USO Drive Opens in Valley County, Goal Is $400.00

6 National Agencies Join to Provide Recreation for Army; Funds Needed.

The United Service Organization, popularly abbreviated to USO, have fixed $400 as Valley county's quota in their national campaign funds, and the drive will start here Thursday morning.

People are urged to contribute generously to this worthy cause.

In charge of the drive in Ord are Floyd Beranek, Lawrence Dendinger, F. J. L. Benda and Hilding Pearson, and they will be assisted by other local men in canvassing the business district.

At the same time drives will be conducted in North Loup and Acadia under the leadership of Albert Babcock and Duwain Williams, respectively.

Each will have local assistants. K. W. Peterson will take contributions in Elyria. Farm people are urged to leave their cash donations at the Beranek drug store.

Organizations comprising the USO include the YMCA, National Catholic Community Service, the Salvation Army, the YWCA, the Jewish Welfare Board and the National Travelers' Aid association.

Work done by the USO includes such things as providing club houses near army posts to furnish reading rooms and recreational facilities for soldiers; the camp shows with the largest circuit in history of show business, an average of 31 shows playing in 225 camps nightly; mobile units on wheels to bring USO facilities to detached units; and many other worth-while functions.

Official objective of USO is "to build and maintain the strongest fighting spirit among our men in uniform by showing them how much their friends back home appreciate what they are doing. To make this appreciation tangible in the form of friendly hospitality and service in the soldiers' and sailors' hours off duty."

National goal is $32,000,000. The USO now has 403 clubs and 182 units serving the armed forces in the United States and already has established 28 clubs overseas, wherever the troops are. The organization is endorsed by the government to the fullest extent.

40,000 Tomato Plants Being Set Out Daily

Burwell—(Special)—A shipment of 15,000 tomato plants arrived here Monday from Texas for planting in the fields which will supply tomatoes for the Loup Valley Cooperative cannery here, and 40,000 additional plants are arriving daily by bus. They are Firesteel, Victor, All-Red and Bounty varieties.

Orville Marquardt, cannery manager, says 80 acres of tomatoes have been contracted. Most of the acreage of green beans has been planted and the beans are up, he says, and a considerable acreage of sweet corn has been planted.

Check County Records.

R. L. Barton, of Fullerton, an auditor employed by the Nebraska Federation of County Taxpayers' Leagues, was in Ord last week checking the Valley county budget records for purposes of comparison with other counties. The League will release a report of Mr. Barton's findings for publication soon.

Johnnie Paddock, Reported Killed at Pearl Harbor, Sends Photo to Prove Report Exaggerated

Mrs. Daisy Paddock was happy Monday to receive a Mother's Day gift, one that flew airmail a good long way, and bore 96c in postage, although it was thin and light.

It was a picture of John Paddock, a large clear one. "It can almost talk," said Mrs. Paddock with feeling.

John is the young man whose official death notice was sent by the government Dec. 16, after he was thought to have perished in the Pearl Harbor attack. Then a card came from him dated Dec. 30, telling his mother only "I am well", but that message was enough. The government confirmed this on Jan. 2, and since then she has heard from him right along, although she has no idea where he is now stationed. He was stationed on the "California" before Dec. 7.

John was 24 years old in April and had spent four years in the navy that month also. He is a gunner's mate second class, and is the only Paddock offspring to be serving his country at present.

Ord's Two Delegates Enjoyed State Camps

Betsy Kovanda, Ord delegate of the American Legion Auxiliary to Girls' State, at Lincoln returned home Saturday evening with Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, who addressed the 141 girls of the group on Friday. Mrs. Mortensen is a member of the state advisory board for Girls' State, for which girls come from every corner of Nebraska to learn something of the workings of Nebraska government.

Betsy was a strong candidate for governor of Girls' State, making a good race in the primaries against Lenke Isacson of Omaha who was later elected governor. Later Betsy received an especially choice appointment as chairman of the state board of control. She also did a number of articles for the newspaper published by the girls.

Ray Vogelanz, Ord's representative at Boys' State, really came home covered with honors. Passing the examinations with a rank of third of the group, he then became assistant attorney general and tried cases in city, district and supreme court. He was chairman of the federal party, ran for secretary of state and missed by one or two votes. He played in the band, softball, goal-hi, volleyball, and also served on the city council.

Not only the experience was valuable that Betsy and Ray received, but also the contacts they made, and the fine friendships they began. Both of them were impressed by the trip and all that went with it, and came home feeling they had learned a great lot.

Miss Marcella Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Wheeler, Burwell representative to Girls' State, gave a report of her weeks activities in Lincoln at a tea given by the American Legion Auxiliary in the Legion hall on Monday afternoon. Members of the P. E. O. and the Women's club were guests at the tea. Mrs. F. B. Wheeler and Mrs. L. D. Pierce were the hostesses. Marcella was a member of the state legislature in Girls' State. She was president of the junior class of the Burwell high school and was toastmistress at the junior-senior banquet. She is also the president of the Young People's Fellowship group of the Congregational church.

Hides Stolen Monday.

Burwell—(Special)—A thief or party of thieves broke into the establishment of Mayor H. A. Philipps Monday night and stole three cow-hides, one of which was branded. Entrance was gained through a rear door. State authorities have been notified. Within the past year hides have been stolen several times from the Grunkemeyer house but no trace of the thieves has ever been found.

'Take Up Quarrel,' Pleads Snyder in Memorial Address

Ord Honors War Dead Sat'dy in Impressive Service; Cemetery Beautiful.

The Ord cemetery has never been more beautiful than it was Saturday morning when hundreds of people, many from far-off places, gathered to honor this community's war dead at an impressive service sponsored by the American Legion and held in the Memorial plot.

Practically every grave in the cemetery was decorated with flowers; the lawns were green and carefully trimmed; shrubbery and trees showed the care expended upon them by the cemetery sexton, W. H. Barnard, and his assistants.

Address of the day was ably made by Rev. Clifford Snyder, pastor of the Christian church, who quoted John MacRae's famous poem, "In Flanders Fields," which says, in part:

"Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch. Be ours to hold it high,
If ye break faith with us who die

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields."

"How can we keep faith with those who are gone?" asked the Rev. Mr. Snyder. "The answer comes to us as it is given by the dead themselves: 'Take up the quarrel with the foe.'"

The foe we fight is not nations but war itself, declared the young pastor, but since the sword of warfare was plunged into our backs at Pearl Harbor we must take it up to prove ourselves faithful to the men who died in former wars and who are dying in this one.

Rev. P. W. Rupp opened the Memorial day program with a prayer, after which a squad of Legion men commanded by E. R. Lafeta placed the colors and stacked their rifles. Selections by the Ord band, the G. A. R. rites, the firing squad salute and the playing of taps also had parts in the program. Alfred Wiegardt served as master of ceremonies.

20 Burwell Children Work in Beet Fields

Burwell—(Special)—When Charley Meyer was unable to get his Mexican beet workers from Texas this year because the tires on their cars were worn out, he was much concerned as to how he was going to get his beets blocked and thinned, but a gang of twenty boys and girls came to his rescue and are proving that they've got what it takes to win wars.

Every morning a truck loaded with youngsters, all equipped with short-handled hoes, goes to the Meyer farm where they work all morning and again in the evening, resting through the hottest part of the afternoon. E. E. Hahn supervises work of the group. Included are Irene and Merle Philipps, Jeanne and Janet Berryman, Pauline Ray, Marcella Stefan, Loy Luree Hoppen, Roberta Messenger, Bill Iwanski, Calvin Peterson, Leland Eberle and several members of the Freeman family.

First Aid Movie Coming June 18

A first aid movie, "Before the Doctor Comes" will be shown in Ord Thursday, June 18 at the firemen's hall, announced Mrs. Mark Tolen. Mrs. Tolen is chairman of First Aid activities of the Red Cross for Valley county, and has gone to a good deal of trouble to secure a showing of this film.

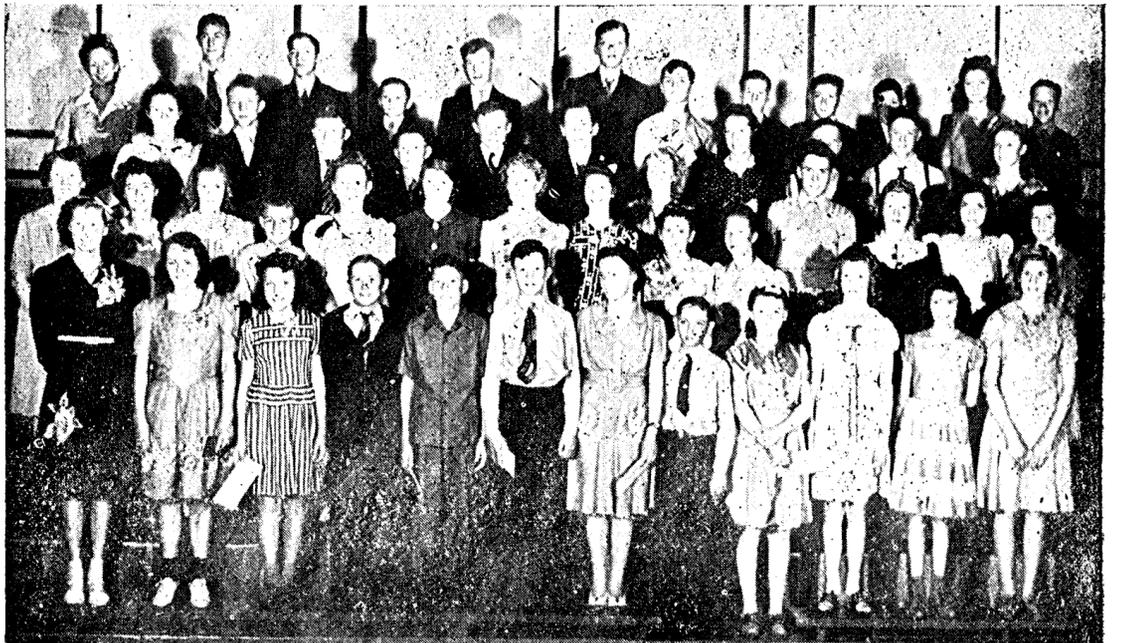

Members of recent first aid classes are particularly asked to see the movie June 18, both from Ord, North Loup and Burwell. The movie shows bandaging and various emergency treatments, and will be valuable to all who view it. The public is invited.

Following the moving picture an executive board meeting will be held, says Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, chairman of the Valley county Red Cross, who wants a full attendance at that time.

The first aid film will also be shown in Acadia on June 15, states Mrs. Tolen, at which time first aid students of that territory may easily see it.

North Loup will graduate 38 home nursing students on June 14, and Madams C. J. Mortensen and John Misko have been asked to attend. Three classes have been studying in North Loup, beginning about the same time.

Auditorium Crowded Monday as Miss McClatchey Presents Diplomas to 8th Grade Graduates

Ninety-nine boys and girls, about half of whom were present and appear in this picture, received diplomas in token of their completion of eighth grade work in the rural schools of Valley county, at promotion exercises held Monday evening in the Ord high school auditorium. Miss Clara M. McClatchey, county superintendent of schools, gave diplomas to the 48 Valley county children present and mailed them to those who could not attend because of muddy roads or other reasons. The auditorium was crowded for the exercises. Program included a book review by Mrs. J. A. Kovanda, a vocal solo by Beverly Davis and a cornet duet by Phyllis Hill and Marilynn Long. Rev. Clifford Snyder gave the invocation.

No. Loup Alumni Honor '92 Class at Tuesday Banquet

Mrs. Russell Barber Is New President; 3 Members of 1892 Class Present.

North Loup—(Special)—The North Loup Alumni association held its annual spring banquet Tuesday evening in the basement of the Seventh Day Baptist church with about fifty attending. Instead of the usual banquet, a covered dish supper toward which all contributed, was served and an abundance of good things were on the two long tables set in a "V" for victory. Beautiful flowers were the only decorations.

Mrs. George Eberhart acted as master of ceremonies. Mrs. J. Barber gave some clever celebrity interviews, revealing a number of interesting news items. Her interviews were followed by two numbers, "Ave Marie," and "Colors," by the girls' octette and a solo, "Just a Wearyin' for You," by Roger Johnson.

The class of 1892, fifty years ago, was honor class and three of its members, Peter Clement, Mrs. Orilla Hogan of Omaha and Howard Smith of Loup City, were present. Mr. Clement introduced Mr. Smith, who was class president in 1892. Mr. Smith spoke of the changes and the shortness of fifty years, stressing the point that the shortness depends largely on the friends made along the way. Other members of this class are Ray Road, retired teacher of Riverside, Calif., Dr. Frank Barker of Detroit, Ruby Stewart Buton of California, Manfred Potter of Boulder, Colo., and Mrs. Ella Breen Coombs and Maud Springer Seefus, both passed on.

Letters were read from members of the forty year class, one of especial interest from Jessie Watts Comstock of St. Charles, Ill., which gave the information that their whole family were graduates of North Loup high school and that Mr. Comstock was first president of the alumni association. Letters from the class of 1912 were also read.

Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. Russell Barber, president; Mrs. Alvin Tucker, vice-president; and Mrs. E. T. Babcock, treasurer. P. E. Clement, Roger Johnson and Mrs. Fred Bartz are new members of the executive board.

Hazel Collins Asks Annulment

In an action filed in district court here last week, Mrs. Hazel Collins is seeking annulment of her marriage to Arthur Collins, which occurred in 1934. Her husband is serving a sentence in Leavenworth penitentiary for complicity in a Colorado bank robbery, her petition recites, and there is also a question about a previous marriage involved. Mrs. Collins has been teaching school in Garfield county. Davis & Vogelanz are her attorneys.

Hugo Company May Be in Final Season on Road Until War Ends; Tires a Problem for Them, Too

Farmers and business men aren't the only ones whose movements are hampered by the tire shortage. Harry Hugo, manager of the Hugo Players who are appearing in Ord this week, says his company may be putting in its final season on the road—for the duration. The Hugo company travels by truck, has no priority on tires, and "they're wearing mighty thin," Harry says with chagrin.

He has offered the services of his company to the army as entertainers and was told by Brig. Gen. Hemminger at Lincoln that he may be called to entertain in USO posts at close of the present road season.

Some of the players well known to Ord people in former years are missing from the Hugo company this season. Stewart Hawkins, better known as "Checkers," the comedian, is working in a defense plant. So

July 2 Final Date for Office Filing

Filings for Valley county office have been slow this summer, only five candidates for the various offices have completed their filings to date. July 2 is the last date when primary candidates may file.

Harry Bellinger is a democratic candidate for supervisor in District 7, Henry Zikmund a democratic candidate for reelection in District 3, and there are two filings for the office of district court clerk, those of Clyde Baker and Ed Kerchall, both republicans. Ign. Klimka, Jr., is a democratic candidate to succeed himself as county clerk.

City to Foreclose on Maynard Property

The city council Tuesday night decided to start an immediate tax foreclosure suit on the property formerly owned by Miss Elizabeth Maynard, of Freeport, Ill., which was deeded recently to C. E. Goodhand. About $980 in taxes and interest is owing on the property and the city hopes to realize part of this sum by foreclosing on the property and later selling it at auction to the highest bidder.

1.46 Inches Rain Is Ord's Total

A total of 1.46 inches of rain has fallen in Ord since last Wednesday, reports Horace Travis. It came in four showers of .62, .58, .14 and .12 respectively. North of Ord much more rain has fallen than here and has done considerable damage by washing corn out of the ground, forcing replanting. North Loup, however, has had only one-half inch during the seven day period and other communities south and east of Ord are similarly lacking in moisture.

He was brought to Ord for x-ray examination at the Clinic hospital, after which Dr. Lee C. Nay reduced the fracture and applied a cast. Mr. Golka will be in bed for at least two months, Dr. Nay estimates.

Enjoys Southern Trip as Graduation Present

A graduation present that was really different was the trip given Miss Frances Houtby, who returned Saturday from Mobile, Ala., with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Burwell and their daughter Mrs. Bousail, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Williams of Grand Island. At Mobile they visited Jesse Williams of the air corps, who enlisted in October and is the fiancé of Miss Houtby. Corporal Williams is newly promoted and began to wear his title this week at Keesler Field, where he is stationed.

Leaving here May 20, the party report a fine trip full of interesting sights; also that it was hot down south.

Poison Hoppers Now, Warns Dale

Because of the fact that grasshoppers have hatched in large numbers and several calls for poison bait have been received from farmers, County Agent Dale announces that the mixing station at the fair grounds will be open on Saturday, June 6. It is not intended to keep the station open every day unless the demand warrants it so farmers who intend to do any poisoning soon should get the bait Saturday. Because of the shortage of burlap sacks, it is necessary that everyone bring in their own sacks, when they come for bait.

Dale advised early poisoning in places where hoppers are present in large numbers along fence rows and field borders. It will take much less bait and less labor to kill the pests now than it will after they have spread out into the fields and started damaging crops.

—Mrs. Mike Socha has been enjoying a visit from her sister, Mrs. Frank Lacombe and husband and daughter, also her niece, Miss Matilda Zukoski of Omaha who came Friday evening and left Sunday afternoon.

THEY LIKE THE PICTURES.

Being human, the editorial staff of The Quiz enjoys an occasional compliment and this week we received one that pleased us indeed.

We are glad to be able to print so many local pictures in The Quiz and we are glad our boys in the armed forces like them as well as 3,000 local families do.

We could publish a newspaper that we think would be even more interesting to the boys in the training camps if we could have their cooperation.

You could do even more to make the Quiz a good newspaper. In almost every training camp are several young men from the Loup Valley territory.

Here and now we pledge ourselves to print all the letters and all the good, clear pictures that are sent to us by the boys from the Loup Valley territory.

IS THERE A SHORTAGE?

A serious charge was made by Elliot Simpson, described as an "independent rubber dealer," in testifying before a congressional investigating committee last week.

The rubber companies named by Simpson include Goodyear, Firestone, U. S. Goodrich and General. These companies have cannily placed their men in key government positions.

Simpson charges there has not been and is not now a systematic government campaign to salvage old rubber comparable to the campaign to salvage metals, paper and other scarce commodities.

tons of rubber that could be reprocessed and combined with new crude rubber now on hand, he claims.

The resultant supply of rubber, with synthetics and natural rubber from South America, would suffice for all America's needs, both civilian and military, for years to come, he claims.

In fairness, it should be noted that the government claims rubber converters, if operated 24 hours per day, could reprocess only 350,000 tons per year.

These are serious charges and powerful claims and they should be investigated most carefully by some federal agency that cannot be controlled by any of the government officials who before the war were identified with the rubber industry.

Gasoline rationing is about to come, all because there is supposed to be a serious rubber shortage. Such rationing will severely hamper small business; will disrupt community life; will change America's way of life as nothing else could.

Americans will cheerfully submit to any sacrifice if it is a necessary one. They will get along with less sugar than they prefer without creating a serious disturbance, even though they know that most of the sugar cane in the U. S.-owned Virgin Islands is being made into rum and the rum is being shipped to this country, while shortage of ship bottoms is given as a reason for the sugar rationing need.

Heavy taxes are necessary in time of war. But who should pay them, and how much should they pay? These questions will have an important effect on the war. Taxes are a small price to give for freedom, but they must not be so heavy that they interfere with victory.

The National Association of Manufacturers recently received answers to a tax questionnaire from over 3,000 corporations indicating that corporation income available for taxes, dividends, and repayment of debt will amount to $18 billions in 1942.

The NAM has proposed tax rates that would leave business only enough money to survive and carry on its war job with complete efficiency. According to these tax schedules, the government would receive $12 billions, leaving only $6 billions for paying dividends to 11 million stockholders, meeting debt obligations expanding plant facilities and providing for a sound financial future.

Tax rates proposed by the House Ways and Means Committee would leave even less money to cover these obligations. For that reason, the House schedules, if enacted into law, might seriously hamper war production by not permitting companies to retain enough money from their earnings to carry on their business.

The problem of meeting obligations incurred before the war is a serious one now, and it will probably become more serious in the future. The NAM studies indicate that many companies will not have sufficient earnings left after payment of taxes to stay in business.

Every person--every company--must pay heavy taxes now. But in formulating a new tax law care must be taken that taxes do not hinder the war effort by draining business of funds it must have to continue its vigorous battle of production.

War days and Memorial Day make us think more about our flag. We see it more frequently, we hear more about it. And now few of us know how to treat that flag which has treated us so well, a flag which treats us better than any other flag.

If your flag is soiled or torn, or badly faded it should not be flown; get a new one. The old one should be entirely and privately destroyed.

The flag must never be a part of a costume, or be used as a drape. It must never be draped over a car hood, top or sides; properly it may be flown from the radiator cap.

No other emblem or flag should be placed above our flag. Whether in vertical or horizontal position, the blue field and stars should be at the top and the left of the observer.

Always the flag should mount to the top of the pole first. If it is to ride lower, it may then be lowered to half-mast. On Memorial Day it should fly at half mast until noon; after that the flag should fly from the top of pole as usual.

And the flag salute: do you know it? The school children know the flag salute so perhaps you and I should know it too.

Consulting my eight-year old son, I learn it goes like this: (placing the right hand over the heart)-- "I pledge allegiance to the flag and to the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands: one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for all."

At the phrase "to the flag," stretch the right hand toward the flag, palm upward, thumb folded in.

My boy was quite horrified at the news that the flag salute was not taught in the schools 90 years and more ago when his mama was a grade schooler.

The best I have heard lately was the correction my four-year nephew offered to the superintendent of schools. The superintendent was talking to the little boy's daddy, and he referred to the "school kids".

The four-year-old was wide-eyed. Remarkable he to the superintendent: "You don't mean kids, you mean children. Kids are baby goats!"

Rex Ilgenfritz Wins Marching Band Trophy

Rex Ilgenfritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ilgenfritz of Burwell, is shown above holding the Cline trophy, which was awarded to him for his proficiency in the marching band at the College of Education in Greeley, Colorado, where he is a student.

The marching band is composed of sixty-five members chosen from the school's band which numbers over a hundred. The members of the band voted five of their players in the band, Rex being one of the five chosen. The director of the band and Professor Cline who donated the trophy then select one of five to receive the trophy and Rex was so honored. His name has been engraved on the trophy which he will keep for a year and then it will be awarded to another member of the band.

Rex is also a member of the concert band, whose membership is composed of fifty-two of the best players in the school. He has been elected president of all bands for the next year. He is also a member of the a capella choir and president of his fraternity.

Millions Gallons Gas Wasted. Of the 22,000,000 gallons of gasoline consumed in 1940 by America's motor vehicles, 3,240,000,000 gallons, or 14.7 per cent, represented sheer waste from one major cause alone, namely, failure to maintain the vehicle properly adjusted for fuel economy.

Needless Sickness and Death. Illness and death from preventable communicable diseases still occur in our midst. This is almost inexcusable. It is true that these diseases have taken a very light toll in loss of life in recent years, yet as long as they are in our communities, there will be deaths directly or indirectly due to them. In Lincoln, for example, there have been deaths due to typhoid, smallpox, measles, scarlet fever or diphtheria for three consecutive years. Last year, however, there were 7 cases of diphtheria, 68 cases of measles and 152 cases of scarlet fever, and the fact that there were no deaths was more or less a matter of good fortune.

Preventive inoculations or immunizations against these diseases should be started in infancy and carried out according to a prearranged schedule. The American Academy of Pediatrics has suggested a program of Smallpox: Vaccination should be carried out at one year or, if preferred, at four months of age. Revaccination should be done at the sixth and twelfth years. This should be repeated periodically throughout life as well as at the beginning of any epidemic of smallpox.

Scarlet Fever: The patient should be immunized before starting to school. Five injections are given at intervals of seven days.

Measles: Under four years of age one should attempt to prevent the disease, but after four years, modify the attack. The preventive treatment is given on or shortly after exposure. If the material called immune globulin is given in sufficient doses immediately after exposure, the disease may be prevented. Put that Lettuce Sandwich in a Vase

We have nothing against lettuce sandwiches. In fact, we think they make most attractive bouquets—and every home should have one of them, now and then. But we do think a lettuce sandwich is still foliage—and shouldn't try to substitute for a meal.

A busy man needs nourishment in the summer the same as at any other time. Lots of times he doesn't care for a hot meal—but he still needs food.

Which is just our way of saying that our summer stock of LUNCHEON MEATS is going to be larger than ever before this season. For easy-to-fix but nourishing and tempting meals they can't be beat.

Pecenka & Son MEAT MARKET

5 Lessons In PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM

1 Don't spend money needlessly now. Save it to spend later—when the war is won.

2 Don't compete with the government. Our armed forces need the materials and manpower for war production.

3 Money placed in your savings bank will be loaned to Uncle Sam to finance victory.

4 When the war is over you'll have that money, plus interest, with which to buy the things you can't and shouldn't buy now.

5 Buying, after the war is won, will help prevent depression.

We WELCOMED
the Establishment of Price

for we saw our opportunity to prove how low Penney prices have always been. When shortages forced up the cost of all kinds of merchandise, we kept our selling prices down as long as we could. And since our prices had steadfastly withstood the general price rise, our selling prices are set at levels that make Penney's, now, more than ever, a place for thrifty people to shop. And by thrifty people we mean everybody!

Gilbert Babcock's brooder house with 80 two week old pullets burned about ten o'clock Sunday evening. Mrs. Babcock had filled the brooder stove and thought everything was alright for the night. ## LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Sgt. John W. Burrows
Now in the Ski Troops
Headquarters Detachment,
87th Infantry Mountain
Regiment
APO, No. 309,
Tacoma, Wash.

To the Editor of the Quiz:
Upon reading my copy of the May 14th edition of your paper, I found myself listed as a member of the armed forces. I've no idea who submitted my name but they were a trifle wrong about my address as you can see.

Since my regiment is the first and only one of its kind in the armed forces of the United States at present, I thought your readers might be interested to know something of this new addition to the Army.

We are basically an arctic fighting unit commonly known as "ski troopers". Our main mode of travel is by ski, snow shoe and motor toboggan. At present there are what is known as para-ski troops in training in Utah. They would be considered more or less as shock troops, operating in an emergency. We differ from these troops in that we operate in high mountainous country months of the year.

In addition to our snow equipment, we are equipped with pack mules and saddle horses. These animals are used where ever the depth of snow will permit. For instance, in the high altitudes of the Rocky Mountains, we would transport our provisions and equipment from the truck head to the front lines by pack mules about four to five months out of the year, the other seven or eight months by toboggan.

In the Eighty-Seventh we have a number of internationally known skiers, hailing mainly from Minnesota. (If I recall correctly, that is your old summer stamping ground). The balance of the regiment consists of cavalrymen, field artillery and dough boys. Personally I'm a trifle partial to the cavalrymen as that is the branch of service from which I was transferred.

At present I am a battalion ammunition section leader. The ammunition section's duty is to transport the ammunition from the truck head to its battalion headquarters at the front. In this duty pack mules are used in the absence of snow and in snow toboggans are used.

If there happen to be any previous service men there at Ord who have a secret desire to throw snow balls in the middle of July, they couldn't do better than to enlist for this regiment.

Hoping this finds the residents of Ord and surrounding communities, prosperous, and in good health, I remain,
Sincerely yours,
John W. Burrows

Suggests Music Festival.

To the Editor of the Quiz:
Some weeks have passed since the performance of Handel's "The Messiah" in Ord, but perhaps it is not too late to mention the deep impression made upon one—the better part of whose adult life has been devoted to professional singing, and who has appeared as soloist in this great work many, many times throughout our land.

Of course, I did not hear the performance and the impression made was not by the performance itself, but by the fact that Ord has arrived at the point of development which would even permit of attempting this work which is the greatest of all oratorios.

One wonders whether the people of the community appreciate how fortunate they have been over a period of years in having two men in particular, in charge of the music in the Ord schools. Mr. Duncan, whom I know and admire, and whom I watched on my yearly visits as he worked to put the community on its musical feet and made it music-conscious. And now your excellent Mr.

Deines, a stranger to me, but whose work I have come to appreciate through news items in the Quiz.

During times like these we ought to begin to realize that there is little in this life that is real aside from the arts; that dictators come and go, and the political scene changes many times in a life-span, but that work of art is permanent. The Messiah was composed over two hundred years before the Ord performance but was presented more times in 1941 than ever before.

I first took part in The Messiah as a chorister at the small college I attended. We had a chorus of near six hundred, about half of whom were farmers and their wives who had sung it from memory for years. The other half were college students, mostly from other farms. And yet, there is no place in this country where Messiah is given with such beauty and sincerity; not even in New York.

It is not difficult to visualize such a festival developing in the North Loup Valley. One can see it grow so large as to demand its own auditorium seating thousands, the chorus increased to hundreds, a symphony orchestra of sixty to eighty pieces to play Handel's own instrumentation of the accompaniments, famous soloists from afar, and people coming from hundreds of miles in all manner of conveyances to remain for a week or more of the musical festival.

If the people liked your performance they will come again and bring others. If the performance was even half-good, they liked it because it is purely inspirational writing by one of the greatest masters of all time. Here is something that would grow; slowly but permanently, and it might become greater than a rodeo or even a county fair with auto races. More power to Mr. Henry Deines, and here is hoping he will give the Messiah "bigger and better" next season.

Sincerely,
Thomas Fuson

50th Anniversary of Star.

About 80 met at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening to celebrate the organization of the Order in Ord fifty years ago, including husbands and wives of Eastern Star and Masonic members. From out of town came officers of the order, including Mrs. Mary Finch from Alliance, worthy grand matron; Mrs. Jane Outhouse of Loup City, grand associate conductress; and Mrs. Mary Farnham of Loup City, past worthy grand matron; also Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Johnson of Burwell, worthy patron and grand representative of the state, respectively. Older members were introduced, with mention made of Mrs. J. C. Work who was not present but who will have been a member for 50 years next September. Mrs. James Milford has belonged to Eastern Star the next longest period of time and Mrs. Henry Marks third longest.

Tables for the occasion were beautiful, two long ones set the length of the hall, and one at the east end for the speakers. Yellow pansies in gold paper holders, with pale yellow candles in golden wood standards, and many baskets of lovely spring flowers ornamented the hall, arranged by Mrs. Will Zabloudd. Mrs. Ign. Klima and her talented daughter Doris made skillfully hand decorated place cards in delicate pastel and gold effect, and also the candle holders.

Mrs. R. E. Teague was chairman of the program for the affair; Mrs. Mark Tolen in charge of entertainment. Mrs. A. J. Auble took care of soliciting for the covered dish supper; Mrs. F. L. Stoddard arranged the tables. Mrs. Sam Marks was guest chairman and Mrs. George Allen, reception chairman.

Menu provided was fried chicken, spring potatoes, salads in variety, baked beans, scalloped corn, and the wafers were served with individual molds of ice cream bearing the letters "50" in gold. It was a fine menu for a noteworthy occasion.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U. S.-British War Strategy Meeting
Forecasts Opening of Second Front;
Job Freeze Ends Pirating Practice;
Mexico and Brazil Fight Axis Subs

EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

For outstanding service to the nation, two of the navy's current heroes were honored by Secretary Frank Knox (center). Lieut. John D. Bulkeley (right) received the Navy Cross, in addition to the Army Distinguished Service Cross he held previously. Lieut. Comm. Richard E. Hawes was awarded a gold star to accompany Navy Cross he had already received.

U. S. AIR MISSION:
Bad News for Reich

First body blows by the United States against Nazi Germany will be delivered from the air, it was forecast when Lieut. Gen. Henry H. Arnold, head of the U. S. army air forces and Rear Adm. John H. Towers, chief of naval aeronautics, arrived in London to "consult with British officials on details of Anglo-American military co-operation."

Air raids of a magnitude and destructiveness such as the world has never before seen will eventually be the sequel to plans perfected at the conferences, observers declared. In creating a second front against Germany, American planes and fliers operating with the British to bomb German factories, defenses and communications would be under their own command.

The "softening up" process forecast by joint American and British air offensives over the Reich would, it was believed, be a prelude to invasion by United Nations' land forces of the continent of Europe later on. This was confirmed by a statement of Lieut. Gen. Somerville that "America is ready to supply men and materials on a large scale to a European front."

The American air mission in Britain was regarded as a logical corollary to Gen. George C. Marshall's London conference on strategy recently. The U. S. army chief of staff with Prime Minister Churchill and British chiefs of staff were known to have covered every war zone including Russia.

600 MILLION:
Fund for Housing

The appropriation of an additional $600,000,000 to provide living quarters for 1,600,000 war workers who will migrate to munitions producing centers was asked by President Roosevelt in a message to congress. Congress had previously appropriated $1,020,000,000 for war housing to provide shelter for workers producing essential munitions.

Mr. Roosevelt said in his message that while workers are being obtained locally as far as possible and new sources of labor supply are being called on, it will be necessary for at least 1,600,000 to move to centers of war activity during the coming year. Existing structures are being counted on to absorb a large percentage of the workers, he said, but many workers will have to be cared for through new public construction, "largely temporary in nature and designed to serve the lower-income brackets of war workers."

LYBIAN FRONT:
Active Again

Although the weather timetable said it was too late in the season, active warfare flamed again in the Lybian desert when Nazi Gen. Erwin Rommel's armored units opened an offensive against British forces south of Tobruk.

In the opening phases of what was regarded as Rommel's long-awaited general attack, the British held the upper hand and repulsed and inflicted heavy losses on the Nazis in a series of fierce tank battles.

British tank units were strongly supported by squadrons of Royal Air force planes, according to communiques from Middle East headquarters. The German army was reported operating with stronger air forces.

Observers speculated about what foxy General Rommel had up his sleeve. A master of "feinting" tactics, the Nazi leader was believed by some experts to be making a token thrust against the British southern flank in order to screen a general advance eastward along the coast toward Egypt.

TWO NEW ALLIES:
Mexico and Brazil

More effective measures against the submarine menace along the Atlantic seaboard and in Latin-American waters were forecast through the co-operative action of Brazil and Mexico in joining the United Nations' warfare against the Axis.

Operating under "shoot on sight" orders, Brazilian airmen were reported to have sunk three U-boats lurking off their northern coast. Brazil had to send her armed forces into action, said an air ministry communique, "to safeguard our sovereignty and the lives of our undefended sailors." Seven Brazilian ships had been torpedoed.

Mexico's action likewise came after the sinking of two of her ships. "We recognize the limits of our military resources," said President Camacho, "but we shall respond to the aggression of our adversaries, collaborating energetically in safeguarding America."

JOB FREEZE:
Aids War Output

In answer to the growing practice of "pirating" war workers from one industry to the other by inducements of higher wages and other incentives, the War Manpower commission moved drastically to hold "essential" workers in critical war industries and agriculture in their present jobs.

Primary purpose of the action was to step up war production hampered by shifts of workers.

Officials said the United States Employment service would be designated as the sole hiring agent for vital war industries. It was indicated that the service would be empowered to prevent any employed from leaving one job for another, except in cases where his skills were needed for a particular task and where there was a shortage of skilled labor.

Men in key positions would not be subject to military service under the draft deferment provisions of the proposal.

WAR WIVES' AID:
U. S. Is Generous

Substantial financial aid for the families and dependents of enlisted men in Uncle Sam's armed forces was approved by the separate military affairs committee, when members voted an allowance scale beginning at $50 a month for wives.

The benefit system worked out by the committee included a much more liberal war risk insurance plan than in World War No. 1. The program's provisions would start with a government allowance of $23 per month for a wife with no child, to which would be added $22 from the monthly pay of her husband. A wife with one child would receive $40 from the government, plus the $22 allotted from the soldier's pay and $10 for each additional child.

In case of a soldier with parents, brothers, sisters or grandchildren dependent on him, an additional scale of benefits was provided, including $15 for one parent, $25 for two and $5 for additional B class dependents.

MISCELLANY:

Washington: Senator David I. Walsh of Massachusetts, chairman of the naval affairs committee, predicted the Atlantic coast submarine menace will be "increasingly checked" through new plans being put into effect by the navy.

New Delhi: Gen. Sir Archibald Wavell, British commander for Burma and India, disclosed that 80 per cent of the Imperial troops sent into Burma had been safely returned to the Indian frontier.

LEND-LEASE:
More for Russ

The basis for closer economic co-operation between the United States, Soviet Russia and Great Britain both during and after the war was laid in a proposal for a master lend-lease agreement presented by the state department to the Russian government.

President Roosevelt described the proposal as similar to other master lend-lease agreements already signed by Great Britain. In effect, the acceptance of the agreement by Russia would make the Soviet a party to attaining the economic principles of the Atlantic Charter sponsored by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

The foundation principles of the master agreements already existing between the U. S. and Britain, include "national and international measures to expand production, employment and the exchange and consumption of goods," and elimination of "all forms of discriminatory treatment in international commerce, to reduce tariffs and other trade barriers and generally to attain the economic objectives of the Atlantic Charter."

The significance of this latest move is that a victorious America, Britain and Russia, working in close economic collaboration, would compose an economic bloc that would dominate the entire world.

DE GAULLE:
Warrior Only

Hopes of Gen. Charles de Gaulle that the United Nations would recognize him as the political leader of France as well as the military symbol around which Free Frenchmen have rallied, were dimmed by reactions from both Washington and London.

In a statement to the world, De Gaulle had demanded that the Allies treat his organization as a full-fledged government and war partner instead of an agency for recruiting French fighters. The Free French leader used the American negotiations for demilitarizing the French Caribbean as an example of the inadequacies of his representation in the family of United Nations. Official Washington made it clear that while the United States is continuing to give the De Gaulleists every aid possible, it prefers to wait for an eventually liberated France to designate its own political leader.

GEN. CHARLES DE GAULLE

TOJO BOASTS:
China Performs

Boasting that Japan would stay in the war "until the influence of Britain and America and their dreams of world domination were wiped out," Premier Hideki Tojo reaffirmed his country's determination to "contribute to the utmost her share as the partner of Germany and Italy."

Describing Australia as the "orphan in the Pacific, helplessly expecting Japan's attack," the Nipponese tried again the war of nerve technique by warning the Commonwealth it must reconsider its attitude toward Japan.

But while Tojo was making brave talk, disquieting news for his people came in Chinese reports that the Japanese army of 100,000 which had launched the offensive in Chekiang province had been decimated. Of casualties totaling 10,000, the Japs lost 1,500 in killed through the explosion of land mines near the key city of Kinwha.

RUSS-NAZIS:
Tanks Take Toll

As drier ground and warmer weather permitted greater movement, the tempo of war on the Russian-Nazi fronts was stepped up. While German sources made claims of strategic flanking attacks, Red army communiques reported advances along the 150-mile Kharkov front.

Mechanized units were poured into the conflict. One report told of phalanxes of 52-ton Russian tanks lumbering through German lines.

In addition to successes reported at Kharkov, the Russians claimed advances near Barvenkova.

RAIL TRAVEL:

With "rubberneck" sightseeing busses already banned and drastic curtailment of airline service in effect, the next step would be elimination in the near future of all "non-essential" railroad passenger service, federal transportation officials declared.

One step already taken was the rearrangement of stream-line train schedules to make such service available for local traffic, ODT, representatives pointed out.

Tom Lambdin Visits
Here After Operation

Tom Lambdin, of Yoncalla, Ore., is greeting old friends in Ord, arriving Thursday from Savannah, Mo., where he underwent an operation for skin cancer of the face and ear, wearing an assortment of bandages. The Lambdin family moved to Oregon two or three years ago and like it there very much.

His family are scattered. Laverne lives at Eugene, Ore., where he works for the Southern Pacific railroad, and he owns a pair of the cutest twin boys, says their grandfather.

Leroy lives at Draine, Ore., working in a sawmill, and Robert does the same work at Yoncalla, Calif., in a defense job. Betty graduated from high school this spring at Yoncalla.

The Walter Lunney family also live at Yoncalla and their oldest girl, Verna Jean, graduated from the eighth grade this year, at the top of her class.

That region is devoted to dairy and poultry producing, says Mr. Lambdin, but he lives in town, claiming he is too old to work. He tried a sea fishing trip, caught some crabs, saw a shark or two, and has never repeated the trip.

Mr. Lambdin is visiting in the homes of two sisters, Mrs. Clayton Arnold and Mrs. Warner Anthony, while here. He will leave for home in about ten days, possibly going by car with Will Gabriel. He says his Oregon home is within 80 rods of one of the two chief north-south highways of the state, in a nice easy spot for Ord friends to find him.

HEALTH HINTS FOR LIVESTOCK PREPARED BY AMERICAN FOUNDATION FOR ANIMAL HEALTH
ERYSIPELAS HAZARD FOR SWINE GROWERS
Swine erysipelas is rapidly becoming a serious threat to the country's vast swine industry. Within a few years it has spread from a small area to almost all hog raising sections of the nation. The great corn belt of the midwest is most severely affected. Known in Europe as the Red Plague, this disease affects swine of all ages. Suckling pigs and growing shotens seem most prone to contract it. Like hog cholera, erysipelas in its acute form is a blood disease, and very often the two diseases so closely resemble each other that the skill of experienced veterinarians is required to tell them apart. In any herd where pigs show ruby red ears, sloughing or drying up of the ear tips or tails, stiffness, lameness or quick deaths, one should suspect erysipelas and immediately obtain a veterinary diagnosis. Arthritis or "big joints" are also very common symptoms of the disease. Not all of the animals that contract erysipelas die, but a great many of them develop chronic organic changes that retard growth. A particularly serious feature of swine erysipelas is the fact that, once on a farm, the germs may live there for many years. Recently the federal government and several of the states have made possible a method of active protection against the disease on infected farms. Much like immunization against hog cholera the new method involves use of protective serum and a small dose of the live germ. It is recommended that pigs on infected farms be vaccinated as soon after birth as is possible. Because cholera and erysipelas so closely resemble each other it is always advisable to have pigs vaccinated for cholera around weaning time. This rules out this disease if, at a later date, erysipelas happens to make its appearance. All pigs bought at sales, in fact, all transit pigs, should be widely separated from the home herd for several weeks after arrival to avoid possible erysipelas outbreaks.

SAFeway Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 40 ★ How you can win $1000 ★ About vegetables and how to cook them
★ Meats that are guaranteed ★ How one wife made one husband happy

Eight secrets you may not know —and should... about vegetables

There's nothing elaborate or fanciful about the modern methods of preparing and cooking vegetables. On the contrary, the new way is much simpler—(as you'll discover when you read these Safeway Homemakers' Bureau hints).

1. To start, always buy the freshest, finest vegetables available. The older they are, the less attractive they become, and they lose some of their vitamins, too. Buy and use greens the same day, if possible.

2. When you get your vegetables home, wash them quickly—but don't let them soak in water, or you'll wash away minerals and vitamins. Put greens in a covered container, wrap other vegetables closely in waxed paper; and store in the refrigerator until ready to use.

3. Don't pare, cut or shell fresh vegetables until just time to cook or serve, because vitamins escape once cut surfaces are exposed to air.

4. Cook vegetables quickly, as short a time as possible, using as little water as possible. Use cooking water when it is palatable. Quick cooking means less vitamin loss, less color change. To speed the cooking, add vegetables to rapidly boiling water; and cook covered.

5. Green vegetables (to keep their color) and strong-flavored vegetables (to modify their flavor) should be cooked uncovered, in slightly more water than others.

6. Add a little vinegar, lemon juice, or tart apple to keep the color in red vegetables (like beets and red cabbage) during or after cooking. But don't add these acids to green vegetables until just serving time, or the green will turn dingy brown. Don't add soda to preserve color in green vegetables. Soda kills vitamins.

7. Serve vegetables as soon as possible. Over-cooking lessens attractiveness, sacrifices vitamins and minerals, and may cause unpleasant color changes.

Through the courtesy of Miss Virginia Davis, clerk in the Valley county selective service office, a list is printed below of all the men from this county who are serving their country under arms. The list includes both selectees and enlistees, so far as the Ord office has records.

Since some Valley county men who have been employed elsewhere in recent months may have enlisted or been selected, and accredited to other draft boards, the Quiz asks that it be notified of the names of any men who should be included in this list and do not appear here.

Except where otherwise indicated, all the men whose names appear below are serving in the various divisions of the Army.

DOING DOUBLE DUTY FOR THE DURATION

The rising tempo of America's war effort, coupled with requests for conservation of private motor vehicles, is creating an extraordinary demand for railroad transportation.

Since the imperative need for ships and armaments limits enlargement of railroad facilities at this time, maximum service must be exacted from every car and locomotive.

As good soldiers, we are doing our utmost to maintain, with existing facilities, Burlington's traditionally high transportation standards, confident the patriotic cooperation of travelers and shippers will help America's railroads do double duty for the duration.

Your local Burlington agent can advise you how best to utilize the substantial part of the transportation facilities of the Burlington that are not yet required by war traffic.

AAA News Notes

Thursday, May 28, we held an all day meeting of the precinct committeemen and their wives. The forenoon was spent listening to the program put on by the National Farm and Home Hour. The feature of the program were talks by Claude Wickard and Harry Schooler. A short program had also been arranged by the county committee. At noon a basket lunch was enjoyed. After dinner we listened to Abner K. Chestem's talk and the men then took instructions in checking 1942 production. In the afternoon Mrs. Burrows and the fifteen ladies present held an informal discussion. The following topics were discussed: Rationing; It's acceptance by the public and general effect; Philosophy in the United States today; Insufficient appreciation of one another's efforts; Meetings; When and what type of informational meetings for women should be held during the summer; Organization; County and precinct committeemen's wives attending the meeting felt they gained much by knowing one another and discussing common problems. They decided to have an organized group, meeting whenever precinct committeemen are called in for instruction. Mrs. Gladys Krikac was elected president of the group and Mrs. Wilma Cook is to serve as secretary.

The farm reporters are now ready to check 1942 production as soon as farmers are ready for them. We would like to urge every farmer to see to it that the reporter has everything listed correctly. This will be time well spent for the farmer. It is not uncommon to hear Triple A referred to as a scarcity program. This has never been true, though there have been times when due to already plentiful supplies, certain crops were restricted. It has however, been the ambition of those planning the program to so plan that the American farmer could eventually realize a certain sense of security by following this plan. We have reached the place where when the war was declared, agriculture was nearer ready for war than any industry in the United States and this all happened while a large share of those at the head of industry were howling about what the farmers were doing.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

Farmers in the west end of the county who have washed out corn fields to replant may be lucky at that. Late corn turned out best last year, and many farmers were thanking the cutworms which had forced them in 1941.

The risk of having a very poor corn crop is less when some is planted early, some medium and some late. Weather conditions are then likely to be favorable for at least part of the acreage. Most farmers like to plant early, because early corn will ripen more thoroughly and keep better. But there has been little difference in the average production of early, medium and late fields over a period of years. The yields are generally decided by timeliness of rains, hot winds and killing frosts.

Some seed corn is rather weak this season, and will sprout better in soil warmed up by late spring weather. Late corn is also less subject to cutworm damage. There are still about 120 days of growing weather remaining before the first killing frost of autumn.

Some good early hybrids may be secured that can stand heat and drought, and produce 20 per cent more than common seed. Hybrid corn is moving westward. At North Platte last fall a patch yielded 144 bushels per acre. Over one-third of Nebraska's corn acreage is being put into hybrids this spring.

Ord Library Notes.

At last the book "The Keys of Kingdom," by A. J. Cronin, is on the shelf. There has been a waiting list for this book since last August. If you have not read it, you will want to.

"The Moon is Down," by John Steinbeck, was completed in the fever heat of our first days in the war. This dramatic novel is a reflection of the feelings of men and women today. In his portrayal of a Norway village during invasion, Mr. Steinbeck has captured the heroic course and strength of free men and women.

"War and Peace," Tolstoy's acknowledged masterpiece, is hailed by outstanding novelists and critics generally as "the greatest novel ever written." The volume includes chronological tables, explanatory footnotes and a number of maps which emphasize the startling parallel between the Napoleonic and Hitler invasions of Russia.

"In the Years of Our Lord," by Manuel Komroff is a lovely book to break upon a war-torn world, a reminder that the New Testament story is ever-fresh, ever-immediate to the spirit of men. In a beautifully single re-creation of the times in which Jesus lived, Mr. Komroff retells the well-known story, and to each character he gives new clarity and identity. The narrative he tells is wholly in keeping with the spirit and mood of the Gospel version, and though much of it is necessarily invention, nothing is included which is contrary to New Testament belief.

A few other books you will enjoy are "Ramparts of the Pacific," by Hallett Abend, "Mission to Moscow," by Joseph E. Davies, "Tassels on her Boots," by Arthur Train, "Northern Nurse," by Merrick Ellison, "New Hope," by Ruth Suckow, and for the mystery fans, "Haunted Lady," by Rinehart.

NORTH LOUP

By J. A. Kovanda

Mrs. Roxie Jefferies and Ethel came up from Grand Island Friday, Saturday and Sunday and were busy vacating their home here. Mrs. Jefferies is working in Grand Island and Ethel teaches in Grand Island. Since both Arthur and Richard are in the army, there is nothing to keep Mrs. Jefferies here. She says Richard writes that he sees Sheldon Van Horn and Melford Goodrich often, that life for him in Camp Barkley, Tex., has been one continuous sunburn and peeling off. Arthur is located at Camp Riley, Ark., and his wife, the former Evelyn Kosch, has recently gone down to spend part of the summer with her husband. Mrs. Jefferies and Ethel were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Miller while here.

In taking a two day vacation last week to go to Lincoln for graduation, the Quiz reporter missed several interesting items, not the least of which was the service held Saturday afternoon near the river, in commemoration of the sixtieth anniversary of the first Seventh Day Baptist of the Sabbath School service, the Sabbath School services, twenty young people and Rev. Ehret went to the marker east of town for a picnic dinner and later in the afternoon a number of others drove down for the service which had been arranged, with Marion Maxson in charge. Rev. Ehret spoke on the appreciation of the spirit of the pioneers fathers and mothers, and Mary T. Davis told of the meeting held sixty years ago by the company of Seventh Day Baptists who had arrived via covered wagon a few days previous. Miss Davis' mother was a member of the first group sixty years ago. The marker was placed there thirty years ago by C. W. Barber, Ray Thorgate and Walter Rood and is crumbling away but steps are being taken to preserve it. From that day to the present time, the Seventh Day Baptist church has functioned continuously in this valley and the good accomplished cannot be estimated.

Bill Sims accompanied Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jackman to Grand Island Thursday afternoon and from there went to his work with the army at Camp Polk, La. He had been home on a ten day furlough. Wednesday evening he and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sims, Max, Fern and Grace were supper guests in the W. O. Zangger home.

Mrs. Emma Stude left Monday for Kearney where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. Maud Finch. Her brother, Will Flint came over after her. The Claud Barber family will move to the house Mrs. Stude has been occupying.

Mrs. Oyce Nave and Donald and Cletus Nolde came Saturday from Toulon, Ill., and spent the week end here, returning Sunday evening. All three have work in Illinois.

Mrs. Abner Goodrich and Jane Hoepfner came Thursday from Denver and are spending the week here with the H. J. Hoepfners. Mr. Goodrich went on to St. Louis and will come this way for Mrs. Goodrich and Jane on his way back.

Cleo, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hoppes is very ill with inflammatory rheumatism. Dr. Hemphill is caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Barber made a trip to Grand Island Monday.

IT PAYS . . .

To take good care of your Dairy Cows

Now is the time to start using a good fly spray. Don't wait until the flies have reduced your cream volume by 25 or 50%. Uncle Sam needs all the good cream that you can produce.

To make the most of your dairy business be SURE your cream separator is saving all of the butterfat; protect cows as much as possible; give them a chance to get in a cool and shady spot during the heat of the day; keep salt and plenty of clean fresh water before them all of the time. Take cows off of weedy pastures three hours before milking.

USE PLENTY OF BUTTER AND OTHER DAIRY PRODUCTS — IT'S GOOD FOR YOU AND YOUR BUSINESS

GET MORE EGGS DURING SUMMER MONTHS BY FOLLOWING THESE SIMPLE RULES:

Liquidate the ROOSTER. Cull out boarders, mainly fat hens. Hens with too much excess fat can't stand hot weather. Too many people have the idea that hens can gather their own feed in nice weather. In some cases this is true, but under most conditions they should be given self-feeding of laying mash the same as during winter months. They should also have sufficient grain to keep them in good flesh. Hens fed laying mash won't molt as soon and will go through the molting period faster. Keep poultry houses clean and well ventilated and free of lice and mites. Poultry should have all the clean, fresh water they need. Gather eggs often and keep them in a cool place. Market as often as possible.

U. S. Employment Service Mobilizes War Man-Power

Ord Men Available to Work on Farms Sought; Need for Defense Grows.

By recent action of the Man Power Commission, the U. S. Employment Service has been given new responsibilities in the placement and training of workers, says C. A. Bellinger, of Arcadia, district supervisor, and all workers regardless of age or sex are urged to make an effort to find out where they may be utilized to the greatest advantage.

"It is of utmost importance that the 'food for victory' program be given all-out support," says Bellinger, in announcing that Robert E. Noll, of Ord, has been designated a voluntary placement representative of the employment service in this community. Every person in this community, regardless of age, experience or amount of time available, who can help in any degree on a farm should consult Mr. Noll at once. Farmers and ranchers should call their labor problems to Noll's attention also.

With the harvest season approaching it is imperative that worker and farmer be brought into contact without delay.

There is a growing demand for defense workers in central Nebraska, Bellinger says, and all workers not now employed in defense work and available for such should get in touch with his office at once, even though they may have registered previously. Both skilled and unskilled labor is needed. Such people may talk to Mr. Bellinger on his weekly trips to Ord or may write him at Arcadia, going into as much detail as possible in the first letter as to work for which they are qualified.

Knezacek Says He Will Not Run

The 29th unicameral race was left wide open Tuesday with announcement by Joseph T. Knezacek that he will not become a candidate for reelection. He is unable to find competent help to keep his office open and cannot afford to abandon his abstract and insurance business in the event that he should be reelected, Senator Knezacek says.

Speculation as to possible unicameral candidates already is rife. Friends are urging M. B. Cummins, mayor of Ord, to make the race, but he has not yet consented to do so. John Doyle, of Greeley, and Tracy Frost, of St. Paul, both former unicameral members, are rumored as prospective candidates. Knezacek beat Doyle for the office two years ago and served with honor in the legislature.

Harry Coffee Files for United States Senator

Harry B. Coffee, of Chadron who is serving his fourth term as congressman from Nebraska's "Big Fifth" district, filed Tuesday as a candidate for the democratic nomination for United States senator. A consistent non-interventionist before the attack on Pearl Harbor, Coffee asserted on filing that "whether we wanted to get into the war or not is no longer an issue."

"We have been attacked. Everything America and democracy has meant to us is threatened by our enemies. We must fight our way to victory and a lasting peace with every ounce of strength and courage we possess," Coffee asserted.

At the same time, however, Coffee said he is firmly convinced the people and the congress must maintain constant vigilance against subversive efforts to destroy American standards and institutions from within.

Coffee is 52 years old and in the first World War served as a lieutenant in the air service.

Ord Fire Department Takes Training Course

Under its new chief, Joe Rowbal, the Ord volunteer fire department is taking a "brush-up" training course, devoting every Thursday evening to this work. Such training for all fire departments was recommended at the fire school held in Grand Island recently and attended by Fire Chief Rowbal and several department members.

Location of fire hydrants, connections, proper use of equipment, ladder work, getting to fires quickly with all equipment that might be needed, and many other things in a fireman's repertoire are being stressed during these training periods.

Tonight Ilene Duemey, the Quiz photographer, will have her first ride on a fire truck when she accompanies the Ord department on its training exercises, and the resulting pictures will be featured in next week's paper. Chief Rowbal is anxious that all firemen be present for the Thursday training this week, as a group picture of the entire department will be taken.

Leroy Frazier to Overseas Service

Leroy Frazier of Jerome, Idaho, paid Ord a brief visit, arriving Wednesday evening and leaving Friday afternoon enroute to Washington, D. C. He will spend three weeks there taking special Red Cross training, and will then have earned the title of Red Cross Field Director in the armed forces, with seven or eight men working under his direction. From Washington he will go to San Francisco and of course has no idea where he will be sent from there, but it will be foreign service.

Leroy left Ord with his family about 20 months ago, established a mortuary in Jerome, Idaho, just across the river from Twin Falls. The south central part of Idaho is beautiful and they like it very much. The family home will be there during his absence and Mrs. Frazier will operate the business. They have three boys, Joe, 9, Jack, 6, and Jim, 4. Mrs. Frazier was Miss Agnes Ulrich before her marriage, and the family has hosts of friends here.

Jerome is the location of a new Japanese concentration camp, where 3,600 will be interned throughout the war. A working force of 3,500 men is now there preparing for them.

When the family moved to Idaho, Leroy continued his interest in Red Cross work. He became Red Cross county chairman there, and soon was placed on the state advisory committee. After considerable USO work and holding the position of county chairman of the Boy Scout activities, working for war bonds, etc., he was asked to sign up for more active duty. After a day or two of thought, Leroy decided this was what he should do.

In Ord young Mr. Frazier was associated with his father, Harlan T. Frazier, funeral director. He was identified with the Methodist church, and in demand because of his nice voice. The family was a popular one and Ord regretted their departure but will be glad of his good fortune.

Visit Son in Frisco. Burwell—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pierce left Tuesday afternoon for San Francisco to visit their son Leland, his wife and daughter, after receiving a phone call from him saying that he has reenlisted in the navy after completing his four-year period. He received a higher rating, a raise in pay and a bonus for reenlisting. His parents drove Leland's car to the west coast.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jud Tedro and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hubert and little son left Saturday evening at seven o'clock for a two week trip to California, driving Miss Maxine Zalkoski is clerking in the Brown-McDonald store while regular clerks take their vacations this summer, beginning with Mrs. Tedro.

Ord Will Observe Flag Day With a Community Sing

Sunday Eve, June 14, Will be Date of Flag Day Program at Bussell Park Grove.

Sunday, June 14 has been designated as "Flag Day" and because of the war in which our country is engaged special programs are being held throughout the nation in observance of the day. In Ord the Flag Day program will take the form of a community sing, which will be held at the walnut grove in Bussell park, east of the park drive, at 8:00 Sunday evening.

This will be the first of a series of Sunday night community sings sponsored by the Rotary club, and the Valley county defense council and the city's civilian defense organization are cooperating. Mrs. C. J. Mortensen has been named by Defense Chairman Klimma to represent the council and Mrs. Ralph Misko, civilian defense officer for Ord represents this group in planning the sing. A. J. Auble represents the Rotary club.

Families of men in service are especially requested to be present at the Flag Day program, at which patriotic songs will be featured, but the entire community is urged to attend. Families may, if they like, bring picnic dinners and enjoy them in Bussell park Sunday evening prior to attending the sing.

It is planned to build a platform in the walnut grove at the base of the grassy knoll and move an organ to the platform for use in leading the singing. There will be a band concert in connection with the program also. Seats and benches will be provided for the honor guests and people who care to may sit on the grass.

Cars may be parked in the athletic field parking plot, which has its entrance on the north and Boy Scouts will be present to help people park their cars. The cars will be parked facing the west and within sound of the band and the singing so people who do not care to take part in the singing may sit in their cars and listen. It is hoped, however, that everyone will share in singing the patriotic airs which will comprise most of the program. M. B. Cummins will serve as master of ceremonies and there will be a competent song leader. Song books will be distributed by the Camp Fire girls.

Another feature of Flag Day will be a display of the flags of the United Nations. Anybody who has flags of Great Britain, Canada, Russia, France and of the United States that they are willing to loan for display in the windows of Ord stores on Saturday, June 13, is requested to leave such flags at Mr. Klimma's office in the court house by Friday night of this week. Ord business houses will display their standard flags both on Saturday and Sunday.

Plan to hear the band play and take part in Ord's first Sunday night community sing on Flag Day.

Youths 18 to 20 Register June 30 for Army Service

Registration Required Tho Boys Not Eligible to Go Until 20th Birthdays.

Valley county's selective service board is now busy making plans for its fifth registration of the nation's men and young men. Youths 18 to 20 must register between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 9:00 p. m. on Tuesday, June 30, announces Wm. Ramsey, Jr., chairman of the draft board.

Though not eligible for military service at the present time, these registrants are subject to call upon reaching their 20th birthdays.

All boys who are at least 18 years old on June 30 but who were not 20 years old, or older, on Jan. 1, 1942, will register in this group, if they are not already registered. Young men under twenty who have enlisted need not register.

The draft board's office in the Nebraska State bank building will be Ord's registration place, the lumber yard office in North Loup, the Ramsey drug store in Arcadia and the Holub store in Elyria.

—Mrs. Arthur Simmons fell from her door step Tuesday afternoon, fracturing a wrist. Dr. Barta reduced the fracture.

First Chukar Partridges in Valley Co. Hatch on the Aagaard Farm

On the Aagaard farm north of Ord this picture of baby Chukar partridges in the nest where they were hatched was taken last week, and these are believed to be the first chukars to hatch here from the birds released on the Aagaard farm a few weeks ago. James Aagaard has kept careful watch of the birds, their mating and nesting habits, and was quick to report this little brood. It is hoped Chukars will do well in Valley county.

Soil Conservation District Election Will Be Saturday

Names of 4 Farmers to Go on Ballot; Heavy Land Owner Vote Is Desired.

All owners of farm lands in Valley county are urged to vote in the election of directors for the Valley County Soil Conservation district, which will be held Saturday, June 13, at polling places established as follows:

Ord—the county court room. Arcadia—the pump house. North Loup—the township room of the Community hall.

Four farmers have been nominated for directors. They are E. O. Schudel, of Independent, Ray Lutz, of Yale, Anton Welniak of Elyria, and Henry Enger, of Noble. Although only these four have been nominated to fill the four positions, space will be provided on the ballots for writing in other names if there is sentiment favoring other men for directors.

It is important for land owners to vote at this election because the number of ballots cast will be an indication to the state committee of the amount of interest in this district. Some difficulty is being encountered in getting men for technical work of soil conservation, and a light vote might indicate to the committee there is not sufficient interest here to require quick action in setting up the organization so it may begin work.

Ord Exceeds USO Quota, Raises $303

No Reports in Yet from No. Loup, Arcadia; County Quota Is $400.00.

Quota assigned to Ord and vicinity in the drive to raise funds for the USO was $265, and within two days after the drive started this quota had been exceeded, says Floyd Beranek, the county chairman. Total already raised in Ord is $303.60 and more is coming in every day. The drive continues until July 1.

North Loup, with Albert Babcock as local chairman, was assigned $60 as a quota, while Arcadia, with Duain Williams in charge was assigned $65 to raise. Neither community has reported as yet. K. W. Peterson has not completed solicitation in Elyria either.

Beranek is hopeful that Valley county's USO quota of $400 will be exceeded by a large margin and with three-fourths of the quota already raised in Ord which has a population of only one-fourth of the county, he points out that $1,000 or more will be raised if all other sections of Valley county contribute as generously as Ord people are doing.

The USO quota for Nebraska is $148,000 and since this state fell short by about eight thousand dollars on its last year's quota, state officials are determined to exceed the 1942 quota by at least this amount.

Contributions may be left at Beranek's drug store until the drive ends, points out the county chairman.

Ord Gets 2 1/2 In. Rain in 4 Days

Valley county continues to be one of the wet spots of the state, with 2.44 inches of rain within the past four days reported by Horace Travis, official weather reporter. Saturday brought the biggest rain, 1.53 inches, while on the next two days .16 of an inch fell and on Tuesday .75 of an inch was recorded. To date in 1942, a total of 11.27 inches of rain has fallen.

Some interesting moisture figures are compiled from the records by Mr. Travis. The 10-year average for the first five months of the year is 7.84 inches, he says, which shows Ord to have well above the average in moisture this year. Driest year was 1934 when only 1.83 inches was recorded in five months. Wettest year was 1935, with 12.88 inches. Almost half of this came in the form of heavy rains during April and May, much of which moisture ran off. Mr. Travis is now working on a 50-year average for the first six months of the year, which he will have ready by July 1.

Fields throughout the Loup valley are saturated by the heavy rains of the past few days and field work is completely halted. Some washing of corn is reported. Damage to the North Loup irrigation dam was slight and is being repaired rapidly.

2 Piskorski Brothers Join U. S. Marines

Two brothers, Richard and Ernie Piskorski, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Piskorski, are now members of the United States marine corps, in training at the San Diego base. They joined at Omaha recently, were sent to Camp Dodge, Kas., for induction and from there were transferred to San Diego for training.

Both were stellar athletes in Ord high school where they played football and basketball and competed in track. Richard now 20, graduated in 1940 and Ernie, now 18, graduated in 1941. Ernie was placed by coaches and sports writers on most of the all-conference teams in both basketball and football.

—Miss Patten Frazier took the Wednesday morning bus to Grand Island, going from there to North Platte. At that place she will visit her sister, Mrs. Shirley Norton and family, and also will attend the convention of Job's Daughters being held there this week.

First Aid Course Will Open Thursday

Another First Aid course will start this week, says Mrs. Mark Tolen, chairman of the First Aid division of the Red Cross. If you want to take this course, report at the firemen's hall at eight o'clock Thursday night.

The course is particularly for young people, and will be taught by Misses Myrtle Auble and Daisy Hallen. To enroll, you must be 17 years old, or you must have completed two years of high school, please notice.

If you have a first aid book, bring it with you. If you want to buy one, they are 60c, or two students can go in together to buy one.

More and more people are wanting to take this course, so undoubtedly the new class will be well filled. Don't forget the time and place, tonight, June 11 at eight o'clock at the firemen's hall.

All Grocers Now Have Application Blanks for Sugar

People Who Seek Extra Sugar for Canning Should Fill Out Blanks, Mail Them.

All Valley county grocers have now been supplied with application blanks which people who desire extra sugar for canning purposes should fill out before presenting to the rationing board. The rationing board office has been swamped with work incident to handling these blanks, says Mrs. Grace Sprague, the clerk, and her office can no longer fill out blanks for applicants.

Under space No. 7 on the blank the person making application for sugar should list the serial number of War Ration Book held by each individual in the family, the name of each individual in the family must be written below the serial number; the number of quarts of fruit canned last year must be given; the number of quarts left over from last year; the number of quarts you will can during the period for which application is made; whether sugar is to be used for preserving, and the amount of excess sugar held by you at time of registration.

Most grocers will be glad to help applicants fill out their blanks, Mrs. Sprague believes, and in cases where the grocer cannot do so the applicant should ask a friend or neighbor familiar with the process to help in filling out the blank. The ration board's clerical force is not large enough to handle the work and will not be able to assist people in filling out their blanks, she emphasizes.

Right now people should secure only what sugar they need to can seasonal fruits, she says, and later if they desire to can peaches, pears and other fruits as they come in season they should apply for sugar for this purpose. Rules regarding issuance of sugar for canning purposes have been eased somewhat, as the government is anxious to have as much home canning done as possible, and it is thought that as much sugar will be available as can be used for this purpose.

9 Men Are Called for June Quota

Seven men have been called up to fill Valley county's June quota for military service, reveals Miss Virginia Davis, clerk of the local selective service board. The call is issued for June 11.

Listed for induction at that time are William Howard Cook, who has been teaching at Taylor but whose home is at North Loup, and who will enlist in the navy; Arthur Auble, son of Dr. and Mrs. Glen Auble, who goes directly from Washington, D. C., where he is employed; Leroy Wm. Zikmund, Hershel A. Place, Richard Dale Burrows, Theodore Roosevelt Philbrick and Fred Cahill, jr., all of Ord; Darrell Arthur Noyes, of North Loup; and Delbert LaVern Drake, of Arcadia.

Oil Well Starts at Scotia Soon

Drilling equipment arrived last week and actual drilling of an oil well will start soon on the Wm. Bredthauer farm three miles southwest of Scotia, it is announced by Henry Bredthauer and associates, who drilled a dry well south of Ord last year. The oil derrick will be located about one-half mile southwest of the Bredthauer buildings. The Taylor Drilling Co., of Centralia, Ill., who handled the test well south of Ord last summer, will drill this one also. Machinery used will be similar except that some of it will be heavier and the motors will be larger. Geologic signs are right and Mr. Bredthauer and his associates are very hopeful that oil will be discovered.

Henry Jorgensen Killed Instantly in Farm Accident

Tractor Tipped Over on Him, Crushed Chest; Funeral Rites Held Monday.

Instantly killed in a horrible and tragic accident Friday p. m. shortly before four o'clock was Henry Jorgensen, one of the most prominent and best liked of farmers in Valley county. Mr. Jorgensen was two-rowing with his tractor, when the tractor turned completely back on him as he went to cross a shallow ditch, going up-hill. Caught under the heavy machine, his chest and body were crushed and it is thought he died at once.

No one saw the accident but about four o'clock a Rockville man who was enroute home saw the tractor wrong side up and hurried to the Walter Guggenmos home to telephone Ord authorities. So badly was Mr. Jorgensen's body mangled that it was only with great difficulty the tractor could be pulled away. His skull was fractured also.

Only the day before his death Mr. Jorgensen had complained of the clutch on his tractor to his neighbor, James Aagaard, but probably more important, he had broken a safety bar which would have helped to prevent the tractor turning over as it did. In attempting to plow straight across a ditch, down one side and up the other, the tractor reared over. Several Valley county farmers have narrowly escaped death or serious injury in similar accidents.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the Methodist church, Rev. Clarence M. Jensen in charge. Pall bearers were Henry Enger, Will Nelson, Elliot Clement, C. J. Mortensen, Thorvald Aagaard and Frank Miska. Mrs. Enger took charge of the flowers. Internment was made in the Ord cemetery.

Left to mourn were Mrs. Jorgensen, the former Dora Christensen, and three daughters, Mrs. Roma Hoppes of Burwell, Misses Ruth and Alma who were at home. A son Everett, died in 1920.

Mr. Jorgensen was born Aug. 6, 1887 at Atkinson, Neb., coming to Valley county as a lad with his parents. He attended school at district 54, and of recent years had served on the school boards in districts 45 and 74. He served on the fair board for Valley county for many years, was the treasurer of Noble township and was a member of the Danish Lutheran church.

He was a kind father, a thoughtful and devoted husband and brother, a true neighbor and a good citizen. He will be missed by a great many more than his brother Walter who farms near Ord, his brother, William of Minden, and by his sisters Mena Jorgensen and Mrs. Rudolph Collison of Bruning.

Phillips Uni Group to Appear in Ord

POOR CONGRESSMEN.

Several congressmen are doing a lot of talking about the press being unfair to them because they are being criticized for demanding "X" cards to get unlimited gasoline at the time when registrations were held in the east.

The very argument put up in this instance perhaps shows why newspapers and the public are prone these days to find fault with their law-making body.

Why should a congressman, simply because he is a congressman, be entitled to more consideration than any other citizen? If he needs unlimited gasoline for the performance of his official duties, let him make a showing to that effect and receive an "X" card.

Poor congressmen! First they had to disgorge the pensions they voted to themselves, after the public hollered loudly, and now it looks like they may have to give up their "X" cards for gasoline and get along like the rest of us will have to do.

Most unfortunate feature is that congressmen who didn't ask "X" cards and who voted against the pension bill a few months ago are being made to suffer along with the congressmen who actually were guilty.

But congress can't blame upon the press the public displeasure now being visited upon it. All the press did was to perform the service it is supposed to perform, honestly and decently.

PENALIZING FAIR DEALING.

Ord merchants are finding out, as trade associations warned, that the general price-freezing order which went into effect recently has not completely solved the price problem by a long shot.

The most difficult problem is that of the "roll-back"—so called by trade groups. Long ago retailers were asked to hold their prices to the lowest level possible and the fine way in which they did this has been praised by Leon Henderson.

The largest store organizations anticipated this situation to a greater extent than did independent stores, speaking in generalities, but the freezing order was unfair to every merchant—large or small—because it made no allowance for the wide lag which has existed between wholesale and retail price indexes.

The variety stores, selling thousands of low-priced items as they do, are especially hard hit by the freezing order although most of them still have complete lines of merchandise bought at prices existing before the freezing order went into effect.

Worst of all, the merchant who cooperated with the government and held his prices to rock bottom is most severely penalized by the freezing order, while the unpatriotic merchant who at all times charged all the market would bear is actually benefited.

Some arrangement whereby merchants can price their goods at a level consistent with current wholesale prices is absolutely necessary, if American retail business is to be preserved.

COMMUNITY SINGS.

The Ord Rotary club has under consideration a project that the Quiz believes it should carry out—that of sponsoring one or a series of community sings in this city.

People enjoy and benefit from community singing, more so in war times when hearts are sorely troubled and minds confused during the normal times of peace.

The Rotary club has a wealth of capable song leaders—men who have led the singing that precedes every dinner Rotarians eat together.

Let the sing be held wherever people can sit or stand on the grass close together. There need be no accompaniment except a piano, which would be easily transportable to Bussell park or any other spot decided upon.

We need to sing together and gain courage and comfort from each other in these trying times. Go ahead with your idea, Rotary club. The public will appreciate and cooperate in your efforts if given a chance, we are sure.

ALCOHOL FROM GRAIN.

It looks like the opposition in Washington is going to have to yield to the demand that alcohol be made from surplus grains and this alcohol converted into synthetic rubber.

The Ord Chamber of Commerce has furnished all the key government men with figures on quantity of grain now in storage here, potential grain production, availability of water, cost of electricity and fuel, storage and housing facilities, and other information essential to securing a plant in this locality.

Valley county people might well write their congressman and the Nebraska senators to urge that an alcohol plant be built here, thus supplementing the efforts of the Ord Chamber of Commerce.

Several farm youths from this vicinity are taking advantage of the government mechanics training school at Kearney. Other local boys have finished these courses, and are now earning good salaries in war industries.

The Kearney program is unusual in that young men can enroll free of charge, and actually get paid for attending classes. They receive about ten dollars per month, and the government supplies them with two work suits apiece.

They may learn to be radio experts, metal lathe operators, acetylene and electric welders, or skilled craftsmen in one of several other trades in which instruction is offered.

These boys could stay at home to assist with the farm work. But they reason that it won't be long before they are drafted anyway, and wish to fit themselves for greater usefulness as soldiers or war workers when they are called in the near future.

There is a steady march of farm labor from the land to a factory job or an army uniform. Complaints of farm labor scarcity and higher wage demands are mounting.

Official U. S. Treasury War Bond Quotas for June

The above map of the country shows the War Bond Quota by states for the month of June totalling $800,000,000.

The ultimate quota for the nation will be on a basis of one billion dollars per month effective in July.

Everybody every day is expected to invest at least ten per cent of his income in War Bonds to aid in financing America's offensive against the Axis powers.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

I have been neglecting this column of late and don't have much in mind to say in it now, but several have said I should try to write it and I owe so much to so many fine friends that I am going to do so, though I really don't think it amounts to much.

First of all I want to say that no one knows how many real friends they have until trouble comes. Ever since the 17th of last November when the Missus was first stricken with a heart attack from which she could not recover, literally hundreds of friends have inquired, offered to help, wrote letters, and since her passing more than two hundred have sent messages of sympathy.

So many fashions are silly, they look silly with or without a wearer. Undoubtedly the designer intends them to be frivolous when she makes them and wants to appeal to that kind of buyers and wearers.

Something Different

When Oscar Nay was in Ord recently we were preparing to go up to the cottage on Cullen lake and he kindly offered to go up from Bayport, Minn., where he was going at the time, open our cottage, varnish our boat, clean up our yard and put everything in shape.

The dresses are fairly simple too, shirtwaist styles that become nearly everyone, in one fabric or another slightly changed version. Tailored and neat, not overtrimmed with beads, braid, lace and stuff like georgette sleeves and draperies!

Suits in streamlined examples, nothing fancy about them. The needed buttons, plainish lines, the merest of tailored collars, no cuffs, no trim, nothing so preposterous as a tight hobble-skirt!

Shoes are truly getting sensible, heels are going lower and lower after years of hobbling and crow-hopping by females who would be fashionable or die. So they minced and they teetered, and in Ord they can really teeter, for no two walks or bricks are laid on a level and those that were gave up years ago.

High school girls now are so much more clever than they used to be, it seems to me. They can sew up a blouse or make a sweater or skirt, nearly every one of them. They can "do" their own hair, even though it is myriads of curls in complicated arrangements they want.

Take Doris Klimka. She designs her own clothes, and often plans wardrobe changes for her mother, and the colored sketches she works out for them are clever.

Of course many of the girls make some of their clothes under the guidance of the home economics teacher, Mary Miller fashioned a skirt, while young Merry Craig wears a handsome full-sleeved blouse she made herself.

And they all look mighty nice. —Irma.

Dale Philbrick Wins Sharpshooter Medals

Dale Philbrick will soon be known as "Champ" to all his friends. Perhaps he already is, for he writes home that in recent competition he was champion machine gunner of the 185th regiment at Seattle, Wash. He was also champion with the Browning automatic rifle, more commonly called the portable machine gun; he was high man with the Garand rifle, the champion with the small bore rifle.

Dale left Valley county with the first crop of draftees. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Philbrick who live about six miles northeast of Ord. Two weeks before he left he was married to Miss Wilma Horner, who is with her parents at their home just east of Burwell.

Richard Albers and Rex Jewett tutored Dale when he first showed interest in good shooting, so he wrote them of his honors. Now the tutors are swelling around almost as much as Dale's infantry pals, who are happy one of them is "champ."

CHOLERA PREVENTION TO AID WAR EFFORT

During war, loss of valuable hog herds is both a severe financial blow to owners and a waste of public resources. Every pound of pork must be conserved.

Hog cholera, a totally preventable disease, will levy another 20 to 30 million dollar annual toll within the next few months among farmers who have not taken the precaution to have their herds immunized.

Long known as one of the most contagious, treacherous and fatal of all animal plagues, virus-borne hog cholera strikes without warning at the most unexpected time. Entire herds may die within a few days without a single survivor.

Swine of all ages may contract cholera. The causative virus is so virulent that the amount carried on the feet of a single fly can infect and kill a susceptible pig. The disease runs in cycles. This is a dangerous omen, in view of the fact that the number of outbreaks has been increasing for the past five years, with more than 7,000 outbreaks reported during 1941. At least double this number of herds probably suffered losses without being reported to authorities.

Owners too often mistake the first symptoms of cholera for some other trouble such as feeding errors, change of weather, swine flu, etc. Farmers should watch for such symptoms as: failure to eat, weakness of the legs, tendency to hide under bedding, scours or sudden death of one or more pigs. Any or all of these suspicious signs should have immediate investigation by a skilled veterinarian. A day or two of neglect may mean disastrous losses.

Cholera can be whipped if a living barrier of properly immunized herds blocks the spread of the virus. This has been proved in countless thousands of farm communities for more than a quarter of a century. Furthermore immune hogs bring better prices and can be fed to maximum weight without risk of cholera losses.

This year, especially, it is the wise farmer who calls in his veterinarian and has his pigs properly immunized around weaning time.

Mother-Daughter Banquet.

One of Ord's nicest affairs each spring is the mother and daughter banquet held at the Methodist church under the auspices of the W. S. C. S. This year Mrs. Maude Cochran was general chairman, and covers were placed for 200 at the Methodist church Tuesday evening.

The long white tables were lovely with low bowls of roses, and smaller bouquets of pansies and other spring flowers. In square white holders short fat candles burned, in several pastel colors. Big baskets of lovely flowers were placed about the hall, making the air fragrant.

On the program, Mrs. Orin Kellison was toastmistress. Mrs. M. M. Long asked the blessing, and then everyone sang "God Bless America". Irene Johnson gave a tribute to the mothers, after which Beverly Davis and Yvonne Whiting sang "The Me To Your Apron Strings Again", cleverly tying to the theme of the banquet.

A tribute to daughters was given by Mrs. F. I. Stoddard, then Marjorie Mulligan sang "Songs My Mother Taught Me", with Maxine Sorensen accompanying. A girls' sextette composed of Irene Auble, Beverly Davis, Phyllis Hill, Doris Klima, Elizabeth Kovanda and Darlene Carlson sang "Fairly Piper", and Marilyn Long accompanied at the piano. Miss Gail Hall gave a reading called "Ma's Tools".

Assembly singing was led by Jean Carlson, the song being "Blest Be the Tie That Binds". Miss Phyllis Hill was costumed as a living portrait of the mother of mercy, the Red Cross, while Mrs. Mark Tolén sang "Rose of No Man's Land", accompanied by Mrs. Robert Noll.

At each place the program looked like mother's apron, a lace one. It was made of a lace paper dolly, some pink or blue crepe paper and little ribbon strings were stitched at the top. Nut cups were flowers made of pink, blue or white crepe paper. Mrs. Leo Long was in charge of the tables and decorations.

Menu for the occasion was a cocktail, mock drum sticks, mashed potatoes and gravy, buttered peas, a victory salad of fresh things from the garden, rolls, jelly, ice cream, wafers and coffee. Waiters for the party were young men and boys of the town, captained by Hilding Pearson most capably, and the kitchen force was composed entirely of men.

Mrs. Harold Cuckler was the efficient chairman of ticket sales, and members of her group the Sunny Circle were the salesmen.

Attend Lutheran Rally. A group of more than 20 young people and friends of St. John's Lutheran church attended a young people's rally held at Zion Lutheran church at Worms near St. Libory, Sunday. Total attendance at the rally reached the mark of nearly 150. Young people from Ravenna, Cairo, Scotia, Grand Island, and Worms attended.

After registration, a business meeting was held in the church auditorium at which A. C. Bangert, who is president of Zone 16 of the Walthers League presided. Mr. Bangert will be remembered locally as having been the first teacher of St. John Lutheran school. He now teaches at Zion Lutheran school at Worms. In the business meeting various matters of youth work were presented and discussed. The Rev. O. Pittack of Lexington presented a detailed report on the activities of the International and District of the Walthers League.

The evening meal was served by the ladies of Zion Lutheran church and was highly appreciated by the hungry young people. Following the meal a vesper service was held in which the Rev. Pittack preached on the topic: "Walthers Leaguers as Faithful Soldiers of Christ," pointing out that "they are skilled in the use of all instruments of war, that they keep rank, and that they are not of a double heart". Zion Lutheran church rendered a number of selections which were highly appreciated.

Immediately after the vesper service the young people gathered on the church grounds for a well organized and thoroughly enjoyed "Jungle Frolic". The animal parade and stunts brought gales of laughter. Singing of songs and games brought the planned activities of the day to a close and after partaking of delicious refreshments the group disbanded, having learned to know many new friends, and richer in the joy and experience of fellowship.

Those attending from Ord and vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bredthauer and daughters Norma and Louise, Bud Lunney, Mr. and Mrs. William Fuss and Elva, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gausman, Betty Jean and Kenneth Fuss, Julius Rachuy, George Bremer, William Bremer, Frank In Bremer, Edgar Lange, Vesta Mohr and the Pastor and Mrs. David Kreitzer.

For Howard Roe. A jolly party was held Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roe when a group of friends brought baskets of good food and came to help Howard celebrate his birthday, which was the Tuesday following. Those who came were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferris, Mr. and Mrs.

Ferris, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McGinnis, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Muncy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wyrick and an assortment of children.

Birthday Celebration. Bob Gruber was going to be 19 years old on Wednesday, so Tuesday he was the guest of honor at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Frank Fafelta, and his grandmother, Mrs. E. W. Gruber was also present.

Sunday Supper. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mortensen on Sunday evening supper guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Misko, and of course Mrs. Mortensen's sisters and house guests, Madams White and Beedell.

Junior Auxiliary. Junior Legion Auxiliary girls are one of the busiest groups in Ord these days, as they take on one new project after another.

Last Thursday they dropped in at the Mark Gyger home to surprise their former sponsor, Mrs. W. R. Cochran and her daughter Mrs. Gyger, who are expecting to leave for Grand Island to make their home. Mrs. Cochran and Mrs. Gyger had entertained them a number of times, and the girls wanted to return the favor. Early in the evening games were played, and later the girls served ice cream, wafers and iced tea, also leaving both ladies a parting gift.

While planning a bingo party for the men in the Veterans' hospital at Lincoln, the girls decided they would get new inspiration from a trip to the hospital. So in the next few days they will go down to Lincoln and see how it is run and how the men live.

In the near future the girls will have their annual father and daughter banquet, although the date is not yet determined. Mrs. Verne Russell and Mrs. Cecil Clark sponsor and help this group.

Arthur Auble Weds. On Saturday, June 13, Arthur Auble will be wed at an afternoon ceremony at the Baptist church in Lansdown, Pa., to Miss Joy Busler of that place. The bride will wear a fitted floor-length gown in white, with a short face veil, and will have several attendants. Miss Dorothy Auble will sing at the marriage of her brother, "Because" and "The Ring"; and the groom's mother, Mrs. Glen Auble, will also be present. A reception is to be held following the wedding.

Arthur has been working in Washington, D. C., and there he will take his bride to reside at College Park Md. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Glen Auble of Ord, and has been gone from Ord several years, attending college at Hastings, the University of Nebraska and taking post graduate work in his special field of social science. A star student in Ord, he continued to make a name for himself wherever he went, and has many friends.

Mrs. Auble and Dorothy went east by train, leaving Friday, and from there to Philadelphia, of which Lansdown is almost a suburb.

Burwell Boys in New Caledonia, Samoa and on Palmyra Island; Hoppes Doesn't Like South Seas

Burwell.—(Special)—Dale Hoppes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoppes, is stationed now on New Caledonia, a Free French Island in the South Seas, while Jack Messenger is in Samoa and Alex Chambers on Palmyra Island. A glance at a map of the Pacific ocean will show where these places are, and their positions in relation to Australia where many other Loup valley lads are stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoppes last week received a letter from Dale, written on April 20 and forwarded to the postmaster in San Francisco and by him to Burwell. Although it was opened by the censor, nothing was cut out of the letter. Excerpts from it follow:

"Just a few lines to let you know that I am o. k. and making out pretty good. Just came back from having a good swim.

Thought I had better get back to camp because it looks like it is going to rain. That's about all it does here anyway.

"Well, I am just wondering how everyone is back home. A day never goes by that I don't think of everyone and wish I could be back home with you. But I guess there will be a day when all of us can get together once more. Sure would like to eat one of your Sunday dinners. Most of our food comes out of cans. We very seldom have fresh meats and vegetables.

"We got a 20% raise in our wages over here, that is on our base pay which is $36 a month. This gives me altogether about $67 a month. Guess I will try to save all I can. As I have said before we only get paid every two months and when we do there isn't much over here you can buy.

"This is my second letter to you since I have been here. Our mail is sent off every two weeks so I suppose this will be about a month before it reaches you. I haven't received any letters from you since those six I got about a month ago but I know that I will get some, some of these days.

"The country over here is beautiful. We are sort of located in the mountains. It just rains too d--n much for me. Ever heard of the 'South Seas and the tropics'; well, they're not what they are cracked up to be.

"They say that this war is not going to last long. Well, I sure hope it doesn't, but I think it will be somewhat longer than most people think it will. Anyway, I guess it can't last forever.

"It's pouring down now instead of raining. Guess I have to put on my rubber boots and raincoat to eat chow in.

"I suppose it must be getting pretty nice at home by now. Let's see, this is the 20th of April. Incidentally, you will or should get $80 of mine the last or first of next month... you do whatever you want to with it; I know that I can never repay you for all of the things you have done for me.

"Say mom, if you could it would be swell if you'd send me some penny postcards. We can't always get paper and envelopes just when we want them.

"We came here to New Caledonia after a week in Melbourne, Australia, and have been here since. Don't know whether the card they sent you saying I arrived safely at my destination told you this or not.

"I don't suppose there are many left back home. Suppose it would seem quite funny to me. You can keep me posted on the different things that take place back home, because I always like to know what happens back there."

Dale Hoppes is a member of "Task Force 6814 Q", and should be addressed in this way, plus "9th Station Hospital", APO No. 502, care of Postmaster, San Francisco, Calif.

SAFEWAY Homemakers' Guide

NUMBER 47 * How to get sure-fire canning results * Guaranteed fresh produce to "put up" * An easy way to find time to play

Don't risk spoilage this year in your Home Canning

Read and remember these precautionary suggestions that come from the Safeway Homemakers' Bureau. They will help protect your canned fruits and jellies from mold—help protect your canned meats, vegetables, fish and poultry from dangerous bacterial spoilage.

To avoid the danger of spoilage that botulinus bacteria brings, pressure cooking is the only really safe method of processing meat, fish, poultry, and all vegetables except tomatoes. Pressure cooking maintains the above-boiling temperature required for sterilization.

Tomatoes and fruits, because they are acid, don't favor growth of botulinus bacteria, so you may can fruits and tomatoes by any reliable method that's convenient.

Sterilization of jars, lids, and rubbers is always important. Examine them before you begin, and discard any that are nicked and cracked, because such defects prevent a perfect seal. For the same reason, be sure jars and lids fit together tightly.

Wash jars (and old lids, if reusable) in hot soap suds; rinse well; cover with warm water in a large kettle or dish pan, and boil 15 min. to sterilize. A clean dish towel on bottom of pan guards against breakage. Let jars stand in hot water until they're ready to use.

Sterilize new tops or lids by placing in pan and covering with boiling water. Always use new rubbers, and dip in boiling water to sterilize before using. There are several kinds of fruit jars and lids, so be sure you thoroughly understand the kind you use. Sealing methods differ.

No matter what method of canning you use—(open kettle, hot or cold pack), no matter what means of processing (water bath, steam cooker or pressure cooker)—be sure to carry out the specific directions that fits the method you are using.

For complete directions on all types of canning, including putting up fruits without sugar, write for Julia Lee Wright's new canning booklet. Send your name, address, and 10c in coin or stamps to Julia Lee Wright, Box 660, Oakland, California.

Lillian Moravec Married to Harvey Kraulik in Double Ring Ceremony

This picture was taken at the moment during the ceremony Monday afternoon when Mr. Rudolph Kraulik stepped up to give his formal consent to the marriage of his daughter.

Monday afternoon at two Miss Lillian F. Moravec was given in marriage by her father, Joe Moravec to Harvey E. Kraulik, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kraulik. The ceremony was solemnized at the Methodist church in Ord, with Rev. M. M. Long pronouncing the double ring ceremony.

The two small flower girls, Joyce Visek and Delores Ruzicka, dressed alike in white, appeared first to light the two tall seven branched candelabra, using pink tapers. While guests entered the church Mrs. Robert Noll played softly at the piano, using the two most famous wedding marches as the wedding procession entered and as the bride left the church. In the soft afternoon light the church was scented with many mock orange blossoms, and tall baskets of peonies, roses and white daisies made a row across the front of the church.

The blonde bride wore a dainty gown of sheerest white organza embroidered in white bowknots, made with full sleeves gathered at the wrists, with a sweetheart neckline and a swirling long skirt, over a shining white satin slip. Her veil of double white net fell from a Mary, Queen of Scots cap to fingertip length. Her flowers were pink and white carnations.

The groom's sister, Verna Jean Kraulik, was maid of honor. Her frock of soft pink and white was made with a waist fitted to the hips, from where the skirt fell full to the floor. Bracelet length sleeves were pushed up at the elbows. On her head a shoulder veil of net fell from a topknot of flowers, with which the veil matched the dress exactly in color. A shoulder corsage of sweet peas was worn with the costume.

Miss Mildred Darlene Bouda, the bridesmaid, was dressed identically, but her costume was in delicate flower blue, with veil and shoulder flowers to match. The frocks were rather ample and very effective. Miss Bouda is cousin of the groom.

William Moravec, the bride's brother, was the best man, and Ernest Parks, a cousin of the groom, also attended him. Richard Visek and William Dvorak were ushers.

The bride, graduate of the Sargent high school in 1938, has taught school in that community four years, and made many friends. The groom graduated the same year from Ord high school and is doing defense work in Omaha, and there he will take his bride within a few days.

A wedding dance at National hall Monday evening was attended by hundreds of friends who came to wish the young couple a happy married life. Eddie Kerchal and his orchestra furnished the music. This followed the reception, held at six o'clock at the Moravec home, at which there were flowers and tapers and wedding guests galore, and the traditional tall cake.

Older members are too busy to take the time for practice. There has been some discussion about having the concert on Saturday night instead of Wednesday, making only one night a week for farmers to come to town and saving tires and gas.

Safe Interval Between Blood Donations.

The human body is very economical in its use of certain important elements. One of these is iron. Iron is a very important part of each red blood corpuscle. It has to do with the transfer of oxygen from the lungs to our tissues. Lack of iron leads to one kind of anemia. When red blood cells are worn out within the body, the iron is saved and used again. When however, blood is lost as by hemorrhage or withdrawal from the body for use in transfusions, the iron contained there in is lost. A certain amount of time is required for the body to replace this.

Dr. W. M. Fowler and others at the University of Iowa College of Medicine, have studied the speed with which the body can replace this loss of blood. They find that after withdrawing a pint of blood for use in transfusion, or for other reasons, it takes approximately fifty days for the body to replace it. In women it takes a few days longer than in men. The return to normal is about twice as fast if adequate doses of iron are administered in the interval. The time of recovery where iron is given is about thirty-five days. If repeated donations are made the iron administration helps less and less.

The above figures are average, meaning that some will require less than fifty days and some more. Where a person desires to donate blood repeatedly for transfusions or for blood and plasma banks, he should not depend upon how he feels but should wait three months between donations. If there is great necessity for more frequent use of blood from a single donor a second and third time only when hemoglobin, the iron-containing portion of the blood, has returned to the normal level.

Each individual seems to have a rather constant rate of blood production under normal conditions. If it is found, therefore, that a certain person is able to replace his loss in, for example, thirty-five days, he will continue to do this after the fourth or fifth donation the same as the first. This is true, of course, providing some other circumstance, such as acute illness or a change in diet or habits, does not enter the picture to slow up his blood formation. It is safest, therefore, either to wait ninety days or have the blood tested before giving the second or subsequent donation.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Jap Air Thrust at Alaska and Midway Seen as Reprisal for Doolittle Raid; U. S. Declares War on Balkan Nations; RAF Smashes Reich War Industries

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper. Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

The harbor and town of Dutch Harbor, Alaska, U. S. naval base raided by Japanese bombers, is shown above. The air and naval base which threatens Japan's northern flank and forms a "springboard" for eventual offensives against Nippon is around the point to the left.

ALASKA FRONT: Japan Strikes

As had been expected ever since General Doolittle's spectacular air raid on Japan last April, Japanese warplanes struck at the American base at Dutch Harbor, Alaska. The first two attacks occurred within six hours of each other.

The fact that fighter planes accompanied the bombers on their raids indicated that the Japs came from aircraft carriers, since the nearest enemy island is 1,400 miles away—far beyond the range of fighter craft.

Significance of the Jap attack on the most formidable American bastion in the Aleutian Islands is that Alaska and the Aleutian archipelago lie across Japan's exposed northern flank. They offer an effective "spring-board" for eventual offensives against Nippon.

By neutralizing Alaska and knocking out American air bases, Japan would protect its flank, delay indefinitely the possibility of American invasion via this route and shut off communications and supply lines to Russia in the event of a Nipponese attack on Siberia.

Midway Island

When Jap task forces undertook an attack on Midway Island, nearest American base to Japan, 24 hours after the Dutch Harbor assault, the growing power of American air and naval strength manifested itself.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander of the Pacific fleet, announced that his forces had damaged a battleship and an aircraft carrier and exacted a heavy toll of attacking planes.

BALKAN FOES: U. S. Acts

President Roosevelt asked for and obtained a declaration of war by congress on the three Nazi-stooge governments of Bulgaria, Hungary and Rumania.

On the home front this newest war move meant a general round-up of enemy aliens of these nations and a freeing of their funds.

On the European front it was calculated to produce a two-fold effect. It would underline closer American collaboration with Russia which long has desired such an action and contribute hearteningly to the Soviet's morale. It would serve notice on Hitler's three Balkan allies that they could not escape the consequences of their association with him.

Few, however, expected America's war effort against the three new enemies to go beyond speeding up shipments of essential materials to Russia.

WAR WEAPONS: Army Has Plenty

Expanding power of Uncle Sam's army was disclosed in a report of Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson, who revealed that the army has all the weapons it can send abroad under present shipping conditions and enough to arm every soldier in the United States.

Mr. Patterson said the army today requires twice as many light arms per 1,000 men as it did before the extensive use of parachute troops.

SALVAGE PROGRAM: Patch and Pray

Greater civilian co-operation with the salvage program to speed up the flow of scrap metal and rubber loomed as William L. Batt, chairman of the requirement committee of the War Production board, warned that industry must get ready to "patch and pray."

Mr. Batt disclosed that many essential war materials are now short and declared that "our civilian economy is fast going on a minimum subsistence standard."

RAIDS ON REICH: RAF Sows Havoc

As air raid after air raid by the RAF wrought destruction in the heart of German war producing areas, the pattern of this newest offensive became increasingly clear; smash the industrial plants that produce materials for Hitler's armies; dislocate the railways that carry these products to his forces in Russia; shake the Nazi civilian morale.

How well these objectives were succeeding was indicated by British communiques. A damaging raid on Cologne was followed by two crippling blows at Essen in the Ruhr valley, concentration point for half of Germany's heavy war industries. Bremen, the Reich's second largest port, was next on the schedule.

In the first Essen raid, 1,036 British planes converged over the Krupp munitions works, showering down 3,000 tons of explosives and incendiaries. The second installment, in the nature of a mop-up was designed to slow down Nazi repair efforts.

While German propaganda continued to minimize the extent of the raids, the outlook was undeniably gloomy.

But the Reich itself was not the only target of the British planes. In one 12-hour daylight period, the RAF hurled more than 1,000 planes in relays over northern France, fanning the flames of revolt among French patriots.

WAR BONDS: More Sales Needed

"Do I really need what I am going to buy? Can't I do without it? Won't it wait until after the war?"

Americans were urged by Secretary of the Treasury Henry L. Morgenthau to ask themselves these questions before making any purchases. The point of the secretary's plea was that the buying of war bonds transcends any other purchase.

"Any man or woman who chooses this time to go on a buying spree is committing an act of sabotage against our war effort," Mr. Morgenthau said in a nationwide radio address.

Unnecessary spending, he added, drains money from the defense program, creates greater price pressure and encourages inflation. More and more purchases of war bonds, he said, are the antidote.

NAVY BILL: Billions for Ships

Two facts of prime significance to the future conduct of the war stood out in the provisions included in the new $10,452,000,000 naval expansion program over which congress deliberated as a means of giving the United States the largest navy in the world.

These facts were: 1. The emphasis on the construction of aircraft carriers; and 2. The absence of battleships from the proposed naval building program.

The program clearly emphasized the United Nations high command's belief that aircraft and fast, lighter ships equipped to fight submarines will be a determining factor in winning the war.

The naval building program, introduced by Chairman Carl Vinson of the house naval committee, would provide $8,300,000,000 for more than 500 new fighting ships over and above the current two-ocean navy plan. It would include many aircraft carriers, cruisers, destroyers and convoy escort ships specially equipped to fight submarines.

Representative Vinson reported that 100 new warships will join the fleet during the remaining seven months of this year. He predicted that the two-ocean navy program would be completed in 24 months.

WHEAT STORAGE: Wickard Gets Bins

The answer to a question that has troubled Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard for weeks past came from the War Production board in the form of a "Yes."

The "Yes" was that he can have a large supply of lumber and wire nails to build bins on thousands of farms for storage of 200 million bushels of excess wheat.

With grain elevators already pressed for storage space and transportation facilities straining under a war-time peak, the problem of what to do with surplus wheat was becoming serious. With an estimated new crop of 811 million bushels added to a 630 million bushel carryover, the United States would have 1,441,000,000 bushels this summer.

Domestic consumption and immediate shipments abroad would take 721 million bushels. Of the 718 million bushels remaining, storage space would be available for 500 million bushels. The remaining 218 million bushels would have to be stored in farm bins built with lumber and nails.

GASOLINE: Permanent Rations

From Washington came the announcement that a permanent gasoline rationing system had been devised by the Office of Price Administration for the East coast that would entitle motorists to an average of 2,600 miles of travel annually, or about 55 miles weekly.

It was indicated that the system would become effective on July 15. Observers were of the opinion that the new plan might serve as a model for nation-wide gasoline rationing when that measure is deemed essential to conserve rubber tires.

The new plan would eliminate the controversial "X" cards entitling their holders to unlimited quantities of gasoline.

LABOR FRONT: Lewis Denounced

Accusing his former close friend and associate John L. Lewis, head of the mine workers of being "Hell bent on creating national confusion and national disunity," Phillip Murray, CIO president, sponsored a resolution declaring that Lewis is "attemping to sabotage the defense program and spread the spirit of defeatism."

Murray charged that Lewis proposed to him that they go before the CIO convention, in Detroit last fall and fight President Roosevelt's foreign policies. He said he rejected the proposal as "treasonable."

The CIO blast followed by only a few hours a pledge from Mr. Lewis of his full support of the war effort and flat rejection of criticism that his policies are inimical to victory.

'HANGMAN'S' END: Czechs Pay Price

REINHARD HEYDRICH "Butcher of Moravia."

Reprisal measures which followed the wounding of Reinhard ("The Hangman") Heydrich in Prague, by a Czech patriot, increased in swiftness and severity when the news of the death of this sadistic executioner became public. The shooting of hundreds of Czechs suspected by the Nazis of complicity in the plot to rid the world of Heydrich was reported.

Ironically enough, the "butcher of Moravia" died in much the same manner as hundreds of unfortunate hostages he had ordered shot in France, Holland, Belgium, Norway, Poland and other countries during his hated career.

Hard-bitten Heydrich earned the sobriquet of "Der Henker" or hangman of the Nazi regime by reason of his ruthless application of repressive measures—usually the firing squad or the gallows—against those who dared challenge Hitler's rule.

The successful attack on this Nazi leader emphasized again the smoldering spirit of unrest in German-occupied countries—a spirit ready to flame high when Reich reverses make possible organized uprisings.

MISCELLANY:

BERNE.—German beer drinkers will find their favorite brew less potable from now on, according to Nazi announcements. Hereafter, no beer may be manufactured from malt, the basic ingredient for food in tablet form needed by the Reich's fighting forces on the Russian front. The "no malt" order followed the announcement that dining cars would no longer be operated.

BURWELL

Burwell's third annual alumni banquet was held at beautifully decorated tables set in the high school auditorium Thursday evening. Red, white and blue napkins, favors and candles supplemented by gorgeous garden flowers made the tables festive. Tables were set as Vs within Vs. White frocked girls with Vs and three dots and a dash carried out the patriotic motif. Soldiers, alumni members, were remembered in a beautiful tribute. Against a dusky background the red and white and blue banner waved on the stage. From the background came the voices of Mrs. Wm Manasil and Wm Eatherton singing "My Buddy", "Angels of Mercy", and "Rose of No Mans Land". Luther Pierce read the names of 53 in the army, 7 in the navy and three in the marines. The reveille played by Ward Pscherer and taps opened and closed the scene which ended with a spotlight suddenly lighting up the flag in all its pure glory. Writing paper with names of the boys away were handed out and add-a-bit letters were written to be sent to powder puffs and lipsticks into them. A humorous skit, a take off on the W. A. C. was presented by a feminine contingent which called themselves the "Wacks." When bivouac time came it brought with it the washing and hanging of flimsy, lacy incontinables. The captains order of "Tidy Up" brought play. Mrs. Hannah Quinn, who graduated 51 years ago, before Burwell high had reached the 12 grade stage, was presented with a lovely sheath of tallman roses in honor of her seniority. She was one of Burwell's earliest school teachers". A special delivery letter from Mrs. Margaret Mitchell Palmer, Kearney, unable to be there, who was one of the first (class of three) to graduate from the 12th grade in 1910 was read to the group. Rex Wagner acting as toastmaster greeted the 1942 class and was answered in response by Jane Philipps. Election of officers made Clifford Anderson, president, Allaire Pulliam, vice-president, Nina Nickells, secretary-treasurer, Esther Capek, corresponding secretary. Mrs. C. W. Hughes, chairman of the menu committee, and her helpers; Rex Wagner, Nina Nickells, chairman of the entertainment committee and helpers; Mrs. Lewis Moore chairman of the decoration committee, and her assistants are to be credited for this highly successful banquet. Surplus funds will be given to the U.S.O.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Jacob Osestowski, Bertha Panowicz was born in Elba, Howard County, Nebraska on Sept. 2, 1888, the daughter of Joseph and Mary Panowicz. She passed away this life at a Loup City hospital on Sunday May 31, 1942 at the age of 53 years 8 months and 29 days. While not in good health for a number of years her last illness was of a few days duration.

Her childhood, youth and early life were spent in and around Elba and following her graduation from the Elba schools she was employed in St. Paul for about a year.

On June 14, 1905 she was united in marriage to Jacob Osestowski and following their marriage a home was established in Eureka township in Valley county. To this union five children were born, all of whom survive their mother.

After living on their farm for twelve years a move was made to Winner, S. D., where they lived for ten years returning back to their Valley county farm in 1925 and remaining there until the year of 1937. At this time the deceased became poorly in health so in December of that year a disposal was made of their farm home and she with her husband moved to California to be near her children in hopes the change of climate might improve her health. These hopes were not realized and following a year's sojourn in California they returned to Nebraska. After living in Ord for a year a home was purchased in Comstock in the fall of 1939 where she lived until her death. To this home she devoted her life, being extremely fond of flowers, plants and shrubbery and her home was a testimony of her love of such things.

In early youth she became affiliated with the Catholic church and remained in that faith until her death. She was active in church activities being for many years the organist in the Elba, Elyria and Boleszyn church near their farm home. She leaves to mourn her departure her bereaved husband, Jacob Osestowski, sons Edward and Leonard of Los Angeles, Calif., and daughters Mrs. Leonard Ciochon and Mrs. D. L. Holloway of Los Angeles and Mrs. Bennie Chelowski of Ashland; her mother, Mary Panowicz, five brothers, Ed T. Panowicz of Valentine, Frank of Omaha, Joseph of California, Marion and Raymond of Elba, and one sister, Mrs. Helen Krikach of Comstock; five grandchildren, many neighbors and friends.

Bearers were her nephews Raymond, Max, Joe, Edward, Leon and Edwin Osestowski. Rosary was said at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the Hastings-Zikmund chapel. Funeral services were held at the Ord Catholic church at 9:30 Friday morning, with burial at the Ord Catholic cemetery.

IT HAPPENED IN ORD.

Archie Rowbal has a little trouble getting to work early and also bright these mornings so a couple of his good friends fixed a neat sign for his door Monday morning. The inscription read: "In Case of Fire Break Glass. I've tired." The two perpetrators of this joke were so full of chuckles they could hardly wait for Archie to come and find their sign.

Ord's colony of motorcyclists is growing. Already Earl Murray, who bought one to keep back when the gas rationing starts on the farms he is agent for, has been for a few trial spins on his machine but rumor says he "cracked up" on his last attempt. Monday Walter Anderson went to Hastings to look over a used motorcycle that "Skinny" Wilson is considering purchasing and Walter also plans to buy one for himself. Motorcycles use much less gas than autos and will be very popular when gas is rationed.

Musa Misko Hall wroted from Holdrege that she had a great time persuading her husband not to spell out "Victory" in cabbage plants across their lawn. They finally compromised on planting the terrace of their home to cucumbers. A kind of patriotism that is good to eat.

—Mrs. E. L. Achen was downstairs Tuesday for the first time in several weeks. She has been quite ill.

British Gaining Control of Air

Experts From Abroad Tell Of Winter Plans to Bomb Berlin 'All Night.'

NEW YORK.—With growing air power England has begun to turn the tables on Germany and plans to bomb Berlin in night-long raids next winter as the Luftwaffe hammered British cities last winter, aviation experts arriving from Europe on the Atlantic Clipper said at LaGuardia Field.

Four Britons, here to confer with the council on foreign relations, under aegis of the Rockefeller Foundation, also were among 21 passengers from Lisbon.

One of the conferees, William Courtney, aero correspondent for the Allied Newspapers in England, said the Royal Air force "will damage Berlin this winter" with long-range bombers streaming over the German capital at two-minute intervals throughout the night.

"The American Flying Fortress bombers will make this possible," he said. "Already they have shown that they can fly to Berlin and back in the five-and-three-quarter-hour darkness of a summer night."

Tells of Winter Plans.
For winter, he went on, the R.A.F. will be able to dispatch bombers at 4 p. m. for their Berlin objective, with others following one by one.

"The R.A.F. was loathe to attack cities until the Germans did it to us," Mr. Courtney asserted. "Aside from the intangible effects on morale, bombing of cities damages their utilities. This may stop war-paint production in a wide area for several months."

Similar raids "to level cities" in Germany have been begun "in recent weeks," he said and gave Aachen and Cologne as examples.

He had high praise for "the new Sperry bomb sight," which he said enabled flying fortresses to drop "1,000 and 2,000 pound bombs" from 37,000 feet, or seven miles, and to hit a ship from 31,000 feet altitude.

Praise British Bombers.
John J. Bergen, investment banker and director of both the Grumman Aircraft company and the United Aircraft Products company, accompanied by Leon A. Swirbul, Grumman vice president and general manager, also reported that the R.A.F. was daily becoming more formidable.

"Both the Lancaster and Stirling, new British four-engine bombers, are as good as anything we can turn out—including the Boeing flying fortress and the B-24 consolidated liberator," he said.

"I am bullish as hell that England is going to win this war," he remarked.

Midget Races Are "Out" As a Fair Attraction

The Valley county fair board held a meeting last Thursday and decided not to sponsor midget auto races as an attraction at the fair the first week in September. Uncertainty of gasoline and tire supplies prompted the board's decision.

What the feature will be has not been decided but Secretary C. C. Dale was instructed to get in touch with the booking agency which provided the fine program in 1938 to see what talent can be secured.

Pet Superstitions
It is unlucky to gamble in a room where there is a woman unless she is gambling, too, says an old superstition. "And it is usually unlucky, anyhow," commented an expert poker player recently. Therein lies the probable explanation for stag parties. It brings bad luck to play cards any place near the spot where a murder was committed. Walk around the card table three times to change your luck. It is lucky for a card player to carry the wishbone of a chicken in his pocket.

10% Reduction in Most Dry Land Is Voted by Board

Equalization Group Hears 35 Complaints, Grants One; Weller Farm Higher.

Valley county supervisors, meeting for three days last week as a board of equalization, rejected thirty-four complaints that farms are assessed higher than their real value and granted only one reduction of $150 on a farm owned by Travelers Insurance company. "No cause for complaint" was the verdict in 34 other cases by the complaint committee, which was composed of Johnson, Barber and Zikmund.

Most of the complaints were filed by E. S. Murray, as local agent for a number of non-resident land owners such as John Bookwalter, Addison Bidwell, Elizabeth Maynard and others.

The board's committee on equalization, Suchanek, Jablonski, Hansen and Brox, did however, recommend a blanket reduction of 10 per cent on all dry land real estate, exclusive of improvements, in Geranium, Michigan, Enterprise, Vinton, Liberty and Davis Creek townships; and on parts of Springdale, Ord, Yale, Independent, Noble, Elyria, North Loup and Arcadia township except the E 1/2 of Section 1.

E. C. Weller, who last year won a law suit against Valley county to have his farm north of Ord, occupied by Dick Karre, assessed at a lower figure, appeared before the board and personally consented to an increase of $3,000 in the value of his farm for tax purposes. By court decision, the assessed value last year was $10,000 and this year will be $12,600 since it has been reassessed at the higher figure and Mr. Weller has acceded.

Can't Get Any Extra Sugar for Threshers

Farmers are asking the Valley county rationing board if it is going to be possible for them to get extra sugar to feed members of threshing crews this summer, or if every thresher should furnish his own sugar. Vern W. Russell, board chairman, says regulations do not permit issuance of extra sugar in such cases and that each thresher should furnish his own sugar.

Two hundred permits for canning sugar were approved by the board at its meeting Friday; quantities varying from 3 to 36 pounds per applicant.

During the past week passenger car tire and tube certificates were issued to Dr. A. J. Ferguson, Peter Duda, Mike Noha and Bert Trefren, truck certificates to Leonard Piacnik, Earl W. Gogan and city of Ord; and a certificate for tractor tire and tube to Wm. Foth.

Community Sing Attended by 500

An estimated 500 people took part in the first community sing sponsored by the Rotary club and held Sunday evening in Bussell park. Though the evening was chilly everybody seemed to enjoy the sing and it was a tremendous success.

Mayor M. B. Cummins, acting as master of ceremonies, giving a talk about Flag Day and its observance and introducing musicians, soloists and members of the audience who called for songs. Hilding Pearson, Mrs. Mark Tolen and Jean Carlson sang solo numbers. Several members of the Ord band were present with their instruments to help along with the sing. Special readings were given by Rosellen Vogeltanz and Betsy Kovanda. Boy Scouts helped with the parking and Camp Fire Girls passed out song leaflets.

The platform built for use at these sings was very useful. It cost only $33.94, of which $10 was paid by the Golf club, $10 by Auble Bros., and $10 by the park board. The Chamber of Commerce and George Walker as action boss, donated lumber for it.

Patriotic airs were featured in this sing-fest but when the next sing is held June 28 at Bussell park other types of songs will be sung. Same practice of permitting members of the audience to call for the songs they want to sing will be followed. The Rotary club will sponsor sings every other Sunday evening all summer, with the June 28 sing scheduled to start at 8:30.

Satterfield Files for County Treasurer

Monday afternoon George A. Satterfield completed his filing for renomination and reelection as treasurer of Valley county. Of course he filed as a republican.

Mr. Satterfield has served efficiently in this office for three terms and now is seeking his fourth. His record of serving the public in a friendly, efficient way is so fine that it is doubtful if he will have any opposition, though candidates still have time to file.

Two Men Were Rejected.

Of Valley county's June service quota, all but two were accepted for military service, says Miss Virginia Davis, clerk of the draft board. The men who failed to pass physical examinations were Leroy Zikmund and Herschel Place, both of whom returned home. Ted Philbrick went directly to an induction center and other members of the delegation were given 10-day furloughs to close up their affairs.

Valley Co. Stages Big Comeback in Grain, Livestock

Land Broker Compiles Figures that Personal Property Up 77.7% in Value.

The value of all personal property on farms of Valley county increased 77.7% between April 1, 1941 and April 1, 1942, says E. S. Murray, Ord real estate dealer, after making a survey of the records of County Assessor A. R. Brox. "Valley county is coming back in a big way," he says.

Increase in hogs since April 1, 1941 is 94%, in sheep 91%, in fat cattle 28%, in yearling cattle 45%, in 2-year-olds 16%, in milk cows 14% and in stockers 2%, his records show.

Grain in storage on the farm also shows a vast increase. There is now 336,575 thousand bushels of corn in storage as compared with 141,280 last year and 193,085 bushels of barley compared with only 4,650 a year ago.

So far there has been no marked increase in the price of land as shown by sales made recently but Murray joins with other dealers in predicting that land values are due to soar, with crops prospects so good this spring and prices at their present high levels.

Frank Lee Chosen for Course at Annapolis

Frank Lee, who was a member of the Ord high school coaching staff a few years ago under Coach Brockman, is one of fifty coaches in the United States selected to take a five months' course at Annapolis, after which he will be a naval athletic director assigned to one of the four big universities where navy flyers are to be trained. Lee has been coaching at Plainview the past three years. His wife, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Meyer of Burwell, will accompany her husband.

C. Johnson's Barn Burns Tuesday

About 3:45 a. m. Tuesday a neighbor, Mrs. Will Valasek telephone supervisor Charlie Johnson to tell him that his barn was afire and when Johnson ran into the yard to investigate he found the blaze had already progressed so far that the east end of the building had fallen in. Neighbors gathered quickly but despite their efforts the barn and all its contents were destroyed.

In the barn were Mr. Johnson's tractor and plow, as well as other farm machinery and a lot of harness, and all were lost. About 400 bushels of corn stored in the barn or stacked against the west wall was burned. There was no livestock in the building but the loss in farm equipment was disastrous, especially since tractor and machinery will be hard to replace.

The barn was wired for electricity and Mr. Johnson thinks it likely that a short circuit started the blaze, though there is a possibility the barn was struck by lightning.

Gus Wetzel's Wed 50 Years, Hold Open House, Family Dinner, Sunday to Celebrate

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wetzel, well known throughout this territory for the garden truck and berries they raise on their farm near the river northeast of North Loup, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Sunday, June 14, with open house both afternoon and evening. First to call to pay their respects were Sheriff and Mrs. George Round of Ord and following closely were the Harry Millers and Elmer Larsens of Scotia. More than one hundred friends and relatives signed the guest book, coming from North Loup, Ord, Greeley, Scotia, Lincoln and Iowa. Guests were served with punch and wafers, Mrs. Dewey Wetzel, Mrs. Duane Holman, both of Lincoln, Drusilla Gebhart, of Greeley, Mrs. Greeley Gebhart, Mrs. Floyd Wetzel and Dorothy, all taking turns at the serving. Janet Gebhart of Lincoln and Betty Lou Gebhart had charge of the guest book.

A family dinner held at noon was attended by sixteen members of the family, all being present but the John Schaffners of Boone, Ia., and during the forenoon Mrs. Schaffner called long distance to wish her parents many happy returns of the day. A three tier cake, brought from Lincoln by the Dewey Wetzels, formed the centerpiece for the table. The cake was decorated in gold and white.

Among the many gifts presented Mr. and Mrs. Wetzel, were two easy chairs, the gift of their children, eleven beautiful bouquets, linens and china and a gold heirloom pin, which came

Campaign Started to Salvage Rubber, 100 Tons Hoped For ### Petroleum Companies Acting as Buyers; President's Address Launched Effort.

A call to all citizens of Valley county was sounded Monday by Ign. Klima, Jr., chairman of the Valley county defense council urging all citizens to bring in to nearby service stations all articles of discarded rubber that may be found by a thorough search through attics, basements, garages and barns. Service station operators of the county, responding to a call of President Roosevelt are donating their time and services as collectors of scrap rubber for 16 days from June 15 to June 30. The scrap rubber can either be donated by the public, with the proceeds going to worthy war relief agencies, or the service station operators will pay one cent per pound for the scrap rubber, Uncle Sam promising to reimburse them later for such cash outlays.

"By salvaging rubber, everybody can help their country to overcome a serious shortage of a vital war material," said Mr. Klima. "Every little scrap is worthwhile. A bathing cap, an old hot water bottle, an unusable tire or tube—these are the kinds of old rubber that our country needs."

"Everybody in Valley county will cooperate fully with the service station men once they understand how vital our scrap rubber needs are. We can, we must retrieve every scrap of rubber in this county and place it in the hands of Uncle Sam," said Klima.

Public response to the president's appeal for scrap rubber was immediate, say operators of Ord filling stations. By Monday almost every station had a big pile of old casings and rubber scraps and it has been coming in ever since. Verne Andersen, of the Phillips station, estimated Tuesday noon that he had purchased 1,500 pounds of rubber since Monday morning and thought other stations had as much or more.

R. Claude Clement, chairman of the USDA war board, which is cooperating in the rubber salvage campaign, says he thinks 100 to 150 pounds of scrap rubber can be salvaged from the average farm in Valley county. Farmers have great amounts of scrap laying around in the form of old tires and Mr. Clement thinks a price of 1c per pound will bring it out.

If his estimate is correct, there must be 100,000 pounds of old rubber on the farms of Valley county alone. Accumulations at garages, filling stations, city dumps and town garages and residences should bring forth an equal amount, or perhaps 100 tons for the county.

Cummins Will Not Be Unicameral Candidate

M. B. Cummins authorizes the Quiz to say this week that he has decided not to enter the race for the unicameral legislature in the 29th district. Though appreciative of the many requests that he do so friends everywhere have made, and the many offers of campaign assistance he has received, Mayor Cummins feels that his own business requires that he remain in Ord and that he could not spare the time to make a proper campaign and, if elected, could not attend to the duties of the office as they should be attended to.

Joe Vasicek Hurt in Haystack Fall

Joseph Vasicek suffered a broken hip, broken shoulder and terrible bruises Sunday when he fell from the top of haystack at his farm west of Ord. He was brought to the Ord hospital where he was attended by Dr. C. J. Miller, who says that Mr. Vasicek's condition is serious but not critical. He probably will have to be in bed three or four months and will be unable to work for at least six months, Dr. Miller says.

USO Drive 'Over the Top' with $403 Now

The drive for funds to aid the United Service Organizations is "over the top" in Valley county, reports Floyd Beranek, county chairman. Quota was $400, and on Monday a total of $403 had been turned in. Beranek is hopeful more money will be donated before July 1 when the drive is to be officially closed.

Arcadia met its quota of $75 but North Loup is still far short of its $65 quota, having turned in only $23 to date, he says. The North Loup people are continuing their drive for a week in hope of raising the quota assigned to that community. Ord far surpassed its $265 in two days after the drive opened, donating a total of $303 in that period. A few donations have been added to Ord's total since reveals Beranek.

Mrs. Claude Dalby Passes at Arcadia

Born at Arcadia Feb. 7, 1892, Mrs. Dalby spent her entire life in Valley county, 25 years on one farm. Her marriage to Claude Dalby occurred Sept. 4, 1910 and five children were born to them, one son dying in infancy. Left to mourn are three sons and one daughter, Ralph and Vernon, in the armed forces, Delmar at home, and Mrs. W. Hill of Omaha. Her husband survives and she also leaves one sister and six brothers.

Quiz Short of Help

Small Paper Result

Subscribers are asked to overlook our shortage of news this week and accept our promise that future issues will contain more generous quantities of both news and features. A rush of engraving and printing work from out-of-town has kept the regular Quiz flow and several part-time assistants working all the hours they could stand the past week, and the absence of the regular reporter on vacation has made it impossible to seek out personal and social items to any extent. Size of the paper was cut to 8 pages necessarily but we hope to have the Quiz back on its regular 12-page basis next week.

Firemen Pix Postponed.

Pictures of the Ord fire department taken Thursday evening by Irene Duemey will appear in some near-future issue of the Quiz, with other photos showing other phases of the "post-graduate" training course the firemen are taking.

Herschel Place, who failed to pass the examination for military service at Fort Crook and returned to Ord, is now working as a barber in the Furkack shop. He worked 12 years in the Gilbert shop.

Ed Roessler, formerly a baker's helper in the Johnson bakery, is now employed at a bakery in Grand Island. His family are residing in Ord for the present.

Mrs. Vincent Kokes and Miss Bette Vogeltanz drove to Kearney last Thursday to spend the day.

Miss Mildred Foreman, of North Platte, is visiting this week in the Stanley Gross home. She is a high school teacher at McCook.

A BIG SUCCESS.

The first community sing has come and gone and it was a big success. Even the weather man cooperated by holding off on the rain, though most people agreed Sunday night was a bit too chilly.

IN A TOUGH SPOT.

You hear a lot these days about high prices being paid for agricultural products and the unthinking person might surmise that the farmer about has everything his own way.

Prices of pork, and grains and eggs and butterfat are very satisfactory, true, but it must not be overlooked that everything the farmer has to buy is at a record high price, too.

So life isn't exactly a bed of roses for the farmer these days. He arises by sun time and goes to bed by war time and puts in longer days at hard work than he ever did before.

PUBLIC MORALE.

The principle upon which our government is founded requires that public officials treat the people with perfect frankness. Local officials are expected to tell taxpayers openly and fully how their tax money is being expended.

Sometimes public officials, on the plea of "economy" in local matters, or perhaps "military necessity" in national affairs, keep the people in the dark about matters which they are entitled to know.

But when one Washington bureau says there is plenty of gasoline but it may have to be rationed to save rubber, and another says this won't help because rubber deteriorates as fast as it wears out from use, and still another says there is plenty of rubber in the country for both civilian and military use, while a fourth claims that new methods of making synthetic are entirely changing the rubber picture.

Now the president has taken matters into his own hands and has ordered systematic salvage of used rubber for two weeks, after which a definite decision will be made on whether or not nationwide rationing is necessary.

If it is shown to be necessary to ration gasoline either because of a shortage of gasoline, or of transportation, or of rubber, the decision will be accepted calmly by all Americans. But we want the facts and we are entitled to them.

Something Different

One thing learned last week: there are numbers of people wanting nice pups.

We had a spare puppy, a bob-tailed shepherd dog, and it really was a darling. "Champion" or "Champ" had worlds of pep. He pranced and played from morning 'til night and was wanting more play after he had worn out his playmates.

He was cunning to see, fat and cuddly like a teddy bear. He looked like the puppies those famous Alaskan huskies have.

But we couldn't keep two pups in town. Country children can have several dogs, but town children are lucky to have one. Hence the want ad in last week's Quiz. And did we have answers.

For more than a week came telephone calls and door bell punches who wanted that pup. A good many of them wanted to pay for him, but he had already found a good home, with little Joan Sedlacek for his mistress.

Many of those who wanted him were almost belligerent: they were determined to own that pup!

I think we could have placed 15 puppies in fine homes where they would have been cherished.

So if you have surplus puppies, I am sure there is a good home waiting near by. Don't turn them loose to be stray stragglers.

Of course if you want to use a Quiz want-ad, it's O.K. with me. But at any rate, I know you can find good homes for puppies.

I think most people prefer mongrel pups for their children, and I think this is probably wise. With no big cash value or investment, a pup isn't such a worry to adults or children.

Then I don't think mongrel dogs are nearly so high-strung and nervous. They don't jitter and jump so. Their stomachs seem better organized—they can eat nearly anything and get along beautifully. This saves bills for fancy dog food.

And another thing: experts say that mongrels are the quickest to learn and smartest of all dogs. Proof of this is any dog show. You check me if I'm wrong—out of eight or ten dogs, three-fourths of them will be pert, smart trick-doing mongrels!

Did I ever tell you of John Parkins as a little boy? He was stopped on the street by Dr. Miller who asked: "What kind of a dog do you have there, John?"

Proudly the young fellow answered: "My mother looked it up, and he's a genuine COMMON MONGREL dog!" -Irma

AAA News Notes

The 1941 marketing quota cards will soon expire and before a farmer can sell his 1942 marketing card. These new cards will be ready for the farmer sometime during the fore part of July.

Now is the time when it is hard to hold up egg and milk production. Yet in order to meet the goals we must hold our production as high as possible, keep the flies down as much as possible and feed the cows and hens the proper feeds. Prices on both these products are good and it will pay to keep production at as high a level as possible. At the same time you will be helping your country by producing much needed food.

Farmers and laborers should keep in mind that in each town in Valley county we have a man appointed to try and help the laborer find a job and the farmer find a man. In Ord it is the Noll Seed Co., in North Loup it is the North Loup Loyalist and in Arcadia it is Harold Weddel. There is bound to be a serious labor shortage during harvest and it is believed that these labor bureaus in each town can help to a great extent if you will cooperate with them.

Beginning June 15 we will start an intensive scrap rubber campaign. Following is a copy of a telegram sent Chairman Chestem by Secretary of Agriculture Wickard:

"President Roosevelt has asked me, through war boards, to request every farm home to bring in scrap rubber in intensive two week drive starting June 15. President announced county war boards would head up drive in rural areas. All filling stations collection points, buying rubber penny a pound. Oil companies bearing cost of collection and bulk transportation. Profit goes to war relief agencies. State salvage executive secretary has full instructions. Get in touch with him at once and call immediate meeting of your board or board executive committee to put program into effect. Send copies this telegram to every county war board and supplement with specific instructions. Important that full resources of every department agency be used in coordinated way to meet the goal set by the president."

When You and I Were Young Maggie

10 Years Ago This Week. The Co-op Oil company was moving into its new station. Mrs. Walter Guggenmos, mother of five small children, passed away.

Valley County's 1932 fair was definitely called off because of the depression.

Dr. J. P. Laub was leaving Ord to sell piston rings in South Dakota.

Miss Ella Stowell was married to C. J. Van Boven. Miss Myrel Turner was married to Lloyd Zelewski.

The worst flood in 25 years struck, bringing 4 to 5 inches of rain within a few minutes at Arcadia and varying heavy amounts elsewhere in the county. Three county bridges were washed out.

To cure the depression, people were being urged to buy liberally during "national clearance sale week," a move sponsored by the Legion to stimulate industry and make more jobs available. # BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

Nine kinds of oil crops are growing in our chemurgic test plot, better known as "Hell's Half-Acre." Donald Pelska is cultivating this strange assortment of plants on his father's farm about five miles north-east of Ord.

There is safflower from India. People in India and in Russia make paint from it. Red saffron dye is also manufactured from safflower. The oil of safflower is like linseed oil but has an advantage in that it won't "yellow-up" paint as linseed oil does. Safflower may yield from 10 to 35 bushel of seed on dry land or 40 to 60 bu. per acre under irrigation. It can stand zero temperatures, but is susceptible to grasshoppers. Combines will harvest it.

Lallamentia is another oil crop from Russia. Donald is raising the best lallamentia stand ever grown in Nebraska.

Sesame is an edible oil crop from Japan. Sesame seed is also sprinkled on rolls or bread, and bakeries are offering 24c a pound for it. A field at Manhattan, Kas., yielded 750 pounds per acre last year. Sesame seed is highly nutritious, containing lots of calcium. Folks could grow some at home for their own use. Donald's sesame stand may not mature before frost.

Castor bean oil is a special lubricant, also used in preparing paint for ships. It is the only substitute for tung oil, now unobtainable, that makes a paint which will withstand salty water. Fourteen different varieties of castor beans are growing in the Ord chemurgic test plot. A patch of flax, drilled in as farmers would seed it, looks good for more than fifteen bushels per acre. Flax seed prices are fixed at $2.10 per bushel. It would not be surprising if Valley county grew some fields of flax in the near future.

Plantings of rape, sunflowers, soybeans, and peanuts are also in the chemurgic test plot, as sources of edible oils. More will be told about these later.

THRIFT
An Old Word With New Meanings.
It's a word that many people say but few really understand. It's a word that means thrift. There was a time when people were proud of their thrift. They were proud of keeping up with the Joneses—too little pride in living within income. All that has changed now. Good Americans are learning the satisfaction of making a little go a long way—of doing without unnecessary luxuries and services. These people by the million are joining the ranks of Penney customers—people who have always bought for cash, who have always carried their purchases home—who have always practiced the thrift to which patriotism now compels us all.

Charles E. Sandall
State Director, Nebraska Committee

Q. All places licensed to sell legal beer are regulated by the State Liquor Commission, but what about the "spike joints" along rural highways?
A. Unlicensed, unregulated "spike joints" have no license which the Liquor Commission can revoke, but the Commission and the Nebraska beer industry are working with local officials to solve this problem where it exists.

Q. What about the charge of too much drinking at Pearl Harbor? Some people are repeating that rumor.
A. This baseless slander on the men of the Army, Navy and Air Corps is completely refuted by the report of the President's Commission of Inquiry, headed by Supreme Court Justice Owen D. Roberts. It is spread only by emergency opportunists trying to use the war as an excuse for another corrupt and crime-ridden prohibition era.

Q. How does legal beer benefit Nebraska and the United States, in peacetime and in war?
A. Through its Liquor Commission, Nebraska is able to regulate the sale of legal beer everywhere it is sold—even in unincorporated areas. The legal, regulated sale of beer has brought Nebraska more than $3,850,000 in taxes since 1933. To the United States, the legal brewing industry means thousands of workers buying 12 millions in War Bonds each year... and legal beer's taxes of more than 1 1/2 millions of dollars daily could build 1,000 new Flying Fortresses, or 43 new destroyers, or full equipment for 1,300,000 well-trained soldiers in a single year. How's that for helping!

Let us select one of our grand, properly aged steaks for your Father's Day dinner. Broil it or fry it, or cook it outdoors on the picnic grill—you can be sure Dad will go for it in a big way.

DOING DOUBLE DUTY FOR THE DURATION

The rising tempo of America's war effort, coupled with requests for conservation of private motor vehicles, is creating an extraordinary demand for railroad transportation.

Since the imperative need for ships and armaments limits enlargement of railroad facilities at this time, maximum service must be exacted from every car and locomotive.

We are maintaining with existing facilities Burlington's traditionally high transportation standards, confident the patriotic cooperation of travelers and shippers will help America's railroads do double duty for the duration.

Your local Burlington agent can advise you how best to utilize the substantial part of the transportation facilities of the Burlington that are not yet required by war traffic.

War Board Fears a Harvest Season Shortage of Labor

Harvest Crews of Town Men to Work Evenings Called for; Big Crop Coming.

With the biggest small grain crop for Valley county in twenty years approaching harvesting stage, a shortage of harvest season help is feared by the USDA war board, says C. C. Dale, its secretary, and this week the board issued a call to business and civic groups in Ord, North Loup and Arcadia for cooperation in the harvest emergency.

To the Rotary club, American Legion, Cosmopolitan club and to the Community clubs in North Loup and Arcadia, this week went a letter suggesting that business men and their employees work evenings in the harvest fields in the same manner as was done during the World War days.

Harvesting crews might be organized in every town to help farmers get their grain in shocks during evening hours, the letter suggested; business men who have employees experienced in farm work might release them during the rush harvest period or arrange to let these men off for afternoon or evening work; men employed in town who are physically fit and willing to do harvest work might be urged to take their vacations during harvest season and put in the time on farms.

It would not serve the best interests of farmers to have business houses close in the middle of the afternoon, as had been suggested, says the USDA war board. Farmers will have breakdowns of machinery and will need quick service on repairs or blacksmithing; they will want to get their groceries and make all other needed purchases on a single trip to town, and therefore business establishments should remain open during usual hours, it is suggested.

WPA will finish work on the Ord-Ericson road this week and release 40 or more able-bodied men for harvest work, it is stated by the war board, but since so many farm boys and farm laborers have left Valley county to enter services or to work in defense plants there will still be a shortage of labor during rush harvest season.

Soil Conservation Directors to Meet

Henry J. Enger of Ord, Ray Lutz, of Arcadia, E. O. Schudel of North Loup and Anton Welniak of Elyria were elected as directors of the Valley County Soil Conservation district, and have received official notice of their election from the state soil conservation committee at Lincoln. These four farmers along with C. D. Noll of Ord who was appointed by the state committee to serve as director will meet Wednesday evening June 24 to elect their officers and to execute a formal request for technical help for the district.

H. E. Engstrom, executive secretary of the state committee will be in Ord to meet with the board to assist them with the organization work, and the development of a plan of work for the district. The recent heavy rains while welcomed by everyone because they will make a big crop possible, have not been an unmixed blessing. In many sections of the county they have carried off thousands of tons of topsoil which can not be replaced. Far sighted farmers are going to adopt methods which will not only get a bigger share of this rainfall into the subsoil, but will also hold the topsoil on their farms. They hope the local soil conservation district will enable them to solve these problems.

Drowning Averted as Small Raft Tips Over

Sunday afternoon horseplay caused a real fright at the farm home of Eddie Bartos, when a home made raft which Mr. Bartos, Eddie Nedbalek, Joe Bartos and Donald Craig were using to cross a small pond tipped them into the water. Only Mr. Craig could swim, and the others "came up" to bump into the raft but were hauled out without a worse effect than a muddy water bath for their good clothes. Joe Bartos was especially rueful, for he was wearing new shoes and also got his hat well soaked. The water was more than six feet deep where the accident took place. The farm is about a mile north of the Burwell-Ericson highway, 15 miles north of Ord.

Children Hitch-hike 550 Miles to Visit

Visitors in Ord this week are the three children of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Williams, who lived in Ord a few months ago while Williams was a railway mail clerk on the Union Pacific railroad. The children, Jake, 14, Harvey, 12, and Dorothy, 17, arrived Friday evening from their present home in Arkansas, traveling by hitch-hiking. It took them only 21 hours to make the 555-mile trip to Ord.

While here the Williams children are visiting in the William Ramsey home where they lived during their stay in Ord.

Many Filings for County Offices

Valley county political interest is growing as the end of time for filing approaches, and the county clerk's office has been doing a rushing business for the past several days. Among filings are those of Emanuel Petska, democrat, for assessor; John P. Misko, republican, for attorney; S. V. Hansen, republican, for supervisor Dist. 7; V. W. Robbins and J. A. Barber, both republicans, for supervisor Dist. 5; and Jason Abernethy, republican for assessor by petition of 25 or more friends, which he has accepted. C. W. McClellan has filed with the secretary of state for director of the North Loup irrigation district, Dist. No. 1, in opposition to Roy W. Hudson who filed previously. J. W. McGinnis filed as a candidate for director in Dist. No. 2, against F. A. Barta, who filed a few weeks ago.

Extensive Changes at Catholic Church

New Entrance and Walls Are Being Cemented; Confirm 35 Children Tuesday.

At the Catholic church, extensive changes are being made. A new brick-walled flight of steps makes the entrance look much better, and workers are also busy covering the foundation walls with cement and making a walk around the building. A new driveway has been installed and cemented between the parsonage and the church, and it is hoped this will help keep the basement dry. New steps have been built on the north side of the church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. About a month ago new vestment cases were put into use.

Distinguished visitors who came for the confirmation of 35 children Tuesday evening included Bishop S. V. Bona of Grand Island, Rev. Henry Munsterman of St. Libory, Father Murray of Burwell, Father Czajka of Loup City, Father Robert O'Neill of Spalding, Father Czesny of Sargent, Father Szumski of Elyria, and Paul Wachtrle, seminarian who has been helping with catechism at St. Paul this summer. Father Thomas Siudowski was host to the group. Rev. Siudowski taught "summer school" for the church youngsters the first week. For the past week Sisters Mary Borgia and Mary Fabian of Chicago, members of the Felician order, have been the instructors. They will hold school for about two weeks longer, at the end of which time first holy communion will be given to those who are entitled to receive it.

Must File Costs July 1

All Valley county retailers must file their lists of "Cost of Living Commodities" with the ration board by Wednesday, July 1. These prices represent the maximum a merchant may charge for practically all products he sells, excepting fresh fruits, vegetables and other perishable commodities. Call for the lists was issued by Chairman Vern Russell, of the rationing board.

Old Songs to Feature Rotary Sing June 28

The community sing to be held at 8:30 Sunday evening, June 28, will feature old familiar songs known to everybody, says Jay Auble, who is in charge of the sing for the Rotary club, sponsor group. Such tunes as "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," "Grandfather's Clock," "Home on the Range," "Folly Wolly Doodle," "Let the Rest of the World Go By," "Till We Meet Again," and a score of others equally well known will be included in the song-sheets which will be distributed free. Members of the audience may call for any special numbers they want, also.

A solo by Mrs. Mark Tolen, a reading by Mrs. Ralph Misko, a cornet duet by Phyllis Hill and Marilyn Long and a trio by Dorothy, Carolyn and Irene Auble will be other featured numbers. Everybody is invited to attend the sing. Take part in the singing if you choose, or sit in your car in the athletic field and enjoy the singing if you prefer. Boy Scouts again will help in parking cars and Camp Fire girls will distribute song-sheets.

Mrs. F. P. Ackles Passes Friday

Mary Lunney was born at Centerville, Ia., on March 8, 1872. She was the daughter of John L. and Nancy Lunney. She passed away on June 19, 1942 at Ord Clinic hospital at the age of 70 years, 3 months and 10 days. She has been in poor health for the last few years, but her last illness was but a few days duration.

Her early life was spent in Centerville. She entered school there and at the age of twelve they moved to Red Oak, Ia. She was married to Franklin P. Ackles on May 20, 1897 at Red Oak, Ia. They farmed near Red Oak for two years then moved to Seward county in Nebraska. Here they farmed for eight years. They then moved to a farm near Exeter and in 1917 the family moved to Ord, where the most of her remaining years were spent. In 1931 the family moved to their farm south of Arcadia where Mr. Ackles passed away in 1938 and since that time she has made her home with her son Floyd.

To this union three children were born. Floyd of Burwell, Franklin of Greeley and Ina who passed away in 1920. She has been a member of the Methodist church since a child and was very active in church work until her later life. She was a very devoted wife and mother, and dearly loved grand-mother and will be greatly missed by a great host of friends.

She leaves to mourn her passing, her sons Floyd and Franklin, her step-sons, Ralph of Comstock and Arthur of Bellville, Kas., a step-daughter Bernice of Omaha and a niece Mrs. Edna Gillan of Concordia, Kas. whom the family raised from childhood, also a sister Imogene Bonner of Salt Lake City, Utah and a sister Elizabeth Beggan of Los Angeles, Calif., and brothers George of York, Frank of Grand Island, Charles of Columbus and Daniel of Ord, and several other nieces and nephews and grand children.

Gyger Witnessed Big Ordnance Plant Cave-in

Mark Gyger, formerly district engineer for WPA here and now on duty at the ordnance plant in Grand Island, witnessed the cave-in of a cement wall which last Thursday took the lives of four men and injured several others. Ord men visiting in Grand Island saw him that evening and say he was still un-nerved by the tragic accident. Though several Ordites are working at the plant, none was injured in the cave-in. Lorenz Fischer, a cousin of Gerald Dean of Arcadia, was one of the men killed, and a brother of a Burwell man was among those injured.

Raymond Cronk New C. of C. Secretary

Raymond Cronk, employee in Nebraska State bank, was selected by directors of the Chamber of Commerce, to serve as secretary for the present, taking the place of Alfred Wiegardt, who left Saturday for California. The Chamber presented Wiegardt with a fitted toilet case in recognition of his years of service to the organization.

Johnson on Vacation

O. E. Johnson, agent for the Union Pacific here, left Tuesday evening by rail for San Francisco for a two weeks' vacation. The Johnson family has been there a couple of weeks with relatives. M. F. Edwards, of Gibbon, is relief agent in Ord.

Eureka Township's Small Grain Crop Is Ruined by Hail

Storm Hit Friday Noon, with Heavy Wind; Rain, Light Hail, Came Elsewhere.

Eureka township's prospect of a big crop of barley, wheat, rye and oats went glimmering Friday when a heavy hail storm accompanied by a tornado-like wind and deluge of rain hit soon after the noon hour, continuing throughout the afternoon and much of the night.

The AAA county committee which visited the territory Monday reports that small grain will be practically a total loss from the Naroz Gizinski farm at the west edge of Elyria to a point west of the Boleszyn church, and from 1 1/2 miles south of this church to a point 3 or 4 miles north of it. Lighter hail damage was reported elsewhere but the storm centered in this part of Eureka township.

Between 3 and 4 inches of rain fell in this territory during the storm. Wind did almost as much damage as hail, breaking down trees, demolishing small buildings, breaking windows and killing chickens and small pigs.

Among the farms where damage was heaviest were the Jim Ruzicka, Albert Kamarad, Jake Walahowski, Anton Baran, John Zulkoski, and Jim Visek places, though many others suffered greatly. Corn, just getting a good start, was broken off at the ground level by hailstones but probably will not be greatly damaged as the season is early.

A few Eureka farmers are planning to plant corn in their small grain land if the ground dries enough to permit it but most of them will list kalo or milo later. All of central Nebraska had a heavy rain Friday afternoon or night but only light hail is reported in most places and there are few instances of damage from either hail or wind outside of Eureka and the edges of adjoining townships.

Ord received 1.35 inches of rain Friday, which added to .17 of an inch on June 19, .10 on June 21, and .13 on June 23 and 24 makes a total for the week of 1.72 inches. During the same period North Loup got 2.14 inches, of which 1.57 came in the Friday storm. Comstock got 1.97 inches Friday. The Lone Star community east of Burwell reports 4 inches between Friday noon and Saturday morning, with some hail. Elsewhere the rainfall varied between 1 1/2 and 3 inches.

138 Families Given Sugar Certificates

The rationing board at its meeting Friday approved certificates permitting 138 Valley county families to buy extra sugar for canning purposes. Amounts varied between 3 and 35 pounds but lack of space prevents the printing of all the names.

Passenger car tires and-or tubes, all of obsolete sizes, were issued to James Sich, D. O. Hawley and Albert Hought, while J. H. Marvel and Jack Romans were permitted to buy truck tires and-or tubes.

June Bond Quota of $9,400 in Sight

Valley county will complete its War Bond quota of $9,400 for June, believes C. J. Mortensen, county chairman. A check-up Monday disclosed sales of $9,175 so far this month, and with more than a week to go he is confident the quota will be reached. Valley county's quota was raised from $6,000 in May to $9,400 in June. Chairman Mortensen expects the July quota to be about the same as this month's.

Freak Strawberry

Resembling a star, or perhaps an octopus, this freak strawberry was found in her garden last week by Mrs. Paul Duemey.

Service Stations Heed Roosevelt Request to Have Rubber "Stand Up, Be Counted"

All over the land piles of used rubber like the one pictured here are "blooming" this week in front of service stations, but it remained for Vernon Andersen, manager of the Phillips station here and chairman of Valley county's rubber drive to really put the rubber where it can "stand up and be counted," as President Roosevelt suggested in his radio address. Making effigies of Hitler and Hirohito from old rubber raincoats, boots and inner tubes, Andersen then hanged the figures from a lamp post. Valley county people are getting the idea and are bringing their rubber to Andersen's and the other Ord service stations taking part in the salvage campaign. The petroleum industry in Valley county is cooperating 100 per cent, Chairman Andersen says.

Cash Prizes and War Bond Offered in Drive for Iron

Get in Rest of Co.'s Scrap Is Aim of New Campaign; Weekly Prizes Paid.

Although Valley county farmers have responded well in the campaign to bring in their scrap iron in the past few months, a survey by the AAA community committee indicates that about 30% of the farms still have scrap on hand varying from small amounts to several tons.

In order to stimulate the flow of scrap iron, R. Clare Clement, chairman of the Valley county USDA war board, announces an intensive drive to take place in Ord from next Monday, June 29 to August 1. Business men and civic organizations are cooperating in the drive by offering prizes to the individual farmer bringing in the greatest amount of scrap iron. As a grand prize, Howard Huff, IHC dealer, and Orin Kellison, John Deere dealer, are offering a $25.00 defense bond. This will go to the man bringing in the largest amount of scrap iron during the entire period.

The Ord Chamber of Commerce has agreed to sponsor the drive for the first week and is offering $6.00 in three prizes to farmers bringing in the most scrap iron during the week of June 29 to July 5 inclusive. The prizes will be $3.00, $2.00 and $1.00. Other civic organizations will be asked to sponsor prizes for the following weeks, and merchants and business men are invited to offer additional merchandise or cash prizes as they see fit.

President Clement has asked the presidents of the local civic organizations, C. J. Mortensen of the Chamber of Commerce, R. E. Misko of the Ord Rotary club and Kenneth Draper of the Ord Cosmopolitan club to function as an over all committee in general charge of the drive.

Former drives were hampered somewhat by bad weather which made it difficult for farmers to get their old iron to town at the time cars were on track. Arrangements have now been completed so that an Ord dealer will buy scrap at all times and will pay the same prices which were paid by the dealer who previously handled the scrap at the tracks.

Farmers are urged to cooperate in the drive by bringing in the scrap at any convenient time. They will be paid the highest price it is possible to pay, according to the ceiling price established by the government, will have an opportunity to win a nice bonus, and will be helping to back up the nation's fighting men.

Dr. Kruml Appointed Chief of Surgery Staff

Dr. J. G. Kruml, former Ord physician now serving in the army medical corps at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., has been promoted to the rank of major and has been made chief of the surgical staff at this post. Ord relatives learn Dr. Kruml entered the army as first lieutenant and some months ago was promoted to rank of captain.

New 4-H Livestock Club Is Organized

Thursday evening a group of boys and girls met with Clarice Fiala and were organized into a 4-H livestock club by County Agent C. C. Dale, electing Leroy Noll president, Lyle Flynn vice-president, Douglas Dale secretary and Clarice Fiala reporter. Then Clifford Goff took over and discussed feeding of brood sows and litters. Mr. Goff himself was one of the early 4-H club boys. During World War I, Clarice Fiala's mother was a pioneer organizer of 4-H clubs when this work was in its infancy, introducing into several central Nebraska counties the nation's plan for boys and girls in agriculture and home economics. At that time Valley county was outstanding in its number of breeders of registered hogs, whereas now they are scarce not only in the county but in the state.

Mrs. Nels Larsen, 81, Passes in Ord

After two years of ill health, during which time she was tenderly cared for at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ellsworth Ball, in Ord, Mrs. Nels Larsen died Monday at the age of 81. Funeral services are being held at 9:30 a. m. today at the Hastings-Zikmund funeral home and burial will be in the Osco cemetery near Minden.

Born Oct. 13, 1860 in Wensyssel, Denmark, she grew to young womanhood there and was married to Fred Petersen, nine children, being born to them of whom two died in infancy, a daughter at the age of 12 and later another daughter, Mrs. Fred Thompson. The family came to America in 1892, remaining in Omaha until 1904 when they moved to Minden. Her first husband died in 1908 and five years later the family moved to Ord where Mrs. Petersen's marriage to Nels Larsen took place in 1914. Following the death in 1920 she moved back to Minden where she lived until about two years ago when, her health having failed, she came to live with Mrs. Ball. During this period she had been bed ridden much of the time.

Left to mourn are five daughters and sons, Mrs. Christina Brandt, Omaha; Mrs. James Mortensen, Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. Ellsworth Ball, Ord; Harry and Henry Petersen, Kimball; also three stepchildren, Miss Carrie Larsen, Louis Larsen and Lars Larsen, all of Ord. There are also 20 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

130 Boys Expected Register June 30th

Approximately 130 boys between the ages of 18 and 20 are expected to register in Valley county's fifth selective service registration on Tuesday, June 30th, says Miss Virginia Davis, clerk of the local draft board. In Ord registrations will be taken at the draft board office, in North Loup at the lumber yard office, in Arcadia at Ramsey's drug store and in Elyria at the Holub store. These places will be open for registrations from 7 a. m. until 9 p. m., Miss Davis says. Volunteer registrants will assist draft board members.

Rubber Quota for County Exceeded but More Wanted

34 Tons Turned in Tuesday Noon, 50 Tons Expected by Close of Drive.

Up to Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Valley county people had turned in at filling stations a total of 68,000 pounds of used rubber, it was stated by Vernon Andersen, who heads up the rubber salvage campaign for the Valley county defense council, of which Ign. Kilina, Jr., is chairman. Quota assigned to this county was 63,500 pounds so Valley county is well "over the top" but 100,000 pounds by Saturday night of this week when the drive closes is hoped for by Andersen and his assistants.

The petroleum industry volunteered to help gather old rubber so the nation's stockpile could be figured exactly and President Roosevelt opened the nationwide campaign with a radio address in which he urged people to gather the rubber where it could "stand and be counted."

In this county the drive started slowly, gathered speed late in the week but came almost to a halt Saturday when a heavy rainstorm and muddy roads prevented farmers from hauling their accumulations to town. Rubber began to come in again Monday and is continuing at a rapid pace.

At noon Tuesday a total of 10,000 pounds had been collected in North Loup and 18,000 pounds in Arcadia. Elyria reported only 200 pounds and Ord had about 40,000 pounds.

In Ord the Cooperative Oil company led all stations with 14,000 pounds Tuesday noon. The Clement station had 6,000, Coryell 4,835, Sinclair 1,520, Service Oil 2,010, Standard 2,943, Zelenewski 636, Phillips 4,498, Dugan 1,205 and Thomas Rasmussen, junk dealer, had purchased 2,000 pounds.

Everything containing rubber is wanted and will be paid for at the rate of 1c per pound at any filling station in the country. Old tires and tubes are of course the main source of used rubber but there are hundreds of other articles in domestic and industrial use made out of rubber.

Children are cooperating especially well in the rubber salvage campaign, Chairman Andersen says. Both in town and country they are searching garages, barns, vacant lots, junk-filled fence corners, dumping grounds and gullies for used rubber and they are hauling it in coaster wagons and trailers in astounding quantities.

All the old rubber in Valley county—not just part of it—should be collected during this two weeks' drive, for the country's future plans as to tire and gasoline rationing depend upon accurate knowledge of the amount of old rubber available. If you have any rubber around your house or farm (make a search of the premises before you say you haven't) you are asked to sell it to the government through some filling station before Saturday night.

BRING IN THE RUBBER.

The filling station men of our town and county deserve the commendation of all for the way in which they are handling the rubber salvage campaign. Given only two or three days' notice before the campaign was due to start, Chairman Vern Andersen and the petroleum industry in Valley county are really getting in the scrap rubber. Quota for the county was only about 63 thousand pounds but this was exceeded in the first week of the drive and more has been coming in right along.

This is one campaign that must have the public support, and it is getting it. Not only is rubber coming in off the farms but town residents are finding a great deal more rubber scraps around their houses than they thought they had before they began searching for it.

Old pieces of rubber hose worn-out bathing caps, old rubber door stops, golf balls the dog played with, old flyswatters, girdles, and the dozens of other articles made from rubber and commonly used in American homes are finding their way to the scrap piles at Ord filling stations.

Americans have a stake in this campaign, for on its success or failure hinges the whole question of gasoline rationing. If enough used rubber is turned up to make it seem there will be sufficient for military needs during a long war, it is likely gasoline will not be rationed except in sections where transportation is lacking and where no petroleum is produced.

Help your filling station make the rubber salvage campaign the biggest in history. You will be paid 1c a pound for all the rubber you turn in, but may donate it if you like and the money will be given to a worthy war cause. But whether you sell it or donate it, get in the rubber.

Whether the war is won or lost may depend on getting old, useless rubber into circulation where it can be reprocessed and made into new tires for the cars of soldiers and war workers.

NATIONAL DAIRY MONTH.

Throughout the nation the month of June is being observed as "National Dairy Month," and this important month of individual endeavor to build up the dairying industry and wide acceptance of its products is doubly important because of the war effort.

Dairying is immensely important to Valley county, for it creates income estimated at well over $200,000 for the farmers of this one small county. The year 1939, last for which the figures are available, showed that the total value of all dairy products sold from Valley county was $159,492. This year, with more milk cows on the farm and higher prices in effect, it would not be surprising if value of such products runs a quarter of a million dollars.

Today American dairymen are producing enough more milk over and above what they produced five years ago to fill a train of 5,800 gallon tank cars 7 1/2 miles long every morning. That's the way dairymen have accepted Uncle Sam's challenge that they must do their part in feeding the American people and their allies.

Here in Nebraska dairying is the fifth most important industry. Cattle rank first, then corn, hogs and wheat and then comes dairying, with poultry raising in sixth place. Dairy products in Nebraska in 1940 were worth $16,834,000.

Dairy products are giving vigor, vitality and efficiency to workmen making the munitions at war; they are giving steady nerves to busy, harried executives; they are building good bones and teeth in the bodies of the coming generation.

A FEW THINGS TO THINK ABOUT

Written by GEORGE COWEN

Peppy's Diary From the West Coast.

May 14

Dear Folks: We have had another excitement here. Tuesday and Wednesday the city filled up with sailors and soldiers and we found that there were many battle-ships in harbor. Then they said an airplane carrier came in. No one knew a thing about it and everyone wondering. Some said last night that some of them had loaded with soldiers and sailors and gone but there seems to be lots there yet. They are so far off shore that one only sees a black spot. The air was so full of planes you could hardly "hear yourself think." They were single, in pairs, and in bunches of five to fifteen, and a man said they were watching the ships.

The people here got up a petition to have the santeen or "saloon" taken away from the harbor because of so much drunkenness.

The ministers at the churches here, about two weeks ago, preached on temperance and where I went he said, "if the war is won it will be in spite of drink. If lost it will be on account of drink."

State Director, Nebraska Committee

Q. What truth is there in the statement that there is as much bootlegging today as there was under prohibition, when bootlegging flourished?

A. There is no truth to the statement, particularly as to conditions here in Nebraska. During prohibition days, there were many large "stills," operated by gangs, which produced great quantities of cheap, poisonous liquor to supply the bootleg trade. Since repeal, there have been virtually no "stills" operating in Nebraska. There have been some isolated cases of bootlegging, but nothing as compared with conditions that prevailed during prohibition. It is a fact known to enforcement officers that when legalized sales are voted out, the bootlegger moves in.

Q. What about the idea some people have—that beer should be forbidden to soldiers, in camps and elsewhere?

A. Secretary of War Stimson said: "The War Department is convinced that temperance cannot be attained by prohibition. Experience has proven that the present policy of the Department is the most effective way to insure temperance." Secretary of the Navy Knox said such prohibition would be "a suppression and invasion of American rights." Beer was specifically exempted from General Pershing's order to the first A. E. F. in France, prohibiting certain beverages.

Q. What use does the State of Nebraska make of the more than $450,000 received annually from taxes on legal beer?

A. This revenue, amounting to about one-twentieth of all tax revenues received by the state, is used for:

- Old Age Assistance
- Aid to Dependent Children
- Aid to the Blind
- Child Welfare Services
- Aid to Crippled Children
- Distribution of Surplus Commodities

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

A Pioneer Says . . .
The writer had the pleasure of a trip to that part of our county where he roamed carrying a gun 60 and more years ago. The gun was not to hunt Nazis but for the most essential of all things, something to eat. At that period though some people seem to doubt it, there was an abundance of game, both deer and antelope and the writer got the last elk killed in the Loup valley.

Mr. A. J. Leach in his book of hunting stories of Nebraska says that in the "70's" where the county corners of Wheeler, Valley, and Garfield met was the best game country in the state. I found it so and seldom came home without game of some kind.

One can hardly realize the change during this sixty years and more. Where once at that period was only the vast sandhills and blowouts now are a quantity of fine farms and the crop outlook was never better. Not much wheat or oats is grown but the wheat on the Aspinus farm looked as fine as I have ever seen in Valley county. Only two fields of oats were noted but they were very good. Barley and corn were never looking better and some fields of barley were already tinged with the ripened color. Corn seemed a perfect stand and free of weeds as one rarely sees. On the whole I have never seen a better crop outlook than that of the vicinity of the Joint school.

About three years since a man planted out about ten acres of land to trees on one of the most sandy tracts north of the former Ellsworth Ball ranch. Today those trees are from 6 to 15 feet in height and there was not a dead tree in the entire tract. Although a tree planter myself all my life I certainly was surprised and can see thousands of acres of the sandhill land could be turned into a vast forest. Some day that may happen. There seems to be always moisture only a few inches below the surface in any place in these sandhills. What a benefit it would be to our state were these waste lands in one huge forest. One can look ahead as to what may occur in the future but from the changes that have taken place in around 65 years, nothing is impossible. Now that the highway from Ord to Ericson is being completed there will soon be a fine road from Ord to Ericson and less than an hour may put one at the best fishing place in our part of the state.

These notes refer to a trip on June 21, the longest day of the year. They could be extended but there are other bids for the space.—W. A. Anderson.

OBITUARY

Emily Katharine Visek.
Emily Katharine Visek was born January 3, 1916 at Ord, being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vencil Visek, and passed away Wednesday morning, June 10, 1942 in Omaha.

She moved from Ord with her parents in 1918 to Comstock where they lived two years. Then they purchased a farm home in West Union school district seven miles west of Sargent. Emily received all her schooling there. They lived there until 1937 at which time her parents moved back to Comstock. During this time Emily worked for some years in Ord. In 1939 she operated an ice cream parlor in Sargent. For a year and a half following, she worked in the Sargent bakery for Mr. and Mrs. Leland (Wood-ley) Wilson. In 1941 in May she again worked in an ice cream parlor. The following November she went to Omaha to work. For a few months she was employed in a private home. In January, 1942, she secured a position with Swift and Co., in the defense canning department. On Monday, June 8, she was advanced to the position of "check girl" at a considerable raise in salary. She was now working on the night shift and it was after midnight or Wednesday morning, June 10, 1942, as they were on their way home from work that she and two companions met death as the result of their car crashing into a train on thirty-second and Dahlman street in Omaha. At the scene of the accident Miss Visek was identified as Vera Aiden. However, Miss Aiden was found alive at her home and identified Miss Visek by the ring she was wearing. Her sisters, Anne, and Mrs. Edwin Kosminicki were then notified and Edwip Kosminicki was called to acknowledge the identification. Her body arrived in Sargent Wednesday, by way of Ansley.

Emily leaves to mourn her departure from this life her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vencil Visek of Ord, two brothers, Vencil of Fort Riley, Kas., and Edward of Ord, and five sisters, Anne and Mrs. Edwin Kosminicki of Omaha, Helen of Lincoln, and Irene and Irene at home in Ord and a host of friends and relatives.

Rosary was recited Thursday night at the Spooner mortuary and Friday night at Visek home.

Saturday morning, June 13, 1942, at ten o'clock at the German Catholic church a solemn high mass for the dead was sung with the Reverend Michael Szeszesny of Sargent as celebrant, Rev. Thomas Siodowski of Ord as deacon and Rev. Constantine Szumski of Elyria, as sub-deacon, and Mrs. Vencil Huss of Sargent furnishing the singing and music. So many came to pay their respects that all could not be accommodated in the church and had to stand outside the church doors.

Emily was escorted to her last resting place by four little flower girls dressed in white, Rosalie and Hilda Visek, and Margaret Boro of Comstock and Joyce Visek of Sargent; and four honorary pall bearers Misses Rosie Brim, Irene Benson and Helen Klapan of Sargent and Miss Edythe Holoun of Ord, and the pall bearers, George Valasek, John Valasek, Wilard Visek and Ernest Zabloudil of Ord, Glen Granger of Comstock and Frankie Brim of Sargent.

On Monday evening, June 29 the citizens of Ord and vicinity will be Ak-Sar-Ben's guests at its 1942 Den Show in Omaha. Free tickets may be obtained from Ak-Sar-Ben's Ambassador, Mr. E. C. Leggett.

Ak-Sar-Ben's Den Show annually marks a season of friendship get-togethers for citizens of Nebraska and western Iowa. Each Monday evening, from June 8th through June 27th, thousands of residents of the two states gather at the Coliseum in Omaha to get better acquainted and at the same time share one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year.

The annual Den Show invitation to outstate residents is extended by Ak-Sar-Ben as another good will gesture to promote friendship and cooperation among all midwesterners. This year, however, its production takes on added importance in the light of Ak-Sar-Ben's response to appeals from high government and civic leaders to carry on all normal activities in order to maintain strength and good cheer on the home front.

The 1942 Den Show production is "Hi-Jinx in Hades", a hilarious, beauty and dance-packed revue depicting a hot spot reception arranged for Herr Hitler and his cohorts. It has a cast of over one hundred.

A special committee will be on duty at the Coliseum on Den Show nights to welcome visitors who will occupy a reserved section at the show on the night named. As in the past, a free buffet lunch will follow the performance.

Ranchers north of Burwell are realizing that they've been missing thousands of dollars every year by not stripping their bluffs of seed. Now commercial grass strippers from Minnesota and other places are stripping the seed from the meadows. The process, which merely takes off the top, does not hurt the grass for Bossey's breakfast food and at the same time adds a valuable source of income for the ranchers. Amelia and Chambers have done this for the past number of seasons but the practice is spreading much nearer Burwell, probably because of the lush blue grass growth since all the May and June rains.

Mrs. Wentworth's Nut Cake Delicious

Mrs. John Wentworth is the original maker of the delicious nut cake or currant cake recipe which the Quiz wrongly credited to Mrs. Ernest Horner two weeks ago. If you are saving this series of Good Ord cookery, please correct this.

Mrs. Wentworth finds time to do delicious cooking like this; to manage a good deal of property; she has raised several girls who are now good citizens in their own rights; she keeps a lively interest in current affairs.

NUT CAKE OR CURRANT CAKE.

- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup butter
- 1/2 cup milk
- 2 cups flour
- 5 egg whites beaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 cup any fruit or nuts added last from Mrs. Krikac's sister, Miss Lillith Pierce. She drove in from Pueblo, Colo., last Tuesday evening and from here will go to the home of her parents, in Bartlett, Ia., for a few days before going on to Ohio where she has employment.

IT HAPPENED IN ORD.

Saving paper with a vengeance, making the best of what was at hand, etc., etc. The Quiz this week for the first time within memory, received some news written on (s-s-sh) toilet paper! And it didn't injure the quality of the news either. Any way you turn in news, we still like to get it.

The Jim Zulcoskis have two banty hens, both of which lay eggs. Not unusual, but neighbor Fred Coe swears one of them crows every morning about six. To all doubters, Mr. Coe issues an invitation to come and hear the crowing and see the little hen.

Adopting coyotes doesn't seem to be such a happy thought. The first cunning litter so far, early bottle-fed at the Ed Kerchal home got wet one day and all of them died. When Andrew Zulcoski gave the Kerchals' two more coyote pups, the coyotes got away, and nothing was heard from them, directly. But when 40 fat young chickens at the Norman home disappeared rapidly until only four were left, the boys took steps. Bringing the four hens in the house, they set traps and caught two very well-fed coyote pups. It is said the coyotes will never catch another chicken.

When the rubber drive started last week Charlie LeMasters dug up several hundred pounds of ancient tires and tubes from the basement of the garage building he occupies. Among the horde was one inner tube which seemed to be in perfect condition, though of an obsolete size, and Charlie thinks it came out of a tire on an old Packard owned by Guy Burrows perhaps 20 years ago. Earl Murray bought the old tube for $1, had a piece of another old tube vulcanized into it, and claims he'll get a lot of service out of the tube, which he laid in the dark, moist basement for so many years.

THE BOYS WRITE HOME.

Bernard Sawanek sends word that he is leaving Pearl Harbor and possibly may be able to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sawanek and family before long. He is getting to see the world and no mistake; not long ago he was in New York City. He is in the navy.

Private Edwin Swanek left Tuesday morning on the first bus, returning to Fort Leonard Wood after a ten day furlough. He is also a son of the Paul Swanek's and he declares army life is fine.

Kokes. 735 elementary school students and 429 high school youngsters took part in Valley county. This included gathering cancelled stamps, tin foil for salvage, making scrap-books, color books, crossword puzzle books for orphanages and military post hospital.

From Dist. 34 of Arcadia, Miss Betty Gregory and her pupils sent a fine youth-size quilted bed cover, which is now on display. Students placed it during recess periods last winter, and it was quilted by the mother and grandmother of Miss Gregory. Many sick children are sure to admire it while it keeps them warm.

A 24 lb. sack filled with cancelled stamps went to New York City to be sold for war-relief in children's hospitals.

From North Loup Miss Marcella Rood and her students sent $1.62 which with $10 from the local Junior Red Cross treasury is being sent to headquarters. It is used in needy war and refugee areas for the benefit of children.

Each year more students take part in the Junior Red Cross program. As they understand it, they become more and more enthusiastic, for it is a particularly worthwhile part of the Red Cross effort.

Miss Doris Klimek was responsible for the programs, with their big V in blue and red and some 20 songs inside.

Miss Reva Lincoln presided as toastmistress, and Miss Phyllis Hill made the welcoming speech, being answered by her father, Alfred Hill. Maxine Sorensen gave a piano solo and accompanied the Wolfe twins, Maxine and Arlene as they sang, also played for the vocal solo of Peggy Russell and the group singing, lead by Roberta Stoddard. # NORTH LOUP

WRITTEN BY MRS. ETHEL HAMER

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Babcock came over from Scotia on the Saturday morning bus and attended church. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lewis and in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Lewis took them home.

A telephone call from Dr. Geo. Hemphill of Pawhuska, Okla., to Dr. and Mrs. Hemphill Friday gave the information that he and his wife were leaving for Toronto, Canada, to attend an international convention of Rotary clubs. Dr. George going as a delegate from the Pawhuska Rotary club, of which he is president. The trip was being made to Chicago by rail and from there by boat.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams and boys spent the day Sunday at the Vernon Williams home canning peas and strawberries.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Kittleson will be interested to learn they are moving from Montrose, Colo., to Glendale, Calif. Mrs. Kittleson was formerly Mildred Hutchins and grew up in North Loup. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hutchins, plan to go to California in the fall. They are living now at Montrose.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Manchester received word Friday that their son, Sgt. Everett Manchester, of the army air corps, had safely reached his destination. He was with a group that were sent recently to foreign shores, but the card did not tell where he was. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Maxson also had similar word about their son Roy, who is a corporal in the mechanics division of the army air corps. When last heard from, both boys were at the same army camp in the east, and are no doubt in the same place now.

A picture of the royal court of the Alliance rodeo which appeared in the Friday World-Herald was of especial interest to some North Loupers, since Queen Virginia Bixler, queen of the royal court of the Alliance rodeo, is a grandniece of G. L. and W. T. Hutchins and has visited here.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Williams entertained members of the Bert Williams family at dinner Saturday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Bert Williams and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Williams and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams and Betty Ann, and the Aubrey Davis family of Rosevale. The Aubrey Davis and Harold Williams families had to wait till afternoon to go because the creeks near their homes were too high to cross.

seventh birthday with a party Friday afternoon, having nine of her little friends as her guests. A nicely decorated birthday cake, the gift of her aunt, Mrs. Mills Hill, was part of the delicious lunch served the little guests.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Sheldon and Mrs. Rena Davis and Merle left Thursday for Denver.

Rain, measuring 1.57 inches, was our portion Friday night. The rain was accompanied by considerable lightning and thunder. Berry picking was again halted. Loss for the growers has been a great deal because of the wet weather.

Everett Boyd came up from Omaha after his wife and daughter Friday night. They left for home Saturday morning. Mrs. Boyd and Karen had spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith.

Mrs. Elmer Cox and Joyce Cox were Thursday morning bus passengers to Colesfield.

Fifty-seven children were enrolled in Dally Vacation Bible school here which closed Friday evening with a program given at the Seventh Day Baptist church. Forty-seven of these attended ten days or more and were given certificates for attending. Three, Beverly Goodrich, Twyla Green and Audrey Burgess had earned large certificates for attending four years and Venetta Roby earned a New Testament, having completed her eighth year of the work.

Eighteen children of preschool age were in the kindergarten which was taught by Mary Babcock and Joan Barber. Berdine Ingerson taught the first and second grades of which there were fourteen; the third and fourth grades had eleven and were taught by Lois Barber. Mrs. Carl Wagner had the fifth and sixth, seventh and eighth grades and had fourteen girls in the group. Mary T. Davis acted as supervisor. Rev. Wagner, Rev. Ehret, Mrs. Jessie T. Babcock and Mrs. J. A. Barber gave interesting talks to the entire group each week. At the demonstration the little folks as always captivated the audience with their songs and verses given with the individual ways of a child on his first stage appearance. The first and second grades sang several songs and repeated the twenty-third psalm. Outstanding with the third and fourth grades was a clever song, LOVE. The older group gave a pageant, The Woman with the Lost Coin. This school is sponsored by the different churches of the village and each share in the expenses. Thursday the entire group and a number of parents went to the Ord park for a picnic. This picnic has been an annual feature for several years and this year those in charge thought best not to try to go to Ord because of transportation conditions but enough cars were offered that it was possible to hold the picnic in the park, much to the delight of all the children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hutchins entertained a group of friends at a picnic supper Thursday evening at the picnic grounds in the grove at their home.

The Harry Prentice family left here for Texas twenty-two years ago and two years later, Mr. Prentice passed away. Mrs. Prentice makes her home with her daughters, one of whom, Lucia, lives in Houston, Tex., and the other, Grace, is teaching at Medford, Ore. She is on her way now to Oregon, after spending several months in Texas.

Her daughter, Ellen, nine years old, does most of the housework. Mrs. Burgess received a prize in the Thanksgiving poetry contest conducted by Ars Poetica, has had many poems published. Mrs. Eberhart has five daughters, is a busy clubwoman and also received honorable mention in the Thanksgiving contest. Her poem "The Sail-or Boy in Blue," has been published as a song. ## To Please is Our Aim

That's an overworked phrase, "we try to please," but here at our market we make it mean something.

If you want just a pound or two of meat ground, we grind it for you in a jiffy. If you like your bacon sliced a little thicker than most people do, we slice it specially for you. In fact what you want is what we want to give you.

So when you need meat, give our market a trial.
