

BROWN-EKBERG STORE TO OPEN HERE SATURDAY

Modern Dry Goods, Clothing Concern To Occupy New Goodhand Building.

Nebraska Company

Holdrege Is Headquarters And Company Has 16 Stores; Goddard Manager.

In the new Goodhand building on the south side of the square Ord's newest and finest dry goods and clothing store will be opened for business Saturday. The store is operated by the Brown-Ekberg company, a Nebraska concern which has its headquarters in Holdrege, Nebr., where the parent store is located. The Brown-Ekberg people operate sixteen stores, all but one of which are located in Nebraska. John Goddard will be manager of the Ord store.

"We selected Ord as the location of one of our stores because it is a live, progressive and prosperous territory, and because we saw here opportunities for future growth and development not offered by other places under consideration," is a statement made to the Quiz yesterday by Mr. Goddard. He not only will manage the store locally but also owns a two-thirds interest in it.

Two Nebraska farmer boys, E. E. Brown and H. W. Ekberg, are founders of the Brown-Ekberg company. Both were born on Phelps county farms and both entered the mercantile business in Holdrege before they attained their majority. The present company is a tribute to the honesty and sound business judgment of the founders, Messrs. Brown and Ekberg.

To some people the growth of this company may seem phenomenal for it was only in 1915 that the founders opened their first store in Holdrege. In 1918 they went into Minden, in 1921 into Central city, opened a store in Gothenburg in 1924, in Julesburg, Colo., in 1925 and in Madison, Nebr., in 1927. In the same year they opened a store at Wayne and in 1928 opened stores at Cozad and Wisner. In 1929 stores were opened in McCook, Superior and Lexington. Central city, opened a store in Gothenburg since January 1, 1930 new stores have been opened at Kearney and Hastings. The Ord store is the sixteenth and only one of the sixteen, the store at Julesburg, Colo., is outside of Nebraska.

The Ord manager, Mr. Goddard also is a product of the farm. He was born and reared on a farm in western Kansas. Later his father purchased a store and elevator in a small western Kansas town and Mr. Goddard learned the mercantile business in his father's store. He served overseas during the war and after the armistice was signed

Local Democrats Choose Delegates

A convention of Valley county Democrats was held last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock in the supervisors room at the county court house, a fair attendance being present. County Chairman Ralph W. Norman presided and Ign. Klima, Jr., was secretary-treasurer. Irl Tolan, George Mayo and Ralph Norman were chosen as delegates to the state convention which meets Sept. 4.

Boys Golf Tourney To Be Held Friday

The annual golf tournament for Ord boys will be held tomorrow, Bud Shirley tells the Quiz this morning. All boys from 10 to 15 years old living in Ord are eligible to compete. An attractive list of prizes is offered. Qualifying rounds will be played in the morning, starting at 9 o'clock with final rounds scheduled for the afternoon. Fathers of many of the boys entered will be present to cheer them on, Bud Shirley says. He is hoping for a large entry list.

Indian Team Is Coming

A baseball game that should prove of interest to fans over a large territory has been scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 21, when the Pine Ridge Agency Indians play the Ord Mustangs at Bussell park. It will be the final game of the season in Ord.

Revolinski Given Store At Sargent

Mike Revolinski, for several years assistant manager of the J. C. Penney Company store here, has been made manager of the company's store at Sargent and went to that town last Friday. He takes the place of the former manager, a Mr. McCartney, who resigned to open a store of his own in Kansas. Pete Tolsen, of St. Louis will take the place of Mr. Revolinski in the Ord store.

W. H. Carson No Better
W. H. Carson, who has been in poor health for several months, has been almost bedfast for the past three weeks and there seems to be little improvement in his condition. Will's many friends hope that he will soon be able to be about again.

JOHNSON CAFE GUTTED BY FIRE THURSDAY EVE

Gasoline Stove Explodes, Loss Estimated at $3,000; Smoke Damage Is Greatest.

Fire caused by an exploding gasoline stove last Thursday evening gutted the Johnson Bros. restaurant and confectionery on the south side of the square causing damage to fixtures and stock estimated at $3,000 and doing at least an additional $1,000 worth of damage to the building and to offices upstairs. Damage from smoke was greatest, though flames consumed most of the kitchen room and damaged walls and fixtures.

The fire whistle was blown at about 6:30 o'clock last Thursday evening, while supper was being prepared at the restaurant. Firemen arrived on the scene promptly and soon started throwing water and chemicals on the blaze. They had the flames under control within a few minutes but smoke continued to gush from the windows for two or three hours.

Wood partitions that separated the kitchen from the main room were burned away. Fixtures were badly damaged by flames, smoke and water. Nearly all of the kitchen equipment was ruined. The soda fountain and showcases in the front of the building were not burned but everything was damaged by smoke and water.

A heavy loss from smoke also is reported upstairs, in office rooms occupied by Dr. C. C. Sheppard and the Ord Studio. E. L. Johnson, Jr., who with his brother, Glen Johnson conducted the restaurant estimated Friday morning that the damage would total nearly $3,000, which was covered by insurance. W. W. Haskell, Lincoln owns the building.

Miss Misko's Leg Broken
Miss Mabel Misko, kindergarten teacher in the Ord schools, sustained a broken leg Monday evening when she slipped and fell down the stairs during a party at the James Milford home. The small bone between knee and ankle in her right leg were broken. Dr. C. J. Miller was called and Miss Misko was taken to the Ord hospital, where the fracture was reduced. She will be unable to teach for several weeks.

Work Goes Forward On Highway No. 11

Work is going forward on the highway between Scotia and St. Paul, reports Roy Collison, president of the Ord Chamber of Commerce who with H. B. VanDecar made a trip of inspection over the road Sunday. A huge gang of many workmen are on the job between Scotia and Cotesfield and fifty mule teams went to work moving dirt on the Cotesfield-Elba project Monday. Prospects are good that all grading and possibly some graveling will be completed this fall, Collison says.

Whiting Garage Moved
Whiting Bros. moved their auto repair shop this week from the Ed Milligan garage to the brick building next to the Kosmata implement shop. The building is owned by Frank Stara.

Detweiler Building Rented
Workmen started Monday making repairs and remodeling the former Bailey and Detweiler building. Rumor says it has been leased to a Hastings man, who will conduct a furniture and undertaking business there.

Blessing Chairman Of County Republicans

At the county republican convention held in the district court room last Thursday morning, Alvin Blessing was re-elected chairman of the county central committee for the coming two years. E. C. James was elected secretary-treasurer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hardenbrook are in Lincoln spending the week at the state fair.

POPCORN DAYS FORM COUNTY'S NEXT FEATURE

North Loup Will Entertain On Sept. 9-10; Queen Will Be Crowned Tuesday Eve.

North Loup, Sept. 1—(Special)—Everything being done or said or even thought of these days down here at North Loup is seemingly with an eye single for the approaching annual Pop Corn Days celebration to be held on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 9 and 10, for these are the days always long looked forward to in this part of Valley county at least. Everybody in the world is invited, and plans are being laid for an elaborate festival which promises to exceed anything attempted in any year since 1902, when this unique idea first originated. Pres. H. C. Sample with his committee, as well as heads of all the various departments are working with a will to get everything in readiness, and they are expecting unanimous cooperation on the part of everybody including the weather man. Every man, woman and child will be given all the pop corn they are able to eat.

As has always been the case, the entertainment will all be home talent. North Loup is fortunate in having quite a lot of ability in that line right here at home. C. J. Goodrich is chairman of the entertainment committee, and with his helpers has arranged for a special program on both Tuesday and Wednesday evening to be presented on the open platform just south of the community building. The annual ceremony of the crowning of the Pop Corn Queen will take

School Dist. No. 4 Has New Building

The newest and one of the most modern rural school buildings in Valley county will be dedicated September 12 when Charles W. Taylor, state superintendent of schools, comes to District 4, near Arcadia, to deliver the address at dedicatory ceremonies held in connection with the opening of their new building, which has been completed during the summer. The school officers have prepared an excellent program and invite the public to help them in their house warming. District 4 formerly had one of the oldest buildings in the county and people of that district are justly proud of their new structure.

Nearly all of the rural schools in Valley county opened this Monday, according to Miss McClatchey, county superintendent, but a few had not completed their painting and repair work and will not open until next Monday. This is the case with District 4's new building, where the opening was delayed to dry paint and varnish ample time to dry.

—Mrs. Gould Flagg and children and Miss Dola Flynn returned home Monday from a visit in Stratton with a sister of Mrs. Flagg's, Mrs. Brown and family.

Miss Alice Mouer Weds At Shelton

Miss Alice Mouer, youngest daughter of Rev. J. R. Mouer, of Shelton, and Alvin Roberts son of Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Roberts of Hastings were married last Thursday evening in the U. B. parsonage at Shelton by the bride's father. After a short eastern trip they will make their home in Lincoln.

Miss Mouer is a graduate of Hastings high school and also attended college there for one year, after which she attended York college for a year. She has taught for three years in the rural schools of Valley county and last year was principal in District 45. Mr. Roberts is a graduate of Kearney high school and has had three years in the state university, where both he and his wife will continue their studies this year.

The bride is a sister of J. E. Mouer of Ord. She left this city for Shelton a couple of days before her wedding.

Opal Shirley Wed.
A marriage of which the Quiz has just learned occurred at Kimball on August 12, when Miss Opal Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Shirley of Ord, was wed to Bud Bebe of a son of Mrs. Lou Stine of North Loup. Mr. and Mrs. Bebe have since kept house at Kimball, where the groom has been running a combine. The Quiz extends congratulations.

Attending Rotary Convention.
The Quiz editor received a card last Friday from C. M. Davis and wife, who are attending the national Rotary convention in Tacoma, Wash. They left that City Wednesday for Seattle, where they visited Mount Rainier after which they intended to start the homeward journey. They probably will reach Ord by the time this is in print.

Charlotte Moorman Back From Lincoln

Charlotte Moorman who was Valley county representative at the state spelling contest held in connection with the state fair, returned home Monday evening. James Milliken, the other pupil entitled to enter the state meet, was unable to attend. Charlotte competed against the best spellers from about forty other Nebraska towns and although she did not succeed in placing Miss Lukes her teacher who accompanied her, was well pleased with her work. In the written contest Charlotte missed four words out of one hundred pronounced to her and three of the four were words not in the contest list Charlotte had prepared. In the oral contest the word which puzzled her was "imagery". A boy from Surprise was the first boy in the state to carry off a prize in a state contest, placing first in the written contest. A girl from Havelock won first in the oral contest. This is the second time Valley county has been represented at the state contest. The contestants are chosen some time during the year at a county meet and the winners in the county are eligible to compete at Lincoln. The date of the county meet will be announced some time later.

There will be a republican caucus held in Elyria Thursday evening, September 4th, at 8 o'clock for the purpose of nominating a republican township ticket and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting, 24-11

OMAHA PAPERS SHOW JEALOUSY OF ORD RACES

World-Herald Refers to Track Here As 'Bull Ring'; Ak Races Fail to Pull.

Apparently jealous of the Valley county auto races because they are faster and attract better drivers than races held on the Ak-Sar-Ben track in Omaha, newspapers there, particularly the Omaha World-Herald, have several times in recent weeks spoken stalling of the Ord races. An article in the World Herald last Thursday referred to the Ord track as a "bull ring". An account of the new state record established here last week by Johnny Gerber said simply that he "made what may be some kind of a new record." Other belittling statements have been made by the Omaha press.

Much of this rancor is traceable to D. C. Olney, who was employed this year by Ak-Sar-Ben officials to conduct a series of race meets there. The "hippodrome stuff" arranged by Mr. Olney failed to attract either drivers or public. Most of the former declined to drive against the racing team on the Olney payroll while the public failed to fall for the Olney balldance.

Not satisfied with a campaign of calumny through the newspapers, Olney also persuaded at least one race driver to stay away from last week's Ord meet. Jack Petticoat, Chicago, entered here but enroute to Ord he stopped in Omaha and was "got to" by Mr. Olney. Omaha newspapers the next day carried stories about Petticoat being imported from the east at great expense to give Champ Bagley some competition while the fact is that he was enroute to Ord when he was "got to" by Mr. Olney. Inducements, got him to stay in Omaha.

The Bagley car has been the whole show at Ak-Sar-Ben races and his failure to win against the strong competition here last week evidently proved a sore spot both to Ak officials and to the Omaha newspapers.

Valley county fair officers have the highest regard for Ak-Sar-Ben and its secretary, Charley Gardner, but do not think that organization should attempt to build up its own races by attempting to tear down a rival show. They also have the highest regard for John Bagley, who has been a popular driver at the local fair.

Probably the greatest field of nationally known auto racers ever assembled in Nebraska or the central west competed here last week and it is an unanswerable fact that Valley county has the fastest auto races in the state. The fact that the meet is one of the few in Nebraska that is strictly competitive makes its prestige all the greater.

Boyce Wrote Twenty Bad Checks, Is Fined

Hubert Boyce, 20 years old, plead guilty in county court Monday to writing twenty no-fund checks during the last two or three weeks and he was fined $6 and costs, which he was unable to pay. The checks were given to different business firms in Ord and aggregated $56, all of them being for small amounts. Young Boyce has been in similar trouble before.

Timmerman Car Wrecked
Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Timmerman and little Jimmie Kirkendall had a narrow escape from death about midnight Sunday when their car was wrecked on the Hi Rogers corner on the highway southeast of Ord. Mr. Timmerman was driving quite rapidly and failed to turn the corner. All of the car's occupants were scratched and bruised and the car was almost a total wreck.

HASTINGS MAN WILL OPEN NEW STORE IN ORD

H. T. Frazier Leases Detweiler Building For Furniture And Undertaking Business.

Harlan T. Frazier, of Hastings, is the latest addition to Ord business circles. Mr. Frazier has leased the former Bailey and Detweiler building and is having it remodeled and within a short time will open a modern furniture store, with a funeral chapel and undertaking establishments in connection. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier, the son Leroy and two daughters have already moved to Ord and will occupy the Huff house south of the grade school building.

Until recently Mr. Frazier was a member of the largest undertaking firm in Hastings but sold his stock in the corporation and is going into business for himself, largely because of his son, who will be associated with him in the business here. He is a member of the Hastings Lions club and has been active in business circles there.

The Detweiler building is being changed a great deal and a modern chapel will occupy the east room. The large west room will be used to display new furniture, with one of the rear rooms and the basement given over to used furniture. His furniture stock will begin to arrive early next week, Mr. Frazier says, and he will open this portion of his establishment at once. Workmen will remove and re-decorate the chapel room at once and Mr. Frazier is planning a formal opening day early in October.

Miss Rose Zulkoski Weds Norfolk Man

Monday morning at 9 o'clock a most beautiful wedding took place at the Elyria Catholic church when Rose Zulkoski, daughter of Mrs. Frank Zulkoski and Frank Lacombe, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lacombe of Omaha, were united in matrimony. Father Quilligan of Burwell performed the ceremony. Helen Zulkoski, cousin of the bride was bridesmaid and Ervin Lacombe, brother of the groom was best man. The bride looked charming in a dress of white satin, trimmed with veil and wreath of bride's flowers, carrying a large bouquet of white roses. Her bridesmaid wore a dress of yellow georgette and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Many relatives and close friends were entertained at the bride's home at a bounteous wedding dinner and supper. In the evening a dance was given at the Elyria hall which was well attended. The Puncochar orchestra furnished the music.

The bride was born and reared at Elyria and is a graduate of the Ord high school. For several years she has been an efficient clerk in the E. A. Holub store. The groom, although not so well known here, is a very pleasing young man to meet and has made many friends during his visit here. Their many friends wish them much happiness and prosperity.

The young couple left Tuesday for a few days trip through Wyoming, Colorado and the Black Hills. They will make their home at Norfolk where the groom has a position as manager of the Storz Supply Co.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bandura and family of Carroll, Minn.; Valeria Flakus of Watertown, S. D.; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Veeder and son of Oshkosh, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Krzycki of Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. John Lacombe and family, Mrs. Walter Kosowski and Mr. and Mrs. James Daley, all of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Ign. Wajda and family of Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brzenski of Silver Creek and Peter Zulkoski and children of Sargent.

—Saturday Mrs. Chris Rasmusen submitted to a major operation in Hillcrest.

ORD SCHOOLS READY TO OPEN MONDAY MORN

Faculty Has Few New Faces As Most Teachers Return; Seven Courses Offered.

With nearly all teachers in Ord and the rest of them arriving today in readiness for the first faculty meeting tomorrow, the Ord schools are preparing to open Monday morning. Only a few new faces will be seen, as most of last year's faculty will return. The teaching corps will be headed by a new man, Millard D. Bell, superintendent. Other new teachers include Miss Mae Baird, in the home economics department, Miss Elsie Fredericksen, commercial department, Miss Edna Hnizda in the junior high, and Miss Alva Bernice, in the third grade.

The work of the teachers should be greatly facilitated this year by the remodeling, repair work and cleaning of the entire school plant during the summer. The corps of janitors, assisted by special workmen, have everything spic and span around buildings and grounds. At the south school a new floor was laid in the gymnasium, the basement was painted, toilets were repaired, the front lawn was seeded and the entire building was given a thorough scrubbing. All floors were waxed and minor repairs were made at the new north building.

Seven courses will be offered in the high school this year, as in the past. These include college preparatory, normal training, home economics, vocational agriculture, manual training, commercial, and a general course. Most of these courses may be combined, if so desired. Music, public speaking and athletics also give opportunity for development in these special fields.

The high school schedule for this year is changed somewhat, the chief change being in the length of the noon recess. The new schedule follows: Doors open 8:30 a. m., school begins promptly at 8:50; noon recess from 11:55 to 1:10; afternoon dismissal at 4 o'clock. The grade school schedule will be the same as last year in the main. The doors open at 8:30, school begins at 9:00. Dismissal the same as last year both morning and afternoon. At noon doors open at 1:00 and school will be called at 1:10.

The complete faculty for this year follows:
High School,
Wilbur D. Cass, principal and science.
Elva, Bloodgood, music.
Wilma Blanchard, history, civics, English.
Mae Baird, home economics.
Lucene Hardin, dean of girls, home economics.
Lillian Jeary, mathematics.
Elva Johnson, language, English.
Jesse A. Kovanda, agriculture.
Joe Krejci, shop, athletics.
Adele Nelson, English.
Barton Redfern, science, mathematics.
Elizabeth Shaver, normal training.
Elsie Fredericksen, commercial.
Junior High School,
Elizabeth Easley, principal, literature, geography, health, penmanship.
Elizabeth Lukes, mathematics, spelling.
Edna Hnizda, language, history, civics.

Grades—South School,
Mrs. Marguerite Stark, principal, departmental 5 and 6.
Lucille Witter, Departmental 5 and 6.
Lois Finley, ungraded room.
Lucy Rowbal, 4th grade.
Alva Bernice, 3rd grade.
Inez Swain, 2nd grade.
Adele Kosmata, 2nd grade.
Daisy Hallen, 1st grade.
Helen Colliprest, 1st grade.
Mabel Misko, kindergarten.

Mrs. Asimus Has Operation.
Mrs. Carl Asimus was brought to the hospital about 2:30 a. m. Sunday and Dr. C. J. Miller performed an operation immediately for appendicitis. Her appendix was ruptured but she is reported to be recovering nicely.

Clarence Pierson Breaks Leg.
While trimming trees on the telephone line near Mott Rathbun's place in Springdale last Friday, Clarence Pierson sustained a broken leg when a branch fell on him. He was brought to the Ord hospital and his leg was set. He may be in the hospital four or five weeks.

Furtak Fined $100 On Liquor Charge

Ed Furtak was arraigned before County Judge Hollingshead Monday and formally charged with possession of intoxicating liquor, to which he plead guilty, and he was fined $100 and costs. The charge grew out of Charley Brown's conviction of being intoxicated on June 22. Brown had alleged that Furtak procured the liquor for him.

Chautauqua Closes.
The Arcadia chautauqua closed last Thursday with a program of readings and songs by Kathryn Kelchner assisted by Mr. Hanah in the afternoon and the play, "The Mollusc" given in the evening. The crowd was not as large as usual this year on account of the date conflicting with the county fair. Those who signed the chautauqua contract last summer for this year's entertainment were forced to pay a large deficit and as a result it has been impossible to secure enough signers to guarantee the return of the chautauqua next year.

Arcadia School Opened Monday.
The Arcadia school opened Monday with a good attendance in all the grades and the high school. The total enrollment figured about 255 which is but a slight increase over the number of pupils enrolled last year. Several of the students are attending the state fair this year which will add to the enrollment upon their return.

GOOD MEAT PLUS ECONOMY

Every housewife wants to serve the best meat possible to her family but she also wants to economize. Usually she must sacrifice part of one to gain the other—but not at our market. Here quality and economy go hand in hand. Our constant endeavor is to butcher meats of the highest quality and offer them for sale at prices lower than many markets get for much poorer meats. We invite you to make a trial purchase here and are sure you'll continue buying your meat from us.

"A Friend," when signed that way to a communication for the paper, does not mean a thing and such communications will not be used unless the name of the friend is known to us. The article can be printed with the signature "a friend" and the name of the writer will not be used if that is desired but we must know who does the writing. Anyone could send a story and sign it a friend and it might be the work of an enemy. Just come out in the open and tell us who you are when you write for publication or you are sure wasting your time.

The daily papers carried big stories about a colored boy trying to film film Chicago society women out of a couple of thousand dollars and how quickly the police caught him. Of course they would catch a defenseless colored boy who was attempting to be a petty grafter. The Chicago grafter who got away with millions however, are not caught. They get killed in feud wars among themselves sometimes and then the authorities look up their strong boxes and uncover their grafting. It is a great game on both sides and just the little fellows suffer. It is a good deal that way a lot of times, it seems as if the smallest offender gets the heaviest punishment.

Just why should I have good times in this part of Nebraska Sunday I drove west from Ord to Sargent, then down to Taylor, Burwell and home and all the way the corn is simply immense. Everywhere the pastures are green and stacks of straw or grain bear testimony of a good small grain crop. There is a splendid crop of hay everywhere in this section. Small grain in the Ord territory has turned out well. The fact seems to be, taking it all around, that we have the best crops we have had for some years. Stock prices are improving and the word comes that there is plenty of money for the cattle feeders at as good or better terms than have prevailed for a number of years. In this section there is a big crop of popcorn and a lot of last year's crop still in the hands of the grower. From the best information I can get it will be advisable for the farmer to hang onto his popcorn for a while and he is likely to get a very good crop. I am told that a Burwell man has a million pounds on hand and he expects to get 5 cents for it. A well known farmer told me Saturday that while he hadn't had a good crop for three years, he expected to make enough this year to allow him to pay all his debts and get back on to his feet again. It begins to look as though we wouldn't any of us have anything to complain about in another six months.

Last June when I went to the lake I made arrangements with a fellow to keep the weeds out of my garden. He got busy and was unable to attend to it and when I came home a few weeks later the garden that was left clean as could be, was a mass of tall weeds. I pulled a few around the tomato plants but was so discouraged that I gave it up as a bad job and didn't go near it for some time. In spite of the weeds, however we have been harvesting the finest tomato crop we ever had. In fact the cucumbers are about the only thing that didn't seem to flourish in the weeds. I am not advocating the weed method of raising a garden and I pity the fellow who tries to use that particular ground for a garden next year.

Being interested in flowers I made a trip to Sargent Sunday to look at the gladiolus gardens of H. I. Perrin. Mr. Perrin is a Sargent jeweler but that is only his business. He has several hobbies. One of them is bees and honey and he has taken over with such success of honey this season so far. He was working among the bees when I got there and while he was very friendly the bees seemed to resent my coming and as I approached where their owner was at work they were so unfriendly that I retreated. Mr. Perrin came out and showed me the gladiolus of which he has more than an acre, told me somewhat of his methods and how the bulbs are handled from the time they are planted till they are cured and stored in the fall for the next year. Gladiolus are about the finest for cut flowers and Mr. Perrin has more than four hundred varieties and as they are planted in rows two feet apart and thick in the row it is easy to imagine the thousands and thousands of bulbs he has to handle in the fall when he harvests them. He sells bulbs from one end of the country to the other. It is worth the time of any flower grower to drive over and see his flowers, though the season is now nearly over. He will begin digging them about the middle of September.

I am going to drive up to Cullen Lake this week and spend a few days trying to get one of the big northern pike that I know live in the lake. The Missus is going along of course, to row the boat while I do the fishing. (The fact is, she has, in the past been lucky and caught the biggest fish.) We want to put the camp in shape for winter, see that all our belongings are put away properly, make some little improvements about the place and above all, we like to see the foliage as it turns to the bright colors of fall. If a light frost comes first the various shades of red and yellow of the leaves against the green of the pines is most beautiful. Some years fall comes with a smashing freeze and then most of the leaves turn a dead brown which is not so beautiful. That is not likely however and possibly a light frost has already started the work of painting the forest in its fall colors. Anyhow we always enjoy a few days in the woods in the fall and it is then that we always catch the largest fish. We expect Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hallaway of Shelby, Iowa to join us there for a few days.

If you are planning early spring flowers in the yard now is the time to get the iris, tulips, lilies and other bulb plants into the ground. Many perennials can also be planted in the fall and will be ready to go ahead growing in the spring as soon as growing weather comes when it is often hard to get them set out fast enough.

FRIEND SAID: 'TAKE KONJOLA' NOW HAS HEALTH

Rare Merit of New and Different Medicine Is Shown In Stubborn Case.

MR. VERNE HINDS
"I tried medicines for a year and a half but without any lasting relief from my ailments," said Mr. Verne Hinds, 907 Reber avenue, Waterloo. "I bloated with gas after every meal and I became very short of breath. My stomach was sore even to touch. I suffered from severe headaches daily. Occasional dizzy spells came over me, and I could never enjoy a meal no matter how little I ate."
"A friend recommended Konjola, and so I put it to the test. The first few doses went right to work on my poisoned system and as I continued the treatment my ailments vanished. Gas bloating is gone, I never have headaches any more, constipation is relieved, and the pains are gone from my side. Now I eat anything and enjoy my meals. In fact I feel a hundred percent better in every way. I shall be glad to tell anyone personally this wonderful Konjola did for me."

An unusual case, you ask? Not at all; the files of Konjola are filled to overflowing with such sincere and grateful endorsements. It is recommended that a full treatment of from six to eight bottles be used for thorough relief. Konjola is sold in Ord, Nebraska at the McLain and Sorensen drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

AM I RIGHT?

By Geo. Round, jr.

After seeing the auto races at the state fair last Saturday I have come to the conclusion that the auto races at the Valley county fair are the best in Nebraska. Those at the state fair do not compare with the local races both in time and thrills. Apparently they are all fixed.

Arch Powell who competed in Ord last week was the big gun at the state fair races Saturday, cleaning everything. He turned the half mile track in 29.8 seconds which was heralded as fast time at Lincoln. Powell was not among the big money winners at the Valley county fair although always a dangerous competitor. Sam Hoff, man also competed at Hottel Saturday and was among the outstanding racers.

After seeing the local races, those at the state fair seem dull and uninteresting. They lack the speed and thrills that accompany the races at the Valley county fair. Next year there will probably be faster drivers here than ever before. Bagley may have to have a new car to stay among the big money winners locally. He failed to impress here this year.

Glenn Jameson of Arcadia, was the only Valley county club boy to enter livestock in the state fair and he won out. Although his reserve champion heifer in the local show failed to place in the money, she was just brushed out. Glenn also had his litter of Poland Chinas at Lincoln where he won third and fifth on his gilts. His boar pig failed to place. The judge in the ring told Glenn that his pigs deserved higher placing but were too thin.

Before taking his pigs to the state fair, Glenn exhibited them at four county fairs including the one here at Ord and naturally they were not in the best of shape at the state fair show. Probably in another year Glenn will not exhibit his club pigs at many county fairs if he expects to enter and win at Lincoln in the fall.

Regardless, Glenn won many honors for himself and Valley county in placing so high in the swine judging. Next year perhaps he will do even better.

Patrons at the local fair nearly "fell in love" with Glenn's baby beef heifer and thought she was wonderful. True, she was a mighty fine calf and showed well at Lincoln. But to win at Lincoln, a club boy must have one of the best calves in the United States, not meaning to slam Glenn's calf.

The other baby beef from Valley county will show at the Ak-Sar-Ben in Omaha during the fore part of November. A number of the local calves should place high in that middle-western show. Valley county club boosters will probably watch closely what the local club members do at the Omaha show.

Another feature of the hog exhibit at the state fair appears to be a huge Poland China boar belonging to Morris Power of Arcadia. Many state fair boosters are stopping at the Fowler pens and looking over the big boy. He may be the largest hog on exhibit at the state fair.

Newton W. Gaines, community organization specialist from the agricultural college at Lincoln, told me at Lincoln last Sunday that he will be more than glad to be in attendance at the Valley County Farm Bureau ball league banquet during the fore part of the month. Gaines believes the banquet will go over big. Assurance that Gaines will appear here will probably bring many more people to the local banquet which is open to the world.

A Shorthorn baby beef won the grand championship in the 4-H club division. It was the first time that a Shorthorn had won the grand championship at the Nebraska state fair for many years. A hereford calf was in second place and another Shorthorn was in third place, indicating the strength of the Shorthorns at the state fair show.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

With the advent of school at hand, parents of eighth grade graduates may be wondering whether or not to send them to high school.

First it may be necessary to erase doubt as to whether or not a high school education pays. It has been definitely proven that high school training is worth several dollars a day to pay by way of deferred earnings power, but statistics from the masses have been used to prove this statement.

It must next be decided where the child is to be sent. The usual choice is between some small local high school with limited teaching facilities and a larger city system. Whether the choice of courses be wide or narrow the parent has a right to ask, "For what is my child being educated?"

The purposes of teaching may be classified into three levels, namely (1) the informational level, which when reached has put an individual in possession of facts he formerly did not know; (2) the appreciational level, which when reached has developed an individual some appreciation of the value of the facts he has not have; and (3) the doing level, which when reached has developed in an individual abilities to actually do something he could not previously do.

These purposes cannot be achieved if pupils will not respond to what is being taught. Forcing them to study certain subjects anyway may result only in bad boys, since psychologists have largely disproven the theory of mind training.

These do well in our vocational subjects because they are them. Parents may contend that they can teach their boys and girls all the practical things at home, but actually very few of them do. Attention should be called to the fact that a girl receives more mental training in learning a cake recipe than in learning about ancient forms of government, because she actually handles and mixes the ingredients into the cake. Likewise, may a boy be expected to retain a hay-measuring formula since he has actually measured a haystack. Practically every graduate would flunk his academic examination after a lapse of nine months, but it is doubtful if our vocational students will ever forget the things they actually did.

The Ord high school also offers excellent schooling for those who wish to begin training for professions. Instruction is offered in business training, manual training, teacher training, music home-making, farming, athletics, dramatics, and college preparatory work. These subjects are offered in a building which is new, modern, sanitary, and safe. In fact it is the most fire-proof school building in the state.

Four these and many other reasons the pupils should be sent to Ord even though it might be a little more difficult to get them here.

FLAME SPEED GOVERNS MOTOR POWER

"A DISTINCTLY FINER GASOLINE"

Uniform flame speed develops power for the full length of the piston stroke. This explains the extra power your motor produces with new Red Crown Ethyl.

This distinctly finer gasoline burns evenly and assures full engine speed. It gives most power when you need it most—when the going is hardest.

You take hills easily without shifting gears. There's more flexible power at slow road speeds—more power at all speeds and all loads when you step on the gas. Never a gas knock—quieter power and plenty of it.

New Red Crown Ethyl gives low gas cost per mile. It is a luxury, but not an extravagance. At Red Crown Service Stations and Dealers everywhere in Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb.—It won't be long now. This month students from every nook and corner of Nebraska and from other sections of the country will make their way to Lincoln to study at the University of Nebraska. Last year 8,878 students from the state of Nebraska took work at the state university here. What to do with them all? How to get each one in his proper classes, to have them housed comfortably, and all in a harmonious relationship to each other? That is the problem that is facing the faculty and administrative officers of the school during the coming months. Several agencies are used by school officials to enable students to get properly settled. The very first day, September 15, is known as Freshman Day. Some other schools have a longer time for adjusting the first year student to his new surroundings, but at Nebraska it is felt that the newcomer can get an idea of the general system within the shorter time. During this day the prospective students are welcomed to the campus and given a preliminary idea of the organization of the entire institution and what may be found in the various divisions. The following two days will be given over to actual registration and classes will start on Thursday. Special personnel advisers also assist the students in every way possible in adjusting themselves to the new environment. "In my opinion, students should be advised not to enter the University until they can count upon resources for one semester, at least $300," recently stated Dr. T. J. Johnson, dean of student affairs. "Last year 162 students were forced to drop out directly due to lack of finances, while others fell by the wayside because of the effect of inadequate funds upon their scholarship and upon their health."

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bradt are in Lincoln taking in the state fair and visiting the Ed Bradt family.

QUIZ FORUM

Frank Kull Writes the Ways of The Canada Thistle.

Dear Quiz: While I do not pride myself as being a weed exterminator, nor will I quarrel with a neighbor who wants to harvest the crop that grows along and under the line fences dividing our farms. But I want to draw attention to the farmers who are not familiar or acquainted with the Canada thistle. When I was a boy in Wisconsin it was considered one of the worst weed pests that grew, spreading both by seed and roots. There are many ways of importing the seeds, by their lighting on trains, autos and being shipped with grain and seeds. I have been on the lookout for them on my land for years, but this year discovered a patch very prosperous starting from a seed no bigger than the point of a pin which no doubt was shipped in with rape seed and had spread to about two rods and a half wide, crowding out all other vegetation. For our mutual interest I have taken the pains to bring a number of plants which can be seen growing in the enclosed railing on the south side of the old First National bank building. Please look at them carefully, please do not get them confused with the bull-thistle or a dozen other kinds and treat the matter lightly. If you happen to have a patch it is best to get busy for they are thoroughbreds and no joke. This patch was cut over with a mower during hot, dry weather. In a week or two they were up five times as thick. Take notice of the many shoots around the old stumps. The weed starts from a seed and whether on the bottom pasture land, in the deep shade of a grove, out of a brush heap, along the roads or on the highest hills in the cultivated lands and in spite of weather conditions, is always thrifty. The seed sends down a tap root 10 to 15 inches, then parallel roots which sends in turn shoots up on two sides. When the plant is about to bloom the stalk is hollow. By clipping off and applying Kerosene will kill the tap root but the parallel roots are to be reckoned with as they are continually sending up shoots. It is claimed persistent cutting and digging up the roots will in time get the best of them. We covered the patch with heavy layer of old hay. Frank Kull

Ord Camels Lose In Ninth Inning

A two-base hit by Panowicz in the ninth inning of the game at National hall Sunday between the Ord Camels and the Eureka team was the blow that won for Eureka, 5 to 4, and broke the Camels long winning streak. Extra base hits featured, Vernie Andersen getting a home run and a three bagger and several others getting long blows. Polak, hurling for Eureka, struck out eight and gave two free passes while Livingston, the Ord hurler whiffed sixteen. The box score:

Broken Bow Surprises Arcadia With Defeat

Loup Valley league fans had a big surprise Sunday when the lowly Broken Bow team took picks on Arcadia to the tune of 6 to 2. Dunker tried to hurl for Arcadia but was nipped for ten hits while Young held the Cadytown sluggers to six. The Arcadia loss gave Litchfield practically a cinch on the league championship. ### State Fair Races Slow

Auto races on the state fair 1-2 mile track at Lincoln last Saturday were much slower than the races held during the Valley county fair here. The best record in time trials was made by Arch Powell, who circled the oval in 29.8 seconds. John Gerber's state record of 26.46 made here is nearly 3 1-2 seconds faster. All state fair races were won in slow time, comparatively.

Litchfield Cubs Beat Mustangs, Cinch Pennant

Four Ord hurlers try to stop Larruping But Mustangs Are Losers by 13-3 Score.

A small crowd of spectators at Bussell park Sunday witnessed probably the poorest ball game ever played in Ord when the Litchfield Cubs took the Ord Mustangs into camp, 13 to 3, and thereby virtually clinched the Loup Valley league championship. Arcadia still has a chance to tie the Cubs and send the championship into a post-season series but Litchfield has by far the easiest games remaining and should win handily.

Lack of pitching put the skids under the Mustangs Sunday. Hank Armatis had his poorest day since he started pastiming in an Ord suit two years ago and in the 2-3 innings he tolled the Cubs found him for eight hits and five runs. A walk and a wild pitch failed to help Ord's chances any. In the third inning, with two out and the bases loaded, Manager Arnold sent Ernie Hill to the mound and called Litchfield scored a run in the fifth on a pair of hits. But in the sixth Douglass, the Litchfield batter, greeted Ernie with a single, he walked the next man and then Roberts singled filling the bases. Manager Arnold called Burke to the hillock to stop the barrage of scores but the fast-talking infielder proved unimpressive. He pitched entered the game with none out and when he gave way to Clyde Athey the same situation prevailed, though Litchfield had three more runners. Burke yielded two hits and walked two batters in the short time he tolled.

Athey proved most effective of the four Ord hurlers. He pitched four innings, struck out two, walked one and allowed only three hits. Sloppy support allowed a Cub run to cross in the seventh but it wasn't Athey's fault. Had he taken the mound earlier the score would at least not be so lop-sided.

The Mustangs played terrible baseball all the way through, committing no less than eight errors and failing to exhibit the slightest sign of being a ball team. Perhaps two weeks without practice had something to do with their miserable showing.

The first Ord run was made in the second inning when Krejcl singled, stole second and scored on a hit by Armatis. The Mustangs tallied again in the third when Johnson was safe on an error and scored on a two-base blow by Athey and the latter scored again in the seventh when he hit for three bases and crossed the plate on Burke's sacrifice fly.

Lang hurled a brilliant game for Litchfield, striking out eight and allowing only eight hits. At that he was coasting along easily with a big lead from the very start. Bodie looked best in the infield for Ord, handling six put-outs and six assists with only one error. He looked poor at batting and base-running however. In the fifth inning he overran second base on Heck's fly to left field and was easily caught in a double play and in the ninth inning, with two out and a runner on first, he tried to bunt. Burke did a poor job of playing short stop and Armatis succeeded in making errors wherever he was played. All in all, the whole Mustang aggregation had an off day and deserved to lose their chance for the pennant.

Next Sunday the Mustangs go to Litchfield for a return game and the week following they play at Arcadia. A postponed game remains to be played at Scotia and this will close the Loup Valley league season for the local team. The Mustangs still have a chance for third money but must win two of their last three games, which they seem unlikely to do.

DOUBLE CRASH FEATURES AUTO RACES THURSDAY

Boyd Car Through Fence While Ficken Overturns On Track During Final Race.

A double smash-up in which cars owned by Johnny Boyd and John Bagley were involved was the feature of last Thursday's race card, fifteen thousand thrill-mad fans seeing the Boyd car crash through the fence at the east end and the Bagley car overturn on the track during the 12-mile Nebraska sweepstakes event that closed the week's program. Nobody was hurt in either accident, though death or serious injury to one or both drivers seemed probable.

The wrecks occurred about halfway through the big race. Gerber was leading, Johnny Kreiger was in second place and Bert Ficken, driving the Bagley car, was third. These leaders had other entries nearly a lap behind. So far as the cause of the accidents could be determined the Bagley car struck Kreiger a glancing blow from the rear and Kreiger side-slipped, forcing Johnny Boyd into a swerve that put him through the fence. He leaped for his life and landed on his feet at the top of the embankment. In the meantime the Bagley car reared high over the east fence and then fell over backwards into the track, Ficken rolling to safety just before the car struck squarely upside down. In trying to avoid hitting the wrecked car Prentiss skidded into the infield and was forced from the race. The accident also caused Kreiger to lose out.

Winners in the race were Johnny Gerber, first; Arch Powell, second; Leo Krasek, third; Fred Dresselhuys fourth. The time was slow after the accident and the 12-mile race was run in 12:17.13.

Another crack-up occurred earlier in the afternoon when Ed Hammond driving the L. E. Kerbs car, also went through the east fence. The car was a total wreck but Hammond was only scratched.

Races as a whole were not nearly so enjoyable as on Wednesday. Gerber cleared up everything, winning first place in the first, second and sixth races. The time on all races was slower than Wednesday.

place there on Tuesday evening. This is always one of the most interesting events of the entire program, with the identity of the queen remaining a profound secret until the coronation ceremony. Myra Thorngate Barber, Eunice Rood and Inez Hutchins are the committee in charge of this important event, and they are arranging for something entirely different than has ever been seen before. As in previous years, the queen is chosen by popular vote, and everyone in North Loup of high school age and over, is entitled to one vote. The ballots are to be deposited in a ballot box at Vodehnal's drug store, and must be in by Saturday night, September 6. It is hoped that all who are qualified to vote will do so, so that the queen will represent the popular choice.

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT

MRS. CLAUDE RATHBUN, Editor.

Miss Leo Greene and her mother arrived home Friday from a visit of several weeks with relatives in California.

Mrs. Reva Currie Redlon and two children drove to Grand Island Saturday where they took the train for Denver where they will make their home. The former's husband Ernest Redlon has recently been sent to Denver by the Armour Packing company.

Mrs. Gertrude Carter left Saturday for Denver. She will visit relatives there and at Swink, Colo.

Miss Lenore VanHorn is expecting to leave for Milton College for a year at Milton College.

Velma Baker returned the last of the week from Taylor where she has been employed during part of the summer. Velma will teach this year at Spring Creek school, north of Sumner.

Mrs. Lottie Friend left Friday for her home at Hastings. Mrs. Ona Leach and her father, A. J. Friend were in from the country that day for a visit before she left.

Immediately following the afternoon program at the Valley county fair Thursday night, Mrs. Friend's truck with the Valley county exhibit, and the Ernest Padlock agricultural exhibit and went to Lincoln where they will be shown at the state fair. Mr. Stine is a member of the police force at the fair this year. Among other North Loup men who are also on the force are Fred Barz, Floyd Hutchins, Lewis Van Ness, Elvin Barnhart and Jack Van Horn.

Surprising the North Loup friends of Kate Hill, announcement has come of her marriage to Robert Harman of Beaver City, on Friday, August 22. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian church in Kearney. On that day the bride had received her diploma on the completion of a two year course at the Kearney Normal and the groom had completed a four year course in the same school. Mrs. Harman is a North Loup girl, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto R. Hill of this village. Most of her life has been spent in North Loup, and her education was received here. She graduated from the North Loup high school with the highest honors, in 1926. She has always been one of the most popular and brightest girls of North Loup, and her friends are wishing for her all the happiness that life can hold. She has taught successfully at North Loup, Ohlawa and Oconto. She has been elected to teach in the schools of Aberdeen, S. D., but since her marriage she has decided to not accept. While not very well acquainted in North Loup, Mr. Harman is known to be a young man worthy in every way of the bride he has won. Since their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Harman have been visiting the parents of the former in Beaver City.

Rev. and Mrs. Hurley S. Warren and little son, who has been in the city since Wednesday, returned from a very enjoyable motor trip to Altred and Nile, N. Y., and to Salem, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Van Horn returned Thursday from a motor trip of three weeks spent with relatives at points in Utah. Dee Esta Greene from Heber, Utah, returned with them and has enrolled in the Senior class of the North Loup high school. She is a daughter of D. Greene. Her mother was Allie Fuller, formerly of North Loup, and a sister of Chas. Fisher. Mary Davis left the last of the week for Edgar, where she will have charge of the domestic science work in the high school. She has been teaching at North Loup for the past few years.

Alice Johnson is again on the Greeley high school faculty, where she taught last year.

The Arthur Stillman family returned Thursday from a visit of several weeks with relatives at Oceanside, Calif. They also visited at other points in that state, and with friends at points en route.

Chas. Fisher returned Sunday from Greeley where he had been for four weeks with his brother George. The latter with his family spent Sunday in North Loup

Now You Can Buy This New GOLD MEDAL

The new Gold Medal Cream Separator is here! You are invited to see and inspect it at our store, where it is now on display.

You will like this new Gold Medal with its improved Curved Disk Bowl—the bowl that gets all the butterfat from either warm or cold milk.

Complete range of sizes provides just the right machine to meet your requirements, whether you are a farmer with a few cows or a dairyman with a large herd.

The Cream Separator with the Famous CURVED DISK BOWL

LOOK...at These Features:

1. Famous curved disk bowl...gets the butterfat from either cold or warm milk.
2. New flexible ball-bearing upperneck bearing... a big reason why the Gold Medal is lighter-running and easier-turning than other machines.
3. Double cream outlet... an exclusive Gold Medal feature... permits thick cream to pass out as freely as thin cream.
4. Bell-type speed indicator... tells when separator is being driven at correct speed.
5. Visible oil indicator... shows amount and condition of oil... makes it easy to keep machine properly lubricated.
6. Swinging supply tank... allows user to remove bowl and tiuware without lifting tank.

CROPS JUDGING TEAM WINS OUT AT STATE FAIR

Local Boys Coached by C. C. Dale Bring Honor to County; Compete at International.

Competing against seven of the outstanding teams in Nebraska, the Valley 4-H crops judging team won the state championship in crops judging at the state fair held at Lincoln last week. It was the first time in history that a Valley county club team had won high honors in crops judging at the state fair. The win entitled the local team composed of Harold Benn, Billy Garnick, and Anthony Kokes to a trip to the International Livestock show held at Chicago early in September. Carl C. Dale, Valley county extension agent, coached the winning team.

The local team probably judged more consistently in the crops contest than has any other state championship team in club work since the contest was originated. The local boys placed second, fourth, and sixth as individuals. Harold Benn was the high individual of the winning team and ranked second in the contest. He received a silver medal for placing so high.

Over the past several years the crops judging contest has been won by Lancaster county teams. It is thought that this is the first time an outside team has won out. Boone county ranked second in the contest just seven points behind the Valley county team. A Boone county boy lead the individual scorers in the contest.

In the contest the boys gave reasons on some classes orally. The local team fell down here because of lack of practice in giving them orally. Credit for producing the winning team goes to County Agent Dale who has been training the boys all summer. They attended practice judging sessions at Lincoln and went to county fairs with Dale to practice judge.

Accompanied by County Agent Dale, the Valley county team will compete against other state winners at the international contest held at Chicago in the international show. The winning of the state championship gave the local team $100 toward their expenses at the Chicago contest.

Practice judging will be continued up until the time of the Chicago trip, Dale asserts. He believes the team stands a good chance of coping with international competition. A trip will be made to Omaha at the time of the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show where the boys will inspect the seed houses as guests of the leading companies. The Middlewestern Grain Corporation has asked the boys to be their special guests while in Omaha.

COLORED COMIC SECTION TO BE QUIZ FEATURE

Four Page "Funnies" Included In Quiz Beginning October 2; Only Weekly Having Them.

Beginning with the issue of Thursday, October 2, a four-page colored comic section will be a feature of the Ord Quiz each week. H. D. Leggett, publisher of the Quiz is pleased to announce today that he has been successful in making arrangements with the National Editorial Association so that the fine N. E. A. "funnies" can be sent out to all Quiz subscribers with each issue. The Quiz will be the only weekly newspaper in Nebraska offering a colored comic section, so far as is known.

Characters known and liked by all readers will be found in this section. They include Major Hoople, Boots and Her Buddies, Freckles and His Friends, Salesman Sam, Wally Tubby Mom and Pop, Jerry on the Job, and the famous J. R. Williams' cartoon Our Way.

There will be no advance in the price of the Quiz, Mr. Leggett says. Securing this fine colored comic section is a continuance of his policy of making the Quiz Nebraska's most widely read paper, if it is possible to do so.

Seerley Implicated In Theft Of Cattle

Ray Seerley, 21, of Ord, is in jail at Greeley awaiting trial on a charge of selling stolen cattle, according to last week's Greeley Citizen. He was implicated by Dorothy Colby, who is now serving time for the theft of these cattle, which occurred on September 27, 1929. According to Colby he hired Seerley to truck the cattle to Burwell and sell them for him. The date of the young man's hearing had not been set last Thursday.

Swims Canyon For Help When Auto Stalls in Ditch

Henry Armatis, star pitcher on the Ord baseball team, had an odd experience last Sunday evening. In company with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Heuck, Miss Emily Heuck and Joe Krejci, he was returning from a ball game at Litchfield. They ran into the heavy rain on the canyon road between Ord and Loup City and their car was stalled in a ditch. Armatis started toward a nearby farm house for help, wading water two or three feet deep all the way. He started to cross a small canyon and discovered that the water was over his head. He had to swim across the canyon and then when he discovered nobody at home at the farm house he had to swim back again. Armatis says it's the first time he ever heard of getting help for a stalled automobile by swimming.

KICK OF HORSE BRINGS DEATH TO RIVERDALE BOY

7-Year-Old Billy Gowen Kicked In Stomach Thursday, Passes Away Next Morning.

Little Billy Gowen, seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gowen of the Riverdale neighborhood, near North Loup, was kicked in the stomach by a horse while playing about the barn on his father's farm last Thursday evening. He passed away early Friday morning. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Seventh Day Baptist church at North Loup, with Rev. H. S. Warren in charge. Interment was in the North Loup cemetery.

William Edmund Gowen was the elder child of his parents, and was born May 5, 1923. In his short life little Billy developed many qualities which not only endeared him to family and friends, but gave promise of a bright career in the future. He was a most attractive child and unusually quick to learn. In his last semester at school at Riverdale, he received a prize for the best standing in the class. He was fond of birds, and knew nearly every wild bird in his community. Almost before he could talk he could carry a tune and had a very sweet voice. He was absolutely fearless with horses, and could ride from the time they moved to the farm, before he was four. He was so interested in the stock on the farm that in spite of his youth he was the constant companion of his father who came to depend upon him for many things. He was a regular attendant at the Riverdale school and at the North Loup Seventh Day Baptist Sabbath School where his bright face will be sadly missed.

He leaves his father, mother, little sister and baby brother, three grandparents, several aunts and uncles and other relatives. The singers at the funeral were Floyd Hutchins, Roy Hudson, Paul Robinson, and Dell Barber. The pall bearers were Otto Hill, Will Schudel, Claude Thomas and Arthur Rux. These men were chosen because they were men whom Billy especially liked.

Relatives from out of town in attendance at the funeral were Mrs. Myra Gowen of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Babcock of Avoca, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Van Boskrirk, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Babcock, and Katharine Babcock, all of Lincoln.

Telephone Survey Showing That Ord Wants New Service

Messrs. Bratt and Nelson, representing the Nebraska Continental Telephone company, started Tuesday with a survey to determine whether or not Ord telephone users want the new automatic service. So far an overwhelming number of people interviewed have signed the petition asking the company to install new service. Very little opposition has been encountered, reports W. W. Johnson, district manager.

Officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce, city officials, the banks, and business men around the square are being interviewed first and are almost unanimously in favor of the automatic system. The interviewers will soon be going into the residential district and hope to finish the survey within a few days.

Automatic telephones such as will be installed here are now on display in the windows of the City Meat Market and the telephone company. Three types of phones are shown.

If sentiment shown by the remainder of the survey is as favorable as from early interviews, his company will be ready to start work on a new building and extension within a few weeks, Mr. Johnson says.

Miss Marlon Grimes of Kearney, has been a guest in the W. E. Kessler home for several days.

Valley County's State Champions!

*This is the Valley county 4-H club crops judging team that won the state championship at the state fair last week, competing against seven of the strongest teams in the state. From left to right they are Harold Benn, Anthony Kokes, County Agent Dale, and Billy Garnick. Benn was the second high individual in the contest. Kokes ranked fourth and Garnick sixth. Lloyd Marks was the alternate. The winning Valley county team is to represent Nebraska in a crops judging contest at the International Livestock Show at Chicago in December with $100 of their expenses paid. It was the first time a Valley county 4-H club team had ever won a state championship.

Four Ord Camels Placed on First All-Star Farm Bureau League Team By Round

My All-Star Farm Bureau League Selections.

First Team	Second Team
Wolf, Ord	H. Vodehnal, N. L.
Sheldon, N. L.	Dodge, Elyria
Faudt, N. L.	Burrows, Ord
Baker, Ord	Dittman, Eureka
C. Clement, M. V.	O. Hellwege, M. V.
Blessing, Ord	DeLashmutt, Ord
K. Barber, Olean	G. Sargent, Ord
V. Andersen, Ord	Fuss, M. V.
M. Williams, M. V.	Warford, T. C.

Honorable Mention: Pitchers, D. Barber, Olean; Mattern, Burwell; E. Vodehnal, Eureka. Infielders: Christensen, Eureka; S. Carkoske, Elyria; Finch, Eureka; C. Oliver, Olean; Abney Olean; Chadwick, North Loup; Q. Noyes, North Loup; E. Leonard, Mira Valley; Roy Nelson, Turtle Creek; C. Oliver, Olean; B. Andersen, Burwell. Outfielders: Dell Barber, Olean; J. Bremer, Mira Valley; C. Noyes, North Loup; Iwanski, Elyria; J. Sargent, Ord.

Picking of an all-star farm bureau league ball team presents a problem which is harder to solve than really appears because there are so many players who have nearly the same value. Seeing a player perform but once or twice may not permit one to see that man at his best. The selections I have made are rather personal, but I have been helped by friends and by nominations sent in to me. I have tried to select teams that possess hitters as well as fielding stars.

It must be made plain that I have omitted at least one player whom fans and players alike will agree with me is clearly an outstanding player, Jesse Livingston, who pitched and played infield for the Ord Camels. He is not a native of Valley county and therefore I have omitted his name although if he were taken into consideration he would, beyond doubt, land on the first team with ease.

To the victor usually belongs the spoils and it appears so in picking of the all-star teams. I have put four Ord Camels on my first team, two on my second, and given another honorable mention. North Loup and Mira Valley each placed two men on the first team with Olean having one man.

Varied opinion exists as to who is the best catcher in the league with the choice generally laying between Harry Wolf of Ord and Hubert Vodehnal of North Loup. I chose Wolf as my first team catcher because of his superior receiving and because he is the best hitter of the two. In one respect, Vodehnal surpasses Wolf in catching, that of throwing. Vodehnal is a good catcher and well deserves a place on the second team.

Coming to the pitching position there is another problem presented. I believe Sheldon and Clement are the two outstanding pitchers with Dodge, Baker, and Doug Barber ranking high. Clement can be placed at another position so I picked Wayne Sheldon of North Loup for the hurling assignment. He has been a consistent performer with the Overall Boys.

MORE EXHIBITS ENTERED AT 1930 VALLEY CO. FAIR

Ag. Products Show Small Loss But All Other Shows Larger; Fair Will Be Out of Debt.

More exhibits were entered and they were of better quality this year than ever before, says Vincent Kokes, secretary of the Loup Valley Agricultural Society, in speaking of the 1930 Valley county fair. He feels that this fair this year was a success from every standpoint. The mid-summer drought caused a slight decrease in the number of agricultural exhibits entered, but all other classes showed big gains. In 1929, 1,051 exhibits were entered in the agricultural department. This year there were 922. School exhibits increased from 995 to 1,300; poultry from 264 to 446; fine arts from 445 to 806; home products from 853 to 1,141; and flowers from 89 to 120.

Exhibits of live stock were larger than they ever have been, Kokes says. A letter received from H. J. Grant's stock judge, compiler county high upon it. Gramlich said he not improvement in the over last.

Gate receipts were very slightly smaller this year than in 1929, Mr. Kokes says, but grandstand receipts were larger. The 1930 fair was a success, he reports. By the 1931 fair begins the year will be entirely out of debt. The directors record the year for improvement in the permanent fund.

Fowler Boar Grand Champ At Lincoln

For the first time in most recent years, a Valley county purebred hog breeder has been able to carry off high grand championship honors in his respective class at the Nebraska State fair. Morris Fowler of Arcadia copped the grand championship honors in the Poland China class at the state fair last week on his huge boar, The Conqueror. The boar weighed well over one thousand pounds.

Breeders in this county declare that there never has been a more popular Poland China champ than the Fowler boar. The Conqueror was also the senior champion. The boar is out of breeding that lists nearly twenty grand champions. The Arcadia breeder also showed another boar at the Lincoln fair upon which he copped third place.

Heavy Rain Does Damage Sunday

Rainfall totalling 1.95 inches fell early Sunday evening in Ord and vicinity and did heavy damage to roads, culverts and bridges. The rain fell within the space of 1 1/2 hours and roads and canyons were awash with flood water. The new bridge east of the river bridge at Ord was badly damaged. It was just completed Friday. Street lights in Ord were out for two or three hours Sunday evening as a result of the storm. Some hail fell but did no damage.

RUTH BABCOCK CROWNED QUEEN AT NORTH LOUP

Assumes Throne Amid Pomp And Ceremony As Popcorn Ruler For Coming Year.

North Loup, Sept. 10.—(Special)—With fitting and impressive ceremony, Ruth Babcock was crowned Pop Corn Queen here Tuesday evening in the presence of several hundred spectators. The ceremony took place on the open air platform just south of the Community building. With the Pop Corn Day colors of yellow and red, she dominated the queen's throne was in a beautiful setting of flowers, with a green background of feathery asparagus. The coronation ceremony was in two acts. The first was entitled "The Signs Declare the Choice." Lyle Ernest and Muriel Bartz carrying the queen's crown.

It was not until the queen ascended the stage, with little Bertha Catlin as trainbearer and attended by queens of former years that her identity was known, and judging by the applause it was a most popular choice. Miss Babcock has lived here all her life, was educated in the North Loup schools, and is liked by every one.

As master of ceremonies, Rev. G. A. Schaefer presented Dorothy Nelson Knapp, last year's queen to reign for one year, and she in turn transferred her rights as ruler to the newly chosen monarch. Then followed the taking of the oath by the queen, the presenting of her crown and scepter, and she ascended her throne to rule her North Loup subjects until another Pop Corn Day season.

The rest of the program included the singing by Reeve Monchester of "To You Alone," dance of the pop corn by eight little girls in white capes and caps. Then came the dance of the maidens in flowing robes of rainbow hues. Representatives of the school districts of the county, dressed to represent various foreign countries brought messages of allegiance to the newly elected queen and took their places about her. Thus supported by her loyal subjects, and assured of the good will and fealty of her entire realm a new Pop Corn Queen has begun her reign.

Forty Out for Football. Forty football suits were issued to prospective candidates this week by Coach Joe Krejci. Most of the material is inexperienced but Coach Krejci has a few veterans from last year's team including Captain Paul Gregg, a lineman. He hopes to build a winning team this year.

Ross Frey—Golf Winner. Ross Frey won the championship flight of the boys golf tournament sponsored last Friday by the Ord Golf club. Floyd Beran was second, followed by Paul Gregg, a freshman. He hopes to build a winning team this year.

Will Meet on Kokes Farm. The corn test meeting which was originally scheduled to be held at Anton Beran's on September 17 is to be held on the Frank Kokes farm, seven miles west of Ord, today. County Agent Dale said today that the meeting will get underway at 2:00 p. m. H. J. Stewart of the agricultural college will be present to show farmers the difference between different varieties of corn which are planted on the Kokes farm.

WM. H. CARSON, PROMINENT ORD RESIDENT, DIES

Goes to Reward Tuesday After Months of Ill Health; Funeral Friday.

William Harper Carson, 67, for forty-five years a resident of Valley county and for thirty-seven years a prominent and respected citizen of Ord, passed away at his home here at 5 p. m. Tuesday after a lingering illness of four months. An abscess on the brain is understood to have been the cause of death. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church at 2:00 p. m. tomorrow, September 12.

Deceased was born in Marlon, Ia., Jan. 4, 1863, the son of Joseph and Phoebe Vaughn Carson. He was graduated from Marlon high school and later attended Coe College at Cedar Rapids. Until 1885 he made his home in Marlon but in that year came with his parents to Valley county and settled on a farm in Mira Valley. This community was his home ever since that time.

In 1890 Mr. Carson was married to Elizabeth Bell of Ord and to this union four children were born, one son dying when five months old. He is survived by his widow and by three sons, Glenn A., of Ord, Leigh H., of Los Angeles, and Ralph E., of Lewistown, Mont. One brother, Lee, of Tama, Ia., died in 1910. He also survives.

It was in 1893 that Mr. Carson moved to Ord and entered the real estate and insurance business here and ever since that time he was a prominent and respected citizen of this city. He was active in civic affairs for years holding the office of township clerk and at the time of his death being secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, a position he had held for several years. He also served as secretary of the fair board.

He was a prominent member of the I. O. O. F. and W. O. W. of the Presbyterian church. Rev. J. A. Moorman, pastor of the M. E. church here, will preach the funeral service tomorrow. The funeral will be held at which he belonged will have a part in the service.

Mr. Carson numbered his friends by the hundreds and his passing leaves a place in Ord that will not be easily filled.

Mustangs, All-Stars Meet in Grudge Game

A baseball encounter that is being advertised as a "grudge game" will be played at the fair grounds here at 2:30 p. m. Friday, when the Ord Mustangs play a picked team from the Valley County Farm Bureau league. Wayne Sheldon will do the chucking for the Farm Bureau aggregation and other players include H. Vodehnal, Wolf, Baker, Clement, Faudt, K. Barber, Warford, Williams, V. Andersen and others. Manager Charley Arnold expects to send his regular team against the All-Stars, with Clyde Athey doing the hurling. Hank Armatis will start at third base but probably will see service on the mound before the game ends. A big crowd is expected to see this game.

Legion And Auxiliary To Have Radio Party

Ord members of the American Legion and Auxiliary are having a "radio party" at the Legion hall here at 8 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 18, the occasion being the great national-wide broadcast over 75 stations, sponsored by the Victor Radio people and the American Legion. A ninety minute program will be given with speeches by Herbert Hoover, Calvin Coolidge, Al Smith, General Pershing, Legion Commander Bodehamer, and governors of ten states. Legion men are urged to bring their wives and Auxiliary members to bring their husbands to this party. Auxiliary ladies will bring one covered dish and sandwiches, for the luncheon.

Two Men Arrested On Booze Charges

Two Grand Island men, D. B. Osborne and Jack Blaise, were arrested Tuesday evening at North Loup on liquor charges and were arraigned and fined before a police judge there. Osborne, who was said to be driving while drunk, was fined $30 and costs, which he paid. Blaise, fined for drunkenness only, was still in jail last night because of inability to pay his $15 fine.

Will Meet on Kokes Farm. The corn test meeting which was originally scheduled to be held at Anton Beran's on September 17 is to be held on the Frank Kokes farm, seven miles west of Ord, today. County Agent Dale said today that the meeting will get underway at 2:00 p. m. H. J. Stewart of the agricultural college will be present to show farmers the difference between different varieties of corn which are planted on the Kokes farm.

ARCADIA MAN KILLS SELF IN GRAND ISLAND

M. J. O'Connor Found Dead In Car Last Friday; Had Been In Poor Health.

M. J. O'Connor, prosperous and well known farmer of Arcadia, was found dead in his automobile in the 2700 block on West Koenig St. in Grand Island about 9:30 a. m. last Friday. From all evidence obtainable death was self-inflicted with a revolver, the bullet entering the head from the right side.

Mr. O'Connor had been in poor health for a number of months and had spent considerable time of late receiving treatment in Grand Island. Despondent over his ill health in the mind which was normally of cheerful, jolly nature, of a sudden failed, and the joy of living was supplanted by a desire to die.

At the time the body was found an examination was made which revealed that the act had apparently been committed about 7 a. m. as the body was still slightly warm. Several people had passed the O'Connor car and saw him sitting at the wheel, upright, his head thrown back as though asleep. Some unknown person notified officials by telephone of the incident and an investigation was made immediately. In the license certificate case a note was found which read "notify Mrs. M. J. O'Connor, Arcadia, Neb. or P. Jensen at Bosland. Despondent over his ill health in the mind which was normally of cheerful, jolly nature, of a sudden failed, and the joy of living was supplanted by a desire to die.

Both Mrs. O'Connor and Mr. Jensen were notified of the death after the note was discovered and both left for Grand Island. The body was taken to the Baumann-Gebhardt funeral home where funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 a. m. The funeral service was conducted by a minister from Boelus, the same minister who performed the wedding ceremony for Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor at the time of their marriage. Pall bearers were Elmer and Claude Dalby, Cecil Milburn, Clarence Waigren, Jos. Parkos and Roy Norris all of Arcadia. Burial was made in the Grand Island cemetery.

Mr. O'Connor was known as an industrious farmer, square in all his dealings, and loyal to his friends. Word of his death, which passed rapidly was sad news to the entire community where he was well known and without an enemy.

Valley County Farm Bureau league ball players are putting in a full day tomorrow when they meet Manager Charley Arnold's Ord Mustangs in the afternoon and then attend their first annual banquet in the evening. The ball game starts at 2:30 and the banquet at 7:00. Nearly one hundred fifty players and fans are expected at the banquet where Newton W. Gaines of Lincoln will be the principal speaker.

Players in the league are sorry that the season is at a close. Many of them are already looking forward to next summer when the league will again be in operation. It should be stronger than ever.

"Gaines is the greatest speaker I have ever heard. There will be a lot of people come down from Burwell to the banquet just to hear him." Walt Petersen, Burwell manager, told me the other evening. Petersen is one of Gaines' strongest boosters. Even Will Nelson of Haskell Creek is expected at the banquet.

Manager Emil Zikmund's Eureka ball club proved to be the bitter pill to at least three clubs this summer. They knocked Olean off at a critical moment and then made things look hazy for the Ord Camels by defeating them. Then Eureka came back to smooth everything over with a victory over Mira Valley. If the Lange managed club had defeated Eureka, Ord would have had to play Olean this Sunday to clinch the title.

Olean is scheduled to perform at Burwell Sunday for the last farm bureau league game of the season for both clubs. Olean copped the verdict when the two clubs met before on the Olean diamond.

After the Quiz is out today, I expect brick bats and bouquets of flowers to be showering me wherever I go. Those who are dissatisfied with my all-star selections will probably be throwing everything at me while those that are satisfied, if there be any, will be almost kissing my big toe. I will fool them and keep my shoes on all day. The only regret I have is that the Quiz left out Clare "Dugan" Clement's name from the lists. Was a tough break for my good friend. Of course, "Dugan" hails from Mira Valley.

Refusal of Bud Shirley to allow the Mustang-Farm Bureau clash at the city park apparently is causing ill-feeling toward Ord on the part of farmers in the county. Letting Loup Valley league teams perform on the Bussell park field and not permitting farm bureau teams to play one game a season on the beauty spot doesn't create such a friendly feeling toward the city of Ord. Perhaps the grounds will be too wet.

Shirley Norton, Elyria ball player was missing Sunday from the (Carkoske team's) lineup and it appeared as though they missed him. Shirley, who is a former Ord high athlete, is attending school at Kearney Normal. It is not known whether he is going out for football or not.

Let Us Be Your Pastry Cook

Baking your own pastry is so foolish these days, when you can buy such good pastry here for less money than you can bake at home. Cookies, cakes, rolls, fruit bars and many other items are baked fresh daily. You can buy them in small quantities and have them on hand always fresh. Nothing but the best and purest of ingredients are used in our sanitary bake shop. You'll like our pastry as well as you like our Cream Krust bread.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Johnson took their daughters, Mrs. Irma Song and Eva to Lincoln Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson attended the state fair while in Lincoln and speak very highly of all the 4-H club work. They returned home Friday.

M. B. Cummins left Wednesday for Aurora to attend the annual conference of the U. B. church. Rev. and Mrs. Spracklen of Ord went with him and returned Saturday. Rev. Wantz of Omaha comes to Davis Creek and Midvale for the coming year.

Mrs. Myrtle Cummins entertained the U. B. Ladies Aid Wednesday. Madams Bertha Williams, Jessie Wheatcraft, Mary Williams, Irma Bohy and Alma Baker were guests. The ladies tied a comforter and placed blocks. They set their bazaar date for Oct. 24th and planned their next meeting for Sept. 15th with Mrs. A. L. Zimmerman of Loup City. The men have an invitation to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Mulligan and children visited Harold Sinner and family near Arcadia Sunday. Coming home in the evening they were caught in the storm and stayed at Johnny Howe's all night. Mrs. Howe was canning last week and a fruit jar broke and cut her arm. It required three stitches to close the wound. Lula Sample has been helping her with the house work since.

Matvin Axthelm was ill several days' last week and Saturday morning his father, Louie Axthelm, took him up to see Dr. Miller. It was found he needed an operation immediately and Saturday p. m. he was operated on for a bursted appendix. He is getting along as well as could be expected. His aunt, Julia Benn, stayed with him Saturday and Sunday nights.

Mrs. Jessie Wheatcraft and Mrs. Mary Williams came Wednesday morning to visit their brother and son John Williams. They returned to Sargent Thursday and Mrs. Williams was to leave for Denver Saturday morning. Saturday the dump wagons and grading gang moved to Davis Creek to finish the work at the bridge by the John Williams place and if everything goes well it will be all done by the last of the week.

Mrs. Delos Bell came Sunday from Sterling. She is a sister of Mrs. Archie Jeffries.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson were diner guests Sunday at Lloyd Peterson's. In the afternoon they all attended the funeral of Mrs. Wink at Loup City. Mrs. Johnson says they had about 2 inches of rain down that way.

A nice rain of 1-2 inch was our portion Sunday evening.

constructed with sides eight feet high. It is 160 feet long, 40 feet wide and there is no top. The grain is piled two feet higher in the center than on the sides to give drainage. The sight of a great window of grain is unusual even in that great wheat growing section and the bin with its precious contents is drawing hundreds of visitors.

The wheat of western Nebraska is of excellent quality this year and the yield is exceptionally large. Where facilities for storage are obtainable the crop is generally being held for a larger price.

Cheyenne was the great wheat county of Nebraska last year with 192,161 acres in wheat, an average yield of 17.3 bushels and a total production of 3,321,823 bushels. The return per acre was $17.05 and the total value of the crop $3,377,913.

Crops Meeting Will Be Held In Ord

P. H. Stewart and D. L. Gross, extension and soils men at the agricultural college, have written County Agent Dale regarding a meeting in Valley county sometime between September 15 and October 4 regarding corn. They propose in their letter that the meeting be held at the farm of either Floyd Wetzel of North Loup or Anton Beran of Ord where the county corn variety test is growing this year or that the meeting be conducted as a tour including these farms as two of the stops.

If the tour is arranged in Valley county it may include stops to look at the corn on sweet clover land, to compare listed and surface planted corn, to see how the rotary hoe has worked this year, to visit "horseless" farms, and to see fields of hybrid corn. Mr. Stewart and Mr. Gross also say that they could include some work with chlorates on bad weeds if farmers in this county want a demonstration that day. County Agent Dale is talking the matter over with farmers and will decide what kind of a program will be the most popular in this county.

Food For Health Meeting October 3

Miss Florence Atwood of the extension service of the agricultural college will start her "foods for health" project with the women's clubs of the county on October 3. The initial meeting of the leaders and club presidents will be held in County Agent Dale's office in Ord. She gave a similar help to several other counties last year. A summary of her reports shows that she helped seventy-five women per county to improve the school lunches they sent with their children to school. Last year 253 people per county ate vegetables twice a day who had not eaten them that often before.

Women who are interested in the coming project say this county will show improvements much larger in number than the average last year. Prospects are that twenty-two clubs with about two hundred and eighty members will be enrolled for the September meeting of project leaders, County Agent Dale and club presidents will be held in

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

Jack Pine Lodge on Cullen Lake near Nisswa, Minnesota, Friday evening, Sept. 5, 1930

Dear Quiz:

It was just 10 o'clock yesterday when we backed the car out of the yard, drove up to the Anderson house to say good-bye to Flora and Little Shirley and headed northeast via Ericson, Bartlett, Elgin, etc. for Cullen Lake. We drove in to the back yard here today at just 2:30. Thursday was a warm day. We got to Pipestone, Minn. at 7:30 in the evening found a nice cabin camp, then went to supper. We carried a lunch for dinner and bought 10 pounds of nice grapes on the way. As we drove back to camp after supper we noticed a black cloud in the north, with lightning and came right along and soon began to rain. I don't believe I ever saw it rain harder. Heard it, rather, as I was in bed and it was dark, but it sure sounded fierce on that little cabin and there was plenty of evidence this morning that it had been a heavy rain.

I noticed, just before I left the office yesterday, a letter from my good friend F. M. Vodehnal. I didn't have time to read it all but got far enough to learn that he was trying to explain the gasoline business to me. And I noticed that he thought most any 12 year old boy ought to know more than I do and here I am almost 60 years old. Of course I was pretty peeved that Frank should make such a comparison and I thought about it as I drove and the road and got madder all the time. Then when we got here the Missus baked a batch of biscuits for supper and I had tucked in a pair of honey that I bought of friend Vodehnal. My, what fine honey that is. And after eating my fill of baking powder biscuits and Vodehnal honey I was ready to answer the Vodehnal letter but lo and behold my mood was all gone. I don't know whether the clover and basswood and alfalfa and whatever bees make honey from, are sweeter over west of Ord than they are in the east or not but that Vodehnal honey sure changed my disposition and now I don't care a hang if Frank and the other Valley county farmers do buy gas 4 1-4 cents cheaper than I do.

Just two automobiles passed us on the way up. One was a Chrysler and the other a Lucoin. We drove around all the others that we saw in front of us and they were all kinds. The hardest to pass were Pords. The roads were fairly good all the way. No wet roads till this morning and of course we were on gravel.

Saw a farmstead yesterday marked "Little Pine Farm". There was not a pine tree or any other kind in sight. The grass and weeds were pretty big though and the Missus said the little pines that the place was named for may have been in the grass.

I had no more than arrived today when the game warden drove in and asked me if my name was Jones. Of course I denied it and proved it to him. I also told him that so far as I knew no one by the name of Jones had been around. I insisted that there were no people in Valley county by that name. I didn't find out what he had on his mind but I do wonder what Everett did while up here recently.

We had been looking forward to a visit with the Simpsons and were disappointed when we drove in, to see their cottage all nailed up and to learn, later, that they left just this morning for Omaha.

I want to tell you who read this story, that we are very fortunate in Valley and the surrounding counties. We have better corn in Valley county than we saw on the road any place. The south part of Antelope county has fair corn but from there on to Yankton it is very poor, showing how severe the drought was. South Dakota, or the part we drove through, is in bad shape. It dried out and one stretch where there was a little corn, was hauled out. The pastures are brown as December and this goes for northeast Nebraska as well as for South Dakota and was in marked contrast to the green of our Valley county pastures. Minnesota has been dry too and where we are now is still dry, very little rain having fallen here.

The small fruit was killed by late spring frost so there is very little of that and a frost last week injured the fodder corn here. Most of it has already been cut and shocked and will soon go into the silos.

If took most of the afternoon after we got here, to unload, go to town and stock upon provisions and get organized in the cottage. Ray Luther tells us that for the past three days the fish have not been biting and he wants to bet that I can't catch a mess in the morning. I am going to try to prove to him that I can but after hearing him talk I didn't think it worth while to bet on it.

I forgot to say that while it was pretty warm yesterday, it was real cool this morning and we drove with the windows closed and a little fire this evening is very acceptable. It feels, in fact, as though it might frost. The frost a few days ago is already making the leaves of the trees turn yellow and red and in a few more days there will be a riot of color in the timber.

QUIZ FORUM

Don't Ask for Service.

Ord, Aug. 31, 1930

My dear friend Leggett: I see in the Quiz lately you have been quite worried about the farmers because they buy their gasoline few cents cheaper delivered in the country than the city folks can buy it at the filling stations. You say you asked Mr. Hathey to explain and he couldn't, and I am very much surprised that Mr. Hathey could not explain.

It looks so easy to explain that I am surprised that some eighth grade kid has not figured it out and explained it to you. Now everybody knows that I am not much of a scholar but I think that I can explain why gas is cheaper in the country than at the filling stations.

Let me tell you a story: A motorist drove into a filling station and said: Two gallons of gas (Most of them though, call for five and once in a while ten) and then the motorist added: and see how the air is in my tires and I want you to put my chains on, clean my windshield and add water to my radiator. And he said: quick about it, I am in a hurry.

Now I will explain, Mr. Leggett. We don't do that way in the country. When we buy gas we pay for gas only, we seldom buy less than fifty gallons at a time, and a good many buy 150 gallons at a time and when the gas truck starts out it often delivers 500 gallons at one time in the same neighborhood. And let me put you next to something, Mr. Leggett. If you will get you a 50 gallon barrel or two of them, I am almost sure that some of the gas truck drivers will be glad to fill it for you regularly at the country price.

Yours for cheaper gas,
F. M. Vodehnal

NEBRASKA TOWN LIKES DOING BUSINESS FOR CASH

When selling for cash went into effect in Bloomfield on April 1, 1928, neighboring sections sat up prepared to watch the economic experiment. There was some doubt in the minds of some of the Bloomfield merchants themselves whether the policy could be maintained over a period of months without loss of trade. The hurt pride of many citizens who had enjoyed continuous credit was considerably healed the first of the following month when Bill collectors failed to make their customary rounds and a disagreeable monthly social function was cancelled. The unexpected pleasure of that day produced a very much better atmosphere in which to continue the experiment.

Now after more than two years when Bill collectors return to their trading plan and hearty recommendations to other communities suffering from protracted and confirmed credits. Recent interviews with merchants of that town disclosed the fact that not one merchant desires a return to credit trading. According to Dr. P. J. Lonergan, president of the Bloomfield Retail Merchants and Professional Men's association, more business is done and the community has taken well to the innovation. The coal dealers recently joined the cash-with-delivery merchandising trail blazers.

The merchants have found that beats and slow pay customers had to go to work and some who could not endure that experience moved out. Merchants found they could sell on a closer margin and like. Only garages which sell cars on time are not on a cash basis, though repairs and supplies are cash. About 30 establishments are in the association, bound in writing to pay $100 for violating the agreement.

AM I RIGHT?

By Geo. Round, jr.

Among the interesting things in the agricultural hall at the state fair held at Lincoln last week was the popcorn exhibit from Valley county. The exhibit was one of the outstanding ones in the building where more than thirty counties were advertising their main sources of income. The local exhibit placed twelfth on its center piece.

The most credit for the wonderful showing made by Valley county in the agricultural hall is due my good friend, Floyd Wetzel of North Loup. Mr. Paddock also of North Loup was a valuable aid. Floyd supervised the Valley county exhibit and did a good job of it. The Valley County Farm Bureau cooperated in helping to arrange for the exhibit to advertise Valley county popcorn.

It was surprising indeed to note the number of the people stopping at the Valley county booth inquiring about popcorn. I expect many sales were made by local concerns as a result of the exhibit. Many people who knew little before about popcorn production learned a lot from Floyd and Mr. Paddock at the state fair.

Speaking of the state fair reminds me that Morris Fowler brought more fame to Valley county when his huge Poland China boar won the grand championship bear at the state fair although there have been some strong breeders from here show at Lincoln and win major prizes.

Down at the state fair they were taking boys, girls, men and women far rides in the little Austin autos. One concession had two of the tiny cars running continually. They proved to be a big attraction. Pretty soon they will be making cars so small that one can place them in the hip pocket. What will they be ten years from now?

LESS LOST TIME with NEW Polarine

THE MODERN MOTOR OIL

Fewer worn out or burned out bearings... fewer layups for repairs and cleaning out carbon. Because the new Polarine gives better protection against friction and wear... deposits less than half as much carbon!

Here are some facts about this modern motor oil—the new Polarine:

- ... Contains no wax or tar to form crankcase sludge and interfere with oil circulation.
- ... Changes its body less from zero temperatures to engine heat than any oil you can buy.
- ... Stays clean longer because it produces less than half as much carbon.
- ... Consumes slowly and resists dilution.

The new Polarine is refined by a new process from selected oils. In truck, tractor and passenger car no oil at any price will do more for your motor. Consult the new Polarine Chart for correct grade—25c a quart.

Shallow Crown Hat Is Smart for Fall

IF YOU MUST HAVE A BRIM ON YOUR TURBAN, BE CAREFUL IT DOESN'T COVER THE EYEBROWS—AND IT SHOULD BE CUT TO FIT FUR COAT COLLAR

BY HARRIET

HOW far up, is up and how far back is back? That must be decided before fall hats are bought. Without that knowledge it would be difficult to determine whether they harmonize with coats, frocks and suits.

The shallow crown hat, with a high forehead cut, is the important one. There may be a brim. But it must not hide the all-important eyebrows. The brimless toque and turbans are the ones to consider first, because they are so chic and up-to-date.

It is interesting to note that the nonchalant beret is growing a little more formal and developing into turbans and toques. Made of fine felt, velvet, chenille, ribbon, fur, fabric and a combination of materials, they are colorful, pert, interesting and feminine.

The hat with trimming is important this year. Little curls of feathers, fancy feather trims of all kinds, fur bows and ribbon ones, even, flowers trim the new millinery, though the hat with flowers is usually the dressy one.

One of the most important considerations for fall hats is whether or not they are cut for fur coat collars. Many of them are. With collars so high and intricate, the hat, for comfort, must be shallow and fit the head neatly to avoid interference.

Hats do not match coats exactly this autumn. A shade or two lighter or darker is preferable if the coats have monotone coloring. More often than not the grosgrain banding has a second tone to lighten it, showing at the top or at the bottom. Feather fascias may match either the hat or the banding.

A SMART little toque for early fall wear is black felt, with an unusual draping of the felt on one side, with a little black feather fancy stuck through the fold of the drape and curling down on the neck.

Quite a different type of fall hat is the formal little turban of bit-ter-sweet velvet that tops an afternoon or dinner dress of bit-ter-sweet velvet.

This turban is worn well up and well back on the head, is extremely shallow and is draped in the modern manner towards the back, where the folds are caught with a brilliant clasp.

The frock that goes with this turban is a charming model of one-piece dress, made with unusual trimming in the shape of tucking in the velvet in diamond shapes.

A typical style for fashionable autumn wear is the closely fitted black felt hat with shallow crown, shown above. A little black feather is worn over the left ear, caught by draping of the felt. Note how the hair is worn.

There is this ornamentation at the waist, all around the full, short sleeves with their beaming drop shoulders, and forming a deep border at the top of the flounce that extends from the hips to even ankle length.

Among other new hats, one of navy blue felt is made with a diamond-shaped crown of beige broad-tail fur, with a little flat bow of the fur across the back. Another is a brown felt turban, made in five parts, with a' of them fagotted together with matching chenille.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

During the last few months has come a marked overproduction of farm and home products.

Among the latest of these urges is the suggestion that farmers seed some winter wheat this fall—not to sell from the threshing machine next summer, but to use as live stock and poultry feed when corn is scarce and high.

This recommendation appears to be sound, in view of the present feed shortage. Mr. Legge has put the present corn crop at two billion bushels, which is nearly a billion short of last year's production.

Livestock is being marketed prematurely owing to the unprofitableness of feeding and the shortage of supplies. This should make the year of 1931 an excellent season for feeding activities. Thirteen dollar hogs are freely predicted for next summer, and one dollar corn appears to be a certainty.

As long as wheat and oats remain so absurdly low in price they are wonderful bargains for feeding purposes. Oats are worth from one-half to two-thirds as much per bushel as corn if fed properly. Ground wheat is a better feed than corn. When corn sells for 85 cents per bushel wheat is worth 96 cents for feeding hogs and beef cattle, and 91 cents a bushel as poultry or sheep feed. It is also good for dairy cows, and can be used to a limited extent in horse rations.

Wheat is not a substitute for tankage or other high protein feeds. In fact, it is almost as necessary to give feeds of this sort in connection with what as with corn. Neither is soaking wheat anywhere nearly so good as grinding. Barley is another feed about equal to corn and generally cheaper.

Low grain prices have had little effect upon the cost of cereal breakfast foods. Here lies another opportunity for economizing. It is not generally known that a cupful of wheat, costing two-thirds of a cent, makes a healthful breakfast for a good sized family, if it is soaked over night and then briefly boiled. Furthermore, when served with sugar and cream it is more tasty and nourishing than some of the chafy and bulky breakfast foods sold over the counter and tossed on doorsteps.

At a very pretty ceremony at the Sargent Catholic church Tuesday morning Sept. 9 at 9 o'clock, Miss Clara Vondracek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vondracek of Sargek, became the bride of John J. Jelinek, son of Prokop Jelinek.

The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin finished along the princess lines with which she wore matching slippers and hat. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and Lilies of the Valley.

Miss Tillie Vondracek gowned in peach satin with hat to match was the brides only attendant. Edna Parkos was best man and little Dorothy Ann Kokes and Irene Matousek served as flower girls.

Miss Alice Penas sang during the ceremony accompanied by Miss Anna Novotny, the latter also playing the wedding march.

Following the church service, a reception was held at the brides home when about fifty guests were present.

The young couple have departed for a short honeymoon. On their return they will make their home at Ord where Mr. Jelinek is employed in business with his brother-in-law, Wm. Kokes.

—Yesterday Mrs. R. O. Hunter and Miss Jessie VanWile drove to Hastings to see Jonas VanWile who is having more trouble with his eyes. He is out of the hospital and is being cared for in the Norris VanWile home.

Here's Cause for Alarm!

Women of Chalfont Boro, Pa., have organized their own fire department and enlisted such pretty fire-fighters as Mary Fedoris, above. You may expect the townspeople will crowd to see future fires, if any. And nothing they can be sure of is that when the alarm is sounded, the department will bring along the best hose in town.

ORD SOCIAL NEWS

As Shamrock Arrived for Races

In excellent condition despite its stormy 23-day crossing of the Atlantic, Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock is shown here as it arrived in New London, Conn., recently for the international yacht races to be held off Newport, R. I., next month. This will be the fifth attempt of Sir Thomas, shown in the inset, to lift the America's cup, which this country has held since winning it 79 years ago.

Gertrude Bohrer And Fred Lundstedt Wed

North Loup, Sept. 9—(Special)—Gertrude Bohrer of North Loup and Fred Lundstedt of Nora, Nebraska, were united in marriage at high noon on Wednesday, September 3, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bohrer.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. A. Schwabauer pastor of the North Loup Methodist church, in the presence of the immediate families of the contracting parties. A color scheme of brown and gold was carried out by the use of golden rod and brown cattails in the alcove where the ceremony was performed, as well as throughout the rooms.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Mrs. Victor Cook, a sister of the bride. She was accompanied by Mrs. G. A. Schwabauer at the piano, who softly played the strains of the song as the couple took their places before the officiating clergyman. The bride's wedding gown was of orchid flat crepe, and she carried an arm bouquet of gladiol.

Following congratulations, a two course wedding dinner was served by the bride's two sisters, Miss Mary Bohrer and Mrs. Victor Cook. A miniature bride and groom under an arch of white flowers and tulle formed the centerpiece. Tall yellow wax tapers in low brown holders were used at either end of the table, which was decorated with golden rod and giant marigolds.

The bride is strictly a North Loup girl, as she has lived here all her life and is a graduate of the North Loup high school. She is both popular and attractive, and has many friends both here and at Ord, who will wish her happiness. After finishing high school she took up nurse's training at Green Gables Sanitarium in Lincoln, from there going to Hillcrest hospital at Ord where she has been on duty much of the time during the last four years, and where she made many friends.

Mr. Lundstedt has made a number of friends on his frequent visits in North Loup, and is a young man of sterling qualities, respected by all who know him. He is engaged in the garage business at Nora, Neb.

The newlyweds took a short honeymoon trip, with their destination unknown to their friends who had decorated their car in a manner altogether fitting. They returned to North Loup the latter part of the week, and left Saturday for Nora, where they will make their home.

The out-of-town relatives who were guests at the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. S. S. Lundstedt of Guide Rock; Walter Lundstedt, Gilbert Lundstedt and wife, also of Guide Rock; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bangert of Cowles, Miss Carrie Lundstedt of Lincoln, and Miss Wardner of Orton, Kan.

THE GOLDEN RULE

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT

MRS. CLAUDE RATHBUN, Editor.

Schol began Monday morning at North Loup with everything as spic and span as paint and varnish could make it. There are 102 high school students enrolled. 29 seniors, 23 juniors, 22 sophomores, and 23 freshmen. It might be interesting to know that there are 26 pupils in the 7th and 8th grades, which by the way occupy the same room; 29 in the 5th and 6th grades, 31 in the third and 4th, and 11 in the second grade, and 23 beginners.

Marjorie Thelin of North Loup has the first and second grades, and is well equipped by both training and experience for this important job of getting these little tots started off on the right foot in their school work. She is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan.

Veina Peterson, who is also a new teacher here this fall came down from Brooks, South Dakota, has just finished at Kearney Normal, and is full of teaching ideas and enthusiasm.

Miss Alice Meyers who was here last year most successfully, is back again from her home at Polk and starting right off with her work with the fifth and sixth grades, just as if a summer of vacation had not intervened.

Miss Alice Klensinger, recently a graduate of Hastings college is the first woman teacher for the grammar room for some time. She seems amply qualified however for the work she has undertaken.

The high school enrollment is slightly smaller than last year when there were 103 students. However several who would have been seniors this year have moved out of town. There are 41 non-resident students this year, which is ten more than last.

Coach Warren Bailey of Elmwood, who is also Prin. Bailey is back again this year. He has always been popular with the boys their work in manual training as well as athletics, and he also has classes in 9th algebra, 10th history, and sociology.

Superintendent L. O. Greene who has been the competent head of the North Loup schools for several years, will teach 11th and 12th history and 10th geometry.

Franklin LeBar, a recent graduate of Hastings college is a new member of the high school faculty, and his subjects are 9th 10th, 11th and 12th English, and orchestra and chorus.

Miss Thelma Buchanan also from Hastings is the only new member of the faculty this year. She takes the place of Miss Mary Davis as teacher of general science, home economics, biology and physiology.

Mrs. Pearl Morrison, Normal Training teacher will not be able to meet her classes for a week or so, yet because of illness. Vesta Thorngate is substituting for her.

So far, 11 students have enrolled for home economics. There are 10 boys taking manual training and 7 are taking mechanical drawing. There are 12 in the senior normal training class Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Henning and Clem Meyers. Athletics for girls this year will be in charge of Miss Klensinger of the grammar room. This work has been most successfully carried on by Mrs. Morrison since it was instituted a couple of years ago. High school convenses this year at 8:40 and afternoon classes are dismissed at 3:20. Gym classes and football practice begin immediately at the close of the afternoon session.

Mrs. A. T. Jones returned Saturday from a visit of several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Jap Davis and family at Denver.

Hub Thorngate who is ill with typhoid fever at his home in the Barker neighborhood, is thought to be improving a little.

Delmar Van Horn, Howard Baxter and Darrel Noyes are North Loup boys who are going to attend Kearney Normal this fall.

Eleven members of the Womens Foreign Missionary society and three guests were present at their September meeting which was held Thursday September 4 with Mrs. Claud Thomas of Riverdale. The devotional service was led by Mrs. G. A. Schwabauer, who took for her subject the motto of the society, "Saved for Service." The lesson for the afternoon was led by the hosts, Mrs. E. J. Post of work that the society is doing in the Philippines. However, the special and most interesting feature of the afternoon's program was the presenting of a memorial membership in the society to Mrs. D. S. Bohrer. Mrs. Bohrer was one of the three original charter members of the society when it was organized here about 18 years ago.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Davis Creek U. B. church for Mavis, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jaffries, in charge of Rev. Zimmerman of Loup City. The baby was ten months old, and had been ill for a week with intestinal flu. An operation for stoppage of the bowels was performed as a last resort at Hillcrest on Friday night, but the little one passed away early Saturday morning. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jaffries, and one brother, aged five years. Interment was made in the North Loup cemetery.

A wedding dance was given Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Louie Peterson in honor of the marriage of Ruth Honeycutt and Ed Shoemaker which was solemnized the preceding Thursday at Greeley. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Honeycutt, and with her mother had been making her home in North Loup and attending high school. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Shoemaker, and has been working on his father's farm in Maiden Valley. The young couple as yet are uncertain as to their future plans.

Paul Nelson, a son of Frank Nelson of North Loup, and a brother of Ben and James Nelson, who farm south of the village was married at Lincoln on Saturday, August 30. His bride was Miss Virginia Dowling of Lincoln. Paul is a graduate of the state university, and Miss Dowling also attended school there. They will make their home in Lincoln where the groom is engaged in the insurance business. Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson visited North Loup relatives for a few days.

Roy Coleman, Irvie Sheldon and Glen Johnson returned Friday from Lincoln where they attended the State Fair for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bohrer and daughter Mary, who is visiting them, from Lincoln, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cook at a fried chicken dinner, Sunday.

An Aid tea was held at the church on Wednesday afternoon by the Methodist ladies. Mesdames J. M. Fisher, L. A. Manchester, Grace Holman and Nora White were hostesses. They served sandwiches, pickles, date pudding and coffee.

Bert Cummins returned the first of a trip from Aurora where he attended the United Brethren conference. He went as a delegate from the United Brethren churches of Davis Creek and Midvale.

Mrs. Jennie Bee and daughter Esther left Sunday for Kearney where she will do light housekeeping while Esther attends Kearney Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swanson and little daughter Rosemary returned Sunday from a pleasant motor trip. They visited relatives in and near Chicago. They were away about ten days.

Mrs. Sid Wilson and Mrs. Erlo Babcock returned early this week from Gering, where they spent a few days with their mother, Mrs. Hestie Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greene, and the former's four sisters are in North Loup again after an absence of several weeks and will remain until after Pop Corn Days at least. Among other places they have been in St. Joseph where they helped to establish a Four Square Gospel church. Mr. and Mrs. R. DeWiese of Angulus Temple, Los Angeles, who visited the Greene family earlier in the summer, remained at St. Joseph to take charge of the newly established church.

Ed Lee is the owner of a new Studebaker Six bought this week from Frank Schudel.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Clark returned Sunday to make their home in North Loup. They have been living at Casper, Wyo. for about a year.

Mrs. Leland Robbins of Nebraska City came Saturday for a visit of a few days with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Robbins.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hutchins went to Gordon the latter part of the week for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Hutchins. They came home with them for a visit with North Loup relatives until after Pop Corn Days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz of Lincoln, former residents of North Loup, arrived in the village Friday. They are enroute to their home after visiting friends at various places in South Dakota and Nebraska, and have been guests of the Alfred, Crandalls and Vera Robbins, as well as of other old time friends here.

Roy Lewis and Wesley Hutchins returned Friday from the state fair, where they were helping with an Aeromotor exhibit.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Barnhart and son Erman returned Saturday from the fair at Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Kildow came over from Wayne the latter part of the week for a short visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kildow. Vesta Kildow went home with them, and will enter at Herman Rice's Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank Meese and children visited at Adrian Meese's Friday afternoon.

School District 65 opened last Monday with twelve pupils enrolled. Miss Aloha Stewart being the teacher. This is Miss Stewart's third year in teaching this school. Supt. Miss McClatchey visited school Wednesday.

Hurt In Fall From Stack. Charles Rother, of Scotia, is a patient in Hillcrest hospital suffering from a fractured vertebra in his spine. Mr. Rother was hurt last Saturday when he was thrown from a stack while stacking hay.

Myra Thorngate Barber, wife of Mayor J. A. Barber of North Loup was signally honored Monday when four poems of her own composition were read over the radio from station KFAB, state university. This period of broadcast was given over to the reading of the work of Nebraska writers. Edwin Ford Piper was the only other poet so honored. Mrs. Barber's poems were entitled "Her Son," "Summer Snow," "A March Day," and "Cornstalks." The last mentioned was introduced by the announcer as being "a typically Nebraska composition."

Mrs. Vine Reynolds of Burwell spent from Wednesday until Saturday here with her son Boyd McKenzie and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Clemmy and daughter returned Wednesday from a trip to Minnesota and Canada. In Minnesota they spent several days fishing and had very good luck, bringing home several large pickerel. One weighed ten pounds and two eight pounds.

OPPORTUNITY

often passes unrecognized

During the past five years many of the metropolitan cities of the United States have been equipped with Automatic Telephone systems either wholly or in part.

Manufacturers are working full time building the Automatic Telephone apparatus for many other large cities which have been scheduled to be equipped with Automatic Telephone apparatus within the next five years. These replacements are being made just as rapidly as the equipment and man power are available.

Indications are that it will be a number of years before many cities, the size of Ord, will be equipped with Automatic Telephone systems. The larger cities being considered of more importance, the replacements in general will be confined to the larger centers.

Ord's present telephone facilities are congested to the extent that major additions are necessary. This is an ideal time for Ord to adopt the Automatic Telephone system.

Our representatives will call on you and we solicit your hearty co-operation and moral support.

MUSTANGS LOSE TO LITCHFIELD BY 3 TO 0 SCORE

Timely Hitting by Cubs Features Game; Lang Allows Ord But Four Safe Blows.

The Litchfield Cubs found Little Hank Armatis for only five safe hits last Sunday but three of them came in succession in the sixth inning and the Cubs won, 3 to 0.

Lang held the Mustangs to four widely scattered hits and was invincible with men on bases. By winning this clash Litchfield is undisputed champion of the Loup Valley league.

Ord presented the Cubs with their first counter last Sunday, Panek getting a walk, going to second on Roberts' sacrifice and scoring when Furtak missed Carr's hot grounder.

The Mustangs' best opportunity to score was in the sixth frame when Bodie's bunt was advanced to third by Heuck's bunt but died there when Krefel grounded out.

Next Sunday the Mustangs play at Arcadia and Matulka and Burke the York state league battery, are counted on to help even the series with the Cadytown team.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

IN SIZING UP BOBBY JONES' CHANCES FOR THE AMATEUR TITLE, REMEMBER WHAT A DARK HORSE DID TO GALLANT FOX

BY PHILIP MARTIN GALLANT FOX won six state race victories in a row—and then was beaten by a 100-to-1 shot in the Travers Stakes renewal at Saratoga recently.

Is there a comparison between Bobby, the thoroughbred golfer, and Gallant Fox, the thoroughbred steed? Is there anything significant in the fact that the records of these two favorites throughout three-quarters of the season were almost identical?

In previous years Bobby Jones has not been invincible. Only a year ago he lost his amateur crown at Pebble Beach, Calif. Young Johnny Goodman pounced on him in the first round.

THE days when football captains in the colleges and universities throughout the country were gods to be worshiped regularly on Saturday afternoons during the fall months seem to have departed. Perhaps a reason is that there are fewer football captains these days.

Exactly 25 major football teams this fall will be without regular captains selected by the vote of the players themselves. Of course, those teams will have captains—but they'll be appointed before each game by the coach.

That is the situation at eight eastern schools, namely, Boston University, Columbia, Davis and Elkins, Penn. State, Rutgers, Syracuse, Army and University of Pittsburgh. In the middle west there are nine such schools: Indiana, Loyola of Chicago, Ohio State, Purdue, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri and Nebraska.

Trying to pick a catcher for the second team presents a still greater problem with Dodge of Elyria winning out over Doug Barber. Both are excellent old-time throwers and I have had a hard time determining which deserved placing above the other.

In my estimation, Charley Faudt of North Loup is the outstanding first baseman in the league. He has been a consistent hitter, batting well over four hundred and is a clever infielder.

Then at second base there is Clyde Baker of Ord who ranks among the best infielders in the league although he pitched the major portion of the time for the Camels.

In George Clement of Mira Valley we find one of the finest ball players in the league. He is placed at shortstop on my first team because of his all-around playing ability.

At third I have "Ike" Blessing of Ord, one of the cleanest players in the league. Although Blessing is a bit weak at hitting, I believe he deserves a place on the first team because of his outstanding fielding ability.

Box score table for Four Ord Camels. Columns: Player, ab, r, h, po, a, e. Rows: Round, V. Andersen, G. Sargent, etc.

He has been one of the outstanding performers on the Burwell club all season. "Frenchy" handles himself as well as any player in the league.

Coming to the center field, I have Kenneth Barber of Ord who is probably the outstanding fielder in the farm bureau league. He would probably be on anyone's team.

In my mind there was a battle between Fuss of Mira Valley and Vernie Anderson of Ord for the left field position on the first team.

Ma Williams of Mira Valley is such an outstanding outfielder that I have placed him in right field on the first team.

It is highly possible that a team could be picked from my honorable mention list that could beat either the above first or second team.

Syl Carkoske of Elyria is another excellent infielder and a good hitter. It is my opinion that Syl would rank among the great in the league in the outfield for he is too fast on the infield to control his feet.

Box score table for Four Ord Camels. Columns: Player, ab, r, h, po, a, e. Rows: Baker, Wolf, G. Sargent, etc.

kept him off either team. Cec Oliver of Olean is another good third sacker. So is Finch of Eureka and Chadwick of North Loup.

Looking over the honorable mention list in the outfield we find some good performers. I like Barber's playing and if I had seen him in action more times might have placed him on the second team.

Picking of such all-star teams involves much personal opinion. It is hard to measure the value of any ball player unless one sees him in action consistently.

With an average of .527, Clyde Baker lead the championship Ord Camels in hitting for the season.

Wild Fowl Limit Lower This Season

Hunters May Shoot But 15 Ducks, 4 Geese Daily; Season Open Next Tuesday, September 16.

Next Tuesday the annual national bombardment will break forth when the season opens on ducks and geese. Probably no more of year is looked forward to more eagerly by sportsmen than the open season on water fowl.

The daily limit on ducks this year is 15 and the daily limit of geese, including brant, is 4. A hunter may have in his possession at one time only 40 of the larger game birds, which includes geese, brant, ducks and coots.

Under the new Nebraska game laws a hunter caught with more than the legal bag limit of ducks or geese is liable to a fine and costs and in addition is liable for damages of $25 for each goose and $10 for each duck in excess of the legal number.

Does Your Battery Need Attention?

Does your car start harder these cool mornings? If it does, your battery may need attention. The hot weather of summer is often hard on batteries. Maybe yours needs nothing but recharging; perhaps minor repairs should be made before it is too late. Anyway, let us look it over.

Remember that we use the famous Tyrwelder method of tire repairing. Costs no more yet it's lots better. Same method tire manufacturers use.

Club Member Copped Prizes On His Hogs

Glenn Jameson, Valley county 4-H club member, who competed at the state fair last week with a club beef and pigs copped some high honors. On his pig club gilts he won third and fifth places. The reserve champion heifer, Jerry, at the local fair failed to place in the money. She showed against steers. In the baby best auction Glenn received eleven cents a pound for his heifer. The grand champ of the state fair sold for forty-four cents a pound.

Popcorn Exhibit Fifth.

The Valley county agricultural exhibit at the state copped fifth place in the central division, according to reports brought back by Floyd Wetzel of North Loup who was in charge. Fourteen counties participated in the division. The central idea of popcorn production won twelfth place among the some thirty counties competing.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bun Grimes and children of Hill, Colo. were spending a few days in Ord leaving Friday for their home. They were visiting Mrs. Grimes' father, Raymond, who is in the military service. Children of Raymond's who have been at home for a few days are Miss Katherine Gass and Mrs. Fred Bish and family of Lincoln. They returned a couple of days before the Grimes family left for Colorado.

—Thursday Dr. C. J. Miller removed tonsils for Mrs. Joe Rowbal. The latter had not been well for several weeks. Saturday she returned home from the Ord hospital but has been confined to her bed most of the week.

—Mrs. A. N. Conklin, of St. Paul was a guest of Mrs. H. B. Van Decar for several days. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Van Decar and Miss Virginia took Mrs. Conklin home. On the return trip and when nearly to town they were caught in the rain and had to wait for some time as they were not able to drive in the rush of water.

—Incident Hinzda and his sister, Miss Edna Hinzda, drove to Ord Thursday from Lincoln. The former returned home the next day. Miss Hinzda is one of the junior high school teachers, is staying with Miss Clara McClatchey and boarding with Mrs. Kattie Marks.

—Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lewis and the Misses Eunice and Roberta Chase were Loup City visitors Sunday. Returning to Ord that evening their car was stalled in a canyon by the heavy rain. Flood water ran across the grade so deep that it ran in beneath the doors of the car, Mr. Lewis says.

Modern Medicine Banishes Rheumatism And Stomach Ailments—Other Medicines Failed.

Mrs. Leonard Woods, Duane and Leon Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Nelson and son, Leo Nelson and Hilda, Roy and Jess Howerton called at Will Nelson's Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Nelson were at Aagaard's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergman Hansen visited with Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Christensen Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Philbrick and children visited at Dudley Philbrick's near Erlerson Sunday.

Mrs. Niels Nielsen and daughter Thelma have been visiting at Carl Hansen's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Philbrick spent Sunday with the Dave Guggenbos family.

MRS. EUGENIA WALSH

"I suffered dreadfully from rheumatism for more than a year," said Mrs. Eugenia Walsh, 2304 Douglas Street, Omaha. "My hips and ankle joints became so stiff and sore that it was very difficult for me to get around. At times, it was all but impossible for me to get up and down stairs. I suffered agony with a burning sensation in my stomach and I was terribly constipated. I tried medicines and treatments of various kinds without any lasting relief.

"It required but four bottles of Konjola to relieve me of rheumatism. Today the soreness and stiffness has gone and I can get around without difficulty. The burning sensation no longer bothers me and my bowels are regular. I am very glad to tell others of all the benefit Konjola brought me. I know it is a fine medicine because of what it did in my case."

Is it not logical to believe that what Konjola has done for others it will do for you—for everyone? This is especially so if Konjola is taken with regularity for six or seven weeks.

Konjola is sold in Ord, Nebraska at the McLain and Sorensen drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

The FINEST TIRES

FISK Has Ever BUILT

Here are two Fisk Air Flight Principle Tires that are far superior to any tire your car has ever rolled on.

Just as different combinations and shapes of metals reduce the weight and increase the strength of your modern car, so an entirely new and different combination of cords and rubber in tire design and tire construction, patented and exclusive methods, have produced a tire of excess strength without excess weight. The Fisk De Luxe and the Fisk Rugged, embodying all the improvement which the exclusive Air-Flight Principle brings to Fisk Tires offer you a superior type of service than you have ever before received from any tire, regardless of make or cost.

The FISK All-Cord Process

Note the even regularity of Fisk All-Cord and the distortion of Ordinary Cord.

The reason for this difference is that Fisk All-Cord has no cross threads, instead each cord completely surrounded and insulated with rubber, runs parallel to the next preventing that continual chafing and friction which is always present in ordinary cord fabric. The flexibility of Fisk All-Cord is even at all points while the flexing ability of ordinary cord differs widely. Flexibility is absolutely necessary and the tire with the greatest flexibility is the one which offers the greatest resistance to road strain and bruises.

- No other make of tire can offer you these exclusive Fisk features.
- The Seven Points of SUPERIORITY of Fisk Air Flight Principle Tires
1. Larger Air Chamber
  2. All-Cord Process
  3. Multiple Cable Bead
  4. Increased Flex Area
  5. Stream Line Tread
  6. Greater Road Contact
  7. Air-Flight Balance

Trade in your present Tires. We will allow you full value for every mile left in them.

By MRS. RAY GOLDEN

Willard Chaney Leach. Funeral services for Willard Leach, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leach of Arcadia, who passed away Sunday afternoon following a lingering illness, were held at the home of his parents Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were conducted by the Christian Science Society and burial was made in the Leo Park cemetery.

Willard Chaney Leach was born February 8, 1903 at the farm home in Custer county, 10 miles west of Arcadia and departed this life in Arcadia August 31, 1930 at the age of 27 years, 8 months and 23 days. Willard, whom his school mates nicknamed "Fat" was of a cheerful, sunny disposition, quiet by nature and a favorite among his neighborhood friends. He attended Arcadia high school finishing the last two years in Ansley high school. He was loved by his teachers and schoolmates. The past year he spent in California with his parents, returning in May.

He leaves to mourn his passing his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leach, four sisters, Mrs. Clarence Hiser and Mrs. Ralph Emerson of Arthur, Nebr., Mrs. Murry Gieger of Reseda, Calif., and Mrs. Ernest Smith of Arcadia, five brothers, Hubert, Leland and Ruland of Arcadia, Bert of Arthur and Erwin of Jewell, besides many relatives on both sides. One brother, Harry, passed on several years ago.

All the family was present for the funeral except Mrs. Gieger of Reseda, Calif.

Mrs. Farmer Passes Away. Mrs. Carrie Farmer of Westerville, sister of Burt Hyatt of Arcadia, passed away at her home last Friday after a lingering illness of Bright's disease. Mrs. Farmer was seventy-one years of age at the time of her death. Funeral services were held at the Christian church in Ansley Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Baldwin and he is running the packers, who make use of everything about the hog except the squeal, a close race in that he deserves everything about the rabbit except the ears and he is considering using those for coin purses.

Boys Win $728.50 Following is a total list of the premiums and prize money won by the boys of the R. K. D. Litter club at the various fairs at which they have exhibited this season: 14 junior champions, 3 senior champions, 8 grand champions, 67 firsts, 45 seconds, 43 thirds, 1 fourth, 1 fifth, 2 sixths, 1 seventh. Total prize money $728.50.

The boys made a wonderful showing every place they exhibited as the above story tells. They took up their work this year with the determination to win and this, with the excellent assistance of their leader, Mrs. Morris Fowler, enabled them to succeed.

Congregational Church Picnic. The members of the Congregational church, their friends and their families enjoyed an all day picnic at the Community Park Saturday. The day was ideal for a picnic and a large crowd attended. Dinner was served at noon followed by a short program consisting of music by the Easterbrook orchestra and a talk by Rev. Burleigh. Games were played during the afternoon and a lunch of ice cream and watermelon was served.

School Dedication Friday. Dedication services for the new rural school building which has just been completed in district 4 will be held at the school house Friday evening, Sept. 12 at 8 o'clock. The program will consist of the following numbers: Invocation, Rev. Burleigh; vocal solo, Mrs. Edw. Christensen; violin duet, Mary Jane Rettenmayer and Louise Stanley; introduction of speakers, State Supt. Chas. W. Taylor of Lincoln and County Supt. Miss Clara McClatchey of Ord, by Ray Lutz; singing by the school children and benediction by Rev. Galtner.

School opened in the new school building this week. Miss Jessie Blakeslee is the instructor.

Fig Club Boys at State Fair. A number of the members of the R. K. D. Litter club attended the State Fair at Lincoln last week. Glen Jameson was the only member who entered his pigs and calf at the fair, winning 3rd and 5th on sow pigs and his calf was sold to Swift & Co., of Omaha for 11c a pound. The other boys attending were Paul Easterbrook and Claude Williams who were employed as ushers at the grandstand, Billy Arnold who assisted Glen Jameson in exhibiting his pigs and calf and failed and he was compelled to withdraw from active service but lived in the hope of regaining his health and to renew his church activities. He died Thursday morning, Sept. 4, at the age of 78 years, 5 months and 12 days.

He leaves to mourn his loss his devoted and loving wife, a brother in Sweden, two sisters, one in Brockton, Mass. and the other in Erie, Pa. also a large host of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held from the Carlson home Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Carl V. Anderson of Omaha, officiating assisted by Rev. Galtner of the local M. E. church. Many and beautiful floral offerings bedecked the casket, placed there by the many relatives and friends. A large number of relatives, neighbors and friends were present to pay their final respects to the departed one. Interment was made in the Balsora cemetery.

Busy Ants Score High. Fairtime brings thrills to everyone. This saying proved true for Busy Ants this year when Ruth Jamon won first, Helen Cruikshank second, Mura Benson third in the annual 4-H club style show for first year's sewing club work at the Ord fair. In the judging of their garments Ruth Jameson won first and Helen Cruikshank second on their slips. Erma Evans won fourth on her laundry bag. The winnings have enthused the girls very much and they are eagerly looking forward to their second year work.

Bye Baby Bunting. Daddy didn't have to go hunting to get these rabbit skins. He raised the rabbits, butchered them for table use, saved the skins, tanned them and made a small throw with six of the hides sewed together. The throw has been on display in the H. A. Bellinger store window this week. Floyd Bly is the gentleman we are speaking of and he is running the packers, who make use of everything about the hog except the squeal, a close race in that he deserves everything about the rabbit except the ears and he is considering using those for coin purses.

A. B. Fiala To Farm 1,200 Acres Near Blair

A. B. Fiala was in Omaha last week and made arrangements to farm a 1,200 acre ranch near Blair, Neb., this coming year. The place is owned by a cousin of Mr. Fiala, who will leave for Blair soon to get his winter wheat in. He does not expect to move his family to Blair until later in the winter. Mr. Fiala says he likes Valley county very much but wanted to get closer to a good poultry and egg market such as Omaha affords. His new place is adapted to both wheat and corn growing and also has a large amount of good pasture for dairy cows and Mr. Fiala expects to carry on an extensive dairy business. He will use power farming methods there as he has in Valley county.

Woodman Hall

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Radil returned from Milligan, Neb., last Wednesday evening where they had been to attend the funeral of a friend. John Lola, Jos. Cernik, Otto Radil and Stanley Korlik autoed to Swan Lake Thursday evening and spent some time fishing. Mr. and Mrs. James Sedlacek and family spent Sunday at John Parkos'.

Jerry Pilva purchased a second hand Ford Coupe from the Ford agency at Sargent Friday. Ernest and Irene will drive the car to Comstock where they are attending school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Waldmann and son visited at Jos. Veleba's Sunday afternoon.

Emil, the nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krikac, sustained a sprained arm when he fell from a Shetland pony Saturday. He was taken to the doctor where he received medical aid.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Waldmann and Paul and Raymond visited at the W. W. Pedrick home at Sargent Sunday afternoon.

Emil Pilva was a dinner guest at the Jerry Pilva home Sunday. Raymond Waldmann was absent from school several days last week on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ptacnik and family drove to Loup City Sunday and enjoyed the day at Jenner's park.

Vencel Krikac sr. of Comstock was out on his farm Friday.

James Hoxek trucked a carload of fat cattle to Comstock Tuesday for Jos. Waldmann. From there he shipped them to the Omaha market.

The 160 acre farm belonging to Jos. Hrdy, deceased, was sold at auction at Ord Saturday to Frank Krikac, being the highest bidder.

Curtains, Precise or Fluffy, Express Of Each Room

A really exhaustive study of curtains that would thoroughly cover the subject would need several volumes, to do it justice. Windows and woodwork are so varied, materials for a given room are legion and the styles of the drapes are just as numerous. Then there's the additional problem of the effect you want to produce—do you wish to emphasize the height of the room or do you wish to shorten it—with the further consideration of the question—shall the view outside be shut out or shall it be framed by the drapes? A very pretty crisp looking pair of ruffled curtains for the kitchen was made of matze-colored organza. Edgings were of rick rack braid, with the backs of the same material. Colored voile is another favorite material which may be hung below an oil cloth valance. Lighter weight oil cloth is also used for kitchen drapes.

three shelves to give horizontal lines. On each shelf was a single good sized object, a bowl, a flower pot or a crude pottery figure.

A sun room represents an entirely different problem in that the sun is so very hard on the thinner materials that would suggest themselves for glass curtains: One room got around this very cleverly by painting the panes with white paint. The brush strokes up and down, very thin of course, looked like transparent shirred material. A small pattern was scattered over the surfaces. Drapes of brilliant lacquer red shantung completed the effect.

Valances we will have ever with us, from the single drape flung informally over the curtain rod to the very severe treatment of straight drapes, hung from a valance board, of carved or gilded or decorated surface. One such board was painted a faint green with mouldings touched with gilt.

From it hung pleated glazed chintz of plain tan which was used to border the drapes. These were of block printed linen in a floral design and hung in straight folds.

In a child's nursery gay canary theatrical curtains were hung with large billowy bow knots of like stuff. A bed room used the same material of moss green with a wide ruffle. One curtain was crossed over the other, and both were tied back to glass headed nails.

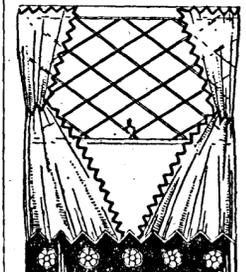

Speaking of chintz reminds us that cretonnes, linens, chintz and India prints continue in popularity. Small pattern chintzes come glazed and unglazed. Quaint old patterns of our grandmother's day are being revived with careful attention to detail and color.

For fall and winter, velvets, heavy tapestries and homespun weaves come into demand. Curtain materials are surely varied from rubber curtains for the bath room to thinnest voiles and scrimms and back to heavy velvets with silk linings, brocatelles and damasks.

A modern style room had a very fine handling of drapes, using a rayon material of light and dark green with horizontal stripes. One drape at the left hung straight. The other on the right was tied back, very high, from pleats. Very sheer taffeta in a cream tint formed the glass curtains. The effect was straight lined enough to fit in with the modern scheme.

An Empire room with striped wall paper obtained a very striking composition by using an elaborately decorated rod at the window top. A curved drape was made by flinging a soft silk over either end of it. This was weighted with a fringe of round beads. Bands of color edged the drapes that hung straight from the rod to the floor and lay in soft folds there. Glass curtains reached only to the window sill. Brackets with potted plants completed the picture most beautifully since their foliage was chosen to complement colors in the wall paper.

pressed a lively sense of decoration in a series of romping children interspersed with grass plots and trees.

Pine Ridge Indians Have Fast Team

Two star pitchers are boasted by the Pine Ridge Indian Agency baseball team, which is to play the Ord Mustangs at Bussell Park September 21. Running Horse is a young right-hander who possesses a world of speed and hitting. His team mate, is a left-hander with lots of curves and very good control. Both of them were developed on the Indian reservation and are said to be about ready to go into organized baseball. The Indian team is said to have been beating most of the teams in northern and western Nebraska this summer.

School Opens Monday

The Ord schools opened Monday with all teachers on the job and an enrollment slightly larger than last year. Miss Lucinda Thorne is teaching in the kindergarten substituting for Miss Mable Misko whose leg was broken last week.

Tuesday evening Mrs. A. P. Jensen and Miss Marie Johnson returned home after a few days visit in Fremont.

KITCHEN COLORS BRING CHEER Here's the Story on New Effects

It may be said to be a brilliant performance indeed—this daily act of preparing food in the modern kitchen. These days the kitchen tools have blossomed into more colors than the hollyhocks know. Ivory white is a favorite in enamel ware, with rose pink or apple green handles. All the knives, spoons, forks, spatulas and cake beaters have had gay colors for some time but now even the good old general utility grinders have painted handles.

Of course, breakfast sets, and dining nook furniture have rejoiced in bright surfaces for these many days. We wonder how they feel now that the kitchen sink, the kitchen range and all the extra equipment of cabinets and small tables and shelves have tinted their coats.

Tile or porcelain tops on small tables have proved so practical that all the kitchen helps have them—cabinets with tile tops, small tables with drop leaves of porcelain and the kitchen cabinet has its sheet of hard white surface. Besides porcelain for table tops, new metals are prepared for many kitchen utensils. One of these that is stainless, will not rust, nor cook into foods, combines nickel and chromium. Pans, kettle and cooker is cast in this new surface, and cups, pitchers, ladles and dish pans are made of it.

To go back to the garden varieties of colors, one mustn't forget the gay cereal shelves. Sets of spice boxes, bottles for vinegar and oil and covered jars for rice, etc., are painted to match.

THIRTY BUSHEL CORN PREDICTED FOR VALLEY CO.

State Statistician Says Local Crop Should Be 80 Percent; Small Grain Yield High.

In a bulletin issued early this week, State Statistician Anderson of Lincoln declares the Valley county corn crop to be 80 percent normal. He lists Valley county as having the least bumper prospects of any county in the central district which includes Buffalo, Custer, Dawson, Greeley, Hall, Howard, Sherman and Valley. Other statistics as to other crops are issued in the bulletin.

Although the normal percentage crop is low the average yield per acre expected runs second high in the central district, according to Anderson. He estimates that the local crop will average thirty bushels to the acre. Howard county's crop will average thirty-four bushels to the acre, while Custer county is expected to produce twenty-seven bushels per acre.

In listing the wheat production per bushel, Valley county stands second high in the central district, according to the estimates, being exceeded only by Howard county. The bulletin estimates Valley county's wheat crop at twenty-four bushels per acre and Howard's at twenty-five. The yield includes both spring and winter wheat. Custer county is expected to produce twenty bushels wheat, the bulletin reads.

Valley county's average oats production should be high in comparison with other counties in the district. Anderson estimates the local average yield at thirty-nine bushels while Buffalo county will have an average production of forty-two. Howard's average was expected to be thirty-nine.

In barley production, the bulletin estimates the local average production at thirty-five bushels while Dawson county leads with an estimated production per acre of thirty-seven. Howard county with a probable production of thirty-two bushels per acre was the low county in the central group in expected barley production for this year. Sherman was expected to get thirty-five bushel production this year on barley with Custer probably getting thirty-two.

Dawson county is the only county in the central district which is expected to exceed Valley county in average tonnage per acre in alfalfa production this year. Anderson estimates in his bulletin which was received at the county agent's office in Ord, that local farmers received on an average of 2.9 tons per acre. Custer, a big alfalfa county, was expected to get 2.3 tons per acre. Howard was expected to get 2.3 tons while Sherman's average expected tonnage was 2.8 tons per acre as much as expected in Valley county.

In wild hay production this year, Valley county's estimated crop in tons per acre is 1.0. Howard leads the counties in the district in probable production with 1.4 tons per acre. Custer was expected to get but .7 tons per acre with Sherman getting but .9 tons.

Hunting Fair

The hunting season officially popped off Tuesday morning before sunup and although Valley county might hunters were out in force only one or two were reported. Bill Sack and Emil Pafella were the only ones so reported in Ord city. Many had nice bags, but the shooting was not alarmingly good. Teal seemed to be most plentiful, with a few mallards and quail. However, as there has not been a frost here yet the gamblers expect the shooting to improve daily, and especially after the real cold weather sets in.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charley Sterneck were in the country, lunch guests in the Knut Petersen home and dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svoboda.

Married Forty Years

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hansen celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary last Friday, with the help of their children, who all came home and enjoyed a big family dinner together. The children include Mrs. Peter Rasmussen, Nels and Martin Hansen, Mrs. Howard Barnes and Mrs. Frank Witt of Ericson. Sunday a second celebration at the Hansen home with the help of their children and several neighbors.

The Hansens have spent nearly all their married life in Nebraska, and are glad of it. They were near Minden, shortly after moving to Valley county and 22 years ago made a farm 12 miles north of Ord their home. Later they moved to the Father farm west of town. For the past three years they have lived in Ord city.

Their many friends, the Quits are sure, wish that they may celebrate many more happy anniversaries of their wedding day.

Football Coach, Captain Guests Of Rotary Club

Coach Joe Krejci and Paul Greg, captain of the Ord high school football team, were guests of the Ord Rotary club Monday and both spoke briefly. Captain Greg expressed the determination of the team to do its best while Coach Krejci paid a high tribute to the entire squad when he said that all of them are working earnestly and conscientiously. He believes a winning team is possible this year, Coach Krejci said.

W. W. Johnson, Kearney was also a club guest and explained the telephone situation here and told of his company's plan for giving Ord people the best of service. Mr. Johnson also complimented the town on its fine buildings, streets and residences, and said his company wanted to give service benefiting Ord as a city.

Mr. Leo and E. C. Leggett, new members, were given the Rotary charge by Wm. Henck, vice president.

Catches 9 lb. Catfish.

Ole Severson landed one of the largest catfish that has been caught in the Loup this summer when he pined a nine pounder out last Thursday. He caught the big fish just east of town.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR WINNING FOOTBALL TEAM

Great Things Expected From Available Material; Several Lettermen Report.

A mighty promising bunch of huskies is now on tap at Ord high school, and available for the building of Ord's football team this fall. Coach Krejci is very well pleased with the material available, even though much of it is inexperienced. But he hopes to fashion a winning team out of it before the first game of the season, which will be at home when Scotia comes here October 3.

Lettermen out for practice, left over from last year's squad, include: Captain Paul Greg, Bill Garnick, Earl Klein, Marcus Steinwart, Floyd Augustin, Oakley Hather. These must form the nucleus for the new football machine, which it is hoped will be a winning one. Other promising material which will be well worked upon by Ord's popular coach, Joe Krejci, includes Charles Barnhart, Don Hughes, Stoltz, Gard, Finch, Everett Lashmet, Rathbun, Malolespsy, Vala, Benda, Don Lashmet, Clochon, Psota, McGinnis, Dale Strick, Vodehnal, Boquet, Furtak, Mells, Cochran, B. Hughes, Tolen, Keller, Zukoski, D. Barnhart, Hansen, Mickles, Suminski, Blessing, King, Worden, Masonka, Allen, Nutter, E. Strong, H. Garnick. This makes possible lots of hard practice, scrimmage and what not, as well as offering the coach a varied selection to draw upon for his gamesters.

The schedule which has been arranged for Ord follows:

October 3.....Scotia at Ord
October 10.....St. Paul at St. Paul
October 17.....Broken Bow at B. B.
October 24.....Ravenna at Ord
October 31.....Open for State Ass'n.
November 7.....Burwell at Burwell
November 14.....Ansley at Ord
November 21.....Arcadia at Ord
November 27.....Ord at Loup City

Elks Club Staging Boxing Tournament

The Elks club of Grand Island is sponsoring a big three day amateur boxing tournament Sept. 29, 30 and 31, with prizes from $10 to $200 competing. Handsome prizes are being donated by Grand Island merchants and any amateur boxer wishing to enter should get in touch with the Elks club at Grand Island or with Max Clayton, Central City.

Two Couple Married Here This Week

Licenses to wed issued from the office of County Judge J. H. Hollingshead include one given Tuesday to Lumir E. Hronda of Stanton county, who is 21 years old, to be married to Rose Kvetensky, aged 19 who lived in Colfax county. The young couple came up here to be with her brother, Ladislav, when the big event took place. They were married the same morning by Rev. D. C. Williamson. Tuesday at eight p. m. Miss Margaret E. Mason daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Mason and George A. Watson of Armour, S. D. were married by Rev. H. H. Spracklin in the U. B. parsonage. Miss Edith and Harold Mason stood up with the bride and groom. The bride graduated from the Ord schools a couple of years ago. The groom is a young farmer who will continue at that line of work. The newlyweds will leave shortly for South Dakota, where they will visit relatives, before returning to the farm.

Exhibits At Popcorn Days Unusually Good

Pop Corn Days at North Loup made their usual success, attracting large crowds all three days.

Those who visited the community building during the exhibit found one of the best boys' corn exhibits ever shown at a North Loup celebration. The squaw corn that the late little Billy Gowen had selected for display won first place, a comforting thought to his friends. Russell Barber got first for the best ten ears, and also won the sweepstakes. In addition, he won second on white rice. Keith Barber got first award on baby rice, and Earl Cruzan carried off the prize for the best collection. Cloud Barber had the champion ear of Early White. The sons of Roy Barber won first place in the boys' display.

Not nearly as many entries as usual were found in the vegetable display, perhaps because of the fall which several weeks ago played havoc with many farm gardens. Nevertheless, there were some extremely large specimens shown in the line of pumpkins, squashes and watermelons. W. J. Cook got first on watermelons. The farm display of Ernest Paddock won first prize.

In the floral department there was an unusually beautiful display of bouquets. Mrs. Sterling Manchester took first place with her basket of colored asters, and Mrs. Elvin Barnhart's aster arrangement was given second. Mrs. E. E. Williams was awarded first place on her collection of flowers of great variety.

The miscellaneous department was especially crowded with a wonderful collection of quilts, rugs, pillows and similar articles, as well as a display of fine art work. Mr. LeBar of the high school faculty.

The extension club department exhibited three booths. Of booths showing the club work of the past year, the Twinner Century club was given first place, and the Neighborhood club second place. The Junior Neighborhood club entry was a very pleasing room for a girl, and as there were no other entries in that class the club was awarded second. Bernice Neave and Fern Rich, two 4-H club girls from Fussyville had the chief display in the girls' canning exhibit. These girls have a fine record, of which they can well be proud, for they have won substantial premiums at several fairs this fall.

In the one-room school class, the Riverdale school which Miss Schilling teaches carried off first honors for the best general collection of school-work. District 15 taught by Beulah Willoughby stood second. Other honors were as follows: among upper grades in two-room schools, first place to Barker, Mrs. Canedy, teacher; second to Davis Creek Clara Clement Holmes, teacher. For the lower grades, first place to Davis Creek, Margaret Johnson, teacher; second to Barker, taught by Maxine McCune. A splendid show, something that a whole part of the countryside may well be proud of, that was the verdict of those attending North Loup's famous Pop Corn Days in 1930.

We have hundreds of bargains we want to show you, come in and look them over. Blessing and Robbins. 26-11

FARM BUREAU LEAGUE BANQUET HELD FRIDAY EVE

Newton W. Gaines Praised Ball League Highly; Others Speak Briefly.

"You have a wonderful farm bureau ball league in Valley county, the only one of its kind in Nebraska, and I am going to broadcast it from one corner of the state to the other," declared Newton W. Gaines, community specialist from the agricultural college, in a feature address at the Valley County Farm Bureau ball league banquet held at the Rotary club rooms in Ord Friday evening. Gaines said he believed the league to be a wonderful community activity move. Fifty were in attendance.

County Extension Agent Dale served as toastmaster in his usual witty style. Speakers on the program other than Gaines were Anton Beran, farm bureau president, John Bremer, W. O. Zangger, and Charley Deacon Arnold.

Gaines helped to put the banquet over in great style with his stirring fifteen minute talk when he said more than the average speaker says in three hours. He declared that in this day and age farmers must provide their own entertainment and the farm bureau ball league was serving the purpose. Gaines said other counties would be sure to follow the local plan in future years.

In speaking of "czars" Anton Beran spoke of what he really thought of the farm bureau league. He said a czar meant much more than the relation he holds to the league. The talk served as Beran's farewell speech for he soon leaves for Lincoln where he is moving to get into business.

John Bremer told some old time baseball yarns before the banquet. He related a game of twenty years ago when a member of the present farm bureau league pitched against Alexander with Nunamaker as the catcher. He meant Marlon Cushing of Ord who performed some with Turtle Creek this year. Bremer said the league should develop ball players. He was enthusiastic over the Mustang-farm bureau game.

In speaking of the league benefits Wilber Zangger of Olean said it provided a place for country people to get together. New friendships were made, he said, and true sportsmanship built up. Zangger was loud in his praise of the local league and said he believed it would be stronger than ever next year.

Speaking before Gaines, Manager Charley Deacon Arnold of Ord also was a member of the high class of ball the farm bureau was putting up. The Ord manager told of other such leagues and related instances when he formerly managed the Springdale club in the Sunday school league.

Circle No. 2 Presbyterian Ladies Aid society will hold a home cooked food sale at the Model Grocery on Saturday, Sept. 20th. 26-11

Madams J. W. McGinnis and John Whiting returned home Wednesday from Manhattan, Kas., where they had taken Selma and Velmar McGinnis to their college. 26-11

Arcadia Youth Proud of Record

Glen Jamieson, 15 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer F. Jamieson, who live in the country near Arcadia, was the only Valley county boy, so far as is known, to take his wares to the State Fair at Lincoln the first of this month. His exhibit was a beautiful calf, cross between the Hereford and Durham strains, the same calf which won a beautiful mark at the Valley county fair, and also won reserve champion at Ord.

Although the animal did not place at the state exhibit, Glen was given 11 cents a pound for his calf by Swift and Company, and the $9 for showing that every Hereford calf of degree brings his owner. The calf, according to a handsome photograph which Glen's father was exhibiting Wednesday, was a very fine specimen looking more like Hereford than Durham, and beautifully marked. The only one Hereford like marking was a narrow white striping which encircled the calf about mid-dling back. Glen had the calf so burnished and shined, it looked as though modeled in silk or velvet. He had carried it in little shining circles, a good deal like the metal trimmings on some new cars.

Glen was a 4-H club member of the Arcadia group of boys, and also came under the jurisdiction of George Pound, Jr. He also showed the calf at the state fair, and the local fair that took third and fifth and a year or two ago was a member of the pig club founded by H. D. Leggett, turning back the nicest pig of any one.

Glen will be a student of the eleventh grade at Arcadia this fall. He performs there as he has in 4-H work, he'll probably snatch some laurels.

Seerley Pleads Guilty.

At a hearing in the Greeley county court last Wednesday afternoon, Ray Seerley of Ord, pleaded guilty to a charge of receiving and selling stolen property. He was bound over to the district court under $1,000 bond. It is alleged that Seerley sold stolen cattle, delivered to him by a man named Colby, to a Burwell farmer named Butts for $100. Seerley admitted selling the cattle but said he did not know they were stolen until afterwards.

Escape Serious Injury When Two Cars Crash

Mrs. Willis Taylor and children escaped without serious injury when the sedan which Mrs. Taylor was driving was struck by a car driven by Ed Lee Monday afternoon at the intersection between the Frank Larkin and George Worth corners. Mrs. Taylor was approaching from the north, and Mr. Lee was driving west, when the Lee car struck the Taylor car, tipping it over on its side.

Mrs. Taylor declared that she saw the Lee car, and thought that Mr. Lee saw her, but he apparently did not, at least not in time to avert the collision.

The Taylor car was somewhat banged up though not irreparably. In any event, the Taylors consider themselves very lucky to have escaped as lightly as they did from what might have been a very serious catastrophe.

Mrs. Susie Barnes is in Cotesfield caring for Mrs. Everett Barnes and baby. The former is recovering from an appendix operation. 26-11

Ramsey Drug Store At Arcadia Robbed Thursday Morning

Merchandise to the value of about $200 was taken by robbers who entered the Ramsey drug store at Arcadia some time after 1:30 a. m. last Thursday. Entrance was gained by prying a lock on the rear door. Articles stolen included miscellaneous jewelry, candy, about three dozen fountain pens and a tray of lodge emblem rings. The thieves also took $1.70 from a drawer in the cash register, but overlooked another drawer containing $7.50 in change.

An effort to force open the safe was also made, the burglars using tools and hammers which they found in the store, but in this they were not successful. The fact that they ransacked the case in which poisons are kept and also the alcohol case, leads to the belief that they probably were in search of narcotics which however, Mr. Ramsey kept in the safe.

County authorities have taken finger print impressions found on the tools which were used in trying to open the safe, in an effort to locate the robbers who are thought to have been strangers. No trace of them, however, has been found.

HIGH SCHOOL ENROLLMENT TOTALS 300

About Same Number As Last Year Have Registered; Freshman Class Unusually Small.

Ord high school enrollment for the opening of the 1930-31 season is approximately the same as that for last year. The total enrollment, up to this time, is an even 300 for the high school. Of this number, 178 students are girls and 122 are boys. Out of the 300 enrollment, there are 132 non-resident pupils, which is a large number for such a total, and a source of gratification to those in charge, who are much pleased that so many students should be coming in from all over the county. There are also three post graduates entered for special courses this semester, according to the records in the high school office.

One of the biggest surprises when inspecting the results of the registrations to date, is to find that the freshman class for this year is comparatively small. The freshman class will be the smallest in the school this year, and usually the freshman class is by far the largest of the four. Last year there were 94 freshman entered, while this year the freshman class has only 65 new members. In the tenth grade, there will be 85 students pursuing various studies, while in the eleventh grade the total will be a few less, 80 people having signified their intention of taking such work. The graduating class will be one of the largest ever, if the fall entrance figures are anything to go by, and according to the present time 67 registered under this head.

The senior class is larger by eight members than that of last year, and in fact is about the largest senior class ever to enter the final year in Ord high school, according to records in the offices of Principal Wilbur D. Cass and Supt. of Schools Milton Bell. Let us hope none of them fall by the wayside.

Gross Land Sale Date Changed To Oct. 20th

The sheriff sale of the Gross land which was scheduled to sell September 22, 1930, has been postponed until October 20, when it will be sold at the west front door of the court house in Ord.

Hastings Young Woman Hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Creason, Leo Mader and Miss Helen VanBuskirk, all of Hastings, had an auto accident near the fair grounds Sunday when their car was crowded into the ditch by a passing auto. Miss VanBuskirk was quite badly hurt and Mrs. Creason took her to Hastings on the motor Monday. She was unable to travel sitting up so a bed was fixed for her on the round seat in the rear of the motor.

Tony Beran Leaving.

Anton Beran is this week advertising for sale most of his belongings in these parts, and will leave this country behind soon, planning to go to Lincoln and go into business with his father-in-law. We will all miss him. The ad will be found on page 11 of this issue.

W. H. Carson Funeral Held Friday.

The funeral of W. H. Carson was held Friday afternoon in the Methodist church, with Rev. J. A. Moorhead in charge of the service. The floral offerings were unusually beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which those left behind held Mr. Carson. A quartet of male voices furnished the music, and the Odd Fellows attended in a body, as members of the lodge acted as pallbearers. Rev. D. C. Williamson assisted with the services in the cemetery.

HOUSE OF DAVID PLAYS COLORED TEAM SATURDAY

Bussell Park, Ord, To Be Scene Of Clash Between Chicago Giants, Bearded Boys.

Fans of central Nebraska have a rare opportunity Saturday to see two of the fastest independent baseball teams in the United States play when the famous House of David team meets Gilkerson's Chicago Union Giants at Bussell park, Ord. The game will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. This is the important announcement made Monday by the management of the Ord baseball club which succeeded in making the arrangements and is promoting the game.

Everybody knows the House of David team which appeared here a few weeks ago against the Ord Mustangs. Fans know how fast these long whiskered boys are and they've always wanted to see them against proper competition. Now they'll have the opportunity.

For many years Gilkerson's Chicago Union Giants have been known as the fastest colored club in the country. They enter all the big baseball tournaments and usually win or are runners-up. In the recent Council Bluffs tourney they were finalists, being edged out in the last game by the Sioux City Kari-Keens. The next night they gave the Omaha Western League team a strong battle under the lights before they were defeated. In the Council Bluffs tourney four of the Giants were named on the all-tourney team.

The House of David-Giants game probably is the most important game ever played in central Nebraska and Bill Henck, who is in charge of arrangements, says he believes 1,500 people or more will attend. Special arrangements are being made to accommodate an enormous crowd at the park, he says.

Judge Clements Grants Divorces

Doings at the Valley county court house this week were not so thick and fast, and business in the district court is reported slower than for several years.

Two divorces were granted by Judge E. P. Clements at the Friday session of district court. The first was to Pauline Sharp, who desired to be released from a mate with W. Douglas Sharp. Her petition was granted, her maiden name restored to her, and she henceforth to be known as Pauline Perilinski. The charges involved mental and extreme cruelty and non-support was mentioned. There were no children concerned and alimony was not asked for.

A second divorce was filed by Beulah C. Perkins, and asked a divorce be granted from Francis S. Perkins. It was given to her, on the allegations of the plaintiff that Francis had a furious temper, was cruel and abusive, and that she was anything but supported properly. No children were involved in the case and no alimony asked for. This plaintiff also asked for the restoration of her maiden name, Gray, and permission was granted to her to use it again.

Two persons who would like to be called citizens of the United States were denied naturalization papers at this time when they could not give satisfactory answers to some of the questions asked by District Judge Clements. Their cases will come up for hearing again at a later date being continued so that the two men could do some further studying. One of these men was James Lacinia of Ord, and the other was Joseph Knopik, who sets his mail at Burwell now.

Wednesday morning at Sheriff's sale a 1927 Ford coupe once belonging to Verne Drake of North Loup was sold to the highest bidder for cash which in this case was William Peterson. Mr. Peterson paid $96 for the car, which was confiscated in a booze trial some months ago.

Lang Pitches No-Hit, No-Run Game Sunday

Beryl Lang, the big Litchfield pitcher, entered the baseball hall of fame last Sunday when he hurled a no-hit, no-run game against Scotia. He did not issue a single base on balls, either, and struck out fifteen. Litchfield found the Scotia hurler, H. Sautter, for nine hits but they got only two runs, both of which were earned. Needless to say Litchfield won, 2 to 0.

Frank Kellogg Weds.

Frank Kellogg of Burwell and Mary B. Ikeler of Riverside, Calif., were married last Thursday evening at the office of County Judge Paul Kirk, Grand Island. They left at once for Mr. Kellogg's home in Burwell. The latter is a former Ord man. He and his bride have been acquainted since they were young people.

Thursday Mrs. Albert Nelson of LaPlatte, near Omaha, came to Ord and is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Koll. 26-11

M. E. Church Notes.

Watch the new church building grow. The masons have finished the brick work and soon the carpenters will have the shingles in place. The wiring has been completed and the furnace is ready for installation with pipes all in place. The window man will be here Friday. So far the finances have been in good shape.

The architect was here last week for inspection and pronounced that it was going up in good shape but that it will need some good landscaping about the building. Then it will be one of the most beautiful churches in Nebraska, a building of which we will have a right to be proud, notwithstanding the fact, we must not forget that it is a means to an end and not an end in itself. God must and will be praised. Remember and give him thanks.

Elmer Bostock, a student of Nebraska Wesleyan, filled the pulpit a week ago Sunday night. He is now in New Jersey getting ready for work in Drew Seminary where he expects to complete his theological course.

The services were well attended Sunday and plans were made by the Sunday school for Rally Day Oct. 5th. Watch that date.

The pastor's report to the conference was sent Monday and it was the best report given by this church for many years. There was an average of every department of the church and the finances are in very good shape. If you are not helping with the local budget you are invited to see the church treasurer, Mrs. Lillie Bly, and make your pledge for the support of the new church.

Rally Day Coming. Oct. 5th is the date. We are planning on a program and a good time at the Methodist church. If you do not attend Sunday school elsewhere we invite you to meet with us on that day. Watch for further announcements.

Henry M. Cellx Selected. Washington, Sept. 9—Youth of the nation is turning to aviation so rapidly that the army has been forced to refuse hundreds of applicants for its next flying school opening on November 1, the war department announced today.

Out of a total of 800 applicants, 246 have been selected to take the arduous training course at Brooks Field San Antonio, Texas, and March Field, Riverside, Calif.

The new class which will begin an eight months primary flying course includes three officers of the regular army 37 newly commissioned second lieutenants from West Point, 23 enlisted men and 131 from civil life as on that list is expected to be whittled down at the end of the eight months primary course and successful candidates then will be transferred to Kelly Field at San Antonio for the finishing touches.

Among the West Point graduates assigned to March Field are Irvin S. Schimmelpfennig, Humphrey, Nebr., and Alva R. Fitch, Kearney. Among the civil candidates selected are Henry M. Cellx of Lincoln, Nebr.—Lincoln Daily Star. M. E. Sunday school in Old Building

The seats were moved from the Methodist church basement this week to the old church building now located north of the telephone exchange. Sunday school will be held in the old building the next two Sundays and there will be no preaching services. The pastor will be in Lincoln during that time and the carpenters will be busy remodeling the church basement. Asphalt will be filled in, raising the floor four inches, after which a board floor will be laid. This will protect the floor against any further trouble from dampness. The basement work will be completed in two weeks.

School Dedicated Friday. Dedication services for the new rural school house in District 4 were held last Friday evening. The school building was inadequate to hold the large crowd which attended so chairs were placed in the school yard to accommodate the guests and the program was given on the porch. Delco lights were displayed in the building and yard by Auble Bros. of Ord, thus furnishing the necessary lighting equipment. The new school building which is classed as a standard school, is a fine demonstration of the type of school needed in every rural community and one of which the patrons may justly feel proud. A hall, a large room with seating capacity for thirty-five pupils and a library room, whose shelves are already half filled with books constitute the main floor of the building. A full basement with a furnace room and bins for coal and cobs are other accommodations of the school.

The program as given at the dedication services Friday evening follows:

Vocal selections, Mrs. Edw. Christensen.
Prayer, Rev. Bursleigh.
Violin duets, Misses Mary Jane Rettenmayer and Louise Stanley.
Remarks, Miss Clara McClatchey of Ord, County Superintendent.
Address, State Superintendent, Chas. W. Taylor of Lincoln.
Song "America" by all.
Benediction, Rev. Gaither.

Has Arm Broken. Edgar Singsby, son of Mrs. A. L. Singsby, had both bones of his right arm broken four inches above the wrist last Thursday. Edgar had cranked the tractor and was going to mount the machine when he slipped and fell. The engine stopped and he attempted to crank it again when he discovered his arm was broken. Whether the fracture occurred when he cranked the tractor or when he fell, Elmer does not know, but he is fully aware of the fact that his arm was broken. Dr. Hill reduced the fracture and it is mending nicely.

Brooks-Carmody
We have just learned of the marriage of Miss Lenora Brooks and Seth Carmody which occurred at Greeley, Neb., August 27th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Brooks, pastor of the Methodist church at Greeley and the young people were accompanied by Mildred Carmody and Margaret Betts of Arcadia and Thurmen Carmody of Omaha.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Brook of Loup City. The past six months she was employed as a nurse at the Miller hospital in Ord where she made many friends.

Seth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carmody of Arcadia and is associated with his father in farming. He is well and favorably known in the community. The young people are residing with the groom's parents on a farm west of Arcadia. We wish for them an abundance of happiness and prosperity.

Knight School News.
School started Sept. 1st with an enrollment of eighteen pupils. Four eighth graders: Merle Henderson, Esther Woodworth, Pauline Woodworth and Lucille Singsby. One seventh grader, Eldon Peters. Two sixth graders: Lorene Hunt and Dillard Hunt; Lloyd Hunt. Two third graders: Maxine Woodworth and Florence Hunt. One second grader, Mildred Czarnek. Three beginners, Betty Czarnek, Doyl Marsh and Frieda Hunt.

Lorene was absent Friday the 5th on account of sickness. Clarence Singsby was on the absent list Thursday the 11th because of sickness.
Harry E. Weekly, county superintendent of Custer county was a caller Friday the 12th.

Marjorie Hostetter sees Passion Play In Oberammergau, Writes About It

The following was written from Istanbul (formerly called Constantinople) where Miss Hostetter stayed two weeks:

My stay here has been filled with the usual round of swimming, tennis, teas, and picnics on the Bosphorus. I stayed down at MacCollums from Wednesday till Sunday. Went to the community church services out at Roberts college. Dr. Shepard invited me out to their home in Bebek (suburb) one day and I also spent several days with the Birges in their lovely home in Rumeli Hisar (suburb).

Commencement exercises at Roberts College were very interesting. The majority of the 48 graduates were from Turkey, but some were from Greece, Persia, Albania, Yugoslavia, Syria and Bulgaria. The degrees given were A. B., B. S. in Electrical Engineering, B. S. in Civil Engineering and B. S. in Mechanical Engineering.

The amebic dysentery I contracted in Merzifon in the spring came back and Dr. Shepard insisted that I go to the American Hospital for a few days for treatment. To make a long story short, the rest of our party went on to Venice and I am to spend a whole week in the hospital here in Istanbul. At first Dr. S. said two or three days but I guess he doesn't believe in letting anyone out until it's safe. I thought I'd go Friday, then Saturday, then Sunday. But Sunday Dr. Shepard sent a telegram to my friends in Venice saying I'd meet them in Innsbruck, Austria June 30th instead of June 27th. We were going to go mountain climbing for four days then go on up to Oberammergau for July second.

The nurses here are so nice. The two head nurses are Americans and both so sweet and jolly. My nurse is a little Armenian girl, born in Bulgaria who can speak Bulgarian, Turkish, English, Armenian, French and Russian. My night nurse is a Turk, the head nurse on this floor is Russian, the orderly who brings my trays is German. There is one Greek nurse in the hospital but about half of them are Armenian. It ought to be called the International hospital instead of American.

Budapest— Here I am in Budapest. I left Istanbul Wednesday evening. Kenneth Birge took me to the station in his car and Ruby and Janet were down to see me off. My traveling companion was an old woman, Madam Baker, teacher of French in a school in Angora. People are always kind and obliging and one meets such interesting people.

Last night I tried to go to one of Verdi's operas, but just the night before it had closed for the summer so I went to a play.

This morning I went on an auto tour of the city and saw many wonderful sights. I'm enclosing a lot of pictures I took with notes on the back.

Oberammergau July 2.

I went from Budapest up to Vienna 3rd class. It was not crowded or warm so I had a pleasant journey. I met two retired "school marm" from Cambridge, Mass. who were jolly good fun. Because of having to spend that extra week in Istanbul I went right on through Salzburg to Innsbruck only staying over night in Vienna. The country out of Vienna was rolling and covered with lovely trees. Everything looked so neat and all the houses are so well kept that they all look new, but of course they are mostly very old. Long before Salzburg the mountains began and the scenery was interesting. I had planned on stopping there but I was tired and anxious to get on to Innsbruck and meet the others. We all stayed at the Roter Adler this year. Last year you remember it was the Golden Eagle (Golden Eagle).

The next morning we got up early and after breakfast took the funicular railway up to the very top of the mountain. We took some nice cloud pictures, played in the snow and got back for lunch. The afternoon I spent tending to my correspondence and then at 4:00 we went to a tea dance. Had lots of fun. First time I'd danced since last summer in Grenoble, France. We went to an old tavern after supper and had some beer. Filthy stuff but quaint tavern with funny carved chairs, plaid tablecloths and historical paintings on the walls.

The next morning we took the bus up into the mountains and wandered around under the pine trees. It was a glorious day. That afternoon we took the train to Oberammergau. We were met at the train by a regular regiment of porters, all with flowing hair. Peter, Paul, Annas and the others in the Bavarian costume—leather "shorts", green jacket and hat with a feather. We came out to our house in our hosts car.

After supper we went in to town to see the sights. We ran across Mr. Clark and Mr. Hazen who teach in the Boy's School in Tarsuh. Then we met Dorothy Post and her brother Dave from Princeton. You remember her father is a doctor in Constantinople and I stayed with her several days last summer here to Munich. Isn't that awful? went to a tavern and had a gay time.

It rained and we had to walk clear out to our place in the drizzle. They charge so much for everything here in Oberammergau, we just couldn't afford to take a taxi. It costs more to ride in a taxi from town out to our place than it does to take the train from here to Munich. Isn't that awful?

Yesterday morning we went in to town for the Passion Play at 8:00. It was very very fine. It has been revised since the 1922 performance and is considered much better artistically and dramatically. It was given in three sections with twenty-four "living tableaux". You know the Passion Play of Oberammergau is different than that of Fatunaga and has never been given any where outside of this town. It dates back almost 300 years having been performed for the first time in 1634. It has been for the community a holy obligation—the fulfillment of a vow made at a time of extreme suffering. For 2 years 1632-1634 the "terrible plague" raged in the valley causing much suffering and many deaths. Then the council of Oberammergau in their village church made the vow "to hold the Passion Play every ten years thereafter."

And from this time on not another inhabitant died from the plague. Quoting from this year's preface: "Oberammergau wishes to serve the All Highest and know that in course of the centuries it has received through Divine Providence a mission by fulfilling of its vow to lead the world which longs for peace, under the cross of Jesus from which true peace comes."

"From the crucifix's arms, The breath of peace moves Gently out into the world." All the prologues were recited by the leader and sung by the chorus. Then the performers stepped back to disclose the smaller stage where the tableaux were given. They were really lovely and very impressive. All the crowd and mob scenes were on the outer stage. There were 55 principle characters besides the mob scenes, and a 50 piece orchestra.

The Play lasted from 8:00 to 11:30 after an intermission for lunch it continued till 5:30. It began to rain again and we stopped in where the Posts were staying until the storm was over.

We're all going up to Munich on the 2:05 train this afternoon except Dorothy and Dave and they're going back to Austria.

The houses here are so quaint and very clean. It would be a lovely place to spend some time any other summer, but the prices are too prohibitive this year to stay more than the length of your reservation. Our second class tickets were $20.00 each—which included 5 meals, lodging for 2 nights and the play. We had very good seats and could hear everything. We used an English translation to follow the parts. I'll send mine home.

Big 4 Broadcaster Vol. 1 Thursday, September 18, 1930 No. 1 H. D. Leggett over at the Quiz office says everybody thinks he knows how to run a newspaper, and we're no exception to that rule. But we can't afford a newspaper of our own. Besides, we're too busy with the milling business. So we have arranged for this little corner in the Ord Quiz and we're going to devote it to the news of our business. We may not talk about Big 4 all the time. Maybe some of you Quiz readers may get your names into our "newspaper" occasionally. Also, we may decide to write poetry or high brow editorials. But we'll at least try to be interesting and we hope you'll watch for the Big 4 Broadcaster each week. There are lots of things around our place of business that we'd like to tell you about from time to time. New products being made. New ideas. Comments from customers. Things that we believe would interest you a lot more than if we tried to tell you all the time about what a wonderful establishment we have here. In other words, we want to make this space of some service to you, and we wish you'd advise us from week to week—criticize or commend, as you think we deserve. We'll need your help and "moral support." And while we're getting the Big 4 Broadcaster ready each week, just remember that we're also going to give you the best Flour, Cereal and Feed service we know how to deliver. That's the big aim of this institution, always.

Military Students Have New Uniforms LINCOLN, Neb.—Complete new uniforms and a new commandant will greet University of Nebraska men who take military training this fall. Col. W. H. Oury of the United States Army, who graduated from the University in 1897, will return as commandant of cadets. For the past several years he has been an instructor in the Pennsylvania national guard. Students will be most interested in the new uniforms which replace the old unsightly and uncomfortable garments. The 1,700 new olive drab uniforms for the basic students are furnished by the government without cost to the University, and replace the old wartime issue which had been in use for a number of years. The new uniforms follow the cut of the present army uniform with lapel collars and long trousers in place of the standing collars and leggings of the old uniform. To distinguish the students from enlisted men in the regular army,

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

Jack Pine Lodge on Cullen Lake, near Niswau, Minn. September 10, 1930.

Dear Quiz:

We have never been here in the fall when the weather was nicer than it is this time. In fact it is as near perfect as it could be. Monday morning Ray Luther and I took the boat and motored down to Gull Lake, the balance of the party going by auto to the Anderson resort at Rocky Point, where we got another boat. There were six of us, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hal-laway of Shelby, Iowa who arrived Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Luther and the Missus and I. We took bacon and eggs, bread and butter, coffee, pickles, fresh tomatoes and an apple pie. An out door fire on the lake shore made an ideal place to cook in. But I must tell about the boat trip down the lake. The distance is 20 miles and it took us nearly three hours to make the trip. We motored the length of our own Middle Cullen first, about 2 miles, then into Lower Cullen and another two miles to the lower end. There we had to lift our boat over a low dam and pole quite a distance through the thoroughfare. It must be a mile to Niswau Lake and it is a winding, shallow water way through a swamp.

It seemed to me we would never come to the end of it. We finally came out into Niswau Lake and motored down it to another runway which again wound through a swamp and into Roy Lake, through that and Spider Lake and then into Hay Lake, then into Upper Gull. Then through what is called the Narrows. This is more like a wide deep river winding among the hills for I should say three miles and out into Gull Lake, then 5 or 6 miles down the lake to the Anderson resort where our party was waiting and where we got a second boat. This is three in a boat we started fishing about 10 o'clock, for walleyes. We do this by rowing slowly along the drop off, out a half mile or so in the lake, where the water is 20 to 30 feet deep. At noon we went in and got dinner, then fished till about 5 p. m. We got 22 nice walleyes, the largest 7 1/2 lbs. We left our boat at Ozonite park, to be used the next day on a bass fishing trip in The Narrows. We didn't find the bass striking and tried it again this morning on Chime-na bay, a part of Pelican lake with the same result. This afternoon we fished on Upper Cullen but only got one walleye. We caught plenty of pickerel, all of them being returned to the water. We are going to fish on Gull again in a day or two, but have to make a trip to Pine river first to get minnows.

There is a lot of tarvia road building in this section this fall. The road which leads down around Camp Comfort was fixed this week and we are told that the Cooley highway from Merrifield to Pequot by way of Breezy Point is to be tarvia this fall, also the road leading around Pelican, which we have to travel to get out to the Merrifield road. The Cooley highway was so named for H. O. Cooley, formerly of Arcadia. Tarvia makes a wonderful road, almost as good as paving it seems to me, and it must be much cheaper.

The game warden told me today that a census of the porcupines in this county, shows one short and an effort will be made to locate the missing animal. It seems that a very close watch is kept on the animal inhabitants, as well as of the humans.

I notice the building of more cottages on the lakes this fall than ever before at this season and I am guessing that next year will see more people in this resort country than ever before.

The filling station at Niswau burned a few days ago. Some kind of explosion was the cause of the fire. I am told it will be rebuilt at once, bigger and better than before.

I made quite a shipment to Eugene yesterday, a box of fish, a box of caller ducks and a bird dog. The 4 call ducks are from a flock of famous callers raised by Ray Luther. He also raised the dog and has been offered fabulous sums for her mother, which money wouldn't buy from him. Eugene should be able to supply us with plenty of wild ducks this fall. Well, I guess I have told all the news and will bid you good night for this time. We may have better success on our next fishing trip. H. D. Leggett

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

The other day a farmer told a story about his horse named "Old Ned." This old horse had the peculiar ability to see a reddish or purplish colored cornstalk ten rows ahead. And to that stalk he would go regardless of the wild yelling of whoas. Once there, he would camp until the stalk was gone, or until a nudge from a sharp husking peg made further feasting inadvisable.

After a time it was discovered that the purplish or reddish stalks were those without ears. A few tastings proved that the sugar which ordinarily would have been in the ears was stored in these barren stalks, and "Old Ned," in horse wisdom, had learned to pick the sweet ones by sight.

This season the proportion of stalks without ears throughout the country is higher than it ever was before. The stalks that are barren apparently have more grain value within them. This and the increasing cash value of salable grains and hays are good reasons for making silage or cutting shock fodder now.

Of the two, silage has a much higher feeding value, but some men object to the disagreeable work in connection with the making of it. This is offset by the fact that silage is made in early fall when other farm work is slack and the weather is usually pleasant. However, the brief table of number of silos in Valley county indicates that they are not as popular as they might be.

1927	31
1928	30

Corn fodder that is cut when fairly green, and leafy makes a coarse hay of good feeding value. Recent trials at several experiment stations show that gains made by animals fed chopped fodder, in connection with grain and supplement, are surprisingly high, and that the corn fodder and stover both have a value not as yet appreciated by most stockman. They are especially useful for wintering idle horses, and starting cattle or sheep on feed. Stover may form half the roughage allowance for fattening cattle or sheep. Corn cutting also leaves the ground in better condition to farm.

QUIZ FORUM

Haps Bud Shirley.

Dear Quiz:

In regard to the Bussell park situation in Ord it appears to me that the city making enemies of many farmers over the county by action of the park board or caretaker's action in reference to the ball park. This week word is out that the House of David and the Gilkerson's Union Giants of Chicago will clash at the park Saturday. What an attraction for Ord. But why bar farmers locally from making any use at all of the park diamond. If the city wishes to keep the good will of the people, certainly there should be a good feeling between the farmers and the town.

In my observation it appears that farmers in some sections of the county are becoming thoroughly disgusted with the park situation. Recently the farm bureau team was chased to the fair grounds to play a game with the Mustangs. The caretaker said the grounds were too wet. A week before the game was scheduled to be played, the manager of the Mustangs went to the caretaker to ask permission to play at the park. At that time the grounds were rather wet but indications were that there would be no more rain that week, six days to go. The Mustang manager was turned down flat. The game was billed and played at the fair grounds lot while the park was as dry as a bone. It is expected that many people didn't go because the game was played at the fair grounds.

With the announcement that the two out of town teams are coming in to play at Bussell park it appears to me that it is time-local farmers and local people were given some consideration. Letting these teams participate and barring farm teams doesn't speak well for the caretaker, though he may be the best one in the state.

At a recent picnic in Ord, two boys ball teams were to play/ball. About two hundred gathered for the picnic. When it came time to play, the caretaker forbid the boys to play because of the so-called wet grounds. The boys played on the sod. I thought nothing of it when told about it but many farmers complained of the situation. Why not give the local people a fair break?

Komensky Club Invites. Alexandria, Nebraska September 5, 1930

Dear Editor: The Komensky (Komensky) club of the University of Nebraska feels that the citizens of Czech extraction residing in Ord need no introduction to its aim purpose and function. The name of Komensky "Teacher of Nations", dating from the seventeenth century is known among you as the name of a great teacher, philosopher, and Christian leader, the educator after whose teachings the whole American educational system is modeled and planned.

We invite those young men and young women of you who are returning, or coming for the first time to the university to cooperate with us in making this oncoming year the most successful of our history. We announce our first meeting for the third of October, in the evening, at the Temple, in room 203.

We believe our usefulness to be established and sanctioned. Our great Czech cultural inheritance of philosophy, art, literature, music and science is worthy of preservation and perpetuation. We need but recall our historical significance and the great immortal names associated with it to feel a glow of pride in our enterprise.

Our reorganization and rejuvenation has given us renewed vigor to carry on the torch of Komensky. We take great pride in knowing ourselves to be a people with a passion for education.

Our meeting shall continue the club's tradition; our first is primarily to be dedicated to an endeavor to more properly orient and adjust the new students, whom we particularly welcome. Pres. Stanley J. Mengler

GAINED EIGHT POUNDS; THANKS FAMED KONJOLA

Ailments Failed To Yield To Any Medicine Until Modern Compound Was Put to Test.

MR. GEORGE GILLIAM

"For three years I suffered from stomach trouble, backaches and constipation," said Mr. George Gilliam, 612 St. George street, Green Bay Wis. These ailments failed to yield to any medicine until I tried Konjola. The nature of my work requires good health and considerable strength. On several occasions I lost time from my work because of my ailments. I had pains in my back and the gas and bloating which afflicted me after every meal were terrible. I lost both weight and strength and soon found myself taxed to the limit to attend properly to my work.

"While taking the second bottle of Konjola, I felt myself getting stronger and more energetic. Up to this time I have taken four bottles and have gained eight pounds in weight. I suffer no more from those awful backaches and enjoy my meals because gas no longer forms. Because of the benefit it has brought me I know the sterling worth of Konjola and so recommend it to everyone."

The files of Konjola contain thousands upon thousands of such sincere endorsements. And what this amazing medicine has done for others it will do for you—for everyone.

Konjola is sold in Ord, Nebraska at the McLain and Srensen drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

NEBRASKA MILL TO AID SOUTHERN BISCUIT MAKERS

Southern mammals of the old school in Virginia and the Carolinas had the art of taking some flour, a little salt, some shortening and compounding it with water with such skill that a hot oven yielded a delicious and fragrant culinary masterpiece, known as salt-rising bread. In that country, with all the later advances and changing whims in diet, salt-rising bread continues to be the chief item of the table and all efforts to dislodge it have proven futile.

A Fremont mill is now making changes in its plant to enable it to make a salt-rising flour and a market is already promised the new flour if the section where hot biscuits hold their ground against all opposition from doctors and dieticians. There is little sale for this kind of flour in any other section of the country.

Salt-rising flour, as made in the Fremont mill, will contain soda, phosphate and salt, mixed very carefully in accordance with tested formulas. Unless the proportions of the ingredients are just right the flour quickly spoils.

With the flour ready mixed, the southern mammy who holds a queenly sway over the kitchen may be readily displaced. It will be possible down there soon for a mere man to take a measure of prepared salt-rising flour, mix it with water, mould the dough into shape and in short time remove from the oven a pan of lovely, delicious biscuit that will equal the mysterious skill of any southern cook of white or black extraction. If he is grateful for release from the autocratic domination of haughty cooks he may indite an expression of thanks for the enterprise of the Nebraska mill that converted good Nebraska wheat into salt-rising flour for his special need.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Benjamin and daughter Arvella spent Saturday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kellogg in Burwell. The Kelloggs were but recently married. Mrs. Kellogg has about recovered from injuries received in an auto accident, when her hand was badly hurt and three ribs were broken.

NOTICE WHEREAS, Beryl Woodworth, convicted in Valley County, on the 24th day of March, 1924, of the crime of Auto Theft, has made application to the Board of Pardons for a parole, and the Board of Pardons, pursuant to law have set the hour of 1 P. M. on the 16th day of October, 1930, for hearing on said application, all persons interested are hereby notified that they may appear at the State Industrial School, at Kearney, Nebraska, on said day and hour and show cause, if any there be, why said application should, or should not be granted. FRANK MARSH, Secretary, Board of Pardons N. T. HARMON, Chief State Probation Officer Sept. 11-21.

GASOLINE "END POINTS"

The temperature at which gasoline completely vaporizes and combines with air is the "end point."

This temperature determines goodness of gasoline—how completely it burns—how much power it develops.

So the new Red Crown Ethyl was given an "end point" suitable for instant power in the coldest weather—for extra power when the motor warms up.

Use new Red Crown Ethyl in all your motors and notice how quickly your motor starts—how rarely you have to shift gears—how much quieter and more powerful your motor is. You'll discover that this distinctly finer gasoline is also an economical fuel—a real luxury but not an extravagance.

At Red Crown Service Stations and Dealers everywhere in Nebraska.

HARRIET SUGGESTS YOU BUY SUCH A PROCK IN LIGHT COLORS FOR THE LAST HOT DAYS AND THEN DYE IT FOR FALL WEAR

BY HARRIET THE last warm days of summer deserve suitable costumes. With summer things selling so inexpensively you can kill two birds with one stone by buying a few bargains for the last hot days and then dye them for wear this autumn. The lacy weaves are extremely suitable since they will be the vogue this fall. If you get a white or pale pastel colored frock for little cost now, you can have a gay orange, a bright red or a rich purple frock for later on, with the use of a little dye. Whatever you buy now should be fitted lines, if possible. They are so much better for autumn. As for fullness it comes in in a variety of ways, usually below the hipline. The skirt's length should be at least to the middle of the calf, though a little below that is better still. The upper part of frocks nowadays is not so tightly molded to the body as formerly. There is a tendency to a little more ease in the waist as it joins the belt line. Some of them are distinctly bloused and some are merely eased into the waistline. The sports things you buy now are indicative of the new feeling of femininity in everything. They are apt to be little two or three-piece costumes that would do quite well for office wear or for school. Short sleeves prevail everywhere as summer ends, with the sleeveless dress not nearly so good as it once was. The elbow sleeve, the cap, the three-quarters sleeve all are infinitely more stylish.

The spectator sports frock of heavy cotton lace, left, has a wide sash belt and an interesting collar treatment. The hat is of stitched broadcloth. Appropriate for any smart sports event is the tennis frock of cotton net, right. A stitched velvet bolero and matching hat complete the costume.

broadcloth to top this is also quite excellent with darker costumes for fall. A second costume is a smart tennis frock of cotton net in a heavy weave that is fully as weighty as wool. It is a spring line costume with some gathers in the blouse portion above a narrow belt. There is an interesting little bolero of stitched velvet finish, in a rich autumn brown. This little coat is equally good over a flat crepe frock for autumn. The hat is stitched velvet also, in a brimmed effect that rolls back from the

ILLUSTRATIVE of an excellent buy now is a little spectator sports suit of heavy lace in pale green. There is a tendency to marking the normal waistline and its fullness is let in unpressed pleats below a fitted hipline. There are cute cap sleeves and a very new collar treatment, a square neckline with revers out on either side, a tiny vest of printed ribbon and the ribbon edging the revers at the bottom only. There is no collar in the back. A hat of stitched flannel or

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT
MRS. CLAUDE RATHBUN, Editor.

North Loup, Sep. 15.—(Special)—The float parade on the last day of the Pop Corn celebration will stand out in village annals as the largest in point of entries of any parade since Pop Corn days were originated. One of the biggest crowds ever in attendance at any North Loup celebration saw this parade which was made up of sixty-two floats, besides team displays, show automobiles and machinery.

As is the custom, the parade was headed by the Queen's float, bearing Miss Ruth Babcock and members of the royal party. The various classes of floats included those entered by clubs, lodges, rural and town schools, business firms and farmers.

Winners in the various classes were as follows: among high schools Scotia was first with two decorated cars, the school bus and a truck load of football boys; second place was awarded to North Loup high school with float entitled "Achievement." First place among two room schools and grammar grades went to North Loup grammar school. The title of this float was "The Surrender of Lee" to Grant. Second place went to District No. 36, Davis Creek, taught by Clara Clement Holmes, with float entitled "Farm Relief." One room rural schools and grades of the next morning entered together, and "Little Red Riding Hood" entered by the North Loup grades was awarded first place. "Cinderella" entered by Rural school, district 1 got second honors.

Among organizations "Byrd's Expedition to the South Pole" by Fortnightly club was given first place, and second, "Old Fashioned Garden" entered by So and So club. The W. C. T. U. was awarded second place in its class. In the Bible school division first honors went to the Methodist with a float entitled "Moses in the Bulrushes." The float entitled "The Golden Calf" entered by the Seventh Day Baptists, got second. The Loyalist Print Shop took first honors for floats entered by business men, and the one by Drs. Dallam and Hemphill in partnership got second. In the 4-H club division the Barker Pig Club got first, and the Junior Neighborly club of Barker second. R. O. Babcock's farm display took second place as there was only the one entrant.

Much credit is due Mrs. W. J. Hemphill and Mrs. H. C. Dallam and other members of the committees from the No 10 club who were responsible for the arrangements and for the success of the parades. Those who went to the trouble and expense of preparing floats are indeed public spirited citizens, who give their best efforts to make this long-looked-forward to event of Pop Corn Days, something worth while. The prize money itself would not be sufficient incentive for such effort were not a spirit of co-operation back of all the effort put forth not only in preparing the parades, but in every other department of the celebration.

As is the annual custom there was a drawing of lucky badge numbers from the platform south of the community hall on the second night of the celebration. Jesse Meyers was winner of the first prize of $5. $3. went to Mrs. Paul Gebauer, and $2. to Mrs. Roy Williams. Other winners of $1. each were John Lunney, Dell Barber, Ed Christensen, R. P. McCune, Charles Brennick, Mark McCall, Rolla Babcock, Miss Alice Kissenger, Clarence Bresley, J. A. Branigan, Richard Babcock, Mrs. Earl Blingham, Ivan Honeycutt, Esther Maxson and Herman Grant.

Mrs. Anna Tappan and daughter Vera of Ainsworth were in the village during Pop Corn Days. Miss Eunice Rood expects to leave within a short time for Greeley, Colorado, where she will enter school. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jontz are here from Baxter, Iowa, visiting relatives and a supper was held in their honor Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Maggie Annys. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Wheatcraft and son, the John Williams family, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wood, and Della Manchester. There will be another gathering in honor of these Iowa visitors on Saturday at the home of Mrs. Della Manchester.

A number of North Loup people enjoyed a picnic supper together Sunday evening at the park at Ord. Those who went were the Mitt and Leland Earnests, the Sam Shinneman, Elnó Hurley and Harold Hoepfner families. The Paul Jones' and Roy Colemans, and Mr. and Mrs. William Vodehnal.

Otto Bartz had a birthday Sunday, and two good friends of the Bartz family, Miss Maud Shepard and Mrs. A. H. Crandall got up a surprise party in his honor, held at the Bartz home on Monday evening. Rook was played, and a delicious lunch was served. Those present were the N. O. Madsens, J. W. Kildows, Clifton and Fannie McClellan, the Homer Samples, Fred Bartz, Mrs. A. T. Jones, Mrs. Crandall and Miss Shepard.

Mrs. M. D. Earnest arranged a surprise on her niece Velma Peterson on Thursday evening. Miss Peterson is one of the North Loup teachers and makes her home with her brother Laverne Peterson and wife. The evening was pleasantly spent with outdoor games and a picnic lunch. Those in attendance were the Roy Coleman and M. D. Earnest families, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Earnest, and Mrs. Dorothy Knapp.

Ms. Tom Hamer has been appointed as leader for the meeting of the Nellie Shaw Missionary Society on Wednesday afternoon of this week at the Seventh Day Baptist church. Her subject will be "The Health of School Children." The first meeting of the P. T. A. for the school year will be held this evening in the high school auditorium. Most of the evening will be spent in a social way in order for the patrons of the school to become acquainted with the faculty, as more than half of them are members of the North Loup faculty for the first time.

A feature of the entertainment on the last afternoon of Pop Corn Days was the open air program given by the four Greene sisters assisted by their brother Howard Greene and wife. Rev. F. A. Cummings, pastor at Omaha and division officer of Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri for the Four Square Gospel church was with the Greens, and assisted with the program by introducing their numbers. The young people left Sunday for Omaha, where they will assist in a newly established Bible school and conservatory of music. Miss Ethel Green will enter Omaha high school and take work in the other school in the evenings.

There will be no preaching services at the Methodist church next Sunday, Sept. 21, either morning or evening owing to the absence of Rev. Schwabauer at Lincoln, where he is attending the annual conference of the denomination.

Dr. W. J. Hemphill reports the birth of a daughter on Tuesday, September 16 to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Keown who live on the highway between North Loup and Scotia. The little lady weighed 8 pounds and is being cared for by her grandmother Babcock. The doctor also reports the birth of a son on September 15 to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hoon at the home of Mrs. Hoon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Anderson.

Chas. Kasson left on Tuesday morning of this week for Jacksonville, Florida, where he will engage in running a truck line. Mrs. Clara Redden returned Sunday to her home at Omaha after a visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. Fred Bartz, sr., of Riverdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klingensmith left Saturday for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where they will take medical treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Porter from Scotia will look after the place during their absence. The Geo. Hutchins family, late of Gordon, Nebraska, are occupying the Guilford Hutchins residence while they are at Sioux City, Iowa, for the school year.

Mrs. Leland Robbins of Nebraska City returned home Sunday after visiting for a few days in North Loup with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Robbins, and with her own parents, the Croppers at Sargent.

Mrs. Estrella Parsons left Sunday for Garfield county to be ready to take up her teaching duties on Monday morning. She will teach this year not far from Burwell. Miss Idella Swanson of Downs, Kas. is a guest of Marie Thomas of the Riverdale neighborhood and of friends in Fussysville. A party was held in her honor on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Williams. Twenty-two of the Fussysville young people were present. Out door games were enjoyed, followed by refreshments of ice cream and cake. Miss Swanson expects to return to her Kansas home the latter part of week.

Orville Babcock, his sister Ruby, Gertrude Hemphill, Marjorie Greene and Leone Van Horn left Saturday evening in the former's car for Milton, Wis., where they will attend Milton college this year. Young Babcock will continue his pre-theological course, Leone will take straight freshman work, and the other three girls will specialize in music.

George Hemphill left on Monday afternoon of this week for Philadelphia, where he will enter his senior year in medicine at Penn university.

Joe Chadwick, who has been working near Kimball this summer, is spending two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Clyde Chadwick. Mrs. Ed Temple of St. Paul was a guest of the E. E. Davis family during Pop Corn Days.

Baseball Star to Wed

Al Simmons, slugging outfielder for the Philadelphia Athletics, is shown here with his bride-to-be, Miss Dorothy Kuhn of Jenkintown, Pa., in their first picture together since the recent announcement of their engagement. They will wed in October after the world series.

Mrs. Florence Smith and daughter, Donna, of Grand Island, were guests of North Loup friends the past week. Miss Donna was Pop Corn queen in 1925, and had a part in the Pop Corn Days coronation program.

Ivan Eisele is the new helper of D. S. Bohrer at the Texaco filling station. Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Reed and son Burdette, formerly of North Loup but lately of Grand Island, were in the village Monday of this week, greeting friends. The Reeds were for a time the proprietors of the North Loup Bakery and Cafe.

Mrs. Jim Kirkendall and little son returned to North Loup after a visit of a few months with her mother in California. There will be a considerable amount of moving in the village in the near future. The Russell Kassons will occupy the place owned by the Nebraska Securities Corporation west of town near the cemetery, the Chris Backemeiers will move to the place owned by the same corporation on west of the one where Kassons will live, and the W. V. Brown family will live in the Paul Bartz house where the Backemeiers have been living. The Browns have been living in rooms above the bakery.

The Rood-Thorngate clan enjoyed a watermelon feed Saturday night at the home of Roy Lewis. The affair was in honor of Mrs. Helen Middaugh of Omaha, who is in North Loup on a visit, having come before Pop Corn Days. Mrs. Middaugh is an adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

Miss Mary Davis, who is teaching this year at Edgar, came to North Loup to spend the week end with her mother, Mrs. Nathan Thomas and daughter Iona were over from Callaway visiting friends during Pop Corn Days. Until recently, Rev. Thomas lived in North Loup, and was pastor of the Zion Evangelical church of Mira Valley.

Franklin LeBar spent the week end with his people at Ravenna, and two of the other teachers, the Misses Kissenger and Buchanan went to their homes at Hastings for the week end. Lois Kildow went to Lincoln Sunday to enter her second year's work at Nebraska Wesleyan. Mrs. I. J. Thelin and daughter Marjorie went Friday to Fremont to meet a friend passing through. They came home Sunday evening. The W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday of this week with Maud Thomas, Myra Thorngate Barber will lead.

It will be good news to the many friends of Hub Thorngate that he is steadily, although slowly improving. He has been having a relapse of typhoid fever. The Jim Bantas and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chubbuck of the Riverdale neighborhood attended a picnic at the Ord park Sunday given by the members of the Springdale Kensington club.

North Loup friends of Marguerite Thorngate Clapper will be interested in knowing that she, with her husband, C. H. Clapper has recently moved from Minnesota to the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation in South Dakota, where Mr. Clapper this coming year teaches what is known as School No. 26.

Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Hutchins and daughter Inez left Monday for Sioux City, Iowa, where they will again make their home during the school year and where the latter will enter her senior year at Morningstar College. She is specializing in dramatics.

Card of Thanks. Our most sincere thanks are extended to the many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and comfort during the great bereavement caused by the loss of our baby. / Mr. and Mrs. Will Beams.

United Brethren Church. Sunday school at 10 o'clock. At 11 o'clock an address by Mr. Burt Cummins of North Loup. Christian Endeavor at 7, Preaching at 8. You are welcome to all services.

ARCADIA LOSES TO ORD SUNDAY, FILES PROTEST

Matulka and Jensen Too Much For Cadytown Team; Umpire's Decision Disputed.

Arcadia lost a ball game last Sunday when the Ord Mustangs, reinforced by Otto Matulka and Andy Jensen, played on the Cadytown diamond and succeeded in piling up a 3 to 0 score. But the team didn't take its loss gracefully, no far from it, for in the eighth inning when Umpire Wolf made the only decision during the game that could have been questioned Manager Bellinger set out a loud squawk and announced that his team would play the rest of the game under protest. And that's the way the contest finished.

At that, it was a game to delight the heart of any baseball fan. Good pitching, plenty of extra base knocks, the losing team threatening all the time! A fine game, at least for Ord fans. Arcadia rooters didn't seem to enjoy it so much. The Mustangs gave fans a big hint as to future happenings when Hank Armatis, lead-off batter for Ord, poked out a tremendous three-bagger on the first pitch made by Steve Finch. On the Ord field the crowd had been good for a homer but the outfield at Arcadia was soggy and the ball didn't roll. Bodie, next Ord batter, flew out to left field and Johnson got the ball in so fast that Armatis was held at third. Bill Heuck grounded out to first, Finch to Bulger, and for a moment it looked like the Mustangs wouldn't score despite their auspicious start. But Andy Jensen, the Boelus slugger, remained to be reckoned with. And his hit was any time a reckoning. He strode to the plate. Finch pitched, there was a crack when bat and ball met and the ball sailed to deep center field with Freddy White pursuing it. He had just caught up with it when Jensen came across the plate and Ord's second counter. A moment later Matulka grounded out and Ord's half of the inning was over but the score stood 2 to 0 in their favor.

Until the third inning the count remained the same but in that frame Hudson was safe on Furtak's error, stole second and scored on a single by Betts to make the count 2 to 1. Ord made another counter in the sixth when Bodie hit across the centerfield fence for his first homer of the season. He crossed Lome plate standing up and the score was 3 to 1.

The eighth frame was most productive of tallies for both teams. In Ord's half of the inning Bodie struck out, Heuck drew a walk and then Jensen got a home run, his second of the day. Matulka then singled and scored with a neat slide on Burke's long single. Krejci grounded out and Furtak whiffed but the score was 6 to 1 in Ord's favor.

In their half of the same inning Arcadia made two scores when after two were out Johnson was safe on a fielder's choice and Burns, Bellinger and Hollingshead singled in succession. Johnson and Burns scored, making the count 6 to 3. Then occurred the play that caused the Arcadia manager to emit his squawk and file his protest.

Two men were out, Ballinger was on third and Hollingshead was on first, with Bulger batting. There were two strikes on the latter and Matulka breezed a third strike squarely across the plate. Umpire Wolf called it a strike but Catcher Burke dropped the pellet and it rolled to the backstop, where a crowd of spectators had gathered on the inside of the fence. Burke recovered the ball and whipped it to first, catching Bulger by feet. Arcadia partisans immediately put up a howl, maintaining that the ball had been caught and thrown back to Burke by an Arcadia rooter. Umpire Wolf explained that Burke had been between him and the ball and that he did not see it hit the crowd and called the play the way he saw it. Manager Bellinger insisted on protesting the play, though Manager Arnold offered to call Bulger safe on first and allow Bellinger to score on the play, which would have made the count 6 to 4. Even this did not satisfy the Arcadia management, who evidently knew the game was lost and sought any opportunity to get the game played over. It is freely predicted that Loup Valley league directors will rule the protest out without even the formality of a hearing.

There were few fireworks in the ninth inning and the game ended with the score 6 to 3 in Ord's favor. Otto Matulka, the Ord hurler, pitched for the York state league club this season and showed that he is due for the big time by his performance Sunday. Though he was nicked for nine hits he kept them well scattered and struck out fourteen. Only two of the three Arcadia runs were earned.

MUSTANGS WIN OVER ALL-STARS IN 11 INNINGS

Hard Fought Game Goes To Re-turn Clan by 4-3 Count; Re-nord Game Is Promised.

By a score of 4 to 3, Manager Charley Arnold's Ord Mustangs wrested a close decision from the Farm Bureau All-Stars in a hard fought game at the fair grounds diamond last Friday. The contest went eleven innings before the Mustangs could push over the winning counter, though they tossed away several opportunities to wind the game up in the regulation period. The All-Stars played heads-up ball in striking contrast to the sloppy exhibition given by the Mustangs, though the latter outbit the farm bureau players by a margin of fourteen to six.

The game gave signs of being a thriller in the very first inning when J. Chadwick got a life on an error by Athey, Clement advanced him to second with a neat bunt and Hutchins scored him with his stinging two-bagger. In their half of the same inning Armatis got as far as second base with a hit but was caught off the bag and retired when Bodie popped out to Dittman. The inning ended with the score 1 to 0 in the All-Star favor.

In the second frame the score went to 1-all when Krejci singled, stole second, went to third on Hutchins' error and scored on Covert's single. Covert died on second when Burke flew out and Dye and Furtak whiffed.

The Mustangs went into the lead in the fifth on two-base hits by Bodie and Heuck but the All-Stars knotted the count and then went one better in the seventh when Vernie Andersen was safe on Bodie's error, Barber walked and both scored on Fautt's two-base blow. Going into the eighth they held the long end of a 3 to 2 count.

George Clement was the All-Star starting hurler and did nice work for six innings, holding the Mustangs to five hits. He weakened in the seventh, however, and Sheldon was called to the mound after successive singles by Armatis, Bodie and Heuck. All of the hits were short, however, and Sheldon got out of a bad hole when Wardford and Hutchins executed a double play that retired Armatis and Bodie.

In the eighth frame the Mustangs greeted Sheldon with successive hits by Burke, Athey and Sargeant, the first man scoring to tie the count at three all. And here it stayed until the last of the eleventh. Sheldon had been breezing along nicely but retired at the end of the tenth in favor of Doug Barber, leaving Olean hurler who walked Ed Furtak at the beginning of the eleventh, and thereby lost the ball game for the All-Stars. Armatis, the next man up, singled, Furtak going to third on the hit, and scoring when Bodie laid a grounder down to the infield. The play was close at the plate but both umpires decided Furtak had beat the throw.

Steve Finch hurled 7 1-3 innings for Arcadia and yielded only six hits but all but one of them were for extra bases and three were home runs. He struck out only four. Betts, who succeeded him, yielded three hits and struck out four in 2-3 innings.

Jensen was the big noise for Ord so far as batting was concerned. Besides his two home runs he collected a two-bagger and a base on balls, which gave him a perfect average for the day. Bodie, with a home run, a walk and a single also looked good with the hickory.

Clyde Athey, who pitched the most of the game for the Mustangs did nice work for eight innings, holding the All-Stars to six hits and striking out seven. Armatis held the All-Stars hitless in the last three frames.

Charley Fautt starred with the bat for the All-Stars with three hits out of four trips to the plate. Alone he accounted for just half of the hits made by the All-Stars and drove in two of their three runs.

Most potent hickory wielders for the Mustangs were Armatis and Heuck with three hits each and Bodie, Burke and Athey, who got two. Both Heuck and Burke have been in a long batting slump and broke it with a bang in this game.

Burke appeared in a new role when he caught the last five innings and displayed greater proficiency behind the plate than he has shown in any position he has played. He probably will be used at this position in remaining games.

Eddie Furtak scintillated at second base for the Mustangs. This former farm bureau league player who was graduated earlier in the season to company that is at least supposed to be faster, is coming up rapidly as a competent second baseman. Last Friday he accepted six chances without an error and started two double killings. If he could begin to hit he would be a big asset to any team.

Scoring eleven runs in one inning, the Eureka ball club of the farm bureau league defeated Comstock 22 to 11 in a free swiftest at Comstock Sunday. Both teams hit the ball hard.

Bill Dodge pitching for the revised Eureka club hurried well but let up during the latter part of the game when it appeared to be clinched. Dittman, regular Eureka shortstop, was behind the bat and caught a nice game. Syl Carkoski, Elyria player, performed at short for the winning Eureka club.

THERE'S A MONOPOLY OF CUBS AND GIANTS IN THIS ALL-STAR NATIONAL LEAGUE TEAM PICKED BY MARTIN-LOPEZ, ROBINS' ROOKIE, MAKES IT

BY PHILIP MARTIN

NEXT to telling a Brooklyn fan that his team is not quite so good as the Giants, the best way to start a baseball argument is give your opinion of an all-star baseball team.

In giving you my choices for the all-star team in the National League, and the reasons for them, I must admit I had no difficult time in coming to my decisions. Most of the talent was confined to the Giants and Cubs—a snap! Here's the lineup:

Bill Terry, Giants, first base.
Frank Frisch, Cardinals, second base.
Travis Jackson, Giants, shortstop.
Fred Lindstrom, Giants, third base.
Kiki Cuyler, Cubs, right field.
Al Lopez, Robins, catcher.
Gabby Hartnett, Cubs, catcher.
Ray Kremer, Pirates, pitcher.
Pat Malone, Cubs, pitcher.
Bill Walker, Giants, pitcher.

First of all there is Bill Terry, who hits .400 and fields better than any other first sacker in the major leagues. Charlie Grimm fields almost as well but falls far short in hitting. Jim Bottomley hits a ball farther than Terry, but not nearly so often. Don Hurst and Gus Suhr are good young players, but not in Terry's class.

Rogers Hornsby at his best would be too good for Frankie Frisch at second base. But Rogers doesn't rate a nod this semester, so that leaves us Frisch. Critz is a good second baseman and a fine lead-off man, but his hitting is not of all-star caliber.

Travis Jackson, Woody English and Rabbit Marquave have all started at shortstop this season. Jackson is a great leader and a much better hitter than either English or the Rabbit. English, however, is batting well above the .300 mark. But Jackson's average is near .350.

Lindstrom and Traynor stand out at third base. Either would play baseball of all-star caliber. Lindstrom's batting average of .360, compared with Traynor's .360, wins him the assignment.

You'll have to admit that I've named a hitting outfield, with Klein, Wilson and Cuyler. Wilson hardly can be kept off, for he's a home run champion. Cuyler might be replaced by a man able to hit a few points higher, but we'd sacrifice speed on the bases and in the field and a deadly throwing arm by ignoring him. Klein also is a deadly hitter and fast fielder.

Malone and Kremer are the best winning pitchers this year among the right handers. There is no telling what kind of a record Kremer might have made with a pennant-contending team. Walker holds the edge on the southpaws.

In my mind there are only two outstanding catchers in the loop. Alfonso Lopez is a standout, and he's only a first year man. He's hitting .330 and handling those queer Brooklyn pitchers like a veteran. Hartnett has greater punch with the bat and more experience. But he is shaded a bit by Lopez.

keep them there," remarked Arnold moving on.

The brand of baseball played by the farm bureau all-stars surprised many fans when they met the Mustangs Friday. Pre-game dope from many, including Jack Sargeant, was that the farm bureau team would get beat ten or twelve scores. Perhaps the next time the horses and Arnold will respect the kind of ball played in the farm bureau league. They may be "just farmers" as Mr. Bodie says but they know how to play ball and make few boasts about it.

Olean Club Wins From Burwell Sunday

Manager Doug Barber's Olean ball club tied Mira Valley in the final Valley County Farm bureau league standings by virtue of the win to victory over Burwell Sunday at Burwell. The Mira Valley team closed their season a week ago in the league.

Ability to hit the ball won the game for the Olean club, they pounded Phillips, Burwell hurler, for thirteen hits. Doug Barber held Burwell to seven scattered hits. Zanger and K. Barber starred at the bat for Olean. De Lashmet was outstanding for Burwell.

Charley "Deacon" Arnold of the Ord Mustangs related one instance of his managership at the farm bureau ball league banquet Friday night that had them all laughing. He spoke of the time when he managed the Springdale club in the Sunday school league.

Arnold said when he started to manage the club, it appeared to be very weak. In order to get a stronger team, Arnold persuaded nine new men to go to Sunday school. The team went better and won a majority of their games. When the season closed the Springdale boys quit going to Sunday school, including Charley.

The Sunday school superintendent met Charley one day perplexed and said, "Charley why don't you or the rest of the boys continue coming to Sunday school?"

"Well, now I say, brother, I guess I got them interested and it should be up to you brothers to Valley county is losing two of her most progressive farmers soon when Anton Beran and A. B. Flala move to other sections of the state. Both are well known over the county.

Beran is president of the Valley County Bureau and has been one of the most progressive farmers here. He is moving from his farm north of Ord to Lincoln where he will be associated in business with his father-in-law.

Flala has been a member of the Valley County Dairy Herd Improvement Association and has been successful in power on the Tully place near Elyria. During the time he has been on the Tully farm, Flala has farmed altogether with tractor, having no horses on the place. During the five or six years he has lived here, he has been building up a good dairy herd which ranks second to none in the county.

Bringing of a 4-H beef carcass to Ord by the Andersen grocery indicates the quality of meat being bought by the butcher, John. Baby beves fed by club members always sell at a premium and few go out over the state. Andersen is lucky in getting such a fine carcass.

With corn selling as low as it has been for the past few months, it is doubtful if farmers in some sections of the state are making a penny on it. In fact, they are probably losing if they sell their corn directly from the farm and do not market it in livestock as they do mostly in Valley county.

A recent publication from the agricultural college indicates that the average cost of producing one bushel of corn in eastern counties was around forty-five cents for three year average. Farmers in Cass, Douglas, Fillmore, Phelps, and Saunders counties cooperated in determining the actual cost of production in 1929. The results are published in the bulletin. The average production for all counties was around thirty-two bushels per acre.

In figuring the cost of producing an acre of corn it was found that it cost $10.30 per acre in Cass county. This did not include marketing costs the most important of which are shelling and hauling to market. The cost of shelling is approximately two cents. The cost of hauling varies with the distance as well as, to some extent, with the locality. It is usually calculated on the basis of one cent per bushel per mile for the first three miles and one-half cent per bushel for each additional mile.

The Valley county crops judging team are anxiously awaiting the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show in Omaha when they will be the guests of the Middle-Western Grain Corporation during their visit in Omaha. In a recent bulletin put out by that organization, they declared the visit of the winning crops team to their state fair booth was among the most notable of all.

In contrast to the average cost of producing a bushel of corn in Nebraska, the ag college recently published another bulletin telling of tests made in several different counties, to determine the actual cost. Fillmore county reported that the cost was 80 cents per bushel. One farmer in that county reported it cost $1.76 while another reported but 66 cents per bushel. What can it be produced for in Valley county?

This column will probably be continued in the Quiz in future weeks but will probably be written from Lincoln at the agricultural college. Latest experiment returns will be made public through the column, sooner than is usual otherwise.

Wilber Zanger who lives at Olean declares his crop of soybeans is going to be great. They should make a good feed. It is believed that Zanger is the only Valley county farmer producing them for feed this year. They were planted directly along the highway by the Olean school house.

season. Lovel fans shouldn't expect too much at the start.

Now Reggie Beeghly, donor of the so-called Beeghly trophy to the best player in the farm bureau league, failed to produce the trophy last Friday. He said it didn't get here in time. It is my guess that it won't even be here in time to award it next year. Better award two or three more, "Lincoln."

With the winter season nearly on, Lynn Beeghly is already turning up his thoughts to Ord's All-Star basketball season when they are expected to put another first-rate team in the field. With money to buy new uniforms, they will probably be ordered soon and will include sweat clothes also. Beeghly played at guard on the Ord team last year. If Joe Krejci is as hot this year as last, the all-stars should enjoy another successful season.

Let Us Be Your Pastry Cook

Baking your own pastry is so foolish these days, when you can buy such good pastry here for less money than you can bake at home. Cookies, cakes, rolls, fruit bars and many other items are baked fresh daily. You can buy them in small quantities and have them on hand always fresh. Nothing but the best and purest of ingredients are used in our sanitary bake shop. You'll like our pastry as well as you like our Kremin Krust bread.

PRIMITIVE MAN LIVED IN NEBRASKA MANY CENTURIES AGO

The summer of 1930 will be prolific with achievements in searching for the elusive haunts of prehistoric man in Nebraska. Out in the fossil bed section of the state along the Niobrara river, eastern explorers have spent a profitable summer, a full report of whose findings will be later given when the records are officially written.

A University of Nebraska party under Dr. W. D. Strong, operating in connection with the Smithsonian institute, have been hunting for evidences that there was human life in this section five and ten thousand years ago. Near Murray, in Cass county, where a creek cut away a bank, there was revealed an ancient village site. It lies fifteen feet below the surface of the ground. In fact, there are two sites, one above the other, separated by two feet of clay.

Near Ashland on the Platte river is another village site. Fossilized bones and crude flint instruments indicated human habitations. The find was made about twelve feet below the surface of the ground.

"Nebraska," Dr. Strong believes, "is located in the heart of the plains culture area and in addition is crossed by two great river valleys which were roads of prehistoric as well as historic migration. We already have abundant evidence that man has lived in Nebraska many thousands of years and it is also clear that when we know his history here, much light will be thrown on American archeology generally."

King Tut's tomb may yet be a mere incident in archeology when the buried villages and cities of the western plains begin to yield their age-long secrets.

During the past five years many of the metropolitan cities of the United States have been equipped with Automatic Telephone systems either wholly or in part.

Manufacturers are working full time building the Automatic Telephone apparatus for many other large cities which have been scheduled to be equipped with Automatic Telephone apparatus within the next five years. These replacements are being made just as rapidly as the equipment and man power are available.

Indications are that it will be a number of years before many cities, the size of Ord, will be equipped with Automatic Telephone systems. The larger cities being considered of more importance, the replacements in general will be confined to the larger centers.

Ord's present telephone facilities are congested to the extent that major additions are necessary. This is an ideal time for Ord to adopt the Automatic Telephone system.

Our representatives will call on you and we solicit your hearty co-operation and moral support.

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at Ed F. Beranek's Rexall Drug store or at the nearest Rexall Drug Store.

IRRIGATION IS PROPOSED FOR LOUP REGION

Hardenbrook Tells Rotarians Of Federal Project That May Mean Much To Valley.

The possibility that the North Loup valley region adjacent to Ord may be named as a federal district for irrigation, drainage and flood control, was suggested Monday noon by Bert H. Hardenbrook in a short speech to members of the Ord Rotary club. Mr. Hardenbrook's remarks were the first information Ord business men have had that such a proposal is being made, and they applauded loudly, at once appointing a committee to work for the project.

Ord Rotary members met at the club to attend a meeting held by federal engineers.

Mr. Willis, chairman of federal irrigation work in Nebraska, and Professor Mickey, of the state university, have already made a preliminary investigation of the Loup Valley near Ord and have reported favorably. Mr. Hardenbrook said. About 5,000 acres of valley land between the Elyria and Sumner bridges would be included in the project, it is said.

The late season appropriated $5,000,000 for an investigation of flood control and irrigation prospects throughout the nation, Mr. Hardenbrook said, and a bill now pending would place $10,000,000 available for such work in Nebraska. The investigation of the North Platte is to determine how much of this sum can be used in this state and what portions of the state need it the most. Congressmen Bob Simmons, Professors Condra and Mickey and Engineer Willis are said to favor the North Platte project as most important.

Four farmers interested in irrigation were guests of Rotary Monday and two of them, Marion Cushing and R. C. Bailey, spoke briefly, extolling the wonderful possibilities of valley country soil and plenty of water. Two hundred bushel potatoes and seventy-five bushel corn are possible with irrigation, both agreed. Evert Smith and Wilbur Rogers, the other guests, concurred in these estimates.

Should this region be designated as a federal district land that can be irrigated would be assessed on a dollar matching basis with federal funds. Land owners would have to vote favorably upon such a proposition before it could be put over but it is believed practically all would favor it. Both irrigation and drainage ditches would be established and a flood water reservoir would be built some where in the valley above Sumner on land bought by the government.

Both the Rotary club and the Ord Chamber of Commerce have passed resolutions offering their support to an irrigation, drainage and flood control project here. Copies of these resolutions were sent to the meeting at North Platte with Valley county representatives.

AGRICULTURAL PAGE TO AGAIN BE QUIZ FEATURE

Geo. Round, Jr., Will Edit Page For Farm Readers, Starting With Today's Issue.

An agricultural page, which proved to be a popular feature in the Quiz last winter, will again be conducted by this newspaper during the fall, winter and spring months and the first ag page appears in this week's issue. Geo. Round, Jr., who assisted County Agent C. C. Dale during the summer months, will edit the page. He is a student this year at the College of Agriculture, Lincoln.

ELTON LUX

Others who will assist in preparing the page each week are J. A. Kovanda, Smith-Hughes instructor in Ord high school, Carl Dale, the county agricultural department, University of Nebraska, and well known farmers of Valley county. Feature stories about Valley county farms will be specially written for publication in future weeks. The local markets and Omaha livestock markets will be features.

Mrs. Tully Passes Away.

Just before going to press this morning, word came that Mrs. Irene H. Tully passed away at her home in Lincoln at 7:30 Wednesday evening. Funeral arrangements have not been made but it is expected that the funeral will be held Sunday at Ord. Friends will be informed by referring to the bulletin board at the postoffice, as to the hour. The Tully family lived near and in Ord for many years. Mrs. A. B. Flala is a daughter of deceased. A complete obituary will be printed next week.

Suffering With Hives

Mrs. O. H. Sowl and baby expected to be able to return to their home this week but Mrs. Sowl is suffering with the hives or something similar and has not improved as fast as her people hoped she would and is still at the Ord hospital. A specialist was called from Omaha Wednesday to consult with Dr. Miller and it is expected that some changes in treatment will effect a speedy cure. The new baby boy is doing fine.

PROPOSE START MUNY TELEPHONE COMPANY IN ORD

Business Group Believes Rates Proposed by Continental Too High, Will Fight.

Admitting that Ord stands in need of a new telephone system but believing that rates proposed by the Nebraska Continental Telephone company for an automatic system are entirely too high, a group of Ord business men this week started a move to establish a municipal telephone system here. The city electric plant has been a great success, why not a municipal telephone company, is the suggestion made in an advertisement in this week's Quiz, signed by over fifty men actively identified with Ord business interests. Spokesmen for this group say they are prepared to carry the fight to a finish—that they will not submit to a rate schedule so high as the one proposed by the Continental, owners of the present Ord exchange.

A proposal to build a new building and establish automatic service here was made a few weeks ago by W. W. Johnson, president of the Nebraska Continental. Rates proposed for such service were $2.75 per month for residences and $5.00 per month for businesses, single party service. Proposed rates for two-party lines are slightly lower. Rates for the magneto service now in use are $1.50 and $3.50.

"We believe that a rate scale such as is suggested by the Continental would be a great detriment to business interests of Ord and a great injustice to telephone users," says A. J. Auble, one of the leaders in the municipal telephone proposition. "Many people would not be able to afford telephone service at all if these rates were established and they would be an added and unfair expense to business men," he says. "We feel that the Nebraska Continental has been imposing upon us in the matter of rates ever since they took over the Ord system," Mr. Auble adds. According to him, the same company has an exchange in Burwell where the same type of service is given as in Ord and rates are only $1 for residence phones and $1.50 for business phones. North Loup with a local company, pays rates of $1.25 and $1.75 for the same service as Ord gets, he says. "We cannot see how it should be discriminated against in rate matters and feel that since we have been paying such high rates for years that the telephone company should have a fund set aside sufficiently large so that a new system could be installed here without a radical rate increase."

Mr. Auble says, however, that the municipal telephone proposal is not a bluff to secure a rate reduction from the present telephone company. "We are prepared to go ahead with it, subject of course to the wishes of the majority, and are already securing prices on a switchboard and telephones so we will have something definite to go on," he avers. He points out that installing a municipal system would not be so costly as it would seem at first thought. Space could be provided in the city hall and telephone wires could be strung on the electric poles already in use, allowing a big saving on these two items.

Both common battery and automatic types of exchanges will be investigated, Mr. Auble states. Most people feel that common battery service is plenty good enough, he believes, and if a radical saving could be made by installing such a system instead of the more advanced automatic type, it should be done.

A meeting of people who are interested in a municipal company will be called within a few days, Mr. Auble says, and at that time the proposition will be threshed out in detail. It is decided to go ahead with the proposal, and a city council asking for a special election will be circulated throughout the city.

Rev. Spracklen Returned.

The United Brethren conference has returned Rev. H. H. Spracklen to the Ord charge and he is now beginning his third year as pastor of the local church. Rev. Wantz, the new U. B. pastor at Midvale and Davis Creek, arrived last week with his family from Council Bluffs. They were guests in the Spracklen home for several days before moving to the parsonage at Midvale.

Alyce Johnson Is Quitting Business

The job department of the Quiz was busy the first of the week printing large bills for Miss Alyce Johnson, who is starting a big sale today, as we close out and quit business. W. B. It was decided Sunday to have a general clean-up at the Geranium church and cemetery next week. Some of the interior will also be painted. The old part of the cemetery which was not laid out in lots is quite difficult to keep in order, the grass and weeds must be cut by hand as the spacing between the graves will not permit any machine work. As this is all donation work the committee would appreciate it greatly if all those having graves at the cemetery would turn out to aid with the work. We owe respect to our departed loved ones so let us turn out Monday September 29, which is the day set for the cemetery cleaning, and improve the appearance of our little city of the dead so it will be a credit to the community.

Across the U.S.A. and back
IN REVERSE!
A triumph for the
NEW
"CRACK-PROOF" TEXACO

DRIVE a few yards in reverse gear. Notice how the engine races. Notice what a pull it places on your motor! Then imagine driving across the entire continent, from New York to Los Angeles and back — all the way in reverse!

That's exactly what the "back-up" boys, world's champion reverse drivers, did with a Ford at a speed of 10 to 12 miles an hour. This is equal, according to Ford authorities, to 50 to 60 miles in high gear.

Crack-proof Texaco meets every test

After they had conducted many comparative tests they selected the new crack-proof Texaco as the one motor oil most likely to withstand the terrific heat and engine strain. And once again the new Texaco has lived up to every expectation — has proved its longer-lasting qualities that will not break down under any driving conditions.

Modern engines demand an extra margin of protection. They demand better lubrication. Car owners demand lower oil consumption, smoother, quieter engines and freedom from carbon.

Success depended upon perfect lubrication

Practically all radiator ventilation and fan cooling were eliminated by driving backward. Their engine speed, equivalent to 50 to 60 miles in high gear, was maintained for 42 consecutive days. The abnormal engine heat was intensified to almost scorching proportions on the Great Salt Lake Desert, where the thermometer registered 121° F. Anything less than perfect lubrication would have spelled disaster.

House of David Easy For Negroes

Over 1,000 See Chicago Giants Win By 8 to 5 Score; Colored Boys Were Arlington Champs.

More than one thousand people attended a baseball game at Bussell park last Saturday between the House of David and the Chicago Union Giants, a negro team, and the colored boys won handily by a score of 8 to 5. All of their runs were made in early innings and during the latter part of the game the Giants took things easy. They won the South-east Nebraska tournament at Arlington the day before playing here, eliminating the Sioux City Karl-Keens in the finals.

Whitworth, a slow ball pitcher, was on the mound for the Giants here last Saturday and he had the bearded boys eating out of his hand until he eased up in the sixth. Leifer, the House of David hurler, was hit hard.

The work of Dwight, Giant centerfielder, was a feature of the game. He accepted nine chances without an error and was the best outfielder seen in Ord since Congo Collins appeared here with the Sioux City Stockyards last summer.

Farm Bureau Series With Iowa Champs Will Not Be Played

It is considered definite that the previously arranged series to determine the world's championship farm bureau baseball team which was scheduled to be held in Ord between the Valley county all-stars and a similar team representing Plymouth county, Iowa, will not be held this year. Information received at the county agent's office in Ord indicates that the Iowans are unable to come due to late play there.

The Iowa county has a league which is divided into two sections. The two winners meet for the championship. This year the outcome found both divisions tied. This had to be played off and then the county series before the Iowans could come to Nebraska which, in all probability, would have been too late.

Valley county farm bureau league fans and players are disappointed in that the local champions will not have the opportunity to meet the Iowans for the world's championship. It is hoped that the series may be arranged for an earlier date next year, thus assuring the playing.

Big 4 Broadcaster

VOL. 1 Thursday, September 25, 1930 NO. 2

The editorial writer of The Big 4 Broadcaster is a firm believer in the future of Valley county. Prospects are promising this year. Are you "tired" to get your share?

Business is good. Never too good, but good just the same. And we have every reason to believe it will be better.

Every year brings its hardships to the people of this community. But you don't hear many complaints. Most people are going right ahead, buying what they need, and looking into the future with confidence and enthusiasm.

Being a booster just to be boosting is all right, maybe, but there ought to be something back of the boost. We're fortunate here in Ord to have that kind of backing. We've got a good town, a good community, good people, good schools, good churches.

You can buy too much of anything, of course. But we don't believe anybody ever lost money by buying the things he actually needed. Lots of equipment a man pays for by not having it. Ever think of that?

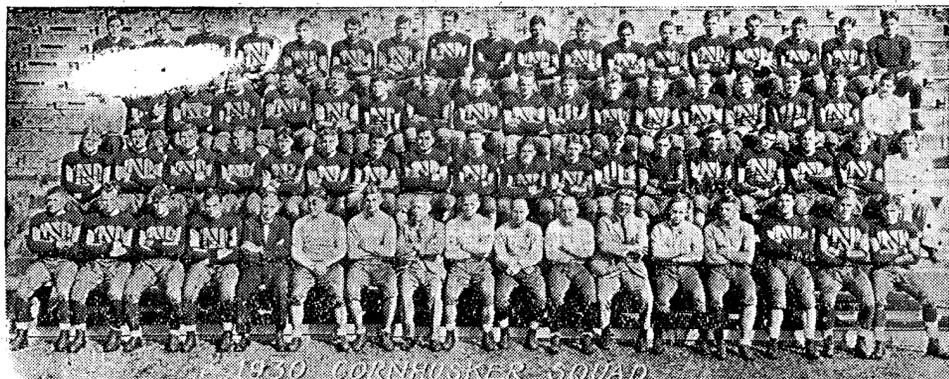

General conditions in the milling business point to good times in this section. We hear optimistic comments every day.

We know a man who has decided to sell his second car and pay off the mortgage on his first one.

An Ord lady read the statement of the First National bank the other day. 'Isn't that fine,' she said. 'Both Sides of their figures are exactly even.'

Have you noticed that men don't tip their hats to ladies anymore? Why is that?

LINCOLN, Nebr.—Football season is underway with the 1930 Cornhuskers working out under the direction of Head Coach Dana K. Bible, now serving his second year as tutor of Scarlet and Cream football. The first game of the season is with Texas Aggies at Memorial stadium, Saturday Oct. 4, lifting the lid on a nine-game slate which includes three inter-sectional battles, five conference contests and a game with a traditional rival of some years back.

The fourteen lettermen on the Nebraska squad this year are Harold Frahm, Robert Young, Claude Rowley, Marvin Paul, Wally Marrow, backs; Steve Hokuf and Frank Prucka, ends; Hugh Rhea and Marion Broadstone, tackles; George Koster, Elmer Greenberg, Charles Justice, James Gilbert, guards; Felber Masdam, center.

Reserves of last season and sophomores showing promise include James Milne, Bill Bokenkroger, H. Yost, Bert Durkee, George Hartman, Chick Byrnes, Morris Nesmith, end; R. Jenkins, Ardean Petersen, Kern Fogarty, Roscoe Kroger, Russell Freeman, tackles; Jerry Adam, Corwin Hulbert, L. Miller, Ludwig Gartner, guards; Forrest McPherson, Lawrence Ely, Clare Campbell, center; Chris Mathis, Bob Manley, Lewis Brown, Everett Krelzinger, Buster Long, Bob Raugh, Art Perry, Lee Penney, Berne Packer, Carlyle Staab, Marvin Swanson, Clarence Nelson, Bob Stanberry, backs.

Ord Mustangs Drop Season's Final To Scotia Demons

A pick-up Ord Mustang aggregation journeyed to Scotia Sunday and lost the final Loup Valley league game of the season to the Demons by a score of 8 to 3. It was Scotia's second win of the year. Manager Arnold had difficulty in assembling nine men to make the trip. Hill, Athey and Bodie hurtled for Ord while Hook Durysa was on the mound for Scotia. The loss eliminated Ord from the money in the Loup Valley league race.

Jobs in Jest

Cosmeticians are doing an increasing business. Alas, even the good dye young these days.

"Lone Chicago Credit Holds Up Two Football Kicklines. Now if it were a little way around, that would be all right."

In England, a chair that a Chair of Humor has been established at one of our universities. There's a school which should have a successful football team, what with all its punters.

One of the best players on the university of Missouri football team is named McGirl. And they say players on the rival teams are planning to rush him.

You will notice that the man in the family who foots the bills is always obliged to toe the mark.

The unemployed in this country are not so badly off after all. In avaria, we read, the jobless are old dote in the form of limburger cheese.

Ord Camels Take Fast Conflict From Joint Team Sunday

Probably the last baseball game that will be played in Ord this year was an attraction at Bussell park Sunday, joint meeting of the Ord Camels, winners in the Farm Bureau league. The Camels won by a score of 5 to 2. Everett Drake of Horace was on the hillock, for the Camels, while Mattern tolled for the joint. Both were fairly effective. Drake holding jointly to five hits while Mattern yielded eight blows. The box score follows:

Pussyfoot's Sportlog

By GEORGE ROUND, JR.

The earnestness with which members of the Ord high school football squad went about practicing at the park recently when I happened to be lucky enough to see them in action impressed me very much. It appeared to me that friend Joe has a bunch of youths this year who are going to do something and who will be willing to work for him.

Among the bunch of over forty candidates for the team there were some huskies that ought to win a few games for Ord high. The only trouble is that they are all new and have had little football experience. After the first few games they should begin to develop and win a few games. I don't expect much at the start though.

Wonder who the Arcadia people will be accusing of throwing ball games next? I'll bet they don't accuse my friend Stephen again very soon. . . . Doc Barber of Olean wants the farm bureau league to get under way sooner next year. It is highly probable the season will start before June 1 next spring. . . . The barnstorming tour of the Omaha western club has been canceled. Otto, Matulka, who recently picked for Ord, told me that the suspension of many Omaha players caused the postponement of the trip. Matulka was to accompany the club. He should be good enough.

Coach Henry F. Schulte of the University of Nebraska has recently said that Chris Mathis will be the greatest quarterback ever developed at Nebraska. John Bentley sports editor on the State Journal, believes he is right. Mathis certainly showed up well in the initial scrimmage last Wednesday when he alternated with "Red" Young carrying the ball to have his team win 12 to 0. Chris looked good directing the team play and I hope Schulte is right about his prediction. Weighing but 140 pounds, Chris has taken up for the weight loss in ability to run shifflly.

Ord and Valley county people will remember Mathis as the smallest of the four young men working in Ord and North Loup this summer on barley practices. They will hear more about Chris this year and in future years. He is a great prospect.

If Mathis is the regular quarter on the Scarlet and Cream team this year it will prove that a man doesn't necessarily have to have a lot of beef to perform with college teams today. It is usually a quest tion of whether or not they have football in them. Chris has.

Though Quiz readers may be under the impression that I harbor hard feelings toward "Bud" Shirley of the park it is not true. Bud has always been a friend. When I wrote a paragraph or two in the forum last week it was done in behalf of myself and other people who are interested in the park situation.

Bud, it is admitted, is in a hard position. He catches it from the golfers and the baseball players. Perhaps he is acting under orders of the park board when he admits only certain teams to play on the diamond. There should be no hard feelings between Bud and myself.

Boyd Weekes, former Ord boy, is expected to be the mainstay on the Broken Bow high school football team this year. He has played two other years at the Bow and made a name for himself. Being a big man, "Teets" is well able to take care of his position in the line. He is expected to graduate from the Broken Bow schools this year.

LOW PRICED EXCURSION TO OMAHA For the week-end of October 4 and 5 Union Pacific will sell round trip chair car ticket Ord to Omaha for only $4.25. Usual sale dates and return limits. Night football at Creighton Stadium Saturday October 4 at 8 P. M. Creighton vs. Kansas U. For particulars phone or see Union Pacific Agent.

Ansley Shuts Out Arcadia Team, 9-0

Johnny Long was in fine fettle Sunday and held the Arcadia Loup Valley league baseball team to five scattered hits while his Ansley team mates were pounding Betts and Dunker for thirteen blows. Ansley won, 9 to 0, thereby clinching second place in the league. Long whiffed eleven while Betts struck out but three and Dunker four. The Arcadia team erred five times. The box score:

By H. D. Leggett

Jack Pine Lodge on Middle Cullen Lake, near Nisswa, Minnesota.
September 16, 1930.

Dear Quiz:
As I anticipated in a story a couple of weeks ago, the woods here are becoming beautiful. There was a frost a few days before we came, to be exact, the 29th of August and there has been no frost since. That one light frost was enough to start the leaves to turning and every trip through the wood roads thereabouts, discloses new trees turned to rainbow colors. The first scarlet bush made us exclaim with delight. Now many trees are scarlet and the winding roadsides look like a ribbon of flame at first glance. Then there are the yellow shades of the poplars and aspens mixed in with the green of the Jack Pines for a background. We wish, every day, that the Quiz family could see the beauties of this country at this time.

Hi, Flora and Shirley and Joe Kokes drove in at 8:30 Thursday evening. They said they left home at 3:30 that morning. I believe they are all having a good time and Grandma and Grandpa are sure enjoying having the baby girl here. We were getting lonesome for her and when she goes home we will not be long in following. The boys have had 1-2 days on Gull and have caught plenty of walleyes. Hi has the record, getting one this A. M. that weighed well toward ten pounds. I don't know how large it will be by the time Hi gets back to Ord but big fish have a way of growing long faster after they get caught or strike and then get away, than before.

Lou and Della will start for home tomorrow, Tuesday, and they will have 20 mighty fine walleyes to take with them. They live in Shelby, Ia. where Mr. Holloway is a manager for a telephone company with exchanges in several towns. Now we have an incentive to get busy and get fish for Joe and Hi to take home with them. They say they will go Friday, so they will be telling their experiences nearly a week before Quiz readers get this story.

We have been renting a couple of boats at the Rocky Point resort, taking our Elto along and trailing our second boat out to the fishing grounds. This morning as we started out for the mile run to the reef where we wanted to fish, the motor gave a snort or two and then refused to budge again and after a few attempts we gave it up and rowed the boats out. This evening the boys took the motor to pieces and found we had a broken connecting rod and I have got to go to town and get a new one before we can use it again. Years ago we used to be well satisfied to row the fishing boats but that seems like hard work now and we feel that we are out of luck without a motor.

A Mr. Johnson, local farmer, asked me yesterday if I knew W. Misko and told me about Mr. Misko being here fishing some ten years ago. He said he had a good laugh when Mr. Misko went out to catch crapples and for bait, used a wooden plug bass bait with several gangs of three hooks on it, and with a minnow on each hook. It is soon learned better but Mr. Johnson seemed to think it a good joke.

It is still dry and warm here. We had a little rain Sunday but not enough to do any good. I am sure surprised that it stays so warm here. We would really like to see colder weather.

Well, there is not much news here. There are so few people here that there is not much to write about.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

Bussell park has within its boundaries a prospective fortune in walnut timber. Its grove of over two hundred young walnuts has many advantages over ordinary forest trees. Besides serving the ordinary purposes of shade and ornamentation, it has an economic value in the form of lumber and nuts.

If they were properly thinned out for lumber purposes, the park trees would make merchantable saw logs in forty years. Each tree should yield from 25 to fifty dollars worth of lumber, according to present valuations. This is what Nebraska farmers are getting for standing trees at the present time. Prices for walnut wood have been increasing steadily since 1915. They will in all probability continue to rise, as walnut has a great variety of uses, and all cabinet woods are getting scarce. Recently a walnut log measuring 35 inches in diameter and 12 feet in length sold for $165. In Tennessee, Black walnuts are white. This fact is revealed if the shell is scrubbed to remove the black stain left by the hull. A good sized tree will yield about a peck of nuts; these will sell for about four dollars a bushel. The nut meats are marketed at prices ranging variously from thirty cents to over one dollar per pound. A bushel of nuts contains about ten pounds of kernels, which must be removed by hand. The yield of walnuts is not large enough to make them a staple crop.

Walnut trees are started by planting the nuts about three inches deep. This can be done either in the fall or spring. Most of the nuts will germinate the first season. The trees are difficult to transplant on account of their long taproots.

The walnut tree stands in very good favor with farmers as a tree for fields and pastures. Crops grow well with it because of its deep root system, and its thin open foliage which casts only a light shade. As a rule the most luxuriant growth of blue grass is found at the base of the walnut tree. It is the best tree to plant on rich wasteland.

Because of the important service which its wood rendered during the war, and its desirable qualities as a tree in general—not overlooking the frequent crops of edible nuts—the black walnut is becoming increasingly popular as a tree to plant for memorial occasions.

KONJOLA ENDS TEN YEARS OF LADY'S MISERY

Just Another of Tens of Thousands of Proofs of New Medicine's Amazing Merit.

MRS. SAMUEL HARTINGER
"After ailing for more than ten years and trying many medicines without success, as a last resort I tried Konjola," said Mrs. Samuel Hartinger, 616 North Washington street, Aberdeen. "Five bottles have restored me to health. I suffered terribly from a stomach trouble for everything I ate soured, and the gas caused great distress. My nerves were shattered, and I ached to my finger tips. Finally my condition was such that I could not do my housework. Even the slightest noise made me irritable; my nerves were beyond control!"

"But what a difference today! Up to now I have taken five bottles and will take the two that the Konjola Man gave me as a present. Improvement began with the very first bottle. Gradually indigestion disappeared; I could sleep fine and energy increased daily. My stomach is no longer sour and gas does not bother me. I heartily endorse Konjola."

Konjola has become the most talked of medicine in America because it makes good. And Konjola makes good in the most stubborn cases where given a fair trial. Six to eight bottles is recommended as a fair test.

Konjola is sold in Ord, Nebraska at the McLain and Sorensen drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

for the first time. It is not known yet whether young Round has pledged a fraternity or not at Omaha. He was a non-fraternity man at Lincoln where he went to school for two years.

Another Ord boy at the medical college this year is Chauncey Hager Jr. of Ord who is attending for his second year. Throughout the summer Chauncey has been at home working on his ice cream freezer patent which he hopes to dispose of in great quantities next year.

Lumir Beran of Ord is attending Nebraska for his first year in pre-med work. He plans later to go to Omaha to enter the medical college. While in high school at Ord he was a star long distance runner on the track team. It is not known whether he will go out for track at Nebraska or not. At his best, he will need training to be able to compete on the Nebraska squad.

Another graduate of the 1930 class who is enrolled at the Cornhusker school is Elmer Palmatter. When starting for school Elmer intended on majoring in botany.

Arthur Bailey who has probably made a bigger name for himself at Nebraska than any other Ord student of all time is attending law college in his second year. He received his degree from the University last spring. He is president of Delta Upsilon fraternity this year.

Without doubt there are many other Ord, North Loup, and Arcadia young men and women attending Nebraska whom I know nothing about now. Within the next two months I hope to have a little "dope" on them all.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson of Burwell spent Sunday in Loup City.

CORNHUSKER!

By Geo. Round, Jr.
Although the Cornhusker handbooks are not out yet, it is considered probable that the number of Valley county boys and girls attending the University of Nebraska this year is at least equal to the number in former years. Definite information will be forthcoming within the next two months.

Some students at the Husker school about showed their colors last week and hit the trail for home when they were met with the robbery reception. It at least kept the new students in a fine pitch for the opening of school.

John Round, son of Sheriff and Mrs. George Round of Ord is attending the medical college of the University of Nebraska, this year

BEWARE of TOO LOW consumption of Motor Oil . . .

Small consumption of motor oil may mean that the oil is not working up into the cylinder walls—that also, it is not lubricating the bearings sufficiently.

This is most likely to happen in a new motor with snug-fitting parts that are not worn—if your oil is too heavy.

For this reason be sure that you use new Polarine of the most suitable grade. Only high quality oil of the right grade can give protective lubrication—can prevent wear and loss of power.

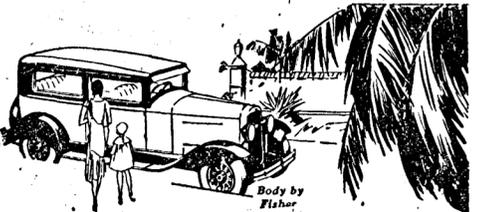

New Polarine lubricates efficiently at all engine temperatures—deposits least carbon—resists dilution. It is the safe oil for year 'round use in all types of motors.

AN OPEN LETTER TO TELEPHONE USERS

IF ANY CITIZEN or group of citizens was successful in locating an industry with an annual Pay Roll in excess of $14,000.00 in the city of Ord it would be considered an accomplishment and rightfully so.

If the locating of such an industry in the city is important, it is equally important that industry be maintained in a healthy condition by the support and good will of the citizens.

Your Telephone Company not only has such a Pay Roll but is a large taxpayer as well.

The present system in Ord, is inadequate and obsolete for a city of such prominence and importance.

Magneto Telephone service is generally confined to villages of five hundred population or less because of the fact that it has been found to be too slow and awkward to deliver the high type of service demanded by larger communities.

That the telephone is today a very important factor in the business and social life of the people of Ord is evidenced by the fact that the additional facilities provided some nine years ago are today entirely exhausted, having been consumed by the ever increasing demand for more and better telephone service.

To properly provide a city with economical efficient telephone service requires much painstaking effort and a goodly amount of expert knowledge of the telephone business.

For the past two years the engineers and operating officials of this company have been working on the problem of furnishing the people of Ord with a high type of telephone service.

This effort was put forth in response to repeated requests by the patrons of the telephone company for a better and higher type of telephone service in the Ord exchange.

The results of this effort reflect that an entirely new layout is necessary to effect a proper permanent improvement in the telephone service in the Ord exchange.

The present frame and metal structure housing the central office quarters must be replaced with a fire proof building especially designed to accommodate the central office equipment. As it is both expensive and extremely hazardous to expose the central office equipment to such a tremendous fire hazard.

The present magneto central office equipment is overcrowded and inadequate for the telephone needs of the community and must be replaced with a new and more modern type of equipment.

The present distributing system consisting of a large quantity of open wire construction and small cables is severely congested, improperly routed and badly deteriorated and must be replaced with a combination of underground and aerial cable construction routed wherever possible through the alleys.

Since magneto service is inadequate for the telephone needs of the community it is necessary to replace each and every one of the present magneto telephone instruments with a new and more modern type of telephone instrument.

It is conceded by telephone engineers and patrons alike that Automatic Telephone service is the most efficient and desirable type of telephone service obtainable today.

Practically every large city in the United States is today equipped with Automatic Telephone service either wholly or in part, and it is anticipated that within a comparatively few years the demand for this type of service will place it in every exchange of importance throughout the country.

Since a change in the type and character of the telephone service in the Ord exchange is necessary and since such a change requires an entire replacement of the present plant and equipment it is obvious that the system adopted should be of the most modern type obtainable in order to avoid a recurrence of the present condition in the immediate future.

That the adoption of Automatic Telephone service in the Ord exchange at this time will reflect an economy in the telephone schedules in years to come is evidenced by the schedules now in effect in the Lincoln, Nebraska exchange where telephone patrons have enjoyed Automatic Telephone service for a number of years.

The Telephone Company proposes to make all of the foregoing changes and replacements and to furnish full Automatic Telephone service at a schedule of rates which are comparatively lower than are being charged for common-battery telephone service in neighboring cities of comparative size or smaller, all of which are subject to the approval of the Nebraska State Railway Commission.

The proposed changes and replacements in the Ord exchange involve expenditures of approximately $125,000, the major portion of which will be disbursed locally for labor, materials, etc., and will find its way through all channels of business.

When complete Ord will have a telephone system second to none in the central west and it will be the seventh Automatic Telephone system to be installed in the state, the others being, Omaha, Lincoln, Kearney, Seward, Columbus, and Newman Grove.

Our representatives are interviewing each patron in the Ord exchange regarding the foregoing changes and replacements, and each and every progressive citizen should lend their support to this worthy enterprise.

The telephone company is a public service corporation and as such it is necessary to have the cooperation of its patrons in order to properly function. The policy of the company with respect to its patrons is, the greatest good to the greatest number, with fair treatment to all.

All of the foregoing is in the interest of more and better telephone service. It is a very commendable and necessary undertaking and is deserving of the moral support of every Ord citizen.

Your Telephone Company has no quarrel with any citizen or group of citizens. We are sincere when we say, "We Desire To Please You."

Our only request is that you grant us the same consideration in this matter that you would your Grocer, Butcher, or Clothier in a similar matter.

Approximately seventy-five percent of the Business and Professional men have endorsed our program to date. May we have your cooperation?

Football Season to Open.
Coach Tuning has been putting the Arcadia football squad through the ropes for the past two weeks and is getting his aggregation lined up for their first game of the season which will be played here next Saturday against the Comstock high school team.

While 28 men reported for football this season, the coach is handicapped to a certain extent as only five letter men reported. The schedule this season calls for nine games, five at home and four away.

Ward and Sons Heavy Winners.
U. R. Ward and Sons won the following ribbons on their Duroc and Spotted Poland China hogs at the Merrick county fair at Central City, last week: 13 firsts, 10 seconds, 2 senior champions, 2 grand champions and 3 junior champions.

Their total winnings at the six fairs which they attended this year including St. Paul, Burwell, Ord, Broken Bow, Grand Island and Central City were 96 firsts, 45 seconds, 16 thirds and 44 champions.

Auxiliary Notes.
Only a few members attended the special meeting of the Legion Auxiliary that was held at the Community Park Wednesday Sept. 17. Those few were quite a few carpet rags and it is hoped that the next meeting which will be held at Mrs. W. F. Pickett's Friday, Sept. 26th will be better attended.

It is almost time for another year to start and how we wish that all who are eligible would join. Even though we should forget what these boys have gone through, they cannot forget. Mothers, wives and sisters who have to see their boys lying a hospital month after month cannot forget.

The work we do seems small but every little helps so much. Please think it over and decide to do your bit to ease the boys suffering.

Verna Gregory, P. P. Ch. Losses Milk Cows.
Francis Marsh had the misfortune to lose seven head of milk cows Sunday from eating corn after they had made their way into the corn field. Ten cows were in the group that entered the field but they were able to save three of them. This is a decided loss to Mr. Marsh.

Breaks Arm.
Clinton Masters, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Masters, had both bones of his left arm broken at the wrist Saturday morning when he fell from his pony while riding in the back yard at his home. The injury was properly cared for and it is now healing nicely.

Berwyn Folks Plan Surprise.
About forty-eight Berwyn friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Waterbury drove to Arcadia last Sunday and spent the day with them. Mr. and Mrs. Waterbury formerly resided in Berwyn and their friends planned to surprise them with a visit. However Mrs. Waterbury heard of the coming event on Saturday so she was well prepared for them. The day was spent at Community Park and was greatly enjoyed by all.

To Gravel Road.
At a meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Valley county which was held at Ord last week it was decided to call for bids for one inch of gravel on several projects in the county. Among them was the mile and half of road across the river bottom just west of Arcadia. This piece of road has been a source of grief to the business men of Arcadia and to the farmers living west of town for a number of years. Finally a good grade was thrown up this summer and owing to the traffic and the peculiar position of the road, it was deemed advisable to at least put a small coat of gravel on it in order to save it. The bids are to be opened Oct. 10 and if satisfactory the work will be completed before winter sets in.

Reception for Teachers.
A reception for the faculty of the Arcadia school was held at the Community park last Friday evening. About fifty guests attended. An excellent seven o'clock dinner was served by the ladies of the community in the enclosed dining hall.

ANTONA Quality Circulator

For appearance, economy and durability it is the best value that can be produced. The material, finish and workmanship are of the highest quality. The cold air is taken from the rooms, through the bottom, passing over the inner unit or furnace to proper, causing the circulation of warm, moist, healthful air.

Burns either coal or wood, and when the heavy inner furnace becomes thoroughly heated it stays that way for many hours. For this reason it requires very little fuel, cutting heating expense to a minimum. It is the ideal radiator circulator for complete warm air comfort in the home.

What A Woman 45 to 49 Should Weigh

Beware of Fat

As women grow older they are apt to take on weight—best to watch out and keep from growing fat—weigh yourself today and see if your weight and height compare with figures below—If so you are lucky—your figure is ideally perfect and you can feel happy. Ages 45 to 49

Table with 2 columns: Height (4 Ft. 11 In. to 5 Ft. 9 In.) and Weight (129 Pounds to 163 Pounds)

Weights given include ordinary indoor clothing. If you are overweight cut out pies, pastries, cakes and candy for 4 weeks—then weigh yourself—go light on potatoes, rice, butter, cream and sugar—eat lean meat—chicken, fish, salads, green vegetables and fruit. Take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—This is the easy, safe and sensible way to take off fat—can 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts lasts 4 weeks—get it at McLain and Sorensen's or any drug store in the world. You'll be gloriously alive—vigorous and vivacious in 4 weeks.

STATE HUSKING CONTEST MAY BE HELD NEAR ORD

County Agent Dale and Farmers
Are Making Every Effort To Secure Big Event.

The 1930 Nebraska corn husking contest may be held near Ord this fall according to word from the county agents office here. The local farm bureau and farmers are attempting to get the Nebraska Farmer to bring the contest further west this year in view of the small corn crop in the eastern part of the state and feel that Valley county is the logical place for the state meet.

Ernest Coats, farmer living southwest of Ord, was among the first to start agitation for the state meet here. Confering with County agent Dale, Coats said this was the one year that he believed Valley county had a chance to get the state corn husking contest. Eastern counties have always had it before. Coats is enthusiastic over the possibilities of having the contest here.

In going to Lincoln to attend school, George Round, Jr., was to confer with Glenn Buck, associate editor of the Nebraska Farmer, about the chance of bringing the state contest to Valley county. Round believed Buck would do all he could for local people. The annual corn husking contest is a big thing and usually attracts 10,000 people. People from all over Nebraska would be attracted to Valley county, were the meet held here. Holding of the state contest here would help to create statewide interest in it backers of the local plan point out. The contest is sponsored by the Nebraska Farmer.

County Agent Dale has been corresponding with Edley of the farm paper in an effort to get the contest. Coats has also written the Farmer about the plan. It is hoped the Ord Chamber of Commerce will get behind the local farm bureau in an attempt to get the contest. It would mean more than pay for itself in advertising. It is quite certain the position of the contest will be changed this year since corn crops in eastern Nebraska are small. Corn in Valley county is good and it is thought there are many fields where the contest might be held successfully.

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at Ed F. Beranek's Rexall drug store or at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. 2-322

Will Help Edit Quiz Ag Page

PROF. F. D. KEIM

Extension Editor Lux of the agricultural college will be a big help in the editing of the agricultural page of the Quiz in future weeks. He helped our local editors last year with the publication. Most of the material on the page comes through his office. Mr. Lux is one of the outstanding extension editors in the United States today.

Ag School Classes Large As Last Year

Student enrollment at the agricultural college, University of Nebraska, appears to be about normal although no definite figures have been given out from Dean Burr's office. Estimates from that office, however, indicate the freshman first-semester class is as large as usual.

By Thursday of last week there were 110 freshmen boys enrolled at the college. While this number did not equal the 120 enrolled last year as freshmen for the first semester, it was thought at the extension office that the total enrollment by the middle of this week for freshmen boys equal last year's mark. Although the number of girls enrolled as freshman at the college this year, fifty-two, is low for the first semester, the total as in the boys enrollment was expected to reach nearly eighty by this week. The fifty-two freshmen girls enrolled did not include a number of new girl students who entered the college as upper-classmen from other institutions. There were seventy-six girls enrolled at the college as freshmen for the first semester last year.

Pre-registration guesses on the agricultural college enrollment estimated the number of new students enrolling this year below the last year's total due to the general business conditions over the country. This appears not to be true. Most of the agricultural students come from farm homes, it was pointed out at the dean's office in defiance of the fact that conditions over the country would cut the enrollment.

Economic Report Indicates Prices Higher This Fall

The monthly economic situation bulletin as published by the rural economics department of the University of Nebraska appears to forecast favorable markets for Valley county and other farmers in the next thirty days. Corn prices should be near present levels or a little lower, hog prices close to present levels but weakening toward the end of the period.

The report also indicates that there should be a firm market for finished cattle which local farmers will market. Seasonally higher butter and egg prices are seen by Harold Hodges who prepares the bulletin monthly. Poultry prices should be about steady in the next thirty days.

Weather will continue to be the most important price factor for corn prices in the next thirty days with much of the corn crop late. The seasonal trend of corn prices is downward from September to October, the report reads. The government report of the nation's corn crop makes it the lowest since 1901.

As Valley county farmers note, hog prices usually start the seasonal decline in September or earlier but there is reason to believe that the downward movement may be delayed somewhat this year and only moderate weakness may be in evidence in the next 20 or 30 days.

Storage of pork meat is lower at this time than at the corresponding time last year and much lower than the five-year average. The average weight of hogs reaching market recently was running 3 to 15 pounds under last year.

The rural economics report indicates that Valley county farmers may expect prices for finished cattle to continue on a firm basis during the next thirty-day period. Demand for stocker and feeder cattle which has been slack during the summer months will probably pick up and tend to sustain prices for such cattle in weeks just ahead.

Materially fewer cattle going in to feedlots during the summer months, supplies of fat cattle should not be burdensome in the weeks just ahead, the report to the extension office says. Storage of butter on September 1 was 15 percent smaller than the record holdings on September 1 last year. Receipts during August of this year were under those of the corresponding month of last year.

Big prices shown toward somewhat higher levels in the next thirty days, although storage stocks continue to be a depressing factor. Only once in the past twenty years has the October price for fresh first eggs in New York been lower than the September average price.

Herd Improvement Association Ranks Thirteenth In State

With an average production of 23.6 pounds butterfat per cow, the Valley County Dairy Herd Improvement Association ranked thirteenth in the state among the twenty-six associations reporting for August, according to the monthly dairy letter from the state office at the agricultural college, Lincoln. Previously the local association has ranked higher.

The West Platte association lead the associations for the month in butterfat production with an average of 26.4 pounds. The Douglas-Sarpy association was in second place with an average of 25.2 pounds butterfat. There were seventeen cows in the Valley county organization that produced from forty to fifty pounds butterfat. Although unusual there were no cows here producing better than sixty pounds. In past months, there were usually two or three that topped the sixty pound average.

A. B. Fiala who had the leading production herd in the Valley County Dairy Herd Improvement Association for August ranked fourth in the state. His herd of seven Holsteins averaged 42.0 pounds butterfat. The state leader in the herd division had an average production of 46.3 pounds. Fiala was tied for third position instead of being fourth.

John R. Paiser of Ord had the high producing cow in the Valley county association. She produced 52.3 pounds butterfat during August.

Extension Leader Here October 3

Miss Atwood will be in Valley county on October 3 for her initial meeting with women's extension club leaders and presidents. The general meeting is to be held at County Agent Dale's office in Ord. Thereafter Miss Atwood will conduct monthly leader training meetings in Ord for project leaders of the twenty-five clubs in Valley county.

Agent Dale Hoping 75 Percent of 4H Workers Will Finish

In an effort to get a high percentage of finish-ups in 4-H club work Valley county this year, County Agent Dale is urging club leaders to get their achievement days over as soon as possible. As soon as the leader's final summaries are received at the local office there are efforts to get the State Club Leader Frisbie mails out certificates of achievement.

Last year local clubs failed to get a fifty percent completion but it is Dale's desire that there should be at least seventy-five percent of the enrolled members finishing their club work before the interest in club work and it is believed the local leaders have been trained better this year than ever before.

In order to qualify for the extra percent offered by County 4-H club leader McClatchey last spring, club members must necessarily attend achievement and finish up their club work in order to get their certificates of achievement. Many eighth graders will probably make added effort to get their finish-ups in soon in order to qualify for the premium offered by the county superintendent, it is thought by Agent Dale.

The local agent is glad to cooperate with local leaders in having their achievement days and is glad to be with the clubs then. Many clubs have requested that Dale be present and give a little talk. Friends and the public are invited to all. Some achievements are held in the school houses while others are being held in private homes.

The 1930 club year in Valley county has been the greatest in the history of club work here, it is thought. More club members were enrolled in the county than ever before to get the club completions in as soon as possible. Valley county hopes to rank among the leaders in the highest percentage of completions filed at the state club office at the agricultural college.

Popcorn Exhibit To Show In Omaha

Information from the county agent's office in Ord early today indicates that the state championship crops judging team from Valley county will take the popcorn exhibit and show it at the state fair to the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show the latter part of next month. The 4-H club team is to take it to help defray expenses to the International Livestock Show held in Chicago in December.

The team—Anthony Kokes, Billy Garnick and Harold Benn, will make added improvements on the exhibit in an attempt to land in the money at the Omaha show. The boys will probably stay in Omaha during the state fair to the Ak-Sar-Ben livestock show the latter part of next month. The 4-H club team is to take it to help defray expenses to the International Livestock Show held in Chicago in December.

County Agent Dale also announced in connection with the exhibit that George Round, Jr., now a student at the University of Nebraska, will be in Lincoln during the show to help him with the exhibit and with the 4-H baby beef club members who will be showing their calves in the livestock show.

Just A Garden Hint

By Geo. Round, Jr.

Valley county people, especially the women-folk, are probably interested in the fact that Prof. Wiggins of the agricultural college advises them to plant their tulip bulbs now or at least before freezing weather sets in. He also advises those with gardens to be thinking about storing their products.

Prof. Wiggins told me the other day that planting of tulip bulbs at this time of the year assures a good growth before freezing weather and a choice of varieties may be had. Dutch bulbs were just arriving in Lincoln last week.

Valley county women should also have noted that this is the time of the year to transplant perennials. The peonies, according to Mr. Wiggins, should be divided into other flocks now. The gladioli should be put away before freezing weather comes. Those whose tulips have died can be put into manilla bags for storage until spring.

Gardeners are reminded by Prof. Wiggins that onions, squashes and sweet potatoes should be stored in a cool dry place. He advises gardeners to put the root plants into a damp place, though not wet.

AM I RIGHT?

By Geo. Round, Jr.

The year started off with a flash for University of Nebraska students in Lincoln last week. To let new students know that something was about to happen, bandits held up the station bank and got away with a large amount of cash. Certainly the "freshies" should have started school with lots of whim, wiggle, and whittality.

Poor freshmen, though, if they are as smart as a lot as usual, there were probably a few whining they were home holding on the apron strings after the big robbery. A fine way to greet young men and women who crave knowledge and not bullets. I expect a large number of them will be before school started the next day, telling their parents what a wicked place Lincoln was. Why didn't the bandits wait a few days and scare them all home.

Feed wheat to your hogs is the slogan adopted by the United States Department of Agriculture and the agricultural college of Nebraska. In recent bulletins they tell why the efficiency of feeding wheat to hogs as a fattening ration along with other feeds.

With prospects for the state husking contest to be held in Valley county it is up to every farmer and business man to get busy and boost for the idea. A letter from the Nebraska Farmer might help to land the meet. It would be a great thing for this county as the event annually attracts more than ten thousand people.

Ernest Coats of Ord was among the first farmers to urge the local farm bureau and other organizations to get busy and attempt to get the contest. This is the ideal year for it to come to Nebraska, Coats believes. He is right, I think.

Count in many of the eastern counties where the contest is usually held isn't as good this year as usual and it is highly probable the contest will be moved farther west or north. The Ord Chamber of Commerce could aid in the attempt to get the contest in Valley county by getting in touch with the Nebraska Farmer at Lincoln who annually sponsors the meet. It is a big thing in the eastern part of the state each year.

The last corn husking county champion in Valley county, as I recall, was Ross Leonard of Mira Valley. He competed at a state contest and placed well but not at the top. County Agent Dale annually helps referee state contests. He is particularly anxious to land the contest for Valley county.

Members of the Ord Corn Club which produced the state championship crops judging team will probably take the popcorn exhibit to the Ak-Sar-Ben in Omaha late in October. Members of the two baby beef clubs in the county will show there also.

It appears as though people have a natural tendency to go into a certain business or enterprise when prices for the products are high. This is true of the dairy industry. This past spring when the butterfat prices broke many so-called dairymen went out of business almost as fast as they went in. Everyone wanted to sell dairy cows, nobody wanted to buy them, and the price dropped at once. Many were sold at a great sacrifice.

The price of good purebred stock appears to be on the rise. Indications point that the price will rise soon. In many cases good cows are now in demand. It is my guess that good milk cows selling at local sales in Valley county are going to bring good prices. It appears to me that now is a good time to consider the opportunity of buying good stock. Butterfat prices should stay up. If it does there will be a rise in price asked for good dairy stock.

Many farmers here and elsewhere are contemplating filling silos this year. There is no better place to put corn that will not mature than in the silo. Silage is an economical feed whether the corn is going to mature or not. Last year many trench silos were used over the country.

The steady or increased enrollment at the University of Nebraska, especially in the agricultural college, gives me the impression that general conditions over the country are getting better. Before school started it was estimated that the enrollment in the agricultural college, especially, would fall off but this apparently is not true.

Coming mostly from farm homes where the recent conditions were expected to have hit the hardest, it was expected that but few students would enroll at the agricultural college. Certainly if conditions are as bad as they have been during the past months, the enrollment at the agricultural college would have been curtailed to a great extent.

It only proves, as I see it, that there is a promising future for conditions over the country. People seem to have more faith in the future than is generally indicated over the country as a whole.

Reports of the Nebraska economic situation for this month indicate that the farm products markets in the next thirty days will be steady if not stronger. That in my mind, is another indication that conditions over the country are getting better. They will improve gradually rather, though than all at once.

Edgar Roe returned home Saturday after a couple of days stay in Lincoln. While there he attended the Methodist conference.

MRS. CLAUDE RATHBUN, Editor.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill McClellan returned Saturday night from a very enjoyable trip abroad. They left home July 6 and enjoyed 88 delightful days of sight seeing on the Continent and a visit to the British Isles. They started from Queenstown, Ireland, on September 7 for the homeward trip, arriving at Boston on September 14. Before coming to Nebraska, stops were made at Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and Chicago. Mrs. McClellan's sister, Mrs. Sarah Goggin, of Pasadena, California, was also a member of the personally conducted party that the McClellans went with, but left them at Chicago and went to Wisconsin for a short visit. She will be in North Loup in the near future for a few days before returning to her California home.

"Grandma" Paddock left Sunday afternoon for Chicago, where she will consult a cancer specialist. Mrs. Ellen Cox went with her.

Little Betty Lou Wells of Grand Island is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wetzel in Riverdale.

Miss Mary Bohrer returned Monday evening from a week's visit with her sister Mrs. Fred Lundstedt at Nora, Neb. On Tuesday morning Miss Mary left for New Wilmington, Pa. Upon her return home she will be accompanied by her grandmother Mrs. J. C. Arnold.

The latter is an invalid, and will be cared for at the Bohrer home.

Ches Chlun and the I. L. Harris and Mott Rathbun families were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Chubbuck at their home in Riverdale.

The Fortnightly club will hold their first meeting of the club year at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Carter on Wednesday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kirkendall were passengers to Ord Friday evening.

The monthly Birthday Tea of the Seventh Day Baptist church was held in the basement dining room on Tuesday evening of this week.

A large number of North Loup relatives gathered Saturday at the home of Mrs. Della Manchester, for a dinner together in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jantz of Baxter, Iowa, who had been visiting here for about two weeks. They left Monday for their home.

The Womans Christian Temperance Union met Thursday afternoon at the home of Maud Thomas. The afternoon's lesson was on Temperance in the schools with Myra T. Barber as leader. There was also an enjoyable talk by Rev. Kirkwood, pastor of the Zion Evangelical church.

Due to the absence of Rev. Schwabauer at conference, the Methodist pulpit both Sunday morning and evening by Rev. and Mrs. George Gardner, who are in charge of a boys' high school at Hyderabad, India. They have just come from the foreign field, and were guests of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Pinckney of Scotia.

It is good news to the members and friends of the local Methodist church to learn that Rev. G. A. Schwabauer has been returned for another year to serve at North Loup and Davis Creek, Rev. Richard Gibb, his predecessor, has been transferred from Crete to Wauneta.

The High School student body elected members and officers for the Student Council Friday. Only those in the upper half of each class are eligible. Seniors and Juniors are entitled to four representatives each, while only two can be appointed from the Sophomore and Freshmen classes, respectively.

The new officers of the Senior Christian Endeavor society of the Seventh Day Baptist church are: President, Marcella Rood; Vice-President, Vernon Williams; Secretary, Doris Davis; Treasurer, Esther Maxson; Prayer meeting committee, Lucille and Mary Davis, Albert Combs and Rev. Warren; Missionary, Vesta Thorngate, Leo Greene, and Delmar VanHorn; Social, Myra T. Barber, Sheldon Van Horn, Elsie Rood and Adele Van Horn; Music, Aubrey Davis, Mrs. H. S. Warren, Dorris Clement, Erlo Cox; Junior Superintendent, Marcella Rood.

Victor Cook had a birthday on September 17, and that evening his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Cook and the Geo. W. Cooks came from Mira Valley to help him celebrate the occasion. On Thursday evening another surprise was in order when the Leland Stillmans, Hillis Colemans and Edgar Stillmans spent the evening with Mr. and Mrs. Cook.

1930 MAY BE NEBRASKA'S GREATEST YEAR

Nebraska corn made such a rapid improvement in August, after being threatened by heavy damage by drought, that the crop statisticians give the state second rank in the production of corn this year. The yield will be an average one and the production is estimated at 226,258,000 bushels. Nebraska usually ranks third in corn.

This optimistic note from the state and federal department of agricultural statistics is matched in color by a statement recently made by Edward Flynn, general manager of the Burlington lines west, who said, "Prosperity already has arrived but Nebraskans haven't yet recognized the symptoms. Its manifestations are too definite for me to be deceived."

Mr. Flynn based his observations on the fact that western railroad lines are faced with a greater car shortage than ever before in their history. "I have issued rush orders to our eastern lines to send me every freight car available to move the bumper corn and sugar crops from Nebraska to other parts of the country," he said. "I believe they are the best crops Nebraska has ever produced."

The picture painted by Mr. Flynn portrayed Nebraska as the granary of the United States. The movement of flour and livestock already has begun taxing the facilities of his railroad. On Sept. 20 the sugar beet harvest will give the final impetus necessary to the greatest boom the state has ever known, according to the Burlington executive.

"We are preparing to handle the biggest fall business in Nebraska and the west we have ever had. Our business may even exceed the brief period of expansion in 1928," was Mr. Flynn's parting comment.

PLANTING TREES HAS CHANGED NEBRASKA CLIMATE CONDITIONS

The wisdom of J. Sterling Morton, founder of Arbor Day, and others of the pioneers who visioned the change that would come over the state with the planting of millions of trees, was never better demonstrated than this summer, according to George H. Barnes, Los Angeles business man and head of the American Green Cross, the national organization dedicated to reforestation and conservation activities in the nation over.

Almost the first official act of Governor Morton was to institute a tree planting campaign. The first year 18 million trees were set out. Everyone was encouraged to plant trees. In the next twenty-five years two and a half billions trees were planted. The tree planting habit is now so fixed with residents of this state that every year sees the addition of millions of seedlings to the present growth of timber.

Mr. Barnes recently pointed out in an interview in the Los Angeles newspapers that Nebraska has enjoyed a gradual increase of rainfall from 15 inches in 1885 to 33 inches in 1925. With the planting of trees came new birds, never before native to Nebraska, that, according to the United States Department of Agriculture, eat 174 carloads of insects every year and save the farmers millions of dollars annually.

The reports of the U. S. Department of Commerce show that Nebraska is the only state in the union with 400 million dollars of revenue exclusively from farming. This splendid showing is attributed to the increased rainfall and the better climatic conditions which tree planting has produced.

J. Sterling Morton's vision has

ROOTER'S DAY

Valley county feeders, especially those fattening hogs, have opportunity of learning about new experiments conducted at the agricultural college on October 17 when the annual Rooters Day is held. County A, ent Dak and many local hogmen plan to attend.

Three experimental tests with hogs will occupy the limelight. One of them deals with feeding wheat instead of corn, and another with the age and size at which it is most profitable to market hogs. Another is high protein feed comparison.

John Deere Bridge-Trussed Non-Rust Portable Grain Elevator

A John Deere Elevator Is a Good Investment

Whether you store all of your car corn or small grain in one crib or put it into several cribs, bins or tanks, you'll find a John Deere Elevator in the size and style best suited to your requirements—ready to save time for you when time means money.

If your bins and cribs are scattered, you will want the John Deere Bridge-Trussed Non-Rust Portable Elevator.

The hopper sections and spouts of this well-known elevator are made of rust-resisting copper-alloy steel, heavily galvanized. It is trussed like a bridge to prevent sagging.

Come in and let us explain the advantages of these elevators.
