

DRY CEDAR MAN FRACTURES LEGS, LIES EIGHT DAYS

Clarence Wilson, Bachelor, Fell
From Windmill Tower Oct.
24, Found November 2.

A story of human suffering probably unequalled in our valley history came out of Dry Cedar precinct of Garfield county Tuesday afternoon when Clarence Wilson, 35-year-old bachelor, was found with both of his legs broken. On October 24, eight days before, he fell from a windmill tower and fractured both limbs. Alone and unattended, he existed for more than a week on a diet of raw potatoes, suffering excruciating pain every moment of the time. He was taken to a hospital in Burwell as soon as he was found and will recover, doctors say.

His mind clear in spite of the terrible agony he had been suffering, Mr. Wilson told a clear story of everything that had happened to him.

Early on the morning of October 24 he went up his windmill tower to repair the windmill. His pliers slipped from his grasp and he leaning forward he lost his footing and fell backwards from the tower, turning a complete somersault in the air and landing on his feet in the stock tank forty feet below.

Both of his legs were fractured below the knees and for a long time Wilson laid in the tank, unable to move. Finally he managed to pull himself up to the edge of the tank and, realizing that it was his only way of getting out, he permitted his body to fall backwards out of the tank. Hours later he had managed to drag himself into the house where he wrapped his fractured limbs in strips torn from an old comforter.

Then began an eight-day siege of waiting for someone to come along. There was no telephone in the Wilson house and it is located a half mile from the road and over a hill. The neighbors lived three-quarters of a mile away and though Wilson shouted for hours his voice was never heard.

Unable to cook food for himself, he existed on raw potatoes. Most of the time he had no water to drink, either.

In the hope that the message would be seen by passers-by he wrote notes and tied them to the collars of his dogs, then tried to send the animals out to the Burwell highway for help but none ever came. Mr. Wilson was convinced that he would die before he was found and in other instances told all about the accident and about the agony he was undergoing. Last week the weather was cold and he was unable to build a fire, so almost froze to death. He was afraid to try to drag himself out to the highway for fear he would overtake him and he would freeze.

Mr. Wilson saw his cattle and hogs starving before his eyes so after several days he fixed some iron pegs and, dragging himself backwards by jabbing the pegs into the ground, he went out to the barn-yard and fed and watered the

Would Fire County Agent, Engineer

The court room was filled to capacity with the nearest farmers and business men at the Taxpayers League meeting Wednesday afternoon and the session lasted until nearly 5 o'clock before all the business was transacted. Present at Arthur Menzies presided and many questions of present interest were discussed.

After thorough discussion a motion was made to authorize the League to bring an injunction suit against the county board to prevent the raising of money for the support of the Farm Bureau for the coming year. A rising vote was cast in favor and about half of those present voted in favor of the motion. No one arose to vote against it so the matter seemed to be the unanimous wish of the meeting.

A motion was also made, after considerable discussion, to request the county board to do away with the county engineer and his immediate staff of assistants during 1933 and this motion was passed without opposition.

A committee of three, consisting of F. S. Kull, Joe Waldmann and C. E. Goodhand was named to put on an intensive membership campaign for members for the League. Adjournment was taken to the first Wednesday in December when the next meeting will be held and notice of that meeting will be given in this paper before hand.

A Sweet Program.
Don B. Whelan, secretary of the State Honey Producers' association, will speak on the subject, "Honey—For Goodness Sake" over KFAB at Lincoln, at noon Tuesday, November 8. This program will be of interest to bee keepers and others, says F. M. Vodehnal, well known Valley county honey man.

Brick Smith Drove Million Miles To Get Promotion

J. E. "Brick" Smith, who drove more than a million miles in his work as a salesman for Swift & Company, won't have to drive so much in future. He has been promoted to a position in the executive offices at Omaha and moves to that city this week.

Two years ago Mr. Smith moved to Ord from Albion, Neb., and with this city as headquarters covered a large district for the big packing company. He was one of Swift's crack salesmen and always ranked high in sales, which probably accounts for his well deserved promotion. Ord people will be sorry to see him leave here.

An able cartoonist, writer, and chalk talk artist, Mr. Smith had a prominent part in the Masonic lodge which was scheduled for this month. His part will be taken by George B. Clement of Mira Valley, the Masonic lodge announced yesterday.

TEACHERS ARE ROTARY GUESTS TUESDAY NIGHT

Entertained at Banquet Served
In K. of P. Hall; Following
Annual Custom.

Following the annual custom, the Ord Rotary club Tuesday evening entertained teachers of the Ord school and members of the board of education at a banquet served in the K. of P. hall, wives of the Rotary members also being honored guests. About eighty were present to enjoy the fine dinner prepared by Rotary Anns.

After the dinner the Rotary club president, Orville H. Sowl, presided at an informal program which included a reading by Miss Zelma Frushour, a piano duet by Madams Gould B. Piagg and Lyle Milliken and a vocal solo by Dean S. Duncan. Several talks were given, President Sowl welcoming the guests and speeches of response being given by Mrs. E. I. Rotarian, Miss Emma Gossard and Ralph W. Norman. The principal address of the evening was ably given by George A. Parkins on the subject "Rotary Ideals."

It was a most interesting evening, as Rotary affairs always are, and the opportunity to get acquainted with all of the Ord teachers was greatly enjoyed by Rotarians and their Anns.

King Hoff Arrested For Shooting Hog

On complaint of his neighbor, Vernon Dye, Kingsberry Hoff of Vinton was arrested by Sheriff George Round last Thursday and in county court was charged with shooting a hog belonging to Mr. Dye. He denied shooting the animal and pleaded not guilty, the hearing being set for Nov. 7 and Mr. Hoff being released on $100 bond. He has employed the firm of Hardenbrook & Misko as his attorneys.

Speaker Goes Astray, Not Heard From Yet

Dr. Perry Holden, the noted farmer expert who was scheduled to speak in Valley county last Friday on behalf of the republican national ticket evidently went astray. At least he didn't show up here and Alvin Blessing, chairman of the county central committee, was informed by state committee members that they did not know where he was.

He was supposed to speak in North Loup, Arcadia and Ord and when he did not appear at noon Marion J. Cushing was pressed into service and spoke at both North Loup and Arcadia. In the latter place a good crowd turned out and Mr. Cushing made a rousing speech. The evening meeting scheduled to be held in Ord was called off.

Airplane Party Hunts Here.
Harry Sidles and Milt Gates, of Lincoln, in a 4-passenger cabin airplane flown by Pilot Bell, flew here last Thursday and enjoyed several hours of pheasant hunting in company of local friends. They made the flight to Ord in just one hour and ten minutes. Archie Keepe, Dr. J. W. McGinnis, John Klein and George Gutschaw hunted with them here and all were taken for a ride in the airplane. Sheriff George Round is a friend of Mr. Gates, who is a former deputy state sheriff, and the latter brought him a special spotlight for his car as a gift. The Lincoln men flew back to Lincoln the same evening with their limit of pheasants.

The Cienmy hall, Elyria, which was recently remodeled, and a new maple floor put in, has been attracting large crowds. Last Sunday night 180 tickets were sold. Bill Eatherton's orchestra from Burwell will play at the Cienmy hall Sunday evening.

PHEASANT FLIES UP BEFORE TEAM, CAUSES ACCIDENT

Mrs. Evelyn Patterson Suffers
Broken Knee Cap Monday
In Unusual Upset.

North Loup, Nov. 1.—(Special)—A pheasant that flew from a clump of weeds and frightened a team of horses caused a serious accident here yesterday. The team was hitched to a spring wagon in which were Mrs. Evelyn Patterson and her three sons, Kendall, Robert and Grover. When the pheasant flew up the team lunged and broke the neck yoke, the tongue of the wagon dropped to the ground, the wagon overturned and all of the occupants suffered more or less serious injuries.

Just before the wagon overturned Mrs. Patterson leaped out, landing on one knee and fracturing her leg. Her mother, Mrs. H. G. Westberg, is helping to care for her.

The Patterson family live on the August Kriewald farm in Riverdale and Mrs. Patterson was taking the boys to their school when the accident happened Monday morning.

Romans Truck Wrecked
Jack Romans was coming from Grand Island Monday evening with a truck load of merchandise and about 8:30, when some seven miles north of the island, he struck loose gravel and crashed into a cement bridge. The cause of the accident is attributed to a low front casing. Wayne Keller, who was riding with Jack, sustained a broken right leg and was taken to St. Francis hospital in Grand Island. Jack was not injured but the truck was badly damaged.

Albert McMIndes Moves to Atkinson

After forty years as a resident of Ord, Col. Albert McMIndes last week moved his family to Atkinson, Neb., where he will manage the sale ring owned by the Weller Auction company, in which he is a partner. Col. McMIndes left last Thursday and his daughter, Miss Gladys, is giving up her position with the telephone company Saturday and will join her parents at Atkinson.

Albert came to Ord from Greenwood, N. Y., with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. McMIndes, thirty years ago and ever since has lived here, for many years being a prominent horse and mule dealer, cattle buyer and auctioneer. Almost everyone in the upper Loup valley knows Albert by his first name and will be sorry to see him and his wife leave this community. He will not be an entire stranger to Ord in future, however, as he plans to return each week to assist with the Saturday sales.

Henry Parker Sent Back to Penitentiary

Henry Parker, the Loup county ex-convict who last week shot at Sheriff Evans of that county, was sent back to the state penitentiary when he appeared in district court at Taylor Tuesday. Judge E. P. Clements of Ord was on the bench. Parker was formally charged with violating his parole and Judge Clements found him guilty of such violation, sentencing him to the penitentiary for from 2 to 5 years. Parker had been held in the Valley county jail for safe keeping and was taken to Taylor Tuesday morning by Sheriff Round.

Benefit Bridge Given.

About twenty tables of bridge fans enjoyed a pleasant evening Friday while adding the cause of charity when the Pythian Sisters gave the first of a series of novel parties. Ninety guests played progressive bridge at the August Peterson, Lores McMIndes, Mike Kosmata and Stanley McLain homes and adjourned to the lodge rooms afterward for refreshments of sandwiches and coffee. High score for ladies was won by Mrs. F. A. Barta, and low by Miss Frances Bratt. High score for men was won by Dale Norman, and low by Wilbur Cass. Suitable gifts were awarded the prize winners. The Pythian sisters cleared $9.50 for charity at the party.

Pheasant Expeditionary Force Invades Springdale, Routs Sixty Pheasants in Brisk Engagement

When the P. E. F. under command of General M. B. McNutt went into action, the pheasants had to step lively to escape being massacred. The Pheasant Expeditionary Force halted from Omaha and arrived on the evening before the pheasant season opened in the large bus that shows in the background of the above picture. They camped three days on the Arnold place in Springdale and took the limit of pheasants back home with them. Reading from left to right, here are members of the "army" and some of their Ord friends: Top row—H. B. Ramsey, W. Blinn, D. D. Doring, Roger Gallup, Mrs. Chas. Partridge, E. C. Leggett, C. M. Wandborg, Bob Henderson, C. G. Norris, Chas. Arnold. Bottom row—Dave Arnold, John L. Chew, Corbin Ritchmond, "General" M. B. McNutt, Bert Carpenter, Dave Calvert, C. J. Mortensen.

Ord Couple Honored Celebration of Their Fiftieth Anniversary

Sunday was the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jameson, respected Ord residents, and in honor of the day their children and grandchildren prepared a big dinner as a surprise for them.

All arrangements were carried out with the utmost secrecy, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McGinnis being pressed into service to see that the Jamesons were absent from their home in the morning and to produce them at the proper time. Everything worked perfectly and when Mr. and Mrs. Jameson reached their own home shortly after the noon hour Sunday they found that a happy group of their friends and relatives had taken possession of it and that the table groaned under its load of good things.

The table was decorated in white and gold, the centerpiece being an enormous three-tier angel food cake topped with miniature bride and groom.

With them were Dr. and Mrs. Jameson are Homer L. Jameson, of Arcadia, Mrs. James S. Cook, of Ord, and Mrs. C. J. Dye, of Sargent. Grandchildren who also were here Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cook and families, their other grandchildren, Elroy, Helen and Howard Cook, Stanley, Glen and Ruth Jameson being unable to be present. A niece, Mrs. Wm. R. Kider came with her husband and his mother from Sargent. Friends present for the celebration were Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McGinnis and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Desmull, Ord, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Wolf and Mrs. Leonard Wolf and children, Sargent. Twenty-six in all sat down at the table to enjoy the dinner.

The Quiz extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jameson wishes them many more happy anniversaries.

In Charge of Roll Call.

Miss Clara McClatchey, chairman for the Red Cross Valley county Anns, announced that Mrs. Cecil Molzen is in charge of the Roll Call which will start November 11, Armistice day.

Pheasant Season Closed October 31

The pheasant season, that ten day period looked forward to each year by hunters, ammunition dealers, restaurants and hotels, came to a close Monday at sundown. It was a successful season, distinguished by good weather except for the first two or three days. Birds, while not so plentiful as last year, were found in sufficient numbers to insure excellent sport and most hunters made good kills.

Frank M. O'Connell, head of the fish and game department for Nebraska, estimates that 100,000 pheasants were killed this year in the state. This is about half the number killed in 1931. No arrests were made for violations of the pheasant law in this county and there were no hunting accidents.

BURWELL MAN IS FINED HERE FOR PETTY LARCENY

Confesses Stealing Wheels, Etc.,
From Ord Cars Early Last Friday Morning.

Emerald Nelson, 23-year-old Burwell man, was fined $10 and costs in county court here Saturday when he pleaded guilty to a charge of petty larceny. He admitted stealing wheels, tires, hub caps, mud flaps, and a tail light from several Ord cars and returned the stolen articles. Joseph Robbins, 21, another Burwell boy, was with him when the articles were stolen, was brought here for questioning but was released when Nelson absolved him of complicity in the thefts.

The stealing was done early last Friday morning, young Nelson admitted. Driving his Chevrolet car, he came here late Thursday night accompanied by Robbins and from Mark Tolens' store stole a wire wheel with tire and tube. He also took a wire wheel with tire and tube from Mrs. Orin Slot's car, stole three hub caps from a traveling man's car, a hubcap from Elwin Dunlap's car and a set of fender mud flaps from another car. Identity of the owner being unknown. All of this property was found in his possession or on his car except Mrs. Slot's wheel, which Nelson says he threw away after removing the tire and tube.

Night Marshal Roy Pardus saw the car driving about the streets and stopped the men for questioning late Thursday night. He knew nothing about the thefts at the time so contented himself with ordering them to leave town. The next morning when the thefts were reported he gave the number of the car to Sheriff Round, who went to Burwell and took the two young men into custody.

So far as officers here can learn it was the first time young Nelson has ever been in trouble with the law, so when he returned the stolen property he was let off with a small fine.

Wet Forces Urge Votes for Murray, Terry Carpenter

Because they have come out for prohibition of the prohibition question to a popular vote, Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff and James P. Murray of Sargent are being urged for election by the National Crusaders and the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reformation. Terry Carpenter is the democratic candidate for Congress against Bob Simmons while Murray is democratic candidate for the state senate against Horace F. Kennedy of Broken Bow.

"We earnestly urge that you exert your influence to assist in the election of these men," says a circular being sent to voters by the wet organizations this week.

Mr. Simmons and Mr. Kennedy have received the endorsements of the Anti-Saloon league and W. C. T. U. because of their dry stands.

Taken to Omaha Hospital
Mrs. Harold Kealy who has been in the Ord hospital for several weeks, was removed to Lord Lister hospital in Omaha Tuesday. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Romans, her home is in Hebron and her trouble is diagnosed at toxemia.

M. V. Club Meets Nov. 17.
The Mira Valley Community club meeting, scheduled to be held this evening, has been postponed until Thursday evening, Nov. 17.

Public Invited To 'Election Party' At Court House

As usual, County Clerk Igu. Kilma, his deputy, Lloyd Rusk, and Janitor Dave Haught will be hosts at an "election party" next Tuesday evening in the downstairs lobby of the court house. The public is cordially invited to be present and hear the election returns—local, state and national.

Benches, chairs and spittoons will be provided, along with a big blackboard on which local returns will be chalked up as fast as they come in. Mr. Kilma has asked election boards all over the county to make a special effort to get the local returns in early.

The Capron Agency is furnishing one of the new 11-tube Magestic radios which will be installed in the county agent's office for the purpose of getting national returns.

The "party" will start at 8 p. m., at which time first eastern returns are expected.

ORD TELEPHONE RATE PROTEST Up FOR HEARING

R. R. Commission Calls Conference At Lincoln, Hardenbrook Represents This City.

Ord's protest against high telephone rates and poor service is getting an airing at Lincoln today at a conference between members of the Nebraska railway commission, officers of the Nebraska Continental Telephone company and Bert M. Hardenbrook, who is attending as a representative of the Chamber of Commerce. The conference is purely informal.

Called by C. A. Randall, chairman of the railway commission, the meeting convenes at 1:30 p. m. in the commission's hearing room.

Today's meeting is the first step in what may develop into quite a battle. The Chamber of Commerce, urged on by almost 200 telephone users here, is determined to bring about a readjustment of Ord's telephone rate system and also hope to secure better service.

Hardenbrook will report the result of today's conference at a meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors early next week. It may be decided to call a mass meeting of telephone users also, depending on whether the Nebraska Continental Telephone company offers any concessions that call for public discussion.

County Redistricting Is Again Deferred

The proposed redistricting of Valley county as to supervisors' districts has been postponed by the county board until the next meeting December 6, the quiz was told at the court house yesterday. The board met Tuesday but transacted only routine business, laying over the redistricting scheme for further study.

Mortensen Named Inspector.
C. J. Mortensen, of Ord, has been named district inspector for the regional Agriculture Credit Corporation, the federal organization that makes loans for cattle feeding and other farming operations. Anybody who wants one of these federal short term loans should consult Mr. Mortensen, who has the necessary application blanks.

W. L. McNUTT IS SUICIDE TUESDAY; FUNERAL TODAY

Respected Ord Man Writes Note
Telling Of Intentions, Shoots,
Hangs Self.

Leaving a note in which he said that he "had been sick for two weeks and couldn't get well" and therefore had decided to "end it all," W. L. McNutt, 71, committed suicide early Tuesday morning. The note further directed his wife to look for the body in the barn lot and there it was found about 8 a. m. by Sheriff George Round and County Attorney George Munn who were summoned to the scene as soon as Mrs. McNutt found the note left by her husband.

Mr. McNutt had stood upon a box in the hay mow, attached a rope to a rafter and tied it about his neck, then shot himself above the right temple with a 22-caliber rifle. Whether the bullet wound resulted instantaneously or came from strangulation when he fell from the box could not be determined.

Always an early riser, Mr. McNutt arose about 6 a. m. Tuesday and evidently wrote the note immediately, then went to the barn and committed suicide. Death apparently took place about 7 a. m., as the body was still warm when it was found at eight o'clock.

His wife arose from bed at about 7:45 Tuesday morning and saw the note on the table as soon as she went down stairs. She immediately ran to the home of a neighbor, Will Sack, who summoned officers.

The note was written in Mr. McNutt's normal handwriting and bore his characteristic signature, "Mac." It further directed his wife to turn the body over to the Frazier undertaker's parlors, which was done. There will be no inquest, authorities say.

Born March 11, 1861 in Muscatine, Ia., William McNutt came to Valley county in 1888, four years after his marriage to Carrie J. Brand at West Liberty, Ia. They purchased a farm about eight miles northeast of town and there lived for many years. Mr. McNutt becoming prominent as a breeder of purebred hogs and cattle and as a judge of fine livestock. One daughter, Zona, was born to Mr. and Mrs. McNutt and she is now the wife of Dr. C. J. Miller of Ord.

In 1900 Mr. McNutt was elected to the office of county treasurer and moved to Ord, serving the county honorably for two terms. Upon his retirement from this work he entered the insurance and real estate business here, which occupation he followed at the time of his death. He was a director in the Nebraska State bank.

It was as a livestock breeder and swine judge that Mr. McNutt attained his greatest distinction. His purebred Poland-China hogs won prizes at most state fairs in the middle-west and after he quit the business of breeding purebreds he continued to serve as a judge of swine, judging at state fairs in Nebraska, Iowa, Minnesota, Texas and other states.

His faithful wife passed away October 27, 1918 and 3-1/2 years later, in May, 1922, Mr. McNutt was married to Miss Ada Wellington. One son, Jack, was born to them in 1923 and he, with his mother, is left to mourn.

The influences that caused Mr. McNutt to take his own life are hard to determine. It is well established that he had been ill for the past two weeks but the trouble was thought to be only an attack of flu, though he refused to consult a doctor. Recent financial reverses probably were the greatest factor in his going about his determination to commit suicide. Friends and business associates say that for several weeks he has seemed morose and dejected and the fact that he recently sold all his livestock that he owned and in other ways got his affairs into shape is believed to indicate that he had been planning suicide for some time.

Where he got the rifle with which he fired the fatal shot was a mystery at first, as Mr. McNutt had never owned a gun, but the Quiz learns that he bought it last Saturday at the Karty hardware.

When Will Carson passed away a few years ago Mr. McNutt was drafted in his place as township clerk, which position he filled creditably for the past two years. His name is on the ballot for reelection this year.

He was a member of the M. W. A. and Knights of Pythias lodges at the time of his death. In past years he served as president of the Valley county fair association and always was a willing worker for other community projects. Known to hundreds as "Mac" and always ready with a smile and kindly word for everyone, Mr. McNutt is going to be greatly missed and the sympathy of all will go to his family.

Funeral services are being held at Frazier's chapel at 2 p. m. today with Rev. L. M. Real preaching the sermon. A quartet composed of Mrs. J. M. Barta, Mrs. A. S. Koupal, Dr. F. L. Blessing and J. R. Stoltz will sing. Interment will be in the family lot in Ord cemetery where Mr. McNutt's first wife and his mother are buried.

GET OUT AND VOTE.

When Valley county citizens go to the polls next Tuesday, November 8, they will be doing their bit to bring the Nebraska voting total closer to the state quota of 757,395 votes. In the 1928 presidential election Valley county cast only 3,973 votes out of an eligible group of 5,227, or only 76 per cent. This gave Valley county 24th place in the state.

Sheridan county with 88.51 per cent of her eligible voters led the state in the 1928 election. Arthur county, with 84.71 per cent, was second.

In Nebraska four years ago the total vote was 547,138 which shows that only 69.9 per cent of eligible voters voted. In other words, more than 200,000 voters disenfranchised themselves by their failure to go to the polls.

While the figures for Nebraska are favorable as compared with the national percentage of 54.7, it is rather low as compared with various European countries. In three general elections in Germany in 1931 an average of 84 per cent of the eligible voters cast their ballots.

In England, Wales, Scotland and northern Ireland in 1929, 89.6 per cent of eligible voters journeyed to the polls. Yet the United States boasts of its low illiteracy rate and its high standard of education.

Never before in the history of this country has it been so imperative that every person eligible to vote do so as it is this year. There are prime questions of importance up for decision at the general election.

Dissatisfaction over economic conditions is rife throughout the state. Every adult person to express whether in his or her opinion the welfare of the nation can best be served by the continuance of the present administration or a change, nationally speaking. Similarly, every citizen should be asked to vote on the local level.

HOOPER'S AMERICANISM

The charges have been freely made in the present campaign, as it was in the campaign of 1928, that Herbert Hoover is not an American. He has been denigrated as an Englishman, owing allegiance to Great Britain. In fact, at home such attempts have been made by the titular head of the democratic party in Valley county. The records should be kept straight. The truth is that Herbert Hoover's ancestors were of American descent. His father, John Hoover, founder of the family in the United States, Andrew Hoover, settled in Pennsylvania in 1740. He was the father of one of the Hoovers who moved to Maryland, where several children were born to them. In 1814 he moved to the family homestead in Ohio, where he lived until the early years of the 19th century. Then, when the slavery difficulty arose, the Hoover family did not remain in Ohio. After a brief stay there they continued their westward wagon train to Indiana and settled as pioneers near where Richmond, Ind., now stands. From there the family spread to Iowa and other western states and in West Branch, Ia., the president was born. He spent his boyhood in Iowa. Herbert Hoover attended college in California and graduated as an engineer. It is true that his work in that profession took him abroad. It is true that he lived in Australia, China, Africa as well as in England while he was a young man, but it is not true that he became a citizen of any of those countries.

The democratic nominee, Mr. Roosevelt, also comes from a distinguished early American family. The first ancestor, Claes van Roosevelt, came from Holland and settled in New Amsterdam, now New York, about 1636. The "van" gradually was dropped from the family name and the Roosevelt clan attained to great wealth and has been prominent in the affairs of the state and nation for several generations.

There are plenty of good reasons why many voters may prefer to support Mr. Roosevelt rather than Mr. Hoover. With these reasons the Quiz has no quarrel. Every voter should express his own personal convictions on who should guide the United States during the next four years but he should not base his vote upon a cock-and-bull story that President Hoover is a "foreigner."

Keown Wins As Husker.

Clyde Keown, of Scotia, well known here, is the best corn husker in Greeley county for 1932. He won the championship near Scotia last week when he husked 22 bushels and 21 pounds of corn in eight minutes. He will represent Greeley county at the state contest near York early this month. Valley county, due to the shortness of the corn crop, is holding no husking championship this fall.

My Own Column

By H. D. LEGGETT

A good friend took me to task Saturday because of what I said in this department last week about the proposed state police bill of C. A. Sorensen. "I thought you were a friend of Sorensen," this man said, "and a friend of Attorney General Sorensen and I am going to vote for him, you bet, but that is no sign that I have to advocate everything that he believes in. That is just the trouble with politics. To be a good party man, one must know what the party advocates everything the leaders of the party advocate. I was a Non-partisan Leaguer and while that organization has gone the way of many other progressive movements, I am still a firm believer in the principle it advocated. And I reserve the right to do my own thinking. I don't ever expect to be a good party man. I have voted for democrats in the past and shall no doubt do so in the future. And I believe this country would be in a bad fix without its progressive statesmen, though some of them are being abused and being progressive. If it was not for such men in congress as Norris, Borah, Johnson, LaFollette, Shipstead, Brookhart, many things would be done by a brutal party machine which would be against the interests of all the people. And we would never know about them till it was everlastingly too late.

So I don't try to advise anyone how to vote. I do think that every man and woman should vote. They should all post themselves as best they can first and then vote as they think will best serve the people of the country. I would not, for anything, try to tell an employe how to vote and I think the big employers of labor are all wrong in trying to dictate to their employe how they shall vote.

I have not changed my mind on the proposed state police law and I believe it would be a bad thing to adopt it at this time. I am going to vote against it and I am going to urge Valley county voters to study the matter from every angle and use their best judgment when they come to vote but do vote on it one way or the other. Let's let the legislature know what the majority of the people think about it, so that they may be no chance for argument if the matter, in some other form, comes before the law makers this winter.

And always keep in mind that C. A. Sorensen is the first attorney general that we have had in Omaha and try to clean things up. Remember that the present trial going on there is a direct result of the information that Attorney General Sorensen unearthed through his agents and if the decent people of Omaha don't give Sorensen a huge majority this year they are an ungrateful bunch of pikers.

A careful check during the past week shows that more than 500 Quiz subscribers are in arrears, some of them not much, some many months. A further check shows that it costs for white paper that the Quiz is printed on more than a dollar a year and if the paper is sent to 500 people and not paid for, the cost to us is over five hundred dollars, or about fifty dollars a month. During recent months when business has been so bad that we failed to pay expenses, we have lopped off first one item of overhead expense, then another. First salaries were cut; then the colored section was dropped; then we quit paying the country correspondents for their work as we had done for years; then salaries were cut again and one employe was laid off. Still we are going behind and more overhead must be cut off. I am now trying to figure out some scheme to get folks who are behind, catch up and keep on getting the paper. I have gone about as far as I can in sending it without pay and those who are behind will just have to drop from the list, unless they hate to do it. I am going to make a suggestion to such next week which I hope will meet with their approval. Watch for the suggestion and act promptly if you want to continue to get the paper unless it is cut off for good. If the revenue received would permit us to keep on paying the bill we would keep it coming to every one now getting it in business conditions improve.

And here is what I think about Bob Simmons, our congressman. He is an honest man. We know he can be depended upon to stand pat on the prohibition question. He has told us in his speeches all this campaign when most candidates, including his opponent, all try to hedge. He has been on the job so long that he knows all the ins and outs of the work and can and will get more for this district than any new man could get. The salary is fixed by law and Bob won't cost us any more than a new man would and it will take a new man at least two years before he will be any account to the district. I wouldn't even suggest how you should vote but do suggest that you think this thing over and then all go and vote one way or the other.

Something DIFFERENT

Bill Wigent, aged 89, well known local resident, is what I'd call a real optimist.

Recently Mr. Wigent accompanied a grandson, Bud Cover, on an automobile trip back to his old home near Hartford, Michigan. Though it was a long trip, Mr. Wigent seemed none the worse for it, and was in his usual health upon his arrival. So much so in fact, that he walked into the office of the Hartford "Day Spring", a newspaper there, and renewed his subscription, paying in advance for ten years.

Mr. Wigent has found that his trips back east are generally made about every ten years, so it is his habit to step into the newspaper office and pay up on time. In Hartford, while in Hartford, he even paid 20 years in advance. What an example for Quiz subscribers.

The Nebraska Signal took a dirty crack at my honorable pa-in-law.

Referring to Ripley's Believe It or Not feature carrying the news that one James Asgaard had a voice that could be heard six miles, the Signal says "Yes, we heard it also, but we supposed it was Hank Leggett of the Ord speaking, probably telling a fish story."

Dean Barta was a proud boy the other day, when he shot his first pheasant on his first pheasant hunting trip. And ate it himself, after his mother had it. You can't blame him for that. Incidentally, his father was proud too.

Over at the high school was another proud boy a week or so ago, when Richard Smith made the winning touchdown in the first football game in which he played. And was thrilled to pieces. Can't blame him, either.

And I didn't hear whether Eva McBeth LeMasters was thrilled or not, but I think she was, when she shot a couple pheasants on her first pheasant hunting trip with a 410 gauge shotgun. And I presume Guy was thrilled too. Why not?

An Ord lady's daughter teaches her first term of school this year, and has ten boys for a class. One weighs 204 pounds and is attending his first term of school at 14 years. And as if that wasn't enough, his mama was worried for fear the other boys would "run over him."

Another young country teacher is finding real depression in the home where she stays which is up near Gables, not near Ord. When the family have company they bring in more tree stumps, to serve as chairs. The teacher has a chair in her room, however, and she has no bottom. This girl has only one pupil to teach.

A third young teacher has six scholars in whom to instill knowledge and notices an improvement even in the length of time. I believe she said to her class, "English, to begin with, and since she couldn't speak anything else, a good time was had by all. This same young girl reported that she was actually so homesick that she could feel pains around her heart."

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

Only three or four days left to get in any recipes you want considered for the next cookery Quiz puts out so hurry up, all you good cooks, and send them in right away.

Pumpkin Pie
2 c. pumpkin, cooked and run through colander. 1 1/2 c. rich milk. 2 eggs. 1/2 c. sugar. 1/4 c. melted butter. 1/4 tsp. salt. 1/4 tsp. nutmeg. 1/4 tsp. cloves. 1/4 tsp. cinnamon. 1/2 tsp. ginger.

Sift salt, spices and sugar, add the beaten eggs, milk and pumpkin. Pour into a pan, line with pastry and bake in the fatty coat over 30 minutes or until pie puffs in center.

Chill Sauce
24 large ripe tomatoes. 4 onions. green peppers. 4 tbsp. salt. 1 tsp. cinnamon. 1/2 tsp. allspice and cloves. 1 c. sugar. 1 1/2 pts. vinegar, full strength.

Peel tomatoes and onions, chop fine, also the peppers. Add vinegar, spices, salt, sugar, put into a preserving kettle and boil 3 hours. Bottle and seal.

Sweet Potato Balls
Peel and boil sweet potatoes, when tender drain and mash. Season well with salt, pepper and butter. If too dry add a small amount of milk. When cool enough to handle form medium sized balls pressing a marshmallow into the center of each. Roll in corn flakes and bake in a hot oven 15 or 20 minutes. The marshmallow will explode and run out but will seep back into the potato. Serve hot.

Old Fashioned Jelly Roll
1/2 c. ordinary flour. 1/4 tsp. Alumet baking powder. 1/4 tsp. salt. 4 eggs. 1/2 c. sifted sugar. 1 tsp. vanilla. 1 c. jelly.

Use level measurements. Sift flour once and measure. Combine baking powder, salt and eggs in a bowl. Place over a bowl of hot water and beat with a rotary egg beater, adding sugar gradually until the mixture becomes thick and light colored. Remove from hot water bath, fold in flour and vanilla. Turn into a pan 15 by 10 inches, lined with greased paper and bake in a hot oven (400 F) 13 minutes. Turn from pan at once onto cloth covered with confection-ers sugar. Remove paper. Quickly cut off crisp edges of cake, spread with softened concentrated cream in a cloth and cool on rack.

This is a Swandown recipe, but I have always used ordinary flour. Mrs. Archie Waterman.

BACK FORTY

De Laval Home Dairy Spread is a solidified concentrated cream which is used as a substitute for butter. It has met with enthusiastic welcome from many farmers, because it is easily prepared and does not require the labor or implements necessary in churning.

It is made by using a special cream cover instead of the regular cover, and buttermaking taking cover in place of the standard regulation cover on the De Laval company's separator. The extra attachments cost about seven dollars.

In introducing this new product the DeLaval Separator Company says: "Years ago practically every farm family made its own supply of butter and farm families consumed liberal supplies of this most wholesome and nourishing food."

During the past number of years, however, butter-making has rapidly declined and is fast becoming a lost art, largely because home butter-making requires considerable equipment, time, patience and skill.

In every locality where there is a local creamery it is possible for the farm home to get a good supply of butter; but in thousands of communities throughout the country which are not served by local creameries the decline in home butter-making has frequently made it impossible to secure a good supply of butter at reasonable prices, and in many localities farmers are using butter substitutes or do not use butter at all.

As a result many farm families are denied the use of butter, which is essential for the health of both young and old.

The dairy industry has also been seriously hurt, because the product of at least 100,000 cows is being displaced through the use of butter substitutes, of which the farmers in this country are the largest users, or because of the non-use or low consumption of butter on farms. At the present time there is a surplus of milk and dairy products and prices are at unacceptably low levels. This surplus could be quickly wiped out and prices restored to a profitable basis if every farm family used liberal supplies of butter or Home Dairy Spread, and at the same time they would get the better nourished and healthier for it.

Home Dairy Spread is a simple name for this dairy product, which might be termed "home butter," and is in fact butter too low in butter-fat content to be within the legal standard for commercial butter, but so near it in composition, appearance and taste that few people can tell the difference from butter. Because Home Dairy Spread contains from 10 to 20 per cent less butter-fat than commercial butter, it is more economical for farmers to use, even apart from the lower production cost. It is made by running warm milk from the cows, or reheated to about 100 degrees temperature, through a Golden, Sterling or Electro Separator. The next separator covers just two special parts. This enables a heavy cream to be produced, which tests from 60 to 75 per cent butter-fat. When put in a cool place this cream congeals or solidifies at 56 degrees, and when salted and bottled it is ready for use. Nothing could be simpler than making Home Dairy Spread. It is easy to make, does not require churning, any one can make it and it is more economical, more delicious, nourishing and healthful.

Home Dairy Spread is very rich in Vitamin A, which authorities state when used in liberal quantities will do much to build up bodily vigor and resistance against certain diseases, particularly nasal, ear and sinus infections, among which is the common cold.

In addition, this Spread is an important source of Vitamin D, which protects against rickets, aids in the growth and quality of bones and teeth, and helps in the digestion and assimilation of other foods. It is known as the "sunshine vitamin."

These health-giving qualities are supplied in Home Dairy Spread in the most easily digested and most economical form; and perhaps what is most important it tastes so good that it enriches all food it comes in contact with and adds enjoyment and palatability to the meal.

Following are some of the advantages which Home Dairy Spread will give:

1. Provides a nutritious spread practically equal to butter in food value, at a lower cost.

2. Does away with farm churning.

3. Is far superior to oleo in food and health value and in flavor.

4. Will remove from market considerable butterfat, strengthening the market for that which is left.

5. Is an economy measure which fits admirably into farmers' efforts to produce more of their living at home.

6. By replacing oleo on the farm table or by increasing the consumption of butter-fat on the farm it will be a distinct aid to the entire dairy industry."

When You and I Were Young, Maggie

85 Years Ago This Week. A wrestling match between Farmer Burns and Jack O'Leary was held in Ord, Burbs being an easy winner. Only a small crowd attended in spite of the fact that Burns claimed to be world's champion at that time.

The panic of 1907 was about ended, it was claimed and the Grand Island bank that closed, which was the nearest to Ord that bank failures came, re-opened and promised to pay all claims in full. This was good news to McMindes & Burdick, who had an $11,000 draft on the bank when it closed.

J. P. Baird bought a mechanical corn picker from Cornell Bros, the first such machine sold near Ord. Albert P. Parks and Miss Mary Hosel were married at Genarum on election day. Warren Draper and Elsie Burger also were wed.

Will Ollis went to Lincoln to enter the agricultural college.

20 Years Ago This Week. In a landslide of votes Woodrow Wilson was elected president, winning over 400 votes in the electoral college. Taft got but 12 while Theodore Roosevelt had about 100.

Ord high school, with the best football team in its history, had won four games with a point total of 138 and had not yet been scored upon. The line-up included Haskell, center; Misko and Norman, guards; Clements and Weddie, tackles; Blessing and Flynn, ends; Collins, quarterback; Johns and Sorensen, halfbacks; Wise, full-back and captain. In the Sargent game Wise dropped a goal from the 40 yard line.

Jack Rashaw and Margaret Sharp were married; so were John Burrows and Myrtle Mulligan; also Cora Belle Stewart and J. D. Garnick.

Davis Given Fob By Insurance Co.

Twenty-five years is a long period to be connected with the same organization but Claude A. Davis, for many years an attorney here, but now a Grand Island resident, has been the local representative of the Continental Insurance Company for that length of time. As a consequence, he has just received a "fob service" gold watch fob, the official decoration of that company's "old guard."

The badge of service was accompanied by a letter from Bernard M. Culver, president of the company, who expressed his appreciation of Mr. Davis' long connection with his institution.

Mr. Davis' records show that he wrote his first policy with the Continental for Martha J. Loofbourrow on Sept. 30, 1907.

Frank J. Taylor Should Be Elected

Most of our readers in the 5th Congressional District know that Frank J. Taylor is a candidate for regent of the state university, being up for re-election to his second term. He should have the support of every one who is anxious to see the university run properly and economically.

Recently we were visiting with a friend from another part of the state who is serving on the board of regents and he informed us that Mr. Taylor was a very valuable man on the board and that he should be retained there as long as possible. He thought it was a wonderful privilege the voters in this district have to vote for such a man for the important office of regent of the state university.

The regents do not draw any salary, only their actual expenses being paid by the taxpayers of the state. When a man as busy as Mr. Taylor is, will devote so much time to the task of looking after the manner in which the state university is run, the people should consider themselves fortunate. No member of the board of regents can afford to make any campaign for votes. It is up to the friends of the university, those who wish the university to grow and prosper, to get back of such men as Frank J. Taylor and boost him into office. There is little doubt but that Taylor will be re-elected as he is well and favorably known over the entire district, but a man who has made such an outstanding record for efficiency and economy should have a tremendous vote of approval and appreciation. When you go to the polls do not overlook the name of Frank J. Taylor on the "non-political" ballot.—From St. Paul Photograph, Oct. 19, 1932.

Youth Is Best Golfer. Paul Bolsere, Jr., of Spalding, only 14 years old, is Greeley county's best golfer this year. In a county-wide tournament held recently he beat Dr. Paul Bartunek, of Wolbach, who has often played in tournaments here. Greeley county holds a golf tournament each year. In 1927 John Maddox of Scotia won, in 1928 C. H. Larson of Greeley was champion, in 1929 Dr. Sullivan of Spalding, in 1930 P. J. Kerrigan of Greeley and in 1931 Marlon Larson of Greeley. Young Bolsere is the youngest golfer who has ever held the title.

Pinckney Now at Erlerson. Dr. C. E. Pinckney, for several years in practice at North Loup and Scotia, has decided to locate at Erlerson and is now moving his family there. Erlerson had been without a doctor since Dr. Osheroff left for further schooling.

Mrs. Clarence Dye is spending a couple of days with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Jameson while her husband is attending to business matters.

DR. RICH says:

Grand Island, Nebr., Nov. 2, 1932 —Fissure is truly the most painful of all rectal afflictions. Its symptoms are well known, being pain during and following bowel movement, last from a few moments to hours in some cases never absent. Other rectal troubles may be associated with Fissure. Piles is often given by patients as a reason for this painful rectal condition.

No patients are more grateful than those cured of Rectal Fissure. The correct treatment being so easily and readily given, no one should continue to suffer from this painful and nerve destroying disease, when a permanent cure can be so quickly obtained. Your health is one of the most valuable things you possess, or ever will possess. What value do you place upon it?

When those afflicted with Piles decide to come to me for their cure, they know in advance their fee will not be more than $50.00, and that no extra charge will be made for complications. Correspondence and examination free. Address Dr. Rich, Rectal Specialist, Grand Island, Nebraska. (1)

EYE TALKS Week by Week

In the past few weeks we have very briefly considered the Inturning Crossed eyes and the out-turning crossed eyes, so this week we will consider the up-turning eye.

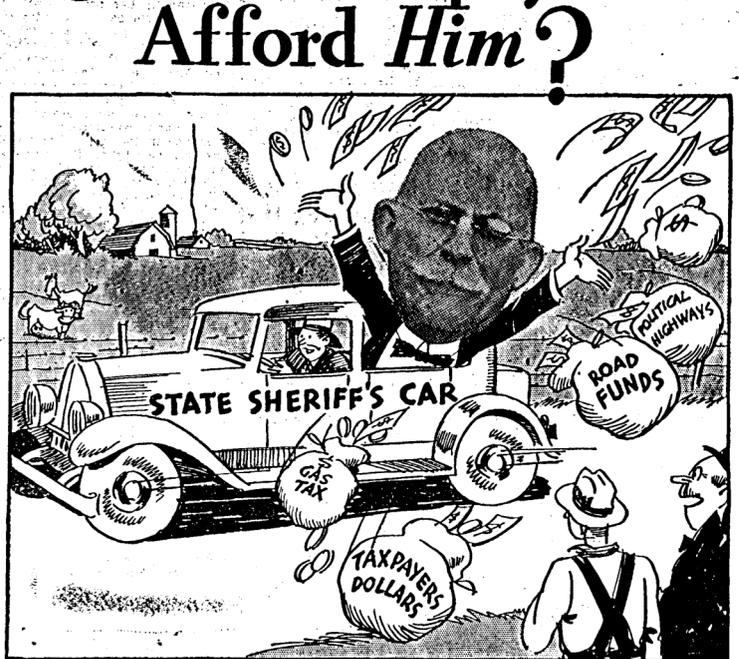

At least tendencies of this kind are of very frequent occurrence and where the vision still remains good in the deviating eye, and that eye does not turn up too much, the condition is manifested by a head tilting or carrying the head to the side.

Watch a crowd for a few minutes and you can readily pick out several people suffering from this disturbance, some carrying the head almost touching the shoulder.

It is interesting indeed to watch how quickly the head straightens up where the eyes are properly corrected.

Can the Taxpayers Afford Him?

Nebraska is spending MORE money to run the State government now than ever before in its history.

Under Bryan, the cost of operating the State government in 1931, the first calendar year of his present term, was $28,205,678.17.

That was $5,938,778.45 MORE than was spent in 1929 under Governor Weaver, Republican, who preceded Bryan.

It was $2,198,170.71 MORE than was spent by the Republican administration in 1930, the year before Bryan took office.

Bryan's expenditures of tax money alone are exceeding his tax levies by more than $2,100,000.00, which must be met at some future time.

These facts are a matter of public record at the state house in Lincoln and are available to every taxpayer in Nebraska.

(The only detailed information a taxpayer may have difficulty in obtaining is the payroll personnel of the Bank Receivership headed by E. H. Luikart, a Bryan appointee. The facts about this matter have not been made public, although the information has repeatedly been requested.)

WHO PAYS?
Do you want our State to continue "running in the hole?" Can you afford Bryan?

He goes to the table to eat and Tuesday he spent a short time out of doors. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rashaw had twenty-four dinner guests Tuesday evening. Fried pheasant was the chief dish of the menu. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parks and son left yesterday for their home in Denver after spending several days in Ord with the Dr. G. R. Gard family. Donald Long had an operation Monday in the Ord hospital. He had a growth on his hip, where he was kicked by a horse. He is a nephew of Mrs. Jack Rashaw. Sunday there was a pheasant dinner party in the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Leonard. Guests from Ord were the L. Shunkwiler and Jack Rashaw family. Donald Lashmutt has been quite ill. He was cared for in the Jack Rashaw home for a while but now he is in his father's home and down in bed. He is a patient of Dr. C. J. Miller. The three children of Mrs. Bernard Smith are staying in Franklin with their father's family. Norma Smith, who had been staying with Mrs. Alfred Wiegardt while in Ord writes that they like it there. Their mother is employed in Lincoln.

Her sister, Mrs. J. E. Stark of Broken Bow brought Mrs. Worden to Ord. Mr. Stark stayed around Sargent to hunt pheasants. Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hartman, of Washington, D. C., are parents of a 6 3/4 pound baby girl born Sunday. The baby has been named Joan Elizabeth. Mrs. Hartman formerly was Miss Viola Misko, daughter of Will Misko of Ord. Will is thus presented with his first grandchild. While canning pheasants Monday both Mr. and Mrs. Ray Kocina were quite badly burned when a glass jar exploded and showered them with steaming hot liquid. The burns were painful but not serious. Mrs. Kocina was using a new canning method involving heating the jars in the oven after filling them. She promises to stick to older and safer methods in the future. Tuesday evening Mrs. D. B. Smith and Miss Mamie Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hardenbrook entertained at a pheasant dinner. Guests were Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Spracklen and Rev. and Mrs. Merle Smith and daughter, Marjory Jean.

A PLEASING CANDIDATE. Floyd L. Bollen of Friend, Nebraska, is an ideal candidate for the office of railway commissioner. The Quiz believes that the railway commission is the bunk and ought to be junked. As at this time constituted, it believes the railway commission is more an instrument for the welfare of the big corporations than it is for the welfare of the people in general. The Quiz would like to see the railway commission made up of such men as C. A. Sorenson, M. J. Cushing, Floyd L. Bollen and other progressive men of that stripe. And we now have a chance to get one such man on the commission. Mr. Bollen has printed the five following statements on the back of his campaign cards: 1. 25 years of legal training in the active practice of law. 2. Populist in former days, but progressive always. 3. There should be one democrat on the Railway Commission. All three members are now and for 14 years have been republicans. 4. During the last 8 years three republican commissioners have resigned to accept high salaried jobs with the public utilities. A man cannot serve two masters nor can he serve the people today and aspire to serve the public utilities tomorrow. 5. The Railway Commission without waiting for formal complaints, should institute proceedings to require public utilities in general and telephone companies in particular, to show cause why the present rates based on war time prices should not be reduced. Mr. Bollen is quite well known in Valley county. He married Miss Rae Jennings, a former Valley county girl and he has often visited in this county. The Quiz believes that Valley county voters will not make a mistake if they vote for Mr. Bollen and his name will be found on the democratic ticket. Mother of Alex Dies. Mrs. William Alexander, 83, of Howard county, the mother of Grover Cleveland Alexander, former big league pitcher, passed away Monday afternoon at her home in St. Paul.

THE PORK-BARREL HILL

(From Scottsbluff Pioneer) "There's gold in them thar hills," said the oldtimers as they headed for the mountains over the old Oregon Trail years and years ago.

We are assured by Congressman Simmons that $250,000 in gold will be used to improve the work God Almighty did when he carved Scotts Bluff. A beautiful 20-foot highway will wind around the Bluff and mount to the summit, providing a marvelous view for the people who have a gallon of gas and a car.

And we see that the proposal is made to place a plaque at a prominent point and inscribe thereon the name of Congressman Robert G. Simmons for his magnanimous support and endorsement of the proposition. In fact, if it had not been for Bob, we could never have had the quarter-million to desecrate that Old Hill.

But we would inscribe more than the name of Bob Simmons on that plaque. We really should have these words written thereon:

"Robert G. Simmons voted against the adjusted compensation to the ex-service men of Scotts Bluff county. He said it was robbing the treasury to pay these men in 1932. But he found it commendable and laudable to work for the expenditure of $150,000 to build this beautiful road, and he hopes it will be forever a monument to his statesmanship and perpetuate his good name for all posterity."

Now, gentle reader, a quarter-million dollars is a lot of money. It is enough money to pave with concrete over 15 miles of road. It is a sum big enough to build 250 miles of country roads for the farmers. That $250,000 would care for the poor of Scotts Bluff county for ten years! That amount would have paid the adjusted compensation to every ex-service man in this county. It would have run a city hall in every town in Scotts Bluff county, or pay for a new county courthouse and jail! Yes indeed a quarter of a million is a lot of money.

It is pork-barrel money—all of us realize that. This $250,000 is to come from the national government, and be spent under the direction of politicians. It will be used to help the unemployment and relieve suffering. More than likely, a $25,000 machine will be shipped out from Omaha or Kansas City, with imported operators to run it. The contractor will make from $50,000 to $75,000 profit. A few local men will be given work with shovels and picks. But most of the work will be done, we have no doubt, by a foreign contractor with big machines and imported hired hands.

But the building of the road is a splendid thing, for it will perpetuate the memory of a politician. Who will pay for the road up the hill? Don't ask foolish questions, for you know that you will pay for it. How? Well, every time you write a check, you contribute two cents. Each time you mail a letter, you are paying an extra cent. When you go to the show, you pay a nickel. Each time, you send a telegram, or call long distance over the telephone, or pay your light bill, you will contribute toward the gold pavement on Scotts Bluff. When you smoke a cigarette, or chew gum, or buy talcum powder, you are contributing to the pork-barrel politicians who build gold-plated roads up desert hills.

The Pioneer thinks the building of the road up Scotts Bluff a national crime. A government that has a quarter-million dollars to build a worthless road should take care of its needy, its homeless, its starving, its distressed, and its soldiers before it opens up its pork-barrel to waste money. The appalling misuse of government money is going on all over the country. There are a lot of gold-plated hills, bridges, post offices, reservoirs, and other government monstrosities being built all through the 43 states of our nation. Taxes must mount higher and higher in order to pay for these useless structures. And you, gentle reader, must dig down in your pockets and find the money.

The Pioneer used to oppose the building of a road up Scotts Bluff, but we favor it now. In every part of the nation, money is being squandered by the government; we might as well have our share of the pork-barrel funds, for other communities will get them if we don't. We have our eyes open. We know that $250,000, if distributed to 100 ex-soldiers and their families, would relieve suffering in the valley. We know that a contractor and a few others will get all the benefit from the $250,000 gold-plated road up the Bluff. But our political leadership says the soldiers can wait until 1945, and the road must be built now!

Take your children out to see the Old Hill as it stands now. Let them see it while it is yet natural. Look it over carefully, thank your God that you have seen it before the steam-shovel starts to work. In a year from now, go out there again, and drive your flivver over a quarter-million dollar highway to the top. Stop and read the plaque to Robert G. Simmons, who roled down the bonis for this country and then supported the waste of money for the road. The hill will be gold-plated, and Scotts Bluff will be changed from a monument to the Pioneers of the Oregon Trail into a memorial to his statesmanship and political sagacity—Advertisement.

Following an impressive installation service of the newly elected officers of the Epworth League the members of this organization gave a pleasing Bible play based on the incidents of the marriage in Caanan Sunday eve. This was preceded by a male quartette singing two selections. Those rendering the special music were Roy Hudson, Donald Fisher, Melvin Cornell and Sam Shinneman. Miss Eula Shinneman presided at the piano.

The Nellie Shaw Missionary society entertained a large group of their friends and members in the basement of the S. D. B. church Sunday evening. Decorations were in keeping with the Halloween season. Delicious refreshments were served at the close.

The A. T. Jones home was again this week the scene of a large company of Omaha relatives and friends who arrived at 7 o'clock Sunday morning to enjoy another pheasant hunt. Those present were K. L. Wilmarth and son, Jr. W. A. Wilmarth and Gordon Bennett, all of whom are engaged in commerce at Ord. In Omaha, E. Haines, Dr. S. D. Carman and S. B. Garver, manager of the Kresge store in Omaha and C. S. Goodrich of New York City and brother Emerson of Omaha. The company enjoyed a delicious pheasant dinner prepared by Mrs. Jones and her sister Mrs. Goodrich, departing for Omaha in the evening.

Miss Alvina Kriewald quite surprised her friends when she quietly stole away to Kearney Saturday, October 22, and was married at the Evangelical parsonage in that city to Walter Flacke of Hastings. The groom is a prosperous farmer of Hastings vicinity, his people being old time friends of the late Carl and Mary Kriewald. The bride needs no introduction in this community where she was born and reared and all know her to be a pleasing and most capable young lady. Since the death of both her parents only a few short months ago Alvina, now Mrs. Flacke has been overseer of the farm home in Riverdale at which place the young couple will be at home to friends from Sunday following a few weeks visit with the groom's people near Hastings. The Davis Creek church is holding a bazaar and supper this Thursday evening.

The Misses Lois Kildow and Inez Hutchins entertained fifteen young people at a hobgoblin party at the Kildow home Monday evening. Ghosts and old witches were very manifest and a jolly time was spent. A lunch of hot goblins, (wetters wrapped in biscuit dough and baked crisp), broomsticks, (celery), and jack-o-lantern salad, (fruit salad in orange shells) and coffee was served.

Mrs. William Sharp of Lincoln was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Helen Kriewald over Sunday. Madams Anna Crandall, Isabelle Creager, Maud Thomas and Mrs. V. J. Thomas were Friday visitors of Mrs. Esther Schudel who is still confined to her bed following an appendix operation at Hillcrest a few weeks ago. The patient expects soon to be entirely recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Redden and their Omaha friends, the Henry Hagemans and A. C. Potter were guests last week of Mrs. Redden's brother, Paul Bartz. They returned to Omaha Friday with their quota of pheasants. Mrs. George Bartz and Lella accompanied them and will visit in Omaha on Saturday.

Miss Alta Barnhart enjoyed a pheasant dinner at the home of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duten Friday.

The DEMOCRATIC TICKET

CONGRESSIONAL TICKET: First District, John H. Moorehead; Second District, Edward R. Burke; Third District, Edgar Howard; Fourth District, Ashton C. Shallenberger; Fifth District, Terry Carpenter.

STATE TICKET: For Governor, Charles W. Bryan; for Lieutenant Governor, Walter H. Jurgens; for Secretary of State, Harry R. Swanson; for Auditor of Public Accounts, Wm. B. Price; for Commissioner of Public Lands and Building, Harry P. Conking; for Attorney General, Paul F. Good; for Treasurer, George E. Hall; for Railway Commissioner, Floyd S. Bollen.

FALSE CHARGES REFUTED The republican committee charges there will be a $2,100,000 deficit under Governor Bryan. This is false. Official figures prepared by the State Board of Equalization, consisting of three republicans and two democrats, show that there will be no deficit. The state appropriates $4,500 for office maintenance for the Governor. The Governor uses none of this for his traveling expense; neither does he use the state car except on official visits. In spite of the opposite of the republican legislative state taxes were reduced 25 percent. This can be verified by your county treasurer or your tax receipts.

"Every act of the President has been in the interest of employment. . . he has kept his head when others lost theirs. . . no act of his has been dictated by panic or politics. And the result is that we are now beginning to feel the lifting power of his well-thought-out program. . . President Hoover must be elected to prevent times from getting worse and to help them get better."

Charles A. Lindbergh says:

"The experience, courage and vision of Herbert Hoover are needed to pilot us safely out of the world-wide depression from which we are emerging."

Calvin Coolidge says:

"Before we decide that we want a change we ought to determine what the chances are of securing any improvement. . . the more this campaign has progressed, the more I am convinced that the public welfare requires that Hoover should be re-elected."

DEPRESSION and discontent stalk the earth. Originating abroad, the catastrophe spread in 1928 and engulfed our country. No nation foresaw the monster. None could. Many governments collapsed under its crushing weight.

The United States was the last to suffer. It is the first to show definite signs of recovery. No other nation has met this tragic economic collapse so forcefully and successfully — no other nation has laid so broad a foundation for reconstruction — no other nation has accomplished as much as has our nation under the Republican leadership of Herbert Hoover.

Shall we now, at this critical time, experiment with political "patent medicines" and fantastic, unsound theories, or shall we continue a safe and sensible program that President Hoover has put into operation?

Democratic leaders seek to tear down, not build up. In their quest for Republican votes, they are not appealing to your common sense. They are fanning the flames of human distress.

When you hire a man you ask references as to his character, ability, experience and loyalty to the job in hand. The Democratic candidate would remove our tariff. He proposes nothing helpful to agriculture. He discloses an amazing ignorance of national problems and how to combat them. He promises government jobs to ten millions of people — an astounding promise which no government could fulfill. As governor of New York the last three years he has increased the funded debt of his state nearly 100 millions of dollars!

Millions of citizens have begun to think seriously. They are NOT going to vote for a candidate whose election would stop the forces of reconstruction now in operation, frighten business and delay recovery. They will vote Republican.

Haskell Creek

The Happy Circle club spent last Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Wilmer Nelson. Other guests were Mrs. George Watts, Mrs. Ed Michalek, Mrs. Harold Nelson, Hilda Nelson, Mrs. Raymond Pocock of Ansley and Alma Nelson of Winner, S. D. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Martin Michalek, Madams Wes Miska, Rudolph Collison, Frank Miska and Charles Dana are the serving committee.

Alma Nelson of Winner, S. D. came down Wednesday for a visit with relatives here. Clarabell, eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rasmussen, met with a painful accident Tuesday evening when she fell on an open safety pin, running the point into the fleshy part of the thumb with such force that the pin was bent. In spite of all precautions infection set in and she was taken to Dr. Weekes, who dressed the thumb but Thursday he was forced to lance the thumb and put in a drain. She is getting along very well now.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Woods had a birthday last Wednesday and in the evening about fifty friends helped her celebrate. Those present were: the George Watts, George Glarborg, Ernie Hill, Henry Jorgensen, Will Nelson, Howerton and Chris Nielsen families, Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen of Fremont, Misses Frances Smith, Anna Mortensen and Hazel Rallsback and Dave Guggenmos and Paul DeLashmunt.

Thursday the 4-H calves of Evelyn Jorgensen and Fred Nielsen were shipped to the Ak-Sar-Ben stock show. Friday Fred went with Irl Tolen to attend the show. Frank Flynn and Jim Misko shipped a carload of cattle to Omaha Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Coufal and daughter, Betty Jean, of Cotesfield spent Sunday at Martin Michalek's. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nielsen also called there during the afternoon.

The Frank Miska, Elliott Clement and Chris Nielsen families and Ida and Roy Howerton, Alice Alderman and Delta Marie Flynn helped Wes Miska celebrate a birthday Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Johnson and Mrs. A. P. Jensen were at L. S. Larsen's Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Geller and son and daughter, Laudy Schweg, Mr. and Mrs. John Schweg, Frank Brown and George Barch, all of Omaha and George Wachtrle spent Saturday at Charles Dan's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen and Mrs. Clausen of Fremont, Mrs. Oscar Enger, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Hartwig Koll and Mrs. Albin Nelson were dinner guests at Will Nelson's Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jorgensen and daughter were in Erlson Sunday.

Jess Howerton has been laid up with a sore foot. He ran wire into it while after hay Friday. Duane Woods also has been limping, having cut his foot when the axe slipped while he was cutting wood.

George Houthy was at Frank Miska's Monday after some cattle he had pastured there. Ed Koltinsky was assisting him.

Mrs. Frank Flynn and daughters and Alice Alderman were at Walter Jorgensen's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rasmussen and family were dinner guests at Howard Barnes' Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen of Fremont were at Hartwig Koll's Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hower and family were at Frank Miska's last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holzinger were at Frank Hlavinka's Sunday.

Mrs. Raymond Pocock has been spending the week with home folks.

There were thirty six in Sunday school Sunday. A girl's quartette, Delta Flynn, Alice Alderman, Dorothy Nelson and Evelyn Jorgensen sang a special number.

Edith and Viola Philbrick and Mildred and Mabel VanSlyke visited Dist. 74 Thursday. Viola Philbrick and Dorothy Nelson visited at Dist. 45 Friday.

Don't Get Up Nights

Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil. Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Sold by McLain & Sorensen.

Water in Place Of Meals Helps Stomach

Stomach trouble is often helped by skipping one meal. Drink lots of water. Add a spoonful of Adlerika each morning to clean out poisons in stomach and bowels. Ed F. Beranek, Druggist.

Prairie Chicken Costly

Shooting a prairie chicken which he had mistaken for a pheasant last week proved costly to Burl Blair of Broken Bow, who was hunting near Comstock. Just after he shot the bird Game Warden Lashmett happened along and took Blair to Broken Bow where a justice of the peace fined him $25 plus costs of $3.50 and state damages of $10. He later remitted the $25 fine, making the total cost to Blair $13.50.

stock. It took him all one night to get back into the house, he relates.

Shortly after the noon hour John Miller was driving cattle along the highway a half mile from the Wilson house and thought that he heard cries. Meeting Dan Fishna, he told him that he believed some thing was wrong at Wilson's and Mr. Fishna went to investigate, finding Mr. Wilson in his hog lot, where he had dragged himself to feed his starving animals. He summoned other neighbors, Lester Kizer and Roy Swanson, who carried Wilson back into the house and called Dr. E. J. Smith of Burwell.

Dr. Smith responded promptly and set Wilson's legs at once. In one leg both of the bones were fractured and the leg was swollen and black. In the other leg only one bone was broken. At first it was thought that the legs would have to be amputated but yesterday Mr. Wilson, after a good night's rest in the Burwell hospital, was so much improved that it is believed he will recover.

He is a man of iron nerve and of strong constitution, else he could never have survived the ordeal, doctors say. His father arrived from Waco yesterday and is with him at Burwell.

George Lockhart and Roy Swanson milked Wilson's cows only yesterday morning, the first time they had been milked in more than a week. They are good dairy animals and it is believed that they can be saved. Other neighbors helped by feeding the cattle and hogs and the whole Dry Cedar, Joint and Rosevale precincts are planning to hold a husking bee tomorrow and hulk Mr. Wilson's corn.

George Cummins and son, Newton, from Montana, and Will Cronk were Monday dinner guests at the Arthur Mensing home. They stopped at the Will Cronk home while returning to their home in Montana after a month's visit in New York state. Mr. Cummins is a brother of Will Cronk.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kokes and daughters, Helen and Mickey were Sunday dinner guests at the Jim Hidy home.

Mrs. Mike Noha and daughter Elsie attended "The Farmerette" a play given by the Joint high school girls at Joint Thursday evening. It was reported to be very good.

Mark Overton and son-in-law of Lincoln spent from Sunday until Wednesday morning at the Will Novosad home.

Mrs. Joe Novotny of Kimball spent Monday at Joe Dworak's.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mensing and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Noha and family spent Sunday evening at Will Cronk's visiting with the Cummins'.

Miss Helen Kokes came Saturday and spent the week end at home. Rose and John Kokes and Ed Dworak took Helen and a friend, Charlotte Kasal back to Wolbach Sunday evening. Miss Helen came to Ord from the teachers convention in Kearney.

Arcadia, Sargent Still Leading Way

The sixth week of competition in the Loup Valley conference gridiron season finds Arcadia and Sargent still showing the way in the race for league honors. Both teams are undefeated and untied, Arcadia having won five and Sargent three conference battles.

Last week Sargent proved the strength of its team by beating Broken Bow, 27 to 0, on the latter's field. Arcadia and St. Paul both had open dates last week. Burwell stepped out of the conference to take a stinging 41 to 0 beating from Greeley while Loup City administered a 12 to 0 defeat to Wood River, which was also a non-conference game. In other non-conference games Scotia defeated Wolbach and Comstock lost to Mason City.

Coach Molzen's Ord team last Wednesday edged out a victory over North Loup by the score of 7 to 6. Ord fans maintain that referee's bad decisions cost the local team victory. Coach Molzen and school authorities are making no such claims as they are satisfied with even a one-point victory over Ord's strongest opponents.

Tomorrow will find the Ord team playing at Burwell in the game they have been pointing for all season. Last year Coach Zorn's team gave Ord a sound drubbing, after the Ordites had confidently broadcast predictions of victory. This is a habit Burwell has had in recent years and Coach Molzen's men are after revenge tomorrow. They should get it, for Burwell is having its poorest season in years. Nothing is sure in football, though, and Burwell always plays its hardest against Ord. The Ord team has a large crowd of rooters will accompany the team to Burwell.

Christian Science

"Adam and Fallen Man" is the subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, for Sunday, November 6.

The Golden Text is: from John 3:6, "That which is born of flesh is flesh; and that which is born of Spirit is spirit".

A scriptural passage used in the lesson-sermon is from I Cor. 15:22, and reads: "For as in Adam all die, so in Christ shall all be made alive."

A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, reads: "Christian Science separates error from Truth and breathes through the sacred pages the spiritual sense of life, substance, and intelligence. In this Science, we discover man in the image and likeness of God. We see that man has never lost his spiritual estate and his eternal harmony." (page 548).

Methodist Church Notes

Next Sunday will be observed as Rally Day at all the services of the day. Services as follows:

10 a. m. Annual Sunday school rally. The offering will be for our own Sunday school work in Nebraska.

11 a. m. Morning worship. Sermon by the pastor, "The Church". The doors of the church will be opened for reception of members.

6:30 Epworth League, Ellis Carson, leader. Roll call to be answered with Bible verses. It is "Penny Night", all offering to be brought in pennies.

At the same hour an older group will meet for a fellowship and prayer service, led by Ed Smith. The subject will be "Conquering through prayer."

7:30 Sunday School Night. All teachers and officers are to be present and will be formally installed with a beautiful and impressive ritual. Each teacher is to sit with the class, and one from each class will tell what their plans are for the year. The music will be led by the choir and orchestra.

The Rally Day committee meets this week with Miss Hans, to make plans for next Sunday night.

Tuesday night the devotional leaders of the Epworth League for November met at the parsonage to prepare work for the month.

Beginning next Sunday night, our church will resume its own evening services. Watch paper for announcements.

Mearl C. Smith, Minister.

General Election Nov. 8, 1932.

Whether You Are Republican or Democrat

You will never have your clothes cleaned, pressed or repaired by FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT or HERBERT HOOVER

You should always remember Julius and Eva Vala—they are the right people to bring prosperity among our customers because they make old clothes look and wear like new again. They spent a lot more time to turn out a nice job at the lowest possible price. Your vote will be appreciated, but not for presidency—only for cleaning, pressing, repairing, ready-made clothing and fine custom tailoring.

DEMOS WIN IN STATE AND NATION

State Helps Roosevelt Win, Bryan Re-Elected, 5 Demos To Congress

Franklin D. Roosevelt and John Nance Garner, nominees of the democratic party for president and vice president, Tuesday were elected by one of the greatest majorities in the history of the United States. While Roosevelt's popular vote apparently is not as large as the vote given Herbert Hoover four years ago, it seems certain that he will have a great vote in the electoral college as Hoover did then. Latest returns available when the Quiz went to press indicated that Roosevelt had won 172 electoral votes and Hoover had won only 59. To elect 266 are necessary.

Roosevelt regained the "solid south" after its bolt to Hoover four years ago and likewise made a clean sweep of the middle and western states. Only Pennsylvania and a small group of New England states remained true to the republican party.

Nebraska, a strongly republican state since 1916, apparently has given Roosevelt a majority of 138,000 or more and along with Roosevelt the entire democratic state ticket was swept into office. Governor Bryan, hard pressed by Dwight Griswold, apparently has been re-elected by a small majority. C. A. Sorenson, republican attorney general, was defeated by Paul F. Good and other democratic candidates likewise were victorious. On the Roosevelt tidal wave five democrat congressional candidates also were elected in Nebraska, Burke defeating Baldrige in the Omaha district, Morehead beating Poles in the Lincoln district, Eastward beating Halderman in the east-Nebraska district, Shallenburger beating Johnson in the Hastings district and Terry Carpenter apparently has won the fifth district from Congressman Bob Simmons. Carpenter's lead yesterday afternoon was said to be in excess of 2,000 and while it is possible for Simmons to overcome this lead it is very unlikely.

The democratic avalanche of congressional winnings was not confined to Nebraska but extended to almost every state in the union. Such republican senatorial stalwarts as Fred Watson and George Moses were unseated by democrats, as well as many others. It was estimated yesterday that the democratic party would have a majority of 136 in the house of representatives and 6 in the senate when the next congress convenes. The next Congress also will be strongly wet.

The vote polled throughout the nation yesterday, about 40,000,000. Governor Roosevelt apparently polled about three-fifths of this vote.

QUIZ OFFERED FOR $1 PER YEAR ON DOLLAR DAY

Greatest Subscription Bargain In Quiz History For One Day Only, Tuesday, Nov. 15th.

A number of Ord business houses are co-operating in a special Dollar Day event for next Tuesday, Nov. 15. On that day special bargains are offered at the price of $1.00, giving an opportunity to save money on needed articles. The Quiz is co-operating with them with a drastic reduction in subscription price for that day only.

The subscription price of The Ord Quiz for that one day only, Tuesday, November 15, will be just $1.00 per year. Never before in the history of this fifty-year-old newspaper has it been possible to buy it at such a low price and the offer probably will never be made again.

There are three reasons for our making this offer: First, our desire to co-operate with Ord merchants by offering the greatest bargain we could possibly offer. Second, because we want to bear our fair share of the depression that has affected every one of our subscribers. Third, because there are 417 subscribers on the Quiz list who are in arrears and we are giving them an opportunity to get paid in advance at a reduced rate before financial stringencies force us to remove their names from the mailing list.

All subscriptions paid at the office next Tuesday, Nov. 15, or mailed to us bearing postmark not later than Nov. 15, 1932 will be credited at the special bargain rate of a year for $1.00. This will apply to both back and advance subscriptions, new and renewal, and each person may pay as many years in advance as desired at this rate if paid or mailed not later than Nov. 15, 1932.

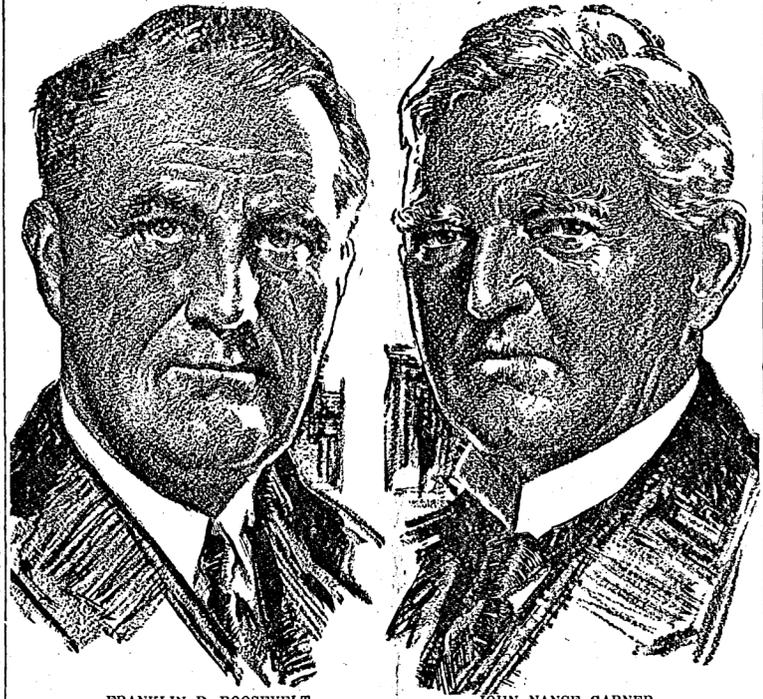

The Quiz publishes more Valley county news than any other newspaper on earth. It is the official county paper and also the official paper for Ord city. Its classified advertising department is one of the largest in the state. It has a representative corps of country and town correspondents who send the news from every corner of Valley county. At this exceedingly low rate—less than 2c per week—no one can afford to be without it. It is worth much more than 2c per week to be informed of courthouse news, merchants' and farm sales, county happenings, coming events, and the wealth of other information that the Quiz carries each and every week.

We know that there will be a big response to this offer. People who may feel that they cannot afford to take the paper at its present price will jump at the chance to subscribe at $1 per year. People who are in arrears should be anxious to get paid up to date and in advance when their dollar will do double duty. Even those who have paid up recently at the regular rate should take advantage of this offer by paying their subscription for another year ahead when they can do so for $1.00. The offer is fair to everyone—it gives all an equal chance—there is no discrimination.

Extra people will be on duty in the Quiz office that day to wait on you promptly if you call with your subscription, and subscriptions received by mail bearing postmarks not later than Nov. 15 will be given prompt and careful attention. We will try to accommodate everyone on this day. But please don't ask us to accept subscriptions at this price afterward. Subscriptions paid at the office or mailed on or after Wednesday, Nov. 16 must be at the regular rate of $2 per year.

Members of the American Legion and Auxiliary met Tuesday evening at their hall and perfected plans for a benefit bridge party to be given next Monday evening, November 14. Madams C. J. Mortensen, Archie Keep and A. L. Fisher served a delicious luncheon.

President and Vice-President

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT.

JOHN NANCE GARNER.

Valley Co. Voters Elect Andersen Judge; Desmul, Ball As Supervisors

Revealing surprising strength throughout the county, John L. Andersen of Ord was elected county judge of Valley county on the non-political ballot in the general election Tuesday. He carried eleven out of the county's eighteen precincts and piled up a total vote of 2,013 against the veteran Judge J. H. Hollingshead's total of 1,809, the Andersen majority being 204.

This is Mr. Andersen's first attempt to secure a public office. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Andersen, Ord, and for several years has been associated with his father in the grocery and meat business. He made an active campaign in recent weeks and had many friends working for him also, as his tidy majority in most of the precincts proves. For a complete analysis of the vote turn to page four of today's Quiz.

In a three-cornered race featured by the active write-a-campaign of C. E. Goodhand, Ellisworth Ball, democrat, was elected county supervisor to represent District 4—Ord City—on the county board.

Mr. Goodhand was defeated for the republican nomination in the primary last spring but during the summer and fall made a house-to-house canvass, soliciting voters to write his name in at the general election. He even had slips printed with his name for voters to stick on the ballot.

E. C. James, present board chairman and republican nominee, was defeated by Henry Desmul, republican. The vote was Ball, 463; James, 353; Goodhand, 265.

Other hot races for places on the county board were waged in Districts 2 and 6. In District 2 Charles Clochon, democratic nominee for re-election, was defeated by Henry Desmul, republican. Mr. Clochon's home precinct, Vinton, gave him a vote of 65 to Mr. Desmul's 40 but the latter scored heavily in Geranium and Liberty townships, the former giving him 114 votes to Clochon's 19 and the latter 84 votes to Clochon's 33. The total vote was Desmul, 238; Clochon, 162.

C. E. Johnson, democrat, sought re-election in Dist. 6 and was returned to office over Will Koelling, republican. Enterprises, where Koelling lives, gave him 106 votes to Johnson's 64 while independent, Johnson's home, reversed the process with 128 votes to 56 for Koelling. Davis Creek gave Koelling a small majority, 63 to Johnson's 63. The total vote was Johnson, 255; Koelling, 226.

Local interest was centered in the races described above, once it was learned that the nation was going so heavily democratic. The downstate lobby in the court house was packed until after midnight, with a crowd of men, women and children watching for the local returns. Counting boards in most precincts were through rather earlier than usual in spite of the fact that the vote of almost 4,000 cast in Valley county was even larger than the record-breaking vote of 3,900 four years ago.

400-Gallon Still Taken In Raid By Federal Agents

A 400 gallon capacity still, 1,200 gallons of mash, 200 gallons of whiskey, several charred kegs and barrels and a quantity of empty whiskey bottles were seized by federal and state prohibition officers under the leadership of Harold "Three-Gun" Wilson in a raid last Thursday on the Ed Gilroy and Carl Zwinger farms in Greeley county. They found the big still in a cave after searching over 2,000 acres of land.

Three cars drove into the Zwinger place while officers were there and all were stopped and were found to contain liquor. Alvin and Paul Gilroy were in one car, Leo Seamon in another and Joe Giesinger in a third. All three cars were confiscated and their owners will be prosecuted.

The Gilroy-Zwinger outfit has long been suspected of being the source of much of the liquor that comes into Valley county. The place has been searched by federal agents several times without success. The still found Thursday was said by federal officers to be the largest taken in recent years.

Shippers to Get Refund.

The Nebraska state railway commission has ordered a refund of 47c per car on all livestock shipped from or to the South Omaha market in the period from June 4, 1927 to November 1, 1932 in order for shippers to get this refund it is necessary for them to file claims.

Dollar Will Be King On November 15

You can save a lot of money if you visit Ord next Tuesday, November 15, for on that day the dollar will be king in Ord business places. One dollar will do the work of two dollars or more at many stores next Tuesday, for it is Dollar Day in Ord and stores are offering special merchandise bargains at this price.

Merchants are not limited to $1 bargains, as you will note by reading the ads in today's Quiz, but are offering special prices on all types of merchandise. You can save on almost anything you need.

Next Tuesday's Dollar Day event is the first special bargain day Ord stores have held in a long time. They will be more plentiful in the future but that is no reason why anybody should neglect to stock up on the bargains that are offered for next Tuesday. Read carefully the announcements of merchants in today's Quiz; make up a shopping list and visit Ord next Tuesday.

DR. J. W. MCGINNIS NEW SECRETARY OF FAIR ASS'N.

Ord Man Elected To Succeed Late Vincent Kokes; No Decision On Next Year's Fair.

Whether or not Valley county will hold a fair in 1933 was not definitely decided Monday at the annual meeting of the Loup Valley Agricultural Society, stockholders thinking it best to let the question remain open until it is learned how conditions will be next summer. This year no Valley county fair was held.

Only a bare quorum of stockholders attended the annual meeting. R. C. Clement served as acting secretary in place of the late Vincent Kokes, who held the position and served the fair association faithfully for many years. Charles Chinn, Henry Jorgensen and R. C. Clement were re-elected directors and Dr. J. W. McGinnis was elected to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Kokes' death, the elections being the only business of importance transacted by stockholders. Other directors whose terms do not expire are Sam Roe, Don Rounds, E. M. Hill, Chas. Bais and C. W. McClellan.

A meeting of the new board of directors was held immediately and C. W. McClellan was re-elected president and S. W. Roe vice president. E. R. Fafetta was elected treasurer and Dr. J. W. McGinnis was chosen secretary. Directors decided not to send delegates to the state meeting of county fair managers, Garfield county, and husked Mr. Wilson's corn crop for him. Those taking part in the work were Clyde Severns, Donald Witt, Fay Patrick, Vernon Mentzer, Howard Bodyfield, Will Witt, Lloyd Witt, John Titt, George Lockhart, Lester Kizer, Roy Swanson, Herman Swanson, Adry Davis, Thead Nelson, Wallace Dutcher, Elmer Christoffersen, John Chatfield, Floyd Chatfield, Clarence Guggenmos, Henry Struckman, Clarence Larson, Irvin Dye, Gerald Dye, George Zabdoull, Dan Pihna, Russell Jensen, Jason Abernethy, John Miller, Mike Noha, Chas. Pierce, Leon McMinden, Russell Grant, Harry Holden, Dick Holden and Louis Bowers.

Mr. Wilson, who is still in the Smith & Cram hospital at Burwell receiving treatment for his fractured legs, is said to be recovering nicely. One of the limbs is entirely out of danger and the doctors feel that they have an excellent chance to save the other leg from amputation.

While he is laid up Claude Stearns and family are living on the place and doing chores.

Neighbors Gather And Husk Corn For Clarence Wilson

Last Friday the good people of Rosevale, Joint and Dry Cedar neighborhoods gathered at the Clarence Wilson farm in Dry Cedar precinct, Garfield county, and husked Mr. Wilson's corn crop for him.

Those taking part in the work were Clyde Severns, Donald Witt, Fay Patrick, Vernon Mentzer, Howard Bodyfield, Will Witt, Lloyd Witt, John Titt, George Lockhart, Lester Kizer, Roy Swanson, Herman Swanson, Adry Davis, Thead Nelson, Wallace Dutcher, Elmer Christoffersen, John Chatfield, Floyd Chatfield, Clarence Guggenmos, Henry Struckman, Clarence Larson, Irvin Dye, Gerald Dye, George Zabdoull, Dan Pihna, Russell Jensen, Jason Abernethy, John Miller, Mike Noha, Chas. Charles Mostek Barn Burns Saturday Eve

Davis Creek—(Special)—Blazing oil thrown from an exploding lantern Saturday evening resulted in the complete loss of Charlie Mostek's barn here, which burned to the ground along with much hay, grain, harness and some tools. Mr. Mostek had gone to the barn to milk the cow and left the lantern there while he went out into the lot to drive the cow in. When he returned the interior of the barn was in flames. Neighbors arrived in a very short time but could not save the barn. A chicken house near-by caught fire twice but the flames were extinguished.

19-Year-Old Boy Taken to Asylum

Harold R. DeLong, 19-year-old boy here, is on a farm in the northern edge of Valley county, was taken to the state hospital at Hastings Saturday evening by Sheriff George Round. Perfectly normal until two weeks ago, the boy began to show evidences of insanity and so was committed to Ingleside for treatment. It is believed that he will be restored to health in a short time.

Roosevelt Piles Up Big Majority Here; 4 G.O.P. Candidates Win County

TELEPHONE CO. REFUSES TO CUT RATES IN ORD

The Nebraska Continental Telephone company flatly refuses to make any reduction in Ord telephone rates or make any changes in the type of service furnished here.

Such was the report brought back from Lincoln last Friday by Bert M. Hardenbrook, who represented the Ord Chamber of Commerce at a conference held in the Nebraska railway commission's hearing room in the state capitol building. C. A. Randall, chairman of the commission, and other members were present, also C. E. Clark, president, and W. W. Johnson, district manager, of the telephone company.

Telephone company officials maintain that at the present rates charged in Ord they are making only 2.42 per cent on their investment here. Mr. Hardenbrook reports. The report they filed with the railway commission Thursday places their local investment at $64,536.70. They claim revenues of the Ord exchange for the nine months ending Sept. 30, 1932, extended to one year, to be $19,716.12 and claim that operating income, before depreciation, for the same period is $12,735.57. The estimated amount required annually for depreciation is $4,570.49, which leaves only $1,561.02, or 2.42 per cent, for interest on their investment here.

Not only did telephone company officials refuse to consider a reduction in Ord rates but they threatened that they might apply for an increase, Mr. Hardenbrook reports.

The telephone company's statement reveals that they are charging depreciation at the rate of 7.08 per cent and after examining the statement the railway commission ordered that this be reduced 5 per cent, the Ord man says. This does not mean that rates will be lowered by the amount charged, it only means that the telephone company must figure a greater percentage of its returns here as available for the purpose of paying interest on the investment.

The only ray of hope in the report brought back by Mr. Hardenbrook is the offer made by the railway commission to send its engineers to Ord to make a complete appraisal of telephone property to determine whether the company actually has $64,536.70 invested here. If the engineers should find that the company does not have so large an investment here, it is possible that the commission might order a small rate reduction.

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce are meeting in Mr. Hardenbrook's office this evening to hear his report and discuss Chairman Randall's offer, also to decide what other steps should be taken in the telephone situation.

Showing popularity almost as great as Herbert Hoover four years ago, Franklin D. Roosevelt led the democratic ticket to victory in the Valley county vote Tuesday. He polled 2,381 votes and won in 14 precincts, President Hoover leading in four precincts and polling a vote of 1,562. Four years ago Hoover received 2,540 Valley county votes while Al Smith got only 1,172.

Even such a traditionally republican precinct as Arcadia went for Roosevelt this year, the vote being 251 to 240, and in precincts to the north and west of Ord the democratic standard bearer was victor by an overwhelming majority.

Geranium township, which is normally democratic anyway, gave Mr. Roosevelt 170 votes and cast only one for Mr. Hoover. Eureka township voted 117 to 11 for Roosevelt, Elyria went 171 to 15 in the same direction and other townships gave the democrat pluralities almost as large.

It was in the rock-ribbed Ord 1st ward and in North Loup that President Hoover showed his greatest Valley county strength, the 1st ward giving him 416 votes to 122 for Roosevelt and North Loup voting 254 to 219.

With four exceptions, other democratic candidates likewise captured majorities of varying size in Valley county. The first being the usual order of things for this county is generally considered republican.

Dwight Griswold, republican nominee for governor, led his ticket here with 2,090 votes to only 1,543 for Governor Bryan. Mr. Griswold apparently was defeated in the state, however, though the vote was still close at a late hour yesterday.

Congressman Bob Simmons came through with a small majority here over Terry Carpenter but he, too, apparently was defeated over the district. His Valley county vote was 2,010 while Carpenter had 703. Four years ago Congressman Simmons led the whole republican ticket in Valley county with a vote of 2,820 to John McCoy's 951.

Other republicans who led in Valley county returns were Attorney General C. A. Sorenson, who squeaked through with 1,921 votes to Paul F. Good's 1,871 and Ted Metcalfe who led Walter H. Jurgensen by 11 votes in the race for lieutenant governor. Both Sorenson and Metcalfe were defeated over the state, it appeared last night.

Floyd L. Bollen, who married a Valley county girl and therefore is more or less known here, got the nice total of 1,920 votes to 1,432 cast for his opponent, Lloyd Dort, in the race for railway commissioner. Mr. Bollen was elected by a large majority, state returns indicated yesterday.

James P. Murray, of Sargent, will represent the 23rd senatorial district at the coming legislature. He defeated his republican opponent, Horace F. Kennedy, the Quiz was informed yesterday. In Valley county he got 1,824 votes to Kennedy's 1,771. Garfield gave Mr. Kennedy 666 votes to Mr. Murray's 532 but Custer and Loup counties apparently gave the democrat enough votes to elect him.

Marion Cushing, republican, was unopposed in the race for state representative and polled 2,600 votes to be re-elected.

Hughes' Roof Affre.

Friday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock the roof on the Sutton house, occupied by Otis Hughes and family, was discovered to be afire. Otis and two of the boys climbed to the roof and put out the fire with buckets of water. The Ord fire department was called out but found that the fire had been extinguished when they arrived.

Charles Barnhart To National Convention

Charles Barnhart, a senior student in Ord high school and state president of the Future Farmers of America, honor ary organization of vocational agriculture students, leaves Sunday for Kansas City where he will attend the national F. F. A. convention as a Nebraska delegate. One other boy from this state will attend, Arrel Wasson, of Wilcox, who is secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska chapter.

At Kansas City the boys will attend the American Royal livestock show and also the national F. F. A. public speaking contest. They will start home next Thursday morning.

Charles is a candidate for the degree of American Farmer, the fourth and highest F. F. A. degree. It is conferred annually on the two or three best vocational agriculture students from each state at the national convention.

RED CROSS WILL OPEN DRIVE ON ARMISTICE DAY

Valley County Membership Goal 350; Miss McClatchey Names Community Chairmen.

Miss Clara McClatchey, county chairman for the Red Cross, has announced that Mrs. Cecil Molzen will be in charge of the drive for memberships in Ord, Mrs. C. C. Hawthorne in charge in Arcadia, and Mrs. W. J. Hemphill in charge in North Loup.

Between 200 and 250 members were secured last year, and it is hoped that the county quota set for Valley county, 355 new members for this year, will be oversubscribed. Any amount is gratefully received as a donation, or you may buy $1, $5, $10 or $25 memberships. No matter which of these amounts you give, however, only $50 goes to national funds, the remainder being placed on deposit in local institutions until an emergency arises.

Within the last few months the Red Cross here distributed a ninety day supply of flour to the needy, and will later arrange for more, as needed. Certain types of clothing, Overalls, underwear, socks, etc. will soon be available, and later, if the local chapter can arrange it, yard goods will be available to those who need and apply for it.

Volunteer workers, local people, will ask you for your support in the next few days; be ready to give it. One man stopped at the court house a few days ago and said he "wanted to do his duty". He paid his membership before being asked. What will you do?

Mason Orpheum Show To Be Given Tonight

Last evening the Ord Masonic lodge presented its home talent Orpheum show at the Ord Theatre and though the Quiz goes to press too early to carry an account of it we know that it was a treat to a big crowd. The show will be given again tonight and should be well patronized.

Members of the American Legion and Auxiliary met Tuesday evening at their hall and perfected plans for a benefit bridge party to be given next Monday evening, November 14. Madams C. J. Mortensen, Archie Keep and A. L. Fisher served a delicious luncheon.

Christian Science. The subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ Scientist, for Sunday, November 13, is "Mortals and Immortals".

The Golden Text is from I Cor. 15:48: "As is the earthy such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly."

A passage from the Bible used in the lesson-sermon is from I Cor. 15:50, 53: "Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption. For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality".

A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, reads: "Human birth, growth, maturity, and decay are as the grass springing from the soil with beautiful green blades, afterwards to wither and return to its native nothingness. This mortal seeming is temporal; it never merges into immortality, but finally disappears, and Immortal man, spiritual and eternal, is found to be the real man". (page 190).

ORD GRIDSTERS BEAT BURWELL BY TWO POINTS

Safety Is Margin of Victory In Game With Traditional Foe; Arcadia, No. Loup Win.

By the slender margin of two points, Coach Cecil Molzen's Ord high school team won a gridiron battle from their traditional foe, Burwell on the Burwell field last Friday. A safety, chalked up for Ord when a Burwell man interfered with Richard Smith as he was about to grasp a pass thrown across the Burwell goal line by Benda, accounted for those two points. A touchdown later in the game matched a Burwell touchdown and the safety proved to be the winning score.

Paul Gard, playing at fullback, scintillated for the Ord team Friday. Using his 200 pounds to good advantage, Gard rammed through the Burwell line time after time for substantial yardage. Fumbles and penalties halted the Ord advance several times, else the score would have been much larger as the Molzen men surpassed Burwell in every department of the game.

The first scoring was the Ord safety, credited when Smith was interfered with. Next came a Burwell touchdown, scored after two long passes had placed the ball in position for a line attack. Burwell converted and the score was 7 to 2 in their favor but the Ord team was determined to get revenge for that terrible defeat of last season and using Gard as a battering ram, rolled down the field to the Burwell ten yard mark. Then Auble, who has been on the injured list, was thrown into the game long enough to carry the ball across, and was promptly taken out when the extra point was made.

In other games Friday Arcadia defeated Litchfield, 14 to 7, Broken Bow trounced Loup City, 26 to 6, Sargeant beat Merna, 13 to 4, and St. Paul battled to a 5-6 deadlock with Wood River. All of these were non-conference games. In the only other conference game Friday North Loup romped over Taylor, 26 to 0 on the Taylor field.

Tomorrow the Ord boys face a real test when they play Ansley at Ansley. And the following week Arcadia comes to Ord in a game

Frazier Chapel Is Thronged at Service For Wm. L. McNutt

Last rites for William Lucas McNutt, 71, were held Thursday afternoon at the Frazier chapel, which was filled to overflowing with friends and neighbors come to pay their last respects. Rev. L. M. Real conducted the services; a quartette composed of Madams Anthony S. Koupal and Joseph F. Barla, Dr. F. L. Blessing and J. R. Stoltz sang several selections. Numbers of floral tributes expressed last respects for "Mac", who was a friend to everyone. Pall bearers were Orin B. Mutter of Comstock, J. C. Meese, Alvin Blessing, William Sack, Ed Finley, and Emil Fafetta. For the Knights of Pythias, Will Bartlett and Carl Sorensen spoke last words at the Ord cemetery, where interment was made.

If You Get up Nights

Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Sold by McLain & Sorensen.

How One Woman Lost 10 lbs. In Week

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast, go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at McLain & Sorensen's or any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and must safeguard your health.

DR. RICH says:

Grand Island, Neb., Nov. 9, 1932. Don't deceive yourself about Piles. Rectal trouble is nothing to take lightly and nothing to treat lightly. Piles are an internal infection calling for highly specialized treatment. You can't tell where Piles will end. Be serious and be intelligent. Serious that you do not neglect or delay a cure and intelligent when you can get 100 cents from me for your dollar.

You should not consider half-way measures. They leave you with a half-cured case and there is nothing more dangerous than that. There has not yet been invented a clock that can strike again for anyone the hours he has wasted and lost.

Don't be one of those who have said—I wish I had seen Dr. Rich first. I will give you a guaranteed lifetime cure for your Piles for only $50.00. You can only use one side of your dollar elsewhere. Use both sides here. No money in advance. Pay when cured. Correspondence invited. Visit me in Grand Island where I have been located for more than thirty years. A warm friendly welcome awaits you.

FORMER VALLEY COUNTY TEACHER DIES IN OMAHA

Annie Romans Kealy Passes Nov. 5 After Long Illness; Buried at Cedar Bluffs.

After an illness of several weeks with toxemia, Mrs. Harold Kealy, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Romans, Ord, passed away at Lord Lister hospital in Omaha last Saturday. Taken ill at her home in Hebron, she was brought to the Ord hospital for medical attendance and last week was taken to Omaha where she died. Funeral services were held Monday at the Veder funeral home in Fremont and interment was in the Romans family lot at Cedar Bluffs, Nebr.

Annie Romans was born Nov. 9, 1903 in South Omaha and was married May 17, 1931 to Harold Kealy, of St. Edwards, at Cedar Bluffs. Her husband is an employe of the Safeway Stores and their home has been in Wahoo and Hebron.

Deceased attended grade school in Dist. 24, Valley county, and finished high school at Dalton, Nebr., later attending Kearney normal. She was an efficient rural school teacher, teaching for one year at Riverdale and two years in Dist. 42, Valley county, and also in a rural school near St. Edwards.

Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by three sisters, Dorothy, Katherine and Josephine, Ord, and by five brothers, Charles, Jean, Jack and Clarence, Ord and Robert Arnold, Nebr. The entire Romans family attended the funeral, also Wm. Vogeler, jr., and son Donald, of North Loup.

Ex-Valley County Residents To Picnic At Long Beach, Calif.

Former residents of Ord and Valley county who now live in California will hold their semi-annual picnic at Bixby Park, Long Beach, on Sunday, Nov. 20, the Quiz is notified by F. J. Bell, president and Mrs. R. Sorenson, secretary, of the organization. All are requested to come early and bring lunch baskets well filled. Any pen to be visiting in California are urged to attend.

Election Night Was Cold.

The thermometer hit a new low of 22 for the fall season on election evening, according to Observer Horace Travis. A good crust of ice formed on the North Loup river, duck hunters discovered next morning. Two or three days of high powered winds preceded the coldest night in this territory.

Baby Joan Sorensen Passes November 4

Last services for little Joan Sorensen, nine months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sorensen who farm northwest of Ord, were held Sunday afternoon at the Sowl chapel. Rev. Reel conducted services at 2:30 p. m. with music rendered by Virginia VanDecar and Ed Mauer, accompanied by Mrs. Cushing.

The baby had been ill for some time, and lately had been receiving treatment at the Orthopedic hospital in Lincoln, where death came November 4, 1932. Joan was born January 29, 1932.

Little girls who acted as pallbearers were Avona and Marcella Nolde, Dorothy Albers and Eileen Hollander.

Armistice Day To Be Observed

Armistice Day will be observed in Ord with a one o'clock service at the high school auditorium Friday afternoon, with John Misko making the chief address of the day. All American Legion men are invited to take part, and the general public is cordially invited to attend. Dr. F. L. Blessing is in charge of arrangements for the program. At eleven o'clock the whistles will blow as usual, requesting every one to stand for one minute in silent tribute to the dead of the World War.

The high school is celebrating Armistice Day Wednesday with a special convocation, at which representatives of the various English classes will present a pageant, a tribute to the unknown soldier. Miss Elva Johnson is in charge of the pageant.

—Herbert L. Cushing drove up from Lincoln Tuesday and was reporting the results of Valley county's election for the Associated Press. He was a guest in the home of his brother, Marion, while here.

—The Nels Nelson family, who have been living at Paxton, have moved to Sutherland, Nebr., where Nels is employed in a meat market.

ORDITES VISIT GRAND ISLAND TO SEE PRESIDENT

Herbert Hoover's Special Train Makes 10 Minute Stop In Island Sunday Noon.

President Herbert Hoover was a Grand Island visitor Sunday and to see him people from all over central Nebraska flocked to that city and gathered about the Union Pacific station at the noon hour, the crowd numbering several thousand. The president was aboard his special train enroute to Palo Alto, Calif., his former home, where he went to cast his vote Tuesday. The presidential special arrived in Grand Island at 12:05 and departed for the west at 12:15. During the ten minute stop both President and Mrs. Hoover appeared on the rear platform and waved friendly greetings though neither spoke except to make personal observations to those who were nearest the platform.

Many Ord people drove to Grand Island to see the president, among them being Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Capron and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Capron and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lewis and Miss Eunice Chase, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kosmata, Dave Haight and Mrs. Vernie Andersen, Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, Dr. F. A. Barta and family, J. D. McCall, Mr. and Mrs. Elroy and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Carlson, Alvin Blessing, E. C. James, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McBeth, Dr. F. L. Blessing, A. J. and Mrs. E. P. Clements, jr., A. J. Meyer, Walter Lukenbach, Eldon Benda, Billy Baird, Kenneth Clancy, George Allen, jr., Bert Poquet, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cass, Miss Thelma Partridge and many others.

—Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dan Neff and son of Grand Island were in Ord visiting with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Laughrey.

—Miss Dorothy Greenwalt of Arcadia has been visiting her aunt Mrs. John Perilinski.

Rev. Wantz Gives Armistice Day Talk Before Rotary Club

One of the finest talks the Rotary club has ever been privileged to hear was given Monday by Rev. C. F. Wantz, United Brethren pastor at Mira Valley and Davis Creek, who appeared as the principal speaker on the club's Armistice week program.

Rev. Wantz, himself a veteran of the World War, discussed the causes of war and expressed the belief that war will cease only upon universal adoption of the golden rule. Only defensive warfare is ever justifiable, he said, adding that every war in which the United States has ever been engaged has been in defense of human liberty. Speaking in an informal manner and enlivening his talk with personal reminiscences and stories about his experience in the service, Rev. Wantz made a decided hit.

Food Center Gets Frigidaire Counter

Food Centers, Inc., this week installed a new Frigidaire counter of the most modern type in their grocery store here, their plans being to open a fresh meat department. A butcher's block and the necessary tools for cutting and sawing meat will be purchased at once, Manager Joe Puncocar says.

Grasshopper Danger Next Year Slight, Reports O. S. Bare

Valley county farmers should not be seriously troubled with grasshoppers during the spring and summer months of next year according to O. S. Bare of the Nebraska college of agriculture who completed an egg survey in the county recently. The egg infestation over central Nebraska is much lighter than one year ago at this time.

Though Bare found some hopper eggs in Valley county, he did not find them concentrated enough to do much damage here next spring. Most of the eggs are quite scattered. Where farmers poisoned the hoppers this past summer, there is little evidence of eggs now.

In Loup county where the hoppers were numerous last summer and did a great deal of damage, the eggs are not so thick now.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Holden stopped at the ranch for a few minutes Tuesday evening.

Some people are apt to ridicule the sand hills, but let them take a trip through here right now and notice the piles of good old corn on every farm. With very little rain it is possible to grow corn in the sand when the good bottom land is dried up. It can also stand more rain and still grow a crop.

The regular meeting of the Joint Farmers club was held Friday night. The evening was much enjoyed playing games, after which a very nice lunch was served. It has been decided to have a regular literary program next meeting and a play about the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Jackson and Helen, all of Farwell, visited at McMinnies' Saturday evening, returning home the same evening. A good attendance was had at Sunday school Sunday morning. Mrs. Daniel Fishna was chosen to be the new superintendent.

Quite a number from this neighborhood attended church at Rosevale Sunday night. Rev. Beal, of Ord preaches at Rosevale the first and third Sundays of each month.

Methodist Rally Day.

Last Sunday was a world-wide rally for the Methodist church in general, all churches of that order being expected to make that a special day in all departments of worship. The Ord Methodists, under the leadership of their pastor Rev. M. C. Smith and Sunday school superintendent Robert Noll, did their part in this undertaking. A drive was put on for increased attendance that day and programs were prepared for each department.

At the close of the Sunday school session Mrs. Kovanda gave a violin solo, little Miss Loretta Mae Achen solo accompanied by her sister and Clayton Noll read from memory a selected poem. The attendance was 204. The regular Sunday morning preaching service followed with an attendance of 170.

In the evening at 6:30 the Epworth League had an attendance of 36 and the Fellowship meeting drew 20.

The big feature of the day was the special evening services held in the auditorium at 7:30. The Methodist orchestra opened the services and the Superintendent, Robert Noll called the roll of Sunday school classes and a spokesman responded for each with a brief talk. A response was had from each class even down to the tiny mites. Then came the formal and impressive installation of the officers and teachers for the ensuing year, every officer and teacher being present.

The attendance committee reported 199 present. The service closed by a short talk by the pastor.

Proceedings of the County Board

Nov. 1, 1932, at 10 o'clock a. m. Meeting called to order by chairman with all supervisors present upon roll call. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved as read. Upon motion seconded and carried, the allowance of $15.00 per month to Mrs. Elroy Staley for the care and keep of Mrs. Celestine Mattley, was cancelled and allowed to Mrs. Bertha Mason, from Nov. 1, 1932, until further order of this Board. Bank balances as of October 31, 1932, read as follows: Nebraska State Bank, Ord, $17,746.73; First National Bank, Ord, $31,722.25. Upon motion duly carried, Brady Master was allowed $4.00 month rent of house occupied by the Chas. Ponce family, from November 1, 1932, to Jan. 1, 1933. Report of Road and Bridge committee, read as follows: Road and Bridge Committee Report, November 1, 1932. The committee meeting was called by Chairman for the purpose of determining road and bridge improvement for the year, 1933. An inspection of 1932 work was made also. An extensive survey of the county road system has revealed that approximately 22 miles of road can be improved with the use of the elevating grader only at an estimated cost of $250.00 per mile exclusive of drainage structures and depreciation on equipment. This mileage could be easily completed in one seasons time, as well as taking care of maintenance requirements with the minimum of forces. Bridges which are necessary to build in the coming year are Nos. 2-17-15 and 8-20-15. These can be built of untreated material and 10 ton capacity. These two bridges are completely gone and there is some doubt as to their lasting until the new ones can be completed. Respectfully submitted, Chas. Clochon, chairman, Joseph Vasicek, S. V. Hansen. Accompanied by Rollin C. Ayres, County Engineer. Upon motion duly carried, foregoing report was accepted and ordered placed on file. Upon motion duly carried, the matter of redistricting the county was laid over until the next meeting on December 6th. Report of claims committee upon General Fund Claims, read as follows: Arthur H. Members studied the lesson which was on "Christmas Gifts". Hostess served a nice luncheon. General aid society of the Methodist church enjoyed a meeting last Wednesday afternoon in the basement of the church. Two ladies from each division furnished and served the luncheon. Madams Henry Koelling and R. O. Hunter served for the quilting division, Madams Jay and John Auble for the kennington division and Madams M. D. Bell and John Haskell for the dramatic division. Mrs. W. E. Carlton has received a letter from Mrs. Roll Keck, Ellsworth, Kas. On the 16th of October Mr. and Mrs. Keck welcomed a 5-pound son to their home. Mrs. Keck was formerly Mrs. Gladys Keck of Ord. She married her brother-in-law after her first husband died. Her other children, Cora Mae, Eleanor and Bonny, write that they are much pleased with the new brother.

Jolly Sisters met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Harry Dye. Winnetka club is meeting next Wednesday evening with Madams Jack Morrison and Jud Tedro. L. L. Lakin returned to Ord last Wednesday after a few days stay in Burwell. Miss Hazel Bushman is staying in the Mrs. Will Treptow country home for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Clark and son Arden were visiting Sunday in the Frank Sinkler home near North Loup. Monday Clarence Davis gave a political talk to the senior high school class in the high school building. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Cremeen of Arcadia were in Ord and visiting their aunt, Mrs. F. C. Williams and family. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Holloway of Garfield county drove to Ord Saturday evening and spent a few hours with the latter's people, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Moser. Bud Burger of Brewster brought his sister, Mrs. Elsie Draper to Ord Saturday. She had been spending several weeks with relatives in Taylor, Almeria and Brewster. It is expected that Miss Iva Stillman will be able to leave Hillcrest Sanitarium soon and return to her home in North Loup. She is recovering from an appendix operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kurts, managers of the tourist camp at Long Pine, recently visited. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burrows, from Ord Mr. and Mrs. Kurts were going to Minden and Lincoln. Miss Mary Davis of North Loup was re-elected state Christian Endeavor secretary-treasurer at the State convention recently held in Omaha. Her picture appears in the Omaha papers. Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Clements entertained the newly organized Young People's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school. At the meeting before this one, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moyer were host and hostess. Madams R. J. Stoltz and J. W. McGinnis were hostesses Thursday afternoon to the Methodist missionary society in the Stoltz home. There was an interesting program and a nice lunch. Twenty-one ladies were in attendance. Several friends in Ord have received cards and letters from Mrs. Charley Davis, Denver. The latter's mother, Mrs. A. M. Daniels, is a patient in the Porter Sanitarium and hospital at 2525 South Downing street. She is not far from the Davis home. The doctors believe the treatments will prove beneficial to Mrs. Daniels. She has a radio and telephone at her bedside and they help to keep her from getting homesick. Mr. Daniels is staying in the Davis home.

For ONE Day only $1 does the $2 work of $2 Pay your subscription to The Ord Quiz AT ONLY... « $1 PER YEAR » During Ord's Big Dollar Day Sale Tuesday, Nov. 15th This is an unusual offer and may never be made again. The subscription price of the Quiz is $2.00 per year and it will remain at that figure. In this special Dollar Day offer the publisher of the Quiz is simply co-operating with other business houses of Ord who are offering articles from their stocks at less than regular prices, just as the Quiz is doing, for that one day only. You may pay as many years' subscription as desired at this special rate of $1.00 per year, providing you do so on Dollar Day. You may pay up your arrearages at this rate and also pay in advance. If you are already paid in advance you may pay up a year or more farther at this special rate. Or, if you are not already a Quiz subscriber, you may subscribe on Dollar Day at this special rate. The offer is open to everyone and is the greatest subscription bargain the Quiz has ever offered in its fifty years of existence. Such an offer probably will never be made again. If it is not convenient for you to come to the Quiz office on Dollar Day, or if you live elsewhere, you may take advantage of this offer by mail, providing your letter bears a postmark of Nov. 15 or before. Remittances left at the Quiz office from now until 6 o'clock p. m. on November 15 will be credited on Dollar Day. REMEMBER—the regular subscription price of the Quiz is not changed. To take advantage of this $1 offer you must do so on or before Tuesday, Nov. 15, 1932. On November 16 and thereafter the price will be $2.00 per year as usual and no subscriptions will be accepted at the lower rate.

"It Takes a Heap o' Telephones to Make a House a HOME" With apologies to Edgar Guest, of course, but comfortable living today means having a telephone right at hand when you need it. If you had only one electric light bulb, you wouldn't call that electric light service, would you? Of course not. Why then, deny yourself the convenience of having an additional telephone upstairs, in your kitchen, or beside your bed? The cost is so very small that it can be measured in pennies per day. Look around you now. Don't you see a spot where an extension telephone would fit perfectly? Just call our office and we'll arrange for it. NEBR. CONTINENTAL TELEPHONE CO. DIVIDING UP WEALTH.

There is a new political theory gaining strength in the east, its advocates calling themselves the Divisionists. There is only one plank in their platform and that is that all money and property in the United States should be divided up equally among all the people in the country.

What would each person own if this were done? Professor William Bailey of Yale university tells us in a recent issue of the American Magazine. He says:

"If this were to be done each person would have $39 in money, $1,400 worth of real estate, a $100 share in an automobile, $160 worth of clothing and personal belongings and $1,300 worth of machinery, railroad stock and other property which could not be physically divided without destroying its value. The income of each American would be $500 a year, but this would be reduced to $381 by a tax bill of $119 per year."

There is no likelihood that the Divisionists will gain in strength or that their crack-brained theory will be put into effect but it offers a beautiful field for speculation. If such a division were to take place, how long would it be before some budding John D. or Andy Mellon would have again accumulated most of the property?

Man's Musing to a Mule.

Over the hill trailed a man behind a mule drawing a plow. Says the man to the mule:

"Bill, you are a mule, the son of a jackass, and I am a man made in the image of God. Yet, here we work, hitched up together year in and year out. I often wonder if you work for me or if I work for you. Verily, I think it a partnership between a mule and a fool, for surely I work as hard as you, if not harder. Plowing or cultivating we cover the same distance, but you do it on four legs and I do it on two. I, therefore, do twice as much work per leg as you do."

"Soon we'll be harvesting a corn crop. When the crop is harvested I give one-third to the landlord for being so kind as to let me use this small speck of God's universe; one-third goes to you and the balance is mine. You consume all your portion with the exception of the cobs, while I divide mine among seven children, six hens, two ducks and a banker. If we both need shoes, you get 'em, Bill, son of a jackass, to sew 'em and I have a lot of creation—out of his substance?"

"Why, you only help to plow and cultivate the ground, and I alone must cut, shock and husk the corn while you look over the pasture fence and see-haw at me."

"If you get sick I gladly call the veterinarian and pay the medicine bill; but if I have the tummyache you just get that much more time to loaf around and eat. Just the same I am better off than you because I can eat pork and you can't—and last spring I had the 'vet' vaccinate our pigs against hog cholera, so I will eat this winter and you may not."

"Again maybe I am better off on election day because I can vote and you can't. But after election I most always think I was just as great a jackass as you, papa. Verily, I am prone to wonder if politics were made for a man or a jackass, or to make jackasses out of men."

"Tell me, Willyum, considering these things, how can I keep a straight face and look so damn dumb and solemn?"—Contributed.

When You and I Were Young, Maggie

25 Years Ago This Week.

Ulrich Sorenson was heading a dramatic company which was rehearsing in Ord, and planned to take the road in a few days.

An early November cold snap froze ice so heavy that some of the boys were getting out their ice skates.

There was no grain market for a week during the financial flurry but Ord elevators had re-opened and were again buying grain.

Hans Olson, of Springdale, held a clean-up sale and was leaving to make his home in Iowa. Clark Lamberton cried the sale.

George F. Helbig was granted a license to wed Orlyl Hogan and on the same day P. S. Dunlap and Anna Bouma took out a wedding license.

20 Years Ago This Week.

A. M. Daniels' farm from a step ladder and broke three ribs.

Ora S. Taylor came home from Lincoln bringing a bride, Belle Bortels, of Sabetha, Kas.

Ed Perkins and family started out for Texas and Florida by the automobile route. It was the longest auto trip any Ord resident had then undertaken and was regarded as a very hazardous proceeding.

Ord's great football team won another game, beating Greeley 13 to

O. A. forward pass, Johns to Collins, and a plunge by Stuffy Winslow accounted for the Ord scores. Charlie Hawkins was in the lineup at a guard.

Something DIFFERENT

Ord may look wintery around the edges, and chilled and bare, but if you look carefully, you'll find some bright spots yet. And on closer inspection, they'll prove to be chrysalis-themums.

Mrs. Ed Pecock has a beautiful clump budded which she is tenderly nursing along for some lovely blossoms, as well as some already in bloom. At the Purkahn home three colors of plants are decorating the windows while they make faces Jack Frost. Bob Noll has one in his office window with dozens of lavender-pink blossoms on it; Mrs. Ed Vogelanz has one loaded with yellow flowers that was donated to her; Mrs. Ign. Klima, jr. has one sporting yellow flowers at a sheltered corner of her home. And there are many more.

Speaking of Mrs. Klima, she's quite a huntress. So experienced in fact, that she doesn't feel unnecessarily brave and bold when she goes forth to hunt. Reversing the customary process, Ign. usually goes along to drive the car. Mrs. Klima has hunted several years, quite a la the gentleman hunters around town. Shooting more than they want to eat in the way of venison she trots over and presents them to the neighbors.

And getting back to flowers, there are other pretty things in gardens this time of year too, if you will only look.

In Jim Misko's backyard are the biggest and brightest lanterns, swinging in the breeze. They glow there this summer, on a Chinese lantern plant. And are they fascinating now?

In case you fall in love with them, let me tell you Fred Coe warns that this flower, once established in your yard, he believes I am willing to be pestered.

The Knighthood of Youth movement is going over with a bang in the Midvale school where Merna Crow tutors the young.

For being very good, certain boys and girls get to make the announcements about this new and noble order, and the speeches are full of fire, too.

A few days ago a small fellow was checking up on the tooth brushing put up their hands. . . . All those who have toothbrushes put up their hands. . . . And all who don't have toothbrushes get them Saturday when you go to town.

He must have heard of Mussolini. Or else he's in league with the toothbrush magnates.

If you give to any worthy cause whatever, you should give to the Red Cross in their drive this week-end and the next week or two. If fire should sweep away this countryside tomorrow, the Red Cross would come in here and take charge, give out food and clothing and arrange shelter.

What other organization is ready in every and any emergency? You may be included in the next calamity. I hope you're not, but if you are, you'll be most awfully glad to see the Red Cross agents come. Help them now.

After a short visit here with his parents, Glen Barnard started back to Norfolk a few days ago with a queer load fastened to the side of his car. In one little crate, a canary; in a large one, some chickens; and lastly, kind neighbors donated a kitty, so in a third crate a cat made the trip.

Mrs. George Hubbard gave me the benefit of a good idea so now I'll give it to you.

You know the Quiz calendar-cookbooks have a perforation at the top, in the middle? Well, Mrs. Hubbard strings her cookbooks for the different years together on a small steel ring. . . . you know, the kind children use in notebooks, and for loose-leaf papers. Then Mrs. Hubbard hangs them all up on the wall together, by this ring.

Live in New Dorm.

Lincoln, Neb.—Evelyn Coe and Alma Glover, both of Ord, are among the women students of the University of Nebraska residing in the new Carrie Belle Raymond dormitory. Miss Coe is enrolled for a second year work in the college of agriculture and Miss Glover is a junior in the teacher's college. The new dormitory, erected and furnished at a cost of $250,000 was completed prior to the opening of the school year. It has facilities for 170 women with private rooms and a completely equipped dining room. The building is dedicated to the memory of Mrs. Carrie Belle Raymond, for many years an instructor of music in the university. It is the first unit of a complete dormitory system adopted by the board of regents of the University of Nebraska.

New Transmission Line.

The Western Public Service company has just completed five miles of new transmission line between Scotia and Horace. The new line is a big improvement on the old one and will give better service during stormy and windy weather. Several Scotia men were given employment on the project.

Dale Real is staying with the E. H. Petty family while his mother and new sister are being cared for in the Ord hospital.

My Own Column

By H. D. LEGGETT

There is a story on the front page this week and advertising on page 7, telling of our big dollar day offer. I have mailed statements to those subscribers who are more than a year behind, showing them just what it will cost them to pay up to November 15th and a year in advance, on Dollar Day. I am also mailing statements to a few who have been dropped from the list, showing them what it will cost them to take advantage of our splendid offer. There are many hundreds of you from a month to a few months behind and you are all entitled to take advantage of this special offer, but statements showing your exact subscription date are not being mailed because it costs so much to do so. Those who are behind can either pay up to November 15 and a year in advance at the $1 rate or they can send or bring $2 and be received for two full years. Those who are now paid in advance may also take advantage of the offer if they wish. It is to their advantage to do so. When any of us can make a dollar do the work of two dollars, that is the thing to do. What I want to make clear, is the fact that this offer is not a one-sided affair but is open to every subscriber on the list. We wanted to co-operate with other business men of Ord and make the best possible dollar day offer. We didn't know we were going to do it until less than a week ago. The offer will not be good after the 15th and if you don't take advantage of it on or before that day, it is your own fault. This is a wonderful, one day offer.

The Quiz makes a splendid Christmas present. More and more people are using the Quiz as a Christmas gift each year and this year will be no exception. You can take advantage of the Dollar Day heat production. There is little difference in heating value of different corn varieties, or between cobs and grain. Corn burned in a heater designed for coal gives slightly poorer results than are obtained in the laboratory.

The units used in measuring heat tend to raise the temperature over in the United States to a degree Fahrenheit. A calorie is the amount of heat required to increase the temperature of one grain of water one degree centigrade.

The general burning of corn in surplus areas would get enormous quantities off the market and help both corn and hog prices. In this vicinity wood will again be the popular farm fuel.

Named Administrator.

Harry Serber, of Lexington, has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mrs. Anna Cody, his mother-in-law, who lived at Ord and who died in Burwell early last week. Funeral services for Mrs. Cody were held there Thursday. Only a few weeks before her death her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Serber, was killed in an auto accident near Lexington and leaves several small children.

John Knighthood of Youth.

At the Midvale school thirteen children organized a Knighthood of Youth club a week ago, with Lois Long president, Frances Bremer, vice president, Imogene Long, secretary and treasurer, Morris Rathbun, Franklin Bremer, Richard Prien, Margaret Ann Prien, James Wanz, Wanda Wanz, Leola Mae Hansen, Wilford Hansen, Ervin Zentz and Dale Leonard. The new lodge began with lots of enthusiasm and plans. Miss Merna Crow teaches this school.

I attended the meeting of the taxpayers league last Wednesday for the first time. The meeting usually attends, was busy and drafted me to go over and get the dope. I joined the league before I got away and am quite enthusiastic for the organization. Frankly, I had the impression that it was composed of the usual kind of fellows. I believe the opportunities for making money are as great as ever. The trouble is that the opportunities of spending it are so much greater than they used to be that we over-spend.

but they have not been hit any harder than other business men and if we are to get anywhere we have got to work together. From what was said and done at the meeting last week, I can see no reason why every business man in Ord, North Loop, Arcadia and Elvira cannot belong and take part in the meetings. All will not do so but every part of the county should be represented. If results are obtained from the work of the organization, those results will be either beneficial to all or detrimental to all. What good for the farmer is good for the town business man. There should be no feeling of opposition on the part of town business men to the work of the taxpayers league. A membership drive for thirty days is being made and I hope all classes will be represented. If those who have charge of the membership drive fail to make the same effort to get members in the towns that they make among the farmers, then I feel that they are making a mistake. The taxpayers league was probably largely sponsored by the farmers but they must not continue to make it a class affair. They must urge all to take part in its deliberations. One of the primary objects of the organization is the lowering of taxes. We all want to see taxes lowered. In fact taxes must be lowered or some of us will not be able to carry on.

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

I have never heard anyone say that any Quiz recipe proved unsatisfactory, and on the other hand I have heard much praise of individual recipes. Of course I am more than glad to hear they are well liked dishes, and I suppose the reason I hear so many compliments is because each cook sends me only her choicest recipes, which naturally are superlatively good.

I have many recipes from young girls come to me, and while I am glad to get them, I especially want recipes from experienced cooks, women who have cooked for a number of years. Also, I want particularly to request recipes for inexpensive dishes, for one-dish meals, for recipes which can be used every day, in other words, recipes for good things to eat that are a little different, a little cheaper, and not too much work to make.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. KOVANDA

Two pounds of dry wood have about as much heating value as a pound of good coal and a cent of corn is equal to coal at 4 to 5 cents a ton. So we are informed by various government laboratories.

When wood has a moisture content under 2 percent, then 1 cord of hickory, or ash elm, beech, birch, locust, cherry, long pine, or hard maple equals the heat of 1 ton of coal.

Among the poorer woods, it takes 1 1/2 cords of gum, fir, sycamore, soft maple, shortleaf pine, or hemlock to make up for a ton of coal. It takes 2 cords of cedar, redwood, poplar, catalpa, cypress, spruce, white pine, or basswood to equal a ton of coal in heat value.

Fuel value depends on other things besides heat, however. There are such things as a good fire, easy ignition, rapid burning, freedom from smoke, uniform heat, and convenience.

Using wood or corn is more bother than using coal, of course. Especially corn, which does not hold together as well as coal, and is intensely hot fire that is apt to burn out grates. It is desirable to have a bed of coal ashes under the corn.

Forty or fifty bushels of corn is about equal to a ton of coal in heat production. There is little difference in heating value of different corn varieties, or between cobs and grain. Corn burned in a heater designed for coal gives slightly poorer results than are obtained in the laboratory.

The units used in measuring heat tend to raise the temperature over in the United States to a degree Fahrenheit. A calorie is the amount of heat required to increase the temperature of one grain of water one degree centigrade.

Mean Halloween Prank.

A group of grown boys played a mean Halloween prank on Miss Ella Bond when they overturned a good sized coal shed at her home. One side of the shed was filled with cobs, the other side was empty. Naturally a building of this type was shattered and broken up when it was pulled from its foundation and overturned.

Orange Cream Cake.

Sift three cups flour once, measure, add three level teaspoons baking powder, three red peppers, ten sweet pickles, add two tablespoons salt and let stand overnight. In the morning scald vegetables; mix well together three-fourths cup sugar, three tablespoons flour, one teaspoon mustard and combine with one-half cup butter. Add four well-beaten eggs and one pint weak vinegar. Cook until smooth and thick, add one cup sweet cream, let simmer a few minutes, pour over vegetables and mix well. Heat to boiling, can and seal.

Mean Halloween Prank.

A group of grown boys played a mean Halloween prank on Miss Ella Bond when they overturned a good sized coal shed at her home. One side of the shed was filled with cobs, the other side was empty. Naturally a building of this type was shattered and broken up when it was pulled from its foundation and overturned.

EYE TALKS Week by Week

Can the eyes be straightened with glasses is a question often asked of the Optometrist.

In going over our records some time ago we found that 16 percent of our cross-eyed patients were straightened by using glasses only. 32% were straightened by using treatments only and at no time needed or were fitted with glasses. 52% required glasses and treatments to make their recovery wholly successful.

In jabbering our cases we could not help but notice how much more rigid progress the patient made where we received their hearty co-operation in carrying on the treatment outlined for them.

North Loup News

Mrs. Ford Eyerly received the sad news by telegram Sunday evening of the death of her niece, Mrs. Thelma Patterson Davis in a Denver hospital. Tumor of the brain was the cause of this young woman's death. The Pattersons were North Loup residents for a time, Thelma graduating from the schools here in 1926. A year ago in April she was married to Keith Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orson Davis of Denver. She is survived by her husband and her people all of Denver besides other Denver relatives. She was a niece of Mrs. Ford Eyerly and of I. A. Patterson of Riverdale vicinity.

Friends here of Mrs. Hope Doane Anderson were sorry indeed when the report came Friday from St. Francis' hospital that it was found necessary to amputate her right hand which was injured in a car accident recently. Doane Anderson, 18 year old son of Dr. Anderson of Loup City was employed with Tom Hamer at Gibbon, Nebr., as carpenter for the Nebraska ties company. Friday, Oct. 21, Mrs. Anderson had driven to Gibbon for her son. Fred McCowan and Mr. Hamer accompanied them. A distance out of Gibbon at a cross road, a car driven by an Omaha lady teacher, a blizzard, struck the Anderson car, turning it over, causing a broken collar bone for Mr. Hamer and a seriously smashed hand for Mrs. Anderson. Doane Anderson received a severe bruise on his head. Fred McCowan was uninjured. The car was from Loup City brought the North Loup men to their homes, where Dr. Hemphill attended Mr. Hamer's injuries. Mrs. Anderson was taken to St. Francis hospital for treatment where until Friday it was thought her hand would be saved. Mrs. Anderson's people, the Doanes, were old time residents of this place, Hope graduating here with the class of 1906.

Tomorrow morning (Friday) Armistice Day at 11 o'clock by request the American Legion and all other persons wishing to observe the 'Siren' are asked to stand in silence for thirty seconds in memory of the World War fallen and wounded soldiers.

Thursday morning Rev. and Mrs. Stevens received a telegram from East Orange, N. J. informing them of the critical illness of their son who had just submitted to a serious operation. The same evening their hearts were gladdened by a second message stating he had passed the danger point. The young man, their only son is a chemical engineer in East Orange, New Jersey.

Mrs. Lizette Knapp entertained at Sunday dinner honoring the birthday of her oldest son, Ray. Those present besides Ray and Dorothy were the other members of this family. Mr. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Knapp, Mrs. Maxine.

The Rebekah Circle were all day guests of Mrs. R. D. Inbody at Sumner Wednesday of last week.

The committee for Relief meet again this week for the furtherance of welfare work in this village. Mrs. Lou Barber, president of the welfare board and her helpers will appreciate services anyone is able to render in the way of clothing, fuel, food or money. Representatives of this board are: Mrs. Bohrer, Red Cross, Mrs. L. A. Hawks, W. C. D. E. Knapp, Community club, Elna Hurley, American Legion, D. S. Bohrer, M. E. church, Nina Lewis, S. D. B. church, Lola Fuller, Friends church, Myra Hutchins, No Lo club, Myra Barber, Fortnightly, Bee Brown, Rebekah and Mayor Barber. Donations may be handed to any of these.

Ray (Bud) Knapp accompanied Geo. Eberhart to Norfolk Friday with a load of alfalfa seed.

Howard Preston reports he was well pleased with the opening day's sales at the Preston Pavilion in the west part of town. The second sale is being held this afternoon.

Several cars of North Loup folks patronized the Davis Creek bazaar and supper held Thursday evening at the church. They reported a delightful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Nelson of Boulder, Colo. were Sunday visitors at the Will Kildow home. The Nelsons have been guests of the latter's people at Cotesfield.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Bohrer were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Rusmisse home in Palmer.

Mrs. Ora Barber and daughter Mrs. Gertrude Lundstedt were hostesses Thursday afternoon to the members of the local W. F. M. society of the M. E. church and a number of guests. The meeting opened with impressive installation services for the newly elected officers. Following a season of prayer for the work here and our missions abroad a review of chapter II of the year's study "Lady 4th Daughter of China" was reviewed. Roll call was responded to by giving excerpts from the General executive meeting at Tulsa, Okla. A most interesting letter was read by Maude Thomas which she recently received from a worker in a mission station in India, whom this society supports.

Frazier Funeral home, Ord. Ambulance service. Day phone 38; Night 198. 31-11

Among the half dozen persons injured in two automobile accidents Monday morning on the St. Paul and Lincoln highways a few miles north and east of Grand Island were the two sisters and brother-in-law of Clark Roby, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Steele of Winfield, Kas. and Mrs. J. C. Rice of Hastings who were enroute from Hastings to the Clark Roby home at North Loup. When their car, a light coupe, collided with a gravel truck driven by Leo H. Davis of Grand Island, Mrs. Steele's injuries were both knee caps fractured, a fracture of her right wrist and cuts about her face while her sister, Mrs. Rice suffered a fracture of the left knee cap, and ligaments below the knee on the right leg were severed, besides numerous cuts and bruises. Mr. Steele also received cuts and bruises requiring medical care. Harry Kilginsmith, of this place, also figuring in the collision with his cattle truck, the cause of which he reports was a failure of the Davis truck to observe the stop sign at an intersection, was also bruised when he swerved from the highway striking a power line pole. Mr. and Mrs. Roby were informed of the accident by a message sent by Mr. Steele from St. Francis hospital where the injured are being treated. The Steeles and Mrs. Rice were enroute to Albion to attend a funeral of a brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roby drove to Grand Island Tuesday morning to visit the injured ones at St. Francis hospital and Tuesday evening they drove to Albion for the funeral of the brother-in-law, which was held at that place Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barber returned Sunday from Omaha where they had charge of Valley county exhibits at Ak-Sar-Ben.

North Loup friends received announcement last week of the birth of a daughter, Shirley Anita, to Mr. and Mrs. Forest Johns of Calumet City, Ill. Mrs. Johns was formerly Jennie Bingham.

Grandma Thomas and her daughters, Mrs. Creager and Miss Maud, with Miss Ruby Post and Mrs. Millie Thomas of Riverdale were guests Friday of Mrs. Viola Thomas Dutcher, near Horace.

The visit and the delicious dinner prepared by Mrs. Dutcher were in honor of her mother, Mrs. Millie Thomas. Ruby Post remained for a week's visit with these friends.

Mrs. Evelyn Patterson has suffered much pain from her injuries received last week. Monday her leg was put into a cast and she is now resting quite comfortably at Dr. Pinckney's in Scotia.

Three little boys with matches accounted for the fire Tuesday afternoon which burned the barn on the old Henry Smith property where Clifford Hawks resides. Fortunately Mrs. Stella Kerr and Emma and Selma Swanson living near saw the disaster in time to save Mr. Hawks' two milch cows which were tied in the barn. In spite of the severe wind storm of Tuesday afternoon firemen who were soon on the scene of action in answer to the fire whistle were able to keep the flames from spreading to other homes close by.

The high school football team journeyed to Taylor Friday afternoon where the boys were victors. Score, 27 to 0.

Along with her other work as music instructor, Miss Naomi Yost is supervising a junior orchestra.

Political debates and very warm discussions have been the vogue among both high school and grade students the past several days owing to reports the children bring home.

Mrs. Ruth Hutchings was hostess Wednesday of last week to the Fortnightly club whose lesson was on prisons and prison life. Each responded to roll call by naming a candidate for election. The skit, "The Princess Bounces In," given by the NoLo ladies on Tuesday was repeated by the Fortnightly members as a closing number. The host and guests dined on refreshments during the social hour.

VOL. 51 NO. 34

PHONE COMPANY OFFICERS HERE, REFUSE RATE CUT

Can't Afford to Lower Rate Now, Clark Tells C. of C.; Will Improve Ord Service.

The Nebraska Continental Telephone company cannot consent to a reduction in telephone rates in Ord. Under present financial conditions there is no possibility of building a new exchange or installing more modern service here, although experts are hearing of such as can be done without extensive replacements or repairs.

So stated A. B. Clark, president of the Nebraska Continental Telephone company, in the course of a conference with officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce at the residence of H. Van Decar last Friday evening. W. W. Johnson, of Kearney, district telephone manager, also was present at the meeting.

The conference was arranged by Manager Johnson, who brought the president of his company here, to see if something could be done to stop the fight on telephone rates that is gaining such momentum in Ord and the surrounding farm communities.

The only concession that the company is willing to make, President Clark stated, is to place the present system at the highest point of efficiency possible. The company has no money with which to install a more modern system or even to make extensive repairs, he stated. In fact, his company is having difficulty in making sufficient money at present rates to meet interest payments on stock and bonds. A reduction in rates under present conditions would be suicidal, he claims.

"Our company will do anything within reason to improve the service at Ord," says President Clark. "I returned to Ord Monday of this week accompanied by E. R. Hartman, engineer, and L. F. Jenks, district equipment repairman. Mr. Jenks will remain in Ord until the telephone apparatus has been thoroughly inspected, says Mr. Johnson who also states that any and all apparatus, including telephone operating condition, will be replaced at once.

Engineer Hartman is making a thorough inspection of the distribution system with the view of recommending such replacements as are necessary for a betterment of the service. Mr. Johnson says. A considerable amount of work has been done on the distributing system during the past year and it is planned to continue this program as long as weather conditions will permit.

Questioned this week by the Quiz, Engineer Hartman states that should his investigation warrant such action, certain sections of the distributing system may be entirely replaced by carrying out portions of the fundamental distributing system as outlined in plans prepared in 1930, which whole program will ultimately be carried out when more favorable conditions will permit.

An attempt was made by the telephone officers at the conference Friday to talk directors of the Chamber of Commerce into the notion of asking the company to metallize the system here, which it is claimed would improve service considerably. To accomplish this Nebraska Continental would have to raise the rates 25c per month, Mr. Clark stated. President VanDecar and his conferees refused to consider any proposition having to do with increased rates.

In answering Messrs Clark and Johnson the Ord representatives pointed out that it is not Ord's fault if the company has over-extended itself in selling stock and now think it necessary to charge too high rates in order to pay interest. Neither is it the fault of Ord that the company has no reserve with which to modernize the local exchange. Ord telephone users have paid rates sufficiently high so that a depreciation fund should be available to replace the local exchange now that it is obsolete and worn out. The company has, as proved by its own financial statement, been setting aside $4,750 yearly for depreciation and if instead of keeping this sum for replacing the plant the Nebraska Continental has diverted the depreciation fund to other uses Ord people should not be penalized now for something that they are not to blame for.

Temperature Down To Zero Tuesday

Tuesday was the coldest day yet this fall, the temperature hitting a new low of zero in the early morning. This report came from W. A. Anderson, other weather observers reporting the low mark to be 2 above, 3 above, etc., depending on the thermometer and where it was located. Anyway, we know it was too cold for so early in the fall and the slightly warmer weather since has been most welcome.

Ord Man Got In On Big Duck Flight Near Oshkosh

Last Thursday, with the coming of the first fall cold spell, the big flight of northern waterfowl began to come down the Platte river. And in a blind on the river eighteen miles north of Oshkosh, right where the ducks were most plentiful, was one of Ord's most inveterate hunters, Curt Gudmundsen.

Curt took advantage of the Arrastice duck holiday and started for Oshkosh to visit his friend, Homer Veeder. He was accompanied by Miss Marie Hall who went to visit Mrs. Veeder, who formerly was Miss Matilda Zukoski of Ord.

The men hunted on the Platte just north of Garden county and outside the federal preserve. Curt says that ducks came thick and fast all through the day both Friday and Saturday and says he could have killed hundreds of them. He had a total of 3 and 4 hundred and there never was a time during the day when there weren't ducks in sight.

The Ord people returned home Sunday, Curt bringing back the limit of current mallards.

MRS. MARY PARKS DIES MONDAY; INVALID 10 YEARS

Pioneer North Loup Woman Passes At Daughter's Home; Charter Church Member.

Mrs. Mary Parks, 76, a resident of Valley county since 1878, passed away early Monday morning at the Ord home of her daughter, Mrs. George R. Gard, where she had lived for the past twenty-one years. An invalid during the last ten years of her life, Mrs. Parks was a patient sufferer, always cheerful and uncomplaining, and the world is poorer by the loss of this beautiful character.

In Herkimer county, New York, Mary Thomas was born of Welsh parents on April 20, 1856, being one of three children. Very early in life she was bereft of her mother and it fell to her lot to assume the duties of keeping the home together. With her family she moved to Iowa, living at Elvira and Cressing before her marriage to Stephen A. Parks at Omaha in May, 1878.

She came as a bride to North Loup, Neb., and together with other hardy pioneers helped to build up the town and the empire of the North Loup valley.

In 1890 she moved with her family to Ord and had resided here continuously since that time. Her widowed husband, Mr. Parks, was a capable manager, reared and educated her three children. Being of a cheerful disposition she numbered her friends by her acquaintances. She was a practical and professing Christian and many are the sad hearts and hungry mouths that were cheered and fed by her benefactions.

She is survived by one son, Harold W. Parks, of Denver, and one daughter, Bessie E. Gard of Ord, with whom she lived for so many years. A charter member of the Ord Christian church and the last member to pass away, she was fitting that funeral services for Mrs. Parks could be held at this church Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Willard McCarthy conducted the services and the deceased tenderly laid to rest in the Ord cemetery.

Bartlett's Observe 35th Anniversary

Last Thursday was the 35th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bartlett, of Ord, and in honor of the occasion all of their children were at home to enjoy the day with their parents. Present were Miss Muri Bartlett, Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bartlett and children, Arcadia, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gilmore and son, Lincoln, and Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson, Omaha. A fine dinner was served, of which a feature was an enormous wedding cake, and Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett received as gifts a large rocking chair with footstool and a beautiful lamp. Group pictures were taken during the afternoon.

The Bartlett's were married in Ord in the home of Mrs. Bartlett's sisters, Madams Alvin and Clarence Blessing. All their married life has been spent here, Mr. Bartlett serving as postmaster for two terms and also as county clerk during the World war.

No Fall Jury Called.

There will be no jury term of district court held in Valley county this fall, announced Alfred Wegardt, clerk of the district court, yesterday. Judge Ralph R. North will hold court here November 28, without a jury. The next jury term will be early in the spring.

Visitors Sunday in the R. N. Rose home were Mrs. Preston Loomis and children and Mrs. Loomis' mother, Mrs. Morley Brechbill of Colome, S. D.

MASONS PRESENT ORPHEUM SHOW AT ORD THEATRE

Big Crowd Greeted Home Talent Entertainment Given Two Nights Last Week.

The Masonic Orpheum show given last week at the Ord Theatre proved to be a most enjoyable affair, judging by the gleeful guffaws of the well-filled house that greeted the efforts of the various entertainers, big and little. The committee in charge, Glen D. Auble, Edwin Clements, and B. C. Boquet, expressed themselves as well pleased with both the show and the receipts therefrom.

Opening with the music of the show "Hit the Deck," the orchestra impressed continuously through the show, giving a quality of music pleasing and unusual. Orville Sowl directed. Horace Travis played violin, Edwin Clements played cello, Edwin Auble played bass viol, Elsie Pecka played flute, Elizabeth Janssen played clarinet, L. J. Auble played trombone, Dr. K. C. McGrew played French horn, Glen Auble played drums and tympani and Mrs. K. C. McGrew at the piano was more than satisfactory.

With a neat little poem, "Our Show Begins Quite Soon," little Misses Beverly Davis and Ma Miller in cute costumes were attractive. All through the program whenever the acts changed, the two little girls would step forth from the wings and change the announcements on the easels at either side of the stage.

Next on the program was an overture, "Call of Bagdad," by A. Boleide, rendered by the orchestra. After that the first number of the actual performance was given by the junior acrobats, a group of misses including Lillian Kusek, Elsie Rasmussen, Ruth Auble, Evelyn Sharpe, Ruth and Barbara Dale, Jean Ferguson, Frances Duemey Virginia Klein, Dorothy Auble, Anna Jensen, Josephine Romans, Norma Mae Snitz and directed by Miss Edna Hinzda, these girls did elaborate cartwheels, pyramids, and numbers of other stunts in a most professional manner. They surely deserve the applause and doctas they received. In the background were oodles of gay balloons.

Dr. McGrew gave several cornet numbers in a delightful fashion, and the second act was rather flashy, and the second act was rather flashy, and the second act was rather flashy, and the second act was rather flashy.

Miss Zelma Frushour and John Misko in a novelty impersonation took their youthful part well. Mrs. Mark Tolson sang delightfully, with punctuation by the clever tap-dancing of the Misses Evelyn Kallik, Ruth Auble, Mary Beranek, and doctas, Joy Auble and Dorothy Auble.

"Hungarian Lustspiel" the overture by Keler Bela, rather difficult but beautiful, was the number presented by the orchestra as the act, and doctas, George B. Clement gave a skillful and enjoyable talk. Mr. Clement ended up with a sketch of a landscape that quite won his audience.

Meant to please the children especially, the Tony and Judy act made the grown-ups roar also, as Bert Boquet as the big bear clumsily did his stuff to the strains of the music. A beautifully drilled chorus of dancers and singers featured Miss Dorothy Boquet in a charming manner. Both the silver costumes and the black and white costumes were attractive, and everyone agreed Dorothy did a splendid bit in training her chorus so efficiently. Included were the Misses Eleanor Keep, Beulah McGinnis, Leah Hather, and doctas, Wilma Janssen, Eleanor Perliniski, Evelyn Smith, Evelyn Barta, Dorothy Seerley, Mildred Krahulik, Virginia VanDecar, Arthelia Burrows.

Dr. F. L. Blessing was in charge of the stage arrangements, and Miss Hans of the make-up of the cast. A talented cast, well trained and the show well given, the public was well pleased. There is a possibility that the show may be repeated later. The Masons in charge wish to thank Manager Blemond for his courtesy and many accommodations, during the practice and presentations. He has been very thoughtful.

Missionary Fair On At Christian Church

A missionary fair, first such attempted by an Ord church, is on this week at the Christian church. Elaborately decorated, the basement rooms are being used for exhibits of articles from China, Japan, India and other far off countries, as well as many articles made in this country for use in missionary fields. Programs are being given both this afternoon and tomorrow, Mrs. C. E. Pinckney, returned missionary from India, speaking today and Miss Mary E. White, state secretary of women's work of the Christian church, speaking tomorrow. A visit to the fair will be interesting to anybody.

Helen Davie Married. Miss Helen Davie, a former Ord girl and a graduate of the schools here, was united in marriage at St. Wenceslaus church, Omaha, to Frank Curran, Jr., at 9 a. m. last Wednesday. Miss Davie and her mother, Mrs. Mary Davie, moved to Omaha from here several years ago.

Baby Dies Saturday, Was Badly Burned Four Days Before

Burns received on November 8 when he fell into a pail of boiling water proved fatal four days later to Laverne Frank Novak, two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Novak, Jr., who passed away at the Ord hospital at 11:40 a. m. Saturday, November 13. He was an only child and is being greatly mourned.

The little boy was born June 23, 1930, at the family home thirteen miles west of Ord. When death came Saturday he was two years, four months and nineteen days old. Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday at Sowl's chapel, Rev. L. M. Real being in charge, and interment was in the Bohemian national cemetery. The bearers were Harvey Krahulik, George Radli, Eugene Puncocar and Eddie Puncocar. The services were largely attended by friends and relatives of the family from Howard county as well as from Elba, Ord and Burwell.

Out of town relatives at the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Zavitzka, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Frandsen and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Zwick and children, all of Elba, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Voboda and daughter Minnie and Mr. and Mrs. Jop Dworak, of Farwell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tuma, of Cotesfield, Mr. and Mrs. Emma Krutzel, of Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Colin and children and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nightengale, of Burwell.

Ord Woman Gets $1,850 For Death Of Son In Accident

A compromise settlement in the sum of $1,850 was reached at Grand Island last week in the case of Mrs. Anna Bird, of Ord, against Rollie Clemence of that city. Mrs. Bird, as administratrix of the estate of her 13-year-old son, Dallas, had sued for $2,900. The boy was fatally injured on August 24, 1931 when the truck in which he was riding tipped over. The truck was owned by Clemence and was driven by one Rollie Pengelly, who had invited the boy to ride with him. Mrs. Bird is owner of a filling station in Ord and makes her home with Mrs. Eliza Demund and family, the filling station being conducted by Arthur Demund.

PETER JENSEN, ORD RESIDENT, DIES IN DENMARK

Cablegram Tells of Ord Citizen's Death Nov. 14; Body Will Be Brought Back for Burial.

From far-off Traastrop, Denmark Monday came a cablegram telling of the death of Peter Jensen, 68-year-old Ord man who went there to visit only two months ago. A stroke of apoplexy caused his death, the cablegram stated. The body will be returned to the United States by the Danish Brotherhood, of which Mr. Jensen was a member, but probably will not arrive here until about December 1, when services will be held. Interment will be in Ord cemetery.

Born in Falster, Denmark on Nov. 16, 1863, Peter Jensen came to the United States as a young man and in Omaha, Neb., on Sept. 25, 1888 was united in marriage to Miss Matilda Hanson. They came to Valley county in 1895 and for five years lived on a farm in Mira Valley, moving then to a place north of Ord which remained the family home until 1928, when Mr. and Mrs. Jensen moved to town.

Ten children were born to them, eight of whom survive. They are Mrs. Loice Seerley, Kearney, Mrs. Mrs. Burtis, Mrs. Ben Dahlin, Mrs. H. N. Norris and Miss Alfreda Jensen. Ord, Mrs. Carl Fredericksen, Walter and August Jensen, Omaha. Two sons, Herman and Louis, preceded their parents in death.

Mrs. Jensen passed away on October 22, 1932 and shortly thereafter Mr. Jensen sold his home and bought a smaller place in east Ord. In 1931 he made a trip to Denmark and visited for several months and this fall he repeated the trip, sailing from New York on September 15. He had expected to spend the winter in Denmark and return to Ord in the spring.

At times Tuesday there wasn't even standing room available in the business office of the Quiz, so great was the crowd. From ten to fifty people were in the office every minute of the time from 1 p. m. to six o'clock and the three subscription clerks who were trying to write receipts and make change as fast as money was showed at times were completely swamped.

The above emphasizes the fact that not even Quiz employees always realize the popularity of their newspaper with the public. It was made clear to all of us in a gratifying way, however, when the subscription room available in the business office of the Quiz, so great was the crowd. From ten to fifty people were in the office every minute of the time from 1 p. m. to six o'clock and the three subscription clerks who were trying to write receipts and make change as fast as money was showed at times were completely swamped.

Charles Barnhart Given High Honor

Charles Barnhart, Ord vocational agriculture student and Nebraska president of the organization known as Future Farmers of America, was highly honored at Kansas City this week when he was given the degree of "American Farmer," highest degree conferred by the F. F. A. national organization. Charles was attending the national convention and the American Royal Stock Show there.

One other Nebraska boy was similarly honored, Oris Sowards, of Ashland. Charles Barnhart is at the convention as delegate from this state. He will return home today or tomorrow.

Helen Houtby III After Vaccination For Scarlet Fever

Miss Helen Houtby, teacher in Springdale school, is in the Ord hospital this week as the result of being vaccinated for scarlet fever recently. She is said to be very ill, but improving.

Two weeks ago one of the Springdale pupils, Lavonne Timmerman, had a light attack of scarlet fever and the school was closed. Miss Houtby underwent vaccination by a Burwell doctor as a preventive measure but Saturday was taken very ill and was brought to the hospital here.

Springdale school re-opened Monday with Mrs. James Covart as teacher pending Miss Houtby's recovery.

The feature football game of the Ord high school's season takes place on the Bussell park gridiron tomorrow when Arcadia high, leader in the Loup valley conference race, comes to Ord to tackle the Molzen coached team. Arcadia is undefeated this year and last Friday beat Burwell 19 to 0 while Ord was losing to Ansley 24 to 0.

Ord's Dollar Day Attracts Crowd Of Buyers

A stranger driving into Ord Tuesday would have said that here is one town that doesn't know, the depression is not, for almost every store was crowded with people throughout the day and as many cars as on the usual Saturday were parked about town. The reason for all this activity was the Dollar Day put on by a group of Ord merchants.

Business people generally express themselves as being very well satisfied with the result of the bargain day. "We were rushed to death," comments Bill Heck, of the Farmers' Store. "We had a regular Saturday business," says John Goddard, of the Golden Rule. "Was busy every minute till supper time," says Vern Laughrey, of Safeway. "We were sold out of our special before noon," says Miss Eunice Chase. "Biggest week day we've had in months," exclaims Joe Puncocar, of Food Center. Other comments along the same lines were made.

As for the buyers who took advantage of Dollar Day offerings, they too were generally pleased. It is to be hoped that Ord may put on another bargain day in the near future.

AMERICA FACES TEST GREATER THAN WORLD WAR

Armistice Day Speaker Declares Solving of Economic Ills Calls For Courage.

Challenging his hearers with the statement that "our duties now are as great as they were during the period of the late war," John P. Misko, young Ord attorney, delivered the address at the Armistice Day program sponsored by the American Legion and held in the Ord high school auditorium last Friday afternoon. A fair sized crowd was present.

"Our conflicts today cannot be won with gun powder, poison gas or bayonets," Mr. Misko said. "They must be won with determination, intelligence and energy. We are today facing a task, the proportions of which vie with those of winning a war. The repairing of our economic structure, putting honesty and efficiency into our government, laying the foundations for universal peace—all these are tasks that call for ingenuity, intelligence, sincerity and sympathy. We must offer a challenge to every citizen of these United States."

First paying a touching tribute to American soldiers killed and wounded in the greatest of all wars, the speaker then said: "The American Legion performed a service for us that should never be forgotten. The uncompromising patriotism of our soldiers shall be written for centuries in the histories of the world, but the performance of that duty shall not be the climax in the lives of those who survived. The service today can be, and fully expect will be, of just as vital a nature and demanding just as much patriotism. They stand in position to wage a bloodless war within our government those lofty ideals and principles which they are fighting to instill in the world fifteen years ago.

"If through their influence they can create a public opinion that will demand unselfish, loyal service from office holders," he continued, "a public opinion that will by its very existence coerce the world into centuries of peace, that will not allow our own government to be forced into action by violence, that will not tolerate political favoritism, they will have erected a monument to their fallen comrades more magnificent than any we might build with our hands."

The services were opened by group singing of "America" under the leadership of Dean S. Duncan, after which came the Legion's ritualistic program including prayer offered by the Legion chaplain, Rev. L. M. Real. A number of legionnaires took part in the program, which concluded with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the audience.

In the morning the light plant whistle was blown at 11 o'clock and everybody was asked to stand in silent prayer for a minute or two in tribute to America's soldier dead.

Dies at Cushing, Neb. John A. Olson, old-time resident of Rosevale neighborhood, passed away Nov. 13 at Cushing, Neb., heart disease being the cause. He was sixty-two years old. Funeral services were held in Cushing Tuesday afternoon and the body was then brought to Ord for burial beside the body of Mrs. Olson, who died here fourteen years ago.

Elected County Judge. Ben Rose, formerly of Ord, was elected Judge of Garfield county with a majority of 251 votes. He will take the place of I. W. McGrew, also well known in Ord.

963 PAY QUIZ SUBSCRIPTIONS ON DOLLAR DAY

Special Offer Brings Enormous Crowd to Office—Biggest Day in Quiz History.

Ord's Dollar Tuesday was a busy day at the Quiz office, the busiest in the history of this fifty-year-old newspaper, as 963 people among them 122 new subscribers, took advantage of the offer made by the Quiz publisher to send the newspaper any week for one year. And this does not tell the whole story for letters are still arriving from distant points and it seems certain that when the returns are finally complete the number of subscribers who have one dollar offer will be in excess of one thousand.

It wasn't an easy matter for the publisher of the Quiz to cut the price of the Quiz so greatly at this time when advertising revenue has fallen off so much but wanted to co-operate with Ord merchants in their dollar day so made the offer. We knew it was a bargain but we didn't know that the general public would recognize it to such an extent.

As soon as the Quiz came out last week people began to visit the Quiz office to take advantage of the dollar offer, asking that we take their money and issue the receipts under date of Nov. 15, Dollar day. When more than 200 people had done so before Dollar day ever rolled around the Quiz office began to anticipate the big day and plan for it. Even so, the great crowd that began to come Tuesday morning and continued throughout the day was a surprise. At times Tuesday there wasn't even standing room available in the business office of the Quiz, so great was the crowd. From ten to fifty people were in the office every minute of the time from 1 p. m. to six o'clock and the three subscription clerks who were trying to write receipts and make change as fast as money was showed at times were completely swamped.

The above emphasizes the fact that not even Quiz employees always realize the popularity of their newspaper with the public. It was made clear to all of us in a gratifying way, however, when the subscription room available in the business office of the Quiz, so great was the crowd. From ten to fifty people were in the office every minute of the time from 1 p. m. to six o'clock and the three subscription clerks who were trying to write receipts and make change as fast as money was showed at times were completely swamped.

To verify the truth of this statement the names of all who took advantage of the Dollar day offer, will be printed in next week's issue of the Quiz. In the issue Tuesday it is possible that mistakes were made in the list printed next week, please let us know promptly so we may rectify any mistakes.

It is also requested that any new subscribers who fail to get a copy of this week's paper call us promptly, as some names may be overlooked in the rush of getting the mailing list corrected on short notice.

Subscribers who renewed by mail will receive their receipts by mail shortly. We are holding them until the 1933 Cookery Calendars are completed, so that we may mail a copy of the calendar to each subscriber at his proper address.

There can be no doubt that Dollar day in Ord was a success. People came from long distance to visit the stores and many of these who came to the Quiz office saved more than the cost of the trip by the saving on the newspaper alone.

It should be pointed out that the subscription price of the Quiz has not been reduced. No weekly paper with the great news coverage that the Quiz has could exist on a dollar a year. Hereafter the regular price, $2 per year, will be in effect.

Zangger Injured By Maddened Bull

W. O. Zangger of Olean was badly bruised and his back was injured Tuesday evening when a bull he was doctoring became maddened and tossed him eight feet across the barn. Zangger lit in a feed bunk, demolishing the bunk and injuring himself considerably. No bones were broken and he is recovering.

100 Attend Legion Benefit Card Party

About 100 were present Monday evening at a benefit card party given by the American Legion Auxiliary in their hall. Bridge, high five and cribbage were played, prizes being won in these groups by Mrs. Edwin Clements, Leo Gerhart and Mrs. A. L. Fisher. Under the able supervision of Mrs. Roy Severson a delightful lunch was served at 11 o'clock. The Auxiliary plans to hold another benefit card party in the near future.

WHAT WILL BRYAN DO?
Governor Bryan is up against the toughest proposition he ever encountered during his long political career.

Re-elected governor of Nebraska on the wet democratic platform to which he fully subscribed, Bryan is still regarded in many quarters as a dry. But the Nebraska legislature this year is predominantly democratic and the issue is also made that it is dominantly wet. It seems certain that an attempt will be made to repeal Nebraska's state prohibition law as soon as the legislature convenes this winter and many wets in the house and senate to pass such a measure.

With a prospect of this kind facing him, what will Governor Bryan do? F. A. High, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, is confident that the governor would veto such legislation in Omaha quarters, where Bryan received strong support last week, the opinion is being expressed that he will not use his power of veto.

In any event, our governor is bound to make some political enemies, no matter which way he veers. And the political enemies is the thing that Governor Bryan would rather do anything else but.

OUR LOW ELECTRIC RATES
We spent Friday night in Ord visiting at the Ed Gwosdz home. They have almost every kind of an electrical appliance except a stove and refrigerator and the current used last month cost $1.52. They did not know the rate per kilowatt but they had lights and the current for all these appliances on this last month. It would be great if we could get similar rates here.

So writes Dan Webster in the St. Paul Phenograph in the course of an argument in favor of lower electric rates in St. Paul. In that city electricity is sold by the Central Power Company, a subsidiary of a big electric corporation, and rates are very high—in fact the lighting rate is 10c per kilowatt hour.

The city council in St. Paul is said to be trying to purchase the Central Power company's plant there for a municipal plant or failing in that move, to put up a municipal plant of their own and distribute juice in competition with the trust owned plant.

We wonder if Ord people realize just how fortunate they are in having a modern municipal plant under competent management, manufacturing electricity, selling it at a very low rate that is constantly being reduced, and still making a profit that permits taxes to be lowered. We have never heard of a complaint on the service furnished by the Ord plant. Rarely is the juice shut off and when an emergency arises that forces a shut-down the city employees time it so that it will be the least inconvenient for all concerned. Several times Manager Allen has called the Quiz to ask when it will least inconvenience us if the power is shut off and he always manages to do the necessary work at such times.

Our present difficulties with a trust-owned telephone company point the argument in favor of municipal ownership. Perhaps a municipally owned telephone company might be the solution of the difficulty, after all.

SOME SUPERSTITIONS.
Among the hundreds of superstitious beliefs still held by otherwise intelligent people may be named the following, compiled by a recent writer:

It is bad luck to spill salt or break a mirror. Putting on a garment backwards or wrong side out by mistake brings good luck. Luck is a brain food. Handling a toad will cause warts. Only the good die young. It is unlucky to light three cigarettes with one match. Friday and the 13th of the month are unlucky, especially if they happen to fall in the same day. To pick up a pin means good luck. Crops should be planted according to the moon. Knocking wood averts a penalty for boasting of former good luck.

The list of such superstitions and beliefs is almost endless. And it is not only the ignorant who act upon such beliefs. Most people, including those who have achieved greatness, have their pet superstitions. To mention only a few:

President Lincoln was superstitious about dreams. Superstitious Cleveland always carried a horse chestnut in his pocket for luck. Mussolini consults astrologers. Bill Tilden of tennis fame carried a four-leaf clover. Patti Negri thinks her screen career was damaged by a black cat crossing her path. Chatterbox, famous opera star, always puts on his left shoe first. Sarah Bernhart would not let any of her company wear yellow. Napoleon feared cats and maneuvered his armies according to the stars. Stanley Baldwin carries a rabbit's foot. And many court astronomer buildings omit the number 13 in numbering their floors, in deference to superstitious guests and tenants.

A small minority of persons are hard-boiled enough to call all these superstitious the bunk, and defy them accordingly. How about yourself? Would you walk under a ladder or open an umbrella indoors? —Kerrville (Tex) Sun.

My Own Column

By H. D. LEGGETT

I don't often hope for cold weather, but last Friday I was praying for weather that would freeze the ground so hard that farmers couldn't drive steel fence posts. It was because a Quiz ad compositor made a mistake in Bill Sack's ad and offered to sell 30 steel posts for a dollar when 3 for a dollar would have been the correct price. Bill was mighty nice about it and said all I would have to do would be to pay for the extra 27 posts that each farmer would get. Bill said both of his competitors called and wanted to take advantage of his bargain. I am sure glad the printer didn't take a notion to make it 300 steel posts for a dollar. That printer must have been a republican and was taking election results hard.

An Ord lady said to Dr. Blessing last Saturday, "What makes a very small cavity in my tooth, feel so large?" "It is the natural tendency of your tongue to exaggerate," said the doctor, and now he is wondering why the lady doesn't come back to have the work finished.

There are a good many people, used to the weekly visits of the Quiz, who are not getting it this week. I offered to let them settle for less than half price and they failed to do so. One man remarked in a joking way that he was getting it for less than that, and asked how, replied, "Oh, they just keep sending it to me." This man's good wife urged me to keep sending it, and said they would pay for it. I am not blaming the woman for the unfairness of her husband and I promise he shall never eyp me again. It will be cash in advance for him hereafter. The majority of the people who appreciate the favor of being carried for a while when it is not convenient to pay but there are some people, I am sorry to say, who do not appreciate that favor. I am getting them pretty well weeded out and marked for future reference and when they ask for favors in the future they will be refused.

The telephone company say they can't reduce rates because they are not paying an adequate rate of interest on their investment now. Who is? I have been making the first of this month, reduced advertising to local advertisers 10 cents per inch and the ad that cost the telephone company $2.10 a week, is now costing them $1.50. I reduced the price of the Quiz from $2.50 a year to $2 and then allowed every one to pay back subscription, and as far in advance as they wished, at half that price. And I have not only not been able to show a profit, but have actually lost money the past year. I am sure many other businesses in Valley county have done likewise.

Probably no political party had a better chance to make good than the democrats have now. Practically the entire country in all its branches has been turned over to them at a time when everything is at the bottom and when we were just beginning to believe that the up-turn must come. The party just going into power should be heir to the benefit improved conditions will bring. If they can't make a showing now they never will be able to do so.

Well, that's that. We had an election or something and the smoke is just clearing away. A fellow named Roosevelt was elected president. I don't remember who he was running against. I think it was Garfield or Thomas but anyway Roosevelt was elected and the new mayor of Portland is going to buy the traffic cops lawn mowers if they darn fool democrats remove the tariff from buggy and bicycle lamps like they might do. "grass would grow in the streets of every American city". Roosevelt carried Oregon by a large majority but did not carry the state democratic ticket with him. A fellow named Harry Campbell, a publican, was elected to the State Senate from this district. Quite a guy, Harry, three times president of the senate and twice candidate for governor. I notice by the paper that a democrat by the name of Fuson, also ran.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Thanks for the support of the Ord Quiz in helping me carry Valley county. . . I think that if I could have lined up the North Loup Loyalist and the Burwell Tribune so as to have had a larger majority in Valley County and carried Garfield, I could have elected.

Had quite a chat with George Norris when he was here and gave him my last copy of the Quiz, he knows lots of folks around Ord and even forgives Alvin Blessing and Judge Clements for being "and-pats". Senator Norris made quite a hit here. Later, when the smoke of battle clears away I shall send you some clippings from Portland papers about him.

His skit, in which he made an after-dinner speech in his droll manner to a group of dumplings, was the loudest howl of the show.

With crossed eyes it could almost be said that the worse they look the easier they are to straighten, of course that wouldn't hold true in all cases as the more we study this human body the less we feel like making any hard and fast rules.

That don't sound so good however to your Ophthalmologist and "and-pat".

Something DIFFERENT

At the high school election a few days ago, when everything was strictly according to Hoyle except, the age of the voters, two young ladies must have done some terrible things which were highly illegal. At least Constable Millard Bell, who was helping keep law and order at the election, reported that such a pair had laid themselves liable for fines of from $25 to $100.

I suppose it happened all over the county, but I know it did in Ord. A bunch of wags were having fun with the credulous, making wild statements about the dire effects on banks if Roosevelt was elected.

One well-read and intelligent young lady avowed heatedly that if Roosevelt is elected, every bank in the country would close within months from the time he takes office. Her friends thought she'd lost her mind, and made such remarks as "Imagine anyone as well-read and smart as she is, saying that."

And one man at the Tuesday evening election party in the court house got up a lot of excitement by yelling: "I'll betcha a thousand dollars there won't be a darned bank open in the whole country in three days, if that man is elected today."

And the joke is, both those wild-eyed ranters were right. Because three days after election was Armistice day; and four months to the day after Roosevelt takes office is July Fourth. Both bank holidays at the Ramsey door.

I'm telling you all about the right answers, because another "intelligent, bright young lady" of our town raved for nearly twenty-four hours before she got the drift. And I don't want you to be like that.

Mrs. W. L. Ramsey has had a pet squirrel for four years, who boarded with her winter after winter. He knew a good boarding house when he struck one. . . she's a dandy cook, you know.

They were good friends, and the squirrel would come to her door and call her attention to the fact that he was there and hungry. But for the last nearly five weeks, this pet has been missing, and two little squirrels are doing their best to substitute, securing three meals a day at the Ramsey door.

The newcomers are not tame enough to call at the door, however, or eat from Mrs. Ramsey's hand—not yet, but they manage to get her to feed them, anyway.

It is still not too late to hide tulip bulbs in the ground and get a pleasant surprise next spring. And did you see those two tiny Cleveland cherry trees in the Hager office window, with bright fruit like tiny oranges? Isn't cute just the right word for them?

Dr. C. J. Miller got a new dog Tuesday morning, a friendly Irish water spaniel puppy. Curly haired, big footed, clumsy, he immediately established himself as a reigning favorite in the Miller household. He came from Omaha by express. Dr. Miller already has a "pheasant dog," a Springer spaniel, and says he will use the new dog exclusively for retrieving ducks.

I saw a dandy football game in Lincoln Saturday, which reminds me that Ord has a mayor who doesn't appreciate or enjoy the game. With all other Nebraska mayors, he was invited recently by university authorities to the football game at games. He declined, with thanks. "Anybody who would sit all afternoon on a cold bench and watch that game is crazy," Mayor Bill told a friend. And the friend came back at him neatly with, "Well, my man, you'd sit up till six o'clock in the morning playing pool—dominoes is crazier."

And out of North Loup comes a hunting yarn that was good enough to make the front page of the World-Herald one day this week. It concerns Chuck Sayre's target practice. Chuck bought a new gun and just couldn't wait to try it so he took aim at a woodshed and blazed away. Which was all right until his wife's next wash day rolled around. Then she found that instead of a wash boiler she had a sieve. Chuck's aim was too good.

Just saw Frank Koupal drive past the office with the rear end of his little truck filled with "Christmas trees," bought cut from those beautiful blue spruce and pine trees on his place near the park. Wonder what he's decorating?

BACK FORTY

By J. A. KOVANDA

This summer a few local farmers complained about their wheat being damaged by what they thought was black stem rust. Others noticed the same infection on their crop, but called it smut. An investigation showed that it was neither of these diseases.

It was black chaff, a disease of bacterial origin. Black chaff was discovered in Indiana thirty years ago, and is now prevalent in every wheat producing state. It is both some only during seasons of frequent rains, and hence does little damage to Valley county wheat. Here it exists unrecognized, altogether overlooked or, what is more likely, confused with other plant diseases.

Black chaff appears in black stripes on various parts of the wheat at ripening time. The kernels may shrivel. Yellowish sap exudes from the plant. The germs are carried on the grain, and may be destroyed with a solution of copper sulphate.

In 1915 the weather conditions were especially favorable for black chaff. It developed to such an extent as to attract general attention and frighten farmers, especially in Kansas. The federal government sent out three investigators who found cases of the disease all over the middle west. The country was warned that the situation would probably become serious, and farmers were advised to plant only disease-free seed. That was in 1917, however, since then nothing has been heard about black chaff. Its attacks on wheat have not been serious enough to deserve mention.

When last summer's outbreak occurred in Valley county, it was impossible to find a book or bulletin in the state that discussed or even mentioned the disease. And the poorness of wheat where this disease was found, was due more to adverse climatic conditions than to black chaff.

Honey Valuable Food. The National Honey Week is past and it went over big. But that does not mean that we should stop eating honey, in fact we should not eat honey only during the honey week but every week in the year. Honey is a natural food like milk, but unlike milk, is not a disease carrier.
Pound for pound honey has more food value than meat or beef or eggs. Honey is predigested and when it reaches the stomach it does not have to be changed. It is ready for assimilation at once. Thus it becomes ready energy of growth.
Distance runners use honey in capsules and take it in frequent doses while running.
It is stated on good authority that Gertrude Ederle used honey freely in a strenuous swim crossing the English channel a few years ago.
The very fact that honey is absorbed by the blood without change, which is beneficial to sick people and people of weak digestion or weak heart goes to show that honey ought to be beneficial to athletes, farmers or laborers who do hard physical work.
On this point a letter to the Ontario Honey Producers Association by W. L. Finlay, D. D. S., Director of Athletics of the Toronto Young Men's Christian Association of Toronto is of interest. The letter follows, in part:
"For almost three years the members of Central Y. M. C. A. Walker's club have used honey as a staple article of diet. Following extensive medical research work on diet and athlete's endurance in which was involved estimations of blood sugar before and after competitive walks, these members were advised to incorporate honey in their diet.
Honey has the following advantages over other sugars:
1. It is non-irritating to the digestive apparatus.
2. It is assimilated easily and rapidly.
3. It quickly furnishes the demand for energy.
4. It enables the athlete to recuperate rapidly and men using honey show less fatigue.
5. From our observation, use of honey spares the kidneys, lessening tissue destruction.
6. It is a natural and gentle laxative."
(Signed) W. L. Finlay, D. D. S., Director of Athletics.
Honey is not injurious to the teeth, on the contrary, honey helps the children to grow very strong permanent teeth. Sickly babies grow fat quickly on honey and milk.

Our high school athletes would find it worth while to eat honey for energy. Honey in baking will keep bread, cookies and cakes soft and fresh for a long time. Honey is great with baked apples. It may be used with nearly all kinds of berries and breakfast foods, also in making jellies and fruit cocktails.
Honey is a great heart stimulant and is being used with great success by some of the best doctors in cases of pneumonia, typhoid fever, scarlet fever and other diseases which generally leave the patient with a weak heart.
Your Honey man, F. M. Vodehnal.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Rich and family and Miss Campbell were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peterson of Ravenna last Sunday.
The members of the U. R. club met at the home of Mrs. Louis Miller last Thursday afternoon, eight members being present. The lesson on "Spending Christmas at Home" was very interesting. The entertainment committee were requested to begin preparing a program, the date of which will be announced later. Several useful and inexpensive Christmas gifts were displayed by the members. Mrs. Miller served a lunch of sandwiches, pickles, whipped cream and cake and coffee. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Horner, Dec. 1st.
Edward Miller is picking corn for Orin Manchester this week.
The Manchester boys shelled corn for Mr. Bolte last Thursday.
Helen Madsen spent last Monday at the home of Mrs. Roy Williams.
Mrs. Henry Harris gave a party last Sunday night in honor of the birthday of her son, Floyd. The young people spent the evening playing games out doors. Refreshments were served later in the evening.
School Notes. Visitors at school last Wednesday were Mrs. Murray Rich, Blanch Worrell, Mrs. Harry Tolon, Mrs. Cecil Kennedy, Mrs. Henry Harris, Mrs. Roy Crusan and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coplen.
Both Knighthood of Youth clubs held regular meetings Wednesday afternoon. The Brave Knights held an educational meeting with Chas.

Wolfe, leader. Marvin Harris was chosen leader for next meeting. The Happy Circle held a very interesting program with Bert Crusan as leader. The topic was "Education". Papers were prepared and read by: Earl Tolon "Homes of the Pioneers," Irma Mae Waller, "Schools of Pioneers," Edna Bolte, "What Schools are Today," Doris Wetzel, "American Ideals," Donald Naeve, "Education and Progressive Living," Louie Skibinski, "Relationship of Parents and School."
The civics class held election Tuesday which proved a very interesting and profitable lesson.
A birthday dinner was given in honor of Mrs. Ross Williams at her home last Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Whalen, Mike and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams and Andy Glen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whalen, Nicholas and Uncle Nick Whalen, Elizabeth Lent and Velma Leach.
Dolores Horner has been absent from school on account of having the chicken pox.
The leadership for the next Knighthood of Youth meeting is Fern Richard. This will be the meeting that ends the first six weeks period.

Notice

In the past year nearly every child that has come to me for attention has been a severe case. It is very evident that perhaps on account of present conditions there are many bad cases that are being put off, unless they are very severe.

This being true and realizing the future danger, I am making the following offer.

If you have a child whom you think has a very noticeable case of eye trouble and the lack of money is interfering, I will take care of them at your price. If you can pay a small amount well and good but if you cannot pay, and will be satisfied with a frame a little out of date, I will fit them free of charge.

This offer is made only for children of grade school age, in Valley and Garfield counties, and for two months. To take advantage of this emergency offer all you need to do is mention it, otherwise you will be cared for in the regular manner, with a present style frame at the regular price.

Elyria School Notes.
The World History class is working on the seventh unit and it is perhaps the most interesting class we have in high school. Work books and maps are unusually neat.
Ninth Latin class is working hard with the third declension. Tomorrow we take up the passive voice of the 1st conjugation. Work books are all up to date but it keeps us busy.
Next week parts will be assigned for Christmas exercises. These are to be studied over the Thanksgiving vacation and practice will start the week after.
The Book club organized by the pupils of the high school held a business meeting last week. Most of the members visit the Ord Library regularly and have made book reports on books read. A book a month was the goal but several have read more than that.
The English class has finished the study of "The Lady of the Lake." Their work books are completed and Wednesday they took the test sent out by the Extension department. Grades were good.
The 8th English class finished the study of Enoch Arden on Monday and took the test sent out by the Perfection Form company.
The Algebra class is doing supplementary work on simple equations. Last week they took the final test on division.

SUPREME COURT SAYS GUARANTY FUND LAW VOID
State Banks Released From Paying Estimated 3 Millions; Local Banks Profit $25,000.

In a decision made last Thursday the Nebraska supreme court ruled that assessments levied against state banks have become confiscatory and thus have made the operation of the state guaranty fund and depositors' final settlements unreasonable and unconstitutional.
The court's opinion, written by Judge L. B. Day, struck from the Nebraska statute books the entire assessment procedure and freed state banks from payment of the assessments levied since December, 1928.
It held that the depositors' final settlement fund law passed by the 1930 special legislature was unconstitutional as violative of the due process clause of the federal constitution and as taking property from one class and giving it to another without benefit of the deprived class.
The decision released state banks from the obligation of paying an estimated $3,000,000 in assessments under the two laws and made Nebraska's assessment banking law ineffective, but it did not invalidate the principle of guaranty fund legislation nor bar any future attempt to guarantee bank deposits in a similar manner.
The guaranty fund law was first passed by the Nebraska legislature in 1909 and before it went into effect was contested in the courts. In 1911, the U. S. Supreme court first upheld the law and the legislature made minor changes in it before it went into effect.
Subsequent legislative enactments encouraged much pressure to reduce the assessments and the law was modified several times to reduce them but no further important action in court was taken against the law until 1928 when the Able State bank case was brought attacking the assessments.
This case held up collection of the assessments of and after Dec. 15, 1928. It was not decided by the U. S. Supreme court until December, 1930, when the assessments were held by the federal court which recognized the reduction of assessments contained in the depositors' final settlement law passed in March 1930.
Before the mandate came down from the U. S. Supreme court in April 1931, however, the legislature passed the Hubbell case, asking an injunction to prevent collection of the old guaranty fund assessments and the new assessments under the 1930 legislation. This was the case decided by the Nebraska Supreme court last Thursday.
Attorney General C. A. Sorensen announced Friday that he would immediately file a motion with the Supreme court asking for a rehearing of the Hubbell case. If the Supreme court declines to hear the case again it is possible that it may be appealed to the U. S. Supreme court.
Valley county bankers welcome the decision of the Nebraska court last Thursday as it releases about $25,000 tied up in depositors' final settlement and assessments. The Nebraska State of Ord has $8,000 of such a fund, about $6,000 is similarly tied up in the failed State bank of Ord, about $5,000 in the failed state bank of North Loup, the Elyria State has $1,360 in its depositors' final settlement fund and the state bank at Arcadia has quite a large amount similarly set aside.

The Friday evening session was long and stormy and lasted until well after midnight. Though nothing was accomplished, C. of C. directors are well satisfied for they know now that nothing can be accomplished along the line of a compromise. The telephone company is now finally on record as refusing even to consider rate reduction and the Chamber of Commerce is ready to go ahead with a fight before the railway commission.
At a meeting on the previous evening, directors had decided on a course of action. As the first step they will accept the offer made by Chairman C. A. Randall of the state railway commission to send the commission's rate expert here to make an appraisal of the local exchange to see just what the value of the property is and whether the company is entitled to charge the present rate.
It is probable that an independent telephone expert will be employed to make a similar survey. The Chamber proposes to work along another line also, that of trying to get another telephone system here. President Vandecar appointed a committee composed of George Auble, Will Heuck and Eugene Leggett to investigate the possibility of starting a municipal or county system or even of interesting another private company in locating here and furnishing adequate service at fair rates.
It was pointed out at this meeting that the Nebraska Continental has been so utterly unfair to Ord throughout the years that they have owned the exchange that they are not entitled to great consideration now.
In other towns where this company operates the telephone exchanges have been rebuilt and modern service is being given. At the same time, rates charged in these towns are quite generally lower than the rates charged here.
The charge was made by Bert M. Hardenbrook Thursday evening that Ord has been used by the Nebraska Continental as a "dumping ground" for old and obsolete material removed from other exchanges. He cited the example of Burwell, where a modern common battery system was installed a couple of years ago. The old magneto type telephones removed at Burwell were brought here, he charges, and the poorest of them left for use here, the better ones being taken to Kearney for use elsewhere. He cited other instances where similar things have been done.
Moreover, at Burwell where the Nebraska Continental has competition they charge a rate very much lower than the rates charged in Ord. The Nebraska Continental owns an exchange in Beaver City, furnishes common battery service and charges only $1.25 per month for residence phones and $2.50 for business phones. At Greeley they furnish common battery service and charge $1.35 and $2.50. At Palmer common battery service costs $1.50, $1.75 and $2.50. At Bloomington metallic service is furnished at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50. At Wilcoxville, the only other exchange owned by the company, rates are only $1.25 and $1.75. All of these facts and figures were brought out at the Thursday evening meeting as added reasons why Ord has just cause for feeling that it is being discriminated against both in the matter of rates and type of service.
Ord people will continue to lead their support, Chamber of Commerce officers believe that something can be done to right these flagrant abuses, even though court action may be required before they are righted.

Loup City, Arcadia Unite For Irrigation
The Loup City and Arcadia communities are uniting in a bid for a Reconstruction Finance Corporation loan to be used in building a dam across the middle Loup river at the Narrows between Arcadia and Comstock and thus irrigating between 25 and 30 thousand acres of land. The project will cost $650,000, it is estimated. Representatives of the R. F. C. addressed a meeting at Loup City last week stating that their engineers reported the project to be feasible. A temporary organization was formed with Dr. J. E. Bowman as president, A. B. Outhouse as vice president and N. A. Lewin as secretary.

Mass Gathering in Germany.
We have received a letter from Evangelist A. H. Argue in which he quotes a recent article that appeared in the Toronto Globe. A great mass meeting is being held at the Moabit Gardens, Berlin, on August 21, when 100,000 people from all evangelical denominations met to express their faith in Christ. Ten thousand posters in flaming red letters bearing these words, "The solution of all problems is Christ," gathered the people together at the appointed hour. Hunger was unmistakably written on many faces. A band played the stirring Luther hymn, "A safe stronghold our God is still. Thousands wept silently as the tones rolled away through the trees. Men leaned upon one another's shoulders. It was as though a sigh swept up from the earth. It was a meeting of rededication of faith in God in spite of the dark hour through which the German people have been passing. Ten thousand knees bent low, as softly yet with infinite pathos they sang the prayer, "Stay with us Lord."—Pentecostal Evangel.

Mistake In Quiz Ad Causes Sack Trouble

A mistake in his Quiz advertisement last week resulted in trouble in big quantities for the Sack Lumber & Coal company on dollar day. Their copy offered three steel posts for $1, a very good bargain, but when the ad appeared in print the Quiz compositor had made it offer thirty posts for $1. Mr. Sack says he could have sold an unlimited supply of posts at this price, for he had plenty of would-be post buyers, but somehow he didn't care for the business. The Quiz is sorry the mistake occurred and hereby expiates Mr. Sack from any blame.

WATER PROJECT AT STAND-STILL, REPORTS BARTA
Loup Valley Irrigation Hanging Fire As Committee Seeks Signers to Petition.
The North Loup river valley irrigation project is at a standstill pending the securing of enough signatures on a petition to get the project under way, the Quiz is told this week by Jos. P. Barta, Ord banker who was elected president of the temporary organization at a meeting held in North Loup some weeks ago.
It was proposed to irrigate 25,000 acres of land between Ord and North Loup by means of a dam and diversion ditches. Project was to be borrowed from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, according to plans made when the proposal was first made.
Land owners on the Ord end of the acreage are almost unanimous in wanting the project to go through. Mr. Barta stated, but in the North Loup district strenuous opposition was encountered and several land owners refused to sign.
To form a legal irrigation district it would be necessary to have the signatures of 51 per cent of the land owners. Out of 50 per cent have already been secured, says Mr. Barta, but it is not planned to go ahead unless at least 60 per cent of those involved can be brought to favor the project.
W. O. Zanger, A. H. Jackson and others interested near North Loup are making a final canvass now to see if some of the recalcitrant land owners haven't changed their mind about the benefits of irrigation.
In the event that the ditch proposition under the project, there is a possibility that an irrigation district might be formed of those who want to irrigate with wells. It is believed that a district of this kind could borrow R. F. C. money as well as the irrigation district originally proposed.

Barber Loses $30 Purse.
Alex Esser, the barber in Benjamin's tonorial parlors, was a gloomy barber Monday after he came to pay for his dinner, for his purse was gone, which contained $30 and other valuables. Then it occurred to him that he had attended the movie Sunday afternoon, but a search of his seat did not bring the purse to light. However the operator at the show, when informed of the loss, had better luck and the purse was duly delivered to the owner Monday evening.
—Mr. and Mrs. George Finch and son were Sunday evening guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolf.
—Dr. George Parkins was on the program at the meeting of the Central Nebraska Optometrists club at Hastings Sunday. Dr. Glen Auble of Ord also attended the meeting.

North Loup News

North Loup friends of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Denver are grieved to learn of the death of their little four year old daughter, Deorion, who passed away Saturday evening in a Denver hospital following an illness of several weeks. It is believed death was caused from kidney infection though the nature of the disease baffled doctors. After a period of two weeks at the hospital it was thought she was improving. She had suffered no pain and just shortly after the parents leaving her in the nurse's charge had bid her good night word came to them that she was dead. Mrs. A. T. Jones, mother of Mrs. Davis left immediately for Denver after receiving the message Saturday evening. Clifford Goodrich taking her to Grand Island. A. T. Jones and daughter Mrs. Genevieve Hoepner with Floyd Redon left via auto for Denver Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of little Deorion. Floyd will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Redon, his father is reported to be in poor health.

Mrs. Mary Clement was hostess Thursday afternoon to the local W. C. T. U. "Child Welfare" was the general topic of discussion and was led by Mrs. Edna Post.

Twenty three members of the 20th Century club and three visitors with a plentiful supply of the Christmas spirit met at the home of Josephine Hutchins Tuesday, Nov. 8. The afternoon was spent in consulting 'sox' into dolls, and kittens to aid old Santa. The ladies also demonstrated how to economize in making one's own Christmas and greeting cards. They will meet again in the near future.

Miss Naomi Yost spent the week end as the guests of Lois and Vesta Kildow.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Rupert were Thursday evening supper guests in the Roy Hudson home.

Armistice day was planned here with a fitting patriotic program held at the high school auditorium Friday morning with Myra Barber of the Legion Auxiliary in charge. Students, teachers and patrons in attendance listened with interest to a number of Mrs. Barber's own original poems. Promptly at 11 o'clock at the blowing of the siren the entire assembly stood in silence in memory of the World War fallen and disabled soldiers.

Nov. 11 to 24 being the annual Red Cross Roll Call, Mrs. W. J. Hemphill, chairman of North Loup's organization urges everyone who possibly can spare one dollar to be prepared to help this worthy cause.

The Jensen Milling company of Wood River, friends of Rev. W. H. Stevens will sponsor a Pancake supper at the M. E. church this Thursday evening. Sausage, doughnuts, coffee and baked apples will be served in connection. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Manchester are enjoying a visit from their son Harold, wife and two children of Milwaukee, Wis. Harold, who is city electrician in Milwaukee was given his vacation at this time and this is the family's first visit with their North Loup relatives in three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Vanhoosen and little daughter Laurel Jean were up from Shelton Sunday to spend the day at the Earl Smith home. Bessie and Hazel Smith who have been visiting at Shelton returned home at this time.

The "It Hits Us" club met at the N. C. Madsen home Thursday evening, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Madsen. Rook was enjoyed, there being four tables of players. A delicious lunch was served at the close.

Several families of friends and neighbors gathered at the Elmer Kirk home west of town Sunday to do honor to his birthday. Those present were the I. L. Harris family, Earl Bingham's, Ford Everly, Ward Gowans, Herman Schoning, Jim Vogeler, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rux of Grand Island, Miss Edith Whitford of Ord, and Lee Koehler.

Mrs. Goldie Green Thrasher, who is helping care for her mother at St. Paul spent the time from Saturday until Tuesday with her husband's people, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Thrasher.

A very pleasant program was rendered Sunday evening at the M. E. church honoring fathers and sons and was sponsored by the Epworth League. Following congregational singing Mrs. Ora Bohrer lead in prayer. A quartette composed of Eula Shinneman, Miss Yost, Melvin Cornell and Donald Fisher sang "The Old Rugged Cross"; scripture reading lead by Miss Hazel Holman; solo, Donald Fisher; duet, Rex and Lois Bingham; a special number by the choir. Miss Lois Kildow, president of the league next gave an interesting and original talk honoring fathers and sons. Miss Yost rendered a solo and Miss Holman a reading in honor of the occasion. At the close an invitation was extended the honor guests to adjourn to the basement of the church where a dainty lunch prepared by the Ladies Aid awaited them. This was served with candle light at a prettily decorated table seating thirty-eight fathers and sons. Here again the league lead in a short program of songs and toasts which ended fittingly.

THE GOLDEN RULE

ARCADIA TEAM BEATS ORD BY 1-POINT LEAD

Coach Tuning's Boys Score In First Quarter, Keep Perfect Conference Record Intact.

Rushing two touchdowns across in the first quarter and converting both extra points successfully by the same method, Coach Tuning's Arcadia high school football team defeated Ord 14 to 13 on Bussell park field last Friday and thereby retained their lead of the Loup valley conference. The Arcadia boys have been undefeated and untied in seven starts this season.

The first quarter last Friday was disastrous for Ord hopes, Arcadia winning the toss and choosing to kick from the north goal, thus taking advantage of a stiff wind. The kick-off was deep into Ord territory and after failing to gain in two tries Steinworth kicked into the teeth of the wind, the ball traveling scarcely twenty yards through the air. From the Ord 40 yard line Arcadia launched a fierce offensive of off-tackle smashes and end runs, planting the ball behind the quarter posts before the quarter was five minutes old.

Arcadia's second counter was almost a repetition of the first, they taking advantage of a poor Ord kick and their plugging off tackle for substantial yardage and scoring without losing possession of the ball. Arcadia also plunged successfully for both extra points and the score stood 10 to 0.

Early in the second quarter the Cadvites intercepted an Ord pass and ran to another touchdown but an Arcadia player clipped Gregg on the play and the ball was called back, a penalty being administered to the offending team. They never had another chance to score, in fact looked puny as compared with the efforts of a fast-charging Ord team.

Paul Gard, thrown into the Ord line-up at fullback the first time Ord was in scoring position, gave a demonstration of line-smashing seldom equaled on the Ord field. Eight and nine yard smashes were nothing to him several times he made thirteen and fourteen yards at a time, and both of the Ord touchdowns that followed were due in large part to his efforts.

Barring the first quarter, Ord outplayed Arcadia throughout the game, making more first downs and more yards from rushing as well as playing a more consistent defensive game. Three of Ord's best players, Abe, Nutten and Lashmet, were in the crippled list, which hurt Ord's chances considerably.

Neither Arcadia nor Sargent has been defeated in any of the Loup valley conference this season and, barring a defeat for one of the two today, they will share championship honors. It is too bad that these teams were not scheduled this year and if both win today it is hoped that a post-season game can be arranged to settle the championship question.

Arcadia plays St. Paul today and Sargent plays Comstock. Neither team should be taken lightly in winning, though St. Paul has been coming along fast in recent weeks.

The Ord team, assured of fourth place in the conference, closes the season today by meeting Sargent City at that town. The Turkey day game between these teams is an annual affair, always bitterly contested, and since there is not much to choose between the two so far as their records are concerned, a fine game should result this afternoon.

Announce Marriage Year After Ceremony

One year ago on the 21st of November, Walter Jensen, of Ord, and Miss Florence Larsen, of Omaha, were united in marriage at Nebraska City. The wedding was kept a secret from even their relatives and closest friends until this week, when they mailed out announcements. Mr. Jensen is a son of the late Peter Jensen and has been employed at the Ford assembling plant in Omaha for several years.

Stanley Petska Is Shot In Right Hand

While chopping wood on the Anns Pearson farm Monday afternoon Stanley Petska was painfully hurt when a 410-gauge shotgun that he had leaned against a pile of wood discharged as he picked it up. The shot charge went in at the palm of his right hand and came out at the fist, leaving a jagged hole. He was brought to Dr. F. A. Barta for treatment and the latter states that no tendons or bones were injured and the wound is painful but not serious.

Heavy Alfalfa Yield.

Arcadia, Nov. 23.—(Special)—P. W. Rounds reports that a seventeen acre tract of land on the Rounds farm occupied by Fred Hunt and family yielded eighty tons of alfalfa in four cuttings this year. Can anybody beat that?

—Richard Albers and Noto Sinker returned Tuesday from a hunting trip to Oshkosh bringing back 24 big mallards and 8 Canada geese.

First Warrant Ever Issued In County Owned By Sutto

The first warrant ever issued for the arrest of a law violator in Valley county now forms an interesting historical relic that A. Sutto, pioneer county sheriff, is proud to own. He carries it in his wallet and Monday showed it to a Quiz reporter.

The warrant was issued by County Judge T. C. Tracy on Oct. 5, 1876 and called for the arrest of one J. Harter for selling intoxicating liquor without license. The warrant directed Constable E. Shoemaker to produce Harter at Judge Tracy's office at Calamus, which was located across the river from where Burwell now stands. The constable's notation on the back shows that he arrested Harter but does not reveal what disposition was made of the case.

At that time four or five of the present North Loup valley counties were consolidated in a county called "Valley." Later this huge county was divided and the county seats of Burwell, Ord, Taylor, etc. were established.

When Herman Westover was county judge he found the ancient warrant in his records and gave it to Mr. Sutto, who then was sheriff. It has since been one of Mr. Sutto's most prized possessions.

BERRIDGE DENIES CRUELTY TO WIFE, FIGHTS DIVORCE

Charges Thelma Lacina Wed Him for Money, Says He Is Mentally Incompetent.

Denying all of the charges made by his wife, Thelma in her suit for divorce filed in October, Samuel P. Berridge in an answer filed in district court this week charges that his wife married him for his money and asks that she be denied a divorce and that it be granted to him instead. Harndenbrook & Misko are his attorneys and Mrs. Berridge is represented by Munn & Norman.

Mr. Berridge was married to Miss Thelma Lacina on Oct. 10, 1928, three months after he was found mentally incompetent in county court and Mr. Ellen M. Powers, a relative, was appointed his guardian. Berridge was inheriting a small legacy at that time and the county court action was taken in connection with the proceeds.

In her divorce action filed October 9 Mrs. Berridge charged that her husband was an able bodied man but had failed to support her. She also alleged extreme cruelty and sought restoration of her maiden name, temporary alimony, suit money and attorney fees. The Berridge's have no children.

Mr. Berridge denies in his answer that he is able bodied and says that he is unable to work. He charges that his wife married him only to get possession of the small legacy he inherited and now that it is gone she seeks to divorce him.

Judge Ralph R. Orth is expected to hear the case next Monday.

Rev. Smith Gives Turkey Day Talk

Rev. Mearl C. Smith, pastor of the Ord Methodist church, gave the Thanksgiving day address Monday evening at the Rotary club's dinner. The theme of his talk was the sign so many business men hang on their walls, "business is good, thank you." This spirit of optimism is needed in these trying times, Rev. Smith said, and with this spirit in evidence there is much for all of us to be thankful for.

It was Rev. Smith's first appearance before the Rotary club since he came to Ord a few weeks ago and he made a very pleasing impression.

Colonel E. C. Weller, who resigned from the club three months ago because his business at Ewing requires his presence each Monday, was present and made a brief talk on tax matters. It is his belief that county expenses could be drastically reduced with proper reorganization, with a consequent drastic lessening of taxes.

Kill 53 Mallards.

Three Valley county men, Ed Voltanz and Ed Kokes, Ord, and Otto Pecenka, Elyria, enjoyed a day of fine duck shooting on the Platte river near Bridgeport Saturday. They got a few ducks Sunday morning, also, and when they returned home that evening they brought with them fifty-eight ducks, all big northern mallards. They went to the western part of the state early last week on business, stopping over to hunt at Bridgeport on their return trip.

Two Day Recess for Schools.

The Ord schools closed yesterday afternoon for the Thanksgiving recess and will not resume until next Monday morning, says Supt. M. D. Bell. Out of town pupils and teachers have left for their homes to spend the vacation.

ORD STREETS TO BE DECORATED FOR CHRISTMAS

Chamber of Commerce Has Meeting Tuesday Eve, Names Men To Carry Out Plans.

Ord will have more elaborate Christmas decorations this year than ever before. It was decided Tuesday evening when directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting to discuss plans for the decorations. A committee composed of Glen Auble, George Allen and Dave Lantz was appointed by President VanDecker to further the work.

Individual Christmas trees in front of each business place will not be used this year, it was decided, but instead each of the city streets will be decorated with evergreen boughs and colored lights. The four corners of the square will be most lavishly decorated with streamers of evergreen boughs and with colored lights, it was decided. The Chamber of Commerce appropriated a nominal sum to be used by the committee and it is hoped that the city will furnish electricity free as has been done in former years.

Business places and home owners are asked to carry out decorative schemes of their own and it is hoped that some clever ideas may be worked out along this line. The court house and city hall also will be decorated.

With the near approach of Christmas people are naturally becoming "Xmas-minded," hence it is desired that all decorations be in place as early in December as possible and remain until after New Year's day.

Anybody who has a good idea for making Ord more beautiful during the holiday season is asked to communicate the idea to some member of the decorating committee.

North Loup Tot Dies With Rare Ailment

North Loup, Nov. 23.—(Special)—After an illness of only thirty hours last Thursday a little tot, rare ailment in which the thymus gland swells and constricts the trachea, thus stopping breathing. Clarice Joan Sayre, three years old, passed away at Dr. C. W. Weekes' office at 10:30 a. m. day. She was rushed there only fifteen minutes before her death.

Clarice Joan was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Sayre of this village and was born Nov. 3, 1929. Her mother, Helen Joyce, also survives her.

Funeral services were held at the S. D. B. church here at 3 p. m. Saturday and interment was in North Loup cemetery.

Ord People Donate $152 To Red Cross

Local Contributions Surpass Last Year's; Returns Not Yet In From Rest of County.

Miss Clara McClatchey, county chairman of the Red Cross, reports a total of $152.15 turned in for Ord city at the close of the drive for memberships and contributions. Mrs. Cecil Molzen was in charge of the campaign for Ord, and her team consisted of Mrs. Stanley McLain, Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, Mrs. Keith Lewis and Mrs. Eugene Leggett. The amount turned in for the coming year is considerably more than was secured last year, when $118 was the total.

Arcadia and North Loup results will not be available in time to print this week. Last year about $100 was secured by the two cities, and it is expected that this year's drive will bring in an equal or larger amount of money. Mrs. C. C. Hawthorne is Arcadia chairman, Mrs. W. J. Hemphill, North Loup chairman.

All contributions stay in the banks to be used for local needs, an fifty cents of each $1 membership also is retained for local use, the rest being sent in to national funds for use wherever necessary. Anyone who wishes to contribute may leave his offering at the office of County Superintendent McClatchey, who will be glad to turn the money in to the Red Cross.

State Champion Crops Judging Team Leaves For Chicago, Dec. 5th

County Agent Carl Dale's great Valley county crops judging team winners of the state championship at Lincoln in August, will leave for Chicago December 5 intent upon winning the national championship. In 1930 the Valley county team won at Lincoln, then went on to Chicago to win the national title, and members of this year's team feel sure they can do it again.

Valerian Clochon, Charles Barnhart and Bud Bricker are members of the team. Receipts were too small to justify paying for heating and lighting expense during the cold months, Mr. Ramsey says.

THANKSGIVING DAY, 1932

MRS. B. VANHORN FAILS TO SURVIVE MAJOR SURGERY

Respected North Loup Woman Dies In Hillcrest Thursday; Is Mother of 3 Tots.

North Loup, Nov. 22.—(Special)—Mrs. Beecher VanHorn, respected North Loup woman, passed away last Thursday in Hillcrest hospital at Ord following a severe operation for lumbia, with complications, on the previous day. Mrs. VanHorn was the mother of three children, oldest of whom is ten, and the sympathy of the entire community goes out to her husband and sorrowing family.

Funeral services were held at the S. D. B. church Saturday afternoon. Rev. H. S. Warren, having charge. Pallbearers and those who sang were members of the club to which Mrs. VanHorn belonged, the "Friendly Bunch." They included members of the families of James Johnson, Roy Cox, L. O. Green, George Maxson, Harry Barber, Edgar Davis, Arch Moulton and Rolla Babcock.

Vera Viola Thorngate daughter of H. H. and Eva Thorngate, was born near North Loup on December 20, 1890 and was educated in the public schools of this village, being graduated with the class of 1909. After a year of college at Milton, her pastor, Rev. H. S. Warren, having charge. Pallbearers and those who sang were members of the club to which Mrs. VanHorn belonged, the "Friendly Bunch." They included members of the families of James Johnson, Roy Cox, L. O. Green, George Maxson, Harry Barber, Edgar Davis, Arch Moulton and Rolla Babcock.

Two Fined for Liquor.

James D. Grant, of Spalding, and Paul B. Chillewski, of Loup City, were arrested by city officers at a dance here last Wednesday evening and in county court the next day each was fined $15 and costs on intoxication charges. Grant paid up, Chillewski is "laying it out" in jail.

Hurt In Accident.

Walter Brown, son of Jack Brown of Ord, suffered cuts about the face and severe bruises Saturday when the car he was driving overturned about three miles north of Ord on the Burwell highway. He was turning around and apparently was going a little too fast, for the car overturned in the ditch. The car, Dale Chatfield's, was quite badly wrecked.

Mistaken Identity Results In Death Of Six Geese

Sneaking carefully up to the bank of a little creek recently, three Ord hunters poured a volley from their scatter guns into a flock of geese resting there and when the smoke and the feathers had cleared away they learned that six of the geese were dead, thus rewarding their efforts in a triple fashion. But when the three—Will Treptow, Ed Zikmund and George Zikmund—examined the geese a little more carefully they learned it was just another case of mistaken identity. They were tame African geese from Bert Whilding's flock and the Quiz understands that they were settled for at the rate of $1 per goose.

Maybe Bert let the hunters off more easily because he made a mistake himself a day or two before when a duck flew past his blind and he shot her, only to discover it was one of his own call ducks.

George O'Malley Would Be Speaker

Greeley Man Well Known Here Has Fine Chance to Lead House; 2 Ord Men Want Offices.

Representative George W. O'Malley of Greeley, well and favorably known in Ord, is a candidate for speaker of the Nebraska house of representatives at its next session and has an excellent chance of landing the position. Mr. O'Malley was democratic floor leader at the last session.

Though he had previously denied that he sought the speakership, Mr. O'Malley announced in Lincoln Tuesday that he would be a candidate. He said that he had received assurance of support from democratic members who had formerly opposed him.

Horace M. Davis, Lincoln man who formerly published the Ord Journal, is being prominently mentioned for chief clerk of the house of representatives while Tri D. Tolson of Ord is mentioned as probable secretary of the state senate.

RADIO STATION KMMJ NOW OWNS FOOD CENTER, INC.

Clay Center Announces Tuesday That Groceries Have Changed Hands; Details Unknown.

An announcement over the air Tuesday by radio station KMMJ, Clay Center, Neb., told of the acquisition by that station of the grocery stores of the Food Center chain, previously operated by Cushing Bros., of Hastings. Details of the deal were not made known, the station simply announcing that henceforth Food Center stores would be known as "Old Trusty" stores.

Joe Puncocar, manager of the local Food Center store, has not received any official information about the change in ownership but expects that an official announcement will be made early in December.

The Quiz understands that Dean Gray, general manager of the Food Center stores ever since they were started, is financially interested in the deal and will remain in his present position.

Miss Hazel Hackett Married at Lincoln

In Lincoln last Wednesday Miss Hazel Hackett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hackett, Ord, was united in marriage to John W. Laeger, young Hemingford farmer. After spending a couple of days in Lincoln Mr. and Mrs. Laeger came to Ord where Sunday they were honored guests at a dinner in the home of the bride's parents. Forty-five were present and the bride and bridegroom received several lovely gifts.

Mrs. Laeger is a graduate of the Ord schools with the class of 1925 and later attended Wesleyan university for two years. She taught school for five years, the last three of which she taught at Hemingford, near which town Mr. Laeger owns a farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Laeger will leave in a few days for Hemingford to make their home.

Fifty Men Gather, Husk Zlomke's Corn

Arcadia, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Fifty men with nineteen teams and wagons gathered at the Sam Zlomke home last Thursday and husked his entire crop of corn which totaled about 1500 bushels. Twenty of the neighborhood ladies were present and served both dinner and supper. Mr. Zlomke has been incapacitated for about six weeks with an infection in one of the fingers on his right hand.

MISSIONARY FAIR AT LOCAL CHURCH ATTRACTS NOTICE

Exhibits From Many Lands Feature Unique Show at Christian Church Last Week.

Rev. Willard McCarthy and the ladies of the Missionary society of the Christian church held a most successful fair last week in the basement of the church, an enormous collection of interesting articles from every corner of the world being brought together to be viewed by sizeable crowds each day. On Sunday a picture of "Nebraska" was pictured of every missionary from this state in the service of the Christian church, some of their stations and converts. Nearby was a little Japanese garden, created in miniature by Miss McClatchey and the members of her Sunday school. Near that was an exact replica of the missionary station at Bolenge, Belgian Congo, Africa, made by Mrs. Joseph P. Barta and her Sunday school class, house for house the same collection of American Indian relics from White Swan, Wash. was interesting, and Frank Glover had loaned his fine collection of arrowheads for the occasion. Beside them was a booth which changed from day to day, the menu changing with the country. The first day was American Indian day, Thursday was the day of Oriental India, while the third day was Chinese. The food was served by the ladies of the Missionary society.

Rev. McCarthy had prepared a little wooden model of the first Christian church, which was just like the real one at Cane Ridge, Ky. On a long table was a collection of Indian relics loaned by Mrs. Pinckney of Scotts, for many years a missionary there. Elaborately dyed pieces, native shoes and sandals, rude wooden household gods, ebony ones of richer houses, a bamboo tray carefully ornamented with a hot wire, a string with a pair of metal discs on either end which furnished jingling music for poor people, all these and many more, including the knife of a headhunter of Borneo, lay on this table.

Another table bore a Philippine and Porto Rico exhibit, a nearby wall was covered with pictures of the Hazel Green, Ky. missionary school, where the boys and girls with an extensive Chinese collection loaned by Gould Plagg was a beautifully embroidered priest's robe, the property of Bill Wigent. French exhibit came from Louisiana, and one of the boys from the San Gabriel Old People's home, every inmate being represented. One old blind lady who learned to type when she was 84 sent a letter, saying it was "all she could do." A large quilt top had rows of figures embroidered and applied, under each a name signed. In addition there were tatted crocheted and embroidered articles and many miscellaneous pieces, all sent by these old people.

A pair of fine maps made by the pastor showed the literacy of the country, state by state, and the other one showed the negro population of each state, and how it is moving north. A Child Saving Institute display of the Omaha home showed many pictures. Beneath it sat one of the big barrels being packed with canned fruit. Three barrels will leave here for the orphanage next week.

Even the tiny tots of the church did something. Little Beverly Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Shirley, made a nice roll and embroidered a small towel. She is a kindergarten. Everyone worked, in fact, and the result was highly successful, judging by the compliments heard on the novel Missionary Fair.

Guest speaker on Friday who told many fascinating and queer facts in connection with the display was Miss Mary E. White of Lincoln, who is secretary of women's work in Nebraska for the Christian church. Miss White stayed to visit Rev. and Mrs. McCarthy until Tuesday morning, as their guest.

Commission Houses To Collect Refunds

Some weeks ago the Nebraska railway commission awarded a reparation of 47c per car on all livestock shipped from or to the South Omaha market in the period from June 4, 1927 to Nov. 1, 1932. For some time there has been confusion about the method shippers should use in collecting this refund but the Quiz was informed yesterday by O. E. Johnson, Union Pacific agent here, that the refund will be paid to the person who paid the freight at South Omaha. This means in most instances that the commission houses paid the freight and must collect the refund. Shippers, therefore, should take the matter up with their commission houses.

—Guy Burrows, Archie Keep and Mart Beran left Monday for Oshkosh where they planned to hunt for a couple of days, returning home last night or some time today. Several other Ord hunters are planning trips to that duck paradise for this week end.

THE MAN WHO RIDES FREE.

In every town there are business men who refuse to advertise, who shun digging down into their own pockets to aid in community movements, but who cheerfully profit by the business brought to town by others.

This was never more clearly demonstrated than last week, on Ord's Dollar Day. A small group of live wire merchants advertised dollar bargains, an enormous crowd was brought to town, and every business in the town profited therefrom. The man who didn't advertise got a share of the business brought here by the others who did advertise. The fact that Dollar Day was for almost every business man in Ord a business day in months proves that business is available for the town that goes after it. Also, the business brought here on that day forms a much merited rebuke to those who refused to participate in the effort.

OUR FOREIGN DEBT POLICY.

The most important problem confronting the United States today, not excepting even the farm situation, is the question of what we are going to do about our foreign debts. Are we going to cancel them, or if not, how are we going about it to collect them if foreign nations are unwilling or unable to pay?

The Hoover moratorium has expired and payments are due from nearly every foreign nation on December 15.

To this editor it seems that the greatest factor in the defeat of President Hoover's policy was his handling of foreign debts in the past three years. The people of this country will not submit to a cancellation of war debts; they know that if foreign nations are permitted to go scot free in the matter of debt payment, almost the entire cost of the war will fall upon the shoulders of the American taxpayer. They know that money borrowed from private individuals here by means of the Liberty Bonds will have to be repaid by the American government, and that foreign nations do not pay our government there is no place for the money to come except from the American taxpayer.

President Hoover has acted wisely in calling President-elect Roosevelt into conference on this important problem. It means that the left to the next administration to solve and it is only right that President Roosevelt should have a voice in determining what steps shall be taken in the matter of the December 15 payments.

BRIGHT SPOTS IN THE GLOOM.

There were few bright spots in the gloomy campaign that came to a close two weeks ago. Both presidential candidates were unusually verbose but their talks also were unusually dull. There were few fireworks and the fireworks and roman candles that were set off fizzled and sputtered but failed to lighten the atmosphere. There were no quips that will live in history, no bon mots of note, unless President Hoover's remark about "grass growing in the streets" can be called such.

Out in Seattle, Wash., though, a dull campaign was relieved by the presence of the ticket of Victor O. Meyer, democratic candidate for lieutenant governor. Mr. Meyer refused to talk about economic conditions or the integrity of the republican party but instead this ex-jazz band leader with pin-point mustache and slick black hair campaigned on a platform of cracked ice on owl cars, silk hats for traffic officers and a saloon if he thought it would pay. The voters ate it up and when they elected Meyer up by a substantial majority they appreciated his speech of thanks in which he said, "I owe my success in politics to taking cold showers every morning."

Down in Oklahoma a young school teacher, W. Z. Rogers, ran for congress as Will Rogers and was elected in spite of a big newspaper campaign by his opponents in which they vainly tried to convince the electorate that he wasn't the famous funny man.

In Texas Congressman Thomas L. Blanton brought chuckles when he "walked out" on a meeting he was scheduled to address because he got tired of listening to a thirty-minute introductory speech. After talking for a half hour the introducer turned around to call Mr. Blanton to the rostrum, only to discover that the latter had got tired and gone home.

The Blanton story calls to mind an anecdote told by Frank Edgcombe in a recent issue of the Geneva Signal. The senior Senator La Follette spoke there a few years ago and said that the best introduction he ever had was that of a German farmer, who introduced him in these words: "I had been asked to introduce Senator LaFollette, who is to speak to you this evening. I had done so and he will now do so." People who have sat through a tedious, fulsome speech of introduction would approve an introduction of this type. Such bright spots were few in the recent campaign and to our mind the voters of Washington, Oklahoma and Texas showed real judgment in re-electing Messrs. Meyers, Rogers and Blanton. A man with a sense of humor is valuable in a disorganizing, partisan politics or elsewhere. And, personally, we prefer our politicians to be consciously comic, rather than the way they usually are.

MORTGAGE MORATORIUMS.

Over half Nebraska's last week two district judges declared a moratorium on the foreclosure of farm mortgages for an indefinite period, thus establishing a precedent that may be taken up by other judges. While such action might be a disadvantage in the long run, it is likely to result in financial loss to many mortgagors as well as to mortgagors, the Quiz believes. In places where the district court refuses to act on foreclosure cases it is reasonable to suppose that mortgagors who wish to foreclose will simply start their cases in federal court, which cannot help but cause additional expense to the mortgagor who will be compelled to fight his case in a distant court where attorney fees and other costs will be higher. A trend in this direction can already be noticed.

Also, even if federal court action were not generally taken, a moratorium on mortgage foreclosures would merely defer the day of judgment and far too many of our people are heavily mortgaged that even with an improvement in farm prices there is no possibility of the owner working out of the hole. In many cases the farmer would be better off if he relinquished title voluntarily and many have already done so.

If district judges really want to help they already have the power to take circumstances into consideration and defer foreclosures almost indefinitely, thus giving a worthy mortgagor every chance to retain his farm.

Whatever course of procedure is followed it must not be forgotten that the man who loans money has rights as well as has the man who borrows and that our courts are sworn to safeguard the rights of both, else they cease to be courts of justice.

When You and I Were Young, Maggie

25 Years Ago This Week. L. F. Peterson sold the Ord laundrette to Grover Browning of Kansas, a son of Mrs. S. S. Brown. Tom Rockhold was being kept busy picking birdshot out of his skin. He was quail hunting with a friend and when a quail jumped up between the two the friend planted part of his shot charge in Tom's side.

John Lickly was married to Miss Bess Hoffman, Frank Flynn to Miss Delight Tappan.

The turkey crop was so small and the price of the birds so high that few Ord people were planning turkey dinners on Thanksgiving day.

Joe Anderson's barn caught fire from some unknown cause and burned to the ground, with all its contents.

The St. Paul business college basketball team came to Ord and beat the Springdale Invincibles, 29 to 9.

Mrs. Florence Chapman was granted a divorce and custody of her two children, in a district court case heard by Judge Paul.

20 Years Ago This Week. Will Hather left for the International Livestock Show at Chicago, taking with him the great Clydesdale stallion, Dictator, as well as several Clydes mares and five fine Poland China hogs. Dictator was expected to win as a three year old.

Paul, little son of Frank Nelson of Mira Valley, received a blow just above the eyeball with an arrow. It was thought that his sight would be saved.

Knud Christensen of Sunnyside sold his 160 acre farm at $53 per acre and was moving to Alberta, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Powell of Elyria returned from a thirty day visit to Wenatchee, Wash., and Whitetieff, Mont.

Dr. Sark V. Krbkove, professor of Slavonic languages at the University of Nebraska, was advertised to give a talk on Bohemia at the Bohemian hall in Ord.

THE COOK'S COL-YUM, YUM!

If you have any notably inexpensive dishes that are family favorites at your house, this would be an excellent time for you to discover the man for the job. How proud I would be to mention my friend Pat, the president, and you might remember those big meals you ate at my home in the old days and appoint me secretary of agriculture in your cabinet. That would not be a very big jump—from township assessor to cabinet secretary—and think of the training I have had for the job. So long, Pat, and here's seeing you in the U. S. capital in 1937.

Your friend,
E. S. Coats, Yum Farmer.

Mrs. William Carrell, 308 4th St., Woodland, Calif. Nut Cookies. Cream one-third cup butter, one-half cup sugar, add two well beaten eggs. Whip one-half cup milk and one teaspoon baking powder together and put into the first mixture. Add three-fourth cup chopped nuts and one teaspoon lemon juice. Drop from spoon on an unbuttered baking sheet, leaving an inch between them. Bake in hot oven. These are very good and this recipe makes two dozen cookies.

Mrs. John Hopkins. Never-Fall Devils Food Cake. Cream well together one cup each of sugar and sour cream, one beaten egg and a pinch of salt. If the cream is very rich use two-thirds cup and fill it with water. Put into your flour sifter one cup flour, five tablespoons cocoa and one teaspoon of soda, sift well and add last. Flavor with a teaspoon of vanilla. Beat all together, and bake either in a loaf or cake pan. This makes a delicious red cake and is very inexpensive.

Miss Verna M. Sobon, Burwell. Spanish Hash. Mix well one pound hamburger steak, one pint jar tomatoes, one chopped onion, pinch of salt, one cup cooked rice. Put in a buttered baking dish cover with bread crumbs, dot with bits of butter and add a dash of paprika. Bake for one hour in a moderate oven.

Mrs. Henry Norris. Potato Pancakes. Grind or grate enough raw potatoes to make one quart. Grind in one onion if you like the flavor. Add one-half cup flour sifted with one teaspoon salt and three teaspoons of baking powder. Mix well and add one beaten egg. Fry as other pancakes, but use a frying pan in place of griddle and cover. It takes a little longer to fry them than regular pancakes but it's worth it.

Mrs. J. W. Barber, North Loup. Wants County Phone System. To the Editor of the Quiz: I have been following the telephone commission with much interest and out here we agree with Ord people that phone charges are too high for this kind of times. Now a few years ago one community in northeast Nebraska settled its phone troubles by organizing a local company, putting in an automatic circuit and the last I knew were getting good service cheap. I would like to see the Ord phone question settled in some similar fashion, and as soon as a final contract is formed, let us have the whole system. I am afraid we haven't much money to put into any project now but our old lines are needing repairs, which costs money too, and by adding a little more to it a big company with modern equipment can be formed. It probably isn't possible to work out such a plan just now but if Ord makes a change I believe it would be well to figure on something like this.

I see by last week's Quiz that my friend Pat is a farmer, and turning political handspring out in Oregon but the last flop he took he missed landing on his feet and landed right square on his back, while a republican walked off with the prize.

Years ago when you were young, Pat, you got boarded around here while pretending to work for my neighbors, I tried to teach you not to be a democrat when you grew up but it looks like you got in bad company out there in the land of sunshine where it is so warm and inches a year, you should remember that in the old days you expected to be president of the U. S. A. and I advised you then to be a republican, always talk farm relief and always be going to do something for the farmer (but never do it or you would be out of campaign talk). I also advised you to be like George Washington and get your name in the papers for never telling a lie, talk sassy to the king of England, kill a few Indians and you had a good chance to be president. I guess George Washington must have been a republican as he never told a lie and that wouldn't do for a democrat. And, Pat, if you had stayed a republican you might as well have been a senator as this prize fighter Corbett, you tell about. Anyway I suppose he was a prize fighter as the only Corbett I ever heard of was one. I guess this Corbett and I were the only two republicans in the U. S. who were elected this year. I thought I might be the only one until I heard of him. I ran for township assessor on the republican ticket against Ed Hackel. Ed got the school mom vote but I got the vote of all the bachelors in Vinton as somehow they don't like his standing in it. I think you are right in that they are out there in Oregon you get so much rain that you can raise anything but here in Nebraska we haven't had much rain and can't

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

When the Quiz announced that November 15 would be Dollar Day and that subscriptions to the Quiz could be paid on that day for one dollar instead of two, mail subscribers immediately got busy and began to take advantage of the bargain. More than 200 letters were received from former Ordites who now live away from here and keep in touch with home folks and home doings through the columns of this family newspaper. Many of them said only "enclosed find $1 to extend my Quiz subscription" but others included messages about the state of their health, the happiness of their family and other bits of news in which their friends will be interested. It would be impossible to quote from all the letters but here are what a few of them said:

Mrs. Hall Barnes, of Arvada, Wyo., says that neither she nor Clarence is very well. Clarence suffered a sprained ankle about a month ago and is just beginning to get around again. Mrs. Barnes had a spell of vertigo a few weeks ago and it still bothered more or less. There is no snow on the ground at their place yet but plenty in the mountains and last month three hunters were lost in a blizzard there. One was found and search for the others has stopped until spring. Mrs. Barnes was sorry to read in the Quiz about the death of Jap Arnold, who was a neighbor of her years ago in Valley county.

"It would be hard to be without the Quiz," says James M. Alderman of Ericson, in renewing on dollar day.

Mrs. J. M. Burke, of Grant, has written to take advantage of dollar day, commenting that she would have done so without the paper.

John Hornickel, always a good republican, says "let's stick together and not complain, even though the democrats are elected." He subscribed for his son, Elmer Hornickel.

John Beran, who moved to Lubbock, Tex., about a year ago, says that crop there were very good but like every where else they are getting nothing for them. The climate there is wonderful and so far they have had but one freeze. Mr. Beran writes, Lubbock is in the plains region of Texas, which is the only place the new cotton picking machine can be used with success as cotton all ripens at the same time there. The new machine picks eight bales a day and thus does the work of thirty men, John says. Several are in use near Lubbock.

"I think you are giving a wonderful bargain," writes A. M. Daniels, former Ord man who lives at 2078 So. Corona, Denver, Colo. He enclosed $2 for two years' subscription.

"This will make fifty years without a break in my subscription for the Quiz," writes M. L. Fries, of Arcadia. "It is a good newspaper."

"Got my Quiz this morning and the first item I noticed was your dollar offer," writes Floyd Simpkins of Wabasha, Minn. "So I said, here is my chance to save a dollar. . . . We have been having our first touch of winter with a three day snow storm but the coldest was only 14 above zero."

"Don't fail to send the Cookery Calendar when it is ready," writes Mrs. James Weber, of 49th Chestnut street, Phillips, Wis., who took advantage of Dollar Day.

"I am wishing the Quiz all good luck and success," wrote Aubrey Scofield, of Burwell, in renewing his subscription for a dollar day.

"Your bargain day is a life saver," writes Ray Lutz of Arcadia. "Dollars nowadays are scarcer than republicans were in that Valley county township that gave Hoover one vote."

"I am glad to do like the Quiz and all its columns," is Arnold Malotte's comment.

"I am glad to have the opportunity of receiving your fine paper at such a saving," says Lester L. Shipley, of North Loup.

"Your dollar day offer is a splendid bargain and I just couldn't resist taking advantage of it," is the comment of Mrs. Otto Kotouc, of Humboldt.

A. C. Wheeler, Jr., of Mahaska, Kas., who has taken the Quiz for years, writes that his corn crop failed this year due to a tornado on July 4 and a hail storm on the 17th. "It was sure fine for me that you made this great cut on the Quiz," writes Mr. Wheeler.

"I certainly enjoy the news from home that I get through your paper," says Elmer Lambdin, of Kimball, a new Quiz subscriber on dollar day.

"Thank you for sending the Quiz this past year when you were sure of your money," writes a Burwell woman who took advantage of Dollar Day. "This past year has been very trying financially but we all hope to see better times before long."

"We like the Quiz very much and want you to keep on sending it," writes John Seille, who enclosed $2 for two years subscription. "Just can't get along without it," says E. A. Simpkins, of Kadoka, S. D., in renewing for another year at the special price in effect last Tuesday. Better times are coming, now that Roosevelt has been elected, is Mr. Simpkins' belief.

"We are getting an early winter here, had a three day blizzard last week, about four inches of snow and the roads are all drifted," writes Paul Whipples, Fergus Falls, Minn., who will be remembered as a former Valley county farmer. "We received sample copy of the Quiz and enjoyed it so much that we enclose a dollar to subscribe," says Carl Treptow, of Burwell.

"The depression hasn't hit Oklahoma yet but it will hit it if I am going to take advantage of your generous offer," is the comment of Daisy R. Nelson, nee Daisy Rogers, now of Enid, Okla.

Something DIFFERENT

You can believe this or not, but two local men got into a first class fight on the street within the past few days, and do you know what the fight was about? Over which of them was receiving the most aid from the county of Valley.

I don't blame farmers in the least for taking corn to burn in place of buying coal with money not their pockets. In fact I think it is a smart thing to do.

If you think things are in terrible shape hereabouts, and if you think we're having a depression, you should hear the clamor about it in larger places. Omaha and such. They tell tales that curl your hair. And make you consider yourself lucky in the bargain.

Men with twenty and twenty-five years of railroad seniority lately being laid off, and out entirely. Good men, of proved usefulness.

A man who formerly made up toward ten thousand, sometimes more in a year, now making $1.35 a day washing windows, "I," as he declares, "I'm lucky enough to keep busy all day."

One thing about the farmers near here: though they have no money, if they were industrious last summer they have got a lot of good things put by for winter to eat. Cellars bulging with potatoes, onions, other vegetables, and cans galore of meat and fruit.

It is something to eat, you know. Now the democrats are in, and in a big way. We are going to see what they can do to fix things up, prohibition and otherwise.

I don't know what I'm in favor of, and I doubt if you know what you want, either. The country is dissatisfied, and everyone wants a different thing, though on the surface they call themselves "wets" and "drys". Some want the Canadian system, some the wide-open saloon. I understand Roosevelt, president-to-be, favors the Swedish system, which has proved satisfactory in that country during a 21-year trial. I don't know what the Swedish system is, personally.

It's a cinch, however, that there are people here who are not pleased people after they remodel the Volstead specifications as before.

Another little detail; I understand the bootleggers are already spreading their wings and are else and keep their grip on the public pocketbook. Not to mention the way gangsters have invaded other lines of business with their "pay or else" formula. The last Collier's told me that the underworld is determinedly trying to get a stranglehold on the milk business, for example.

Another little detail: many home brewers who have learned to make beer, wine, etc. are saying they wouldn't care for the mild wines and beer with a small percentage of alcohol in them. You see, one glass of the home brew many cases is so strong it will make you b-b-bite yourself, as Roscoe Ates says.

One localite who carries out the empty bottles remarked that there is much more drinking locally the last six months, and philosophizes. "Do you suppose it is because of the depression, and that people are trying to drown their sorrows?"

Well, I have talked enough about a big subject of which I am not at all an expert. But of course we all have opinions on all subjects, even if we haven't investigated thoroughly and pondered on them. We make up our mind without bothering to inform ourselves.

It is so much easier. STOP GETTING UP NIGHTS. Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil.

Drive out the Impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder, gets a can out on the bowels. Size 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder trouble, you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Sold by McLain & Sorensen.

Attends Agent Conference. Carl C. Dale, county agent of Valley County, last Saturday for Lincoln where he is attending the state conference of county agents. He will return home this evening or tomorrow.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. KOVANDA

The Domestic Allotment Plan will be introduced at the next session of Congress if the tariff proposition will be expected to help agriculture by adding the amount of our tariff to products used at home.

According to this plan a miller buying wheat would have to pay the market price, plus 42 cents, which is the amount of the tariff for each bushel of wheat. The hog buyer would have to add the 2 cent tariff to the price he paid for hogs, and a similar price would be paid for other farm products.

The farmer would have to join in order to share in such a plan. If he raised 1,000 bushels of wheat, he would then be given an allotment for 600 bushels, because 60% of the wheat produced here is consumed in this country. The balance would have to be sold for export.

On the other hand, he would have to decrease his acreage if asked to share in such a plan. If he violated his contract as to the amount of acreage sown, he would lose his allotment.

If only half of the farmers in a county signed up, that would double the allotment to each. Other things in such a plan would have to buy an allotment certificate from some farmer, or secure a farm having an allotment.

If any farmer were dissatisfied with his allotment he could appeal to the state commission. It is estimated that the amount of acreage to be planted in 1933 will not exceed one cent per bushel.

There are radical differences of opinion about this bill. The writer has discussed it with some of the leading economists in the state. They believe it would be too contrary to human nature to succeed.

On the other hand it has the backing of several farm organizations and some of the best brains in the country. It was first suggested by Dr. Spillman of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in 1928. Prof. D. Blake of Harvard has discussed it thoroughly, as have other college professors. It was unsuccessfully introduced as a bill at the last session of Congress by Senator Norbeck and Congressman Rainey.

Congress is going to try to do something for the farmer, and such an attitude may result in the passing of this bill.

EYE TALKS Week by Week. In the past few weeks we have briefly mentioned the in turning Crossed Eye, the Out-turning crossed eye and the upward turning eye but have not mentioned the Eye that turns up and in on the right side for a right handed person or the right eye that turns down and in for a right handed person neither have we mentioned the out and upward turning eye or the down and outward turning eye or the difference that it would make in considering our case if it were the eye opposite of the dominant handedness that deviated.

These, if all considered fully, would make more than a book.

THANKSGIVING

We Are Thankful!

Yes, there is plenty to be thankful for, even in the midst of the greatest business depression this country has ever known.

We are thankful that we have been able to stay in business, that our financial solidity is unquestioned and unquestionable, that we have managed to retain the confidence of our patrons and the community at large.

We are thankful that the depression is almost over and that conditions are on the upturn.

Yes, on this Thanksgiving Day, 1932, we are truly thankful.

How Much Is Your Right Arm Worth?

Foolish question? Well, perhaps it is. But it is not much more foolish than the question "How much is your telephone worth?"

For after all, your telephone is the "right arm" of your home. Its value never changes. It helps your whole family in all their daily living—in all their waking moments. It influences every action of their daily life. Once you have a telephone, it becomes virtually indispensable.

And in moments of emergency, such as a fire, sudden illness or an attack by thieves, your telephone—like your right arm—is priceless. It's mighty, mighty hard to place a value on so true a servant as your telephone.

ORD MARKETS.

Wheat	30c
Cream	18c
Eggs	24c
Good top hogs	$2.70
Sows	$2.25

We are not quoting a price on poultry this week for the reason that there is no market on them. Local buyers have been advised not to buy or ship, as the market is flooded. There were 133 carloads of dressed poultry and a hundred cars of live poultry on the New York market Tuesday with no demand and dealers facing a heavy loss. The best price that could be quoted on turkeys is 7c and dealers know people will not sell for that kind of prices and if bought at those prices, they might lose money. People who had turkeys to sell were trying to peddle them one in a place to the consumer at from 10c to 14c the first of this week and dressed turkeys were offered at as low as 15c. It is to be hoped that the market improves before holiday time.

EARLY SHOPPING PAYS!

ALL HAIL TO THE KING!

Ruler in the realm of good-will, of friendliness and kindness. Ruler in the domain of the Christmas spirit. He will hold court all through December in the stores of Ord and calls on you for loyalty in observance of the brotherhood of man, good fellowship to the needy and the devotion to your kinfolks that is made manifest through gifts.

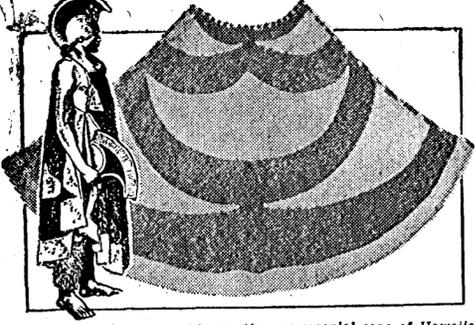

Lavish has been the preparation, extensive the variety, broad in a range of choice to fit every purse, preference, and purpose.

His order goes forth . . . spend as generously as your heart directs; spend as economically as your means dictate, but spend to bring JOY to all . . . to perpetuate the true CHRISTMAS SPIRIT.

Not only are the provisions for this Christmas lavish but the prices are lower than they have ever been before . . . due to foresighted buying on the part of the stores before prices began their steady rise. Read the advertisements in this paper next week and every week and see how far your gift dollars stretch this year. Take advantage of these exceptional values. It will mean finer gifts for your friends and greater economy to you.

Christian Church.
How pleased we are over the success of the Missionary fair. Now if we can develop the interest generated it will have been a success indeed.
Rally day was fine but we are anxious that all those who came out for that day help make every Sunday a rally day.
Of course Christmas is next on the program and we must all pull for a great program.
How grateful we are to Mrs. Pinckney and Miss White for their help in the missionary fair.
Thursday night of this week Thanksgiving service at the Presbyterian church. Mr. McCarthy will preach.
Our subject next Sunday morning will be The Non Conversion of Alcipha. Union service with the Presbyterian church in the evening at our church. Rev. Real will preach.

THANKS!
We wish to take this means of thanking our friends for the kindness they showed us by picking our corn Monday. Also the ladies who helped furnish and served the dinner. We appreciate it more than words can express.

Why Get Up Nights?

Physic the Bladder With Juniper Oil. Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUKETS, the bladder physic, also containing buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to sorrel on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Sold by McLain & Sorensen.

LOW COST LONGER SERVICE. Even if the first cost of an Exide were higher than ordinary batteries—the longer period of trouble-free performance would justify the cost. Exides actually cost less, in the long run, than cheaper batteries.

AUCTION

at the Weller Sale Pavilion, Ord
Saturday, Nov. 26
1:15 P. M.

200 AND MORE HEAD OF CATTLE

We are assured of at least 200 head of cattle and will probably have more by sale day. The quality of the offering is very good for this sale. 30 head of Hereford two and three year old steers. 75 head of Hereford and Shorthorn yearling steers. 55 head of good quality Hereford calves, weight about 400. 40 head of warmed up yearlings. 20 head of feeding heifers. 10 head of very good milch cows, all one man's. 3 extra good yearling white face bulls.

SPECIAL: One load of fat cattle, have been on feed 90 days, consist of whiteface and roans.

100 OR MORE FEEDER PIGS

The eastern demand for feeding pigs is still very good, so if you are out of feed and have pigs to sell, bring them in. We can get at them as worth anywhere.

At last Saturday's auction we had 600 head of livestock. There was a very good demand for both cattle and hogs and the sale was snappy thruout. Bring in what you have to sell while we are getting the buyers.

"Yes sir, Them Was the Days"

Memories of the old west were revived in an informal pow-wow when the old-timers got together recently in a Los Angeles motion picture studio. The group, discussing Indian signs just at the moment, are, left to right, Jim Thorpe, famous Indian athlete, Charles Miller, pony express rider, now 82 years of age, and "Many Treaties," Blackfoot Indian, who was candidate for state senator of the 15th senatorial district of California in 1910. Miller, center, once rode from Sacramento, Calif., to Carson City, Nev., a distance of 360 miles, in 24 hours. •
