SANTA CLAUS WRITES LETTER TO CHILDREN

Old Kris Kringle Takes Personal Interest in Valley County Tots Again This Year.

Again this Christmas for the fourth successive year genial old Santa Claus is taking a special and personal interest in Valley county children. For four years he has requested children to write to him in care of the Quiz and each year hundreds of them have done so. His annual letter to the Quiz arrived this week.

Santa's letter comes from his home in the Arctic Circle, snuggled up next to the North Pole, where Santa lives the year around except when on his long around-the-world trip at Christmas time. He has his big workshop there, where toys and other gifts for good children are made under his own supervision.

His letter follows:

Arctic Circle, Dec. 2, 1930

Dear Quiz Editor:

Well, Christmas time is almost here again and I expect to be on the job as usual. I like to see Christmas the happiest day of all the year and I want to bring children just what they most want.

I know that you take great interest in the children of your town and county and that you want them to have just the things they want for Christmas. I always try to bring children what they want, whenever they write and tell me. But I get thousands of letters every day from children all over the world. It takes a lot of time to open all those envelopes and read all those letters, even with Mrs. Santa's help, so I'm going to ask you to help me again this year.

I'm sending you a little letter to the children that I wish you would print in your next issue. It is addressed to the children and I'm sure when parents see the letter in your paper they'll read it to the kiddies and then the kiddies will write every day in care of the Quiz. I'll ask you to print the letters between now and Christmas and as I get the Quiz I will read the letters carefully, then I'll know just what to bring Valley county children and will do my best to do it.

Give my love to all the children.

SANTA CLAUS

The Quiz is doing just what old Santa asked and in another place on this page you'll find his letter to the children. We're doing our part and we're sure Santa will do his part so all children have to do is write to Santa Claus, Drawer H, Ord, Nebr., and tell him what they want most for Christmas.

And just a word of advice to children—you'd better not tell Santa about too many things that you want because he doesn't like children who are greedy and might not bring you anything. Just tell him what you want most—maybe two or three things—and then when you look in your stocking on Christmas morning you'll probably find that Santa has been there and left just what you want.

And children—don't delay about writing to Santa because he wants to know right away so that he can make his arrangements. We'll save a place in the Quiz next week for your letter to Santa.

Only Two Couples Wed In November

In Valley county November isn't a popular month for marriages, says Judge J. H. Hollingshead. The genial county judge married only two couples last month, both of them on November 26. Miss Florence E. Miller was married to Howard C. Titt in the morning and in the afternoon Miss Gladys Wetzel became the bride of Lester Sample. The first named couple are from Berwyn while Mr. and Mrs. Sample are fine young people of the North Loup vicinity.

Storm Damage Being Repaired
Nearly all of the damage done to telephone lines by the snow and sleet storm two weeks ago has been repaired and most of the rural lines are again in commission. No unusual weather has been evident this week, though the temperature has hovered below the freezing point most of the time.

Will Give Prizes For Decorations

For the best decorated porches and yards in Ord during the Christmas season, the Aulsebrook store is offering five prizes in an ad on page five of this week's Quiz. First prize is a 34-piece set of genuine Bavarian decorated China, which is valued at $32.50, and other prizes are equally generous. Particulars about the contest can be had by inquiry at the Aulsebrook store.

Dr. Filppin Dead.
Dr. C. A. Filppin, 37, for years a negro physician of Grand Island, passed away last Friday in Hollywood, Calif., where he had gone for his health. Burial will be made in Grand Island.

ORGANIZATION OF CITY LEAGUE SET FOR FRIDAY

All Who Want to Play Basketball Should Meet at High School At 7:30 P. M.

Should a city basketball league be formed in Ord this winter?

Lovers of the cage sport say it should and arrangements have been made so that city league games can be played at the high school gymnasium on Tuesday evenings, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Provided enough players are interested a league will be formed at a meeting to be held at the high school building at 7:30 p. m., Friday, Dec. 5. All boys and men in Ord and vicinity who want to play basketball are urged to attend this meeting. Plans for organizing the league will be made, officers will be chosen and a committee appointed to allot players to various teams. Wm. Heuck, president of the league last year, will preside.

Two years ago, with four teams entered, the city league was an astonishing success. Last year a six-team circuit was formed and interest lagged toward the end of the season. Therefore, league enthusiasts plan to organize the league this year on a four-team basis. Firms sponsoring teams probably will include the McLain-Sorensen Drug Company, the J. C. Penney Company, Andersen's Grocery and either the Gem Theater or the Ord Quiz. Should Jack Hoogenboom, manager of the Gem, wish to sponsor a team in the league, the Quiz will withdraw so that the four-team circuit may proceed.

It is hoped that 35 or 40 basketball players will attend the meeting tomorrow evening.

A Letter From Santa's Headquarters

Dear Children:

This has been a very busy year for me and I am going to ask you to help me with my work.

You see, if I know just about what you want for Christmas it will save me lots of time so if you will write to and tell me of your wishes I will have your letters printed in the Ord Quiz and then will look them all over and make my arrangements accordingly.

We have been having some pretty cold weather up here by the North Pole but Donner and Blitzen are in good shape for the long trip to Ord. We will start in a few days, so you had better get your letters ready at once and mail them to Drawer H, Ord.

I want you to tell me how old you are, whether you go to school or not, whether you've been a good boy or girl during the last year and be sure and tell me just where you live, so I'll know how to find you.

Watch for your letters in the Quiz and be good children for I have a fine lot of presents to distribute this year.

Lots of love from,
SANTA.

Champions of the United States!

Competing against the strongest competition ever entered at the International Livestock Show, these three boys won the national championship in crops judging at Chicago Monday. Left to right they are: Harold Bann, who placed eleventh in the individual judging, Anthony Kokes, who placed fourth, C. C. Dale, who coached the team, and Bill Garnick, who placed third in the contest. This is the first 4-H club group that ever brought national acclaim to Valley county. They will arrive home from Chicago Friday evening or early Saturday morning.

William Hall Dies After Auto Crash

Wm. E. Hall, 36, for twenty-five years owner of the Transit House here, died last Saturday at Oregon City, Ore., from injuries he received the day before when he was struck by an auto while crossing a crowded street. Eleven years ago Mr. Hall sold his hotel here to Bert Boquet and went to Oregon City to make his home with his only son, Arthur. He is survived by his son, one daughter, Mrs. Ben Bowen, of Sargent, and his granddaughter, Miss Marie Hall of Ord. The body will be cremated in Oregon City.

Will Suit Trial Begins
The trial of the suit contesting the will of the late Dr. Ole Grothman, prominent St. Paul surgeon, began Tuesday in district court of Howard county with Judge Bayard H. Paine on the bench. The value of the estate is estimated at $150,000 and Dr. Grothman left only a small part of it to relatives, who are contesting the will.

Mrs. Henry Nelson Dead.
News comes to Ord of the death of Mrs. Henry Nelson at Billings, Mont. In early days Mr. and Mrs. Nelson lived here. Mr. Nelson died a few years ago. He was a brother of Charley Nelson, who still resides in Ord.

STORE ROBBERS PLEAD GUILTY, SENT TO PRISON

Judge Clements Sentences Todd To 3 Years, Bixler to 4 Years In State Penitentiary.

W. M. Bixler, 31, was sentenced to four years in the state penitentiary at Lincoln and J. E. Todd, 36, was given a three year term at the same prison when they pleaded guilty in district court here Wednesday to burglarizing stores and private individuals at Arcadia and North Loup. Judge E. P. Clements was on the bench and pronounced sentence after listening to their stories.

Both of the men freely admitted their share in the robberies. Bixler, the leader, confessed to having served three former penitentiary terms, one in Colorado and two in Nebraska, and seemed to feel no sorrow at being sent back for a fourth term. Todd, on the other hand, said he had never been in trouble before.

The two were arrested in Lincoln November 23 and were brought to Ord the next day by Sheriff George Round. Twelve robberies were cleared up by their arrest and confession.

Todd and Bixler will be taken to Lincoln today by Sheriff Round.

Ramsay Will Hear Monday.
In county court next Monday at 9 a. m. a hearing will be held in the Mrs. Sarah L. Ramsay will case, which is being contested by Mrs. J. H. Capron. The latter is seeking to have the will set aside on the grounds that her sister, Mrs. Margaret Wentworth, induced their mother to cut Mrs. Capron off with only $10 of the $35,000 estate. Munn & Norman represent Mrs. Wentworth while Bert M. Hardenbrook is Mrs. Capron's attorney.

Smallpox Refuses Die Out.
The smallpox epidemic which has been in effect throughout this community for several weeks refuses to die out and several new cases have been reported. All of them are in a light form. The disease is not confined to Ord but has spread throughout the country. Dr. C. C. Shepard, county physician, recommends that all who have not been vaccinated have it done at once. W. D. Cass, principal of the high school, is one of the latest to contract the disease.

Fogt Holding Sale.
N. P. Fogt, near Elyria, is advertising a farm sale this week. Mr. Fogt has rented his farm to John Nelson and will move with his family to Aurora where he has purchased a home. Two sons are already employed there. The Fogt sale will be held December 10.

—Don't forget the Alyce Johnson closeout sale Saturday afternoon Dec. 6 at 7:30. 37-1

Farmers Store Offers Solution Of Farm Problem

The farm problem is at least partly solved, the Farmers Store of Ord announces in an advertisement on page eleven of this week's Quiz. For four days the store will pay 62c per bushel for corn and 65c per bushel for wheat in trade, the ad says. The offer is made in connection with a sale being held by the Farmers Store and reductions in the price of merchandise plus a premium on farm products makes it an exceptionally generous offer. People will be interested in reading this unique ad.

Muriel Weekes Becomes Bride Of Robert Oliver

Muriel Edyth Weekes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Weekes of Ord, Nebr. and Robert A. Oliver of Onawa, Iowa, were married at the home of the bride's mother in Tekamah on Thanksgiving day. The wedding was at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon with lighted candles and beautiful decorations of ferns and yellow chrysanthemums. Rev. J. Frank Reed of the Presbyterian church of Tekamah performed the ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father came down an aisle made by yellow tulle streamers held by two of her sorority sisters, Mrs. Howard Peterson of Fremont and Miss Doris Hosman of Omaha. Elmaria Franzen of Onawa, Iowa, was the flower girl and Master Charles Franzen the ring bearer, both are cousins of the bride. Before the ceremony Miss Charlotte Fretch of Sterling, Nebr., another sorority sister sang At Dawning by Cadman. Mrs. Crawford Mortensen of Ord played the wedding march. The bride was very lovely in a trailing gown of tulle with a white and a close fitting tulle cap with long veil of the same shade. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and sweet peas.

After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served by the Alpha O girls sang their song of farewell to the bride. The young people left immediately on their honeymoon, a motor trip through the south.

Mrs. Oliver is the adored, only child of Dr. and Mrs. Weekes and is known and loved by a wide circle of friends throughout Nebraska. Muriel is a graduate of the high school at Ord, where her father's hospital is located. She attended Brownell Hall, Omaha, and the State University at Lincoln where she became a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority.

Mr. Oliver is the son of Mrs. Bell Oliver of Toulon, Ill. where his family are among the oldest and most respected residents of the county. He is a graduate of the Kennewick, Ill. high school and a member of Pi Rho Phi fraternity of Monmouth college.

About fifty out of town guests attended the wedding, relatives of the bride and groom and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will be at home after Dec. 15 in Onawa, Ia. where Mr. Oliver is engaged in the motion picture business.

—After several weeks stay with Ord relatives Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Katsers and daughter left yesterday for their home in Olds, Canada.

—The A. J. Meyer family and Mrs. Meyer's mother, Mrs. J. V. DeLashmuth of Burwell, drove to Arapahoe on Thanksgiving day and visited a sister and a daughter, Mrs. Fred Schnabel, until Friday.

—Alfred Gizinski crushed one of the fingers on his right hand quite badly, while working in Maud's meat market. Dr. Kirby McGrew is caring for the hand.

—The balance of my stock will be closed out at auction Saturday evening, Dec. 6. Alyce Johnson, 37-1 —Forty-eight neighbors and friends met at the Niels Jensen home Thanksgiving for supper, each family bringing a little for the meal. At midnight supper was again served. The evening was spent dancing and playing cards.

—Fred Travis is slowly improving from injuries received when he was kicked by a horse, about a month ago. He was able to come to the table yesterday for the first time since the accident. 37-1

BOYS COACHED BY DALE BRING FAME TO COUNTY

Return Home Friday Eve With Fruits of Victory; Had Strong Competition.

Champions of the United States! That is the title now held by Bill Garnick, Anthony Kokes and Harold Bann, members of the Valley county crops judging team, who won the national championship in Chicago Monday in competition against fifteen other state championship teams from all over the United States. The contest was held in connection with the International Livestock Show.

The Valley county team went against the strongest competition ever entered at the international show. All three of the team members and the alternate, Lloyd Marks, live close to Ord and attend Ord high school. They were coached to victory by Carl C. Dale, Valley county extension agent, and a large share of the credit for their great showing should go to him.

Among individual contestants Bill Garnick placed third, Anthony Kokes fourth and Harold Bann eleventh, their joint record being the best made by any team. The national state team placed second in the contest.

The Valley county boys were handicapped by having to judge some crops with which they were not familiar. Even with this handicap they came through to victory. The local team earned the right to compete at Chicago by winning the state championship at the Nebraska state fair in Lincoln early in September. At that time they came through to a win over the veteran Boone county team. Since that time they have been practicing under Mr. Dale's supervision, and so being assisted by Paul Stewart, agronomist at the state agricultural college. Their national victory at Chicago, while not a surprise to local people, was not expected by crops experts at the state agricultural college, who are conceding the proficiency of the Valley county boys thought a more experienced team would have a better chance of winning.

The national champions are having a fine time in Chicago, a telegram from Coach Dale says, and they will leave the Windy City at 8 o'clock this evening and arrive back in Ord late Friday night or early Saturday morning.

Anton Grabowski Passes Thursday

Resident of Valley County For Half Century Dies Thanksgiving Day At Home In Ord.

Anton Grabowski, 82, for nearly a half century a resident of Valley county, died at his home in Ord on Thanksgiving day, death coming at 1 o'clock p. m. He had been ill for about two months but never was bedfast and talked to his family only an hour before his death.

Mr. Grabowski was born in Poland and came to the United States about fifty years ago, settling on a farm in Valley county where he lived until eleven years ago, when he moved to Ord. He was married to Miss Katharine Garbacz and fourteen children were born to the union, twelve of whom, with the widow, survive. Surviving children are Will, Alex, John, Charley, Vance and Tony Grabowski, all of Valley county, Leon Grabowski, of Columbus, Mrs. Frank Plakus, of Burwell, Mrs. L. J. Blaha, of Sidney, and Mrs. Steven Malolepszy and the Misses Katherine and Josephine Grabowski of Ord. Two sons, Frank and Will, preceded their father in death.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Catholic church, Father Lawler conducting them. Burial was made in the Ord Catholic cemetery.

Bazaar and Supper.
On Saturday, December 13, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church will hold a bazaar of articles suitable for Christmas at the church. The same evening the Ladies' A. Society will serve one of the famous chicken dinners. Keep them in mind and attend the bazaar and dinner. 37-1

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM.
A Christmas program will be given Thursday night, December 18, 1930 in the High School auditorium. The whole school will take part, the grade school having an hour and the Junior and Senior High half an hour each. In addition to this the grade school will have its regular afternoon program. Music will be furnished by the several organizations, the Junior Band, and the high school band, orchestra, and glee clubs. This program will be free and the public is invited so let's do our best to make it a success.

CONVOCATIONS.
Convocation was held in the auditorium Wednesday November 26, at 8:55. The pep club was seated at the front of the auditorium. They gave a few yells, later all the Ord High pupils joined. Mr. Krejci introduced the football players the first team. Bill Garnick gave a talk on football. Adrian Tolen gave a talk on School Sportsmanship. Miss Bloodgood, the Ord High music teacher, led in the singing. At the close the football players gave a few yells and passed from the platform while the pupils were standing. Convocation Tuesday November 25, was presented by Miss Hewitt, who was here as director of the K. of C. and Catholic Ladies' party. She gave us four readings, which were greatly enjoyed and appreciated by all.

GRADE SCHOOL NOTES.
Avery Noll has been out of school the past week on account of illness. David Danner has been absent on account of smallpox. Delores Whitford has also been absent from school on account of illness. The youngsters of the Kindergarten have been making various Thanksgiving decorations. Maxine Sorensen has also been absent from school but is back to her work now. The second graders are planning to dramatize a play, "The Dolls." They made carts with folded invitations in to tell their parents to come to the Thanksgiving program Wednesday, November 26. They had an airplane contest, the boys against the girls, and the purpose of it was the one that marched into the room the nicest got their airplane moved and it came out a tie. Paul Danner has been absent from school because they have been quarantined for smallpox. In Art the pupils have been having free-hand drawing. The third grade geography class have been studying about sugar. In the fourth grade geography class the pupils are taking an imaginary trip to Hawaii, which supposedly started a hundred years ago and are returning now and are noting the differences. The sixth grade has finished their Thanksgiving project this week. The third grade geography class is studying Japan.

High School Notes.
Miss Johnson's English III have been studying "The Eve of St. Agnes," by John Keats. Miss Blanchard's history classes are studying the unit on the middle ancient period. They will not complete this work until after Thanksgiving. The American History classes are working on the period immediately following the Revolutionary war. Miss Shaver's Junior Normal Trainers had their examinations on Saturday November 15. Miss Baird's Ninth grade Related Science classes are continuing "The Care and Training of Children." Next week Senior Normal trainers will take up Penmanship. Miss Fredericksen's students have been typing to music for rhythm.

Older Boys' Conference.
On Thanksgiving Day, Coach Krejci took five boys, Ted Teague, George Allen, Charles Shepard, Kenneth McGinnis and Oakley Hather to Lincoln to attend the Older Boys' Conference, after watching the football game at Loup City. They arrived in Lincoln Thursday night. The program started at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and the first meeting was held then. The program consisted of talks by Professor Oberlies, E. C. Roberts, and others, swims, and a banquet. The program was enjoyed by the boys and they got back Sunday afternoon.

Davis Creek

Charley Johnson went to North Loup Wednesday evening to meet his daughter Eva. She came up on the bus to spend her Thanksgiving vacation. Saturday Eva was quite sick and a doctor was called. She is much improved and returned to her school work at Lincoln Tuesday morning. There were about eight people at the U. B. church Nov. 23 and they had services. Christmas services will be observed at the B. church Christmas eve the same as usual. Friends old and new are invited to be present. John Palsler and Johnnie Howe were fortunate enough to have birthdays on Thanksgiving day this year, and needless to say they enjoyed a big birthday feed. Mrs. John Palsler entertained the Howe family, Charley and Ernest Johnson and families, Reuben Athey and family and Carrol Palsler and family. E. E. Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ervie Weed and Donna Fae, Jasper Wheatcraft, Maggie Annys and sons and Fannie Weed were guests at John Williams' Thanksgiving party. Virgil Annys went home with Kenneth Jorgensen and visited until Sunday. Carrol Annys visited with Everett Williams until Saturday evening. Jimmie Cook of Shelby visited at Clyde Sample's Sunday. He and his brother came up to pick corn. His father is visiting at Jess Walters'. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bower and Wayne came Sunday to visit

COOPERATION.
Cooperation is very essential for a successful school. Cooperation should be with the teacher, the class, and the whole school. Cooperating with the teacher means to work hard with her and do what she tells you to. Many teachers do not have a good school room because the pupils do not work with their teacher and their classmates. Cooperating with the class is to work with them and help the other person to succeed. If we cooperate with the whole school, we do all of these things and more too. The football season is just over now. Then comes the basketball season. It seems as though the football team hasn't had a very successful year. I think the cooperation of the students is not great enough. Now let's show this basketball team even if we couldn't show the football team that we're cooperating with them and backing them all of the time!

Aunt Kate's Mail.
Dear Aunt Kate:
I have a terrible time sleeping at night. I snore loud and it keeps me awake. Please advise me as to what can be done.
Sincerely, Bill Garnick.
Dear Bill:
I am very sorry that you have such a hard time sleeping. I would suggest that you sleep in the next room so that you can't hear yourself. Yours truly, Kate.

My darling Aunt Kate:
I have a problem that makes me one of the most miserable boys in O. H. S. Yes! You guessed it! It's about girls. My question is, how can I make myself more popular with the girls?
Lovingly, Harvey Michels.
Dearest Harvey:
I have had many cases like yours and I have always suggested before that you eat more applesauce and spinach, study shorthand harder and you will be more popular with the girls.
Your faithful, Aunt Kate.

Dear Kate:
As you know I am a senior at the Ord high school. The other day I went out to put up the flag but the plaggole wouldn't work. What was wrong?
Your friend, Harry Wolf.
Friend Harry:
Yes, I know you very well. In my experience with flag poles, I have found out that sometimes they become locked. I think that if you search through the safe in the office you will find the key.
Yours truly, Kate.

Dear Aunt Kate:
I am a little boy going to school I take Algebra. Miss Jeary, our teacher, gave us a problem the other day that I cannot find the answer to. Can you help me?
Dear Friend,
After giving your question deep thought and due consideration I have concluded that if you look in the third locker in Miss Jeary's room, the bottom shelf, about 2 1/2 inches from the left-hand side at the back, you can find the answer there, asleep.
Love, Auntie.

JOBLESS.
Unemployment is one of the greatest problems in circulation today. Why is it men and women haven't jobs? Is it that they lack good chances go by and then mourn when destruction comes? I am afraid that is the way with a great many boys and girls in high school today. We go to school with the idea of having a good time. If we get by it is all right, and if we don't it is all right, too.

Years ago it was a wonderful thing to be able to go to school a few months each year. Boys and girls went to get all they could out of it. That generation is past though, and now we have such fine schools, why don't we take advantage of them? Each day we go to school it is probable that the greater part of us loaf half of our time. Every minute should count. In years to come our high school education is going to show up. Will we be able to say, "I went to school and worked and have made a man of myself?"

Even if it seems that we haven't anything to do if we would just look around I'm sure each one would be able to find plenty to do. We wonder if there are schools in which pupils sit around jobless, when help is needed somewhere and would be appreciated. We would probably gain something that will be helpful in the future. Although it is small pay each little bit helps in making something wonderful in the following years.

What is going to happen in the future to the jobless in our high school today? Are they going to be men and women that Ord High will be proud to say, "He graduated from our High School." I am afraid these aren't going to be the ones our High School will be speaking of. The real men and women of the future will be the boys and girls who make every moment count and are storing up for the future.—Anonymous.

HOPE
Hope is the one power on which our lives are based. When we venture into the world we are filled with hope and serve to do what we have to do. In 1492 when Columbus sailed the ocean, he was so filled with hope that not even his crew could change his mind for him. In this twentieth century, the youth of today will not let "foreigners" change their minds. They set their minds on a certain idea and nourish it until they have a complete one. Hope has guided their path until their goal has been gained. When immigrants come to a new country they come with them the star of hope. Nothing can ever extinguish the star because the candle of hope has lit it. That one little word means more in the race of human life than any other.

THANKSGIVING GAME.
The football game November 27, at Loup City was rather a difficult one. The Ord boys played a hard game but they received only a hard knock and made many fumbles. One Loup City player was knocked out in the third quarter. In the last quarter Loup City made their only touchdown. The score was six to nothing in favor of the Loup City team. This game was the last one of this season.

Ambitious Students.
We all know that all high schools are blessed with some very ambitious students, and I thought that maybe you would be interested in knowing some of the ambitious ones and what they are doing. First we meet Verne Barnard. I don't know why but he has not gotten over his childish ideas and he still likes to go with his daddy and dig holes in the ground out east of their home. Next we meet Edmund Clemmy. He sure knows how to fry those hamburgers. I also hear he is real handy at washing dishes. He'll make a good husband for some lucky girl, don't you think? We now meet Okley Hather riding along in a big gas truck. He helps his father like a good boy. Going into Hans Larsen's little store sees the yellow headed girl sitting on the counter with a lolly pop in one hand and a cookie in the other. Hans always wonders why the candy business picks up while he's at lunch. We soon come to Bill Zablouddil. He makes his weekly trip up to the J. C. Penney. Wonder if its always to deliver pop? Then there is Esther Zukoski. She is employed at the J. C. Penney store. Wonder how many pillow cases and sheets she's purchased? Wilda Adams is still washing dishes at Johnson's restaurant. She is expecting to major in the job. I am sure we all hope she gets her master degree. Oh yes! I almost forgot Glen Eschleman is working for Bud Shirley out in the yard. He has to repair the broken benches etc. He sorta blames Esther and Ervie for his hard labor. Dola Flynn is employed in the Flagg home. She takes care of the children while the parents are away. Don't you pity the kids, Edith?

Edith James is also in the child caring business. Earl Klein has been working for the depot and delivering telegrams. He still rides his bicycle, but don't be surprised if you see him coming down the street in a Limousine some day. Kenneth McGinnis still rides his bicycle too. He is in the paper business. Oh yes, I hear that Rodney is helping his father on Saturday. He works at the candy counter. Adrian Tolen is employed at the J. C. Penney Co. I'll bet Virginia Van Decar misses her regular Saturday night show, don't you? Julius Vala also is working at the J. C. Penney Co. I hear he spends all his cash on cokes. Earl Wise employed "Brick" Norman at the creamery. It makes it easy for Brick to hide behind cream cans. Ashton Psota still drives the pig and buggy. He delivers milk for the city.

Eldon Benda is working at the Severson filling station. Don Lashmet and Ted Furtak are employed in barber shops. Don't you pity the one who gets Harold Finch's trade? Billy Baird is employed in the Blessing store. I wonder if he does the window decorating. Little Bert Boquet was seen washing windows at Chase's Toggery Saturday. I hear Leland Slote likes to ride around in his car's delivery wagon and delivers milk. "Bob" Rashaw works for the Ord Theater. He posts all the signs on the bill boards. Many people have been wondering who's been doing the crooked work. I wonder if O. H. S. shouldn't be proud of its student body, and boast of their great variety of trades.

Ord High should be proud of the great number of students that have worked outside of school hours. Let's boast them highly for they are to be admired and many of us would do well to follow their example.

GRACE BALL
The football game November 27, at Loup City was rather a difficult one. The Ord boys played a hard game but they received only a hard knock and made many fumbles. One Loup City player was knocked out in the third quarter. In the last quarter Loup City made their only touchdown. The score was six to nothing in favor of the Loup City team. This game was the last one of this season.

To The Boys.
When the whistle blows for the game to start, I feel a pounding at my heart, And I pray for strength to do my part When the whistle blows.
I love the game, I love the fight; To "mess up plays" is sheer delight And what's more fun than "hold'n 'em tight" 'Till the whistle blows?

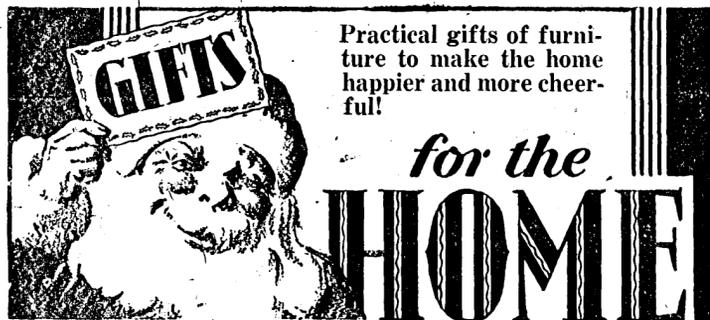

But all not's rosy, it's a rough old game, Tackle and block 'till my joints are lame, But I keep on fighting just the same. 'Till the whistle blows.
But all the gloom the sideline bore, Just a few classmates standing there. Where are the rest, why don't they come When the Whistle blows?

Official Canvass Shows Norris Had 75,000 Majority

Official tabulation of votes cast in the Nov. 4 election, announced Wednesday, gave Senator George W. Norris 247,118 votes, a plurality of 74,323 over the 172,795 cast for his Democratic opponent, Gilbert M. Hitchcock, Omaha publisher. Mrs. Beatrice Fenton Craig, Independent Republican, got 14,884.

For governor, Arthur J. Weaver's vote was 215,615, and Charles W. Bryan's 221,161, or a majority of 6,546 for Bryan.

The official tabulations, Deputy Secretary of State Thomas announced, were based on complete returns from 93 counties, although the results had not been formally verified by the state canvassing board.

This, however, remained as a legal formality, Thomas explained. The totals he said, would not be changed as a result.

The total vote cast, Thomas said, was 451,904.

The outcome of other state contests as shown in the official tabulation:

For Lieutenant Governor—Theodore W. Metcalfe (R.) 243,392; James C. Agee (D.) 154,281. Secretary of State—Frank Marsh (R.) 231,005; L. A. Larson (D.) 163,567.

Auditor of Public Accounts—George W. Marsh (R.) 220,634; Cecil E. Matthews (D.) 166,824. Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings—Dan Swanson (R.) 238,799; John Thomssen (D.) 151,529.

State Treasurer—Dr. T. W. Bass (R.) 215,669; Charles Smrha (D.) 163,488. Attorney General—C. A. Sorenson (R.) 241,117; Grover Long (D.) 168,366.

Railway Commissioner—Hugh H. Drake (R.) 204,708; E. A. Walrath (D.) 173,364.

For congress: First District—Ralph S. Mosely (R.) 19,539; John H. Morehead (D.) 34,662.

Third District—H. Halderson (R.) 23,599; Edgar Howard (D.) 53,221.

Fifth District—Fred G. Johnson (R.) 27,932; Ashton C. Shalleberger (D.) 34,915.

For superintendent of public instruction: Charles W. Taylor, 207,068; John M. Matzen, 164,779.

Fifth District—Bayard A. Payne, 35,377; Lewis H. Blackledge, 25,684.

Second District—A. C. Stokes, 34,687; William C. Ramsey, 25,834.

A total vote of 445,490 was cast on the constitutional amendments and initiative measures. On the latter enactments the total vote carried the power proposal submitted by the Peoples' Light and Power association and defeated the other two sponsored under the name of the Nebraska Taxpayers' league. The vote was:

Initiative Measure—No. 322: Yes, 144,595. No. 323: No, 157,107. No. 324: Yes, 240,579. No. 324: No, 89,205. No. 326: Yes, 118,617. No. 327: No, 162,050.

But one of the two proposed constitutional amendments carried. That was the provision for immediate assessment on the liability of state bank stockholders at the time of failure, which polled 182,536 affirmative votes and 92,593 negative votes.

The other, providing for an $8,000,000 appropriation for bank depositors was defeated by a vote of 120,554 affirmative votes to 144,882 negative votes.

Tabulation of votes in the legislative contests gives the Republicans a good margin of strength in the Nebraska senate, but a very narrow majority in the house.

The legislature, according to the tabulations, will be divided politically, in this manner: The Senate—Republicans, 20; Democrats, 13. The House—Republicans, 53; Democrats, 47.

Miss Lela Bashford was in Ord for a few hours Sunday. She was on the way to North Platte after a visit with relatives in Garfield county.

How to play Bridge AUCTION or CONTRACT

ARTICLE No. 2

Players are still arguing as to whether or not the informatory double is of any value to the game. Here is a hand where an opponent of the use of the informatory double had a chance to crow.

Example Hand No. 1

Spades—6, 4
Hearts—K, Q, J, 7
Diamonds—Q, J, 7, 3
Clubs—J, 6, 3

Spades—10
Hearts—A, 10, 4, 2
Diamonds—A, 9, 5, 4
Clubs—K, 7, 4, 2

Spades—Q, 9, 8, 3, 2
Hearts—8, 6, 5, 3
Diamonds—10, 6
Clubs—10, 8

Spades—A, K, J, 7, 5
Hearts—9
Clubs—A, Q, 9, 3

AUCTION BIDDING:

No score, first game. Z dealt and bid one spade. Should A make an informatory double or pass? Even the advocates of the informatory double would agree that A should pass with this hand. There is no chance for game unless B has a free bid, so why not wait and see what will happen. A has a good defensive hand so game is probably in no danger; and yet his hand is strong enough to warrant a try for game himself if his partner overbids one spade. It is a very common situation and should be carefully noted. If A passes the hand will be played at spades and Y Z will score three odd and simple honors, a total score of 57 points, if A doubles and B bids two hearts, Y will double and defeat the bid three tricks. As they also hold simple honors Y Z will thus score 330 points. The difference between the two bids is a net gain of 273 points for the player who has the good judgment not to double with A's hand. The lesson to be learned from this hand is not to make informatory doubles with weak hands.

CONTRACT BIDDING:

Z should bid one spade and A should pass. A player should have a much stronger hand at Contract than at Auction to justify an informatory double. As Y has only two small spades, and thus no help for his partner's spade bid, he should bid one no trump. B should pass and Z should bid three no trumps. His hand is so much stronger than his first bid of one spade indicated that he is justified in bidding three no trumps. A, pass and with the heart opening by B, Y Z easily score game.

There is nothing more instructive than end plays, for every player must understand how to play them if he wishes to be a little better than his neighbor. The following are two typical examples:

End Play No. 1

Hearts—none
Clubs—10, 6
Diamonds—none
Spades—4, 2

Spades—9, 8, 3

Hearts—none
Clubs—9
Diamonds—K
Spades—J, 7

Spades are trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z win one trick against any defense?

Z should lead the king of diamonds and trump with the four of trumps. This play will force B to overtrump with the eight of trumps. If B now leads the nine of trumps, Z should cover with the jack and thus make his seven good. If B should lead the trey of trumps, Z should play the seven and so force A to play the queen. If B leads the king of clubs, A is forced to trump with Z's jack of trumps must be a winner. In any case, therefore, Y Z

End Play No. 2

Clubs are trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z win five of the seven tricks against any defense?

Z should lead the king of diamonds and follow with the ten of hearts. On this trick, won by A, Y should discard the deuce of spades. A has no alternative but to lead another heart on which Y should discard another spade. Z should discard his last diamond. A is forced to lead another heart and Y should discard his last spade. A is now forced to do one of three things: (a) trump; (b) discard a diamond or (c) discard a spade.

(a) Should B trump, Z will over-trump and thus score the balance of the trick by cross ruffing.

(b) Should B discard a diamond Z should trump and lead the king of clubs. Z should then lead a spade which Y will trump with his last club and make his good diamond.

(c) Should B discard a spade, Z should trump and lead a spade which Y should discard. Y should then lead a trump which Z should win and thus be able to make his last spade. In any way, therefore, Y Z must score five of the seven tricks. At trick two, if A refuses to win the ten of hearts and so leads for a heart, Y should discard his last diamond and the problem is easy from then on. This end play is also a very common one in that of diamonds. Very frequently an opponent can be forced to discard his last diamond, so be on the lookout for the opportunity.

The Ord Methodist Church. Christmas is coming and that very soon plans are already in operation for music and exercises appropriate to the time. But whatever we do we should see to it that its purpose is not lost sight of, as we fear sometimes happens. There should not be a child in any of our homes that does not know the story from his or her heart of the occasion for the celebration of the birth of our Savior. So why not begin now and sing Christmas hymns and preach sermons that will put us in the best mood for Christmas. That will be our plan. Next Sunday is our Christmas Communion Sunday. Of course every member of the church will endeavor to be present. And our plan is to make every Sunday night's service different from every other of the month. Next Sunday night is church membership night with an opportunity to unite with the church by letter or otherwise. Some are planning to be received. See the pastor if interested. Remember the Sunday school begins at 10 and the Epworth League at 6:30. Prof. Bell will lead the service for the young people on Sunday evening.

Our subscriptions are for the boys and girls of high school age 12-16 years, if the subscriptions prove popular, we will try to take the other two a little later.

Titles received so far are: Watching Europe Grow... Parker When I Was a Girl... Ferris Blacksmith of Vilno... Kelley Charlemonte Crest... Seaman Air, Men and Wings... George and Gilman.

Thirty Fathoms Deep... Ellsberg Baited Horse Hill... Meader His Excellency and Peter Harper One interesting thing about the books offered in this list is that these are by no means dull reading for any adult. They are so well written and concern subjects of such lively interest that any grown up may borrow them and read them with pleasure.

Additional shelves have been completed this week, so the book committee has been active in trying to get this space filled with new reading matter. The complete list of Nebraska Reading Circle fiction for all grades has been purchased. Nearly thirty volumes of fiction for adults will soon be on the shelves. Richard Byrds, "Little America" and two Christmas stories, Holly Hedge by Bailey and the First Christmas by Van Dyke are on the list.

The following magazines will be found on our reading table in a few weeks, beginning with the December issues: Child Life, Boys' Life, World's Work, Nature Magazine, Children (Parent's Magazine), Literary Digest, Woman's Home Companion, St. Nicholas, Good Housekeeping, American Magazine, Popular Mechanics, Scientific, American, Reader's Digest.

Mrs. George Parkins has given the library the National Geographic Magazine for ten or more years. These have been bound and are greatly in demand by the school children. Is there any one who would like to donate these magazines for the years 1929 and 1930? The magazines would be bound and in that way would be useful for many years. If there you have, anyone, please notify the librarian.

Pussyfoot's Sportlog

By GEORGE ROUND, JR.

It appears as though Sheriff George Round of Ord is going to enter the dog business. Recently, Special Agent Palmer of the Burlington railroad sent him a setter pup. Just yesterday papers on the pup were sent Sheriff Round and he claims the dog has some very good breeding behind him. At the present time, John Klein of Ord is keeping the dog and will train him later. Burlington Route King is the dog's name.

To me it appeared all through the football season that Coach Joe Krejci's Ord high school football team played just good enough to scare the opposing teams.

But then comes Harry McBeth of the Quiz force saying, "Yes, the boys scare them about like I scare the pheasants when out hunting." That explains everything if one knows Harry's hunting ability at all.

Local followers of football have been keenly disappointed this year in the University of Nebraska football team. They have a right to be. Some of the local fans are inclined to believe the failure of the team to win games was because of lack of material. More, however, believe that it is because Bible is not delivering.

Personally, I believe the big factor was the failure of freshmen stars last year to be eligible for varsity competition that ruined the season for the Cornhuskers. Mathis was the only sophomore returning from last year and when Barnes, Roby, Miller, and Blankenship and others failed to return, it worked a hardship on Coach Bible. Too, I think some of the blame should be attached to the failure of the line to function on the offense, not opening holes in the line at all for the pony backs to dash through.

At least one Ord person was disappointed that Hank Armatits didn't come to Ord for the Thanksgiving vacation from his studies at the University of Nebraska. Yes, "Deacon" Arnold says Fuson is right in hawling me out recently in a letter to the Quiz. Perhaps you are right, Deacon. . . . Vern Anderson of Ord is looking for football recruits to make up the remainder of an eleven. . . . Again, this year, Arcadia demonstrated their superiority in football over Ord high. That Johnny Higgins appeared to be too good a passer for Mr. Krejci's Ord boys. Give us time, perhaps we will beat Arcadia. . . . It is lucky that Ord high didn't meet Comstock in football during the season for they might have been beaten. The Custer county lads dropped but one game, that on Thanksgiving to the unbeaten Sargent eleven.

In the friendly argument between Editor Roe of the Scotia Register and Genial Dan Webster of the St. Paul Phonograph, it appears to me that friend Howard backed Mr. Webster to answer and the so-called high mogul failed to answer to my knowledge last week. Just wait, Mr. Webster will have something to say about it, he always gets in the last word.

Evidently Chet Carkoski of Elyria had good luck with his football team at Hartington high this year, press dispatches indicating that his eleven won the majority of their games. Now in basketball

Chet is expected to deliver in great style. This is his second year at Hartington and he is well liked and has been highly successful.

In preparation for the coming basketball season, Syl Carkoske of Elyria, brother of Chet, is attempting to grow an upper growth above the chin. After two weeks, Sylvester hasn't produced anything very startling but if the first hundred years are the hardest, Syl says he wonders what the second hundred will be. Yes, it is going to be black if he doesn't give up. The mustache, of course.

If the Ord town basketball team is organized again this year, they will have some classy outfits, according to present buying plans. The laid-over fund from last year will permit the local boys to buy some of the best suits on the market. Maybe those new suits will help the four members of the team to cooperate more closely with Mr. Joe Krejci while performing on the floor. If they don't score more points than they did last year, friend Joe will have to take command of the situation again.

Lumir Kilma of Comstock, stayed in Ord Sunday night leaving Monday for his college work in St. Paul.

Notice to Everybody.

The Farm Central Mutual Insurance Co., of Hastings, has decided to go out of business, and has arranged to have its policy holders protected by the Farmers Mutual Insurance Company of Nebraska, at Lincoln. Details of the plan have been mailed to all Farm Central policy holders, and a meeting of its members has been called for December 10th, at Hastings, to ratify the arrangement. Bring in your Farm Central policies, and will attend to the transfers, has been authorized to do so by Farmers Mutual, which we re-sent in Valley county. The Farmers Mutual is 39 years old, and has accumulated a surplus fund of $100,000 for the protection of its policy holders, and writes "perpetual policies," costing only twenty-five cents per $100 per year, after the first.

Medicine Did For Him.

MR. JOE PAVELKA

"For a long time my health was gradually slipping away from me," said Mr. Joe Pavelka, 909 Hawthorne street, Crete, near Lincoln. "I did not feel right and was tired all the time. Indigestion and gas caused shortness of breath. My bowels did not act properly and I did not sleep well.

I needed a good medicine and tonic and decided to try Konjola. Within three weeks I felt like a different man. My bowels function normally, I sleep well at night and indigestion has practically disappeared. I shall continue using Konjola for it has proven to be just what my system needs.

Although Konjola works quickly and thoroughly, it is best to take this famous medicine over a six to eight week period in the average case.

Konjola is sold in Ord, Nebraska at the McLain and Sorensen drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

News of the Farms!

What's New in Farming!

Says Good House And Developed Pullets Needed

"A comfortable house, good management, and well developed pullets are the combining factors necessary for profitable winter egg production," says Joe Claybaugh, poultry specialist at the agricultural college, Lincoln. Claybaugh makes his assertion after summarizing record flock summaries from all over the state. There is one co-operator in Valley county.

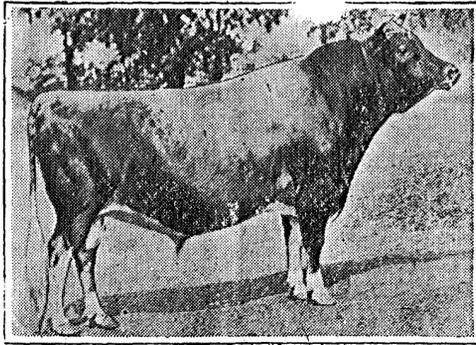

A farm flock, he says, must average at least 30 eggs per hen during the four winter months if the annual average is to reach the 150 egg mark set as the goal for co-operators, including the one in Valley county. From forty to fifty eggs from November to March first for each pullet is possible.

Culling hens each month they are not in production is a practice adopted by most of the poultrymen who keep records, according to Claybaugh. Most progressive poultrymen in Valley county follow this practice.

In summarizing the record flocks the college of agriculture man reduced the averages to a 1000-hen flock, pointing out what to expect from such a flock.

During the year, fifty-two percent of the number of hens started were sold as culls, twelve percent

He's a Grand Champ

This rugged fellow, February Fern's Noble, was recently selected the grand champion Jersey bull at the 1930 National Dairy Exposition at St. Louis, Mo. He also won this honor at the New York State Fair at Syracuse, the Eastern States Exposition at Springfield, Mass., and the Eastern Pennsylvania Parish Show at Bryn Mawr. He is owned by P. H. B. Freilinghuyesen of Norristown, Pa.

died and thirty-six percent were on hand as possible breeders at the end of the year. These same figures would probably hold true in flocks around Ord, North Loup, and Arcadia where the owners were progressive poultrymen. In other flocks, the percent of birds dying would probably be greater.

As expected, the market price for eggs during the year varied, Claybaugh reports. The price varied from seventeen cents to forty-one cents a dozen during the year. These prices might be the same in Valley county. The annual average price paid for eggs was twenty-five cents. Methods of marketing eggs did not affect poultrymen to any degree around Ord but to a greater extent around Lincoln and Omaha. Claybaugh found from the summarization that it takes from 100 to 150 pounds of feed to keep a hen a year and raise a pullet. Factors increasing the amount of feed above 100 pounds were raising more than twice as many pullets as old hens kept, keeping cockerels until they weighed more than two pounds, and tolerating feed troughs that wasted feed.

During the year, receipts for eggs amounted to eighty-one percent of the entire income from the flock. The percent varied when egg production fell below the goal of 150 eggs per hen. Where special attention was paid to breeding stock, the income from stock sold was nearly one-half of the total revenue.

GRAMLICH SAYS DRIED CANE IS NOT POISONOUS

Like Cured Hay; Entirely Safe High Percentage Moisture May Cause Trouble.

Cane which has been thoroughly dried following freezing should not be harmful to cattle is the opinion of H. J. Gramlich, head of the animal husbandry department at the University of Nebraska. Several Valley county farmers have questioned the practice and written Gramlich about it.

Gramlich says cane is a crop which is frequently poisonous when it contains a high percentage of moisture. In the cured form cane has proved to be relatively safe. The dried-out standing plants would be comparable to cured hay and should prove entirely safe for cattle feeding is the advice given to farmers near Ord who wrote Gramlich.

The college of agriculture man made the above statements assuming there is no secondary growth on the ground. Should there be a growth from the roots, this might prove poisonous he emphasizes.

Children Like This Safe Prescription

Coughs and Sore Throat Relieved Almost Instantly Stop children's coughs and sore throats before these ailments lead to dangerous ills. Use Thoxine, a doctor's famous prescription which brings relief within 15 minutes, yet contains no harmful drugs. Thoxine works on a different principle, it has a quick, double action—it relieves the irritation and goes direct to the interal cause. Ideal for all children because it is pleasant tasting and easy to take—not a gargle. Ask for Thoxine, put up ready for use in 50c, 60c and $1.00 bottles. BACKFORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

Few veterinary books make mention of cornstalk disease by any name or in any manner. Yet such a malady exists, as some farmers over the state are painfully aware at present. This year it is more prevalent than usual, and apparently little if anything can be done about it.

Cornstalk disease is one of the mysteries that veterinary scientists have not yet been able to solve. For this reason the advisability of writing about it may be questioned. But it is well to mention that agents are abroad selling so-called remedies for it; also that losses may be minimized by accumulating animals to cornstalks gradually, and feeding other forage in connection. Least valuable animals should be turned into the fields first, for there is no other way of telling if the stalks are poisonous.

According to Dr. McGinnis, this ailment is a form of botulism, but the cause and methods of treatment are not definitely known. In connection with this, the United States Department of Agriculture says:

Considerable losses of cattle have occurred when they were turned upon cornfields in the fall. Deaths come very suddenly and there is no opportunity to apply remedies. It has been thought that these fatalities, like those from sorghum, were caused by hydrocyanic acid, but there is good reason to think that this is not true, and at the present time there is no accepted explanation of this disease, although there seems to be no doubt that it is connected in some way with the condition of the corn. Whether a given field is poisonous or not can only be determined by experiment, and the wise farmer will keep his cattle under close observation when they are first turned into a cornfield. Some think the poisoning is caused by a sort of mold on the stalks. Others claim that these molds are not to blame, but are merely present in addition to the actual cause, the toxin secreted by the botulism germ. Whatever the cause, this unknown affliction is so quickly fatal that it would be difficult to check, even if there were remedies.

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orferlies has been discovered. This table attracts water from the system, as usual, dry, evacuating toward the colon. The water causes the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew Rexall Orferlies at night next day bright. Get 24 for 25c at Ed F. Beranek's Rexall drug store or at its nearest Rexall Drug Store. 8-32t

AM I RIGHT?

By Geo. Round, jr.

By this time, I expect, County Agent Dale and his state championship 4-H club crops judging team are on their way home or soon will be. They were at night out of Chicago at 8:00 tonight for Omaha. The boys will probably arrive back in Ord sometime Friday night. They drive to Ord from Omaha.

The spread in price between butterfat and retail butter is evidently a hard one for most people to see. Now when butter is selling for something like thirty-three cents a pound and butterfat for only twenty, there is a spread of approximately thirteen cents between the two.

Before when butter was selling for around fifty-two cents and butterfat for as high as forty-three, the spread was much less. Reason for increasing the spread between the two prices is entirely in the hands of the centralizers, it appears to me. They set the price, so it seems to me, and the other manufacturers conform to it. In having such a wide spread, the centralizers are protecting themselves.

Now some foreign countries are dumping butter into the United States and paying as high as fourteen cents a pound duty on it. Nevertheless, their move to rid their country of the butter surplus seems a good one. Perhaps it would be well if the United States dumped their butter into China to help the so-called starving Chinese. The American farmer would be better off but then the centralizers would never be able to make out on it.

So still the situation remains a puzzle to most Valley county people. Other people are trying to figure a solution out, too.

Valley county farmers husking their corn report that it is making good yields this fall. Brnie Hill recently told me that he has a piece on his farm up north that will probably average around fifty bushels. Some of his other corn won't come up to that standard however. Many other local farmers are reporting similar yields from their corn. All in all it begins to look like the crop is better than was at first expected.

However, farmers are finding many nubbins in their fields which is especially true all over the state. They bring down the yields of the corn rapidly.

Archie Mason who lives south of Ord about eleven miles apparently is finding his corn to be good. Like many other progressive farmers, he is turning some of his cattle into a portion of the cornfield and running the hogs behind. He is feeding out a number of cattle bought at Denver. The newly-wed had unusually good luck with his pigs this year, his father recently told me.

Last spring Ed Hackel, farmer living six miles south of Ord started feeding some mineral to his cattle in the feedlot. He has promised me some dope on the results and it won't be long before we will be finding out whether the feeding of mineral was a practical one or not. He got his suggested ration from the Kansas state agricultural college at Manhattan.

Max Cruikshank, enthusiastic 4-H club member from Arcadia, put his gains on his Hampshire hogs at the cost of four cents a pound, he says. Not so bad. Yes, Mrs.

Hackel, you should make Ed write that letter. . . . The annual report of the Ord co-operative creamery which will be available early this month should indicate the volume of business done during the current year. It will probably show that the local creamery has made more butter during the year than any independent co-op in Nebraska. . . . Paul De Lashmett who lives north of Ord recently lost a good cow by cornstalk disease. Will have a little story on the disease next week. Watch for it. . . .

Arcadia News

By MRS. RAY GOLDEN

Workman-Tooops. The marriage of Miss Opal Workman and Elmer Tooops took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Workman at Lincoln, Wednesday evening, Nov. 26 at 8 p. m. The wedding ceremony was performed by the pastor of the Grace Methodist church in the living room of the Workman home beneath a bower of palms and flowers. The young couple was attended by Miss Doris Detmer and Harold Workman, both of Lincoln. These young people are both well known in Arcadia, Elmer being the son of W. V. Tooops. Both were raised in this vicinity and attended our public school. Elmer graduated with the class of 1930 and was awarded the class scholarship for high scholastic standing. He was also chosen to represent the Arcadia high school among the boys taking the Edison test. During his junior and senior year of high school he was employed in the office of the Arcadian. He left for Lincoln at the close of the school term where he is now employed at the Ivy Print Shop. Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Tooops and family, Mrs. Lytle Bellingr and Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bartlett attended the wedding from Arcadia. Farmers Club Meets. The November meeting of the Farmers club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carmody Saturday, November 29th. Sixty-eight members and guests were present. Dedicatorial Service Close. The week's dedicatory services for the new Arcadia Methodist Episcopal church closed Friday evening with the sacred cantata "Zion" rendered by the members of the church choir. The cantata, which was directed by Mrs. R. O. Gaither, was splendidly given. Solo parts were carried by Mrs. C. C. Weddel, Mrs. Geo. Bryson, Mrs. R. O. Gaither, Lowell Finney and R. G. Gaither. A duet by Kenneth Gaither and Mrs. R. O. Gaither and a quartette number by Rev. and Mrs. Gaither, Lowell Finney and Opal Carmody were also rendered. Mrs. Lowell Finney served as accompanist. The Tuesday evening services were in charge of Rev. Randall of Scotia who delivered an address on the life of Elijah and the value of prayer. Music for the evening was furnished by Gaither brothers trio. Wednesday evening's program was provided by the Brothers orchestra of Ord and was an evening of rare entertainment. The most we can say is that those who were not present certainly missed a treat. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. D. Auble, who sang at the dedication of the former building on 1887 were present Wednesday evening and also took part in the program. Rev. W. R. Wright, pastor of the Methodist church of Ord accompanied the orchestra to Arcadia, delivering the opening prayer and making the invocation at the close of the program. Miss Dorothy Campbell of Ord gave two beautiful readings.

Union Thanksgiving services were held at the church Thursday evening conducted by Rev. B. W. Burleigh, pastor of the Congregational church. The service was for his text, Ephesians 5:20, delivering a fine sermon and impressing the fact that one never ceases to have cause to be thankful. Music for the evening consisted of a vocal duet by Mrs. Vera Cook and Mrs. P. V. Amick, and a solo by the Congregational church choir. Attend Brother's Funeral. Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Hill drove to Norfolk Sunday to attend the funeral of the former's brother Alfred Hill who passed away at the home of his parents in Norfolk Thanksgiving. The funeral service ceased had been ill for some time and just about three weeks ago was brought to the home of his parents from California where he had been confined to a hospital. Dr. Hill made a trip to California for the purpose of talking with his brother here. Mr. Hill was a world war veteran and was thirty-seven years of age at the time of his death. Among the many beautiful floral offerings was a large bouquet of chrysanthemums from General Pershing and his sister, Mrs. Mae Pershing. The latter is a personal friend of Miss Freda Hill, sister of the deceased. Mrs. Mary Fagan. Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Fagan held at the Catholic church in Fremont Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and the church in Arcadia Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. The Arcadia services were conducted by Father Alexander of Loup City. Burial was made in the Lee Park cemetery beside her husband, Edward Fagan. Mrs. Mary Fagan died March 2, 1882 at White Haven, England and passed away Nov. 27, 1930 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Anderson at Fremont. She came to the United States with her parents at the age of seven years and resided in the town of Ypsilanti, Michigan until she was twelve years of age, the family moved to Missouri Valley, Ia. and it was there she was married to Edward Fagan in the year 1880. Six children were born to this union, Elizabeth who died at the age of five years, Mrs. Agnes Anderson, Mrs. Minnie Gurn, Vincent and Edward Fagan, all of Fremont and Mrs. Katie Murray of Arcadia. Beside her five children, all of whom were with her at the time of her death, she leaves fifteen grand children, two great grand children, two brothers and two sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Fagan came to this part of Nebraska over forty years ago and knew all the hardships of pioneer life. The former passed away July 25, 1930 at the Fagan home in Arcadia and the following June Mrs. Fagan and her son Edward moved to Fremont where they made their home. Mrs. Fagan was taken ill several weeks ago and was bedfast for five weeks prior to her death, which was caused by creeping paralysis which followed an attack of pleurisy. Glendale Literary Meets. The Glendale Literary Society met at the Glendale school house last Friday evening. The program consisted of a one act skit by eight of the high school pupils and a debate on "Resolved, that fire is more destructive than water." The affirmative side was taken by Ruth Jones, Ina Garner and Louis Drake and the negative by Pearl Dobson, Keith Holmes and Edward Arnold. The debate was decided in favor of the negative side. Ivan Holmes, L. P. Fenster and Harvey Barr acted as judges. The next meeting will be held at the school house Friday evening, Dec. 12th. Quarantine Lifted. The quarantine for poliomyelitis was lifted from the Carl Larson home Sunday. Marvin Eugene is recovering splendidly and the baby did not contract the disease. No other cases have been reported. Entertains for Mrs. Clark. A number of delightful dinners and parties have taken place the past week in honor of Mrs. Jennie Clark of Des Moines, Iowa who is visiting her brother, J. G. Cruikshank and family. Mrs. Cruikshank entertained at a dinner in her honor Sunday, Mrs. C. W. Walgren entertained Sunday evening, Mrs. Otto Rettenmayer Monday afternoon, Mrs. E. A. Easterbrook, Tuesday afternoon and Mrs. Edith Bossen Wednesday afternoon. True-Travel. Miss Minnie True and Paul Travis surprised all their many friends last week when they slipped away and were married at Harvard, Nebr. on Thanksgiving day. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Alcorn, former pastor of the Arcadia Congregational church. Minnie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chan True of Arcadia. She grew to young womanhood in this vicinity and is a graduate of the Arcadia high school. She has always been very active in church work and for several years has been a member of the choir of the Congregational church. Paul is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Travis of Loup City. He is a graduate of the Loup City high school and for some time has been engaged in the dry cleaning business at Loup City. He is a fine young man and has made many friends in Arcadia on his visits here. He and his bride will make their home in Loup City. Locals. The Ladies Aid society of the Congregational church met at the church basement Thursday afternoon. Mesdames Fred Cox, Albert Wibbel, William Gregory, and Dan Bartlett were hostesses. Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Fenster entertained the members of the senior class of the high school at a party at their home Monday evening in honor of the birthday of their son Marlon. The Afternoon Bridge club met Tuesday with Mrs. F. V. Amick. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Belle Wall. Mr. and Mrs. Cash Routh entertained a large number of relatives and friends at a dinner Thanksgiving day. Fruit baskets found the table decorations and a wonderful dinner was served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Doe and Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. V. del, D. O. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Weddel and family, Mrs. Rose Taylor, Misses Mae Mathers and Mary Cook and Cecil Weddel. The Women's Fedeign Missionary society of the Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. JUDGE ADMITS MRS. RAMSEY'S WILL TO PROBATE

Was Mentally Competent When She Signed Will, Judge Decides; No Unlawful Influence.

Mrs. Sarah L. Ramsey was mentally competent when she signed her last will and testament and she was not unduly influenced by her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wentworth, decided Judge J. H. Hollingshead Monday evening after listening to evidence all day in probate court. He will admit the will to probate over the objection of Mrs. Ramsey's daughter, Mrs. Margaret Wentworth, who had filed a motion for summary judgment to have the will set aside.

Mrs. Ramsey's will divided her $35,000 estate equally between six of her seven children, leaving Mrs. Capron only $10. Mrs. Capron charged that her sister, Mrs. Wentworth, induced their father to cut her off with this meager amount because of a family quarrel which ensued during the settlement of the estate of their father, William H. H. Ramsey.

The case was heard in the district court room, which was crowded all day with curious onlookers. Munn & Norman were attorneys for Mrs. Wentworth while Mrs. Capron was represented by Bert M. Hardenbrook.

Witnesses introduced by the contestant were Will Ramsey, J. H. Capron, Mrs. C. H. Noll and C. J. Mortensen and Mary F. Capron, while the proponents introduced Judge E. P. Clements, A. W. Cornell, Jay Aule, E. L. Vogelanz, Joe P. Barta, Emil Fafetta, Dr. F. A. Barta, Mrs. Wentworth and Dr. W. Norman. Judge Clements drew Mrs. Ramsey's will while practicing as attorney here and it was witnessed by Mr. Vogelanz.

After hearing all the evidence Judge Hollingshead decided there was not sufficient evidence to show that Mrs. Ramsey was unduly influenced by her daughter. Mrs. Wentworth influenced her mother unduly, announcing that he would admit the will to probate.

Attorney Hardenbrook announced Tuesday that his clients are considering an appeal to the district court.

Quarantine Removed.

The poliomyelitis quarantine has been removed from the John Andersen home, where the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andersen had the disease. The baby is recovering without after-effects. No other cases have been reported in this vicinity.

Johnson Files Assault Charge Against Barta

Dr. F. A. Barta is charged with assault in a criminal complaint filed late Wednesday in county court by Edward L. Johnson. On December 3 the Ord doctor laid hands upon him, shook and physically abused and injured him, Mr. Johnson charged in a warrant for Dr. Barta's arrest was issued late Wednesday but as the Quiz goes to press this morning it has not been served.

Dr. Barta, when questioned last evening by a Quiz reporter, denied assaulting Mr. Johnson, saying that on December 3 the latter attacked him with a heavy cane and that he grasped him by the coat lapels to fend him off.

Mr. Johnson has threatened to kill him many times in the past five months, Dr. Barta says, and he inclines to the belief that Mr. Johnson is insane as the result of his long illness with pneumonia last winter. Dr. Barta attended him during his illness. He may file insanity proceedings against Mr. Johnson the doctor says.

—Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller are spending this week in Omaha. They left for that place Tuesday.

The Truth About The Pheasant!

How do you feel about the pheasant? Is it a help or a harm to the farmer? Should we have more pheasants in Valley county or should they be exterminated? Read the Quiz next week and learn the facts about the pheasant.

On special permit from the state, J. A. Kovanda in 1929 shot 100 pheasants in Valley county. He killed 50 cocks and 50 hens and some on high land and some on low land. He killed them during every month of the year and at every time of day.

These pheasants were sent to M. H. Swenk, state entomologist, for analysis. Mr. Swenk has analyzed the results and made his report and from this report Geo. Round, Jr., has written an interesting story that tells "the truth about the pheasant."

Read it in next week's Quiz.

Sacks Entertain At Venison Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sack were host two evenings last week at dinner parties, venison being the featured article of food. Mr. and Mrs. Sack returned a few days before from northern Minnesota where Mr. Sack hunted deer while his wife visited relatives and friends in Canby and Norwood. Mr. Sack was a guest of the Norwood Hunting club at the club's cabin near the Canadian border. There were eleven in the party and all succeeded in killing deer. Mr. Sack weighed 165 pounds when dressed, back to Ord with him Minnesota deer are of the white-tail species but are much larger than the white-tails that Mr. Sack and Dr. Miller hunted in Mexico the previous fall.

CLYDE BAKER CHOSEN HEAD CITY LEAGUE

Succeeds Heuck As President Of Cagers; First Practice To Be Held Next Tuesday.

About twenty enthusiastic cagers attended a meeting last Friday evening and re-organized the Ord City Basketball League, which has functioned so efficiently for the past two years. Clyde Baker was chosen president to succeed Bill Heuck, Harry Wolf was elected secretary succeeding Jess Kovanda, and it was decided to hold the first practice session next Tuesday evening. The league will open its regular season immediately after the Christmas holidays.

The city league will number only four teams this year and league members voted last Friday to require firms wishing to sponsor teams to pay $5.00 each into the league treasury, the sum thus raised to be used for buying new basketballs. Firms who sponsored teams last year are to be given first chance this year.

All city league games will be played on Tuesday evenings, the only night when the gymnasium is available. On this night the games must follow band practice and the gym will not be open until 8:45. However, dressing rooms will be unlocked at 8 o'clock and players can be dressed and ready to go when the gym doors open.

A forty-five minute practice session will precede the games, which will start at 9:30. With only two games to play, the evening's schedule can be concluded by 10:45, which is not too late for players and spectators. Later in the season it may be possible to get the gym earlier but the league will start on this basis.

It is hoped that forty players can be signed up at the first practice session next Tuesday evening. Everybody who wants to play must sign up at this time. As in former years each will be given a uniform made and any balance remaining when the season closes will be rebated back to players.

A committee will be appointed to allot players to teams next Tuesday night and this work will be done during the practice session. Teams will be announced and captains elected at the close of the practice. It is imperative that all who expect to play this year shall be there by 8:30 next Tuesday.

Town Team Gets Suits.

New suits were ordered this week for the Ord All-Stars, town basketball team which flourished here last winter. Complete outfits were ordered, including pants, shirts and sweat suits. They will be royal blue trimmed with white and with white lettering. It is thought that the All-Stars will be even faster this year than last for in addition to Joe Krejci, Lynn Beeghly and other stalwarts of last year's team there will be "Fat" Adams, Ernie Lashmett, Ross Blessing and other former Ord high school stars. Teams that will appear in Ord this winter include the Oak Brand Overalls, of Omaha, Warners Roamers, of Hancock, Ia., the Ravenna All-Stars, the Grand Island A. C. and other fast Grand Island fives. Town team games probably will be played on Monday evenings and will start soon after January 1.

Wegrzyn Family Now In New Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wegrzyn moved last Wednesday into their new house which has been built during the past few months near the site of their former home, which was destroyed by fire. Mr. and Mrs. Wegrzyn have one of the nicest small properties in Ord.

Mrs. Nay Heads Rebekahs.

The Rebekah lodge elected officers at the last regular meeting. Mrs. Zeta Nay being chosen noble grand. Other officers are Mrs. H. R. Hrbek, vice grand; Mrs. J. W. McGinnis, financial secretary; Miss Myrel Turner, recording secretary; Miss Verna Lickly, treasurer.

JUNIOR CLASS PRESENTS PLAY FRIDAY NIGHT

"The Whole Town's Talking" Is Name of Farce; Tickets May Be Reserved Today.

"The Whole Town's Talking," a farce comedy, is the play to be presented by the junior class of Ord high school at the school auditorium Friday evening, December 12. Usually the annual junior play is given later in the winter but this year it was decided to get it out of the way before the Christmas holidays and junior students are hoping for a large crowd.

Miss Elsie Frederickson and Miss Jeannette Nelson are coaching the play cast and students taking part include Rosemary Needham, Ella Marie Strong, Julius Vala, Adrian Tolen, Marian Grace Cushing, Rodney Stoltz, Charles Shepard, Sylvia Cornell, Charleza Van Wle, Charles Barnhart, Florence Kokes and Iolama Williams. Tickets may be reserved today or tomorrow at the Ed F. Beranek drug store.

Attends Painters Meeting.

George Owen returned last Friday from Fremont where he was attending the Master Painters Convention. He reports an excellent program. George gave a report on priming an Ord building with aluminum paint and since returning he has received a letter from the Aluminum Company of America, asking for a descriptive letter and a photo of himself for use in the company's national advertising. While George was attending the convention Mrs. Owen visited her sister in Fullerton, returning home with her husband Friday.

Alyce Johnson And Dutch Blessing Wed

At a quiet ceremony performed by Rev. D. C. Williamson Wednesday afternoon, Miss Alyce Johnson became the bride of Lorenzo Blessing, better known to his friends as "Dutch." Only members of the immediate families were present. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Blessing left for Grand Island on a brief wedding trip. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson and for several years has been conducting a successful millinery and ready-to-wear shop here. She closed out her stock of goods and retired from business last Saturday.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blessing and for several years has held a position as mail carrier on rural mail route No. 1, out of Ord.

Both of these young people are graduates of Ord high school and both have been prominent among the younger set here. They will make their home in Ord and the Quiz wishes with their host of friends in extending hearty congratulations.

—Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Hansen of Arcadia were Ord visitors Tuesday and calling in the home of Pete Jensen and Guy Burrows.

Valerian Clochon Wins First Among Junior Huskers

Fourteen youthful entrants participated in the first Valley county boys' cornhusking contest. The meet was sponsored by the vocational agriculture, scholars from the Ord high school, and was held on the Hughes farm, ten miles southeast of Ord, last Friday afternoon.

Valerian Clochon, the winner, was also the dirtiest husker, but he threw so much corn into the wagon that he copped first prize even after being penalized for eleven ounces of surplus shucks. Carl Suminski placed second, Lloyd Marks third, and his brother Don fourth. Don Marks was also the cleanest husker. Monty Petersen turned in a sizeable load but left too many ears in the field. Regulation contest rules were observed except that shorter husking time was allowed. The five high individuals in each group and their records are as follows:

- Boys over 16:
 - Valerian Clochon—11.5 bu.
 - Carl Suminski—10.9 bu.
 - Harold Crouch—8.5 bu.
 - Frank Pesta—6.9 bu.
 - Harley Couch—6.5 bu.
- Boys under 16:
 - Lyle Smith—7.07 bu.
 - Robert Flynn—7.04 bu.
 - Floyd Rathban—7.01 bu.
 - Milton Meyers—5.54 bu.

Many Children Need Clothes, Says Sheriff

There are many needy children in Valley county this year, says George Round, sheriff of Valley county, and clothes outgrown by more fortunate children will be greatly appreciated. He asks people having such clothes to leave them in his office at the court house. They will be distributed just before Christmas, he says.

ORD DONS XMAS GARB THIS WEEK

Chamber of Commerce And City Decorate Business Section; Stores Gift Centers.

Ord again becomes the most beautifully decorated city in the Loup Valley region this Christmas season, for illuminated Christmas trees were erected about the squares this week and other holiday adornments will be used on the court house. Stores are cooperating with beautiful Yuletide window displays and the fervor for decorating is extending into the residential section, where many houses and yards have already been made beautiful. Stores are featuring fine stocks of holiday merchandise.

To the Chamber of Commerce and Ord city should go the credit for decorating around the square. At a meeting of C. of C. directors last Thursday evening a committee consisting of Glen Auble, George Allen and D. C. Haught was appointed to carry out plans for making Ord a real Christmas city.

As was done two years ago the Chamber of Commerce bought the trees, city electricians strung insulated wires about the square and the city electric plant is furnishing "juice" without charge. A general meeting of all Chamber of Commerce members is to be held at the club rooms at 8 p. m. Friday, Dec. 12 to consider further plans for the Christmas season. Some members are in favor of having a large community tree with treats for all children on Christmas eve and this question will be discussed at the meeting. All members are urged to attend.

Will Learn Buttermaking.

Bob Rowbal of Ord is one of ten Nebraska men attending the annual buttermaker's short course which opened at the agricultural college, Lincoln, Monday of this week. Young Rowbal is an employee in the Ord co-operative creamery and is rapidly becoming a good butter-maker. The course closes December 20.

Charity Ball Is Next Big Feature

Ord's next big community social affair is the annual Knights of Pythias charity ball which will be held in the K. of P. ball room next Tuesday evening, December 16. Ticket salesmen are now busy and it is hoped that everybody approached will buy a ticket as funds derived from their sale will be used to further Christmas charitable work in this community. E. C. Waller, who is chairman of the committee having charge of the affair, promises good music and a fine time to all who attend.

Smoking Motor Thought Fire.

A smoking motor on the electric refrigerating system in Jerry Petek's store was thought to be a fire early this morning and an alarm was sounded.

Tschauner Attorney Files Security Bond

Roy Higgins, Grand Island, attorney for Dr. A. A. Tschauner in his $30,000 damage suit against Floyd Hudson of North Loup, was in Ord Tuesday and filed a security bond of $100, guaranteeing court costs in the case. Munn & Norman, attorneys for Mr. Hudson, must file their answer within thirty days. It will be remembered that some weeks ago Dr. Tschauner filed suit against Mr. Hudson, charging that the latter alienated the affections of his wife.

Leave for California.

Judge and Mrs. Edwin P. Clements are leaving this morning for California where they will spend several weeks visiting their daughters, Miss Lena Clements and Mrs. Bess Stacy and family and their son, Allan Clements. They will spend Christmas at Calexico, where all of their children live.

JUDGING CHAMPS ARE HONORED BY ROTARY CLUB

Boys Who Won National Title At Chicago Tell Rotarians All About Their Trip.

Bill Garnick, Anthony Kokes and Harold Benn, members of the Valley county crops judging team which last week won the national championship at Chicago, were guests of the Ord Rotary club at luncheon Monday and told all about their trip. They were introduced by C. C. Dale, Rotary club member and Valley county agent, who coached the team to victory.

Anthony Kokes, who placed fourth in the national contest, was the first speaker and told about the judging contest itself. Harold Benn, who placed eleventh, told about educational features of the trip and Bill Garnick, who led the Valley county team by placing third, described entertainment features offered for the approval of 4-H club members.

The crops judging contest in which the local boys won out was held as a feature event of the International Stock Show and the 4-H Club Congress. The Valley county team won the trip to Chicago by placing first at the Nebraska State Fair in September.

Coach Dale, Garnick, Kokes and Benn stayed at the Hotel LaSalle while in the Windy City and occupied the Presidential suite of that hotel. Coach Dale and Young Garnick slept in the president's bed.

The four were guests of honor at a banquet held by the International Crop Growers Improvement Association at the Morrison hotel last Wednesday evening. This banquet was one of the high spots of the trip for all of them. Another high spot came when the three boys, after winning the national contest, rode around the arena behind the Union Stockyards prize winning eight-horse team, and were introduced to the assembled multitude. They returned from Chicago last Friday evening and since that time have been busy accepting the congratulations of friends and well-wishers on their great achievement.

Edward J. Koziol Dies At Ashland

After an illness of only twenty-four hours Edward J. Koziol, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koziol, passed away December 1 at the family home in Ashland. The young man was born Oct. 15, 1907 at Atkinson, Neb., but when he was ten weeks old the family moved to Valley county and Edward grew to young manhood here, graduating from Ord high school with the class of 1925. Later he, with the family, moved to Springfield and a year later to Ashland, where the family home is now located. Funeral services were held at St. Mary's Catholic church at Ashland and interment was made in Ashland cemetery. He is survived by his parents, one brother, Frank, and three sisters, Helen, and Mary, who live at home and Mrs. Eleanor Sackett, also of Ashland, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

William Hall Was Buried In Oregon

Funeral services were held at St. John's Catholic church in Oregon City, Oregon on Dec. 2 for William E. Hall, 88, former Ord man who died the Saturday before from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile. The body was buried at Oregon City instead of being cremated as was stated in last week's Quiz.

CREAM REBATE CASE WILL BE TRIED IN ORD

County Judge Should See Justice Done, Not Rule on Points of Law, Says Hollingshead.

Stating that the duty of a county judge as he conceives it is to see that justice is done, not rule on points of law, Judge J. H. Hollingshead yesterday afternoon overruled a motion filed by the David Cole Creamery Company and A. J. Wise, in the case in which they are being sued by H. R. Packer, and ordered the case tried in Valley county. The defendants have agreed to file their answer to the suit by Saturday and it will be set for trial some time next week.

By this suit Mr. Packer is attempting to force the creamery company to pay dividends promised to farmers who sold butterfat to Mr. Wise in 1929. At that time Mr. Wise was local agent for the David Cole people.

Mr. Packer alleges that through Mr. Wise, the David Cole company agreed to meet the dividend or rebate paid by the Ord Co-operative Creamery Company. Packer says that he, as well as many other farmers, sold butterfat to Mr. Wise during 1929 but when the year ended the company refused or failed to pay the rebate.

Mr. Wise is now buying independently and is no longer agent for the David Cole people and company disputed Mr. Packer's right to sue them in Valley county because they own no property. It was this point that Judge Hollingshead was required to decide.

In his decision Hollingshead said that he served six years justice of the peace at Ord. He has been county judge of Valley county for six years. He has studied law all during that time the judge said, and has never found any section which requires a county judge to decide points of law. The duty of a county judge is to give justice a chance, Judge Hollingshead said. He then ordered the case tried here.

Munn & Norman are attorneys for Mr. Packer and Mr. Wise is represented by Davis & Vogelanz. Attorneys for the David Cole company are the firm of Brome, Thomas, Ramsey & McGuire, of Omaha, and they were represented here yesterday by Clinton Brome, Jm Street, president of the David Cole company, was also present in court.

The outcome of this case is being watched closely by Ord men all over the state as there are several disputed points of law involved.

Centralizing creameries are in a quandary at present, the Quiz is told by one of the defense counsel. They are desists of meeting dividend all paid by co-operative creameries but are up against an opinion given by Attorney Geo. A. C. Sorensen which says that, for them to do so is a violation of the anti-discrimination laws. If they refuse to pay the rebate they are liable to law suits such as was filed by Mr. Packer here. If they do meet the rebate they are subject to fines and possibly revocation of their charters for violating the state law.

The David Cole company's defense in the present case probably will be that they knowingly entered an illegal contract when they promised to pay a rebate at the end of 1929.

It is probable that, regardless of the outcome of this case, it will be appealed to a higher court.

THE GOLDEN RULE

The Gift That Will Please Every Member of The Family

Make 1930 the most successful Christmas that you and yours have ever known.

Picture the delight of wife and family when they see a New Chevrolet, 1931 model, all bright and shining, standing at the door on Christmas morning. It's the Christmas gift supreme!

The new Chevrolet is rightfully called "The Great American Value" for quality is higher, while prices have been reduced.

The car is longer, lower and modernly smart. The long hood lines sweep back unbroken to blend gracefully into the new Fisher bodies.

The new Chevrolet bodies are roomier and more comfortable and there are many gratifying new features and pleasing refinements. Mechanically the new Chevrolet is a better automobile, too. The frame is stronger, the steering is easier, the clutch is more durable. In fact, wherever finer materials and more advanced design could aid, the improvement has been made.

The Perfect Gift

We'll Deliver It Christmas Morning!

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy and I am trying to be as good as I can. I do not go to school yet. I want for Christmas a little wagon, tractor and candies and peanuts and I live 7 miles west of Ord. With love, Harry Burson

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy just eight years old. I live ten miles northeast of Ord on the Ericson-Ord highway. I moved this spring just 1/2 mile north of where I lived last Christmas. It is pretty cold down here, I reckon you nearly freeze up there. Oh say, I try to be good all the time but I don't know whether I am or not, but I sure try to be, for Christmas I want trapeze ropes, book, pair of jumping skates and a play shot gun (double barrel), and a stocking full of toys. Your little friend, Arlie Glee Worm

Dear Santa: I would like to have you bring me a big mouth harp. I go to school and I am nine years old, I am in the fourth grade. Mama says I am not a very good boy and I'll be my best next year. I go to district 53 school. Yours truly, Sylvester Boro.

Dear Santa: My name is Betty. I am 6 years old and have a little brother 1 year old. I want you to bring me a pair of skates and a black board. I go to Springdale school and am in the first grade. Betty Timmerman.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a good little girl. I will be eight years old January 6th. I am in the 3rd grade at school. My teacher's name is Miss Marie Kilma. For Christmas I want a doll 8 inches tall that sleeps, talks and walks and a buggy for her. I live seven miles west of Ord on the Ord and Sargent highway. Our house is on the south side of the road. Please bring me what I want for Christmas. Yours truly, Martha Golka

Dear Santa: I am 8 years old and go to school. I have a little sister that will be two years old in January. Please bring me a caterpillar tractor and a tool set. Bring her a doll and a rocking chair. We have been good children. Joe and Mary Ann Gregory

Dear Santa Claus: I read your letter in the Ord Quiz. I thought I would write you a few lines. How are you and your reindeers out at the North Pole? I am nine years old and in the sixth grade. I have a mile and one-half to school. I live 14 miles west of Ord. For Christmas I want some toys, nuts and candy. Please do not forget to come. Thanking you in advance I remain, Johnnie A. Valasek, Comstock, Nebr.

Dear Santa: Would you please bring me a tractor? I am a good boy. I go to school. I am in the second grade. And don't forget my little sister, she is two years old. She sure likes dolls. Yours truly, Albin Barr

Dear Santa Claus: I am fine. I think I was a good boy. If you know I was not I don't care. I would like an Erector Set. I would like too, some soldiers, and some cars. You can give me anything else you want to give me. Will you please give me some Lincoln Logs? Very Sincerely, Lyle Flagg

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am just fine. I am 7 years old. My brother is 5 years old. My little sister is 1 year old. I want a doll with long curls. My brother wants a tractor and we want a blackboard together. Bring my little brother a cloth doll. My address is Beatrice Louise Fischer, North Loup, Nebr. Route 2.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you and Mrs. Santa Claus? I am fine. I'm 7 years old. I go to school. I'm in the second grade. I'm a good boy. I live with Julius Okrzea too. I want a steam stove and a dump truck for Christmas. Thanks for the presents. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. Yours Very truly, Rudolph Okrzea

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am just fine now, and I had rheumatism for two months and a half and was out of school. I am

14 years of age and in 6th grade. I live 12 miles southwest of Ord. I would like to have an air rifle and about two boxes of air rifle bullets, fountain pen with my name printed on it, and a wrist watch. Yours very truly, Julius Okrzea

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am fine. I'm eleven years old. I go to school. Our teacher's name is Mrs. Jennie Johnson. I'm a good girl. If you know where Frank Hackle lives, why go south until you meet the schoolhouse, then turn west until you get up the hill, then go south until you get up the other hill and down, then turn west until you get to the brown house which is the third house from the school house. I would like to have a fountain pen, and a big pencil box. I will thank you if you will give me the presents for Christmas. Yours very truly, Rosie Okrzea. Last year we didn't have anything for Christmas at all, so I hope I get something this year.

Dear Santa Claus: My little sister Gertrude is about two years old. She would like to have a doll for Christmas and a little wagon. (She can't write so I will. Rosie Okrzea). Yours very truly, Gertrude Okrzea.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you Mr. Santa Claus and Mrs. Santa Claus? I am fine. I am going to school every day. I am in the eighth grade and 15 years of age. I worked real hard all summer. I live about 12 miles from Ord. You go on the Arcadia highway to the third school on the corner, I live west from the school house about one mile and a half. Santa Claus, I would like to have a fountain pen, basketball and a steam engine. I will thank you if you give me the presents for Christmas. Yours very truly, Joe R. Okrzea

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl 9 years old. I live in Mira Valley. I would like for you to bring me a wagon, a doll with curly hair, a story book and a nice set of dishes and I think the will be all. Merry Christmas. Your friend, Twila Severns.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl 8 years old. I live in Mira Valley. I would like for you to bring me a doll with curly hair, a set of nice tin dishes, and I guess that will be enough for this Christmas. Merry Christmas. Your friend, Elaine Severns.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a boy four years old. I live right here, 7 miles south of Ord. I need some marbles, a racer, a gun and a little boy blue horn so I can tend my sheep. My sister Kathleen is two years old. She says she wants a doll and doesn't know what else. I am saving some candy for you to eat when you come. Bring something for my daddy, too. Your friend, Donald G. Clement.

Dear Santa Claus: My name is John Rogers. I am 9 years old. I live on S 22 St. I think I have been pretty good. I want a cowboy suit and a bird shooting game, and pool table. I will only ask for three things as you have so many other children to give toys to. With love to you and Mrs. Santa.

Dearest Santa: I am five years old. I am in the first grade. My teacher is Miss Hallen. I like her very well. I have tried to be a very good little girl this year and please my mamma and papa. Please bring me a doll buggy, a doll house, and a pretty picture book. Please remember my mamma and papa and my little brother. With love, Betty Rogers.

Dear Santa Claus: I read your letter in the Ord Quiz. I am seven years old. I go to school. I am sometimes good, sometimes bad. We live thirteen and a half miles west of Ord. Please give me a doll bed and also stockings. Yours truly, Verna Krahulik.

Dear Santa: I read your letter in the Ord Quiz. I will write what I want for Christmas. I'm a good boy. I do father's chores. We live 13 1/2 miles west of Ord. I go to school. I'm in the 6th grade and 10 years old. I want high top boots and knickers for them. Yours truly, Harvey Krahulik.

Dear Santa: Most every body is glad that Christmas is almost here, so am I. I am a good boy. I am 7 years old. I go to school. I am in the second grade. I wish you would bring a toy rocker, plow, candles and nuts. Bring my brother ice skates. I live two miles east of Ord. I hope Dunder and Blitzen are in good shape so you can get here all right. Your little friend, Alvin Sedlacek.

Dear Santa Claus: I am nine years old. I go to school. I am just fine and I am a good girl. I want a big pencil box that has every thing in it. I want a green wagon, quite big. I'll thank you for the presents. Yours very truly, Annie Okrzea. We all live in the same house, all of the Okrzeas. I'm sending for mother a salt and pepper, rose or green glasses, great big size. Will you please send her one? Yours Truly, Mary Okrzea

Dear Santa: Please bring me a tractor and a car and bring my little brother Donald a tractor and a car, too. We have both been good boys. Robert and Donald Coats, Arcadia, Nebr.

Santa Claus: I live 6 miles south of Ord. I go to school in the third grade. I will be 8 years old the 15th of December. I have been a good boy. I want a tool box for Christmas. Norval Marks

Dear Santa Claus: I am 5 years old and I go to school. I have a little sister. I am a good girl. Please bring me a rocking chair and a little chair. This is my first letter. Love from Evelyn Jabloniski, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl four years old and live at 605 So. 18th St. I do not go to school. Would like to have a large baby doll with bottle for her milk, tiny twin dolls, a large ball and a scooter. Have been quite a good girl, help my mama with the dishes and do errands for her. With lots of love, Reva Lucille Lincoln

Dear Santa Claus: I am 7 years of age and am in the 3rd grade so thought would write to you. I live 5 miles west of Elyria. I want you to bring me a dresser with four drawers. My name is Sylvia Iwanski, Elyria, Nebr., R 1 Box 63.

Dear Santa: How are you getting along with your big reindeers in the cold land? I am getting along fine. I would like for you to bring me a fountain pen, a nice pair of giz carters and a toy wrist watch, and a doll like them down at the United Store if you can. I am in the eighth grade. I am thirteen years old. Yours truly, Juanita Fisk

Dear Santa Claus: How are you getting along in the cold land? For Christmas I want you to bring me a pair of silk bloomers and a doll like they got in the United Store at Loup City for $38. Yours truly, Anna Fisk

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

That was a startling column editorial in the Bee-News of Friday in which it is recounted that Gen. Lindendorf says another great European war will be started in 1932. It seems that the enormous reparations payments insisted on by France against Germany, while they have been met so far, are more than Germany can stand and are slowly but surely sapping that great nation. This is exactly as France planned. France is described in the editorial as immensely wealthy and able to put millions of fully equipped soldiers into the field on a moment's notice. The crux of the editorial is that the allied states should stay out of the world court and all other European entangling alliances. Otherwise we may shortly find ourselves sending soldiers across the water again very soon.

Henry Field of Shenandoah, Iowa, who already has a great radio station has contracted to pay fifty thousand dollars a year for a 6-year period for the little York, Nebr. radio station and is installing a $150,000 stock of goods similar to the stock already carried at Shenandoah. The radio station is Clay Center also sells merchandise. One at Yankton covers Nebraska with radio merchandise. It is possible that this new method of selling merchandise has something to do with business conditions. As one little example, a York man who knows told me that in one month last spring the radio station at York sold $60,000 worth of paint. That was just one item among the hundreds handled.

Rockefellers gave a million dollars to the committee in New York trying to solve the unemployment condition and other rich New Yorkers gave enough to bring the total up to four million. That great total is less than a dollar each for the unemployed and it is said the number of unemployed will be doubled in a few months. Only a drop in the bucket. It does seem as though the government would have to step in and do something besides talk and appoint commissions. I believe if the government would feed its wheat to the hungry and buy as much more and feed that, we might have some farm relief.

I believe President Hoover is killing himself off with his insisting on the United States getting into the world court. He will find it out in two years if he asks for the votes of the people again. The rank and file don't want to be mixed up in any way with European affairs.

The wets in congress are making a big splurge introducing their beer bills but they are outnumbered four to one and when the vote is taken they will know that there is no present prospect of going back to "the good old days." The talk that has been going in the papers about the millions being spent by the brewery people getting their factories in shape to make beer, is all bunk for the purpose of misleading the people.

How to play Bridge AUCTION or CONTRACT
by Wynne Ferguson

ARTICLE No. 3

Once in a great while it is possible to find a hand that combines the good points both of bidding and of play. Many hands are examples of good bidding or of good play but seldom of both, so that the following hand can be regarded as unusual:

Example Hand

Hearts—J, 7, 6, 4
Clubs—A, K, 10, 9, 7
Diamonds—7, 3, 2
Spades—A

Hearts—A, 10, 2
Clubs—J, 6, 3
Diamonds—Q, 9, 6, 4
Spades—K, 8, 5

Hearts—A

Diamonds—A
Spades—A

Hearts—Q, 8, 5
Clubs—8, 4, 2
Diamonds—10
Spades—Q, 10, 9, 6, 3

AUCTION BIDDING:
No score, rubber game. Z dealt and passed; A passed; Y bid one club; B bid one diamond; Z bid two hearts; Y and B passed. Here is where Z had his opportunity and took advantage of it by bidding two hearts. He was "feeling for his partner's suit," and was rewarded by finding Y with strong support. All passed and A was confronted with the question as to his proper lead. The conventional lead would be the four of diamonds in answer to his partner's bid, but such a lead will lose the game for A. B. When your opponent has bid two suits, it usually is a wise move to open trumps.

The proper lead with A's hand is undoubtedly the ace of hearts, followed with the deuce. Z should win with the queen and lead a low club, finessing the nine in Y's hand. B is thus forced in the lead with the queen of clubs. This play by Z is a very clever one, for B has no more trumps and the only way he can save game is by underleading the ace king of diamonds.

End Play Example

Hearts—none
Clubs—none
Spades—A, Q, J

Spades—A, Q, J

There are no trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z win all of the tricks against any defense?
This little end play is a simple example of the power of the discard. Z should lead the seven of clubs. A should discard the deuce and Y the jack of spades. But what can poor B discard? If he discards the jack of diamonds, Z's eight of diamonds and Y's ace of spades will win the next two tricks. If B discards the ten of spades, both Y's spades are good, so that once again Y Z must win the next two tricks. This forcing the discard of winning tricks from a player's hand is called the "squeeze" and is a play loved by experts. Try to understand and apply this play and you will get just as much fun out of it as the expert.

Hearts are trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z win seven of the eight tricks against any defense?

By MRS. RAY GOLDEN

The regular meeting of the Community club was held at the Methodist church basement Tuesday evening of last week. The Ladies Aid society of the church served another of their appetizing meals at seven o'clock.

This proved to be one of the most interesting meetings the club has experienced. State Representative Marion Cushing of Ord and three members of the county board of supervisors were guests of the club and entered into the discussion of different matters which the club has under consideration at this time.

The club again decided to take charge of the Community Christmas tree and also to contribute $50 toward the spreading of Christmas cheer in the community again this year.

The next meeting of the club will be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 16th at which time a representative of the Omaha Grain Exchange is expected to be present and give an address. All members are urged to be present at this meeting and to bring a new member with them.

Legion Auxiliary Meeting.
Eighteen guests and members of the American Legion Auxiliary met with Mrs. H. D. Weddel Friday afternoon, Dec. 5th. Two comforters were tied, one for Mrs. Ray Brown and a wool comforter for some ex-service man's family. A business meeting was held and we decided to send Mr. Lawrence at the Battle Mountain Sanitarium a wool shirt for Christmas. Also decided to send some subscriptions for magazines to some of the hospitals. Our next meeting will be a Christmas party Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 17th at the M. E. church basement. About fifty guests are to be invited. Twenty five cents will be charged.

Typewriting Class Begins Study.
The beginners class in typewriting held their first study period in the commercial room at the Arcadia high school building Tuesday evening of last week. Classes are held Tuesday and Thursday evenings of each week at 7:30. Owens was assisting hostess.

Texaco Has New Manager.
Ed Anderson assumed management of the Texaco filling station on east main street last Friday. Marvel Bellinger, who has been manager of the station since it was built last spring relinquished the position on account of his health.

Society.

Miss Pearl Dobson entertained a number of young people at her home last Friday evening. Rook was played after which a lovely lunch was served.

Mrs. Curtiss Hughes entertained a number of young people at dinner Sunday evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Grace Hughes', birthday. The young folks spent a most enjoyable day and Grace was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The guests were Misses Jessie Blakeslee, Gladys Hughes, Nora and Helen Jackson, Grace Dockhorn, Alta Slingsby and Messrs. Burt and Steve Sweeney, Oscar Pierson, Geo. Nelson and Marlon Toot.

Between forty and fifty young people attended the Epworth League social which was held at the Methodist church basement last Friday evening. Everett White and Rev. Gaither surprised the crowd with a treat of pop corn balls and apples.

The Methodist Ladies Aid society will meet at the church basement Friday afternoon when the losing side in a recent contest will be the hostesses. One division in the contest sold Christmas cards and the other division gathered subscriptions for magazines. The division selling Christmas cards was declared the winner. A Christmas exchange will be held at this meeting when all friends of the society are invited to attend.

Miss Marjorie and Kenneth Dorsey entertained the members of the Hayes Creek high school at a party at their home last Friday evening. The evening was spent playing games after which lunch was served.

The Rebekah kensington met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. M. Myers. Mrs. Bryan Owens was assisting hostess. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cruikshank entertained a number of friends at a seven o'clock dinner Thursday evening of last week in honor of their guest, Mrs. Jennie Clark. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Lewis and Elizabeth, Mrs. Vera Cook and Dorice and M. L. Fries.

A miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Minnie True Travis was given at the Congregational church parlor Monday afternoon. About fifty guests were present. Mrs. Travis received a large number of lovely gifts.

NORTHWESTERN AND NOTRE DAME PLACE TWO MEN EACH ON MARTIN'S ALL-AMERICA FOOTBALL TEAM FOR 1930

BY PHILIP MARTIN ALL-AMERICA football teams are myths, fortunately, but if it were possible to collect the young men above on one team and send them into a regular football schedule, Mr. Knute Rockne probably would abandon his throne and return to his native Norway. If better odds than Fessler of Ohio State and Baker of Northwestern played this fall, they must have done so under cover of darkness. Fessler was the guiding light of his Buckeye team, starting on attack as a backfield ace and on the defensive as a wingman. Baker was practically a wing good, but of course his activity was confined to a wing post for Northwestern had ball-carriers; Ohio State had only Fessler.

men, weighing 215 pounds and lowering several inches over six feet, were bulwarks of their respective lines. Despite his tremendous size, Sington led interference for his Crimson Tide ball-carriers. There was another Jack Cannon (Notre Dame) in football this season, only his name happened to be Woodworth of Northwestern. Playing bare-headed and bare-legged, Red easily was the outstanding guard. His fiery disposition helped make Northwestern's line one of the strongest in the country. Wisniewski of Fordham won the other post ahead of Koch of Baylor, Bromberg of Dartmouth and Beckett of California. Insults were heaped on poor old Harvard this year, but all might be said to have ended well with the Crimson defeating Yale and Ben Ticknor winning the All-America center position. His closest rivals, Mel Hein of Washington State and Noble Atkins of

First Annual Loup Valley Girls Play Day

The first annual play day of the Girls Athletic Association of Loup Valley was held at the Ord high school, Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 3. This first meet was in the nature of a getting acquainted meet. There were 120 girls representing eight schools of the association present. Sixty-five girls of Ord high school also participated. The first event of the afternoon was a program, which began with Elizabeth Janssen giving a saxophone solo with Edith Mason as accompanist. Viris in a VanDecar then gave a musical reading and Rosemary Needham gave a vocal solo. After the program each girl drew a card which designated in which game she was to participate. The games were sponsored by the following teachers: Basketball—Miss Koenig of Arcadia, Miss Schuebel of Scotia, Mrs. Cavett of Comstock. Soccer—Miss Gustafson, Sargent, Miss Kissinger, North Loup. Baseball—Miss Nun of St. Paul, Miss Spence of Taylor. Folk dancing—Miss Metheny, Burwell, Miss Mattison, Burwell, Miss Fredmore, Scotia. After the games a lunch was served by the Ord high school girls assisted by their sponsors, Miss Hinzda, Miss Hardin and her H. G. class and Miss Balrd. Many thanks are due to the sponsors for a great success of this first meet. The girls are all looking forward to the next spring, at which they are planning even greater things.

O. H. S. JUNIOR PLAY. The Junior Class of O. H. S. is giving a three act play Dec. 12, entitled "The Whole Town's Talking." It is to be given in the High School Auditorium. This is a play of a million laughs, so be here. Every one is working hard and it is sure to be a success.

Fourth Grade Notes.

Ana Creek fourth grade wrote letters to the Ord fourth grade who'd them and are planning to answer them. Miss Witter says that everyone in the fifth A has had one or more of the last four projects. The fifth grade project in language is Washington D. C. Their next project will be "Early Explorers." Mrs. Stark gives the Honor Roll of the sixth grade. They are: Barbara Dale, Armona Beth Achen, Virginia Weeks, Norma Mae Snell, Evelyn Sharp, Josephine Romas, Lillian Kusek, Lorraine Kusek, Virginia Kiehn, Ruth Haas.

The grade school band meets every Tuesday evening. Last practice they elected Laverne Lakeland as librarian to distribute the books. They also elected Dean Jarka to call the roll. Mr. Toenjes says that the Grade Band will play two numbers at the program December 18th. They are "Sweet and Low," and "Silent Night." They play these pieces very well for beginners. Grade School Notes. The entire Grade School is planning to give a Christmas program and each grade will have a part in it. They gave a program last Friday. It was attended by one hundred and fifteen visitors consisting of the mothers and fathers of the pupils.

Music Department. December 18 we will have a Christmas program at the high school auditorium. It is to be an all-school program, including the grades, junior high and the high school. The part that the high school is to have is called "The Nativity." The grades are going to have small plays, drills and dances.

School Board Meeting. A school board meeting was held at the high school last Monday night. After the usual business was taken care of, the topic of discussion was the purchase of instruments for the band and orchestra, worth white organizations. Another topic of discussion was the purchase of better equipment for the school.

The delegates were assigned to private homes in Lincoln. The main speakers were L. C. Overlies, A. Robinson, Rev. Mendenhall, and other prominent Y. M. C. A. workers. Two meals were prepared by the ladies of the church. Saturday night there was a banquet at the Chamber of Commerce building. There were discussion groups that took up the problems of High School boys. The boys entered into these and they were very interesting. The Ord delegates came home Sunday with Mr. Cass, the Ord Hi-Y sponsor.

Convocation Committee Meets.

The convocation committee with Joe Cuptl as chairman, Rosemary Needham, Arthur Auble, Olga Lukesh, Frank Ryasny, Martha Mae Barta, and Thelma Palmatler, and their faculty sponsors, Miss Bloodgood and Miss Hardin met Dec. 1 and planned for two convocations per week until Christmas. The committee planned the following programs: Dec. 5—Talk on postal regulations by Edwin Clements. Dec. 10—Report of Loup Valley Committee. Dec. 12—Junior Play Skit. Dec. 17—Freshman program. Dec. 19—Christmas program.

CLASS ROOM NOTES.

Mr. Redfern is not teaching geometry this week, and is teaching Mr. Cass' classes during his illness. Miss Mamie Smith is now in charge of Mr. Redfern's classes. Miss Blanchard's English classes have started the study of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night and are going to study it for some time. The Freshmen English classes are studying the Lady of the Lake and are making picture notebooks to represent the different characters and scenes. One Senior class is starting the study of short stories and the other Senior class is studying about Longfellow, Lowell, Whittier, and Whitman.

Miss Balrd's physiology class is studying the skeleton framework of the body and muscles as motor machinery. The Senior Normal Trainers are taking up penmanship. They are following the Laurel method. The Junior Review class has their interest centered on Book-keeping.

The American History class has started contract work for this six weeks. In order to earn a grade higher than C, they must do some outside reading. -Don't fail to see Charles Shepard change from a man hater to a ladies' man, and Adria Tolon as a big business man. Junior Play, December 12.

F. F. A. Party.

The Future Farmers of America, which is an organization for vocational agriculture boys, held a party in the high school auditorium on the evening of December 2. This party was to get new members into the Ord chapter. There was a large attendance and Mr. Kovanda expects a large chapter here this year. After the business meeting, along with yell and games, lunch was served. There will be a meeting next week to initiate the new members which consist of a dozen or more. Members can join at any time.

Girl Reserve Meeting.

The Girl Reserves held a meeting December 3 and they discussed their favorite hobbies. After the meeting the girls were adjourned to the Home Economics department where they performed their favorite hobby. Miss Shaver was embroidering a picture. Elizabeth Janssen and Martha Mae Barta were drawing pictures. Lavada Rogers was writing poetry on the board, but most of the girls were reading.

Faculty Party.

A faculty party was held at the home of Adeline Kosmata, Dec. 2. Miss Lukesh was assistant hostess with Miss Kosmata. This club is held every two weeks. It consists of the ladies of the faculty. Delicious refreshments were served and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Red and White Banquet.

A Red and White banquet will be held at the high school on Dec. 13 at 6:30 p. m. This banquet is sponsored by the Ord High Pep club. It is given in honor of the football boys. This is the only all school banquet to be held.

A LOOK FORWARD.

The past is past and we will resume the work of the coming six weeks, the last in the first semester. As we go on through life we need more education and we should take advantage of the high school term and I think almost every one thinks as I do, but how many of us are doing it? If we all put as much effort as I say we do this would be a school above all others.

CONVOCATION NOTES

Convocation was held in the Auditorium December 2. Joe Cuptl was announced chairman of the program committee or this year's convocations. They plan to have two convocations a week. Joe Cuptl introduced Virginia Van Deer and she gave a talk on the banquet the Pep club is going to give in honor of the football boys. Mr. Bell was then introduced by Joe Cuptl and he gave a more detailed talk about the banquet. This banquet is to be held in the high school auditorium, December thirteenth.

PERSONALS

All the school teachers report a very pleasant Thanksgiving vacation. Miss Hallen, of the first grade, reports six pupils sick with smallpox in her room. Paul Gard has recovered from smallpox and has returned to school. Mr. Toenjes left Dec. 3 for Detroit, Michigan to be gone for a few days. Illness of Mr. Cass. The school was shocked to hear that Mr. Cass, Principal of the Ord high school, is quarantined with smallpox. He was feeling slightly ill while coming back from Lincoln Sunday night, but did not think much of it. Monday morning the doctor posted a red sign. We all hope he soon recovers and will soon resume his place again.

PERSONALS

Loup Valley Association Meeting. A Loup Valley Association meeting will be held at Ord, some time next week. The coaches of the different schools of the Loup Valley will meet to discuss the possibilities of a Conference basketball tournament. Also the music supervisors will discuss music contests to be held in the future.

Junior High Notes.

Miss Lukesh's home room has been decorating their room in Christmas decorations. They have also been reading a book. The eighth grade has been studying square root in their Arithmetic class. The seventh grade Arithmetic classes are studying the relations between decimals and simple fractions. The seventh grade and eighth grade spelling classes are studying prefixes and suffixes along with their daily spelling.

Forty Men Out For First Cage Practice Dec. 3

On December 3rd the first basketball practice was held. There were forty men turned out, among the forty were three letter men, Okley Hather, Eldon Benda, and Everett Lashmet. On December 4th there was a practice held for the Seniors and Freshmen. On December 5th there was a practice held for the Juniors and Sophomores. The purpose of these two practices was to prepare the boys for the class tournaments which were held on December 8 and 9. The winners in the class tournaments will be announced in the next week's Quiz.

to be presented by the Junior Class at the

Ord High School Auditorium

Friday, Dec. 12

8 o'clock p. m.

Tickets may be reserved at the Ed F. Beranek Drug Store

Speedy Relief for Sore Throat

This Doctor's Prescription Requires No Gargling. No longer is it necessary to gargle and choke with nasty tasting medicines to relieve sore throats. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a doctor's famous prescription. This prescription was refilled so often that the druggist who originally filled it decided to put it under the name "Thoxine" and make it available to every one. The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that it relieves almost instantly, yet contains nothing harmful. It is pleasant tasting, and safe for the whole family, and is guaranteed to relieve sore throat or coughs in 15 minutes or money back. Put up ready for use in 35c, 60c, and $1.00 bottles. Sold by Beranek's Drug Store and all other good drug stores.

Practical GIFTS

Will Please This Year!

This year, as never before, practical articles will "ring the bell" for Christmas giving. They'll be appreciated long after the fluffy, frivolous things are forgotten. And no place in town is there a better selection of the practical gifts than here. We mention the following as suggestions:

Electric Heaters -- Cutlery of All Kinds
Fancy Dishes -- Enameled Ware
Aluminum -- Glass Ovenware
Glassware

Nor are the young people forgotten for we have a splendid selection of those durable play gifts that are so liked by healthy boys and girls. Do your Christmas buying here.

BACKFORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

The fur harvest is on. A few of the local boys are quite skilled at catching furbearers. For instance, Joe Klat has collected over a hundred dollars worth of mink and muskrat fur along Dane Creek. Other youngsters are less successful from a money making standpoint, but still get a lot of benefit from trapping in other ways. Fortunately furs are so cheap at present that men seldom bother with getting them, and they are left for the boys to pursue. Trapping is a good healthy recreation with a real "kick" attached to it. Most boys enjoy roaming through woods and ravines with rifles under their arms to match their wits against the cunning of "varmints." This takes the edge off their energy and keeps them out of mischief. An activity of this nature develops character, boys find the hunt must list his traps punctually and regularly; otherwise his catch may escape or be torn up or stolen. He learns to respect farmers' property rights, and the traps and trapping territory of other trappers. He becomes familiar with and abides by the game laws, if properly directed by his parents. Fur bearing hides must be taken off, stretched and dried. There is a carry-over from doing this to removing cow and horse hides on the farm, to the skill needed with a knife in butchering or performing minor surgical operations on the farm in later years. A boy who grows up afraid of blood is always subject to ridicule. Trapping involves experience in marketing. Boys often buy furs from each other, or ship co-operatively. In the former case buyers must watch out for sharp practices; they must recognize unprime furs, concealed gunshot holes and other artifices used to make furs appear more valuable than they really are. Sellers must know what their furs are worth. In shipping, the boys soon learn to get a firm's best offer before releasing ownership; else they may lose the fur hides and their own hides as well. They also learn that certain furs bring more money at some seasons than at others. Trapping has been dubbed a cruel sport. It is no more so than the slaughter of meat for the consuming public. Some sentimentalists who abhor it may unwittingly wear the fur coats which create a demand for it. The trapped limb of an animal soon becomes numb; in its efforts to escape, the animal generally drowns or destroys itself within a day. Then the number of destructive pests which the farmer has to harbor becomes one less.

Help Yourself to Prosperity By Feeding BONOFAT To Your Hogs

Arthur Acton, Liberty, Neb., who won the Grand Championship on his load of hogs at the American Royal Stock Show at Kansas City, finished a test with Ground Wheat and Bonofat, mixing 300 lbs. of Bonofat to 50 bushels of wheat. His hogs gained an average of 2 1/2 pounds per head per day at a cost of 4 1/4c a pound, figuring wheat at 70c a bushel. You too, can make money on your hogs by feeding this ration.

Bonofat is the best and cheapest supplement you can buy. Give it a test, starting right now.

JOLLY OLD SANTA WILL VISIT ORD CHRISTMAS EVE

Patron Saint of Children Falls In With Chamber of Commerce to Give Presents.

Jolly Old Santa Claus, patron saint of all children, has fallen in with plans formulated last Friday evening by members of the Ord Chamber of Commerce and announced that he will pay a personal visit to Ord on Christmas eve. He will be on the west steps of the Valley county court house from 8 until 9 p. m. on Wednesday, December 24, Santa says, and will have a big load of candy and nuts to distribute to all children who will meet him there. Santa's answer to the Chamber of Commerce invitation appears elsewhere on this page.

Only a few members were present at the general meeting of Ord business men last Friday but all in favor of inviting Santa Claus to visit Ord. A program of music will be provided for the half hour previous to Santa's arrival and probably the Ord band will play while Santa passes out his bags of candy and nuts.

Every child in the territory adjacent to Ord is invited to join with Ord children in welcoming Santa Claus on Christmas eve and it is hoped that parents will cooperate by bringing their kiddies to the square at 8 o'clock. In case of a stormy evening, Santa will distribute his presents in the basement lobby of the court house.

Corn Husker Hurt When Cars Crash

Stanley Prorock, a young man who has been husking corn at the Frank Adamek farm and other places in the Olean neighborhood for several weeks was quite badly hurt Sunday when his car collided with Dr. A. J. Ferguson's car on the North Loup road. He was taken to Hillcrest hospital where examination disclosed that his shoulder was broken. He will have to stay there for a couple of weeks. Both cars were badly smashed, Dr. Ferguson car being towed to town for repairs.

Z. C. B. J. Elects.
The Z. C. B. J. lodge enjoyed a fine meeting Sunday in the Bohemian hall and officers were elected for the coming year as follows: Henry Vodehnal, president; John Nevrla, past president; Joe Vastock, vice president; Mrs. Lewis Mazac, secretary; Anton Bartunek, recording secretary; F. J. Dworak, treasurer.

Judge Marries Couple.
George Bundy, of near Comstock and Miss Beesie Hichtshoe, of Minnesota, were married Wednesday by Judge J. H. Hollingshead at his office in the court house.

Elected Officer By County Clerks

IGN. KLIMA, JR.
Mr. Klima, who is county clerk of Valley county, last week was elected secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska Association of County Clerks, at the convention of that organization in Omaha. Mr. Klima enters upon his new duties January 1, on which date he also begins serving his second four-year term as clerk of Valley county.

Message To The Kiddies From Santa Claus, Himself

Dear Little Friends:

I have arranged my plans so I can accept the invitation of your Chamber of Commerce and be with you for a short time on Christmas Eve. From 8 until 9 o'clock that evening I will meet with you on the west steps of the court house and will have a full pack of candy and nuts to distribute. I hope all the children will be there to greet me.

CHRISTMAS CHEER WILL BE BROUGHT TO NEEDY PEOPLE

Charitable Organization Formed To See That Everybody In Ord Enjoys Holiday Season.

A meeting of charitably inclined organizations and individuals was held last Friday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms and it was decided that if any Ord family fails to enjoy Christmas this year because of lack of food or adequate clothing, it will be because the name of the family hasn't been brought to the attention of the proper people. There will be adequate funds to make Christmas a happy time for all the needy.

Organizations taking part in the meeting were the Chamber of Commerce, Knights of Pythias, American Legion and Auxiliary and the various Ord churches. Other organizations will assist in raising money for the charity program. Clothing, food and fuel will be distributed the day before Christmas, it was decided, and the children will not be neglected for candy and nuts will be given out. Several committees were appointed to carry out this work. Alvin Blessing is head of the investigating committee appointed to determine what families need help and anybody knowing of such families will confer a real favor upon everybody involved if they will report to Mr. Blessing or to Harold Hallen.

People having outgrown but still serviceable clothing are asked to get in touch with Sheriff George Round or Marshall Len Covert. Clothing for babies and children is particularly needed. It should be delivered to the court house if possible.

Anybody who wishes to donate money to the charity program is asked to get in touch with W. L. McNutt, who was appointed treasurer of the organization.

Cream Rebate Case Hearing Held Over

Trial will not be held this week in the cream rebate case of H. R. Packer versus the David Cole Company and A. J. Wise. Attorneys involved have decided to await the outcome of other cases covering the same points which will soon go before the supreme court. Defendants in the case, through one of their attorneys, Bert M. Hardenbrook, filed answer to the Packer suit last Saturday, the answer following the lines that had been expected.

Dr. Nicholson Buried.
Funeral services were held at St. Paul Sunday for Dr. F. S. Nicholson, 63, prominent physician who died after a long illness with cancer. It was one of the largest funerals ever held in St. Paul and the church would not hold all the people who attended. Dr. Nicholson is survived by his widow and two children. He was a brother-in-law of Chas. Chinn, of North Loup.

Ralph Ackles Pays Fine For Assault

Ralph Ackles, of the Arcadia neighborhood, was arraigned in county court here last Friday under a charge of assault and battery upon Rex King. He pleaded guilty and was fined $25 and costs.

The offense occurred about 10:30 p. m. December 6, in Arcadia, where Ackles is alleged to have called King around the corner of the Strathgde store. According to King's story he followed Ackles, suspecting nothing, and was struck without warning. He says that he was beaten so unmercifully that he had to enter an Ord hospital for treatment and nearly lost the sight of one eye.

Furniture Bought For New Theater

Everything Except Drapes Purchased In Omaha This Week; Scaffolding Will Come Down Soon

Upholstered seats, a heavy carpet and other interior equipment for the new Ord theater were purchased last week by M. Biemond and Jack Hoogenboom, who spent several days in Omaha interviewing theater supply men. New projection machines were also bought and everything has now been purchased except sound equipment and drapes. Mr. Hoogenboom tells the Quiz.

The new theater will seat 570 people when completed and seats for that number were purchased. The front seventeen rows of seats will be leather upholstered with leather backs and about the same number of seats in the rear will have velvet backs. Seats in the balcony will have leather seats and velvet backs. A deep pile carpet will cover the floor of the building.

Two projection machines of the latest type were bought, the theater manager says, and new sound equipment will be purchased soon. Drapes also will be selected on their next trip to Omaha.

Work on the new building is progressing nicely. The beautiful front was completed last week and scaffolding will come down within a few days. Workmen are waiting for a warm day so that the front can be cleaned with water and acids before taking the scaffolding down. In the meantime the interior work is going forward.

When completed the new theater will be one of the most beautiful in Nebraska.

Two Fined For Fighting.
Two young men, "Red" McMannan and Charles Romans, were arraigned in Police Judge Hamilton's court yesterday for engaging in a fist fight at a dance Tuesday evening. Both pleaded guilty and paid fines of $5 and costs.

Quiz To Be Issued Early Next Week

In order that members of the Quiz force can enjoy Christmas Day in the traditional manner, the Quiz will be printed early next week. We request correspondents and advertisers to have all their copy in the office by Tuesday evening.

JUNIOR CLASS NETS $133 ON ANNUAL PLAY

Student Actors Were Greeted By Packed House Friday; Play Exceptionally Good.

An exceptionally well balanced and well chosen cast presented the junior class play Friday evening to an auditorium full of people, when "The Whole Town's Talking", a high priced royalty play was given. Marian Grace Cushing, as the young lady whose parents (Adrian Tolen and Rosemary Neelham) wanted her to marry with a splendid, and so was the young man to whom her parents aspired for her, played by Charles Shepard. Charles and Marian were especially professional in their interpretation of the love scenes, but equally well cast were the two who played the parts of Marian Grace's parents. Adrian and Rosemary almost convinced their friends they were the parents in question.

All the cast were furnished desirable parts, and each member had a good chance to display his or her ability. Julia Vail, Ella Marie Strong, Rodney Stoltz, Sylvia Cornhill, Claralee VanVie, Charles Barnhart, Florence Kokes and Iolamae Williams were all good, in fact it might be said to be an all-star cast. With such material in the class, the senior play next year should be wonderful.

There were 425 paid admissions to the play, 197 activity tickets being used by their student holders. $190.85 was taken in; the expenses totaled $58.06, leaving $132.79 for giving the junior-senior banquet, lifting the curtain to do so. The play money is always put.

Several noteworthy things about the play were that an impressionistic background that is, on where doors and windows were not even simulated, was used. The cast simply walked on and off the stage, lifting the curtain to do so. The background of the room was left to be imagined by the audience. And another thing, only half a day of school time was used during the play; and the actors using this half day for a rest period made up their work in advance!

Assault Charges Against Barta Are Dismissed

Assault charges filed against Dr. P. A. Barta last Wednesday by Edward L. Johnson have been dismissed. As he intimated last week that he would do, Dr. Barta filed an insanity complaint against Mr. Johnson but he is not pressing the charge and the Quiz understands that as soon as Mr. Johnson is able to travel he will enter Green Gables sanitarium at Lincoln for treatment. He has been confined to his bed for several days. Mr. Johnson has hundreds of friends throughout the Loup Valley country who hope that he succeeds in recovering his health.

County Officers Favor Raising Gasoline Tax

County supervisors, county highway engineers and county clerks at their convention in Omaha last week went on record as favoring a higher gasoline tax and several committees were named to bring the question before the state legislature. Valley county men attending the convention included Ign. Klima, Jr., E. C. James, Bill Ayres, Joe Vastock, Charles Clochon and V. W. Robbins.

City League Will Meet Again Tuesday

The City Basketball league will hold another practice session next Tuesday evening and the gym will be open at 7:30 o'clock. Every man who plans to join the city league must either appear at this practice session or submit his name before that time to President Clyde Baker or Secretary Harry Wolf. The city league schedule will appear in next week's Quiz and the first regular games will be played December 27 so it is imperative that those planning to join do so at once.

Paul Gregg Lands On All-Valley Eleven Chosen By Quiz Reporter

By George Round, Jr.

MY ALL LOUP-VALLEY FOOTBALL TEAMS

First Team	Second Team
C. Metcalf, Sargent	Skull, St. Paul
Cook, Scotia	Douglas, Sargent
Gregg, Ord	Tarr, Burwell
Shettra, Sargent	Sternberg, Scotia
Gruber, St. Paul	Cooney, Sargent
McCrary, Scotia	Fuller, North Loup
Erickson, Arcadia	Gustafson, Sargent
Brass, Sargent	Taylor, St. Paul
Layher, Scotia	Weverka, Comstock
Brecken, Comstock	Higgins, Arcadia
Brown, Sargent	Doby, St. Paul

Honorable mention: Ends, Jacobsen, St. Paul. Tackles, Ward, Burwell, Gard, Ord. Backs, Gaukel, Burwell, Garrett, Scotia, Burrows, North Loup, Garnick, Ord.

Only one Ord high school football player lands a place on my first all-Loup Valley high school conference football team. A blameworthy record by the local school failed to give Ord athletes much recognition from coaches and officials who helped me pick the all-teams. The only Ord man to land a place on the first team is Paul Gregg, captain of Joe Krejci's team this year. Gard, a tackle, and Garnick, a back, are given honorable mention.

Six of the high schools in the conference are awarded places on the first team. Sargent leads the other schools with four men on the first squad while Scotia has three. Arcadia, Ord, Comstock, and St. Paul are the other schools represented on the first team.

SCHOOL PATRONS URGED TO ATTEND PROGRAM TONITE

High School Auditorium Will Be Scene of Elaborate "All-School" Xmas Affair.

One of the finest, most elaborate school programs that pupils of the Ord schools have ever attempted will be given at the high school auditorium this evening, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p. m. for the benefit of the parents, the general public, and so that taxpayers may see just what the schools are doing. The grades, from kindergarten to seniors in high school, will all be represented by the best that each grade can give, and it is hoped by Superintendent of Schools Bell that the attendance will be larger than at any previous Christmas program.

Features of the entertainment Thursday evening will be a two act play: "Christmas at Stebbins", given by junior high students; a presentation of "The Nativity" by senior high people arranged by Miss Bloodgood with appropriate music; the singing of favorite Christmas carols by choruses which have been training under the supervision of Miss Bloodgood, music teacher in the Ord schools; special Christmas features containing about 80 pupils from the South school, and many other attractive ideas. Every grade will present something for the approval of Ord people, and they are all cordially invited to come.

Band and orchestra music will furnish pleasing entertainment between the several parts of the program, played by musicians who are students in the Ord schools. The entire program will occupy two hours, or a little longer. Junior high boys will usher.

The South school will give its annual Christmas program Friday afternoon at that school. Included in this program of the grades will be one or two of the features given Thursday evening, but the program will be mostly new material. Exhibits, drills, Christmas pageants, such things will interest the mothers and friends who will come. This Friday afternoon program is given each year, just before school closes for the holidays. Christmas vacation this year will last only one week, beginning Friday, Dec. 19, but New Year's Day will be a holiday also.

Fined on Liquor Charge.
Hubert Kaminski and James Corny were arrested Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning plead guilty in county court to charges of intoxication. Each was fined $15 and costs. The two young men are from David City and have been employed on the new theater building.

445,000 POUNDS CHURNED IN 1930; 5c REBATE PAID

Enthusiastic Crowd At Annual Meeting Thursday; $18,000 Distributed to Patrons.

The Ord Co-operative Creamery is now the largest independent co-operative in Nebraska! So stockholders attending the annual meeting at the city hall last Thursday were told by Manager Fred Coe, and they greeted the statement with prolonged applause. Nearly fifty stockholders were present and they listened to the reports, elected directors and transacted other business with a vim.

To assume its new ranking as largest co-operative in the state Ord creamery churned 445,000 pounds of butter during 1930 is more than 50,000 pounds more than the amount churned in 1929 and is 5,000 pounds more than was made last year by the Wolbach creamery, which has been the largest in Nebraska heretofore. The Wolbach output has fallen off this year, leaving the Ord institution with a safe margin.

What makes the feat so outstanding is that the production of butter in Nebraska has fallen off nearly 20 percent in the past year and most creameries made less butter than the year before. To insure production in a year which other creameries are decreasing is a remarkable record and stockholders present at last Thursday's meeting showed their appreciation by extending a vote of thanks and confidence to all the officers.

President A. W. Cornelia presided at the meeting and after Secretary C. M. Davis read the minutes of 1 year's session the floor was turned over to Manager Fred Coe, who gave his annual report.

Foremost of importance in the manager's report was the fact that a rebate of 5c per pound of butterfat would be paid to all patrons and that dividend checks were ready for distribution. Ord creamery earned nearly $25 during 1930 and dividend check farmer producers totaled $18,000. This is considerably more than $15,700 was issued in 1929 when $15,700 was issued in 1929.

Nice Sum Raised At Charity Ball

About $150 was raised by Knight of Pythias at their charity ball held Tuesday evening. Every thing in connection with the ball was donated, the Audl6 Brothers playing without charge, the Quiz donating printing and the K. of P. lodge giving the use of their ball room. Money realized Tuesday will be used for charitable work in Ord this Christmas.

Many Residences, Beautifully Decorated, Add To Ord's Yuletide Charm This Year

Ord always has many beautiful Christmas decorations to be seen at holiday time, but never have the yards and porches and front windows appeared so much like lovely patches of fairland as they do this Christmas tide. Strings of colored lights festooned about, sparkling; gay little trees in so many windows; bells and wreaths and Christmas candles galore illuminate Ord and make it radiate the true spirit of Christmas. Of course a white carpet of snow lying over all out-doors softens the outlines and adds to the effect. Many residences are decorated now and many more should be by Christmas eve.

Among the most beautiful decorations is the huge Christmas tree, a living one, gleaming in the yard at the Joseph Barta home. This is one of the biggest trees to be decorated, and shines a long way off. Val Pullen's residence is made gorgeous by a lighting effect centered about the doorway, offering a gracious and beautiful welcome to any who enter. Two small shrubs, one on either side of the door, have been made into tiny glowing trees, and add their bits to the effect.

A great deal of admiring comment has been drawn by the effectiveness of the decorations at 19.

How to play Bridge AUCTION or CONTRACT by Wynne Ferguson Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE" Copyright, 1930, by Hoyle, Jr.

ARTICLE No. 4 Here are three hands that were played the other evening at one of the New York Clubs, and each one of them caused considerable discussion and difference of opinion:

Hand No. 1 Hearts - K, 7, 5 Clubs - A, 10, 5, 3 Diamonds - K, Q, 4 Spades - A, K

AUCTION BIDDING: No score, first game. Z dealt and bid one no trump. If A passed, Y bid two hearts and B passed, what should Z do? This is a very close question, but the writer would prefer to try for game at no trump rather than hearts. For that reason, the writer considers two no trumps as the proper bid.

CONTRACT BIDDING: This hand is a good illustration of the original "two bid" at Contract. With any hand containing at least four and one-half quick tricks, an original "two bid" is justified. In no other way can a player show his partner the type of hand held. Partner should bid his longest suit if it has any top card strength, of three no trumps, if he has at least one trick. Z should, therefore, bid two no trumps; A will pass and Y will bid three hearts. B will pass and Z should now bid four hearts. The bidding at Contract will thus arrive at a different bid than at Auction.

Hand No. 2 Hearts - A, Q Clubs - 9, 6 Diamonds - A, K, 10, 5, 4 Spades - K, Q, 7, 6

AUCTION BIDDING: No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one no trump. If A passed, Y bid two hearts and B passed, what should Z do? This is a very close question, but the writer would prefer to try for game at no trump rather than hearts. For that reason, the writer considers two no trumps as the proper bid.

CONTRACT BIDDING: This hand is a good illustration of the original "two bid" at Contract. With any hand containing at least four and one-half quick tricks, an original "two bid" is justified. In no other way can a player show his partner the type of hand held. Partner should bid his longest suit if it has any top card strength, of three no trumps, if he has at least one trick. Z should, therefore, bid two no trumps; A will pass and Y will bid three hearts. B will pass and Z should now bid four hearts. The bidding at Contract will thus arrive at a different bid than at Auction.

Hand No. 3 Hearts - J, 7, 6, 2 Clubs - 7, 5 Diamonds - A, Q, 6, 3 Spades - Q, J, 7

AUCTION BIDDING: No score, first game. Z dealt and bid one no trump. If A passed, Y bid two hearts and B passed, what should Z do? This is a very close question, but the writer would prefer to try for game at no trump rather than hearts. For that reason, the writer considers two no trumps as the proper bid.

CONTRACT BIDDING: This hand is a good illustration of the original "two bid" at Contract. With any hand containing at least four and one-half quick tricks, an original "two bid" is justified. In no other way can a player show his partner the type of hand held. Partner should bid his longest suit if it has any top card strength, of three no trumps, if he has at least one trick. Z should, therefore, bid two no trumps; A will pass and Y will bid three hearts. B will pass and Z should now bid four hearts. The bidding at Contract will thus arrive at a different bid than at Auction.

Hearts are trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y Z win seven of the eight tricks against any defense? Solution: Trick one: Z should lead the king of clubs. Trick two: Z should lead the seven of spades and win the trick in Y's hand with the jack. Trick three: Y should lead the jack of hearts, on which Z should discard the queen of spades. Trick four: Y should lead the ten of spades, on which B should discard a low club and Z a low diamond. Trick five: Y should lead the six of spades and A is thus forced in the lead. B is forced to discard. He cannot discard a diamond or all of Z's diamonds are good for A must lead diamonds at the sixth trick. B is forced, therefore, to discard the queen of clubs. Z should then discard a low diamond and must win the next three tricks with the ten of clubs and two good diamonds. If A plays the eight of spades on the first round of spades so that he cannot be forced in the lead at the fifth trick Y should make the third spade and then force B in the lead with the queen of clubs. B must then lead away from his diamond tenace and Z will win the next two tricks.

Attorney E. M. Hardenbrook was in Hastings Friday where he had a lawsuit in district court. Mrs. Helen Keep has purchased a cafe in Loup City. Her brother, Hans Thorne will be proprietor. A truck came from Loup City Thursday after the household goods belonging to the Daddow family. Mr. Daddow had been there for several days. The family went over Thursday.

BIGGER AND BETTER THE NEW CHEVROLET SIX HAS MANY IMPROVEMENTS The introduction of the new Chevrolet Six marks the most impressive forward step in Chevrolet's twenty-year record of constant progress and improvement. For this Bigger and Better Six offers new beauty, new luxury, new completeness and new quality—yet it sells at lower prices! In every curve and sweep of Chevrolet's modern lines—in every detail of its new Fisher bodies, you will see the fine hand of the master designer and the skillful craftsman. And the more closely you inspect it, the more deeply impressed you will be. The improvements in the new Chevrolet Six begin at the smart new chrome-plated headlamps and extend throughout the entire car. The radiator is deeper. The lines are longer and lower, giving an air of exceptional fitness and grace. And the interiors of the new Fisher bodies provide a new degree of comfort and luxury; greater roominess; fine quality mohair or broadcloth upholstery; more pleasing interior fittings; and a new, completely equipped instrument panel. The chassis of the new Chevrolet Six has also been refined and advanced in a number of different ways. The frame is heavier, deeper and stronger than before. There is a smoother operating, long lived clutch; a sturdier front axle; an entirely new steering mechanism; an easier shifting transmission. In fact, every vital feature of the new car has been made better to provide more thorough satisfaction for the owner. And along with these improvements, Chevrolet offers the smooth performance of a 50-horsepower, six-cylinder motor—four long semi-elliptic springs—four hydraulic shock absorbers—a safety gasoline tank at the rear of the car—and an economy of operation not surpassed by any automobile.

AT NEW LOW PRICES Fine as it is, the new Chevrolet Six now sells at lower prices—making the economy and satisfaction of Chevrolet ownership even more outstanding. We urge you to come in and see the Bigger and Better Chevrolet. Its modern design reflects the spirit of the times—and it represents a value which will command the interest of every buyer in the low-price field.

AGAIN KONJOLA WINS TRIUMPH Well Known Sioux Falls Citizen Calls New Medicine "Wonderful!" MR. CLARENCE BOOS "Konjola proved to be a wonderful medicine," said Mr. Clarence Boos, Eighth street and Phillips avenue, Sioux Falls. For more than a year I had a terrible backache whenever I retired for the night. Constipation gave me a great deal of trouble and I was always taking medicine for this. I read many local endorsements and decided to try Konjola. I have taken but two bottles but the results were so good that I am going on with the treatment. I gladly recommend Konjola for I am feeling fine and have more energy and vitality than I have had for years. Constipation is gone and I am feeling better each day. What Konjola did for Mr. Boos, it can be reasonably expected to do for you. It is free from alcohol or harmful drugs and should be taken from six to eight weeks in the average case. Konjola is sold in Ord, Nebraska at the McLain and Sorensen drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Who will be appointed district judge in the eleventh judicial district to take the place of Judge Bayard H. Paine, who will assume his duties as a member of the state supreme court after the first of the year?

That is a question of much moment to attorneys in the eleventh district, which includes Greeley and ten other counties.

O. A. Abbott, jr., mayor of Grand Island and court reporter for Judge W. P. Clements of Ord, has been mentioned as a likely appointee and the only open aspirant for the place. Abbott is a republican, but the appointment is to be made by Charles Bryan, democratic governor-elect, unless Judge Paine should resign before January 1.

Governor Weaver has indicated that he does not wish to make any short time appointments, and prefers to leave the appointment of a judge in this district to the governor-elect. In case Judge Paine should resign before the end of the year, he might be forced to name some one to fill the vacancy. Judge Paine is a democrat.

It is stated that the newly-elected governor will name none but a democrat.

The names of J. M. Lanigan, T. W. Lanigan and P. J. Barrett of Greeley have been mentioned in connection with the appointment. The former two have indicated that they would not be in a position to consider the appointment.

The above was taken from the Greeley Citizen of last week. Since practically the entire bar of the district had endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Abbott of Grand Island and since it was generally agreed that one of the judges should be a resident of Grand Island, it has been supposed all along that should Judge Paine be elected to the higher court, he would resign and allow the appointment of Mr. Abbott and I still believe he will do so, probably before this story is in print.

White Opossum Caught.

While hunting coon north of Ericson recently Carl Coe and G. H. Brown of that village caught an albino opossum. The fur of this albino is pure white, the ears and feet being almost black. The animal was on display in the A. G. Nelson produce station.

Friday Mrs. Joe Wozniak of Elyria was an Ord visitor.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE
Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an Order of Sale, issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action wherein Marie Kusek et al, are plaintiffs, and Anna Gross, a widow, and Anna Gross as sole and only heir at law of Felix Gross, deceased, L. B. Gross, assignee of Joseph Gross and Charles Gross, and the Farmers State Bank of Bralnard, Nebraska, a corporation, are defendants, and the Elyria State Bank of Elyria, Nebraska, a corporation, is intervening defendant, I will at 2 o'clock P. M. on the 5th day of January, 1931, at the West front door of the Court House in Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale at public auction, the following described lands and tenements, to-wit: The Northwest quarter and the North half of the South half of Section 23, Township 20, North of Range 16, West of the 6th Principal Meridian, in Valley county, Nebraska. Given under my hand December 2, 1930.

Dear Santa: I am 14 years old and I'm not particular what you bring me I would be pleased with what might be handiest. As ever, Everett Howell. Christmas is a happy day.

Dear Santa Claus: I would like very much to get a tricycle. I would like a dresser for my dolls' clothes. I am 7 years old. I will say good night. Velma Howell.

Dear Santa: I am a little girl 7 years old. I go to school. I am in the second grade. I would like to have a ball, a doll and a set of dishes. I have a little sister 3 months old. Bring her a doll that will not break. Viola Hish.

Dear Santa Claus: I have been a pretty good boy this year. I go to school every day. I am eight years old and in the fourth grade. We live three and a half miles northeast of Ord. Please bring me a helmet cap and a thermos dinner pail. Please bring me a beebee gun and that is all. Yours truly, Billy Bouda.

Dear Santa Claus: I have seen your letter in Ord Quiz I am ten years old. I am in the fourth grade. I go to Bailey school. I would like to have you bring me a thermos dinner pail and a belt. We live three and a half miles northeast of Ord. Also bring me some nuts and candy. Yours truly, Mildred Bouda.

Dear Santa: I am a little girl six years old. I am in the first grade and my teacher's name is Miss Hallen. I would like a doll buggy and a doll house, candy and nuts. You see I am not asking for much. Betty Jane Lambdin.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am fine. I want some peanuts, some nuts and some candy. I am going to school. I like our teacher. We have Santa Claus in a sleigh on the wall. I am six years old. My sister is nine. She is going to be ten. I am in the third grade. I hope you won't leave a switch for me. My sister Evelyn is in the fifth grade. My birthday is in February. My sister Evelyn's is in July. I will tell you what I want for Christmas. I want a story book, a set of dishes, a top that spins and a nigger baby that dances. I want some pop corn too. I think I will close. Your friend, Norma Jean Clochon.

Dear Santa Claus: I want a notebook, a little red, a wagon, car, nuts, rocking horse, a drum and a sled. I want a Christmas tree but we cannot find one anywhere. Will you give me 12 things? Your friend, Ted Krason.

Dear Santa Claus: Christmas will be here and I would like to have a wagon like a real one, bb gun, tool set, and a car that I could sit in. I am eight years old I am in the fourth grade. Please give me those five things. I will be very glad when I will wake up and see them. Your friend, Steven Mickey Wojuhoski.

Dear Santa Claus: It is almost Christmas time. So will you please bring me an air rifle and a big truck with tires? That will be all. Please bring me what I asked you to. With love, Sylvester Micek.

Dear Santa Claus: I want to tell you what I want for Christmas. We want a Christmas tree in school. This year I want a Christmas tree, some candy, some nuts, peanuts, a nigger that dances, a saxophone and that is all. We will draw names for Christmas and buy a present. I like to go to school. We have fun. Next year I will write a letter again. Please bring me those things. Your friend, Frankie Zadina.

Dear Santa Claus: I am sending my doll to you for some new clothes. I would like some new dishes and a tricycle. My little brother would like a tractor and a horn. We have tried to be good. I am four years old so I can't go to school and my little brother will be two in January. Your loving friend, Audrey Joy Koll.

Dear Santa Claus: I am eight years old and in the fourth grade. I want a doll, a game, a box of embroidery, and some candy. I was a good girl this year. I guess I will close for now. Very sincerely, Vera Severns.

Arcadia News

By MRS. RAY GOLDEN

Arcadia Dons Christmas Garb.
A community Christmas tree, arranged for by the Men's Community club was erected near the flag pole last week and attractively decorated with various colored electric lights. Strings of lights were strung from the tree to buildings at each corner of the intersection and the colorful display beckons a hearty welcome to the evening visitor.

Christmas Cantata.
A Christmas cantata entitled "The Nativity of Christ" was given by a chorus of eighteen voices at the Congregational church last Sunday evening under the direction of Mrs. B. W. Burleigh. Solo parts were taken by Mesdames Geo. Parker, F. F. Schick, H. W. Weddel, Vera Cook, Miss Nema Cruzan, Horace Mott, Geo. Parker, Kyrtit Erickson, and Rev. Burleigh. A quartette number was given by Mrs. Vera Cook, Mrs. F. V. Amick, Horace Mott and Rev. Burleigh. The cantata was very well rendered.

Christmas Church Programs.
Christmas programs of music, recitations, dialogues, etc. will be given by the pupils of the Sunday school at both the Congregational and Methodist churches, Wednesday evening, Dec. 24th. A Christmas tree and treats for the children will be in evidence at both programs.

Christmas School Program.
The pupils of the Kindergarten, first, second and third grades will give a joint Christmas program in the primary room Friday afternoon at 1:30. Santa sent word that he will arrive at the school building at the close of the program, which is delightful news to the little folks.

Gives Missionary Address.
Rev. Bessie Brown, pastor of the Friends church in North Loup gave a missionary address at the Methodist church Sunday evening. Rev. Brown is a returned missionary from China and her talk was very interesting.

Husk Corn For Leroy Hulbert.
About one hundred and forty-five men with forty-eight wagons and teams gathered at the home of Leroy Hulbert last Thursday afternoon and husked his entire corn crop which totalled about 1,500 bushels. The ladies were also on hand and had an excellent program of the men when they came to the field. Mr. Hulbert had right arm amputated recently, amputation becoming necessary for the arm had been badly mauled in a corn picking machine which he was operating.

Glendale Literary Meets.
The Glendale Literary club met at the Glendale school house last Friday evening. An excellent program of readings was given, also debate on the question: "Resolved, tractor farming is profitable." The debate was decided in favor of the negative side.

Woodworth-Richardson.
Miss Edna Mae Woodworth and Leonard Richardson were married at Grand Island, December 13th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodworth and the groom is the son of Len Richardson. Both are well known in Arcadia and have many friends in this vicinity. The young couple are at the home of the bride's parents at present but expect to locate in Sioux City, Ia.

Highlanders Elect Officers.

Raises Fancy Birds.
The C. C. Hawthorne family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mead at St. Paul recently and their visit was made especially interesting by the latter's son, Millard Mead, who is a fancier of oriental pheasants including several varieties such as Golden, Lady Amherst, Silver, Japanese versicolor and a number of others. He also has Canada geese, small type English caller ducks, Japanese silkies and Lakelanders chickens. He is a taxidermist and has several pheasants mounted.

Two Weeks School Vacation.
A two weeks Christmas vacation will be granted the Arcadia schools this year, instead of one week Christmas time and a week spring vacation as has been the custom the past three years. This will enable the students and teachers to enjoy both Christmas and New Year week at home. School will close Friday, Dec. 19th and resume Monday, Jan. 6th.

Mrs. William Rutherford.
Mrs. William Rutherford passed away suddenly at her home southwest of Arcadia last Friday afternoon, death being due to heart trouble from which she had suffered for several weeks. Her funeral services were held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. O. Gaither, assisted by Rev. Hendrickson of Berwyn, who preached the funeral sermon. Music was furnished by Rev. and Mrs. Gaither. Mrs. C. C. Weddel and Lowell Finney. The quartette sang three beautiful numbers. Burial was made in the Arcadia cemetery. Laura Amanda Davis was born

Feb. 16, 1862 in the state of Illinois and passed away at Arcadia, Neb., Dec. 12, 1930 at the age of 68 years, 10 months and 4 days. She moved with her parents to Polk county, Nebraska in 1870 at the age of 8 years. She was united in marriage to William Rutherford, Jan. 1, 1882. Three children were born to this union, Lawrence of Ragan, Neb., and Mrs. Pearl Johnson and Harry of Arcadia, who with four grandchildren and three great grandchildren are left to mourn her passing. Christmas Program and Free Lunch.
The ladies of the community have been extremely busy the past week completing arrangements for a Christmas program and for the serving of free doughnuts, coffee and pop corn balls on Tuesday evening, Dec. 23rd. This plan was tried last year and found a hearty welcome.

The Christmas program will be given at the Community Christmas tree on main street at 8 o'clock. School children and others desiring to assist with the singing of Christmas carols are asked to meet at the Methodist or Congregational church in time for the evening program. Pop corn balls will be distributed at the close of the program. Although automobiles and airplanes are revolutionizing former modes of travel, Santa still prefers his reindeer and sleigh so if the weather is favorable he may consent to attend the program.

Arcadia News

By MRS. RAY GOLDEN

Arcadia Dons Christmas Garb.
A community Christmas tree, arranged for by the Men's Community club was erected near the flag pole last week and attractively decorated with various colored electric lights. Streamers of lights were strung from the tree to buildings at each corner of the intersection and the colorful display beckons a hearty welcome to the evening visitor.

Christmas Cantata.
A Christmas cantata entitled "The Nativity of Christ" was given by a chorus of eighteen voices at the Congregational church last Sunday evening under the direction of Mrs. B. W. Burling. The solo parts were taken by Mesdames Geo. Parker, F. W. Amick, H. W. Weddel, Vera Cook, Miss Nema Cruzan, Horace Mott, Geo. Parker, Kyrtin Erickson, and Rev. Burling. At the quartette number was given by Mrs. Vera Cook, Mrs. F. V. Amick, Horace Mott and Rev. Burling. The cantata was very well rendered.

Christmas Church Programs.
Christmas programs of music, recitations, dialogues, etc. will be given by the pupils of the Sunday school at both the Congregational and Methodist churches, Wednesday evening, Dec. 24th. A Christmas tree and treats for the children will be in evidence at both programs.

Christmas School Program.
The pupils of the Kindergarten, first, second and third grades will give a joint Christmas program in the primary room Friday afternoon at 1:30. Santa sent word that he will arrive at the school building at the close of the program, which is delightful news to the little folks.

Gives Missionary Address.
Rev. Beside Brown, pastor of the Friends church in North Loup, gave a missionary address at the Methodist church Sunday evening. Rev. Brown is a returned missionary from China and her talk was very interesting.

Husk Corn For Leroy Hulburt.
About one hundred and forty-five men with forty-two teams and teams gathered at the home of Leroy Hulburt last Thursday afternoon and husked his entire corn crop which totalled about 1,500 bushels. The ladies were also on hand and had an excellent supper during the men's work. In the field, Mr. Hulburt had a right arm amputated recently, amputation becoming necessary as the arm had been badly mauled in a corn picking machine which he was operating.

Glendale Literary Meets.
The Glendale Literary met at the Glendale school house last Friday evening. An excellent program of music and readings was given, also debate on the question: "Resolved, tractor farming is more profitable than horse power farming." The debate was decided in favor of the negative side. The next meeting will be held at the school house Friday evening, January 2nd.

Woodworth-Richardson.
Miss Edna Mae Woodworth and Leonard Richardson were married in Grand Island, December 13th. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Mrs. Roy Woodworth and the groom is the son of Len Richardson. Both are well known in Arcadia and have many friends in this vicinity. The young couple are at the home of the bride's parents at present but expect to locate in Sioux City, Ia.

Highlanders Elect Officers.

Raises Fanc Birds.
The G. C. Hawthorne family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mead at St. Paul recently and their visit was made especially interesting by the latter's son, Millard Mead, who is a fancier of oriental pheasants including several varieties such as Golden, Lady Amherst, Silver, Japanese versicolor and a number of others. He also has Canada geese, small type English caller ducks, Japanese silkies and Japanese chickens. He has several pheasants mounted.

The Mead family are located in the north part of St. Paul on the Canada to Canal highway. Visitors are always welcome so if you are interested in fancy fowls pay them a visit some time when you are passing that way.

Two Weeks School Vacation.
A two weeks Christmas vacation will be granted the Arcadia schools this year, instead of one week at Christmas time and a week spring vacation as has been the custom the past three years. This will enable the students and teachers to enjoy both Christmas and New Year week at home. School will close Friday Dec. 19th and resume Monday, Jan. 5th.

Mrs. William Rutherford.
Mrs. William Rutherford passed away suddenly at her home southwest of Arcadia last Friday afternoon, death being due to heart trouble from which she had suffered for several years. Funeral services were held at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. R. O. Gaither, assisted by Rev. Hendrickson of Berwyn, who preached the funeral sermon. Music was furnished by Rev. and Mrs. Gaither, Mrs. C. C. Weddel and Lowell Finney. The quartette sang three beautiful numbers. Burial was made in the Arcadia cemetery. Laura Amanda Davis was born Degree of Honor were in session Tuesday evening. Mrs. Cecil Clark gave a report of a state meeting which she attended in Grand Island on Dec. 12th. After the business meeting, all enjoyed a covered dish luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Alderman and children were Friday evening guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Misko.

Entre Nous club met Friday with Mrs. Frank Fafetta. This was their Christmas party and the club members had a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Misko and family were spending Sunday evening in the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Misko.

Mrs. James Misko will be the next hostess to the D. D. O. club. Their last meeting was in the home of Mrs. J. H. Capron. There were a few guests, Miss Ruth Millford, Miss Gertrude Hawkins and Mrs. Arthur Capron. The rooms were very pretty with Christmas decorations and gifts were exchanged.

Harry and Miss Laura Abernethy, who live in Owensmouth, Calif, write to Valley county relatives and send pictures of themselves taken at their home place. Like all Valley county people who go to California, they like that country very much but can't quite forget the old home place. They have sent their brother, Jason Abernethy and family a nice box of nuts which were gathered from Harry's land near Owensmouth.

There will be a Christmas entertainment and program tomorrow afternoon in Valleyside district 10. This is where Misses Minnie Jensen and Merna Crow are teaching this year.

Maxine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dudschus enjoyed her tenth birthday Saturday. There were fifteen girls and boys invited to celebrate the day. There was a birthday cake and a nice luncheon.

H. O. A. met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ben Janssen. Candy making was the subject for study. A letter comes from Mrs. E. C. Love, Cedar City, Utah. She says they are having ideal weather. Mrs. Love has enjoyed hunting several times. They are very much pleased with Cedar City people but friends in Ord and wishes to send Christmas greetings to them all. The Red Dolsbury family, who were in Ord at the same time the Love family were living here, are now in Hurricane, Utah where Mr. Dolsbury is employed with an electric light company.

Tuesday the losing side of the Delta Deck club will entertain the winning side in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fafetta.

Epworth club met last evening in the home of Mrs. W. L. McNutt. Dinner was laid in the Bungalow Tea Room.

Les Belles Femmes club enjoyed their Christmas party last evening. Dinner was served in the New Cafe after which they had a theater party and then went to the home of Miss Clara McClatchey. N. F. Baker of North Loup was Sunday dinner guest in the home of his son Clyde Baker.

Epworth League of the Methodist church are going caroling Christmas eve. If the weather is good they expect to stay out several hours.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa Claus: I am 7 years old. I have a little brother 4 years old. His name is Bobby. Our baby's name is Donald. Our sister's name is Marilyn. She is two years old.

I would like to have a racer game and a lot more games. My brother wants a racer and an aeroplane and a drum. My sister wants a doll and buggy and doggy and some cards. My little baby brother wants a rubber doll and a rattle and sweater and cap. We all have been good girl and boys. With love, Harry James McBeth.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy 8 years old and have been a good boy. I live about ten miles west of Ord. I would like for Christmas a cowboy suit. And don't forget my little sister. She is just almost five months old. I help my mother and father do chores every night. With lots of love, Ernest Zabloull.

Dear Santa Claus: I was a good girl. I am nine years old and I am in the fifth grade. I have a sister and a brother. For Christmas I want an ironing board and an iron. I live on a farm. Our teacher's name is Miss Anna Nelson. I guess this is all for this time. Yours truly, Alice Samia, Ericson, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I like you. Do you like me. Will you bring me a doll and a carriage. Also some dishes. Thank you very much. Yours truly, Mildred Lehecka, Comstock.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl 6 years old. I go to school and am in the first grade. I live 10 miles west of Ord, on the Comstock-Ord highway. I think I was a good girl and I want some things for Christmas. I want some colors, a ruler and a little wagon. I hope you won't forget me. My name is Dorothy Penas.

Dear Santa: I am 12 years old, and I am in the 7th grade and my school is 1-2 miles from home and I live 3 1/2 miles west from Elyria. For Christmas I want a scooter and a toy caterpillar tractor. I have been a good boy this year. So goodbye. Your friend, Roland Zukoski.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am fine. Bring me a drum, tricycle, cowboy suit and beebee gun. Lyle Hanson.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am just fine. Hope it is not very cold up at the North pole. It hasn't got very cold here. I want a sled. Do not work too hard for Christmas and tell Mrs. Santa Claus not to work hard or sew too much. Now I will tell you what I want for Christmas. Please bring me a doll, a pair of bedroom slippers and a candy bed. Well, guess that is all this year. Goodbye. Will see you the 25th of December. Yours truly, Irene Hanson.

Dear Santa Claus: How are you? I am 7 and I go to school and I want a black board and that is all I want. With a big kiss to Mrs. Santa and you and merry Christmas and happy new year and I have been a good girl and my name is Alice Sibal and I live 6 miles east of Ogallala, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little boy, seven years old and in the second. For Christmas I want a zeppelin, sandy andy and a climbing tractor. I have a little brother Donald Lee and he wants a rubber doll. Your little friend, Harold Kusek.

Dear Santa: I am a girl of 10 and go to the Lone Star school. My teacher's name is Belva Cass. I like her very well. We are going to have a little program at our school and I would like you to come. For Christmas I would like a story book and a little piano for Christmas. I live twelve miles north of Ord. Lots of love, Harriet Marshall.

I am in the fifth grade. For Christmas I would like to get a wrist watch and a blackboard. I live on the Ericson route. And some candy and nuts. My brother wants a dump truck and a ball. Your friend, Agnes Samia.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a boy ten years old at school. I have been a good boy. I would like to have a caterpillar tractor, also some nuts and candy. Your friend, Charles Janda.

Besides paying out nearly $18,000 to patrons the creamery paid $1,730 in interest to stockholders, added $2,955.17 to the surplus fund and nearly $2,000 to the depreciation fund. The company now has 702 stockholders.

Many improvements were made and paid for at the plant during 1930. Manager Coe said. A brick tank, new pasteurizer, cream dumping vat, can washer and dryer were added to the equipment, a deep well and storage cistern were installed and in addition the lot adjoining the creamery building to the west was purchased in anticipation of further expansion.

The Ord creamery, thanks to good equipment and loyal employees, is manufacturing butter on a very economical basis. A study made by auditors reveals that it cost but $2 per pound to manufacture butter this year. This is a clear saving of 1c per pound over the previous year and compares favorably with the costs in creameries that make over a million pounds of butter annually.

The average price paid producers for butterfat during the year was 34.9c per pound, the manager's report showed, and this price, while low, is regarded as excellent when the low prices prevailing on other farm products are taken into consideration. The state station price fixed by centralizers was not adhered to and as a result Valley county dairymen are better off by several thousand dollars. The average state station price was only 30.8c in 1930.

Cream was not the only farm product bought by the Ord creamery as the company purchased 171,280 pounds of poultry and 141,810 dozen eggs, both items being substantial increases over the previous year.

The Ord creamery is in the best shape financially it ever has been, Manager Coe stated. The company doesn't owe a cent, has money to operate on and the book value of the stock is considerably above par. He thanked patrons for their loyal co-operation and prophesied another increase in business during 1931.

The three directors receiving the highest dividend checks this year were McLean Brothers, who got $241.20, Earl Hansen, who received $196.22, and Earl Smith, who got $163.30. A number of other producers were over the $100 mark in dividends.

After listening to the manager's report the stockholders chose P. E. Pocock, Anton Adamek and Earl Smith as directors. Messrs. Pocock and Adamek being re-elected and Mr. Smith being chosen to fill the place of Henry Geweke, sr., deceased. The board of directors will meet later to elect officers for the year.

and Mrs. Frank Hackel brought their son Melvin to Ord Monday and he entered school after several weeks of absence. It will be remembered that while sitting wood at Miss Ella Bond's he cut a bone in his ankle, had a bad time with the infection causing the most of his trouble. He is now able to get on crutches.

In the number of tackles made during the season while McCrary was a close second. Cook is a three-year man while McCrary has just finished his second year.

Ord fans are probably rejoicing that Paul Gregg is found at one guard on the first team. Gruber of St. Paul rates the other guard. While not on a winning team this year, Gregg displayed a world of fight while captaining the Ord team. Gruber of St. Paul was one of the toughest guards in the country to break through this year, conference teams found out.

Then at center, Shetter of Sargent is found. Here we find the Sargent boy to be the class of some outstanding pivot men. He is big and played a great defensive game this year.

With Brass of Sargent getting honorable mention as an all-state man, he marked himself as the outstanding quarterback in the conference and is placed on the first team. Although he weighs but 120 pounds, he was Sargent's inspiration this year. He got everything out of the championship team in the pinches.

An all-conference team without Laylor of Scotia and Brecken of Ord in the backfield would look drab to me. I have these men at the half positions on my first team. Laylor played at fullback for Scotia this year and called signals. He is a three-year man and a great broken field runner. During the season, Laylor averaged

School Work Shop Reminds Reporter Of Kris Kringle

By IRMA ELLIS LECGERT

For an interesting time, to see really constructive work done, go to visit the farm show work classes of Jesse Kovanda. The boys in his vocational agricultural class are busy making things that will be useful to them, and learn exactly how to do them. They can go home and put together a model type A hoghouse, build an ideal chicken house, mix the best and most scientific formula of chicken mash that has so far been discovered, and they also learn to do all the little odd repairing jobs that come up on any farm or in any household. To appreciate what these boys are doing, you should visit these classes. They are as practical as any schooling can ever be made.

Raymond Desautel, a sophomore boy at the first work table, was busily preparing an all pine footstool for finishing. The footstool was not large, but the sturdy build of the rectangular foot rest promised hours of solid comfort for weary feet. Next table a young man was busily fitting together pieces of oak which eventually hoped to turn into a hall tree.

Another table back, all the various coats of paint and varnish were being taken off a strongly built rocker for a child by Merritt King. As the chair had numerous coats of paint, etc., this was no small job, but young Mr. King was down to the wood everywhere except in the seat of the chair, which was a little harder to get at. He said that so far he had used almost every tool in the shop, scraping the finish off and he surely was doing it right. When he is completely satisfied, the little rocker is going to be painted bright red, for the benefit of some happy child.

Eino Strong was at work nearby, and had on a board before him a fine mechanical drawing of the grounds, walks and building of the south school. This drawing was made after careful measuring of all the distances involved, and was as true as the landscape could be plotted. And this was no mere class exercise, for this drawing firm to be sent in to a gardening firm to be landscaped, to show just where to place some new shrubbery that is in prospect. The drawing was outlined and figured in India ink, after the best engineering traditions.

Near the north end of the shop, two boys were engaged in emptying about ten yards each time he carried the ball. He scored 86 points for his team during the season.

Brecken, the other back, hailing from Comstock proved to be the Custer county team's big threat. If I am not mistaken, he is the lad who carried the ball for a touchdown the full length of the field on Thanksgiving day against Sargent. He deserves first team recognition. At the fullback position Brown of Sargent is found. He is another member of the champion conference team who received all-state mention. Weighing over 170 pounds he was a great offensive and defensive player for Sargent.

A glance at the second team selections proves that not all the good men were on the first string. At the ends we have two good men who might be placed on the first team by other people. They are Skull of St. Paul and Gustafson of Sargent.

Again at the tackles, Douglas of Sargent and Fuller of North Loup are quite able to hold their own with any of the remaining tackles in the conference. Here again they might be placed up by other writers. Without doubt Sternberg of Scotia is a good pivot man although he is on the second team. Tarr of Burwell and Sargent are a couple of good guards.

Weverka, Comstock is another good backfield man as are Dobry and Taylor of St. Paul. As to Johnny Higgins, he is of first team calibre but I failed to place him there.

ing a lot of sacks into a big messy looking pile on the floor. In this pile were alfalfa, bran, dried buttermilk, salt, and a lot more materials. When all the sacks were empty, the pile was shoveled back and forth four times to mix it thoroughly, after which it was packed up again, and every boy was to take home a sack of this ideal chicken mash, made by the latest and best formula from the University of Nebraska agricultural authorities. This not only will be better mash than has been bought ready mixed, but will save the mixer about $40 a ton!

At a big lathe, turning a big wooden block, Joe Ulrich was taking the corners from an octagon, and making a round walnut top for a little table. Another practice in table learning, how to use a lathe. A wooden frame of generous proportions sat on the floor close by, which one of these days will develop into a type A hog house, and make some big fat pig a nice home. Benny Dubas was the builder of this frame.

Down in the basement another member of this laboratory was re-fitting an old cupboard. As it is crowded in the lab, the boys have to work where they can. Next year Mr. Kovanda hopes that a new work shop will be built, a huge door through which a chicken house can be moved out, will be available for boys. In the present quarters where Mr. Krefel has 50 boys every day and the janitors are forced to do some of their work, the ready isn't room for the farm workshop.

One of Mr. Krefel's boys had a red and green rabbit house and run painted and wired, all finished. It looked like a model home for some rabbit family, as nice a rabbit house as any one could ever buy.

Over at the forge, Lyle Smith was slowly turning something that made the fire burn better, and in the fire was trying to make a slag tree hook if all turned out well. Over his head was quite a long balcony, which he had made of finished pieces and some that were still waiting to be put together.

A busy, bustling place, this place, this work shop, with such a pleasant air of expectancy about it that somehow I was reminded of the most famous workshop of them all, the one that belongs to Santa Claus.

Isn't there some person or persons of high school age to 100 years of age, who would like to win a $250 prize by writing a letter? You will find the rules and subject on the bulletin board in the library room.

We would like to call your attention to two new books "The Preparation and Delivery of Public Addresses" by John Lewis Hill is a practical and valuable aid to public speaking. The author tells how to construct a speech, how to conduct oneself in action and how to avoid common errors which lessen the effectiveness of a speech upon one's hearers.

"You and Your Job" by Davis and Wright will give the reader new slants on his job and its possibilities as a stepping stone to better things. It is a practical aid for young men and women who are leaving school or going out from their homes for the first time. It will inspire ambition and give sound advice on training and improvement.

Presbyterian Church Notes.
The regular Sunday school and church services will be held Dec. 21 in the morning.

A Christmas pageant in story and song "Even Unto Bethlehem" will be given in the evening at 7:30 p. m. by the Sunday school. A "white gifts" program will also be held in place of the usual tree ceremonies. Each one is asked to bring a gift wrapped in white paper. These gifts large or small, money or food will be greatly appreciated and will be distributed among the needy of our community.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees last Sunday, James Van Skike was elected chairman, Mrs. Olga Burrows, secretary, and Mr. Wilcox, custodian.

Ord Methodist Church.

Christmas Sunday will bring to our people some very interesting programs. At the 11 o'clock service the choir will sing, "Hark, Hark My Soul" a beautiful Christmas number. The Christmas sermon will be timely. It is on the prospect of a world where the Christmas spirit is general and permanent. What are the encouraging signs of His coming? At the 7:30 hour several young people will open the service with a Christmas pantomime entitled "The Quest for Christ." Miss Dorothy Campbell will read two numbers in harmony with the good will of Christmas time, "Service by the Road," and "New Every Morning."

and the pastor will preach a short sermon. At 10 o'clock the young people of the Epworth League will hold a Fellowship Hour, and at 6:30 their devotional service will begin.

Next Wednesday night, Christmas eve, will occur our Christmas exercises by the Sunday school under the direction of Mrs. L. J. Auble. At 7 o'clock the Epworth League will let a flurry of snow a winter wind or indifference keep you at home. Let us come in families and worship.

The subject for the lesson-sermon for Sunday, December 21, 1930 will be "Is the Universe, including Man evolved by Atomic Force?" Sunday services are held each Sunday at 11:00 A. M. and Sunday school at 10:00 A. M. in the Lola Bldg., 1615 M. Street. You are cordially invited to attend.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

The poultry business faces bankruptcy. Production costs must be slashed. The best place to cut costs is where the biggest expense lies. For this reason the boys in our agricultural classes have been mixing their own poultry laying mash at school.

Our plan consists of buying the necessary ingredients from the Ord mill. These are poured together, shoveled over several times and then sacked in one hundred pound bags. Thus the boys can secure for home use the very best poultry mash at an extremely low price. It costs less than two dollars per hundred pounds when mixed in this manner, and it can be made still cheaper on the farm. Incidentally the Ord mill manufacturers and sells a similar mash practically at cost.

Our mash is made according to the University 4-L formula. It contains the following ingredients: Yellow cornmeal.....400 lbs. Ground wheat.....200 lbs. Bran.....100 lbs. Meat and bone meal.....50 lbs. Dried buttermilk.....25 lbs. Salt.....10 lbs.

Most of the contents of this mash may be available right on the farm, but meat and bone meal, dried buttermilk, alfalfa meal, and salt need to be obtained from the farm in most cases. Purchased in small lots, these products are relatively costly. Pooled buying of them in half-ton or ton quantities by a number of flock owners would be very desirable. These latter products are important in the ration as substitutes for the insects and minerals which the birds gather in the summer time when on free range.

Dry mash is placed before the hens in self-feeders and they are allowed to help themselves. There is no danger of over-feeding the hens in this way as the ingredients are less palatable in finely ground form than scratch feed. At the same time there is no chance of under-feeding.

In connection with mash, eight or ten pounds of wheat or corn should be fed per day per 100 hens. They should also receive green feeds if possible; green feeds contribute something which cannot yet be expressed in vitamins or any other terms.

The Mutual Benefit Club.
The Mutual Benefit club met with Mrs. Herman McKelling on Wednesday afternoon December 10th. Sixteen members were present. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent in making and sampling Christmas cards.

There was also a short business meeting. "Joy to the World" the song of the month was sung by the members. The club will send a Christmas gift of five dollars to the Nebraska Children's Home Society. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Joe Marks.

Seeking Home Market For Nebraska Sugar

If the manufacturers of beet sugar in Nebraska, who operate six factories in the North Platte valley and one at Grand Island, could market their sugar near the place of manufacture and not be compelled to incur large transportation costs in shipping their product to distant markets, they could pay a larger price to the growers of beets. At least this is the contention of the friends of the industry and this explains the reason for the present campaign to induce Nebraska to buy Nebraska-made beet sugar. This year the state marketed its second largest crop. The contract price of beets this year was $7.00 a ton. With 65,000 acres of good Nebraska land in beets a crop was produced that yielded two and a half million bags of sugar, weighing 100 pounds each. Grand Island factory got the crop from about 12,000 acres. The North Platte section grew the rest. From this source of income there came into the pockets of Nebraska beet growers a gross income of seven million dollars. Since 1910 Nebraska has been the second largest producer of beet sugar. It is second only to Colorado. Along with the growing of beets, the stock feeding industry in North Platte territory has steadily increased. Thousands of head of cattle, sheep and hogs are brought into territory adjacent to the sugar factories and fattened on beet pulp. Thus a waste product is put to good account. Next to raising beets, the fattening of livestock has become the second largest industry in the North Platte valley. Nebraska sugar is of the finest quality. It meets every sugar requirement for canning, preserving, candy-making and the table. It is an increasing state product. —The Ord band master, Mr. Toennig, has returned from a business trip to Detroit, Mich. —Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rose and son Robert of Burwell were visiting Sunday with Ord relatives.

ORD SOCIAL NEWS

The American Legion and Auxiliary had a delightful time last Wednesday evening in their hall. There were fifty members and guests in attendance at the party. Games, dancing and cards were enjoyed by all. The Legion and auxiliary furnished sandwiches and coffee, and a covered dish was brought by several, so there was an abundance for the dinner. The Ladies Friday afternoon bridge club and their husbands, of Grand Island were entertained Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson. There was a delicious 6:30 o'clock dinner after which the remainder of the evening was devoted to bridge. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson are the parents of Paul Robinson of North Loup. All are well known in Ord as they formerly lived here. There was the usual attendance Friday afternoon at the Rebekah circle meeting. After a few hours of quilting all enjoyed a nice luncheon. The Ever Busy club had an enjoyable time Friday in the country home of Mrs. A. J. Ferris. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Fred Clark. The U. B. ladies were well pleased with the sale of their fancy goods and baked products Saturday afternoon in the Hlavacek meat market. They also had a table of delicious home made candies. The Merry-mix club are holding their Christmas party this afternoon in the home of Mrs. Jack Brown. Tomorrow evening the Royal Neighbors are meeting in their hall. After the business meeting they will enjoy a covered dish luncheon and Christmas gifts will be exchanged. The next meeting of the Jolly Sisters will be held in the home of Mrs. Will Misko. This will be their Christmas party and gifts will be exchanged. The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church served a delicious supper Saturday evening. At the same time the Missionary society had on sale a number of articles, many of them suitable for Christmas presents. Most all of the goods were sold and both societies were pleased with the patronage from church members and friends from other churches. Danish Lutheran church members are planning a Christmas party, program and treats for the children of their church. The Presbyterian Aid society had charge of the "red and white" banquet held in the high school Dec. 13. This banquet was sponsored by the Ord High Pep club. Mr. and Mrs. James Clemmy and little daughter of Hastings were visiting in Ord and Elyria over Sunday. They were accompanied by their cousin, Mrs. Frank Blaha, sr. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blaha, sr. were dinner guests Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blaha jr.

The Happy Circle Club met with Mrs. Elliot Clement last Thursday. There were twenty-one members and seven visitors there. The delegates showed the ladies how to make the candies that were shown in their circular and told them the methods for making a superior product. During the business meeting they voted to send five dollars to the Capers' fund for crippled children and they also made plans for a party to be held during Christmas vacation. Mrs. Bergman Hansen, Mrs. Frank Flynn and Mrs. Walter Jorgensen are the menu committee. There were 29 in Sunday school Sunday morning. Mrs. Rudolph Collison played a special piano selection, "Beauties of Autumn". Next Sunday there will be a Christmas program. Several from this community have been vaccinated for smallpox and some have been quite sick from the effects. Anna Mortensen and Hazel Rallsback were week end guests at Will Nelson's. Saturday they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Nelson and Anna Nelson to Grand Island. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jorgensen and daughters spent Sunday with the Will Worm family of Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Woods and Geraldine Hall spent Sunday with the Manchester family near North Loup. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd VanSlyke were Sunday dinner guests at Walter Jorgensen's. Raymond Hansen and Arthur Thorngate were dinner guests at Bergman Hansen's Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dana and children visited Sunday in the Joe Fajmon home. Iida, Roy and Jess Howerton and Fay Willard were at Chris Nielsen's Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Woods, Geraldine Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dye, Gie Garnick, Fern Witt, Leo Nelson and Arvin Dye were at Will Nelson's Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Collison, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Nelson were purpose of electing a Board of Directors. 39-41

"WHOLE TOWN'S TALKING" The Junior Class play "The Whole Town's Talking" which was given last Friday evening, Dec. 12, was well attended. Those who attended the play report that it was one of the best class plays given in Ord.

Between acts the audience was entertained by the orchestra and several dances given by the Junior girls. The dances were "The Highland Fling" and a minuet. It is thought that about $183 was taken in and after all the expenses are paid the remainder will go to finance the Junior-Senior Banquet next spring.

What the "Ags" are Doing A Junior Cow testing association is being organized. Officers will be elected, and the work will be carried out on the same basis as in a regular cow testing association. The work will begin January 1, and continue for one year. It costs nothing to join.

Another large batch of poultry laying mash was mixed in the shop and is being sold at cost, which is around two dollars per hundred pounds. This mash is the university 4-L, which is considered to be the very best for Nebraska conditions.

Quite a few of the boys have entered the "Hoards Dairyman National judging contest. They have done some practice judging during the winter spell of weather.

The F. F. A. members are planning big things for the coming year. A dozen new members will be initiated this week.

GENUINE CHRISTMAS GIVING

During these days many of us go about our duties forgetting everything about Christmas except that it is coming and we still have to obtain last minute gifts. Why do we forget the real story and meaning of Christmas? We are all so busy with things that seem important that we never give a thought to the fact that others may be unhappy on Christmas. Why can't we stop a bit and look around before we utterly forget its deep and beautiful meaning? There has been much talk of last times and we may think that we haven't enough to give to help the needy. But look around you. There are many who have so much less than surely everyone ought to be able to give a little to those who need it. Many of us do not care to think of the less fortunate, and are unaware as to the real state of things. In the cities, especially there are hundreds of people who are always hungry. The Red Cross and similar organizations are trying to help, but first even they must have our support. Why can't we give some to them? So, even if you are busy and rushed stop and think for a minute of the situation, and then do your little bit to help make this old world a better place to live in.

MARION GRACE CUSHING

CHRISTMAS There is one part of the year that we all look forward to. To some people it is the Fourth of July, to others it's Thanksgiving, but I believe that the most of us look forward to Christmas more than we do to any part of the year. It seems a sort of a climax to the whole year. At Christmas time it is very hard to find some one who does not have the word of Christmas on their lips or at least in their heart. Everybody is doing something to make some one else happy or else to make ready to enjoy the great day themselves with friends or their family. Since all this is going on in the world outside why can not we, the students of O. H. S., get a little of this Christmas spirit of giving some one else something instead of getting all that we can for ourselves. I am sure that if we had some of this we would all feel better and we would surely get along much better. Let's try and see; RODNEY STOLTZ

INTERESTING COINCIDENCES

Wednesday morning Dec. 10, we were presented with speeches given by the 4-H National champions. The boys told us of their trip to Chicago, and the judging teams of other clubs. Everyone enjoyed the speeches and are exceedingly proud of the boys.

The convocation Friday morning, Dec. 12, was for the purpose of explaining the new library rules, providing our students with information. The Juniors also gave a sketch of the Junior Class play which was enjoyed by everyone.

The convocation on Wednesday morning, Dec. 17, was in charge of the Freshmen Class. The following program was presented: Piano duet—Eva Lukesh and Lorraine Haas. Cello solo—Arthur Auble. Reading—Grace Ball, Carol, "Silent Night"—sung by the following girls—Margaret Flynn, Frieda Larsen, Eleanor Perlinski, Lorraine Haas, Edith Hansen, Olga Lukesh, Emma Palmatier and Doris Whitting.

Friday Dec. 19 the convocation is going to be assembly singing. Miss Bloodgood will have charge.

Home Rooms

The Sophomore class as a whole are planning a Christmas program to be given in the music room Thursday morning Dec. 18.

The Juniors of Miss Fredrickson's home room have exchanged names for Christmas gifts and are having a party in the Auditorium Thursday morning. After the party the gifts will be gathered in a box and given to some organization to be included with their charitable giving this season.

Saturday, Dec. 6 Mrs. Ewet Smith of the City Library and Mrs. Bell made a survey of the school library. The results were passed on to the school board. Monday it was voted on to improve the school library.

Home Decoration Club

Miss Lukesh the sponsor of the Home Decoration club reports that they are having wonderful meetings. They have decided upon making pillows for their next project. They have just finished their pot-holders and tea towels. They have been learning club songs and yells.

ALL ATHLETIC BANQUET

HEID SATURDAY NIGHT The Red and White Football Banquet was given Saturday night, Dec. 12, in honor of the stalwart men of the gridiron, who have represented O. H. S. in the past season.

The Auditorium was decorated to represent a football field, goal posts were set at each end. Also each table was set with goal posts near each end and a football decorated with Red and White in the center of the table.

Virginia Van Decar presided as toastmistress. The topic of the first speaker, Mr. Kovanda, was "Substitutes." Then Captain Paul Gregg explained his idea of "Interference." Billy Garnick, who was to have spoken on "Goals" being ill, was substituted for by Rodney Stoltz, who gave his interpretation of the word of "Goals."

Next in line was Ralph Norman. Mr. Norman's theme being "Athlete." Last but not least came Robert Cushing, who spoke as a student spoke on loyalty.

The feeling gotten from the whole program was one of a certain sense of satisfaction with our boys' and of hope for next year's play. You know football is played to bring glory to the school but to teach our boys how to be sportsmen and to become and learn how, as men, to live their lives hard and clean. As for the hope of victories for next year, with going to be—well, anyhow—different.

All School Christmas Program

The all school Christmas program to be given at the High School Auditorium, Thursday evening, Dec. 18, consists of, three plays, two pantomimes, and a drill given by the high school girls. A Christmas play called "Christmas at Stebbins" given by the Junior High pupils, and a Nativity and singing of Christmas carols, by the high school boys and girls Glee Club.

Everyone is cordially invited. There is no admission charge.

Ord Football Men to Receive Letters

The Ord 1930 football letter men are: William Garnick, Okley Hather, Rodney Stoltz, Elwin Auble, Chester Malonessy, Cecil Hansen, Joe Ulrich, Donald Lashmet, Everett Lashmet, Kenneth McGinnis, Charles Barnhart, Earl Klein, Marcus Steinwart, Floyd Rathbun, Eldon Benda and Paul Gregg. Reserve letters will be awarded to: Ed Bapost, Merritt King, Ted Furtak, Harold Garnick, Bert Boquet, Elmo Strong, Burnice Zukoski, Harvey Mickels, and Kenneth Nutter.

1931 Football Captain

Coach Krefel at the close of the Football Banquet, Saturday night, explained the method by which the captain for next year will be chosen. In the past a captain has been elected by the football men at the close of each season. Next year's captain will not be elected in this manner. He shall be chosen next year either by the coach or by the squad. Krefel explained that most of the schools and colleges over the country have adopted this plan already.

Coach Krefel's Mechanical Drawing Class

The school board has decided to have the yard landscaped at the south school so Coach Krefel's Mechanical drawing class is making a drawing of the school house and yard. The purpose of the drawing is to send it to the different companies so that they will be able to know the kind of yard it is and make their plans accordingly.

Loup Valley Association

Monday, Dec. 15 the Coaches, Music Supervisors, Physical Education teachers, and Superintendents of all the towns belonging to the Loup Valley Association came to discuss the different phases of their own departments. The coaches recommended plans for a Loup Valley Basketball tournament. The music supervisors planned a music contest. The Physical Education Supervisors went over the girls play day and planned the next one so it will be even better than the last one. After the plans for these were drawn up, they reported to the superintendents and gave them the plans for approval.

Aviation Club

The Aviation club have been making kites the last month and their last meeting of the year is going to be a meeting to test the kites.

The boys who are not making a kite are helping with the club scrapbook. Once a month they have a business meeting and the other three meetings are used to make models of airplanes.

PHEASANTS EAT FARMER'S CORN

Study of Crops and Gizzards
By Swenk Indicated Birds
Eat Most Corn in Winter.

"The capacity of the ring-necked pheasant for good or harm is great," says M. H. Swenk, entomologist at the agricultural college, Lincoln, after a study of the contents of crops and gizzards of 100 pheasants which were collected over a period of one year in Valley county by Jesse Kovanda, Smith-Hughes agriculture instructor in the Ord schools. Kovanda, by special permit, collected the birds, equal numbers of male and females, during the year. The pheasants were sent to Lincoln where the contents of the crops and gizzards were studied.

Swenk says the economic status of the pheasant is essentially a local matter, dependent upon local conditions. The pheasant is a grain-eating bird but he believes a large portion of the grain eaten is probably waste grain. If not permitted to build up too large a population in any locality or on any one farm, the good done in destroying noxious insects will, on the whole, about balance the damage done to crops.

In making the study, Kovanda collected the 100 birds for Swenk from varied habitats. Eight were collected each month with the exception of May and June when ten were taken.

Valley county farmers will be interested to know that over 78 percent of the crops containing any food contained grain. Of this grain, corn was the chief one while wheat, barley, and rye were also found in the order of importance.

Swenk found in his study of the crops that there were 35 kernels of corn and popcorn on the average in each crop, 25 of oats, 7 of barley, 5 of wheat, and 1 of rye. Despite the fact that most local farmers have been of the opinion that the pheasant ate the most corn during the planting season, the study showed that corn was most heavily eaten during the winter months, forming over 80 percent of the food for December, January and February.

Corn consumption of the pheasant during June, July, and August when it formed but 22 percent of the food for those months. Some injury is done to sprouting corn in May by the pheasant pulling it up, Swenk reports. Corn consumption of the pheasant over 80 percent of the month's food in April to less than 65 percent in May.

This fact indicates that the pulling of newly sprouted corn is not so attractive a method of securing grain as is picking up waste kernels. Nevertheless, there is plenty of good evidence that the pheasant does pull newly sprouted corn to some extent, says Mr. Swenk.

Further follow-up of the study indicates that oats were eaten chiefly in July and August when they formed nearly 35 percent of the food for those months. The amount eaten during June was trifling. Barley was also chiefly eaten during July and August. The crops of the pheasants showed that wheat was eaten chiefly in March at spring wheat sowing time and in July at wheat harvest time, forming about 7 percent of the food for the two months. Cane and rye were eaten but slightly at any time.

Pheasants collected by Kovanda for the study did show that weed seeds formed about 4 percent of the food for the year. Grass seeds totaled about 2 percent of the food. Smartweed, black bindweed, lady's thumb and others formed about 20 percent of the food of the year and nearly 25 percent of the food in March. Giant ragweeds were freely eaten in the early spring.

Sunflower seeds proved to be big favorites of the pheasants especially during the months of October to May. Grass seeds eaten were nearly all green and yellow foxtail grass but with a few seeds of barnyard grass, sandbar grass, and witch grass intermixed.

The college of agriculture man found that fruits including the riverside grape, poison ivy, elder, wild raspberry, sand cherry, and choke cherry formed a part of the food of the pheasant.

Animal matter found in the crops of the birds was mostly insects. They formed over 6 percent of the food for the year. Beetles were the insects most freely eaten, they alone forming nearly one-half of the total insect

FARMERS SHOULD BUY LOCAL SEED SAYS PROF. KEIM

Buy Early And Get Pure Viable Seed; Dale Agrees. Time To Be Thinking Of Buying.

Buy early, get well adapted seeds, be sure the seed is pure and viable, and look for quality, are the suggestions of Prof. F. D. Keim, instructor in the agronomy department at the University of Nebraska, to Valley county farmers who soon will be thinking of buying farm seeds for next year. County agent Dale of Ord agrees with Keim in his suggestions and urges that local farmers follow them wherever possible.

Keim believes the good farmer will figure well on the quantity in buying his farm seeds for next year. He recalls instances where farmers have had to rush to town in an effort to get seed at the last minute to finish planting. Usually such seed doesn't prove to be good. Keim, however, doesn't believe it is practical to buy too large quantities of legume seeds. Many Valley county farmers have had the same experience as Keim relates.

Purchasing well adapted seeds means Valley county farmers will get better returns from their crops. Southern yellow alfalfa cannot be expected to come through Nebraska winters successfully as it is not adapted to conditions here. The college of agriculture man says the time has come when no Valley county farmer can afford to plant alfalfa seed without being sure of its origin.

Any alfalfa that savors of Arizona, California, Argentine, or Southern alfalfa should not be planted in Valley county. Keim's suggestion is that Valley county farmers buy their alfalfa seed from neighbors who have had alfalfa stands that have successfully withstood winters.

In buying corn seeds, it is well that Valley county farmers have a seed test run by the state seed analyst who is located in the state house at Lincoln. The analysis will tell the farmer how the seed will germinate as well as the quantity of seeds and other seeds in the sample. Seed sellers are compelled by law to have their seed analyzed. Valley county farmers wishing tests made can do so through County Agent Dale or directly with the seed analyst.

In speaking about corn adaptation, Prof. Keim believes the best seed yielding corn is usually found in one's home community. A man even as far west as Lincoln, not including Ord, is foolish to send to Iowa for seed corn. He might secure it a little further north but even then the best seed is the one getting corn that is not adapted to local conditions. Valley county farmers will find the high yielding fields near Ord and North Loup probably had local seed corn planted last spring.

In past years, many Valley county people have been under the impression that it would be well to send east for a large corn to fill the silo. Now, it is quite well understood that usually the best corn for the silo is the old home-grown variety.

Customers should insist that seed merchants sell them a pure and viable or live seed. Keim believes the seed used in pans or open containers for advertising purposes should never be bought for actual seeding. Rather have the merchant go behind the counter and get the seed from a bin or bag where it has not been mixed by everyone coming into the store.

Cheap farm seeds are usually very expensive as many Valley county farmers have found in the past. Prof. Keim relates the experience of finding some seed on an express baggage car which had come from a broken bag which some farmer was to receive. Taking a sample, Keim had it analyzed and found it contained over forty thousand weeds per pound. The sample germinated about 60 percent.

SKIMMILK GOOD PROTEIN FEED

Loeffel Believes It Best Farm Wind Supplement For Pig Feed.

Skimmilk is undoubtedly the best farm grown protein supplement for pig feed is the opinion of Prof. Wm. J. Loeffel of the agricultural college, Lincoln. His line of thought is in harmony with Valley county farmers who generally realize the value of skimmilk.

Loeffel says the skimmilk supplies an abundance of protein of excellent quality, together with ample quantities of minerals for growth and development. He, however, says it is deficient in fat-soluble vitamins and believes care should be exercised to secure a supply through one of the other feeds used.

Unlimited supply of skimmilk makes pig raising which is undesirable. Where the skimmilk has a considerable money value, it can be fed efficiently at the rate of one-half gallon to one gallon per head daily to pigs in the pasture. Less milk need be fed on pastures.

In speaking of the money value in skimmilk, Loeffel says it naturally varies with the price of other feeds, the price of hogs, and the amount of milk fed. It is more valuable for young hogs than for Loeffel says in his bulletin on fattening. The college of agriculture man believes purebred breeders can afford to pay more for skimmilk than market hog producers.

The old rule for supplementing corn is that 100 pounds of skimmilk is worth one-half the price of corn per bushel, a rule Loeffel emphasizes, errs on the side of conservatism. Under most conditions, the man who can buy skimmilk within the limits set by the rule is undervaluing rather than overvaluing the milk. Two gallons of milk are equivalent to one pound of tankage.

Though some Valley county hog producers realize the value of skimmilk in feeding hogs, they often wonder about the advisability of feeding the milk sweet or sour. Loeffel says the best feed is the one that does not materially change the value of skimmilk. He does believe, however, that it should be fed consistently sweet or sour. There is no reason to believe that sour milk is quite valuable in comparison with certain distillate substances in pig feed. On account of their high water content, skimmilk and buttermilk should not be diluted.

In feeding the milk to hogs, it should be from disease-free cattle. Milk is an excellent medium for the growth of bacteria and may sometimes be responsible for the spreading of disease among the herd, Loeffel warns.

Fattening Calves Need Corn Ration

Valley county farmers writing to Prof. H. J. Gramlich, head of the animal husbandry department at the agricultural college, Lincoln, in regard to the time required to fatten weaning calves into baby calves in eight months, have been advised that it should take seven months to finish the calves. He also tells them that it is best to start the calves on an oats and corn ration and work into a full corn feed later in the feeding period.

The college of agriculture man suggests that with an abundance of feed the feeding period may be cut down. He says it is better to give them a rather liberal ration of corn throughout the entire feeding period.

Keim's good plan to use in starting calves is to feed a mixed ration of two parts oats to one part corn. Feeding it in a rather limited quantity for a week or two until the calves learn to eat grain is Gramlich's advice. After the first week or two the oats in the ration should be cut down and the corn increased.

By the end of the second month of feeding, the calves should be on a straight corn ration unless the farmer has wheat, barley or oats which he might want to use with corn. Any one of the three is a more fattening feed than oats and feed out well with corn. If other grains than corn are used, Gramlich believes a satisfactory ration would consist of two parts corn and one part barley, wheat or rye. The corn should be coarsely cracked in feeding with ground grain.

Animal husbandry men at the college have found that calves will eat about one quart of grain per head at the start. It seems, though, that they quickly learn to consume more and often by the end of the week are consuming two to three quarts of grain per head. At the end of the month, the calves normally take four to seven quarts of grain per day. One quart of oats weighs one pound and one quart of corn about two pounds, Gramlich believes Valley county feeders should remember in increasing their grain feed.

The farmers writing to Gramlich intended to feed a ration of corn and alfalfa hay and asked the animal husbandry man about how much corn it would take over the seven months feeding period to fatten the calves into baby calves. Gramlich replies that it would take about forty bushels.

SHEEP WILL TURN WEED LOSS INTO GAIN SAYS KEIM

Cites Instances Where Sheep Cleaned Up Farm; Kill Annual Weeds.

Sheep will eat 95 percent of the weeds that grow in Nebraska, probably Valley county also, and convert a $2 loss per acre into a profit, according to F. D. Keim of the agronomy department at the University of Nebraska.

The estimated loss from weeds in Nebraska is about $34,000,000 annually. "While some farmers might lose more money by trying to raise some sheep than they would by letting the weeds grow, there are many men who could make a profit from a small flock of sheep and keep their places neat and clean at the same time," Professor Keim says. "Livestock men tell me this is a good time to buy sheep because prices are low and men who have good breeding stock are willing to dispose of them."

Professor Keim quoted two instances to emphasize his points. A few months ago, he said, he visited an old friend in southeastern Nebraska whose farm was conspicuously because of its lack of weeds. The farm was located in the bend of a creek, a wilderness of wild hemp, ragweed, and artichokes. Instead of this wilderness, the farmer had a beautiful yard and small pastured covered with good turf of bluegrass.

This farmer had used his head instead of his mowing machine and scythe. He was mowing his weeds with a fine flock of sheep. This farmer considered the sheep lived through the summer on what would have been wasted and at the same time made his home an attractive place.

The other example which Mr. Keim gave was that of a banker and landlord who lived in an irrigated section. This banker financed the tenant who bought some fence to close his irrigation ditches. The tenant allowed sheep to run along the ditches and the good practice kept them free of weeds and willows. The banker thought the investment in the fence would soon be paid for by the sheep and that his tenant and himself would be better off for the investment.

Sheep will eat annual weeds by keeping down the tops and preventing them from going to seed. They will eventually kill out the perennials by eating the leaves and keeping down the tops which will starve the root systems. Sheep have been known to even kill out some thistles, Canada thistles and other bad perennials.

From the agronomist's standpoint the man who uses a flock of sheep would make sure that they do not graze the pasture so closely that the roots are started out. The good practice is to rotate the sheep pasture during the summer so that the grass can grow enough tops to feed its root system, Keim believes.

KEEP HEALTHY CHICKENS FROM SICK, REDDITT

No Sure Cure For Most Diseases Though; Kill Or Burn Those Badly Infected Soon.

"Remove all the sick chickens from the healthy is one of the best cures for most poultry diseases," declares J. R. Redditt, poultry specialist at the agricultural college.

"There are, however, no sure cures for most diseases. Roup, like colds that human beings contract, seems to run its course and about the best thing to do is to separate those that do not have it from those that do have it to prevent the spread of the disease. Redditt doesn't believe the sick birds should be allowed to eat and drink from the same feeders and waterers used by the healthy birds.

After separating the sick, weak, and unthrifty stock from the healthy birds, it would probably be advisable to kill and burn all of them rather than to attempt to market them.

4-H WORKERS TAKE PRIZES

LINCOLN, Nebr.—Four first places, a third, a fifth, two sixths, and an eighth place were won by Nebraska 4-H club champions at the annual club congress held recently in Chicago, Nebraska.

First in the crops judging contest, in the girls room judging contest, in the baked foods judging contest, and window treatment; third on dressing unit, fifth in the canning exhibit; sixth in the canning exhibit and judging poultry; and eighth on school dress.

Boys and girls at Chicago were from Valley, Cass, Seward, Fillmore, Dodge, Otoe, Hitchcock, Knox, Red Willow, Lancaster, Kimball, Webster, Antelope, Boone, Clay, Colfax, Cuming, Dawes, Holt, Madison, Saunders, Sheridan, Burt, Dakota, Thurston, Washington, Wayne, Douglas, Cade, Jefferson, Nukolls, Pawnee, Sarpy and Thayer. The winning crops judging team was from Ord and composed of William Garnick, Anthony Kokes, and Harold Benn. Miss Helen Cole of Weeping Water placed first and won the individual honors in the girls room judging contest. Miss Cole was also the high individual in the judging contest at the Nebraska state fair last fall. Miss Helen Smrha of Milligan is the best judge of baked goods in the country according to the contest judges, while Miss Erma Bamesberger of Hampton is the leader in window treatment. All of the Nebraska representatives were county and state winners of the past season.

FAT PRODUCTION AGAIN LOW HERE

Steger and Hansen Have High Producing Herds In November.

Again butterfat production in the Valley County Dairy Herd Improvement Association took a drop and as a result the local association ranked twenty-second in the state among the other associations in butterfat production for November, according to the monthly report sent to the Quiz from the agricultural college.

With over three hundred cows on test during the month, Fester Smith reported to E. C. Scheldenhelm at the college that the cows averaged but 19.8 pounds butterfat for November. The state leader averaged 27.6 pounds. There were no cows in the local association going above sixty pounds for the month which is rather unusual. Six cows produced from fifty to sixty pounds whereas the usual number is much larger.

The leading butterfat producer in the association was a herd belonging to Joe Steger, which ranked fourteenth in the state. Steger's herd averaged 38.8 pounds butterfat for the month. The state leader's average was 50.2 pounds. Usually the local leader ranks higher among the other leading producers in the state. No reason is known for the slump this month.

Earl Hansen had the high fat producing herd in the sixteen or more cows milked twice a day class when his herd averaged 32.5 pounds in November. Hansen had sixteen cows on test which gave an average production of 1005 pounds of milk.

The monthly dairy report from Scheldenhelm indicates that Wm. E. Valasek of Ord had the high producing cow in the Valley county organization during the month. His Holstein cow had a production of 55.2 pounds while the leader in the state had a production of 93.3 pounds butterfat.

Dale Keeps Word

Told Holland His Club Team would Win. County Agent Carl C. Dale of Valley county told R. E. Holland, district extension agent, last spring that he was going to have the state championship 4-H crops judging team this year. When his Valley county team won the state title at the state fair, Dale made his word good to Holland. When leaving Ord for Chicago to attend the National Club Congress last week, Dale told Valley county people his team was going to place near the top in the crops contest. They did; they won the national crops judging championship.

The Valley county extension agent believes that the ability of his team members—William Garnick, Anthony Kokes and Harold Benn to know crops and willingness to practice hard won them their first national championship. This was also the first year a team from Valley county had won a state title.

When the Ord boys won the state championship at Lincoln last fall after entering as the "dark horse," the boys decided they would win the national crown. Since that time they have been living, eating and sleeping crops judging.

Evidently it all paid for the Valley county boys are the 1930 national 4-H crops judging champions.

ZABLOUDIL HOME BEST DECORATED, JUDGES DECIDE

East Ord Home Wins First Place In Auble Xmas Contest; Ferguson Home 2nd.

After viewing the many beautiful Christmas decorations which greet the passer-by in Ord this year, judges in the Auble Bros. Christmas decorating contest announced they had decided upon the William Zabloudil home for first place, the A. J. Ferguson home for second prize, the Val Pullen home for third prize, the Bob Noll residence to win fourth place, and the attractively garbed big living Christmas tree at the Joe Barta residence as fifth choice. Decisions were made much more difficult by a number of people who entered whole-heartedly into the contest at the last minute and increased the number of charmingly decorated homes to such an extent that all of Ord looked lovely, and it was almost impossible to say which places were most delightfully garbed.

The William Zabloudil home would please the taste of the most aesthetically minded. An evergreen arch surrounds the doorway, lighted with bright Christmas globes. At each end of the arch on the floor of the small entry porch gay red pots flaunt bouquets of evergreen and winter flowers. A huge green wreath hangs on the door. On the ground close to the porch on either side a lighted tree stands sentinel. And the windows of the first floor are beautifully treated with something pale blue white clear spots on the panes take the form of stars, crescents, etc. In addition, a big red flood light on the garden makes it a mystically charming place, and a big red bell hangs in the arch of the lattice fence.

All the homes were decorated in unusual and pleasing manner. Most of the decorations used the front door as a center of interest, balancing lights about it in some way. The George Gard tree, which did not place, gained honorable mention with a white floodlight effect on a birch tree and a huge living Christmas tree. Indeed, it was difficult to pick the most attractively trimmed home in Ord, the judges found. Two Ord people and one person from out of town comprised the judges, who were not named.

First prize given by Auble Brothers was announced a few weeks ago as a 34 piece decorated Bavarian china set of dinnerware; second prize the local jeweler named an Armstrong electric grill; for third a bridge lamp; for fourth award, a $5 picture; and for fifth, a Conklin Fountain pen. Auble Brothers declare themselves greatly pleased with the interest shown in their contest.

Goff Will Conduct His Own Hatchery

Thomas K. Goff, who last year was manager of the Ord Hatchery, has leased the Balley building west of the Farmers Store and will conduct his own hatchery this coming year. It will be known as "Goff's Hatchery" and the owner has installed Smith all-electric Mammoth incubators, the same kind of machine Mrs. Anderson has in her St. Paul hatchery. He will also handle a full line of feeds and hatchery supplies, Mr. Goff announces.

Ord Schools Get Mid-Year Cleanng

The regular mid-year cleaning and renovating of the schools is now going on, with the janitors busily waxing floors, putting new window stripping, window ventilators and new curtains in different parts of the South school, putting glass panes in the tops of doors that have been broken out, waxing the floors at the high school, etc. It is planned to have the school buildings in first class condition, clean and shining, when school reopens soon.

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Evert Smith are in charge of re-organizing the school library, and are checking over the catalogue system recently completed. It is planned that Miss Johnson shall have charge and be sponsor for student librarians hereafter, as a full time librarian is badly needed.

—Miss Frances Lindsey who is attending Hastings college, is at home for a few days vacation.

Our Holiday Greeting To Quiz Subscribers

We want you to like the Quiz. To this end we have tried our very best during the past twelve months to please you through the columns of this newspaper. We have worked early and late, in hot weather and cold. Sickness and mechanical troubles have come; often the paper failed to measure up to what we hoped for it, but somehow the Quiz was "put to bed" on time every week. Each time the sincerest efforts have been made by every one of us. These efforts were for your benefit.

We hope you have liked the Quiz. And we cannot think of a finer Christmas promise to make than this:

We promise that the Quiz shall be a better paper each week. We promise to use our best abilities to expand the various departments as rapidly as may be and to improve existing departments as much as we are capable of doing. We promise to do no going back, but always to go forward.

But still more important, may we wish for you the happiest Christmas you ever enjoyed. And we hope that your New Year may bring you Peace, Prosperity and Good Health, as well as all the happiness your life can hold!

This is the holiday greeting to you from these people who make the Quiz:

SANTA CLAUS TO HAVE GIFTS FOR KIDDIES TONIGHT

Will Preside in Person at Xmas Eve Community Treat In Courthouse Square.

The Quiz is issued early this week to announce the glad tidings to all children of Ord and vicinity that this evening, at 8:45 o'clock, Santa Claus will appear in person on the west steps of the Valley county court house and distribute treats to all kiddies who greet him there. A note received from Santa this week by Glen Auble, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, says Santa will positively be here in person to greet his Ord friends.

Whether Santa will come in his old-fashioned sleigh with reindeer and jingling bells or whether he will adopt the more modern airplane is not known, but he has promised definitely to be here and Ord children may count on it. Santa may even have a few words to say to the older people.

The appearance of Santa at 8:45 will follow a concert by the Ord band which will begin at 8 o'clock.

Drunk Greeleyite Tries Wreck Jail

Arrested Sunday evening and confined in the county jail for intoxication, James P. Fitzpatrick, young Greeley man, tried to wreck the jail. He threw dishes, broke furniture and did other damage. When Sheriff George Round appeared the jail looked like a cyclone had struck it.

The young man was taken into custody by Marshall Len Covert and Night Officer Roy Pardue. When arrested he was trying valiantly to get back into a parked car on the narrow paved street near the Stanley McLain home. Two other members of his party, a young man and a girl, were not caught as they left on foot before the officers reached the scene.

In county court Monday morning Fitzpatrick was charged with driving a car while intoxicated to which charge he pleaded guilty. He was fined $50 and was ordered Judge J. H. Hollingshead to revoke his license to drive an automobile for one year. The young man so paid $5 for damage done to jail.

Improving Weaver Property. Frank Dworak, Jr., who purchased the Weaver property next to his own new home, is making extensive changes and improvements. He has moved his brick garage to the east side of his lot and the cement driveway will likewise be changed over to the east. John K. Jensen has had a crew of men busy digging a full basement on the former Weaver lot and the old Weaver house will be moved. Mr. Dworak tells the Quiz that he plans to modernize the house and make it a desirable rental property.

Rotary Club Has Annual Xmas Party

Monday noon Ord Rotarians held their annual Christmas party in connection with the regular weekly lunch. Gifts were exchanged by members with Clarence M. Davis acting as Santa Claus and Jos. P. Barta as his assistant. A splendid dinner with roast goose and all the trimmings was served by the New cafe staff. Rev. W. McCarthy, of the Ord Christian church, gave a powerful address, telling the meaning of Christmas.

—The Roy Worden family were in Arcadia last Tuesday and attended the funeral of an aunt, Mrs. Malinda Hatfield. The latter had passed away in Colorado Springs.

—Rev. L. M. Real, pastor of the Presbyterian church, came from Omaha Saturday. He plans on staying in Ord a couple of weeks this time.

—The John Collison family recall that it was just a year ago the 23rd of this month that their son Norman landed in Argentina, South America. He had been at home for several weeks and after he left for South America, Christmas seemed very lonesome without him. However, now they have something to look forward to, as he will be at home by next Christmas.

—Tuesday evening Miss Frances Lindsey entertained twelve guests at a 7:30 dinner. The party was held in the home of Mrs. R. O. Nelson.

He Originated in Holland, But Santa Is Now Christmas Spirit of Many Lands

SANTA CLAUS is the most popular man in the world. Children watch for him from one Christmas Eve to the next, as the patron saint who can make their dreams come true. Santa Claus himself, however, doesn't visit every country. He sends helpers to some of them. Sometimes, too, Santa Claus answers to a different name.

Santa Originated in Holland
He originated in Holland, hundreds of years ago, under the name of St. Nicholas. He didn't wait until Christmas Eve to come, but appeared on Dec. 5. Therefore, he is expected on that night every year, and the day is called St. Nicholas Day.

St. Nicholas rides a snow white horse, down the narrow Dutch streets. Wherever he sees a wooden shoe outside the door of a house he enters. That shoe is a sign that a little boy or girl lives there. St. Nicholas scatters toys and candy, from the sack on his shoulder, over the floor, and then rides on to the next house.

For with Le Pere Noel travels Father Whipper, who has a long gray beard and a frown. Over in Denmark little gnomes bring the Christmas presents to the children. They wear small red hats which make them invisible in a house. The children leave bowls of pop in the stables, which the gnomes are expected to eat, if they see them.

Santa's wife fills the stockings in Italy. An old legend explains why Befana, a witch-like woman, comes instead of Santa Claus.

It seems that on the night the Three Wise Men started to search for the manger where the Christ Child lay, they passed the house where Befana lived.

"Come with us to seek the Christ Child," they said. Befana shook her head. "I have to sweep my house," she answered. And so, as a punishment, she must spend all her life sweeping, except the night before Christmas when she stops long enough to deliver gifts to Italian children.

Kris Kringle in Germany
In Germany Kris Kringle merely looks down the chimney, locates the wicker shoes that are waiting to be filled, and lets the toys drop into them. Lighted candles are placed in the windows in Ireland and the doors are left open, for children believe that perhaps the Christ Child, searching for shelter, may come to their homes. There is always food on the table for him. Santa Claus also comes to Ireland with gifts for stockings.

In Poland, it is believed that at the hour of Christ's birth all the animals are granted the power to talk as human beings. All presents for Polish children are left at their churches.

The Kolyada, a girl dressed in white, who has always driven sleds from house to house on Christmas Eve in Russia, is banned now. The new government has decided that Santa Claus and Christmas trees, too, must stay out of the country.

In Other Lands

And I hope the game commission of Nebraska will investigate first what they turn loose on the farmer and not afterwards as they did with the pheasants. By Ernest S. Coats, Vinton Farmer.

Hopes for Open Season.

Much has been said about the much loved, much hated pheasant. Geo. Round Jr., has given us through the local paper the information of the research work conducted by A. Kovanda of Ord and Mr. Sweek, the state entomologist, admitting that the pheasant is a grain eating bird yet proving that he does no harm. Now let us judge the beautiful ring neck in the proper light. From the view of the farmer whom he benefits from ridding his farm of many injurious worms and insects and for whom he often destroys many acres of corn, cane, wheat and other crops and from the view of the sportsman who derives much sport from hunting the cunning bird during the open season. Where the birds are not numerous we must admit they are of benefit as most birds and fowls are carnivorous to some extent and love to feed on worms and insects but where they are very numerous their fill of that. Which is proved by the following: two years ago we had a thirteen acre field of corn located between two canyons used as pasture only part of the year grown to high grass and brush isolated and affording a safe place for breeding of the young. That spring about one-fourth of that field was taken by the birds. The corn was replanted only to be taken again which made it too late to put to another crop. A tomato patch located somewhat like this corn field was destroyed four times in succession after being replanted over and over.

They will do the same in a cane field after being sowed as they are exceptionally fond of cane seed. Where the bird only roams occasionally he does not pick up enough corn to cause him harm but where they are numerous the damage is heavy. We have had open season for two years and the birds are still plentiful. Many farmers posted their farms during the open season so plenty birds are left to furnish sport for the hunter and sport for the hunter so lets have another open season next fall for the public and open season the year round for the farmer where the birds are doing damage.

Favors State Income Tax.

Dear Editor: Most all businesses are permitted to class taxes as operating expenses and to provide for their collection through adding something to the selling cost of their products. In theory, the amount of the tax levied matters little, it is passed on to the consumer and the business man is merely an unofficial tax collector. State and federal laws are founded on this principle and governmental regulatory bodies recognize the rights of corporations to set up their tax charges as integral items of expense in establishing cost bases. Let us see how this theory applies to the property owner, and especially the farmer. During the past 12 years farm taxes in Nebraska have tripled; during the same period farm lands have suffered a loss of more than 40 per cent in sales value, but their value for assessment purposes have remained practically stationary. Due to the decreased purchasing power of the country the income of the grain, livestock or dairy farmer is a least one-third lower than at the close of the war, while the cost of machinery, building materials, clothing etc. has not decreased in corresponding proportions.

It amounts to this, that the farmer who has title to his land has been compelled to pay his taxes out of his capital account rather than out of the net income from the farm. This admitted fact affords opportunity to suggest that the non-resident landlord is entitled to more credit than he has been wont to receive, in that he brings into the local treasuries more than he takes out of the communities. It is a matter of speculation as to what would happen to land values in the state if it were not for the tendency of landlords to hold up the farm land prices in the face of decreasing incomes.

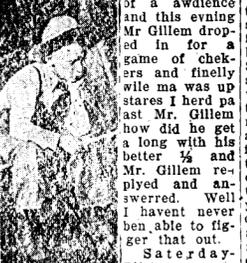

Nebraska's governmental income is derived almost exclusively from taxes on property, tangible and intangible. Recognizing the heaviest burden is for the support of the state's educational system. There can be no denial that the public schools are worth all they cost and are essential. They must be maintained and adequately supported.

But 90 percent of the school tax in Nebraska is paid by real estate. While, it is safe to guess, that not half of the land is earning its own carrying charges. It is common sense that net profit, income above expenses, should pay its fair share of governmental costs. To this end honest efforts have been made by legislatures to make an intangible tax law that will be operative. It has never been done, can never be done. We do not urge that any revenue measure can ever be enacted or enforced that will do exact and even-handed justice. It must be admitted that the public is tempted to dishonesty in the matter of turning in property to assessors.

A state income tax has been discussed in Nebraska for years, but never very seriously. Perhaps the public is not ready for it, yet maybe it is. Certainly farmers, who feel that they are paying the bulk of the ever increasing taxes and out of shrinking incomes, should welcome an income tax law, which would place the burden of governmental operation upon the shoulders of those who are making a profit. And among the first benefits to be derived would be the leveling out of the inequitable tax rates in the various districts in the state and in the several counties.—A Subscriber.

QUIZ FORUM

Wants You Around Open Season Of Pheasants.

To The Ord Quiz: I read with much interest, George Round's letter in last weeks Quiz about the pheasants eating the farmers corn; also have Sweek's bulletin on the years study of pheasants killed by Kovanda. Well it took them a long time to find out the pheasants were not all they were cracked up to be, don't you think so? You farmers, like myself, where they camped on our farms when the law was enforced by a hard boiled game warden at $100 a bird and $21 if you just shot at him and missed. Well, I won't give the game warden all the credit for while he was a little more hard boiled than the county attorney and the judge they had a finger in the pie. Well, I would have to say "I did you." We farmers, some of us at least, could have told you they ate our corn several years ago and didn't have to study on it a year either. A few years ago over in Sherman county the farmers were up the air over the damage the pheasants were doing. So the story goes, the state game warden came up and investigated and gave the farmers the horse laugh. Now I guess the farmer laughs last if he feels like laughing when he thinks over the acres of corn on his best ground pulled up and used for breakfast by a lot of $100 pheasants. Then the replant used for lunch by the same bird and if any of the third planting escaped they were whetting their bills on the barb wire fence getting ready to start in on that as soon as it was past the roaring ear. Well friend George did a good turn to the farmers and so has friend Kovanda, only he should have killed 1000 instead of 100 and all these years we should have been paid a bounty for killing them instead of being fined. I with Kovanda had killed two in my melon patch and sweet corn field last spring. The entomologist would have had two to report eating melon seeds and sweet corn. I planted 20 seeds in a hill for I knew they start to church Christmas morning. While they are gone Santa Claus stops long enough to leave his toys and let the reindeer eat the food.

In England Father Christmas comes down the chimney with a sack of toys.

Santa Claus has many names and many helpers, but no matter who comes on the gift-bringing mission the same joyful spirit is back of it all.

In France the children await Le Pere Noel, as their Santa Claus is called, to come on Christmas Eve. Those who have misbehaved are frightened. For with Le Pere Noel travels Father Whipper, who has a long gray beard and a frown. Father Whipper follows Le Pere Noel down every chimney and leaves a switch for each child who has disobeyed during the year.

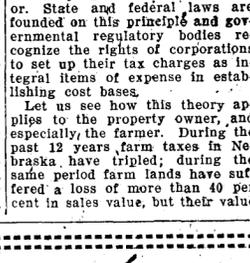

Santa Claus sends his twin brother to Sweden and Norway. Father Christmas, as the brother is called, looks very much like Santa. He doesn't leave any gifts until the children have sung their Christmas carols for him.

Over in Denmark little gnomes bring the Christmas presents to the children. They wear small red hats which make them invisible in a house. The children leave bowls of pop in the stables, which the gnomes are expected to eat, if they see them.

ARTICLE No. 5

A number of times in these articles the writer has called attention to bluff bids that have either worked for or against the bluff bidder. Here, as a matter of variety, is an English version of the same thing, only over there such bidding is designated "Spoff Bridge."

"How far is spoff" admissible at Bridge? That is a very difficult question to answer. There is no law against a player bidding a suit he has not got, nor making any eccentric call that occurs to him. But, of course, all those who have a respect for the game view with horror these aberrations. I remember a rubber some years ago where I had as partner a Colonel of the old school who was very strict in his ideas as to how the game should be played. At a second round he called "One No-Trump," holding:

Spades—A, Q, 2
Hearts—A, K, 4
Diamonds—J, 3, 2
Clubs—A, Q, 5, 4

A on his left went "Two Clubs." Y and B passed, and the Colonel called "Two No-Trumps." A doubled, and all passed.

A then proceeded to lead out eight winning Diamonds. The veins bulged on the Colonel's forehead. He grew angrier and angrier as the game went on. When, finally, he discovered that the "Two Clubs" bidder had only the King and another Club in his hand, he rose from his seat. "I thought I was playing with gentlemen," he said. "A man who bids 'Two Clubs' with only two of the suit in his hand is not a Bridge player but a card sharper. I refuse to play any more."

Now the points that the Colonel in his wrath failed to see are that he need not have called "Two No-Trumps." He could have doubled the "Two Clubs" bid, which would, of course, have been a mistake, as A would then have been obliged to bid his Diamonds, in which, however, he could not have gone game. Or he could have left in the "Two Clubs" bid, when A would have been hoist with his own petard, and would have gone down on his contract.

I am not in favor of bluff bids, but there is always this to be said about the bluffer, that he takes the risk of having his bluff called. If a player likes to take the risk I do not see that there is anything to prevent him doing so, nor can I agree that he has done anything absolutely unfair. It is difficult, if not impossible, to lay down any hard and fast line between what is legitimate bluff and what is dishonest.

No score, rubber game. Z dealt and bid one spade. A passed, Y bid two diamonds and B passed. Z now bid two hearts, A passed and Y bid two spades. All passed and A opened the ten of clubs. How should Z play the hand so that he can score a grand slam against any defense?

Solution: Y should win the first club trick with the ace and lead the ace of diamonds, on which Z should discard his last club. Y should then lead a low diamond and trump in Z's hand with a low spade. Z should now lead the ace king of hearts and discard Y's two losing clubs. At trick six Z should lead a low spade, winning the trick in Y's hand with the ace. Y should now lead another low diamond, which Z should trump with the queen of spades. At trick eight, Z should lead a low spade and win the trick in Y's hand with the nine. Y should now lead a low diamond which Z should trump with the ten of spades. At trick ten, Z should lead his last spade, winning the trick in Y's hand with the jack. Y's diamonds are now set up and must win the remaining tricks.

It is a fairly easy problem but must be handled very carefully or a trick can easily be lost. Follow the solution as given very carefully and compare it with your own. Such comparison may very easily be of advantage.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

A Nebraska farmer was fatally stricken. He had not anticipated the approach of death, for he had always been healthy. He was considered well to do. He had been a good provider, had become the owner of a farm, and had ambitiously mortgaged it to purchase another.

Unfortunately he carried little insurance. He had a few debts. Collection on these was not pushed so long as he had been an active member of the community and credit were good; but as soon as he died, the creditors wanted their money. It took all the insurance cash to pay these small bills, and the interest and taxes that were coming due.

He had never mentioned his financial affairs to his wife or children; he thought them incapable of ability or suggestion in such matters. Nobody knew anything about his business but he himself. When the full burden of responsibility for it was suddenly thrown upon the wife, she lacked the business experience needed to handle it.

Matters were further complicated by the fact that he had never made a will. The old home farm had to be sold to pay for the more recent purchases. By the time everything was straightened out the poor woman had only a few dollars left.

Now she is doing day labor. The daughter is trying to work her way through business college. The son is looking for a job in town. Each is wondering where their share of the estate went to.

How many readers can think of similar cases? How many farm families would be in the same fix right now if the worst happened? Their numbers are legion.

Nobody was forever—an over-exposure, a kick from an horse, the gears of a machine, an unloaded gun, an infected scratch—the old law of averages will work as usual this winter.

Every decent citizen is expected to make provisions for those who are dependent upon him, to arrange in some way for quick cash; to make a will; to inform his wife and children about his financial and farming arrangements so that they could carry on if necessary. It is only fair that a husband should do these things. They are his most sacred duties.

HOGGING DOWN CORN PROVES A GOOD PRACTICE

Loeffel Advises Farmers To Use Well Grown Pigs In Good Flesh.

"The success of hogging down corn depends largely upon the weight of pigs used, the season, the character of the soil, and possibly other factors," declares W. Loeffel of the agricultural college in advice to farmers around Ord, Loup, Arcadia, and Ord. Farmers, however, in this county annually adopt the practical method of hogging down large acreages of their corn.

Loeffel continues by saying that well-grown pigs in average flesh, weighing around 125 pounds, appear to be best adapted to hogging down the corn. He is of the opinion that fleshy pigs should never be turned into the corn field.

If the experiences of many tests at other stations are to be taken into consideration, hogging down corn is an economical method of fattening hogs. As a rule, pigs make more efficient use of corn in the field than if the same corn were husked and fed in the dry lot. Loeffel reminds Valley farmers.

A college of agriculture man pigs do best if they are accustomed to corn-field conditions being turned first into a small sweet or straw corn or the early maturing variety which ripens before the field is ready. A considerable saving of feed is generally effected by turning the pigs into only such portion of the field as they are to clean up in ten to fourteen days. Local farmers have that to be a practical method of hogging corn.

Loeffel's suggestion that county members to the prevailing low butternut prices. It took but three months after the first big drop to bring about a noticeable change in the rate of cutting.

Scheldenhelm believes the amount of cutting done on the part of dairy herd improvement members proves that they realize the importance of efficient and profitable butternut production at this time. They are recognizing that a good herd will return a profit while a poor one will not.

Other activities in the dairy industry showed more action in November than in October, according to the college of agriculture man. More cows were sold as unprofitable, more were sold for breeding purposes, while the number of purebred sires bought remained about the same. The report shows that Valley county farmers and others in Nebraska have not lost faith in the dairy business if it is conducted upon an efficiency basis.

Scheldenhelm says the cry among some farmers is that there is no use in milking cows with butternut prices so low. This is untrue, he believes and points to the years of 1913-14 for proof of his statement. Nearly all farm commodities are down to the level of those which will reach it before there is a normal condition prevailing throughout the country.

In connection with the drop in butternut prices has come the lowering of feed prices to meet the butternut level. Herds in the dairy herd improvement work who are now finishing out their year's work show by their records that it cost them seventeen to eighteen cents to produce a pound of butternut during the year. Scheldenhelm points out that feed costs were quite high during the early part of last year when butternut prices were low.

Continuing the dairy work says there is full opportunity to make money in dairying. However, he emphasized that it will not be done by low producing cows. It will require cows producing 300 to 500 pounds of fat at maturity.

The month of November saw an increase in an average butternut production of cows in dairy herd improvement work in Nebraska. This increase was to be expected, however, since fall freshening of cows shows up this time of the year. The monthly dairy report indicates that the average for the month was 22.4 pounds of fat per cow. This was an increase of 1.56 pounds of fat for each cow over the month of October.

Francis Flood Will Speak Here Jan. 14

Francis Flood associate editor of the Nebraska Farmer, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Valley County Farm Bureau, which will be held at the high school auditorium on Wednesday, January 14. Two years ago Mr. Flood spoke at the farm bureau meeting, telling of his trip across Europe, and this time he will describe a recent trip to South America. Acting President Charles Faudt and County Agent Carl Dale feel fortunate in securing Flood for this address and are counting on a huge attendance, as the Nebraska Farmer man is a popular and well known speaker.

More Cows Culled Out In November

Shows Reaction To Low Butternut Prices. Cheap Feeds Make Dairying Profitable.

Nebraska farmers in dairy herd improvement associations, culled out twice as many unprofitable cows in November as they did in October, according to E. C. Scheldenhelm, extension dairyman at the college of agriculture, in his monthly dairy letter released at the college today. Records of the Valley county association were included as sent in by Carl Smith, official tester.

Scheldenhelm says the number of cows culled out in November is the highest number culled out since last March when 245 cows were sold. A total of 134 cows were culled this month and sold over the block as unprofitable.

In making his monthly letter, the extension dairyman declares that the number of unprofitable cows culled out was an indication of the quick reaction made on the part of progressive dairy herd improvement members to the prevailing low butternut prices. It took but three months after the first big drop to bring about a noticeable change in the rate of cutting.

Scheldenhelm believes the amount of cutting done on the part of dairy herd improvement members proves that they realize the importance of efficient and profitable butternut production at this time. They are recognizing that a good herd will return a profit while a poor one will not.

Barberry Bushes Found In Valley County This Year

Seventy Plants Found; Many Seedlings Destroyed; Work Next Year.

Over seventy large barberry rust spreading bushes were destroyed on Valley county farm and city properties this summer by barberry eradicators working out of North Loup and Ord, according to M. E. Yount in charge of the barberry eradication office located at the agricultural college, Lincoln. The work was done under the United States Department of Agriculture with the agricultural college cooperating.

Yount says that approximately sixty-two percent of the county was carefully surveyed by the men working here this summer. In addition nearly six thousand seedlings found over the county or eight farm properties were destroyed, his report says.

The survey made here was one of the searches made for the destructive bush in Greeley, Box Butte, Buffalo, Howard, Morrill, and Scottsbluff counties by the department of agriculture men. The surveys were completed in Scottsbluff, Morrill, and Buffalo counties while the other counties were to be finished next year if present plans for the work are successful.

Summary of the year's work shows that wheat, rye and barley rusted heavily in vicinities surrounding the properties on which harmful barberry bushes were found in Valley county. Near Hais in Scottsbluff county, the rust could be traced for three miles from the offending barberry. Yount at the agricultural college this morning said that this was only a typical example of the damage that the barberry is capable of doing.

The barberry eradication campaign in Nebraska was begun in the spring of 1918 by the department of agriculture. Other states starting similar programs at the same time were Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, North Dakota, Ohio, South Dakota, Wisconsin, and Wyoming.

The demand for increased food production during the late war and the enormous loss of wheat from stem rust in 1916 were chiefly responsible for the campaign being started.

Ord residents will remember that Ted Hille, a student in the college of agriculture in Nebraska was the superintendent of the barberry crew in this city during the summer. Different men assisted him during the summer months and they included Greth Dunn, Glenn Feather, Al Ebers, Jess Livingston, and Chris Mathis. The latter was the quarterback on the Cornhusker football team this year.

Referring again to the return of the Valley county team to Ord, it seems as though the brass band missed the boys by a few hours. The boys rode home unchanted and unaccompanied by the brass band and flutes were ready on the moment's notice to welcome the boys back.

After this Dale should leave his car at home when he takes a state championship team to Chicago. Then he will have to come home by train and the band can be there to greet him. It was Antonio that stunned the publicity and honor, so I am told.

HIGHER POULTRY PRICE PREDICTED

Hedges Believes Butter, Egg Prices Lower In Thirty Days.

"Although the farm price situation is far from encouraging, Valley county farmers with their good crops from the 1930 harvest are more fortunate than those of other areas suffering severely from drought," says Harold Hedges of the rural economics department of the University of Nebraska in a monthly economic situation report published at the agricultural college today. Hedges sees wheat prices probably staying near present levels or going a little higher in the next thirty days.

Continuing, the college of agriculture man says that corn prices are likely to remain steady. Some what lower fat cattle prices, little change in hog prices, steady to lower butternut prices, higher poultry prices, and lower egg prices are probable during the period. It looks as though farmers around Ord, North Loup and Arcadia might not look to any better markets.

In commenting upon the wheat situation, Hedges says for the benefit of Valley county farmers that the world supply remains unfavorable to much strength in wheat prices. The latest estimate of world production of wheat in 1930, outside of Russia and China, indicates a crop of about six percent larger than in 1929. The usual trend of wheat prices from December to January is upward which indicates the market should remain at least steady during the coming thirty-day period.

With expectation that the market movement of corn will increase, Hedges believes that the price of corn will remain steady to weak in the next thirty days. He says terminal storage is already well filled with wheat so any material increase in corn receipts which might come with a favorable weather would have a weakening effect on prices.

Speaking of primary receipts of corn since November first, the rural economist emphasizes that they have been only two percent smaller than last year. This year's crop is nearly a fifth smaller. With little in the present situation it would become an economical practice. Speaking about the odor that wheat would give off, he said he didn't believe that it would be offensive.

Commenting upon the practice, Paul Stewart, extension agronomist, characterizes the method as foolish and unprofitable. Think of people in Illinois burning a dollar at $20 or so a ton to burn when they can buy coal for about $3. Even if it would burn, it doesn't seem practical and the least said about it the better.

Prospects for a large membership in 4-H baby beef clubs in Valley county for 1931 are bright, according to Carl Dale, county extension agent. He believes cheaper feeding possibilities and the probability of a large number of calves being raised will cause the enrollment to stay at least normal and possibly increase. Ed Janke, assistant state extension agent in animal husbandry, agrees with him.

Most boys and girls over the state and county who will be members of baby beef clubs next year have purchased their calves by now. Those who have not done so and want to become members should do so at once in Dale's advice. Calves to show at the state fair must be on feed before January 15 while those showing at the Ak-Sar-Ben show in Omaha must be on feed before March 15.

In the past few years, Nebraska baby beef club members have turned in the largest number of calves to a smaller baby beef type. This is true in Valley county. Janke and Dale believe the best weight for the finished calf is between 950 and 1000 pounds. They say they should not be over 1100 pounds at the most.

The past year has been a poor one for baby beef club work in Nebraska. Hot weather and flies made it impossible for many of the 4-H club members to get their calves fitted properly for the state fair at the Ak-Sar-Ben. As a result in many cases, the baby beef calves at the Omaha show excelled those shown at the state fair.

Few club members in Valley county, however, feed for both shows. They either start their calves early and show at Lincoln or later at Omaha. There has been an exception in recent years when state fair winners have been held over for the Omaha show, there have been consistent winners.

Calves at the Omaha show this year averaged about a dollar a hundred more than those at the state fair. Many of the club members fed out for the show because they felt that they could receive a higher market for their calves, according to Janke. Better marketing facilities usually make this possible.

In checking over the total membership in baby beef clubs for this year, the college of agriculture man finds there were 1,233 boys and girls enrolled. This represented a decrease of but nine members over 1929 despite the poor year. The baby beef enrollment in Nebraska for 1928 was but 846, indicating the growth of the project in recent years.

locally or efficiently. The practice is branded as foolishness.

In an interview today, H. J. Gramlich, head of the animal husbandry department at the college, says he believes the plan is far from practical. In the first place, Gramlich declares the wheat would cost too much and secondly he doesn't believe it would burn.

Figuring wheat at sixty cents a bushel, a ton of the grain would cost around $20 per ton. Comparing this with $3 to $12 paid for coal, the possibilities from an economical standpoint are few, the animal husbandry man relates.

Gramlich cannot see how the grain could be made to burn when used alone. The grain is so small and compact that there would be no circulation, he believes. He compares the burning of wheat with the burning of a stack of papers or magazines which will only scorch around the outside corners, there not being any air circulation to allow the fire to start.

In further discussing the plan of burning wheat, Gramlich said that it was much higher now than corn was in the early days when it was burned as fuel. At that time, corn was down to ten cents a bushel and it was burned on the cob. Then the corn proved to be a good fuel because it was economical and the cob was of such volume that it was much the same as a chunk of coal in that it could get air circulation where it would be impossible for wheat to have the air.

The college of agriculture man, however, said there might be a slight possibility of Valley county people using some wheat with coal if the price dropped down to where it would become an economical practice. Speaking about the odor that wheat would give off, he said he didn't believe that it would be offensive.

Commenting upon the practice, Paul Stewart, extension agronomist, characterizes the method as foolish and unprofitable. Think of people in Illinois burning a dollar at $20 or so a ton to burn when they can buy coal for about $3. Even if it would burn, it doesn't seem practical and the least said about it the better.

Baby Beef Club Enrollment Will Probably Increase

Dale and Janke Believe Prospects Bright For Many Members. This Year a Poor One.

Prospects for a large membership in 4-H baby beef clubs in Valley county for 1931 are bright, according to Carl Dale, county extension agent.

He believes cheaper feeding possibilities and the probability of a large number of calves being raised will cause the enrollment to stay at least normal and possibly increase. Ed Janke, assistant state extension agent in animal husbandry, agrees with him.

Van Es Maintains Cornstalk Disease Cause Not Known

"Unless farmers in Valley county are to lose the valuable forage of their cornstalks each year, they must choose between cutting the stalks when the corn ripens and shocking them in the field or they may pasture the standing stalks with the knowledge that they are liable to lose as many as one-twentieth of their cattle in an unfavorable season," says Dr. Van Es of the agricultural college in commenting upon the cornstalk disease that is causing serious losses in some sections of this county this fall.

He adds that no precaution and no feed or combination of feeds have been found to prevent or mitigate the losses from the cornstalk disease. Facts from a survey made in a Nebraska county are used by the college of agriculture man in bringing out his points.

The heaviest losses of the cornstalk disease apparently occur in the older cattle, Van Es points out. The disease does not affect older cattle, Van Es points out. Cattle are turned into the corn chiefly during November, December, and January in Valley county. It is during those three months that the heaviest losses usually occur from the disease.

Speaking of the time the cattle are turned into the corn in relation to the losses, the animal pathologist declares that the first loss of each farmer usually occurs during the first month. Losses appear to be heaviest during the first month also.

After making a survey of the cornstalk disease, those at the agricultural college conclude that there is no greater risk when the cattle are allowed in the corn all the time than when they are turned in for only a short period at the beginning of feeding the stalks. It is highly probable that many Valley county farmers hold to the opinion that gradual feeding in the cornstalks will reduce the risk but evidently this is disproved.

Comparing losses of cattle in the percentage of loss appears to be less. Dr. Van Es, however, points out that for each animal running in the cornstalks, there are two acres of stalks while for the others who were fed there were but 1/4 acres for each head.

Purebred Sale To Be Held At Broken Bow

Seventeen breeders of purebred cattle of the different breeds in and around Clatsop County have grouped their lots and will hold a consignment sale on January 6th at the fair grounds near Broken Bow.

One year ago the purebred breeders of this territory decided that they would hold each year an annual feeders day and breeders sale and proceeded to organize what is known as "The Central Nebraska Purebred Breeders Association". They are holding their first annual sale on the above mentioned date.

Each one of the seventeen breeders have gone into their herds and selected some of their outstanding animals. These are not the culs of the herd but are good young thrifty animals that will go into your herd and do well for you. There are 25 head of females and 48 head of bulls. The bulls are of serviceable age and old enough to turn right out with your herd.

Breeders consigning to this sale realize that money is not just as plentiful as it might be and that stock will probably not sell for all that it is worth but they are establishing something for the future. This sale is in central Nebraska that will be of vast benefit to them in coming years.

Club Members To Receive Bulletin

The picture of Rex Nisley and his 1930 grand champion Short-horn Hereford steer at the Nebraska state fair will adorn the cover page of the baby beef manual sent to the beef 4-H club members over the state this year. The bulletin is being revised by publication by Paul McMill and Ed Janke, assistant state extension agents in animal husbandry of the agricultural college. All club members in Valley county will receive a copy.

Each year members of baby beef clubs over the state receive a copy of the bulletin, No 2-52-2, for help in their club work during the year. Feeding, fitting, and showing suggestions are made in the bulletin for the club members to study. Last year the bulletin was known as the baby beef production bulletin while this year the title is the baby beef manual.

BARLEY GOOD SUBSTITUTE FOR OATS IN RATION

Richer In Fat Than Oats; Many Here Inquire As To Value; Barley Acreage Large.

Barley is quite often used in the poultry ration as a substitute for oats, according to Jack Redditt, poultry specialist at the agricultural college. Poultrymen over the state have been writing him for advice about feeding barley since in most sections the crop was heavy this year. Many poultrymen around Ord and North Loup have likewise inquired about the possibility of substituting barley for oats.

Redditt says the best oat place in Valley county is in the west. Barley is often germinated in place of oats which is likewise true in Valley county. Reduction in market value in oats in recent years has caused many Valley county farmers to reduce their oat acreage and plant more barley.

Barley is a little richer in fat than oats and can be used as a substitute for a part of the corn in the poultry ration, says Redditt.

Clean Yards Should Help Prevent Disease

Valley county poultrymen will find it best to have their yards cleaned and birds kept off it for a season where they have been troubled with tuberculosis, according to J. R. Redditt, poultry specialist at the agricultural college. He believes there are many cases of eliminating the danger of young stock contracting the disease. In the past many local poultrymen have been troubled with the disease among their flocks.

Redditt says the best means of cleaning the soil through the growing and cultivation of crops. Unless this is done, the disease organisms may remain in the soil for an indefinite time and as soon as the chickens are put back on the soil they are likely to acquire the disease.

Poultrymen near Ord may find a means of lessening the danger and loss of tuberculosis by selling off the old hens each year. It is highly probable that many local poultrymen practice this after having cleaned the soil through the growing and cultivation of crops. Where the hens could be disposed of at two years of age, there would be less likelihood of the disease doing much damage.

MARTIN GIVES THREE GOOD REASONS WHY ALABAMA SHOULD BEAT WASHINGTON STATE IN ROSE BOWL GAME IN PASADENA NEW YEAR'S DAY

BY PHILIP MARTIN

A COMBINATION of three factors, so this writer believes, will carry the University of Alabama eleven to victory over Washington State College in the annual Tournament of Roses football game in Pasadena New Year's Day.

One is tradition, a sturdy tradition built up in previous years by hardy Crimson Tide eleven that have never tasted defeat in competition with Pacific coast teams. A second is Wallace Wade, coach of "Bama" football for the past eight seasons. The third factor is the sheer power of the Crimson Tide eleven which smashed its way through nine opponents to win the Southern Conference championship.

The Alabama team of 1925 was the first to receive an invitation to play in the biggest of post-season grid attractions. They triumphed over a strong University of Washington aggregation. A year later Alabama received her second bid to play in Rose Bowl and she obliged by tying Stanford University, a highly-touted favorite. Undeclared in two previous attempts, then, tradition favors the Crimson Tide.

In eight years under Wallace Wade, Alabama has won 60, lost 13 and tied three games, and has come to be looked upon as a stronghold of championship or near-championship football teams. Starting a victory series in 1924, Wade teams won 24 straight games, extending into the 1927 season. But now Wade is to leave Alabama for a similar position as head football coach at Duke University.

Alabama won nine straight games this fall, rolling up a formidable total of 247 points and holding their opponents' total to a meager 13 points. There has been power aplenty in the forward wall, where these two gigantic tackles, Captain Clement at Sington, the latter an All-America choice, virtually up-ended everything before them. Behind this powerful wall, the speedy Suther and the hard-driving Campbell and Cain have been permitted many opportunities

In one respect, spectators who witness the holiday attraction in Rose Bowl this time will see two teams employing similar offensive tactics. Sheer power has been the overwhelming factor in the success of each.

With Alabama, it will be Sington and Clement clearing the path for the elusive Suther or opening a hole for "Hurry" Cain or Campbell, the spinner.

For Washington State, there will be Held, Edwards, Alskog and Hurley in the front line trenches, skirmishing for a break that will permit Ellingsen, Lainhart and Schwartz, Cougar ball-carrying aces, to get into the open.

Both teams may find it necessary to employ a forward-passing attack because of the tremendous front line resistance. Thus far in their seasons, however, neither has had to resort to the air, for their plays, through and around the line, have been sufficient to bring each through an undefeated season.

The All-Stars will be a better basketball team than last year, from all prospects. In Captain Joe Krejci the team has a man who can perform at any position with facility. Other veterans who saw much service last year are "Swede" Carlson, "Ike" Blessing, Syd Carkoski, Lynn Beeghly, Dr. Nay, Bill Heuck and "Peanuts" Jensen as well as others who got into several games. New material includes "Fat" Adams, who starred on the 1928 Ord high school team and played last year with a U. S. cavalry team in Texas, Ervils Lashmet, star of last year's high school team, and Theo. Toenniges, new band leader, who is said to have played a lot of basketball. Ross Blessing, Dale Chatfield, Alvin Christensen and other former high school players are also available.

New suits have been ordered for the All-Stars and they will make a flashy appearance in their initial start.

Coaches Pick Out "All Valley" Team

At their meeting last week coaches of the Loup Valley high school conference selected an all-star football team which differs in several respects from the all-valley team chosen by Geo. Round, Jr., of the Quiz staff. The all-star team chosen by the coaches follows:

Ends—McCall of Sargent and Skull of St. Paul.
 Tackles—Cook of Scotta and Harrison of Arcadia.
 Guards—Gregg of Ord and Ward of Burwell.
 Center—Babcock of North Loup.
 Halfbacks—Higgins of Arcadia and Weaverka of Omatostock.
 Quarterback—Anderson of Burwell.
 Fullback—Brown of Sargent.

The honor roll selected by coaches is as follows:

Ends—Ericson, Arcadia; North Loup; Hilpert, Burwell.
 TACKLES—Douglas, Sargent; Maco, Loup City; Harvey, St. Paul.
 GUARDS—Pumphrey, Arcadia; Cooney, Sargent; Jensen, St. Paul.
 CENTERS—Cook, Taylor; Sternberg, Scotta; Shetter, Sargent.
 BACKS—Brass, Sargent; Wright, Roy, Loup City; Dobry, St. Paul; Layher, Scotta; Sample, North Loup; Garnick, Ord; Taylor, St. Paul.

In some respects the team chosen by the coaches is superior to George Round, Jr. team. In other ways the Round team is stronger. Brass, of Sargent, who was quarterback on Round's team, is regarded by football fans as a better field general than Anderson of Burwell while Shetter, also of Sargent, is thought by many to be a better center than Babcock of North Loup. However both "all" teams are presented for your inspection and you may take your choice.

CITY LEAGUE TEAMS CHOSEN

Committee Assigns Players To Four Teams; First Game To Be Next Tuesday Night.

Firms that will sponsor teams in the City Basketball League, this winter are the McLain-Sorenson Drug Company, J. C. Penney Company, Andersen's Grocery and Gem Theater. The league held an enthusiastic practice session Tuesday evening and the first league games will be played next Tuesday, December 30.

Meeting last Friday evening a committee of six appointed by President Clyde Baker assigned players to the various teams as follows:

McLain-Sorenson—Gifford, E. Lashmet, Nay, Cass, Beeghly, McMinden, Jobst and Baker.
J. C. Penney Co.—Krejci, Carlson, McLain, Wolf, Christensen, Toenniges, Gurmunden and Furtak.
Andersen's Grocery—Adams, Carkoski, Chatfield, Kovanda, Bud Lashmet, F. Andersen, McGinnis, and Vincent.
The Gem Theater—Ross Blessing, Earl Blessing, Williams, Jensen, M. Bell, Heuck, J. Bell, Satterfield.

Several other players are expected to join the league after January 1 and as rapidly as new members are received they will be assigned to the teams that have proved to be weakest. Basketball fans believe the committee did a real job in selecting teams of about equal strength and some fine basketball should be dished out to fans by the city league this winter.

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an Order of Sale, issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Valley county, Nebraska, in an action wherein Marie Kusek et al, are plaintiffs, and Anna Gross, a widow, and Anna Gross et al, are defendants, and Anna Gross et al, are the parties to the said action, and only her at law of Felix Gross, deceased, L. B. Fenner, assignee of Joseph Gross and Charles Gross, and the Farmers State Bank of Brainard, Nebraska, a corporation, are defendants, and the Elyria State Bank of Elyria, Nebraska, a corporation, is intervening defendant, I will at 2 o'clock P. M. on the 5th day of January, 1931, at the West front door of the Court House in Ord, Valley county, Nebraska, offer for sale at public auction, the following described lands and tenements, to-wit: The Northwest quarter and the North half of the South half of Section 23, Township 20, North of Range 16, West of the 6th Principal Meridian, in Valley county, Nebraska, given under my hand December 2, 1930.

George S. Round, Sheriff.
E. M. White, Attorney for Plaintiffs.
December 4-5t.

All-Stars To Play First Game Jan. 5

The first game to be played in Ord this winter by the City League All-Stars, town basketball team, will be on the evening of January 5, at the high school gymnasium. The speedy Grand Island Athletic Club five will be opponents for the local team. Last year the All-Stars opened the season against the G. I. A. C. defeating them by a small margin.

Pussyfoot's Spertlog

By GEORGE ROUND, JR.

By the time this is printed I hope the following people have received the Christmas presents that I believe they have been praying for recently:

Joe Krejci: Five high school boys who can play basketball and win a few games this year. An angel to deliver some track material for him to work on this spring, and some support on the town basketball team from other players.

Spot Johnson: Just a little hair upon top of the extremity of the body which represents his head. Johnson has used all the remedies that Hash McGrew has but none seem to work. Perhaps Santa Claus will be good to him.

Dickie Koupal: He wants Chris Math to come to Ord during the holidays but he doesn't like the good old Santa is going to favor him. Chris will be there some time soon to see Dickie, though, and show him how to boot the new pigskin which he will receive for Christmas.

Floyd Baranek: Yes, Floyd wants a new football for Christmas. It is to be just like the Cornhuskers use. Perhaps Santa will deliver the present.

Carl Dale: As for Dale he wishes that Santa will bring him three more can play members like Antonio Kokes, Harold Benn, and Bill Garnick. Tis a powerful wish, Carl. Better wait until the next generation.

Charles "Deacon" Arnold: Here Jolly old Saint Nick could play the good part by answering the Deacon's wish about getting some money to pay the past bills of the Ord ball club. In addition, Arnold wants Santa to bring him a horde of ball players for next summer. No, I forget that Charley is through with baseball.

Dale "Hips" Norman: Yes, it is true that Dale has been wanting to receive the ability to talk more and say less. It is always bothersome, he avers to talk so little and say so much.

Ralph Norman: Well, here the old athletic proposition pops up again. Doc wants to receive a brand new athletic field for high school football. No, he doesn't want it located at the fairgrounds but somewhere in northwest Ord.

Dave Haught: Seeing this in print will cause Charley Arnold to get jealous but nevertheless, Dave hopes that Santa will deliver summer around as soon as possible so that Arnold can visit his store and consume all the way from two pints to six quarts of ice cream daily. Cold weather sort of dampers Charley's appetite.

License To Hunt, Fish, Will Cost $1.10 Next Season

A supply of the new 1931 hunting and fishing licenses was received this week by County Clerk Ign. Klima, Jr. The licenses will cost $1.10 next year, instead of $1.00 as in the past. The additional cost will give the agent who issues them 10c and under the new regulations county clerks are made responsible for all licenses. Other agents will be responsible to the county clerk and will turn money over to him instead of sending it directly to the state as in the past. This change was decided upon because under the old method the fish and game department has lost thousands of dollars in defunct banks.

People who purchase licenses must swear this year that they are citizens of Nebraska and of the United States and that they have resided in the state for six days prior to their request for a license. Non-resident fishing licenses will cost $2.00 and a combined non-resident fishing and hunting license will cost $10.00.

Resolution

Whereas, the resignation of Nelle Wolters as City Clerk and Bookkeeper in the office of the Light and Water Commissioner, was on November Seventh, 1930, duly accepted by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Ord and a Successor appointed, and

Whereas, said Nelle Wolters had prior to said date procured Bonds for the faithful performance of her duties, and, procured

Whereas, said Bonds should now be cancelled and her Bondsman released from further liability.

Now, therefore, Be It Resolved, that said Bonds be cancelled as of the date of November Seventh, 1930 and the Bondsman, namely, the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company be released from all liability thereon from and after said date.

Attest:
Lucinda Thorne, City Clerk
Wm. H. Moses, Mayor.

Two Dances Christmas Night

There will be two dances in Ord Christmas night. At the Bohemian hall the Z. C. B. J. lodge is sponsoring a dance with music furnished by Frank Kunhart and his band while at the Opera House Emil Kokes is having a dance with music furnished by the Bayou Boys, who feature Bud Sellers as entertainer. Both dances will probably be well attended.

DRUNKEN DRIVER DEMOLISHES PORCH

R. R. HORTH IS ENDORSED FOR JUDICIAL POST

Receives Unanimous Vote of Bar of District; To Succeed Judge B. H. Paine.

Hon. Ralph R. Horth, Grand Island, for years a leader in the legal profession in that city, unanimously was endorsed for appointment to the bench of the eleventh Nebraska judicial district at a meeting held Monday evening in Grand Island. Attorneys from all over the district were present and when an informal ballot was taken Mr. Horth received 31 votes, O. A. Abbott, Jr., F. J. Barrett, J. Greedy, E. Claude A. Davis, of Ord, S. and A. L. Bishop of Bartlett, 1. After the balloting showed Mr. Horth to be an overwhelming favorite W. A. Prince moved that he be unanimously endorsed and the motion was carried without a dissenting vote.

The meeting Monday evening came about as the result of a decision made at the banquet held last Thursday night by the Grand Island bar to honor Bayard H. Paine, the retiring district judge, who has been elected to the supreme bench. At that banquet Judge Paine placed two tentative resignations in the hands of the Hall County Bar Association. One was addressed to Governor Weaver and one to Governor-Elect Bryan. Judge Paine left it to the bar of the district to decide which resignation should be submitted.

It was an important question that Judge Paine submitted for presenting his resignation to Governor Weaver probably would result in the appointment of a republican to fill out the unexpired portion of his term whereas presenting the resignation to Governor-Elect Bryan would probably result in the appointment of a democrat.

His desire to be absolutely fair and impartial led him to take this means of resigning, Judge Paine explained, and the suggestion he made was that the bar of the district decide, by balloting, whether they wanted him to resign at once or after January 8.

A majority of the district's attorneys desired Judge Paine to resign at once so that his successor could be appointed by Governor Weaver instead of the governor-elect. It was decided to meet Monday to consider the question. The forty-one lawyers present then endorsed Mr. Horth for the position.

Previous to the voting O. A. Abbott, Jr., addressed the gathering. He reviewed the history of the vacancy and then said that both attorneys and friends had urged him to seek the position, a number having gone so far as to pledge their support. No one had the slightest idea, at the time, that Mr. Horth would be a candidate, and he had urged them to make a candidate and pledged their support to feel perfectly free to cast their ballot as they chose. He himself, Mr. Abbott said, was casting a vote for Mr. Horth.

After the balloting and Mr. Paine's resolution revealed Mr. Horth as the unanimous choice the latter was escorted to the court room by a committee named for that purpose and in a brief address voiced his appreciation and told his audience that he was deeply impressed. Had some one told him a week ago that he would receive and accept the endorsement for the judgeship, Mr. Horth said he would have laughed, because at that time he did not conceive of such an action on his part. He had been approached about the matter on numerous occasions in recent months but could not consider it and so had announced himself.

That acceptance of the position will mean a quite considerable financial sacrifice to Mr. Horth was revealed when he announced that attorneys and friends had made him realize that the community had treated him handsomely for 45 years and this and his desire to serve the community, in appreciation, had induced him to lay self, his associates and practice aside and accept.

If the governor sees fit to make the appointment, Mr. Horth concluded, attorneys may be assured that he will not forget that he has been a practicing attorney. In thanking the assemblage for its kind treatment Mr. Horth singled out O. A. Abbott, Jr., whom he thought especially generous in his offer.

Mr. Horth is a member of the firm of Horth, Cleary and Suhr and has been a practicing attorney in Grand Island for 45 years. He is regarded as a man of great experience, of judicial temperament, of incorruptible integrity and well

Bohemian Dance Friday.
An item on another page of the Quiz states that the Z. C. B. J. lodge is sponsoring a dance Christmas night. This is a mistake as the dance will be held Friday, December 26. Frank Kunhart and his orchestra, of Omaha, will furnish music.

Jim Gorney Arrested.
Sheriff Moran of Greeley county came to Ord last Friday night and arrested Jim Gorney, who has been employed here for some time. Gorney is now in jail at Greeley and several charges, including jumping a bond, have been filed against him.

FIRST 1931 BABY WILL BE GIVEN MANY PRESENTS

Business People Co-operate To Welcome First Child Born In Valley County.

The first baby born in Valley county in 1931 will be a fortunate child indeed for Ord business people are again co-operating to welcome the first arrival. Eleven firms have presents for the lucky infant.

Business people who will present gifts to the first baby are Auble Bros., Stoltz Variety Store, the Golden Rule, Sophie McBeth, McLain & Sorensen, Geo. A. Parkins, Ed F. Beranek, the Chase Toggery, the Quiz, Milford's and Mrs. Nay & Nay.

Presents include a knife, fork and spoon set, a baby toilet set, a baby blanket, a sheet and pillow case, a Mennen set, a baby hot water bottle, a solid gold ring, two little dresses, a set of birth announcements and a $1 savings account.

This is the third successive year that Ord business people so honored the first Valley county baby. In 1929 John Koll, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Koll, was the first baby born and was given the presents. He was born at 2:40 a. m., Thursday, Jan. 3. Last year Alice Jacqueline, daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. Edwin Clements, won the prizes. She was born at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, January 1.

The rules of this event are simple. The first child born in this county after midnight, December 31, will win the prizes. As soon as the baby is born parents should notify the Quiz, telling the time of birth and the baby's name if possible. The winner will be announced in next week's Quiz providing a baby is born early in the new year and otherwise in the Quiz of the following week.

As soon as the winner is determined the Quiz will give a letter of credentials to parents of the first child and they may then call on the various business places to receive the gifts.

A large ad announcing this event will be found on page eleven. Read it carefully.

Mistake On "All" Team.

Through a misunderstanding of names on the part of officials, editors, and coaches, Gruber of St. Paul was nominated as a guard upon George Round, Jr.'s, all-valley high school football team as printed in the Quiz last week. Instead of Gruber it should have been Jensen of St. Paul. Round places Jensen at the right guard post.

—Sunday Harry Cochran of Burwell was in Ord to see Dr. Lee Nay.

—Miss Mildred Haas, who is attending a Lincoln college, is at home for a few days vacation.

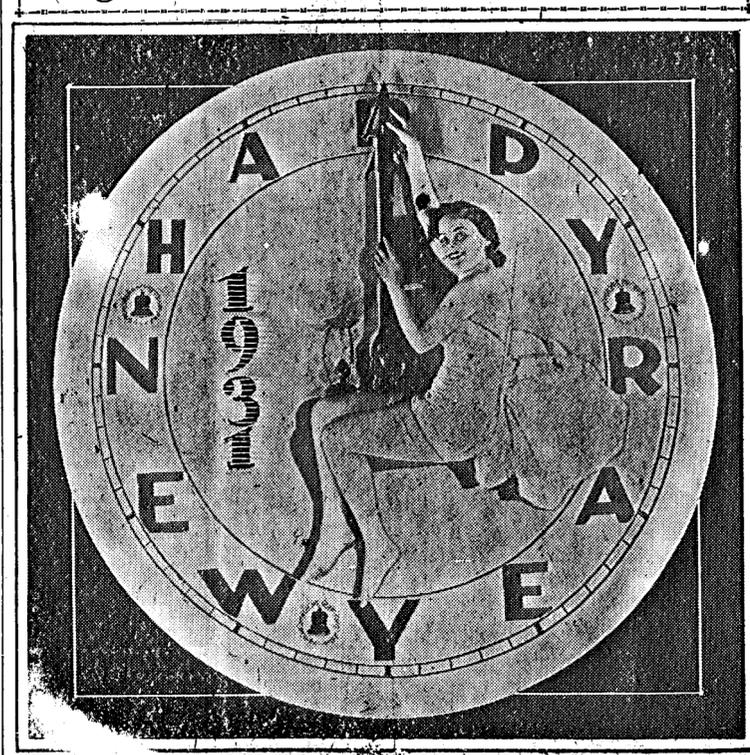

—For several years Mr. and Mrs. A. Sutton have gone to Loup City to spend Christmas but this year they have decided to stay at home. Mr. Sutton is not very well and he thinks he will celebrate in Ord. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chase were over Sunday to see the Suttons for a short time.

—Lloyd McGrew of Lincoln is in Ord today to spend a few hours with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McGrew. C. E. McGrew has not been well and has been confined to his home for over a week.

qualified for the position in every respect. Should he be appointed by the governor his selection will be eminently satisfactory to Ord attorneys, they say.

Ord lawyers who were present at the meeting in Grand Island Monday were R. W. Norman, George Munn, Clarence Davis and E. L. Vogeltanz. Those who extended the banquet in Judge Paine's honor held last week were Messrs. Davis, Vogeltanz and Hardenbrook.

Right on Time for the New Year!

Here's a clock that has its hands full! Though they say Time and Tide wait for no man, this generous timepiece, sounding off the dying minutes of 1930, seems to have a second or two for pretty Barbara Kent of the movies, who is shown here just in the tick of Time. And when both hands meet at the zero hour, you'll have to admit that Barbara greeted the New Year punctually.

Rev. Shuman Dies At Fairbury Home

Word was received here this week that Rev. H. A. Shuman passed away at 2 o'clock a. m. Monday at his home in Fairbury. For a number of years Rev. Shuman was pastor of the Congregational church at Arcadia, retiring from the ministry when he left that village twenty years ago. He was past eighty when death came and is survived by his wife, one daughter, Eva, who was once superintendent of schools of Valley county and now holds a similar position at Fairbury, and one son, George, of Lincoln.

George Siler, Early Settler Here, Dies

The body of George Siler, 84, who died last Thursday in Los Angeles, Calif., arrived in Ord Tuesday evening and funeral services were held at the Sowl chapel Wednesday morning. Rev. W. H. Wright bled in charge. Interment was in Ord cemetery beside the body of Mrs. Siler, who was buried here several years ago.

Deceased was born July 9, 1846 and came to Nebraska with his family in 1858, settling near Hastings. In 1891 the family moved to Valley county and the Ord vicinity was their home until the spring of 1905, when Mr. Siler went to Burke, S. D., and home-stayed. Mrs. Siler followed in the fall of the same year and that was their home for some time.

For the past several years Mr. Siler's home has been in California and he passed away there at the home of a grandson, Dewey Siler. Pneumonia caused his death. He was ill only four or five days.

He is survived by three daughters and three sons. They are Miss Mamie Siler, Mrs. Cecil Hall and Mrs. Laura Newbecker, of Long Beach, Calif.; Will Siler, of Saskatchewan, Canada; Charles Siler of Hastings; and Ed Siler of Burke, S. D. Those present at the funeral yesterday were Charley Siler and family and Mrs. Ed Siler. Mrs. Victor McBeth, of Spaulding, and Harold Hoepner, of North Loup, two of his grandchildren were present. Deceased's grandson Vernon Siler, accompanied the body from California to Ord.

Detweiler in Fatal Accident.
J. W. Detweiler, of Grand Island, figured in a fatal auto accident at Aurora last Saturday when his car skidded into an auto driven by Clyde Williams of Aurora.

Williams' skull was crushed and he was killed instantly while Newman sustained a fractured skull but is expected to recover. Passengers in the Detweiler car received only minor injuries. Ry streets were blamed for the accident.

Child Swallows Safety Pin, Dies

Infant Son of Former Riverdale People Passes In Grand Island After Operation Is Futile.

North Loup, Dec. 23.—(Special)—Riverdale friends of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rux were grieved when word came last Friday morning that Donald, their 15-months-old son, died at 9 o'clock the previous evening. Nearly a week before he swallowed a safety pin and though an operation was performed in St. Francis hospital and the pin taken out the lad failed to recover.

The child swallowed the pin Saturday, Dec. 13, while his mother was dressing him. It lodged in the baby's throat and physicians said nothing could be done until the pin worked its way into Donald's stomach. This it did by Tuesday morning and Donald was taken to the hospital for an operation. It was believed the lad would recover but complications set in and he passed away Thursday night.

He was born Sept. 20, 1929 in Riverdale, from which community his parents moved to Grand Island just recently.

Funeral services were held at Grand Island Saturday and several Riverdale friends and relatives attended.

Four Men Fined For Disturbing Peace

Four men of the North Loup neighborhood were arraigned in Justice Hamilton's police court here Tuesday and were charged with disturbing the peace, the complaint being filed by Marshal Covert. They were alleged to have created a disturbance at the Claude Romans home Sunday noon, challenging Mr. Romans to come out and fight and otherwise disturbing the peace. They pleaded guilty to the charge. Two of them, Ed and Nick Whalen, were fined $20 and costs each and the other two, Joe Chadwick and James Coleman, were assessed $5 and costs.

—A special train load of cattle arrived in Ord last week from Denver, consigned to several Valley county feeders.

—Mrs. John Dever left Tuesday for her home in Grand Island. She had been spending a few days with her people, the Philbrick families.

—Mrs. F. C. Williams, who has for several months been employed in the Bungalow Tea Room has not been well and not able for a week to attend to her duties.

Christians To Have Xmas Eve Program

The Christian church and Sunday school are holding their annual Christmas program this evening, beginning at 7:15 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to be present. The affair will begin early and end early so children and the present can greet Santa Claus at the court house at 8:45 and take part in the community treat.

Week of Prayer—Union.

Week of prayer services will be held next week beginning on Tuesday night at the Methodist church at 7:30. At the United Brethren church on Wednesday evening, the present can greet Santa Claus at the court house at 8:45 and take part in the community treat.

Didn't Like George's Team.

To the editor:—I am sending herewith the official All Valley team, and ask in fairness to all concerned that you give it as much publicity as the "joke department" written by Geo. Round Jr. last week. George did fairly well on a part of his guessing, but fell down badly on the rest. He was especially harsh in his treatment of Burwell. Not one landed on the first team. On the second team he names Tarr, Burwell, at guard. Burwell never had a player by that name or any where near it. He gives Ward honorable mention at tackle, and Ward never played tackle.

Burwell was the only school in the conference that played every other school, nine in all. They were the lightest team, averaging only 132 pounds.

They were the greenest team, fourteen letter men having graduated last year.

They were the only team that tied St. Paul and beat them out of the championship.

They ran up the biggest score against Ord of any team Ord played in the conference.

They earned their places on the first team, and the coaches, who saw every team play, gladly put them there. Yours truly, John L. Ward.

—Lost—Pocketbook, containing some cash, glasses and driver's license. Finder please keep cash. Return to Myrna Ward, R. 1, Ord.

—C. R. Biskeborn, of Scotts, was in Ord Saturday to see Dr. Lee Nay.

Fire Inspection Day Jan. 21.
C. H. Brinkmann, who represents the National Security Fire Insurance Co., of Omaha, was in Ord Tuesday making arrangements for a fire inspection day which will be held here Jan. 21. At that time twelve or fifteen fire inspectors will visit Ord to inspect the Ord schools, court house and business places around town. People are urged to clean up all fire hazards in preparation for this inspection.

LARGEST CROWD EVER ATTENDS XMAS PROGRAM

1,100 In Auditorium Thursday Eve to See "All School" Yuletide Affair.

A crowd of 1,100 people or more packed the high school auditorium Thursday evening to enjoy the finest Christmas program ever prepared by the students and faculty of the Ord schools. Children from every grade in the city schools had a part on the program, and did their very best to make the occasion worth while.

The grades presented the first part of the program, using a blend of two Christmas themes; one motif being that of Santa, the famous Mr. Claus, and the other subject stressed that of the Christ child and his birth story. First on this portion of the entertainment was a Christmas lullaby, sung by the little kindergarten girls; and a dialogue about Old Santa of the boys of the same room. Third grade girls sang Christmas carols for the audience, and then the first and second grades gave a dialogue called "Santa's Helpers". Following this was a candle drill and dialogue by the third grade. Lloyd and Norma Sack played a very nice piano duet. Dorothy Auble at the piano furnished an enjoyable bit of music.

"The Stranger Child" was the dialogue chosen by the fourth grade to please their parents, and after them sixth grade pupils provided a cornet and banjo arrangement that everyone liked.

A little playlet, "The Christmas Sprite" was well presented and received. Fifth graders did it. A pantomime, "Holy City" was given early and end early so children and the present can greet Santa Claus at the court house at 8:45 and take part in the community treat.

"Christmas at Stebbins", the play selected by junior high people to entertain their many friends, proved to be very clever, and was equally well done. Klimek and Ruth Koupal, as Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, city folks who were stranded in the country at Christmas time and didn't like it, were sufficiently disgruntled at first and had sufficient Christmas spirit at the last to please the most exacting spectator. Those who helped them gain the real spirit of Christmas were Harvey Jensen and Aldine McNare as Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins; Pauline Barla as Hattie Stebbins; Billy Tunnell as Tom Stebbins; Paul Carles as the orphan boy; Max Dumont as Jake the hired man; and Beulah McGinnis as Mary, the hired girl. The junior high young ladies and gentlemen surely did extremely well.

On the share of the program belonging to the high school proper the presentation of a dramatized scene from the original Christmas charmed all who saw it. Miss Ella Lange read the lines; Edythe Mason was pianist; Eldon Lukash played the part of Zacharias; Thelma Palmater that of Mary; Leonard Desmut that of Joseph while those cast as angels were Marie Kosmata, Irma Campbell, Evelyn Coe; Myrna Ward; Genevieve Rathbun; Evelyn Williamson; Mildred Kasper; Martha Marbart; Verna Stowell; Anna Anderson and Dorothy Fuss. The youthful shepherds were James Milliken, Hugh Ward; Floyd Rathbun; Julius Vala; Floyd Beranek; Rodney Stoltz; Roy Clement; Harold Garbick; Donald Williams; Charles Shepard; Wilson Bell; and Roland Tedro.

The parts of the three wise men were taken by Kenneth McGinnis; George Kruml and Bert Boquet. Soloists were Gwendolyn Kellison; Rodney Stoltz; Wilson Bell; Virginia VanDecar; and Eldon Lukash. A duet was pleasingly given by Iola Mae Williams and Zola Barta, and the girls glee club sang their choruses splendidly.

Between numbers the high school band played, and all in all the whole school was represented, and very well represented, as the attendance and enthusiasm proved. The faculty and students are to be congratulated for showing so well what they can do.

ELYRIA MAN IS HEAVILY FINED FOR WILD RIDE

Smashed Achen Car Friday Eve, Then Skidded From Highway Into Geweke Porch.

Heavy property damage was done last Friday evening by Jerry Jablonski, 26, of Elyria, when he became highly intoxicated and then attempted to drive his booze-laden Lincoln car down one of Ord's main streets at 60 miles an hour. He succeeded for a few blocks, weaving from one side of the road to the other, and then rammed into the E. L. Achen car, skidding from the road and demolishing the porch of the house occupied by Mrs. Katie Marks. That he killed or maimed no one in his wild ride is regarded as almost a miracle.

Several people witnessed the accident, which occurred about 8 o'clock last Friday evening. The party had been viewing Ord from the west on Highway No. 11 and proceeded toward the business section. People who saw his car coming estimated the speed at close to 60 miles an hour.

Mrs. Achen, with her four children and Virginia Weekes, who was driving east on the same street, saw the Achen car coming and stressed that of the Christ child and his birth story. First on this portion of the entertainment was a Christmas lullaby, sung by the little kindergarten girls; and a dialogue about Old Santa of the boys of the same room.

Suddenly Jablonski crashed to the Achen car from the rear, impact knocking the car for almost a half block. He then sped out of the road, narrowly ed a large tree, crossed the road and smashed into the large porch of Mrs. Mark's home, which was the estate of the late Geweke. The house is known as "the old L house."

The Jablonski porch with such to bring residents hood to their feet. Steps leading up to the porch were knocked to the east. feet and the porch pl. knocked down, letting a large of the porch fall to the ground.

Onlookers pulled young Jablonski from the wreckage as it was discovered that he was uninjured with the exception of a dislocated nose and several scratches on his face. He was promptly escorted to jail where he was attended by Dr. C. S. Shepard, who pronounced him highly intoxicated but uninjured.

Damage to the Achen car was not heavy and none of the occupants was injured. Jablonski's car was not badly damaged, either. When officers searched the car they found a ten-gallon wooden container almost filled with raw whiskey, the quantity being gallons.

Jablonski was held in jail till Monday when County Attorney George A. Munn filed charges driving while intoxicated and passing and transporting intoxicating liquor against him. To three charges he pleaded guilty.

Judge J. H. Hollingshead fined him $50 and costs, a total of $145 on the first charge and also revoked his driver's license for one year. He also fined Jablonski $5 and costs on each of the other charges, the total assessed against the young man being $164.90. His automobile, a 1924 model Lincoln eight touring car, was confiscated and will be sold by Sheriff George Round at public auction.

It is probable that Jablonski will "lay out" his fines, which will keep him in jail for nearly sixty days.

Christmas Exercises at No. 14.
Christmas exercises were held at No. 14 school house on Monday night. Miss Inez Eberhart, teacher. There was a good crowd, all the room would hold, and an excellent program. The children were well trained, so that they knew their parts perfectly. And the numbers were well selected, showing good taste and discrimination in the make-up of a Christmas program. The meaning of Christmas, the celebration of the birth of Christ, was purposely kept well in the foreground, but there was no lack of merriment and at times plenty of merriment and Santa Claus made his appearance on time and was in the best of spirits and form. Mr. and Mrs. Laughry and Rev. Wright were out from town.—Scribe.

—Fred Coe was out of town on business several days this week, returning Tuesday evening.

—Bill Franssen of St. Libory and Albert Stollenburg, of Grand Island were in Burwell Monday with two elk, which they shot in North Dakota. One elk weighed 900 pounds when dressed and the other 77 pounds.

NORTH LOUP DEPARTMENT

MRS. FRED BARTZ, Reporter

The C. B. Rasmussen home which is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Leland Earnest is being redecorated. Mabel Lee is the efficient one in charge.

Mrs. Myra Gowan, who is making her home with Maud Shepard for the winter, visited a few days last week with her son George and family in Riverdale. They all attended the Christmas program which was given at the school on Thursday evening, and said it was splendid.

The P. T. A. program which was given Tuesday evening, Dec. 16, under the direction of Mrs. Dal-lam, Billy Manchester and Miss Alice Meyers, was in the nature of a children's affair, and represented a school giving its Christmas entertainment with Mrs. Hemphill at the helm. There were Christmas carols and recitations, with some falling to remember their parts. Also the Tar Baby story acted by a group of our teachers after which Santa (Prof. Green) appeared with treats for the children, consisting of lollipops, clothed as dolls. Considering it was their first year in school they did admirably well and a jolly time reported.

Christmas at the churches will be one of the most pleasing features of this week's festivities. On Tuesday eve the 23rd, the S. D. B. Sabbath school will give a miscellaneous program. The directors are Merle Davis, Marcia Rood, Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Edgar Davis. An outstanding feature of this program will be "A White Christmas" where gifts wrapped in white paper will be brought by the different classes and presented to needy families. The programs at the Friends and M. E. churches will also be of a miscellaneous nature and will be given Christmas eve. At the M. E. church a group of Standard Bearer Girls will give a missionary play which presents the true spirit of Christmas giving. This will follow the program by the younger members of our S. school. There will be the tree in all its beauty and the usual treats, etc. The time is 7:30, so that all can come and return home in time to make preparations for Santa. Every church should be packed.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hutchins were Sunday evening callers at the Geo. Gowan home.

The Hutchins, Christenson and Anderson families will have their Christmas tree festivities at the Arthur Hutchins home on Christmas eve after the church entertainments and the family dinner will be held at the Geo. Hutchins home on Christmas day.

Dr. and Mrs. Dallam and children will spend Christmas day with Mrs. Dallam's people at Brunswick, Nebr.

The No Lo club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Ava Johnson on Tuesday, Dec. 16. Beautiful decorations in keeping with the season adorned the rooms. The chor. lesson with Mrs. Jones in charge was on "Recent Excavations at Ur" with interesting articles reviewed by Mrs. Hemphill and Mrs. Wortz from Mat. Geographical Magazine. Games of quite a late design were indulged in to the delight of all. Then the lights were extinguished and a lovely Christmas tree with gifts for all came into being and while it was lit, the club joined in singing "Joy to the World." A delicious lunch was served during the social hour. Two guests were present, Mrs. Maud Johnson and Mrs. Myra Gowan.

The Baker young people, Raymond, Donald, Irene and Ruth moved to Grand Island Saturday to attend the funeral of little Donald Rux. Donald Baker was one of the pall bearers, the others being three young men from Dannebrog, who had been students of Mrs. Rux at that place.

Marjorie Theilin, who is convalescing from an appendicitis operation performed recently at Hillcrest is getting along fine and may be able to spend Christmas at home.

Sterling Manchester and little daughters Harriet and Grace were Sunday visitors at Hillcrest, calling on Marjorie Theilin, who is Harriet and Grace's teacher.

Jerry Bordo, a student in Wesleyan, and a friend of Marjorie Theilin visited here at Hillcrest.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kildow are happy to have their daughters with them at this Christmas season. Lois returned Saturday morning from Lincoln, and Vesta from Wayne, bringing with her a girl friend, Miss Helen Janson, who will remain until Wednesday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Hemphill motored to Grand Island Sunday to meet their daughter, Gettrude, who returned from her college work at Milton, Wis., for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Eunice Rood, who is attending college in Greeley, Colo., came home Saturday morning accompanied by her aunt Miss Daisy Farrell, who is a camp nurse in Greeley.

A delightful social time in keeping with the Christmas season was held at the Dr. Hemphill residence Saturday eve, honoring the Inter-mediate Christian Endeavor society of the S. D. B. church.

The Senior society of the same church was very pleasantly entertained Saturday evening at the home of Prof. and Mrs. L. O. Greene.

Miss Nema Cruzan, who teaches in the Arcadia schools is another who is home for the Christmas holidays.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will attend a district rally on Friday evening of this week at Arcadia. The young folks are looking forward with pleasure to another of these most worthy gatherings.

A party of three left Friday morning for Milton and Madison, Wis. to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends. They were Mrs. Mary Clement, Mrs. Maud Johnson and Margaret Johnson. Roger Johnson and Mollie Clement took them to Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hudson and children Florence and Edward left via auto Monday for Lincoln where they will spend the Christmas holidays with relatives and friends.

A beautiful bouquet of roses was sent to the Arthur Rux home in Grand Island by the Riverdale friends for the funeral of their little son.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gowan were among those who sent flowers for the Rux baby funeral.

Mrs. Lois Gross is the efficient lady who is caring for the mother and baby at the Harry Meyers home. The baby has been named Marvin Keith.

North Loup shoppers at Ord Monday included Geo. Mayo, with three ladies, Margaret Rood, Lois and Vesta Kildow and Miss Helen Janson.

Mr. and Mrs. Sweetland came Friday from Hemingford, where Mrs. Sweetland teaches. They spent Saturday in Loup City where Mr. Sweetland's parents live. They will spend Christmas with her people, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Van Horn.

Miss Mary Davis, who teaches at Edgar, came home to spend the Christmas holidays with her mother.

Mrs. Dorothy Knapp substituted as teacher in the 1st primary for Marjorie Theilin because of sickness.

The auditorium of our school was packed with kiddies, parents, friends and school officers Friday afternoon when the Christmas program was rendered before closing for the holiday vacation. A mixed program of Christmas carols, recitations and exercises by the little folks, all of which brought the audience into the spirit of Christmas. Then there were "Christmas Customs in Other Lands" originally prepared and cleverly given by the intermediate grades. A play by pupils of the grammar room brought out the fact more clearly that "It is more blessed to give than to receive" the spirit of selfishness being cast into the background. Treats by the teachers and exchange of gifts with old Santa himself on the scene brought joy and gladness into every little heart and made the occasion one most worth while.

The Fred Bartz family were Ord visitors Saturday evening.

Take Barber and Will Stine motored to Grand Island Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings Clark are enjoying a visit with their son and daughter, both of whom are teachers. Miss Nettie is home from her school at Greenwood and Charlie from Scottsbluff, where he has the position of coach.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shineman entertained the Rook club at their home last Thursday eve. A miniature Christmas tree was placed at each table bearing gifts. There were four tables of players. The hostess served delicious refreshments and a very pleasant evening is reported.

Taking advantage of the excursion rates Mrs. Gertrude Carter left on the motor Saturday morning to spend Christmas with relatives

Sunday morning worship at 11 o'clock. The topic will be "Why New Years Resolutions Fail."
Evening service will be held at 7:30 o'clock. A momentous decision is before our nation. It involves serious obligations and a great opportunity. What will the Senate do with the World Court protocol which President Hoover has now submitted. Attend the evening services and hear Rev. L. M. Real on the topic, "Shall the United States Join the World Court?"

Last Sunday morning a brief review of the work being done in India was presented during the Sunday school period. Sunday evening nearly one hundred participants gave a "white gift pageant", a processional was sung by a chorus of girls carrying lighted candles. The prophecy was foretold by Adrian Tolon. Two Choralists, Wilson Bell and Bob Cushing gave the story which was enacted in 7 episodes; the annunciation, the wise men appearing with costly gifts, the adoration, then the scene of the cross before which many children knelt who were Grand Island visitors last Thursday.

The Bartz families, Otto, George and Fred expect to eat Christmas dinner at their mother's home across the river.

Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Hutchins and daughter Inez are here for the Christmas holidays. Their home for the present is Sioux City, Ia. where Inez is a student in a school of expression.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knapp with Mrs. Knapp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will spend Christmas with relatives at Newman Grove, if the weather permits.

Dr. and Mrs. Dallam and children were guests of the doctor's brother and family at Primrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis VanNess left Saturday morning, via auto for Oklahoma where they will spend Christmas with Mrs. VanNess' relatives. Their daughter Verna, who attends a school for the deaf and dumb in Omaha, will join them in Grand Island.

Dan Needham drove to Grand Island Saturday and met his daughter, Mrs. A. N. Miller and children of Newton, Iowa. They are spending Christmas in Ord. It had been several years since Mrs. Miller visited her parents.

morning service next Sunday will be especially helpful. The topic of the sermon is "Brace Up". It will serve as a tonic to run down constitutions. The evening service according to our plan will be very definitely evangelistic. Of course every service is evangelistic or it isn't much of anything. But this service will have some of the features of the old time revival service. The Epworth League service at 6:30 will be led by Catherine Romans. The Epworth Leaguers go to Arcadia on Friday night, 193 at Sunday school last Sunday, let us make it 200 next Sunday.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

That is my wish to all my friends and customers who have made this year's business possible. During the past year I have vaccinated 10,488 pigs and hogs and 900 calves, gaining many new friends and customers during that time. Have not had a single personal complaint from anyone, have tried to give the best of service at the lowest price possible considering the very high quality of the Serums and other Biologics I have used.
 Have also sold 15 cartloads of Bonofat, the better tankage feed, during the past year. Users of this wonderful feed that have put on tests with it have been able to lower the cost of Pork Production to as low as 4c a pound in several cases, when fed with home grown grains. Wish to thank all of my customers for their splendid support.
 Have a special price of $3 a 100 on the famous Dr. Eppard mineral from now until Jan. 10th. Why pay more than this when you can get the best quality mineral at this price. Another load of Bonofat soon at a very low price.
