Ord Voters Approve Natural Gas Franchise

MAYOR MOSES IS RE-ELECTED BY HUGE MAJORITY

Administration Gets Stamp Of Approval As Ordites Go To Polls Tuesday.

Approval of the policies of Mayor Wm. A. Moses and his administration was voted Tuesday by a huge majority of Ord's voters when Mr. Moses was re-elected Mayor over Bert M. Hardenbrook by one of the largest majorities in Ord's history.

Good Government candidates for the city council also were elected, Wm. Sack defeating Frank Johnson in the first ward, Chester Palmer defeating Dr. E. A. Barta in the second and Joe Rowbal leading Henry Misko in the third.

The question of whether or not the city council should issue a franchise that will permit natural gas to be brought into Ord proved a heavy vote, those who are for natural gas casting 400 votes and those who were against it casting 314, thus giving gas a majority of 86.

Natural gas was popular in all three wards but the first ward gave it the biggest vote, 157 to 109. In the second ward the vote was 112 to 100 and in the third 131 to 105.

Mayor Moses led Mr. Hardenbrook by more than 2 to 1 in the first ward and by more than 3 to 1 in each of the other two. The vote by wards on the mayoralty was: First—Moses, 195, Hardenbrook, 83; second—Moses, 175, Hardenbrook, 51; third—Moses, 183, Hardenbrook, 51.

The second ward race for councilman was the most exciting of the whole election, Mr. Palmalter edging out Dr. Barta by a vote of 114 to 103. The second ward vote was 165 for Sack and 103 for Frank Johnson while third ward voters cast 133 ballots for Mr. Rowbal and 106 for Mr. Misko.

For the park board, Dr. C. D. Shepard was re-elected over Dr. Barta by a vote of 448 to 289. There was no opposition to Horace Travis and Dr. J. W. McGinnis for re-election to the school board nor for Lucinda Thorne as city clerk or W. C. H. Noll for city treasurer.

It is expected that 100 or more loans will be applied for in Valley county and the total may exceed this number as more farmers become aware of the ease with which federal loans may be secured.

All applications must be made before April 30.

Kirkendall Taken Into Custody, Will Fight Liquor Charge

Arrested Saturday evening by Marshall L. W. Covert and alleged to have a gallon of alcohol in his possession, James Kirkendall was arraigned in county court Tuesday morning to answer to liquor charges filed against him by County Attorney Munn.

The arrest was made near the Leo Long farm east of town. A tin can of alcohol had been reported hidden near the roadside and Marshall Covert was watching to see who came after it, the marshal says.

Young Kirkendall, it is said, tells a slightly different yarn. With his wife he had been visiting relatives in Springdale and on the way back to Ord they saw a man hide something beside the road. Upon reaching town Kirkendall left his wife, then drove back to see what it was that required so much secrecy.

Wanted—Baseball Team For Farm Bureau League

Such a sign might well be hung on the door of County Agent Dale's office in the court house.

Last Saturday it was thought that everything was in readiness for the beginning of the Farm Bureau League season May 1. Arcadia the 8th team, had come into the fold, and league officers were busy drafting a schedule.

In came a representative from Joint neighborhood, which had been sprung on as a league member. Joint couldn't have a baseball team in the field this year as several Joint players had signed up with other teams, he said.

With Joint out of the picture the fledgling schedule was shot full of holes.

Now the league president, Dr. McGinnis, and other officers are trying to find a strong team to take Joint's place so that the league can go on as an 8-team affair.

If no other team appears a 7-team league will be organized.

FIRST SEED LOAN MONEY ARRIVES THIS WEEK END

About $10,000 Expected For First 41 Applications, Is Report From County Agent.

Forty-one applications for seed loans have been sent in so far from Valley county, reported County Agent C. C. Dale yesterday, and the first disbursement of federal money, about $10,000, will reach Ord this week end.

Twenty-five more applications have been made out, Mr. Dale says, but are being held up while farmers seek waivers from non-resident owners and mortgage holders.

Most applications so far have come from right around Ord, but farmers near North Loup and Elyria are beginning to get their signed applications in.

Little interest in the federal loans has been shown in the Arcadia neighborhood.

It is expected that 100 or more loans will be applied for in Valley county and the total may exceed this number as more farmers become aware of the ease with which federal loans may be secured.

All applications must be made before April 30.

ASSESSORS MEET MARCH 31, AGREE ON REDUCTIONS

Farm Products Will Be Assessed From 1-3 to 1-2 Lower Than Last Year, Is Decision.

Valley county's personal property—at least such things as live stock and grain—is worth at least 40 percent less than it was in the spring of 1931.

So township assessors of the county decided last Thursday when they met in the court house to receive instructions from County Assessor E. C. Weller prior to beginning assessment work April 1.

All live stock and grain will be assessed at from one-third to one-half less than last year the assessors agreed, and Mr. Weller issued a price schedule along these lines.

Real estate will not be assessed this year but, following out the recommendations made by assessors of Nebraska at their recent Omaha meeting, the Valley county group decided to petition the state board of equalization for a 15 percent reduction on all real estate in this county.

County Assessor Weller will present Valley county's case at the next state board meeting which occurs in about ten days.

It is probable that a 15 percent decrease will be ordered here this year, he says.

Important features of the personal property schedule adopted last Thursday follow:

Cattle—Yearlings, $10; over 1 and under 18 months, $12.50; 2-year-olds, $15 to $17.50; 3-year-olds, $20 to $22.50; milch cows, $22.50 to $25; dairy cows, $35; stocker cows, $20 to $25; fat cows can feed, 2c per lb; fat heifers, 2-1-2 to 3c; fat steers, 3-1-2 to 4c.

Swamp clover seed will be assessed at $2.50 per cwt., alfalfa at 25c per cwt., cane seed at 50c per bu., barley, 20c per bu., sudan $1 per cwt., and speltz, 20c per bu.

Spring Work Starts On Valley Co. Farms

Underwear Change Hazardous Business

Beware of changing your underwear is the moral of this tale. It would be just as well to avoid this dangerous risk, which is expected to be classed among the hazardous occupations as soon as the insurance companies hear of an Ord man's plight.

A. J. Shirley, Ord's beloved and doughty fire chief, had a sad and painful accident a short time ago when attempting to change his underwear.

At this time of year that he was exchanging his winter reds for more suitable spring undergarments, "Bud", as he is popularly known, is a modest man.

But in some way, entangling alliances took place, and with a crash "Bud" was a broken man, lying in a heap on the floor.

When the smoke of battle cleared away, (for Bud has a temper, you know) it was found that a broken rib had been suffered by our darling friend, whose innocent desire was simply and modestly to shift to springier underwear.

Therefore, if you are unaware of underwear changing perils, beware!

MALY ADVOCATES CANCELLING ALL GERMAN DEBTS

Economic Recovery of This Country Depends on Europe, Lincoln Man Tells Rotarians.

Advocating cancellation of all war debts as a means of bringing economic recovery to the United States, Stanley Malý, vice president of the First National bank of Lincoln, made a very interesting talk to Ord Rotarians at their dinner Monday evening.

Mr. Malý stated in advance that he realized his ideas were unpopular at present but he insisted that it will be necessary for us to cancel the war debts, particularly those owed us by Germany, before prosperity can ever come back to stay.

Germany never has paid a dollar of her own money toward reparations, Mr. Malý stated. She has paid only what she borrowed from us. Germany cannot pay and when the United States quit lending money to her the threat of bolshevism became a real one.

Carp Strikes Big Minnow, Is Landed By John Klein

An experience new to even a veteran fisherman like John Klein came to him Sunday when, fishing in the Chrs Lawless bayou near Ericson, a big German carp struck a minnow that John was casting and was hooked and landed.

He had cast out into the bayou and was reeling in slowly, John relates, when suddenly he had a terrific strike. "I've got the biggest bass in the river," John thought, and he proceeded to play the fish carefully.

PETUNIA CHOSEN ORD'S OFFICIAL FLOWER FOR 1932

Yard-Garden Committee Urges Each Ord Resident To Plant Bed of These Flowers.

Ord's official flower for this summer will be petunias, the Yard and Garden Committee of the Chamber of Commerce announced, saying that the petunias polled more than three times as many votes as any of the other flowers eligible.

Mr. Goddard, in announcing the winner in the most popular flower contest, declared that it was the hope of his committee that petunias would be planted in every Ord yard this summer, in recognition of the petunia as Ord's own flower.

Only about 70 votes were received in all, according to Mrs. Eugene Leggett, who tabulated the many other blooms. Since the Chamber of Commerce has been in existence, annual phlox, larkspur or marigold, so apparently Ord people greatly prefer petunias to any other bloom.

Since the Chamber of Commerce has been in existence, a great many of them will doubtless be seen in Ord this summer, and gay spots they will make.

Dates on the flower shows, which will be held every two weeks all summer, are now posted as follows:

Noll Seed Company.....April 29 (On this Friday and Saturday, free slips and plants will also be available to any school child who wants to try gardening.)

F. C. Penney Co.....May 13 Farmers Center.....May 27 Golden Rule Store.....June 10 Farmers Grain & Sup. Co.....June 24 Ord Quiz.....July 8 Beranek's Drug Store.....July 22 Pecinka & Perinski.....August 5 McLain & Sorensen Drug.....August 19 Chamber of Commerce.....September 2

On one of the last two show dates, a box will be placed to receive ballots of the public, whose votes will decide which is the most attractive place in Ord. The Chamber of Commerce prize money of $25 will be divided $10, $7.50, $5, and $2.50 to the four places adjudged most attractive.

PAPIERNIK BIDS IN ORD MILL AT SHERIFF'S SALE

Plans to Operate Mill Himself For Awhile; Collision Plans For Future Are Uncertain.

The Ord Mill, for nearly twenty-five years owned and operated by the Collison and Wright families, was sold Monday afternoon at sheriff's sale to Jake Papiernik.

Judgment for Mr. Papiernik against the Ord Milling company was made in district court for some $600 and interest six months ago. The sale was to satisfy this judgment. A petition is now pending for foreclosure by Anna Papiernik on a tax sale certificate on all the real property of the company.

A cross petition is filed by Jake Papiernik on a 1927 mortgage which he has on that property for $3,000 and on which he claims is due $3,320.

Until confirmation of the sale in the next session of court can be made an injunction order has been issued to restrain the defendants from removing any of the property or from committing any work for the present mill himself, with Rudolph Collison as miller. Later other arrangements may be made.

Oliver Collison, who has managed the mill in recent months, said yesterday that his plans for the future are uncertain.

Telephone Girls Suffer From Gas

Perhaps when you tried to phone Thursday morning no one answered "number please". There was a reason. Miss Maude Eastburn and Miss Mary Jensen were overcome about eight o'clock by gas, probably from the furnace. The other operators were ill but stuck to their jobs.

Miss Jensen was first to feel dizzy, but Miss Eastburn, without hardly feeling sick, fainted. Miss Jensen became unconscious soon after. Dr. F. A. Barta was called, but said that no serious effects had been suffered by either of the women.

But the windows have been kept well open since in the operating room. Monday morning the furnace was being cleaned out. The operators said their throats still burned some.

BIG SLASH IS MADE TUESDAY BY CO. BOARD

Assessment Party Will If State I

A 15 percent cut in ment values of all real in Valley county was Tuesday by supervisors at the court house as equalization.

The resolution providing a 15 percent deflation of real estate values during the past three years, the Board of Equalization of Valley County finds that present average assessed values of real estate and improvements is 15 percent or more in excess of its present actual market value, and do hereby order and direct the county assessor of Valley county, Nebraska, to make a general reduction of 15 percent in the assessed value of all real estate and improvements, within the confines of Valley county, for the year 1932, to the end that real estate may be assessed on a basis more uniform with market values.

"Be it further copy of this resolution by the assessor of the county, to take note of this assessed values, conform with the act of the legislature in this regard. The action surprise to lines recom assessors of cent convt County."

When the personal property value cut was made last week will cause a decrease in the assessed value of the county's taxable property of approximately 18 percent, or about $1,800,000. The total decrease, measured in terms of money, will be nearly four million dollars.

It is pointed out that the valuation slash may, with the exception of state and county taxes.

This action merely gives township boards, city councils and school boards the opportunity to reduce taxes if they so desire, he said. "They can entirely or partially increase their levies if they are not already at the limit, by resorting to emergency provisions where they are already at the limit. The board recommends, though, that subdivision officers of Valley county make a most strenuous effort to keep their expenses within the limits of money raised by their present levies."

It is also pointed out that the state board of equalization may refuse to permit the slash in Valley county. Last year of the Valley county board made a 5 percent cut, only to have the state board presided over by Governor Bryan refuse to allow it. This year, with thousands of people, all over the state demanding tax relief similar to Valley county, it is thought that the state board may consent to the cut.

MRS. WILL TUMA MEETS DEATH IN BARREL OF SWILL

Comely Young Matron Is Victim of Tragic Accident Friday Eve, Body Found Next Day.

Half immersed in a barrel of swill near the hog lot at her farm home two miles northwest of Elyria, the lifeless body of Mrs. Will Tuma, comely 23-year-old farm wife, was found at 6 a. m. last Saturday by her husband. Apparently she had been dead since the previous evening when she slipped and fell into the barrel while stirring the swill preparatory to feeding the hogs.

From all appearances her death was an accident and the story told to officers by her husband would bear out this theory.

According to Mr. Tuma, he and his wife had guests for supper Friday evening and the chores were not done until after their departure, which was about 9 or 9:30 o'clock.

Usually Mrs. Tuma milked the cows while he did other chores, he says, but during the day Friday she hurt her right hand and asked him to do the milking that evening, offering to feed the hogs instead. This arrangement was carried out.

She started for the hog lot a little before ten o'clock, Mr. Tuma relates, while he went to the cow sheds, which was in an opposite direction and several hundred feet away.

Mrs. Tuma was raising some little chicks in the brooder house of a near neighbor, Clarence Johnson, and before starting out to feed the pigs she had said something about going over to the Johnson place to see how the chicks were getting along, her husband says.

When he finished milking and returned to the house and found that his wife was not there he thought nothing of it, Mr. Tuma says, as he supposed that she had gone over to the Johnson place and would return in a few minutes. He was tired out from a long day in the field so undressed and went to bed, falling into a heavy sleep at once.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuma occupied separate rooms, sleeping with their only child, a five year old boy, but he did not notice that she had not returned during the night. He got up about 6 o'clock Saturday morning and went out to do chores, still not knowing that anything had happened to his wife.

As he rounded the corner of the garage and looked down toward the hog lot a ghastly sight met Mr. Tuma's eyes—a woman's leg protruding from the barrel of swill. Learning that his wife's dead body was in the barrel, Mr. Tuma ran to the Johnson home nearby and telephoned Sheriff George Round Dr. C. W. Weekes and Mrs. Tuma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Urban, of near Comstock. Then, accompanied by Mr. Johnson, he returned to the scene of the accident and waited until Sheriff Round arrived accompanied by County Attorney George A. Munn. Not until their arrival was the body of Mrs. Tuma removed from the barrel.

Probably it will never be known just how the tragic accident occurred but officers reconstruct the scene as follows:

Tried to Save Himself.
Mrs. Tuma evidently picked up with her injured right hand the pail used for dipping swill from

OLE PETERSEN PASSES; WAS ILL ELEVEN WEEKS

Heart Ailment Results In Death Of Olean Farmer Sunday; Leaves Wife, 5 Children.

A heart ailment from which he had suffered for the past eleven weeks ended fatally Sunday for Ole Petersen, respected farmer, who passed away at 6:35 p. m. at his home six miles southeast of Ord. Funeral services were held at Frazier's chapel Tuesday, Rev. H. H. Spracklen having charge, and burial was made in Ord cemetery.

Though they have lived in Valley county only since 1924, when they moved here from the St. Paul neighborhood, the Petersen family have a wide circle of friends who sympathize with them in their bereavement.

Mr. Petersen was born in Minnesota April 7, 1874 and on March 26, 1908 was married at Grand Island to Frances E. Smith. To them were born five children, all of whom survive as well as their mother. They are Mrs. Lee Klingberg, of North Loup, Mrs. Fred Stephens, of Council Bluffs, Donovan O. Thelma D. and Lester J., all of whom are at home. Mr. Petersen aged mother also survives as well as a brother and three sisters, Hans Petersen, of Cushing, Mrs. Christa Jensen, of Fremont, and Mrs. Bertha Witherspoon, of Council Bluffs.

Kirkendall Gets 90-Day Sentence

The maximum sentence permitted by law for a second offense liquor charge, 90 days in county jail at hard labor, was prescribed for James Kirkendall last Friday by Judge H. H. Hollingshead when he found the young man guilty in county court. As an extra penalty, the judge included in his sentence the provision that if Sheriff Round is not able to keep Kirkendall busy at hard labor throughout the ninety days he is to spend the last ten days on a diet of bread and water.

Witnesses for the prosecution included Marshall L. W. Covert, who made the arrest, and Dr. H. N. Norris, who analyzed alcohol in the gallon can found in Kirkendall's possession.

Marshall Covert testified that after getting a tip that liquor was cached on the other side of the river bridge east of Ord he went out there on the evening of April 2 and laid in wait near the cache. Two cars came along while he was there, he said. The second car stopped, someone got out and went directly to the liquor. The man remaining in the car said "hurry up, make it snappy," Marshall Covert testified.

As soon as Kirkendall got the gallon can in his hands he was placed under arrest, the marshal said, and immediately he drove back to town in the car with Kirkendall and George Anderson, who was the other man. He then turned Kirkendall and the liquor over to Sheriff George Round.

Dr. H. N. Norris, who analyzed the liquid found in the can, testified that it was 74 percent grain alcohol and fit for human consumption.

No evidence was offered by the defense, Attorney John P. Misko contending himself with cross-examining the prosecution's witnesses but bringing out no difference in their stories. When the judge pronounced sentence, Misko, immediately appealed the case to district court, where it probably will be tried before a jury at the fall term.

Two girls from District 55 rather copped honors at the county oral and written spell-down at the high school Friday afternoon when Lorraine Duda won first place in the written meet and her friend and chum, Lillian Hrebec from the same school placed second, after a real battle of wits. Then the two girls, in the oral contest, managed to win more honors when Lillian ranked second and Lorraine third.

The line-up of winners in the oral meet gave Clara Micek, who goes to school in District 30, the first place and a nice gold medal. Miss Clara McClatchey pronounced the words and was in general charge of the spell-down. Judges were Mrs. Cecil Molzen, Mrs. A. W. Correll and Mrs. G. W. Taylor. The normal training girls of Ord high school assisted during the written contest.

C. R. HUTCHINS DIES TUESDAY AT AGE OF 88

Had Been Ill Only a Week At Home of Daughter in Grand Island; Took Quiz 50 Years.

One name printed in the recent 50th anniversary edition of the Quiz as an old and valued subscriber has just been erased from that list by death. Charles R. Hutchins, Civil war veteran and a Loup valley resident since 1873, is that friend.

Mr. Hutchins passed away quietly at 4:30 a. m. Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. R. Beauchamp, in Grand Island, after an illness resulting from complications due to his age. He had celebrated his 88th birthday only last Wednesday, and was sick about a week before his death. Up to that time he was unusually active for a man of his years.

With his first wife, Mr. Hutchins lived in Ord when their children were small, also lived in Burwell for several years, and leaves many friends in both towns. Both his first and second wives preceded him in death. Besides Mrs. Beauchamp, another daughter is Mrs. Ava Leach, in Ord, and a number of grandchildren also are left to mourn.

The body was taken to North Loup for funeral services yesterday afternoon, which were held at the S. D. B. church. Interment was made in the North Loup cemetery. Members of the Ord post of the G. A. R. were in charge of services at the grave.

GROUNDS ABOUT LEGION HALL TO BE BEAUTIFIED

35 Legion and Auxiliary Members Will Spend Friday Eve In Planting, Cleaning Up.

Decision to beautify the grounds about the Ord Legion hall was reached at the last meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary and tomorrow evening the work will be begun.

Mrs. Cecil Clark, appointed chairman and director of this project, asks that every legionnaire interested in cleaning up and improving the place report for duty at the hall at 7 o'clock Friday evening, bringing his own implements. Any spruce bushes available are also asked for at the Friday evening clean-up session, as it is planned to use about 35 on the grounds.

Plans have also been made for a lattice fence at the rear of the lot, and for a pair of evergreens to flank the front entrance. The appearance of this corner will undoubtedly win much admiration with these new improvements, and the American Legion and their wives are to be praised for the time, work and money they are spending.

Mrs. Emma Severson was appointed to fill out the remainder of the term as treasurer. Mrs. Enger found it necessary to resign this position in the Auxiliary.

Bygs Rogers House.
The forced sale of the Hiram Rogers house, in which George Bygs had been living, resulted in Frank Kull purchasing the property for $2,000, subject to the first mortgage.

Mayor Wm. Moses Proclaims Next Week "Clean-Up Week"

Clean Up, Paint Up, Plant New Shrubbry and Flowers In Advice of Ord's Mayor.

William Moses, our mayor, has especially requested that everyone who can do so, hasten to clean-up and otherwise improve his home grounds and surroundings in general, with the object of making Ord a more tidy, clean and beautiful place to live. Next week has been set aside for this work.

It is up to all of us to try to follow out this proclamation to the letter. This year, as never before, men need work to do. Since your grounds need a good general straightening up, and you have a number of odd jobs and repairs to have done, with spring here, why not hire this work done? While furnishing some needy man a few of the dollars he needs, it will be improving your home property, making your place more neat and cared-for looking.

Now's The Time To Paint
Letting a house or other building deteriorate is a poor way to save money. If small repairs are needed now, neglect will call for more expensive and extensive repairs if you wait. Keep up your property, and see that it does not slide down hill and become unkempt in appearance. The place that is orderly, beautifully cared for, kept in apple-pie trim with paint and surrounded by plantings of beauty is worth from two to three times as much on the market. Think of this, and for no other reason, you should see that any small or large repairs, necessary painting and a tidy appearance feature your possessions.

Paint will cover a multitude of sins. It can improve the looks of your house so that you won't know the place. Preserving the wood from dry winds and bitter storms are another pair of practical reasons why you should paint. Paint, like labor, is cheaper now than it has been in many years, and there is no reason for you to delay it longer.

Planting Season Here
If there is one thing that does more to give a home-like and well-groomed air to every house than to any other, it is planting a few shade trees to frame your home; a few shrubs to mask the too-straight lines of your foundation; a few vines and flowers to delight the eye and attract praise and attention from every passer-by. Where dozens or possibly a hundred or so of your friends see the interior of your home in a year, thousands go by your home in the course of a year and if the plantings are appropriate and handsome far more citizens will remark and praise the improvement than if you spent the money indoors.

Plantings actually increase the cash sale value of every home. Money put into furniture and indoor equipment can never be got out, dollar for dollar; but the dollars you spend outdoors will thrive and be worth more every year.

Follow Mayor Moses' advice. Get busy now. See what your home and yard need; then get it done at once. You will be helping others as well as yourself.

Fred Ulrich Gets Re-Gravel Contract

When bids on 80 gravel maintenance projects were opened in Lincoln last Friday, Fred Ulrich of Ord was found to be the low bidder on the Ord-North Loup-Scottia project, involving 13.8 miles of highway. His bid was $3,333.

The only other project of local interest that was bid on was 10.1 miles designated as Arcadia-Ord-North Loup project, on which a bid of $4,364 by the Roberts Construction Company of Lincoln was low. Both of these re-graveling jobs will be done in the early part of the summer.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Purcell and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wiegardt and children were visiting Sunday in the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Marks.

NEBRASKA DEMS VOTE HEAVILY FOR ROOSEVELT

Ord Man Apparently Defeated For Railway Board; Cushing Is Nominated For House.

TOLEN MAY BE IN.
Irl D. Tolen of Ord, received a telephone call last night from his brother-in-law, Ed Wegryn, of Columbus, who told Mr. Tolen that the late afternoon edition of the Columbus Telegram said that he, Mr. Tolen, had won the democratic nomination for railway commissioner. Last night's Grand Island Independent stated that Floyd L. Bollen was the nominee. As the Quiz goes to press the issue is still in doubt.

As dusk drifted across Nebraska Tuesday evening, it became apparent that the 1932 primary election which had been expected to bring out the heaviest primary vote in years, in reality had aroused almost the lightest in history. In Valley county, for instance, the total of ballot votes was only about 1,400, less than half the votes cast at the general election in 1930. Throughout Nebraska this light vote was apparent.

More democrat votes than republicans were cast in Valley county for the first time in many years, and this condition seemed to be fairly general throughout the state. In many voting precincts elsewhere not enough democrat ballots had been provided and county officers sent rush orders to printers in order that they might vote the ballot they called for.

A large majority of Nebraska democrats prefer Franklin D. Roosevelt to either John N. Garner or William H. Murray as presidential timber, returns showing that Roosevelt got nearly as many votes over the state as did his two opponents combined.

Hoover Preferred
Only one name appeared on the republican ballot as a candidate for president, Dr. Joseph I. France but thousands of voters wrote in the name of President Hoover. In Valley county more voters wrote Hoover's name than voted for former Senator France.

The best races in the primary were for the nominations for governor and state returns, yesterday indicated that Bryan had best of it, almost 2 to 1 for the democrat nomination while Dwight Griswold apparently was nominated over Kenneth S. Wherry by the republicans.

Irl Tolen Loses Out
Irl D. Tolen, Ord candidate for railway commissioner, a democrat, apparently was defeated as additional returns came in late yesterday. Floyd Bollen, of Friend, was leading though Mr. Tolen was still conceded a chance to overtake him. Floyd Dort apparently won the republican nomination for the same office.

Only two contests for local office challenged the interest of Valley county voters—the race between Marion J. Cushing and Vern W. Robbins for the republican nomination for the legislature, and the four-way race for the right to go on the ticket at the fall election for county judge.

Cushing Wins 2 to 1
Mr. Cushing won the nomination for the legislature by a huge margin, capturing Valley county by a

St. Paul Bridge Players Defeat Ord Team

Dr. F. A. Barta's team of bridge players ran into some classy competition Monday evening when eight St. Paul men came to Ord and defeated the local players by a margin of 885 points in 144 boards of duplicate auction. The evening was spent in the C. J. Mortensen home, followed by a lunch at the New Cafe.

Visitors included Alvin Matonsek, J. F. Webster, Jos. S. Zocholl, Geo. Pyne, W. S. Panj, F. R. Haggart, K. A. Haggart, Peter Christensen and C. J. Christensen. The latter, who is one of St. Paul's pioneer business men, came along as a "chaperone", the visitors said, though Ord men believe he must have been along as mascot instead.

Ord players were Dr. Barta, Mr. Mortensen, Lester Norton, August Petersen, Chris Belers, J. D. McCall, E. L. Vogelitz and E. C. Leggett.

Anyway it was an enjoyable evening, some excellent bridge was played by both teams and the Ord men are looking forward to returning the courtesy by visiting St. Paul in the near future.

Regarding the oil field here. At Flornol, southwest of here, drillers struck heavy gas pocket and when it blew out of the top of the well it caught fire but was finally put out before it burned the derrick and other property. They are down 2,800 feet. The latest big lease of land is now held by the Standard Oil Co., about 7 miles south of here. Another oil company from Los Angeles has leases southwest of here, west and northwest, all from 5 to 15 miles away from me. You may think I will soon be setting pretty in oil. Well, the oil companies seem willing to lease that land for a long time, but they want to go. They believe the oil is here and want it, but as long as Uncle Sam allows crude oil imported into the U. S. free of duty so long, I think there will be a big crimp in production here. Taxes have come down about 20 percent and we look for them to come down some more. Well, I believe California has been squeezed as hard as any place but we are sure yelling a lot for relief and the county board was after public expenses. Now we are government, through the Taxpayers League and grange organizations.

Now I must close for this time. We are enjoying fine weather here but can always see a lot of snow in the mountains.

Yours truly,

RELATED SUPPORT.

Had Representative Marion J. Cushing had, at the last legislative session, the support for his state income tax measure that is now developing, the measure would undoubtedly have been passed.

Property owners in this year of falling values are realizing just how much the state income tax measure might have meant to them in the way of reduced taxes.

Last week at Fremont the Nebraska Federation of County Taxpayers' League strongly endorsed enactment of a state income tax law.

This support for Mr. Cushing, though belated, will come in time to help if he is re-elected to the legislature this year.

His whole record in the state house is a good one. His interests have not been sectional but have benefited the entire district.

When You and I Were Young, Maggie

25 Years Ago This Week. The Farmers Mutual Telephone Company's new switchboard arrived and the company began doing business.

The Quiz editor congratulated himself on having passed the 1,500 mark in circulation on the occasion of the paper's 25th anniversary.

Ulrich Sorensen announced that he was about to purchase a balloon and start making ascensions.

Ethel Newbecker and Archie Coombs went to York to attend the district declamatory contest.

Tom Trindle was attempting to raise funds for the purchase of the old fair grounds, which would then become the permanent home of the Ord Driving association.

20 Years Ago This Week. Jim Turek was suffering from a bad case of blood poisoning, caused by tearing his hand with a rusty nail.

Fred Bell sold, or leased, his skating rink to Charlie Davis, who expected to run a dance hall in connection with the rink.

The Ord entry, Louise Misko, won second place in the district declamatory contest.

W. Z. Todd, a veteran newspaper man, started a new paper, the Burwell Sun, shortly after selling his Burwell Tribune to Curt Parson.

George Newbecker, the Ord auto dealer, received word that the big Ford factory in Detroit was producing 300 cars a day, an unheard-of number.

Dr. C. W. Weekes, of Scotia, performed what was probably the first caesarian operation ever done in the Loup valley.

Jim Wozniak, who lives near Arcadia, was an Ord visitor Saturday.

My Own Column

by H. D. LEGGETT

A brutal murder was committed near Grand Island last week. A man shot and killed his wife while she, all unsuspecting, sat sewing in the home.

By the way, quite a lot of you people who have received nice blue or pink return envelopes, have failed to return them with a couple of dollars to get or keep in good standing with this great family necessity, the Quiz.

For a good many years I bought all my meat of Jim Misko. Thirty-five years ago a dime would buy all the good beef steak the Miskus and I could eat and quite often I would ask for liver when I bought the dime's worth of steak.

Now that so many people find it best to see that liver is used often, for the welfare of some member of the family, you are no doubt anxious to find a new and entirely different recipe for liver.

guess a 60-year old appetite is some different than a 25-year old appetite.

And writing this reminds me that we don't seem to have the fun about town that we used to have and writing the above reminded me of one early day incident.

There is a movement all over the country, back to the farm and it is called a healthy sign that conditions are improving.

The other fellow also was disgusted. He stopped me on the street to inquire if a superior man: "Say, what do you mean by printing those childish puzzles?"

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

Now that so many people find it best to see that liver is used often, for the welfare of some member of the family, you are no doubt anxious to find a new and entirely different recipe for liver.

Fresh ground liver. Bread crumbs. Egg. Milk. Combine as for meat loaf, seasoning well. Shape into a loaf, cover with tomato sauce and bacon strips.

A spice cake is a welcome change from the usual white or chocolate icing, I think it's one of the best.

1-2 c. sugar. 2-3 c. shortening. 2 eggs. 1 c. buttermilk. 1-2 tsp. soda.

1-2 tsp. cloves. 1-2 tsp. cinnamon. 1-2 tsp. nutmeg. 2 c. flour. 1-2 tsp. baking powder.

1-2 tsp. baking powder. Cream shortening and sugar, next add the eggs. Dissolve soda in buttermilk, add spices, mix baking powder in flour and add to cake batter.

Mrs. Charlie Huebner, Rt. 2. An occasional "hot" dish lends much variety to your table, and here is one you'll want to try.

Something DIFFERENT

When a puzzle first appeared in this column, I started something I may never be able to stop. Or so it appears.

A couple of men you all know represent the two "puzzling" extremes. One of them jumped me because he had worked an hour or two on the egg puzzle which I reprinted last week.

The other fellow also was disgusted. He stopped me on the street to inquire if a superior man: "Say, what do you mean by printing those childish puzzles?"

But I have a couple more puzzles I'm going to print this week, anyway.

"Honorable Mrs. Chairman" said the secretary of a women's meeting, "the call for a standing vote showed the motion to be carried out by a majority equal to one-third of the opposition; but as that result was due to a lack of chairs to permit eleven members from sitting so as to record their votes in the negative, I wish to report that we find the opposition has defeated the motion by a majority of one vote."

The other puzzle reads: "Brother or sister have I none, but that man's father was my father's son." Then it says: "That gentleman's mother is my mother's mother-in-law". Now can you figure that out?

Mrs. Stingley also sent the answer to the house puzzle. Have you got it yet?

And Frank Vodehnal came along with the famous St. Ives puzzle. Do you know the right answer? "As I was going to St. Ives, I met a man with seven wives and in each sack were seven cats. Each cat had seven kits; kits, cats, sacks and wives, how many were going to St. Ives?"

Thelma Partridge tells the latest one, you may believe it or not. She swears it is true, really happened.

With a friend, she spent a day in Grand Island within the last few days. Her car had been parked on a main street for a short time, while the two women chattered around. They came back to the car, found something that needed attention, and drove a short distance to a garage. Thelma's car had to wait a bit for attention. While waiting, some cat meows made themselves very noticeable.

Our 50th anniversary edition wasn't elaborate last week, but I have heard many compliments on it, nevertheless. A lot of subscribers, when they saw it in their mail, exclaimed, "Why, we got two Quiz this week!"

In this town some ministers who are good at other things in addition to preaching. I understand Rev. McCarthy is a great student, always reading and memorizing poetry, studying and learning.

Rev. Real is noted for extracurricular activities. A fine horseman, he is fond of animals. A little pet dog of the family can do a round of tricks not usually seen outside circus tents.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Boosts Andersen Girl. To the Editor of the Quiz: The pleasant season is nearly here again. I mean the season when the pheasants are going to dig up our melon seed and sweet corn and garden.

The pleasant season is nearly here again. I mean the season when the pheasants are going to dig up our melon seed and sweet corn and garden.

My neighbor last summer for killing a garden-fed and corn-raised pheasant. My county officers figured a nice fancy pheasant was worth $40.

I sure admire Mr. Andersen's grit in telling us in last week's Quiz just where he stands on this pheasant question. There are not many candidates that will come out and tell the public just exactly what they can expect from them if elected.

I have travelled over quite a lot of territory this spring in Valley county and when good solid farmers who speak the truth like John Bell of Enterprise, Lew Smolik of Vinton, T. P. and Joe Anderson and a lot of others tell me that the pheasants have eaten their corn that got caught out in the snow it can't be disputed.

"Broken Lullaby" Acclaimed Best Post-War Picture

The greatest movie ever made about post-war Europe is "Broken Lullaby," the Ernst Lubitsch production that comes to the Ord Theatre Sunday for a three day showing. Wherever it has been shown this picture has been heralded as a masterpiece.

Made from the famous play, "The Man I Killed," by Maurice Rostand, "Broken Lullaby" deals with a young French soldier's experiences after he bayonets a young German during the war, only to be overcome with remorse at his act. He goes to the young German's home to seek forgiveness, meets the parents and the dead German's fiancée and a tender love affair ensues.

Featured are Lionel Barrymore, Nancy Carroll, Phillips Holmes, Zasu Pitts and Charles Hatfield, a marvelous cast if there ever was one.

An unforgettable picture that touches the depths of tragedy and the heights of romance.

MALY ADVOCATES CANCELLING ALL GERMAN DEBTS

When President Hoover's moratorium was declared last summer the economic structure of Germany was on the verge of collapse, the Lincoln banker said and had it been allowed to go the whole world would have been in a state of chaos instead of in the present depression.

Morally and theoretically the war debts should be paid, he stressed, but just as business men find it to their advantage to forgive debts in order that business may continue so it will be to our advantage to forgive the war debts.

Mr. Maly and his family traveled extensively in Europe in 1925 and his knowledge of conditions there is based on actual familiarity with them.

In addition to touching on the economic situation as it applies to foreign countries Mr. Maly spoke of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation bill, which he believes will hasten recovery of business in this country.

No solvent bank needs to fail now because of frozen assets, Mr. Maly said, for the reason that the new Glass-Steagall bill liberalizing federal reserve policies and the new R. F. C. bill permit banks to borrow from the federal reserve on paper that was not negotiable before.

His talk was one of the most interesting Rotarians have heard.

Farm Union News

Mrs. J. P. Henry Creemen, secretary of the Yale Farmers' Union local reports an attendance of 50 at the last local meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brady Masters. They met twice a month. The next meeting will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nelson Wednesday evening, April 13.

Joe Peterson called on Mrs. Fern Johnson, of Ord Tuesday. Mrs. Johnson is secretary of the Popcorn Valley local, which was organized recently. Not long ago, Mrs. Johnson accepted an agency with the Farmer's Union Mutual Life Ins. Co., of Des Moines, Ia.

Elmer Dalby of Arcadia has started a shipping association at Arcadia. Livestock shipments will be consigned to the Farmer's Union Livestock Commission Co., at Omaha. A shipping association at Comstock has been operating successfully for some years. Mr. Naab is manager of this association and also operator of the Farmers Union cream station.

Kennedy Visits Ord Friends. The Hon. F. P. Kennedy, of Broken Bow was calling on Ord friends and others yesterday in the interest of his candidacy for the state senate. Many of the voters of Valley county have met Mr. Kennedy and we believe him, judging from the fine vote he got here the last time he ran for senator. He has served this district as senator and will do so again with credit to himself and profit to the district if he is nominated and elected. Mr. Kennedy served during the unpleasantness in the Philippines and came home as a lieutenant, working up from the ranks and will always carry the scars of serious wounds that he received there. He is in the picture show business and also interested in farming in Custer county.

Welfare Board Has $168 In Treasury

Taking care of relief work in Ord and vicinity through the winter months with a cash expenditure of only $299.37 is the fine record made by the Ord Welfare Board, it was revealed this week. The Board received cash donations of $467.83 and had $168.46 left in the treasury when the welfare office in the court house was closed April 1. It should be explained, however, that in addition to cash donations the board received many donations of food and clothing, all of which were put to good use.

Men are finding work now and are able to take care of their families, welfare officers say, but Mrs. Wm. Carlton has been appointed chairman of the committee to look after special relief cases during summer months.

Newsy Notes About Ord High School

As usual during the second semester of school activities the high school hums with extra-curricular work just now. The seniors are feeling their important position more every day, and each day also brings them added responsibilities, as graduation day draws nearer.

The closest of approaching events is the district declamatory contest at Kearney, which will be held on April 9. Ord's one act play, "The Valiant", will compete, with Rodney Stoltz, Adrian Tolen, Charles Shepard, Marlon Grace Cushing and Julius Vala, as well as Harold Benn, a part of the cast. These are the only Ord students eligible to compete, unless illness should arise and make substitutions necessary for first prize winners at the recent contest. Miss Jean Nelson is the busy coach.

On April 13, the Loup Valley play day is to be held at Scotia, which some Ord girls and teachers will attend. These days are spent at games, etc., and have a wholesome effect on the inter-town relations, as well as being good for the participants.

Mr. Jesse Kovanda is busily coaching his agriculture classes these days, whipping them into shape to compete at the North Platte meet on April 20, 21, 22. About ten will go from here, though the best judges for the competition have not yet been selected. There will be programs of special interest to the Future Farmers of America at the state agricultural meet, also.

The faculty of the Ord schools were entertained at a party at the Bell home Saturday night. The committee in charge was Miss Easely, chairman, Mr. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Watkins. The teachers will meet Saturday morning for a business session, after which lunch will be served at Thorne's Cafe. The committee arranging the luncheon consists of Mrs. Stark, chairman, Miss Bertha Lincoln, Miss Daisy Hallen, Miss Lois Finley, and Mrs. Martin Fuss.

Tough it the Hi-boys and Girl Reserves are entertaining their parents at a party. Tuesday evening under the tutelage of Mr. Watkins, seven were initiated into Beta Phi Gamma. The students chosen from biology, physics and chemistry courses, were selected not only for the scholarship but also for their interest in the subjects studied. Refreshments were served afterward. Those initiated were Marcella Steinwart, Edith James, Eva Adams, Vernon Collins, Floyd Beranek, Leonard Wolf, Kenneth McGinnis.

Friday afternoon, this week, the inter-class track meet will be held, as arranged by Cecil Molzen, coach. The spring track meet date for Loup Valley high schools has been set for May 4, the local coach states, and an even better grade of competition is expected than usual.

The senior play will be presented May 6, the sponsor, Miss Nelson, and the class have announced. The juniors and seniors are also agog over the fact that the junior-senior banquet approaches, to be held this year on May 19.

Poor representation from other Loup Valley towns made the Loup Valley high school association meet here Saturday accomplish little of the program hoped for. Only four towns, Loup City, Scotia, Arcadia and Ord appeared for business.

Know your school week is to be held here April 25 to April 29. At this time it is hoped all parents and friends of the schools will visit the classrooms, and see the regular school work going on. Interesting exhibits of work done by students will be placed on exhibit at this time, also, and may be examined by anyone interested.

Popular Ordites In Double Wedding

Two popular young Ord couples astounded their friends when it was learned Monday that the former Miss Helen Collipest is now Mrs. Martin Fuss, and that the former Miss "Jimmie" Drozda is now the bride of Stanton Finley.

The engaged couples sneaked quietly out of town on Sunday two weeks ago at about 4 a. m. and arrived in Bartlett in time to be married by Rev. W. H. Spalding, where a fine wedding breakfast was enjoyed.

Miss Agnes Drozda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drozda, and has a host of friends hereabouts. For the past few years she has been ladies-ready-to-wear clerk at the Nu-Way Cleaners. Miss Helen Collipest is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Collipest, who recently moved to Lexington from here. She also received her schooling here and is a first grade teacher in the Ord schools.

The two young grooms are likewise well known and well liked. Both are now farming and will take the brides to country homes to reside. Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fuss, and is a well liked and promising young man. Stanton Finley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finley, and like all four of the young people, was raised around here, and has numberless friends who wish him happiness.

One of the amusing factors in the shower at which Mrs. Fuss entertained Friday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Earl Blessing, honoring the other bride, Mrs. Finley. The Drozda-Finley wedding was expected shortly, but the other one not until school was out. Mrs. Finley was also honored at O. G. E. club Monday evening at the Mike Kosmaty home, making two showers for this bride, while Mrs. Fuss seems to have been neglected, due to her negligence in notifying her friends of such important items as her wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Russell and son Dick of Broken Bow were guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hagood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Esterbrook spent several days at Sargent last week while having dental work done.

Cecil Wolf Again Figures In True Snake Story

Last spring about this time Cecil Wolf came into town with an old milk pail about half full of snakes. Some people who didn't see the snakes must have figured Cecil was seeing things so last Saturday he came in again with the pail, this time with 51 snakes in it.

The snakes were garter snakes, bull snakes and a green variety of which the name is not known. None of them were of poisonous kind.

In an old prairie dog hole near Mr. Wolf's hog lot snakes evidently hibernated in large numbers during the winter. In the first warm weather of spring they came out of the hole to sun themselves.

Last Friday, when Cecil went to feed the pigs he saw a big ball of writhing snakes near the mouth of the hole. He got a club and started killing snakes and when he got through had 51 stretched out dead. At least that many more escaped, he says.

Last year he killed them in the same way, he reports.

Snake handling evidently is good on the Wolf farm.

Union Ridge News

The play, "Mrs. Jenkins' Brilliant Idea" was presented before a full house Thursday evening by several ladies of the U. R. club. This was a comedy and was well worth the price of admission. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Waller furnished music on violin and piano before the curtain was raised. After the play, supper was served in the basement. The club raised the sum of $8.25 which will be used by them to help defray the expenses of the project leaders, buy flowers for members who are ill, and pay expenses of the exhibits at county fair and popcorn days.

Eleven members of the U. R. club met at the home of Mrs. Murray Rich Friday, for the lesson on gardening given by Mrs. Gebauer. Two visitors were present, Mrs. Cecil Kennedy and Mrs. Henry Rich. Officers for next year were elected: President, Mrs. Roy Hornsby; vice president, Mrs. Roy Williams; secretary, Mrs. Paul Gebauer; project leaders, Mrs. Carl Wolf and Mrs. Ross Williams. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Rudolph Plate April 21.

Murray Rich will work on the road this season and his son, Harold, will do the farm work.

People of the neighborhood will be glad to know that a new gas lantern has been purchased for the school house. This was bought with money taken in at the box supper some time ago.

Monday evening when the Plate children were driving home from school, a horse bolted and another pupil ran into the rear end of the buggy and caused it to break down and spill the children out. All escaped unhurt.

P. T. A. meeting has been postponed until Tuesday evening, April 19.

Billie Worrell and Paul Gebauer shipped cattle to Omaha last Sunday. George Eberhardt trucked them to North Loup Sunday afternoon. Messrs. Worrell and Gebauer, Cecil Kennedy and Frank Schuch drove to Omaha in Mr. Worrell's car. Mr. Worrell expects to bring his mother and a brother-in-law home with him when he returns. His mother will visit here awhile, then go to California to visit other relatives.

Cecil Kennedy and Murray Rich were among guests present at the celebration of the 33rd anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Klingensmith Saturday evening. Miss Mildred Campbell drove to Clay Center with her cousin from Ord and spent the week end with her parents.

Christian Science. The subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, for Sunday, April 17, is "Doctrine of Atonement."

The Golden Text is from Hebrews 9:28: "Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation."

A passage of Scripture, used in the lesson-sermon is from Romans 5:1, 2, and reads: "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ; by whom also we have access by faith unto the grace where-in we stand, and rejoice in the hope of the glory of God."

A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is as follows: "Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life and Love. Jesus acted in reconciling man to God by giving man a truer sense of Love, the divine Principle of Jesus' teachings and this truer sense of Love redeems man from the law of matter, sin, and death by the law of Spirit—the law of divine Love." (page 18-19).

DEPENDENT ON GAMBLERS.

There is no other business except farming, the Agricultural Foundation points out, in which products must be sold at such prices as may be fixed by gamblers.

Once recently grain market gamblers broke wheat prices on a fake rumor that the Farm Board was going to sell wheat to foreign governments. A few days later they broke it again when Congress defeated a beer bill.

"Supposing other commodities were adversely affected by rumors of what somebody was going to do in a foreign market or because Congress didn't vote a tax on beer or coca cola," a bulletin from the foundation says.

"Supposing the price of shoes depended upon a market system operated along the lines of the grain market, and shoe manufacturers would be compelled to furnish shoes at the prices made on such a market . . . how would General Motors like to have four or five million automobiles sold short on the market at gamblers prices before the automobiles were even manufactured, and then be compelled by a marketing system to produce these automobiles and sell them at the prices agreed upon by the short selling gamblers. That in effect is what the farmer has to do. The gambler makes the price and the farmer grows the wheat or corn or other product and delivers it on the market."

Shoe manufacturers, or automobile manufacturers, or business men in any other line, are not to keep prices at a profitable level because they are organized. It is no idle dream to believe that farmers may sometime attain a similar state of organization, where acreage for certain crops can be determined in advance by the information and then this acreage be adhered to by all farmers, thus fixing prices by the only law that has ever worked, the law of supply and demand, aided by a tariff made for the benefit of agriculture.

A start along the line has been made in co-operative farmers organizations and similar experiments will be continued until the time will come when any gambler who attempts to fix prices will be committing financial suicide.

Until that time comes we will have to struggle along with our present marketing system, faulty as it may be.

GOVERNMENT CARRIERS.

What a stinking mess the transactions between the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and various railroads, notably the Missouri Pacific, are turning out to be. And how surely the United States government is plunging into the railway business.

The Missouri Pacific applied to the R. F. C. for $23,500,000 which the railroad planned to use to pay off short-term loans made by a New York banking syndicate and due April 1. The syndicate, which is composed of J. P. Morgan & Co., Kuhn Loeb & Co. and the Guaranty Trust Co., had declined to renew the loans.

Was the R. F. C. set up so that private bankers can saw off on the federal government their private loans that begin to look unprofitable? Apparently it was, for after rowing around for several days the R. F. C. did loan to Missouri Pacific the sum of $12,800,000 which the railroad promptly turned over to its creditors, who generously offered to carry the balance until October 1. Probably when that date rolls around the Missouri Pacific will apply for and receive enough more government money so that the New York banking syndicate can be entirely paid off.

Worst part of the deal, according to Senator Couzens, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, is that the amount loaned to Missouri Pacific exceeds by $350,000 the value of securities pledged as collateral.

If this deal was the only one in which private bankers, railroads and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation have engaged it would not be so bad, but there are others. Probably the whole truth about some of the transactions will never be known. How long will it be, though, before the 5 billion dollar capital of the government-financed corporation will be diverted into private hands? And what will the government have to show for all the money when that time comes? Probably a controlling interest in a lot of mismanaged railroads will be about the size of it.

There are more ways of killing a cat than by choking it with butter.

There are more ways than one of getting the government to take over and operate unprofitable railroads, too.

Something DIFFERENT

Ord friends are howling with glee over the latest remarks of Dr. C. J. Miller's pet little daughter, Mary Louise. You'll have to admit it is not so bad.

Hearing much conversation before the late city election about "voting for Moses", Mary Louise, just another little pitcher with big ears, listened and absorbed. At last she piped up: "Well Daddy, if they're going to vote for Moses, why don't they vote for Jesus?"

Which was giving religion a more practical turn than it has taken for some time.

Continuing to rage as a fad, more answers and more puzzles come in all the time. If you have any good, stiff puzzles about the house, dig them out and let the neighbors writhing for hours while they struggle to see the light.

"Fuzzling" is a good, cheap, indoor sport for times of depression. Join the puzzlers and puzzle awhile.

Here are the answers to the relationship puzzles of Mrs. Stingley, which were printed last week. She averred it wasn't necessary for me to use her name, in a rather reproachful letter she sent. But I'm sure her friends are glad I did. To the first relationship puzzle, the three are father son and grandson, the speaker being "that man's father" and "my father's son" (only child). As he has no brother or sister, he must be "my father's son" and "that man" his own son.

In the second, a separate puzzle, "that gentleman's mother is my mother's mother-in-law", the gentleman must have been the speaker's father or uncle. "My mother's mother-in-law" would be my father's mother, and my grandmother.

Now, is that just as clear as mud? And Olof Olsson, who thinks he's an expert by-stander at puzzle-solving, sent these in to keep you out of mischief.

Kids Puzzle. Mary is 24 years old. She is twice as old as Anne was, when she was as old as Anne is now. How old is Anne?

Man Size Puzzle. John is twice as old as his sister was when John was six years older than his sister is now. When sister is six years older than John is now, their combined ages will be equal to their mother's age then. Mother is now 48. How old is sister?

Now that petunias are the Ord flower, don't you dare forget to grow some. You owe at least that much recognition to the effort to beautify Ord.

So if you want to encourage the Yard and Garden movement, if you think it has helped or will help improve our appearance locally, go do your duty. Plant some petunias.

Easy to grow, petunias are colorful, and bloom over a long season, repaying you many times for seeding, and transplanting and watering them. And there are so many kinds, a big and little, plain and ruffled, so many colors, purples and pinks and stripes and combinations, that as particular as you are, you'll find some kind you like immensely.

Eleven miles north from Ord, a farmer got ready to drive to Ord, about seven o'clock one evening. His small son wanted to go too, but his father told him it was too cold and stormy a night. This happened when we were having bitter weather.

The farmer drove out of the yard, feeling a little sorry to have denied the lad's request, then thought no more about it. Arriving in Ord, Mr. Marshall jumped out of his car, and what was his astonishment to see his son climbing stiffly out of the spare tire in the back? The boy had huddled in there, cold, unprotected, while his father drove eleven miles over the roughest of rough roads through a cold, windy night.

Needless to say, the young traveler went home in an entirely different fashion, tucked in beside his father as warm and cozy as he could be made. That young fellow should have been a pioneer.

Golden Anniversary. That excellent newspaper, the Ord Quiz, celebrated its golden anniversary last week with a special edition. The Quiz was established by W. W. Haskell, who continued to own and publish it thirty-five years. Fifteen years ago H. D. Leggett bought it and is still publishing it. Only a few Nebraska newspapers have been published fifty years with not more than two owners.

There are a lot of things about the Quiz and Hank Leggett and his son Eugene deserving favorable comment, but one in particular must be mentioned. It is the fact that Hank had the circulation of the Quiz audited as soon as possible after the plan was adopted by the Nebraska Press association four years ago and has had it audited annually since then. The fifth audit was made recently. Hank points with pride to the fact that each annual audit has shown a small increase in the circulation of the Quiz, a record not many newspapers anywhere can duplicate for the past year or two.

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

Due to lack of space part of the cookery column got crowded out last week, so it will be continued in this issue. The first dish to read about this week is a creole rice dish, one of those pleasing hot dishes that lend so much variety and spice to the menu when used occasionally.

Rice A La Creole. 1 c. rice 1 c. grated cheese 2 c. tomatoes 1-2 c. onions, diced (or to suit your taste) 2 tsp. butter 1-2 tsp. salt

Fry one apple in butter until cooked but not browned, add cooked rice, tomatoes and salt. Cook 10 minutes, place in a baking dish, cover with cheese and bake an hour.

Mrs. Archie Boyce. Apple Rolls. 2 c. flour 1-2 tsp. salt 2 tsp. sugar 2 rounding tsp. baking powder 3 tsp. lard 1-2 c. milk or more 4 large apples sliced

Mix together like you would biscuit, while mixing have on stove 2 c. hot water and 1-2 c. sugar, let simmer but not boil.

Roll out dough 1-2 inch thick, spread on apple and sprinkle with cinnamon, then roll up. Cut as for cinnamon rolls and put in pan. Pour syrup over and bake about 20 minutes. Serve with cream or milk.

Mrs. Sam Brickner. If Mrs. Brickner's apple rolls aren't good, I'll be greatly surprised. They surely sound marvellous to me. So saying, the cookery editor will adjourn to the kitchen and try them.

Dutch Apple Cake. 1/4 c. butter. 2-3 c. sugar (cream together). 1 egg well beaten. 1 c. milk. 1/2 tsp. salt. 2 c. flour. 2 tsp. baking powder. 1 c. pumpkin.

When well mixed divide the dough into two parts, putting half in a greased pan. Then lay a layer of peeled and sliced apples, then the remainder of the dough with another layer of apples on top. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon. Bake in a moderate oven for 35 minutes.

This is delicious served with cream and milk.

Alma M. Valasek. Pumpkin Pie. Pumpkin (about 2 lbs.) especially a fall dish, will do some time of year. You may use canned pumpkin for this old favorite pie.

Pumpkin Pie. 3 eggs. 1 1/4 c. sugar. 2 tsp. cinnamon. 1/4 tsp. ginger. Pinch of salt. 1 c. rich milk. 1 c. pumpkin. Mix well. Bake in good crust. Add whites of eggs for top if desired.

Mrs. Anna Nelson, Ord. Time for some more recipes to come in. Where are yours. If you used recipes from this column or the cook-calendar, then you owe this department one of your best in return. Don't you think so?

Mrs. Lester Norton was dangerously ill at her home near Elyria.

Got the Wrong Fuss. A Quiz reporter in writing an account last week of the marriage of Miss Helen Collipriest and Martin Fuss, stated that the groom was the son of Will Fuss. This was a mistake, as Martin and Will are brothers. Their father, Adolph Fuss, lives in Grand Island.

BACK FORTY

Spring and fall are the times for seeding lawns. To often folks do this planting with straight blue grass. As a rule a combination of several grasses is better.

Variations in soil, shade, or sun influence the growth of one particular grass in a mixture, and more than one kind can be secured with combinations of permanent grasses, such as Kentucky blue, are apt to be slow starters. They work better with rapid growing, temporary grasses, and are less apt to be killed out by weeds when in a mixture.

Parts by weight Kentucky blue.....4 Canada blue.....2 Fancy red top.....1 Meadow fescue.....1.5 English rye.....0.5 Rhode Island bent.....1

The above is an excellent combination for seeding lawns. White clover can be added if desired, about one part by weight. The seed should be thoroughly mixed and used at the rate of one pound to 300 square feet or approximately five bushels to the acre. After the seed has been sown the ground should be raked over in order that the seed will be lightly covered. Then it is well to roll the ground with a lawn roller.

Planting without soil preparation is useless. Merely sifting seed on the surface like salt and pepper awaits nothing other than ready mixed lawn grass seeds should be regarded with suspicion. It is well to run a germination test, and determine how much of a sample is inert matter.

Perhaps the best lawn grass recommended for this country is Blue Ford's ammonium sulphate fertilizer. It excels barnyard manure in that it acts more quickly, does not bring weeds or mar appearances, and is easier to apply. It is crushed, mixed with sand, and scattered at the rate of one bush to one-half pound per hundred square feet of ground. It costs practically nothing, and can be purchased at any Ford station.

The finest lawns are produced with bent grasses, but they are very expensive. Often their seeds are adulterated with red top, which is a very inferior species of bent.

Ord Teachers Have Discussion Meetings

Throughout the winter teachers of Ord schools have met for professional meetings in which business was entirely out. Saturday morning at ten o'clock the third and last of these meetings was held. Lead by Superintendent M. D. Bell, the topic for discussion was "Individual differences of the student." More than in other meetings, Saturday each teacher submitted his or her problems in dealing with backward, peculiar, or even far advanced pupils.

The first of these professional meetings was held Dec. 5. Mr. Bell then introduced his plan for this special type of discussions. It has been the constant desire of the teachers to work together and present a uniform type of educational system. Business and social activities were left to other meetings and only the professional phase of teaching has been talked of. The first meeting dealt with "examinations, grades and tests." In the second meeting, Jan. 23, Mr. Bell talked of the "philosophy of education and where we stand." Spring vacation crowded out the last regular business meetings. Saturday noon after the professional meeting the teachers lunched and held their business get-together at Thorne's cafe.

Baseball Workouts Start.

With twenty men out for baseball and eight lettermen back Supt. M. D. Bell, who is coaching, thinks the prospects for Ord high school in that sport are good for this year. As usual, two games, one there and one here, will probably be played with Scotia, and Park and North Loup. A road trip after school is out May 27 is also being considered. Whether it would be to schools around Lincoln or to some other part of the state has not been decided either.

Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Dan Huff, of Omaha, drove to Ord and were visiting their son Howard Huff and family. Mrs. Huff had never seen their new grandson. They could not spend much time in Ord, but while here they called upon a few old time friends.

A Telephone Can Help You to Get More Out of Life

If your house has no telephone, you make it very difficult for people to be friendly to you. And you handicap yourself in being a good friend to others. Time is valuable, of course, but a friendly visit by telephone only takes minutes—and it can mean so much.

Of course a telephone has hundreds of purposes, in helping to protect your family, in helping you to make money, etc. But best of all, we like to think of a telephone as something that keeps people happy—keeps them together and makes them friends.

Order your telephone installed—today.

Two District 55 Girls Cop Honors In Annual County Spelling Bee

The words given out began with the fifth grade lists and continued into more difficult ones, but all of them were words found in ordinary life, not the freak type which used to be hunted out to down all spell-downers. Miss McClatchey pronounced them, then the student pronounced them and spelled the word he was given. Any time before finishing the word the contestant was at liberty to go back and begin over again, but not after once completing the word.

Among the words that decided winners were strike, spelled with a spare "e"; process spelled with a spare "s"; deceive, mis-spelled "dis-cieve"; neat, spelled knelt; front, spelled with an "s"; and appreciate, which scared one little girl so badly she would not try farther than two letters. Plano was spelled with an "e"; saliva was spelled "saliva"; scissors had "s" to spare; and kangaroo was spelled with an "e"; to the consternation of the judges, who fled to the dictionary to see about that.

The girls appeared to be better spellers than the boys. When asked about this Miss McClatchey conceded this to be true, saying that it was because boys would not study for detail as girls do.

If you would like to have a spell-down at your house, here are some good words, useful ones, for you to try. Want to find out just how smart you really are? Then take a brushing-up in spelling this way: (have someone pronounce them to you). There are just 100 so take 1 from 100 per cent for each mistake.

Object To Sale Of Ord Milling Co.

That the sheriff's sale of the Ord Milling company was so conducted that "there was confusion and uncertainty as to just what was being purchased" was the basis for objection to confirmation of the sale filed with the clerk of court April 8.

The petition states that the sheriff attempted to sell certain equipment located in the building which is not a part of the real estate and that the resulting confusion prevented numerous prospective bidders from bidding at the sale. Further the petition asked that the sale not be confirmed, but if so that the court specify the exact property which passes.

That the premises did not sell for a fair value and that a subsequent sale of the real estate would realize a substantially greater amount were further objections.

Following a judgment six months ago in district court for Jake Papernik against the company, Mr. Papernik purchased the property at sheriff's sale April 4.

Lost 20 Lbs. of Fat In Just 4 Weeks

Mrs. Mae West of St. Louis, Mo., writes: "I'm only 28 years old and weighed 170 pounds until taking one box of your Kruschen Salts just 4 weeks ago. I now weigh 150 lbs. I also have more energy and furthermore I've never had a hungry moment."

Fat folks should take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast—it's the SAFE, harmless way to reduce as tens of thousands of men and women know, For your health's sake ask for and get Kruschen at McLain & Sorenson's or any drug store—the cost for a bottle that lasts 4 weeks is but a trifle and if after the first bottle you are not joyfully satisfied with results—money back.

The matter of revaluing the real estate downward to a basis uniform with market values was considered and discussed, after which supervisor Johnson introduced the following resolution, and moved its adoption:

RESOLUTION "In view of the drastic deflation of real estate values during the past three years, the Board of Equalization of Valley County, Nebraska, finds that the present average assessed value of all real estate and improvements is 15 per cent more in excess of its present actual market value, and do hereby order and direct the County Assessor of Valley County, Nebraska, to make a general reduction of 15 per cent in the assessed value of all real estate and improvements, within the confines of Valley County, for the year 1932, to the end that real estate be assessed on a basis more uniform with market values."

"He it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be mailed by the County Clerk to the governing body of each subdivision of this County, so that they may take note of said reduction in assessed values and reduce their expenses, wherever possible, to conform with the above reduction in assessed values."

Motion to adopt said resolution was seconded by Hansen. Upon roll call, Sorensen, Clochon, Vasicek, Hansen, Barber, James, Johnson, Weller and Klima voted "Yes" none voting "No" and upon the chairman declared said motion carried and said Resolution duly adopted.

North Loup Woman Is Laid To Rest

North Loup, April 9.—(Special)—In North Loup cemetery Wednesday Mrs. Rosa Rood, one of the early pioneers of this community, was laid to rest after appropriate rites conducted at the S. D. B. church by Rev. Hurley S. Warren. Rosa Pauline, daughter of John and Esther Farrow, was born August 1, 1856 near Peoria, Ill., and in the fall of 1872 accompanied her parents to this village, which had ever since been her home. Dr. H. N. Norris, who was married to Charles J. Rood and to the union ten children were born, Mrs. Henry Williams, of near Ord, Byron and Bayard Rood, of Milton, Wis., Mrs. L. L. Lewis, Mrs. Martin Nelson, of Walworth, Wis., Mrs. Hugh Whitford, and Marcia, Carrie, Elsie and Eunice Rood, all of North Loup. Her husband also survives.

Mrs. Rood and her husband started house-keeping near the school house in which Mr. Rood was teaching, in what is now Ord. Later they homesteaded west of North Loup and the present village cemetery was presented to the S. D. B. church by Mr. Rood. While their children were growing up the Rood family lived in Pleasant Hill neighborhood, later moving into North Loup.

The deceased was one of the original members of the S. D. B. church in North Loup, only two remaining in the village yet, one being Mrs. Rood's husband, Charles J., and the other Mrs. Mary R. Davis.

For the ten years before her death April 4 Mrs. Rood had been an invalid and for the past year she was almost helpless. But throughout her long illness she remained always cheerful and patient and always displayed the sense of humor that made her a favorite with young and old throughout her lifetime. She will be mourned by the whole community.

Ord Seniors Win Annual Class Meet

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors clashed on the fair grounds field in a class track meet Friday afternoon so that Coach Cecil Molzen could see what track material Ord high school is going to have this spring. The seniors easily won with 48 points while the juniors scored 27.25, sophomores 34.5, freshmen 14.5. Bad weather this spring has not permitted much track workout so far. Spring football had to be abandoned to allow room in the short time left this school year for track, baseball and tennis. Evidence that the boys have been kept inside was the sore legs, and short wind after Friday's meet. But, though the track was dusty and slow, there was evidence that Ord high school will hold her own in the Loup Valley conference. For some twenty men out there will probably be a competitive meet each week left of the school year. The triangular Broken Bow-Burwell-Ord meet is tentatively set for April 15 at Broken Bow. On April 29 is the Seven Valleys meet at Callaway, also the Ericson invitation. Teams may be sent to both of these. The Loup Valley association contest is to be held at Ord May 4. If in these contests some men prove themselves good, Ord high school may have representatives at the state track and field meet May 13 and 14. Besides these regular annual contests dual meets will probably be arranged. The results of Friday's class meet:

Arcadia And Ord Tennis Players Will Compete Here

Saturday will start off the tennis season at the high school. Arcadia is coming over with all the contestants she can pick up, even teachers, and Ord high guarantees to match them. Such a plan was initiated a year or so ago to encourage activities for all. The visiting team brings all the players it can and the home team matches them. The number of ones of one school are matched with the best of the other and go on down to the beginner with the beginner. There will be double matches as well as singles. Points will be awarded for each set won to determine which school is victor. Of course sets won by superintendents, teachers, secretaries, etc. don't count points, but these folk are going to play in exhibition matches. W. S. Watkins, who is coaching, is now running off the preliminary matches to place students going out for tennis. Doubles and singles drawings were made last week and posted on the main bulletin board. The Loup Valley singles tournament will be held April 30 at Scotia. The doubles tournament will be held at either Ord or Loup City the week following.

Loup County Twins, 16 Years Of Age, Are Married Here

Three young Taylor high school students and a young farmer, all four from Loup county, and two sets of parents, all from Loup county, arrived in Ord Saturday afternoon and the four younger people were principals in a double marriage ceremony. The brides were twin sisters, the Misses Velma and Thelma Shipley, aged 16, and their husbands, respectively, were Charles, Donell and Hazen Smith.
 County Judge Hollingshead issued the necessary licenses and then married the two couples, since the parents were present to give consent.
 Velma, now the wife of 22-year-old Charles Donell, will not return to high school but instead will become a farm wife. Her twin sister and 17-year-old husband Mr. Smith, will return to their high school studies for the present. The twin brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shipley, Hazen Smith is the son of Thurman A. Smith, and Charles Donell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donell.

JOSEPH PIPAL PASSES SUNDAY, IS BURIED HERE

Dropsy Causes Death Of Well
Known Garfield County Man
At Age Of 74.

Joseph Pipal, sr., seventy-four years old, passed away Sunday at his farm home in Garfield county after an illness of about four weeks. He was afflicted with dropsy. Funeral services were held at the Frazier chapel here yesterday and burial was in the Bohemian National cemetery. The Z. C. B. J. lodge was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Pipal was born Feb. 2, 1858 in Bohemia and came to the United States in 1880, living in Omaha for some years. He was married to Anna Dolec in 1893, and they moved to Garfield county in 1904, which has since been the family home.

Besides his widow, Mr. Pipal is survived by three sons and three daughters, Joseph and John Pipal of Garfield county, Frank Pipal and Mrs. Agnes Urbanc, of Omaha, and Mrs. Emma Hladik and Mrs. Lillian Broome, of Detroit, Mich. Six sisters also survive. All of the children were present at the funeral.

Deceased was a member of the Modern Woodman and Z. C. B. J. lodges.

Two Couples Are Married By Judge

Tuesday was a busy day for County Judge J. H. Hollingshead in the morning, at his home, he united in marriage Miss Emma Vancura and Edwin A. Vodehnal while at 5 p. m., at his office he was called on to marry Miss Audrey Rogers and Harry Gebauer.

Mrs. Vodehnal is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loula Vancura and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Vodehnal. Both are well and favorably known to a wide circle of friends in the Ord and Comstock communities. William Vancura and Agnes Vodehnal were their only attendants Tuesday.

Mrs. Gebauer is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Rogers and graduated from Ord high school in 1920, where she was active in student activity work. She is an accomplished young lady and her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gebauer, North Loup, is a popular young farmer. For the present Mr. and Mrs. Gebauer will make their home with the groom's parents. Their attendants Tuesday were Frank Andersen and Miss Laveda Rogers.

Floyd Bollen Is Nominee, Irl Tolen Far Down In List

When all the votes were counted last week it was learned that Floyd L. Bollen, of Friend, was the democratic nominee for railway commissioner. He had more than 20,000 votes while Irl D. Tolen, of Ord, had less than 10,000. Once before Mr. Bollen beat the Ord man in the democratic primary but was defeated by the republican nominee at the general election.

This year it is thought that Bollen stole a march on other democratic candidates when he induced the secretary of state to have printed after his name on the ballot the identification "Friend, Nebr. Lawyer." The long title caught the eye of voters who knew none of the candidates which accounts for Mr. Bollen's large vote.

"Broken Star" Was Quilt That Won Popularity Contest; Quilt 135 Years Old Wins.

At the close of the Golden Rule's quilt show Saturday night, it was found that the "Broken Star" submitted by Mrs. Tracy Veleba, was the winner of the popularity contest, her quilt winning the $5 award with 10,620 votes. One monstrous star, in soft shades of red, green and yellow, on a light ground, comprised the pattern of the winner, which was made more beautiful by much elaborate but fine quilting.

Second in this class was Mrs. Leo Sims, her attractive "flower quilt," set together in bedspread fashion with long strips of lavender marking off the beautifully embroidered and appliqued blocks. It totalled 10,270 votes in all. She wins a $1 prize.

Opal Needham's handwork took third place, a very dainty "flower quilt" winning much admiration, as well as 7,960 votes for her. Of soft shades of lavender and pink, the flowers were set on a white background, no distinguishing features marking off the blocks.

A charming pattern, "Rose of Sharon," won fourth place for Mrs. Charlie Lewis. With strictly conventionalized roses, buds and leaves, large flowers were set diagonally to show these appliqued flowers to advantage. This is an extremely attractive quilt.

Fifth place was won by Happy Holloway, although it is suspected his mother probably did the work of producing a lovely quilt called "Mother's flower pots," which was gay and different. One dollar prizes were also given for third, fourth and fifth places.

In the oldest quilt contest, Mrs. John Benson won with a linen counterpane 135 years old. Like most similar fine handwork of those days, the linen was grown at home, was homespun, home dyed and home woven to a pattern made up by the weaver. The delicate, lacy design shows a large amount of work and planning. Several soft shades are woven into the quilt crosswise in broad stripes.

Five dollars was the prize for the oldest quilt. Emily Burrows brought forth a family heirloom which was all of 120 years old; the J. W. Claybaugh family of Burwell entered a handmade quilt 110 years old; Mrs. Dave Philbrick entered an attractive quilt just two years old; and Mrs. Murray Cornell dug out a treasure which has been in their family 100 years. Ten or twelve other entries were almost as old, and showed especially beautiful quilting or weaving.

Throng of women admired the 70 or so quilts on display, weighing the attractive points of beauty. Among the most fancifully named entries were "The Lost Battalion," "Drunken Sailor," "Monkey Wrench," "Dresden Plate," "King Tut," "Wheel of Fortune," "Wind-blown Ribs," "Windship quilt" with intricate embroidered border on it; "Double Wedding Ring"; "Butterfly"; "Children of the Wilderness"; also a geometric one that dizzied the bystander called the "Cube" quilt; and many others which were examples of fine needlework.

Screen's Funniest Comedians Unite In "Ladies of the Jury"

Three of the nation's funniest comedians and a lovely new star unite in "Ladies of the Jury," the new comedy hit that features the week's bill at the Ord Theatre. The actors are Roscoe Ates, Edna May Oliver, Jill Esmond and Ken Murray. In this picture for the first time the screen reveals the "low down" on jury room procedure, in all its hilarity.

A fast moving western with Ken Maynard, "The Pocatallo Kid," will be shown here Friday and Saturday while next Wednesday and Thursday the beautiful Constance Bennett, highest paid of all cinema actors, comes to the Ord Theatre in her latest picture, "Lady with a Past." In her support will be seen Ben Lyon and David Manners, two of the handsomest screen juveniles. No show is billed for next Tuesday at the local picture house.

Arcadia Young Man Fined For Assault

An assault and battery case resulting from a fist fight in Arcadia Monday was tried in county court here Tuesday. W. Leo Hansen filing charges against Leo Sell. The latter pleaded not guilty and asked for a jury trial, which was granted him. A jury consisting of Alphy Hill, W. E. Williams, Ross Lakin, Frank Fabela, Jr., J. A. Brown and Guy Burrows was empaneled and after listening to the testimony of four Arcadia witnesses the jury found young Sell guilty. Judge Hollingshead assessed a fine of $7.50 and costs amounting to $21.50 and the full amount was promptly paid by Mr. Sell's father-in-law, Raymond Kerchall.

FIFTY YEAR OLD RESIDENT DIES HERE APRIL 13TH

Mrs. Frank Travis, Ill Ever Since
December, Goes to Reward;
Was Born In Wales.

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank Travis, who for fifty years was one of Ord's best known and most respected women, were held Sunday afternoon at Sowl's chapel here, Rev. L. M. Real of the Ord Presbyterian church conducting the services. Interment was in Ord cemetery.

Burial-bearers were A. W. Cornell, W. S. King, George R. Gard, Ed F. Beranek, Alvin Blessing and C. A. Hager, all of them family friends of years' standing. A quartet composed of Mrs. Mark D. Tolen, Mrs. E. O. Carlson, J. R. Stoltz and Dr. F. E. Cessing sang beautifully accompanied at the pipe organ by Mrs. M. F. Cushing.

The chapel was crowded with friends of Mrs. Travis who were thus paying their last respects to an old friend and true neighbor and the floral tributes were many in number.

The birthplace of Mrs. Travis was Aberdare, South Wales, Great Britain. The daughter of William and Ann Morgan, she was born there Nov. 2, 1856, and was christened Mary Ann. Until 1879 she lived in South Wales and then, at the age of 13, she came to the United States and for three years made her home in Omaha before coming to Ord, which was her home until her death last Wednesday.

On Feb. 22, 1887 she was married here to Frank Travis and three children were born to them, all of whom survive. They are Mrs. Ethel M. Almqvist, of Central City, Mrs. Hazel E. Hill and Horace W. Travis, both of Ord. Her husband, four years her senior, died at St. Francis hospital, Grand Island, where doctors say there is little chance that his sight can be saved. Walter is a son of John Beck and is well known here.

Throughout her lifetime Mrs. Travis was a devout member and active worker in the Presbyterian church and until she became ill in December, 1931 she was a regular attendant at church services. She was a loving wife and kind mother, a woman loved by her friends and respected by all who had ever met her, and she leaves a place that will never be filled.

Friends and relatives from away who attended the funeral Sunday included W. J. Byington and family, Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Almqvist, of Ord, and Mrs. Frieda, Miss Mable Almqvist, Emma Almqvist and Miss Zoe Dorshimer, of Central City, Mrs. Emily Dennin, of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Denning, of Elm Creek, Nebr., and J. E. Wilmoth of Sterling, Colo.

81 SEED LOAN APPLICATIONS HAVE GONE IN

About $5,000 Already Received,
More Comes This Week; April
30 Closing Date for Loans.

Eighty-one applications for seed loans have been sent in by Valley county farmers, County Agent Dale said yesterday, and so far about $5,000 has been received by applicants. Quite a large amount of money is expected this week. A larger sum would have been received, Mr. Dale says, except that several of the original applications were returned for corrections of various sorts. He urges loan committee members to be careful in making out applications and thereby expedite the work.

April 30 is the final date upon which applications will be accepted. Although it is pretty late now to apply for loans for seed Mr. Dale urges farmers who need loans or a feather for horses incidentally, expenses, etc. to apply while the federal loans are still available.

Windshield Broken By Pheasant Costs Boy His Sight

North Loup, April 19.—(Special)—Walter Beck, young Scythia man, may lose the sight of his right eye as a result of a pheasant flying across the road in front of his car as he was driving east of Scythia Saturday evening. The pheasant struck the windshield of his car, broke it, and a piece of glass struck Walter in the right eye, cutting a deep gash on the eye ball. He is being cared for at St. Francis hospital, Grand Island, where doctors say there is little chance that his sight can be saved. Walter is a son of John Beck and is well known here.

Some of the applications made to City Clerk Lucinda Thorne are sealed so it is not known which position the applicants want, while other applications have been made directly to Mayor Wm. For marshal: L. W. Covert, present marshal; Ernest Woolley, Ed Dudschus, C. F. Sorenson, C. R. Kingston, Ace Vincent, Chas. R. Hunt, Alfred Albers, Alvin Jensen.

E. S. Coats Buys New Herd Header

Storz Navigator is the new bull bought by E. S. Coats last week to head his herd of registered Jerseys. The bull was bred and raised by the Connecticut agricultural college and sold by them to the Nebraska agricultural college, which sold him to Mr. Coats after using him two years. Professor Davis, of the ag college, was in Ord last week and told Mr. Coats he believed that the Coats herd of Jerseys has the highest butterfat record in Nebraska. To secure Storz Navigator Mr. Coats had to sign a contract to sell him back to the college in 2 1/2 years if they want him.

Ben A. Rose, Burwell, is a candidate for county judge of Garfield county. Ben is a former Ord boy, a son of Gus Rose.

1ST ORD FLOWER SHOW TO BE HELD APRIL 29 AND 30

Noll Seed Company Host To Let
Event; Two Prizes Will Be Given; Plan to Enter.

The first of the flower shows in Ord will be held Friday afternoon, April 29, at the Noll Seed Company, and you will want to plan now to enter either the "most attractive bouquet" or the "most attractive single bloom" class. Two prizes will be given by Mr. Noll, who is the judge of the flower exhibit in his store that afternoon. The flowers displayed will be held over on Saturday so that all may get a chance to see the most beautiful flowers grown hereabouts.

These flower shows are to be a regular feature, one being scheduled for every two weeks all summer. In each case entries must be in Friday and remain on display over the Saturday following. Two prizes, as told above, will be given at each flower show. Plan now to enter your finest flowers.

Tulips, daffodils and hyacinths are just beginning to show their glories, and undoubtedly one of these three varieties will win the prizes next week. As told above, the blooming season, each flower will have a chance, so plan now to enter several of them and try for prizes.

At this time of year, Mr. Noll expects a great deal of interest in the flower display, as many gardeners specialize in the early flowers, and spend more money and care on them than on later blooms. You will not want to miss seeing this first flower show.

Democrat Nominee For Congress Is Still In Doubt

Who is the democratic nominee for 5th district congressman to oppose Robert G. Simmons at the fall election? Is it Thomas C. Osborne, of Alliance, Guy V. Doran, of Sidney, or Terry Carpenter, of Scottsbluff? Nobody knows for sure, but it might be any of these three. Latest reports available give Carpenter 4,646 votes; Osborne 4,600; and Doran 4,567. When these results were reported eleven sand hill precincts and the entire district's mail votes were still unheard from. The district has 523 precincts.

Before it will be known definitely which of these three was nominated the official count in each precinct must come in. Also, the mail vote must be awaited. By next week the Quiz will be able to announce the nominee.

Murray, Kennedy Named.

James P. Murray, of Sargent, and Horace F. Kennedy, of Broken Bow, were the democrat and republican nominees, respectively, for state senator, at the primary last Tuesday. Kennedy carried all counties in the district while Murray, trailing 100 in Custer county, carried other counties by a safe margin.

WHO'S WHERE IN POLITICS.

Oh hum, this politics is a funny business. For years the democrat party has been committed to the taxation theory that those who have the bulk of the money and property should pay the bulk of taxes.

Last week Al Smith, titular head of the democrat party, did an abrupt about-face. In the course of a speech in protest of "soak" legislation recently passed by House democrats he said:

"I protest against the endeavor to delude the poor people of this country to their ruin by trying to make them believe that they can get employment before the people who ordinarily employ them are again restored to conditions of normal prosperity."

No wonder we're all crossed up about who's where in politics when things like that happen. Our so-called reason began to addle early in the winter when House democrats, traditionally for low tariffs, became more wild-eyed over raising tariffs than republicans ever have been.

Also, when the "soak" legislation was under way in the House, the majority of republican congressmen voted right with the democrats in passing this legislation. Now a prominent democrat, standard bearer of his party in 1928, protests the actions of his party members.

In other words, the elephant begins to bray like an ass and the ass is trumpeting in a manner usually reserved for the elephant. No wonder we're all muddled up. James, bring me the padded cell and a cross-word puzzle.

QUAIL AND THE LAW.

There are tricks in all trades but in the law business there are probably more tricks than in all other trades combined.

Down in Holy City, Miss, an express shipment of 907 quail were left on a railway platform in violation of a state law. A judge fined the express company $100 for each quail, or $90,700 all told.

Now the express company's attorney has appealed the case and demanded a separate jury trial on each quail. Furthermore, he demands that the quail, which were consigned to a state game conservation project and have since been released, be brought into court as evidence.

Foolish law, smart lawyer, long suffering public.

OUR GREATEST EVIL.

The serious evil besetting this country today is neither prohibition nor crime, it is unbearable taxation, says Forbes Magazine, and figures compiled by that great Chicago banker, Melvin Alvah Traylor, are used to prove the contention.

Banker Traylor says: "Based upon the estimated total annual income of 70 billion dollars for the United States from all sources in 1930, twenty cents out of each dollar, or approximately 14 billion, is required to carry on the machinery for our multiple governing bodies; the tax bill is approximately $110 annually for every man, woman and child in the United States proper."

"This tax bill of 14 billion exceeds by 2 billion the gross value of all agricultural production—crops and livestock—in the United States for 1929. It is only 7 percent less than the total salaries and wages paid in 1929 to 10,780,000 officers and employees of the 210,000 manufacturing establishments in these United States."

"Today's tax levies equal the estimated equivalent of one day's labor every week from every man, woman and child in the United States. Only a short time ago, one out of every 22 persons gainfully employed was on the public payroll; today it is one in every 11; and it is said that at the present rate of increase we shall in only a little over 20 years have one person on the pay roll for every individual paying taxes."

Banker Traylor's figures, while not new, furnish food for thought. Unbearable taxes will bankrupt our entire citizenry as many have already been bankrupted, if not decimated. Congress, now in session, tries with might and main to find new sources of tax revenue, new things to tax. There is little desire in Congress to arrest expenditures; the big desire is to increase taxation. That way lies impoverishment and eventually revolution. The trend must change.

GOLD PIECES FOR SALE.

A few weeks ago an interesting experiment to test the sales resistance of the public was tried in an eastern city. Several men paced the down town streets, made house to house calls, invaded office buildings, offering ten dollar gold pieces for sale for one dollar each.

No one bought. Some times a tolerant smile or knowing grin was the answer to these solicitations. At others threats to call police were made. But nobody bought.

Prices were lowered to 50c each, then to 25c each and still nobody bought. The salesmen were withdrawn. Then the newspapers told the story and hundreds of people who had the opportunity to buy and passed it up realized what they had missed.

Every week, in the columns of newspapers like the Quiz, reputable merchants offer ten dollar gold pieces for sale cheap. Perhaps not in so many words, but they do offer merchandise that a year or two ago cost ten dollars or more for only a fraction of that price.

So you're getting your share of the ten dollar gold pieces that may be bought today at much less than their actual worth? Or are you like those easterners?

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR.

As you say, "She may be empty, but I'll tell the world she's clean." But when the sheet is printed and is out upon the mail, On its way to the subscribers, I have never see it fall—

In the center of the front page, in a most conspicuous place, Some typographical error fairly kicks you in the face. For the typographical error is a slippery thing and sly, You can hunt till you are dizzy, but it somehow will get by;

Till the forms are off the presses it is strange how still it keeps, It shrinks down into the corner and it never stirs or peeps. That typographical error is too small for human eyes,

Till the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size, And you see that blasted error, far as you could throw a dog, Looming up in all its splendor, like a lighthouse in a fog.

That glaring blunder juts out like an unbridled tooth, Where it dodged the eagle vision of the napping comma sleuth. It is sure too late to mind it, but it fills your soul with rage, As you see it swelling loudly in the middle of the page.

The boss he stares with horror, then he grabs his hair and groans, The copy reader drops his head up on his hands and moans— The remainder of the issue may be clean as clean can be, But that typographical error is the one you're thinking of.

It was down among the six-point till the copy was all read, When it shifted into blackface or a two-inch banner head— Then when the sheet was printed it jumped up and hollered "E!" You say never saw me, did you? This is sure a horse on you!"

When You and I Were Young, Maggie

25 Years Ago This Week.

An elaborate new bar and other fixtures were installed in the White & Harris booze joint. Charley Mason was preparing to install one of the best equipped pop factories in Nebraska in Ord.

Current prices on farm products were 58c for wheat, 46c for rye, 28c for corn, $1.60 for popcorn, 50c for potatoes, 18c for butter, 11c for eggs and $6.00 for hogs.

The territory of Oklahoma was about to be admitted to the union as a state. Charley Cornell came to town with his new auto, which the Quiz spoke of as being "the best buzz wagon that has come to town so far."

A baby girl arrived at the Jim Misko home and the Quiz reported that Jim was so pleased he planned to get along with a five percent profit on beefsteak for the next thirty days.

90 Years Ago This Week.

The hardware and implement firm of Pearce & Doyle was dissolved and L. D. Milliken took Mr. Doyle's place in the firm. Ernie Milburn of Ord bought the St. Elmo hotel at Loup City and moved there.

Governor Aldrich spoke in Ord at a meeting sponsored by the G. A. R. He was met at the railway station by the Ord band and escorted around the square by a procession of autos before being dropped off at the hotel where the band played several selections in his honor.

A Jorgensen boy was struck by lightning while discing in a field near North Loup. He was thrown several feet into the air by the bolt. Doctors disagreed about his chances for recovery.

"Barbara Frietche" was the annual junior class play. Among high school juniors who took part were Vida Shirley, Kirby McGrew, Dora Jones, Earl Dorfner, Christie Travis, Olive Fuson, Floyd Collins, Anton Beran, George Misko, Ray Holman, Leonard Blessing, Robert Glover, Daniel Marks, Archie Burger, Charles Veleba, Bessie Frick, William Ramsey and Helen White.

—Judge Scott and daughter and Mrs. Dan Healey and daughter of Greeley were in Ord Friday evening on business.

Something DIFFERENT

The town was all agog a few days back when Mrs. Joe Bara's alert ear heard a red bird, before she was out of bed one morning. She hopped to the window and sure enough, it really was a cardinal. The pretty thing was the center of admiring eyes from every house in the neighborhood, for even those who are not bird lovers are forced to admiration by this scarlet fellow.

Mrs. E. P. Clements saw it—she is a lover of birds and has made quite a study of the subject. Miss Lulu Bailey duly peeped and admired the unusual visitor, and so did her good friend, Mrs. Olof Olsson. I think Mrs. VanSkike also saw it, though I am not sure.

But it wasn't to be monopolized by the southwest corner of town very long. Shortly after, Mrs. William Zaboludnik called up to say that the prettiest caller was contentedly examining her yard.

Who would blame him for that? Speaking of things beautiful, if you haven't seen the Clements daffodils yet, by all means hurry up there. They're gorgeous. Mrs. Clements says she can tell just how often each day the daffodils are commented upon, because she hears all remarks about them start with loud, exclamatory "Oh!"

Fishpools, marbles, tennis players, green lawns, everything says spring is here. Time to brush up your yard, dig around your shrubs, prune your roses, plant your annuals, and set out your new trees and shrubbery.

If you need a tree on your home place, why not get it this year, in commemoration of the Washington celebration.

And don't forget to plan a place for petunias. They are now the official Ord flower, and you must do them honor. There's nothing prettier or showier. Nothing easier to care for, nothing that will reward your care with more blossoms.

And petunias take so many forms and color. Surely there are several you like. Judge Hollingshead was telling me a few days ago what an awful time he had trying to get married. The date was February 5, 1886, and the wedding party and numbers of friends were gathered to celebrate the occasion at the home of the bride's wait, who lived on a farm about 10 miles north of Genoa, Nebr., and the party had been assembled most of the day.

But the minister did not come, and the day they were to be married, the wind was whirling, and a real Nebraska blizzard raged. Drifts were deep and getting deeper. Superstition came, and still the preacher from Genoa had not appeared.

At last, just before midnight, nearly frozen, and worn out, the minister arrived to marry the Hollingsheads, and the wedding occurred not long before the last minutes of that day.

Starting from Genoa that morning, with 10 miles to go, the minister got about six of the miles with his team and buggy. Then he was forced to abandon that mode of travel and take to horseback. Two and a half more miles of drifts were crossed that way, slowly and painfully, as the minister struggled to reach the wedding party and perform the marriage.

The last three miles or so the minister walked, and what a walk. He had suffered almost unnumbered hardships to get to that country home.

Have you planned your gardening yet? Don't forget, we are going to have Ord even more charming and well-cared-for than it was last year.

Now if we could just get some of these unsightly vacant lots cleaned up. They are the worst eye-sores in our community. Legionnaires, Rotarians, here is an opportunity for service. Let's all work out a plan to cart off such rubbish heaps and unwanted machinery, etc., away and at least improve our city that much.

Couldn't we all work together? Fat Girls! Here's A Tip For You

All over the world Kruschen Salts is appealing to girls and women who strive for an attractive, free from fat figure that cannot fail to win admiration.

Here's the recipe that banishes fat and brings into blossom all the natural attractiveness that every woman possesses and does it SAFELY and HARMLESSLY.

In the morning take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast—cut down on pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar.

It's the little daily dose that takes off the fat and brings that Kruschen "fete" complexion, health and activity that is reflected in bright eyes, clear skin, cheerful vivacity and charming figure.

But be sure for your health's sake that you get Kruschen. A bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but little. You can always get Kruschen at McLain & Sorensen's and money back if not satisfied with results after first bottle.

My Own Column

Someone is always taking the joy out of life. Ernie Orcutt sent a check for another year of the Quiz but put the reservation in his accompanying letter, that I must stay within reason on my fish stories this summer. Of course I wanted to keep the two bucks so I am tied down on my fish stories and will be hopelessly outdistanced by Stan. Lain, Guy Burrows, Lawrence Burger and a lot of others whose fish always double and treble in size on the way home from the lake.

Down in Kansas an armed mob of several hundred men took a confessed murderer of a little girl away from the sheriff and hung him and the authorities are talking about punishment for members of the mob and the sheriff has been removed, temporarily at least, from office. If the public knew that such crimes would be promptly punished in this country, there would be no such exhibitions of mob law. But the public in that case, knew that the criminal would be held for a long time, then perhaps tried at great expense, after he had committed the crime and taken the life of the innocent child who had hidden the body. The mob felt, as most people feel, that there is no excuse for the expensive delays of the law as administered and more and more they will take the law into their own hands until there is a change made.

An application of bone meal will greatly improve your flowers. If your potted plants are not doing as well as you would like, a teaspoonful of bone meal worked into the soil in the pot will do wonders in a few days. Likewise bonemeal planted with flowers and vegetables and with planted bulbs will pay big dividends in the improved appearance and quality of the crop.

I am always glad to send in my subscriptions for the daily papers, any of them. It doesn't cost you any more and in fact saves you a few cents and I get a small commission. See or phone me before your daily paper expires and have it renewed so you won't miss any. It always takes a few days to get a paper started again after it has been stopped.

You are also perfectly safe in enclosing a couple of $1 bills in the blue or pink return envelope we always send with subscription statements. We pay the postage and are sure to put your name on the envelope or return the slip sent, with your name written on the back. We will see that you get one of our recipe calendars if you have not had one and ask for it. You can also have one of our county maps if you call for it. We don't like to mail them because they get bent and spoiled. Every subscriber is entitled to one as long as the supply lasts. We have both Valley and Garfield county maps.

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

By J. A. KOVANDA

Another good meat recipe is always received with relish by the family, who tire of the old favorites and need a new dish once in awhile to enliven the menu and perk the appetite.

Veal Loaf. 3 lbs. veal from breast. 1 1/2 lbs. fat pork. 1 c. bread crumbs. 3 eggs. 1 c. sweet milk. 1 tsp. salt. 1-3 tsp. pepper. 1/2 tsp. cinnamon. 1/2 tsp. cloves.

Put meat through grinder, mix well with other ingredients, form into a loaf. Bake 1 1/2 hours in a moderate oven. Mrs. C. W. Bebee

Feather Pudding. 1/2 c. sugar. 1 tsp. butter. 1 egg. 1/2 c. cold water. 1 c. flour sifted with 2 tsp. baking powder. Pinch of salt. Have 5 cups well greased, into which put a little fruit, sauce, jelly or preserves. Then fill the cup a little over half full of the above batter and steam 40 minutes.

Sauce for Same. 6 tbsp. sugar. 2 tbsp. butter. 1 egg. Beat all together with an egg beater, flavor with vanilla. When ready for use add 1 c. boiling water.

Mrs. Boyce has sent me many recipes, and so many good ones, that I should think some of you who have never sent in any at all would feel quite guilty. How's that for a hint?

Oyster Loaf. Take a long, thin loaf of stale bread (24 hours old). Cut off top of loaf, take out soft center, leaving a wall of crust. Fill with oysters and a little oyster liquor, season with salt and pepper. Add plenty of butter. Replace crust. Pour over loaf 1 c. liquor from the oysters and 3 tsp. cream. Bake 25 minutes, basting often. Ellen Stanton

White Fruit Cake. 8 egg whites. 1 c. butter. 3 c. sugar. 2 c. sweet milk. 5 c. sifted flour (measured after sifting). 2 tsp. baking powder. 1 tsp. lemon extract. 3-4 lb. pecans, chopped (not too fine). 1 lb. raisins (I use white sultanas). 1/2 lb. citron, chopped fine. 1 tsp. salt.

Cream butter and sugar, add milk, flavoring and part of flour. Dredge citron and raisins with some of the flour, and add with the nuts to the batter. Lastly add egg whites, beaten stiff. Bake in layers, slowly, and put together with boiled icing and fresh grated coconut. This makes three large loaves. Mrs. George Mikkelsen, Washington, D. C.

This is the cake which Mrs. Mikkelsen, Mr. H. D. Leggett's sister, makes every year for Christmas giving, but it is delightful and different for any occasion.

So is the oyster loaf recipe above it. You will want to make them both within the next week, isn't that right?

BACK FORTY

By J. A. KOVANDA

Next month the injurious kinds of grasshoppers will begin to hatch. Indications are that there will be an overabundance of these pests. Cold weather of the past winter did little or no damage to grasshopper eggs. The warm late fall enabled the females to lay many more eggs than usual. Thus it appears that nothing except continued heavy rains at hatching time will prevent another epidemic. As the hatching period will be prolonged this season, the chances of help through rainfall are also lessened.

Other control measures will be needed. Poisoned bran, properly and persistently put out, will kill grasshoppers. Like all control efforts, it sometimes fails. These occasional failures have started the rumor that poison bran treatment is worthless. There is plenty of evidence to the contrary. Poison bran can be distributed at a cost of fifteen cents per acre for materials. It is the most satisfactory way of fighting grasshoppers yet discovered, and its employment is certainly worthwhile.

Entomologists have been examining grasshopper eggs in several Nebraska localities during the past two weeks. In Knox county 34% of the eggs deposited last season were dried out by the hot dry weather of last September, to the point where they probably will not hatch. The remaining 66% survived the winter in good condition, however, and these provide enough viable eggs to form a serious pest this year. Likewise, in Boyd county two-thirds of the eggs remain in apparently good condition.

Out in Sheridan county, south of Hay Springs, over two-thirds of the grasshopper eggs are dead and dried up as a result of the hot fall weather. But in Johnson county, in the southeastern part of the state, 96% of the grasshopper eggs seem to be in perfect condition for hatching. The same is true in northwestern Iowa, northwestern Missouri, and western Minnesota.

South Dakota has many more grasshopper eggs this spring than a year ago. They seem to have passed the winter very successfully, so that state is also expecting another large hatch.

New TEXACO FIRE-CHIEF GASOLINE

Developed for Fire Engines
Yours at no extra price

The U. S. Government specifies for its emergency use
"... a grade of motor fuel which is suitable for ambulances, fire-engines, emergency vehicles,—"
(Excerpt from Federal pamphlet VV-M-571, July 21, 1931)

The Texas Company produced it for your every-day use

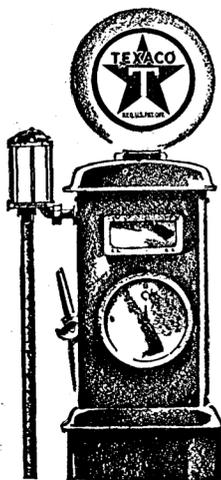

— a vastly superior motor fuel with every quality which makes for finer carburetion and instant power. Authorities said that the gasoline specified by the Government could not be produced for general consumption at any reasonable price until—

That gasoline is the new Texaco Fire-Chief. It surpasses the highest U. S. Government specifications for "emergency" fuel. It is an anti-knock gasoline with an Octane Rating that is outstanding—it's alive with snap, dash, action—brimming over with eager power.

An advanced process, developed and perfected by The Texas Company, made possible the production of this "ideal" gasoline on a commercial scale and made it practical to offer it to you at no extra price.

ORD AG STUDENTS WIN FIVE EVENTS AT NORTH PLATTE

Take Lion's Share of Prizes At Western Nebraska Ag Meet; Get Dairy Cup 2nd Time.

Winning five of the ten events in which they were entered, J. A. Kovanda's vocational agricultural students of Ord high school carried off the lion's share of honors at the western Nebraska agriculture contests held in North Platte last week. Ten Ord boys were entered.

Most important of the five victories was the Ord team's win for the second successive year of the huge silver cup in the dairy cattle contest. This is the most traditional trophy of the entire meet and the Ord team consisting of Vern Barnard, Ray Wolf and Nelson Nelson proved fitting successors to the Crouch-Marks-Garnick combination of last year. One more win and the cup becomes Ord's permanent possession.

Besides winning first in the dairy cattle judging event, the Barnard, Wolf and Nelson team placed first in the sheep judging division of the fat stock contest.

Various events of the contest were won as follows: Dairy cattle judging—Ord. Fat stock judging—Callaway, F. P. speaking—O. A. Shopworth—Minden. Crops judging—Ord. Poultry judging—Kimball. Dairy products judging—Ord. Babcock testing—Grant. Egg show—Ord. Egg grading—Broken Bow.

Most decisive of all Ord's victories was that of Don Marks, Paul Dana and Roy Clements. Thursday morning this trio won the crops judging trophy cup, placing first, third and fourth, respectively, and almost doubling the score of their nearest team opponent. After sharing the same three boys swept through the dairy products judging contest in a like manner. Paul Dana alone won nearly all the blue ribbons and medals from this event. His nearest competitor was his own teammate, Roy Clements, who placed second.

Thus the same team won the state championship in two team events, as well as individual trophies in separate contests. Adrian Tolén, Ord's only entry in the F. P. A. speaking contest, won a close decision against a large field of skilled talkers. His victory was very gratifying, as Adrian lost in this same contest last year. Ord might well have won a sixth championship at North Platte as Joe Culp placed second in shop work. His opponent, who just edged him out, turned in the highest score ever made in that event. In ordinary years Culp's score was high enough to win easily.

Ord's lone entry of brown eggs won the egg show. They were judged in by Vern Collins. Ord did not enter the white egg division of the egg contest, nor did they enter the grading phase of the crops contest. J. A. Kovanda, who coached the students for these events, is very much pleased with their showing. Ord teams have held their own and more in previous western Nebraska meets at North Platte but never before have they swept the contest as they did this one.

Alliance Preacher Democrat Nominee

Thomas C. Osborne, Presbyterian preacher in Alliance, is the nominee of the democrat party for congress in this, the 5th district. When votes were officially counted it was found that Mr. Osborne had nosed out Guy V. Doran, Sidney newspaper man, and Terry Carpenter, Scottsbluff lumberman. An error of 100 votes in Logan county in the unofficial report had kept Mr. Osborne from being in the lead throughout the race and when this error was discovered his nomination was assured.

A pioneer of the North Platte valley, Mr. Osborne has not been satisfied to confine his activities to the pulpit. For the past two terms he has represented Box Butte county in the state senate and also has been active in the affairs of various co-operative farm associations. At the general election in November Mr. Osborne will oppose the present 5th district representative, Bob Simmons. Curiously enough, Osborne was for several years pastor of Congressmen Simmon's church in Scottsbluff and performed the ceremony that united Bob and his wife.

Mr. Osborne may be remembered by some Ord people as he was ordained in the Presbyterian ministry here by Rev. Gray, one of the most loved preachers who ever filled the Ord pastorate.

Helping With Farmers Fair. Three young Ord people who are students at the state university are on major committees in charge of the Farmers Fair, which will be presented May 7 on the ag college campus. The three are George Round Jr., who is publicity chairman, Miss Zola Barta who is on the pageant committee and Miss Evelyn Coe who is on the pageant properties committee.

Valley Co. Has 41 Varieties of Cars, Trucks; 2,504 Licensed

What make of car is most popular in Valley county? What make is second choice? And third, and so on? How many different makes of cars and trucks are owned by Valley county people?

These are a few of the questions a Quiz reporter sought answers for a few days ago and County Treasurer George Satterfield, always accommodating, found the proper answers after some research. "First choice among cars and trucks is Ford, by a wide margin. Counting the old Model T and the new Model A Fords and all Ford trucks, there are 1,041 motor vehicles made by Henry licensed in Valley county this year. Next comes Chevrolet with 571 registrations and then comes Buick with 124. Chrysler is close behind with 117 and Dodge is in the running with 108. These are what might be called the "first division."

In the "second division" Whippet leads with 79 registrations but

WEEPING WILLOW PLANTED HERE TO HONOR WAR DEAD

Legion and Auxiliary Observe Arbor Day; Several Schools Plant Trees and Shrubbery.

Arbor day was celebrated very quietly in this locality, a few special programs in school rooms being the only official notice of the tree planting day. The American Legion and Auxiliary members observed the occasion by planting a weeping willow tree in the yard near their hall, in honor of the soldier boys from here who lost their lives during the last war.

Legion members worked on the grounds surrounding their hall at the same time, putting out a number of new shrubs, and improving the place generally. A number of country schools are observing the Washington bicentennial year by putting out more trees on the school grounds. Among them are District 25, taught by Nellie Zentz; District 9, which is taught by Clara Jensen of Ord; District 17, where Koo Auble teaches; No. 10, the Valleyside school taught by Minnie Jensen of Ord; District 30, which is taught by Lillian Vodehnal and District 40, the Bailey school taught by Beulah Willoughby.

All schools which set out a tree in memory of Washington are entitled to a small metal tree marker which is put on the tree, a tiny sign to nail there for a permanent record. These metal plates are sent out by the extension department through the office of County Agent Dale, who reports that he has had requests for a number of them. County Superintendent Clara McClatchey declared that the field day program held in Ord all day Friday undoubtedly prevented several two-room schools from celebrating Arbor day as the other wise would, but a number of schools had nice programs to honor the day especially memorable to Nebraskans.

Elms are the tree usually planted, though others are used too. One school put out a hackberry tree.

Mrs. Studley Wins Shortened Sentence

Mrs. Darlene Studley, wife of a former Ord banker, will be released from the state reformatory at York on Sept. 1, the board of pardons and paroles decided at a meeting in Lincoln last week. Mrs. Studley is serving a sentence of from 1 to 10 years for defalcations while operating the Ponca State bank as the co-owner. Her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Studley once lived in Ord and Mrs. Studley was cashier of the First National bank.

J. W. Valett Dies, Is Buried Sunday

Arcadia, April 26.—(Special)—Funeral services for J. W. Valett, who passed away April 21, were held at the Methodist church here Sunday and interment was made in Arcadia cemetery. Mr. Valett was born July 4, 1861 near Rochester, Ia., and in 1884 was married to Isabelle Cortell at Muscatine, Ia. After living at Ogallala, Nebr., in Wells county, Colorado, in Loveland, Colo. and at Elsie, Nebr., they moved to Arcadia in 1904 and the remainder of Mr. Valett's life was spent here. He was a member of the M. E. church. Surviving him are his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Thurman Bridges of Comstock, and a son, Harold Valett of Arcadia, as well as four half brothers, one half sister and a granddaughter.

After dinner at the New Cafe Thursday evening, the final meeting of the round for Radio Bridge club was held at the Lester Norton home in Elyria. Tonight the winners will be entertained by the losing eight, at dinner at the home of Mrs. Ed Holub of Elyria.

ORD, NORTH LOUP MUSIC STUDENTS WIN AT KEARNEY

Elwin Auble, Ralph Sayre, Margaret Sayre, Rex Bingham Win Firsts; Several Groups Win.

Elwin Auble, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Auble, brought glory to Ord at the district music contest in Kearney last Friday, when he won first place in the bass solo division. Elwin's rich deep voice has often been heard in Ord, and is a favorite with localities. Another wholesome feature of this victory was the fact that Elwin is an all-around boy, and not only is interested in music, but is a splendid athlete, and an all-around good student. Only a few weeks ago he made a fine showing in the heavy-weight wrestling meet scheduled for other high schools. Elwin will go to Lincoln to compete at the state music contest May 6 and 7.

North Loup was exceedingly proud to learn that a number of firsts in the music meet were brought home by their young people, Ralph Sayre winning first in boys high voice; Margaret Sayre winning first in girl's low voice division; Rex Bingham placing first in the boy's medium voice section and Boyd Sheldon winning second in the boy's low voice section. The boys' quartette from North Loup, including Ralph Sayre, Boyd Sheldon, Harold Currie and Edwin Johnson received honorable mention. Miss Yost is music director of that city.

Mr. Sharp plans to start on a small scale but may extend his operations later.

BARNHART WILL HEAD NEBRASKA FUTURE FARMERS

Ord High Ag Student Elected At Convention in North Platte. Has 1,500 Members.

Charles Barnhart of Ord high school was elected state president of the Nebraska Future Farmers of America, at their annual convention at North Platte, where their state convention is held every third year.

Charley's election followed shortly after he received the gold key of State Farmer, and was raised to that degree. His name was the one and only unanimous choice of the nominating committee, and his election was scarcely contested.

This office puts him in direct charge of 1500 members belonging to 40 chapters scattered over the state. He will preside at the next year's convention which may be held in Omaha, as the Omaha Chamber of Commerce has made a strong bid for the 1933 convention. He will undoubtedly be sent by the Nebraska chapter, as a delegate to the National convention at Kansas City.

Another Ord boy was also honored, when Harold Benn was selected vice president of one of the eight state districts to succeed Anthony Kokes.

Tolen Hits Gravel Truck, Smashes Car

When he was driving to his work at the postoffice early Wednesday morning, Mark Tolen met with an accident when his Ford coupe and a heavy steel gravel truck collided on the Sack Lumber Co. corner. The Ford was badly wrecked but Tolen escaped with a sprained ankle. He was taken to the Ord hospital for treatment. The truck was owned by a Mullen, Nebr. firm that is hauling gravel for highway work below Ord. Responsibility for the accident was not fixed.

James Misko accompanied E. B. Weekes to Lincoln yesterday and is submitting to an extensive physical examination at the hands of his son, Dr. George Misko. Mr. Weekes had business in Lincoln.

Former Ord Couple Celebrate 70th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Wozab, once residents of Ord and still remembered affectionately by many people here, last week celebrated the 70th anniversary of their marriage.

Both born in Austria, Mr. and Mrs. Wozab came with their parents to Wisconsin in 1860 and were married at Manitowoc, Wis., in 1862. They lived until 1875 when they came to Nebraska.

They lived on a farm near Wymore for a time, then moved to a farm near Wilber and later to a farm near Ord, also living in the city for a while. They left here 15 years ago and went to Lincoln where their son, John, lives, but a few years ago moved back to Wilber to make their home with their daughter, Mrs. Barta.

While the family lived here John Wozab, Jr., was employed by the Cornell hardware and implement store and he is now connected with the Cornell Supply Company in Lincoln.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Oil Prospects Bright.—Charles E. Detweiler, former Ord hardware man who is now in the oil business in Duncan, Okla., visited Ord and Burwell last week. Prospects for his oil drilling company are now bright, he says. He has met with almost every kind of adversity in his oil drilling attempts but has a "hot" prospect now, he claims. At Burwell Mr. Detweiler visited his old friend, Dr. L. A. Howes, who is spending a few weeks there on business.

Former Ord Boy Weds.—In Audubon, Ia., on April 16 Vivian G. Magnusson, formerly of Ord, was married to Miss Florence V. Pierson. They will make their home in Chicago where Vivian is employed in a big hotel. He is a son of the late Rev. J. Magnusson, who was pastor of the Danish Lutheran church here for some years.

Three to Fort Omaha.—L. B. Fenner, Citizens Military Training Camp officers at Burwell, reports that the young men of that town have already enrolled for the thirty day training camp at Fort Omaha this coming summer. One of them is John W. Ward, well known here, and the others are Seth Frey and Floyd Moore.

Half Pint Sale, 30 Days In Jail

For selling one-half pint of intoxicating liquor Monday night to one "John Doe," whose real identity remains a secret, Lloyd Fleming will spend the next thirty or forty days in the county jail. Arrested Monday by Marshall Covert, young Fleming plead guilty in county court Tuesday and was fined $100 and costs by Judge J. H. Hollingshead, this fine being the minimum permitted by law. He was to pay the fine or costs of $9.75 and will "lay it out" in jail.

Fleming is a new-comer to Ord though he was employed as a farm laborer by Harold Stewart for a time. Lately he has been out of work and has been living in town.

Helen Travis Honored At Pre-Nuptial Shower

At the Stanley Gross home in Vinton Friday evening a miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Helen Travis, who is soon to become the bride of Laverne Aldrich. Hostesses were Mrs. Gross, Mrs. Ed Verstraete, Mrs. E. O. Hackel and Miss Orla Williams.

After an evening spent at various games a large rainbow appeared and a "bag of gold" was found at the end of the rainbow by the bride-to-be. The bag contained many beautiful and useful gifts, showing the love and esteem in which Miss Travis is held by her many friends.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, favors being tiny rainbows and miniature bags of gold. Miss Travis and Mr. Aldrich will be married May 1st.

Sells Barber Shop. F. L. Shineman, of North Loup, has sold his barber shop to Floyd Reddon and with his family, will locate elsewhere.

AUTHOR OF NEW PASSION PLAY TO SPEAK HERE

Rev. David Johnson Will Address Union Service Sunday, Tell About Great Pagant.

The Rev. David A. Johnson, of Kearney, who probably has written and directed more Bible plays and pageants than any other living man, will speak at the Methodist church Sunday evening at a service sponsored by the Protestant churches of Ord.

Rev. Johnson has written hundreds of plays and pageants that have been published and used extensively throughout the United States but his greatest work to date is the writing of an original Passion Play which will be presented at Kearney during the coming July. He will tell Ord people about this Passion Play Sunday evening.

More than 1,000 characters will be used in the cast, which is 300 more than are used in the Passion Play of Oberammergau. It is expected that from 25 to 50 thousand people from all parts of Nebraska and even outside the border will visit Kearney on July 20, 21 and 22, when the great pagant is to be given. It is said to be the most ambitious undertaking ever presented in the middle west.

The Lost Squadron Hums With Thrills

Richard Dix Leads Fine Cast In Exciting Air Film That Isn't a War Picture.

Machine guns spitting, bombs destroying a village, airplanes in battle, doing dizzy spirals, nose diving, crashing and burning—and, yet, "The Lost Squadron" isn't a war picture.

This new thriller, which comes to the Ord Theatre Sunday for a three day run, is a tale of Hollywood—a vivid, exciting glimpse of a movie in the making. It is a story of the dare-devil flyers who make our sky fighting pictures and of a director who sends them up to risk their lives in the hope that the worst may happen and thus give his picture added reality.

Richard Dix, Robert Armstrong and Joel McCrea, each a star in his own right, are the three inseparable flyers of the picture. Eric von Stroheim gives a memorable performance as the director while Mary Astor and Dorothy Jordan take care of the feminine interest.

With such a cast, "The Lost Squadron" had to be a success but not even the R-K-O executives who poured money into it on such a lavish scale anticipated that it would be the hit that it is.

Two other fine pictures are at the Ord Theatre this week and before next week's paper, Richard Arlen in "The Santa Fe Trail" and Edmund Lowe, Claudette Colbert and Stewart Erwin in "Misleading Lady." And the management announces this week that a pair of the year's best comedies are coming soon, the popular Wheeler and Woolsey in "Girl Crazy" and Joe E. Brown in "Fireman, Save My Child."

Holub Is Appointed Elyria Postmaster

E. A. Holub, who has been serving as temporary postmaster at Elyria since Mrs. Schuyler resigned, received notice last week that his appointment has been made permanent. The postoffice fixtures in the Holub store were given a thorough cleaning and overhauling last week and the office now presents a most attractive appearance.

Sunday Movies at Bow. By the narrow margin of four votes Sunday movies were legalized in Broken Bow at a recent city election. Last year the same question was voted on and lost out by four votes.

RAIN, SNOW AND KILLING FROSTS GIVE VARIETY

Spring Drought Broken But Frosty Weather Hard on Flowers, Fruit This Week.

Sunshine, rain and thunder storms! Snow, sleet and freezing weather! These have been Valley county's weather portion during the past week.

Moisture has been badly needed this spring so when rain started last Friday night it was much appreciated. A total of 1.61 inches of Friday night, Saturday and Sunday, reports Howard Travis, the Cornell reporter for Ord, about the same amount fell at Arcadia, North Loup reports over two inches and the west part of the county reports three inches.

Oklahoma Sand Storm Causes Red Rain To Fall Here

Only once in a blue moon does a red rain fall but one fell here Sunday.

Many people noticed that porches, sidewalks, gravel roads, etc., had a red tinge and were wondering about the cause. Radio reports say that a sand storm in Oklahoma caused red rain to fall in Nebraska Sunday, which furnished the answer.

The brick red sand of Oklahoma was whirled aloft by heavy winds, settled in the clouds and was borne northward with them. Before it started to rain the clouds had a red tinge, as many noticed. All of the red dust fell in the first few moments of the rain.

The rain Friday night was accompanied by an electrical storm and Carl Oliver, of District 42, lost six head of cattle. No other losses from lightning have been reported to the Quiz.

Ord 28 night and again Monday a little snow and sleet fell and Monday night the temperature dropped below the freezing point, 27 degrees being the low mark reached early Tuesday morning. Tuesday night also was cold but the cold weather hit so probably both are damaged to some extent. Alfalfa and early grains also were hurt.

Ord's moisture total for the month of April is 9.99 inches, which is more than we got last year. In 1931 we had the wettest month of the year, 5.56 inches falling during the month.

With the ground in good condition now for planting warmer weather is needed and when this comes spring work will start in earnest.

John Lemmon And Alice Lewis Wed

In Broken Bow last Saturday occurred the marriage of John G. Lemmon and Miss Alice Lewis, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Robert Embree, pastor of the M. E. church there. The bride couple were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Coats, of Comstock.

Mr. Lemmon is one of the Ord city mail carriers and has made many friends in the three years he has lived in and around Ord. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemmon, live at Thurston, Nebr.

His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, long time Mira Valley residents but who moved to a farm near Burwell this spring. She attended the Ord schools and is a popular young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemmon went to Thurston for a brief visit, after which they will make their home in Ord.

Carl Oliver Loses 6 Cows by Lightning

Losing six cows by lightning was the stroke of misfortune that befell Carl Oliver, who lives four miles west of North Loup. The animals were killed during a rain, hail and wind storm that visited his neighborhood last Friday evening. Evidently the cattle were all killed by the same bolt, for Mr. Oliver found them piled up together when he went out in the field after the rain ended. Included in the herd were two of his best milk cows. The others were yearlings. The cattle were not insured.

Kills Spotted Rats. V. J. Dobrovsky, who has been carrying on a rat exterminating campaign on the place he recently purchased from J. W. Severns, told the Quiz yesterday about killing two spotted rats, which is unusual. They were gray with white spots. Evidently a white rat kept as a pet or for medical experiments got away some time and mingled with the gray rodents, thus producing the spotted type.

WHY NOT INFLATION?

Messrs. Harrison and Meyer, governors of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and the Federal Reserve Board, respectively, are worried for fear that Representative Wright Patman's bill to issue $2 billion dollars in federal currency, the money to be used for veterans' bonus settlements, will pass Congress. This bill will be "inflation," they charge, and "inflation" must be avoided. In our humble opinion there is nothing the United States needs so much as that same "inflation."

Which does not mean that we favor the Patman bill or favor payment of the bonus at the present time. In fact we believe Congressman Bob Simmons, himself a veteran, is right when he says there should not be full payment of the bonus now. The payments of the present value of the certificates may be all right but veterans cannot equitably ask that the 1945 value of the certificates be paid now, Simmons believes, which seems sensible.

What reason is there, though, for denying inflation of our currency? Federal reserve system requirements are that the bank must be backed by 40 percent in gold. All right, there is now $4 billion in gold in the U. S. Treasury and only $5 billion of currency in circulation. Why not issue enough currency to bring the amount in circulation up to ten billions of dollars?

Nobody will deny that our 1932 dollar is twice as hard to get hold of as our 1919 dollar. Commodity prices are only half as high as a few years ago, which has destroyed the purchasing power of the farmer and thereby bankrupted manufacturers and caused unemployment throughout the country. Restore that purchasing power and new industries will spring up, making employment for all who want it.

A GOOD MAN FOR GOVERNOR.

In Dwight Griswold, of Gordon, central and western Nebraska voters have their first opportunity in years to elect a governor who knows the problems of the present section of the state. Eastern Nebraska men have occupied the governor's chair ever since Keith Neville sat in it and before that for years without number. Now comes Mr. Griswold, who was the choice of the republican voters at the primary.

It is a pleasure for the Quiz to compliment Mr. Griswold on his success at the primary and it is a pleasure also for us to compliment voters upon choosing a man of Mr. Griswold's ability. Should he be elected he will give Nebraska what it sorely needs—a business administration untainted by political expediency.

Mr. Griswold's qualifications for the position he seeks are many. As president of the Nebraska Press association and as commander of the American Legion in Nebraska he proved that he possesses executive ability and rare common sense. He is honest, both politically and personally, which is the highest tribute that can be paid to one in politics. When he makes a promise that promise will be kept.

Mr. Griswold conducted an able campaign, a dignified campaign, a campaign that was distinguished for its lack of wild promises and mud throwing.

ANOTHER BATTLE BEGINS.

On many merchandising fronts battles rage today. In the auto business General Motors, Ford and Chrysler struggle for supremacy. Woolworth and Kresge chains are waging a battle to the death. Railroads vs. trucks furnish a mortal combat. And now makers of gas and electric cooking appliances begin a struggle that promises to be a veritable "battle of the giants."

The gas-electricity war began when manufacturers of electric ranges announced recently that they would put on a great campaign with $240,000,000 in electric range sales as their goal for this season. Now comes announcement that members of the several divisions of the American Gas Association will band together to present a solid front to these invaders of the cooking fuel realm.

"Electricity has threatened; gas will enter the lists at once," says W. Frank Roberts, president of the Standard Gas Equipment Corporation. "Gas is the modern fuel for cooking. It is clean, safe and economical. Tentative plans of our industry call for the use of newspapers and other recognized mediums of advertising in a campaign that will cover the whole country. These surely are dog-eat-dog days in business. But should the public object, when it is the direct beneficiary by reason of lowered prices and better service?"

THE FOOL KILLER BUSY.

One person who never worries about unemployment is the fool killer. All the year round he finds plenty of work to do but in the spring, when motorists get the urge to fill the old bus with gas and go places, he's busier than ever. Just how busy he is this spring can be seen by reading any newspaper, for all the dailies are filled with accounts of auto accidents. Some of the accidents are unavoidable, no doubt, but most of them are caused by drivers who, as the old saying goes, are ripe for the fool killer. In some cases autos have been driven into the sides of trains in broad daylight at crossings where there was an unobstructed view. In others drivers have raced with trains for the crossing and lost. An utter disregard for their own lives and for the lives of their passengers is shown by some drivers and the number of such seems to be constantly increasing, in spite of those who are learning by tragic experience the consequence of their own foolishness.

Naturally people like to go places now that the roads are smooth and the air balmy. There will always be accidents as long as automobiles are driven but there is no need for such wanton carelessness as some drivers show. Be careful. Drive slowly. Observe the speed laws and have regard for the rights of others. Don't take chances. Don't be foolish. If you follow these admonitions the fool killer will never have to practice on you.

My Own Column

By H. D. LEGGETT

My friend, E. A. Simpkins, who is in the popcorn business, writes that he is establishing a new shop at Valley City, N. D. and of course wants their Quiz sent there. He says they just can't do without it.

And that reminds me that every mail brings new and renewal subscriptions from some one or more of the large army of Quiz subscribers. There are a little over 25 hundred of them now. Many ask to have a copy of the cooking calendar sent to them.

By the way, the calendars are now ready and those who had asked to have them mailed are getting them this week. We have mailed out all that we know about wanting them. I will appreciate all who are in arrears, sending in a couple of dollars. If you want a cooking calendar, say so and it will be sent promptly, now that we have a supply again. It is perfectly safe to send one or two $1 bills in the postage free envelope which we have mailed to you. Be sure to put your name in or on the envelope, though.

We are already working on the 1933 cooking calendar and it is going to be much nicer than the one this year. A beautiful front cover is being planned and better stock will be used throughout and you will all want one.

If you take a daily paper you will be following the investigation of the stock exchange gambling. It is a dirty mess isn't it? Looks like the government ought to do something, once, for the protection of the people who don't know enough to let gambling on the exchange alone. People who dabble in it believe they are getting a fair deal when as a matter of fact they are up against a skin game that there is no chance to beat.

You are going to see more petunias blooming in Ord this year than you ever saw here before. The petunia is the official Ord flower this year and there are hundreds of kinds, all beautiful but some more beautiful than others. Any of the stores handling seeds can sell you packages of seeds and they can be planted where they are to grow. Ask Rev. McCarthy about how to raise them. You will remember what a beautiful corner he had last year by the Christian church. He plans to have it a lot prettier this summer.

There is more than just beguety to raising flowers. You get a lot of pleasure out of seeing them grow and bloom and you get a lot of health out of doing as much as possible of the work. Then you get double pleasure out of picking bouquets and giving or sending them to your friends.

I am not going to talk a great deal of politics in this department this summer and this is the only place in the Quiz that I do any writing. But I am going to suggest that Dwight Griswold is a mighty good man to send down to the governors office in Lincoln for a couple of years. He is a newspaper man, has served enough in public office to be onto the ropes and has never been accused of not being a gentleman and strictly honest in business and in office. I think it is a big compliment to a man living, as he does, out in the sparsely settled part of the state, to get the vote that he got all over the state. It means that he is a good man and has the confidence of the people.

Attended Rotary Meeting. George R. Gard and Irl D. Tolen were the only Ord men who attended the Inter-city Rotary meeting held at Ansley last Friday evening. Several others had planned to go from here but changed their minds because of the rain that afternoon. Messrs. Gard and Tolen report a fine meeting with a large number present from Kearney, Broken Bow, Callaway, Loup City and other towns where there are Rotary clubs.

Something DIFFERENT

Don't forget to go to the Noll Seed company this week-end to see the first flower show of the season. Beginning Friday afternoon, the display will continue through Saturday to give every one a chance to see the prize winning beauties and their competitors.

It does not cost anything to enter this contest; simply bring the handsomest bouquet you can put together down to the contest at the proper time and enter it. Or perhaps you have one beautiful bloom which you wish to enter alone. In either of these classes, you may be the one to win the prize.

Each merchant does his own judging, and gives prizes where he thinks they should go. Only two prizes are awarded: one for the most attractive bouquet, and another for the prettiest individual flower.

Gardening time is really here. Time to do all those things you've thought of and planned to do for so long.

First and foremost of importance; it is dandelion time in Ord again. The little yellow heads have already made a plentiful appearance in many lawns. The easiest time to deal with this most pestiferous flower is now. Let's all get out and take the little plants from our lawns before they get a chance to thrive and produce a million, five hundred trifoliate leaves.

Don't forget now: make a dandelion digging date with yourself! Right Now! When will you dig?

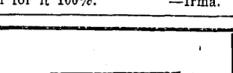

A number of generous spirited people have offered spare plants along. Among those who have spare plants and have said so are H. B. VanDecar, lots of castor bean seeds, and also a lot of canna roots. Mrs. Bud Auble phoned that she had lots of Wandering Jew for children to use in their first growing endeavors.

While the first flower show is in progress is the time for seeds, slips, cuttings, bulbs, or whatever you have are to be given to the school children who want to try to make a tiny garden of their own. So don't forget, please. If you have any odd plantlets, take them down to the Noll Seed company, and Mr. Noll will distribute them as they are asked for. He has had far more inquiries from children than he had plants to give them.

After I mentioned in the Quiz before about the free seedlings for young gardeners, at least 40 youngsters rushed to the Noll place of business after the little plants, and most of them had to be told there wasn't a flower for them. So don't let some child be disappointed. . . . take your spades down to the Noll Seed company.

Petunias, ever popular, are reported to be going to receive an unusual rushing in Ord this summer, since they were elected to be the town's official flower. Have you planned where you're going to put some petunias? I'm going to have a couple of window boxes of them. Don't let me get ahead of you!

Now don't be lazy. As long as you're hollering about the depression, and you say you're so poor, and generally hard-up, you surely can't afford any expensive pleasures this summer. So then get busy at home. Plant and garden, and hoe and find your pleasure in your own yard. A simple pleasure, but one you'll find will keep you busy if you really go in for it 100%.

In Emergencies Your Telephone Is Priceless

A fire in your home or buildings would mean a great loss. A serious accident might be fatal unless you could reach the doctor at once. Or you might even be the victim of thieves or prowlers.

In emergencies like these, a telephone is priceless. At such times, its value is beyond comparison of costs. If you didn't have a telephone, you might regret it all the rest of your life.

Make sure that your loved ones are protected. See that they (and you) have a telephone handy—always. Call our office and we'll gladly help in every way we can.

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

With spring here, it won't be long until picnic time again, and below is a recipe that would be just the thing for that. This sandwich spread would also be just fine to spread to spread for those hungry children of yours when they want a "piece".

Sandwich Spread
1/4 c. sugar, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1 tsp. mustard. Mix separately. 1/2 c. vinegar, 1 c. sour cream, 2 beaten eggs. Cook the two mixtures together. When done add 1 lb. grated cheese and 1 can pimientos, cut fine. Ellen Stanton

Whipped Cream Dessert
Beat 2 tbsp. sugar with 3 egg yolks. Put in the juice of 1/2 lemon and 1/2 c. cream. Put into a double boiler and bring to a boil. Next add 1/2 lb. marshmallows. Cook until thick, then add 1 can diced pineapple, 1 can white cherries, 3/4 c. nuts, broken. Whip 1 pt. cream and mix half into the foregoing mixture and use the other half for the garnish with maraschino cherries.

Syrup for Griddle Cakes.
1 c. sugar, 1/2 c. water, 2 tsp. cold water. Maple flavoring. Place water and sugar on the stove, boil 4 minutes, remove from fire, add flavoring at the top of one side of each piece. This syrup will not sugar if any is left over.

Mrs. Archie Boyce.
Take pork tenderloin, cut into pieces about 4 inches long. Make an incision down the center of one side of each piece. Fill these with your favorite towel dressing and close with a toothpick. Roll each in flour, place in a roasting pan, season with salt, pepper (and caraway seed if you like). Roast in the oven, basting occasionally with butter and water.

Mrs. Will Dodge.
1 egg beaten, 2 tbsp. melted butter, 1 tsp. sugar, 1 c. sweet milk, 2 c. flour, 3 tsp. baking powder, 1/2 tsp. salt. This will make 12 or 14 muffins.

Mrs. Walter H. Jones, Arcadia, California.
Soak 2 tbsp. gelatine in 1/4 c. cold water. Add 1 c. syrup drained from crushed Hawaiian pineapple to 1/2 c. hot water. Bring to the boiling point and add gelatine, stirring until dissolved. Add 1/4 c. sugar, 1/4 tsp. salt and the juice of 1 lemon. Cool. Add 3 oranges cut in pieces and 1 c. drained crushed pineapple. Pour into a mold and set in a cold place until firm. Sprinkle with mayonnaise. Mildred Hurlbert

This week we are especially requesting recipes from older cooks, time-tested dishes that the family swears by. . . . not at. If you have some recipes which have been handed down to you, some recipes that you know will always result satisfactorily, please send them in.

Judges and lawyers in Ord, Nebr., it seems, have never read that part of the constitution which guarantees against cruel and inhumane punishment.

Recently a judge there sentenced a man to 90 days in the county jail for a liquor law violation. As an extra penalty the judge decreed, "if the sheriff is not able to keep the prisoner busy at hard labor throughout the 90 days, he is to spend the last 10 days on a bread and water diet."

The defendant, of course, appealed the sentence. Nebraska judges should dust off the constitution and read it once, at least.—Portland (Ore.) News-Telegram.

BARKER TAKES ANNUAL 2-ROOM SCHOOL CONTEST

Big Margin in Morning Scholastic Trials Put Barker Over: Haskell Creek Second.

A good sized crowd, friends, relatives and admirers, braved the drizzle last Friday afternoon to watch the five two-room schools entered in the Valley county field meet and track day compete for honors at the fair grounds. Miss Clara McClatchey, county superintendent was in general charge of arrangements. That morning the scholastic side of the day's program was held at the high school. One hundred percent was available in scores for each half of the day, scholastic and athletic. Barker school, called District No. 3, won the silver cup when a total of 63 1/2 points was made by members of that school during the course of the day. Haskell Creek school was close behind, their grand total amounting to 55 points for the day which honor brought them a pennant. Three schools that usually enter, Elyria, Hayes Creek and Geranium, did not enter that they would be able to compete seriously and so did not enter this spring, though they usually have in the past. A large crowd, with more men than usually present, watched the athletic events, in spite of the rain which began in the afternoon, ending in the race events rather slow, but young Nielsen of Haskell Creek showed up well, and had a good competitor in the Weed lead of Barker. Weed also looked well in the high jump, the latter event is open to boys of eleven and over. Haskell Creek made the most points at the athletic meet, totalling 39 to Barker's 27 1/2. In the scholastic trials, Friday morning, Barker was high with 36 points; Jank was second with 22 points and Haskell Creek was third with 16 points. No one student seemed to copy honors outstandingly. A new feature was introduced when the judges were provided with whistles to time their entries in the blackboard arithmetic work. Entrants in this section often finish so close that it was formerly nearly impossible to call one first and another second. Mrs. A. W. Cornell was conductor of the morning events and judges were Madams Jesse Kovanda, Cecil Molzen and G. W. Taylor. Penmanship, arithmetic, history, geography, algebra and Latin were subjects contested, and the current events meet was especially fine this year. Mrs. Cornell almost exhausting her prepared-forhand questions before the young entrants exhausted their information on current topics. Conductor of the afternoon events was LeRoss Williams, Mira Valley's own. Once competing in them himself, he is now taking coaching work at Kearney, and so had a double interest in the performance. Judges were Rev. L. M. Real and Rev. J. E. Kirkwood. Clara Clement Holmes, who helped and inspired the earliest of such field days about 12 years ago, declared she noticed considerable difference in the earliest contest and the last one, and also considerable improvement. Three of the Ord teachers spent the week end with home people. Miss Edna Hutzda was in Lincoln, Miss Wilma Blanchard in Friend and Miss Marjory Hostetter in Douglas.

Answers the Call of SPRING APPETITES In springtime appetites change, people are apt to be a trifle 'picky' about their food and the wise housewife will provide different dishes so everyone will get the food elements they need. For most of these new dishes meat will naturally be the base. Cold cooked meats such as boiled ham, veal loaf, etc., will please the family and lighten the cares of the housewife. Delicious corned beef, easy to serve in a dozen delightful ways, is another favorite. We suggest that you visit our market and inspect our well filled display cases. We'll guarantee that you'll get an idea for some new dish that your family will like.
