Irrigation Board Appoints Wareham But He Rejects Job

Directors Would Have Him As Manager But Didn't Increase $150 Salary.

Directors of the North Loup project at their meeting Wednesday passed a resolution offering the job of office manager to Charles R. Wareham, who has served as auditor of the project since its inception, but because they offered him no increase in salary Mr. Wareham has rejected the appointment, the Quiz learns.

Wareham, who came here from Kearney, has been paid $150 monthly as auditor of the project. Management of the project will entail much more work and responsibility than the auditor's job alone and salary paid to the manager should be greater than $150 a month, said Wareham in rejecting the appointment.

The board will meet again today and discuss employment of a man to manage the affairs of the district now that construction is completed. Mr. Wareham, because of his familiarity with the project and its problems, as well as because of his efficiency as auditor, is regarded as the logical man for the office.

E. H. Dunmire, who served as engineer-manager at $500 per month during the construction period, tendered his resignation effective Dec. 1 but last Wednesday the board induced him to stay until Dec. 15 to clean up final construction details. He will represent the North Loup area at a convention of the Nebraska Irrigation association in Scottsbluff this week, and appear on the program.

The Public Works Administration, which had ruled that the North Loup project must be entirely complete by Nov. 30, modified this ruling to permit cleaning up of administrative details after that date. So far as operation is concerned, the project is regarded as complete on Nov. 30.

A building to house machinery owned by the district has been authorized by the PWA and will be built on lots west of the Ord Cold Storage plant. Lots and building will cost the district about $2,200.

NYA to Compile Valley History

District Supervisor Leland Barrett, of the NYA, is making application for funds for a project in which the history of the upper North Loup Valley will be compiled.

This project is being sponsored by Fidelity Post No. 33, of the American Legion, and also by the North Loup Valley Old Settlers' association.

The plan calls for the employment of a number of young people, a part of whom will gather data in Ord, while others will be employed in the same work in Arcadia and North Loup. The plan is to have the completed history published and copies for reference and study distributed to the schools and libraries.

For several months a group of NYA young men have been employed in a project of beautifying Russell Park under the supervision of Bud Shirley, and some very commendable work has been done there, not the least of which is a rustic bridge across the creek just east of the football field. Mr. Barrett plans to have this work continue.

Misko To Resign As Boy Scout Head

At the regular meeting of the Ord Boy Scouts held at the school house Tuesday evening, Ralph Misko announced his intention of resigning as scoutmaster, to take effect Jan. 1. This will mark the close of his first year as head of the organization here.

He gives two reasons for this decision. He feels that the movement will meet with a greater degree of success if a new scoutmaster takes charge from year to year, and he feels that he does not have the time to spare to give the boys the attention they deserve.

Mr. Misko has made a real success of his work in behalf of the boys, and they regret his decision to resign. When asked whom they wished for their new scoutmaster the boys suggested the following: Rex Jewett, Emil Wafelitz, Floyd Beranek, Wilmer Anderson and Ed Whelan.

The last two named are the present assistant scout masters. If he will accept, it is believed that Rex Jewett will be the choice for the new scoutmaster, as he is very much interested in outdoor life, has made a study of guns and weapons of all descriptions, and is very popular with all the boys.

Peterson Boy Was Followed by Coyotes

Pete Peterson, 13-year-old Ord high school student who makes his home with Mrs. Amelia Johnson northeast of Ord, had a rather unusual experience Monday morning while crossing the Papernick pasture on his way to school.

Looking back, he was surprised to notice that he was being followed by two large coyotes. After they had followed him a short distance, Pete picked up a stick and threw it at them. The coyotes turned and ran. Soon the boy turned around and looked and the coyotes were again following.

When he left the pasture and walked down the road the animals disappeared.

Ordinary coyotes are shy and disappear at sight of a human being. Prairie wolves, plentiful here before the country was settled, were bolder but only rarely is one seen nowadays.

Kovanda Elected New President by Chamber Members

School Man Succeeds Springer in Top Office; McGinnis, New Vice-President.

At a well attended meeting of the Ord Chamber of Commerce held Wednesday evening in the K. of P. hall, J. A. Kovanda, Smith-Hughes agriculture instructor in Ord high school, was chosen president to succeed Tom Springer, who has been serving since the resignation of

J. A. Kovanda Verne Weller. Vice-president chosen was Dr. J. W. McGinnis and the three new members of the board of directors are Ralph Misko, Fred Cahill and Ign. Kilma, Jr.

About 40 of the Chamber's 90 members were present when Acting President Springer called the meeting to order and asked for a report of the year's activities from Alfred Wiegard, secretary. Upon completion of this report, Springer called upon Leltoy Frazier, chairman of the nominating committee, for its report.

Nominees for the presidency submitted by the committee were Kovanda, M. Biemond and L. D. Milliken and upon ballot Kovanda was chosen. Nominees for vice-president included McGinnis, Fred Cahill and Keith Lewis, and a written vote resulted in the election of McGinnis. The committee presented the names of nine nominees for the offices of directors, three to be chosen, and nominations from the floor added two to the list. The group voted upon included Verne Russell, Ross Larkin, A. J. Auble, Wm. Dargatz, E. McQuillan, Rudolph Kopal, Carl Sorenson, Ed Gnaster, Ralph Misko, Fred Cahill and Ign. Kilma the last three being elected upon ballot. Another new member of the board will be Tom Springer retiring president, who automatically becomes a board member.

Only other report heard by Chamber members came from Mr. Kilma, chairman of the road committee, who stated that bids have already been taken on an 8 mile extension of oil-surfaced highway from St. Paul to Elba and that there is reason to hope that the oil surfacing may be extended as far north as Ord during the coming summer, if the Ord community continues to work toward that

A. F. Miller Is New Ord Station Operator

A. F. Miller of Grand Island has leased the Kleinholz station at the northeast corner of the square. B. C. Boquet, who has been in charge there for some time, will remain with the new company as assistant. Boquet has been employed by the Kleinholz for the past six years. The new company will sell Texaco products and will go under the name of Miller Texaco Service.

Brockman to Attend Clinic.

A basketball coaches clinic is to be held at Lincoln Friday and Saturday of this week, and H. F. Brockman plans to attend. The program opens with a dinner at the Union building on the University campus at 6:30 Friday evening. Saturday will be taken up with a study of the various problems confronting basketball coaches, and the group will attend the North Dakota-Nebraska game Saturday evening.

2 Auction Sales Coming.

Two public sales are advertised in this week's Quiz, the first one being Carl Wolf's clean-up next Tuesday, Dec. 13. Mr. Wolf has an exceptionally large offering including many good horses and milk cows. Arthur Larsen's sale on Thursday, Dec. 15, while not as large as Wolf's has an equally high class offering. Read the sale ads in this paper today.

Construction Will Start On Library Before January 1

New Township Structure To Be Built West of Phillips Gas Station; Bids Sought.

The Ord Township library board is hurrying plans for the erection of the new $9,000 library building on the lots opposite the Presbyterian church. The agreement with the PWA stipulates that the work must be started before January 1, which gives very little time for the preliminary arrangements, which includes the advertising for bids.

The library association is a party to a contract with the Phillips Petroleum company, by the terms of which the company must be given three months' notice to vacate in case the board wishes them to do so, it is claimed by Clarence M. Davis, secretary. This was impossible in the time permitted by the government, he claims but the Phillips company has agreed to permit erection of the building on the part of the lots west of the station. This arrangement was agreeable, states Secretary Davis, and the service station will remain where it is for the present.

The plans for the building call for a 54 foot front facing the south, with a depth of the main building of 30 feet. A work and furnace room 12 by 20 feet in size will be located behind the main room. Plans call for an oil heating system with forced air circulation. The main building is to be in one large room, with full length windows in front and windows above the book cases on the sides and back.

Construction calls for special flooring similar to asphalt, a 14 foot ceiling with indirect lighting. There is to be no basement, but there will be a dead air space beneath the floor to prevent dry rot and keep the floor warm. The construction is to be of brick and tile, with steel beams supporting the roof, which will be sloped and covered with rigid asbestos shingles.

The floor will be practically street level, with no steps. The woodwork will all be of oak. Bids call for book cases around the sides but this specification can be eliminated. Letting of the contract is to be made Dec. 22, according to the notice in the Quiz this week calling for bids.

To Start Construction On Ord's New Ag Shop

The contract for excavating for Ord's new Smith-Hughes agriculture shop will be let at the school board meeting Friday evening, and the general contract will follow soon. The new building is to be approximately 30 by 65 feet in size. It will run north and south and the east front will line up with the east front of the main high school building. It will extend north from the present building.

The construction will be of brick, and it will be used for Smith-Hughes shop work exclusively. The new building will be equipped with forges, a power saw, grinder, machine lathe, wood lathe, drill, anvils, wood-working benches, and a full line of small tools. There are about fifty taking shop work at present, which makes the present building too crowded.

J. A. Kovanda, who started Smith-Hughes agriculture in Ord eleven years ago, will be in charge of the new building, and a number of farm construction projects that could not be carried on in the old shop because of the crowded conditions, will be handled there. Mr. Kovanda was offered a good position in California this year at an advance in salary, but he refused to accept it, preferring to remain at Ord.

Ordites Guests At Football Banquet

Last night, Dec. 6, Supt. C. C. Thompson, Coach H. F. Brockman, Co-captains Edwin Hitchman and Charles Keown, Allen Zikmund, and Don Dahlin of the Ord football squad, were guests of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce at a banquet for superintendents, coaches and star players from schools all over Nebraska.

This is the fourth year that these banquets have been given. Ord has been invited each year, but this is the first year that anyone has attended from here. In view of the remarkable showing made this year, it was decided to have a good representation.

Decorations Lighted Saturday.

The city crew got busy last week, and by Saturday Ord's Christmas decorations, Santa Claus, reindeer and all, were in place and were turned on for the edification of Saturday evening shoppers. When it comes to getting the city decorated completely and early Ord will not take a back seat for any town in this section.

Nelson Unhurt When Car Leaves Highway

Warren Nelson, stock buyer from Broken Bow, was only slightly hurt when the Ford V-8 he was driving left the road west of Ord at the Joe Holoun corner on the Sargent road early Monday morning and ran into a bank. The front end of the car was too badly damaged for it to travel and Mr. Nelson received minor cuts and bruises and was thoroughly shaken up.

He was on his way to Ord on business, and expected to eat breakfast here, which he did after the wrecker from the Ord Chevrolet Sales company had towed his car to town. The only reason he could assign for the accident was that he was traveling just a little too fast when he approached the corner and could not make the turn. The reason he escaped so luckily was that the car did not turn over.

Football Banquet Plans Complete

Plans for the Loup Valley football banquet Thursday evening at the Ord high school auditorium are practically complete. The affair is being sponsored by the Ord Cosmopolitan club, and the Ord Catholic ladies will serve the meal. Advance sales indicate that at least three hundred will attend. Tickets are on sale at Beranek's drug store.

COACH A. M. "BIFF" JONES

The program, as arranged by the committee, includes talks by Coaches Arnold Tuning of Arcadia, Dawson Hawkins of Loup City, Gregg McBride of Lincoln and Coach "Biff" Jones of Nebraska. The high school orchestra, under the direction of Dean Duncan, will furnish the music, interspersed with several specialties.

After the banquet the bleachers will be opened to all who wish to hear the speeches and see the football motion pictures, at 10c each. To date 138 out-of-town people, players, coaches, and teachers, have made reservations, and there is no question that every available place will be taken.

Waterman Contests Shoemaker Election

Archie Waterman filed contest papers in the office of County Judge John L. Andersen Wednesday, Nov. 30, by his attorneys Davis and Vogeltanz, asking that the election of Ed Shoemaker as overseer of road district No. 22, Valley county, be set aside, and that Waterman be declared duly elected to the office.

He claims that the canvassing board completed their canvass of votes cast in Road Dist. No. 22 on Nov. 14, and found that 26 votes had been cast for overseer, of which Waterman received 13 and Shoemaker 13. That a drawing was had before the board in which Waterman did not participate, and that Shoemaker was declared elected to the office.

He further claims that many mistakes and errors were made in counting the votes, and that the board refused to count two mail votes that had been cast for Waterman, which, if counted, would have made the vote stand 15 to 13 in Waterman's favor. Mr. Shoemaker has until including January 2, 1939, to file his answer.

Must Reduce WPA Workers

Due to insufficient WPA funds to employ present assigned workers continuously to March 1, which is the expiration date of the present appropriation, it will be necessary to reduce quotas in Nebraska, said Mark Gyger, head of WPA in Valley county yesterday. This reduction in quotas will be prorated among counties, areas and fields within the state upon the basis of the present working load. Eligibility for other benefits also will be considered, he said.

—Miss Gwendolyn Cass returned to her home in Aurora Wednesday morning after spending a day or two visiting in Ord. She came from Arcadia, where she had visited her brother, Wilbur Cass and family.

A PERSONAL LETTER FROM SANTA

Dear Children:

I am late with my correspondence this year, but I am sure you will forgive me when I tell you how much extra work I have to do. I find that it will take a great deal of my time to do what I can for the poor little children in those countries where there has been war for so many months.

I am sure you will understand that it is my first duty to do whatever is possible to make their lives a little brighter at this season of the year, when all the world should be at peace, and war should be forgotten. It will take time to do this, but I feel that it is my first duty to bring the Christmas cheer to them.

However, I will find time somehow to read the letters you write me, and I am certain that I will visit Ord before Christmas. Just now it does not look as though I would be able to use the reindeer and the sled, but I will get there even if I have to come by airplane. So send in your letters at once, and I will see to it personally that they are published in the Quiz.

I know you will not ask for too much this year, when you understand that I must take care of all these poor little folks in the countries that are at war. Send your letters to me at the address given below, and I will be seeing you soon.

I am lovingly yours,
Santa Claus,
Drawer H,

Children Invited to Write Letters By Santa Claus

Christmas Saint Makes Plans to Have Letters Published in Quiz Next 2 Weeks.

Hearing, no doubt, of the interest the Ord chamber of commerce is taking in Christmas time, Santa Claus sent an Airmail, Special Delivery letter to the Quiz this morning, saying that he plans to visit Ord this year as he always has in the past, and that he will do his best to see that each little one receives a gift.

In his letter to the Quiz, the jolly old saint says that his work is getting harder from year to year, and asks that the little folks do not ask for too many things this Christmas. In order that all may understand the situation, he states the following facts.

First, we must not forget that Santa Claus is getting to be an old, old man, and for this reason he finds his work getting more difficult from year to year.

Second, there are more children in the world this year than in any year since Santa Claus started his custom of visiting the homes in our land at Christmas time.

Third, he asks us not to forget that war conditions in several countries and drought and depression in others is making his task almost too much for him to handle.

However, he still feels that he will be able to make the trip, and, according to present plans, he will arrive in Ord Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 21, and expects at that time to have something for all good little boys and girls. The Quiz feels certain that the little boys and girls of Ord will comply with the good saint's request, and not ask him to carry too many gifts for them.

But there is one thing that you must do if you plan to write a letter to Santa Claus this year, and that is, write it now! The good man gets a late start, but by using air mail and special delivery, he managed to get his letter to the Quiz this morning, just in time to have it published in this week's Quiz.

To reach him in time, your letters should be written at once, as they must arrive in time to be published in one of the next two issues of the Quiz. Next week's Quiz comes out on Dec. 14, and the one after that will be on Dec. 21, which is the last possible issue in which your letter could appear, so write it now.

Here are the directions: Write your letter, and make it short, for Santa will be too busy to read long letters. Sign your name, put the letter in an envelope, put a stamp on it, and mail it to "Santa Claus, Drawer H, Ord, Nebr." right away. That is all there is to it, and your letter will appear in the Quiz, unless it should arrive too late.

Townsend Would Settle for $60 Pension; Even $30

Of interest to Ord Townsdenites will be the announcement made in daily papers Tuesday—that Dr. Francis E. Townsend is willing to agree to a $60-per-month old age pension, if that is all the proposed 2 per cent transactions tax would produce. So stated one of his lieutenants, Glen Wilson.

Ord Council Makes Formal Complaint On Electric Service

Resolution Passed Lays the Groundwork for Attempt to Break Contract Later.

Laying the groundwork for a possible future attempt to break the contract Ord holds with the North Loup district, the city council Friday evening passed a resolution in which formal complaint is made as to quality of electric service furnished since August 1, when the city went on the high-line.

If service should be improved as result of this complaint it is likely that no further action will be taken by the council, but if the poor service in effect much of the time since August 1 should continue it is regarded as likely that the city might go into court in an attempt to break the contract and resume operation of its own municipal plant.

The resolution of complaint was presented Friday evening by Dr. J. W. McGinnis and was seconded by Frank Johnson. It said, in part

Whereas, the said City has entered into a contract with the North Loup River Public Power and Irrigation District for the purchase of electrical energy, and whereas the City has been purchasing said power since August 1, 1938, and the said electric power during the said time has not been satisfactory nor in accordance with the contract for the purchase thereof, due to the large number of times that the current has been off, and otherwise.

Now therefore be it resolved that the City make formal objection to the service received to the said district, and be it further resolved that a duly certified copy of this resolution be mailed to or delivered to the president of the district by registered mail, or to the office of the district, within five days after the passage of this resolution.

The resolution was unanimously passed by councilmen. The village of Burwell is understood to be contemplating filing of a formal complaint similar to that filed by Ord, and should the city of Ord later decide to attempt breaking the contract with the district it is likely that Burwell would act jointly with Ord. Both towns had municipal light plants that gave exceptionally good service and were splendid revenue producers before they were shut down when contracts were signed with the North Loup district.

Election Errors in Eight Precincts, Is Misko's Claim

Files Brief Friday Asking a Re-count; Lee Has Until Jan. 2 to Answer.

In a lengthy brief filed with the county judge Friday, John P. Misko contested the election of Alvin B. Lee to the office of county attorney at the general election held Nov. 8, 1938. He sets forth:

1. That for two years prior to Nov. 8, 1938, he has been a resident of Valley county and therefore competent to contest, and for the same reason was competent to be a candidate for the office.
2. That Alvin B. Lee is now the incumbent in the office.
3. That the canvassing board found that Misko had received 1730 votes for county attorney, and that Alvin B. Lee had received 1731.

The first cause for action sets forth that there are 13 voting precincts, in each of which sufficient votes were illegally counted to change the result of the election.

In cases two to nine Mr. Misko alleges that in the precincts of (2) Arcadia, (3) North Loup, (4) Yale, (5) Eureka, (6) Davis Creek, (7) Geranium, (8) Independent, and (9) Vinton, votes were illegally counted, in each case making the result show a decrease in the vote for Misko, and an increase in the vote for Lee.

Claiming that "the judges and clerks in the various election precincts in said Valley county, Nebraska, committed errors and mistakes in the counting of said votes and willfully and wrongly counted votes for the contestee which should have been counted for the contestant, and if said votes had been properly counted the contestant would have been and was elected at said election," Misko asks that the votes in the above mentioned precincts cast for the office of county attorney be counted, and also asks for a complete recount of the votes cast for the office in the entire county. The brief is accompanied by a bond duly and properly made out, protecting the incumbent and contestee, Alvin B. Lee, from any costs from the re-count, as well as protecting the county.

Mr. Lee has until including Monday, January 2, to file his objections in the case, after which it is for the county judge to decide from the evidence presented on both sides what disposal to make of the case.

—Miss Mabelle Huff of Burwell came Wednesday morning to visit her brother, Howard Huff and family. Mrs. Huff was taking her back home this afternoon.

Current Outages 34 For November

The records at the Ord light and power plant show that there were 34 outages for the month of November, some momentary and some of several hours duration. On Nov. 5, there were three outages, one temporary, one of 4 minutes and one of 13 minutes. The city then picked up the load and carried it for 9 1/2 hours. There was one outage Nov. 9, and two Nov. 10.

Nov. 11 there were eleven outages in shortly more than two hours, after which the city plant started up and carried the load for about 2 1/2 hours. There were two outages Nov. 14, three Nov. 16 and one Nov. 18. Nov. 21 was a real day, with ten, but the trouble righted itself without help from the plant. There was one outage Nov. 24.

An outage counter devised by Vern Stark from odds and ends he picked up was placed in the line, and now an accurate total of outages for the month can be obtained. With the graph, when several occur within a few minutes the marks are too close together to count, but with this device of Stark's every complete stop is registered.

Friday the plants at Ord and Burwell were both turned on by request of the district, as they wished to make some changes in the switches at the sub-station at Ord, and also at the one at Olean. The plants were both cut in at 8:00 a. m., and it was estimated that they would continue to run most of the day, or until the changes were completed.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

The new governor-elect, Julius P. Heil of Wisconsin, predicts that he will be an unpopular governor. The reason he thinks this is, because he says he is going to run the business of the state of Wisconsin just like he runs his own business. He says he is going to do away with a lot of commissions where the commissioners don't do much but sit around and who have to buy double-seat pants. Well, if Governor Heil really does what he says he will, he will not be popular with the ousted politicians but he will be popular with the taxpayers. It has been the policy of most politicians to double and treble the cost of government in recent years and there has got to be a stop put to it.

A day or two after the recent election I read in the daily press, a story to the effect that Nuckolls county was the only county in the state to vote in favor of the gambling amendment and I commented briefly. Had I read, a day or two later, a correction made by the daily papers, to the effect that an error had been made and that a majority similar to that returned from other counties, against the proposed law, had also been returned by Nuckolls county, I would not have written the article. At the time I thought it strange that good old Nuckolls would be so depraved and so far out of line. I had forgotten the matter however until a letter came from Miss Beulah Pullen, one of our long time readers, calling my attention again, to the matter and setting me right on the facts. Of course I am glad to make a correction, even if only one Nuckolls county citizen ever knew about my comment.

I have heard of some instances recently of extreme pressure being put on farmers by a government collector of feed and seed loans. Like most all cases, there are two sides. Some government debtors can probably pay some; others are in just that position where it is utterly impossible for them to continue to eat if they give up the last cow or pig or chicken, and the government should not ask or expect it, and I doubt if the government does expect it. I don't believe this great government wants its representatives to use extreme pressure or go to the limit which amounts to oppression, and force its debtors to sell a few chickens and the last cow which might tide them over the winter and save them the embarrassment of going further on relief. If I were in the place of some of these boys who are having a real struggle to even live, I would tell the government man when he gets too oppressive, to go jump in the lake.

I heard one real good one. A rehab shipped a cow to the Omaha market and the government got the money. The rehab also had an order feed loan and hearing of the sale of the cow the government feed man jumped all over the farmer, demanding half the money. Of course it was impossible to give it to both and the rehab had to take a lot of abuse for what he had done—had to do in fact, as he had no choice. It is hard to see what real difference it made, since the government was getting it anyhow.

Supervisor E. L. Ball complains bitterly because John Bremer does so much talking. Before John was on the board the most that the other supervisors ever were able to do was to start to talk and then simply gasp a couple of times to finish their speech, as Ellsworth was still talking. When Bremer was elected Ball hurried out to his place and says he made an agreement with John to only talk half the time. Now he says John is continually violating that gentleman's agreement and he wants something done about it.

All of those Quiz subscribers who had the paper sent to them for a year for a dollar last December on our Christmas special, will get their last copy of the paper on December 14. Last fall when that offer was made, I promised to stop the paper promptly when the time paid for had expired. That promise will be kept. If you happen to be one who sent a Christmas present to a loved one and don't want it stopped, please get in touch with us before the 15th of December. A postcard notice is being sent this week to all those Christmas Special subscribers, so they will know why their paper is stopped.

I was very much pleased when William Edward Johnson of Schuyler was elected Lieutenant governor of Nebraska. You watch his smoke the next few years and see if I am not right when I say there is one man who is going to go places in this state.

There isn't anything nicer to give for Christmas gift to an absent relative than a year's subscription to the Quiz. Fifty-two times during the next year the son or daughter or other loved one will get the paper and as they read the items from the old home town they will think of the one who sent it. There is absolutely no other way that you can spend two dollars to give as much pleasure to as many people. We have some nice gift cards with Christmas sentiment which we send to the party getting the paper, to tell you what it is. We will start the paper with the issue of December 21, which will arrive about Christmas morning.

A FEW THINGS TO THINK ABOUT!

Written by GEORGE GOWEN

An Important Road That Isn't. One of the crying needs of the country today is a better road between the county seat towns of Ord and Greeley.

A man in a car stopped my daughter on her way from school the other day and asked the best way to Ord. He had just come from Greeley. He was in a high state of disgust. Had he not been such a gentleman, she was sure he might have called on the Lord in telling how rough the road was. Years ago that road through the canyon was little more than a trail. One could tour it on horseback or with a high-wheeled wagon. Greeley county and Scotia people generally were not in favor of spending money on that road for it only took business out of the county. People in the Wallace Creek precinct, especially on the west side of the hills, wanted it for it saved them many miles in their route to the county seat.

During Teilmann's term as commissioner, he graded that road up in fine shape. Although a dirt road it was smooth, and upon several instances, counts were made and there was more travel there than on the road south into Scotia. Since Teilmann's term has expired there has been little work done on that canyon road. There have been several times this summer this road has been impassable. Now most of the travel goes further south by the way of Scotia, and if one wants to go from Ord to Greeley, he has to detour to Scotia and back several miles to make the trip.

Since again we have another Scotia man elected as commissioner, and since Scotia was the section that was largely responsible for his election, the story has been circulated that a fence might as well be stretched across the canyon road for soon it will be impassable anyway, and no more work is likely to be forthcoming. Others, friends of Jake Everett say that is not true. Mr. Everett uses to live north of Horace and knows how important that road is.

Even with the use of this canyon road, it is a very indirect route between the two county seats. A road straight east of Ord, meeting the county line near the Sterneck place and thence on east, following the B. and M. R. R. would be the most direct route. East from the Sterneck place, Chas. says, is quite precipitous but no worse than many roads that now exist. There might be a project for the WPA. The sticker in the idea is the fact that the towns of Greeley county are not especially in favor of it for it would take trade, they think, to Ord in place of their own towns.

In reality, it would be no more than right to expect a road between these two county seat towns just as between Burwell and Ord, between Loup City and Ord, between Taylor and Burwell, or other county seat towns in the state.

Yes, We Remember. Reminiscing, Rev. Hill says shaving every day is a rather new affair. When he was a boy practically every man shaved only once a week, and if they were busy the whiskers were worn two weeks. Saturday was the day at the barbershop and all the extra help available was procured. Important men about town shaved sometimes twice a week and had a special cup all of their own on the barbershop shelf.

Yes, We Remember Short Shavings

ride to Ord with him. This was a new style car having doors in the front seat, but there was none in the back. Dad and I sat in the back, I holding tight to his arm with one hand, my hat with the other. Mr. F. was a fast driver and I remember Dad looked at his watch and told for weeks afterward how we went to Ord in an hour and a quarter. We hurried home because Mr. F. did not want to bother to pump up and light the lights.

A few years after that my father spent another thousand or two and bought a car himself. He never was very strong for autos, having spent the most of his life with horses. I did the driving; he sat close by and watched for the corners. At that I recall a little trip to Lincoln we made with that car. We arose early, packed our lunch and many bundles and were off with a flying start at six. We tore up the atmosphere speeding her up in grand shape between the towns, and arrived at the capitol city at five that afternoon.

Now, John Ward, there is someone else who can write reminiscences.

Short Shavings. A man told me the other day that in 1934 he got a feed loan of the government. In 1936 he could not pay it, so in 1937 he went to the bank and borrowed enough money to pay the government off. He was wondering if the government loans were cancelled, if his loan at the bank would be cancelled too. I wonder. Why do some people ask such fool questions?

Dr. Kafka of Scotia received an air mail letter the other day that was on the ship that fell in the ocean at San Francisco last week. We were told at Greeley by a Soil Conservation speaker that it costs less to ship a carload of grain from Portland, Ore., to New York (by water route) than to ship it from St. Louis to Denver. He said it is no secret. He said to look up the rates.

My mother writes from L. B. Calif., that the growers are losing 20c a case on oranges and many men are burning them in place of selling at that loss.

It is told that some of the folks that have returned from Washington say nine out of ten families out there are on relief.

++ Something Different ++

Christmas is the time for giving and I would like to pass on to you Eleanor Roosevelt's idea on the subject, which I consider very good.

Mrs. Roosevelt says the month or two before Christmas is a fine time to search through closets, go through wardrobes and toys, laying aside the older garments or any articles not in use. Then these things should be put into good order and given to someone who has a use for them, in place of cluttering up the attic or the toy cupboard.

In Ord we have an agency willing to do the toy repairing, and to distribute the clothing and gifts to the ones needing them. We should be thankful that there are citizens willing to devote their efforts and time to such a good purpose, and do our part by giving them the discarded things we can spare.

Call Mrs. Edward Kokes to report your contributions are ready to be collected.

Mrs. Frank Fafetta phones to ask why don't we all send in our Butterfat coffee labels or tin strips, either to the company or the radio station telling about the kind offer of that firm.

The Butternut people, for every 25 such labels or strips, give a nice doll or a tough-hid football to the orphanage designated by the sender. And even if you do not have as many as 25 or cannot collect them, all you send in before Dec. 10 are counted for some poor little orphan's gain.

You must take advantage of this offer by Dec. 10, remember. You have only a day or two of grace after reading this.

What's all this I hear about Marjorie Coe? Something like: Marjorie was in a beauty shop when a lady came and told her "You are just the type I need as a model!" and gave Marjorie a job being photographed. And the rest of the story goes... and they spent four hours taking pictures of Marjorie posing in the new Union Station. All of which is supposed to have happened in Omaha.

Ord Faces Comstock As First Opponent

After completing a successful football season, the Ord High Chanticleers have now turned to basketball and are facing the hardest schedule in the history of basketball in Ord high. Ord has around twenty-five prospects out for basketball, and the two or three practices last week have proven that Ord will have another good basketball team.

North Platte and Albion have been added to the Chanticleer's schedule, while Kearney and the Curtis Aggies will again furnish plenty of opposition. Last year Ord defeated Kearney 27-19, but they failed to beat the Aggies either at their home games or at the tournament. Ord defeated North Platte at the tournament last year. However, the Ord boys will play the same North Platte team, while Ord has lost all except two regulars, Hitchman and Severson.

The six games away from home are Kearney, Arcadia, Ravenna, Albion, Broken Bow and Atkinson. Home games are North Platte, are Kearney, Arcadia, Ravenna, Loup City, Burwell and Saint Paul.

GREEN GABLES

THE DR. BENJAMIN F. BAILEY SANATORIUM Lincoln, Nebraska

Benjamin F. Bailey, M. D. President and Chief of Staff May L. Flanagan, M. D. Vice Pres. and Asst. Chief of Staff

We are impelled once more to call the attention of our friends to Green Gables, the Dr. Benj. F. Bailey Sanatorium, now in its 38th year. Located in the suburbs of Lincoln, in pleasant grounds of 25 acres, with thoroughly equipped buildings, making it possible to provide for the various departments which are necessary and helpful in any well organized sanatorium.

Our main building with its splendid operating department, provides for the care of medical, surgical and maternity cases. Rest Cottage, with its two fireproof buildings, provides for the care of mental and nervous conditions under the personal supervision of experienced psychiatrists. Limiting the number of patients in each department so that each one may have careful individual attention that can be given by our corps of ninety employees.

DEFEATED GREATNESS

Alexander the Great set out on his career of conqueror about 333 B. C., and in twelve years he had conquered all the then known world, and was weeping because there were no more worlds to conquer. Yet only two years later he died at the banquet table, a slave to his own excesses. Conqueror of the world, he could not control his appetite.

Julius Caesar conquered the Gauls and other tribes outside the Roman empire, and defeated his enemies within the empire. For these feats he was offered a kingly crown, which he refused, but with apparent reluctance. His popularity aroused the jealousy of his friends, among whom was Brutus. He defeated his enemies, but he could not conquer the jealousy of his friends.

It was eighteen hundred years before another world dictator made his appearance. From the Isle of Corsica came the man whom destiny had chosen to be the greatest general of all time, Napoleon Bonaparte. Around him the French rallied to form some of the finest armies the world ever saw, and his matchless courage and generalship won over the greatest armies the nations of Central Europe could muster.

A coalition of the armies of these nations finally conquered him for a time, and he was placed on the island of Elba for safe keeping. But no Elba could hold the conqueror, and he escaped, made his way to Paris, and for a time was the Napoleon of old. Again conquered at Waterloo, he was sent to St. Helena never again to see his native land. He conquered himself, he was safe from his friends, but he could not conquer England.

Practically one hundred years later a would-be world conqueror arose in Central Europe, and for a time it looked as though Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany would conquer the nations of the world. Defeated at last by the overpowering might of arms, he fled to Holland twenty years ago, where he has been an honored guest ever since. Time has mellowed the warrior of 1918, and he thinks no more of war, but of peace.

We have here the picture of four powerful figures in widely separated eras of time. One could not conquer his appetite. One could not escape his friends. One was conquered by an enemy nation, and the last was conquered by the greatest conqueror of all, Time. The peace of the world, the liberty of man, the integrity of nations has been threatened, but in His own good time God sees that the conqueror is conquered.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

On the Earl Smith farm is a fine herd of purebred Holstein-Friesian cattle, numbering over thirty head. It is one of the older herds in the county, and its gradual improvement indicates that Earl Smith is a master breeder of livestock.

The herd is headed by a sire that traces back to the North Platte standard Holsteins, which are regarded as the world's best. The daughters of this sire produce unusually rich milk, some of it testing over four percent in butterfat. Holsteins are favorites on the Smith farm because they are rugged, easy keepers. Holsteins are the leading dairy breed in our state and nation, both in numbers and in production. Owing to their large size, they also bring more money when sold to the butcher.

Smith's herd survived the drought years on a hill farm, five miles southeast of Ord. It survived because the withered corn crops were made into silage, and all the roughage was saved. Holsteins can eat great amounts of coarse feeds.

Surplus calves from the Smith dairy find a ready market locally. At present there is more of a demand for animals than the owner can supply, as farmers have learned the wisdom of re-stocking with purebreds. No doubt the Smith cattle are playing an important part in the building of better Holstein herds in Valley county.

Munn & Norman, Attorneys, NOTICE OF HEARING FOR DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP. In the County Court of Valley County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Estate of William H. Wiygent, Deceased. NOTICE OF HEARING.

The State of Nebraska: To all persons interested in said estate, creditors and heirs take notice, that Nancy M. Covert has filed her petition in said court alleging that William H. Wiygent died intestate in the City of Ord, Nebraska, on or about December 23rd, 1935, being a resident and inhabitant of the City of Ord, Nebraska, and the owner in fee of the following described real estate, to-wit: The Northwest Quarter of Section 20 in Township 19 North of Range 13 West of the 6th Principal Meridian, Valley County, Nebraska.

Lot 3 in Block 32 of the Original Townsite of the City of Ord, Valley County, Nebraska. And a tract of land described as follows: Beginning at the Southeast corner of said Lot 3 and running thence North 117 feet to the Northeast corner of said Lot 3; thence East 40 feet to the East line of Section 21 in Township 19 North of Range 14 West of the 6th Principal Meridian, Valley County, Nebraska; thence South on the section line 117 feet; thence West 40 feet to the place of beginning. Leaving as his sole and only heirs at law the following named persons, to-wit: Nancy M. Covert, a daughter.

That said petitioner is a daughter of the Deceased. And praying for determination of the time of the death of said decedent, determination of the heirs of said decedent, the degree of kinship and the right of descent of the real property belonging to said decedent, for a decree barring claims and demands; that said decedent died intestate; that no application for administration has been made and no Administrator has been appointed in Nebraska and the estate of said decedent has not been administered in the State of Nebraska, and that the heirs at law of said decedent as herein set forth shall be decreed to have succeeded to the ownership in fee simple of the above described real estate.

Said matter has been set for hearing before me on the 27th day of December, A. D., 1938, at the hour of 10 o'clock, A. M., of said day, in the county court room at Ord, Nebraska.

Dated at Ord, Nebraska, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1938.

JOHN L. ANERSEN, County Judge of Valley County, Nebraska. Dec. 7-3t

Munn & Norman, Attorneys, ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE.

In the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska.

In the matter of the application of Emil R. Fafelta, Administrator, for license to sell real estate.

Now on this 5th day of December, 1938, this cause came on for hearing upon the Application under oath of Emil R. Fafelta, Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth Carson, Deceased, praying for a license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit:

An undivided one-third interest in and to Lot 5 in Block 9 of the Original Townsite of the City of Ord, Valley County, Nebraska.

or so much thereof as may be necessary to bring the sum of $1,245.20 for the payment of the debts of said Estate and the costs of administration for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said Administrator belonging to said Estate to pay said debts and expenses.

It is therefore Ordered that all persons interested in said Estate appear before either of the Judges of the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska, in the District Court Room in the Courthouse in the City of Ord in said County on the 9th day of January, 1939, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to the said Emil R. Fafelta to sell so much of said real estate hereinbefore described belonging to the said Estate of Elizabeth Carson, Deceased, as may be necessary to pay said debts and expenses.

It is further Ordered that a copy of this Order be served upon all persons interested in said Estate by causing the same to be published three consecutive weeks in The Ord Quiz, a legal weekly newspaper printed and published in Valley County, Nebraska.

By the Court,
E. G. KROGER,
Judge of the District Court.
Dec. 7-3t.

Davis & Vogeltanz, Attorneys. Notice of Sheriff's Sale. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale, issued by the Clerk of the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska, and to me directed, upon a decree rendered therein on January 19, 1938, in an action pending in said court, wherein The Prudential Insurance Company of America, a corporation, is plaintiff and John B. Zulkoski, et al., are defendants, wherein the said plaintiff recovered a decree of foreclosure in the sum of $7,419.80, with nine per cent interest from said date, which was decreed to be a first lien on the East half of the Southwest Quarter and the West half of the Southeast quarter of Section 26, Township 20, Range 16, West of the 6th P. M., in Valley County, Nebraska, and wherein I was directed to advertise and sell said real estate for the payment of said decree with interest and costs. Now, notice is hereby given that I will on Tuesday, January 10, 1939, at two o'clock P. M., at the west front door of the court house, in Ord, Valley County, Nebraska, sell the said real estate at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy the amount due on said decree and costs. Dated this 6th day of December, 1938.

GEORGE S. ROUND, Sheriff of Valley County, Nebraska.

IT ISN'T TOO LATE!

Seldom is it possible for most of us, at Christmas, to send a gift to everyone that we would like to... yet, there is still time to save enough money to add a few more presents to your Christmas list. Follow Mary Ann's advice and you'll SAVE AND HAVE the money it takes. Begin Today.

Did you ever serve beef with sauerkraut?

This is a combination that is also enjoyable and economical, especially this time of year. And when the meat is cut from tender, quality beef, and the Sauer Kraut is crisp and flavorful, you will find this dish to be all-the-more enjoyable!

3 lbs. beef brisket
1 tsp. salt
pepper
1 tbsp. shortening

1 medium-size onion
2 lbs. Sauer Kraut
Boiling Water

Cut meat in pieces for serving; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Brown sliced onion in melted shortening in large sauce pan. Add sauer kraut and cook for 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add the meat, cover with boiling water, cover pan and cook slowly, stirring occasionally, for about 2 hours, or until the meat is tender. Add hot water if needed during the cooking period. Serves 6.

At the men's meeting a number of matters of routine business were disposed of.

At the close of the business sessions, the ladies entertained the men, a dozen tables of pinocle being played. At 11:00 p. m. all went to the dining hall, where the refreshment committee had prepared an excellent lunch, with decorations in the holiday motif, as it was the last meeting of the year for both organizations.

end. Surveys of a highway paralleling the railway tracks between Ord and Olean, to replace the present route of No. 11, also have been completed and grading will be done in the early part of the summer, he said. Klima reported also that the Ord-Ericson road will be graded and surfaced from the Burwell-Ericson highway at a point directly north of the Mc-Mindes ranch, south as far as the Brick school house. There is reason to hope, Klima said, that No. 11 may be designated as a connecting link between highways 20 and 16 and all-surfaced on its entire length. He recommended that the Chamber continue its highway activity with this in mind.

Some discussion was held regarding location of the new township library to be built, several members expressing the opinion that the library board will make a mistake if it leaves the Phillips gas station at front of the lots and locates the library building at the rear, as is now proposed. The library site will be an eyesore instead of a beauty spot if this should be done, one speaker said. Feeling that the library is a township and not a city proposition and that the Chamber of Commerce has no right to express itself officially no action was taken on the matter.

At conclusion of the annual meeting a lunch was served by F. E. McQuillan and members discussed problems of the city in an informal manner for some time.

Scores of friends will wish them well in their new home. Their farm just west of Ord was recently sold to Archie Geweke, who plans on improving it under irrigation.

A Chat With the Mayor.
To the Editor of the Quiz:
At your request I am pleased to outline, for the benefit of Ord citizens, a few of the things discussed at our meeting Dec. 2, and want to emphasize that any opinions I may express in the course of this brief "chat" should be regarded only as my own opinions and not necessarily those of the city council.

One of the important matters brought up Friday was the report of the city treasurer. Some of the city accounts, including Read and Cemetery, General and Park, continue to show increasing overdrafts. Reasons for this condition are improvements, purchases and maintenance work done this year, coupled with decreasing revenues. It has been recommended by the city attorney that instead of carrying these overdrafts in the various funds which still do have cash balances, warrants should be issued for the same and purchased by said cash balance accounts.

George Allen gave a detailed account Friday evening on cost and installation of new engines and improvements on buildings, the cost of and receipts from sale of

Observe 40th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adamek, sr., celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday with a covered dish dinner. It was also the occasion of the birthdays of Leonard electric current and the expenses in his department. The mayor personally thanked Mr. Allen for this excellent report. It was the opinion of Mr. Allen, expressed in this report, that this department will not have to raise electric rates.

Klanecky and Ed Adamek. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Klanecky and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adamek and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sevenker and family.

Passing of a new ordinance covering outside toilets, cesspools and the city sewer system was another bit of business taken care of Friday and the city now has a workable sewer ordinance. Citizens should read it when published in the Quiz and be prepared to obey its provisions.

Last business taken up Friday was a verbal complaint made by City Clerk Rex Jewett about speeding on the street in front of his residence. He has been timing some of them who have been driving 50 to 70 miles per hour on this street, and fears for the safety of children and dogs. He was told by the mayor that the traffic officers will be glad to assist in correcting this condition. We are hereby asking all drivers to drive within the speed limits in the city. Such rates of speed are excessive and dangerous and any person who is driving this fast need's to be stopped.

Taxpayers should realize that they are always welcome at the meetings of the city council.

M. B. Cummins, Mayor.

DEEP ROOTS

As this picture shows, National Hybrids have strong, vigorous roots which spread widely and go to great depths.

This means power to stand erect despite strong winds . . . it means the power to feed on sub-soil moisture during drought . . . power to absorb larger quantities of plant food and turn it into vigorous, leafy stalks and large, high-yielding ears.

Strong root systems are bred into National Hybrids. Year after year, farmers in your locality depend on National Hybrids to yield 10, 20 and more bushels per acre over ordinary corn. Talk it over with your local agent.

TWO VIEWS OF THE VALLEY COUNTY WPA SEWING PROJECT AT ORD

The two photos above by Duemey give a good view of the WPA sewing project at Ord. This is under the general supervision of Mrs. Minnie Hardenbrook, who is area representative of the woman's and professional division of the WPA for 6 counties. The sewing project is in direct charge of Mrs. Alvin Hill, supervisor.

In the photos can be seen jackets, overalls, underwear, comforters, rugs and various other items made up by the workers. There are a total of 8 machines in use, one of which is a county electric machine, another a standard electric, and the rest treadle machines. Two federal motored machines have been received, but are not yet in operation.

There are two sub-centers, one at North Loup which employs six persons, and the other at Arcadia, which employs four. A total of 16 persons are employed in the Ord project. A complete record of each garment is kept from the time it is cut until it is finished, giving the amount of material used, who did the work, and how long it took. The articles are then turned over to the Commodity Department.

The cutting of all garments is done at the Ord room, and the finishing work is done either here or at North Loup or Arcadia. The project comprises the making of all kinds of wearing apparel, bedding, rugs, etc., and furnishes employment to many persons with dependent families who otherwise would find difficulty in obtaining work.

Neighbors Gather, Husk Papiernik's Corn Crop

For several years Mrs. Jake Papiernik has suffered with gallstones and last spring she submitted to an operation at the Ord hospital, upwards of a hundred gallstones being removed from the gall bladder. At the same time it was decided that she was also suffering with cancer, the gall bladder and liver being affected. Being advised by her local physicians that they could do nothing more for her, as soon as she was able to be taken by train, she was taken to a hospital at Eureka Springs, Ark., where a specialty is made of cancer cases. After being there for some weeks, she came home for a visit and recently went back to the hospital, accompanied by her daughter Anna.

Since both Mrs. Papiernik and Anna have been away Mr. Papiernik and sons Chet and Sylvester have been "batching" and Chet has been suffering for the past month with an infection in both hands, so the farm work has not been going so good. There were 65 acres of corn that needed to be husked and as the field was a couple of miles from the homestead, little progress was being made.

Knowing of the handicaps under which the Papierniks were laboring, Frank and Lloyd Konkolewski organized a surprise party on their own and Tuesday of this week a dozen or more teams with twice that many neighbors, went to the Papiernik corn field and during the day most of the corn, averaging about 20 bushels to the acre, was husked and cribbed. At the same time a half dozen or more of the ladies of the neighborhood went to the Papiernik home and prepared dinner for the men. It was one of those delightful surprises which country people so delight in pulling to help their afflicted neighbor over a hard place in a life's roadway. The Papierniks will always remember the occasion and no doubt the donors of the surprise got an equal amount of pleasure and satisfaction out of it.

Husk Corn for Belike.
The Quiz is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Gerhardt Belike of Thayer, Nebr., inclosing a clipping from the paper there, which reads as follows:
"A group of 18 farmers gathered Thursday, Dec. 1, at the Gerhardt Belike farm three miles east of Thayer to assist their friend and neighbor with his farm work. Mr. Belike has been ill and unable to do his farm work during the past several months."

"One group husked and cribbed the last of the corn crop, while others built a fence about the stalk field so that he will be able to pasture his stock there after the corn is husked. They also cut some firewood for heating and cooking."
"The ladies of the neighborhood brought a dinner and served it at the noon hour. A number of Thayer merchants furnished meat, and the Fairmont Creamery company of York furnished the ice cream for dessert."
The Belike family formerly lived in the Davis Creek community, and their old neighbors there will read the above story with interest.

Loup Valley Grid Standouts Chosen

Thirty outstanding players in the Loup Valley conference, three from each school, have been selected, to form the 1938 Roll of Honor. Those honored were:

Ends: Dale Mitchell, Scotia; Dean Nehler, Scotia; Kermit Dowse, Comstock; Darwin Sheldon, North Loup; Ross Hill, Arcadia.

Tackles: Dale Sizemore, Burwell; Dale Harding, Arcadia; Orville Thomson, St. Paul.

Guards: Roy Wooden, Loup City; Raymond Tatlow, Ord; Robert Johnson, Sargent; Donald Hyde, Taylor.

Centers: Calvin Strickland, Comstock; George Cox, North Loup; Rex Igenfritz, Burwell; Kenneth Fleming, Taylor.

Quarterbacks: Charles Keown, Ord; Willis Wells, Comstock; Paul Goodrich, North Loup; Marvin Gibson, Sargent; Robert Stone, St. Paul.

Halfbacks: Allen Zikmund, Ord; Boyd Grow, Loup City.

Fullbacks: Lewis Farrell, Scotia; Charles Curtis, Loup City; Lawrence Chalups, Sargent; Leslie DeLashmuit, Burwell; Lloyd Marsh Arcadia; Maurice Holmes, Taylor; Edward Hennisch, St. Paul.

The coach of each school selected the three outstanding players of his team, and designated the position each played. This accounts for the fact that some positions have a larger representation than others.

Attend Barbers' Meeting.
Seven Ord barbers attended the district barbers' meeting held at Greeley Monday night. Delegates from Ord, Arcadia, Scotia, Ericson, Spalding, Dannebrog and St. Paul were present. Those attending from Ord were Jim Gilbert, Leonard Furtak, L. W. Benjamin, Herschel McGrew, Bud Martin, Charlie Lewis, and E. Merrill.

—Mrs. W. H. Barnard, Mrs. Len Covert, Mrs. L. Luddington, Mrs. L. Shunkweller, and Mrs. George D. Walker made a business trip to Grand Island accompanied by Mrs. LeRoy Lashmet of Burwell.

Ign. Klima Attended State Tax Convention

Ign. Klima, jr., attended the state convention of the Nebraska Federation of County Taxpayers Leagues in Fremont, Monday, Dec. 5. He is a member of the County Government Conference committee of that organization. The purpose and duty of that committee is to work out and make recommendations for such legislation as may be necessary to put the budget act of 1937 into the most practical effect in all counties. Also to recommend such other legislation as might be in the interest of economy and efficiency in county government.

Mr. Klima is also secretary-treasurer of the Nebraska Association of County Clerks and Registers of Deeds, and expects to attend a meeting of that group and members of county boards in Omaha next week, where further recommendations are to be developed at a joint session of the clerks and supervisors.

It is hoped that necessary legislation can be passed at the next session of the legislature early in 1939, that all of the laws in the interest of good, practical and efficient county government can be put into effect and applied to every county in the state.

Two Hundred Children Are Given T. B. Tests

The 8 and 40 Salons of the National Legion Auxiliary is an organization that stands mostly for child welfare work. They supply funds for endowing a number of beds in the Jewish National hospital in Denver, which handles orthopedic cases, and also has a tubercular ward. It was decided that the giving of T. B. tests should have a place in their work.

It is their objective to put into as many schools as possible the project of having T. B. tests taken of the pupils. The local organization, the Valley District Salon, agreed to try it first in Ord, and if the results were felt worth while, it could be tried in other schools later.

There are only ten members in the Valley Salon, and they are from four counties, but they have just put through the project of having about 200 school children tested for T. B. In cases where the child was able to pay, they contributed the amount necessary to defray the expense, and the rest was taken care of by the Salon.

The local group sends birthday gifts and Christmas gifts to children in the state orthopedic hospital and also to the National Jewish home. Dr. C. J. Miller of the Ord hospital gave the tests and it is understood that there were only two positive reactions in the group. This does not necessarily mean that they have the disease.

Omaha Doctor Addresses 4-County Medical Society

The 4-County Medical Society met Tuesday evening at Thorne's cafe, guest speaker being Dr. A. E. Bennett, professor of psychiatry at the University of Nebraska college of medicine, Omaha. Dr. Bennett gave an interesting presentation of recent methods of treatment for the mentally ill. Heretofore mentally deranged patients, both in state institutions and in private practice, had very little hope of complete recovery even after years of treatment. At present 50 to 60 per cent of such patients may be restored to normal health in the short interval of one to three weeks, Dr. Bennett said.

Present at the meeting were Dr. and Mrs. Sullivan and Dr. and Mrs. Giever, of Spalding; Dr. Brannan, of Greeley; Dr. and Mrs. Hemphill, of North Loup; Dr. Kafka, of Scotia; Dr. Cram of Burwell; Drs. Miller, Weekes, Barta, Kruml and Round and their wives, of Ord. Following the dinner, the ladies spent the evening as guests in the Barta home.

December 6, 1928.
George Round, Jr., new Quiz sports editor, had an announcement relative to his work and how he expected to handle it.

The Quiz had received a letter from Santa Claus, which was published and which created a lot of interest among the younger set.

Lieut. Ernest Pratt, of the government aviation service, flew from Ft. Houston, Tex., to Ft. Riley, Kas., on government business, and from there flew to Ord to visit his relatives here.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Grabowski, 45, were held from the Ord Methodist church. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sanders of Burwell.

Francis Flood of the Nebraska Farmer was the principal speaker at a meeting of the Valley County Farm Bureau held at the high school auditorium and attended by more than four hundred persons.

Miss Alma Cummins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cummins, became the bride of Clyde Baker, at Midvale church, Wednesday, Nov. 28.

The ministers of the Loup Valley met at Scotia and formed an organization known as the Loup Valley Ministerial association. Rev. J. A. Moorman of Ord was president, Rev. G. A. Randall of Scotia, vice president, Rev. D. C. Williamson of Ord, secretary, and Rev. I. E. Jenkins of Mira Valley, chairman of program committee.

William Dunmore Long, one of the valley's oldest settlers and most interesting character, passed away at the age of 87 at an Ord hospital, from the effects of pneumonia.

Postmaster Edwin Clements announced that rural routes 1, 3 and 4 were to be lengthened to take in more patrons.

District Judge E. P. Clements left his car stuck in a snow drift about 20 miles south of Cheyenne, Wyo., and came home on the train.

Word was received of the death of Mitchell, Nebr., of Miss Stella Hewitt, for many years a resident of Ord.

Patrick Daily, 79 years of age and a resident of Ord for 36 years, passed away at his home from complications resulting from the flu.

In the city league basketball contests, the Quiz team won over Hill and Hill, 11 to 9, while the McClain and Sorensen team defeated the Gem Theater by 11 to 8.

A special article by Mrs. Claude Rathbun tells of Lincoln engineers visiting North Loup to investigate a proposed irrigation ditch. Ten years after this investigation and forty years after the failure of the first ditch, the new ditch has become an accomplished fact.

Chauncey Hager was writing a series of articles in the Quiz telling of Valley county students now attending various colleges.

December 5, 1918.

The Quiz contained letters from Sergeants C. W. Clark and Courtney Jensen, both of whom were somewhere in France. They were written early in November, before permission had been granted to put in the right location.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Rose were enjoying the winter at Orange, Calif., and he wrote a letter telling Ordites about it.

Another former Ordite was enjoying the winter in the west was Wencil Drobny of Chico, Calif., who believed that his part of the state was superior to the southern part.

Mrs. Lon Morris left for Mitchell to help take care of her daughter, Mrs. Art Perkins and family, as a number of them were suffering from the flu.

Mrs. Roscoe Arnold (Daisy Ellen Flynn) died at her home in Lewistown, Mont., at the age of 31 years.

Word was received of the fact that Laverne McGrew was killed in action in France only three days before the Armistice was signed.

Guy Cochran passed away at his home southwest of Ord at the age of nearly 36 years, his death being due to pneumonia following an attack of the flu.

James Milford received a telegram from a number of the boys in France, to the effect that they were all well. Of course he lost no time in informing the parents of the fact.

Bud Shirley was selling some fine quality apples. Some of them came from California, and some from New York state.

Col. M. B. Cummins of Davis Creek was in Ord and told the Quiz he was booking sales right along, and expected more sales than ever during the coming winter.

The bankers of Ord and of the state and nation were warning bond holders against trading their Liberty bonds for questionable stocks or bonds with a higher rate of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Prien were planning to spend most of the winter in California, and were to quit farming and hold a clean-up sale in March.

George Clason and Miss Eva Brown were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown in Loup City. At that time George was a pharmacist on the battleship Michigan.

First Lieut. George P. Kull, an aviator nephew of F. S. Kull, was reported killed in action in France.

Colorado apples were selling in Ord at from $2.40 to $2.60 per bushel and were finding a ready sale. Now the price is more than cut in half.

After visiting for a time at home, Miss Mabel Misko returned to her college duties at Hastings.

Miss Anna Hunt, who had been employed by the Quiz and expected to continue the work, was taken ill with the flu Thanksgiving day at the home of her sister in Burwell, and the Quiz was operating short of help.

December 10, 1908.

Arthur VanSlyke was listed as one of the kiddies in the Springdale school who had been neither absent nor tardy for the month of November. Art is now driving bus has been for some 14 years, and makes it a habit to be neither absent nor tardy.

S. C. Brace, who once lived near the Brace school, and was prominent in county politics, came over from Sargent to pay his old friends a visit.

John Boyce had accepted a job on the Q-Z ranch for the winter, and planned to farm the ranch for himself for the year 1909.

Among young people who attended the ball at the Brockus opera house in Burwell were Hazel Rockhold, Musa Lambertson, Jennie Bell, Mate Moore, Lizzie Dowhower, Jud Pedro, Charles Masin, Harold Parks and Harry Parsons.

Frank Brinly of Arcadia received a dangerous wound in the leg when he was shot by his father while out hunting quail.

Husking in corn that was making 50 bushels per acre, Evert Smith husked 101 bushels of corn in one day, hauled it a quarter of a mile and unloaded it. Wonder if he could do it today?

W. B. Johnson, at one time the sheriff of Valley county, was killed at his home at Riverside, Calif., by the accidental discharge of a revolver.

Lewis (Bud) Aule returned from a several weeks trip around the country during which he visited in Old Mexico.

Roscoe Arnold and Miss Ethel Cronk were married Thanksgiving day by Rev. E. H. Maynard at his residence in Ord.

Angie B. Orcutt was advertising a big reduction sale of millinery. She was Ord's leading milliner over a long period of years.

Nebraska's newly elected governor, George L. Sheldon, nonpartisan W. B. Ross of Lincoln, J. L. Root of Plattsmouth, J. J. Sullivan of Columbus and Jacob Fawcett of Omaha as supreme court judges, subject to the approval of the legislature.

E. R. Brown, formerly in charge at the Hotel Ord, died at his home in Sargent.

Strickland Gillman, the noted humorist, was scheduled to fill the third date on the Ord lecture course.

E. M. Rohrbach, the man who did the work on the irrigation project in the North Loup valley in the nineties, was in Ord shaking hands with old friends. He was still talking irrigation.

A new line of groceries was being offered by F. J. Bell for sale in the old photograph building.

Clyde C. Sample and Miss Leona M. Curry were married at the county judge's office in Ord.

W. A. Anderson returned from a few weeks visit to relatives in Iowa.

Ed Murray, formerly of Arcadia, committed suicide near Mitchell, Nebr., where he had been holding down a homestead.

December 9, 1938.

Editor H. D. Leggett of the Valley county Times was wrestling with the grippe and the paper was in charge of Miss Delpha Taylor.

Herbert Mason, who had been home for a furlough, went to Omaha, where he was to be regularly mustered out of the service.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Way of Lincoln were in Ord as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mallory.

Judge Thompson went to Grand Island on the Sunday freight, as he had been unable to leave when the passenger went.

Robert Gray was planning to go to Hastings to start his work as a stock food salesman.

The George P. Emig building on the east side of the square was being torn down and taken to Taylor, where it was being added to the Emig building there.

George Stover went to North Loup to look the town over with the intention of starting a grocery store there.

Will Siler, who was not at all well, went to Omaha where he expected to enter a hospital for examination and treatment.

The house that O. S. Haskell built and lived in just east of the Blue Barn had been sold to Lon Morris, one of the proprietors of the barn, who took immediate possession. This is the house now owned by Doc. Thompson.

Mrs. Mamie Clarin had secured the editorship and publication of the Union Worker, the state paper of the W. O. U.

Dick Hill was found guilty of burglary of the Hayes Hardware. The evidence was purely circumstantial, but Hill was unable to explain some very embarrassing coincidences.

A majestic range demonstration was being put on at the Ord Hardware and free biscuits and coffee were being served. Misses Colia Firkins and Gertie Ager were in charge of cooking operations.

People living across the river from Ord were making complaint about the sign boards planted conspicuously at either end of the river bridge. They did not obstruct the view of car drivers then, but they did frighten the farmers' horses when they drove into town.

Guy Fitzgerald went to Omaha, where he expected to enlist in the regular army. He had been a member of Co. "B" during the Spanish-American conflict.

The Jonas Turner family, who had recently moved to Grand Island from Ord, had a baby girl left in their kitchen. They had no idea who left the baby there, and were taking care of it, although they were both of advanced years.

Frank Koupal was assisting in the lumber yard of Yeager and Mickewait and was proving a very satisfactory man at the job.

ORD CITY BAKERY

Proceedings of the City Council

December 2, 1933

The Mayor and Council of the City of Ord, Nebraska, met in adjourned, regular session in the City Hall at 7:30 o'clock P. M. Mayor Cummins presided. City Clerk Rex Jewett recorded the proceedings of this meeting.

The Mayor instructed the Clerk to call the roll. The Clerk called the roll, and the following Councilmen were present: McGinnis, Rohla, Johnson, Dworak and Biemond. Absent: Sershen.

The minutes of the proceedings of November 4, 1933 were read, and by motion ordered placed on file.

The report of James B. Ollis, City Treasurer, was read, and by motion ordered placed on file.

Treasurer James B. Ollis appeared before the Council and spoke at some length concerning the serious condition of the City finances. He pointed out that the overdraft in the tax supported funds had grown to dangerous proportions, and submitted figures in defense of this statement. Treasurer Ollis called attention to the fact that the overdraft at this time one year ago was $5,650.79. By the end of the present fiscal year in April, 1933 this had decreased to $4,468.78. At the present time, the overdraft has grown to $10,400.57, an increase of $5,000.00 over last year, and of $6,000.00 over the start of the present fiscal year. Treasurer Ollis also observed that the sum of $5,500.00 in bonds of Paving District No. 1, are now due and delinquent. The present amount of funds to meet these bonds is approximately $1,500.00, leaving a net deficit of some $4,000.00 to be made up or the bonds must default. He pointed out the serious consequences should these bonds default, and asked that some provision be made for their retirement when presented.

F. J. Stara, sr., appeared before council and asked that the city make arrangements concerning certain light poles situated on property belonging to Mr. Stara and wife. The following resolution was offered by Rohla who moved its adoption. Seconded by Johnson.

Be It Resolved, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Ord, Nebraska, that the Mayor and City Clerk be authorized and directed to sign an approved lease with Frank J. Stara, and wife, with reference to certain electric light poles on property belonging to said persons. Carried.

Joe Knezacek appeared before the council with an insurance plan submitted as per previous agreement. The matter was discussed pro and con, finally terminating in rejection of all proposals, and of all bids. It was moved by McGinnis and seconded by Johnson that the insurance company be asked to furnish a bid on a policy for an additional $25,000.00, on contents of the light plant; said policy to be for 80% co-insurance, for wind and hail and fire, to run for one year. Carried.

The following resolution was presented and moved by McGinnis, being seconded by Johnson.

BE IT RESOLVED by the Mayor and City Council of the City of Ord, Nebraska, that where as the said City has entered into a contract with the North Loup River Public Power and Irrigation District for the purchase of electrical energy, and whereas, the City has been purchasing said power since August 1st, 1933, and the said electric power during the said time has not been satisfactory, nor in accordance with the contract for the purchase thereof, due to the large number of times that the current has been off, and otherwise,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City make formal objection to the service received to the said district, and be it further resolved that a duly certified copy of this resolution be mailed to, or delivered to the president of said district, by registered mail, or to the office of said district, within five days after the passage of this resolution.

ATTEST: M. B. Cummins, Mayor.
Rex Jewett, City Clerk.

Upon roll call the motion was declared unanimously carried.

Treasurer Ollis' request concerning the delinquent bonds was then taken up. The matter was discussed at some length, the consensus of opinion being that the City could not afford to default on its obligations. As the bond fund proper had insufficient money to pay these bonds, and as the other tax funds were overdrawn, it was moved by Johnson and seconded by Dworak that the City Clerk be authorized to issue warrants on the Electric fund to pay said bonds when they might be presented. Motion carried.

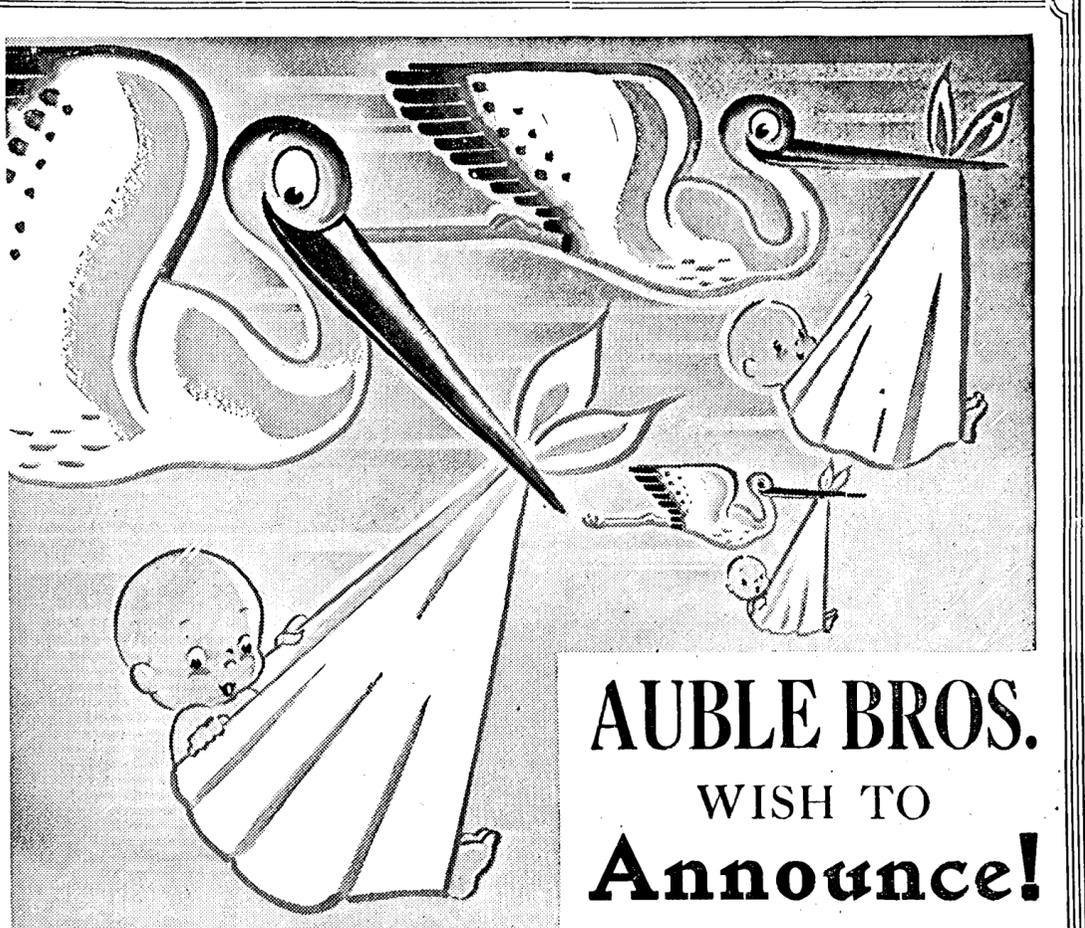

Sewer Ordinance.
Resolution of Incorporation in Minutes.

Whereupon the Mayor announced that the introduction of Ordinances was now in order. Whereupon it was moved by Councilman Dworak and seconded by Councilman Biemond that the minutes of the Mayor and Council in the matter of passing and approving Ordinance No. 114, be kept and preserved in a separate and distinct volume known as "Ordinance Record, City of Ord, Nebraska," and that said separate and distinct volume be incorporated in and made a part of these proceedings the same as though it were spread at large herein. The Mayor instructed the Clerk to call the roll. The clerk called the roll, and the following was the vote on this motion.

Yeas: McGinnis, Rohla, Johnson, Dworak, Biemond.
Nays: None.
Motion carried.

The matter of payment to the telephone operators for sounding the fire whistle was brought up. A payment of $1.00 per alarm turned in was suggested. This was opposed by the Mayor on the grounds of economy, 50c being the amount he suggested. Moved by McGinnis and seconded by Rohla that the city pay each operator the sum of 50c, for all fire alarms personally sounded. Carried.

The American Legion dance license then came up for cancellation. Moved by Johnson and seconded by McGinnis that the dance license of the American Legion be cancelled and the fee returned to them. Carried.

Mrs. Bertha Bryson writes Mrs. Edith Bossen that she is located in a private school as relief matron in Tucson, Ariz. The school has 75 rooms including class and office rooms. There are from 50 to 60 children from wealthy families of the extreme east, Long Island, N. Y., and some from Wisconsin attending. They range in age from 6 to 14 years. The school has a very strict system, and pupils are taught to help with the care of their rooms. Each is on a diet under a doctor and trained nurse. The school is a lovely place beautifully landscaped out in the desert 14 miles from Tucson. Any kind of flower grows well with plenty of water. There are lots of pretty cactus and beautiful palm trees in Tucson. There are no walks near the school and keep mostly to the desert cactus and large trees. It has a wonderful swimming pool and beautiful lawns, but the front drive is typical of the desert. Many noted people have lovely homes near by, including Harold B. Wright, the author, Ponds, maker of Ponds cold cream, C. B. Johnson of Johnson's floor wax. A boy of Johnson's attends school. Desert Sand, a big sanatorium is one mile from the school. It is where General Pershing recuperated when he was ill not long ago. Tucson lies in a bowl shaped place with mountains all around. The buildings are of the Spanish style. Mrs. Grant Cruikshank has hosted the H. O. A. club for an all day meeting Wednesday of last week. The ladies quitted for Miss Ha Ackles. Invited guests were Mrs. Ted Golka, Mrs. Dewey Bonal, Mr. and Mrs. Brady Masters, Mr. and Mrs. George Greenland and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Ackles are the parents of a 10 pound boy born Friday, December 2.

The Checker Club players were entertained in Loup City Tuesday evening at the home of Roy Plant Lem Knapp and Ed Burrows tied. The club won 2 to 1 over Loup City.

Concerning Former Ordites. The community was called upon again Sunday to mourn the untimely passing of another of Gothenburg's citizens. Ross Hull received his final call suddenly and with but little warning, and the shock of his passing was felt throughout the city. The uncertainty of life is again brought forcibly home to the many who have thus lost a friend.

Capt. Chas. S. Watson had a late home call Saturday night, with a request for his services as justice of the peace. Seems that the call-up had an idea that he would like to get married and wanted Justice Watson to tie the knot. Inquiry, however, developed the fact that no license had been secured, and that was that.—Around Town Column, Gothenburg Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Bossen and two sons drove up from Stromsburg for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Edith Bossen and other relatives. Mr. Bossen is doing some electrical work in the Arcadia high school building.

Sunday afternoon about 2:30 Miss Fern Roberts and Miss Helen Cruikshank met with an accident as they turned the corner near the Kingston farm on the Ord-Arcadia road. They struck loose gravel and went into the bank. Miss Roberts was driving Bob Roberts' car. Helen Cruikshank received cuts and bruises on her head and face which struck the windshield and broke the glass. Miss Roberts was cut on her knee and one arm injured considerably and had bruises on her limbs. They were at the Kingston home for a time and then taken to Loup City for examination, Dr. Baird being out of town. George Olsen was called to look after the car and was accompanied by Mrs. Bob Roberts. The steering wheel was broken and considerable other damage to the car. The ladies were on their way to visit Miss Roberts' sister, Mrs. Ross Leonard in Mira Valley.

At the Methodist bazaar and supper Saturday evening about 150 people were served. The fancy work consisted of many nice articles, novelty and food booths were well sold out and 57 aprons. A delicious jifney supper was served and $115.00 cleared.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker went to Ord Monday for their son Eugene who was operated upon for appendicitis a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hastings were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when three couples went in at 7:45 to spend the evening. Fifteen minutes later 35 arrived for a surprise party to celebrate Mr. and Mrs. Hastings' 40th wedding anniversary. Mr. Hastings has lived his entire life here and has been in business since a young man. His wife is a most likeable person and everybody's friend. The surprise was sponsored by Mrs. Walter Sorenson and Mrs. Lloyd Bulger. Bridge and a social evening was greatly enjoyed. Lovely refreshments were served at a late hour.

The Middle Loup project is nearing completion. Chief engineer H. C. James and also general manager for the Middle Loup public power and irrigation district, relates excavation and building of necessary structures on the project will be completed by December 30, which includes 50 miles of main canals and 65 miles of laterals. This will provide irrigation for approximately 30,000 acres of farm land.

Ord Grade Boys Play Good Football, Also

One of the reasons Ord has such a powerful football team is that the boys start their training much sooner than do kids in many schools. The reason for this is that they are inspired by having the example of a successful team in high school. Football in the grade schools is under the supervision of Coach B. A. Eddy, and he is developing some fine material for the future.

In the season just closed fourteen to sixteen inter-school games were played. Four teams were selected, with an eye to matching them up as evenly as possible. There were just eleven players on three of the teams and twelve on the fourth, which goes to show that the boys could take it, as there was no provision made for substitutes.

The season closed with the Bears in top place, with 11 games won and 4 lost. In second place were the Cornhuskers, with 10 won and 6 lost. The Wildcats got an even break, winning 7 and losing 7, and the All Stars belied their name by losing 12 and winning only 2. However, they had just as much practice losing as they did winning.

The lineups were: Bears: Bobbie Severson, Capt., Ted Randolph, Eldon Keller, Larry Wilkerson, George Rasmussen, Tommy Tolen, Lester Smith, Kenneth Tatlow, Maynard Zlonke, Joe Lola, Edwin Jirak.

Cornhuskers: Dick Satterfield, capt., Richard Long, Kirk Lewis, Jack Melbeth, Lloyd Huribert, Tolland Hatfield, Arthur Larsen, Leonard Vavra, Eddie Whelan, Roger Miller, Frank Cita.

Wildcats: Eldon Cetak, capt., Richard Bruha, Lyle Whitford, Harold Goff, Charles Draper, Jack Malolepszy, Lyle Manchester, Marvin Sample, Gordon Sorenson, Donald Anderson, Edwin Vavra, Donald Habig.

All Stars: Lyle Stewart, Capt., Emil Penas, Archie Wegryz, Joseph Rysavy, Larry Davis, Bobbie Marks, Billy Husbands, Hugh Cahill, Joe Cita, Joe Kominek, Richard Kusek.

Schroeder Family Visits Ord. Balked by an eight-year crop failure on their farm in the sandhills near Kilgore, Nebr., but refusing to take any government relief, the Will Schroeder family cashed in on their musical talents and began traveling around the country, and making their living from contributions.

There are seven children in the family: John, 19; Helen, 16; Billy, Jr., 14; Betty, 12; Douglas, 10; Floyd, 8; and Amy, 4. None of the children have ever had a lesson on any musical instrument. Mr. Schroeder, who leads the group, has had a few lessons on the violin.

Ord Gridders Choose All-Opponents Team

At a meeting held Monday morning in the high school, the Ord High championship football team chose an all-opponents team. The team selected is: Left end—Austine, Albion. Left tackle—Johnson, Albion. Left Guard—Wooden, Loup City. Center—Neiswanger, Broken Bow. Right guard—Smith, Fullerton. Right tackle—Harding, Arcadia. Right end—Mason, Sargent. Quarter back—Kunes, Ravenna. Left half back—Morgan, Albion. Right half back—Grow, Loup City. Full back—C. Pellam, Ravenna.

RAMBLINGS OF THE YOUNG 'UNS

By Lillian Karty

Well, after a vacation of two weeks, my column has again decided to come into circulation. After all, there is a lot to write about.

Hearin' things: That Burwell trucker, Jack Messenger, will some day get into a lot of trouble by phoning girls' mothers and asking them for dates. (Even though he did think he was talking to the girl) and then we've been hearing about all the school teachers he phones on Sunday night. Verne Malolepszy has been seeing red spots before his eyes. That must account for the beautiful little red head from Fullerton that he has been dreaming of. The redheads seem to have the spotlight this week. It seems that the red-head, Mary Catherine Young from Ericson, is attempting to make a hit with all of Jack Janssen's boy friends. Latest reports tell me she isn't exactly succeeding with that boy who warbles like Tony Martin. (Guess again!)

The younger people have been holding their breaths until they are black and blue in the face. The reason? It seems that a certain irresistible blonde met an immovable bachelor. (And he isn't such a woman-hater, either.) Come on, give the girl at least a chance!

From our neighboring towns: Arcadia—Beulah Nelson has given up all her other boy friends except Dale Harding. (Or is it Dale that has given up all his other girl friends except Beulah? After all, you can't blame either one, and then there's this one punned by an Arcadia boy at the Armistice dance, "She's so dumb she thinks a rumble seat is a pants full of bumble bees". (First prize winner, in my opinion.)

Back in town: Several Ord girls have been casting wistful glances at Paul Goodrich of North Loup. Even though he is too, too handsome, girls, I'm sorry I can't help you out on the matter. My apologies. Who is this girl who is secretly (and unsuccessfully) trying to break up the Eugene Puncchar-Ruth Auble twosome? That's all!

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS. Sealed bids will be received by the Ord Township Library Board at the office of the Secretary of the Board, Clarence M. Davis, at Ord, Nebraska, until 2:00 p. m., Thursday, December 22, 1938, for the erection of a library building at Ord, Nebraska. Bids will be on a single contract to cover all work on the project. All bids received will be publicly opened and read aloud by the Board and the Architect, at the office of the Secretary at Ord, Nebraska, on the above date.

All bids must be based on the plans and specifications for said building prepared by J. F. Reynolds, Architect. Plans are on file with the Secretary of the Library Board, Clarence M. Davis, Ord, Nebraska.

Board, Clarence M. Davis, Ord, Nebraska, and with the Architect, J. F. Reynolds, 1637 South Eleventh Street, Lincoln, Nebraska. Complete information is contained in the above-mentioned plans which may be obtained by bidders on application to the architect. No deposit being required. Material firms will have access to the plans at the various places where same are on file. Total estimated cost, $9,000.00.

Proposals must be submitted on the uniform proposal blanks furnished with the specifications. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check, cashier's check or bid bond acceptable to the Owner and payable without condition to the Owner in an amount equal to at least five per cent of the total amount of the proposal. The bidder awarded the contract will be required to furnish a performance bond in an amount equal to 100 per cent of the contract sum. No bidder may withdraw his bid within a period of thirty days from the date set for receiving bids.

The Library Board reserves the right to waive informalities in the bidding, or to reject any or all bids.

IT HAPPENED IN ORD

Dr. C. J. Miller had been busy giving the T. B. tests to the children of the Ord schools. When he finished with one small lad he told him to go home and eat lots of spinach, so that he would be strong. "I don't need any spinach," the young man replied, "I'm Killer Keown's brother!"

Total sales of electricity to the cities of Ord and Burwell have totalled around $3,000 per month since August 1, a little more than that amount in some months. Almost one-third of this is paid to the Western Public for use of its lines. Average price charged Ord and Burwell has been 1.97c per kilowatt hour. Figures showing net profit from sale of electricity by the North Loup district could not be obtained.

Power Commission Finds Ord Rates Low
In a bulletin put out by the Federal Power commission, showing typical light rates for Nebraska communities of 1,000 to 2,500 population, Ord's light still show among the lowest in the state. For residential use only the following prices are shown. For 25 kilowatts: Central City, $1.13; Burwell and Cambridge, $1.25; and Ord $1.33; for 100 kilowatts: Burwell $2.57, Ord $3.33, Wayne 3.49, and Central City $3.60; for 250 kilowatts: Oxford $5.82, Burwell $5.87, Minden $6.31, and Ord $6.33.

The above prices are the lowest in Nebraska in their respective brackets. While further reductions are now impossible, due to the fact that the city is purchasing power at a higher rate than it could produce it, City Manager George Allen is certain that the present low rate can be maintained. While Ord is not listed in the bulletin for commercial lighting, the following comparative rates should be of interest:

Kilowatts	50	150	375	750	1500
Ord	2.33	6.00	13.00	21.23	36.33
Falls C.	1.90	5.70	12.59	23.28	44.65

Mrs. Mable Potter Seeking to Break Her Mother's Will

Anna K. Readle's Estate Was Valued at $46,000; Will Hear Contest Jan. 10.

Though her attorney, O. B. Clark of Lincoln, Mrs. G. Potter of Weston, Ill., has filed objections in Valley county court to the probating of the will of her mother, the late Mrs. Anna K. Readle.

Mrs. Potter's objection, filed Monday, alleges that the Readle will was not properly executed or attested, that when the will was signed on June 30, 1936 Mrs. Readle was not of sufficient mental capacity to make a will, to realize the value of her property or the relationship to her of the objects of her bounty, and also claims fraud, duress and undue influence "by various persons not the heirs at law or next of kin."

The estate left by Mrs. Readle is unofficially valued by the executor to be designated in the will, J. T. Knezacek, at $46,000, of which $30,000 is in Nebraska real estate, $4,000 in real real estate located in other states, and $12,000 in personal property. Estimates of real estate value are said to be very low and value of the estate may ultimately prove to be as much as $75,000.

In her will, which was drawn by Ralph W. Norman and witnessed by Dr. C. W. Weekes, Grace Weekes and Mr. Norman, Mrs. Readle expressed a wish that Mr. Knezacek be named executor with power to sell real estate or personal property and reinvest the proceeds as he deems best. His bond is to be fixed by the county judge.

To each of her three daughters, Mrs. Mable E. Potter and Mrs. Rena Stutzman, of Weston, Ill., and Mrs. Lena D. Burham, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Readle bequeathed $500. To each of her grandchildren except Marion Potter, she will also bequeath $500. The instrument relates that Mrs. Marion Potter already had given the said Marion Potter property equivalent in value to the $500 left to her other three grandchildren, Arnold, Mae Belle and Harold Potter, all the children of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Potter. Neither Mrs. Stutzman nor Mrs. Burham has children.

Mrs. Readle's will further provides that the executor shall pay over annually to each of her daughters one-third of the income from the estate and upon the death of each daughter, one-third of the principal of the estate shall be divided among the daughter's children, if any, and if she had none shall be divided among other living grandchildren. Another provision of the will states that should any of the daughters become widows, such daughter shall then be given her one-third interest of the principal of the estate by the executor.

Another provision of the will states that should any legatee become dissatisfied and try to break the will or contest same, the bequest given to such beneficiary shall be annulled and such beneficiary shall be barred and cut off from any share in the estate.

Mrs. Readle's will was offered for probate by the attorneys for the estate, Munn & Norman, and publication having been made as required by law, hearing on the appointment of an executor was scheduled to be held Tuesday, Dec. 13. The objection of Mrs. Potter was filed Monday, Dec. 12, whereupon County Judge John L. Andersen postponed the hearing until Jan. 10, 1939. Another son of the deceased, husband of one of the heirs, in an automobile accident Saturday near his home at Weston, Ill. Judge Andersen also has announced his appointment of E. L. Vogeltanz and Clarence M. Davis as guardians ad litem for the minor Potter children, their duties being to protect the legal interests of such minor heirs throughout such proceedings as may take place.

Paul Bartunek Dies

At Nampa Hospital

Ord relatives and friends received the sad news this week of the passing at Nampa, Ida., of Paul Bartunek, brother of Anton Bartunek of Ord, and uncle of Mrs. Jerry Petska and Mrs. Emil Kokes of Ord and Dr. Paul Bartunek of Loup City. Other relatives are his brothers Frank and Lou of Wolbach and James of Loup City. His wife is a sister of Mrs. Vincent Kokes of Ord.

Paul Bartunek first came to Ord with his brother Anton from Wolbach and for years the two men and a brother-in-law, named Gus Nelson, ran a mercantile business under the name of Bartunek Bros. and Nelson. After leaving Ord he went to Nampa, Ida., which has been his home for many years. About eight months ago he suffered a heart attack which compelled him to quit all hard work. Friday he suffered another attack which caused his death. The funeral was held at Nampa Monday.

McBride Puts Tatlow On Second "All" Team

Raymond Tatlow, star guard on Ord's Mid Six and Loup Valley championship team, was placed by Gregg McBride on his second all-Nebraska prep team, in the selections published in Sunday's World-Herald. Charles Keown was placed at fullback on the fourth team and Edwin Hitchman, end, and Allan Zikmund and Don Dahlin, backs were given honorable mention.

For his first team McBride chose Rust, Alliance, and Greene, York, as ends; Matulka, Omaha South, and Van Goetz, No. Platte, as tackles; Douvas, Hastings, and Gaeta, Creighton Prep, guards; Tom Brock, Columbus, center; Ernie Weekes, Omaha Central, quarterback; DeBus, Lincoln and Neeley, Scottsbluff, halfbacks; and Gene Grace, Neligh, fullback.

McBride previously had announced his opinion that Ord had the runner-up team in the race for mythical state championship honors, being surpassed only by Lincoln, which school generally was conceded the state championship. Ord's success was attributed by McBride to all-around team play rather than to individual stars, which probably is the reason no Ord man was rated on the first "all" team.

Few high schools in the state placed four men on McBride's honor list, as did Ord, so the Chanticleers and their coaches are not feeling badly at McBride's failure to place an Ord man on his first team.

Support Chamber of Commerce Urged

A plea for whole-hearted support of the Chamber of Commerce by all Ord business men was made before the Rotary club Monday evening by J. A. Kovanda, newly elected Chamber president, himself a Rotarian. A similar plea to Ord's other service club, the Cosmopolitans, also will be made, Kovanda said.

Right now the Chamber of Commerce has the largest membership in its history—about 100—and working quietly it has accomplished much for Ord and community during the past year. Mr. Kovanda stated. Without fanfare, the Chamber has been identified with every movement for community betterment and has led most such movements.

As a few of the things which the Chamber did during 1938 President Kovanda mentioned the activities of its road committee which helped to bring about the new section of No. 11 highway between Ord and North Loup and the promise of other highway work on No. 11, as well as the promised Ord-Ericson highway improvement; the issuance of 5,000 2-color folders descriptive of the Loup Valley; financing Post-Roy's recent appearance in Ord; sponsorship of the successful "Barn" Day given last December; sponsorship of Christmas plans in 1937 and again this year.

An active Chamber of Commerce is vital if Ord is to progress, and no other organization can take its place, Kovanda said. It is the logical organization to carry out plans for betterment of the community as a whole and it deserves the support of other groups and of all individuals.

Grade School Program To Be Presented Friday

Two hundred ninety-six grade school students will participate in the annual grade school Christmas program to be presented in the high school auditorium on Friday, Dec. 16. The program will begin at 7:45 p. m.

Ninety-six children from the kindergarten, first and second grades will take part in an operetta, "The Toys That Had to Wait." The story is centered about the toys who were left behind when Santa Claus started on his trip. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus are played by Irwin Carlson and Phyllis Anderson. Other characters in the operetta are the fairy queen and the fairies, nursemaid dolls, jumping jacks, toy soldiers, French dolls, candy kids, Dutch dolls, clowns, negro dolls and balloons.

Two hundred children from the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades will participate in a Christmas pageant, "Christmas Night." This pageant is based on the story of the Nativity. No admission will be charged, and the public is invited. The high school orchestra, under the direction of Dean S. Duncan, will play several numbers.

Mortensen Appointed to High Banking Council

A real honor came to C. J. Mortensen, president of the Nebraska State bank, Tuesday when he was notified by telephone that he has been appointed a member of the Administrative Council of the American Bankers association. This Council numbers 17 and includes directors and officers of the association serving ex-officio, with the addition of six members appointed by the president. Mr. Mortensen is one of these six and was notified of his appointment by Phil Benson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., president of the association.

Horses Ran Away Albert A. Simoens Had Heart Attack

Young Man Died Saturday on Rene Desmul Place in Excitement of Runaway.

Albert A. Simoens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simoens, passed away suddenly from a heart attack at about noon Saturday. He was working on the Rene Desmul farm at the time and the team he was using ran away. It is thought that the excitement was too much for his already weak heart.

He was born Sept. 30, 1915 in Thielt, Belgium, and came with the family to the United States Aug. 12, 1919. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Simoens; two sisters, Martha of Grand Island and Elsie of St. Paul; and one brother, Francis, of Ord.

Funeral services were held from the Ord Catholic church at 9:30 a. m., Tuesday, Rev. Martin A. Lawler in charge, and the body was laid to rest in the Ord Catholic cemetery. The pall bearers were Alfonso Bonne, Lawrence Greenwalt, Walter Greenwalt, James Vasleck, Eugene Puncocchar and LaVerne Desmul. Mr. Simoens was an industrious young man of pleasing personality, and his passing is a great shock to all who knew him.

Roy Stutzman Killed In Automobile Crash

Roy Stutzman, husband of the former Rena Readle, was killed in a car crash near his home in Illinois, according to meager information the Quiz has been able to gather. Two telegrams, the first telling of his injury and the last of his death, came to the Union Pacific depot from his home at Weston, Ill., early Friday.

They were addressed to Glen Potter, who was supposed to be on his way to Ord. Mr. Potter probably stopped in Lincoln and got word of the accident there, as he did not arrive in Ord. Mr. Stutzman was in Ord in October, when they and the Potters came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Readle. Their home was on a farm near Weston, Ill. He is survived by his wife. They had no children.

$35,000 Corn Loans in Valley Co. Expected

Corn loans to a total of $30,000 to $40,000 will be made in Valley county this year it is estimated, as R. Claire Clement and Rudolph Kokes began this week the task of inspecting and sealing the cribs of farmers who are applying for loans. About 150 loans will be made, the average amount of corn being about 400 bushels and the price 57c per bushel. Only farmers cooperating under the soil conservation program are eligible for loans at the full amount.

Cosmopolitans Meet, Hear Banquet Report

At their regular meeting at the City Cafe Monday evening the Ord Cosmopolitan club listened to the reports of the heads of the various committees who had a part in putting across the Loup Valley football banquet Thursday evening. The financial report was very satisfactory and the club voted to acknowledge material assistance rendered by several organizations in making the affair a success. Following the business session Harold Cuckler, in charge of entertainment, introduced Dr. J. G. Kruml, who told of his moose hunt in Canada some two years ago, using a map to illustrate his story, and exhibiting some of the cartridges used in hunting big game.

Dr. Carlsen Will Speak

Dr. N. C. Carlsen, president of the U. D. Evangelical Lutheran church will be in Ord this week. Services Friday evening at 8:00 at the Bethany Lutheran church, Saturday at 10:30 a. m. and Sunday morning at 11:00 a. m. A cordial invitation is extended to one and all.

Will Form Townsend Club

There will be a meeting at the Plain Valley school house Tuesday, Dec. 20, at 8:00 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a Townsend club. There will be someone present to state the benefits that will be derived from the plan when enacted into law.

No Diphtheria Here

Dr. J. G. Kruml, county physician, and Dr. F. A. Barta, city physician, both report that there have been no cases of diphtheria in Valley county to date this winter. However, the 6 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Struckman of Dry Cedar precinct, Garfield county, is reported recovered from the only case of the disease in Garfield county, and a woman in Sargent was reported ill with diphtheria. The disease frequently makes its appearance at this time of the year, and it is well to be careful of any illness not readily recognized.

Cornhusker "Greats" Were Banquet Guests

Left to right, here are Jack Dodd, Bob Russell, Gregg McBride and Charlie Brock, who were guests and speakers at the Loup Valley football banquet in Ord last week. All are famous figures in Nebraska athletic circles, Dodd and Brock being members of the Cornhusker football team, Russell a former star athlete and present radio announcer, and Gregg McBride a former state tennis champion and now noted sports writer.—Quiz Photo.

Brock, Dodd, Prove Able Substitutes For Absent Major

Russell and McBride Here Also for Football Banquet; 350 Valley Fans Present.

Major "Big" Jones was suddenly called to Washington, D. C., and therefore could not attend the Loup Valley football banquet held in Ord last Thursday under sponsorship of the Cosmopolitan club, but he was ably represented by four notables from the University of Nebraska and the banquet was a grand success.

Present as understudies for Major Jones were Charlie Brock, Nebraska's all-American center, Jack Dodd, climax runner of the Cornhusker squad, Gregg McBride, sports writer for the World-Herald, and R. C. Russell, former Cornhusker "great" and now radio announcer of Nebraska football games.

After a splendid dinner prepared by ladies of the Catholic church and served by high school girls, John P. Misko, president of the Cosmopolitan club, presided as master of ceremonies, introducing in turn Coach Arnold Tuning, of Arcadia, Coach Dawson Hawkins of Loup City, and Coach H. P. Brockman of Ord. Tuning and Hawkins spoke briefly in praise of Ord's fine football record and the sportsmanship of Ord teams, while Coach Brockman modestly refused to speak, contenting himself with a bow and broad smile as the crowd gave him an ovation.

Bob Russell, 12-letter Cornhusker athlete in 1920, 1921 and 1922, told about Major Jones' regret at his inability to be present. He also was obliged to miss a big banquet given by the Omaha "N" club Wednesday evening. Russell said. Business with the PWA in connection with the athletic department's building program at Lincoln called the Cornhusker coach to Washington and he left for that city by airplane Wednesday. A telegram from Major Jones was read by Toastmaster Misko early in the program.

Dodd and Brock were introduced by Russell and each spoke briefly about experiences in Nebraska football. During the banquet these athletes were almost mobbed by young autograph seekers.

As last speaker on the program Gregg McBride gave a witty talk that kept the crowd chuckling as he told of humorous incidents that have befallen Cornhusker athletes on the field of play in this and other years. McBride, official selector of the Nebraska all-state high school eleven each year and the foremost authority on inter-scholastic athletics in this state, bestowed high praise on the Ord team, and indeed on the brand of football played by all teams in the Loup Valley conference. After his talk he gave a 1-hour program of movies showing the Cornhuskers in action this fall.

A crowd of about 350 people attended the banquet, which number was increased by about 150 more who came after the dinner and sat on the bleachers while listening to the talks and seeing the movies. It was one of the most successful banquets ever held in Ord. A high school orchestra led by Dean Duncan, with vocal specialties and dances by high school students, helped make the occasion memorable.

Large delegations were present from Arcadia, Comstock, Burwell, Greeley, Loup City, North Loup, Sargent and Taylor, and smaller groups from several other valley towns. The Cosmopolitan club originated the banquet idea and had charge of all arrangements and to members of this club should give credit for the banquet's success.

Contract is Let For Building Excavation

At the meeting of the school board Friday evening bids for the excavation for the footings for the new gym shop building were opened. The amount of dirt to be moved was 43 cubic yards. Bids for digging and blessing were granted the contract on their low bid of $53.05. Charles Goodhand was second low with a bid of $107.50. The Clark Construction company, an out of town concern, had a bid of $108.00 and Klima and Psota, local men, bid $245.00. The letting of this part of the work will satisfy government requirements about starting the work within sixty days. The contract for the building will be let at a later date.

Calves Distributed For Baby Beef Clubs

Not long ago C. C. Dale and R. Claire Clement went to Cherry county and bought a number of baby beef calves for use by baby beef club members in Valley county. These calves have been distributed to calf club members in various parts of the county, some taking one, some two and some three. Those taking three each were Stanton and Harris Jones of Arcadia; those taking two were Maynard Schudel, North Loup; Orel Koelling, Donald Clement, Richard Peterson, Marion Collins, Lonnie Nelson, Vernon Nay, Charles Zlomke and Eldon Lange; Darrell and Delbert Drake, Bob and Billy Miller, Wilson Chatfield and Dean Veleba each took one calf.

Five calves remain to be distributed to boys who have not yet arranged to get calves and wish to do so. Any interested boys may procure one or more of these until they are gone. These calves are to be fed on fattening ration and fattened for showing at the Valley County fair, and either at the state fair or the Ak-Sar-Ben next fall.

They are sold at auction after the latter shows, and usually bring a nice premium above market price. Some boys in the country have already procured their calves from other sources than through the county agent's office. The date has not yet been set for organizing these boys into clubs but they will be grouped according to locality.

The thanks of the club members and all who participated in putting the proposition over is due the two banks of Ord, who furnished the financial backing for the enterprise. Without this foundation to work on, it would have been impossible to put across a club of this magnitude.

Numbers Go On Sale Next Tuesday, Dec. 20

The new car numbers arrived a little over two weeks ago and will go on sale Dec. 20, as usual. The colors are black numbers on a light grey background, the same they were in 1937. The supply this year consist of 2,400 passenger car plates, 150 commercial trucks, 50 R. C. trucks, 25 local trucks, 160 farm trucks, and the usual supply of trailer plates, capacity plates, motorcycle plates, etc.

Participates in "Messiah"

Kenneth Eglehoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Eglehoff, was a member of the 267 voice chorus of the University Singers who presented Handel's "Messiah" over radio station KFAB from the University Coliseum Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Kenneth, who is a junior at the University of Nebraska, is a member of the University boys' glee club.

Sample Sale Next Monday

Next Monday, Dec. 19 has been fixed as the date of the Irene Sample clean-up sale, which will be held on the farm known as the old Jim Sample place in the Davis Creek neighborhood. Bert Rich has been farming the place but is moving to a different farm and livestock and machinery owned by the Samples will be sold Monday, along with some consignments by other parties. See the list in today's paper.

Fined For Failure To Pay Board Bill

Upon complaint filed by Festus Williams Nov. 26, R. D. Alsmann was picked up in Lincoln charged with beating a board and room bill of $33.00. In Judge Andersen's court he entered a plea of guilty as charged, paid a fine of $15.00, costs of $32.40, and the amount of the board bill, a total of $85.40, and was released. He came to Ord some two months ago as one of the party of surveyors who were working on the Ord-Ericson highway, and made representations about the salary he was receiving, but left without paying his bill.

NYA Toy Project To Be Completed Soon

The NYA toy project, which has been carried on at the shop building at the south school, is developing nicely, according to information furnished by Mrs. E. J. Kokes, who has charge of the work. A large number of toys were furnished by people from Ord, and also brought in by people from the country. These have been overhauled and put into good working order, and all are being given a coat of bright paint. The number this year will be practically as large as last year, and the work will all be completed in ample time for yuletide distribution.

Wareham Employed As Irrigation Manager

At last Wednesday's meeting of the board of directors of the North Loup River Public Power and Irrigation District, employment as general manager of the project was offered to Chas. R. Wareham, who has been serving as auditor, and he has accepted the position. It is understood that his salary will be $225 per month.

Townsend Recovery Act Club Will Meet

The Townsend Recovery Act club will hold their regular meeting Friday night, Dec. 16, at the American Legion hall. There will be entertainment and speaking. Doughnuts and coffee will be served by the club. You are welcome to attend, whether you are a member or not.

First National Bank Repainted Last Week

For the past week or ten days N. J. Holt has been busy redecorating the interior of the First National bank. The job presented a certain amount of difficulty, as the work had to be done while business was carried on as usual. The interior now presents a very pleasing appearance.

McGrew Takes Patient To Omaha by Airplane

When Hayes county attorney Carl E. Peterson was stricken with acute appendicitis at Hayes Center early Sunday morning, Dr. K. C. McGrew had him picked up and rushed by airplane to the Immanuel hospital in Omaha, where his condition later in the day was said to be good. Pilot Rube Wagner of the United Air Lines was over Ord when he picked up the message, and had to back track 75 miles to pick up his patient. Dr. McGrew has been making quite a reputation for himself in the Hayes county metropolis.

Creamery Stockholders to Meet Here Thursday

Stockholders of the Ord Cooperative creamery will hold their annual meeting at 2:00 p. m. Thursday, Dec. 15, in the K. of P. hall, a notice sent out this week by Manager Fred Coe states. Distribution of patronage dividend checks will start Friday morning. Total this year will be around $7,500.

Chanticleers to Meet Comstock Hi Tonight

Tonight at the Ord high school gymnasium the 14 will be pried off the 1939 basketball season when Coach Brockman's Chanticleers meet Comstock. Fans have been curious as to what kind of a team Ord will have, so many of last year's stars having graduated and tonight's battle will be well attended. Next Wednesday the fast North Platte team will play on the Ord floor.

Carl Wolf Had Good Sale

Excellent prices was the rule at the Carl Wolf auction sale held Tuesday. One team of coming 3-year-olds brought $115 each, a mare sold for $103 and a team of blacks for $97.50 each. A binder used four years brought $125, and other machinery prices were in proportion. The Carl Wolf family will move soon to California where Carl's brother, Cecil, has a good job on a dairy farm. D. L. Wolf, father of the boys, also is in California.

Charles Wareham, who spent the week end at his home in Kearney, returned to Ord on the bus Monday morning.

Santa Claus Will Visit Ord, Bring Treat to Kiddies

C. of C. Committee Arrange to Have Xmas Saint Here at 3:30 Wednesday, Dec. 21.

Vern Russell, chairman of the Ord chamber of commerce committee in charge of arrangements for Santa Claus' annual visit to the children of Ord, announced yesterday that plans have been perfected to bring the jolly Christmas saint here at 3:30 p. m., Wednesday, Dec. 21, at which time he will appear on the court house steps with treats for all the little children who are there to greet him.

Other members of the Chamber committee in charge of the Christmas party are Fred Cahill, George Allen, Dr. J. G. Kruml and Dr. F. J. Osewutinsky. A Christmas tree will be erected on the court house steps, trumpeters will herald the arrival of Santa Claus, and it is promised that Santa will have a big sack of candy and nuts for every child. Chamber of Commerce members are hoping that at least 1,000 of the little folks will be on hand next Wednesday to greet Santa.

Another Christmas announcement was made by A. J. Auble, chairman of the Chamber's retail committee, who says that Ord stores will be open evenings from Wednesday, Dec. 21 until Saturday, Dec. 24 to serve customers who find it difficult to do their Christmas shopping during the day. Stores will be closed all day Monday, Dec. 26, Mr. Auble says.

Chamber of Commerce Committees Appointed

New officers and directors of the Ord Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday evening in the office of Dr. J. W. McGinnis, and appointment of committees was announced by President J. A. Kovanda. The complete list will be published next week. The Chamber will start a membership drive soon, chairman of the membership committee being Hilding O. Pearson.

Large Audience Attends Play, 'Hobgoblin House'

The junior class play, "Hobgoblin House," was successfully presented to a large audience Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium. The play was centered about the efforts of Miss Priscilla Carter to keep her two nieces, Marlan and Jill Carter from marrying the two young "mimcompoops" with whom they were in love. The part of Miss Carter was ably portrayed by Marguerite Wegryn. The nieces were portrayed by Angelina Wachter and Bette Jane Vogeltanz. Darius Krupp, played by Gerald Stoddard, added to the mysterious atmosphere of the Hobgoblin House. The antics of the two negroes, Delilah Worts and Henry Goober, portrayed by Joy Loft and Emanuel Smolik, and the exclamations of "My Godfrey's billygoat" by the English maid Susan Parkins, played by Alberta Flynn, kept the crowd laughing. Excitement was added by Bluebeard Bronson, an escaped maniac, played by Joe Gregory. Patricia Arnold, a kidnapped Chicago heiress, portrayed by Thelma Nielsen, and Bill Wilkins, the keeper at the state insane asylum, played by Lloyd Vodehnal, Frank Harlow and Jack Loring, the fiancés of the girls, were played by Rodney Rathbun and Capron Coe. The high school orchestra, under the direction of Dean S. Duncan, furnished music for the play. Christina Petersen was student director of the play, and Lyle Flagg, student manager.

Between the second and third acts, the head usher, Loretta Mae Achen, presented the director of the play, Miss Wilma Shavlik, with a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums from the junior class.

Emery Petersens Are New Diner Owners

By virtue of a deal closed Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Petersen purchased the Diner from Mrs. Freda Buchfinck, the new owners taking possession Monday. The Petersens are from St. Paul and own a farm two miles west of Cushing, which they formerly farmed. For the past year he had been in the employ of the National Tank and Pipe company of Portland, Ore. They will continue the business under the same name and along the same general plan as in the past.

Attend Father's Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Springer left Saturday evening for Blair, Kas., to attend the funeral Sunday afternoon of Mrs. Springer's father, J. D. Euler. Mr. Euler, who was 65 years of age, passed away Friday after being in poor health for several years. He had never visited in Ord.

A shipment of eight John Deere tractors was received last week by the Belers-Kellison Implement company and are now on exhibition at their display room at 239 South 15th St.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Even the little folks read the Quiz, if one may judge by the response that followed the publishing of the letter from Santa Claus in last week's Quiz. Two of the letters printed this week came from kiddies too small to write the regular English language, but Santa of course can read every word of any language, whether it be classic language or kiddie scrawl, so he will understand.

It may be that these two tiny tots had a message for Santa alone and wanted to keep it a secret from the Quiz folks. When he arrives in Ord we are going to ask him to tell us what it was they wrote in those letters. In fact, we are of the opinion that he will be more interested in those letters than the others, if that were possible.

The following are the letters received to date.

Dear Santa: Please come to our Christmas program at school Dec. 21. Please bring me a rifle and bring my baby brother a ball. With love, Donald Shoemaker

Dear Santa: I am 5 years old. I go to school at Malden Valley. Please bring me a doll and a drum. Your friend, Donna Babcock.

Dear Santa: I go to school every day. I have tried to be a good boy. Please bring a truck with lights. And bring my baby brother a rattle. With love, Lyle Mason.

Dear Santa Claus: I have been a pretty good girl and I wish you would bring me a stove, a tricycle, a toy Scottie dog and a scooter. Oh yes, I need a bath robe too. Yours truly, Barbara Lee Noy.

Dear Santa: I wish you would bring me a doll and a sled. Your little friend, Gloria Babcock.

Dear Santa: Please bring me a wagon and a bicycle, and please bring my baby brother Alvin a ball. With love, Leonard Mach.

Dear Santa Claus, how are you? I would like to have a gun and a holster for Christmas. Your friend, Roger Dean Dahlin.

Dear Santa: I have tried to be a good boy. I would like a cowboy suit. Please bring my little sister a doll. Your friend, Elwyn Mason.

Dear Santa: I wish you could bring me a gun and a watch. Please bring my sister Jean a doll and a doll bed. With love, Danny Huff.

Then, there are those two letters from three little friends, who wrote in the code that only Santa can understand. Their names are Janis and Carol Ann Pocock and Ina Fay Jorgensen, and they live at Ord.

Dear Santa Claus: For Christmas I would like a new car with red wheels. I would also like a drum and a horn and a train. I am four years old. Sincerely, Billy Jq Rowbal.

Dear Santa: I saw your letter in the Quiz and so am writing to you. I want a toy typewriter and a small manufaring set. I go to school every day. I am 3 now and my birthday is Dec. 19. I help my mother. I am in the 4th grade. My teacher's name is Miss Anderson. I go to Comstock grade school. Norma Jean Skollil.

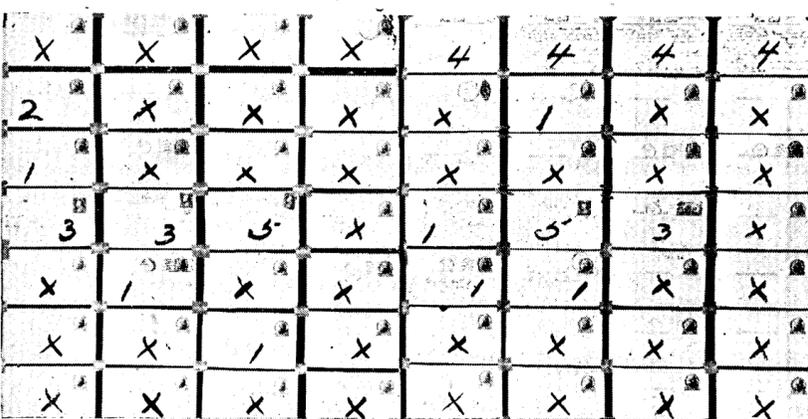

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl almost five years old. I go to nursery school five days a week and think I am a pretty good little girl most of the time. I wonder if I would be asking too much from you to bring me the following toys: I would like a doll buggy little stove, and some candy and nuts. I would also appreciate some oranges and a few apples. Sincerely yours, Sophia Ann Capke, East M St., Ord, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I read your letter in the Ord Quiz. For Christmas I want a big doll. I hope you come and see me on Christmas. I hope it is not too cold for you. I wish you could come and see us at school this Christmas. I think we are going to have a program. I think we will have a good time. My birthday is the day before Christmas. Goodby, Santa Claus Betty Ann Dunbar, Taylor, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a girl eight years old. I go to school at Dist. 12. I am in the third grade. For Christmas I would like a doll with yellow hair, goes to sleep and a voice that cries, a velvet coat and cap. I would like a bandanna and some dishes and silverware, also a stove. For my mother will you bring some nice handkerchiefs. Please bring daddy some socks, size 11 1/2. Yours truly, Alice May Johnson.

Dear Santa Claus: Will you give me a train, please. I would like to have a tractor. I like squirt guns too. I've been a good, good little boy, you can ask mother if you want to. I learned a Christmas song in school about you. Do you have anything for my daddy like a necktie? My daddy is Carl Sorensen. That's all. Don Sorensen.

Showing Reasons Why Your Postcards Are Not Delivered

The above set of improperly addressed postal and post cards is on exhibition in the Ord postoffice. They have been lined up by Mark Tolen to give the public an idea of some of the reasons why postcards do not reach their intended destination. All postcards marked with an X above were mailed without any address whatever, making it absolutely impossible for the department to deliver them. Several cards marked with a No. 1 have the name of the addressee, but the name of the city is not put on. Marked No. 2 is a card with the address, but the name of the person is omitted. No. 3 shows stamped penny postcards with the address incomplete. No. 4, a group of penny postcards with the address more or less complete, but without the one cent stamp. No's. 5, all penny postcards with the entire front written over and no address whatever. It is stamped, but could not possibly be delivered. It goes to show that the public cannot be too careful in addressing mail, for in just a short time the local office picked up these 56 cards that cannot reach their intended destination.

(A printed letter) I have been very good. Please send me a new doll, book, buggy, stove, house, radio. Rosalie Blaha.

Dear Santa: This is near Christmas time again. And I have tried to be a good girl. I will not ask for much. I would like a paint set and some books to read and a violin. Wishing you a joyful Christmas. I am your little friend, Mariel John. Thanking you kindly.

Dear Santa Claus: We read the letter from you to all the children in this week's Quiz, to write you and tell you what we want for Christmas. I am a little boy four years old and I want a wagon, a scooter, candy, nuts and some fruit. My little brother Jackie is 3 years old. He wants a climbing tractor and a wagon, candy, nuts and fruit. Please, Dear Santa Claus, don't forget my baby brother. Sincerely yours, Clarence and Jackie Savage.

Dear Santa Claus: I saw your letter in the Ord Quiz, and Santa said that we could write him for some toys. My name is Ernest James Jablonski and my brother is writing this letter for me. I want a truck, car, tractor and train. I am 2 years and 4 months old. I will thank you for the toys after I receive them. With love, Ernest Jablonski, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I have heard you were giving toys to little children, so I thought I would ask Santa for some toys. My name is Marcella Louise Jablonski. I am 8 years and 3 1/2 months old. I would like to have a dolly that would cry and sleep, also a play stove and a carpet sweeper. I will thank Santa for the toys. With love, Marcella Jablonski, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I saw Santa's letter in the Ord Quiz, that you would give toys to little children. My name is Lorene Mae Jablonski. I am 10 years, 3 months old. I was a good girl, so I want a doll that cries and sleeps, and also some dishes and tinkertoys. I will thank Santa very much for the toys. With love, Lorene Mae Jablonski, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa: I hope you will be able to find Jimmy and I this year. I have been real good, and Jimmy has been fairly good. He gets pretty naughty at times. Jimmy is just two years old, so I am writing to you for him. He wants a train and a race car. I want a wetting doll and a telephone and a dress. Jimmy and I will be looking for you, Santa. Love, Delores Williams, North Loup, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I was sure glad to see your letter in the Quiz. I have been a good girl and go to school every day. I want a cabinet and a wash machine and some candy, also some toy money. With lots of love, Wilma Lou Zabloudd!

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl. I am nine years old and in the fourth grade. I go to school every day, and my teacher's name is Miss Johnson. For Christmas I want a doll buggy, a story book, a pair of overalls and some candy and nuts. Yours truly, Edna Mae Ruzovskil, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa Claus: I am a little girl. I am eight years old. I am in the third grade. I go to school every day. My teacher's name is Miss Johnson. For Christmas I want a coloring book, a pair of overalls, a set of dishes, a story book, and also I want some candy and nuts. Yours truly, Louise Ruzovskil, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa: Please Santa I would like toys. Please take care of the children. Please send a dress. Please send my father an overcoat. 4-piece band. Please send me a sewing machine and toy electric phonograph. Mickey Mouse deluxe. Marian June Earl.

Dear Santa: I would like to have a sewing machine. Please send my mother a pair of brown stockings, and send my father a pair of black gloves. Please send me a checkerboard and checkers. Please Santa, I want a Mickey Mouse watch and a box of chocolates. Lovingly yours, Ardyce Earl.

Dear Santa: I saw your letter in the Quiz, so I thought I would let you know I have tried to be a good boy. I am six years old, and my birthday is Dec. 24. I am in the second grade and my teacher is Miss M. Craig. For Christmas I want a football and a tool set. Your little friend, Robert Dahlstedt, Burwell, Nebr.

Dear Santa: I am going to be a big boy. I am going to get the wood in the house and then I am going out. I take reading, arithmetic, spelling, English and geography. I get my lesson when my class is called. Will you please bring me an air rifle and a drum. I am in the third grade in school and live nine miles north of Burwell. I go to Mayflower school. Your friend, Victor Weyers.

Dear Santa Claus: I am ten years old. My name is Zenn Nelson. I go to Mayflower school. You may get me just what you can get for me. We have pictures of you on curtains and blackboards. We are going to have a Christmas program on Dec. 22. It is five miles north of Burwell. After you get about five miles you turn east. Then you see a red house. That is the place. Merry, Merry Christmas to you. With love, Zenn Nelson.

Dear Santa: My name is Joan Aiyce Brenneman. I go to school with my mamma. She is my teacher. Santa, I would like a little red bangle and a big dolly with long curls. I am going to help my mamma good. My mamma run a lunch room last Christmas. We had a pretty tree in our window. We live in the front room of the same place. Merry Christmas, Santa. Bring me whatever you can. Please come in your airplane. A little friend, Joan Aiyce Brenneman.

Dear Santa: My name is Darlene Joy Bowers. I go to Mayflower school. I am six years old and am in the second grade. I like school. My teacher is Mrs. Brenneman. I try to be a good girl. I want a washing machine that works and some candy. My brother wants a red toy truck. I have two brothers. We wish you a Merry Christmas, Santa. Your friend, Darlene Bowers.

Dear Santa Claus, I am in the fourth grade. My studies are reading, arithmetic, spelling, English, health and geography. We put pictures of you on the windows and blackboard. I want some roller skates. Your friend, Kenneth Weyers.

Dear Santa: My name is Joyce Nelson. I am six years old. I'm in the second grade. I like school. My teacher is Mrs. Brenneman. I'm trying to be a good girl. I play with my baby sister. Her name is Aleta Rose Nelson. I dry the dishes for my mother. I want a doll and a buggy for Christmas. I hope you will bring me something else if you cannot bring me that. Your friend Joyce Nelson.

Dear Santa Claus: I'm sending you a little letter. My name is Delmar Lee Bowers. I live four miles north of Burwell. I go to Mayflower school. My teacher is Mrs. Brenneman. I am seven years old and in the second grade. I have a brother and a sister. My little brother wants a teddy bear for Christmas. I want an air rifle and a ball. I would like a little candy too. Your friend, Delmar Bowers.

Dear Santa: I am trying to be a good girl. I wash the dishes, sweep the floor. I take care of my sister, Aletta, and help my mother. My sister and I take the baby to bed and put her to sleep, then mother will not have to do that. We open the windows when we go to bed. My sister would like a squeaky doll. Her name is Aletta Nelson and mine is Lorene Nelson. We live about six miles north from Burwell. Please bring me something nice, and Merry Christmas. Yours truly, Loryne Nelson.

North Loup

Written by MRS. ETHEL HAMER

North Loup high school opened its practice sessions for the 1938 basketball season a week ago with about twenty boys reporting for the varsity squad. Among those boys are the following lettermen of last year: Anyas, Hoepfner, Cox and Birmingham. Several boys who have lettered in football, and who have not previously lettered in basketball, have joined the squad. These candidates are Goodrich, Sheldon, Adams, Al Babcock, Steve Jorgensen, Roy Maxson and Maynard Schudel. Among others reporting who have never lettered, so far in any sport are McGinley, Geo. Maxson, Waller, Watts and Barrett. Coach Willis intends to carry a varsity squad of about fifteen players. Some of these who lack experience may be shifted to the junior high squad so that they may gain more actual playing experience during the season. Early season standouts of the varsity squad are Anyas, Hoepfner, Cox and Birmingham, all lettermen of last year. Others include Adams, Barlett, Jorgensen, Waller, and McGinley. Boys on this squad who do not get into varsity competition will see service on the reserve team. There are the same number of reserve team games as there are for the varsity. The Challengers have 14 games and two tournaments ahead of them for the coming season.

The first home game is with Cushing on Jan. 5. The first game of the season is to be played at Elba on Dec. 20. Mr. Houchens will be in charge of the junior high squad from which a team will be picked later to play in junior high games. A round robin tournament is slated for the junior high boys and they will have a chance to play a lot of basketball. This squad will be divided into two teams and the teams will compete with each other throughout the season. Practice for this group began Dec. 7. This squad includes boys in the grades 7, 8 and 9. Those boys who progress favorably on this squad will be shifted to the varsity group for higher competition. Mrs. Edna Hatfield of Spalding spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. John Goodrich. Roy Cox left Monday for Alliance and other points in the western part of the state. Andy Glenn accompanied him and will visit a sister at Scottsbluff and relatives at Fort Morgan, Colo., before he returns. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sometimes We Wonder. If the present conditions continue, it will soon be unnecessary for the United States to consider going to war with Europe to save the Democracies. There will be none left to save.

It's a Hard Life. Mussolini must show his teeth to his neighbors, for dictators cannot live at peace with other powers and enjoy peace at home at the same time. Of two evils they choose the least.

Telling the Truth. We shall not get the upper hand in labor disputes until a plan is devised to keep service as usual while disputes in industry and transportation are being settled by boards of arbitration. Only in this way can the forgotten man be rescued from his perilous position.—J. G. Alden in York Republican.

Let Us Not Forget. It should not be forgotten that German people—most of them kindly and reasonable, are not in the least responsible for the inhumanities practiced by Dictator Hitler.—Wayne Herald.

They Sure Were Socked. Maybe the brutal beating the slot machines got at the polls will give Al-Sar-Ben, say nothing of a certain county fair or two occasion to think of something that may happen one of these days.—Gering Courier.

At the pre-nuptial shower given in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Rettenmayer, Miss Betty Trler Rettenmayer received many beautiful and useful gifts. About ninety ladies were present. The entire house was lighted with many colored lights, giving a warm and cheery glow, keeping in mind approaching Christmas.

To the south in the large dining room the table was beautifully decorated, fenced in with a miniature white picket fence. Inside, lined with banks representing snow, stood a white Christmas tree where Santa Claus had arrived with eight little reindeer harnessed to his sleigh. Directly above in the wall space were assembled the bridal party represented by dolls dressed for the occasion. The packages of gifts were placed nearby where the bride-to-be opened the parcels. Following the gifts a guest book was passed for all to sign their names. During luncheon two violin solos were given by Miss Mary Jane Rettenmayer, accompanied at the piano by her aunt, Mrs. Max Wall. The hostesses were Madams W. J. Ramsey, A. H. Hastings, L. A. Bulger, Ray Waterbury, George Hastings, Jr., C. A. Bellinger and Miss Dorothy Bly.

RAMBLINGS OF THE YOUNG 'UNS

By Lillian Karty

Horace Greeley once said, "Go west, young man, go west." It seems as though the Ord boys can't go west, so they're content with someone who comes from the west. Meaning what? Meaning that pretty little blonde, Marilyn Heyde, from Denver. Warren Allen seems to monopolize her spare moments. However, Marilyn's kid sister personally told me, "Marilyn likes Capron Coe and Dean Blessing better." (You've got something there, kid.)

Miss Murphy says the pro and con for Latin seems to be definitely con in her class. This little poem best expresses the attitude of the class.

They are all dead who wrote it. They are all dead who spoke it. They are all dead who learn it. But oh happy death! They earn it.

Sounds in the night: One hen to another, "There goes the man I'm laying for." Brainstorm in a cafe by Bud Mella of Greeley. "Yes! He's always been musically minded. He was born with drums in his ears." From a sophomore girl, after the football banquet, "Gee, I wish I had graduated from high school. Maybe then Mr. Lee would take me to the banquets." (Cheer up girlie, you've still got two more years to wait.)

The biggest laugh of the week comes from Scotia. It seems that a group of Scotia girls mobbed a boy from Greeley after they found out that he played on the football team and that his name was Murphy. The girls naturally thought that he was the much publicized Charlie Murphy. The joke is that there are two other Murphys on the Greeley team, and neither of them is related to Charlie. (Was that poor boy bewildered?)

Here and there: Martina Blomond surrounded by a group of strong handsome athletes from Loup City at the banquet. My apologies to Verl Timmerman and Bill Goff. It was Gerald Goff who took Mildred Fuss to Elyria. And incidentally, a little bird tells me that Gerald and Mildred have been keeping pretty steady company. You Ord girls who wanted to know more about this North Loup boy last week, will be rather surprised when your names are disclosed to the party himself.

Afterthought: This little saying comes from Emil Krikac: "I've shaved for two years. And I shaved both times too!" That's all!

Life Sketch of Joseph Winter.

Joseph Winter was born March 2, 1859 in Kleinmohran, Moravia, Austria, and after 79 years, 9 months and 8 days, departed this life at 10:30 p. m., Saturday, Dec. 10, 1938. He came with his parents to America at the age of fourteen years, settling in Missouri where he grew to manhood. Then he with his parents moved to Iowa, where he worked as a farm hand for a few years.

During this time he met Miss Lydia Lorenz of Magnolia, Ia., whom he married on March 4, 1886. To this union were born eight children, six daughters and two sons. Two of the daughter died in infancy. The living are Mrs. Lydia Koelling and Mrs. Wm. Koelling of Ord, Nebr.; Mrs. John Gonneman of Dysary, Ia.; Mrs. Charles Gonneman, also of Dysary, Ia.; Henry of Glenwood, Ia.; and the Reverend W. D. Winter of La Porte City, Ia. When a lad in Austria he was of the Catholic faith. A few years before his marriage, he joined the Evangelical church where he had been secretly converted. He was a faithful and devoted member of the church until the time of his death. Nothing pleased him more than to be active in the service of his Lord. He served in almost every lay capacity of the church, and his work was effectively done. He was always in the church service on Sunday morning up to almost the last, when his health began to fail.

His wife preceded him in death six years ago, on December 23, 1932. After his companion's passing, he came to live with his daughter, Mrs. Will Koelling, in the Mira Valley community south of Ord, Nebraska. With this daughter he made his home for more than two years, when he began living at the home of his daughter Mrs. Lydia Koelling of the same community, who tenderly cared for him, ministering to him in his old-age infirmities.

Four years ago he suffered a stroke of paralysis on April 25, from which he sufficiently recovered to enable him to get around, but from that time on his health began to fail. Last spring he developed a serious heart ailment, and for the past several months, the decline had been quite rapid.

Early on Thursday morning, while yet in his sleep, he suffered another stroke, which resulted in his death. After lingering for three days during which time loving hands gave him every tender ministry, his spirit slipped away to join the host of friends and loved ones who seemed to be waiting to escort him into the presence of his gracious Lord, there to hear the blessed words: "Well done thou good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things, enter into the joys of thy Lord."

It was a great day when his redeemed soul went "Sweeping thru the gates, washed in the blood of the Lamb." The witness of such a victorious life, causes those of us who yet linger, to exclaim:

"Though the sands have washed over the foot prints of the Stranger on Galilee's shore. And the voice that subdued rough billows is heard in Judea no more. Yet, the way of that lone Galileean with joy will I travel today. And the tolls of the road will seem nothing when I come to the end of the way."

Beside the children above named, he is survived by two brothers, Morris of Boyd, Okla., and Richard of LeMars, Ia. There are seventeen grandchildren.

Brother Winter was a man of many friends. His friends were people of high moral character. Funeral services at Zion Evangelical church in Mira Valley conducted by Rev. J. A. Adams. The body was taken to Council Bluffs after the services and the family and Rev. Adams left for Council Bluffs Wednesday morning where services were also held and interment made.

Rev. J. A. Adams, pastor of the Mira Valley Zion Evangelical church has completed a series of sermons on Bible Lands and expects to follow with a study of the Bible. Sunday night, Dec. 8, a pageant of the Nativity will be given at his church. This is under the direction of Mrs. Irma Burson and Golda Poth and will be in costume and presented under colored lights.

A choir of twenty-four voices under the direction of Mrs. M. R. Cornell furnished music at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Mrs. Kenneth Kauer, Mrs. M. R. Cornell and Dorothy Campbell sang a trio.

Sunday night at 7:30 at the Methodist church there will be a candle light service sponsored by the League and the choir and directed by Mrs. Cornell. The new league officers will be installed at this time.

The December church social will be held on Sunday night at the Seventh Day Baptist church, supper to be served at seven o'clock and a program and gift exchange to follow.

The high school band will give a concert at the school house Wednesday night at seven-thirty. The Home Economics class finished their study of breakfast and divided into groups, served at the noon hour last week. Friday they are serving a Christmas tea to their mothers and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Zangger entertained at dinner-bridge Monday night. Prizes were won by Mrs. R. W. Hudson and H. L. Gillespie. A gift exchange for which names had been drawn at the previous party was enjoyed.

Cards from Mr. and Mrs. Everett Catlin of San Diego, Calif., were received by a number of North Loup people Tuesday. Everett is stationed on the U. S. S. Whitney and was married to Ethel Wickery at the home of the bride in San Diego on November 27. Mrs. Catlin's sister and a friend of Everetts who is stationed on the same ship were married at the same time and after their ship returns from New York, where it is to be sent soon both couples expect to live in the same apartment.

A large star, which is the work of Marshall James Coleman has been placed above the center of the main street and strings of colored lights running from the star give North Loup a holiday appearance. Mr. Coleman and Everett Howell placed the lights Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haught were Monday dinner guests in the Wayne King home.

Dorothy Jean Earnest spent Saturday night and Sunday with Esther Taylor.

Sunday guests in the Will Earnest home were the Albert Haught and Lloyd Johnson families and Mrs. Wayne King.

—Mr. and Mrs. Emil Fafelta made a trip to the Mercy hospital at Des Moines, Ia., last week, going Tuesday and returning Wednesday. They went so that Mr. Fafelta could have a check-up by Dr. Abbott, who performed a serious operation upon him some time ago. The doctor pronounced him in perfect condition, which was pleasing news indeed.

MEDICAL FACTS

Sponsored by 4-COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY

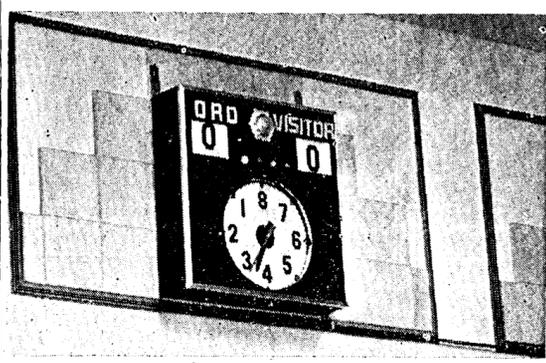

"Convalescent Serum" is a term commonly used in medical circles. It sounds so simple to the doctor that he is likely to think that everybody knows what the term means. Convalescence is a term denoting the period of getting well from a sickness. Serum refers to the liquid portion of the blood that is squeezed out of a blood clot. This term then refers to the serum obtained from the blood of a person who is recovering from a disease. In fact, in some instances it is extended to refer to the serum of a person who has long since recovered from the sickness.

Some months ago, in this column, we talked about a number of acute infectious diseases among which were scarlet fever, measles and infantile paralysis. In this discussion, the use of convalescent serum for preventing, modifying or treating these diseases was briefly mentioned. The importance of this method makes it seem wise to speak of it at great length.

The ideal in medical practice is the prevention of disease, but of almost equal importance is the ability to discover disease in a curable stage and to know the means of curing it. The constant advance of the science of medical practice leads to the frequent discarding of one method in favor of some more effective measure. Perhaps in no other field of practice has this been more common than in the prevention and treatment of diseases of infants and children. The saving of life among these little people has been in large part responsible for the great average prolongation of life which we have seen in the last generation.

A few examples of these medical triumphs may be pointed out. Diphtheria was a scourge that killed the children in large numbers until in 1894, the German bacteriologist, Emil von Behring, discovered the antitoxin which cures the disease. Great as was this discovery, permanent protection from this disease could not be obtained with this serum. In recent years further work has shown the way to protect people permanently, so it is now possible to stamp out diphtheria.

Electric Timer Is Installed For Games

An electric timer for basketball games has been installed in the high school gymnasium. The time and quarter being played as well as the score is shown upon the face of the device, which is located high on the west wall above the basket, and it is plainly visible from all parts of the auditorium. Syl Furtak will probably handle the device, which is controlled from the scorer's bench on the stage. Ord is the first town in central Nebraska to install one of these timers, but it is expected that they will soon come into general use.—Quiz Photo.

In similar manner, constant advance in knowledge has taught the medical world the way to prevent syphilis in infants, to stamp out smallpox, to at least partially prevent whooping cough, etc. Many examples could be cited to illustrate the above statements, yet we are aware of the need for much more knowledge and the ways to apply it.

One of the recent advances is the use of convalescent human blood serum for the prevention and cure of measles, scarlet fever and infantile paralysis. With the assistance of philanthropically minded people, convalescent serum centers for the collection of blood, the extraction of the serum therefrom and its distribution to those needing it, have been established in Los Angeles, Chicago, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, Detroit and Des Moines.

The story of the establishment of the center in Milwaukee is one of great human interest. The child of a wealthy citizen of that city was critically ill of scarlet fever. Physicians had expressed grave doubt of its recovery. Convalescent scarlet fever serum was obtained from Chicago and used in treating this child. Prompt recovery followed. Soon this grateful father donated sufficient money to establish a permanent serum center in Milwaukee.

In Nebraska, the State Medical Association felt the need of providing so far as it could for the needs of our people along these lines. The state legislature also saw the wisdom of making some preparation for this need and accordingly set aside a small appropriation to help provide convalescent serum for infantile paralysis. The combined efforts of these bodies have succeeded in placing a limited supply of convalescent serums at the following "stations" in our state: McCook, Grand Island, North Platte, Gering, Norfolk, Chadron, Lincoln, and Omaha. Your family physician is familiar with the use of these

Got His Dog Back.

When Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Har denbrook were visiting in Fremont Thanksgiving, Daryl lost his dog Dec. 1. City Clerk Rex Jewett received the following letter from Mr. Metierhenry of Fremont:

"Dear Sir:—I have found a white and black rat terrier dog with a 1938 Ord, Nebraska, dog license tag No. 11 on its collar. I presume you can check back on your records to see who bought the license. If the owner still lives at Ord will you please get in touch with him so he can make arrangements to get the dog back. I will appreciate any thing you can do to locate the owner."

You guessed it. The dog was Daryl's and they wrote Mrs. Har denbrook's mother in Fremont and had her get the dog for them. The moral is, of course, always pay your dog tax promptly.

Nellie Maude Smith was born in Mechanicsville, Ia., April 29, 1864 and passed away at the home of her brother, Dr. E. J. Smith in Burwell, Nebr., December 5, 1938 at the age of 74 years, 7 months and 6 days. She received her early education in Mechanicsville and united with the Methodist church in young girlhood. In December 1892 she was united in marriage to William S. Crowe of Tipton, Ia., at Mechanicsville. To this union two sons were born, Glenn who preceded her in death in 1929 and Howard of Oakland, Calif. Following their marriage they moved to Tipton where Mr. Crowe was a painter in a carriage factory. In 1890 they moved to Henderson, Ky., and later to Indianapolis, Ind., where they lived until the death of her husband in 1910. Shortly after that she and her son Howard moved to California. Mrs. Crowe has spent her summers in Burwell at the home of her brother for the past twenty years. Besides her son Howard and brother, Dr. Smith she leaves another brother, George Smith of Omaha. The funeral services were held Wednesday, Dec. 7 at 2:30 o'clock p. m., at the home of Dr. Smith in Burwell. Rev. G. C. Roberson of the Methodist church of Ord, was in charge. Interment was in the Ord cemetery.

Aged Burwellites Observe Birthdays

MRS. CAROLINE JOHNSON.

Mrs. Caroline Johnson celebrated her 95th birthday on Sunday, Dec. 4 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hannah Riley. Seven-teen neighbors and friends gathered at the Riley home on Saturday, Dec. 3 to help Mrs. Johnson celebrate the occasion. She was born in Bergen, Norway, Dec. 4, 1844 and came to America when she was 20 years of age and landed in Quebec, Canada, later going to Beloit, Wis., with a colony of Norwegians and settled on a farm. She was united in marriage to John Johnson on Dec. 17, 1881. In 1882 they moved to Petersburg, Nebraska where they lived on a farm for a year, after which Mr. Johnson began working on a railroad and was accidentally killed in 1884. She and her daughter then moved to Holt County and settled on a farm where they lived until 1920 when they moved to Long Beach, Calif., and lived for two years. In 1922 they moved back to the farm in Holt County where they lived until coming to Burwell in July 1930. Since 1919 Mrs. Johnson has spent most of her time in a wheel chair as the result of arthritis. In spite of her affliction she has done practically all of the housework, such as baking bread, preparing the meals and keeping the house in order and is an excellent housekeeper. Besides her daughter she has two nieces and one nephew in Nebraska. Mrs. Chas. Tate of Cedar Rapids, Mrs. Jet Holcomb of Oakdale and Erick Loken of Albion.

MRS. LOUISE VANWAGENEN.

Mrs. Louise VanWagenen celebrated her 90th birthday Friday, Dec. 9 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Hennich in Burwell, where she has made her home for approximately the past twenty years. The day was spent in a quiet way with only a few of her relatives and friends. Mrs. VanWagenen was born in New Platz, Ulster Co., New York, on Dec. 9, 1848, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Vradenburg. She became a member of the First Methodist Church in Loyd Center, Ill. at the age of 12 at the time her father was the local minister. She attended the public schools and entered the New Platz Academy as student teacher, going from there to Gainesville Seminary, New York. While there she participated in the celebration of the election of Abraham Lincoln and also took part in the services when he was assassinated. On June 27, 1866 she was united in marriage to Eli VanWagenen of New Platz, N. Y., and in 1869 they moved to Corning, Iowa, where they lived for 18 years, moving to Omaha in 1888.

Her husband passed away in 1915 on a homestead in Sheridan county, Nebraska and since that time she has made her home with her children, the first two years on a homestead near Alliance and since that time in Burwell. She is the mother of Mrs. Lillie Mickel, Mrs. Elizabeth Hennich and J. R. VanWagenen, all of Burwell and Mrs. Maude Rockhold of Glenridge, N. J. One daughter, Mary E. VanWagenen passed away in 1930. Mrs. VanWagenen enjoys reading and keeps up a large correspondence with friends and relatives in the east.

Doric Chapter 64 O. E. S., met Tuesday evening, Dec. 6 in the Masonic Hall for an initiation service. 19 visitors from Ord and 10 from Taylor and Sargent were present. At the close of the service refreshments were served by the officers of the Burwell chapter.

The Blue Parrot Cafe, owned and operated for several years by Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Swanson, was sold Monday to Floyd Adams of Amelia, who took possession Tuesday.

Mrs. C. E. Strong and son Fred of Almeria were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Dye and family. Mrs. Strong is the mother of Mrs. Dye.

The American Legion sponsored the erection of a large Christmas tree near the intersection on the south side of the square Saturday. Colored lights and Christmas decorations have been placed on the tree.

The New Century club met Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 7 in the home of Mrs. Earl Myers with Mrs. Floyd Johnson assisting hostess. A musical period was enjoyed during which time songs were sung from the club song books. Several of this year's leaflets were reviewed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

A large number of children greeted Santa Claus on the Burwell streets Saturday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. Santa made his headquarters at the Golden Rule store and the children were given small gifts.

Mrs. Otto A. Schrader, daughter of John and Emma Donner, was born in Adair county, Ia., Aug. 19, 1856. In the year 1887 she came with her parents to Nebraska, which state has since been her home. She was united in the holy bonds of marriage with Otto August Schrader at Bertrand on March 8, 1907. To them two children were born, Mrs. Nellie Mae Clayton and Donald LeRoy. Besides her husband and children, she leaves to mourn their loss, her mother, Mrs. Emma Donner; five brothers, George and Charley of Adon, Wyo., Walter of Farnam, Jack and Loren of Newdale, Ida., also two sisters, Mrs. Ralph Hatfield of Ord, Mrs. Maude Dudschus of Peton, Ida., and two grandchildren, Mary Joe and Thomas Jerry Clayton, while numerous relatives and friends shed tears of both sorrow and sympathy.

Her father, John Donner, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Roberts preceded her in death. Mrs. Schrader's life was characterized by a spirit of helpfulness. Both relatives and friends found in her a warm heart and a ready hand. Little children were happy in her home. Brothers and sisters turned to her as to a mother while the welfare and comfort of her

Dewey Meyer has recently purchased a 1939 Pontiac tudor sedan. Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grunkemeyer were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hyde of Knobby Ridge, 10 miles west of Almeria, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wittsche and Evangelist Floyd Buntentbach.

Paul Schroder.

Paul Schroder, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schroder, was born on a ranch in Rock county, 36 miles northwest of Burwell, Nebr., on Aug. 16, 1922 and passed away on Friday, Dec. 9, 1938, at the age of 16 years, 8 months and 12 days. He spent his entire lifetime on the ranch where he was born. He had been in ill health for some time. Besides his parents he leaves three brothers, William, Carl and Alfred and one sister, Mrs. Everett Stour of Hammond.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Dec. 11 at 1 o'clock p. m., in the home with Rev. Strong of Al-mother and her immediate family were the burden of her heart down to the close of life's day.

Although a sufferer for a number of years, yet possessing great powers of endurance, she kept up until a surgical operation became inevitable, but the multiplicity of her ailments prevented the hope for recovery and she passed into the great beyond at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, Dec. 4 in Ord at the age of 52 years, 5 months and 15 days.

Funeral services were held at the Burwell Methodist church. Miss Mamie J. Young, pastor of the United Brethren church at Ord, officiating. Burial was made in the Ord cemetery.

A six percent interest dividend was paid of capital stock, and a three percent patronage dividend to stockholders and a two percent patronage dividend to non-stockholders was announced at the 32nd annual meeting of the Farmers Grain and Livestock Association of Ordville.

Friends and neighbors of Fred Sternberg of Scotia, who has been laid up with a broken arm for many weeks, gathered at his place and husked out 731 bushels of corn one day recently.

At Aurora an estimated crowd of 4,000 children and grown-ups saw the Christmas parade with Santa Claus and his live reindeer, and the Earl Hammond troupe with dog team and sleds and elaborate floats.

A survey states that seven out of ten farmers have cars, and four have electricity in their homes. Six have radios. Water is piped into three homes out of every nine, telephones are in three out of every eight, tractors one out of every three and motor trucks on one out of every four farms.

H. H. Henningson, Omaha engineer, reports that good progress is being made in realizing rural electrification in Thayer county. John Bright, county chairman, reports that almost 400 signers have been secured in the county to date.

Governor R. L. Cochran issued a proclamation making official the action of Nebraska voters in approving an amendment to the state constitution repealing the bank stockholders' double liability provision.

Neighbors of Elmer Schultz, Randolph farmer, picked over 1,200 bushels of corn for him, while their wives prepared the meal at noon. Schultz suffered a back injury while working on the Cedar-Knox rural electrification project in September.

Have You Faith in Your Community

Have you faith in your business? Without the firm conviction that you are on the right road to success, yours will be a road of trials and tribulations. Become a patron of this creamery—have faith in the fact that we are attempting to serve you to the best of our ability—help build up instead of tearing down the business interests of the community whose success is so closely wrapped up with your own and you will know the satisfaction of successful work well done. Have faith in what the dairy cow has been able to do in other communities and for other farmers and that faith will be reflected in the increased faith your banker and merchant will have in your ability to meet your financial obligations.

FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK
Stockholders Patronage DIVIDEND CHECKS
Will be ready for distribution.

During 12 years of OPERATION this Creamery has never failed to pay a Patronage Dividend. The amount so paid has usually been in direct proportion to the volume of cream handled.

The Cream Producers of this community can profit most by patronizing their own local Creamery 100% in 1939.

Ord Cooperative Creamery Company

Proceedings of the County Board

December 6, 1938, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. Meeting called to order by Chairman with all supervisors present upon roll call.

Minutes of last meeting read and accepted as read. Bank balances as of November 30, 1938, read as follows: First National Bank, Ord, $11,785.05; Nebraska State Bank, $55,503.73; First National Bank, Arcadia, $14,890.88.

The matter of the recent relocation of the Ord-North Loup State Highway came on for consideration after which supervisor Barber introduced the following resolution and moved its adoption, to-wit:

RESOLUTION.

Whereas certain portions of State Highway No. 51, between North Loup, Nebraska, and Ord, Nebraska, have been relocated and changed from the route actually traveled at the time said highway was by law designated as a state highway, and

Whereas it is deemed expedient and for public good that certain portions of said State Highway as have been abandoned, because of the change therein, be retained and maintained as public highways, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED, by this Board of County Supervisors of Valley County, Nebraska, in regular meeting assembled, that it is the desire of the County Board of Supervisors of Valley County, Nebraska, that the following portions of said State Highway which have been abandoned, because of the relocation and change therein, be retained and maintained as other public roads as is provided by law, to-wit:—

Beginning approximately at the South 1-1/4 corner of Section 14-T18N-R13W, thence North to the North 1-4 corner of Section 2-T18N-R13W, thence west to a point approximately 420 feet west of the North 1-4 corner of Section 4-T18N-R13W.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be sent to the Department of Public Works of the State of Nebraska, as a petition of this Board that the above described portions of the abandoned State Highway No. 51, be retained to be maintained as other public roads as provided in Section 39-1402 of the 1929 Compiled Statutes of Nebraska.

Motion seconded by supervisor Ball and upon roll-call, unanimously passed, and said resolution duly adopted.

Being noon, meeting adjourned until 1:00 p. m., at which time again called to order with all supervisors present.

The following official bonds bearing the endorsements of Com-

Report of Frank Kruml, relief director, showing expenditures total for direct relief during November, was accepted upon motion carried.

Upon motion duly carried, Relief Director was authorized to make commitment for direct relief during December, to an amount not to exceed $900.00.

Supervisor Ball then introduced the following resolution and moved its adoption to-wit:

RESOLUTION.

Whereas, Section 12-119 of the 1937 Cumulative Supplement to the Compiled Statutes of Nebraska, for 1929 provides for the fixing and determination by the county board of the amount of the official bonds to be filed by certain county officers.

Now Therefore, be it resolved by the Chairman and Board of Supervisors of the County of Valley, The State of Nebraska, that the amounts of the official bonds of the County officers of said county hereinafter named shall be and the same are hereby fixed and determined for the ensuing term commencing in January, 1939, as follows: County Clerk, $2500.00; Clerk of District Court, $5000.00; County Attorney, $1000.00; County Assessor, $2000.00.

Motion seconded by Zikmund, and upon roll call unanimously carried, and said resolution duly adopted.

Snow White and Seven Dwarfs Come to Life in Persons of Andersen Rat Terrier Puppies

Dopey, Sneezy, Doc and all the rest of the Seven Dwarfs, along with Snow White herself, can be seen any day at the John L. Andersen home, where Tiny, the Andersen wire-haired rat terrier has a litter of eight puppies that have been aptly named after the Disney characters. Here the eight pups are, in a photo taken by Judge Andersen himself.

Snow White hasn't a dark hair on her body and is larger than the other puppies; Dopey, who always is stumbling over the others and has trouble making his feet work, is small like his namesake; Bashful is very shy, stays away from his brothers and sisters; Sneezy coughs and spends his time sneezing; Grumpy is cross and low spirited and has little use for the other pups; Happy, on the other hand, is always satisfied with what is going on in his little world and spends all his time playing; Sleepy pays little attention to the other pups, preferring to doze, while Doc is very active in all affairs of the puppies.

So aptly are the puppies named, and so excellent is this picture of them, that anyone familiar with the Snow White fairy story could almost name the puppies from their attitudes in this picture, even if the artist hadn't lettered in their names.

Tiny and her eight pups are prime favorites with the Andersen children and indeed with all the children of the neighborhood. The puppies are four weeks old.

When You And I Were Young Maggie

December 13, 1928. Ernest Coats wrote a letter giving figures on dairying, and boosting for the Ord Co-op creamery. A number of persons were ill in the Rev. J. A. Moorman home, and the rest of the family were conducting a regular hospital. Henry Schulte, nationally known athletic authority and mentor of the University of Nebraska track team, was scheduled to speak at Ord in the interests of athletics. Adolph Asimus, well known farmer and purebred stock raiser of the Rosevale neighborhood, passed away from heart disease after an illness of only an hour. He was nearly 65 years old at the time of his death. C. A. Anderson and a group of men returned from Detroit, driving back a cavalcade of 7 Chrysler cars. In the group were Lyle McBeth, Frank Meese, Stanton and Maynard Finley and Alvin Anderson. The J. C. Penney company installed the Ransom cash system, in which all the money is sent to the cashier, who returns the change. Cornelius Bradley, 64, of Wolbach, the wealthiest man in Greeley county, was instantly killed when struck by a train at Central City. Thelma Smith, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, of Spring Creek, was fatally burned when the kerosene exploded when she poured oil on the kitchen fire. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Janssen became sole managers of the Ord Cafe, Mrs. Janssen's brother leaving Ord for other fields. County Agent C. C. Dale stated that hog cholera was prevalent in the county, and scared farmers who had the disease in their herds and failed to tell their neighbors. The Ord Quiz team defeated the Gem Theater in basketball by a score of 26 to 9, and McLain-Sorensen defeated Hill-Hill 19 to 9 in the two games played in the city league. George Round, Jr., sports editor of the Quiz, selected the first Valley county high school football team, as follows: Left end, Hackett, Ord; left tackle, Adams, Ord; left guard, Chaffield, Ord; center, Fuller, of North Loup; right guard, Christensen, Ord; right tackle, Botts, Ord; right end, Sorensen, Arcadia; quarterback, Dunn, North Loup; fullback, Clochon, Arcadia; right halfback, Williams, Ord; and left halfback, Evans, Arcadia. December 12, 1918. Writing from aboard the U. S. S. Frederick, Frank Dworak told an interesting story of his life as a sailor, and said he sure liked a life on the ocean. Tiring of the usual method of trying to control the flu, the town of Burwell threw off all restrictions, and established a strict quarantine of all persons and homes known to have the disease. Ernest Leroy Bannister, 20, passed away at his home in Ord. He was a member of the Ord home guards, who assisted in the funeral. Charles Clochon advertised in the Quiz for a heifer he thought had strayed away from his place. Five weeks later the heifer was found in a washout in the pasture by some boys trapping skunks. She was still alive, but hardly able to walk. Miss Gladys Coe, fifteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Coe, passed away at the family home in Lincoln from pneumonia following the flu. Herbert L. Cushing was down with the flu at their Lincoln home, and Mrs. Cushing was coming down with the flu, so he sent for his parents to come down and help them. C. O. Lund, through his attorney, A. Norman, brought suit against Mr. Beeson of the Merckle Machinery company of Kansas City, because the latter intimated that Lund, while city manager of Ord, was planning to leave town with city funds. He asked damages in the amount of $5,000. I. N. Swan closed out the balance of his goods in Ord by selling to Henry Hansen, and was moving to Seward, where he was to manage a basket store. The large barn on the John Palmer place on Davis Creek was burned to the ground, with its contents, including a registered stallion and a quantity of grain. The loss was $3,000. Ed Johnson was taken home from up town after suffering a severe heart attack, but was reported much improved. Ross Murdoch, who had lived at Ord for ten or twelve years, passed away suddenly from complications following the flu. Lloyd McGrew, who was ill with the flu at the Paul Thimanson home in Omaha, was reported improving. Forrest Peterson sent word to his parents that he was back on American soil, having just landed in New York. Ernest Clifford Munn passed away at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Munn. He had been in the service, but had been sent home because of his health. He died of complications following the flu. The Board of Education announced that the Ord schools would be opened Dec. 30, unless some further outbreak of the flu made postponement necessary. December 17, 1908. Clarence Pierson of Springdale lost his watch fob, but he later located it in Ord where he had lost it. A. J. Jensen sold his valuable Springdale farm, a Mr. Warford of McCook being the purchaser. Otto Smith of Springdale was compelled to quit school for the winter, due to the fact that he was subject to attacks of appendicitis. A movement was on foot and gaining impetus to put in an electric light plant at Arcadia. Every day except Saturday and Sunday during the months of February, 1909, was already billed for a public sale. Mrs. O. M. Seerley went to Kearney to be at the bedside of her son Lester, who had recently undergone an operation for appendicitis. A fire in the Comstock school house, probably caused by boys smoking cigarettes in the basement was extinguished without serious damage, according to an item from the Comstock News. Ormsby Petty had accepted a position with the Cornell Hardware. J. N. Nethery returned from the coast, and said he had made up his mind to settle in the county. He was looking about for a suitable farm. The Quiz was giving the names of a number of people who were attending the National Corn Exhibit in Omaha. Among them were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Haskell, James Nethery, Mrs. H. H. Parks. Going to Lincoln from Ord that week were: William Aldrich, Mrs. H. C. Stroup and daughter Eunice, Horace Robbins, E. J. Clements and E. T. Brown. Fred Bell had installed quite a fine line of groceries, and the Quiz opined that with the store and the picture show to look after, he would be kept out of mischief most of the time. Reports of good husking records continued to come in. Roy Hagemer husked 105 bushels of corn in 7 hours and 35 minutes in corn that made 35 bushels per acre. The county board decided to build a bridge across the North Loup river at Sumter, at an estimated cost of $3,500. The 89th birthday of A. Ward was celebrated at his home in Mira Valley, Sunday, Dec. 13. Several new clerks were employed in the Chapin store for the holidays, among them L. J. Auble, Jud Tedro and Norrel Lambertson. Judge Gudmundsen issued a marriage license to Archie G. Springer and Miss Ada Leona Eyerly, both of North Loup. Miss Eva B. Shuman, county superintendent, had finished her task of visiting all the schools in Valley county, which in those days had to be done with a team, and was a real job. The G. A. R. and Ladies Aid held a celebration at the Gene Madison home in southeast Ord in honor of his birthday.

December 16, 1898. Mrs. W. S. King and children went to Northern Iowa for a visit with her brothers there. They all planned to go back to their old home at Champaign, Ill. Prof. C. C. Vanora had decided to open a singing school in Ord. The first session was to be held at the Christian church and was very well attended. Dr. F. D. Haldeman addressed the Ord high school on the subject of disease "germs" which was a comparatively new topic in those days. Charles Reinkie, section boss on the Union Pacific, had his foot badly hurt by the rebound of a rail, and was laying off for a while. D. McCall, one time county superintendent, was applying for the appointment as commandant of the Soldiers' Home at Grand Island. The building of the Patty Drug Co., damaged by fire a few weeks before, had been repaired, and the store had moved back. The date of the annual ball of the Ord fire department had been set for Jan. 2, 1899. Frank Mallory had decided to again go into business in Ord. He had rented his old place on the corner (where the Safeway store moved from) and was putting in a stock of goods. The Watt corner, one of the finest locations in Ord, had been bargained for by J. R. Williams. He and Wencil (Jim) Misko planned to build a brick building there in the spring. A. J. Firkins of the Ord Hardware company went to Iowa to visit his brother Len and also buy some Hereford cattle. An important notice appeared in the Quiz, telling that the unsold lands embraced in the Fort Hart-suff abandoned military reservation were to be sold Dec. 17, 1898, to the highest bidder. Too bad that the Old Settlers' Association did not take that opportunity of obtaining the property for a national park. A half column letter telling of a trip to California and signed "Amusement" was published in the Quiz. The interesting thing about it was that the writer had not left Mira Valley at all, but had used her imagination in writing the letter. It got by all right, and nobody suspected the hoax that had been played on them. All the carpenters of the county were working over time and there was more work than they could get done. It was the boom period immediately following the depression of the Cleveland administration. December 11, 1883. Under the head of Loup County Locals, Dreamer wrote a column for the Ord Quiz, of which the following are some items.—Judge VanAntwerp will soon build a new office for insurance and real estate in Kent.—Kent will soon have a lumber and coal yard.—J. B. Loghry starts the 10th for lumber for a new wagon and repair shop in Kent.—Sweet and Walker will soon build a new carpenter shop in Kent.—Kent needs a good harness maker.—A good shoemaker would do well to make Kent a visit for the purpose of locating.—A cold winter will nearly destroy Taylor (the county seat) as all the haystacks, of which it is principally composed, will be fed to stock. The case of Firkins vs. Taylor and Aldredge resulted in a verdict of $150 for Firkins, who lost a horse which fell into the well while in the livery stable of the defendants.

Handicapped by the loss of both hands in his youth, Johnny Clemmy of Elyria has learned to make the best of this and does everything that the normal person can do. He shaves himself, drives a car, eats, writes, answers the telephone, and opens doors. Johnny lost his hands when he was eleven years old. He had been driving a mower in a hay field about three miles from Elyria. As he was reaching for a lever, the horses jerked, and the lurch threw him in front of the sicklebar. Both hands were cut off. After the accident, he started walking toward his home a mile away. He was met by his mother, who, seeing what had happened, immediately removed her stockings and made a tourniquet for each arm. It was this act that saved the boy from bleeding to death before a doctor could be reached. The wounds were closed that same afternoon by Dr. Barta and Dr. Shepard. Throughout the entire operation, Johnny never lost consciousness. Johnny says, "Whenever I find it necessary to do something, I keep trying until I find the easiest way. I usually manage to make up some way to do it." The first week after the accident, Johnny's lessons in school were oral. However, he soon learned to write and his handwriting is easily read.—Photos by Duemey.

H. W. Nelson and J. V. Alderman received patents on their land, the first to be issued for timber claims in Valley county. The following item is copied verbatim, it being a very important bit of Valley county history: Court House Meeting: Ord, Nebr., Dec. 10, 1883.

At a meeting called at the school house for the purpose of talking up the court house question, G. W. Milford was elected chairman and H. W. Nelson, secretary, after which remarks were made by the chairman followed by H. A. Babcock who explained as to the action of the county commissioners followed by O. S. Haskell who explained his proposition, saying that he had offered to build a court house 40x60, three stories high, basement included for a consideration of $1,500 and the town lots donated by Haskell Bros. for the purpose of building a court house. He (O. S. Haskell) proposes to accept the proposition of the county commissioners, that the citizens of Ord amount $1,300 in addition to the amount he asked from the county in order to make the building 50x60 making the basement 8 feet high, the walls 20 inches thick, making the second story 18 feet high, the wall 16 inches thick, not including dead space in walls, making petition walls to be 12 inches thick. Third story a hall 50x50 feet, 12 feet high, walls in third story 12 inches thick. The building to be completed by September 1st, 1884. A motion was made by H. W. Nelson that a committee of three be appointed to see if $1,300 could be raised to aid in building this court house, in case the court house square is retained for the court house. The following was then appointed as said committee: J. A. Babcock, H. Westover, and H. A. Walker. A motion was then made to adjourn sine die, carried. H. W. Nelson, secretary.

Munn & Norman, Attorneys, Ord and Notice for Appointment of Administrator. In the County Court of Valley County, Nebraska. In the Matter of the Estate of Martin Jablonski, Deceased. STATE OF NEBRASKA, ss.

Valley County, ss. Whereas, Joseph M. Jablonski of said county, has filed in my office his petition praying that letters of administration upon the estate of Martin Jablonski, deceased, late of said county, may be issued to Emil R. Patetta of Ord, Nebraska, whereupon, I have appointed the 3rd day of January, 1939, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the County Court Room in Ord, Nebraska, as the time and place of hearing said petition, at which time and place all persons interested are required to appear and show cause, if such exists, why said letters should not be granted as prayed in said petition. It is Further Ordered that notice thereof be given all persons interested by publication of a copy of this Order three successive weeks previous to the date of said hearing in The Ord Quiz, a legal weekly newspaper printed, published and of general circulation in said county. Witness my hand and official seal this 9th day of December, 1938. JOHN L. ANDERSEN, County Judge of Valley County, Nebraska. Dec. 14-31

Find Papers Made Out 56 Years Ago. Papers dating back to the year 1882 attracted the attention of L. W. Benjamin and Mike Socha the past week. They had been partly burned and were blowing about the vicinity of the old Ord State bank building, having doubtless been found there by the workmen now busy making alterations.

Record Public Debt. The per capita public debt amounted to $429.99 in 1937, compared with the post-war low in 1929 of $277.23, and with the pre-war figure of only $59.23 in 1913.

Farley Missed This Time. Mr. Farley's prediction that the Republicans would gain only 24 House and three Senate seats qualifies him as head of the Weather Bureau if he ever needs the job.

No Room For Them. Robert H. Hutcheson, president of the University of Chicago, says the way to regulate football is to place the admission fee at ten cents. Where would the learned gentleman put the crowds?

Good Will to Men. "Wouldn't it be nice," says the Knoxville Journal, "if the world's dictators from Hitler to Lewis would quiet down a little and give the Christmas spirit and the good will men a chance? Hell raisers never seem as out of place as at Christmas time."

Our Market Brings You Meats at their Best

Our recent installation of a large new Ehrlich refrigerator show case is just another step in our constant endeavor to bring to our customers "meats at their best."

Our whole market equipment is dedicated to that idea, and nowhere can you buy meats that have been butchered, prepared and put on sale in a more efficient, sanitary manner, in accordance with the latest usages approved by science.

You'll find our meats tasty, tender—appealing to the sight, to the smell and to the taste.

You'll find meats here in great variety—almost any cut or kind that you may want.

You'll find, too, that our prices are exceptionally low.

LICENSE REQUIRED.—No person, firm or corporation shall engage in or conduct the business of sewer connections and house drainage or excavate any trench for sewer pipe, or open, uncover or in any manner disconnect or lay any sewer drain, or attach to, modify or repair any appurtenances to sewer connections with any sewer in the streets or alleys or with any private sewer or drain in the City of Ord, without holding a proper license for such work, and without complying with the rules of the Sewer Commissioner and with the provisions of this Ordinance and with the provisions of Chapter Twenty-Four (24) of the Municipal Code of this City and with the provisions of any and all ordinance, resolution, or order hereafter passed, approved, and published according to law, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Ord pertaining to sewers; Provided, however, that the regulations shall not apply to persons, firms or corporations under special contract with the City of Ord for the construction, extension or repair of sewers.

Section 3. PERMITS REQUIRED.—Before commencing the construction, modification or repair of any sewer, drain or cesspool, the drafter shall first obtain a written permit from the Sewer Commissioner, who shall act for the Mayor and Council in the issuance thereof; and such permit shall be upon the ground at all times during the progress of the work and must be shown to any officer in authority on demand. Application for permit must be in writing and signed by the owner of the property to be connected, or his agent. The application must set forth the description of the property where said sewer is to be connected and shall state whether such sewer shall run to a private house, factory or other place, business or location. If the drain is to be connected with the sewer built by private parties or to pass through property not owned by the applicant the written consent of the owner must be procured and filed with the application.

Section 4. SPECIFICATIONS, REQUIREMENTS.—Any drain which is to be extended under or into any hotel, tenement or apartment house, dwelling or building must conform to the following requirements, viz: (A) Unless a special permission to cut the sewer is endorsed on the permit, the Junction pieces which have been built into the sewer during its construction, must be used for connecting all private sewers. In making such connections the Junction piece must first be found before opening the trench for the rest of the work. In all cases the trench must be opened of ample width to the point of connection and all rubbish removed so as to admit of easy inspection. If there be no Junction piece in the sewer a permit to cut the sewer may be granted by the Sewer Commissioner and connection may be made by inserting into the sewer a Junction pipe of the size specified in the permit. After the opening all rubbish must be carefully removed from the inside of the sewer and the Junction pipe must be set even with the inside of the sewer on a bed of mortar and the opening around the pipe carefully repaired and well plastered with mortar composed of one part of good portland cement and one part of clean sharp sand. In connecting with a pipe all work done must be under the personal supervision of the sewer commissioner. (B) When the course of the drain is not the same as the Junction piece, it must be connected therewith by use of curved pieces of not more than 45° or 1-3 bend and in all changes of direction, either horizontal or vertical, curved pipes must be used, and the working of curves by clipping straight pipes will not be allowed; no pipes or other material for drains shall be used before they have been examined and approved by the Sewer Commissioner or by an assistant authorized to make such examination by said Sewer Commissioner. (C) No house drain shall be less than (4) four inches in diameter and shall be laid on firm earth with a slope of not less than 1-4 inch to the running foot. Connection to the sewer must be made with an increaser. (D) No street shall be opened before the Junction has been located by the Sewer Commissioner and in all cases the trench must be opened to the point of contact without tunneling, except under buildings or other immovable property, and in such cases a written permit must be obtained from the Sewer Commissioner; in opening any street or public way all materials shall be placed where they will cause the least inconvenience to the public, and the hole enclosed with barriers and protected with lights at night from the beginning to the end of the work.

Section 5. GREASE TRAPS.—All wastes containing a large amount of grease, such as creamery wastes and wastes from kitchens and restaurants must be discharged through a grease trap constructed of brick or concrete on the outside of the building, in which the drain laying is being done, in depth not less than four feet and in diameter not less than two and one-half feet and covered with at least an eighteen inch lid. If such construction be deemed, by the Sewer Commissioner, to be impractical in any particular case, then such waste must be discharged through a grease trap of form approved by the Sewer Commissioner.

Section 6. SAND OR SOIL TRAP.—All garages or service stations having a wash rack for washing cars, trucks or other vehicles, the connection to the City sewer shall be provided with a trap of a kind or form approved in such case by the Sewer Commissioner.

Section 7. STORM WATER LEADERS SHALL NOT BE CONNECTED TO THE SANITARY SEWER.—Storm or rain water leaders shall not be connected with the sanitary sewers, nor shall any rain or surface water be admitted to soil pipe or any portion of the sanitary drainage system.

Section 8. DIRECT CONNECTION REQUIRED.—Each and every house must make a direct connection with the main sewer in the street or lateral in the alley through the Y-branch located opposite said lot. Under no circumstances will two or more houses be allowed to make such connection through one pipe, nor carry their drainage in pipes laid beneath or through adjoining property without the consent of the Mayor and Council of the City of Ord.

Section 9. PIPE SPECIFICATIONS; DEPTH OF TRENCHES.—All sewers outside of buildings must be laid in trenches on a firm slope and at not less than a depth of four feet unless by special permit of the sewer commissioner. Pipes must be cylindrical vitrified salt glazed tile of standard weight good quality, free from flaws, and well glazed over entire surface. Such pipe may be laid to a point not less than four feet from the foundation of the building, from which point to connect with the house drain extra heavy iron pipe of best quality straight or evenly curved, as may be required by the work, must be used. All pipes must be connected with portland cement mortar and the excess mortar wiped out after laying.

Section 10. FEE FOR CONNECTION WITH PUBLIC SEWER.—Before any permit can be issued for any private drain or for any connection with the public sewers of this city, including the Ord Drainage Company Sewer System the sum of two dollars must be deposited with the City by applicant for said permit, and by person holding a permit to lay private drain must, before laying any pipe, give at least twenty-four hours notice to the Sewer Commissioner of the time when he will be ready to begin work, and any work done without notice to the Sewer Commissioner as aforesaid or without inspection by the Commissioner or his authorized assistant, shall be treated as defective work and may be uncovered, and if need be, reconstructed by said Sewer Commissioner, at the expense of the plumber or drafter to whom the permit was granted.

Section 11. IMPROPER USE.—Entrance into any manhole or opening same, for any purpose whatsoever, except by authorized persons is hereby prohibited, and no one shall deposit, or cause or permit to be deposited, in any vessel or receptacle connected with the sewer, any matter or anything whatsoever except that which is the usual and natural content of the house sewage.

Section 12. CESSPOOLS.—Cesspools shall not be constructed on property abutting on a sanitary sewer or storm and sanitary sewer.

Section 13. TRENCHES WHEN BLACED.—Trenches in depth of six (6) feet or more in all made or treacherous soil, or near large buildings, shall be properly braced and the party excavating, and his bondsmen, shall be liable for all damages arising by reason of any neglect in this respect.

Section 14. LICENSED PLUMBER AND DRAIN LAYER RESPONSIBLE FOR DAMAGES.—The licensed plumber or drafter who connects with the public sewer shall be held responsible on his bond for any damage he may cause to the sewers, public streets or alleys. He shall restore the streets or alleys, to the satisfaction of the Sewer Commissioner and make good any settlement of ground or pavement caused by the excavation made by said plumber or drain layer under or by virtue of any permit issued under the provisions of this ordinance. In the event of settling within one year after being refilled the Sewer Commissioner shall have the right and it shall be his duty to demand and require the restoration by the party who made the excavation.

Section 15. ORD DRAINAGE COMPANY SEWER SYSTEM.—The Ord Drainage Company was paid in cash from the Electric Fund, for their sewer system, and to repay the purchase price and interest thereon to the Electric Fund, annual service charges will be made to all those connected with the sewer system at the time of its purchase. The said annual service charge shall be paid in advance during the month of December for the following calendar year and the amount of the charge shall be two-thirds (2-3) of the amount paid annually to the Ord Drainage Company, at the time of the purchase by the City of the said sewer system, which amounts are on file in the office of the City Clerk of this city. This annual service charge shall be collected for four successive years, after which time no charge shall be made. The first annual payment shall be made in December, 1938. A failure to pay the service charge above provided for, on or before February 1, after due, shall authorize and make it the duty of the Sewer Commissioner to disconnect the sewer service to said patron in default. If said patron desires to connect again with said sewer service he shall pay up all delinquencies and all the cost of disconnecting and reconnecting before such service shall be reconnected. For convenience, this sewer so acquired shall be known as "Ord Drainage Company Sewer System" or "Ord Drainage Company addition to City Sewer System."

Section 16. ADDITIONAL CONNECTIONS TO "ORD DRAINAGE COMPANY SEWER SYSTEM".—No additional connections shall be permitted on L street to the Ord Drainage Company Sewer System. On this street all future connections must be made to the Ord Storm and Sanitary sewer which has been constructed on this street. Connections may be made to said Ord Drainage Company Sewer System, on other streets, on securing a permit, as above provided and the permission of the Sewer Commissioner and also making a payment of $20.00 to the City for each connection. Those paying such 20.00 fee for such connection shall not be charged the annual service charge herein provided for.

Section 17. VIOLATION PENALTY.—Any person, firm or corporation which shall be found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or who shall fail or neglect to comply with any of such provisions shall, on conviction thereof, be fined not less than Ten Dollars nor more than Fifty Dollars for each offense, and in default of payment thereof shall be adjudged to stand committed to the City Jail until such fine and costs of prosecution be paid, secured or otherwise discharged according to law.

Section 18. REPEAL OF PRIOR ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT.—All ordinances and parts of ordinances passed and approved prior to the passage and approval of this ordinance and in conflict therewith are hereby repealed, but nothing herein shall be construed as repealing Ordinance Number 92 of this city.

Section 19. WHEN OPERATIVE.—This ordinance shall be in full force and take effect from and after its passage, approval and publication according to law. Passed and approved this 2nd day of December, 1938.

Munn & Norman, Attorneys. NOTICE OF HEARING FOR DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP. In the County Court of Valley County, Nebraska. In the Matter of the Estate of William H. Wygent, Deceased.

NOTICE OF HEARING. The State of Nebraska: To all persons interested in said estate, creditors and heirs take notice, that Nancy M. Covert has filed her petition in said court alleging that William H. Wygent died intestate in the City of Ord, Nebraska, on or about December 23rd, 1935, being a resident and inhabitant of the City of Ord, Nebraska, and the owner in fee of the following described real estate, to-wit: The Northwest Quarter of Section 20 in Township 19 North of Range 13 West of the 6th Principal Meridian, Valley County, Nebraska.

Lot 8 in Block 32 of the Original Township of the City of Ord, Valley County, Nebraska. And a tract of land described as follows: Beginning at the Southwest corner of said Lot 8 and running thence North 117 feet to the Northeast corner of said Lot 8; thence East 40 feet to the East line of Section 21 in Township 19 North of Range 14 West of the 6th Principal Meridian, Valley County, Nebraska; thence South on the section line 117 feet; thence West 40 feet to the place of beginning.

Leaving as his sole and only heirs at law the following named persons, to-wit: Nancy M. Covert, a daughter.

That said petitioner is a daughter of the Deceased. And praying for determination of the time of the death of said decedent, determination of the heirs of said decedent, the degree of kinship and the right of descent of the real property belonging to said decedent, for a decree barring claims and demands; that said decedent died intestate; that no application for administration has been made and no Administrator has been appointed in Nebraska and the estate of said decedent has not been administered in the State of Nebraska, and that the heirs at law of said decedent as herein set forth shall be decreed to have succeeded to the ownership in fee simple of the above described real estate.

Said matter has been set for hearing before me on the 27th day of December, A. D. 1938, at the hour of 10 o'clock, A. M., of said day, in the county court room at Ord, Nebraska. Dated at Ord, Nebraska, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1938.

Munn & Norman, Attorneys. ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. In the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska. In the matter of the application of Emil R. Fafelta, Administrator, for license to sell real estate. Now on this 5th day of December, 1938, this cause came on for hearing upon the Application under oath of Emil R. Fafelta, Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth Carson, Deceased, praying for a license to sell the following described real estate, to-wit: An undivided one-third interest in and to Lot 5 in Block 9 of the Original Township of the City of Ord, Valley County, Nebraska, or so much thereof as may be necessary to bring the sum of $1,245.20 for the payment of the debts of said Estate and the costs of administration for the reason that there is not a sufficient amount of personal property in the possession of said Administrator belonging to said Estate to pay said debts and expenses. It is therefore Ordered that all persons interested in said Estate appear before either of the Judges of the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska, in the District Court Room in the Courthouse on the 9th day of January, 1939, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M., or as soon thereafter as the matter can be heard to show cause, if any there be, why a license should not be granted to the said Emil R. Fafelta to sell so much of said real estate hereinbefore described belonging to the said Estate of Elizabeth Carson, Deceased, as may be necessary to pay said debts and expenses. It is further Ordered that a copy of this Order be served upon all persons interested in said Estate by causing the same to be published three consecutive weeks in The Ord Quiz, a legal weekly newspaper printed and published in Valley County, Nebraska. Committees Named By Pres. Kovanda For Chamber Work

Klima Again Heads Important Roads Committee, Pearson Leads Member Drive.

Ign. Klima, jr., again heads the important highway committee which was so active in 1938 and which will have plenty of work to do in 1939, on the list of committees for Chamber of Commerce work appointed last week by President J. A. Kovanda. He will have as associates Dr. J. W. McGinnis, Edward Kokes, Ralph W. Norman, C. J. Mortensen and Ed Gnaster.

This is the largest committee appointed by President Kovanda, who believes that during the coming year Ord should make every effort to bring about completion and hard surfacing of No. 11 highway all the way from Burwell to St. Paul, secure a gravelled road to Ericson and work toward other highway improvements.

Another important committee is that on membership, which is headed by Hilding Pearson and has as members Syl Furtak, Rex Jewett, Adam Dubas and Ed Michalek. A membership drive will start soon and the Chamber hopes to push its membership from about 90 to a point well over the 100 mark.

Other committees named by President Kovanda are: Rural Relations—Bert Cummins, chairman; Frank Piskorski, Fred Coe, E. S. Murray, Bob Cook. Irrigation Committee—Carl Dale, chairman; Dr. F. A. Barta, William Sack, H. T. Frazier, O. E. Johnson.

Civic Improvements—Gould Flagg, chairman; Clarence Davis, Ed Beranek, John Andersen, Alfred Hill. Entertainment Committee—Tom Springer, chairman; Dr. F. L. Blessing, John Misko. Retail Committee—Jay Auble, chairman; Leroy Frazier, Ross Lakin, Bill Dargatz, L. V. Kokes.

Christmas committee—Vern Russell, chairman; George Allen, Fred Cahill, Dr. J. G. Kruml, Dr. F. J. Osentowski. Publicity—E. C. Leggett.

Cosmopolitans Hear Miller and Kovanda

At the regular meeting of the Ord Cosmopolitan club at the City Cafe Monday evening, the members listened to the reading of a detailed article by Capt. A. F. Miller on the subject of Washington crossing the Delaware. Capt. Miller is the new operator of the Kleinholz Oil company station.

J. A. Kovanda, new president of the Chamber of Commerce, met with the club and asked the cooperation of the members. Said Mr. Kovanda: "The Chamber of Commerce is the only organization that can represent the entire city of Ord, and while other organizations are active, the importance of the Chamber of Commerce must not be overlooked." The Cosmopolitans heartily agreed and pledged the chamber their support.

Soren Jensen Transferred.

Soren Jensen, son-in-law of Archie Bradt of Ord, will be the PWA inspector in charge of work on the Ord school addition and the Ord public library to be built soon with PWA funds. Mr. Jensen also will supervise construction of the Grand Island city hall and swimming pool, waterworks improvements at Giltner and Duncan, and auditoriums at Hampton and Spalding, all of which are being built with PWA aid. The Jensen family now live in Broken Bow but will move to Grand Island early in January.

Rex Jewett Chosen As New Scoutmaster

REX JEWETT.

Monday evening members of the Rotary club, who are sponsors of Boy Scout work in Ord, unanimously selected Rex Jewett as new scoutmaster and he has accepted the position, succeeding Ralph Misko who resigned effective Jan. 1. Rex will be assisted by Wilmer Anderson, who also was assistant scoutmaster under Misko, and by another assistant to be selected by vote of the Scouts.

Christmas Shoppers Come From Distance

Christmas shopping has been bringing an unusual number of visitors from a distance this year, as a check-up of car numbers one day last week proved. At 2:00 p. m. Wednesday it was found that there were a total of 59 out county and out state cars parked in the vicinity of the square. These cars came from fifteen counties and the states of Oregon, Wyoming, Montana, Colorado, California, and Iowa.

Alaska Merchant Was Ord Visitor Sunday

O. G. Hillman of Hoonah, Alaska, arrived in Ord Sunday for an overnight visit with his cousin, W. A. Anderson, whom he had not seen for several years. Mr. Hillman is a merchant in his Alaska home town, dealing, judging from his business card, in nearly everything. He was going to St. Louis to dispose of a bale of furs which he had bought from the Indians and trappers, taking them in exchange for goods. He also deals heavily in Standard Oil Co. products, having his own large boat which he uses in trading along the coast. He was also going to visit Kansas City, Memphis, Tenn.; New Orleans and western coast cities on this trip. He visited a sister at Theford, has a brother near Scotia, will also visit a brother in Arkansas and another sister in Oregon on his way home. He was born on a farm southeast of Scotia but when he was fifteen years of age he left home and has been on his own since. He promised his cousin Mr. Anderson that he would try to come here in the spring for a longer visit.

Four Burwell Men Drive Car Shipment

Guy Anderson of Burwell, accompanied by George Iwanski, Alex Chambers and John Carman, came to Ord this Wednesday morning, unloaded a car of four new Plymouths, and are driving them back this afternoon. Mr. Dale Bredthauer is the Plymouth dealer there.

Townsend Club Meets.

The Townsend Recovery act club met Friday evening at the American Legion hall. It was a good evening, and there was a good attendance. The club served coffee and doughnuts to all who came.

Basketball Scores.

The following results of Tuesday evening games have been reported to the Quiz: North Loups first team met defeat at Elba by a score of 33 to 9, while the second team lost by a score of 15 to 4. On the Burwell floor the Burwell team met defeat at the hands of the Comstock team, the final score being 27 to 15. The second team score was not reported.

Dan Webster Is Improving.

J. P. (Dan) Webster, former publisher of the St. Paul Photograph and now postmaster at St. Paul, is reported to be improving from a heart attack suffered last Wednesday, though he is still a very sick man. Mr. Webster is the father of Mrs. Ed Gnaster of Ord and has many friends throughout Valley county.

Mrs. Will Kokes and children Dorothy and Donnie plan to leave soon for Washington, D. C., where they will make their home in the future. She plans to run a boarding house. The sale of her household goods is being advertised in the Quiz this week, to be held Dec. 27.

A 7 1/4 pound boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Keller Tuesday evening, Dr. C. W. Weeks in attendance.

Victor Johns of Garfield County Passes Suddenly

Veteran Commissioner Was In Good Health So Death Great Shock to Friends.

Friends and neighbors were greatly shocked Thursday when it was reported that Victor Johns, prominent farmer of the Garfield county territory north of Ord, had died suddenly at his home. His death came almost without warning, as he had been in good health until shortly before the end came. He was a man of large acquaintance and held the respect and esteem of all who knew him.

Victor Johns was born to Henry Thomas Johns and Esther Springstead Johns, December 14, 1876, near Eureka, Kas., and passed away December 15, 1938 at his home in Garfield county, Neb., one day after his 62nd birthday. When he was still quite young he moved with his parents to Nebraska, locating on a homestead 4 1/2 miles southeast of Burwell, where he grew to manhood.

His entire life was spent in and near Burwell with the exception of 3 years spent in Kimball county. On April 25, 1904 he was united in marriage to Ellen Marie Vandlund and to them three children were born: Everett L., Chester F., and Dorothy Marie.

Mr. Johns served four years as county commissioner of Garfield county and was elected at the last election to serve another term in the same office. Most of his life was spent in farming and stock raising.

He was a moral upright man, a kind, loving husband and father and was highly respected by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter, one brother, Harry, of Burwell, two sisters, Rita Brown, of Denver, Colo., and Lulu Kent, of Burwell, two grandchildren, five nieces and three nephews.

Funeral services were held in the Burwell Congregational church Sunday afternoon, Dec. 18 at 2 o'clock with Rev. Shelby J. Light in charge. A mixed chorus composed of Mrs. Arthur Langstrom, Mrs. Glen Runyan, L. J. Garrjson and Lloyd Alderman sang. Burial was made in the Burwell cemetery.

Mrs. A. L. Fisher Dies At Rochester, Minn.

To O. E. Johnson, Union Pacific agent in Ord, came word by telegraph of the death Tuesday morning at Rochester, Minn., of Mrs. A. L. Fisher, wife of the regular telegraph operator at the depot here. Mrs. Fisher and her husband went to Rochester on Dec. 12, hoping that the former could get relief from an illness which had kept her bedfast nearly all of the past several months. Whether or not she underwent operative treatment at Rochester was not stated in the telegram sent Tuesday by Mr. Fisher. The death was a great shock to Ord friends.

The body of Mrs. Fisher is being brought to Loup City, her old home, today and funeral services will be held there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jennings of Coeur d'Alene, Ida., are spending a few days in Ord visiting Mrs. Jennings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Collins. Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, who formerly lived in Ord, were on their way to visit their daughter in Iowa.

Former North Loup Young Man Drowns

Percy C. Sample, 22 years old, formerly of North Loup, was drowned near Emmett, Ida., Saturday evening, Dec. 10, when the coupe in which he and a companion were riding left the road and went into the waters of the Black Canyon reservoir. The radiator of the car was seen by a truck driver who called the sheriff.

When the car was pulled from the water the two bodies were found inside. They had been on their way to Horseshoe Bend to get the other man's wife and children when the accident occurred. He is survived by his mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elliot, and a sister, Elma Thode, all of Emmett, where funeral services were held Tuesday, Dec. 13.

Mrs. Klanecky Died Of a Heart Ailment

Funeral services were held Sunday, Dec. 11 for Mrs. Ed Klanecky, of Littleton, Colo., who passed away from a heart ailment. She was formerly Alice Sedlacek, a daughter of John Sedlacek, sr., who was at the Klanecky home at the time of his daughter's death.

She was married to Ed Klanecky about twenty years ago and to them four children, three boys and a girl, were born, all of whom survive. They made their home in this section until a year ago last spring, when they moved to Colorado.

Mrs. Klanecky passed away at their Littleton home Thursday, Dec. 8. Attending the funeral services from Ord were Joe Sedlacek, Mrs. James Sedlacek, John Sedlacek, jr., and William Klanecky. A sister, Mrs. James Vandas of Hadam, Kas., was also in attendance. The Klaneckys have a large circle of acquaintances here who extend their condolences to the grief stricken family.

Biamond Gives Free Xmas Show For All Children

As a Christmas treat for the children, Manager M. Biamond of the Ord Theatre will give a free show Saturday morning, Dec. 24, between the hours of 10:30 and 12 o'clock, and invites all children including 8th graders to be his guests. A feature, "Penrod and His Twin Brother," and a comedy, "Case of the Stuttering Pig," will be the offering.

Forrest Watson Leases Sinclair Gas Station

A few days ago Forrest Watson leased the Sinclair station on the northeast corner of the square, formerly operated by Vern Porter, and has been busy since painting and redecorating the station and equipment inside and out. Sinclair products will be sold by Mr. Watson, who will hold his formal opening Saturday, Dec. 24. A guessing contest with 20 valuable free prizes is being held in connection with the opening.

Will Open New Restaurant.

Of interest to Ord friends is the opening of the restaurant on the hill at the southeast corner of Ord, in the future to be known as "The Onyx," by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lloyd Johnson, of Grand Island. The building has been completely redecorated and well equipped to serve a discriminating clientele. Parties and clubs will be especially favored. Mr. Johnson is a World War veteran, being a construction engineer while overseas, and Mrs. Johnson is said to be an expert cook.

Helping Santa Claus With His Annual Chores

Doing some of the heavy work for Santa Claus this week are the Ord mail carriers, both city and rural, as proved by the photograph of John Lemmon, above, taken Monday. Other carriers have had equally heavy loads of Christmas packages every day this week. Incoming mail this winter is about on a par with last Christmas but outgoing mail has been somewhat lighter, according to Postmaster Hill.—Quiz Photo.

Walter Waterman, 73, Passes Away At Home In Ord

Half Century Resident of The County Is Dead; Funeral To Be Thursday.

Following two years of poor health Walter Waterman, resident of Valley county fifty years and of Ord since 1930, passed away at home Tuesday morning at the age of 73 years, 5 months and 20 days. He lived to be the last of his generation, a family of four brothers and two sisters. His final illness began about Dec. 1, culminating in pulmonary pneumonia.

Walter Edwin Waterman was born June 30, 1865, at Arcata, N. Y. In the year 1866 he came with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli W. Waterman to Prophetstown, Ill., and in 1875 they came to Otoe county, Neb., living for a time near the town of Syracuse. When 15 years of age he and his brother Ben came to Valley county by covered wagon, settling with their parents on a timber claim two miles southeast of the old townsite of Vinton.

Febr. 1, 1889, Mr. Waterman was united in marriage to Elsie Thunson of Ord, and to this union three sons and one daughter were born. They are: Spencer A., Archie C., Dolis E., and Russel L. They, with two grandchildren, Donald Richard and Marvin Lee and several nieces and nephews are left to mourn his passing.

The family spent 41 years on the farm southeast of Ord, where the children were born and grew to maturity. In 1930 Mr. Waterman retired and moved to Ord which has been his home since that time. In 1936 his health began to fail and he had been confined to his home much of the time since then.

Plans for the funeral are practically complete. The services will be held tomorrow, Thursday, afternoon at 2:00 from the Frazier chapel. The pallbearers will be S. I. Willard, Ivan Bots, John L. Andersen, Noble Ralston, George Round and Ralph Hatfield. Mrs. Edith Jones and Mrs. Hans Anderson will have charge of the flowers. Burial will be made in the Ord cemetery.

Pulliam to Referee the No. Platte Game

Dick Pulliam, of Grand Island, has been named by Ord school officials as referee of the Ord-North Platte basketball game to be played in Ord tonight, and his selection was confirmed by North Platte officials. Pulliam is probably the finest referee working inter-scholastic games in Nebraska this season. He also is on the roster of officials approved by Nebraska college athletic associations and by the Missouri Valley and Big 6 university conferences. Last week at Lincoln Pulliam refereed the Nebraska-South Dakota game. Pulliam has refereed in Ord many times before and fans know that although he calls fouls very closely his decisions are always correct and that he is fair to both teams.

A. C. Wheeler, Former Ord Resident, Is Dead

Allen Comstock Wheeler, son of Allen C. Wheeler, sr., was born near Blue Springs, Gage county, Neb., July 15, 1869, and died at Topeka, Kas., Nov. 27, 1938, at the age of 69 years, 4 months and 12 days. He lived most of his life in Jefferson county, Neb., and Washington county, Kas. As a boy he attended school during the winter, and later attended Campbell college at Holton, Kas.

He leaves to mourn his passing besides his wife, three children, Mrs. Edith Wells of Lincoln, Neb., Mrs. Vera of Kansas City, and Ernest, of Dorchester, Neb. Two sons, Robert and Leslie, preceded him in death. There are six grand children, Leslie, jr., of San Antonio, Tex., Rae, Yvonne and Billie Wheeler and Richard and Don Wells.

He leaves also four sisters, Mrs. J. E. Livingston and Mrs. A. N. Hoffman of Mahaska, Kas., Mrs. John Green of Hubbard, Ore., and Mrs. J. B. Ellsworth of Macon, Mo. He was in charge of the telephone system in Ord for a number of years, and made many friends while here. He was a kind and loving husband and father, and will be greatly missed by his friends and neighbors who knew him.

Creamery's Volume Off; 2c Dividend Paid on Butterfat

Short Pastures, Few Cows, Low Price Blamed for Drop; New Plans Discussed.

Stockholders of the Ord Cooperative Creamery, meeting at the K. of P. hall Thursday afternoon, learned that the creamery's volume of business for 1938 was considerably under that of 1937 but that a 2c patronage dividend would be paid on each pound of butterfat bought by the creamery during the year. Total of patronage and stock dividends was $6,232.56.

Short pastures because of continued drought years and the scarcity of good milk cows in Valley county were principal factors in the creamery's loss of volume, it was stated by Manager Fred W. Coe in a prepared address. Another factor was the low price of butterfat prevailing during the year, which meant that overrun could not be sold so profitably.

Highest producer among the Ord creamery's patrons was C. W. Noll, who with the aid of Mrs. Noll marketed 4,493.3 lbs. of butterfat during the year. Next highest were McLain Brothers with 3,671.6 and after them, in order, came Cash Weiniak, Wm. Tobin, Clyde Athey, Ben Maly, F. J. Shokoski, James Sample, John Lech and R. G. Desmul.

A decreasing volume of raw material has been evident in the creamery's business ever since 1934 Manager Coe stated. The creamery, like all businesses, has fixed overhead charges for labor, insurance, depreciation, interest on the stock, etc., that remain almost constant. Therefore, profits cannot be as large with a small volume as in years when the creamery operates at near-capacity, he pointed out.

The Ord creamery has, in some years, manufactured and sold more than one-half million pounds of butter. This year the total was about 300,000 lbs., or 40 per cent less than in some former years.

Cost of doing business also has increased, due principally to new federal taxes, Manager Coe explained. He cited the 3 per cent unemployment insurance tax on pay-rolls and the 1 per cent tax on pay-rolls for old age assistance. Due to rate fixing by the state railway commission, trucking costs on butter also have increased to the extent of 1-4c per pound, he pointed out.

In spite of the federal government's policy of buying butter to "peg" or hold up the price, there now exists the largest surplus of butter the industry has ever known Coe said. He believes the solution lies in the dairy industry doing more advertising to point out the great food value of butter and other dairy products. "If each person in the United States would eat one more pound of butter annually the problem of over-production would be solved, at least for a few years" he stated.

Here in Valley county the Ord Cooperative Creamery is cooperating with other organizations to increase the number of good dairy cows and also to improve the quality of dairy cows. A total of 105 Holstein calves have been shipped in from the Northfield, Minn., region for calf club work and this program may be expanded. Also, high-grade dairy bulls have been bought for cooperative use in an effort to create more high-producing cows in the county. Two bulls are in service now and three more will be in service by February. Services of these bulls are available to members of the cooperative creamery association at very nominal cost. Another way in which the Ord creamery is helping, it was pointed out at the meeting Thursday, is by stocking an excellent brand of cream separator and selling them at reasonable prices and on installment payments to members. Many separators in Valley county are worn out and the financial condition of farmers has been such that they could not buy new separators.

Mrs. Ellsworth Ball Wins Crochet Prize

E. L. Kokes, secretary of the Valley county fair, recently received a list of the winners in the second national crochet contest, in which the work of Mrs. Ellsworth Ball was good enough to give her honorable mention. This work was entered in the contest by the Valley county fair. Only three other women from Nebraska won this honor.

Mrs. Ball's work was in the fashion accessories class. Mrs. Pearl Johnson of Lincoln won honorable mention in the dress or blouse class, Mrs. Leland Woodley of Spalding was mentioned twice in the dollies or scarfs class and in the chair set class, and Mrs. W. B. Mullen of West Point was mentioned in the edgings class. This is a great honor to Mrs. Ball, and one she well deserves.

Kindergarten and Grade Students Offer Enjoyable Christmas Program Friday Evening

With an overflow crowd of fond parents, relatives and other patrons of the Ord schools present, children of the kindergarten and lower grades presented an interesting and enjoyable program at the high school auditorium Friday evening, scenes from which are shown above. A selection from Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," was played as a prologue by the high school orchestra under Professor Duncan's direction and then came the song, "Santa Claus Is Coming to Town," sung by eighteen kindergarten and first grade children. An operetta, "The Toys that Had to Wait," directed by Misses Ludlow, Hallen, Swanson and Buck" was the next feature, principals being Santa Claus, Phyllis Anderson as Mrs. Santa and Janis Blessing as the fairy queen. Choruses of fairies, nurse dolls, jumping jacks, soldiers, candy kids, clowns and balloons made their appearance on the stage. Jeannice and Jeannine Fox, as Dutch dolls, and Jackie Shunkweiter and Eva Maurice as negro dolls also appeared.

"Yuletide Echoes," by the high school orchestra, comprised Part 3 of the program, and then came a pageant, "Christmas Night," by Grades 3 to 6, directed by Misses Eberspacher, Swain, Bowtal, Finley, Schneider and Mr. Eddy. Principals were Marilyn O'Neal, as Mary, Larry Davis as Joseph, Martin Piskorski, Donald Habig and Joe Lola as the shepherds, Jack McBeth, Tommy Tolen and Joe Cita as the wise men. A total of 296 children took part in the Christmas program, which was one of the best ever given in Ord.—Photos by The Quiz.

CAR INSPECTION.

It now begins to appear that the state is really getting down to business in enforcing the motor vehicle inspection law.

"After Jan. 1, 1939, owners of motor vehicles not displaying inspection stickers will be operating in violation of the statute.

"The law also provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to drive or move or permit to be driven or moved on any highway in this state any motor vehicle without a certificate of inspection.

"Under the law it is the duty of all law enforcement agencies including the Nebraska Safety Patrol to check violations.

"The 1938 state inspection sticker is valid until June 1, 1939. After that date all motor vehicles in the state must carry a 1939 state inspection sticker in order to be in compliance with the law."

Since the initiation of the law, inspection stations have been established in 47 cities in 39 counties in the state.

Car owners in Valley county would have to choose between Broken Bow and Grand Island, the two nearest official stations.

But Valentine for example, has to choose between Gordon, about 90 miles to the west, Wausa, 150 miles to the east, or Broken Bow, 100 miles to the south.

A checkup of the location of cars shows that 90% of all car owners in the state live within 30 miles of an official inspection station.

THE SHIPMENT PROBLEM.

In spite of the improvements made throughout the centuries in methods of transportation, commerce still remains one of the major problems with which we all must cope.

The same idea is used in the modern infantry when traveling under full pack. It is survival of the day when every man was sufficient unto himself and provided the articles needed for his own existence, or got along without them.

Prehistoric man went out after the food he needed, and brought it to his cave, where he and his family had much or little, depending on the luck he had that day.

Next perhaps came the transportation of goods by horse or camel back. A later method was the sled. Then came the wagon, and slightly more than a century ago, the railroad.

By water the dugout canoe probably came first, the birch bark canoe later, followed by the larger boats, and finally by sailing ships and steam ships.

Speedy transportation has been achieved, but we still have the great problem of how to transport bulky commodities over long distance with a minimum of expense.

For example it costs more to transport a carload of lumber from Oregon to Nebraska than the lumber costs in the first place. It costs more to haul a truckload of baled hay 200 miles than the hay costs in the first place, yet this hay has no more feeding value than it had where it was grown.

Water transportation is remarkably cheap, and for this reason beef and popcorn from the Argentine are shipped to America and sold here for less than it costs the American farmer to raise them.

Cheaper transportation in America would do much to eliminate the foreign competition and keep the business at home.

GIFT TO GOOD CAUSE.

Mr. and Mrs. Waite Phillips, of Tulsa, Okla., recently made a real contribution to the cause of the Boy Scouts of America when they gave to the organization 35,857 acres of land a few miles northwest of Cimarron, N. M., and $50,000 in cash to be used in improving and developing the land for camping purposes.

This land is located in Colfax county, thirty miles from the north line of New Mexico and seventy miles from the east line, and while unsuited for farming purposes, is ideal for the purpose to which it will be put by the Boy Scouts.

Much of this land is still virgin territory, and under Boy Scout management that part which has been used for grazing purposes will soon revert to natural conditions again.

The fact that it is a part of the territory over which Kit Carson traveled in the old days makes it of special interest. The old Santa Fe trail passes through it and makes it accessible to the outside world.

No doubt in the years to come it will be used for a National Encampment ground by the Scouts organization, and will be another point of interest for tourists from all parts of the country.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE.

At the present time a federal grand jury is investigating the activities of one Albert N. Chaperau, foreign born film importer.

His correspondence has been seized by federal agents, and it led directly to a number of movie stars, who have been purchasing jewelry which Chaperau managed to get into the country free of duty.

It further appears that the purchasers knew they were buying smuggled jewelry, which makes them equally guilty.

Summoned to New York George Burns, husband of Grace Allen, solemnly entered a plea of guilty, answered all newspapermen's questions with "no comment," and fled back to California by plane.

Believe it or not, he was not even asked to give bail for his appearance later. Because he is a big shot in the radio world, it was not considered necessary, as he would lose too much if he failed to put in an appearance.

Judge William Bondy postponed sentencing Burns until after the Chaperau trial, although he entered a plea of guilty and is subject to maximum penalties of 18 years imprisonment and fines totaling $45,000.

He is well able to put up bail in any reasonable amount, but this humiliation is spared him. A poor man probably would not be guilty of smuggling jewelry, because it takes money.

But over the thing that hurts! The poor manufacturer is required to put up bail, and if he cannot raise the amount, he remains in jail until the day of trial.

If he enters a plea of guilty, he is sentenced at once. It is just such cases as that of George Burns that make a mockery of our courts, where all are supposed to be treated alike, but where there is one standard for the rich and another for the poor.

Indicted with Burns is Mrs. Edgar J. Lauer, wife of a supreme court justice. She has been indisposed, and has not yet been arraigned. But no armed guard parades in front of her home. Justice awaits her convenience.

When she finds time, she will go to court and enter a plea and then go back home to her social obligations until the court decides what shall be done in her case. It is certainly fine to be rich and socially prominent!

IT HAPPENED IN ORD.

These didn't exactly happen in Ord, but they are of interest. Friends of Col. E. C. Weller of Atkinson are of the opinion that he is a bigger man than his cousin, Capt. R. E. Weller, head of the state highway patrol.

They have good reason for thinking so, for anybody knows a colonel is a bigger man than a mere captain.

K. W. Peterson came into the office Friday carrying a big rock and had the force buffaloe at first, until he explained that he brought it in to show the kind of bouquets strike sympathizers were throwing at the truckers who are trying to earn an honest living.

It seems that Nebraska is no longer "the land of the free," although it still must be "the home of the brave."

We Have Both Kinds.

There are two kinds of people in the world, says Hendrick Van Loon. After a flood one kind of a man says: "I'll wade through the flood and help my neighbor save his horse." The other kind says: "Good—I'll sneak over and steal his cow."

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

When I was lots younger than I am now and studied South American geography, we called it Lima just like it is spelled. Now the radio announcers call it "Lema" but it is still spelled in the newspapers just as it always was.

It is funny sometimes when one gets enamored of some prominent and successful business man, actor, radio star, only to find, later, that the admired one is made of the commonest kind of clay.

Anyhow, regardless of what the county board does to him, George Gowen admits that he is getting old.

State Senator Schultz of Antelope county proposes to lead a fight to kill the present law, going into effect January 1, to force every car owner to submit to a car test.

Senator Schultz is a level-headed business farmer and no doubt has public sentiment gauged correctly. A return of good crops would soon solve the car testing matter, by owners of old cars changing to new ones or at least better cars.

He said, also, when he lived in Germany a person was limited on the amount of meat he could butcher. One could butcher his quota and besides that the animals' products were sold. They were inspectors around watching to see if everyone behaved by not eating too much.

One Must Get the Milk Before He Can Sell It. Charley Otto, living near North Loup, has a herd of about twenty Holstein milk cows and he has selected and saved them for a good many years but has had a little different method than many men.

The first point that Charley considers is whether the cow is of a good disposition or not and an easy milker. He thinks that a kicking cow or nervous, wild dispositioned one, is apt to have a calf of the same disposition.

Every cow of that group. Of course Charley gives thought to the milk producing qualities or the record behind the sires he buys, but he believes that a quiet dispositioned cow will give more milk than the wild one, under other equal conditions and even if she don't, the extra milk that a nervous cow gives is not worth the trouble of extracting it.

Toads. A little item in the paper yesterday told of some men who were digging at Lincoln and digging up a nest of toads out of the hard dry dirt, as if it was something wonderful.

This is not a new thought to me. A few years ago while I was digging a ditch six feet deep to my well on the hill, I unearthed hundreds of toads out of ground that had never before been dug, and from earth that was so dry and hard that we had to pick it loose.

I never had the scientific phenomena explained to me of these toads. They apparently had been buried there for many months waiting perhaps for a wet time, when they might dig out.

Although it was hot and dry (we have that kind of weather here sometimes) those toads seemed as lively and mature as if it was a rainy spell, such as the old timers talk about. There were no pollywogs or growing up stage. They were just there. Just hopped out of the hard dirt, several feet below the surface.

Short Shavings.

In S. O. S., the other day, Gus Wetzel said he heard over the radio shortly after eleven o'clock a. m. of Philip Musica killing himself, when actually his death occurred at 12:05 p. m. And Gus is not a man to tell whoppers either.

I was told by a garage man that getting one's car inspected and O. V. d is sometimes difficult and some cars not. This man said there are a number of stories about men getting turned down by one inspecting station and then driving to another and getting passed. Also they say one might get turned down one day and go back to the same station a couple of days later and his car passed easily, and nothing having been done to the car in the meantime.

Many people are not getting them tested, feeling they cannot drive to G. L. for it. Others say they are going to drive until they are stopped and then junk their car. Some say the examination is difficult; others say it is easy.

Andrew Christensen of Dannewirk was telling Roy Williams that he has been to most all the sales this fall in this section, and he says that for the most part, the machinery is selling much better

A FEW THINGS TO THINK ABOUT!

Written by GEORGE GOWEN

Might Help Farmers. Frank Lethenthal, the cheese maker at N. L. whose father was killed in the German army during the world war, lived in Germany during his boyhood with his uncle and during the hectic time of the inflation there.

He said that to go to the store and buy anything one had to take a whole wheelbarrow full of money along. You had to buy that very minute or hour and pay for it then at the price set. If you waited and came back the next day the price would be different.

He said his uncle built a new barn and had to mortgage it for 1,500 marks. He paid for it later, paying three times the amount of the mortgage and then settled for half price.

Frank said conditions finally got so if one wanted to buy a pair of shoes, he would go to the store and find how many bushels of rye or grain it would take to buy the shoes, then he would go home and get the produce and go back and trade.

In getting his permit to come over to U. S., there was a charge in one instance of $1.00 in American money. Frank paid 3,000,000 marks for it.

Frank said, this inflation did no one any good except a few people who were in debt.

He said, also, when he lived in Germany a person was limited on the amount of meat he could butcher. One could butcher his quota and besides that the animals' products were sold. They were inspectors around watching to see if everyone behaved by not eating too much.

There were no pollywogs or growing up stage. They were just there. Just hopped out of the hard dirt, several feet below the surface.

In S. O. S., the other day, Gus Wetzel said he heard over the radio shortly after eleven o'clock a. m. of Philip Musica killing himself, when actually his death occurred at 12:05 p. m. And Gus is not a man to tell whoppers either.

I was told by a garage man that getting one's car inspected and O. V. d is sometimes difficult and some cars not. This man said there are a number of stories about men getting turned down by one inspecting station and then driving to another and getting passed. Also they say one might get turned down one day and go back to the same station a couple of days later and his car passed easily, and nothing having been done to the car in the meantime.

Many people are not getting them tested, feeling they cannot drive to G. L. for it. Others say they are going to drive until they are stopped and then junk their car. Some say the examination is difficult; others say it is easy.

Something Different

Everyone commented at the grade school Christmas program on how well trained was the chorus. I heard many say how much they enjoyed the chorus, several calling it the best trained group they had ever heard, and remarking on the perfection of the enunciation especially.

Phyllis Anderson as Mrs. Santa Claus made a great hit, when she missed her rocker and sat on the floor. And it fussed Phyllis not one bit.

It is too bad the acoustics in the high school auditorium are still such that many fine programs are spoiled for the audience. After teachers and children work faithfully for weeks on songs and speeches, it must be very disheartening to have a good deal of it turn out to be indistinguishable.

Several years ago the acoustics of the gym were improved considerably when some patent wall board was installed, but sound effects of the gym are not yet good. In the expensive new auditorium finished at Alliance the public finds the same flaw. Is it impossible for sound engineers to check over building plans and tell how the acoustics of a finished building will be? It must be so.

I am glad to see the former Ord State Bank building in use again. It was a handsome building, and seemed a shame to have it stand there empty.

Now if something modern would go into business on the former Milford store corner, Ord's business district would have its face lifted properly.

We need a number of eyesores removed from the odd corners of Ord, however. Perhaps we could import an impartial jury of business men from some other city, have them systematically comb Ord and report on all the old sheds, barns, unused and decrepit buildings that need tearing down. The jury could remain incognito, so that no ill will could possibly result, and a list of their findings could be published and perhaps with the sponsorship of some group such as the Chamber of Commerce, a campaign to abolish the eyesores might begin. We need it badly.

I think too that Ord needs to offer the people who come here to trade more inducement. We do not make enough fuss over them, or plan enough entertainment for our callers. We need free watermelon days, turkey flings, trap shooting contests, kiddy parades, hobby shows, free popcorn or pancakes, prizes for lucky tickets, dollar bargain days, free movies, guessing contest prizes, lighting contests at Christmas time, and many other features, at least six times yearly.

Then I feel sure Ord merchants need to keep larger stocks of many every day items. One day a year or so ago Grandpa Leggett wanted to buy a regular "boy" cap for Kerry Leggett, who was then four years old. In all Ord there was only one cap that size. Not long ago a member of the family wished to buy bedroom slippers for a girl, and one big Ord store had only one pair "all that came in this fall."

"No, no more for Christmas trade, either." How can Ord merchants expect us to trade here when they fail to offer these ordinary, staple items?

Perhaps the merchants will all quit speaking to me for venturing this public criticism, but how can we trade in Ord and help our fellow-neighbors and build up our town if they won't cooperate?

I will be glad to publish in this column any answers, Merchants! Here is your chance to put me in my place!

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Mr. H. D. Leggett, Ord, Nebr.

Dear Sir: We would like to subscribe for the Ord Quiz. Enclosed you will find a money order for two dollars.

We left Ord in 1935 and are now operating a filling station and garage here. We've put gas in a lot of Nebraska cars but we've never seen one from Valley county since we've been here.

We are located about 60 miles west of Jackson Hole, Wyo., and 30 miles south of the Yellowstone Park on Highway No. 33. We would sure like to see some Valley county folks stop here. The fishing and hunting are good here. There are a lot of moose, elk, deer and bear.

Our folks sent us a bunch of Ord Quiz's, it made us feel as if we'd visited with folks back there, so we are subscribing for the Ord Quiz and visit every week.

Sincerely yours, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donner, Newdale, Idaho.

Ord Woman a Model.

1738 Freeman Avenue, Long Beach, Calif. December 12, 1938.

To the Editor of the Quiz: I'm writing you a letter to put in the society items. At the last Ord Ladies' club I was very much interested in hearing Mrs. Sorenson tell of her experiences as a style model. She did some shopping at Moores Style Shop and a few days later they called her on the phone and asked her if she would model for them. She said she would try. So they sent her to Chapman's beauty parlor and she said when they finished her face and hair she hardly knew herself. She still had the hair dress and of course we all agreed how wonderful she must have looked, although Mary to all of us has always looked trim and beautiful.

The style show took place in the big Masonic Temple, and there were over five hundred society people there. I wasn't there—anyway I happen to know one of the ladies that was there and she said the lady that represented fifty years of age and a perfect forty bust was charming, graceful and very beautiful.

Now this is what Mary told us. Mary said, "Girls I tell you I certainly put in a day's work. First I was asked if I wanted a man designer. I asked them what I was to do. They said I would have to stand on a model stool and he would throw yards of goods around me and pin them on. I told them I would much rather have the ready to wear and a lady fitter. First I wore a street suit. I felt as if I had been melted and run into it, but it was a beautiful suit. Then I wore a negligee, of course they did not applaud me as much as the young girls. I wanted to see some of the people, but as I walked that plank from one end of that big hall to the other then back up the side aisle it was all I could do to keep steady and do the pivoting as they coached me. Girls, I never knew I would ever have to pivot but I did. At that I caught a glance now and then of the bright opera glasses and I knew I was on the spot.

"Next I wore an ensemble suit. It was gorgeous. Then came the beautiful dresses. I certainly enjoyed all of those as I've always loved beautiful clothes. But at last they said now here is the cocktail dress. Oh my, girls I wish you could have seen me pivot and waving the cocktail glass, just imagine me, but I thought I might as well see the thing through. Then the maid said, now Mrs. Sorenson, the last of the dozen costumes is an evening gown. She said I will massage your back with alcohol to prevent you from taking cold. Did I ever feel queer, no back in my dress at all, and really, girls, as I swayed along I felt like the evening had been a gay affair, and I was ready for home. Of course I was well paid for my work and they were well pleased, but I rushed home, took a hot bath and did I ever rub my arms and limbs with rubbing alcohol. But after all girls it was a great experience, but I'm here to say my modeling days are over."

"That night when I came from the Ord Ladies club and was standing in front of the glass looking myself over, Jonie looked up from his paper and asked, 'What's wrong? Do you think you are getting old?' I said, 'Jonie, I don't only think so I know so.'"

But at that I thought to myself well, Dollie, they might fix up your face and hair but great grief, your form.

Kit Carson and son Hugh were here to visit us, wanted Will Timm to go to their home in Hollywood and stay a week, but of course Bill is not well enough. Wish you all a Merry Xmas and prosperous New Year. Sincerely, Dollie Level

Editor's Note:—With her letter Mrs. Level inclosed two clippings, one telling of the marriage of Miss Grace Sorenson, daughter of Mrs. Rudolph Sorenson to Robert Woodman of Long Beach. The other telling that Mrs. Anna M. Cernik is suing her husband, Jerry Cernik, for divorce. She alleges that Mrs. Haysel Mitts of Idaho stole the love of her husband. She asks that her husband relinquish his interest in the property jointly owned by them. The Cerniks have two children, Richard Dean, 15, and Evelyn May, 19. They were married Aug. 22, 1908 and separated last Nov. 15.

Aerial Mapping of Valley County Completed, Map Will Soon Be in Use by Soil Conservation Office at the Court House

One of the most striking pictures ever published in the Quiz is this aerial photograph of Sections 4 and 5, 8 and 9, of Eureka Township, Valley county, printed through the courtesy of Charles Veleba, president, and C. C. Dale, secretary, of the AAA in Valley county.

Aerial mapping is the newest wrinkle, being much less expensive than ground mapping and also more accurate. Mistakes in government surveys, long undetected, are being revealed daily by the aerial mappers. Such work is going on all over the United States.

An Omaha firm has the contract to map Nebraska from the air and most of Valley county was photographed in July. This picture, however, was shot on Nov. 29, and is a replacement for an imperfect picture taken in July. A plane flew here from Lincoln on Nov. 29 and took four such pictures to complete the Valley county map, Veleba and Dale say.

Pictures are taken from a height of 14,000 feet with a newly developed automatic camera that snaps a picture every 15 seconds as the plane flies over the terrain. Almost three miles in the air, the plane is scarcely visible from the ground and few people have been aware that aerial mapping was in progress here.

Four sections of land are mapped in each photograph taken, which means that 144 pictures will be assembled to complete the map of Valley county which is 24 miles square and contains 576 sections. Resembling a section of the Rocky Mountains, the aerial picture printed above will give Quiz readers an idea of how hilly portions of this county actually are. The level land at the top of the picture, left, is part of the farm owned by Meyers & Manassil, of Burwell. Roads traversing this portion of Eureka township can be plainly seen, as can the farmsteads, tree plantings and even the haystacks. People familiar with this section of the county will have no difficulty in picking out landmarks.

Within 30 days, say Veleba and Dale, they will have all the pictures of Valley county for use in Soil Conservation work. Compliance of farmers with the AAA can be checked by these photographs, supplemented by the work of the ground crews.

An aerial map of the whole state will be assembled at Lincoln and of the entire United States at Washington, from photographs now being taken throughout the country.

GREEN GABLES THE DR. BENJAMIN F. BAILEY SANATORIUM Lincoln, Nebraska Benjamin F. Bailey, M. D. President and Chief of Staff May L. Managan, M. D. Vice Pres. and Asst. Chief of Staff

We are impelled once more to call the attention of our friends to Green Gables, the Dr. Benj. F. Bailey Sanatorium, now in its 33rd year. Located in the suburbs of Lincoln, in pleasant grounds of 25 acres, with thoroughly equipped buildings, making it possible to provide for the various departments which are necessary and helpful in any well organized sanatorium.

Our main building with its splendid operating department, provides for the care of medical, surgical and maternity cases. Rest Cottage, with its two fireproof buildings, provides for the care of mental and nervous conditions under the personal supervision of experienced psychiatrists. Limiting the number of patients in each department so that each one may have careful individual attention that can be given by our corps of ninety employees.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa: We are two little boys four and six years of age. For Christmas we would like a little train, a game of tiddle-winks, some books, and candy and nuts. We have been real good with a little bad mixed in. We love you, Santa, sincerely, Roger and Eugene Gebauer, Buhl, Idaho.

Dear Santa: We are two little boys, Roman, 7 years old and Everett, 6 years old. We want a little dragline and truck for Christmas, and our sister Lillian wants a set of dishes. Don't forget our baby brother as he wants a toy also. We are all good and do what mother and daddy tell us to. Please fill our stockings with candy and nuts. Roman and Everett Lech.

Dear Santa Claus: I want a train for Christmas, that is all. I am a very good little boy. My cousin, Joanni McGee wants a doll. Hoping Santa will have a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year, your little friend, Donnie F. Coleman.

Dear Santa: Please bring me an overnite bag, a saxophone and some candy. I am 7 years old. Jean Hanson.

Dear Santa: Please bring me a tractor, candy and nuts. Please hurry. Yours truthfully, Monte Lee Daily.

Dear Santa: Please bring me a cowboy suit and some rubber toys. I am four years old. Roger Hanson.

Dear Santa: I am a little girl three years old and I have a baby sister called Pauline Joyce who is one year old. I attend nursery school five days a week. Will you please bring me a doll buggy, rubber dolly and a little rocking chair? Please bring my little sister a dolly and some beaded toys. Please bring my mamma some house slippers and bring my daddy a warm jacket. I hope that you have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Your little friend, Betty Darlene Bleach.

Dear Santa: I have been a good boy, or tried hard enough. I am ten years old. I want a gun that will shoot darts, and a target. With love, Richard Marshall.

Dear Santa: I tried to be a good girl. Do you know what I want for Christmas? I want a screw pencil and a little telephone. I am in the 4th grade. Our teacher's name is Miss Smolik. I am nine years old. Please go and stop in the northwest where my brother is. Do not get lost in the snow. Your reindeers have to go fast to make a long way. On the blackboard we have a picture of you going up a chimney on the top of a house. The reindeers are there too. And the stars are shining. Please come to our program. It is going to be the 22nd. But before I forget I want some candy and peanuts. Your friend, Martha Okrzesa, Elyria, Nebr.

Dear Santa: Merry Christmas, Santa! I'll be seeing you soon. So when you come bring me a good boy's book I am eleven years old and I am in the sixth grade. My teacher's name is Miss Laura Sobon. Don't forget the poor children. Thank you. Your friend, Edward Tuma.

Dear Santa Claus: I feel fine, although I just came out of the hospital. I would like to have a football but you can give me anything you like fit for a boy ten years old and in the sixth grade. My teacher is Laura Sobon. I wish you a Merry Christmas, and I thank you. Your friend, Bernard Kusek.

Dear Santa: Merry Christmas, Santa. Is it very cold up there? It is warm here. Don't think we will have any snow for Christmas. For Christmas I want a cowboy suit. We are having lots of fun at school. Our teacher's name is Laura Sobon. I am in the sixth grade and eleven years old. Thank you. Your friend, Floyd Kusek.

Dear Santa: I am coming to see you Wednesday. I am in the fifth grade and am nine years old. My teacher is Miss Laura Sobon. I want a good girl story book for Christmas. I hope you don't forget some old people that can't write to you. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you! With lots of love, Vina Jean Blaha.

Dear Santa Claus: I am seven years old. I am in the third grade. My teacher is Miss Sobon. I want a play house that has red windows and blue boards, with chairs and tables and other things. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Your friend, Clara Kusek.

Dear Santa: I am a little girl ten years old and have a brother nine years old. He wants a train and I want a little doll that wets its pants. Lovingly yours Ida Mae and Ernest Christoffersen.

Dear Santa: Merry Christmas, Santa. I am nine years old and in the fifth grade. I was a good boy and I want a good book about cow-

Best Wishes for 1939

Well, friends, another year is drawing to a close and once again it is time for old Santa Claus to make his annual trip down from the North Pole. Just as important to us is the fact that the imminent arrival of the holidays gives us a chance to add our voice again to the chorus of: "Merry, merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

To every member of this association, and to all our friends near and far, we are happy to extend greetings of the season.

May Santa put in your stocking everything for which you have wished; may your Christmas table be laden with good things to eat; and last but not least, may 1939 be a happy, prosperous one for you.

Havoc Reigns on Ord Court as Comstock, Leading 23-15, Refuses to Finish Game

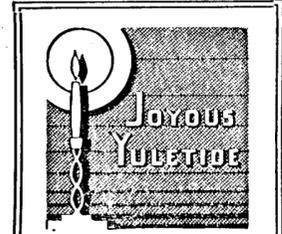

Coach Brockman's Ord high Chanticleers opened the 1938-39 basketball season last Friday night with a "bang" that is still reverberating up and down the valley. With only two minutes and 18 seconds left to play, Comstock's hard playing five left the floor, refusing to finish the game. The Comstock lads were leading Ord by a healthy 24 to 15 margin. Many tales are told of the proceedings that took place after the Comstock boys had announced their refusal to finish the game. Joe Weitzel, Broken Bow, refereed the game and according to the Comstock coach, Earl Dasher, too many unjust fouls were called on his team. A count from the box score shows that 14 fouls were called on the Chanticleers. During the excitement of the situation Mr. Dasher became angry and used the best part of a full vocabulary in telling what he thought of several Ord basketeers. A short time later however, he appeared in the Ord dressing room and made a full apology. It is not known yet who actually won the game. No ruling for the situation could be found in the rule books of the Nebraska State Athletic Association. If called upon to do so, the secretary of the association, Mr. Webb, will hand down a decision. It is generally conceded that the Comstock team lost the game by forfeit, giving the Ordsters a 2 to 0 win. Earl Dasher, Peru college graduate, is coaching his first year at Comstock.

Chanticleers Will Oppose North Platte

After nearly a week of intensive drill work, Coach Helmut Brockman's quintet will tackle their second opponent of the 1938-39 season tonight as they go against the touted North Platte five on the Ord court. Dick Pulliam of Grand Island will referee. Pulliam is one of the Midwest's finest officials and last week refereed the Nebraska-South Dakota game at Lincoln. North Platte, often called "Kings of the Southwest Conference," boasts an all-veteran outfit this year. Wednesday night the Platters will be out for Chanticleer blood, seeking revenge for a 36-22 drubbing which they received at the hands of the Ordites in the Class A tournament last year. Lacking the services of four top notch performers on last year's squad, the Ord five is given but small chance by the dopsters to gain a win over the Platters. Missing from the five which started against North Platte a year ago are Tunnell, Cetak, Hughes and Zulkoski.

D. Dahlin It was the sharpshooting of Zulkoski and Severson which enabled the Red and White to score a win over the North Platte quintet last year in the Class A district tournament held at Lexington. Every man on the North Platte team who played against Ord in last year's tourney will be on hand Wednesday night to do his part towards defeating the Ordsters.

BACK FORTY

Nebraska's largest herd of purebred Jersey dairy cattle is located in Valley county, eight miles southwest of Ord. It belongs to E. S. Coats and Son. The herd includes over sixty head of registered purebreds. Among them are individuals capable of winning prizes in national competition, either through production records or at exhibition shows. In fact, the Coats herd did win its share of state fair prizes in bygone days. At times it also ranked at the top among the state testing associations. The drought years have changed this. No longer do our dairymen feel that they can pay the cow tester for his monthly visit. No longer can they haul cows to Lincoln to contest for reduced premiums. Fancy rations are a thing of the past. The Coats herd gets what the farm will raise—ground sorghum grain and cane hay, supplemented with shorts. Neighboring stockmen's herds have been depleted or wiped out. Nineteen farm homes stand empty and deserted in Vinton Township. But Ernest Coats and Son have stood by their Jerseys through the hard years. They like this breed because they give a high priced product in return for their feed, whereas most dairy animals yield a cheap product. Jerseys, they say, will return more for the feed eaten than any other cattle. Coats and Son have also sacrificed to continue improving their herd in quality. "Farmers could not afford to pay the price of feed in 1934," Ernest Coats remarked. "That is the year that hurt us." Yet Coats and Sons' young herd bull, in which the University of Nebraska owns a half interest, is the best that money will buy. And two aged cows that made annual butterfat records exceeding 500 pounds in the good old testing association days, still chew their cud in the stanchions at Jersey Home Farm.

Dick Sherbeck who has been husking corn in Iowa the past six weeks has returned home.

A group of pinochle players, with their husbands, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tareza Friday evening for a party and Christmas exchange. There were six tables present and the ladies furnished lunch. The high score for men and ladies was added together, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hollingshead received high, Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Barger low.

Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, Mrs. Grant Cruikshank and Mrs. Edith Bossen were Grand Island visitors Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Armstrong and son Homer were Broken Bow visitors Saturday.

Edwin Harrison returned from Cody and other places the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and little son are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee Woodworth for the present.

Mrs. Ray Waterbury and son Junior were in Grand Island Thursday.

Mrs. Leon Fowler is visiting her sister, Edith Nelson and other relatives for about two months.

Mrs. Inez Lewin, Mrs. Albert Strathdee, Mrs. Charles Downing and Mrs. Roy Norris spent the evening at the home of Mrs. D. O. Hawley Thursday. Rook was the evening's entertainment. It was the wedding anniversary of Mrs. Strathdee.

Quiz Kandid Korner

Above is shown A. W. Pierce, the man with the cigar, carrying on a casual conversation with Frank Travis. We suspect they were talking about land.

This Wednesday the R. K. D. project club met at the home of Mrs. Adeline Pasco as hostess with a Christmas exchange party and games. A very nice lunch was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Smith and granddaughter, Joyce Spencer, motored to Wann, Nebr., Wednesday with Mrs. Leah Smith and Mrs. Hattie Malsbury who have been visiting relatives in Arcadia for some time. On their way home Mr. and Mrs. Smith called for a brief visit with Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Emma Romans at Fremont.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Hansen of Evanston, Ill., are the parents of a baby boy born Friday, Dec. 9th. This is their second child, the eldest being about five years of age.

One hundred and fifty were served at the annual supper at the Congregational church basement Saturday evening.

The musical given Wednesday evening, Dec. 14, at the auditorium presented by the music department was well attended and exhibited training and talent. They are directed by Miss Ellen Lambert and Carol Nygren. The orchestra appeared first on the program with three choice selections. The band presented four numbers. Helen Vanchura and Vivian Pester, in uniforms, appeared with the band when the curtain lifted and entertained as a baton twirling duo. The boys glee club, mixed chorus and girls chorus were all good. We are sure each one present wishes to thank the directors and students for their efforts and kindness in a free program presented to the public.

The Rebekah kensington met with Mrs. Lester Bly Wednesday afternoon at her home. There were 26 members and four guests present. The guests were Mrs. Elsworth Bruner, Mrs. Raymond McDonald, Mrs. Otto Lueck and Crystal Carmody. There was a Christmas exchange and the hostess served a lovely lunch.

Dr. Joe Baird who went to Rochester the first of last week returned home Thursday. There was a very favorable report on his treatments and health, derived from Omaha previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hawley and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Hawley.

Mrs. Edith Bossen, Mrs. George Parker and Mrs. Roy Norris were Ord visitors Wednesday. There were also a large number of others there.

Diamond Aubert was seized with an epileptic in the pig pen Wednesday evening, causing him to fall in such a manner his tongue was nearly cut off. Dr. Baird being out of town, he was taken to Ord to Dr. Round for treatment.

Miss Alberta Russell entertained at Sunday dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller and Lois and Miss Dorothy Bly.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lybarger and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wallace visited Mr. and Mrs. Howard Williams at Sargent Sunday. Mrs. Williams accompanied them home for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Lybarger and other relatives.

Wayne Bruner who has been in Wyoming and other western states the past three years arrived in Arcadia Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elsworth Bruner and two children and Wayne Bruner were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bly.

Mrs. Raymond McDonald and little daughter, Henrietta, Lilia and Mary Emily McDonald, motored to Boelus Sunday for Mrs. McDonald who had been with her father, Mr. Davis for several days. Mr. Davis has been ill. He will be 91 years of age in January.

LOCAL NEWS

—Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Absolon and daughter were Sunday dinner guests at the Joe Absolon, sr., home.

—Mrs. Inez Edwards of Grand Island is visiting at the Carl Sorensen home. Mrs. Edwards is Mrs. Sorensen's mother.

—Mr. and Mrs. Milan Sharp of Sparks, Nebr., spent a few days visiting at the J. L. Langer home. They returned to their home Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ward Mizar spent Sunday in Grand Island visiting Mrs. Mizar's mother and sister, Mrs. Annie E. Cross and Miss Mabel Cross.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Anderson and family were Sunday guests at the J. M. Johnson home in Burwell at a family dinner.

—Sunday dinner guests at the H. C. Koll home were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roe and daughter Marianne, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Helleberg and son Richard of Elyria, Howard Roe, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferris and family.

—Val Pullen, who has charge of a Dickinson Seed Company elevator at Odebolt, Ia., arrived Saturday to spend the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Cecil Hansen and husband. The Odebolt region had a wonderful popcorn crop this year, principally the South American yellow variety, Val says. Practically all of it was raised on contract and farmers are being paid $1.25 per cwt. The average yield is a ton per acre, though some farms yielded up to 1 1/2 tons. Some Jap rice popcorn is raised, his company having about a million pounds cribbed up, but South American yellow is in greatest demand and consequently was planted by most Odebolt farmers. Moisture is plentiful there, Mr. Pullen says.

SUGGESTIONS FOR A

Merry Christmas

The holiday season is one of happiness and jollity, not least of which arises from the fine food every housewife tries to serve her family and guests. To help you plan your Christmas meals we will have an exceptionally fine stock of fish, meats and fowls, and invite you to trade at our market. May we suggest:

Fresh Fish For Christmas Eve

We will have fresh Wall-Eyed Pike, Halibut and other fresh fish, as well as frozen, pickled, smoked and other varieties usually carried in stock.

Dressed Fowls for Xmas Dinner

A pleasing selection of dressed Geese, Ducks and Chickens will await you here. Come in today and choose the fowl you want.

Extra-Special Beef

Lots of families prefer a quality beef roast to any other food for Xmas dinner and we want to announce that we will have that extra-good mature beef, properly aged, and can supply any cut you desire.

Pure Pork Sausage for Breakfast

On the morning of Christmas day, why not serve pure pork sausage, home made at this market? We have it in bulk, in casings and smoked. Its pure pork—no filler added.

... and You No Doubt Will Want:

Fresh oysters, pure home-made mince-meat, special cheese, imported and domestic olives and pickles. We have them all.

May We Wish You a Merry Christmas?

Pecenka & Son Meat Market

Our 56th
Christmas Greeting

Just as hearty, every bit as sincere, as the first Christmas greeting extended by the First National Bank to its customers in 1882, when this bank was founded, is this—our 56th annual greeting.

And we state it in the same simple terms:
"A Merry Christmas to All."

It is a pleasure and a privilege to wish you all a merry Christmas. We don't want our friends to think of this bank as a cold, impersonal institution, but rather as a group of friends and neighbors, anxious to serve the community and the individuals thereof in every way within our power. That is the principle upon which the First National Bank has operated for fifty-six years.

Through the good times and the hard times the First National enjoys its association with its customers and we hope you will call on us for advice or financial aid whenever you need the services of a banking house.

May Christmas be happy for you and may 1939 bring you prosperity in greater measure is our wish.

Last Wednesday evening was a big basketball evening for this town. There were four games.
The first game was a picked group of Ericson high school seconds against the grade school team with a score of 6 to 4 for the grades.
The second game was between the high school seconds of Ericson and O'Connor resulting in a score of 10 to 2 for O'Connor. Then third came the chief battle of the evening between the two high school teams of Ericson and O-
Connor. The final score was 26 to 8 for O'Connor. The hottest game of the evening though was between the town teams of Ericson and O'Connor. The Ericson team won 26 to 20.

The high school basketball team winds up the pre-Christmas schedule with a game at Chambers this

Contract For Ord Township Library Awarded Thursday

Diamond Engineering Company Submit Low Bid; Will Start Work at Once.

The Ord Township Library board met Thursday afternoon at the office of the secretary, Clarence M. Davis, opened the bids in the presence of all interested parties, and awarded the contract for the new library building to the Diamond Engineering company of Grand Island, whose bid of $8,579.00 was the lowest one submitted.

Because it was necessary to be certain of coming within the amount of money allotted for the building four alternates were proposed and all bidders asked to submit deductions for these cheaper forms of construction. These alternates were: No. 1; omitting the book shelving; No. 2; omitting the indirect lighting; No. 3; omitting the casement windows and substituting standard windows; and No. 4; omitting asphalt floor and base and substituting plain maple flooring.

Bids were submitted as follows: O. L. Clark, York, Nebr., $9,295.00; deductions, $195, $44, $140 and $325. Diamond Engineering company, $8,579; deductions, $190, $35, $150, $428. C. E. Goodhand, $9,000; deductions, $325, $52, $375, $300. Blessing, Blessing and Blessing, $9,797; deductions, $335, $60, $290, and $320. As the low bid was well within the limit, it was not necessary for the board to consider any of the alternate bids.

The library board, consisting of Mrs. C. E. Goodhand, president, Mrs. Evet Smith, vice-president, Clarence Davis, secretary, Frank T. Johnson and Mrs. G. W. Taylor, met Wednesday evening and again Thursday morning at the secretary's office to look over samples of brick to be used in the construction, and tentatively selected tapestry brick in mixed shades of red and dark.

Meeting with the board in the afternoon session Thursday in addition to the representatives of the several bidders were Mr. Golden of Omaha and Soren Jensen of Broken Bow, both representing the PWA, and the architect, J. F. Reynolds of Lincoln. For the present Mr. Jensen is to have charge of the work for the PWA.

The floor to be used in the building is an asphalt tile construction called Moul-tile, and is to be installed on an asphalt base, thus producing an almost silent floor much to be desired in public libraries. The architect, J. F. Reynolds, left immediately following the letting of the contract, as he had to attend a meeting at Hampton Thursday evening.

The ceremony of breaking the ground for the new library took place Friday, it being desired to get the work started as quickly as possible to satisfy PWA requirements. The work is to progress as rapidly as weather conditions permit, and it is believed that the building will be ready for use by the first of next July.

Curtis Aggies Will Play Here This Week

By LaVerne Lakin.
Prospects for a double win over the Curtis Aggies Friday and Saturday by the Chanticleers looked very small as the Quiz went to press Wednesday.

Practice of the Chanticleers at the high school auditorium Tuesday afternoon was rather a gloomy affair as it was learned that Piskorski and Misko would probably not be available for the dual meet this week end. Both have leg injuries.

Last year, Coach Brockman's quintet took it on the nose in both games played on the Curtis floor. In the first game the Chanticleers received a 28 to 15 set-back and in the second game the Ordersters lost out by a one point margin, 20 to 19.

Several of this year's performers on the Chanticleer squad saw action against the Aggies last year. Misko, Dahlin, Severson, Hurlbert, Tatlow, Hitchman, Piskorski and Carlson all took part in the battle.

C. of C. Membership Drive.
The Ord Chamber of Commerce membership campaign will begin tomorrow, under the direction of Hilding Pearson, committee chairman. Other committee members are Syl Furtak, Adam Dubas, Rex Jewett, and Ed Michalek.

All business and professional men will be urged to cooperate in making the organization one which will be representative of the entire city of Ord.

Following the drive, a complete list of all members will be published in a later issue of the Quiz.

Ed Hahn Jailed On Bad Check Charge

On complaint of Freda Buchnick filed Dec. 19, Ed Hahn was charged with obtaining food at the Diet in the period of Aug. 15 to Sept. 15, 1938, to the value of $18.30, without paying for same. F. J. Cohen arrested Hahn Dec. 21. Arraigned before Judge John L. Andersen he entered a plea of guilty as charged and drew a fine of $30.00 and costs of $9.04, which he was unable to pay. He was put in jail until the amount is paid, or until it is laid out.

Little Papiernik Girl Died After Short Illness

Helen Wilhelmina Papiernik, 4 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Papiernik, died at ten-thirty Sunday evening at the Niel Petersen home in Ord. The cause of her death was acidosis from persistent vomiting. She had been ill approximately one week.

Christmas Seal Sale Pronounced A Success

Miss Clara McClatchey, who had charge of the sale of Christmas seals by the school children of the county, is well pleased with the results. To date she has deposited 148.33, with about ten dollars more on hand and a few teachers yet to report. About 70 schools took part in the sale of the seals. Naturally the Ord schools were high in sales, Arcadia taking second place. The Brace school ranked first among the country districts, with 4.01. Miss McClatchey thinks the children should be congratulated for the fine work they did this year.

Chanticleers Bow To North Platte In 30-26 Thriller

Ord Boys Show Much Improvement; Curtis Aggies Are Next Opponents.

By LaVerne Lakin.
Showing 100 percent improvement over their play the week before, Coach Helmut Brockman's Ord Chanticleers dropped a close 30 to 26 decision Friday to North Platte on the Ord court.

Don Severson, center, and Edwin Hitchman, guard, led the Ord scoring with nine and seven points respectively. Hitchman exhibited some unusually fine playing at his guard position.

Play during the first half was of the ragged type which characterizes all first of the season games. At no time throughout the contest did either team seem up to par in their attempts at hitting the basket.

At the close of the first half, North Platte led the Chanticleers 13 to 10. Most of the Platters scoring in the first period was done by James, a forward. James was removed from the game on fouls during the third quarter. The refereeing of Dick Pulliam, Grand Island, received the approval of all the fans and players.

Dahlin, stalwart Ord forward, ran wild in the final half, failing to connect for a single field goal. Hurlbert and Misko contributed baskets in the final quarter to keep the game interesting up to the closing play.

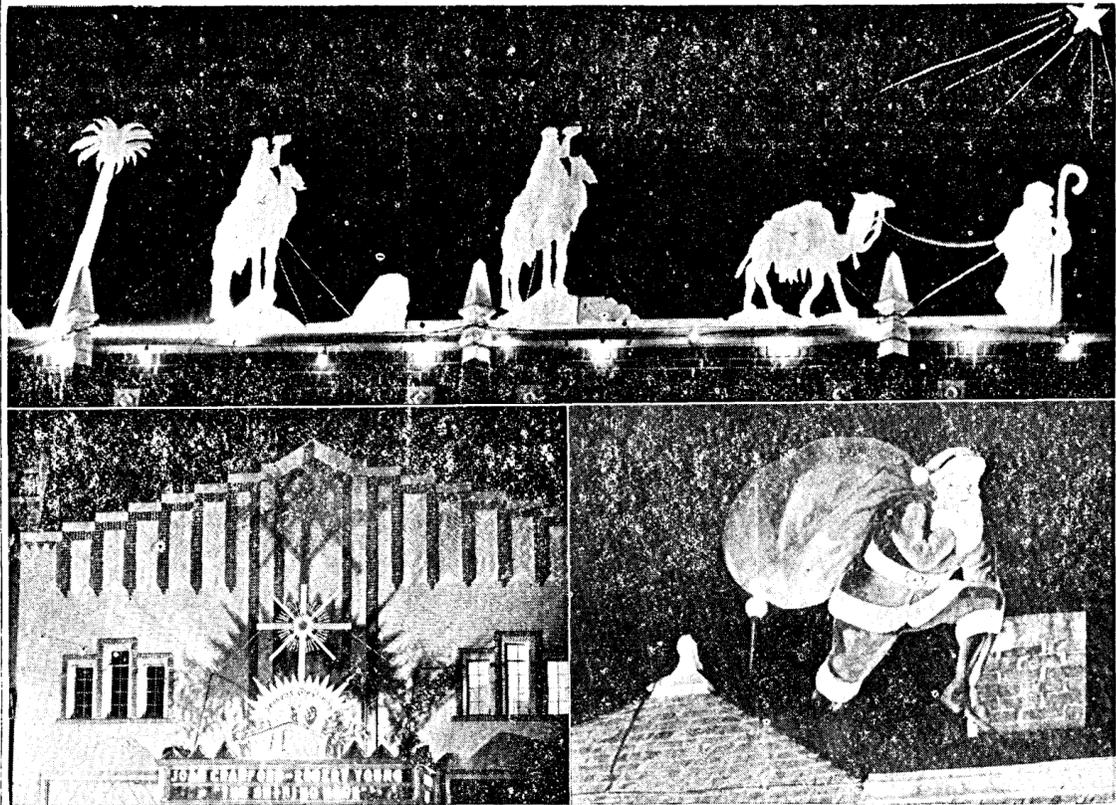

Every member of Ord's second string received a chance to show his stuff against the Platte quint and all of them turned in very creditable performances.

Murdock Woman Killed on Way To North Loup

Mrs. W. O. Gillespie Dies When Son's Car Crashes Into Wagon Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gillespie of North Loup drove to Murdock Friday to bring his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, to North Loup to spend Christmas. Near Bradshaw they hit a wagon load of coal, skidded across the icy paving directly in front of a car approaching from the opposite direction.

Mrs. W. O. Gillespie, 65, suffered a broken pelvis, broken ribs and internal injuries from which she died at 4:00 the next morning. Mrs. H. L. Gillespie has a triple fracture of the left shoulder, a broken nose, some fractured ribs and three teeth knocked out, but is recovering at the Lutheran hospital at York where all were taken for treatment.

H. L. Gillespie has a cut over the left eye, lacerations on the face and a broken left wrist. W. O. Gillespie received many cuts and bruises, as did J. O. McGinnis of Brady and Raymond Reed of North Platte, the occupants of the other car. The driver of the wagon, Harry Manson, is in a critical condition, having a possible fractured skull, broken ribs and a crushing injury to his chest.

The wagon and the Gillespie car were completely demolished. The fact that the approaching McGinnis car had bright lights and there were none on the wagon, is believed to have been the cause of the accident. The body of Mrs. Gillespie was taken to the home at Murdock, where funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

H. L. Gillespie returned to North Loup Tuesday. He was still altered and bruised, but was able to attend the funeral Monday at Murdock. He stated that his wife would have to remain in the hospital at York two or three weeks, but that she had rallied rapidly and her recovery was only a matter of time.

Farm Checks Being Distributed Here

According to C. C. Dale of the Farm Agent's office, about $25,000 in agricultural conservation checks have been received to date, and are being distributed as called for. The office sent in a total of about 809 applications the last of November, and checks for all these should arrive in the next few days.

There have been two other transmittals of applications since the first were sent in, bringing the total number to practically a thousand. The checks for a will come back as fast as they are handled, and the local office hopes to get all of them cleaned up by February 1.

The amount of money represented by the one thousand applications will be about $125,000. This is probably slightly less than last year, which is not due to lack of interest in the program, but rather to the fact that the law was passed late last winter, with the result that many of the farmers had their small grain in, and could cut down only on corn.

That situation is being remedied this year. The date last year was March 25, while for 1939 the county allotment is already in. The past year there were quite a number of cases of partial compliance, due, as has already been stated, to the fact that too many farmers had their small grain crops already in.

It. Claire Clement and Rudolph Kokes, who have been busy sealing cribs for some time, report that about 80 cribs have been sealed to date, with an average of 570 bushels per crib. The report on the satisfactory, there being no rejections to date, all testing No. 3 or better.

As might be expected, all the samples have shown very little moisture, but the quality has been satisfactory. The price being paid for all sealed corn is 57c. The average cost to the farmers for corn sealed has been about one cent per bushel. There are also quite a number of farmers who plan to have their corn sealed who have not yet done so.

Burwell Home Visited By Prowler Friday

Last Friday while Mr. and Mrs. Geo. West were attending the Christmas program at the Burwell high school, someone entered their home. When Mrs. West was returning, she caught a glimpse of a man going out of the back door. The prowler had apparently parked his car near the side of the house. Before Mrs. West could get to the front door to find the number, he was gone. The burglar had scattered the contents of several bureau drawers on the floor, but nothing of value was missing. Authorities are unable to find traces of the prowler.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hitchman and family spent Christmas in Omaha visiting Mrs. Hitchman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sheldon.

A GODLESS CHRISTMAS.

A news dispatch reports that atheists worked hard to make this year the most Godless Christmas that soviet Armenians ever had. The newspaper, Communist, published at Erivan, capital of the Armenian republic, reported with satisfaction that there never was a better year for Godlessness in that section of Soviet Russia.

Armenia was one of the oldest homes of Christianity, and atheists, apparently, had rough sailing there for some time. The newspaper reported the Armenian Godless league at last is growing strong and confident of its ability to "uproot the last remnants of religious intoxication."

Under the dominion of the Ottoman Turks, Armenia suffered unspeakable atrocities when their men were massacred by the hundreds and their women taken to fill the harems of Turkey, but this persecution only served to fire their religious indignities and emerged with more strength than ever in the Christian faith.

But Mohammedan Turkey lost to Christian Russia, and Armenia came under the protection of the great Russian Bear as a part of what is known as Trans-Caucasia. It would seem that a Christian race thus protected should flourish. Yet, after twenty years of such protection we find that apparently failed, because the protectors became atheists.

To call Armenia a republic is the height of irony, yet it is so called. Among the prerogatives of the citizens of a republic are the right of assembly, the right to worship God according to the dictates of their conscience. These are denied the citizens, not by the force of arms, but by a system of leaving God out of the reckoning entirely. Persecution only served to fan the flame of religious fervor, but ridicule caused it to die.

Communism and atheism always go hand in hand. As men learn to depend more on themselves, they forget to depend on God. Russia is composed of no less than 31 soviet socialistic republics and God as a factor in human affairs has been ruled out of all of them. How can such a nation exist in a world that it is certain that the vast territory, that season can mean little to it.

SAINT NICHOLAS.

St. Nicholas, an early Christian bishop, born in Myra, in Lycia, Asia Minor, was a favorite saint of both the Roman and Greek churches, and was believed to be the patron of sailors, merchants, travelers and children. His feast fell on Dec. 6, and was at one time celebrated in the English public schools. The practice died out after the reformation.

Legends representing St. Nicholas as visiting the poor in distress gave rise to the custom in certain countries of keeping St. Nicholas eye by placing gifts in the shoe or stocking of children. This custom was transferred to Christmas eve, and the saint became known as Santa Claus, from the Dutch Saint Nicolaus, pronounced very much like Santa Claus.

The above account given in most encyclopedias gives the origin of the name of St. Nicholas of Santa Claus, but does not go back to the origin of the giving of gifts at Christmas time. For this we go back to the first Christmas, when the three wise men saw the star in the east and made the journey to Bethlehem, bringing their gifts to the new born king.

History tells us that the giving of gifts and the observation of the Christmas season began with the he of Christ and persisted through the ages down to the present time. Whether the name be Santa Claus or St. Nicholas, Kris Kringle or any one of a dozen others used in various countries, it refers to the custom established by the wise men centuries ago.

It epitomizes one of the prime essentials of a Christian nation, consideration for others. So long as this spirit of self sacrifice and love for one's fellow men is dominant, there is little danger that the human race will lose sight of God, who sent His son into the world as a sacrifice for the sins of men. Christmas is our guarantee of Christianity.

ORD GOOD TRADE TOWN.

Since it was first founded Ord has enjoyed the reputation of being a good trade town. Last Wednesday was the occasion of the visit of Santa Claus to Ord, and many people no doubt took advantage of the opportunity to pay us a visit and do some Christmas shopping.

The people coming from a distance were very gratifying, as a check of car numbers revealed.

The cars were checked at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday and it was found that at that time there were no less than 68 out of the county cars parked in the vicinity of the square. This was nine more than when there were 59. Ord merchants report talking with customers who had come from a long distance, and most of them were good buyers.

As would naturally be expected, Garfield county led the list, the territory north of Ord furnishing 24 cars. The rest came from fourteen other Nebraska counties. In addition, there were three cars from Iowa, one from Washington, and one from Wyoming, parked on the streets that day. Times are not what they were, but Ord is still a good business town.

DECEMBER PRESIDENTS.

December was the birth month of no less than three presidents of the United States, who served their country in that capacity in widely separated eras of our national history. The first, Martin Van Buren, born Dec. 5, 1782, was elected president in 1835. Presidents were then elected by popular vote, but Van Buren received a majority of less than 25,000.

Andrew Johnson, 17th president, was born Dec. 29, 1808. He was vice president under Lincoln during the few months of his second term, and succeeded to the presidency upon his death. He served out the remainder of the term and was not considered for another term. He served as Congressman and governor of Tennessee and was elected U. S. senator, but died before he was inducted into the latter office.

Thomas Woodrow Wilson, born Dec. 28, 1856, was elected president in 1912 when the Bull Moose party split the ranks of the Republicans. He held the office for two terms, retired a broken man and died four years later. He became professor of politics in Princeton University in 1890, and was president of the university from 1902 until he was elected president.

These men might be classed as our most popular, or perhaps we should say, most unfortunate presidents. It fell to the lot of Van Buren to be in office at the time of the panic of 1837. Whether he was to blame for it or not, the full weight of censure fell upon him, and he was overwhelmingly defeated in 1840. He was a candidate for re-nomination in 1844, and of the Free Soil party in 1848, but was defeated in both cases.

The story of Woodrow Wilson is well known to most older people. He owed his first election to the split in the Republican ranks, and won a second term in 1916 by a very close vote over Charles Evans Hughes. He became very unpopular near the close of his administration due to his desire to make the United States a member of the League of Nations.

But most unfortunate of all was Andrew Johnson, whose reconstruction policy made him so unpopular with Congress that that body voted in 1868 to impeach him as president. He was charged with resisting the execution of the acts of Congress, and with other high crimes and misdemeanors. A two thirds vote was necessary, but the vote was just one short of the necessary amount.

All three of our December born presidents were men of rare ability. Van Buren and Johnson were self educated men, while Wilson had the advantage of a fine college education. Circumstances over which they had little or no control made each of them unpopular in the closing years of their incumbency, and all ended their days in the bitterness of unappreciated endeavor.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

What is the farm outlook for 1939? The government forecast states that markets will be a little better, with crop prices improving more than livestock prices. Then it goes on to say that maybe livestock prices won't improve at all.

None too encouraging is the hog outlook. More hogs will be sold, and at heavier weights. Factors on the favorable side are smaller cold storage stocks, increased exports, and supposedly improving consumer demands.

Fewer beef cattle may be killed next year, as stockman are saving cows and heifers for their herds. This decrease, together with improved consumer demand, will be on the side of stronger returns. On the other hand, big pork supplies may press down the value of beef.

The dairy industry is expanding, and production will be heavy. Prices are not likely to rise much, but feed is cheap. The prospect for horse prices is not especially good, as tractors will continue to replace them. But, again, cheap feed is in their favor.

Sheep numbers will increase, and more wool will be marketed. But next year's lamb crop may not equal the record one of last spring, for which conditions were exceptionally favorable. Egg prices are expected to be stronger during the early part of 1939, but weaker in the latter half of the year. There will be few more turkeys.

Wheat prices may go up, in spite of the large carry-over due to poor crop conditions, and acreage

A FEW THINGS TO THINK ABOUT! The Fatted Calf

Written by GEORGE GOWEN

The Fatted Calf.

Dan McCloy sat down on his haunches by the side of the barn to reconnoiter his financial standing. Dan was a two hundred pounder, with rough features, calloused hands and a big heart. He glanced into his purse, and far in the depths of it a new shiny dime presented itself. This indeed was a sad situation for any man two days before Christmas, and especially for Dan who possessed a wife and two children who counted the years from December 25 in place of January 1st.

Dan arose, worked his fingers under his hat and scratched the top layer of his cranium. This exercise assisting some deep thought, he replaced his hat to the proper cant, opened the barn door and let his eyes rest lovingly on the white-faced calf standing there a foot deep in straw. Then he took a curry comb and marcelled the calf's back.

"Best darned calf I ever raised," he mumbled to himself. Then he stepped back and glanced along the top line. "Yes sir. Best darned calf in the county. Good enough fer any show."

He stood there several minutes feasting his eyes on this bovine perfection. Dan had been a cattleman since he was a boy in club work, but the drought and the grasshoppers had brought financial disaster until he had been forced to sell his whole herd except his five best cows. Now he had raised a calf from one of these cows that ran true to breeding and was blooming into a prize winner.

It had been his hopes all summer to save enough money to take this calf to the sale and show in January and get acquainted again with the fellows. Dan leaned over and lay his face against the silken hair of the neck. "Well, Ol' d' Top," he said, "I guess we can't go to the sale together. I got to the place where it's your 'r' me. If I don't give Helen a Christmas present I'll have to leave. If you don't leave, I can't give her the Christmas present. You'll have to make the sacrifice." He raised up, placed his hands on his hips. "Christmas is to blame Ol' Top," he said again to the calf. "To heck with Christmas anyway."

He arose defiantly, pulled his cap a little harder to the side and marched to the house. Helen was there, busy and excited, her hair black like midnight, her cheeks like apples. The table was laden with packages, colored paper and fancy string. Dan surveyed his "Home Sweet Home" with a different tone of mind than he had the calf. "Heavens help us, Mother," he stormed. "That's where all the money's gone lately. To buy Christmas presents. I haven't been able to figure it all out. To heck with Christmas. It bankrupts me every year. It's a racket. For months now I have been hoping I could save a little money along to take that calf to the show, and now I'm more broke than ever."

She came close and reaching up and kissed his rough face. "Now Hon," she said with a quivering voice. "I haven't spent hardly any money this year. I've made almost everything. And I thought we'd get the children clothes. We just have to get them a few things, you know. They've planned so much on it. You don't need to get me anything, Hon, but just for them. I've made a list."

"All right. All right," he said, a sense of shame touching him for scolding such a pretty wife. If she hadn't married him some other fellow would be buying her presents and getting her kisses. "All right," he said taking the list. "I'll go get the kids those things, but listen now, none for me. I'm out."

She kissed him again on both cheeks which wasn't so bad, and he went out to his old car and drove away.

His first stop was at Lloyd Madson's. Lloyd, too, was a breeder of fancy white-faced cattle. Lloyd's cattle were not so good as Dan's but his checks were better. Lloyd was a tall, ungainly fellow, and at first sight, one might think him ignorant of the tricks of trade.

"I've decided to sell you that calf," Dan said. "You offered me forty dollars a couple of weeks ago."

Lloyd hesitated. Finally he drewled in slow syllables. "Market's off a little since then, Dan. Thirty'd be a good price now."

Dan knew the price was not off. The calf was bigger and it was nearer show date, but Dan needed money. He had to have money. This Christmas was on hand, and thirty dollars was more than market price.

"All right then," he said, "give me the thirty."

Lloyd hesitated again. "You'll keep him until after the holidays for that, won't you? Haven't time 't move him now."

He saved a few dollars along in the fall he would have had that money for Christmas and the show too. He couldn't imagine where it had gone. He had sold quite a little produce and a few hogs. All he knew for sure was the money was gone, and it was Christmas. So was the calf gone, too and Lloyd would win the prize to boom his herd that was hardly good enough for top stockers.

Dan drove into town. Four dollars worth of clothes, shoes and toys were bought for Jimmie. Six dollars bought a new coat and two pair of silk stockings for Mary. Twenty dollars was left. He saw a wool coat hanging there. It had been four years since Helen had had a new coat. It looked well for him yet, but still she complained. "Everyone has seen it," she had said once, as if that was important. "By Golly," he thought, "She must have a few pretty clothes. One girl in a million. If I don't, someone else may."

Twenty dollars bought the coat, two pair of silk stockings and a new dress. Then he looked at his purse again. There was the dime. He walked to the back of the store and said, "Sell me a cigar. A ten cent one. This is Christmas, you know."

The bundles loaded in his car, he hurried home. Helen was gathering a dozen eggs from the twelve dozen hens. He slipped in to the parlor and planted the packages under the tree.

Night came, and Christmas eve, and Santa Claus. Dan slept wakefully, with vivid dreams of one more Christmas scratched off the calendar. He was quite relieved that it was over and felt silly that he had been so foolish. He hoped repeatedly that by next year he would have more money or Santa Claus would be hung by the neck on the north pole until he was very, very dead.

Morning came, as it usually does. Jimmie sprang out of bed long before daylight, rousing the others. In under the tree he divd, bringing out present after present amid joyfulness of "ohs" and "ahs". For every present of Dan's, a big kiss was planted on his chin, which helped some. Pandemonium existed and the merriment of the others nearly brought him to the yuletide spirit.

Finally after the din had settled, they all standing knee deep in the wrapping paper and boxes, Dan saw Helen whisper to Mary, who went flying to the tree. She reached to the top, picked off an envelope hanging there. "It's all right, Daddy," Helen said, "As long as you broke your promise and bought me a coat."

Dan tore open the envelope, his hands trembling, his eyes blurring, and thirty bright paper dollar bills came tumbling out and on the bottom of the pile was a slip of paper.

"We saved it a little at a time for you," Jimmie cried dancing.

Dan took the slip of paper and read, "To Daddy, from all of us to take your calf to the show."

The Quiz Forum

Irma: In your column in the last issue of the Quiz, you asked the question "How can Ord merchants expect us to trade here, when they fail to offer ordinary, staple items?" Another question you asked was: (summed up) "How can we help build up our town if they won't cooperate?"

I find, usually, your merchants carry a very fine line of merchandise. And we should expect, at times, to find them low on some special item or size. We can, nearly always get some other item which does nicely as a substitute.

In answer to your other question I'd suggest that all the merchants business people, and all of the county officials--also all WPA workers and helpers in the court house leave their cars at home on Saturday afternoons and leave the parking spaces for the country people.

When we drive to Ord to do our week's trading we find all spaces filled--cars owned by merchants, their clerks, etc. then parked around the court house is the cars of our county officials and their helpers. So what do we have to do? Start hunting for a parking place and finally find one away off on a side street, several blocks (very often) from the store where we do our purchasing. Then gather our bundles and carry them to the car. One soon tires of this and we do not go to Ord to trade.

Just go out and take a "look" and be convinced that I'm right. No doubt my suggestion will not meet with the approval of the above mentioned class, but the "little walk" would do them all good in more ways than one. Put more dollars in their pockets and get rid of the "beer pod" that is getting all too noticeable. Now this is my "pet peeve" and if it is too radical--just forget it, but it is off my mind! And I do know dozens of people who do not go to Ord just for this reason. I live in Valley county. Yours truly, Mrs. E. G. Brechbill, P. O. Burwell, Nebr.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

Christmas comes but once a year and that is often enough. Happy New Year. Come Sunday we will all start a new year, 1939. I hope it will be more prosperous for all of us than the last year of the last several years have been.

An old crank says "As soon as a man gets a job where he is paid for time off his common colds develop into sinus trouble."

I like to listen to certain radio programs occasionally but I do hate to get into a barbershop chair get all lathered up and then be forced to listen to a hodge podge of so called music, so called witty conversation, alleged drama or what have you. I said to an Ord barber the other day, when I had listened to a continual blare thru a haircut, "Are you going to shut that damned thing off or am I going to some other shop to get the shave?" "I didn't even know it was running," he replied. He pays money for juice to keep it running by the hour and don't know it is running.

One day recently a Grand Island lady bought a dress in a Grand Island store. She came a days later she was in Ord and happened to see the identical dress in the store window of a store belonging to the same company from whom she bought in Grand Island but in the Ord store the dress was priced at 47 cents less money than she paid for it in Grand Island. Really there is only one time for Ordites to do their trading in some other city. That time is when the thing wanted cannot be had at home. Overhead in larger towns is much higher and no money is going to be saved by going to those larger towns, as a rule.

The problem of the Jews is a hard nut to crack. Pressure is being brought to raise the quota to allow a large number to come to this country. Everyone sympathizes with their plight and some asylum must be found for them and the United States will have to help finance the removal of them from Germany. But to bring them to this country when we already have ten million or more dependants who must be supported entirely, it does not seem the thing to do.

Governor Cochran has been asked by the Lions club of Kimball to defer enforcement of the car testing law, which becomes operative January 1st. The statement in the daily paper says that it is 60 miles from the southern edge of Kimball county to the nearest station where the testing can be done. About the same thing is true of Valley county. And if the law is enforced Valley county car owners will have to drive to Grand Island, there will be not hundreds but thousands of cars there each day and many will have the expense of remaining there until they can be served. It is going to be a very unpopular law if enforced. If every car owner in Valley county just don't go what can be done.

Take a look at the date after your name on the top of the front page and see if you are paid in advance, or if you should send us a dollar or two to push your subscription ahead. The beginning of the new year is a timely time to get the little debts squared up and one of the most important of them is the subscription to the home paper. You wouldn't want to be without it. You may be if you are in arrears and neglect the matter too long.

A boost is always better than a knock. If you can't speak well of your town or your neighbor don't speak at all. Your knock may not injure your neighbor or your town much but will injure you, for whenever you start knocking you lower yourself in the estimation of those who hear you. Naturally they wonder how soon you will be knocking them, or if you haven't already done so while talking to the other fellow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phillipps, sr., celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Thursday, Dec. 22. About 60 relatives and 20 friends gathered at the Johnson Hall at 12 o'clock to partake of a dinner given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Phillipps. They have lived in and around Burwell for the past 26 years. Mr. Phillipps was born in Columbus, Neb., in Nov. 4, 1866, where he spent his early life. Mrs. Phillipps was born enroute to America from Switzerland on May 15, 1869. She was three weeks old when the family landed in New York. They settled on a 10 acre plot near Beaver Falls, N. Y., where they lived until Mrs. Phillipps was 11 years old. In March 1880 they came to Nebraska and settled in Columbus where the father was a stone mason. It was there that she met Mr. Phillipps and they were married on Dec. 22, 1888. In 1898 they moved to Genoa and to Melgrade in 1908. In 1912 they moved to Garfield county and located on a homestead northwest of Burwell on the Gracie. In 1923

they moved to Burwell and Mr. Phillipps and his son, H. A. Phillipps built and operated the first filling station here. They later sold it and it is now being operated by Albert Bolli as a Phillips 66 station. In 1930 he built the station which he still operates as the "Dad Phillipps Service Station." At the Rose Fuss home for

Written by MRS. ETHEL HAMER

Thursday afternoon the grade rooms of the North Loup schools had a short program and each had a Christmas tree. All rooms have been decorated for Christmas for some time. In the sand table in the first primary was a snow covered yard with evergreen trees and a house with Santa Claus and his reindeer and sleigh on the roof. Another sand table in this room had a real garden of growing plants. A maderia vine at each end has grown till it forms an archway over the entire table. Friday afternoon the entire school gathered in the assembly for a program, each room giving ten minutes of Christmas numbers. School was dismissed at three for a week's vacation.

Some musical numbers and a short talk by Rev. C. L. Hill given from the lumber yard over M. R. Cornell's loud speaker system preceded the arrival of Santa Claus Friday afternoon. The fine day made it possible for a large crowd to be present. Santa had not received word that there were so many children and a number of little folks were disappointed.

Friday evening a miscellaneous program was given at the Friends' church by the Sunday school. The committee in charge was Mrs. Vere Leonard, Martha Miller and Irene King. Rev. Chas. Stevens, pastor of the church and Mrs. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan, Merles Good and Dwight Bolets, all of Community Friends, were present and Rev. Stevens gave a short talk. Treats were passed out to the children at the close of the entertainment. Rev. and Mrs. Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan were supper guests of Lola Fuller Friday night. Merles Good and Dwight Bolets were entertained in the Edwin Miller home.

The cantata "Twas the Night Before Christmas," was presented at the Seventh Day Baptist church Friday night, under the direction of Louise Hamer, Dorothy Eyerly and Mrs. Delmer VanHorn. Lillian Babcock as the mother, Phyllis, Belta and Bonnie Babcock and Wayne Barber as the children, Marion Maxson, Joan Barber and Marjorie Hamer as the fairy helpers, and Russell Barber as Santa Claus with a chorus of mixed voices behind the scenes made an enjoyable evening's entertainment. Santa passed out treats to all the children in the audience. Phyllis Babcock, who had one of the solo parts was ill with tonsillitis and her part had to be taken by the other children. Small Christmas trees placed in the windows and two large ones on the stage, a fireplace, down which Santa came added much to the scene.

"The Story of a Christmas Gift," was given by the Methodist Sunday school Saturday night at the church. Kendall Patterson as Father Miller, Marcella Noldo as Mother Miller with Charlotte Jones, Grace Manchester and Esther Zangger as their children, determined to have a practical Christmas, but the little daughter, Betty (Donna Manchester) turned the tide when she persuaded them to take a little orphan girl (Lois Birmingham) in their home. Mrs. Winnie Bartz and Mrs. Arley Street directed the play and Mrs. Melvin Cornell the music. Santa Claus presented the treats to the children and a large basket of groceries to Rev. Birmingham and family. A short program was given by the primary department on Sunday morning under the direction of Birdene Ingerson.

The Highway View school presented the operetta "Colonel Grump's Christmas," Thursday night at the school house to a houseful of parents and friends. A gift exchange and Christmas tree with treats for the children were enjoyed. Hazel Stevens is the teacher in the Highway View school.

The rural school, taught by Katherine Romans, had a miscellaneous program on Wednesday night. A little Santa Claus who went outside and found a full grown Santa Claus with presents and treats for all the children brought the evening to a close.

Seein' things: Jack Janssen and little Betty Belle Adams having an earnest talk-to in the back seat of a car on the street Tuesday afternoon. Vernon Malolepszy hasn't missed a dance at the opera house yet. And if he did, "Hi-ya, Mr. Ripley!" The girl who was attempting to break-up the Funco-char-Auble twosome threatening to put this column out of circulation. Don't worry, honey, it'll still be worse when I tell Ruthie your name. (Something to look forward to.)
Sounds in the night: A conversation on a street corner between a boy and a girl. The boy—"Now Beverly..." the girl—"My name isn't Beverly!" The boy—"Alright, Evelyn..." The girl—"Don't call me Evelyn!" The boy—"I'm sorry Lorene, I thought this was either Wednesday or Friday evening. I forgot that Thursday comes between." (Are you blushing Frank?)
Too late to classify: The three Ord girls who were winking at a boy from another town at the football banquet.
Retraction: (Or call it whatever you want to.) Gerald Goff states he definitely is not going around with Mildred Fuss. My apologies, Gerald.
Seein' s'more things: Marvia Meila and Billy Negley (Whew!) looking for Betty Timmerman and Geraldine Noll. (Dew tell!) Geo. Cox (the eye-fal from North Loup) and Buddy Hoepner ("Hebbner" to you) following Verna Mae Hellewege all over this city. They still haven't found her. Lots and lots of new school sweaters from North Loup and Arcadia. (Got 'em for Christmas presents.) Then there's this remark made by James Flynn concerning two of these sweaters from North Loup. "Yeah! I s'pose they got them for music." (Come, come, James. Those were the human football and basketball stars of North Loup). Incidentally these boys had just waved at Irene Hansen when she was walking with James.
After thought: The cute nickname of "Snuffy" for a North Loup boy. (Are you listening, T. N.)? Capron Cox's new nickname is pretty clever.
