercantile Company of Ord calls on us weekly with their stock of groceries and hardware. They report a good business.
The much needed rain fell the first of the week which put new strength and energy into our farmers. The stormy weather and hard frosts entirely destroyed the fruit crop. Never before were the prospects so good for a large fruit crop.
A large crowd turned out at the hall Saturday evening to hear "Carl Johnson, the Woodman," which was played by our home folks. All did quite well for having so little time as they had to prepare for it. All these who wished took part in a dance after the play.
Otto Hipp a nephew of Mr. Prestle who has been ill for so long died last Friday. Otto was a strong and robust youth of 20 years. Last fall while helping thresh at his neighbors and working in the dust all day returned in the evening and went to the tank and washed, and after eating supper he suffered a stroke of paralysis. A doctor was called and he soon was better but never entirely recovered. Finally he began to grow worse and was under constant care of Dr. Fenstermacher of Sargent. Mr. Prestle sold his farm and had to move, so Otto went to Sargent where his sister took care of him until the end came. Sunday the remains were laid to rest at the Geranium Catholic cemetery, Pather Augustine of Elryia officiating.

Elyria Items
Mrs. H. H. Berry came home Saturday from Chicago where she has been attending her sister's wedding.
Anna Sorensen of Ord has been visiting Anna and Dorothy Sorensen of Elyria for a few days. She returned home Tuesday.
Charley Spencer of Scotia was visiting friends in Elyria over Sunday. He returned home Monday.
Mrs. A. Dietz returned home from Loup City Wednesday, where she has been visiting her daughter's for a few days.
The last quarantine has been lifted in Elyria.

Man's Best Age.
At what age is a man at his best and most likely to achieve his life work? The Rev. F. B. Meyer once put the age at forty-six. That seemed late to a critic, but Dr. Leonard Guthrie at the Royal College of Physicians supported the statement. He quoted Jastro's table dealing with specially precocious people, which showed that the average age at which great artists did their first work was 13.8; their first great work, 28; their greatest work, 46.7; and that the average age at death was 60.1. For poets the figures in the same order were 15.6, 27.8, 43.9 and 61.6; for philosophers, 17.6, 32.1, 47.7 and 66.3. Here is comfort for those who think of middle life as flat prose.—Sunday School Chronicle.

Where Soldiers Must Swim.
In the Dutch army a man must be able to swim as well as to fight. Moreover, if he is in the cavalry he must have a horse which will take a river as easily as a hunter takes a fence. Swimming maneuvers are part of the regular drill there. Collapsible canvas boats manned by a few oarsmen lead the horses so that they do not attempt to land on stone quays and other difficult points. The men swim across with their horses and on them. They do it in swimming costume and in all the accouterments of war. There are some very energetic swimmers in the Dutch army.—London Standard.

Audible Conscience.
Bonter—Excuse my yawning. I didn't get a wink of sleep last night.
Jupp—Toothache?
Bonter—No. A woman asked me for some money yesterday, and I refused her. Well, the tones of her voice rang in my head all night. I couldn't close an eye.
Jupp—Conscience stricken, eh?
Was it a deserving case, do you think?
Bonter—It was my wife.

How Glaciers Move.
It has been proved that a glacier moves very much like a river, the middle and upper parts faster than the sides and the bottom, the sides and bottom being retarded by friction. The movement of a glacier is quite similar to that of a mass of thick mortar or a quantity of pitch flowing down an inclined trough. Like the piece of shoemaker's wax, which, like ice, is extremely brittle, the glacier, subjected to experiment, reveals considerable plasticity and is much more like a viscous liquid than it was once supposed to be.
There is an Order Higher Still.
You are set in an age when the material civilization of the world has been piled up to a gigantic height, to testify that there is an order higher still; that as the soul is more than the body and eternity than time, so the moral order is above the material; that justice is above power; that justice may suffer long, but must reign at last; that the power is not right; that no wrongs can be sanctified by success, nor can the immutable laws of right and wrong be confounded.—Cardinal Manning.

Something For Her Neck.
A ludicrous story is told of a young Japanese engineering apprentice in connection with the Christmas custom of kissing. He was serving his time in the north of England and was astonished when a waitress at the dining rooms which he regularly frequented kissed him under the mistletoe. On its being explained to him that a present was expected in return, he suggested a pair of gloves. The damsel, however, had heard that he was immensely wealthy and gently hinted that something for her neck would be more acceptable. When the present arrived next day she conjured up visions of a pearl necklace as the tremblingly undid the parcel. Then was disclosed to her disappointed gaze a Jap's idea of "something for her neck." It took the shape of a bar of soap!—London Standard.

Burlington Time Card
East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.
East bound freight leaves: Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.
Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 9:30 a. m.
Friday and Saturday 6:00 a. m.
West bound passenger arrives 8:25 p. m.

ENTERPRISE DEPARTMENT

By JOHN L. WARD

And then it rained.
Mary Armstrong took in Arcadia, Loup City and St. Paul with her curio exhibit last week, returning home Friday evening.
A problem: How long will it take two men and a boy six hours to catch ten pounds of cat fish, if the biggest fish get away, and the rest are all suckers?
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Armstrong and Nellie Ollis went down to Grand Island Wednesday, arriving at 12:30 and returning at 3 o'clock. They saw most of the town.
The fellow who reported that I am married did not know what he was talking about. The fact that I went away last week don't signify anything. He just wanted to spoil my credit here at home.
It escaped our notice that Martha Lee had jumped over the broomstick last week, so we made a special trip Thursday to find out the particulars. They tell us that the groom is one of Grand Island's substantial businessmen. We extend our hearty congratulations.
When anybody has anything on his feet a certain man usually has it on his mind. It is said that he once hired out to herd chickens and scared all the chickens off the farm on account of the size of his "shoes." The farmer fired him next morning, but it happened that he had put one shoe on backward and when he started to leave he went around like a wagon wheel. If you want to hear the rest ask Marion Crosby about it.
A new rule of the railroads is that less than one hundred pounds must be paid the same as one hundred pounds. This was brought about by the retail dealers who thus thought to strike a blow at the catalog business. A man with the brains of a brass monkey would understand that the only benefit to be derived from this will be for the railroads. Such a rule will only serve to increase the volume of the mail order business. Those who have formerly ordered goods in small quantities will hereafter buy in 100 pound lots. It also works against the retail man. It often happens that in the busy season some repairs are ordered which weigh from 25 to 50 pounds and the charges will be for 100 pounds. If the customer has to pay the extra charge he will transfer his patronage elsewhere.
Henry Geweke expects to put up a new windmill tower soon.

Ash Grove Valley.
Mrs. Marilla Flynn was at Davis Creek part of this week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alvord and daughter spent part of last week at North Loup.
C. S. Burdick and J. E. Bresley have completed an addition to their dwelling houses.
At last the long drouth of so many months seems to be broken. As I now write the rain is pouring down in great quantities and has every indication of continuing for the next twenty four hours. Small grain in this vicinity never came through the winter in better shape than it has this season. Consequently the prospects for a good crop has now become very bright. Oats also are looking fine and promising. Probably the largest acreage of potatoes ever planted in this section has been put in this spring.
The community was shocked on Sunday morning by the news of the death of Mrs. Charles H. Batie. Mr. and Mrs. Batie had both been ailing for some time and under the care of a doctor but neither of them considered themselves very bad, in fact Mrs. Batie was up and assisted in doing the house-work on Saturday evening and retired as usual. The youngest child was sleeping with her on account of having taken cold and requiring some attention during the night. About daylight she awakened and called for a light, hers having gone out in the night. Her daughter brought her another lamp and then went back to bed. When the little boy awakened he tried to wake his mother and discovered she was dead. Mr. Batie is still unable to do any work but is improving slowly.

Man's Best Age.
At what age is a man at his best and most likely to achieve his life work? The Rev. F. B. Meyer once put the age at forty-six. That seemed late to a critic, but Dr. Leonard Guthrie at the Royal College of Physicians supported the statement. He quoted Jastro's table dealing with specially precocious people, which showed that the average age at which great artists did their first work was 13.8; their first great work, 28; their greatest work, 46.7; and that the average age at death was 60.1. For poets the figures in the same order were 15.6, 27.8, 43.9 and 61.6; for philosophers, 17.6, 32.1, 47.7 and 66.3. Here is comfort for those who think of middle life as flat prose.—Sunday School Chronicle.

Where Soldiers Must Swim.
In the Dutch army a man must be able to swim as well as to fight. Moreover, if he is in the cavalry he must have a horse which will take a river as easily as a hunter takes a fence. Swimming maneuvers are part of the regular drill there. Collapsible canvas boats manned by a few oarsmen lead the horses so that they do not attempt to land on stone quays and other difficult points. The men swim across with their horses and on them. They do it in swimming costume and in all the accouterments of war. There are some very energetic swimmers in the Dutch army.—London Standard.

Audible Conscience.
Bonter—Excuse my yawning. I didn't get a wink of sleep last night.
Jupp—Toothache?
Bonter—No. A woman asked me for some money yesterday, and I refused her. Well, the tones of her voice rang in my head all night. I couldn't close an eye.
Jupp—Conscience stricken, eh?
Was it a deserving case, do you think?
Bonter—It was my wife.

How Glaciers Move.
It has been proved that a glacier moves very much like a river, the middle and upper parts faster than the sides and the bottom, the sides and bottom being retarded by friction. The movement of a glacier is quite similar to that of a mass of thick mortar or a quantity of pitch flowing down an inclined trough. Like the piece of shoemaker's wax, which, like ice, is extremely brittle, the glacier, subjected to experiment, reveals considerable plasticity and is much more like a viscous liquid than it was once supposed to be.
There is an Order Higher Still.
You are set in an age when the material civilization of the world has been piled up to a gigantic height, to testify that there is an order higher still; that as the soul is more than the body and eternity than time, so the moral order is above the material; that justice is above power; that justice may suffer long, but must reign at last; that the power is not right; that no wrongs can be sanctified by success, nor can the immutable laws of right and wrong be confounded.—Cardinal Manning.

Something For Her Neck.
A ludicrous story is told of a young Japanese engineering apprentice in connection with the Christmas custom of kissing. He was serving his time in the north of England and was astonished when a waitress at the dining rooms which he regularly frequented kissed him under the mistletoe. On its being explained to him that a present was expected in return, he suggested a pair of gloves. The damsel, however, had heard that he was immensely wealthy and gently hinted that something for her neck would be more acceptable. When the present arrived next day she conjured up visions of a pearl necklace as the tremblingly undid the parcel. Then was disclosed to her disappointed gaze a Jap's idea of "something for her neck." It took the shape of a bar of soap!—London Standard.

Burlington Time Card
East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.
East bound freight leaves: Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.
Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 9:30 a. m.
Friday and Saturday 6:00 a. m.
West bound passenger arrives 8:25 p. m.

Undertaker's Supply Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING
EARTH FURNISHED
We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right.
Calls Answered Day or Night
C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson
Phone 43. Phone 242.

Undertaker's Supply Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING
EARTH FURNISHED
We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right.
Calls Answered Day or Night
C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson
Phone 43. Phone 242.

ENTERPRISE DEPARTMENT

By JOHN L. WARD

And then it rained.
Mary Armstrong took in Arcadia, Loup City and St. Paul with her curio exhibit last week, returning home Friday evening.
A problem: How long will it take two men and a boy six hours to catch ten pounds of cat fish, if the biggest fish get away, and the rest are all suckers?
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Armstrong and Nellie Ollis went down to Grand Island Wednesday, arriving at 12:30 and returning at 3 o'clock. They saw most of the town.
The fellow who reported that I am married did not know what he was talking about. The fact that I went away last week don't signify anything. He just wanted to spoil my credit here at home.
It escaped our notice that Martha Lee had jumped over the broomstick last week, so we made a special trip Thursday to find out the particulars. They tell us that the groom is one of Grand Island's substantial businessmen. We extend our hearty congratulations.
When anybody has anything on his feet a certain man usually has it on his mind. It is said that he once hired out to herd chickens and scared all the chickens off the farm on account of the size of his "shoes." The farmer fired him next morning, but it happened that he had put one shoe on backward and when he started to leave he went around like a wagon wheel. If you want to hear the rest ask Marion Crosby about it.
A new rule of the railroads is that less than one hundred pounds must be paid the same as one hundred pounds. This was brought about by the retail dealers who thus thought to strike a blow at the catalog business. A man with the brains of a brass monkey would understand that the only benefit to be derived from this will be for the railroads. Such a rule will only serve to increase the volume of the mail order business. Those who have formerly ordered goods in small quantities will hereafter buy in 100 pound lots. It also works against the retail man. It often happens that in the busy season some repairs are ordered which weigh from 25 to 50 pounds and the charges will be for 100 pounds. If the customer has to pay the extra charge he will transfer his patronage elsewhere.
Henry Geweke expects to put up a new windmill tower soon.

Ash Grove Valley.
Mrs. Marilla Flynn was at Davis Creek part of this week.
Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Alvord and daughter spent part of last week at North Loup.
C. S. Burdick and J. E. Bresley have completed an addition to their dwelling houses.
At last the long drouth of so many months seems to be broken. As I now write the rain is pouring down in great quantities and has every indication of continuing for the next twenty four hours. Small grain in this vicinity never came through the winter in better shape than it has this season. Consequently the prospects for a good crop has now become very bright. Oats also are looking fine and promising. Probably the largest acreage of potatoes ever planted in this section has been put in this spring.
The community was shocked on Sunday morning by the news of the death of Mrs. Charles H. Batie. Mr. and Mrs. Batie had both been ailing for some time and under the care of a doctor but neither of them considered themselves very bad, in fact Mrs. Batie was up and assisted in doing the house-work on Saturday evening and retired as usual. The youngest child was sleeping with her on account of having taken cold and requiring some attention during the night. About daylight she awakened and called for a light, hers having gone out in the night. Her daughter brought her another lamp and then went back to bed. When the little boy awakened he tried to wake his mother and discovered she was dead. Mr. Batie is still unable to do any work but is improving slowly.

Man's Best Age.
At what age is a man at his best and most likely to achieve his life work? The Rev. F. B. Meyer once put the age at forty-six. That seemed late to a critic, but Dr. Leonard Guthrie at the Royal College of Physicians supported the statement. He quoted Jastro's table dealing with specially precocious people, which showed that the average age at which great artists did their first work was 13.8; their first great work, 28; their greatest work, 46.7; and that the average age at death was 60.1. For poets the figures in the same order were 15.6, 27.8, 43.9 and 61.6; for philosophers, 17.6, 32.1, 47.7 and 66.3. Here is comfort for those who think of middle life as flat prose.—Sunday School Chronicle.

Where Soldiers Must Swim.
In the Dutch army a man must be able to swim as well as to fight. Moreover, if he is in the cavalry he must have a horse which will take a river as easily as a hunter takes a fence. Swimming maneuvers are part of the regular drill there. Collapsible canvas boats manned by a few oarsmen lead the horses so that they do not attempt to land on stone quays and other difficult points. The men swim across with their horses and on them. They do it in swimming costume and in all the accouterments of war. There are some very energetic swimmers in the Dutch army.—London Standard.

Audible Conscience.
Bonter—Excuse my yawning. I didn't get a wink of sleep last night.
Jupp—Toothache?
Bonter—No. A woman asked me for some money yesterday, and I refused her. Well, the tones of her voice rang in my head all night. I couldn't close an eye.
Jupp—Conscience stricken, eh?
Was it a deserving case, do you think?
Bonter—It was my wife.

How Glaciers Move.
It has been proved that a glacier moves very much like a river, the middle and upper parts faster than the sides and the bottom, the sides and bottom being retarded by friction. The movement of a glacier is quite similar to that of a mass of thick mortar or a quantity of pitch flowing down an inclined trough. Like the piece of shoemaker's wax, which, like ice, is extremely brittle, the glacier, subjected to experiment, reveals considerable plasticity and is much more like a viscous liquid than it was once supposed to be.
There is an Order Higher Still.
You are set in an age when the material civilization of the world has been piled up to a gigantic height, to testify that there is an order higher still; that as the soul is more than the body and eternity than time, so the moral order is above the material; that justice is above power; that justice may suffer long, but must reign at last; that the power is not right; that no wrongs can be sanctified by success, nor can the immutable laws of right and wrong be confounded.—Cardinal Manning.

Something For Her Neck.
A ludicrous story is told of a young Japanese engineering apprentice in connection with the Christmas custom of kissing. He was serving his time in the north of England and was astonished when a waitress at the dining rooms which he regularly frequented kissed him under the mistletoe. On its being explained to him that a present was expected in return, he suggested a pair of gloves. The damsel, however, had heard that he was immensely wealthy and gently hinted that something for her neck would be more acceptable. When the present arrived next day she conjured up visions of a pearl necklace as the tremblingly undid the parcel. Then was disclosed to her disappointed gaze a Jap's idea of "something for her neck." It took the shape of a bar of soap!—London Standard.

Burlington Time Card
East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.
East bound freight leaves: Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.
Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 9:30 a. m.
Friday and Saturday 6:00 a. m.
West bound passenger arrives 8:25 p. m.

Undertaker's Supply Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING
EARTH FURNISHED
We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right.
Calls Answered Day or Night
C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson
Phone 43. Phone 242.

Undertaker's Supply Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING
EARTH FURNISHED
We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right.
Calls Answered Day or Night
C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson
Phone 43. Phone 242.

The "Insurance" Stoves

The "Insurance" is the only Stove in which provision is made to prevent the escape of gasoline should the burner be accidentally blown out or left open.

It is Safe, Simple, Durable and Economical

LET US SHOW YOU

The "Herrick" Dry Air Refrigerator System

Best construction, perfect circulation, no mould, no taint, highly sanitary, the best money can buy, Spruce White Enamel and Opal glass lined.

Cornell's HARDWARE IMPLEMENT HOUSE

UP IN A BALLOON.

The Exhilaration That Comes With a Trip Through the Air.

Floating softly up into the blue ocean of air, watching the earth sink slowly away beneath us and fade and change quietly to an immense map spread before our wondering eyes—such are the first impressions of balloon voyagers. The noisy shouts of those who come to wish us "Bon voyage!" become fainter and fainter until absolute quiet reigns about us. It is so still that the ticking of the clock in the barograph is heard noisily counting the seconds as it traces the line of our upward flight across the sheet.

Meanwhile the earth map down below us stretches out larger and larger, but its details are fading and becoming blurred. High hills have changed to flat surfaces. A river winds and bends its way through the duller colors like a tangled ribbon of silver. A small lake sparkles in the sunshine, giving life and fire to the sober shades about it. A railway train creeps slowly along, its trail of smoke streaming back over it. But as we look it suddenly disappears from sight, apparently swallowed up before our eyes. Then we realize that it has plunged into the tunnel through a hill which to us seems only a flat surface. Now it appears again, coming out on the other side.

So the wonderful scenes come and go, ever changing, but ever grand and inspiring—scenes that come back to us real and vivid, that we may live them over again in later days. The cloud effects are at times the most beautiful of all. After having sailed up through these into the dazzling sunlight we see the snowy billows just below our ear, the shadow of our balloon falling upon their white surface. This shadow is often surrounded by a halo of rainbow colors of rare beauty. At such times one has the feeling of having left the earth completely and to have reached some other planet. The white masses just below seem to be quite solid and look as though one might step out of the balloon and take a stroll over them if one only had snowshoes. The air is wonderfully clear and pure and gives one a feeling of exhilaration much greater than that enjoyed in mountain climbing.—Henry B. Hersey in Century.

Where Soldiers Must Swim.
In the Dutch army a man must be able to swim as well as to fight. Moreover, if he is in the cavalry he must have a horse which will take a river as easily as a hunter takes a fence. Swimming maneuvers are part of the regular drill there. Collapsible canvas boats manned by a few oarsmen lead the horses so that they do not attempt to land on stone quays and other difficult points. The men swim across with their horses and on them. They do it in swimming costume and in all the accouterments of war. There are some very energetic swimmers in the Dutch army.—London Standard.

Audible Conscience.
Bonter—Excuse my yawning. I didn't get a wink of sleep last night.
Jupp—Toothache?
Bonter—No. A woman asked me for some money yesterday, and I refused her. Well, the tones of her voice rang in my head all night. I couldn't close an eye.
Jupp—Conscience stricken, eh?
Was it a deserving case, do you think?
Bonter—It was my wife.

How Glaciers Move.
It has been proved that a glacier moves very much like a river, the middle and upper parts faster than the sides and the bottom, the sides and bottom being retarded by friction. The movement of a glacier is quite similar to that of a mass of thick mortar or a quantity of pitch flowing down an inclined trough. Like the piece of shoemaker's wax, which, like ice, is extremely brittle, the glacier, subjected to experiment, reveals considerable plasticity and is much more like a viscous liquid than it was once supposed to be.
There is an Order Higher Still.
You are set in an age when the material civilization of the world has been piled up to a gigantic height, to testify that there is an order higher still; that as the soul is more than the body and eternity than time, so the moral order is above the material; that justice is above power; that justice may suffer long, but must reign at last; that the power is not right; that no wrongs can be sanctified by success, nor can the immutable laws of right and wrong be confounded.—Cardinal Manning.

Something For Her Neck.
A ludicrous story is told of a young Japanese engineering apprentice in connection with the Christmas custom of kissing. He was serving his time in the north of England and was astonished when a waitress at the dining rooms which he regularly frequented kissed him under the mistletoe. On its being explained to him that a present was expected in return, he suggested a pair of gloves. The damsel, however, had heard that he was immensely wealthy and gently hinted that something for her neck would be more acceptable. When the present arrived next day she conjured up visions of a pearl necklace as the tremblingly undid the parcel. Then was disclosed to her disappointed gaze a Jap's idea of "something for her neck." It took the shape of a bar of soap!—London Standard.

Burlington Time Card
East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.
East bound freight leaves: Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.
Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 9:30 a. m.
Friday and Saturday 6:00 a. m.
West bound passenger arrives 8:25 p. m.

Undertaker's Supply Co.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING
EARTH FURNISHED
We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right.
Calls Answered Day or Night
C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson
Phone 43. Phone 242.

THE ORD QUIZ

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. C. PARSONS, City Editor.

ORD, VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Dr. Taylor was at Scotia Monday and Tuesday.

Tonight at the opera house, "The Woman of Mystery."

George Gard made his regular monthly visit to Arcadia Monday.

Tonight, "The Woman of Mystery" at the opera house. Don't miss it.

Try our Conrads peaberry coffee, 22 cents per pound. It makes a good cup.

Sarah McLain entertained a dozen of her lady friends at a six o'clock dinner Thursday evening.

We learn that Fred Strathee is to have charge of a pool hall to be established at an early date in the old Rainier furniture store.

The Baptist church folks have just completed a much needed piece of new cement walk along the east side of the church property.

The next meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Bohannon on Thursday, May 14, at 2:30 o'clock.

The Quiz has the latest fads in wedding stationery and if you are about to need anything in this line let us show you our samples.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clements and children arrived home last Thursday evening. Mrs. Clements and children have been visiting friends in Lincoln while Arthur was looking after affairs at other parts of the state.

Hurschel Fay sold his household goods and live stock at public sale last Saturday afternoon and Tuesday with his family he departed for Holly, Colorado, where he has invested in some of the irrigated land of that state.

Dr. Shepard had a telephone call from Dr. Hemphill at North Loup Sunday requesting him to send down a couple of smallpox quarantine cards. Here is hoping that North Loup will come out of their smallpox cases as fortunate as Ord.

The fixtures were moved out of the white front saloon Friday morning to make room for the barber shop that immediately took up a residence there. The old barber shop building on the west side will now be moved out in order to accommodate the Dworak store building.

Following the several nights of freezing and after a rest of a night or two there was a heavy frost this morning. But no one is scared about it. If the fruit could stand the freezing it ought to stand the frost. It looks as though there would still be considerable fruit, which seems a miracle, after all this freezing.

Mr. Floyd W. Robbins, who has been specializing in music at the Nebraska Wesleyan Conservatory of Lincoln, for the last three years, will be in Ord during the first week in June to organize a class in music for the summer. Mr. Robbins has been taking special training in methods of teaching music. Price, 50 cents per lesson.

Work on the new opera house building is now thoroughly under way. The work of excavating for the cellar of the building has been pushed for the past week and the brick are on the ground ready to begin the work on the superstructure as soon as the foundation can be put in place. The building is to be completed within ninety days.

Mrs. D. B. Huff and mother were passengers to Ord Monday where they expect to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. Huff will be missed here by their many friends and while we are sorry to have them leave our midst we wish them success in their new home. Mr. Huff will take charge of the telephone exchange at Ord. We understand a gentleman by the name of Holloway will have charge of this exchange.—Greeley Leader.

Tonight at the opera house, "The Woman of Mystery."

Dr. Peter MacQueen of Boston, the noted explorer, writes from darkest Africa that he is having much trouble with the Berbers, who recently massacred a large party of white men. The savages got a hold of the machinery for Dr. MacQueen's principal camera, and smashed it up so that the Doctor was compelled to send to England for new equipment. But in spite of all difficulties he is getting some wonderful pictures which he hopes to bring back to America with him in time to exhibit during the summer.

A prairie fire swept the country north of the Loup river from north of Brewster, in Blaine county, to within a few miles of Burwell last Saturday, doing an immense amount of damage to property. A gale was blowing all day and it was almost impossible to make any headway in fighting the flames. It has been impossible for this paper to learn the names of the losers of property, but report has it that as many as 25 stables were burned and several head of stock lost. One man, a "new-comer", lost his house, barn, stock and household goods. The family resided on a claim north of Taylor and has been in the country but about six weeks. Saturday afternoon about fifty men from Burwell went out to the scene of the fire west of town to lend assistance in fighting it. The fire was extinguished at a point about three miles west of town. —Burwell Tribune.

"The Woman of Mystery" at the opera house tonight.

Financially the people of Burwell are in pretty bad shape as according to the Burwell Tribune the returns of the county assessor show that only twenty three of the people of that town had any money in their pockets when the assessor made his rounds and the amount of their money added up to about $7,000. According to their bank reports Garfield county folks have better than $106,000 on deposit in their banks and this leaves a little better than $99,000 to be accounted for by the farmers of the county. Farming in Garfield county must be a money making proposition, indeed, if these figures are correct.

From the Sargent Leader we learn of the marriage of Miss Ella Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Brown of that city, to Richard Ward of Clinton, Iowa, the ceremony being performed at Taylor, Nebraska, on Tuesday, April 28. Mr. Brown was for a number of years proprietor of Hotel Ord at this place and Ord folks will remember Miss Ella in the pinafore age. The groom is a prominent contractor and builder and the newly married couple will make their home in Sargent.

Include cabbage, onions or fruit with your Saturday order. Ord Mercantile Company.

The Quiz acknowledges receipt of an invitation to attend the twenty-seventh annual commencement of the Kansas City Dental college, on Friday, May 8th, and along with the invitation we find enclosed the card of George M. White, all of which leads us to believe that George will be a full fledged dentist after that date. Whether he will return to Valley county to practice his profession we are not prepared to say.

The Fred Edd's comedians occupied the Wentworth opera house for a three night's stand last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is one of the best shows that has visited this part of the country for several weeks but the attendance at any of their shows was not very encouraging. From Ord they go to Burwell to remain the same length of time.

S. J. W. Brown returned Monday noon from his trip to Oregon, where he invested some of his surplus and as he has relatives there and likes the country well it is not at all improbable that he may move to that clime in a couple of years.

The costumes used in the "Woman of Mystery" at the opera house tonight are the most expensive ever worn before an Ord audience.

Sixty head of yearling steers will be sold at the Clason sale next Saturday. Also some work horses and other stock.

The Supreme Moment

of a boy or girl's life is Graduating Time

All of us naturally wish to bestow on them some remembrance of the occasion.

We will be pleased to supply your wants in this line and can furnish you with things beautiful and appropriate from 25c to $50.

Make our store a visit. You will enjoy yourself—so will we.

Parkins

Found Dead in Bed.

A terrible shock came to the peaceful home of the C. H. Batie family Sunday morning. The wife and mother of the household had not been in good health for some time. Her health was further disturbed by an attack of grip some weeks ago and dropsy was a result. Saturday the symptoms of this trouble disappeared and she seemed to be improving. Saturday night she slept with her youngest child and was up at about daylight to give him medicine, so the boy says. Later he spoke to her and getting no response touched her and seeing that something was wrong, summoned the family who found the woman dead. She had simply passed away in her sleep, just as she had often said that she hoped to die when the time came.

The shock that came to the family by reason of this unexpected tragedy can hardly be imagined. Mr. Batie was himself so sick as to hardly be able to be out of the house.

The deceased was a woman of whom all speak in the highest terms.

Isole C. Staple was born in Dodge county, Wisconsin, on December 30, 1859, and with her parents moved to Grundy county, Iowa, in 1867, and to Wheeler county, Nebraska, in 1879.

She was married to Charles H. Batie at Neligh, Nebraska, on March 1, 1886. Their home was in Wheeler county, Nebraska, until 1892, when they bought and moved to a farm near Elgin, Antelope county, living there until the spring of 1903, when Mr. Batie purchased the J. C. Hayes farm about two and one half miles northeast of Ord, where they have since made their home.

Mrs. Batie became a member of the Methodist church at Elgin in 1897, and in the spring of 1904 transferred her membership to the Christian church at Ord.

She leaves mourning her loss her husband, one daughter and four sons, two brothers and one sister. Her sister, Mrs. Bertha Hads, of Mehama, Oregon, could not be here for the funeral; her brother, W. L. Staple and his wife, and Mrs. Addie Payne, a sister of Mr. Batie, with her son all from Neligh, Nebraska, were in attendance at the funeral which was held today from the Christian church, Rev. J. M. Uston, pastor of the church, officiating.

Tonight, "The Woman of Mystery" at the opera house. Don't miss it.

Try a Kenwood Club cigar and examine our fine cigar case. Ord Mercantile Company.

Scarlet fever is having sway of things at the George Jensen home. The boy is sick with it, though not at all bad off.

Elegant costumes, fine scenery, the best staged production that has visited Ord for months is the "Woman of Mystery" at the opera house tonight.

John Work, Jr., the automobile expert was called to Comstock last Friday morning to doctor up the J. D. Tedro machine that had become indued with the idea of living in Comstock permanently. It did not take John long to put the right touches to the animal and it came on home in grand style.

The new gravity clock that George Parkins has installed in his show window is attracting considerable attention and the curiosity of the public has been aroused. The clock is a very delicately balanced affair which speaks out well for the Parkins way of doing things.

A pair of shears such as the Quiz is giving with each subscription is worth at least half the subscription price of this paper for a year. This brings the price of the paper down to seventy five cents for a year's subscription. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity. Better subscribe today.

The Chautauqua is a great institution. It is distinctly an American enterprise and stands for better things in recreation, entertainment and education. It furnishes the greatest possible amount of all those at the least possible expense. More than that, it tends to increase the respect of the country for the city, and to make all classes of people better satisfied with home life and its pleasures.

Agnes Beran went to Clarkson Monday morning in response to the announcement that her sister's little two-year-old child had fallen down stairs and was not expected to live. The unfortunate child's father, Dr. Allen, is in the west with John Beran and the mother was unable to get in communication with him at the time of the accident. The Quiz trusts that the accident may not be as severe as at first announced.

Notice our hardware window this week. Remember us when you need a hammock. Ord Mercantile Company.

A Corset For

Grace Comfort Economy

The Very Best

$1.00 Corsets

We've Ever Known

THE J. C. C. "FRONT LACE"

Every woman who has wanted a front lace corset, and has been held back by the high prices put on them, will find her ideal in the

THE J. C. C. "FRONT LACE"

Price $2.00

This is a supple but strong corset, having every worthy point in it found in highest grade corsets. It flattens the abdomen without unhealthy pressure, and gives the flat back and long tapering hip.

There are hundreds of women in this town who will find the J. C. C. "Front Lace" solves this problem of combining a trim figure with perfect comfort and freedom.

We want every woman to see this model—beset with her proper size, and judge for herself of its merits. We are proud to give you so much value for your money, glad that we can offer this up-to-the-minute corset model at a price that puts it within the reach of every woman.

We Guarantee Corset Satisfaction to Every Women in our J. C. C. Line

To the many women who want a Corset for $1.00, we want to say that we consider their trade important enough to call out our best efforts in securing them fullest value for their money.

The J. C. C. "Peerless" and "College Girl" are the very best $1.00 corsets to be found anywhere. Either one or the other of these corsets will suit the average figure to perfection.

THE "PEERLESS" is a medium high bust, curved hips and straight front line.

THE "COLLEGE GIRL" moulds the hips beautifully but is low busted, affording perfect freedom above the waist.

We put these corsets way out of the class of the ordinary dollar corset. They are splendidly shaped, well boned, built to hold their good lines through long service. The dollar paid for either of these corsets gives you many times return in style, comfort and satisfaction.

The Baileys' Dep't Store

Ord's Best Trading Place. Strictly One Price.

An Ord democrat predicts that the Denver convention will put an anti-liquor clause in its platform. Since its foundation the Democratic party has been known as the whiskey party but with the southern states—the home of democracy—voting down the liquor traffic there may be some cause for belief that the southern temperance movement may show itself in the Democratic National convention. We believe this question has reached that stage where it must be met the same as the tariff, money, trusts and other great problems that have confronted the American people and if not this year we predict that it will not be many, before one of the great parties inculcate a plank in its platform that will bring about reform in the whiskey selling business.

Warm weather is bound to come soon and you will then go home for dinner and find your wife about half parboiled over a hot range cooking the family dinner. She will, to use a common expression, "be crazy with the heat" and may not receive you very agreeably. We don't know as we blame her for her ill nature for a day over a hot cook stove is not one very pleasantly spent and then she has not been begging you to put in a gas stove all summer? It costs no more to do your cooking with gas, it keeps your wife good natured, for with a gas stove in the house she has plenty of time to keep your socks darned and the meals are always served up on time. Better see about it today and avoid any family complications.

Five saloon permits were issued by the city council last Friday morning. Those permitted were White & Harris, Wencel F. Adamek, S. G. Du mond, Joseph Adamek, and A. J. Hall. Immediately after issuing the permit all of the applicants but Wencel F. Adamek deposited the necessary one thousand dollars with the city treasurer and the city clerk issued a license in due form and before nine o'clock all were doing business. What were W. F. Adamek's reasons for applying for license and then not taking one out after he had been granted the privilege for so doing we have not learned.

Editor Burgett of the Arcadia Champion has again resumed active work upon that paper. For the past two months Mr. Burgett has been in a hospital undergoing treatment for the arm that he broke in a ball game a couple of years ago. Several times the surgeons had made an unsuccessful attempt at setting the arm but the bones would not knit properly and he had about given up hope of ever gaining the use of that member again, but the last attempt was more successful and he now is in hopes that his arm will be all right again after a few months.

Mrs. Buda Blanchard and children of Cotesfield and her brother, Glen Paist were up to Ord yesterday, the guests of Lafa Paist and wife.

"The Woman of Mystery" at the opera house tonight.

Mrs. N. H. Parks reports fifteen inches of snow in Denver Sunday.

Tonight, "The Woman of Mystery" at the opera house. Don't miss it.

A marriage license was issued on the 4th for Josef Wadaz and Miss Veronica Dubaz.

Mrs. Knut Christensen and Miss Christina Anderson Kusk went to Kimballton, Iowa, this morning on a visit.

The Ord Mercantile Company wagon was unable to take its regular trip the first of this week on account of the rain.

Mrs. Isley of North Loup was in the city yesterday to see the show and was the guest of her sister, Miss Anna Kuptke.

The Misses Enevoldsen and Johnson of St. Paul were up to Ord for the show and were the guests of their friend, Mrs. Goodwin.

W. S. Mattley was in the city one day this week. Will is an avowed candidate for senator and will make a hot canvas for the nomination. He has many friends in Valley county as well as in his home county of Custer.

Dr. Haldeman and family returned home from their long visit to the coast last night. They carried out their program to a letter, remaining in southern California till after the arrival of the big fleet.

The town was full of people to see the big show yesterday, and the Campbell Brothers were given a big crowd in the afternoon, and a very good show put on. The show is considerably improved and enlarged in all departments.

From a Lincoln daily we gather the statistics that there are now 240 dry towns in the state of Nebraska, and of this number about 40 were added at the recent election. Eight towns in the state that had been living under the dry flag went back to the wet column and four towns in the state tied on the proposition. This is a record of which the dry folks can do some boasting.

Little chick food by the sack or by the pound. Ord Mercantile Company.

The long looked for and much needed rain came Sunday night, starting off with a regulation thunder shower. During the night a half inch of rain fell and all day Monday, Monday night and Tuesday it continued with refreshing showers at times and at this time the ground is pretty well soaked. Things throughout the country were getting pretty dry and it came along just in time to freshen things up. A few warm days now will bring early garden truck onto the table in short order. A little better than an inch of water fell.

Charlie Rettenmeyer and G. H. Kinsey were in the city yesterday. This morning they went to North Loup for a brief look-in. Mr. Kinsey has finally allowed himself to take hold of the senatorial proposition in response to a very general demand for him to do so, and it is safe to say the will do a little hustling along this line, for George is not the kind to go to sleep when there is anything to do.

Following is a brief summary of the high school exercises for the close of this year. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. J. M. Huston Sunday night, May 24. Class nights will be the 26th and 27th and commencement night will be the 28th, when Harry Adams, a good public lecturer will speak.

The absence of Fanny Sutton so long from the Johnson store has raised the question as to what she is doing. She left Ord a few weeks ago on a visit to Loup City and she is now with her sister Jennie visiting in Illinois, where they will probably spend a couple of months with relatives.

Mrs. N. H. Parks returned home from Denver last night. Two months ago she went to the mountain metropolis for a week's stay and to look after some business matters, but did not get back nearly as soon as she expected much to the disappointment of her son, Norm.

There will be a mission meeting at the Danish Lutheran church in Ord at 10:30 o'clock on Wednesday, May 20. Also in the afternoon. Bring your lunches. Rev. A. Larsen, pastor.

S. N. Soelberg, a business man of Elba, was up to Ord on show day not only to see the show, but to visit his friend, Mr. M. Mickelson, whose guest he was during his stay in the city.

Evert Petty lost a valuable horse last week as a sequel to distemper. This necessitated his investing some more money in horse flesh to keep things moving on the farm.

C. D. Thompson, for a while editor of the Champion, is over from Arcadia on a brief stay. Of course he took in the show.

The scarlet fever at the home of A. S. Purcell is nearing the close of the quarantine stage. The sick child is now pretty well along with the trouble.

On account of having to help the show train down to the Island the passenger was late in getting off this morning.

Now is the time to plant garden. Get your seeds of us. Ord Mercantile Company.

Mesdames S. S. Brown and W. C. Hull went to Grand Island this morning.

Mrs. J. E. Boquet went to Grand Island this morning.

Editor Rood came up to Ord to see the elephant yesterday.

Reward.

During the last 7 years, 35 head of my cattle have disappeared from my pasture. Since April 25th 1908, three head more have disappeared, consisting of one red cow with white face 4 years old with horns, with brockled face calf 2 months old by side branded T. S. on left hip, and one yearling deep red steer. I will pay $100.00 to any one who will inform me and prove where my cattle have gone to or I will pay $5.00 to any one who will tell me where this last bunch.

Tom Stone

Plants! Plants! Plants!
Sweet potato, tomato and early and late cabbage plants for sale by M. D. L. Taylor at residence, also on sale at Fackler & Sutton's grocery store.

Ball's Black Stallion Will Stand in Ord.

As there are several wanted me to stand my black stallion, RAMC, at Ord, I have made arrangements with A. J. Parkins for a stall in his breeding barn where my stallion will be found on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week. The rest of the time he will be at his usual stands in Springdale and on Elm Creek. E. L. Ball. 6-1f.

Farm Loans.
We have plenty of money to loan on farms in this and adjoining counties, at low rates. See us if you need money.

Ord State Bank.

Don't Read This unless you want to. We do light repairing, machine work, etc. Our specialty: automobiles, gas and steam engines and all power machinery repaired.
What can we do for you? Yes, you.
Work & Mutton.

Sale Ring.
I have fitted up a sale ring and will sell at auction horses, cattle or anything a farmer wants to buy or sell every Saturday afternoon at my feed yard.
Dr. Clason. tf.

Notice.
You will find my horse and jack books with Lou Schwaneer. Please settle with him.
W. L. D. Auble.

New Line to Yellowston Park.
Tourists may now go right to the edge of the Park via this new and scenic line.

Only a try to Yellowstone can the tourist comprehend its endless variety and stupendous grandeur.

Very low round-trip rates to this resort in effect this summer via the Union Pacific and its connections.

For information regarding the new line to Yellowstone, inquire of F. R. Frick.

Ord Market Top—Prices.
Potatoes, 50c.
Butter, 13c.
Eggs, 11c.
Hens, 8c.
Hogs, $1.65
Oats, 41c.
Corn, 54c.
Wheat, 84c.

COSTLY LIVING in MOUNTAIN RESORTS

RICHES NOT ESSENTIAL TO A VACATION IN THE COLORADO ROCKIES

Many people have the mistaken idea that a vacation in the mountains entails an expense greater than the average family can afford, or care to spend. This idea can exist only in the minds of persons who speak from hearsay, and not from experience.

C. H. Speers, of Denver, general passenger agent of the Colorado Midland railway, which crosses Colorado through the central and mountainous section, and along the line of which are resorts of varied kinds, from the modest camp to the social centers, speaks out against the prevalence of this erroneous impression—and he speaks first hand.

"I entertained the same idea before I came to Colorado and availed myself of the opportunity of a personal investigation," said Mr. Speers, "and I am now strongly arrayed on the side of the defense of keepers of resorts.

sport and recreation can secure at very reasonable rates tents and cabins furnished or unfurnished. Then there are modern homes dotted about the valley—for the people of Western Colorado live well—and they are hospitable to the stranger. In my six years as general passenger agent of this road I have yet the first time heard of any complaints of extortion. At Woods' Lake resort, which is on a horseback trail seven miles from Thomasville, on the main line, there is a hotel and also a number of cabins furnished for light housekeeping on the water's edge. These lakes are a branch of the government fish hatcheries. At Glenwood Springs, visitors may take their choice between living in style, or modestly, as they may elect. Practically no social lines are drawn here, and the person living in a $12 per week hotel enjoys the same general privileges as do

Woods' Lake Resort.

—Colorado Midland Ry.

I will cite a few instances which come within my personal knowledge, and I defy refutation. Take it at Manitou, in the very shadow of Pike's Peak, and compare hotel, rooming house and restaurant prices with those of any other popular resorts and see what you have. A person can live comfortably there for $2 per day. Then go further up the line to Cascade Canyon, Green Mountain Falls, Woodland Park, Manitou Park, Skelton's Ranch and numerous other localities where splendid accommodations are obtainable and you will find that by living the same as you do at home, you live for about the same price. As the fishing resorts the same reasonable rates apply. The vicinity of Hartsel, in South, and on the Eastern Slope, is the center of stream fishing points, and here both hotel and ranch charges are approximately $2 per day for the best of accommodations. Farther out in the state, particularly along the Fryer Pan river valley on the Western Slope, the seeker after those who have the money and inclination to live in higher priced places. In late years hundreds of cabins have been built along the Fryer Pan river by people living farther east, where the summers are not as pleasant as they are in mountains. In many instances families who have spent a few weeks in the Rockies fishing or hunting, and who have lived in ranch houses or tents, have cut logs and erected a cabin of their own, installing bunks and cooking facilities. The cook stove, rough-and-ready utensils and dishes, are left in the cabin, and they are never molested—though perhaps often used—by others during the months the place is occupied. There is an "unwritten law" among people of the west, which provides for the free use of deserted cabins, the only condition being "leave things as you find them." When the owner returns the next summer, nothing is missing. It is not of record that this rule has ever been violated.

She Has Cured Thousands Given up to die.

DR. CALDWELL of Chicago,

Practicing Allopathy, Homeopathy, Electric and General Medicine.

Will, by Request, Visit Ord Professionally on Friday, May 1,

Hours: 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. when she may be found at the Ord Hotel, returning every four weeks.

Consult Her While the Opportunity is at Hand.

Dr. Caldwell limits her practice to the special treatment of the Ear, Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Female Diseases, Diseases of Children and all chronic, nervous and surgical diseases of a curable nature, Early Consumption, Constipation, Bronchitis, Chronic Catarrh, Head-Ache, Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Bright's Disease, Kidney Diseases, Diseases of the Liver and Bladder, Dizziness, Nervousness, Dizziness, Indigestion, Obesity, Interrupted Nutrition, Slow Growth in Children, and all wasting diseases in adults, Deformities, Club Feet, Curvature of Spine, Diseases of Brain, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Swelling of the Limbs, Stricture, Open Sores, Pain in Bones, Granular Enlargements and all long standing diseases properly treated.

Blood and Skin Diseases,

Pimples, Blisters, Eruptions, Liver Spots, Falling of the Hair, Bad Complexion, Eczema, throat ulcers, Weak Back, Burning Urine. The effects of constitutional sickness or the taking of too much injurious medicine receives searching treatment, prompt relief and a cure for life. Diseases of women, irregular menstruation, falling of womb, bearing down pains, female displacements, lack of sexual tone, leucorrhoea, sterility or barrenness, consult Dr. Caldwell and she will show them the cause of their trouble and the way to get cured.

Cancers, Goitre, Fistula, Piles

and enlarged glands treated with the subcutaneous injection method, absolutely without pain and without loss of a drop of blood, is one of her own discoveries and is really the most scientific and sure method of this advanced age. Dr. Caldwell has practiced her profession in some of the largest hospitals throughout the country. She has no superior in the treating and diagnosing of diseases, deformities, etc. She has lately opened an office in Omaha where she will spend a portion of each week treating her many patients. No incurable cases accepted for treatment. Consultation, examination and advice one dollar to those interested.

Dr. Ora Caldwell & Co.,

Omaha, Neb., and Chicago, Ill. Address all mail to 104 Bee Building Omaha, Neb.

The Town Herd

I am now running my town herd and the cows are getting good feed already, and the pasture will improve rapidly from now on. The Coombs pasture by the river is the best about town, early and late and all summer through. If you want your cow taken call up phone 39. I will commence taking your cow now or later as you wish. John Haskell.

Road Notice

To whom it may concern: The commissioner appointed to locate a road as follows: Commencing at the center of section 18, township 20, range 16, running thence north 80 rods, thence east 100 rods, thence north on section line all as near as practicable, three quarters of a mile to join laid out road. The object being to connect with road petitioned for by John Gross and others and the road on the valley running to Burwell, has reported in favor of the location of said road, and all objections and claims for damages must be filed in the county clerk's office, on or before noon of the 29th day of May, 1908, or such road will be established without reference thereto. Witness my hand and official seal this 24th day of March, 1908. [SEAL] Rudolph Sorensen, County Clerk.

Notice for Presentation of Claims.

State of Nebraska, Valley county, ss. In the county court of said county. In the matter of the estate of V. Barta, deceased.

Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims and demands against V. Barta, late of Valley county, deceased, that the time fixed for filing claims against said estate is six months from the 28th day of May, 1908. All such persons are required to present their claims with the vouchers to the county judge of said county, at his office therein, on or before the 28th day of November, 1908; and all claims so filed will be heard before the said judge on the 30th day of November, 1908, at ten o'clock a. m. Dated at Ord Nebraska, this 2nd day of May, 1908. Seal. H. Gudmundsen, county judge, Clements Bros., attorneys for estate.

Notice of Probate of Will.
State of Nebraska, Valley county, ss. To all persons interested in the estate of V. Barta, deceased:
Whereas, Mary Barta of said county, has filed in my office an instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of V. Barta, deceased, late of said county, and a petition praying to have the same admitted to probate, which will relates to both real and personal estate, whereas I have appointed the 1st day of May, 1908, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at my office in said county, as the time and place of proving said will, at which time and place you and all concerned may appear and contest the probate of the same.
It is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to all persons interested in said estate of the pendency of the petition, and time and place set for hearing same, by causing a copy of this order to be published in The Ord Quiz, a newspaper published in Valley county, said state, for two weeks successively previous to the day set for said hearing. In testimony whereof I have set my hand and official seal this 10th day of April, 1908.
H. Gudmundsen, County Judge, 3
Clements Bros., Attorneys for Petitioner.

Legal Notice

In the County Court, in and for Valley County, Nebraska.
In the matter of the estate of Jan Janicek, deceased.
Upon reading and filing the petition of Jan Janicek showing that Jan Janicek Sr. died intestate on December 5, 1905, a resident of Valley county, Nebraska, leaving surviving him heirs at law and seized and possessed in fee simple of real estate in Valley county, Nebraska, to-wit: East half of southwest quarter of Sec. 6, twp. 20 N, range 16 W, which was the homestead of said deceased and was all the property both real and personal owned by said deceased at the time of his death, and that said deceased left no debts of any kind or character, and that the expense of his last sickness and funeral charges have been paid, and asking that a decree be entered dispensing with the regular administration of said estate and determining the heirs-at-law of said deceased is hereby ordered that the said petition be and the same is set for hearing on the 18th day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons interested in said estate, by publishing this order for three successive weeks in the Ord Quiz a legal newspaper published in said county.
Dated this 23rd day of April, 1908.
C. I. Bragg, Attorney for estate.
H. Gudmundsen, county judge.

Notice.

J. A. Abbott and The Mayfield Woolen Mill Co. will take notice that on the 26th day of March, 1908, H. Gudmundsen, county judge of Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $87.27 in an action pending before him, wherein J. E. Boquet is plaintiff and J. A. Abbott and the Mayfield Woolen Mill Co. are defendants; that property of the defendants consisting of 200 pants patterns, 22 boys pants, 21 mens' coats, 16 boys' coats and 2 trunks has been attached under said order.
Said cause was continued to the 11th day of May, 1908.
Dated March 31, 1908.
J. E. Boquet, plaintiff.

Notice of Attachment.

To Judson F. Rogers:
You will take notice that on the twenty-seventh day of April, 1908, Herman Westover, a justice of the peace in and for Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $40.69 in an action pending before him, wherein Carl Funke is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of defendant, consisting of 250 Co. Mac. Co. Cigars 150 Hand Made Cigars 50 El Pagado cigars 25 Victor Cigars 40 Monogram Cigars 1 Iron Safe 1 Refrigerator 2 Sets Table Spoons 3 Sets Tea Spoons 1 Set Coffee Spoons 3 Salad Forks 2 Meat Forks 1 Berry Spoon 2 Sugar Shells 3 Pickle Forks 1 Sugar Tonge 2 Cigar Cases.
has been attached under said order. The said cause was continued until 10th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.
CARL FUNKE, Plaintiff.
By Claude A. Davis, his attorney.
Dated April 30, 1908. 5-3t

$31.85 to California

This is your opportunity to make the trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and many other points in California at this greatly reduced fare.

Every Day to April 30, 1908

low one-way colonist rates will be in effect to the above points. These tickets are good in four-first sleeping cars and offer the advantages of the

Excellent Through Train Service

VIA Union Pacific

For full information inquire of F. R. FRICK, Local Agent

The State Journal
Lincoln is your town, it is the seat of your state government, the officers who spend your money live here, you send your friendless and cripples here, you send your criminals here, when you want anybody hanged you send them here, when you wanted a big state fair you located it here, when you hold a convention it's here, whenever you do any shopping it's here—the most railroads center here.

Lincoln was created for the accommodation and benefit of the state of Nebraska and her citizens have grown to realize that all we are here for is for their service, and that is the reason state people like to come here. The State Journal is being conducted along these lines. It is peculiarly a state paper, realizing it's obligations to Nebraskans. It is a staunch advocate of all things for the up building and uplifting of her people, and always stands forth at much used and sometimes abused "square deal." It is the one state paper that can print all the news all the time about everybody and everything. No office-holders or office-seekers in any of its departments from top to bottom.

We are obeying the new rules of Uncle Sam's post-office and require all subscribers to pay in advance. In this way you pay only for your own paper; you are not helping to pay for the paper of someone who doesn't pay his bills.

Therefore, to introduce the State Journal into thousands of new homes, we will send it every day, except Sunday, from now until after the National Election for only $1.50. Make it $2.00 and we will add the big Sunday paper. This will carry you through the exciting nominating campaign and then through the presidential race. This is just an introduction offer and the paper will be stopped at the end of that time. We stop all papers when time paid for is up.

The sooner you send in your money the more papers you will get under this cut price offer. The Journal prints more reading matter than any other state daily and we will let you judge the quality. See your postmaster.

Not Too High.
80 acres in Springdale, half in cultivation, balance pasture, house, barn, well and windmill, for $2000.
160 acres in Springdale, 40 plowed, 15 alfalfa, 60 pasture, for $2400.
320 acres 12 miles out, with 200 acres plowed, 25 alfalfa, 80 pasture, good house, barn, well and windmill, granary, good road to Ord, for $10,000.

Residence property in Ord, 6 lots in good location, orchard, shade, good house, for $2500.
Plenty money for farm loans. J. H. CAPRON, Ord.

Dr. F. D. HALDEMAN, Physician & Surgeon, Office over post office, Phone 116, NEBRASKA
C. C. SHEPARD, M. D. Office and residence phone 41, NEBRASKA
C. J. MILLER, M. D. Office and residence phone 41, NEBRASKA
R. L. STAPLE, Lawyer and Bonded Abstractor, Real Estate, Insurance of all kinds, First National Bank Building, NEBRASKA
A. M. DANIELS ...Undertaking... Licensed Embalmer, Residence Phone 74, Store Phone 82, ORD, NEB
DR. GEO. W. TAYLOR Dentist, Office over First National Bank, Office Phone 24, Residence Phone 27, ORD, NEB
Claude A. Davis, Attorney-at-law, NEBRASKA
Referee Sale Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley County, Nebraska in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Nellie Sorensen, Karan Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Laurita Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock, p. m., at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.
H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Ord Church and Lodge Directory
RATES: Six lines or less, $3.00 per year. Additional lines 50 cents per year.
ORD LODGE NO. 103 A. P. & A. M. Meetings held on Wednesday or before the full moon of each month. C. C. Shepard, W. M. Alvin Blessing, Sec.
DORIC CHAPTER N. O. E. & A. M. Convocation first Tuesday of each month. John C. Work, H. Rudolph Sorensen, Secretary.
MIZPAH CHAPTER ORDER OF EASTERN STAR, ORD LODGE NO. 88. Regular meetings first and third Fridays of each month.

Ord Church and Lodge Directory
Notice is hereby given that the 1st day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., at my office, in Ord, Nebraska, I fixed as the time and place for hearing said petition. And the heirs of said deceased, and all persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at the time and place so designated, and show cause, if such exists, why said petition should not be granted. It is further ordered that said administratrix give notice to all persons interested in said estate by causing a copy of this order to be published for 3 weeks prior to the day set for said hearing. Dated this 13th day of April, 1908. (Seal) H. Gudmundsen, county judge. Clements Bros., attorneys for petitioner.

MANY INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE ADOPT NEW THEORY

Statements from Followers of Cooper Obtained Recently in Various Cities.

A number of statements from prominent people located in various cities where the widespread discussion over L. T. Cooper's new theory regarding the human stomach has recently waged, give an idea of the intense interest the young man has aroused during the past year. The statements are as follows:

Mr. C. D. Mitchell, of 2412 Avenue C, Birmingham, Ala., has this to say with regard to his belief in Cooper's medicine: "I have been troubled with indigestion and stomach trouble for the past year. I had heartburn, bloating after eating, gas on stomach and bowels, palpitation of the heart, pain in the lower part of my back, and various other symptoms, and was a victim of much distress. I tried many remedies, but received little or no benefit from them. I was advised to try the Cooper preparations, and did so. In one week's time I was improved wonderfully—the first relief I had been able to obtain. Mr. Cooper's medicine does all he claims for it."

Mr. J. O. Spradling, of 705 South Teton Street, Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "I was troubled with indigestion for two years. It caused me a great deal of suffering and misery. I did not dare to eat meat at all, and everything I did eat soured on my stomach. I tried various remedies, but found no relief. Three months ago I started taking Cooper's New Discovery, and after using the contents of three bottles I was entirely cured. I can now eat and relish anything that my appetite craves. The New Discovery is truly a great stomach medicine."

Mr. Wm. Coder, of 408 Graves Street, Syracuse, N. Y., is very strong in his expression of belief in the new medicine, and has the following to say on the subject: "I have suffered from catarrh of the nose and throat for four years. It must have been communicated to my stomach, for all this time my stomach has given me a great deal of trouble, and caused me much pain and suffering. My stomach was often sour, and my food did not digest. I was bothered by a continual desire to spit, and there was a constant dropping of mucus into the throat. The first relief I have been able to obtain is from Cooper's New Discovery, which I have been taking for about a week. My catarrhal condition has been greatly improved and my stomach is almost well. Mr. Cooper's medicine has benefited me more than anything I have ever used."

These statements are from reliable citizens in various communities who have tried these celebrated medicines. We sell them and will gladly explain their nature to any one interested. —Jas. T. Johnson.

You will make no mistake in buying your lumber of us. We have a complete stock of new lumber, which we are selling very cheap. If you need anything in our line, give us a call.

—Screen Doors and Windows—

We have them in all sizes at very low prices. Also a complete stock of Posts, Poles, Lime, Cement, Brick, Cement Blocks and Tanks.

Koupal & Barstow Lumber Company

ORD BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN.

C. C. SHEPARD, M. D. Office over post office, Phone 116, NEBRASKA

C. J. MILLER, M. D. Office and residence phone 41, NEBRASKA

R. L. STAPLE, Lawyer and Bonded Abstractor, Real Estate, Insurance of all kinds, First National Bank Building, NEBRASKA

A. M. DANIELS ...Undertaking... Licensed Embalmer, Residence Phone 74, Store Phone 82, ORD, NEB

DR. GEO. W. TAYLOR Dentist, Office over First National Bank, Office Phone 24, Residence Phone 27, ORD, NEB

Claude A. Davis, Attorney-at-law, NEBRASKA

Referee Sale Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley County, Nebraska in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Nellie Sorensen, Karan Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Laurita Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock, p. m., at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.
H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Ord Church and Lodge Directory
RATES: Six lines or less, $3.00 per year. Additional lines 50 cents per year.
ORD LODGE NO. 103 A. P. & A. M. Meetings held on Wednesday or before the full moon of each month. C. C. Shepard, W. M. Alvin Blessing, Sec.
DORIC CHAPTER N. O. E. & A. M. Convocation first Tuesday of each month. John C. Work, H. Rudolph Sorensen, Secretary.
MIZPAH CHAPTER ORDER OF EASTERN STAR, ORD LODGE NO. 88. Regular meetings first and third Fridays of each month.

Dr. F. D. HALDEMAN, Physician & Surgeon, Office over post office, Phone 116, NEBRASKA

CLEMENS BROS., Lawyers, Office in Misko Block, North Side of Square, ORD, NEBRASKA

M. M. Newbecker, M. D. Day and Night Calls, ORD, NEBRASKA

A. M. ROBBINS ATTORNEY AT LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC IN OFFICE, Attention given to legal business in Valley and adjoining counties. ORD, NEBRASKA

C. D. BUNDY, M. D. Successor to Chester A. Brink, Calls answered night and day, Office and resident phone 46, ORD, NEBRASKA

Dr. Lena C. Corkill OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN, Makes a Specialty of Women's and Children's Diseases, Phone 179, Ord, Nebraska

Notice. Stats of Nebraska, Valley county, ss. In the county court of Valley county. In the matter of the estate of Millard C. Moon, deceased.
Now on the 13th day of April 1908, came Frances E. Moon, administratrix of said estate, and files her petition for distribution herein.
It is therefore ordered that the 1st day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., at my office, in Ord, Nebraska, I fixed as the time and place for hearing said petition. And the heirs of said deceased, and all persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at the time and place so designated, and show cause, if such exists, why said petition should not be granted. It is further ordered that said administratrix give notice to all persons interested in said estate by causing a copy of this order to be published for 3 weeks prior to the day set for said hearing. Dated this 13th day of April, 1908. (Seal) H. Gudmundsen, county judge. Clements Bros., attorneys for petitioner.

WANT COLUMN

FOR SALE—My residence property on the hill. Mrs. Earl C. Brink. 4

FOR SALE OR TRADE—In the edge of town, three acres of nice rich ground with new seven room house and new barn. Thirty five bearing fruit trees on place. Will trade for a farm. L. D. Bailey & Sons. 4-

WANTED—Girl capable of taking charge of housework. Mrs. O. C. Shepard 3

FOR SALE—Shade trees and evergreens. W. A. Anderson. 6-

BARGAIN—House, barn, etc. with good lot, nicely located in southeast part of Ord, at a low price if taken at once. Not much cash required. R. L. Staple. 2-

WANTED—Man and wife want position on farm in Valley county. Phone 9016, Arcadia. A. U. Morris. 6-1t

JOURNAL OFFICE for rent by June 1st. Mrs. Ada Munn. 6-

FOR SALE—Rose Comb Brown Leghorn eggs. 50 cents for 15. Eggs gathered after order is received. F. M. Vothelna. Phone F 25. 57-1t

FOR SALE—100 bushels of Early Ohio seed potatoes. A. Walkup. 3

SAND and GRAVEL—I have opened up a sand and gravel pit and am prepared to furnish it in any amounts to town or country buyers. See me before buying. Leave orders at Stover's, Glen Rogers. 64

FOR RENT—Three room cottage close to the square. Call at Quiz office. 5

FOUND—A bunch of keys near the old school house. Call at Quiz office for them. 5

FOR SALE—Plain Valley farm of L. S. Jones. For particulars inquire of P. J. Jones, Ord. 5-1t

FOR SALE—I will sell my residence property consisting of ten room modern house, oak finish, city water, electric lights, phones, bath room, complete with two lots, 1 in orchard and grapes, cement walks around entire house. G. L. Gibson. 5-

FOR SALE—All kinds of garden plants for sale at my residence in Ord or at Facklers and Ord Mercantile Company's stores. A. Warner. 5-1t-10p-1t

TOWN HERD—I have rented the Coombs pasture by the river. This is the best pasture near town, with lots of grass, shade and a river of water. I will take your cattle to and from pasture for $1.50 a month or if you wish to drive your own cow the charge will be $1.00 a month for pasture. Call up phone 17 or 39 and let me know how many cows you want me to take. John Haskell.

Burlington Route

April Specials

TO THE PACIFIC COAST

Very favorable excursion rates to the Pacific Coast during the summer season of 1908, including special rates in April to California as follows: April 25th and 26th. Illustration, only $62.25 round trip. One way via Portland, $77.25. The Coast tour is the finest railroad journey in the world. Make it this summer. Also low one-way rates during April, $31.25

TO COLORADO AND ROCKY MOUNTAINS

Plan now for your summer vacation in Colorado, Wyoming, the Black Hills, or Yellowstone Park. Very low and attractive summer tourist rates to the cool mountain resorts after June 1st.

HOMESEEEKERS' RATES

First and third Tuesdays to the west generally.

BIG HORN BASIN

Auction sale for choice of the newly irrigated lands under the Oregon Basin, or Wiley ditch, near Cody. Opening in May, 1908. Also splendid chances yet for homesteading Government irrigated lands near Garland, Wyoming. Write D. Clem Deaver, Landseekers' Information Bureau, Omaha. He will personally conduct Landseekers' excursions to the Big Horn Basin first and third Tuesdays of each month through the summer.

BUSINESS CHANCES

Excellent business chances in new growing towns on Burlington extensions; write Mr. Deaver or J. W. MOORHOUSE, Ticket Agent, L. W. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha.

THE ORD QUIZ.

ed April 6, 1892.

Ord, Valley County, Nebraska, Thursday, May 14, 1908.

Vol. 27, No. 7

COMMENCEMENT GIFTS

Store is better stocked than usual year with things beautiful and appropriate for Commencement Gifts. To suit you and your Pocket Book whether you wish to spend much or little.

10c to 50c.

We are closing out the few pieces of Japanese China on hand at 10c to 25c. Just a few pieces not bought to sell for less than 50c and some up to $1.00, go at 10 and 20c while they last.

Souvenir Spoons

Over one dozen different patterns in plain bowl sterling at 35c each. Etched, "Ord, Neb.," at 45c. Then we have $1.00, $1.50 and up to $2.75 weights. Plain bowl spoons will be engraved "O. H. S. '08" at an additional charge of 20c per spoon.

Then there is collar pins, veil pins, stick pins, brooches, souvenir trays, etc., that make beautiful and lasting gifts at very little price.

For the Boys

A souvenir match holder at 50c, an ash tray or silver souvenir cup. Or perhaps you would find something in our line of cuff buttons. The most beautiful patterns on the market in gold plated at 50 and 75c; solid gold front $1.25 to $2.75; fine solid gold $2.50 to $5.50.

Then there are nearly 200 stick pins to select from at prices ranging from 35c to $3.75.

Fobs Fobs Fobs

Fobs, you will like the kind that are "different" from the ordinary run. Never before have we shown such beautiful patterns never before fobs so strong and durable and the price, well that's less than usual.

A Signet Ring, Engraved "O. H. S. '08" would be a very appropriate gift for any one of our graduates. Scores and scores of fine stone rings for ladies and gents at $2.75 to $50.00. Each and every ring in our stock is solid gold.

Watches

Of course a watch is the one thing that every boy or girl wishes to own. We know we can please you on watches because we know watches, have made a special study of the buying and selling of watches until we know just the watch that suits your needs. In my seven years business in Ord I have yet to hear of any one being dissatisfied with a watch bought of "Parkins." I feel confident I can please you as well both as to PRICE and style of engraving, etc.

PARKINS

Are You Particular

about what kind of flour goes into the bread you eat? If you are, then use Ord Roller Mills flour, which is made by the new process of peeling the bran off before it is ground, thereby improving the quality of the flour. This feature does away with the bleaching process which was necessary heretofore. Every sack guaranteed by the mill and your merchant. NONE BETTER MADE. Every sack contains a coupon, which your merchant will redeem in trade.

We do an Exchange Business COLLISON BROS. Only Mill in Valley County Ord, Nebr.

Rev. Loveland one of the good ones on the Ord Chautauqua programme.

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT

By MRS. C. E. WELLMAN.

Harry Brown was down from Ord Friday.

Fred Wicks was over from Scotia Friday.

George Johnson returned from Lincoln Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. Crosbie were in Scotia one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barber were Ord visitors Thursday.

Hugh McCall made a professional trip to Cotesfield Thursday.

Otto Hill was in Ord one night last week and furnished music for a dance.

H. A. Goodrich returned Saturday morning from a business trip to Ord.

Mrs. Lou Mayo and children were passengers to Scotia Saturday morning.

Dr. Higgins and Ira Manchester were Ashton visitors one day last week.

Merril Van Horn returned from the Black Hills the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Humphrey are the parents of twin boys born May 6.

Frank Watts has bought J. B. Clements property in the southern part of the village.

G. L. Larkin was an Elba visitor one day last week looking after business matters.

The butter-maker, Mr. Egstad, went to St. Libory Saturday to take in the creamery there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wellman and baby visited relatives in Ord from Saturday until Tuesday.

J. P. Ford was over from Arcadia Thursday visiting relatives and transacting business.

Mrs. Dr. Burdick left one day last week for a few weeks visit with relatives in Iowa and Wisconsin.

Earnest Brothers are building a 5-foot cement walk along the east and south of their hardware building.

G. H. Kinsey and C. O. Rettemeyer were over from Arcadia last week, looking after political matters.

Mrs. Frank Johnson went to Tarkio, Missouri, Saturday morning to attend the funeral of an uncle.

W. P. Everingim returned Thursday to his home in Kearny, having been in town a day or so on business.

J. A. Williams came up from St. Libory, Friday night having completed his labors for the creamery at that place.

Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. B. F. Griffith were over from Scotia the latter part of last week visiting the Amos Redlon family.

V. J. Thomas and wife came home Friday night from a two week's visit with friends and relatives at Monroe and other points.

Dr. Hemphill is having a large barn erected on the property he recently purchased of Sam Brown. W. A. Prentice is doing the work.

The recital given Saturday night by the Christian Endeavors assisted by Mrs. Hillyer as reader was a good one and well patronized.

Mrs. Rose Applegate returned to Cheyenne Saturday morning having spent a week here with her mother, Mrs. Kildow, and other relatives.

Harney Hosbrook and daughter May came from Missouri Valley last Friday, being called here by the serious illness of George Moore.

Will James of Burwell went through on the passenger Tuesday night bound for home. He is going out of the mercantile business at Burwell and move to Grand Island where he will open up a factory for the manufacture of gloves and suspenders.

Dr. Higgins went to Omaha Tuesday morning. He made several attempts at leaving but could not get his business matters arranged so he could leave till Tuesday.

The creamery, built by the Cutler Company at St. Libory was opened one day last week. The first day they churned 900 pounds of butter and on the second, 700.

Abner Goodrich came Monday for a few days visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Goodrich lives at St. Louis where he works in a barber shop.

The creamery company shipped two tubs of butter to Boston Saturday morning. The butter is good—good enough for Bostonians even.

L. B. Wilson, district manager for the Nebraska Telephone Company, and Mr. Huff, the Ord Manager were in town Tuesday.

Little Miss Fitzsimmons came up from Scotia Saturday and was the guest of her friend, Genevieve Jones until Monday.

Fred Bell and wife went through town Wednesday enroute for Ord in a new auto which Mr. Bell has just bought.

The new band practiced for the first time Tuesday night and did pretty well considering that this was their first attempt.

Manchester & Bellie have sold out the livery barn and now Sam Gilroy expects to re-stock the place and run it himself.

Mrs. Finch and youngest daughter went to Elba Wednesday to visit the John Clark folks.

Edward Johnson and Sterling Manchester went to Ord Saturday night to send Sunday with friends.

George Moore is gradually getting weaker and it seems as though he cannot last much longer.

Mrs. L. Sheldon and children went to Scotia Wednesday to visit her sister, Mrs. Buschhausen.

Grace Smith went to Gibbon Wednesday morning, where she will be employed in a drug store.

Florence Clement was down Saturday from her school work in the Brace district near Ord.

C. A. Hager of Ord was in North Loup Friday and Saturday on stock-food business.

Lewie Miller has charge of Billings Clark's harness shop during his sickness.

John Moulton and Bird Temple returned Tuesday night from a trip down the road.

Mrs. John Barnhart returned Wednesday from a trip to Illinois.

The Ord and North Loup high schools will play ball Friday the 15th.

G. L. Hutchins went down the road Wednesday on business.

Dr. W. J. Hemphill moved into his new house Wednesday.

Guy Burris was at Ord between trains Wednesday.

Evans and Weeks were up from Scotia Tuesday.

Edith Coons returned from a visit to Cairo Tuesday night.

Billings Clark is down with the measles.

The Fletcher System

Miss Monna Trindle Gives a Brief Description of the Advantage it Offers to Beginners.

IT IS INEXPENSIVE AS WELL

Parents wishing their children to begin the study of music when school closes will do well to call soon at my studio in the building just vacated by Miss Eva Fuson, any afternoon from three till four o'clock.

The Fletcher Music Method is not well known here and I insist on all parents coming in to learn about it. I have been to great expense in learning the method in order that I might give you the best instruction possible.

As yet the Fletcher Music Method is only being taught in the large cities and you should take advantage of the opportunity now offered in Ord.

There are over four hundred active Fletcher teachers in the United States, England and Canada.

I charge only the regular price of 50 cents per hour.

The principal points of the system are:

1. Ear training and musical thought expression.
2. Rhythmical development and knowledge of time.
3. Ability to read music rapidly.
4. Thorough knowledge of the key board.
5. Complete knowledge of the construction of the major and minor scales.
6. Technique and muscle development and control.
7. Practical knowledge of intervals, chords, analysis and modulation for the purpose of original expression in music.
8. Systematic memorizing.
9. Awakening interest in the great composers.
10. Giving a knowledge of musical instruments.

Ida Items.

Harry Sharp was unfortunate enough to fracture one of the bones in his left arm last week, but is progressing nicely under Dr. Britt's care.

The Tully young people and Veda Haines spent Sunday at the Meyers' home.

Mr. and Mrs. Brookus spent Sunday at Goodenows.

Mrs. Hart went to Burwell Saturday afternoon.

Harry Sharp spent Saturday night and Sunday with James Craig.

Anna Dubas has been taking a vacation from her duties at Craigs for the past two weeks and has spent her time at home preparing for her sister Vera's wedding which took place Wednesday.

Reward.

During the last 7 years, 35 head of my cattle have disappeared from my pasture. Since April 25th 1908, three head more have disappeared, consisting of one red cow with white face 4 years old with horns, with brockled face calf 2 months old by side branded T. S. on left hip, and one yearling deep red steer. I will pay $100.00 to any one who will inform me and prove where my cattle have gone to or I will pay $5.00 to any one who will tell me where this last bunch.

Ball's Black Stallion Will Stand in Ord.

As there are several wanting me to stand my black stallion, R.A.M.C. at Ord, I have made arrangements with A. J. Firkins for a stall in his breeding barn where my stallion will be found on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week. The rest of the time he will be at his usual stands in Springdale and on Elm Creek. E. L. Ball. 6-11.

Plants! Plants! Plants!

Sweet potato, tomato and early and late cabbage plants for sale by M. D. L. Taylor at residence, also on sale at Fackler & Sutton's grocery store.

Farm Loans.

We have plenty of money to loan on farms in this and adjoining counties, at low rates. See us if you need money. Ord State Bank.

Notice.

You will find my horse and jack books with Lou Schwane. Please settle with him.

Advertised Letters

List of Letters remaining unclaimed in the post office at Ord Nebr., for the week ending tomorrow.

Citon Sattley, 2.

Letters will be sent to the dead letter office. Parties claiming any of the above please say they were "advertised."

A. M. COONROD Postmaster.

Undertaker's Supply Co.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING HEARSE FURNISHED We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right.

Calls Answered Day or Night

C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson Phone 43. Phone 242.

WE SPEAK ADVISEDLY when we say we are in a position and have the disposition to give you prompt service; quality and greatest variety in groceries and at lowest prices in a straight business deal.

We are selling for a short time 30 cent quality of canned pears and sliced apricots for 25 cents. These are the highest grade goods. Gallon canned apples 40 cents. Gallon canned peeled peaches 50 cents a can. Mapleine 35 cents a bottle.

Fresh Strawberries daily. Quality is good now. Fifteen cents a box two for twenty-five.

New potatoes, cabbage, lettuce and cucumbers.

Try the Cash Grocers first

Fackler & Sutton

A CARLOAD

of barrel and a carload of rock

SALT

now on track. Now is the time to feed your stock salt and plenty of it. My rock salt cannot be beat. Barrel salt is in nice soft coopeage. Special rates to feeders when buying large quantities

The Blue Front

F. J. Dworak, Proprietor

The First

thing to consider in depositing money in a bank is security. The capital and surplus are the depositors' protection fund. The government superintends and examines this bank. Our stock-holders and directors are responsible, well-to-do business men and farmers. This has been established twenty-five years, during which time it has served the banking public faithfully and built up a large and prosperous business. We have just installed a set of safety deposit boxes which we rent for $1.00 a year. These boxes are designed for storage of valuable papers. The best service possible is none too good for our country customers and the people of

National

Bank

Ord

WINCHESTER

Smokeless Powder Shells

"LEADER" and "REPEATER"

The superiority of Winchester Smokeless Powder Shells is undisputed. Among intelligent shooters they stand first in popularity, records and shooting qualities. Always use them For Field or Trap Shooting.

Ask Your Dealer For Them.

THE ORD QUIZ

By W. W. HASKELL

ORD, NEBRASKA

Still, you had better not take 'em for a few days yet.

A Clinton county, N. Y., baby has two tongues. Girl, of course.

Anarchists are given to carrying their cure around with them.

President Castro evidently stands in the shadow of the wood shed.

The peek-a-boo waist and the mosquito are watching each other, waiting for the word.

The most unfortunate trait of the anarchist is his determination to be taken seriously.

After consuming 50,000 gallons of whisky, the great distillery fire at Peoria was arrested.

Have we got to send the fleet of battleships back around the Horn just to keep Castro quiet?

A man with a bullet-proof head has been discovered in New York, where just such a head is most needed.

Castro always looks out for his people. He arranges very entertaining aquatic pageants at foreign expense.

There are ten negro banks in Mississippi and they have organized a State Bankers' association of their own.

Prince de Sagan's composure is remarkable for a man who finds himself worried about love and money both at once.

Plants with white blossoms have a larger proportion of fragrant species than any others; next comes red, then yellow and blue.

Prince Helle is having a hard time, it is true, but not nearly so hard as most other men who are trying to make $15,000,000.

In Italy it is said that the duke of the Abruzzi has never flirted. It is still uncertain whether the same can be said of him in America.

A federal judge in Georgia carries a gun because he received a threatening black hand letter. Why doesn't he keep an injunction handy?

Among the birds the swan lives to be the oldest, in extreme cases reaching 300 years. The falcon has been known to live over 162 years.

The Manchurians don't mind the "open door," but they feel aggrieved at the Japanese who act as if they thought it were the "open house."

Theodore Shonta says that it takes a good man to get into debt and live comfortably. But most good men are uncomfortable when they're in debt.

Some theories of international business seem to be based on the idea that a man's diplomatic talents are demonstrated by his ability to pile up a fortune.

A New Jersey woman has promised to quit smoking if her husband will move to Brooklyn. Again we see the utter impossibility of fathoming the feminine mind.

A British scientist says that, thanks to recent investigations of radium, it will soon be possible to estimate the exact age of the earth. Does radium possibly know the age of Ann, too?

Talk of increasing the Kaiser's pay should not invite any suspicions that his finances have been such as to make him favor diplomats sufficiently rich to oblige with an occasional loan.

The Denver preacher who is giving trading stamps to the pupils of his Sunday school mustn't kick if their parents put them back on the plate as their Sunday evening contribution.

Great Britain's navy has suffered another terrible disaster in maneuvers. The game of war is dangerous, even mimetic war, and the price is higher than it should be. Yet the competition goes on!

Prof. Schuster asserts that animals lack moral feeling entirely, none of their acts being immoral or moral, in the broad sense, and that they have no trace of a sense of shame or of honor. Their courage, he declares, is "a mere impulse of nature."

Concerning that gun which is advertised to carry a shot 300 miles it will certainly be able to hit a vast expanse of the broad blue ocean and immobile earth. But if you want to hit a special target you had better get within a hundred miles of it, at most.

The island of Malta is the only known spot where the remains of dwarf elephants are found. There are several places on the island where the bones of these miniature pachyderms have been unearthed, and hundreds of skeletons have been secured in whole or in part.

It is said of the late "Plunger" Riley Grannan, who won and lost several fortunes by betting on anything and everything, from a horse race to how far a peanut would roll down hill, that he was exemplary in his personal habits, never touching either liquor or tobacco, and a model of good conduct in his family relations. Another case of Buck Fanshawe, apparently, who, according to his distinguished biographer, Bret Harte, had his faults at the gaming table, but who never went back on his mother.

The number of convicts in New Jersey prisons who are afflicted with tuberculosis has led to an investigation which has convinced officers of the institution that some of the prisoners have committed crimes simply in order to have a comfortable place in which to die. When it is remembered that hospitals for incurables are almost nonexistent, and that a consumptive sufferer without money to pay for private care has no choice except between the jail and the poorhouse his selection of the former is almost nonexistent.

NEBRASKA NEWS

PEARL TAYLOR, VICTIM OF FIENDISH ASSAULT, IS DEAD.

LARGE REWARD IS OFFERED

Murderer Still at Large With No Clue as to His Whereabouts—Harvard Man a Suicide.

Pearl Taylor, the 17-year-old victim of a fiendish assault on the night of April 23 at Minden, Neb., at the hands of Bert M. Taylor, her brother-in-law, died Friday morning at seven o'clock. The girl's brain was injured by her brutal treatment and she had been only semi-conscious at intervals since the night of the crime. The death of the girl converts the charge against Taylor into murder and a coroner's inquest was held to render an official finding to that effect.

Taylor's assault was shocking in its cruelty. The two Taylor girls had been attending school in Minden, living alone in the house built by Taylor. He is his wife was alive. During the night of April 23 he invaded the house, terrorized the younger sister by threats of murder and dragged Pearl, the older girl, into the kitchen. After the assault, he choked and beat her and threw her unconscious form onto the bed. He then beat the younger girl, who escaped death by feigning unconsciousness. Taylor then poured kerosene onto the bed, applied a match and fled. The sister heroically fought the flames and by superhuman efforts dragged the unconscious girl outside of the house. An alarm was sounded and hundreds of citizens turned out and organized a posse to take up the chase. Taylor was pursued with bloodhounds and automobiles but escaped. A reward of $1,700 has been offered for his capture, which amount will probably be increased both by the county and state.

HARVARD MAN KILLS HIMSELF.

H. O. Fletcher Is Found Dying from Wound in Breast.

H. O. Fletcher, who has been in charge of Gooch's bucket shop at Harvard for the last eight or ten months, was found unconscious, lying on his bed at his home with an empty gun lying on the floor and a gun shot wound in his breast from which he died shortly afterward. Mrs. Fletcher had been at her home in Fillmore county, to visit her parents, and she and her brother came home, expecting Mr. Fletcher to meet them at the train, and when he did not come, stopped at his office to see him, finding him gone. Reaching her home the smell of gunpowder attracted her attention. About the same moment, she heard groans which she took for snoring of her husband in a sound sleep, and carefully entering the room so as not to awaken him till she had greeted him with a kiss, the door as it was pushed open, struck the gun on the floor, and her dying husband met her gaze. From his position and that of the gun it appears that he sat on the edge of his bed, placed the gun against his breast and, with his feet pushed the trigger.

LONG MISSING MAN RETURNS.

Supposed to Have Been Drowned at Peru, But Alive.

Eleven years ago James Adams left his home in Peru, Neb., suddenly without saying where he was going. Neighbors saw him go towards the Missouri river, and the belief was general that he had drowned himself. A month later a foater was dragged from the river. Adams' two brothers were not satisfied, but Mrs. Adams caused a funeral to be held and the body buried. She has married twice since, her first husband being dead three years. A week ago Adams showed up at Fremont, where he met several friends who had known him a lifetime. He told them he was going to Portland, and said he had lived in Kansas and Canada since leaving Peru. The two brothers have asked the Portland police to locate the missing man.

Death of Aged Lady.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Presson, wife of Rev. Harrison Presson, died at her home in Auburn, Neb., May 7, 1908. Mrs. Presson was born in Covington, Ky., in the year 1818, and was 90 years of age the 22nd of last month. Had she lived two years longer they would have celebrated their diamond wedding. Mrs. Presson was the mother of 14 children, eight of whom are still living. She spent most of her life in a Methodist parsonage, and was a faithful wife and shared in the labors of her husband. Rev. Mr. Harrison Presson is believed to have preached the first sermon delivered in the territory of Nebraska, 58 years ago.

Will Fight High School Law.

Thirty-four school districts of Richardson county have risen up in their might, and in a meeting held recently $170 was raised to test the constitutionality of the present high school law which allows all schools to attend city high schools, their tuition being paid by the district from which they come. They have employed an attorney to fight their legal battles and the matter will be taken to the supreme court for final decision. The districts fighting the case feel confident of victory.

New Hospital for Neigh.

David W. Beattie, M. D., of Neligh, Neb., closed a deal for the former residence of George W. Myers, deceased, and will at once fit it up for a hospital. The building has two stories and contains ten spacious rooms.

Five Meat Dealers Fined.

Three Beatrice meat dealers and two Wymora meat dealers pleaded guilty to using sulphite to preserve sausage, contrary to the provisions of the pure food law. They were fined

HEAVY FIRE LOSS AT PILGER.

Damage Will Amount to Thirty Thousand Dollars.

Fire started Friday night in C. A. Tinney's grocery store at Pilger, Neb., and in a few minutes the building was a mass of ruins. The Pilger Mercantile Company's store, one of the largest in town, a fine brick building adjoining C. A. Tinney's building on the south, also burned. There is no theory as to how the fire started, and Mr. Tinney locked up his store and had only been home half an hour. Some young men on going home saw smoke issuing from the back of the building, kicked in the back door and found the back room of the building, which was used to keep oil, ablaze. They gave the alarm and then ran up the back stairs of the Pilger Mercantile Company building and aroused Mrs. Pilger, who was sick in bed with a baby only five days old. Mr. Pilger was in Stanton on business. They had just carried Mrs. Pilger and the baby down when the stairs fell. The night was perfectly still, otherwise heavy loss would have resulted. Mr. Tinney lost everything that he had, which was partly covered by insurance. The Pilger Mercantile Company succeeded in saving part of their goods. Mr. Pilger used part of the upstairs as living rooms and therefore his loss is doubly heavy. His stock was heavily insured. The Norfolk fire department was notified and came down on a special train, but its help was not needed, as the fire was under control when it got there.

KILLED BY BROTHER-IN-LAW.

Family Feud Near Brock Results in Death of Frenchman.

A shooting affray occurred Sunday at the Dave Jock farm, two miles southeast of Brock, Neb., in which Emilie Migot was killed by his brother-in-law, Lute Hutton. The shooting was the outcome of a family feud. Migot, who was a Frenchman and mentally unbalanced, threatened to kill Hutton and his family, and went for his gun, but on his return Hutton was prepared and shot him dead. The sheriff and county attorney were present at the inquest, but no arrest was made, as the evidence showed self-defense, and Hutton was ready to come into court at any time.

OBJECT TO THE TAX.

Real Estate Men at Beatrice Do Not Want to Pay.

Beatrice real estate dealers are protesting vigorously against a proposed city ordinance which levies an occupation tax of $50 a year on dealers in real estate. A petition was circulated and presented to the council and which was signed by nearly every real estate man in the city. The dealers state that such a tax is not only prohibitive and would cause many of them to go out of business, but that it is unjust and in contravention of the Nebraska statute.

LUMBER RATES RAISED.

Northwestern Notices Fremont, Neb., Dealers of the Change.

The Northwestern railroad has notified Fremont lumber dealers that it has made a change in lumber rates affecting Nebraska points. The rate to Omaha has been raised from 23 to 25 cents and the rate to Lincoln from 24 to 25 cents. The Fremont rate is raised from 24 to 25 cents. The change was made in consequence of Lincoln's complaint to the State Railway commission in an effort to get the same rate that Omaha had.

Nebraskan Dies in Prison.

Charles N. Brown, who was serving a term of 10 years in the Sioux Falls (S. D.) penitentiary for forgery committed in Gregory county, has died at the penitentiary of consumption. His relatives, who reside at Wayne, Neb., have been notified of his death. After his arrest he confessed that he served a term in the Nebraska penitentiary for horse stealing prior to coming to South Dakota. His wife and children were left in destitute circumstances.

Quantity of Shoes Stolen.

A rather smooth piece of burglary was discovered in the store of A. L. Barenby of Cairo, Neb. A customer for shoes came in, and on going to wait on him Mr. Barenby took an empty box from the shelf. Further investigation discovered 30 boxes empty. The store was in good shape in the morning, the burglar apparently having a key that would unlock the building, and locking it after his departure, thereby gaining a few hours' start. The police in neighboring towns have been asked to look out for a suspicious-looking stranger who was ordered out by Mr. Barenby.

THE MIDWEST LIFE OF LINCOLN

sells life insurance at as low a cost as the same kind of insurance can be bought anywhere in the United States. Patronize an old line Nebraska company and keep the money in this state to develop our own enterprises and business interests. Local agents wanted in every town in Nebraska. Write for an agency.

To Assist Nebraska Blind.

Articles of incorporation have been filed by the Nebraska association for the assistance of the blind. The corporation has no capital stock. It will endeavor to train blind persons so that they may make a livelihood and will sell the products of their labor, the commercial end of the corporation being incidental, however, to the being of the blind. Any Nebraskan, who is blind and over 21 years of age, may be admitted to the prospective institution on the approval of a majority of the board of five trustees.

Water Turned Into New Ditch.

Water was the first time turned on in the new government irrigation canal at Morrill, Neb., May 8, and all reports are to the effect that all laterals thus far tested are working excellently. Practically the entire section of land known as "Iowa Flats" is under water. Engineer Gorton of the United States reclamation service assures the people that all the water needed will be supplied this year without a doubt, all of which tends to please the residents of that locality.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Most Important Happenings of the Past Seven Days.

Interesting Items Gathered From all Parts of the World Condensed into Small Space for the Benefit of Our Readers.

Congressional.

A committee from the Methodist general conference called upon Speaker Cannon at Washington to urge the passage of laws to protect prohibition territory from the liquor interests. Gov. Hanly of Indiana and Gov. Hoch of Kansas headed the committee. They met with very little encouragement.

The caucus of the Republican members of the house on the financial question resulted in the approval of the Vreeland bill, which makes commercial paper a security for emergency currency. A commission to study the financial question was also recommended.

Representative Murdock of Kansas has introduced a bill in the house which provides for the payment of $3 a day to union soldiers captured by the enemy during the time they were imprisoned.

The house has agreed to the conference report on the bill reorganizing the consular service.

The senate has adopted a resolution asking the interstate commerce commission for information regarding the enforcement of the commodity clause of the railroad rate bill.

The house and senate have reached a complete agreement on the army appropriation bill, thus insuring an increase in pay of officers and men of about 35 per cent. The bill carries an appropriation of $95,382,246.

A bill for the establishment of a central bank of issue of the United States was introduced in the house by Mr. Burton of Ohio.

A resolution has passed both houses of congress appropriating $250,000 to aid persons made destitute by the recent storms in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

The senate has passed a bill appropriating $5,000 toward the erection of a monument to Pocahontas at Jamestown, Va.

The nomination of William R. Wheeler of California to be assistant secretary of commerce and labor has been confirmed by the senate.

The postoffice bill has been reported to the senate in skeleton form by the committee.

Congress has accepted a marble bust of Abraham Lincoln from Eugene Meyer, Jr., of New York.

The house by a vote of 167 has gone on record against the reestablishment of the canteen in national soldiers' homes.

The house has passed the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Miscellaneous.

Mr. Norris before the special congressional committee, investigating the print paper situation produced figures to show that American paper companies own or control 8,594 square miles of forest land in the province of Quebec, Canada.

Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma has sent to the legislature a special message urging the establishment of an "ideal capital" by locating a new town in the geographical center of the state and erecting the capitol buildings from the proceeds from lot sales.

The government crop report shows the total area of winter wheat standing on May 1 was 29,751,000 acres. The average condition was 89 per cent.

A chair brought over in the Mayflower by Miles Standish has been presented to the Kansas State Historical society by Mrs. L. H. Harris of Miltonvale, Cloud county.

The May option on corn reached 74 cents a bushel in Chicago recently.

A 16-year-old Italian boy employed in a New York barber shop cut the throats of his employer, his wife and three barbers. He was thought to be an agent of the Black Hand society.

William Tennant, accused of being one of the bandits who held up the cashier and robbed the State Bank of Chautauque, Kan., in April, has been arrested in Denver.

H. H. Tucker, Jr., secretary of the Uncle Sam Oil company, has been acquitted at Topeka of the charge of using the mails to defraud.

The Congregationalists of Kansas own property in the state valued at $817,000, an increase during the past year of $290,000.

The national convention of the various boards of the Methodist Episcopal church (South) was recently held in St. Joseph, Mo. Nine bishops were in attendance.

The Kansas State Sunday School association will meet next year in Topeka. At the recent meeting in Wichita there was an attendance of 3,400.

Two more bodies have been unearthed on the Mrs. Guinness farm near La Porte, Ind., making the total to date 11.

Gov. Gooding of Idaho has relieved Harry Orchard, the self-confessed murderer of former Gov. Steunenberg, until July 2.

The Canadian authorities have refused admittance to Canada of 20 American negroes engaged to work on a canal in Alberta province.

Two cases involving claims for loss of cattle shipped by the Santa Fe railroad during the floods in Kansas in 1903 were decided by the United States supreme court in favor of the railroad company. This decision affirms the findings of the United States district court of Kansas.

One man was killed and a great deal of damage caused by a violent storm of wind and rain which recently swept Chicago.

Two thousand employees of the St. Louis & San Francisco railroad shops at Springfield, Mo., have been laid off for an indefinite period.

An Oklahoma law recently signed by the governor makes it unlawful for white and persons of African descent to attend the same school.

The executive committee of the American Bankers' association has decided upon Denver as the next meet-

Secretary of the Navy Melcalf reviewed the combined Atlantic and Pacific fleets at San Francisco recently. There were 44 vessels present, ranging from battleships to torpedo boats. Rear Admiral Evans was unable to appear on the Connecticut and the command devolved on Rear Admiral Thomas.

The 72 men stranded on the crumbling bulk of the German steamer Peter Rickmers off the coast of Long Island were successfully brought to shore by the life savers after facing death for 48 hours.

Two solid business blocks in Atlanta, Ga., were destroyed by fire the other day, causing a loss of $1,500,000. For a time the entire business district of the city was threatened with destruction.

Mrs. Russell Sage has offered the American Bible society a fund of $500,000 on condition that a like sum shall be raised by the end of the year. The purpose is to establish a permanent endowment for the society.

The United States supreme court has advanced the hearing of the case of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, involving its right to do business in Texas to the first day of the October term.

In 95 cases brought by the government against six railroads charged with violations of the 28-hour law for the protection of cattle in transit Judge Landis in the United States district court of Chicago imposed fines aggregating $13,150. The Rock Island headed the list with 45 cases and was fined $6,550.

The Kentucky delegates to the national Republican convention have been instructed for Secretary Taft.

The Japanese military authorities are preparing to dedicate a monument to the Russian dead in Port Arthur.

The bishops' address to the M. E. general conference in session at Baltimore noted a gain in membership during the past four years of 278,359. There are now 20,161 pastors who preach the gospel to 3,807,275 communicants in 130 languages and dialects throughout the world.

A grand military, naval and civic parade was the principal feature of the opening day of the entertainment planned by San Francisco for the officers and men of the battleship fleet. Fifteen thousand men were in line.

The battleship fleet, after its 14,000-mile journey from the Atlantic, made its grand entry into San Francisco exactly on time. The vessels were given a royal welcome by thousands of visitors from all parts of the country.

Four additional bodies of murdered people have been discovered on the farm of Mrs. Guinness near La Porte, Ind., making a total of nine thus far unearthed. The authorities believe that most of the corpses had been shipped from Chicago to hide traces of crime committed in that city. The search for other bodies will continue.

The general conference of the Methodist church has begun its 25th quadrennial session in Baltimore.

A general arbitration treaty between the United States and Japan has been signed by Secretary Root and Ambassador Takahira.

At a meeting of stockholders of the Union Pacific railroad the directors were authorized to issue $100,000,000 in bonds for improvements and the purchase of other lines.

Gov. Haskell of Oklahoma has signed the anti-bucketshop bill and all the bucketshops and brokerage establishments in the state have quit business.

On motion of the attorneys for the government the trial of the editor of the Appeal to Reason, at Fort Scott, Kan., has been continued to the November term of court.

Gov. Harris of Ohio has ordered out troops to protect the tobacco districts and has declared martial law in Brown county.

The Kansas anti-trust suits against the International Harvester company and the Standard Oil company have been continued by the state supreme court until the October term of court.

Austria-Hungary is celebrating the diamond jubilee of the reign of Emperor Francis Joseph.

Personal.

Wu-Ting Fang, the Chinese minister to the United States, at a food scientists' dinner, declared that for two years he has abstained from all intoxicants, tea, coffee, meat, fish and fowl and has lived on nuts and fruits and vegetables.

Bishop Thoburn of Bombay, India, has requested the M. E. general conference in session at Baltimore to relieve him of active service on account of increasing years.

Thomas J. Sullivan, director of the bureau of engraving and printing at Washington, is dead.

George J. Deagle, well known 20 years ago as a theatrical manager in St. Louis and Chicago, is dead at the home of his son-in-law in Port Washington, L. I.

Jacob H. Schiff, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., who has just returned from Europe, says financial conditions abroad reflect the state of affairs here, and that prosperity can nowhere return until the United States has recovered from the recent crisis.

Fernando Guachara has been elected president of Bolivia in succession to Senor Ismael Montes, whose term expires August 14 next.

Col. John A. Ackerson of St. Louis has received a decoration from the French government. He was director of the liberal arts department of the World's fair.

Maj. O. P. Chaffee, a brother of Lieut. Gen. A. R. Chaffee, retired, is dead at his home in Kansas City.

Paul Morton, president of the Equitable Life Assurance society, has been elected a director and member of the executive committee of the Santa Fe Railroad company.

Secretary Taft has arrived safely at Colon, Panama, on the United States cruiser Prairia.

Percy Wade was recently convicted of conducting a "bucket shop" in Washington and sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Harry Orchard's attorney has asked the Idaho board of pardons to commute Orchard's sentence as recommended by Judge Wood.

Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, who has been critically ill, has a

FIRE AT ATLANTA

LOSS OF MILLION AND HALF DOLLARS IN SOUTHERN CITY.

NO LOSS OF LIFE REPORTED

Terminal Hotel and Many Business Houses in Heart of the Downtown Section Completely Destroyed.

Two solid business blocks of Atlanta, Ga., are in ruins as the result of a fire which threatened for a time to carry the destruction through the business portion of the city and perhaps wipe out the entire downtown district. The fire loss may be conservatively estimated at $1,500,000. The Terminal hotel, one of the largest in the city, is a mass of brick. It had on its register 300 guests when the fire started a block away. Every one escaped.

The fire started in the Schlessinger-Meyer Baking Company building at 3:30 a. m., and within a few minutes the building was in flames. The wagons had just started away with their early morning loads of baked-stuff when the alarm was given and an attempt was made to start the electric elevator in the Schlessinger building, to awaken the employees asleep there. The elevator failed to respond to the starting mechanism and the fire authorities believe the fire may have been due to some defect in the electric elevator.

When the first fire company arrived the building was a mass of flames. Flames were shooting from every window of the big building that ran the entire block, and were leaping high in the air from the middle of the building. The water pressure was poor and try as they could the firemen could not get a stream that would carry above the second floor.

Half an hour after the fire started, threatening walls made it necessary to remove the engines on the Mitchell street side of the building, and 50 firemen with streams of water playing upon them dragged the engines to a place of safety.

Meanwhile high power trolleys and electric light wires were falling everywhere, parts of walls were dropping out and with the high wind prevailing the flames were shot across the street to the Terminal hotel which acted as a sort of a flue for the fire. Floor after floor of the Terminal hotel was soon ablaze. The firemen were fought back until they were in the rear of the Terminal hotel, where lack of water again retarded any effort to check the fire. Within half an hour the walls and roof of the hotel had fallen in.

Spreading from Madison street to Nelson street, the fire ate its way into the Liquid Carbonic Company structure, a five-story building to the east and within a short space of time there were two terrific explosions, which seemed to carry all remaining walls and the roof of this building to the basement.

Next to the Carbonic company's building was the Inman block, which faced on Forsyth street. This building was a three-story building extending from Nelson street on Forsyth north to Mitchell, and contained nine or ten business concerns. A narrow alley separated the Inman block from the fire and it was soon a mass of flames and fire company after fire company was drawn away from other spots and their combined force applied here, for it was at this point the fire was to be stopped from crossing Mitchell and Forsyth streets and burning further into the city.

East of the Terminal hotel, on Mitchell, was the Marlon hotel annex, and Childs hotel. The fire stopped after ruining the latter hotel. Across the street, postoffice station "B," the most important sub-station in the city, the Southern Suspender Company and the Southern Handkerchief Manufacturing Company, the Piedmont Hat Company and McClure's Ten-Cent store all fell away like so many cigar boxes.

Spreading from Madison street to Nelson street, the fire ate its way into the Liquid Carbonic Company structure, a five-story building to the east and within a short space of time there were two terrific explosions, which seemed to carry all remaining walls and the roof of this building to the basement.

Next to the Carbonic company's building was the Inman block, which faced on Forsyth street. This building was a three-story building extending from Nelson street on Forsyth north to Mitchell, and contained nine or ten business concerns. A narrow alley separated the Inman block from the fire and it was soon a mass of flames and fire company after fire company was drawn away from other spots and their combined force applied here, for it was at this point the fire was to be stopped from crossing Mitchell and Forsyth streets and burning further into the city.

East of the Terminal hotel, on Mitchell, was the Marlon hotel annex, and Childs hotel. The fire stopped after ruining the latter hotel. Across the street, postoffice station "B," the most important sub-station in the city, the Southern Suspender Company and the Southern Handkerchief Manufacturing Company, the Piedmont Hat Company and McClure's Ten-Cent store all fell away like so many cigar boxes.

Spreading from Madison street to Nelson street, the fire ate its way into the Liquid Carbonic Company structure, a five-story building to the east and within a short space of time there were two terrific explosions, which seemed to carry all remaining walls and the roof of this building to the basement.

Next to the Carbonic company's building was the Inman block, which faced on Forsyth street. This building was a three-story building extending from Nelson street on Forsyth north to Mitchell, and contained nine or ten business concerns. A narrow alley separated the Inman block from the fire and it was soon a mass of flames and fire company after fire company was drawn away from other spots and their combined force applied here, for it was at this point the fire was to be stopped from crossing Mitchell and Forsyth streets and burning further into the city.

East of the Terminal hotel, on Mitchell, was the Marlon hotel annex, and Childs

The Ord Quiz

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. O. PARSONS, City Editor.

ORD, NEBRASKA

Entered at the postoffice at Ord as second class mail matter.

Advertising Rates.

	1 Wk.	1 Mo.	3 Mo.	6 Mo.	1 Year
Less than 5 inches, per inch	3.00	7.50	20.00	35.00	50.00
5 to 10 inches, per inch	3.50	8.50	22.50	37.50	52.50
10 to 15 inches, per inch	4.00	9.50	25.00	40.00	55.00
15 to 20 inches, per inch	4.50	10.50	27.50	42.50	57.50
20 to 25 inches, per inch	5.00	11.50	30.00	45.00	60.00
25 to 30 inches, per inch	5.50	12.50	32.50	47.50	62.50

A month is four insertions.
Want local 5 cents a line.
Regular local 10 cents a line.
Black local 15 cents a line.

Subscriptions may begin or end at any time. Notice to stop this paper will be promptly obeyed. All subscriptions are received with the express understanding that the subscription may continue until the subscriber notifies the publisher of his desire to terminate the subscription.

Subscription Rates.

One copy, if paid in reasonable time, $1.50.
If unpaid year after year, $2.

Will Need New School Building

A new school building is already an imperative demand. For two years the condition of our school rooms has been over crowded, and getting more so, till now it is simply impossible to accommodate all the pupils who will come to our schools next year. To meet this condition the school board are negotiating for the lease of a building which will fill the bill passably, but of course no building can be had to meet the requirements as they should be. Surely this condition cannot be allowed to continue and naturally the only remedy is in the erection of a new school house. Fortunately the district is at this time in a most excellent condition to meet the necessities of the situation from a financial point of view. We are nearly out of debt, and what is left unpaid in this line—about $5500—can be easily provided for by the funds now on hand and by the levy of this year. So a move may be made to build next year and have the slate wholly cleaned off for the occasion.

Just what the general plan should be may be a question for debate, but the presumption is that the old school house, which was never much of a building anyway, should be pulled down and a modern and wholly up-to-date building erected on the site.

To do this and give time for building the new school house, it will be necessary to vote the bonds this year, get the full plans and let the contracts this fall. As soon as the work may be commenced in the spring some temporary shift might be made for rooms for the children now housed in the old building and the work of demolition commenced. By pushing the thing along the building ought to be ready for occupancy before cold weather sets in in the fall.

If the building cannot be completed in time for the opening of school in September the same temporary arrangements might be made for rooms till it is done. This would throw the use of the temporary rooms in the warm ends of the school years when any kind of a building would do.

Let the question be talked about by our people and a full decision reached in ample time to close matters up early this fall.

Even should the Nebraska fruit crop be a failure with a good corn and alfalfa crop in sight we guess that Nebraskans can afford to buy what fruit they want to eat.

Along with its other resources Nebraska can claim distinction in being able to raise a presidential candidate that can gobble the Democratic plum as often as it ripens on the tree.

The past week has added a couple more states to the Taft column and it looks as though he would be the republican presidential nominee without much of a contest.

There is no little talk going about favorable to the nomination of Claude A. Davis for county attorney, and we are advised that he will accept the place if nominated by the republicans. He is surely a man well qualified to become the county's legal adviser.

The question of selecting a republican candidate for representative we had supposed would settle itself in the choice of J. P. Baird, who has filled that place very acceptably. To our surprise, however, we learn today of the refusal of Mr. Baird to stand for election again. He is in ill health and does not want to take up the burden of legislative work again. This raises the query as to whom the republicans should name. It is no easy matter ordinarily to pick on just the right man, for not every man is suited to the place. But this job will be made easy if Peter Mortenson will accept the place. What do you think of naming Mortenson?

And now Edgar Howard of the Columbus Telegram, wants to represent his district in congress. This congressional bee is no new thing with the Columbus editor as he made an unsuccessful race for that office against Dave Mercer in the second district several years ago. His chances will be some better this year should he get the nomination, for he has now moved over in the third district and a pop has a much better show there.

The more one reads and studies the meaning of municipal elections east and west the more he is convinced that the anti-saloon movement is not a spasmodic movement of radicals but the arousing to action of sensible people all over the country and yet the former secretary of Senator Millard, J. B. Haynes, who is now working on a salary for interests evidently financed by the brewers of Omaha, is trying to convince the country publisher that prohibition is a failure everywhere and that the Slocumb liquor law must not be weakened by any county option bill. Does the gentleman take the country publishers of Nebraska for a lot of unthinking, brainless men who have to have such men as Mr. Haynes evoke ideas for them? If prohibition is a failure everywhere what hurt will a county option bill do the liquor interests? If there is as much liquor sold in towns without license (their old argument) why not cut out license everywhere and save the cost. Don't fight the county option measure, Mr. Haynes; for like all other true efforts at reform the antagonism of such interests as you represent will only strengthen the cause you seek to weaken. —Tekamah Journal.

More Locals

FOR SALE CHEAP—if taken soon the house on lot 1, block 40, purchaser to remove house from premises. See me or E. M. Williams. W. B. Keown, 7

LOST—Between my place and Midvale church on Wednesday evening May 6, a gray saddle blanket. Finder please notify me and oblige H. W. Trefren. Phone O 19.

WANTED—By wholesale phonograph company one in each county to fill out weekly information list. 10 to 100 dollars monthly. W. Williams, Channah, Ill. 7-11-pd.

The North Loup Glee Club and entertainers will appear at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. Do not forget the time or place. It will be worth your while to attend.

John Beran returned home from his extended trip west, last night, bringing with him his grand daughter, a child of Frank Barta, who will make her home with the grand parents so that she may have the advantage of good schooling.

Will Moses tells us that he has contracts for a mile or more of new cement sidewalk for this spring's work all of which leads us to remark that we do not believe that there is a town of the size of Ord in the state that has as many miles of good cement sidewalk as has Ord.

Clare Spaulding sends us an invitation to attend, and a program of the big shooting match of the Lincoln Gun Club which is to be held next week. We would lie to accept the invitation for we feel assured that Clare would see that we had a good time, but are unable to do so at this time.

Judging from the fruit in our orchard we are inclined to the hope that there is not going to be a total failure after all in spite of the week of frosts. There will be quite a cherry crop, a few apples, some gooseberries, abundance of currants, and there are many pears. This latter fruit was set when the freeze came and to all appearance the little fellows stood the cold all right. Anyway they are growing still. It is a marvel that any fruit at all stood the cold spell.

HON. WARREN G. HARDING

One of the biggest political men in the United States and a real head liner. A very interesting speaker at the Ord Chamber of Commerce.

ENTERPRISE DEPARTMENT

By JOHN L. WARD

G. A. Kellison visited Charles Purcell's Sunday.

Mil Bowers and Bud Bell visited in Ord Monday.

First call for the man with the lawn mower.

C. W. Noll was at Midvale Sunday for morning services.

Charles Mars planted corn Wednesday.

Harry Cook, who has been working for his brothers, Andy and Jim for several weeks is back home now helping put in the corn crop.

Will Armstrong purchased alfalfa seed of J. A. Ollis to sow on top of his hill. We don't know whether to call this sowing it down or sowing it up.

Mary Armstrong will give an exhibition of her Korean curios at Midvale on Thursday night. If you have not yet seen this exhibit now is your chance to do so.

Charles Parcell purchased seed corn at this office Monday. He tells us that he will have more fruit this year than he can possibly use. We suppose he means hen fruit.

A preacher from Kearney held services at Midvale and Davis Creek Sunday. His object was to raise money for a new church at Kearney. Fifty or sixty dollars was raised at both places.

We did not attend the show for two good reasons, we couldn't spare the money and we didn't have the price. Then we had to work and we figure that we made ten dollars by harrowing that day. Those who want say it was worth the price if you did not have too far to go.

While I forgot to mention it last week, it may still be useful to know that the proper time to plant corn is from 5 to 10 days before it comes up. Corn should always be planted with the sprout side down; otherwise the ears will be inside out. If you get the corn in the box wrong side up, turn the planter up side down.

Claude Honnold returned from Oklahoma last Tuesday to settle up a few matters connected with the well business. He reports everything down there as doing fine. Corn is up and some is being cultivated and wheat is heading out. He brought along substantial proof of the fruit crop, having with him peaches, plums and nectarines as large as hailstones, and some even larger. He does not expect to remain long and will probably escape in a month or six weeks.

SPRINGDALE DEPARTMENT

By G. R. MANN

Problem for Eight Grade

A man bought a cow for $36 and 5-6 of the cost of the cow equaled 2-9 of the cost of a horse. What did the horse cost?

Rachel Haught was at Ralph Haught's Monday.

Eighth grammar are classifying sentences as to structure.

Joe and Albert Valosek were at Chris Thompson's Sunday.

The eighth grade history have completed the Civil war period.

Mrs. Ralph Haught and son were at Joan VanWie's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George McLain and son Andrew visited at John McLain's Sunday.

Mrs. O. M. Seerley visited her son L. W. Seerley during the interim from Saturday till Monday.

Lester Seerley severed his connections with Steven's ranch and at present is at Elmer King's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Haught and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Timmerman visited at Ernest Timmerman's Thursday evening.

George Morris had quite a severe tussle with tonsillitis the latter part of last week. He was a pretty sick man for a few days. We are pleased to state that he is greatly improved at the present writing.

Mae Davis of Fullerton has been visiting with her friends, the Misses Longs, for the past few weeks. She expects to return to her home Friday. Her many friends trust that she may see fit to visit them often as her coming is always looked forward to with pleasant anticipation.

Miss Lottie Long is assisting in the George Morris home at

Early in life the average boy is imbued with a desire to get out and see the world. Later his ideas change and he wants the world to see him and he fails to realize that in order to be in the limelight, he must make himself worth while. About the time that his thoughts are most needed in school he gets the sight of a rosy-cheeked, fair-haired girl across the aisle distracts his attention from the task of filling up his thought reservoir. He lets the square root of X-1 equal a rude caricature with an explanation, "this is Maymie," written above it. And he isn't selfish about it either. He loves them all. As time goes on he singles out those who particularly appeal to his taste, until the number decreases to unity. When this occurs he usually finds that the decision was made too late and he has it all to do over again. The boy of sixteen has no settled ideas of what his future may be. He entertains ideas of being a highwayman or a missionary and often on alternate days or different hours of the same day. But there is no need of rushing matters. He has plenty of time. He thinks that a general education will fit him alike to lead and to follow, to rule and to be ruled, to teach, to preach, to labor, to fight, to destroy. Give him time. He will try them all and then select the occupation most to his liking. The thousands of young men who are drifting along from year to year with no settled aim or work are realizing the fallacy of this doctrine. Ambition is a splendid trait of character and it should be cultivated in youth. But it is beyond the amplitude of one mind to follow two lines of work and meet with the highest success. In this specializing age the importance of selecting a trade early in life cannot be overestimated. Your life's work requires a life of special preparation. You cannot play foot ball without knowing the rules of the game, and the awkward youth is no match for the one who has mastered the art of self defense. If special training is essential along this line, how much more it must be needed where mind contends with mind for the mastery. The future of our nation depends on the boys and girls of today, and definiteness of purpose is one of the prime essentials for both national and individual success.

Mrs. Barkheimer and children visited at A. Ward's Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Agnes Breton visited in the Valley a few days this week.

The girls are interested in school gardens at present.

Charles Parkos visited at W. N. Hawkins's Monday and Tuesday.

Gertude and Etta Hawkins spent Monday evening at L. W. Seerley's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Portis spent Sunday with Charles Turner and family.

The sixth arithmetic are improving themselves by firmly fixing the aliquot parts of 100.

William Aldrich and daughter Nell was at W. N. Hawkins's Sunday after church services.

Sixth reading interpreted some scripture selections this week. One day was also devoted to bird study.

Mr. and Mrs. VanWie and daughter spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbard.

Will McLain, the genial Watkins salesman, called on his many patrons the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Zikmund were at Henry Vodehal's Sunday. Misses Jennie and Tillie Zikmund accompanied them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lars Hanson visited at the Ed. Hanson home Sunday. The latter returned the compliment Monday afternoon.

The eighth arithmetic completed the six per cent method and are at present interested in computing interest, using the actual number of days.

During the latter part of last week W. N. Hawkins had a touch of lagrippe. Friday and Saturday were his worst days. He is much better at present.

Arthur Perkins, who has served both Springdale and Spelts Grain Co. so efficiently during the past year, has made another arrangement for our convenience. He has recently received a shipment of nigger head coal of the highest quality and desires it announced that he plans to carry a line of high grade coal in the future. If you need coal you will do well to call on Mr. Perkins at once.

Big Discount Sale

on millinery at Angle Bond Orcutt's. Trimmed and untrimmed millinery going at your own prices. Produce taken in exchange.

Ord Market Top-Prices
Potatoes, 40c.
Butter, 13c.
Eggs, 11c.
Hens, 7c.
Hogs, $1.80
Oats, 41c.
Corn, 60c.
Wheat, 83c.

Referee Sale

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley County, Nebraska in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorenson is plaintiff and Thomas Sorenson, Neils Sorenson, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorenson, Annie Sorenson, and Laurits Sorenson are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundson, Referee. 5

SEVERE HAIL AND WIND STORMS

visited the eastern part of the state Tuesday, doing great damage to people and property. Had n't you better have YOUR buildings and crops insured now, before a storm hits them? The St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Co., of Minnesota, has been tried for many years in this county, and always pays promptly and in full for hail, wind or fire loss. Over a million and a half dollars of surplus assets back of every policy.

See J. H. Capron, Agent, Ord.

In Justice's Court in and for Valley County, Nebraska.

Byron E. Inglehart, plaintiff vs. Judson F. Rogers, defendant.

Judson F. Rogers, defendant in the above entitled action, will take notice that on the seventh day of May, 1908, Herman Westover, justice of the peace of Ord precinct, Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $15.75, in an action pending before him, wherein Byron E. Inglehart is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of the defendant consisting of the following goods and chattels, to-wit:

1 Show case	30 Desert plates
4 Round tables	3 Pitchers
16 Chairs	2 Pitchers
18 Haviland China plates	20 Desert plates
1 Show case	1 Dozen cups and saucers
120 Dinner plates	22 Soup plates
25 Desert plates	1 Set of cups and saucers
35 Dinner plates

has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 23d day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.

LOWE BROTHERS
PAINTS
GIVE BEST RESULTS & CORNELLS

It contains both the Quantity & Quality to make it worth more than others to the consumer

One gallon of Lowe Bros. "H. S." Paint weighs more, measures larger, and spreads farther, than any cheap paint. Test it and prove our statement. We can sell you Paint & Oil, the best on the market at a reasonable price.

FLEA IN THE PLEIADES.

Indian Legend About Five Maidens Who Would Marry For Love.

A curious explanation of the origin of the Pleiades is given by a writer in Out West, who secured it, among other myths, from a tribe of California Indians.

According to this piece of tradition, a great chief was the father of five daughters so beautiful that they attracted many suitors, but they declared they would remain single unless they could marry for love.

They were very cold and critical and quite ignored the young men who came to court them. One day when they were playing and singing Baakil, "the Flea," heard them and followed the sound until he came in sight of them. He was so captivated that he prayed the Great Spirit to transform him into a handsome man.

No sooner said than done. When the five daughters stopped dancing, there among them was so beautiful a masculine being that they fell in love without further ado. When the Flea had decided on his choice, he went to the chief and asked for her and was happily surprised to find that all five of the girls pinned to be his.

So he married them all, one after the other, and they lived in peace and happiness through the winter. But with the late spring and summer a change took place. The heat affected the Flea, and every time he embraced any of his wives they began to itch. Their rosy cheeks vanished, their buoyancy became languor, and one took pity on the other and said:

"You must leave him to save your beauty."

When all five had been told the same thing from each other they decided that something must be done. So at midnight the five sisters met, and each proposed a way of escape, yet none was available save that of the youngest. Her plan was that they leave him for good and all.

To accomplish this end they gave him a sleeping draft when he awoke at the usual hour for his drink, for the Flea was a very light sleeper, and the hurrying and bustling of the five women would have awakened him had he not been drugged. When he was in his soundest sleep the women departed.

When the Flea awoke many hours later and got up he thought, "Where are my wives?" Looking about, he realized that they had fled. He went eastward and had journeyed many days when just about to rest on the sandy shore of the ocean he caught sight of them and excitedly exclaimed:

"I will catch you yet!"

They heard him, and the youngest turned to see how far behind he was. She called to her sisters: "Let us hasten. He is gaining on us rapidly." Curiosity caused the others to turn. They lost time until again the youngest cried, "He is very near!" Then with one voice they cried: "We will go up into the air! There he cannot come with us!"

Slowly and gracefully they rose until they reached the places they now occupy in the sky. Baakil again invoked aid of the Great Chief and through him was also allowed to arise to the sky. But before he was able to embrace any of his wives he, too, was turned into a star.

That is why there now are five stars close together in the Pleiades and one at the side. This one the

WONDERFUL INSECTS.

How Ants Bridged a Saucer of Water With a Straw.

Reaumur in his "L'Histoire des Insectes" says that Cardinal Fleury told him that he saw ants on one occasion build a bridge of earth across some bird lime which had been spread on a tree. On another occasion the cardinal saw these intelligent little architects build a floating bridge across a vessel of water surrounding the bottom of an orange tree tub. They used wood in the construction of this bridge, thus showing that they were aware of the nature of the material necessary to make their bridge a success and that they possessed no small engineering skill.

Still more wonderful is the account by Dr. Ellendorf, who writes that he saw ants bridge a saucer of water with a straw. He had placed the legs of a cupboard in saucers of water, thus for a few days preventing the ravages of the ants. Finally, however, they again got access to the cupboard and were as bad as ever. On examination he found a straw in one of the saucers which lay obliquely across the edge of the vessel and touched the leg of the cupboard. The ants were using the straw as a bridge.

"I now pushed the straw about an inch away from the cupboard leg," writes Dr. Ellendorf, "and immediately a terrible confusion arose. In a moment the leg immediately over the water was covered with hundreds of ants, feeling for the bridge in every direction with the antennae, running back again and coming in ever larger swarms, as though they had communicated to their comrades within the cupboard the fearful misfortune that had taken place.

"Meanwhile the newcomers continued to run along the straw, and, not finding the leg of the cupboard, the greatest perplexity arose. They hurried around the edge of the saucer and soon found out where the fault lay. With united forces they quickly pulled and pushed at the straw until it again came into contact with the leg of the cupboard, and the communication was then restored."

In a Hurry, but Could Wait.
"Let me see some hosiery in a hurry, please," said an important appearing person as he rushed into a gentleman's clothing store the other day.

"What kind, please?" queried the clerk politely.

"Oh, anything about half a dollar," replied the fellow, "only hurry, will you? I've only got a second to get a train."

The hosiery was forthcoming in quick season, and the buyer was told he owed the firm 49 cents for the same.

"Haven't got the change," he said. "Here's half a dollar."

The half was placed in the cash box and dispatched to the cashier's desk. That busy person was occupied at the time, and it was several minutes before she got around to making the change. When it reached the clerk the man who was in such a hurry to catch a train was still waiting. He threw the penny into his pocket and darted through the door.—Brocton Times.

You will find my horse and jack books with Lou Schwamer. Please settle with him.

The Excellence of Our MILLINERY

We want every woman in this city to visit our Millinery Department and see for herself our splendid offering of smart new hats.

We specialize in moderate priced hats, and we get into these all the style and becomingness and smart lines usually found in highest priced models.

Our salespeople are trained to find you a becoming hat, and our stock is large and choice enough to permit of their doing so.

Just received a lot of the newest styles in the very popular Merry Widow Sailors. They come in straws, braids and nets.

Also have just received another shipment of those large and beautiful roses.

You will make no mistake in buying your new hat at this store. We have now the best Milliner that we have ever had and can fit you out with a hat that is new and stylish and is also moderate in price.

So far, we have had by far the largest season that we have ever had in our Millinery Department. At times we have not been able to get the new goods here as fast as we could sell them, but we have a good supply on hand now and can please you in every way.

THE NEW DRESS GOODS

The counters and shelves are piled high with new things these days. The produce of many looms—American and foreign—go to swell the showing. Selecting a dress is easy and pleasant work here, the variety is so great and prices so satisfying. Every fashionable shade is represented in many different fabrics. All the new stripes in duo-tones and smart color combinations are here. Neat checks and subdued plaids for the young folks; beautiful black fabrics; an almost endless list of weaves in cream and white to satisfy the big demand for white this summer.

Commencement Dresses

Second only in importance to her wedding day, in many a young woman's eyes, is her graduating day, when she bids farewell to the friends and the close intimacies of years and faces the broader activities of life. The graduation gown should be worthy of the occasion, sweet, dainty, attractive. We have all the fabrics most suitable—fine India linens, Swisses, Batistes, Persian lawns, Suesine, and China silks. We can surely please you in these Goods—the prices are from 25c to 88c a yard.

We have a long established reputation of having the best line of Dress Goods that is to be found in this Section of the Country.

You will find that our stock at this time is fully in keeping with that reputation. We have an elegant line of Wash Goods and a splendid assortment of Wool Goods.

Come in. We will be Glad to Show you the New Goods.

Ord's Best Trading Place.

The Baileys' Department Store

Strictly One Price.

THE ORD QUIZ

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. C. PARSONS, City Editor.

ORD, VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Sanford Dodge tomorrow night.

Mrs. Clyde Wellman was in the city this week.

Business called Frank Misko to Central City Monday morning.

The Baptist church is being repapered and painted throughout.

What do you know about that rain last night? Wasn't that the tinny?

Claude Davis and John Maresh made the trip to Arcadia overland Tuesday.

Order strawberries, oranges or bananas with your Saturday order. Ord Mercantile Co.

Mrs. Homer Botts returned from Missouri last Friday where she has been visiting for the past three weeks.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carson returned from their trip east, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. Caison's father at Kewanee, Illinois.

On Tuesday of this week Mrs. G. T. Hather was 70 years old, and the good lady is still quite vigorous. She has already lived to a greater age than her parents or any of her brothers and sisters. We are hoping that a long time yet is allotted to her.

RALPH BINGHAM

The fun maker, musician, monologist and raconteur, Big enough jolly enough to take all criticisms, and crave for more. Mr Bingham is one of the strong drawing cards of the Ord

A telephone call took Sheriff Sutton to North Loup Monday morning where it was stated that the authorities had arrested the notorious Taylor, the Minden murderer. When the sheriff looked the man over it did not take him long to decide that they had picked up the wrong fellow, for the suspected individual was no other than the fellow who was sent up from here a about a year ago with Jack Hansen, for burglarizing the Ernest Bros. hardware store at North Loup. The fellow had just recently finished serving his time in the pen and came back to look up a pocket book containing forty-five dollars that had been hidden in the bottom of an old hay stack near North Loup before they were arrested for the burglary. In his search for the missing treasure he attracted the attention of some farmers living near and he was held in custody with the idea in view that he was the Minden man. He stated that his search for the missing pocket book had availed him nothing as a new hay stack had been erected over the old stack bottom where the purse had been hidden.

See our fine line of hammocks. Ord Mercantile Co.

Tuesday night the Laurel Club enjoyed its annual feed, which, according to the usual custom, was paid for by the defeated half of the club. This function was given at the home of the new president, Mrs. Haskell and was of course under the auspices of the defeated half of the club, who, though they may not have been as good students as the other half, proved themselves to be royal entertainers. At about 8:00 o'clock dinner was announced and the guests seated at small tables about the premises and a very elaborate repast of numerous courses served. When the tables were cleared, games of various sorts were engaged in till a reasonable hour. The company consisted of club members, their husbands and a few others.

A severe windstorm visited the eastern part of the state Tuesday evening causing loss of life and great destruction of property. Call on W. H. Carson and get your property insured against these storms.

The Continental Fire Insurance Company has a net surplus exclusively protecting American policy-holders larger than that of any other company doing business in America. Claude A. Davis, Agent.

The "Merchant of Venice" as will be produced by Sanford Dodge tomorrow night at the opera house is one of the best shows on the road. Don't miss Bring your chickens, butter and eggs. We pay top prices, cash or trade. Ord Mercantile Co.

J. K. Waring, the deputy sheriff of Dawson county has been in these parts the past week soliciting advertisements in his railroad time table. He appears to be pretty successful at the business as he has issued cards in nearly all of the towns in this part of the county.

Mrs. John Beran and daughter Agnes returned from Clarkson Tuesday evening where they had been called on account of the accident to Mrs. Beran's daughter's babe. The child was considerably improved before they started for home and an early recovery was looked forward to.

The contract for the new Frank Dworak building was let to Charley Goodhand the first of the week and work on the building commenced at once. The structure will be two story brick with the usual commodious basement and with all the latest improvements for a modern store building.

The lawn tennis season is at hand. Already three or four courts have been fitted up in different parts of town and one or two more are contemplated. The game bids fair to be the leading sport in these parts this summer as most of the base ball enthusiasts have joined the tennis players.

Sanford Dodge, the eminent tragedian and Louise Marshall, supported by an excellent company will be at the Wentworth opera house tomorrow, Friday night, in that grand old Shakespearean play, "The Merchant of Venice." This is the best attraction secured by Mr. Wentworth this year as it is seldom that a such a big show stops at a town of this size. The company carries its own scenery and shows a lavish array of fine gowns and costumes. Sanford Dodge in "The Merchant of Venice," at the opera house tomorrow night.

Sweet potato plants for sale Saturday. Want some? Ord Mercantile Co.

It is reported that Campbell Brothers lost a fine horse at Ord this week, after exhibition here, the animal having been fed too much green alfalfa. The horse was valued at over $800. The show is said to have lost money here but to have had good business at Central City and Ord. A story—how authentic we do not know—also has it that one of the elephants became decidedly too inquisitive on one of the trips in this section and, running its trunk out of a rear window, uncoupled the train.—Grand

There seems to be some complaint about the new cross walk, half of which has been laid between the bank and Milford corner. The bank folks think that the crossing is too high and with a heavy rain the basement of the building would be flooded and thus do them considerable damage. To the writer it seems as though it was about time that the city authorities would take some steps to establish a grade for the construction of sidewalks and crosswalks. Years ago we understand that such a grade was established but the records of its establishment and the monument from which the measurements were to start from have become lost and for the past few years sidewalks have been put in around town without any reference to any established grade with the result that there is a step off from one to six inches in many places where the walks run together. If for no other reason than the looks of the thing we believe that the walks should have been put in to line up. While of course at this late date much of the damage has already been done, yet it is not too late to establish some permanent mark as a sight from which new sidewalks may be constructed from in the future.

3 packages seeded raisins for 25 cents. Ord Mercantile Co.

We have been asked by several where the chautauqua would be held this summer but until the present time we have been unable to give any information on the subject. Tuesday morning Manager Davis gave it out that the same location as selected last year, the Anderson Island, would undoubtedly be the location. It seems that the promoters of the affair had three sites in view, namely the vacant lots opposite the high school building, the fair grounds and the sight selected. While much could be said in favor of all three of the locations it was the general opinion that the Island would meet with the most universal approval of the public in general and hence that place was selected.

Another old land mark was moved off the square Monday morning when John Wentworth moved the small frame building from the Dworak lot to make room for the new brick building. The frame structure was one of the old ones around the square and was built by Abe Rowan, so long ago that when asked about it Abe informed us that it was so long ago that he had forgotten the date of its construction. There are still one or two old land marks about the square that it would help the appearance of the town if they were removed and more sightly buildings erected in their stead.

George Stover was a passenger to Lincoln Monday morning.

For draying or for flour, feed and hay, see J. G. Dahlin. 7-ft.

Roman Iwanski is in the city on a visit with friends. He is still in charge of the farm at the Lincoln asylum.

Did you notice our cigar and tobacco case? It is worth your attention if you smoke. Ord Mercantile Co.

Clayton Burke went to Lincoln this morning to represent Ord in the state debating contest.

The dance given at the opera house Wednesday was largely attended and a general good time is reported.

Another of the large plate glass windows in the Bailey department store was broken last Saturday but it is not known what caused the break.

Edgar Mattley passed through the city this morning on his way home to Ansley. He had been up to Burwell on a visit with his people.

A want ad in the Quiz a couple of weeks ago found a valuable pin which had been lost. Try our want columns when wanting to buy or sell and you may be assured of results.

Mrs. W. T. Barstow arrived in the city last evening and is the guest of Mrs. J. H. Capron. This evening Mrs. Mortensen gives a five-o'clock tea in honor of the visiting lady at which a few of her former friends will be present.

Miss Charlotte Halsey who made so many friends during her short visit here, arrived in San Francisco in time to see the U. S. fleet before taking her steamship, the Korea, on her way to Japan. She sailed Saturday noon.

Monday morning Miss Bessie Clements departed for Scotts Bluffs where she will assist in the Ames Mercantile Company. Bess is a good deal bigger than she looks when it comes to doing work in a business establishment, and we are sure the Scotts Bluffs store will be pleased with her work.

Corra, Edna, and Elmer Dowhower are preparing for a start in a day or so to Colorado Springs, where the young ladies will visit but Edgar will look for land. Mrs. C. E. Wellman has been up for a few days helping her sisters get ready for the trip. Miss Edna, who has been with Mrs. Wellman for four years, has mastered the art of photography and it is possible that she will decide to locate in the west.

The condition of the Clarence Smith family is simply pitiful. Mr. Smith has been sick for a week with typhoid and is a very sick man with no improvement up to this writing. Furthermore the wife and mother is now coming down with the terrible malady and one of the children is also sick with that disease. The family are in very bad circumstances and all told the aid of the good people of this city ought to be quickly given to this stricken family.

The dandelion proposition again stares the average fellow in the face who is desirous of having a neat lawn. The plant has arrived in force bringing all of its relatives and located on every available spot in the city. The gasoline can and knife are being used with telling effect on some of the lawns but the flower thrives nevertheless and bids fair to go to seed in plenty of time to produce another crop or two this summer.

W. B. Keown has purchased the Stewart and Dye properties in the western part of the city and will rent the former property but will move the Dye residence out and erect a new house for his own use on the corner. In the deal Mr. Stewart gets the fine Keown farm out across the river and he will move thereon as soon as the same can be vacated by Mr. Keown.

R. C. Mayo was up from Greeley last night on an overnight visit with the W. B. Keown family.

Goodwin & Parks have just finished remodeling their Ice Cream Parlor and Candy Kitchen. Two weeks ago the Schwane Bros., who had been using half of the building for a jewelry store, moved into the building vacated by the First National Bank, which gives the candy and ice cream parlor the full floor space of the building. The boys have gone to considerable expense fixing up, painting and varnishing, and have also made a nice parlor in the rear part for serving ice cream and soft drinks. The neat and tasty appearance of the place now speaks for itself a liberal share of the city's patronage.

Cabbage and tomato plants 10 cts. a dozen put up one dozen in a can, choice varieties. Ord Mercantile Co.

The old Newton Irrigation bond case, which has been dragging its weary way along in the courts of Loup county for the past 14 years, came suddenly to a close at the term of court there this week. It involved a bond issue which was a lien on all the land in the district. The case has been in the court off and on all along and was finally decided in favor of the tax payers last November and was slated to go to the supreme court as matter of course, but the lawyers for the bond holders failed to make a motion for a new trial in the time prescribed by law and so the taxpayers ere feeling easy

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

The Methodist ladies have struck upon a great scheme to make some money and at the same time do the community a good service. This scheme is nothing less than going into the paper business. What they want to do is to gather up all the pieces of paper that are now going to waste annually, littering your premises and cluttering the street and corners of fences. They want the people of Ord to simply save all kinds of paper, paste board, rags, etc., and in due time they will provide for their being taken out of your way. If you will provide a gunny sack, or other convenient receptacle for this refuse and put in it all the papers that you would otherwise burn up or throw away you will confer a favor on the ladies and at the same time be adding to the wealth of the country by saving this apparently worthless property and make in it of real commercial value. One of the greatest industries of the country is the making of paper and the demand is ever on the increase. Further more there is grave apprehensions in the minds of the thinking people as to where the supply will come from. Whole forests of valuable trees are consumed by this industry every year and you know that forests are getting scarcer every year. And do you know that nearly all this paper product once used is soon thrown away. A small portion of the paper goes into books and other permanent articles, but most of it goes into papers and other publications of only momentary use and then are thrown away. A general move all over the country such as the Methodists are now going into will have a very marked effect on the present vexing question of paper supply.

The Methodist aid society has secured the North Loup Glee Club to give their entertainment at the Methodist church next Tuesday evening. The entertainment consists of reading by Mrs. Hillyer and music by several of the musicians of North Loup, for which that town is famous, and at the close a short play will be given by a number of young ladies of North Loup assisted by some local talent. The entertainment is highly popular by all who have heard it, so we feel safe in recommending our people to invest a quarter and hear it. Tickets sell for 25 and 15 cents.

Following the prediction of the Quiz, Mrs. Tot Johnson returned to Ord as soon as she heard of the city being still controlled by the saloons, but the mayor and marshal took cognizance of the meager three majority by which they were retained in office and served notice on the woman to get out or be arrested. She got here on a Saturday and was permitted to remain till Monday noon, when she took herself away.

We believe there is a great opening in this city for the putting in of a roller skating rink, and while it is possibly a little too late in the season now, after the hot days are over such an institution established here would reap a rich harvest. The roller skating fad is prevalent all over the country, the children in larger towns having an excellent opportunity to exercise themselves on the pavements. It is a healthful pastime and one, we believe, that should be encouraged.

Goodwin & Parks have just finished remodeling their Ice Cream Parlor and Candy Kitchen. Two weeks ago the Schwane Bros., who had been using half of the building for a jewelry store, moved into the building vacated by the First National Bank, which gives the candy and ice cream parlor the full floor space of the building. The boys have gone to considerable expense fixing up, painting and varnishing, and have also made a nice parlor in the rear part for serving ice cream and soft drinks. The neat and tasty appearance of the place now speaks for itself a liberal share of the city's patronage.

Cabbage and tomato plants 10 cts. a dozen put up one dozen in a can, choice varieties. Ord Mercantile Co.

The old Newton Irrigation bond case, which has been dragging its weary way along in the courts of Loup county for the past 14 years, came suddenly to a close at the term of court there this week. It involved a bond issue which was a lien on all the land in the district. The case has been in the court off and on all along and was finally decided in favor of the tax payers last November and was slated to go to the supreme court as matter of course, but the lawyers for the bond holders failed to make a motion for a new trial in the time prescribed by law and so the taxpayers ere feeling easy

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

Remember Sanford Dodge at the opera house tomorrow night.

Sanford Dodge in the "Merchant of Venice" at the opera house tomorrow night.

Charley Rich was up from North Loup transacting business in the county seat Wednesday.

Marguerite Bedwell, of Sargent, was in the city during the past week a guest in the Orrin Mutter home.

H. B. Werner went to St. Liberty Thursday, to be present at the opening of the creamery at that place.

June weddings are the thing and the Quiz shop is the proper place to get your wedding stationery printed.

Plenty of Nebraska garden seeds yet. They grow and produce crops. Buy now. Ord Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kokes and their son went to Omaha yesterday morning for a short stay. They will be back this week.

A. M. Robbins returned from Loup county yesterday morning feeling pretty good over winning the Newton irrigation case which he has been fighting for a good many years.

Chess Chinn of St. Paul was in the city Tuesday night as the guest of Vincent Kokes. He had been over to Comstock and drove over to Ord Tuesday evening, taking the train home in the morning. He was accompanied as far as his home town by the Kokes family, who were on their way to Omaha.

Mrs. H. C. Stroup went to Lincoln this morning and will visit her husband for a while, then go on to Crawfordsville, Indiana, where she is sent to take part in the national lodge of the Ben Hurs. On her way home she will visit at several places along the way where she has relatives. All told it is a very fortunate thing for Mrs. Stroup as it affords her a fine opportunity to get out in the world for a spell.

This is the week when our farmers are mostly very busy putting in their corn. A few got their corn pretty well planted last week, but the great majority are making this the corn planting week. The early planting is now coming on finely, there being no complaint registered at these headquarters as to the failure of the seed to germinate because of the cold snap.

Following the prediction of the Quiz, Mrs. Tot Johnson returned to Ord as soon as she heard of the city being still controlled by the saloons, but the mayor and marshal took cognizance of the meager three majority by which they were retained in office and served notice on the woman to get out or be arrested. She got here on a Saturday and was permitted to remain till Monday noon, when she took herself away.

We believe there is a great opening in this city for the putting in of a roller skating rink, and while it is possibly a little too late in the season now, after the hot days are over such an institution established here would reap a rich harvest. The roller skating fad is prevalent all over the country, the children in larger towns having an excellent opportunity to exercise themselves on the pavements. It is a healthful pastime and one, we believe, that should be encouraged.

Goodwin & Parks have just finished remodeling their Ice Cream Parlor and Candy Kitchen. Two weeks ago the Schwane Bros., who had been using half of the building for a jewelry store, moved into the building vacated by the First National Bank, which gives the candy and ice cream parlor the full floor space of the building. The boys have gone to considerable expense fixing up, painting and varnishing, and have also made a nice parlor in the rear part for serving ice cream and soft drinks. The neat and tasty appearance of the place now speaks for itself a liberal share of the city's patronage.

Cabbage and tomato plants 10 cts. a dozen put up one dozen in a can, choice varieties. Ord Mercantile Co.

The old Newton Irrigation bond case, which has been dragging its weary way along in the courts of Loup county for the past 14 years, came suddenly to a close at the term of court there this week. It involved a bond issue which was a lien on all the land in the district. The case has been in the court off and on all along and was finally decided in favor of the tax payers last November and was slated to go to the supreme court as matter of course, but the lawyers for the bond holders failed to make a motion for a new trial in the time prescribed by law and so the taxpayers ere feeling easy

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

One of Missouri's able representatives in Congress and one of the most prominent Democrat members of that body. One of the attractions at the Ord

JUDGE DAVID DE ARMOND

STORY of THE 3 TEDDY BEARS

Mamma, tell me the tale of the Teddy Bears. An' their wanderings o'er the land; How could they wrestle, an' box an' jump? I really can't understand. Were they like my little Teddy Bear 'At Santa Claus brought one night, Or real, live ones like stays in the woods An' grow up big, an' fight?

(Editor's Note—Probably the most famous bears in the United States are living in Denver, Colorado. The true story of their lives is below set forth, the author being Lee Haney, who accompanied the three little bears on their 7,000 miles' journey, covering a period of nine weeks, during which they delighted the hearts of over 3,000,000 children and caused as many grown people to laugh at their funny antics.)

Early in the spring of 1907 a hunting party headed by Jake Borah, the famous Colorado guide, set out into funny antics, and the children of the city simply went wild over them. Seeing that the "Teddies" attracted such wide attention in their own native state, the management of the road decided to send them on a tour of the country, exhibiting them in the larger cities.

So late in the month of May the babies, each weighing about nine pounds, started East. Their only stop between Denver and New York was at Washington, D. C., where they romped on the White House lawn to the edification of the Roosevelt family. Then they journeyed on to New York City, and for nine days occupied the big one-story glass "cow-catcher" of the Flatiron building, Fifth avenue and Twenty-third street. Their next stand was in the big show window of John Wannamaker's store in Philadelphia. From the city of Quakers they went to Pittsburgh, where they spent a week in the Joseph Horne store window at Fifth and Penn streets. Then to Chicago, where they were entertained by the Press Club, which gave a recepthe hills north of Glenwood Springs, bent on a bear hunt. With their pack of hounds trained to the game, their hunt was a successful one. Returning to the camp one evening, they heard the hounds barking in a manner indicating that something was at bay, or "treed." Hastening to the spot, the hunters saw what they at first believed to be three baby kittens high up in the branches of a spreading quaking asp tree. Closer inspection, however, revealed the fact that the animals were three baby bears, so small that the hunters marveled at their ability to climb a tree. The little fellows were terribly frightened, and clung to the branches for dear life. Carefully the hunters prepared sacks and ropes and soon the trio of bruins were being carried to Glenwood Springs, where they were treated to a sumptuous dinner of warm milk. In a remarkably short time, seeing that their captors meant no harm to them, the little fellows became as tame as kittens.

The Three "Teddy Bears" Having Fun with Two Little Puppies. —Colorado Midland Ry.

C. H. Speers, general passenger agent of the Colorado Midland railway, along the line of which Glenwood Springs is located, heard of the cubs and sent a man post haste to buy them. The owners were willing to part with them for a tion in their honor one afternoon, inviting 1,600 children. They also spent an afternoon at exclusive Kenilworth, a Chicago suburb. In St. Louis, their next jump, they disported themselves in a window of Barr's big store at Sixth and Olive streets, and during the week were "at home" one afternoon to children at Forest Park. From St. Louis they went to Kansas City, where exhibited down town for a week and one afternoon entertained a convention of railroad passenger agents at Fairmount Park. Omaha was the next place visited and the children who saw them at Bennett's store and Krug Park will never forget them. They returned to their Denver home from Omaha, and are now living in a little house of their own at beautiful Elitch's Gardens, a suburban amusement resort.

The bears were christened "Teddy B.," "Teddy G." and "Teddy She." "Teddies" "G" and "She" are of the Cinnamon variety, while "Teddy B" is a black grizzly. They have grown to be about the size of collie dogs, but are as tame and playful as ever. Often they are allowed the freedom of the entire park.

A Scene Near the Former Home of the "Teddy Bears." —Colorado Midland Ry.

handsome sum and they became the property of the road. They were brought to Denver in a wire cage which was carried in the Pullman car. Arriving at Denver they were given a window twenty feet long in the company's office on Seventeenth street. From daylight until midnight every day thousands of people neglected their business to stand and watch their

The section of the Rockies where the bears were captured is the center of the big game country of Colorado, and is also the most prominent among the fishing and camping resorts of the state. The general passenger agent of the Colorado Midland declares that the trip of the Midland Teddy Bears did more to advertise the state than anything that has happened in years.

Real Estate Transfers.
Edward Noble to Otto Schmidt, $3200, e2 35-2-13. Francis E. Lloyd to Matt Parkos, $6000, blks 7, 8, 9 Haspell's add to Ord.
Fred L. Harris to Ord Drainage Co., $1200, part ne 4 21 and nw 22-19-14, 30 acres.
George Bachman to George W. Warford, $3500, e2 sw 4 26-19-13.
Lon E. Williams et al to M. Harvey Mann, $480 ne 4 21-19-13, 100 acres.
Amos J. Gipe to Kathrina Benn, $1800, blk 8 west Ord.
Elizabeth S. Davis to William Davis, $1000, n2 sw 4 28-17-16.
7th Day Baptist church to Mrs. Jane Bell, $7, lot 74 North Loup
J. W. Brown to Cora E. Phillip, $2500, lot 16 Rublees

add to North Loup.
J. C. Rogers et al to A. J. Firkins, $900, lot 1 blk 14 Ord.
7th Day Baptist Church to Wm. Honeycutt, $8, lot 65 in 7th Day Baptist cemetery.
California Tourist Cars
The idea that an inferior class of people patronize the tourist sleepers is an error. On many trips only the best class of travelers are found. They are merely men and women of good sense who would rather travel to California in this manner and save a snug sum of money. It is beginning to be understood that it is by no means necessary for the traveler to spend a large sum of money in order to enjoy a trip to the Pacific coast.
If you cross the continent in one of the tourist sleepers of the Union Pacific you will enjoy your trip and save considerable money. Inquire of F. R. Frick.

WANT COLUMN

FOR SALE—My residence property on the hill. Mrs. Earl C. Brink. 4
FOR SALE or TRADE—In the edge of town, three acres of nice rich ground with new seven room house and new barn. Thirty five bearing fruit trees on place. Will trade for a farm. L. D. Bailey & Sons. 4
FOR SALE—Shade trees and evergreens. W. A. Anderson. 67
BARGAIN—House, barn, etc. with two good lots, nicely located in southwest part of Ord, at a low price if taken at once. Not much cash required. R. L. Staple. 2
WANTED—Man and wife want position on farm in Valley county. Phone 9016, Arcadia, A. U. Morris. 6-1
JOURNAL OFFICE for rent by June 1st. Mrs. A. F. Mann. 6
FOR SALE—My Peedies threshing machine, 18 H. P. engine 36x52, separator, feeder, 2 tanks, everything complete and will give same warranty as new. Price $1300. W. P. Plummer. 6
FOR SALE—Good driving horse, with or without buggy and harness. Charles Siler. 6-1
FOR SALE—100 bushels of Early Ohio seed potatoes. A. Walkup. 3
SAND and GRAVEL—I have opened up a sand and gravel pit and am prepared to furnish it in any amounts to town or country buyers. See me before buying. Leave orders at Store. Glen Rogers. 6-4
FOR RENT—Three room cottage close to the square. Call at Quiz office. 5
FOUND—A bunch of keys near the old school house. Call at Quiz office for them. 5
FOR SALE—Plain Valley farm of L. S. Jones. For particulars inquire of P. J. Jones, Ord. 5-1
FOR SALE—I will sell my residence property consisting of ten room modern house, oak finish, city water, electric lights, phones, bath room, complete with two lots, 1 in orchard and grapes, cement walks around entire house. G. L. Gibson. 5
FOR SALE—All kinds of garden plants for sale at my residence in Ord or at Ord Mercantile Company's store. A. Warner. 5-14-40cp

Plan now for Your Trip to the Pacific Coast Round trip tickets on sale every day from

June 1 to Sept. 30
Final limit
October 31

Round Trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego going via Portland and returning direct $62.45
Round trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego going and returning via Portland $77.45
Round trip to Portland, Seattle and Tacoma direct $62.45
Denver and return.....$15.70
Colorado Springs return...$18.20
Pueblo and return.....$19.05
Salt Lake, Ogden return...$31.75

TO CHICAGO AND EAST
Republican convention excursion tickets at low rates in June; also summer excursions rates in connection with convention and summer tourist rates to eastern resorts.

HOMESEEKERS' RATFS
First and third Tuesdays to the west, including the famous Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley, where large tracts of rich irrigated lands are being opened for settlement by the government and by private companies. Write D. Clem Deaver, Burlington Land-seekers' Information Bureau, Omaha; excellent business openings in new growing towns. Write us a brief description of your proposed trip, and let us advise you how to make it the best way at the least cost.

J. W. MOORHOUSE, Ticket Agent.
L. W. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha.

Referee Sale
Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley County, Nebraska in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorenson is plaintiff and Thomas Sorenson, Neils Sorenson, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorenson, Annie Sorenson, and Lauris Sorenson are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 8 and 7, all of section 5 in township 13, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. N. Meridian. Said sale will remain open one hour.
H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Notice for Presentation of Claims.
State of Nebraska, Valley County, ss. In the county court of said county. In the matter of the estate of Y. Barthe, deceased.
Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims and demands against Y. Barthe, late of Valley county, deceased, that the time fixed for filing claims against said estate is six months from the 28th day of May, 1908. All such persons are required to present their claims with the vouchers to the county judge of said county, at his office there, on or before the 28th day of November, 1908, and all claims so filed will be heard before the said judge on the 30th day of November, 1908, at ten o'clock a. m.
Dated at Ord, Nebraska, this 2nd day of May, 1908.
H. Gudmundsen, county judge, Clements Bros., attorneys for estate.

She Has Cured Thousands Given up to die.

DR. CALDWELL of Chicago,

Practicing Allopathy, Homeopathy, Electric and General Medicine.

Will, by Request, Visit Ord Professionally on Friday, May, 29th

Hours: 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. when she may be found at the Ord Hotel, returning every four weeks.

Consult Her While the Opportunity is at Hand.

Dr. Caldwell limits her practice to the special treatment of diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Female Diseases, Diseases of the Skin, and all chronic, nervous and surgical diseases of a curable nature, Early Consumption, Constipation, Bronchitis, Chronic Catarrh, Head-Ache, Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Bright's Disease, Kidney Diseases, Diseases of the Liver and Bladder, Piles, Nervousness, Bizzness, Indigestion, Obesity, Interrupted Nutrition, Slow Growth in Children, and all wasting diseases in adults, Deformities, Club Feet, Curvature of Spine, Diseases of Brain, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Swelling of the Limbs, Stricture, Oppressed Pain in Bones, Granular Enlargements and all long standing diseases properly treated.

Blood and Skin Diseases,

Pimples, Blisters, Eruptions, Liver Spots, Falling of the Hair, Bad Complexion, Eczema, throat ulcers, Weak Back, Burning Urine. The effects of constitutional sickness or the taking of too much injurious medicine receives searching treatment, prompt relief and a cure for life.

Diseases of women, irregular menstruation, falling of womb, bearing down pains, female displacements, lack of sexual tone, leucorrhoea, sterility or barrenness, consult Dr. Caldwell and she will show them the cause of their trouble and the way to get cured.

Cancers, Goitre, Fistula, Piles and enlarged glands treated with the subcutaneous injection method, absolutely without pain and without loss of a drop of blood, is one of her own discoveries and is really the most scientific and sure method of this advanced age. Dr. Caldwell has practiced her profession in some of the largest hospitals throughout the country. She has no superior in the treating and diagnosing of diseases, deformities, etc. She has lately opened an office in Omaha where she will spend a portion of each week treating her many patients. No incurable cases accepted for treatment. Consultation, examination and advice one dollar to those interested.

Dr. Ora Caldwell & Co., Omaha, Neb., and Chicago, Ill. Address all mail to 104 Bee Building Omaha, Neb.

Legal Notice
In the County Court, in and for Valley County, Nebraska.
In the matter of the estate of Jan Janicek, deceased.
Upon reading and filing the petition of Jan Janicek showing that Jan Janicek Sr. died intestate on December 6, 1905, a resident of Valley county, Nebraska, leaving surviving him heirs at law and seized and possessed in fee simple of real estate in Valley county, Nebraska, to-wit: East half of southwest quarter of Sec. 6, Twp. 20 N, Range 10 W, which was the homestead of said deceased and was all the property both real and personal owned by said deceased at the time of his death, and that said deceased left no debts of any kind or character, and that the expense of his last sickness and funeral charges have been paid, and asking that a decree be entered dispensing with the regular administration of said estate, and determining the heirs-at-law of said deceased, it is hereby ordered that the said petition be and the same is set for hearing on the 18th day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons interested in said estate, by publishing this order for three consecutive weeks prior to said date of hearing in the Ord Quiz a legal newspaper published in said county.
Dated this 23 day of April, 1908.
O. L. Bragg, Attorney for estate.
H. Gudmundsen, county judge.

Notice of Attachment.
To Judson F. Rogers:
You will take notice that on the twenty-seventh day of April, 1908, Her-man Westover, a justice of the peace in and for Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $40.69 in an action pending before him, wherein Carl Funke is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of defendant, consisting of 250 Co. Mac Co. Cigars 150 Hand Made Cigars 50 ElPagado cigars 25 Victor Cigars 40 Monogram Cigars 1 Iron Safe. 1 Refrigerator 2 Sets Table Spoons 3 Sets Tea Spoons 1 Set Coffee Spoons 3 Salad Forks 2 Meat Forks 1 Berry Spoon 2 Sugar Shells 3 Pickle Forks 1 Sugar Tong 2 Cigar Cases.

has been attached under said order. The said cause was continued until 10th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.
By Claude A. Davis, his attorney.
Dated April 30, 1908. 6-3

In Sunny Texas

Sinton, Texas, April, 3, 1908.
Dear brother Byron:—
I hope you are enjoying the sunshine and fine weather these days as we are doing here. We are all feeling pretty well and doing much more work than I could ever stand in Nebraska. Jay is working like a nailer. We have cleared off a 3 planted about 8 acres to cotton besides our truck patches, and everything looks good. This climate is just delightful. The thermometer averages from 80 to 80 degrees during the warm part of the day with a cool breeze from the Gulf. It seems as though the summer is half gone as we are picking green cucumbers and string beans. The cabbage and onion crops are all sold and other crops are on the same ground growing in good shape. Our melon vines just about cover the ground.

Thus far we are having plenty of the finest rains I ever saw. But I will stop this as I don't want to keep you awake nights by telling too many of the good things. I don't mean to say there are no drawbacks here, but don't think there is one where there a number in that country.

I believe in five years time this land will sell for $100 per acre. Jay and I have pondered whether to accept $45 per acre now and buy some of the prairie land instead, so there will be no grubbing to do. For my part I do not want to sell and go back to Nebraska to live, but would like to have you folks closer so we could see each other oftener. I wish you were down here now and we would go over into Old Mexico to their great celebration and see the bull-fight. It comes off the fifth of May.

In a former letter you warned us about snakes. Don't worry about them, they don't seem to want to bite or trouble us in any way. Our friend Neal stepped on an old rattler the other day and he did not even try to bite. Addie wrote us that she heard that Bert Merrill had been sick with typhoid fever. It is not so. He hasn't seen a sick day since he has been here nor has any one else that I have heard of.

Hoping to see you all down here soon, I remain your brother,
S. M. Cornwell.

Not Too High.

80 acres in Springdale, half in cultivation, balance pasture, house, barn, well and windmill, for $2000.

160 acres in Springdale, 40 plowed, 15 alfalfa, 60 pasture, for $2400.

320 acres 12 miles out, with 200 acres plowed, 25 alfalfa, 80 pasture, good house, barn, well and windmill, sparnary, good road to Ord, for $10,000.

Residence property in Ord, 6 lots in good location, orchard, shade, good house, for $2500.

Plenty money for farm loans.
J. H. CAPRON, Ord.

We want your HOGS!

We have made arrangements with the trade at Portland, Oregon, to handle all of the

Light Hogs
we can ship them, and are now in the market for light hogs for western shipment. Call us up by phone or stop at our office and let us quote you top prices.

Blessing Bros.
Farmers' phone 25. Bell phone 42

Ord Church and Lodge Directory

RATES: Six lines or less, $3.00 per year. Additional lines 30 cents per year.

ORD LODGE NO. 103 A. F. & A. M. Meetings held on Wednesday or before the full moon of each month. C. C. Shepard, W. M. Alvin Blessing, Sec. DORIC CHAPTER NO. 20 R. A. M. Con. A. M. Work, 1st Tuesday of each month. Rudolph Sorenson, Secretary.

MIZPAH CHAPTER ORDER OF EAST-ERN STAR, ORD LODGE NO. 26. Regular meetings first and third Friday of each month.

PHYSICIANS DISCUSS NEW THEORY

Cooper's Views of Human Stomach Noted by Medical Men.

A recent article in the New Orleans Item gives an account of the effect upon the medical profession of that city with regard to L. T. Cooper's theory that the human stomach is responsible for most ill health. The article is as follows: "The astonishing sale of Cooper's preparation in this city has now reached such immense figures that the medical fraternity have been forced into open discussion of the man's theories and medicines.

"The physicians seem to be divided with regard to the young man's success in New Orleans—some being willing to credit him for what he has accomplished, while others assert that the interest he has aroused is but a passing fad that will die out as quickly as it has sprung up.

"In a statement recently obtained from a well-known physician of this city, the position of those in favor of Cooper is well voiced. The doctor said: 'I am not a believer in proprietary medicines, but I must admit that some of the facts recently brought to my attention concerning this Cooper medicine have gone far toward removing the prejudice I had formed against them when I first heard of Cooper's new ideas and medicines.

"Numbers of my patients whom I have treated for chronic liver, kidney and stomach troubles have met me and stated that Cooper's medicine has accomplished wonderful results for them. I notice particularly in cases of stomach trouble that the man has relieved several cases that were of years' standing and proved very obstinate to treatment.

"I do not wish to stand in the way of something that may be for the public good, simply through professional prejudice, and I am inclined to give Cooper and his preparations credit as deserving to some extent the popular demonstration that has been accorded them in this city."

We sell the Cooper medicines. They are proving remarkably successful throughout the entire United States. —Jas. T. Johnson.

You will make no mistake in buying your lumber of us. We have a complete stock of new lumber, which we are selling very cheap. If you need anything in our line, give us a call.

—Screen Doors and Windows—

We have them in all sizes at very low prices. Also a complete stock of Posts, Poles, Lime, Cement, Brick, Cement Blocks and Tanks.

Koupal & Barstow Lumber Company

COLORADO

No trip can compass in pleasure and health a vacation spent in the Rockies. Low rates in effect every day June 1 to September 30, 1908.

DENVER, $15.70
COLORADO SPRING, $18.20
PUEBLO, $19.05
TRINIDAD, $26.10

VIA Union Pacific

For further information inquire of
F. R. FRICK, Local Agent

ORD BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN.

C. C. SHEPARD, M. D.
Office over post office. Phone 116
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

C. J. MILLER, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Office and residence phone 41
Office is new Misko block.
Ord, - - - Nebraska.

R. L. STAPLE,
Lawyer and Bonded Abstractor.
Real Estate. Insurance of all kinds.
First National Bank Building.
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

A. M. DANIELS
Undertaking...
Licensed Embalmer.
Residence Phone 74. Store Phone 82. ORD, NEB

DR. GEO. W. TAYLOR
Dentist
Office over First National Bank
Office Phone 24... Residence Phone 274

Claude A. Davis
Attorney-at-law

Dr. F. D. HALDEMAN,
Physician & Surgeon,
Residence Phone 48 Office Phone 158.
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

CLEMENTS BROS.,
Lawyers.
Office in Misko Block. North Side of Square.
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

M. M. Newbecker, M. D.
Day and Night Calls.
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

A. M. ROBBINS
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
NOTARY PUBLIC IN OFFICE
Attention given to legal business in Valley and adjoining counties.
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

C. D. BUNDY, M. D.
Successor to Chester A. Brink
Calls answered night and day
Office and resident phone 46
ORD, - - - NEBRASKA

Dr. Lena C. Corkill
OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
Makes a Specialty of Women's and Children's diseases.
Phone 179 Ord, Nebraska

Robert A. Billings, M. D.
Physician and Surgeon
Private Hospital Accommodations
Ord, Nebraska

THE ORD QUIZ.

Established April 6, 1882.

Ord, Valley County, Nebraska, Thursday, May 21, 1908.

Vol. 27, No. 8

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT

By C. E. WELLMAN

Dr. Johnson was in Scotts Bluff Saturday.

J. A. Barber and wife were in Ord Tuesday.

Pauline Mayo was in Ord Tuesday night.

John Miller was in Grand Island last week.

Frank Stara was down from Ord on business Tuesday.

Billings Clark was in Ord between trains Saturday.

Archie Moulton was a passenger to Ord Tuesday night.

Lena Flint came up from Cotesfield Saturday night.

Draper, the ice-man was down from Ord Tuesday on business.

Mrs. Hillyer and Mrs. Johnson were in Ord over night Tuesday.

George Kettle returned Tuesday night from a trip down the road.

Thurlow Weed and wife returned from Humboldt, Tuesday night.

N. S. Banta returned Thursday night from the Scotts Bluffs country.

Neal Benson is moving into the house vacated by Walter Preston.

George Johnson and family visited relatives on Davis Creek Saturday.

Edna Loudon was in North Loup over night Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Omer Earnest are the parents of baby girl, born May 14.

Dr. Johnson was in Scotia Wednesday of last week on professional business.

Mrs. Frank Johnson returned Thursday from her trip to Tarkio, Missouri.

Ed. Temple, O. H. Francisco and C. E. Bellel were passengers to Elba Thursday.

Mrs. Chaffie came down from Ord Thursday, where she had been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart are the proud parents of a baby girl, born Friday, May 8.

John Townsend went to Grand Island last week where employment was awaiting him.

Roscoe Watson has returned from Loup City, and is again employed in Clark's harness shop.

Mrs. Doane came up from Scotia Tuesday night to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. Mayo.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Jones visited the Loudon family at Scotia Wednesday of last week.

Roland Hempkin came up from Cotesfield Monday night. He is employed in Love's store at that place.

There seems to be quite an epidemic of German measles in town, a great many of the older people being victims.

The City meat market made another lightning change this week, C. E. Bellel becoming the proprietor once more.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Weed went to Humboldt Saturday morning, called there by the death of a relative of the latter.

Walter Preston and family went to Morrel, Nebraska, Monday where Mr. Preston will be engaged in the feed business.

Rev. Mr. Corbie, Lottie Miller and Mrs. Kellog went to Alda Thursday morning to attend the Friend's quarterly meeting.

Mrs. Jim Sample was a passenger last week to different points in Kansas, where she expected to visit relatives for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sleeter came up from Grand Island the latter part of last week and visited at H. Lee's, Mrs. Sleeter's parents.

Boone Johns and daughter came up from Central City Thursday called here by the death of G. W. Moore. They returned Monday.

The lecture course committee met with a representative of the Midland Bureau last Friday and contracted for six numbers for next year. The course consists of two lectures

ENTERPRISE DEPARTMENT

By JOHN L. WARD

The boys ball team of the high school had out bills last week announcing a game with Ord on Friday. The Ord boys did not come and as the time was too short to make arrangements with another outside team they fixed a game between themselves, so as not to disappoint the base ball fans. The girls basket ball team served ice cream on the grounds and netted about eight dollars with which to defray their current expenses.

Rev. Shaw preached the baccalaureate sermon for the graduating class at the Methodist church Sunday evening. The class day exercises were given at the Baptist church Wednesday, and the class address at the same place on Thursday evening by Prof. H. W. Cox of the Wesleyan University. The names of those graduating this year are, Amy Goodrich, Maud Davis, Herbert Johnson and George White.

George Moore, for a great many years a resident and business man of North Loup, died at his home last Thursday afternoon, May 14, after an illness of several weeks. The funeral was held from the Methodist church, Friday afternoon. Mr. Moore was born in Paradise, Illinois, February 7, 1832. He was well known and respected by every one for his integrity and upright business methods.

Mrs. G. L. Hutchins and children, went to Milton Wis., Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Crandall at that place. Miss Mildred Comstock accompanied her, and expects to remain indefinitely for the purpose of caring for Mrs. Crandall, who is an invalid.

The Glee Club under the management of Prof. Hillyer, journeyed to Ord Tuesday night where they were billed to give an entertainment under the Methodist ladies society.

We were mistaken last week when we said the C. E. society gave their entertainment on the Saturday night before. It was postponed and given May 18.

George Burdick who was in the harness-making business here years ago, came Friday and is greeting old acquaintances.

O. P. White returned Thursday night from Albion, where he had been on business connected with his broom factory.

Mrs. Ray Hemkin came over from Scotia Monday for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Earnest.

G. L. Hutchins went to Lincoln Monday, where he expects to begin traveling for an implement house.

The city meat market closed Tuesday noon. The proprietor expects to open it again in the near future.

C. W. Barber returned Thursday night from different parts of the state where he had been on business.

George Johnson is talking of building another house just east of the one occupied by Prof. Hillyer.

Henry Davis is making some repairs on the house he recently bought, preparatory to moving in.

James Trimble went to Omaha Monday, where he is employed by a commission firm.

Veterinary Hugh McCall went to Cotesfield Wednesday morning on business.

John Moulton expects to begin canvassing next week for the Parker Soap Co.

Cashier Pugh was a passenger down the line Wednesday morning.

A. T. Jones was a passenger to Scotia Wednesday morning.

A Shepard's house is being treated to a new coat of paint.

Bell, Detweller and Huff of Ord were in town Monday.

C. C. Shultz returned Monday from a trip to Grand Island.

Geo. McDermott went to Omaha Wednesday morning.

Charley Cornell was in town with his auto Tuesday.

Irving Clark was in Ord Tuesday night.

Geo. Johnson went to Lincoln

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schlauter are visiting the Lees for a few days.

Our readers will do well to get Ollie Bell's advice on the best method of raising hogs by hand.

Harry VanHorn will begin work for G. G. Clement as soon as the North Loup schools close.

Charles Parcell with his family took a fishing trip Monday. They got the luck that St. Paul Cooley raved about last week.

A young man over in the hills expects to get married as soon as he can raise the price. Please chip in and help out a worthy cause.

The Ben Hurs claimed some more victims Tuesday night, so they say. We don't know for ourselves, for some reason we failed to go.

J. B. Nay with his wife and son was in the valley Monday looking up new victims for fire insurance. We do not know how he succeeded.

Wm. Hekeler is studying for the ministry, so he tells us. He expects to preach in the German language but will retain the other for use on special occasions.

Rev. Barkheimer will preach a special sermon next Sunday evening for the young people, his subject being "Essentials of Success." All who can conveniently do so will find themselves repaid for attending.

Walter Byington is the possessor of a cow whose chief claim for notoriety is her propensity for giving partially churned cream. It only requires a little stirring with a spoon to complete the process. The farmers will soon recognize the folly of keeping any other kind of cattle for dairy purposes.

At the Presbyterian church, next Sunday delegates will be selected to attend the Kearney convention next month. The time for holding services after July 1 will also be decided, as Mr. Williamson wishes to know about it at once. Rev. Halsey will occupy the pulpit as usual until that time.

Miss Armstrong's curio exhibit at the German church last Thursday night was quite well attended and all who were present were pleased with the entertainment they obtained in studying the many unique and curious articles to be seen there. Each article was accompanied by a written description fully explaining its construction and use. The variety and elegance of the curios show that much time and no little expense was required in making the collection. We understand that she will visit a number of places in this part of the state this summer and all who have an opportunity would do well to attend.

The primeval object of all law, whether civil, moral or spiritual is the preservation of order. Laws are both national and individual, both general and special. There is no law applying to one person that can not just as aptly be applied to another. No man possessed of reasoning power is exempt from laws or the punishments they invoke. Yet, while all men are willing to acknowledge this truth, how few are willing to apply it in its broadest sense to their own lives? To hear some men express it the law is a fine thing, for the other fellow. The other man should be kept within bounds. He should mend his fences and keep his stock at home. He should mow the weeds along his roads. He should give his share of the road in passing. It is a splendid thing to have laws for other people but they should never be made to apply to ourselves. In nearly all kinds of civil law some class or classes are exempt. Not so with the laws of nature. The boy who eats green apples cannot escape the stomach ache, nor can he hire some one else to suffer for him. The man who changes his principles every day makes his path so crooked that he never gets anywhere. The man who commits a crime infringes alike on the laws of God and humanity. He may, and sometimes does escape the civil punishment he has incurred, and sometimes even when caught is freed by some legal technicality. But from the moral penalty there is no escape and so postponement. Punishment begins with the infraction of the law. The ingrates who count their yearly profits by millions cannot escape the walling of widows and orphans whom their careless methods have produced. What the world needs to-day is not more law but more regard for the laws already in force. Every day lawyers are finding new phrases of law whose very existence was forgotten. One hundred years ago when law books were mere pamphlets there was no more crime than we find everywhere prevalent to-day. If laws are for use let them be enforced; if not they should be repealed and at once Nothing creates greater contempt for government than unenforced law. If the next legislature would spend nine-tenths of their time repealing useless laws they would produce a greater influence for good than by any legislation they would enact.

Guy Clement's incubator produced a new kind of fowl the other day. It is brown on the back and light beneath, with reddish eyes and a large sharp bill. Its feet are partly webbed and it can swim and dive but its wings are rudimentary and it is unable to fly. The strangest thing about it is that it was hatched full grown.

Our Opinion Exactly.

It is laughable to read the explosions of the Bryan press of Nebraska to the effect that the republican press of the state is fostering and helping the Johnson boom for the presidency. Why should the republican party want Johnson, a successful man in all of his political undertakings, and that to in a strong republican state, at the head of the democrat ticket, instead of Bryan, a failure in all of his political work, whom experience has proven two fold is an easy man to defeat?—St. Paul Republican.

A Sensible View of It.

Pittsburg, May 16.—Drinking while on or off duty by employes of the H. C. Frick Coke company, a subsidiary organization of the United States Steel corporation, will result in the immediate dismissal of the offenders, according to rules posted throughout the Connellsville-coke region.

The order, which is the most sweeping of its kind in the history of the industrial world, will affect more than twenty thousand employes. More than twenty nationalities are represented on the company's pay roll. In an interview, D. H. Coble, the secretary of the company, said: "While the letter of the order does not actually forbid drinking at any time, the company will not tolerate employes reporting for work incapacitated for their labors by drinking the night before. The fact that he is off duty when drinking will not save him. The company will not employ anyone who is known to be a drinker."

It is said that in the movement for sobriety can be seen the first step toward reducing to a minimum the mining accidents which were so prevalent during the last year and which the companies are led to believe were many times due either to drunkenness or incapacity for work induced by drinking.

The above clipping from the Lincoln Daily Star, shows another victory for the temperance people.

This company above mentioned is not the only one that has come to the conclusion that they can no longer afford to keep men in their employ, who when their days work is done must go at once to some whiskey joint and not only leave their money, but their skill behind. Is it any wonder that a man who owns property does not want to keep a man who has spent the night in carousing, in charge of his goods the next day? Is it any wonder that an employer does not care to pay damages for lives that are lost through carelessness on the part of some person who had spent the night in a booze shop?

From His Home Paper.

We are pleased to announce that G. H. Kinsey has decided to make the race for State senator. It has taken considerable persuasion on the part of his friends to induce Mr. Kinsey to take this step, but now that he has decided to make the race there is little doubt of his success. Mr. Kinsey is well known throughout this county as well as a large part of Custer county, having lived in this vicinity for the past twenty years. He has always been a worker in the republican party and has stood for the principles that seemed to him to be right. He is an ardent admirer of Roosevelt administration and is firm in the belief that reform is badly needed in the management of public utilities. Mr. Kinsey is without doubt, the ablest man that can be brought for the place and we are sure that he will be the choice of the republican convention this fall.—Arcadia Champion.

Reward.

During the last 7 years, 35 head of my cattle have disappeared from my pasture. Since April 28th 1908, three head more have disappeared, consisting of one red cow with white face 4 years old with horns, with brockled face calf 2 months old by side branded T. S. on left hip, and one yearling deep red steer. I will pay $100.00 to any one who will inform me and prove where my cattle have gone to or I will pay $5.00 to any one who will tell me where this last bunch.

6 3t Tom Stone

Ida Items.

Mesdames Craig, Sharp and Brechbill attended the Kensington tea, given by the Methodist ladies of Burwell Friday.

Mrs. Wilson of Stockham, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Shrap.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig attended lodge at Burwell Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Brechbill went to Ord Monday, the former on business, the latter to have dental work done.

Anna Dubas has again resumed her duties in the Craig home, after an absence of two weeks.

Mrs. Meyers visited at John Garrison's last Sunday.

Mr. Craig and Arthur went up to the Calamus country Monday to plant potatoes on Arthur's farm.

Charley Meyers spent Saturday night with James Craig.

Stella Sharp called on little Mabel Garrison who is recovering from a recent operation.

The assessor is around this week assessing the farmers.

Ball's Black Stallion Will Stand in Ord.

As there are several wanting me to stand my black stallion, RAMC, at Ord, I have made arrangements with A. J. Firkins for a stall in his breeding barn where my stallion will be found on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week. The rest of the time he will be at his usual stands in Springdale and on Elm Creek. E. L. Ball. 6-tf.

Plants! Plants! Plants!

Sweet potato, tomato and early and late cabbage plants for sale by M. D. L. Taylor at residence, also on sale at Fackler & Sutton's grocery store.

Farm Loans.

We have plenty of money to loan on farms in this and adjoining counties, at low rates. See us if you need money.

Big Reduction IN LADIES' TRIMMED HATS

An elegant line to select from and at prices not to be duplicated.

LOOK FOR THE GREEN FLAG!

We have gone through the entire line of ladies' trimmed hats and slashed prices, regardless of cost.

Now is the time to get an elegant hat at your own price.

LOOK FOR THE GREEN FLAG!

This is the beginning of a series of sales which we will continue in order to diminish our stock. Watch this space next week.

The Blue Front F. J. Dworak, Proprietor

Say, Mr. Farmer and Citizen

when in need of flour where do you go to buy it? Rather a direct question, but one of importance to us. Don't you think it would be to your best interests to use home flour? If you have wheat to sell, where do you go to get the best price for it? If you are in need of bran, shorts or other mill feed, to whom do you go for your supply? These are questions of importance and worthy of your careful consideration. Think them over carefully and in making this one of the best milling points in the country. When you buy flour, of course you want the best there is on the market. We are here in the milling business and are making every effort to manufacture a flour equal in quality to any flour on the market, and are doing so. We have instructed your grocer man to supply you and guarantee every sack. If not, come to the mill. What more can we do?

CO-OPERATE WITH US

We do an Exchange Business

COLLISON BROS.
Ord, Nebr.

Only Mill in Valley County

The First National Bank

thing to consider in depositing money in a bank is security. The capital and surplus are the depositors' protection fund. The government superintends and examines this bank. Our stock-holders and directors are responsible, well-to-do business men and farmers. This has been established twenty-five years, during which time it has served the banking public faithfully and built up a large and prosperous business. We have just installed a set of safety deposit boxes which we rent for $1.00 a year. These boxes are designed for storage of valuable papers. The best service possible is none too good for our country customers and the people of

WINCHESTER

Smokeless Powder

"LEADER" and "REPEATER"

The superiority of Winchester Smokeless Powder Shells is undisputed. Among intelligent shooters they stand first in popularity, records and shooting qualities. Always use them.

For Field or Trap Shooting.

Ask Your Dealer For Them.

PARKINS

THE ORD QUIZ

By W. W. HASKELL

ORD, NEBRASKA

Detroit makes 6,000,000,000 pills a year, all guaranteed to cure. Why die?

The world is not near so old as some of the people who go growling and grumbling over it.

A New Jersey man, aged 81, had his wife, aged 65, arrested for spanking him. Another mollycoddle!

A California man fasted for 43 days and then ate clam broth. One might naturally think that he would have taken food.

A straw hat was seen on the streets of Philadelphia the other day. Is it possible that they think there that it is still last summer?

Two cats have been declared legally dead in Philadelphia. And yet the supply of gossip in that city is probably not appreciably diminished.

Though you may be surprised to hear it, nowhere has it been decreed by city, state or nation that our womankind must wear those big, impossible hats.

The latest definition of love is "protoplasmic hunger." After marriage it is supplanted by a craving for a more substantial diet than the protoplasmic bill of fare seems to offer.

That Scotchman who invented a gun that will shoot a projectile from London that will land in Paris may suddenly take it into his head to invent bagpipes that can be heard the same distance.

According to reports, President Elliot of Harvard wants to limit the college football teams to two games a season. If such ideas are carried out the cause of higher education will be at a discount.

The husky athlete who shows up at the dock with a crowd of admiring friends and a camera man will discover, on a little inquiry, that the small boy with the fish pole has beaten him into the water.

"Saloons have swing doors which yield to a very gentle push. Why not schoolhouses?" is the pertinent question asked by a correspondent of the New York Times. It ought to be as easy to get out of a schoolhouse as into a saloon.

A Cleveland inventor has patented an airship which he says will stay up for months. We don't wish to be critical, but it does seem as if the most enthusiastic aeronaut would want to come down to earth at least once in two or three weeks.

A New York physician is said to have removed a human heart from the body and repaired an injury without any harm resulting to the patient. That's nothing—there are plenty of girls who can give their hearts to three or four men at one time.

The New York teachers who prefer to decline the offer of a free trip to Europe to study the school systems there, with salaries paid in full while they are away, because they are too high and mighty to travel second-class, should cheerfully be allowed to stay at home.

"After getting married and unmarried a few times some rich folks actually get tired of the sport," says the Washington Post. This may be so, but, remarks the Baltimore American, it is impossible to see that recent examples give any grounds for such a conclusion.

If the Chicago woman who drank to intoxication in order to give her husband an object lesson had first consulted some one with common sense, she would have learned without the humiliating experience that morality does not thrive on that kind of teaching, and perhaps have saved herself from a divorce scandal.

Penny-in-the-slot machines for selling gas are so popular in London that there is almost a famine in copper coins in that city. The British mint is coining four tons a day in an attempt to supply the demand. In 1907 1,336 tons of pennies were taken from the automatic gas meters. As the meters are opened only once in three months, it can be seen that the amount of coin taken out of circulation by them is considerable.

Automobiles have not driven all the horses to the bone-yard. There are nearly 20,000,000 horses in this country, and their estimated value is almost $2,000,000,000 in the decade during which the motor car has been developed the number of horses has increased by 4,000,000, and the average value of a horse has risen. The case is a little like the experience of traction development in large cities. When new tunnels and subways are opened, the old lines seem to be just as much crowded as ever.

So many persons have patronized the free public library in the Jewish district of Brooklyn, New York, that work on the new building for it has been stopped, and architects are drawing plans for a much larger building than was originally designed, says the Youth's Companion. On Washington's birthday, when the men have a holiday, the temporary library was crowded all day, and a waiting line was formed outside. So long as immigrants are so eager for learning as this indicates, they will not endanger American institutions.

The Bank of Africa shareholders had a meeting in London not long ago, and the opinion was expressed that the prosperity of the institution depended largely upon the disposition of Americans to buy diamonds. Of late Americans have preferred to spend money at home. This may be a little rough on the Bank of Africa, but on the whole it is rather commendable, as showing a disposition to further domestic interests. And the whole affair is another indication of the extent to which the old world is relying upon

NEBRASKA NEWS

THE OMAHA PACKING COMPANY PLANT DESTROYED BY FIRE.

HALF MILLION DOLLAR LOSS

Loss of Ice Plant One of the Most Serious Features—Bert Taylor, the Minden Murderer, Heard From.

The old plant of the Omaha Packing Company, at Thirty-third and Q streets, South Omaha, was destroyed by fire Friday night, together with 3,000,000 pounds of meat, involving a loss estimated at $500,000. The big plant of the Cudahy Company adjoining was seriously threatened while the fire was at its height. The old plant of the Omaha company was used principally for the storage of meat, the killing and preparation of the products for market being done mostly at the new plant. There was stored in the burned buildings 2,200,000 pounds of pork and 800,000 pounds of beef, most of which belonged to the Omaha company. The ice plant was destroyed, which is serious in view of the shortage of ice which already exists there.

The fire started in the smoke house. It was definitely determined. The Omaha fire department was called upon and aided in controlling the fire.

ATTACKED WHILE ASLEEP.

Puts Up a Game Fight When Awakened and Drives Off Assailant.

Considerable excitement is prevailing at York, Neb., due to the attempted assault on the person of Miss Cora Kinneman, a 20-year-old daughter of George Kinneman, residents of North York. Friday night at about midnight Miss Kinneman was awakened and was immediately attacked by a man, who attempted to choke her. Miss Kinneman put up a good fight and in the struggle things in the room were overturned, making considerable noise, which is supposed to have frightened her assailant, who made his escape through the back way. Miss Kinneman had retired and was alone in the house, and her escape was due to the great struggle and fight she put up to save her life. Officers have found footprints outside (tracing to an alley, and the fact that the party who committed the act was in his stocking feet leads them to believe that someone who is acquainted with her and living near made the attempted assault. Owing to the lack of light in the house Miss Kinneman is unable to describe her assailant, and so far officers are unable to secure any evidence to lead to arrest.

BURLINGTON FILES REPORT.

Net Earnings in Nebraska Almost $4,000,000.

The Burlington railroad has filed a report with the State Board of Assessment of property to be valued by the board for taxation throughout the state separate from the terminal taxation. It is signed by Tax Commissioner Pollard. For the first time the company reports its property in bulk and not as property owned by 17 separate Burlington systems. For the first time the report contains earnings in Nebraska. It shows that for the six months ending March 31, 1908, the Burlington in Nebraska had gross earnings amounting to $9,377,637.21; operating expenses, $5,715,534.45, leaving $3,662,102.76. From this is deducted $384,846.05, being one-half taxes for the year ending March 31, 1908, leaving the net earnings for the six months, $3,277,256.71. The road is bonded for $10,615.75 a mile in Nebraska, a little more than the report showed last year. The net earnings for the entire Burlington system for the year ending June 30, 1906, as reported last year, was $7,579,516.67.

Destructive Fire on Farm.

The Grams' home, six miles northwest of Alasworth, Neb., suffered heavily by fire Monday afternoon. Two barns, five horses, three calves and some hogs, besides 100 tons of hay and some farming implements were destroyed. The total loss is about $1,700, with an insurance of $300. The fire was started by two boys of the family, about ten and twelve years old, who were smoking in the barn. They threw some matches in a bunch of hay to see it blaze up.

Sues the Northwestern.

Wilbur Hall, of Fremont, Neb., who claims he was hurt at Irvington last fall has sued the Northwestern Railroad company in the district court for $10,000 damages. Hall says that a pile driver faultily constructed was responsible for the accident that resulted in his injury.

Pedestrian at Central City.

Clad in a Khaki uniform and carrying a small grip and a walking stick, John Walsh stopped at Central City, Neb., for a few hours Thursday evening for a brief rest on his long journey from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Walsh left New York City the first day of April on a steamer for $5,000 that he would walk to San Francisco before the first day of July, or in 90 days. He is now ahead of schedule, in spite of the fact that he was detained seven days and compelled to lay off on account of sickness and bad weather.

Left Estate to the City.

County Attorney Terry of Beatrice, Neb., has the matter of proceeding against the estate of the late James Charles under the inheritance tax law under advisement. The deceased left his estate to the city of Beatrice to be used for the purchase of a public park. There appears to be some question as to whether a city is subject to a tax of this character, and this question the county attorney now has under advisement. The Charles estate amounts to about $12,000, and the tax would amount to $4 for each

BERT TAYLOR SENDS LETTER.

Alleged Slayer of Pearl Taylor Declares Innocence.

Bert M. Taylor, the alleged murderer of his sister-in-law, has been heard from. A. A. Wyatt of Minden, Neb., who is acting as deputy sheriff, received a letter from Taylor in which the supposed slayer declares that he is innocent of the crime with which he is charged. The letter is dated May 9, and bears the postmark of Enid, Oklahoma. It was posted at Enid May 12. There is no doubt that the letter is authentic. The sheriff and several other people have testified that the handwriting in the communication is that of Taylor's.

Taylor says that he is not guilty of murdering Pearl Taylor, but that a former chum of his is guilty of the crime. Taylor declares that the man who committed the act is an excellent likeness of himself, and that he could pass for him any place. Taylor does not give any name, but says the man formerly worked with him in Des Moines, and that they were great chums. The two had a quarrel and separated.

This man, so Taylor's story runs, came to Minden on the day the Taylor girls were assaulted and renewed his acquaintance and friendship with Bert Taylor. That night he accompanied Taylor to the latter's home and there intended to spend the night. In discussing old times, however, the two disagreed over some incident of their past life, and they quarreled again. The friend managed to knock Taylor down and bound and gagged him. Then he told Taylor that he was going to the home of the Taylor girls and commit the assault so that the blame would be laid on Bert Taylor.

Taylor claims that he managed to loosen his bonds just as the announcement of the fire at the Taylor girls' house was given. He declares he rushed out in pursuit of his former chum in order to bring him to justice for the crime against his sisters-in-law. He has been chasing this man ever since, and says that he will not return to Minden until he can catch him. Taylor declares he has suffered greatly since he left Minden. He hopes to get the man and return with him to his home town.

The people of Minden do not believe Taylor's story. They all believe the letter is genuine but do not put any credence in Taylor's story. Some of them think he is feigning insanity, preparatory to giving himself up to the officials. They think that he knows he can not long escape the law's agent and that he wants to escape death by feigning insanity.

Tragedy Near Table Rock.

Anton Billy, who lived on a farm about nine miles southeast of Table Rock, Neb., and ten miles this side of Du Bois, shot his wife about seven o'clock Tuesday and then shot himself. The family formerly lived near Table Rock, and their life was one long line of domestic discord. This is the third tragedy that has occurred in the Billy family in the last few years. A few months since a brother was shot while driving along in a wagon, and a short time previous to that a young son of Anton was accidentally shot while out hunting.

The Rains Prove Helpful.

The late rains and the succeeding warm weather have caused a quick development in all kinds of vegetation over the state. Corn is now being planted. Pastures and meadows, small grain fields and garden are thriving and much early produce is being marketed. The anticipated loss on the fruit crop in some sections of the state has proven to be only about one-half as great as reported, cherries and apples being but little damaged, peaches and plums and small fruit suffering the most injury.

Money Taken from Safe.

Thursday night someone entered the store of Sulphin & Dale at Newark, Neb., and stole $40 from the safe. The money was left by a workman with the firm for safe keeping. The safe door was ajar the next morning and the firm is not sure whether it was locked or not the night before. Nothing was taken but the money. The outside doors were locked and the windows showed no signs of having been tampered with.

Claim Man is a Suicide.

A bottle containing a note stating that Tom Ryan had committed suicide by jumping off the bridge at Omaha was found five miles below Bellevue, Neb., in the river and the note sent to Chief of Police Donahue. It was stained and worn as if it had been in the water for some time. The police have had no report of any man by that name being missing.

Lightning Strikes Barn.

Lightning struck the barn of William Birus, at Grand Island, last night and all that was saved was the family horse. A colt, a cow and a calf were stunned and could not be rescued. The loss was about $400, covered by $100 insurance.

Suicide at Nelton.

A man by the name of Cordes, living three miles north of Nelton, Neb., committed suicide Sunday night by taking strychnine. No cause seems to have been given for the act. The man is said to have been a heavy drinker.

The Wymore Driving Park Association.

At a recent meeting, decided that no games of chance would be allowed on the race grounds or in town during the circuit races in June. The selling of pools will be allowed as usual.

Nebraska News Notes.

L. L. Hill and Lewis Jensen, living near Filley, captured nine wolves nearly half grown.
The Epworth League convention for the Beatrice district will be held there June 23, 24 and 25. About 100 delegates representing seven counties will be present.
The Burlington in order to cut down expenses has removed Agent Hall from Randolph to Salem, Neb., and put a young man in charge of the station who is not an operator.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Most Important Happenings of the Past Seven Days.

Interesting Items Gathered From All Parts of the World Condensed Into Small Space for the Benefit of Our Readers.

Congressional.

The senate has passed the postoffice appropriation bill carrying amounts aggregating $229,027,367.

The conference of Republican members of the house of representatives accepted the report of the committee appointed at a previous conference to formulate an emergency currency bill and authorized the committee on rules to determine the procedure by which action shall be carried into effect in the house.

The president has sent a communication to congress recommending an appropriation of $20,000 for this country's participation in an international investigation of the opium question in the far east.

The naval appropriation bill as agreed to by the conference committee carries $122,662,715.

The house has passed a bill providing for the protection of owners of United States patents appropriated by the government. Claims for damages can be filed with the court of claims.

Senator Foraker has abandoned his effort to secure consideration at this session of his bill reinstating negro troops discharged from service for complicity in the Brownsville affair.

Senator Tillman occupied his old seat in the senate for a short time the other day.

The senate has passed the sundry civil appropriation bill without material amendment.

The Vreeland currency bill passed the house by a vote of 184 to 145.

The house committee on public lands has favorably reported a bill allotting in the state of Wyoming 1,000,000 acres of land to be subject to reclamation.

The senate has passed a bill establishing the Glacier National park west of the summit of the Rocky mountains and south of the international boundary line in Montana, comprising 1,000,000 acres.

The senate has passed the bill appropriating $50,000 for a memorial to Abraham Lincoln on the site of the Lincoln birthplace in Kentucky.

The Vreeland financial bill as passed by the house was amended in the senate by substituting the Aldrich measure and then passed by a vote of 47 to 20. The bill now goes to conference.

The house has passed the omnibus public building bill. It carries a total of $23,100,000.

Miscellaneous.

The next national convention of the Rivers and Harbors congress will be held in Washington, December 9, 10 and 11 next.

The National Association of Retail Grocers will meet next year in Portland, Ore.

The American car in the New York-to-Paris automobile race arrived at Tokyo, Japan, and immediately left for Vladivostok where all the cars are to assemble for a new start.

A case of the government against the Standard Oil company is being tried at Rochester, N. Y., in which the company is charged with receiving rebates. The company is indicted on 53 counts.

Private William Buwalda is to be court-martialed at San Francisco for attending a meeting addressed by anarchists and applauding attacks by the speaker against the government and particularly against the army and navy.

A movement is under way at the Methodist general conference at Baltimore to bring the church in closer touch with the laboring people.

The Reserve Trust company of Cleveland, has made an assignment. The liabilities are $2,700,000.

A total of 11 watches have been found in the ruins of the Guinness home near La Porté, Ind.

Three children were burned to death and two women fatally injured in an incendiary fire in a tenement at Passaic, N. J.

At the second day's session of the conference of governors at the White House, Gov. Johnson of Minnesota presided in the morning and Gov. Deussen of Illinois, in the afternoon.

The brewery workers in Kansas City have gone on a strike for higher wages. All the breweries in the city are tied up.

The annual meeting of the National Gas Association of America is to be held in Kansas City. At least 250 delegates are expected to attend.

Live stock shippers in Missouri will not be entitled to return transportation from the market to which their stock is shipped, according to a decision by the supreme court of the state.

The French courts have granted a decree in the Hart-McKee divorce case.

Two men entered the express car as a Great Northern train was leaving Seattle, Wash., overpowered the messenger and rapped with the contents of the strong box.

The town of Gilliam, La., has been wiped out by a tornado. A number of persons were killed.

THE WHITE HOUSE CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS.

The White House conference of 20 foreign plenipotentiaries, while broad in scope made no specific recommendations for legislation. A resolution was adopted thanking President Roosevelt for calling the conference. An agreement was also reached to arrange for a meeting of the governors next year.

The right of President Roosevelt to dismiss the negro soldiers concerned in the Brownsville affair from the army has been sustained in the federal court at New York.

Delegates from 50 commercial and shippers' associations of the east and middle west met in Chicago recently to discuss means to prevent the proposed increase in railroad freight rates.

The epoch-making conference of the governors of the various states with the president and other distinguished participants began promptly as scheduled at the White House in Washington. President Roosevelt called the first session to order and delivered an address explaining the objects of the meeting, the conservation of the natural resources of the country.

The cornerstone of the International Temple of Peace was laid in Washington and the ceremonies were participated in by representatives of the 21 American republics which have a joint interest in the building. The building is to be devoted to the promotion of peace, friendship and commerce between the countries.

The movement of gold from the United States to Europe has resumed. A call has been issued for the first national good roads congress to meet in Chicago on June 15 and in Denver July 6, the day before the opening of the Republican and Democratic national conventions.

The Minnesota Democrats in state convention formally endorsed Gov. Johnson as their candidate for president. They refused to declare for W. J. Bryan for second choice.

Three bandits robbed the Santa Fe station at French, N. M., and succeeded in escaping with $35,000 in cash. The money was intended to pay the miners at Dawson.

The strike of the street car men in Pittsburgh, Pa., has been settled by arbitration, the men accepting a reduction of one cent an hour in wages.

E. G. Lewis has been acquitted at St. Louis of the charge of using the mails to defraud in connection with the organization of the People's United States bank.

More than a foot of snow fell at Laramie, Wyo., the other day.

The supreme court of Missouri has decided that a fraternal association cannot issue life insurance policies under the non-forfeiture law of the state.

A tornado originated in the vicinity of Omaha, Neb., and moved south doing much damage to towns and farm property. At least 12 persons were killed and others injured.

Assistant Postmaster General De Graw has ruled that all packages to be sent by rural route carriers outside the mails must be presented to the postoffice for inspection.

The 747 state bank of Kansas reports to the state bank commission deposits of $1,000,000 more than one year ago and $3,500,000 in excess of the amount reported in December.

An accident bulletin issued by the interstate commerce commission for the quarter ending December 31, last, shows the railroads killed 1,092 and injured 19,366 persons.

The New York legislature has convened in special session upon the call of Gov. Hughes who desires the bill to prevent gambling at race tracks, which failed to pass at the regular session, again taken up for action.

A series of tornadoes visited the northwest part of Oklahoma covering a strip of country one mile wide and 50 miles long. Several persons were killed, many injured and much property was destroyed.

The armored cruiser Maryland was the trophy winner in the recent target practice at Magdalena bay.

The M. K. & T. flyer, southbound was recently wrecked by a head-on collision with a freight train near Muskogee, Ok. Two trainmen were killed and 15 passengers injured.

The Socialists have nominated Eugene V. Debs of Indiana as their candidate for president.

Personal.

Rev. Charles S. Mills, of Missouri, has been elected president of the Congregational Home Missionary society.

In his address at the White House conference Andrew Carnegie declared that the coal supply of the country would be exhausted in 200 years and that the supply of iron would last only 100 years longer.

W. M. Peck of Concordia was elected president of the Kansas Bankers association at the annual meeting in Kansas City.

Rear Admiral Sperry has succeeded Rear Admiral Thomas as commander-in-chief of the Atlantic fleet of battleships now at San Francisco.

President Roosevelt has accepted the presidency of the international tuberculosis congress, which meets in Washington next fall.

The wedding of Miss Jean Reid, daughter of the American ambassador to Great Britain, will take place in St. James palace, London, on June 23 next.

Ignatius Horstman, D. D., Catholic bishop of the Cleveland, O., diocese, is dead at Canton.

Representative Heflin of Alabama, who shot a negro during an altercation on a Washington street car, has been indicted by a federal grand jury.

Edwin F. Stevenson of Webb City, Mo., a student at the University of Michigan, was drowned recently at Ann Arbor.

Senators Johnson and Mathews engaged in a fist fight on the floor of the Oklahoma senate and were separated by the sergeant-at-arms.

Allen Gard, governor of Lanao, in the Philippines, died recently at Manila of bolo wounds received in an encounter with Moros.

GREAT GATHERING

CONGRESS OF GOVERNORS AT WHITE HOUSE WAS A SUCCESS.

THE PARTICIPANTS PLEASSED

Last Day Given to Adoption of Declarations Which Make No Specific Recommendations for Legislation.

Washington, May 14.—The White House was the scene Wednesday of the assemblage of many of the most distinguished figures in the political and industrial life of the nation. It was, perhaps, one of the most notable gatherings that has ever met to consider a great public question in that historic mansion. The occasion was the conference by President Roosevelt with the governors of practically all the states and territories to consider the broad question of conservation of the country's natural resources. The conference will continue through Friday.

President Roosevelt's reception by the governors and 500 distinguished attendants on the conference, as he entered the East room by the side of Vice President Fairbanks, was the first evidence that the assemblage was not to be bound too closely by dignity. It was precisely 11 o'clock when the president stepped upon the platform and when the presidential honors by the Marine band had been given, the governors stood up, clapped their hands and then lustily cheered. The president took up a small gavel and the history making conference was on.

When the president had taken his place on the right of the platform with the vice president on his left, the Rev. Edward Everett Hale, chaplain of the senate, arose, and leaning with one arm on the back of the president's chair, read a portion of the Scriptures descriptive of the promised land and then pronounced a feeling invocation in which he asked heaven's help in the deliberations to be had. At the conclusion of the invocation the president, without preliminary ceremony, began his address to the governors.

It was at the afternoon session that the real work of the conference began, and the session which opened at 2:45 and lasted until 5:05 o'clock, proceeded at a rate that broke all speed regulations. It developed first that the president finds it impossible to devote his entire time to the conference meetings. He will, as he did Wednesday, call to order each session, and then designate a governor to preside. This honor fell Wednesday on Gov. Noel of Mississippi, with the intimation from the president that Thursday he should call upon Gov. Johnson of Minnesota.

It was from the utterances of Mr. Carnegie and those who followed him that the gravity of the problems to be considered were given weight. Two hundred years of coal supply and half that of iron was the prediction of the famous ironmaster. These facts, he bore home with detail, but good naturedly hinted that he would be disappointed "by my friend, J. J. Hill."

Gov. Johnson of Minnesota made a lively talk in which he took issue with Mr. Carnegie's statement that wasteful methods prevailed in iron mining in the Lake Superior region and cheerfully assured that gentleman that "Mr. Hill will be glad to take issue with him on some things." Two problems, he said, confronted the conference—one was the conservation of the natural resources, the other the true development of industry. One, he said, was as great as the other.

Second Day.
Washington, May 15.—Startling was the warnings sounded Thursday at the conference of governors at the White House, of the danger the nation confronts in soil waste and forest depletion. The governors listened and talked and applauded, but took no action. This is left for Friday, the last day of the conference, and a plan is afoot to have the prepared speeches for that day printed in the record without reading in order that the time may be devoted wholly to results. The resolutions committee was in session all day and will report Friday morning. A supplementary meeting of a number of governors followed the day's session, and a committee consisting of the governors of Kentucky, Missouri and Nebraska was appointed to bring in a suggestion for a permanent organization of governors, independent, perhaps, of any other organization which may be formed by the conference. The president opened the morning and afternoon sessions, which were thereafter presided over by Gov. Johnson of Minnesota and Gov. Deussen of Illinois, respectively.

James J. Hill, of the Great Northern, who led a long list of speakers, treated the depletion of the nation's resources in a very serious and impressive way. He presented conditions re-

Washington, May 16.—The governors' conference at the White House ended shortly before 1 o'clock Friday after an enthusiastic session which resulted in the adoption of a set of resolutions, broad in scope but effecting no permanent form of organization nor making specific recommendations for legislation by either states or nation. Immediately after adjournment the governors met and appointed a committee, consisting of Gov. Wilson, Kentucky; Folk, Missouri; and Shelton, Nebraska, to prepare a resolution thanking the president for his initiative in calling the conference, and expressing the pleasure of the delegates that it had been of such a useful character. An agreement also was reached at this meeting whereby an active committee of five will make arrangements for a meeting of governors to be held next year.

Gov. Swanson said that among other matters that would come up at the next conference would be extradition, standardization of laws on marriage and divorce, taxation, police power and other matters.

Friday's session was replete with feature climaxes. President Roosevelt declared himself emphatically as not caring whether action for the conservation of resources or the protection of the rights of the people be taken by the states or by the federal government, so long as action resulted.

Like many of the important events of history, time is needed to reveal the epoch which the president and the governors believe has been made. The accomplishments of the conference which has been in session at the White House for three days cannot be set forth with mathematical precision. That its immediate results are more than ample is the expression of President Roosevelt, who brought it about, and of the governors who participated.

The printed record of the conference, which will later be available to every American home, will be compilation of facts, starting in their meaning, convincing in their universal conclusion that the states must act, and that the states and the nation must co-operate to the end that to the whole people of the nation may accrue the lasting benefit of its natural resources.

Besides the compilation of facts by the experts and the freely expressed opinion of the governors, the conference leaves as its permanent record a thousand words of "declaration," not a "declaration of independence," but a "declaration of co-operation."

Of the last day the story is one of many features. The set program was swept aside. The president presided throughout. He interjected remarks and speeches. He brought to the platform men who made plain the prevailing feeling, that thought and care must be exercised for the future. The prepared papers were not presented, but they will be printed in the permanent record.

He Rode With Sheridan.
Cleveland, May 16.—Michael X. Cahy, the last survivor of the three riders who accompanied Gen. Phil Sheridan on his famous ride to Winchester, died Wednesday night. Mulcahy rode at Sheridan's side and conveyed orders to the scattered command.

The house Thursday adopted the rule for consideration of the Vreeland currency bill, 174 to 146. The Democrats voted solidly against it and were supported by 15 Republicans.

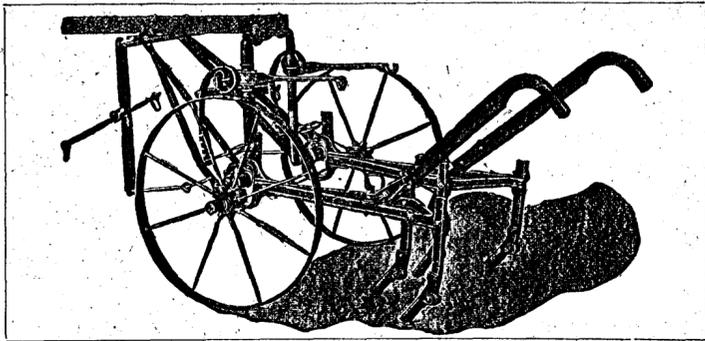

A Pianist Near Death.
New York, May 15.—Miss Jessie Shay, the well known pianist, who toured the country with Jan Kubelik, the Bohemian violinist, as piano soloist, is reported to be dying at the Presbyterian hospital, where she was operated upon May 5 in hope of relief from an affection of the liver.

The license of the Mercantile Town Mutual Insurance company of St. Louis was revoked Wednesday by State Superintendent of Insurance Vandiver.

A Cleveland Trust Company Falls.
Cleveland, O., May 15.—The Reserve Trust company made an assignment Thursday to the Superior Savings and Trust company. The liabilities of the concern are about $2,700,000. Inability to realize on outstanding loans is said

CORNELLS

CAN SHOW YOU THE BEST LINE OF CULTIVATORS

ever offered by one firm, consisting of the following makes:

Walking and Riding

THE BADGER
THE EMERSON

Two-row for Listed Corn

THE SATTLE FLYING SWEED

We have just finished unloading a car of DEERING and EMERSON
HAY TOOLS.

Cornells Hardware and IMPLEMENT HOUSE

About Decoration Day
At the request of those having in charge the proper observance of Decoration Day, all persons are hereby notified that the following statute is in force in this state, to-wit:

Any person or persons who shall on the 30th day of May commonly known as Decoration Day, engage in horse racing, ball playing, or in any game of sport, which may tend to disturb the public peace on the 30th day of May shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days or both, in the discretion of the court.

There has been a general tendency of late toward a hilarious celebration of this day. This is contrary to the spirit and purpose of that sacred occasion, when the heart of every true American should be filled with gratitude for the sacrifice and suffering endured by our soldiers of every war, and we should all gladly join with the few remaining veterans of the Civil War, and the Relief Corps, in decorating the graves of the departed.

H. E. Oleson, County Attorney.

The usual memorial services of the G. A. R. will be held at the M. E. Church on Sunday May 24 at 11 o'clock a. m. All the churches of the city participate in these services. Rev. Halsey of the Presbyterian church will preach the sermon. The ladies and comrades of Post and Circle are requested to be at their hall at 10 o'clock sharp on that day. Decoration day exercises will be observed the following Saturday, May 30th. Watch next week's paper for the program.

Mr. Floyd W. Robbins who, has been specializing in music at the Nebraska Wesleyan Conservatory of Lincoln for, the last three years, will be in Ord during the first week in June to organize a class in music for the summer. Mr. Robbins has been taking special training in methods of teaching music, Price, 50 cents per lesson.

Advertised Letters

List of Letters remaining unclaimed in the post office at Ord Nebr., for the week ending tomorrow.

Mr. John Parker. Letters will be sent to the dead letter office. Parties claiming any of the above please say they were "advertised."

Burlington Time Card

East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.
East bound freight leaves:
Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.
Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 6:30 a. m.
Friday and Saturday 9:00 a. m.
West bound passenger arrives 6:25 p. m.
West bound freight arrives 3:00 p. m.

In Justice's Court in and for Valley County, Nebraska.

Byron E. Inglehart, plaintiff vs. Judson F. Rogers, defendant. In the above entitled action, will take notice that on the seventh day of May, 1908, Herman Westover, justice of the peace of Ord precinct, Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $17.73, in an action pending before him, wherein Byron E. Inglehart is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of the defendant consisting of the following goods and chattels, to-wit:

- 1 Show case
- 4 Round tables
- 16 Chairs
- 18 Haviland China plates
- 1 Show case
- 126 Dinner plates
- 97 Desert plates
- 35 Dinner plates
- 30 Desert plates
- 3 Pitchers
- 2 Pitchers
- 20 Desert plates
- 1 Dozen cups and saucers
- 22 Soup plates
- 1 Set of cups and saucers

Has been attached under said order. Said case was confined to the 23d day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.

By Claude A. Davis, Plaintiff.
His attorney.

We want your HOGS!

We have made arrangements with the trade at Portland, Oregon, to handle all of the

Light Hogs

we can ship them, and are now in the market for light hogs for western shipment. Call us up by phone or stop at our office and let us quote you top prices.

Blessing Bros.

Farmer's phone 25. Bell phone 42

Ord Church and Lodge Directory

RATES:—Six lines or less, $3.00 per year. Additional lines 20 cents per year.

ORD LODGE NO. 103 A. F. & A. M. Meetings held on Wednesday or before the full moon of each month. C. C. Sheppard, W. M. Alvin Blessing, Sec.

DORIC CHAPTER NO. 20 R. O. T. M. Tuesday of each month. Convocation first Rudolph Sorenson, Secretary.

MIZPAH CHAPTER ORDER OF EASTERN STAR, ORD LODGE NO. 26 Regular meetings first and third Fri-

Ord Chautauqua

Twenty Five Strong Programs

Prof. Geo. W. Porter
Platform Manager
Litterateur and Musician.
A Good Entertainer

MUSICAL COMPANIES
The Sterling, Colored Jubilee's, Hungarian Orchestra, Kirksmith Concert Company and Hesperian Male Quartet
Several superb soloists in addition

Entertainers will be liberal in number and exceptional in quality.

The best the world affords.

Allen A. Turner
Educated at Yale, Pastor of prominent churches, resigned to do overalls and accept a job in a factory, that he might learn to know men and study the industrial problem.

Dr. Prichard
Made a record as a foot ball player and athlete. He is maintaining his reputation on the American platform.

Senator Hoch, Congressman De Armond, Judge Lee S. Estelle, Dr. Markley, Hon. W. R. Bennett, and others will deal with pertinent subjects.

Two eminent preachers will fill the Sunday dates.
Dr. Frank G. Smith.
Dr. Thos. E. Green.

Dr. Monroe Markley has lately resigned from the pastorate of the First congregational church of Denver to give all of his time to the lecture platform. He is one of the big men of today and will appear at the Ord Assembly in July.

Season tickets subscribed for at an early date may be had for $2 for adults and $1 for children. Twenty five per cent additional will be charged at the gate after the Assembly opens. Single admission tickets 25 and 35 cents.

Subscribe for tickets early and thus assure the success of the Assembly

For season tickets see, L. R. Bright.

The Ord Quiz

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. C. PARSONS, City Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at Ord as second class mail matter.

Advertising Rates.

	1 Wk	1 Mo	1 Year
Less than 5 lines, per inch	25	75	5.00
5 to 10 inches, per inch	20	50	3.00
10 inches	3.00	9.00	90.00
30 inches	4.00	12.50	125.00

A month is four insertions.
Want local 5 cents a line.
Regular local 10 cents a line.
Black local 15 cents a line.

Subscriptions may begin or end at any time. Notice to stop this paper will be promptly obeyed. All subscriptions are received with the express understanding that the subscription may continue until the subscriber notifies the publisher of his desire to terminate the subscription.

Subscription Rates.

One copy, if paid in reasonable time, $1.50
If unpaid year after year, $2.

To Help Hughes.

Based on the personal triumph of Charles E. Hughes in winning the doubtful district of Niagara last Tuesday, a wide movement has been set on foot in that city to show to the country the presidential qualifications of this man who will not boom himself. While Hughes-to-day still insists on being governor rather than playing for the presidency, thousands of men who know him have formed the Hughes Information Bureau to say for the busy executive what he will not take the state's time to say for himself. When all people know Hughes as Niagara and New York know him, they believe, the country will have a candidate who worked while others ran. Lawyers, labor leaders, farmers, mechanics, ministers, bankers, brakemen teachers from the remote districts of the country and the heart of the business section here are to-day joining this work of telling the tale of Hughes.

"No one in particular has had to start or push this movement," said H. B. Mingle, head of the Hughes Information Bureau, at its headquarters, 165 Broadway, to-day. "Everyone seems to have taken a hand all at once and now it is all I can do to tackle the work of simply telling about Hughes, which they demand. If we can tell the rest of the country what we know about Hughes it will be all we ask."

Half a dozen of the things which the people who know their governor want to tell are: (1) That he is always "on the job" seven days of vacation and worked at eleven and fifteen while other governors were the greater part of the year. (2) That he has no enemies but race track touts and their political henchmen: no policies but his own: no entangling alliances. (3) That he can carry New York State. (4) That he likes a horse race, but hates unenforced law. (5) That he left a law practice of $75,000 a year to serve the state for less than half what he must spend. (6) That he has the confidence of business men.

Their Work is Crude.

The Merchants' & Manufacturers' Association have honored us by sending a six-column page of statements by single individuals from sundry whiskey towns of Nebraska telling what they think about dry towns and now and then a slam at county option. The association offer us in a covert way a snug sum for printing the stuff and adds by asking what we will take to print the whole page intact. The matter is gotten up so as not to look like an advertisement, but to appear to be the expression of this paper on this very important question. Of course the offer of our Omaha friends is turned down, for this paper does not take pay for editorial expression. But the sending of this proof-sheet shows that the saloon interests of the state are awake to the coming struggle and are trying to poison the minds of the people and breed prejudice against local prohibition and county option. But to one who will give this page of stuff one minutes thought it will at once appear that there is nothing in it. Of course one man may be found in any community who will reel off a piece of the stock argument against no-license, and yet he may in no manner voice the sentiment of the town. We observe that these letters come from no such town as York, and Broken Bow where prohibition has become a settled policy and whose growth and prosperity are a knock-out blow to the old stock saloon argument that no-license drives away trade.

Another thing that looks shady in this letter from our Omaha friends is the declaration that no distiller, brewer, liquor dealer or saloon keeper can become a member of the association. These merchants and manufacturers are too good to associate with saloon men, but they are not too good to do their dirty work.

The wonder is that so few people play chess. Of course the game is a hard one, calling for mental effort and there is practically no element of chance in it but after all the real enjoyment of the game is in no way to be compared with that of any of the many trashy games that neople mostly like to play. Every young man, and young woman too, ought to learn to play the game. It will bring out the weak points of your mind and show them to you better than any other mental exercise, and will tend to correct them.

More Locals

Homer Botts went to Oklahoma Wednesday morning where he will build a house for D. H. Buss, and he may locate there.

Clatyon Burke won third place in the debating contest and is the only one on the negative side of of the question to win any place at all.

Mrs. Scott arrived in the city last Friday for the purpose of disposing of her property here and visiting relatives. She is now located in Portland Oregon.

Tuesday evening the body of the infant child of Andrew Naas, who lives about ten miles south of Ord, was found floating and lifeless in the water tank at the barn yard. The child had been missed for half an hour and the family were searching for her when the body was found. Dr. Shepard was called but he found the child dead. The child was about 14 months old and was an unusually strong and active girl. The tank was so low that she could easily have fallen into it, which she did unfortunately when no one was near to offer help. The shock is a terrible one to this good family and calls for the sympathy of all. The funeral will be held this afternoon at the Geerman Methodist church.

After a fine six o'clock supper at the W. D. Long home. Claude L. Honnold and Effia A. Long stole a march on their many kind friends by driving to the U. B. parsonage at Midvale, where at 8:30 they were married by Rev. Barkheimer. The groom was attended by John Ward as best man. The bride was attended by Mae Davis of Fullerton. Miss Lottie Long was also present. Then a nice lunch, prepared by Mrs. Barkheimer, was served after which they came to town, where they were served to fruit, ice cream and cake at 12:30 at the Charles Nelson home. They spent the night at the home of Mrs. Honnold. They left on the 7 o'clock train Wednesday morning for St. Paul, where they will visit Mrs. Roy, then they will visit an aunt in Kansas before returning to Oklahoma, where their future home will be. Mr. Honnold has a position as principal in the high school at Thomas, Oklahoma.

Notice.

You will find my horse and jack books with Lou Schwaner. Please settle with him.
W. T. D. Ankila

WANT COLUMN

FOR SALE—My residence property on the hill. Mrs. Earl C. Brink. 4

WANTED—An experienced wind-mill and pump man. Hutchins Bros. North Loup, Nebraska. 8

FOR SALE OR TRADE—In the edge of town, three acres of nice rich ground with new seven room house and new barn. Thirty five bearing fruit trees on place. Will trade for a farm. L. D. Bailey & Sons. 4

FOR SALE—Shade trees and evergreens. W. A. Anderson. 67-

BARGAIN—Houses, barn, etc., with two good lots, nicely located in southeast part of Ord, at a low price if taken at once. Not much cash required. R. L. Staple. 2-

JOURNAL OFFICE for rent by June 1st. Mrs. Ada Mann. 6

FOR SALE—My Peerless threshing machine, 18 H. P. engine 36x32, separator, feeder, 2 tanks, everything complete and will give same warranty as new. Price $1300. W. P. Plummer. 5

FOR SALE—Good driving horse, with or without buggy and harness. Charles Siler. 6 1/2

SAND and GRAVEL—I have opened up a sand and gravel pit and am prepared to furnish it in any amounts to town or country buyers. See me before buying. Leave orders at Stover's. Glen Rogers. 64

FOR RENT—Three room cottage close to the square. Call at Quiz office. 5

FOR SALE—Plain Valley farm of L. S. Jones. For particulars inquire of P. J. Jones, Ord. 5-1/2

FOR SALE—I will sell my residence property consisting of ten room modern house, oak finish, city water, electric lights, phone, bath room, complete with two lots, 1 in orchard and grapes, cement walks around entire house. G. L. Gibson. 5-

FOR SALE CHEAP—if taken soon the house on lot 1, block 40, purchaser to remove house from premises. See me or E. M. Williams. W. B. Keown. 4

LOST—Between my place and Midvale church on Wednesday evening May 6, a gray saddle blanket. Finder please notify me and oblige H. W. Trefren. Phone O 19. 7

FOR BEE SUPPLIES see A. P. Jensen manufacturer of bee supplies and hives. I carry a full line. Route 4, phone White 30. 6

STRAYED—A small bay pony mare on May 10th. T. D. Likely. 8-1/2pd.

MONEY to loan on city property. See R. L. Staple. 8-1/2pd.

Big Discount Sale

on millinery at Angie Bond Orcutt's. Trimmed and untrimmed millinery going at your own prices. Produce taken in ex-

Try the Cash Grocery First

- Our 30 cent high quality canned pears for ..... 25c
- Our 30 cent high quality sliced apricots for ..... 25c
- Fancy dried apricots, per pound ..... 20c
- Mapleine, per bottle ..... 35c
- Gallon canned apples, New York best, per can ..... 40c
- Gallon canned peeled peaches, fine, per can ..... 50c

If you want something good in fruit preserves, try the Heinz quality, absolutely pure. Simply fruit and sugar. The kind your mother made, per can 25c and ..... 40c

Missouri berries coming now, fine quality. Fresh vegetables, lettuce, radishes, asparagus, new cabbage and potatoes.

Fackler & Sutton

The Cash Grocers

Yosemite Valley

This wonderful place will never cease to attract visitors. If one has seen all the rest of the world, and has left this Valley out, he still lacks something in his experiences. If you can see but one place in

CALIFORNIA

By all means let that ONE place be YOSEMITE. No description can interpret its sublimity. Whatever you miss in life do not leave Yosemite out.

Be sure your tickets read via the

Union Pacific

The COMFORTABLE and DIRECT route

For leaflets inquire of F. R. FRICK, Local Agent

Try a Want Ad

It Brings Results

The Best Place in Town to Buy

Furniture Sewing Machines
Wall Paper Sanitas
Carpets Rugs Linoleums
Paints and Oils

Largest Assortments
Qualities the Best Prices
the Lowest

The BAILEYS' DEPARTMENT STORE

The best trading place. Strictly one price--the same to you as to your neighbor. We buy chickens, cream, eggs and butter; pay cash or trade

THE ORD QUIZ

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner,
W. C. PARSONS, City Editor.

ORD, VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Carl Coonrod visited in Sargent over Sunday.

Horace Davis went to Lincoln Saturday on chautauqua business.

Miss Sutton came down from Burwell to visit Ord folks last Saturday.

Frank Johnson was a passenger to Omaha Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Leon Bressley was down from Burwell visiting friends last Saturday.

Mrs. S. J. W. Krown went to Omaha Monday morning to visit friends for a few days.

Will Moses was putting in a new cement floor in one of the subterranean rooms of the courthouse Monday.

A fractured ankle is compelling Dr. Ludington to navigate about these days via the use of the crutches.

The Dierks Lumber Co. have torn down most all of their old lumber shed and are replacing the same with a new two story building.

Fred Brink went to Cotesfield last Saturday morning to see that his father was conducting the drug business down there all right. He returned in the evening of the same day.

Dr. G. W. Taylor and Dr. George R. Gard went to Omaha Wednesday morning to take in the annual meet of Nebraska dentists. They expect to be back in Ord tomorrow night.

Ord is pretty well represented at the Banker's Convention in Kearney this week. Wednesday morning E. M. Williams of the First National and Clarence Coe of the Ord State departed for the gathering.

J. A. Ollis, Sr., went to Kansas City Monday morning as a delegate to the Presbyterian General Assembly in session at that city. He expects to visit other points before returning, getting back about the first of June.

Burwell got a nice little shower of rain Sunday evening but Ord failed to get in on the shower. The shower was needed more up the river than at this place as one or two of the rains that have come this way recently have missed the Burwell folks.

For a long time John Maresh has had his eye on some land out in the state of Utah that he believes is going to make the purchaser some money on the increase of its valuation in the next few years. He was out in that state a few years ago and was much pleased with the country, but did not at that time acquire holdings. Last Tuesday he made another trip to Utah and will especially investigate the lands about Green River, and should they appeal to him as favorably now as they did on his former visit he will very likely become a Utah land holder. Of course, Mr. Maresh has no intentions of leaving Ord, and should he purchase land in the west it will only be for speculation purposes.

A petition was being circulated the first of the week directed to the county board of supervisors and asking them to take steps toward fixing up the fence about the court house square. The improvement asked for is one that is much needed. We believe that the old wooden posts should be torn out and some of more substantial material put in their place. The chain now in use could of course be used again as it is good for many years of service yet. The expense of the improvement would not be great, but the appearance of the square would be much better. The petition found liberal signers wherever it was presented.

A swell affair was the annual banquet tendered the Ord High School graduates by the juniors at the opera house last Thursday evening. Ten courses found place on the bill of fare and these courses were interspersed with toasts by the pupils and the school faculty. For some thing like three hours the folks were seated at the banquet board and it was getting along towards the break of day when the affair was over.

Mrs. Stroup of Ord, Nebraska, is in the city visiting her husband, H. C. Stroup, the engineer at the pumping and electric light station. She is on her way to Crawfordsville, Indiana, to attend the supreme convention of the Ben Hur lodges, being a member of an important committee.—University Place News.

The Quiz has satisfied about fifteen customers with calling cards during the past ten days. We still have a good supply in the latest fashion fads on hand and can supply your wants on short notice. If your supply is getting short better order some today.

W. T. Draper was at North Loup Tuesday.

Frank Stars was in North Loup between trains Tuesday.

For draying or for flour, feed and hay, see J. G. Dahlin. 7-11.

A. Walkup went to Hastings Tuesday morning to take in the G. A. R. encampment.

Mrs. Nellie Cantwell, of Scotia is visiting her sister Mrs. Walter Bundy this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Kokes returned from their trip to Omaha last Saturday evening.

M. Michelson, the electric light man, was at St. Paul visiting relatives over Sunday.

J. S. Tedro went to St. Paul Monday, where he is engaged in the cement sidewalk business.

The father of Rev. Maynard, who has been in this city visiting for some time returned to his home in St. Louis Monday morning.

Walter Erickson came up from Elba Saturday and spent Sunday with the Judge Gudmundsen family. He returned home Monday morning.

A show troupe drove over from Arcadia and took the Burlington at this point, Monday morning in order to fill their date at Greeley.

Mrs. A. E. Brush and Mrs. E. M. Foster went to Hastings Tuesday morning to take in the G. A. R. reunion now in session at that place.

Mrs. George Gard and her mother, Mrs. S. A. Parks departed Tuesday morning for Trenton, Missouri, where they will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

Miss Monna Trindle gave a musical demonstration at her studio Monday evening to a score and more of the parents and friends of the pupils who compose her music class.

We regret to learn that Mike Flakus of Elyria must submit to an operation in order to regain his health. Tuesday morning he went to Omaha where he will have the operation performed.

Engineer O'Brien changed runs with Engineer Beach Saturday, O'Brien going to Loup City and Beach coming to Ord. Mrs. Beach came up also and visited over Sunday with the Hall Barnes family.

E. J. Clements came down from Burwell Monday morning where he had been looking after legal affairs, and at this place he was joined by his mother and together they went on to the former home in Lincoln.

A new time table went into effect on the Union Pacific Monday, about the only change being, that the freight now comes in about forty minutes later than formerly, being scheduled for Ord now at 11:40, departing at about the same number of minutes later, 12:45.

The Quiz man is almost obliged to admit that the fruit-crop in this section of the state is almost a total failure. While one week ago many thought that there would be a pretty liberal supply of cherries much fruit having set on the trees, but it has been falling off ever since and but a fraction of a crop can now be predicted.

Clarke Lamberton was at Loup City Monday. Clark says that it was his first trip to that town in two years and that he found a wonderful change in the town in that length of time. With many new residences, miles of new sidewalks and other improvements Clark thinks it one of the best little towns in

Next week is commencement week and the graduating class have arranged for several important functions. The program of the week starts with the baccalaureate address on Sunday evening, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings are class nights and on Thursday evening, the class lecture will be delivered by Harry V. Adams. All of these meetings are to be held in the Wentworth opera house commencing at 8 o'clock. There are fifteen members of the graduating class this year, ten boys and five girls, an unusual circumstance as there are nearly always more girls than boys. The graduates are W. C. Loofbourrow, Herbert L. Cushing, Winnie E. Parks, Milford Stacy, Josephine Cernik, Archie Coombs, Ralph L. Batie, Sophia Reithardt, Joseph Aldrich, Fred A. Brink, Ora Stewart, Miner E. Harris, Mable Moore, Maxwell H. Westover, and Otto Wirsig.

The well known Grand Island Business & Normal College of Grand Island, Neb., has just announced that 250 more young men and 250 more young women will be admitted to the College this year and that no payment whatever will be required for school expenses until the pupils have time to graduate. They will then be placed in positions in banks and business offices and allowed to pay the College a small amount monthly until the bill is settled. This certainly is a grand opportunity and those who are interested should write for their circulars. This College has been established twenty years and is one of the biggest and most substantial schools of its class in the United States.

Mrs. Frank Vopat met with quite a painful accident the first of the week. She was boiling clothes preparatory of doing the family washing and in order to remove the dirt from the clothes more readily she poured a little gasoline into the boiler. In stirring the clothes some of the liquid was thrown over on the stove and in much less time than it takes to tell about it the gasoline in the boiler was on fire and Mrs. Vopat had some pretty badly burned arms and a bad burn or two on her face. A doctor was summoned in to dress the burns but it will be several days before they are all healed up.

The city physician disinfected the Will Stevens home Sunday and Monday Will was permitted to come down town for the first time in over four weeks. He does not show any serious effects from small pox but says that he did not have the disease in the worst form. He was a pretty sick man however for a few days and is pretty thankful to get out of it without any scars to show.

The Quiz office and a couple of its neighbors indulged in its annual alley clean-up last Saturday afternoon and we think that we are now in shape to make a few remarks about the alleys in other parts of town. Get a rake and wheelbarrow and see how it goes, you have no idea what an improvement can be made in a few hours work.

George Winter has bought of T. J. Nethery the property west of the Geo. Seivers residence. The house on the premises will be moved out and Mr. Winters will erect thereon a modern residence for his own use.

Notice the referee sale advertised in another column of this paper wherein certain lands will be sold at Ord on June 1. This land is some of the Sorenson estate and is being sold to close up matters.

Mrs. Frank Rogers of Greeley is visiting in the city.

The water was turned on in the drinking fountains in the square Tuesday.

Joseph Wadaz and Veronica Dubaz were married at Elyria by Rev. Joseph Augustine on the 13th inst.

Edward Lloyd Jones and Miss Zella R. Provis will be married at the home of the bride's mother at Clarkson, Washington, on June 3. The bride-to-be has many friends here.

Rev. Walter N. Halsey spent four hours today helping High School seniors put the finishing touches on their orations. This is his eighteenth year at such work.

We believe that there has been some talk of a Fourth of July celebration this year but for the lack of anybody to take hold and push an affair of this kind the movement will undoubtedly be dropped. We believe that the amount of money spent in the average Fourth of July celebration could be spent to better advantage and in a way that would do more good to the city.

A postal card from Mrs. Lew Schwaner out in California tells a member of the Quiz force that she is greatly enjoying her visit, a part of which she is putting in in helping to harvest an enormous strawberry crop. We do not see how there could be any greater pleasure for a Nebraskan than to assist in this kind of an enterprise.

Yesterday John Auble was arrested on complaint of the county attorney charging him with practicing as a physician without a permit. He gave bonds to appear before Judge Gudmundsen next Monday when the preliminary trial will be had. This was a sequel to the death of Clarence Smith, whom the doctor had been treating.

Joseph Bartunek and Terezie Krcelik were married by Judge Gudmundsen yesterday. This is the second time that this lady received such service from the judge in the past year. On July 20 Judge Gudmundsen joined her in marriage with a Custer county man, but the marriage was not a pleasant one and she succeeded in getting a divorce from him.

The North Loup entertainers appeared at the Methodist church Tuesday night and gave a very good program for those who do not make profession singing and speaking. The program consisted chiefly of music by the glee club of nine voices and by the quartet. Two selections were read by Mrs. Hillyer, who is quite talented, and pleased the audience well. The closing performance, a little play entitled, "Six cups of Chocolate," was a little insipid, but well performed. We are glad the good people from North Loup came up and hope they will come again.

There is a very pronounced sentiment in the city against all forms of gambling and men are putting up their money liberally to see the business stopped. The first visible move since the organization of a lot of men was made yesterday when all users of slot machines were asked to put their machines away. All of them readily consented to do so and most of them expressed themselves as pleased to have the slot business stopped. Of course this is comparatively a small matter and one very easy to handle, but efforts will be made to put a stop to the regular skin games that are being played in several parts of the city. This is not so easy a job, but with plenty of money and a very pronounced sentiment of the people at their back, the committee feels that something Clarence R. Smith died at his home in Ord Tuesday of typhoid fever. He was born in Butler county, May 23, 1877, to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Smith and was married to Eva Strausser in 1900. Two sons and a daughter were born to them. Mr. Smith has been living in Valley county since 1896 and was an industrious man. For years he worked for the Independent Telephone company, but was chosen a year or so ago to the management of the Farmer's company, which position he held with credit up to the time of his death. Fortunately he held a policy in a fraternal society for $2000, which will be a boon to the widow and children. The funeral will be held at the Baptist church this afternoon, Rev. Huston officiating.

At the request of Josef Vala of Eureka township, his fourteen year old son, Frank Vala, was taken to the state reform school at Kearney by Sheriff Sutton Wednesday morning. In court it was shown that Frank was a pretty bad boy, having at several times appropriated property belonging to other people but his latest act, and the one which resulted in his being sent to the reform school, was the beating up of a neighbor's seven year old girl, the parents of the girl preferring more serious charges against the boy than assault, but these charges the boy denied. A few years in the state institution will probably help to make a better man of the fellow and if not, will keep him from worrying the neighbors for the time being.

The past week has been one of accidents, not the least of which was the one that befell Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Shepard last Sunday afternoon. The accident occurred in the south part of town, Mr. Shepard having got out of the wagon to open a gate, leaving his wife to hold the team, when they became unmanageable and pitched wagon and all over a pretty steep bank. Mr. S. Shepard was picked up unconscious and carried into the A. Norman home near at hand and later removed to her home. She was pretty badly bruised up and it was some hours before she regained her right mind again. She is doing all right now, however.

The attending physician had to acknowledge his mistake Sunday night and accordingly took down the scarlet fever quarantine card on the home of George Jensen. One of the children had been sick and had most of the symptoms of scarlet fever. But when the child failed to scale off as it ought to the doctor gave it up and George is out again. He made good use of his time in confinement by painting his house.

T. J. Nethery sent $25 to the Bellevue College authorities as soon as he heard of the disaster that befell that institution, and now as other people showed a willingness to help he started out with a subscription paper yesterday morning and met with ready response. Miss Lillian Johnson hunted him up and gave $10 and others are contributing other sums.

No one can handle gasoline without taking chances on the loss of life and property. If you use gas for light or cooking there is no possibility of danger. And in every other way gas is vastly superior to any other fuel. Furthermore it is not expensive. Those who think it is too expensive are those who have not tried it.

Dr. George White came home last week with his dental sheepskin and will now hang out his shingle in the best place offered. He is undoubtedly a first-class dentist, having had much experience and long years of The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. C. E. Rasset on the 28th.

The parents of the Luse boys were up here last Friday to visit the boys.

F. J. Ball has sold his merry-go-round to a party who was in a hurry for one and has ordered another so as to be good and ready for the Fourth.

Hastings College has a prize contest each year in analysis and delineation of Bible characters. Rev. Walter N. Halsey has been acting as judge this week.

Miss Haines, the efficient Sunday school primary teacher who has several times visited Valley county, died at her mother's home in Stanford, Illinois, May 13th.

The Loomis home at Vinton is being made a jolly place this week on account of the arrival of the venerable mother of Mr. Loomis and his daughter, Elizabeth Linton and husband. The party arrived Monday.

Wednesday afternoon a merry group of women were seen passing through town on their way to the hospitable home of Benjamin Alvord, where the Presbyterian aid society held their bi-monthly meeting. The hay rack ride, the ladies foot race and the race home were notable features of the occasion.

There are a lot of nimble young men about town who handle a base ball well and it looks to us that there ought to be a pretty strong ball team put up by the people of this city. The sluggers are all right, but there is material for a better nine if the Quiz does not miss its guess.

Tuesday night the defeated side of the Woman's Club paid their penalty for not having perfect merits by furnishing tickets to the North Loup entertainers at the Methodist church and then taking the guests to the Robbins home to furnish them refreshments and a good time. This latter part of the penalty payment commenced at about 10 o'clock, just following the entertainment at the church. As soon as the guests were all present they were seated at one table whereon 50 covers were laid. To accomplish this a table was improvised extending across three large rooms and through two doors. Ice cream and cake were furnished and when these were disposed of the president of the club, though not one of the defeated ones, acted as toastmistress and called for a few impromptu responses to toasts propounded to them on the spot. These, however, were simply as a certain raiser to the real toast which was given by the defeated side explaining in song how they came to be defeated. All these stood at the head of the long table and sang to the tune of "My Father and Mother were Irish," several verses of home made poetry which, though not really faultless in some ways, was a most telling thing. So pleased were the guests with the song that they encored the singers who responded with another ditty and after drinking to the health of the winning side and the president of the club, the function was over. Each guest was given a bouquet of carnations on departing.

Attorney Claude A. Davis and John Maresh were in our city Tuesday. Mr. Davis is running for office of county attorney this year and we feel confident in saying he is well qualified for the office. Although he has been in the vicinity of Ord only two years he has gained the confidence of the people in general and they feel there will be no question but that he will gain the position he is seeking.—Ar-

Thinks He Will Win.

Attorney Claude A. Davis and John Maresh were in our city Tuesday. Mr. Davis is running for office of county attorney this year and we feel confident in saying he is well qualified for the office. Although he has been in the vicinity of Ord only two years he has gained the confidence of the people in general and they feel there will be no question but that he will gain the position he is seeking.—Ar-

Clean-Up Sale

Having sold my farm, I will sell the following described property, on my farm three miles north of Ord, on

WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1908
Commencing at 10 o'clock a. m.

- |                              |                           |
|------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1 bay horse, 8 yrs., wt 1200 | 1 mower                   |
| 2 thoroughb'd Jersey cows    | 1 rake                    |
| 1 thoroughb'd Jersey bull    | 3 sets harness            |
| 1 yearling steer             | 1 two-section harrow      |
| 10 Duroc-Jersey brood sows   | 1 cream separator         |
| 50 Duroc-Jersey fall shoats  | 1 doz. Buff-Rock chickens |
| 55 Duroc-Jersey spring pigs  | 2 stands of bees          |
| 1 Duroc-Jersey boar          | 1 hog dipping tank        |
| 2 lumber wagons              | 400 bushels ear corn      |

Household goods and other articles too numerous to mention

Free Lunch at Noon

TERMS:—Nine months time will be given on all sums over $10.00 with interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum.

Clark Lamberton, Auctioneer
E. M. Williams, Clerk

W. B. KEOWN

SPRINGDALE DEPARTMENT

By G. R. MANN

If one-half the time past noon is equal to one-fourth of the time to midnight, find the time.

Patrons Day, Friday May 29.

All grades are doing specimen work this week.

The fourth and fifth geography have taken up Asia.

Andrew McLain was at the W. L. Smith home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Arnold were at Elmer King's Sunday.

Farmers of this community are finishing corn planting this week.

Don't miss the Sunday evening meeting at Springdale church.

G. A. McLain called at the home of his brother, Albert Sunday.

The sixth arithmetic are taking up reasoning problems in fractions.

S. N. Arnold has the assessing problem in Springdale township about solved.

The eighth arithmetic are taking up "The Method by Days" in interest at present.

Guy Potter was over from Mira Valley visiting the home folks. He returned Sunday.

Miss Emma Vandas was a Springdale visitor Sunday. Gertrude Hawkins was her hostess.

Mr. Herman Timmerman and H. M. Timmerman have been marketing wheat for the past two weeks.

May 29. WHAT? PATRONS' DAY Exercises. WHEN 1 a. m. till 4 p. m. WHERE? School House. Be there.

The State officers are being discussed for general lessons this week. The national officers have been completed.

G. A. McLain drove ten head of cattle to pasture Wednesday. Pasture for these cattle was secured on the John Williams farm.

Brook's and Heath's second readers have been placed in the hands of the first and second grade reading classes respectively.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith and daughter Ester were in Ord at the home of Mrs. Rawles Saturday and Sunday. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

Notice change in time of regular church services at Springdale church for Sunday May 24. No regular afternoon services. Meeting in the evening 8 p. m. instead.

J. H. Capron with his automobile party stopped at the Van-Wie's Sunday afternoon. Mrs. W. T. Barstow of Lincoln, who is now a guest of friends in Ord, was among the number.

The sixth grade completed their work in "Elementary Grammar" Monday. They were assigned their first lesson in the advance text Tuesday. The new work taken up is "Hornshel's advanced grammar."

The sixth grade geography completed their text Wednesday. Thursday they enjoyed their first lesson in "Frye's grammar school geography." The next text was received with much enthusiasm.

Rev. Maynard Sr. was entertained at W. N. Hawkins Friday and Saturday. He is a most graciously remembered by the people of Springdale for the good work he accomplished in the evangelistic line last winter.

S. N. Arnold found a little grass cap somewhere between the Long and Hubbard farms while returning home from town Saturday. The person to whom it belongs may have the same by inquiring of Mr. Arnold.

W. N. Arnold bought a sorrel horse about a week ago. The horse was a good specimen of his kind and he was well pleased with his purchase. He is now being ridden by his son, Guy.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Finley and family visited at the McKee home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stanton were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McLain's home Sunday evening.

Portis and Marie were at the home of G. A. McLain's home Sunday evening.

An organization was formed at Springdale church last Sunday evening which should be given the most support and encouragement.

There is one place along Springdale road that is dangerous to those who travel it. You have all noticed the steep abrupt descent south of the bridge that crosses Elm Creek in front of the Van Wie place. This is more than a declivity and demands attention. One day last week Chas. Turner's team of colts were in Van Wie's yard hitched to a wagon. Something frightened the animals and in spite of all Mr. Turner's efforts the team started "full tilt" for the bridge. The turn being exceedingly sharp they were unable to make it at their rate of speed. The horses were then headed for the steep bank, when stopped their front feet were on the edge of the miniature precipice. What would have happened had the affrighted steeds continued the mad race several steps farther would be sad to relate. It would have meant that the wagon would have telescoped and its occupants could scarce have hoped to escape serious injury. The old proverb says "A word to the wise is sufficient." Let the authorities take the proper course before our community is stirred from "cellar to attic," by the confirmation of the report of a frightful accident which is given every chance to occur at this part of the road.

A pedestrian who had walked the entire distance from Lincoln passed through our community Monday morning. He informed one of the boys who talked with him that he is taking this long hike for his health. When he first started to do the walking stunt he had just recovered from a siege of sickness. For this reason for the first while he could only traverse four or five miles per day. His strength gradually returned and with it his rate was increased. He was three weeks out of Lincoln when he passed through here. If any credence is to be placed in the story of this gentleman of travel, it proves that walking is an excellent tonic.

Ben Timmerman finished planting corn on the home farm one day last week. While there is a lull in the affairs at home, Ben thought it an excellent time to undergo new experiences. Consequently he is braving prairie for Chas. Finley on the Bent farm. While this is his first attempt at breaking sod, and although the plow handles may present themselves in painful proximity to Ben's ribs we feel confident that he will make good in his new venture as he does in everything he undertakes.

At our last writing we reported George Morris, who had been suffering with tonsillitis, as improved, but last Tuesday he suffered a painful relapse. George has indeed been a sick man this time and the swelling in his throat caused him much pain. His sickness at this time is especially unfortunate on account of his rush in spring work. Things are not being neglected around the place however. George's father, Lon Morris, is very ably attending to matters during his son's illness. Here's hoping George may be restored to his health at an early date.

Marie McLain was ten years old May 8th. Unavoidable circumstances prevented a birthday party in this little maid's honor on her tenth anniversary day. On Saturday afternoon May 16th, however, a legion of her friends twenty five strong were invited to her parents home to celebrate this event of so great importance in the little girl's life. An enjoyable afternoon is reported by all who were privileged to attend.

The men who have the roads in charge were improving our right of way Monday. The grades were rounded up and the ruts leveled up. Work of this nature facilitates traveling very much and is highly appreciated by the public.

Mrs. Barta was in town Wednesday. Some of the machinery of the separator refused to conduct itself as it should and for that reason it required the services of an expert to put it to rights.

Haws Timmerman planted some peach pits last fall. When out looking over the fruit prospect the other day he was pleased to note that the trees had started nicely.

Joan Van Wie sold four loads of his choice millet seed to Bailey & Detweiler. He delivered the seed the early part of the week.

The school extends you a cordial invitation to attend the Patron's Day exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Finley and family visited at the McKee home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Stanton were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McLain's home Sunday evening.

Portis and Marie were at the home of G. A. McLain's home Sunday evening.

An organization was formed at Springdale church last Sunday evening which should be given the most support and encouragement.

Portis and Marie were at the home of G. A. McLain's home Sunday evening.

Philathea organization was perfected Sunday evening. The following officers were elected. President Myrtle Rathbun, vice-president Rachel Haught, secretary Ora Rathbun, treasurer Maybelle Hanson. The above officers demonstrated their push, enterprise and enthusiasm for the new organization by arranging for an "enthusiasm meeting" for next Sunday evening, May 24 at Springdale church at 8 p. m. The purpose of the meeting next Sunday night is to boost the Philathea movement and if possible interest the young men in organizing a Baraca class. Special music is being prepared by the choir. The nature of class organization, Baraca and Philathea movement and other adult Bible class organizations will be explained by Rev. Maynard and other speakers. There will be no church services Sunday afternoon on account of the above meeting. Come out and fill the house next Sunday evening. Encourage the young people in the good work they are attempting by your presence.

The school, with the help of the patrons, plans to celebrate Friday, May 29, as Patrons' Day. The following is the programme for the day as outlined: Any time during the forenoon and until 1 p. m. you are cordially invited to visit the school house and inspect the school work that will be on exhibition. This will give the patrons and others interested ones an idea of the nature of the daily work. Commencing at 1:30 p. m., the school, assisted by the Springdale church choir in some of the musical numbers, will render a programme in the church. Several numbers of special music will be given. County superintendent Eva B. Shuman promises to be with us and give us an inspiring talk. Immediately following the rendition of the programme a patrons' meeting has been planned. School questions of moment to our community will be discussed. Among others the feasibility of "A School Improvement League" for Springdale will be presented. Patrons, come loaded to the guards with questions and ideas regarding school. Make this meeting of patrons, indeed, a memorable one. Since the board of directors of Springdale church have very generously donated their house of worship for the occasion, let us make the day one fraught with great results for better things in the school line for Springdale. A baseball game has been planned for those who like the sport. The game will be called immediately after the exercises in the church.

At our last writing we reported George Morris, who had been suffering with tonsillitis, as improved, but last Tuesday he suffered a painful relapse. George has indeed been a sick man this time and the swelling in his throat caused him much pain. His sickness at this time is especially unfortunate on account of his rush in spring work. Things are not being neglected around the place however. George's father, Lon Morris, is very ably attending to matters during his son's illness. Here's hoping George may be restored to his health at an early date.

Iowa Mortgage Co., a corporation, defendant will take notice that on the 19th day of May, 1908, John Wall, plaintiff, herein filed his petition in the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to secure the entry of a decree that the defendant is the owner and in possession of the east half of the southwest quarter and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section 21, township 17 north, range 16 west of the 6 p. m. in Valley county, Nebraska; and also the owner of a certain mortgage executed and delivered by Issacher W. Jenkins and wife to the Iowa Mortgage Company on the 31st day of January, 1889 and recorded in book 14 at page 334 of Valley county mortgages, and that the estate created by said mortgage is merged in the title of the plaintiff to said premises, cancelling the record of a certain mortgage executed and delivered by Issacher W. Jenkins to the Ansley Banking Co. on said premises on the 31st day of January, 1889 and recorded in book 14 at page 334 of Valley county mortgages, and that both of said mortgages are barred by the statute of limitations; removing the cloud created by the record of said mortgages from plaintiff's title to said premises and quieting and confirming the title of said premises in the plaintiff.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 29th day of June, 1908. Dated May 19, 1908. John Wall, Plaintiff. 8-4t By Clements Bros., his attorneys.

In the County Court, in and for Valley County, Nebraska. In the matter of the estate of Jan Janicek, deceased. Upon reading and filing the petition of Jan Janicek showing that Jan Janicek Sr. died intestate on December 5, 1905, a resident of Valley county, Nebraska, leaving surviving him heirs at law and seized and possessed in fee simple of real estate in Valley county, Nebraska, to-wit: East half of southeast quarter of Sec. 8, Twp. 30 N., Range 16 W., which was the homestead of said deceased and was all the property both real and personal owned by said deceased at the time of his death, and that said deceased left no debts of any kind or character, and that the expense of his last sickness and funeral charges have been paid, and asking that a decree be entered dispensing with the administration of said estate and determining the heirs-at-law of said deceased, it is hereby ordered that the said petition be and the same is set for hearing on the 18th day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons interested in said estate, by publishing this order for three successive weeks prior to said date of hearing in the Ord Quiz a legal newspaper published in said county.

Dated this 23rd day of April, 1908. C. I. Bragg, Attorney for estate. H. Gudmundsen, county judge.

Notice of Attachment. To Judson F. Rogers: You will take notice that on the twenty-seventh day of April, 1908, Herman Westover, a justice of the peace in and for Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the $40.69 in an action pending before him, wherein Carl Funke is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of defendant, consisting of 250 Co. Mac. Co. Cigars 130 Hand Made Cigars 40 El Paso Cigars 25 Victor Cigars 40 Monogram Cigars 1 Iron Safe 1 Refrigerator 2 Sets Table Spoons 3 Sets Tea Spoons 3 Sets Coffee Spoons 3 Salad Forks 2 Meat Forks 1 Berry Spoon 2 Sugar Shells 3 Pickle Forks 1 Sugar Tongs 1 Sugar Case. has been attached under said order. The said cause was continued until 10th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Dated April 23, 1908. Carl Funke, Plaintiff. By Claude A. Davis, his attorney.

She Has Cured Thousands Given up to die.

DR. CALDWELL of Chicago,

Practicing Allopathy, Homeopathy, Electric and General Medicine.

Will, by Request, Visit Ord Professionally on Friday, May, 29th

Hours: 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. when she may be found at the Ord Hotel, returning every four weeks.

Consult Her While the Opportunity is at Hand.

Dr. Caldwell limits her practice to the special treatment of diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Female Diseases, Diseases of Children and all chronic, nervous and surgical diseases of a curable nature, Early Consumption, Constipation, Bronchitis, Chronic Catarrh, Head-Ache, Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Bright's Disease, Kidney Diseases, Diseases of the Liver and Bladder, Dizziness, Dropsy, Indigestion, Obesity, Interrupted Nutrition, Slow Growth in Children, and all wasting diseases in adults, Deformities, Club Feet, Curvature of Spine, Diseases of Brain, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Swelling of the Limbs, Stricture, Open Sores, Pain in Bones, Granular Eruptions and all long standing diseases properly treated.

Blood and Skin Diseases,

Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, Liver Spots, Falling of the Hair, Bad Complexion, Eczema, throat ulcers, Weak Back, Burning Urine. The effects of constitutional sickness or the taking of too much injurious medicine receives searching treatment, prompt relief and a cure for life.

Diseases of women, Irregular menstruation, falling of womb, bearing down pains, female displacements, lack of sexual tone, leucorrhoea, sterility or barrenness, consult Dr. Caldwell and she will show them the cause of their trouble and the way to get cured.

Cancers, Gout, Fistula, Piles and enlarged glands treated with the electro-cauterization method, absolutely without pain and without loss of drop of blood, is one of her own discoveries and is really the most scientific and sure method of this advanced age. Dr. Caldwell has practiced her profession in some of the largest hospitals throughout the country. She has no superior in the treatment of the above mentioned diseases, etc. She has lately opened an office in Omaha where she will spend a portion of each week treating her many patients. No incurable cases accepted for treatment. Consultation, examination and advice one dollar to those interested.

Dr. Ora Caldwell & Co.,

Omaha, Neb., and Chicago, Ill. Address all mail to 104 Bee Building Omaha, Neb.

Legal Notice

In the County Court, in and for Valley County, Nebraska. In the matter of the estate of Jan Janicek, deceased.

Upon reading and filing the petition of Jan Janicek showing that Jan Janicek Sr. died intestate on December 5, 1905, a resident of Valley county, Nebraska, leaving surviving him heirs at law and seized and possessed in fee simple of real estate in Valley county, Nebraska, to-wit: East half of southeast quarter of Sec. 8, Twp. 30 N., Range 16 W., which was the homestead of said deceased and was all the property both real and personal owned by said deceased at the time of his death, and that said deceased left no debts of any kind or character, and that the expense of his last sickness and funeral charges have been paid, and asking that a decree be entered dispensing with the administration of said estate and determining the heirs-at-law of said deceased, it is hereby ordered that the said petition be and the same is set for hearing on the 18th day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons interested in said estate, by publishing this order for three successive weeks prior to said date of hearing in the Ord Quiz a legal newspaper published in said county.

Dated this 23rd day of April, 1908. C. I. Bragg, Attorney for estate. H. Gudmundsen, county judge.

Notice of Attachment.

To Judson F. Rogers: You will take notice that on the twenty-seventh day of April, 1908, Herman Westover, a justice of the peace in and for Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the $40.69 in an action pending before him, wherein Carl Funke is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of defendant, consisting of 250 Co. Mac. Co. Cigars 130 Hand Made Cigars 40 El Paso Cigars 25 Victor Cigars 40 Monogram Cigars 1 Iron Safe 1 Refrigerator 2 Sets Table Spoons 3 Sets Tea Spoons 3 Sets Coffee Spoons 3 Salad Forks 2 Meat Forks 1 Berry Spoon 2 Sugar Shells 3 Pickle Forks 1 Sugar Tongs 1 Sugar Case. has been attached under said order. The said cause was continued until 10th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m. Dated April 23, 1908. Carl Funke, Plaintiff. By Claude A. Davis, his attorney.

Poplar Grove People

A nice shower fell last Sunday which was of great benefit as the top of the ground was dry. With a like shower now and then we may expect a splendid crop.

Mike Klema and family Sundayed at Cernik's.

A dance was given at the hall Saturday night by Will Hefferman. A fair crowd was present and all had a good time.

Will Gales and family drove to Comstock Sunday returning home just as the shower struck us.

Louise Klima is working for Mrs. Waldmann.

The Woodmen will celebrate decoration day the first Sunday in June.

There is quite a joke on some of the boys who gathered last Thursday night to charivari Mrs. Shubert, but after searching the premises failed to find the groom. After much disappointment they were obliged to believe that Mrs. Shubert is still a widow. They will be more careful after this and not believe the gossip.

Legal Notice

The unknown heirs and devisees of Abner L. Crosby deceased, will take notice that on the 18th day of May, 1908, W. W. Haskell plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a certain tax sale certificate issued to the plaintiff by the treasurer of Valley county, Nebraska, on the 7th day of November, 1904, to evidence the sale of delinquent taxes for the years 1903 and 1904; the following described premises to-wit: that part of lot 1, block 29, original townsite of Ord, Nebraska, described by metes and bounds as follows: commencing 1/2 feet north of the southeast corner of said lot 1, running thence north 18 feet, thence west 30 feet, thence south 18 feet, thence east 30 feet to place of beginning, said premises being described in said tax sale certificate as division N, part of lot 1, block 29, Ord townsite; and to include in said foreclosure the subsequent taxes for the years 1904, 1905 and 1906, paid by the plaintiff, the amount now due and payable upon said tax sale certificate and for said subsequent taxes being in the aggregate sum of $7.68, which sum with interest from the 30th day of September, 1908, plaintiff prays for a decree that the defendant be required to pay the same or that said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 29th day of June, 1908.

Dated May 19, 1908. W. W. Haskell, Plaintiff. 8-4t By Clements Bros., his attorneys.

Road Notice.

To whom it may concern: The commissioner appointed to locate and vacate a road as follows: Commencing at about 15 rods south of the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 7, township 20, range 18, running thence in a northwesterly direction, leaving the east line of said northeast quarter, about 35 rods at the widest point, then coming back to the northeast corner of said northeast quarter, thence running northwest following the east side of canyon until it returns and crosses the east line at a point about twenty rods south of the southeast corner of the northeast quarter section 8, thence in a northerly direction to where it would strike the road now traveled and we ask to vacate that part of the old road which this takes place of. This piece of road is about a mile and a quarter in length; has reported in favor of the location and vacation of said roads, and all objections and claims for damages must be filed in the county clerk's office, on or before the 23rd day of July, 1908, or such road will be established without reference thereto.

Witness my hand and official seal this 16th day of May, 1908. (Seal) Rudolph Sorensen, county clerk.

Referee Sale

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Referee Sale

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Referee Sale

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Referee Sale

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Referee Sale

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

ONLY ONE WAY TO RETAIN HEALTH

Young Man with New Theory Says All Depends on Stomach.

L. T. Cooper's theory regarding the human stomach is rapidly becoming a topic of universal discussion. Cooper claims that the human stomach has become chronically deranged by modern conditions, and that sickness generally is the result. In a recent interview, while introducing his medicine in a leading city, Mr. Cooper said: "There is just one way in my opinion to maintain general health, and that is by building up the digestive organs. The vast majority of Americans today have weak, flabby, distended stomachs. This has been caused by many generations of over-feeding and lack of exercise, until today the entire civilized race is affected. This is the true cause of most of the ill health of today. Little can be done to relieve it until the stomach is once more brought back to normal conditions. I am successful because my preparation puts the stomach in sound condition, and as I maintain this is the only way to secure general and permanent good health." Among many prominent people who have recently become converted to Cooper's theory is Mr. E. M. Howey, of 47 1/2 De Russey Street, Binghamton, N. Y., who says: "I had stomach trouble for about six years. After eating, I would become bloated and have a distressed feeling for several days. This would be accompanied by heartburn, and I reached the point where I could not enjoy my meals at all. "I tried different remedies in an effort to find relief, but without success. After taking three bottles of Cooper's New Discovery I am entirely cured. My stomach does not bother me in the least, and I can eat anything I like. I can cheerfully recommend Mr. Cooper's medicine to anyone afflicted with stomach complaints." Mr. Cooper's medicines are making a remarkable record. We sell them. -Jas. T. Johnson.

You will make no mistake in buying your lumber of us. We have a complete stock of new lumber, which we are selling very cheap. If you need anything in our line, give us a call. Screen Doors and Windows. We have them in all sizes at very low prices. Also a complete stock of Posts, Poles, Lime, Cement, Brick, Cement Blocks and Tanks. Koupal & Barstow Lumber Company

ORD BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN.

Dr. F. D. HALDEMAN, Physician & Surgeon, Residence Phone 48 Office Phone 158, ORD, NEBRASKA

C. C. SHEPARD, M. D., Office over post office, Phone 116, ORD, NEBRASKA

C. J. MILLER, M. D., Office and residence phone 41, Ord, Nebraska.

R. L. STAPLE, Lawyer and Bonded Abstractor, Real Estate, Insurance of all kinds, First National Bank Building, ORD, NEBRASKA

A. M. DANIELS, Undertaking, Licensed Embalmer, Residence Phone 74, Store Phone 82, ORD, NEB

DR. GEO. W. TAYLOR, Dentist, Office over First National Bank, Office Phone 24, Residence Phone 274, Ord, Nebraska

Claude A. Davis, Attorney-at-law, Ord, Nebraska

Referee Sale, Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Referee Sale, Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

H. Gudmundsen, Referee. 5

Referee Sale, Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action therein pending wherein Lars B. Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Lauris Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, I will on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour.

CLEMENTS BROS., Lawyers, Office in Misko Block, North Side of Square, ORD, NEBRASKA

M. M. Newbecker, M. D., Day and Night Calls, ORD, NEBRASKA

A. M. ROBBINS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, NOTARY PUBLIC IN OFFICE, Attention given to legal business in Valley and adjoining counties, ORD, NEBRASKA

THE ORD QUIZ.

Established April 6, 1882.

Ord, Valley County, Nebraska, Thursday, May 28, 1908.

Vol. 27, No. 9

NORTH LOU DEPARTMENT

By MRS. E. WELLMAN.

Walter Rood was in Ord day night.

Ira Manchester was a visitor Monday.

Florence Clement went to Monday evening.

J. H. Eyerly went to St. Paul Tuesday morning.

Chas. Barber went to Rockville Monday on business.

Mrs. Thomas Fenton came up from Alda Tuesday night.

Hugh McCall was a passenger to Elba Wednesday morning.

May Flint is here from South Dakota visiting her parents.

E. J. Babcock was in Cotefield Monday on legal business.

Mrs. A. E. Cress is on the sick list, likewise Chloë Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis drove to Ord and return on Tuesday.

A brother of Gilbert Abney from Iowa, came Monday night for a visit here.

John Jefferies came Tuesday from Greeley to visit J. F. Ferguson and family.

Miss Webster went to St. Paul Saturday the school year having closed here Friday.

Charles Adamson came in on the passenger Saturday on business and pleasure combined.

Mrs. R. N. Bee and Mrs. F. Holman and children went to Ord Tuesday night for a few days.

Minnie Baker and sister were passengers down the line Monday. We did not learn their destination.

Mrs. Hills is here from Nortonville, Kansas, visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Hall and other relatives.

Bird Temple will move his restaurant stock into the building, while Lester Watts will occupy the building thus vacated.

Henry Davis is moving into his recently acquired property. He has repaired the house and fixed things up considerably.

An uncle of Perry Luss is here from Michigan. It is needless to say he is having a good time at the hospitable Lusa home, across the river.

Mrs. Aldgeon, mother of Mrs. Chas White returned to her home in Colorado, Wednesday morning after having visited here some time with her daughter.

ENTERPRISE DEPARTMENT

By JOHN L. WARD

A young man claims that he lost a pair of speckled socks last Sunday night. Better see if you have an extra pair on.

The people who are getting tired of drouth stricken Nebraska would do well to leave before the rains make the highway impassible.

The writer is the happy possessor of a crazy quilt presented by some one in the same state of mind. It has the appearance of being Miss sent. While we do not know the donor we are willing to accept your thanks for same at any time.

Can anybody tell us why we always have so much wet weather just at graduating time? It has been that way most of the time since we can remember, which is a long while. Perhaps the rain man has some spite against the cause of education.

Now is the time to sow your pickle, sauerkraut and late spud seed. Pieplant seed should be sown in a pie tin. The writer has some fine sweet corn plants for sale at $2.00 per hundred, also Luther Burbank's new seedless pumpkin for sale at 10c a packet.

Charley Purcell had a narrow escape from a serious injury last Monday. He was operating a fence stretcher and had the machine under full pressure when a chair broke, the machine striking him on the head and raising a very respectable bump. His hat will fit rather tight for a few days.

The pupils of Prof Hillyer gave a reception for him and his wife at the Woodman Hall, Tuesday night. A large number were present and a very enjoyable time was had. Mr. Hillyer has been principal of the schools here for two years, but will teach in the Beatrice schools the coming year. The good wishes of a host of friends go with him.

George Johnson returned from Lincoln the latter part of last week where he had been to appear before the state railway commission concerning the freight rates on popcorn. It seems that the rates are not fairly proportioned and as Mr. Johnson ships a great deal of the above named article the matter is of considerable interest to him.

The memorial sermon was preached Sunday at the Friends church by Rev. Crosbie. No regular services will be held on Saturday as that day is the Sabbath for a great many of the members of the G. A. R. They will, however, deck the graves on Friday.

A Mr. Davis and wife and sister from Adams Centre, New York came up here to visit friends over night Tuesday. They were on their way back home from a trip to California. J. C. Williams went with them from here.

The Misses Mahannah, having finished their school work here, left Friday for the home of their parents in Tobias. It is reported that Grace is to be married in the near future to one of Lincoln's business men.

Fred Larkin came in Tuesday night and visited the McClellans until Wednesday noon. He has recently resigned his position with the 20th Century Farmer, and is now employed by the Iowa Homestead.

Again the city meat market has changed hands, the last time perhaps for a while. W. E. Gowen bought the tools etc., and in the near future will open up a market in connection with this store.

The Rebekah lodge initiated ten new members into the mysteries of their order Tuesday night. Of course they indulged in refreshments after the work was finished.

Mrs. Lillian Melzacchar who has been the efficient milliner at Johnson's store this season, left Wednesday morning for her home in Oklahoma.

Some people think because I expressed my opinion of the present telephone situation, I am at variance with the new company and everybody connected with it. If you think so, I would like to have you cite a single instance where I have intimated such a sentiment or expressed an opinion to that effect. It is true I am and expect to remain a patron of the Independent company. My object in so doing is not to be at variance with the neighborhood, as many seem to think, but because I believe it is the company that should control the telephone business of the county. The Independent toll system is one of the most extensive in the west. It is possible to reach the entire state and all the neighboring states without the necessity of repeating. The service is as cheap as it can safely be made. Lest the Mutual company doubt this I will refer you to the Farmer's Mutual Exchange at Aurora, where residence phones cost eighteen dollars per year and business phones twenty dollars per year, and this, remember, is a Farmer's Mutual Exchange. I agree with you on this: The Independent company has not been managed as it should, and in many cases the patrons were not treated as they should have been. The proper course, however, was not competition but recourse to law. This plan not being feasible, owing to the inadequacy of existing law to properly cover the case, the only course open was to start a val exchange. There is not a farmer who does not lament the necessity of having two exchanges. The majority state that they are not in the telephone business because they want to be, but simply to maintain their rights. The two exchanges are working smoothly now. The bone of contention has been removed. The cause of the estrangement, in so far as telephone affairs are concerned, has ceased to exist. There is no reason why the contending factions should not again unite, either by agreement, or assimilation. In times past there has been those who have allowed their enthusiasm to run away with their judgment. Several have openly affronted and insulted me because I preferred the old way to the new. To these I have replied in kind. Those who have approached me in a less antagonistic frame of mind have received fairness in return. Life is too short for quarreling. A smile will do more in this world of woe than hours of senseless argument. The principles for which you and I are striving will dominate long after the Ord Telephone system has ceased to exist.

Attorney Oleson has advanced a good sentiment in regard to Decoration day and should have the co-operation of every loyal citizen in seeing that the day is rightly observed. Along the same line it might be well to cite another paragraph which is as much neglected and whose existence is almost forgotten by some of our law abiding citizens. Here it is: "If any person of the age of fourteen years or upward shall be found on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday, sporting, rioting, quarreling, hunting, fishing, shooting, he shall be fined in a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, or be confined in the county jail for a term not exceeding twenty days, or both, at the discretion of the court." There is perhaps no law in the statutes of more vital importance to the standing of our country as a Christian nation today, nor is there one that is more abused. Decoration day has developed in the past forty years and yet the man who fails to properly observe it is an object of contempt among his fellows. On the other hand, the Sabbath was established by the Creator at the ordination of the universe and has descended to us throughout all the ages. Even those who are not spiritually inclined recognize the natural need of a day of rest. Is it not about time to enforce a proper observation of Sunday as well as Decoration day.

G. G. Clement has completed his work of taking up the collection from this township and is very thankful to get it over with. There is not enough in it to pay a man for the time he must take and he gets nothing to repay him for the adverse criticisms and claims of partiality that are hurled at him. Is it any wonder that assessors die young and often?

Carl Hanks has over three hundred little hens and roosters hatched out and more ready to hatch soon. There is quite a lot of pleasure and no little profit in the raising of poultry, but it would nerly bankrupt a man to buy raincoats for such a flock during this wet weather. He would do well to try his hand at raising ducks instead.

School closed in district 9 Friday. A very good program was rendered by the school in which all acquitted themselves very creditably. Miss Ollis is to be heartily congratulated upon her success in her first term of school.

J. W. Travis is in the valley with Baker's remedies this week.

Surveyor Nelson went to Arcadia on road work Tuesday.

Advertised Letters

List of Letters remaining unclaimed in the post office at Ord Nebr., for the week ending tomorrow.

Mr. Capt. Claude Powell.
Mrs. Emily Oveis.
Eggerth Wilhelm Jensen.
Jim Howell.
Miss Carolyn Carr.
Mr. L. J. Campbell.

Letters will be sent to the dead letter office. Parties claiming any of the above please say they were "advertised."

A. M. COONROD Postmaster.

Notice.
You will find my horse and jack books with Lou Schwaner. Please settle with him.
W. L. D. Auble.

Elyria Items
Too late for last week.
Ellen Collison was in Ord on Tuesday of this week.

Clara Collison of Ord was visiting relatives here a few days this week.

A twelve pound son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mosier Sunday, the 10th.

Ed. and Lewie Dahlin of Ord was visiting at Henry Lindquist's Sunday.

Mrs. F. Downey from Burwell is visiting friends in Elyria for a few days this week.

Mrs. J. A. Caroski is away visiting relatives in Comstock for a few days this week.

Mary Petcka of Alba was visiting at J. A. Caroski's for a few days this week returning home Tuesday.

Henry Lindquist had a sale of dry goods and tinware dishes so as to give him more room for the grocery business.

Ellen Collison had a birthday party at the home of Mrs. Henry Lindquist on Friday night of last week. About thirty guests were present and a good time was reported by all in attendance.

Saturday night, May 10, was Woodman's night in Elyria. Four automobile loads of people came up from Ord to help the Elyria lodge initiate some new members into the mysteries of Woodcraft. The members of the Ord lodge brought their goat along and the way he threw those boys around was nothing slow. After the lodge had closed they were invited over to the hotel to a banquet prepared for the occasion. All reported a good time.

Tough on North Loup.

The Ord High School ball team did not play here Friday as they promised. After the bills were all out and all arrangements were made Mr. Hillyer received a letter containing a string of excuses explaining why it would be impossible for the Ord team to come to North Loup on Friday, May 15. This seems to be Ord's usual mode of action in regard to return games for not once in the last four years (and I do not know for how many years before) has the Ord High School sent a team to North Loup to compete with us in base ball, basket ball, or foot ball, while we have played with them at O. I. at all three games. This doesn't seem to us like a square deal. They have made all kinds of promises but they don't seem to hold good. We will make one more effort to get them here before the school team disbands. We want them to come if they can't stay more than ten minutes. Loyalist.

Ball's Black Stallion Will Stand in Ord.

As there are several wanting me to stand my black stallion, RAMC, at Ord, I have made arrangements with A. J. Firkins for a stall in his breeding barn where my stallion will be found on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week. The rest of the time he will be at his usual stands in Springdale and on Elm Creek. E. L. Ball, '6-tf.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION
Of the First National Bank at Ord, in the state of Nebraska at the close of business

MAY 14, 1908.
RESOURCES
Loans and discounts	$341,980 57
Real estate secured and unsecured	5,875 99
United States bonds to secure circulation	20,000 00
Banking house, furniture and fixtures	522 42
Due from National Banks (not reserve Agents)	114 59
Due from approved reserve agents	24,300 88
Checks and other cash items	1,241 64
Notes of other National Banks	398 00
Fractional paper currency	207 16
Specie	23,841 00
Legal tender notes	1,270 00
Total	$423,653 25
LIABILITIES
Capital stock paid in	$70,000 00
Surplus fund	30,000 00
Undivided profits less expenses and taxes paid	18,999 09
National bank notes outstanding	20,000 00
Due to other National Banks	5,103 50
Due to State Banks and Bankers	658 99
Individual deposit subject to check	157,945 13
Demands on other banks payable on demand	108,657 85
Notes payable including certificates of deposit for money borrowed	10,000 00
Total	$423,653 25

I, E. M. WILLIAMS, Cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

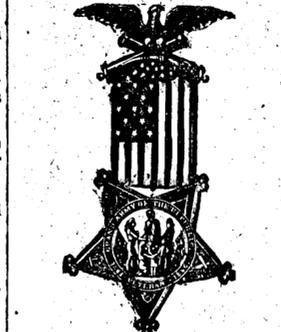

E. M. WILLIAMS, Cashier.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23rd day of May, 1908.

E. M. WILLIAMS, Notary Public.
M. B. GOODENOW
F. MORRISON
GEO. W. MICKLEWAIT
A. J. FIRKINS

Directors.

Decoratation Day Announcement.

Decoratation Day Announcement.

Members of the G. A. R., L. G. A. R., Firemen companies, or other organizations and the public generally are invited to meet at the K. P. hall and at the Woodbury corner on Decoratation day for the purpose of marching to the cemetery. The march is to be at 10 o'clock sharp so be on hand. The afternoon program will be at the court yard at 2:30. Rev. E. A. Russell and others will speak and there will be music furnished. By order of the committee.

New National Forest in Kansas.

President Roosevelt has just signed a proclamation creating additions to the Crescent Garden City National Forest amounting to 205,107 acres. This proclamation also provides that the original forest known as the Garden City with the additions shall be called the Kansas National Forest. The additions will bring the area of the Kansas National Forest up to 302,387 acres.

The forest is located in Finney and Kearney counties, in the sandhill region of Kansas, on the Arkansas River. Its creation received the support of the entire Kansas delegation in Congress, and, through petitions, the additional support of industrial associations and the citizens generally of the counties in which this land is situated.

The Kansas National Forest was created mainly for experimental planting, since the rapidly increasing demand for timber in the agricultural communities adjacent has led the people to believe that this sandhill land, otherwise worthless except for a limited amount of grazing, can be made to produce timber. Fair success has been obtained with black locust on lands similar in character, and it is thought that further experiments will demonstrate that the entire sandhill region south of the Arkansas river can be made to produce timber. To this end, the forest service has made arrangements to plant 85,000 seedlings of valuable hardwood species on this forest this spring. A new planting station at Garden City to supply trees for the future planting on this forest was established March 1, on a tract of five acres of land which was leased from the county commissioners of Finney county, for an annual rental of $1. The annual capacity of this nursery will be 30,000 trees. The value of timber for fence posts, fuel, and other domestic uses, which it is believed this forest is capable of producing, is almost incalculable in this practically treeless country. It is unquestionable that, if the Forest Service is successful in these experiments, many private individuals will benefit from the results obtained by the government, and plant trees for domestic purposes in connection with other work on their ranches.

Tree planting experiences in Kansas have been many and varied. Ignorance of proper methods of planting and caring for the trees and the frequent choice of stock entirely unsuited to the region brought many failures during the year following the enactment of the old timber claim act. There have been many successes in tree planting where landowners have exercised judgement and care in the work, however, and the fine grove of trees in the western part of the state give promise of the reclamation of much of the great stretch of land lying south of the Arkansas river, known as the sand hills.

Plants! Plants! Plants!
Sweet potato, tomato and early and late cabbage plants for sale by M. D. L. Taylor at residence, also on sale at Fackler & Sutton's grocery store.

Farm Loans.
We have plenty of money to loan on farms in this and adjoining counties, at low rates. See us if you need money.
Ord State Bank.

Try the Cash Grocery First

One can best peas, 1 can best Golden wax string or Lima beans, one can best succotash, three cans for 40 cents. One can best solid pack tomatoes. 1 can sweet potatoes, 1 can beets; 3 cans for 40 cents. 1 gallon can New York apples, 1 gallon can California peeled peaches, 1 gallon can California plums; 3 cans for $1.35. Our best 30 cent canned pears for 25 cents. Our best 30 cent California sliced apricots for 25 cents.

"Libbys," stands for the best in canned meats. One-half pound can dried beef, 15 cents. One pound can dried beef, 25 cents. Extract of beef, 30 cents a jar.

Fine berries coming now.
We are advocates of pure foods, and endeavor to procure the best obtainable for our customers.

Fackler & Sutton

CASH GROCERS

Say, Mr. Farmer and Citizen

when in need of flour where do you go to buy it? Rather a direct question, but one of importance to us. Don't you think it would be to your best interests to use home flour? If you have wheat to sell, where do you go to get the best price for it? If you are in need of bran, shorts or other mill feed, to whom do you go for your supply? These are questions of importance and worthy of your careful consideration. Think them over carefully and in making this one of the best milling points in the country. When you buy flour, of course you want the best there is on the market. We are here in the milling business and are making every effort to manufacture a flour equal in quality to any flour on the market, and are doing so. We have instructed your grocer man to supply you and guarantee every sack. If not, come to the mill. What more can we do?

CO-OPERATE WITH US

We do an Exchange Business	COLLISON BROS. Ord, Nebr.	Only Mill in Valley County
----------------------------	-------------------------------------	----------------------------

The First National Bank

thing to consider in depositing money in a bank is security. The capital and surplus are the depositors' protection fund. The

National Bank

government superintends and examines this bank. Our stock-holders and directors are responsible, well-to-do business men and farmers. This has been established twenty-five years, during which time it has served the banking public faithfully and built up a large and prosperous business. We have just installed a set of safety deposit boxes which we rent for $1.00 a year. These boxes are designed for storage of valuable papers. The best service possible is none too good for our country customers and the people of

Bank

Ord

WINCHESTER

Smokeless Powder Shells

"LEADER" and "REPEATER"

The superiority of Winchester Smokeless Powder Shells is undisputed. Among intelligent shooters they stand first in popularity, records and shooting qualities. Always use them

For Field or Trap Shooting.

Ask Your Dealer For Them.

THE ORD QUIZ

By V. V. HASKELL
ORD NEBRASKA

Sign of Illness.
A proof of the importance of a real loss of weight is that in convict prisons such loss is accepted as conclusive evidence that a man is ill.

Bolled Liver En Brochette.
Cut bacon and slices of liver into pieces of the same length and width. Run a wooden skewer or stout straw through each piece of liver and alternately through a slice of bacon. Proceed in this way until each slice of bacon is fastened to a slice of liver, and each skewer is full. Lay on a broiler and broil over a clear fire.

White Ribbons.
To clean white ribbons wash them in gasoline and they will not turn yellow.

Shows on Trains.
A company is being formed in Paris for the purpose of providing theater cars for all the important express trains on the continental lines. These railroad theaters are to have 60 seats, a stage, and an orchestra of three pieces. Passengers will book seats as they now engage tables in a dining car.

Most Courageous Animals.
The common mole is probably the bravest member of the animal kingdom. It will attack creatures much larger than itself and has never been known to show the "white feather" under any condition. In comparison with the mole the lion is a sneak and the tiger an arrant coward.—New York American.

Drink Scourge in France.
What the French call "alcoholism" has grown to be a dreadful scourge, and a direful portent for the future of the people. In some parts of France the very medical men must be consulted early in the day if they are to be found sober.—Church Quarterly Review.

Queer Twist.
The late Bishop T. U. Dudley of Kentucky declared that he was indebted to a mountaineer of that state for the most ungrammatical sentence he ever heard. This is it: "Them three Miss Blake are three of as pretty a gal as I ever see."—Youth's Companion.

Vesuvius Only 4,077 Feet High.
Measurements taken of Vesuvius by the Geographical Institute of Florence show that the mountain has lost 375 feet in height in consequence of the last volcanic eruption. Vesuvius used to be 4,452 feet high, it is now only 4,077 feet.

Money-Getting.
A life of money-getting is a life of care. From the first there is a fretful anticipation of loss in various ways to depress and unsettle the mind, nay, to haunt it, till a man finds he can think of nothing else.—Cardinal Newman.

World's Need for Love.
The world delights in sunny people. The old are hungering for love more than for bread. The air of joy is very cheap; and if you can help the poor on with a garment of praise, it will be better for them than blankets.—Henry Drummond.

Of Course She Is.
The United States supreme court has gravely decided that "woman is in a class by herself." Isn't it comforting to have the highest judicial authority confirm just what all of us have always known?—N. Y. Herald.

Greatness.
A man is undoubtedly great when he can by remarking that time flies cause people to telegraph his statement to all parts of the country and comment on it as an evidence of his profundity.

No Perpetual Youth.
The secret of eternal youth would make a multimillionaire of its lucky possessor. But the precious recipe is still unknown, and society women must keep their looks at the cost of time, much trouble and more money.

Extremes of Heat and Cold.
The greatest heat is never found on the equator, but some ten degrees to the north, while more severe cold has been registered in northern Siberia than has been found near the pole.

Wood Pulp Makes for Safety.
Wood pulp, sometimes a fatal cargo, is often used for the safety of ships. A layer of cellulose is built into their sheathing, and in the event of a leak tends to swell and so close the hole.

Warning.
"Life is honey-sweet now," says the Adams Enterprise, "with all the peach trees in blossom; but please remember that doesn't mean peach-and-honey!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Lincoln Directory
USE TARP PAINT
To paint your paring shed. It will prevent rust. Preserve your fence posts by painting them with tarp paint before setting. Dip your shingles in tarp paint. It preserves them. Sold in 5-gallon barrels for $5 PER BARREL. Sold in 1-gallon cans for $1.50 per can. Tarp is cheaper than paint—is more effective and lasts longer. Best in the world for corrugated iron.
LINCOLN GAS & ELECTRIC LIGHT CO.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Farmer Killed by Fall.
Edward Schrank, a prominent farmer and owner of the old Christchurch farm south of Wisner, Neb., was instantly killed at about six o'clock Thursday evening by a fall from his wagon. Mr. Schrank was taking out a load of shingles for a building on his farm. A bunch of the shingles became loosened and was about to fall off. Schrank reached back to straighten the bunch when the spring seat gave way and pitched him to the ground. His neck was broken by the fall. Mr. Schrank leaves a wife and family and an aged mother.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead.
Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

NEBRASKA NEWS

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT AT HASTINGS FINISHES DELIBERATIONS.

1909 ENCAMPMENT AT YORK

Ell Barnes of Grand Island Elected Commander—Veterans Were Entitled From Nineteen States During the War.

The thirty-second annual encampment of the G. A. R. concluded its labors at Hastings and adjourned after selecting officers for the ensuing term. It was voted unanimously to hold the next encampment at York. The following department officers were elected by the Grand Army:

Commander, Ell Barnes, Grand Island; senior vice commander, Dr. Brothers, Beatrice; junior vice commander, W. H. Stewart, Geneva; assistant adjutant general, A. M. Trimble, Lincoln; medical director, Dr. Spaulding, Omaha; John Deiver, Syracuse, chaplain.

Delegates to national encampment: J. Burwell, Junata, C. E. Adams, Superior; L. D. Richards, Fremont; George C. Humphrey, Grand Island; O. B. Bell, Lincoln; C. S. Lucas, Central City; A. J. Frantz, Hastings; John A. Dempster, Omaha; C. O. Shields, Shelton; R. D. Pine, Lincoln.

All newly elected officers were installed by General A. V. Cole, past commander. Of the 424 veterans registered, the representation of states, by enrollment, was as follows:

Illinois, 125; Iowa, 50; Indiana, 37; Ohio, 54; Pennsylvania, 42; Wisconsin, 28; Minnesota, 1; Michigan, 16; Missouri, 11; New York, 27; New Jersey, 3; Maryland, 3; Kansas, 2; Colorado, 1; Nebraska, 6; Kentucky, 4; West Virginia, 2; Tennessee, 1; California, 1; New England states, 15. Nineteen states were represented.

The Relief Corps elected the following executive committee: Mrs. Mary Houser, David City; Mrs. Mary Butler, Ewing; Mrs. Josie Bennett, Harvard; Mrs. Belle Newell, Lincoln; Mrs. Sarah Sweet, Creighton. The following were chosen delegates to the national encampment: Mrs. Agnes Mlover, Blue Springs, delegate-at-large; Mrs. Eida Treadwell, Beatrice; Mrs. Frank Hill, Hastings; Mrs. Minnie Bell, Lincoln; Mrs. Matthews, Omaha, alternate delegate-at-large.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. elected the following: President, Mrs. Hannah Coates, Aurora; senior vice-president, Mrs. Lizzy Metcalf, Omaha; junior vice-president, Mrs. E. P. Foster, Ord; chaplain, Mrs. Doletia Thornton, Kearney; treasurer, Mrs. Nora Kidder, Scribner; council of administration, Mesdames Caroline Putnam, Lincoln; Mrs. M. E. Richmond, Minden; Mrs. Clara Lyons, Omaha. Mrs. Nora Kidder was elected delegate-at-large to the national meeting. Other delegates are: Mrs. C. Putnam, Lincoln; Mrs. Esther Tophan, Minden; Mrs. Fannie Wilson, Kearney.

The W. R. C. elected officers as follows: Harriet Luce, of Republican City, president; Mrs. Kate G. Boyd, of Hastings, senior vice president; Emma J. Ducker of Red Cloud, junior vice president; Addie I. Hough, of Omaha, treasurer; Ella Corbin, of Beaver City, chaplain.

GROUND TO DEATH BY TRAIN

Robert Stanley Falls Under Cars While Stealing a Ride.

Union Pacific train No. 54, with George Overmyer as conductor, was the cause of the death of Robert Stanley of Artonville, Minn., Thursday. Stanley and a partner had been riding freight trains from Salt Lake City, where they had been working all winter, and were enroute home, but were ditched near Gardner, about fifteen miles west of Columbus, when they tried to ride No. 54 in. In trying to open the side door of a box car while the train was in motion, Stanley lost his hold and stumbled, falling under the wheels and was ground to death. From the statement of the man who was accompanying Stanley it is learned that he has a married sister living at Artonville. The remains were taken to Columbus.

Utica Men Must Face Trial

Some of the citizens of Utica who participated in the assault upon Evangelist Miller March 21 while holding revival meetings at that place, must answer in court. At the time it was said prosecution would be instituted, but no one made formal complaint and the county attorney took no action on his own account. When the case was presented to the grand jury the indictments were not slow in issuing. Those indicted are Messrs. Dayton, Ragan and Ernest Hurburt. Mr. Miller was assaulted for remarks made about Utica women at Kensington.

Farmer Killed by Fall

Edward Schrank, a prominent farmer and owner of the old Christchurch farm south of Wisner, Neb., was instantly killed at about six o'clock Thursday evening by a fall from his wagon. Mr. Schrank was taking out a load of shingles for a building on his farm. A bunch of the shingles became loosened and was about to fall off. Schrank reached back to straighten the bunch when the spring seat gave way and pitched him to the ground. His neck was broken by the fall. Mr. Schrank leaves a wife and family and an aged mother.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

Coroner J. Q. Reed of Beatrice was called to Lanham, in the south end of the county Wednesday afternoon, to hold an inquest over the remains of Matt Haffy, who was found dead at the home of George Upson, an old resident of that vicinity. The deceased had been visiting at the Upson home for the past month. He was an uncle of Mrs. Upson. When he failed to appear as usual, members of the family went to his room to call him and found him dead. He was seventy years of age. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart failure.

Man Found Dead

OPERATION BRINGS REASON.

Mind of Sick Woman Restored By a Doctor.

Most Important Happenings of the Past Seven Days.

After being violently insane three years, Mrs. Michaelson, an inmate of the Norfolk inside asylum from Platte Center, Nebraska, has almost completely recovered her reason as the result of a surgical operation for gall stones. Dr. G. A. Young, superintendent of the asylum believes her mind may be completely restored. It is said to be the first case of the kind on record. Mrs. Michaelson had been in the violent ward. She was found to be suffering from gall stones and Dr. Young removed 415 small stones from the gall bladder. When she came out from under the anesthetic Mrs. Michaelson's demented condition was no more. It is said cases have been known where insane patients have been left cured after an attack of typhoid fever.

"It is explained," said Dr. Young, "physical disturbances irritated the nervous system, bringing out whatever tendency there was of insanity. Removing the disturbance cleared up the nerves."

LONG TRIP WITH BROKEN LEG.

Rulo Man Rides Length of Nebraska with Undressed Injury.

Levi Anderson, an old soldier and widower about 60 years of age arrived at Rulo, Neb., Thursday night after having traveled from the western line of Nebraska with a broken and badly bruised leg. Last March he went West and took a 640-acre homestead near the Wyoming line. Being lonesome on his claim, he undertook to hitch up his western bronco and take a drive. The horse would not be harnessed, Mr. Anderson says, and in some manner either kicked or struck him on the leg and broke it. This roused the ire of the old soldier, and without securing aid, he harnessed the horse, hitched it up and drove it 30 miles alone to a railroad station.

On his homeward trip, Mr. Anderson came through many cities, but had nothing done until he got among his friends, about 48 hours after the accident happened. He was carried to his home on a stretcher, and physicians were called to dress and set his injured limb. Although badly bruised, inflamed and broken, the doctors think the leg will mend in time and that Mr. Anderson will be able to be about again. Mr. Anderson draws a pension of $40 a month.

GOOD FIGHT FOR HIS LIFE.

South Omaha Saloonkeeper Fatally Shot by Holdups.

John Wrede, a saloonkeeper at South Omaha, was shot four times and fatally wounded by two men who were trying to hold him up Friday night. One of the men was captured. There was no one else in the saloon when the men entered, and covering the saloonkeeper with their revolvers demanded his money. Instead of complying Wrede picked up his own gun and a rapid exchange of shots followed, in which Wrede was hit four times in the body, two of the shots passing through his lungs. After emptying his revolver, Wrede closed with the smaller of the robbers and succeeded in locking him in the toilet room, where he was later found by the police. The other man fled. The captured bandit gave his name as Gerald Smith and that of his companion as Charles Bair, and said they arrived from Los Angeles a week ago.

Mail in Car Was Burned.

Many letters and packages were ruined Wednesday night at Maxwell, Neb., when a car of mail on the Union Pacific fast mail train No. 9 was partially destroyed by fire and water. The car contained storage mail and had no clerk in attendance. It was going through with the doors locked. Nearing Maxwell trainmen noticed smoke coming from the car and the train was speeded up to the nearest sidetrack, where the engine was detached and by means of the fire hose from the engine the fire was soon extinguished. By the time the siding was reached the entire car was ablaze.

Lightning at Nebraska City.

William Weithamer of Nebraska City was knocked out of bed and made deaf by a bolt of lightning during the severe electrical storm that struck Nebraska City Wednesday night. Mr. Weithamer occupied lodgings over the store building at the corner of Central and Twelfth streets, when the bolt selected his room as its goal. While he is able to walk, and is out, he is unable to hear. Physicians believe this will be only temporary.

Threatened a Bank Cashier.

James J. Fee, who called at the Merchants National Bank, Omaha, March 10, and threatened to blow up the bank unless Cashier Luther Drake produced $5,000 in cash, was found guilty of blackmail. His defense was insanity. Several witnesses testified that Fee acted queerly and one testified that he was eccentric, but not insane.

Starch Plant Dismantled.

A force of 50 men are engaged in tearing down the Argo starch plant and dismantling the same at Nebraska City. The timbers are being sold and the machinery disposed of. The brick will be taken down and shipped. This was one of the largest starch plants in the West and was closed down several years ago when it passed into the hands of the trust. The citizens tried to purchase the buildings, which are five and six stories high, so as to use them for other industries, but the price asked was too high.

Fell in Well and Wants $5,000.

Byron McNealy, a minor through his best friend, Frank McNealy, has filed a suit in the district court against Charles Kraft, sr., for $5,000 damages. He states that on February 21, 1908, he was going along the road adjoining the farm of the defendant and fell into a well seventy-one feet deep, which was covered up with brush and rubbish. He says he remained there for three days. His health is broken and he has never fully recovered from the injuries received at that time. The farm is situated in Cass county.

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Several students of the Oklahoma university were injured recently in a head-on collision near Ripley.

Interest Items Gathered From all Parts of the World Condensed Into Small Space for the Benefit of Our Readers.

The bill requiring publicity for campaign contributions has been passed by the house by a vote of 160 to 125. Representative Victor Murdock of Kansas gained applause from both sides in the house in a speech against the ship subsidy bill in which he criticized the speaker and the house leaders for putting legislation through under gag rules.

The adjournment of congress has been postponed to May 27, and may be still later.

The senate without division adopted a joint resolution creating a national monetary commission to be composed of nine senators and nine representatives.

The senate has passed the general deficiency and military academy bills, the last of the big appropriation measures.

A bill has passed the house establishing a bureau of mines in the department of the interior.

The caucus of house republicans decided that it would be unwise to pass an anti-injunction bill at the present time.

The house and senate conferees were still far apart on an emergency currency measure and at a final conference decided to introduce a bill providing for a currency commission to be composed of nine senators and nine representatives.

The special house committee investigating the charges brought by Representative Lilley of New Jersey against the Electric Boat company have reported to the house that the charges were unwarranted.

The senate has passed a bill to prevent desecration of the flag.

The senate has passed the omnibus public building bill.

It is estimated that the total appropriations of the present session of congress will reach the enormous sum of $1,026,000,000, the largest amount ever appropriated at a single session.

The Republican leaders of the house have served final notice on congress that there will be no tariff revision at this session.

Miscellaneous

The historic old Christ church in Philadelphia, erected under a provisional charter granted by King Charles II to William Penn in 1695 was recently struck by lightning and damaged to the extent of $15,000.

A bill in equity has been filed in the federal court at Boston by the government to break the merger of the New York, New Haven & Hartford and Boston & Maine railroads.

Heavy losses of sheep and lambs are reported from Montana in the recent blizzard. The snow was two feet deep on the level and five feet in drifts.

Five young women and two young men were drowned in the White river near Clarendon, Ark., by the sinking of a launch of which the gasoline tank exploded.

Harry Dunsweiler, a soldier in the engineering corps at Fort Leavenworth, was drowned recently while receiving instruction in the building of pontoon bridges.

In their eagerness to cut operating expenses many of the railroads of the country are curtailing the use of block signals.

The Indiana Railroad commission has been enjoined from enforcing its recent order reducing express rates on inter-state business.

The United States navy is asking for 3,000 recruits by July 1.

The state of Kansas has been awarded a verdict of $142,000 against the United States Fidelity & Guaranty company on its bond guaranteeing the First National bank of Topeka which failed.

The suit of May C. Wood for a divorce from Senator Platt has been dismissed and Miss Wood arrested on a charge of perjury. She was held under $5,000 bond.

Fifteen persons were injured in a collision of trolley cars on Brooklyn bridge recently.

Fire on the Midway at Lake County, near St. Joseph, Mo., recently caused a loss of $50,000.

Three men were killed and seven others injured by the collapse of a bridge across the Michigan Central tracks in Detroit.

Members of the ex-board of managers and also members of the revision committee of the exchange have been summoned to appear before the federal grand jury in that city.

The steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm on its last trip to Europe carried $8,350,000 in American gold.

The federal supreme court has advanced the cases of E. H. Harriman and Otto Kahn, who refused to answer questions propounded by the interstate commerce commission.

Many acts of lawlessness were committed recently in connection with the street car strike at Cleveland, O.

The summer session of the Kansas university will open on June 11, the day after the closing of the present term.

PERJURY CHARGED

UGLY ENDING IN THE ROMANCE OF MAE WOOD.

DID NOT MARRY TOM PLATT

Court Declares Her Action a Wicked Design to Support Fictitious Claim, and Dismisses the Suit.

The case of Mae C. Wood, the Omaha woman who sued United States Senator Thomas C. Platt for divorce, came to a sudden and sensational end Thursday afternoon when Justice O'Gorman, of the supreme court, dismissed the complaint and directed that the complainant be committed to the city prison under $5,000 bail on a charge of perjury.

The climax came after the introduction in evidence of the deposition of a man who manufactured the blanks upon one of which the alleged Platt-Wood certificate had been prepared, in which he declared that the blank form in question was not lithographed until three months after the marriage of Miss Wood to Platt is alleged to have occurred.

The Ord Quiz

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. O. PARSONS, City Editor.

Entered at the postoffice at Ord as second class mail matter.

Advertising Rates.
 1 WK. (No.) 1 Year
 Less than 5 inches, per inch . . . . . 75 6.00
 5 to 10 inches, per inch . . . . . 50 5.00
 10 to 20 inches, per inch . . . . . 30 3.00
 20 to 30 inches, per inch . . . . . 15 1.50

A month is four insertions.
 Want locals 8 cents a line.
 Regular locals 10 cents a line.
 Black locals 15 cents a line.

Subscriptions may begin or end at any time. Notice to stop this paper will be promptly obeyed. All subscriptions are received with the express understanding that the subscription may continue until the subscriber notifies the publisher of his desire to terminate the subscription.

Subscription Rates.
 One copy, if paid in reasonable time, $1.50.
 If unpaid year after year, $2.

Real Estate Transfers.

Wencel F. Adamek to Vesta R. Adamek, $200, lot 2 blk 49 Ord.

Louis Beran to Wencel F. Adamek, $75, lot 2, blk 49 Ord.

James B. Clemet to Frank Watts, $600, lots 5 and 6, blk 11, Green's add to North Loup.

Lillian M. Botts to Harry Harris, $1200, lot 1 blk 47, Ord.

Chas. L. Cooper to James P. Cooper, 1-2 int lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 blk 8, Hawthorne's add Arcadia.

Thos. Lancaster to Stella P. Lutz, $100, s2 sw4 20-19-14.

Stella P. Lutz to Grace L. Lancaster, $100, s2 sw4 20-19-14.

Calvin Landers to Belle Wall, $100, lot 8, blk 2 and lot 12 blk 9.

M. C. Caris to Alexander Gross, $5500, pt sw4 9-19 14, 117 acres.

Geo. W. Moore to Mary C. Moore, $1500, pt lots 1 and 2, blk 2 North Loup.

Hattie C. Nethery to George T. Winter, $1300, lot 5 blk 11, Ord.

J. M. Robinson to Stella A. Hollingshead, $100, pt lot 15 and all 16 and 17, blk 9.

S. E. Leininger to C. N. Blakeslee, $1850, lots 21 and 22, blk 19 1st add to Arcadia.

Delia Chase to Nellie Black, $25, lots 3, 4, 5 and 6, blk 7, Pope's add to North Loup.

J. W. Landers to Comm. St. Bank, $1000, lot 19 blk 7 Arcadia.

Abijah Lane to C. E. P. Lane, $1200, pt railroad add to Arcadia.

Wm. D. Dunlap to Porter M. Dunlap, $1000, ne4 21-18-16 10 a.

Arthur S. Dye to Ella A. Keown, $1100, lot 1 blk 40, Ord.

L. W. Turner to Arthur Dye, $1200, lot 1 blk 40 Ord.

Francis E. Lloyd to Matt Parkos, $5000, blks 7, 8 and 9 Haskell's and to Ord and part ne4 and nw4 22-16-14, 80 acres.

Clark-Kaohn

After keeping his marriage a secret for almost a year, Will Clark make it known last Saturday when he set up housekeeping in the residence owned by Mrs. Munn in the north part of the city.

Last summer while in Lincoln Mr. Will Clark was united in marriage to Miss Ida Kaohn, of Sargent. So well did they keep their marriage secret that their closest friends never suspected the truth.

The groom is well known in Ord and Valley county. He has spent a greater part of his life here, and has long been connected with the L. D. Bailey department store, where he is now holding a place of responsibility.

The bride is not altogether a stranger to Quiz readers. It will be remembered that she was employed with the Farmers' Mutual Telephone Company for a few months last summer, and although her stay in our city was not long, she formed a host of acquaintances among the younger set, with whom she was very popular.

The Quiz extends the usual congratulations and wishes for them all happiness.

Not Too High.

80 acres in Springdale, half in cultivation, balance pasture, house, barn, well and windmill, for $2000.

160 acres in Springdale, 40 plowed, 15 alfalfa, 60 pasture, for $2400.

320 acres 12 miles out, with 200 acres plowed, 25 alfalfa, 80 pasture, good house, barn, well and windmill, gpanary, good road to Ord, for $10,000.

Residence property in Ord, 6 lots in good location, orchard, shade, good house, for $2500.

Plenty money for farm loans.

J. H. CAPRON, Ord.

Will Close at Seven O'clock.

Ord, Nebraska, May 26, 1908.

We, the undersigned dealers in Ord, Nebraska, hereby agree to close our respective places of business at seven o'clock p. m. on all evenings except Saturday night.

This agreement to take effect and commence on June 1st, 1908, and to continue until such time as any of the undersigned parties shall decide to withdraw from this agreement.

It is understood and agreed that any one can withdraw from this agreement by giving six days notice to the other signers.

L. D. Bailey & Sons, Mamie Siler, Ord Mercantile Company, Sershen Bros., F. J. Dworak, Bartunek Bros., G. W. Milford & Son, Fackler & Sutton, W. Misko, S. E. Stover, Schwaner Bros., Geo. A. Parkins, Bailey & Detweiler, F. J. Satra. Bailey & Detweiler reserve right of opening for repairs or repair work.

The Big Tree's of California.

Are the most gigantic and beautiful trees in the world, some having reached a height of 335 feet with base circumference of 110 feet. The age of many are estimated by scientists at eight thousand years. The Mariposa Grove, which can be visited while en route to the Yosemite, contains some of the largest. In the Calaveras Grove are from ninety to one hundred of huge size. Near Santa Cruz is a beautiful grove of redwood Big Trees which will well employ a day's visit. There is nothing in any part of the world like this region, which is best reached via the Union Pacific.

For booklets inquire of F. R. Frick.

A Prize Composition.

The second prize composition by one of the pupils of school district number 40. Published at request of Clem. Meyers, teacher.

The Last Day of School.

The last days of school are very pleasant. On the last day of school they most always have a nice picnic and program. We are going to have a nice time. First we are going to gather at the school house and have our program, then we are going over to the grove and eat our dinner. Each one is going to bring something to eat, then we are going to put it together and all eat at one time. We are going to have some swings put up and some tea cream to eat. The boys will play ball with the other school boys. We and another school are going to have our picnic together. We will have a dandy time too. The grove is green and nice and the trees are big. There is an old house where we are going to have our picnic. We want everybody to come that can and help to enjoy our picnic. They are invited to come if they want to. If they want to hear our program they must come up to the school house first. The other school is not going to have any program so we thought we could have our program at the school house. When we would go down to the grove after that we think that will be nice. The girls will bring their dolls, then they will take them in their arms and walk around with them. There is only one more week till our school is out. There are about 24 scholars so we ought to have a good program. But when we get to the grove there will be lots of people there I expect but I don't know. There will be many people that we do not know but we want them to help share our good time anyway no matter whether we know them or not. It does not hurt them. Some can hardly wait till that day comes but it isn't very long. There will be lots of women with babies but they will have just as good a time as we younger folks will. We can swing, eat ice cream, drink lemonade and eat oranges, not only us, but all of the people can, just the same as we do because they are a part of the crowd and they are well come to everything that we are and have just as much right to it as we have. There will be more than one who will hang back and will not come unless you ask them because they think they have no right but they have. It will be very pleasant and if you can we would like to have you come and spend the day. We will have the school house decorated nice and want you to see it. We will stay in the grove all day and at night will go home and tell about it and then go to bed and rest.

Burlington Time Card

East bound passenger leaves 8:15 a. m.

East bound freight leaves:

Monday and Wednesday (stock days) 11:45 a. m.

Tuesday and Thursday (via Ericson) 6:30 a. m.

Friday and Saturday 9:00 a. m.

West bound passenger arrives 6:25 p. m.

West bound freight arrives 3:00 p. m.

Roof Paint

I have the best rubber paint on earth to stop all leaks in tin roofs and around leaky chimneys, leaky valleys and tin decking. When thinned with oil, makes one of the best iron-clad paints for all kinds of material. I will sell in any amount, and will apply if desired. 9-4t

JOHN C. GRAMER

SPRINGDALE DEPARTMENT

By G. R. Mann.

When John was 8 years younger his age was 3-5 of his present age. How old is he?

Mrs. O. R. Hanson visited at Lars Hanson's Monday.

Knut Peterson shelled corn at Arnold's last Thursday.

Chas. Stichler shipped a load of hogs and one of cattle to Omaha Monday.

James Nelson spent Saturday and Sunday with friends on Haskell Creek.

Haws Timmerman shelled corn Tuesday, Knut Peterson doing the work.

Remember the special exercises at Springdale church on Sunday May 31 at 8 p. m.

H. D. Stowell has been a frequent visitor at the school this week. He is always welcome.

Cyrell Rasset helped on the George Morris farm several days last week while the latter was ill.

Are you interested in organized class work in the Sunday school? If so hear the exercises the Philatheas class have planned for Sunday evening.

Farmers are busy harrowing corn fields at present. The rain Sunday and Monday was greatly appreciated and the soil is in excellent condition.

A large herd of cattle from near Elyria passed through Springdale Tuesday enroute for the Gould pasture in Greeley county.

While driving a drove of hogs from his farm to Spelts on Friday, W. L. Smith lost a fine porker. The animal was over-comb by the heat.

G. A. McLain, John McLain, Harry Rawles and W. L. Smith shipped hogs from Spelts Wednesday. G. A. McLain accompanied the shipment.

Mrs. Ed. Hanson went to Garfield county Saturday to visit relatives. Mr. Hanson followed Sunday and accompanied the former home Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. T. Barstow of Lincoln was a guest at the Joan Van Wie home from Sunday night till Monday evening. She expects to return to Lincoln Friday or Saturday.

George Morris is able to be about the farm again. His sickness occurred at a most critical time of the year. He considers that he was fortunate in being able to secure assistants during his enforced idleness.

Charles Turner has been unfortunate with his horse flesh this season. Two of his fine horses are incapacitated for farm work at present. Therefore the horse problem is one of no little concern to him.

The ladies aid society will hold its next meeting at the home of Mrs. Will Stanton on Wednesday afternoon, June 3. Where the evening session will be held cannot be announced at this writing since definite arrangements have not been made. A liberal attendance is desired.

Will Stanton has been improving the looks of his premises to a great extent recently. A new woven wire fence adorns the front yard. The trees in the orchard have all been neatly trimmed, all the dead limbs on the shade trees have been removed. Well kept premises are certainly valuable asset to any farm.

Threatening skies from which water had been falling by the bucket during the day, prevented the entertainment the Philatheas class planned to give last Sunday evening at the Springdale church from being given. Not in the least discouraged by the inevitable, another meeting has been arranged for next Sunday evening. Come and boost for the new organization.

Haws Timmerman has improved the appearance of his yard wonderfully during the past week. All the old willow stumps, the relics of the burnout in the year 1894, that had long since survived their usefulness as fence posts were grubbed out and removed. Substantial catalpa posts were set in the stead of their historical predecessors and woven wire fencing was tacked on, completing the job.

S. N. Arnold turned over his assessor's book to Assessor King Tuesday. Mr. Arnold has been faithfully at work on the assessment roll for the past few weeks. Few people realize the amount of work incurred by a position of this kind. A great responsibility follows in the wake. The assessor feels that it is difficult indeed to give universal satisfaction since he is touching on the public's most cherished possessions, its pocket book. The assessorship requires a man equipped with good judgement. It also demands accuracy. Springdale township feels fortunate indeed in having an assessor who has been so conscientious in the performance of his duty.

An agent, selling a preparation for the extermination of mites has been doing a rushing business in these parts of late.

He purports to be the sole inventor of this powerful concoction and most candidly states that he has established so enviable reputation in Kansas that mites of every description tremble whenever his name is mentioned. He contends that his remedy is the panacea for all the ills the hen family is heir to. In order to support his contention he cites positive authority which proves that he has sent more vermin to dreamland than any other individual on the North American continent. He also is never known to be guilty of unjust discrimination. It matters little whether the creature is as diminutive as the microscopic ameba or as voluminous as some of the mammoth fossils lately discovered in the Tundras of the frozen north; one whiff of the powerful potion produces that sleep that knows no waking. Such works as these make those of Alexander Caesar and Napoleon look like horse play. What a satisfaction it must be to have achieved such greatness. I dare say however that it warms the cockles of aforesaid agent's heart to fill his coffers from the housewife's store.

Ida Items.

Mrs. Beynon and Mrs. DeLashmet of Burwell visited Mrs. Craig Wednesday of last week.

W. D. Hart shipped a carload of hogs to Omaha Monday.

Mr. Gard of Lincoln Sunday at Goodenows.

The Sharp family and Mrs. Wilson dined at Craig's Sunday.

Stella Sharp spent a few days in Burwell this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodenow were passengers to Burwell Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig visited at Meyers Monday.

Craig and Sharp attended a sale up the Calamus Tuesday.

Mr. Goodenow made a business trip to Ord Saturday.

The farmers are in fine spirits since the rain of Sunday and Monday. Nearly all the corn is up and growing as corn in Valley county can grow.

Elyria Items.

Mr. Shaffer has purchased a new piano.

Amy Goodrich of North Loup is here visiting friends this week.

Mrs. Kimble and children are here visiting friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeFord went to Lincoln Saturday to visit for a time.

Sheriff Sutton was in town one day last week.

County Assessor King was in these parts last week looking after the assessment of this township.

Turtle Creek News.

T. Beehrle left Friday morning for Marshalltown, Iowa, where his mother is sick and not expected to live.

Mrs. Knud Christensen of Turtle Creek has returned from a two weeks visit in Iowa.

Anna Sorensen of Turtle Creek left Tuesday morning for Wyoming where she expects to stay for some time.

We want your HOGS!

We have made arrangements with the trade at Portland, Oregon, to handle all of the Light Hogs

we can ship them, and are now in the market for light hogs for western shipment. Call us up by phone or stop at our office and let us quote you top prices.

Blessing Bros.

Farmers' phone 25. Bell phone 42

Ord Church and Lodge Directory

RATES—See lines or less, $3.00 per year. Additional lines 50 cents per year.

ORD LODGE NO. 103 A. P. & A. M. Meetings held on Wednesday or before the full moon of each month. Sheppard, W. M.

Alvin Blessing, Sec.

ODIC CHAPTER NO. 50 R. A. M. Meetings held on the first Tuesday of each month. John C. Work, H. Rudolph Sorensen, Secretary.

IZPAH CHAPTER ORDER OF EASTERN STAR, ORD LODGE NO. 56. Meetings held on the first and third Fridays of each month.

STAYED—A small bay pony mare on May 10th. T. D. Likely. 8-1tpd.

MONEY to loan on city property. See R. L. Staple. 8-1tpd.

FOR SALE—A first-class double oak cabinet writing desk. Good as new. Cheap. Inquire at Hotel Ord. 9-1f

BRIDGE PLANK FOR SALE—I will sell at auction the old 8-inch plank at Ord on Saturday, June 6, at 3 o'clock to the highest bidder. W. L. McNutt, Supervisor. 9

FOR SALE—Bambler wheel with G and I tires, Corbin duplex brake, Kelly forward extension bar. Also Sentinel wheel with new departure brake, complete except front tire. Price for immediate sale $20. Write or phone John L. Ward. 9

WANTED—A dish washer. Good wages to the right party. Hotel Ord. 9-1f

FOR SALE—My residence property on the hill. Mrs. Earl C. Brink. 4 on the hill. 8

WANTED—An experienced windmill and pump man. Hatchins Bros., North Loup, Nebraska. 8

FOR SALE OR TRADE—In the edge of town, three acres of nice rich ground with new seven room house and new barn. Thirty five bearing fruit trees on place. Will trade for a farm. L. D. Bailey & Sons. 4

FOR SALE—Shade trees and evergreens. W. A. Anderson. 67-

BARGAIN—House, barn, etc., with two good lots, nicely located in southeast part of Ord, at a low price if taken at once. Not much cash required. R. L. Staple. 2-

JOURNAL OFFICE for rent by June 1st. Mrs. Ada Munn. 6

FOR SALE—My Peeries threshing machine, 18 H. P. engine 35x52, separator, feeder, 2 tanks, everything complete and will give same warranty as new. Price $1300. W. P. Plummet. 6

FOR SALE—Good driving horse, with or without buggy and harness. Charles Siler. 6-1f

SAND and GRAVEL—I have opened up a sand and gravel pit and am prepared to furnish it in any amounts to town or country buyers. See me before buying. Leave orders at Stover's. Glen Rogers. 64

FOR RENT—Three room cottage close to the square. Call at Quiz office. 5

FOR SALE—Plain Valley farm of L. S. Jones. For particulars inquire of P. J. Jones, Ord. 5-1f

FOR SALE—I will sell my residence property consisting of ten room modern house, oak finish, city water, electric lights, phone, bath room, complete with two lots, 1 in orchard and grapes, cement walks around entire house. G. L. Gibson. 5-

FOR SALE CHEAP—if taken soon the house on lot 1, block 40, purchaser to remove house from premises. See me or E. M. Williams. W. B. Keown. 7

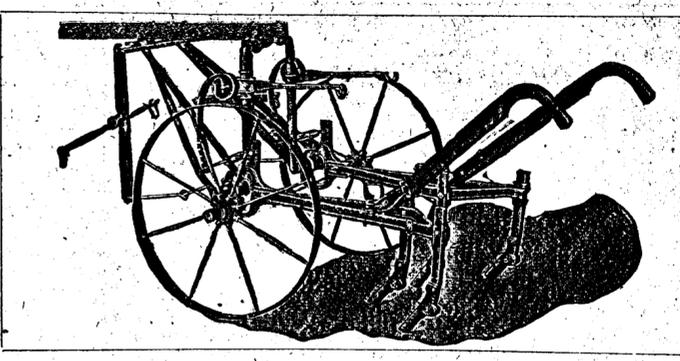

LOST—Between my place and Midvale church on Wednesday evening May 6, agry saddle blanket. Finder please notify me and oblige H. W. Trefren. Phone O 19. 7

FOR BEE SUPPLIES see A. P. Jensen manufacturer of bee supplies and hives. I carry a full line. Route 4, phone White 30. 6

CORNELLS

CAN SHOW YOU THE BEST LINE OF

CULTIVATORS

ever offered by one firm, consisting of the following makes:

Walking and Riding

THE BADGER

THE EMERSON

Two-row for Listed Corn

THE SATTLE

FLYING SWEEDE

We have just finished unloading a car of DEERING and EMERSON HAY TOOLS.

Cornells Hardware and IMPLEMENT HOUSE

WANT COLUMN

FOR SALE—A first-class double oak cabinet writing desk. Good as new. Cheap. Inquire at Hotel Ord. 9-1f

BRIDGE PLANK FOR SALE—I will sell at auction the old 8-inch plank at Ord on Saturday, June 6, at 3 o'clock to the highest bidder. W. L. McNutt, Supervisor. 9

FOR SALE—Bambler wheel with G and I tires, Corbin duplex brake, Kelly forward extension bar. Also Sentinel wheel with new departure brake, complete except front tire. Price for immediate sale $20. Write or phone John L. Ward. 9

WANTED—A dish washer. Good wages to the right party. Hotel Ord. 9-1f

FOR SALE—My residence property on the hill. Mrs. Earl C. Brink. 4 on the hill. 8

WANTED—An experienced windmill and pump man. Hatchins Bros., North Loup, Nebraska. 8

FOR SALE OR TRADE—In the edge of town, three acres of nice rich ground with new seven room house and new barn. Thirty five bearing fruit trees on place. Will trade for a farm. L. D. Bailey & Sons. 4

FOR SALE—Shade trees and evergreens. W. A. Anderson. 67-

BARGAIN—House, barn, etc., with two good lots, nicely located in southeast part of Ord, at a low price if taken at once. Not much cash required. R. L. Staple. 2-

JOURNAL OFFICE for rent by June 1st. Mrs. Ada Munn. 6

FOR SALE—My Peeries threshing machine, 18 H. P. engine 35x52, separator, feeder, 2 tanks, everything complete and will give same warranty as new. Price $1300. W. P. Plummet. 6

FOR SALE—Good driving horse, with or without buggy and harness. Charles Siler. 6-1f

SAND and GRAVEL—I have opened up a sand and gravel pit and am prepared to furnish it in any amounts to town or country buyers. See me before buying. Leave orders at Stover's. Glen Rogers. 64

FOR RENT—Three room cottage close to the square. Call at Quiz office. 5

FOR SALE—Plain Valley farm of L. S. Jones. For particulars inquire of P. J. Jones, Ord. 5-1f

FOR SALE—I will sell my residence property consisting of ten room modern house, oak finish, city water, electric lights, phone, bath room, complete with two lots, 1 in orchard and grapes, cement walks around entire house. G. L. Gibson. 5-

FOR SALE CHEAP—if taken soon the house on lot 1, block 40, purchaser to remove house from premises. See me or E. M. Williams. W. B. Keown. 7

LOST—Between my place and Midvale church on Wednesday evening May 6, agry saddle blanket. Finder please notify me and oblige H. W. Trefren. Phone O 19. 7

FOR BEE SUPPLIES see A. P. Jensen manufacturer of bee supplies and hives. I carry a full line. Route 4, phone White 30. 6

STAYED—A small bay pony mare on May 10th. T. D. Likely. 8-1tpd.

MONEY to loan on city property. See R. L. Staple. 8-1tpd.

The Bradley & Vrooman Paint

is recognized to be one of the best paints on the market today. An absolute five-year guarantee with it. If the paint should prove defective, we not only furnish you new paint, but also a man to put it on.

OUR PRICE, $1.60 A GALLON

SPECIAL:---We have just received a barrel of B & V's best white mixed paint, which we will sell as long as it lasts at $1.50 a gallon. This paint is in bulk.

The Blue Front

F. J. Dworak, Proprietor

NEW AND SCENIC LINE

to

Yellowstone Park

Waists for Every Occasion

Trim tailored shirt waists and lacy lingerie blouses, every one new and crisp and charming.

The tailored styles show striped linens and lawns, bordered patterns and many varieties of the frill front style.

These waists are all the very latest designs and perfect in fit. The prices are in every instance most economical, for you can buy these excellent waists all ready to wear at very little more than the cost of the materials and trimmings. We buy in quantities, and early, and every cent of advantage we get beyond a fair profit goes to you. That's the secret of these best waist values in town.

Just Received some of the new Merry Widow waists in fancy stripes. Price $1.50. You should see them.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

Best Values to Be Found Anywhere

We challenge comparisons on our underwear values—are confident, you'll not find them better, or their equal anywhere.

Judged from the price, quality, style standard these ready-to-use garments put home sewing out of the question.

All materials—muslins, laces, embroideries—are thoroughly good. We buy of the best manufacturers, having many styles made especially for us in order to get just what we think will suit our trade.

There is fashion in undergarments as in overgarments, and we see to it that our styles are up-to-date, the latest sleeves in night gowns, newest shapes in drawers, fashionable trimming ideas in corset covers.

Come in and see them.

We buy chickens, butter, eggs and cream. Pay cash or trade.

Ord's Best Trading Place	The Baileys' Department Store	Strictly One Price
--------------------------------	--------------------------------------	--------------------------

THE ORD QUIZ

W. W. HASKELL, Editor and Owner.
W. C. PARSONS, City Editor.

ORD, VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA.

Dave Gard is in the city this week.

D. L. Williams was at Scotia Monday.

Fred Hallock visited in Ord over Sunday.

Norm Parks was looking to business affairs in Burwell Monday.

Cash paid for your butter, eggs and poultry. O. P. Cromwell.

A. J. Shirley is in Lincoln taking in the state shooting tournament.

Mrs. A. A. Graber was down from Burwell visiting folks in Ord Monday.

Orrin Mutter was at Comstock operating his photo car the first of the week.

Editor Rood was up from North Loup to take in the commencement exercises Tuesday evening.

W. L. McNutt received a new polled Durham bull from Clay Center yesterday. He is a good one.

The case against "Doctor" John Auble came up for hearing the other day, but has been postponed a week or two.

G. R. Mann and Miss Mable Gudmundsen have been chosen as delegates to the state Sunday school convention from the Presbyterian church in Ord.

Prayer meeting at the Methodist church this week will be on Friday night, as the high school commencement address comes on Thursday night. Prayer meeting lesson, John 16.

In scuffling a couple of the clerks in Mamie Siler's store succeeded in putting one of the large plate glass windows out of commission last Saturday evening.

The sale at Keown's place yesterday was well attended and things brought good prices. His Jersey cows brought him $86.50 and $103.50. They were bought by Messrs. Huff and Firkins.

Mr. Floyd W. Robbins who, has been specializing in music at the Nebraska Wesleyan Conservatory of Lincoln for, the last three years, will be in Ord during the first week in June to organize a class in music for the summer. Mr. Robbins has been taking special training in methods of teaching music. Price, 50 cents per lesson.

Ford Shirley has just finished one of the best jobs of paper hanging and decorating in the Baptist church that we have seen turned out in this part of the country. While the selection of the color scheme has considerable to do with the effect in wall decoration, even a good color scheme can be spoiled by poor hanging. The walls of the church building show that Ford has put in much time in bringing out the best effect that could possibly be brought out.

A shining new automobile came in on the Burlington freight Monday evening billed to Frank Mallory. The machine got home before Frank arrived but before this paragraph reaches the readers eye we expect that he will have donned his cap and goggles and will be sailing about the country. The car is a Reo and is one of the run-about dimensions.

Stop at the Quiz office and get a copy of the Ord Valley Agricultural Society's premium list and begin to make some arrangements for your exhibit this fall. Dates are a long way off but it is not too early to begin to think about your part toward making a bigger and better display than ever this year.

A sister of Miss Ellis, principal of the Ord schools has been in the city several days on a visit. She comes to Ord from Albion where she teaches in the schools of that city and will go on to her home at Lincoln as soon as the Ord principal finishes her school work here.

Having decided to quit the Credit and delivery feed business, after June 1st, I will be found on hand to handle all produce and grinding that you may bring, paying highest cash price for all produce delivered at my mill, giving you prompt service and a square deal.

M. N. Mogenson is having more trouble at his home. His 5-year-old child is sick with typhoid pneumonia and has been so for three weeks. With no mother to care for the child the case is a very serious one for all concerned.

J. P. Baird is still having a serious time with his carbuncles. They still require surgical attention every day. This is the worst stage of this malady that has come under our notice.

So far this spring has been an ideal one except for the terrible freeze in May that killed the fruit.

Dr. Folsom, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, will be at the Hotel Ord on Monday, June 1. Spectacles fitted, examinations free.

What do you think of the rain Sunday?

Were you out to the fire last Friday night?

I pay highest cash price for butter, eggs and poultry. O. P. Cromwell.

Mrs. Frank Johnson of North Loup is in Ord visiting her sister, Mrs. Parkins.

Andy Phillips the Burwell restaurant man was transacting business in Ord Monday.

It rains nights and Sundays and the hired men and the street sprinkler men can rest.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kinsey were over from Acadia Wednesday and spent the day visiting Ord friends.

The excavating on the cellar for the new Dworak building is about completed and the bricklayers will commence their part of the work at once.

Ray Hoagland, telegraph operator at the Burlington was taken sick the first of the week and Tuesday he went to his home at Central City to recuperate.

Ord Camp No. 1598 M. W. A. will observe Memorial Day on Sunday, June 7. All members are requested to be at the hall at 10 o'clock a. m. on that day. Committee.

The Quiz this week printed a twelve page folder containing the annual program of the Kearney District Epworth League, of the West Nebraska Conference, the meeting of which convenes in Shelton on June 16 and continues three days.

Commencing next Monday morning the B. & M. passenger train will change time, leaving Ord for the east at 7:00, the west bound train still coming in as before. So if you want to take that train after this week you had better have a gas stove put in so as to get breakfast on time.

Otto Heuck Art Hall and Ernest Hallock are in Lincoln this week representing the Ord Gun Club at the big state shooting tournament. They expect to do some boosting while there for the big tournament that the Ord club expects to pull off this fall.

Yesterday William Fellows was up before the police judge on a charge of assault and battery and pleaded guilty. The victim was Jeff Thompson. The judge has not yet assessed the fine, having taken the matter of the amount under advisement till he could ascertain what the circumstances of the case are. Thompson implicates others in the assault, but on the advice of the city attorney did not swear out a complaint against the others.

The recent heavy windstorms in Arkansas did considerable damage to the standing timber owned by the Dierks Lumber Company. It is understood that some 40,000,000 feet was blown down and the company will make strenuous endeavors to recover and use as much of this as possible. The timber affected lies east of DeQueen, Arkansas, and most of it will have to be hauled about fifteen miles to the Dierks railroad. It is the intention of the company to put in some small mills to cut the timber—The Lumber Review.

Thus far this season rain appears to be coming along just about at the right time for the convenience of all concerned. Sunday morning a gentle little drizzle settled in and kept it up until a late hour Monday afternoon doing untold good to the corn and oat fields. A little better than an inch of water fell at Ord and the showers were general all over this section of the country, Garfield county getting an even heavier rain than they did in this section.

The thrifty farmer has more than his hands busy these days looking to his crops. The showers of the first of the week not only started his corn crop off in fine shape but the weeds come right along with the rain and from now on until the first of July it will require the greater part of his attention to keep his corn rows in passable shape.

Both in Ord and other parts of the county comes the request that Peter Mortensen be nominated for representative. He is enabled by his experiences at the state house to do good work. Everybody says that he would be the strongest man to name for the place.

Ord's new opera house is climbing skyward at a pretty rapid gait. Rain prevented the workmen from their labors on the building for a couple of days the first of the week but they were at it again with the coming out of the sun.

Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapin went to Lincoln to spend a week visiting relatives.

I will trade my house and 4 lots in west Ord for a small farm and pay the difference in cash. T. J. Nethery. 9-2tpd.

Proclamation. Whereas Saturday, May 30 has been set apart by the chief executives of the state and nation as a legal holiday on which to do honor to the soldier dead; therefore, it is hereby recommended that the citizens of Ord observe the day and that the business houses of the city be and remain closed from the hours of 9 a. m. to 12 m. A. M. Daniels, Mayor.

Orville Again in the Limelight.

Last Friday night Orville Phair got back to town in spite of the criminal charges against him, for the purpose, he says, of seeing his wife. The two went to the canyon, by what degree of force on his part we cannot say, for she admits that there was no force used in getting her away from the house. But her mother, who is sick, knowing the attacks he had made on the woman at other times became excited and phoned the sheriff that Phair had come and she saw him strike her daughter with a knife. Of course the sheriff and others were determined that there should be no escape if this was true and accordingly the fire alarm was sounded. People came out and joined in the search. Parties went in all directions, but the man was caught sight of by a party headed by Dr. Billings. They chased Phair up to the vicinity of Halsey's place, where they brought him to bay, and armed with an old washboard, demanded his surrender, which demand was immediately complied with.

Phair had been drinking all right and was pretty scared fellow. Furthermore, the crowd was in a mood to handle him roughly had it been true that he had harmed his wife. She was finally located also and when it was ascertained that she was unharmed, the prisoner was taken to jail to await the action of the law, where he now languishes. The charge against him is that of assault with intent to kill J. W. Wimbrelley a few months ago. Phair had been let loose before on condition that he would pull out and stay away. But this midnight alarm resulted in other things.

The parties out after Phair visited the fair grounds and caught two couples there who were not acting in strict accordance with the rules of morality. As no charges are preferred in legal form we are not at liberty to publish the names.

Another sequel of the case was the discovery that Phair got his liquor at Sam Dumond's. In consequence of this the city attorney has commenced civil proceedings against Sam to recover $50, which is according to law, we are told. Of course if this case is made to stick there will be an action begun to have his license revoked.

Taking it all around the Phair incident went a long way to reveal to the moral people of Ord the true state of affairs. While decent people are peacefully sleeping in their virtuous beds they may be assured that there is plenty of rottenness in evidence about the city if only something should come along to stir it up. Really, people, don't you think that it is about time to clean up the town by electing decent men to office.

CLASS OF '08 GET THEIR DIPLOMAS

Fifteen Members Make up the Seventeenth Class to Graduate from the Ord Schools.

The seventeenth class to graduate from the Ord High School are this week occupying the attention of the public and receiving the congratulations of the public for the successful fight they have made to secure a high school education. And well they deserve the honor and congratulations that are being paid them.

The first of the exercises of the week was the baccalaureate sermon at the opera house last Sunday evening by Rev. J. Mill Huston. The weather conditions at that time were not all that could be desired, but the threatening conditions did not appear to effect the attendance in the least. The order of service as printed on the program was carried out to the letter. Rev. Mary L. Leggett responding with a beautiful well worded prayer, a solo by Eva. B. Schuman, Scripture reading by Dr. Bamford and the address of the evening by Rev. Huston. In his address Rev. Huston touched upon local matters to a considerable extent, handing out some pretty warm roasts to those holding down official positions and not living up to their oath of office. As a political talk it was considered by the audience to be pretty good, but for a baccalaureate address it could hardly be termed the proper thing. Some parts of the address however, were meaty and these parts were appreciated by the audience. The program closed with a benediction by Rev. Halsey.

Owing to the number in the class it was decided to hold two class day programs, one on Tuesday and one on Wednesday evening. There was no falling off in the attendance Tuesday evening when the program opened with a piano duet by Jessie Speece and Ida Brink after which Ralph L. Batie delivered the address of welcome on the subject, "He Can Who Thinks He Can." Following then in their order on the program Fred A. Brink delivered his oration, "The Garden of the Gods," Archie Coombs, "Character," Josephine Cernik, "Gypsies," Miner E. Harris, "Aaron Burr," W. C. Loofbourrow, "Useful Citizenship," Ora Stewart, "Hallowe'en," Sophia Reitardt, "Olympic Games." The program was interspersed with music. The first member of the class to appear on Wednesday evening was Herbert L. Cushing, who delivered the class prophecy followed then by Winnie E. Parks on "Ceramics," Joseph Aldrich, "Decisive Battle of the Rebellion," Maxwell H. Westover, "Qualifications for a Successful Life," Milford Stacy, "Class History," Otto A. Wirsig, "Power of Influence," Mabel Moore, "Class Will," and as on the previous evening the monotony of the orations was relieved by several musical numbers at different intervals during the program. The Quiz regrets that lack of time and space forbids us from reviewing each of the orations at length as they were all of such a nature as to merit special comment. Each number showed that considerable hard work had been applied and they merited the applause they received as a result of their efforts. The opera house was quite tastefully decorated in gold and white, the class colors, and a banner bearing the class motto—"To be, not to seem," occupied an important place in the decorations.

Tonight the last number of the program, the class address by Harry V. Adams, will be delivered and following the address the president of the board of education will present the graduates with their well earned diplomas.

Mother's Day. Children's day, Forefather's day, Memorial day and other special days have been observed at various times. A Mother's day reminds sons and daughters, some of them, busy men and women, of the unselfish devotion of their mothers, and possibly of their own neglect of mother. Every man, woman and child who feels that he or she had or has the best mother that ever lived is asked to show "mother" some special kindness this day by a gift, visit, words of affectionate appreciation or a love letter. If she is not living, there are mothers who would gladly receive such filial remembrance as a memorial of her. Let Sunday, May 31, be the day. A special service for mothers, young, old, and grandmothers, at 11 a. m., at the Presbyterian church. May the lives of mothers everywhere be brightened and more honored. Rev. Walter N. Halsey, Pastor.

Announcement. Ansley, Nebraska, May 27, '08. I am a candidate for the republican nomination for state senator for the 15th senatorial district at the primaries September 1, 1908. William S. Mattley.

City Gets Beaten Again. When will the voters of Ord get tired of keeping in office men who are so narrow in their conception of official duty that they will act under the ordinances only for the purpose of preventing personal spite? Today for the fourth time the city of Ord is beaten in an attempt to persecute the writer simply because of the enmity the city officials of Ord have against him. Altogether we would estimate the sum of the costs that the city has paid and will now have to pay will come close to $200.

In neither of the cases had the city any possible show for winning except in one, and that was long ago when the writer was arrested for riding a bicycle on the sidewalks. Our learned city attorney at that time was one H. E. Oleson, who knows as much law as a kid, and he failed to prove that the alleged crime was committed in Ord. Of course the city paid the costs in that as in the three other cases of a like nature.

The case today was started on the advice of the same learned city attorney, H. E. Oleson. He drafted the notice to be served and the complaint that followed, both of which papers were fatally defective, and based the prosecution on an ordinance which any ordinary layman ought to know, before he had read two lines, was not valid. The subject of this prosecution was about two dray loads of manure which the writer placed on a lot of his for the purpose of stopping the overflow of the land. Notice was served to remove the manure and as soon as possible the job was commenced.

Meanwhile the mayor ordered the marshal to swear out a complaint and it was served, the mayor telling other people that they would not give Haskell any more time than the law allowed.

The case came up before Judge Gudmundsen this morning and was attacked by Lawyer Robbins on several grounds, the chief one being the fatal error in the ordinance which did not lawfully authorize the infliction of a penalty. The case was so clear and the point so well established that the judge had no other course to pursue than to declare the ordinance invalid, which he did and the case was dismissed.

The animus of this prosecution is not only displayed by the boast of the mayor that he would not give us any more time than the law allowed, but also by the manifest lack of necessity for it while there are many graver cases of manure spreading than this. Moreover this complaint was sworn to by the marshal so as to stick the city for the costs in case of defeat, but if any law abiding citizen wants to see the real criminals, such as gamblers, strumpets and other immoral persons prosecuted, you are invariably told by this saloon administration to swear out the complaint yourself.

Corn for sale Omaha Elevator Company.

Notice! Notice! Any parent or guardian of pupils desiring to take advantage of the provisions made by law for free high school tuition will please make application to the County Superintendent for the proper blanks to be filled out and returned on or before the second Monday in June, 1908. Eva B. Shuman, County Supt.

Attention Firemen. The department will meet promptly at 9 o'clock, Saturday morning May, 30th at the hall to take part in the Memorial exercises firemen bring what flowers you can. O. P. Cromwell Sec.

Copy of Sale Bill 61 Years Old. Kindness of M. A. Pardue.

State of Missouri, County of Pike—To whom this may concern: The undersigned will Tuesday, September 29th, A. D. 1846, sell at public outcry, for cash on premises, where Coon creek crosses on the Missouri road, the following chattles, to-wit: nine yoke of oxen with yoke and chain, two wagons with beds, three nigger wenches, four buck niggers, three nigger boys, two prairie plows, twenty-five steel traps, one barrel pickled cabbage, one hoghead of tobacco, one lot of nigger hoes, one spinning wheel, loom, three fox hounds, a lot of coon, mink, and skunk skins and a lot of other articles. Am gwine to California. John Doe.

Richard Roe. Crier. Free headcheese, apples and hard cider at noon.

Ord Market Top—Prices. Potatoes, 40c. Butter, 13c. Eggs, 11c. Hens, 8c. Hogs, $4.75. Oats, 42c. Corn, 60c. Wheat, 83c.

C. H. Speers of Denver, general passenger agent of the Colorado Midland railway, recently conceived the idea of sending over his line two well known Western humorists, just to see what would happen. He selected "Doc Bird" Finch, whose ludicrous cartoons are a feature of the Denver Post, and Blide Dudley, author of "Smoke Wreaths" on that paper.

Following are some of their impressions, as they appeared in pen and picture: (By Blide Dudley.) I wonder, dear reader, if you know what "S-C-E-N-E-R-Y" spells?

"Certainly," I seem to hear you reply. "It spells scenery."

"That's what 'Doc Bird' Finch, of the Denver Post's art staff, and I thought for a long time. We have recently changed our minds, however. To us now 'S-C-E-N-E-R-Y' spell 'Colorado Midland Railway.'"

"Doc Bird" and I were in our office not many weeks ago, busily engaged in our work making the world better, when Lee Haney, advertising manager of the Midland, dropped in. We are glad at all times to see Lee, as he is always accompanied by several high-toned cigars.

"Well, if it isn't Lee," replied "Doc," throwing away a home-made cigarette hurriedly.

"Yes, sir, it's Lee," I said, as I knocked the contents of my pipe into the cuspidor. The Midland man is good at nothing and soon we were smoking a couple of regular "Rockefeller's Delight" weeds taken from the crowd in his cigar case.

"Say, boys," said Lee, "how would you like to take a run over our road?" "De-lighted," we both replied.

"All right. Each of you put your other shirt in a grip Saturday and we'll all go to Glenwood Springs. I'll be your keeper."

"Fine," I said. "I've always wanted to go over the Midland. I've had a desire to see a wonder in arithmetic upon its line."

"Arithmetic—what do you mean?" "I've always wanted to see the Continental Divide."

The Midland man didn't get mad. He smiled.

"Now you understand why I said I would be your keeper," he said. "Doc" is just as bad.

On Saturday morning we went to the train and found our keeper there. C. H. Speers, general passenger agent of the Midland, was there, too, to bid us good-bye.

"Take good care of the boys, Lee," he said to the advertising man. "Don't let any trainmen or passengers slug

"It's a grate view." The Midland man looked worried. We went through Ute Pass and saw an inspiring view. In the valley below was a winding stream that looked like a silver thread. Along one side of it was the famous Ute Pass drive—the finest roadway for carriages, bicycles and automobiles in the Rocky mountains. Next we began to pass big boulders.

"Those rocks," said our keeper, "are sometimes called the Marbles of the Giant."

Just then "Doc" saw an exceedingly big one. "I wonder how that ever got there?" he said.

The Midland man looked serious. "I'll tell you," he replied. "One Halloween night some school boys from Colorado Springs came up here and rolled it on the track as a joke. I was on the first train that came along and I got out and kicked it off."

Leadville we found to be a city of beauty—one of those which only the Rocky Mountain region can boast of. We left the town next morning on the Midland's No. 3, right on time. As the train pulled out "Doc" couldn't refrain from springing another.

"The Midland's trains," he said, "are like the bell on top of an alarm clock."

Of course we wanted to know why. "Because they're on time," said "Doc."

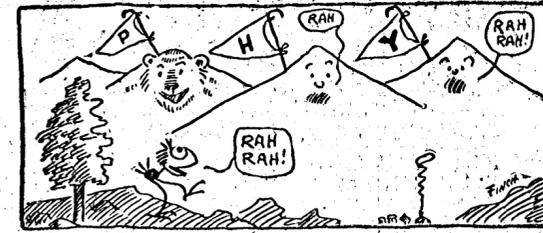

We passed the beautiful Evergreen Lakes, five miles west of Leadville, and then saw Mount Massive, the highest mountain in Colorado. Its altitude is 14,224 feet. A while later we passed Sugar Leaf Reservoir, the highest artificial lake in the world.

All the way to Busk the scenery was magnificent. At Busk we entered the famous Busk tunnel which brought about the abandonment of Hagerman pass. The pass could be seen from the train and "Doc" and I at once realized that it deserved all the fame it possessed. The tunnel was found to be two miles long. We enjoyed the ride through it even though we didn't have our best girls with us. On leaving the tunnel we crossed the backbone of the continent and immediately began going down hill. Before long we came to Lock Ivanhoe, the source of the famous Fryingpan river. This lake, so far as man knows, is bottomless.

"It is said to be bottomless—at least no bottom has ever been found," said our keeper.

"It's not like a lake I used to swim in," I said.

"It isn't!" came from the Midland man.

As Collegiate Range, Mts. Princeton, Harvard and Yale, Looked to Finch. —Colorado Midland Ry.

them, no matter how many fierce jokes they spring.

We reached Colorado Springs exactly on time and, leaving there, began the ascent of the Rockies. From high up on a hill we looked down on Colorado City, the oldest town in the state.

"This place," said our keeper, "was the first capital of the state. The old capitol building is now a Chinese laundry."

Passing Colorado City we came to the Garden of the Gods, famed all over the world for its wonderful water-washed formations. The Garden was the beginning of one of the finest scenic panoramas in existence. We saw Baker's folly, a big mansion built on a solid rock by a wealthy man. We looked up Cliff Dwellers' Cañon and saw the old queer homes of the strange people. We gazed down on beautiful Manitou and saw one of the most picturesque mountain resorts on earth.

"Careful, fellows," said our keeper, "After leaving Manitou we got our last view of the great American plain. It was a wonderful sight."

"Fine," I said. "It's like looking into a furnace."

"Looking into a furnace?" came from our keeper in an inquiring voice. "What do you mean?"

"No," I went on. "One day my father told me not to swimming in the lake I refer to. I went anyway. I jumped in and couldn't find the bottom. But when I got home my father found it for me. That was when I was a small boy."

Our keeper smiled and gave me a cigar. "Doc" needed a smoke, too, so he began trying hard to shine up a joke. Finally Mop Nast came into view. It has perpetual snow on its summit.

"That mountain has snow that never melts on its summit," said the Midland man.

"My! My!" said "Doc." "I guess if you submit all up the Midland has the finest scenery."

The Midland stopped him and gave him the cigar.

Soon we saw the world-famed Hell Gate. Here we began to view the scenery that even the Alps cannot boast of. At the entrance of the Gate "Doc" began looking about curiously. "Say," he finally said to our keeper, "where is the devil? He ought to be standing there opening the gate."

"He would be," replied our keeper, "but just at present he is busy receiving a bunch of Missourians."

Halliday decided not to stay, and Spencer went with him as far as the border of Kentucky to put him safely so far on his way home. Kind and thoughtful to the last, the big man with the big heart broke in two pieces his long hunting knife and gave half of it to Halliday, who had unfortunately lost his own.

With only half a knife and his rifle Spencer turned back into the forest and began to look out for a site for his home. He was fortunate in finding not only a suitable place for a field, but also ready to hand a large dwelling, vacant of a tenant.

The foundations of the structure were fastened deep in the earth, the walls were tinted silver gray, the lofty roof was lichen green, and its fretted pinnacles towered toward the sky.

The dwelling had a tall opening in one side, through which Spencer walked into the hollow of the great sycamore tree which was to be his home and took possession of a spacious chamber which measured nearly eleven feet across and thirty feet and more around.

The new proprietor stood his rifle against the wall, hung powderhorn and drinking cup upon projections of the wood and was ready for housekeeping. At nightfall he spread down a furry bear skin and lay serenely down to sleep.

Spencer lived in his tree through the varying seasons of a full year, caring nothing for wind or rain and minding neither heat nor cold in his snug retreat. The tall sycamore known as Spencer's tree stood for many years after its tenant had passed away and was long pointed out as an example of the magnificent growth found by the pioneers in our primeval forests.

Notice. J. F. Rogers will take notice that on the 11th day of May, 1908, H. Gudmundson, county judge of Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $72.25 in an action pending before him, wherein Ord State Bank, a corporation, is plaintiff, and J. F. Rogers is defendant. That property of the defendant consisting of a stock of china ware, crockery and notions, more particularly described in the inventory and appraisal now on file in the office of said county judge, has been attached under said order. Said cause was continued to the 26th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Ord State Bank, Plaintiff. By Clements Bros., its attorneys. 9-3t

Notice. J. F. Rogers will take notice that on the 13th day of May, 1908, H. Gudmundson, county judge of Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $9.21, in an action pending before him, wherein Ord Mercantile Co. is plaintiff and J. F. Rogers is defendant. That property of the defendant consisting of a stock of china ware, crockery and notions, more particularly described in the inventory now on file in the office of said county judge, has been attached under said order.

Said cause was continued to the 26th day of June, 1908 at 10 o'clock a. m. Ord Mercantile Co., plaintiff. By Clements Bros., its attorneys. 9-3t

Notice for Presentation of Claims. State of Nebraska, Valley County, ss. In the county court of said county. In the matter of the estate of V. Barba, deceased.

Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims and demands against V. Barba, late of Valley county, deceased, that the time fixed for filing claims against said estate is six months from the 28th day of May, 1908. All such persons are required to present their claims with the vouchers to the county judge of said county, at his office therein, on or before the 28th day of November, 1908; and all claims so filed will be heard before the said judge on the 30th day of November, 1908, at ten o'clock a. m.

Dated at Ord Nebraska, this 2nd day of May, 1908. Seal of H. Gudmundson, county judge. Clements Bros., attorneys for estate.

Legal Notice. The unknown heirs and devisees of Abner L. Crosby deceased, will take notice that on the 18th day of May, 1908, W. W. Haskell plaintiff herein, filed his petition in the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a certain tax sale certificate issued to the plaintiff by the treasurer of Valley county, Nebraska, on the 7th day of November, 1904, to evidence the sale of delinquent taxes for the years 1902 and 1903; the following described premises to-wit: that part of lot 1, block 29, original subdivision of J. L. Block 29, created by metes and bounds as follows: commencing 13 feet north of the southeast corner of said lot 1, running thence north 18 feet, thence west 30 feet, thence south 18 feet, thence east 30 feet to place of beginning, said premises being described in said tax sale certificate as Division No. 1, part of lot 1, block 29, townsite; and to include in said foreclosure the subsequent taxes for the years 1904, 1905 and 1906, paid by the plaintiff, the amount now due and payable upon said tax sale certificate and for said subsequent taxes being in the aggregate sum of $37.85, with which interest from the 30th day of September, 1908, plaintiff prays for a decree that the defendant be required to pay the same or that said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount found due.

You are required to answer said petition on or before the 29th day of June, 1908. Dated May 19, 1908. W. W. Haskell, Plaintiff. By Clements Bros. her attorneys. 8-4t

DR. CALDWELL of Chicago, Practicing Allopathy, Homeopathy, Electric and General Medicine: Will, by Request, Visit Ord Professionally on Friday, May, 29th

Hours: 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. when he may be found at the Ord Hotel, returning every four weeks.

Consult Her While the Opportunity is at Hand. Dr. Caldwell limits her practice to the special treatment of diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, Throat, Lungs, Female Diseases, Diseases of Children and all Chronic, nervous and surgical diseases of a curable nature. Early Consumption, Constipation, Bronchitis, Chronic Catarrh, Head-Ache, Stomach and Bowel Troubles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Bright's Disease, Kidney Diseases, Diseases of the Liver and Bladder, Dizziness, Nervousness, Dizziness, Indigestion, Obesity, Interrupted Nutrition, Slow Growth in Children, and all wasting diseases in adults, Deformities, Club Feet, Curvature of Spine, Diseases of Brain, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Heart Disease, Dropsy, Swelling of the Limbs, Stricture, Open Sores, Pain in Bones, Granular Enlargements and all long standing diseases properly treated.

Blood and Skin Diseases. Pimples, Blisters, Eruptions, Liver Spots, Falling of the Hair, Bad Complexions, Eczema, throat ulcers, Weak Back, Burning Urine. The effects of constitutional sickness or the taking of too much injurious medicine receives quick relief, prompt relief and a cure for life.

Diseases of women, Irregular menstruation, falling of womb, bearing down pains, female displacements, lack of sexual tone, leucorrhoea, sterility or barrenness, consult Dr. Caldwell and she will show them the cause of their trouble and the way to get cured.

Cancers, Gout, Fistula, Piles and enlarged glands treated with the subcutaneous injection method, absolutely without pain and without loss of a drop of blood, is one of her own discoveries and is really the most scientific and sure method of this advanced age. Dr. Caldwell has practiced her profession in some of the largest hospitals throughout the country. She has no superior in the treating and diagnosing of diseases, deformities, etc. She has lately opened an office in Omaha where she will spend a portion of each week treating her many patients. No incurable cases accepted for treatment. Consultation, examination and advice one dollar to those interested.

Dr. Ora Caldwell & Co., Omaha, Neb., and Chicago, Ill. Address all mail to 104 Bee Building Omaha, Neb.

Legal Notice. In the County Court, in and for Valley County, Nebraska. In the matter of the estate of Jan Janicek, deceased.

Upon reading and filing the petition of Jan Janicek showing that Jan Janicek Sr. died intestate on December 5, 1905, a resident of Valley county, Nebraska, leaving surviving him heirs at law and seized and possessed in fee simple of real estate in Valley county, Nebraska, to-wit: East half of southwest quarter of Sec. 4, Twp. 20 N, Range 10 W, which was the homestead of said deceased and was all the property both real and personal owned by said deceased at the time of his death, and that said deceased left no debts of any kind or character, and that the expense of his last sickness and funeral charges has been paid, and asking that a decree be entered appointing with the regular administration of said estate, and determining the heirs-at-law of said deceased, it is hereby ordered that the said petition be and the same is set for hearing on the 18th day of May, 1908, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and that notice of said hearing be given to all persons interested in said estate, by publishing this order for three successive weeks prior to said date of hearing in the Ord Quiz a legal newspaper published in said county. Dated this 23 day of April, 1908. C. J. Bragg, Attorney for estate. H. Gudmundson, county judge.

Notice of Attachment. To Judson F. Rogers: You will take notice that on the twenty-seventh day of April, 1908, Herman Westover, a justice of the peace in and for Valley county, Nebraska, issued an order of attachment for the sum of $40.00 in an action pending before him, wherein Carl Funkh is plaintiff and Judson F. Rogers is defendant, that property of defendant, consisting of 250 Co. Mac Co. Cigars 150 Hand Made Cigars 50 El Pagoda cigars 25 Victor Cigars 40 Monogram Cigars 1 Iron Safe 1 Refrigerator 2 Sets Table Spoons 3 Sets Tea Spoons 1 Set Coffee Spoons 3 Salad Forks 2 Meat Forks 1 Berry Spoon 2 Sugar Shells 3 Pickle Forks 1 Sugar Tong 2 Cigar Cases.

The said cause was continued until 10th day of June, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m. By Claude A. Davis, his attorney. Dated May 19, 1908.

Denver and return.....$15.70 Colorado Springs return...$18.20 Pueblo and return.....$19.05 Salt Lake, Ogden return...$31.75 TO CHICAGO AND EAST Republican convention excursion tickets at low rates in June; also summer excursions rates in connection with convention and summer tourist rates to eastern resorts.

HOMESEEKERS' RATES First and third Tuesdays to the west, including the famous Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley, where large tracts of rich irrigated lands are being opened for settlement by the government and by private companies. Write D. Clem Deaver, Burlington Land-seekers' Information Bureau, Omaha; except business openings in new growing towns. Write us a brief description of your proposed trip, and let us advise you how to make it the best way at the least cost.

J. W. MOORHOUSE, Ticket Agent. L. W. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha.

Her Turn Would Come. It is the custom in all parts of Scotland to send invitations when a death occurs in a family to all the neighbors to attend the funeral. A rather grim story once arose out of this. A neighbor had been omitted by the bereaved family in the usual invitations, a feud having arisen between them. On the day of the funeral, while the people were assembling, the slighted old woman stood at her door watching the gathering. At last, unable to bear up any longer under her resentment, she exclaimed: "Aweel, aweel, we'll hae a corpse o' our ain in oor ain hoose some day, and syne we'll see wha'll be in-veeti!"—Scottish Nights.

Practical Answers. An answer given in one of the Cambridge local examinations was particularly bright. The question was in mechanics and was, "Why will a pin not balance on its point?" The reply was: "First, because a point, being that which has no magnitude, cannot stand upon what does not exist; second, it will if you stick it in."

"The people of Herculaneum and Pompeii died from an eruption," was the answer to a question concerning the deaths from the great eruption of Vesuvius in A. D. 79, and an eminently practical answer to a question as to where Magna Charta was signed was, "At the bottom."—London Standard.

Road Notice. To whom it may concern: The commissioner appointed to locate a road as follows: Commencing at the southeast corner of section 8, half of the southeast quarter of section 32, township 21, range 13, in Garfield county, and on the north line of section 5 in Valley county, township 20, range 13, and at the intersection of the Garfield and Valley county road, thence east on county line between Valley and Garfield counties to the northeast corner of section 3, township 20, range 13 in Valley county and thence east to southeast corner of section 34, Garfield county; and on the south line of sec. 34, in Garfield Co., Twp. 21, range 13, has reported in favor of the location of said road, and all objections and claims for damages must be filed in the county clerk's office on or before noon of the 23d day of July, 1908, or such road will be established without reference thereto.

Witness my hand and official seal this 16th day of May, 1908. (Seal) Rudolph Sorensen, county clerk.

Road Notice. To whom it may concern: The commissioner appointed to locate and vacate a road as follows: Commencing at about 13 rods south of the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 7, township 20, range 13, running thence in a northerly direction, leaving the east line of said northeast quarter, about 25 rods at the widest point, then coming back to the northeast corner of said northeast quarter, the east side of canyon until it returns and crosses the east line at a point about twenty rods south of the southeast corner of the northeast quarter of section 8, thence in a northerly direction to where it would strike the road now traveled. And we also ask to vacate that part of the old road which this takes place of. This piece of road is about a mile and a quarter in length; has reported in favor of the location and vacation of said roads, and all objections and claims for damages must be filed in the county clerk's office, on or before the 23d day of July, 1908, or such road will be established without reference thereto.

Witness my hand and official seal this 16th day of May, 1908. (Seal) Rudolph Sorensen, county clerk.

Burlington Route. Plan now for Your Trip to the Pacific Coast Round trip tickets on sale every day from June 1 to Sept. 30 Final limit October 31 To San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego $62.45 Going via Portland and returning direct or the reverse $77.45 Round trip to Portland, Seattle and Tacoma direct $62.45

Denver and return.....$15.70 Colorado Springs return...$18.20 Pueblo and return.....$19.05 Salt Lake, Ogden return...$31.75 TO CHICAGO AND EAST Republican convention excursion tickets at low rates in June; also summer excursions rates in connection with convention and summer tourist rates to eastern resorts.

HOMESEEKERS' RATES First and third Tuesdays to the west, including the famous Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley, where large tracts of rich irrigated lands are being opened for settlement by the government and by private companies. Write D. Clem Deaver, Burlington Land-seekers' Information Bureau, Omaha; except business openings in new growing towns. Write us a brief description of your proposed trip, and let us advise you how to make it the best way at the least cost.

J. W. MOORHOUSE, Ticket Agent. L. W. WAKELEY, G. P. A., Omaha.

COOPER MET USUAL SUCCESS IN PITTSBURG Received Thanks from Hundreds While in the Smoky City.

The following article, taken from the Pittsburg Press, describes the results of L. T. Cooper's visit to that city, and the effect of his new preparation as told by people who had become convinced of the soundness of Cooper's theories with regard to the human stomach.

Cooper believes that the human stomach in civilized races has become greatly weakened. He claims that most all health of the present generation is due to this fact. The article is as follows: "L. T. Cooper is meeting with the same astonishing success in Pittsburg as in other cities. For the past few days many thousands of Pittsburg people have called at his headquarters to talk with him."

"Cooper's prophecy, made upon his arrival, to the effect that before he left Pittsburg thousands would realize that his theory is correct and would come and thank him for what his medicine had done, is rapidly being borne out. On Monday an astonishing number of people called to express their gratitude to Mr. Cooper. Judging from what some of these people had to say to a Press reporter, when interviewed, Cooper's claim that the human stomach in civilized races is distinctly weakened, is distinctly verified. "One of the most unusual statements was made by Mr. C. W. Woods, of 103 South Highland Street. He said: 'For four years my wife was in very poor health. She was weak and thin, with a hectic flush and cough. Physicians said she had consumption, and I was inclined to believe them. It certainly looked as though her days were numbered, and there appeared to be very little ground for hope. "Shortly after Mr. Cooper came to Pittsburg I began to hear of wonderful results that had been obtained by persons who had tried his medicine, so I got some for my wife. She had taken it only two days when she was relieved of a tapeworm 42 feet long. She began to improve immediately—has gained seven pounds since she began taking the medicine. She feels splendid and looks very much better. If any one doubts this statement I would be pleased to have them call at my house and verify it."'

The Cooper remedies are becoming justly famous. We sell them —Jas. T. Johnson

You will make no mistake in buying your lumber of us. We have a complete stock of new lumber, which we are selling very cheap. If you need anything in our line, give us a call. —Screen Doors and Windows— We have them in all sizes at very low prices. Also a complete stock of Posts, Poles, Lime, Cement, Brick, Cement Blocks and Tanks.

Koupal & Barstow Lumber Company

ORD BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN. Dr. F. D. HALDEMAN, Physician & Surgeon, Residence Phone 48, Office Phone 128, ORD, NEBRASKA

C. C. SHEPARD, M. D. Office over post office, Phone 116, ORD, NEBRASKA

C. J. MILLER, M. D. Physician and Surgeon, Office and residence phone 41, Office in new Misko Block, Ord, Nebraska.

R. L. STAPLE, Lawyer and Bonded Abstractor, Real Estate, Insurance of all kinds, First National Bank Building, ORD, NEBRASKA

A. M. DANIELS, ...Undertaking... Licensed Embalmer, Residence Phone 74, Store Phone 82, ORD, NEB.

DR. GEO. W. TAYLOR, Dentist, Office over First National Bank, Office Phone 24, Residence Phone 274, ORD, NEBRASKA

Claude A. Davis, Attorney-at-law, Ord, Nebraska

Referee Sale. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order made and entered by the district court of Valley county, Nebraska in an action therein pending wherein Lars Sorensen is plaintiff and Thomas Sorensen, Neils Sorensen, Karen Bisgaard, Soren Bisgaard Petersen, Dorothy Sorensen, Annie Sorensen, and Laurite Sorensen are defendants, said order having been made and entered on the 24th day of April, 1908 and by virtue of the authority vested in me as referee, on Monday the 1st day of June, 1908, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. at the south front door of the court house in the city of Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, the following real estate, to-wit: the south half of the northwest quarter and lots numbered 6 and 7, all of section 5 in township 19, north of range 14 west of the 6 p. m. in Nebraska. Said sale will remain open one hour. H. Gudmundson, Referee. 3

Legal Notice. Iowa Mortgage Co., a corporation, defendant will take notice that on the 19th day of May, 1908, John Wall, plaintiff, herein, filed his petition in the district court of Valley county, Nebraska, against said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to secure the entry of a decree that the defendant is the owner and in possession of the east half of the southwest quarter and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 21, township 17 north, range 16 west of the 6 p. m. in Valley county, Nebraska; and also the owner of a certain mortgage executed and delivered by Issacher W. Jenkins and wife to the Iowa Mortgage Company on the 31st day of January, 1889 and recorded in book 14 at page 330 of Valley county mortgages; and that the estate created by said mortgage is merged in the title of the plaintiff to said premises, cancelling the record of a certain mortgage executed and delivered by Issacher W. Jenkins to the Ansley Banking Co., on said premises on the 31st day of January, 1890 and recorded in book 14 at page 302 of Valley county mortgages; that both of said mortgages are barred by the statute of limitations, removing the cloud created by the record of said mortgages from plaintiff's title to said premises and quieting and confirming the title of said premises in the plaintiff. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 29th day of June, 1908. Dated May 19, 1908. John Wall, Plaintiff.

Undertaker's Supply Co. FUNERAL DIRECTORS PRACTICAL METHODS OF EMBALMING HEARSE FURNISHED We carry the largest and most complete stock in the Loup Valley—prices right. Calls Answered Day or Night C. E. McGrew A. C. Johnson Phone 43. Phone 242.