Burwell Tribune.
Word comes from Lincoln to the effect that Mrs. Mike Saba is slowly recovering from her recent surgical operation. For a time it was feared that she would not stand the shock of the operation but at this time her physicians have every hope of ultimate recovery.

The community was shocked this Thursday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. W. S. Green. While it was known quite generally that her health during the past few weeks had not been good, few realized the seriousness of her condition. The cause of her death is stated to have been heart disease. At this time the writer has been unable to secure particulars other than that funeral services will be conducted tomorrow, Friday afternoon, at two o'clock of that town, and an action was brought against him under the village ordinance for not paying an occupation tax. The court of course found a verdict in favor of the village and assessed a fine of twenty-five dollars per day for the time that he had been doing business and as he had been running for a week the amount only totaled up to one hundred and fifty dollars. The case will of course be appealed and threshed out in district court.

Sargent Leader
It becomes the painful duty of the Leader to chronicle the death of Mrs. Ruth Zeller, wife of Ellis B. Zeller which occurred at 3:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 27, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Metcalf, in this city.

The community as shocked Friday to learn of the death of Mrs. Roy McMurtry. The death was sudden, she had been ill only a short time. Last week she was in the city shopping and appeared in apparent good health and the news of her death at first could not be believed. She leaves a small daughter and a husband, besides parents, brother and sisters to mourn her untimely death. She was thirty years of age, born and reared in this county. The funeral was arranged for today, the body being held until the arrival of her parents from Los Angeles, who had been communicated with and desired to be present. This quiet little city was thrown into a state of excitement Saturday when it became known that C. L. Swanson was charged with rape upon the fourteen year old daughter of J. H. Finley. Wednesday Swanson left, presumably for Omaha, and at St. Paul, upon the telegraphic request of the officers here, he was put under arrest. This morning Frank Shafer, deputized, left for St. Paul to bring him back. Owing to so many conflicting stories in circulation about this episode, and that denials have been made, the Leader refrains from publishing any statements until after the courts have had an opportunity to obtain evidence.

A sleigh ride party was given for the benefit of Frank Nay and his friends Monday night. Three sleighs were put into service for the occasion and a great time was had. After the sleigh ride the party were given an oyster supper at the James Nay home.
Mr. and Mrs. Porter Long returned to Nuckolls county this morning. They have been visiting their parents Mrs. Fringel and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potter.
J. C. Ayer has leased the vacant room in the Quiz building and has put in a stock of pianos, which he is offering for sale.

Are Your Hens Laying?

LACK of eggs means lack of something in the feed. Great Western Poultry Tonic furnishes the necessary elements in just the right proportions which are required for producing health, growth and eggs—iron for the blood, nitrates for throwing off the poisons, calcium for forming shell, and deodorized blood, the most highly concentrated form of meat food. Just the very thing your hens are not getting if they don't lay. We guarantee it contains not one particle of cheap filler of any kind. All we ask is for you to do your part. Feed them right, house them right, take reasonable care of them and add Great Western Poultry Tonic to their daily feed. Then if you don't get more eggs come back to us and we will refund your money.

There is no disputing the fact that business is not up to the standard of the last fifteen years by a long way, and the industrial interests are stagnant compared with their unusual activities of the last decade. What is the cause? Answer the question as you will, but this is historically true: Just such a condition of affairs as we now have always accompanies a step toward democratic control of national affairs.

When the name of Theodore Roosevelt was placed on the presidential choice in Nebraska there was much scoffing by the followers of La Follette and the claim was made that it was done for an aide to Taft. But the proposition to name Roosevelt for president is being taken very seriously in Nebraska, and the move is not stopping here.

The actual cost of the small plants, to be put in on the vegas is to be repaid in nine annual payments beginning the second year after the installation of the plants--by the "vegass", or tobacco planters.

President Gomez and Secretary Emilio del Junco, of the Agricultural Department, are working with interest to give the tobacco growers the benefits of irrigation. As soon as it is possible it is planned to extend the service to other sections of the island so that all the agricultural districts will be materially assisted.

With all the couplings and goings of the owners of the St. Paul papers the old row is going on just the same.

M. L. Fries has filed for the position of Lieutenant-Governor on the republican ticket. We are sincerely hoping that Mr. Fries gets the nomination. He would be a first-class man at the head of the senate and one to be wholly relied upon.

M. P. Kinkaid has filed for renomination as congressman from the Big Sixth, and there seems to be no possibility of his falling in the quest. Indeed there ought to be no opposition to his nomination. He is the only congressman we have ever had who was worth his salt, and Kinkaid is congressman enough to make up for a lot of worthless predecessors. He is always on to his job, always alive to the interests of his constituency, always ready to answer any inquiry from the humblest person in his district and does a thousand things for them that are not included in the list of duties of congressmen. The fellow who essays to defeat Kinkaid has always had a hard time of it, but he will have a harder time this year than ever.

A young profligate in Wilkes-barre, Penn., was nominated for county treasurer by the modern system of the direct primary. He had himself put on the primary ticket as any incompetent may do for a small fee, and so many people voted for him as a joke and so many stayed away from the polls as they always do at primary elections that he was nominated. The central committee knew that the man could not be elected so they had to hire him to withdraw, and he demanded and received $2,500 for doing so. He then hired a special train and went to New York to blow the money. And this is just what our modern system of making nominations is doing all the time in a greater or lesser degree. Under the old system such a man could not possibly get on the ticket. And there is no remedying this system, for you cannot make men go to the polls unless they want to. The old political system was faulty enough, but it was better than the present system and furthermore could be made to be an ideal system. For instance, suppose we went back to the old system, required the primaries to be held on a certain day, at which elections township or precinct officers would be nominated and delegates to the county or municipal conventions elected and entrusted to the county conventions the right to elect delegates to the other convention. This would safeguard the nominations and result in as perfect a set of candidates as could be had.

GOOD ON FRIES

Ex-Senator M. L. Fries of Arcadia was a caller at the Taft headquarters Thursday, says the Lincoln Journal. He and Secretary Currie are old members of the upper house of the Nebraska legislature, both having represented the same district at different times. Both of the men are pioneers in the Loup valley and have known each other for years past. If there is anything that provokes fun for Secretary Currie it is to accomplish the feat of getting a good joke on the Arcadia man.

Discussing old times yesterday ex-Senator Currie told the following on ex-Senator Fries: More than twenty-five years ago, Mr. Fries was "chief justice" in his town. During the period when he was the occupant of the "illage judicial" office a tin-horn gambler gave him no end of trouble. He was constantly being hauled before Justice Fries either on the charge of gambling or having visited the carefully concealed fount of Bacchus too frequently for his own and his neighbor's good.

"About the eighth or ninth time that he was brought before Justice Fries," declared Secretary Currie, "he was fined two dollars and costs—principally because he was guilty both of gambling and of fracturing the village ordinance on the subject of intoxication. The prisoner received the fine with a smile, and after allowing several minutes for it to filter through his befogged mind, arose and placing his hands upon the back of the chair in which he had been seated, asked the 'court' if he might say a few words.

"First let me say something," broke in the judge. "Now I have made this fine light because of your promise never to indulge in gambling again. Now that stands, if you will re-announce your determination to forever quit this habit."

"He of the liking for the games and drink staided himself on the chair, and then said:

"Well, judge, you see, itsh thish way, the fine's all right—no kicksh at all on that—nothing to stay as to that. Not a word, your honor. But I haven't a shent of money judge. I wish 'sh had but I haven't, honest judge."

"Then a bright thought struck the man and with some spirit he said, 'But judge, letsh me have the $2 and the price of the costsh—and I'll pay you back in lessh than twenty-four hour. I can go outsh and win it all back dead eashy, judge."

Henry Bredthauer came up with Noral Lamberton from Scotia last evening, the attraction being a leap year dance at the Bohemian hall.

Jack Burrows came up from North Loup Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Kruml of Elyria died yesterday morning. Particulars next week.

Charlie Rich and Ira Manchester were up from North Loup the first of the week.

Mrs. Charlie Wampole gave birth this morning to the eighth son, with no daughters in the family to break the monotony.

Arthur E. Smith and Miss Anna Dishaw were joined in marriage at the county judge's office yesterday, in spite of the snow.

A big Leap Year dance was given at the Bohemian Hall last night by Mesdames Orin Mutter and William Timm. The affair was a great success and largely attended.

Primitive Reasoning.
"Did you sell your vote?"
"No, siree. I voted for that feller cause I liked him."

"But I understand he gave you $10."
"Well, when a man gives you $10 'tain't no more'n natural to like him, is it?"

Rev. Raymond Rush tells us that his meeting at Vinton are still continuing in interest. The attendance has been very good considering the very inclement weather. Much credit is due to Miss Corson for the help she is to the meetings with her slugging and good work. The meetings will close Sunday night.

Next Tuesday night there will be a big banquet at the auditorium in Lincoln to arouse interest in the Wesleyan University. All the ministers of the state are specially invited and likewise it is hoped that each charge will send one or more lay delegates to the meeting. The Wesleyan is doing great work and the management feels that it is not being brought quite as near to the thought of the ministry and membership of the church as it deserves.

In the Quiz this week you will find a very interesting article by a Custer county farmer telling of his experience with underground silos, such as the Quiz has been advocating for some time. Read the article, farmers, and get busy with a silo. The silo, in the opinion of the Quiz is the salvation of this country. The wonder is that farmers are so slow in taking up the silo idea. Probably they are hesitating on account of the first cost and subsequent maintenance cost of keeping up a wood silo. But with a silo of the cistern order all this is obviated. The initial cost is less than for a wood silo and after that for time without measure the silo is kept without cost of maintenance. We wish that more of our farmers would try this sort of a silo.

BRANCH HOUSE AT SCOTIA

The store rooms at Scotia, Nebr. formerly occupied by Bredthauer and Willinger, have been leased by Bailey and Detweller who will put in a branch house at that point. James W. Travis—"the good-natured Irishman," will be in charge and conduct the business on the lines so well established by this firm. The goods will all be bright and new, of the best known brands and most reliable manufactures, giving a customer the advantage of a double guarantee. Two carloads of machinery have already been ordered and are expected in soon. Bailey and Detweller thank their customers for the support they have received in the past, and further solicit your patronage. They will be in a better position than ever before to supply the demands of their trade and will guarantee satisfaction.

Rudolph Sorensen has become part of the Bailey and Detweller firm and will hereafter be found there. It is a conceded fact that when all others fail to make a sick gasoline engine behave, he seems to be able to administer the proper antidote to make it "sit up and listen"; we do not know of where he has ever failed. Anything in this line is solicited, and you may rest assured it will be taken care of properly.

Harry Bolin, formerly of the Vopat Seed House, also the Dierks Lumber Co. has accepted the position of Book keeper with Bailey and Detweller.

A. S. Moon of Taylor has filed for the republican nomination for representative from the 23d district.

Now a bunch of railroad officials in Illinois were caught in their own wreck and killed. What is that about retributive justice?

Unafraid because of the disastrous results of many similar attempts, there are people over near Sargent who are going into the co-operative creamery business.

At a special election held in Nebraska City last week the proposition to pass to the commission form of city government was carried by a pretty good majority. Now we shall see.

A year ago Lincoln was using water solely for a beverage. Last spring the voters decided, by the help of a lot of colonized Greeks, to add all the conceivable forms of rotgut to the list of beverages as so much per. But some folks still insisted on drinking water and so the city authorities have commenced to mix hypochlorite with all the water furnished by the city. Now, what is the poor temperance man to do? He must drink something.

The Burwell Tribune is worrying over the condition of the river bridges and trying to wake that community up as to the necessity of preparing for an ice gorge now before the gorge comes. What would a community do if it were not for the newspapers to keep prodding folks into doing things?

Once in a while the city authorities of Burwell get above sordid things and take a look at something higher than the saloon, gambling and other interests of that city. The city council passed an ordinance a few days ago permitting the public to donate a library to the city if the generous ones want to. Now, that is a pretty good move for Burwell.

If anything will make peace in Cuba it is the threat of the United States to step in and take control. All the warring factions in the island are opposed to this government intervention, and at the first sight of our guns they would become a common cause against us. So the threat will probably do its work and make the factions get together before we have to send our soldiers over there.

If the government wants to suppress the fake publications that are published for the purpose of running advertisements it could do so effectually by refusing admission to the mails of all papers carrying medical advertisements. This one prohibition would put most of the fake publications out of business, and there is good reason for the government doing so, for most medicines advertised for sale directly to the public are harmful. No doubt about it that dope fiends now suffering from dope habits got their start downward by the use of these quack medicines.

Until the government of the United States succeeds in being able to govern it better not go into the government ownership business. It will never be able to govern till our courts are deprived of a great deal of usurped authority and our modes of legal procedure radically changed. And when government ownership is commenced it ought to be of natural resources, such as the mines, forests and water power. These ought never to have been taken from the government's control. But to turn the railroads and telegraphs over to the government would be the height of folly.

The demand for the nomination of Roosevelt for president is increasing, and from every part of the country prominent republicans are coming out for him as the only salusation of the political situation. Roosevelt is of course cognizant of this movement and as he is keeping quiet it is a clear indication to most politicians that he will serve if called upon to do so. He will not seek the nomination, and will not oppose the nomination of Taft, but we are sure that, if the public demand it, he will respond and stand for the election. This of course will mean his election. Nebraska led the way in placing his name on file and now it is for the voters to come to the front and make the call effective. Mr. Yeiser of Omaha, who is responsible for Roosevelt's name being filed has something to say on the subject in another column of the Quiz this week. Read his article and send in your vote at once.

One of the beauties of our present fool system of direct primary is the fact that you may put another man's name on the ballot, even for so high an office as president of the United States without his knowledge or consent. And you may have your own name put on the ballot, in spite of all that the public may do, and compel every county in the state to carry your name on all the ballots. Not only that, you may file for president of the United States on every ticket that comes up and the printers will be compelled to put 'er there. One man, an attaché of a livery barn in Kearney, is doing just this last stunt. He is a populist, of course, and says with good logic that he can swear that he affiliates with each and every one of the other parties just as truthfully as a democrat can swear that he affiliates with the populists, which all of them do, the perjurers. And there you are, you fellows who favor this direct primary law.

MRS. BEAUCHAMP DIES SUDDENLY

A tragic death occurred Sunday forenoon at Dunning, when Mrs. Elsie Beauchamp, a beautiful young matron of that place, dropped from a piano stool, upon which she had been seated, and expired. It is stated, in convulsions.

The deceased was the wife of R. B. Beauchamp, of Dunning, and a daughter of Sep Hanna, who was formerly a well known farmer of Custer county. She was 27 years of age and had been married about nine years.

It appears that Mrs. Beauchamp was staying for an indefinite period at the home of her brother-in-law, Grant Turnbull, and on Saturday night preceding the tragic occurrence attended a dance and had apparently been in the best of health.

Upon arising Sunday morning, she went about as usual and gave no intimation that she was indisposed. Between 11 and 12 o'clock in the forenoon, Mrs. Beauchamp went to the piano and seated herself. She was idly passing her hands over the keys, when she suddenly swayed and dropped to the floor in convulsions, it is said. In four minutes, in spite of all efforts to resuscitate her, life was extinct.—Custer County Chief.

Happy Microbe.
The microbe is tenacious of life, for Migula found the bacillus leposporus placed on a sheet of glass lived for five years. Germs of potato disease sealed in a tube were living after a period of eight years. In 1879 Ball, of Prague, after a lapse of eighteen years, infected a mouse fatally with some bacilli. Nestler investigated a clod of earth stored in a herbarium for over half a century, and found 32,000 living spores in the gramma. Some earth wrapped in paper since 1824, and protected from atmospheric germs, showed on examination 13,000 bacteria to the gramma. Eighty-seven years is a ripe age even for a microbe.

The Nicest Tooth Paste We Ever Saw

NYDENTA CREAM is the most delightful and effective tooth cleanser and preservative you can possibly use.

Nydenta enters the crypts and crevices of the teeth—even where the bristles of the brush fail to go—and prevents fermentation and inhibits the growth of disease germs upon the mucous membranes of the mouth.

Nydenta cream is a peppermint and preservative. It supplies the cleansing elements necessary to tooth preservation, elements that are found in the normal secretions of every mouth but always absent in the presence of decay.

It hardens the gums, protects, whitens and polishes the enamel of the teeth and sweetens and perfumes the breath.

There is absolutely no waste to Nydenta—it is clean and economical.
