Ord Planning Program, Free Chili, Farm Mobilization Day

Ord Organizations & USDA War Board Invite All Farmers

Will Hear Roosevelt Speech, Production Goals, Group Singing; Free Dinner.

A radio speech by President Roosevelt, group singing, announcement of farm production goals for 1943, music, patriotic speeches and last but surely not least, free chili con carne served to all comers, will feature Ord's observance day next Tuesday, Jan. 12.

Cooperating in plans for the big day are the USDA war board headed by R. Clare Clement, the Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club, Cosmopolitan club and American Legion. All Valley county farmers and their wives are invited to attend the all-day program which starts at 11:00 a. m. and will continue until late afternoon.

All over the nation on January 12 similar meetings will be held, object being to mobilize industry and agriculture for the greatest year's production in America's history.

The USDA war board, which is composed of Clement, Evan Hartman, C. C. Dale, James Ollis and Joe Raemakers, began planning the mobilization day program at a meeting Saturday afternoon.

Monday representatives of Ord civic groups were called into another meeting and pledged their support and the result should be one of the finest programs ever given in Ord.

The Bohemian hall has been engaged for a crowd of 750 or more and the day's program will begin at 11 o'clock in the morning, with group singing led by Dr. George Gard, and instrumental music by high school musicians. There will also be music during the noon hour, while lunch is being served.

Hot chili to be prepared by the Home Economics department of the Ord schools will be served hot at noon by members of the Rotary club, who assumed responsibility for this portion of the festivities. Crackers will be served with the chili and Rotarians wanted to serve hot coffee also but the ration board said "no" so instead pop will be available for anybody who wants it. The chili luncheon and pop will be free and Rotarians hope they have a chance to serve 500 or more farmers and business men and their wives. J. C. Van House and Robert Noll are in charge of arrangements and other Rotarians and their wives will help in lading out the chili.

The American Legion and the Cosmopolitan club assumed joint responsibility for planning the program, which will include an address of welcome by Mayor M. B. Cummins, a patriotic talk by Edgar A. Farley, band music, talks by representatives of the Ord, North Loup and Arcadia commercial clubs, talks by representative farmers, incidental musical selections and patriotic readings. Clarence M. Davis will be master of ceremonies.

At 3:00 in the afternoon, central war time, will come President Roosevelt's speech to the nation, followed by a radio talk by Claude G. Wickard, secretary of agriculture. Radio and loud speaker facilities will bring these talks to the crowd. Also on the day's program is the announcement of AAA production goals for 1943. C. C. Dale will discuss livestock goals, Evan Hartman will talk on soil conservation's part in the 1943 program, Joe Raemakers will talk about the new FSA victory loan program, R. Clare Clement will talk on the grain goals and qualifications and James Ollis will discuss farm financing.

The rationing program and how it affects peak production will come in for discussion during the day.

No exact program has been prepared, the occasion being designed as a general get-together for town and farm folk in an effort to mobilize Valley county's industrial and agricultural resources for greatest efficiency in winning the war. Every farmer in the county is urged to bring his wife and be at the meeting by 11 o'clock in the morning prepared to stay all day. The meeting will close in time for farmers to get home to do the evening chores.

Ord's Chamber of Commerce and cooperating civic groups are especially extending a cordial welcome to the rest of the county, rural and urban, to visit Ord next Tuesday. Expenses of the noon-time feed will be borne entirely by Ord business interests as their small contribution toward bringing about allied effort toward winning the war.

Cozad Offer Lures Ord Teacher, Law Suit May Be Filed

Ord School Board Seeking a Legal Remedy to Halt the 'Pirating' of Teachers.

When Miss Clela Munson, first-year science teacher in the Ord schools, handed in her keys Thursday and calmly told Superintendent C. C. Thompson that she was quitting her job to accept a better-paid position at Cozad, "contract or no contract," she opened a question that may result in a law suit of state-wide importance.

Due to the shortage of teachers there has been considerable "pirating" of teachers in Nebraska, school men say. Some boards release teachers voluntarily when they are offered better teaching jobs, then seek to fill their vacancies by hiring teachers away from other schools by offering higher wages. Other schools, Ord among them, have sought to hold teachers to their contracts instead of releasing them voluntarily.

The sudden resignation of Miss Munson last week, thus breaching her contract, caused the board of education to hold a meeting Monday night to consider possible courses of action. At least five other Ord teachers have sought to be released from their contracts since the school year opened but have remained when the school authorities have refused voluntary release.

Ralph W. Norman, school board secretary and attorney for the schools, is considering several possible courses of legal action, he said Tuesday.

A simple damage suit against Miss Munson might be filed in county court at Cozad, or a district court suit enjoining the schools there from employing her or paying wages to her might be filed under a little-known statute never fully tested in court since its passage many years ago. Some legal action will be taken, promises Norman, not because the Ord schools want Miss Munson back but to establish a precedent when similar actions arise here and elsewhere in Nebraska in future.

Ord school contracts contain a $50 forfeiture clause but forfeiture of this small sum is of little effect in the case of Miss Munson, who contracted to teach here at $1,150 and will receive at Cozad, it is reported, $1,500 or more.

For the present Miss Prouty has been shifted to the science department and Mrs. C. C. Thompson will substitute as mathematics teacher. With an acute teacher shortage throughout the nation there is little chance of securing a permanent replacement at the present time. The board has as yet been unable to replace Miss Daisy Halen, who died several weeks ago, and there are dozens of vacancies being filled by substitutes in other Nebraska schools.

Miss Wilda Chase Buys Store Interest

Miss Wilda Chase has bought a one-fourth share in the Chase Toggery, exclusive shop for women's apparel, taking over some of the interests owned by her sister, the former Eunice Chase, who was married a few months ago to S. M. Perkins of North Platte. Since Mrs. Perkins' marriage Miss Wilda Chase has been managing the shop, which she will continue to do, assisted by Miss Mena Jorgensen and Mrs. Joe Osewowski, and also Elizabeth Kovanda after school hours.

Miss Chase came to Ord from Loup City three years ago and has been employed in Chase's since that time.

Mrs. Perkins came Saturday with her husband, who went on to Butte, Neb., on business Monday. Mrs. Perkins is keeping shop this week while Miss Wilda Chase takes a week's vacation. Miss Chase will visit her sister Mrs. George Allen, Jr., for a day or two at her Hastings home, and then will go into Omaha to do marketing about January 10.

While she is here Mrs. Perkins is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Keith Lewis.

"B" Book Holder Says Doesn't Need So Much Gasoline

Burwell—(Special)—On Monday morning C. R. Ilgenfritz, member of the rationing board here in charge of gasoline, had the surprise of his life when a Garfield county farmer who had applied for a "B" book and obtained it walked into the office and said he wished to return the book as he did not need that much gasoline. The car owner was John Urbanovsky, who lives 14 miles east of town.

No extra, needless trips are made by the Urbanovsky family and you'll never hear Mr. Urbanovsky complaining about sugar or coffee rationing either, comments Mr. Ilgenfritz. His wife cooperates 100 per cent too—she carries the ration books.

Cpl. Sims Misses Ord Girl by Half Block

"As I was sitting here in the orderly room at Camp Pickett, Va., reading the Army Times I happened to see an article which should be of interest to people around Ord," writes Corporal William G. Sims, of Valley county. "It contained a picture of Evelyn Sharp and three other girls. Here's the article:

"The wind that was too much for these four WAFFS boded good for personnel of Camp Pickett, Virginia. The cold breeze that grounded them swept them into Service Club No. 3 for dinner, movies and a night's sleep at the nurse's quarters. They are Mrs. Betty Gillis, Evelyn Sharp, Barbara Erickson and Helen Richards."

"After I read the article I felt very badly because I didn't get to see Evelyn," continues Cpl. Sims. "The service club is about a half block from my barracks. If anyone knows the correct address of Evelyn I would appreciate receiving it so I could contact her."

The former Ord girl is now a ferry pilot in Maryland but the Quiz does not know her address, so any reader who does is asked to send it to Corporal Sims, whose address is 37120074, Co. A, 23rd Arm'd Engr. Bn., A. P. O. No. 253, Camp Pickett, Va.

New Carrier Appointed.

Noth Loup—(Special)—Walter Thorngate has been appointed mail carrier for Route 2, the vacancy left a year ago when Will Cox retired. He takes over his new duties next Monday. Elmer Cox has been substitute carrier the past year.

Robert Hall Will Take Office Today as County Sheriff

Geo. Round Retires after 24 Years, Evet Smith In As County Supervisor.

The office of the Valley county sheriff will have a new tenant today for the first time in twenty-four years when Robert Hall officially takes over the duties performed so faithfully and long by George S. Round, whom he defeated at the polls in November.

Sheriff Hall has filed his oath and bond with the board of supervisors and they have been approved. At midnight Wednesday, Jan. 6, Round's official bond expires and the bond of Sheriff Hall becomes effective, and this morning he will be found on duty in the office Round has so long honored.

Round, then a resident of Arcadia, was elected to the office of sheriff in 1918 and has served ever since. With Sheriff Pete Duffy, of O'Neill, his long-time friend, he shares the honor of being Nebraska's oldest peace officer in years of service, if not in age.

Only other Valley county official who takes over new duties today is Evet Smith, who succeeds Henry Zikmund as supervisor representing Dist. 3. Clyde Baker is already serving as clerk of district court by appointment but begins his duties as an elective officer this morning. Other county officers were all re-elected. Many new township officers start their new work today, as the statutes provide.

Mrs. Asa Clement, 75, Dies of Heart Attack

North Loup—(Special)—Early Tuesday morning Mrs. Asa Clement suffered a heart attack at her home here. A granddaughter who stayed with her went for the doctor and Mrs. Clement had passed away before the doctor arrived. Her husband has been a helpless invalid for several months, having suffered a stroke as well as a broken hip, and the burden of caring for him had been cheerfully accepted by Mrs. Clement. No arrangements for the funeral have been made as yet. Surviving also are one son and three daughters.

Women Fill Many Service Kit Bags

The program of making and filling service kit bags for soldiers, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary for the Red Cross with Mrs. Keith Lewis the chairman, reports as follows:

Jolly Juniors club finished eight housewives to go in the kits; Plain Valley club made 24 housewives and gave $2 toward filling them. M. A. O. club, of which Mrs. Steve Beran is president, finished 12 housewives; while H. O. A. club turned in 12 kit bags, 15 housewives and gave $5 in cash to fill them.

Mira Valley Mutual Benefit club made 33 kit bags and donated $4 in cash. Entre Nous Kensington club made 20 complete kit bags, 20 housewives to go in them, paying more than $1 each to entirely finish them. Business and Professional Women's club also made a fine record, finishing 30 kits, 30 housewives and donating $30 to fill them.

Auxiliary members made 60 kit bags and donated $10 in cash toward filling the bags. Everbush club finished 18 kits, 18 housewives, outfitted four of them and gave $1.50 in cash.

Junior Matron ladies made 60 housewives and gave $18 in cash, or a dollar each. Royal Kensington club donated $14 to help stuff the kits and housewives. Nimble Fingers club sent in $1. At the high school an organization of girls, Marjorie Weaver, president, filled a number of bags as their share. Mrs. Weaver made six kits; Miss Jane Sutton made six more kit bags; Mrs. Inez Burrows three of them, and Mrs. Gates completed six housewives.

Football Training Fine for the Army

The football training he got in Ord high school under Coach Roscoe Tolly is standing him in good stead now that he is training to become a gunner on a Flying Fortress, writes Pvt. Jerry J. Petska to the Ord athletic mentor this week. "We're learning teamwork like you taught us," the Ord boy said, "but we are not playing a game now but are fighting for our lives and a $300,000 airplane." Young Petska was stationed at St. Petersburg, Fla., when he wrote, but since then has been transferred to Harlingen, Tex.

"Our training here is pretty tough but many things are quite the same as you taught me," the Petska letter continues. "We exercise 3 hours a day, 1 1/2 in the morning and the same in the afternoon. We also have wind sprints which would make the ones we used to have seem easy. We have to run an obstacle course in thick sand six inches deep. We have to scale a 10 foot wall, jump ditches, go through the tires, crawl under fences, go across big ditches by ropes, then across another with ladders, and go over some hurdles. It was tough the first time but is getting easier.

"They are teaching us how to fight dirty when its necessary; no rules, kick 'em and hit the other guy any place, just get him out of the way, anything goes. We go to bed before 11 every night and get up at 5 a. m., no excuses."

Private Petska says their training field is on the gulf of Mexico and runs right up to the water's edge. The trainees don't live in barracks but are quartered in hotels taken over by the army, and march back and forth to the field. "I'm glad I had the training I got back home because it helps a guy like heck when he's in the army," concludes Petska.

Arrangements Made for Gasoline Appeals

Farmers and truckers who were not allowed sufficient gasoline on their certificates of war necessity are informed by R. Clare Clement, chairman of the AAA, that appeal blanks may be secured at the Triple A office in Ord or at the Jess Marvel's office in Arcadia, and that help in filling out the blanks will be available at both places.

Ord Stores, Offices, Take Stock of War Changes as Second Year of Conflict Opens

A quiet town, Ord, a happy little country town untouched by war, you would say, unless it be for the many fine Ord boys now wearing Uncle Sam's uniforms?

To see whether war had changed Ord, a Quiz reporter began a tour of business houses of Ord, making a first call at the post office. Uncle Sam's henchman and postmaster, Alfred Hill, declared there had been many war-influenced moves.

"Immediately after Pearl Harbor we were directed to perfect all plans for moving to another building, should this be necessary. In case of bombing, every employee has been trained in a special school of inspection. I was told to conduct, and he knows exactly what his duties would be. The other location is arranged for, we have a certain number of first-aid trained employees as specified. Everything is carefully planned.

"Daily I inspect all parts of this building, and also we are directed to watch for subversive acts. If you recall I was one of three Nebraska postmasters sent to Kansas City about a year ago. There were 27 of us from nine states. We discussed our problems and made plans.

Transportation of mail is his biggest headache, the postmaster admits, with many new rules complicating it. For instance trains must be completely loaded before leaving Omaha, and sometimes this means our mail is very late.

Dedication of War Plaque New Year's Eve Impressive

Big Crowd Attracted to Brief Ceremony Honoring Valley County Men in Service.

Brief but highly impressive and attended by a large crowd were the ceremonies held New Year's eve to dedicate the war heroes' plaque erected by the Chamber of Commerce in the court house yard. Dr. F. L. Blessing served as master of ceremonies, Mayor M. B. Cummins made one of the finest talks of his career and Captain Lee Huff, Jr., of Fort Crook spoke ably. Add to these speeches music by the Ord band and the cooperation of eighty-five army officers from Fort Crook and you have the highlights of one of the finest patriotic observances ever seen in Ord.

New Year's eve was chilly but a lovely evening and one thousand or more people, many from rural communities and from the other towns of Valley county, came to witness unveiling of the plaque.

The memorial was erected by the Chamber of Commerce and was designed and painted by Sylvester Furtak. Over it is installed a floodlight so the names of the 380 soldiers and sailors may be read at any hour of the day. Names of new men entering the service will be added to the plaque once every month, to keep it up to date.

Olof Olsson Buys Milling Property

At the city tax sale held Tuesday afternoon, Olof Olsson was high bidder on the old Ord Milling company property owned by J. F. Papiernik, and will receive a tax deed to the property. His bid of $1,525 topped Bert Needham's bid by only $5. Several other bidders were present. The 1942 taxes on the property will be paid by the city.

Mr. Olsson wanted the property principally because of the large warehouse east of the mill itself, says Clarence M. Davis, city attorney who conducted the sale on behalf of the city.

First 1943 Newlyweds Married New Year's

Making a new start in a New Year were Leonard E. Tolen and his bride, the former Doris DeNoyer, who were married by County Judge John Andersen at his home at three p. m. of New Year's day.

Mr. Tolen, a young farmer of the North Loup neighborhood, is the son of Harvey Tolen, and his bride is the daughter of Leonard J. DeNoyer. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waller acted as witnesses of the ceremony. Without a doubt they were the first newlyweds of 1943 for Valley county.

Selling Bonds for the War

Selling bonds for the past year has been a big job, taking at least three hours of one man's time daily. Usually about 100 bonds per month have been sold, of the $25 variety. But with January first, the bond selling business changed. Reports on it no longer go to Washington, D. C., but instead to Omaha, and consolidated reports will go in from that place.

Selling war savings stamps is another time-grabber, and detailed accounts must now be kept on this too. Actual stamp selling takes about three hours each day of one man's time. Then of course when a bond is given for stamps, the stamps must be cancelled, and records kept accurately.

With 11 employees, the post office feels fortunate that only now is one man leaving them for war duties. "Hip" Norman, who has carried mail up and down the streets for several years. He will exchange his heavy sack for another sack and a gun in January, it now appears.

"Do I keep the temperature down? Maybe it's a little cooler this year," says Hill.

Downstairs in the FSA office, employees were called to Grand Island Monday and Tuesday to attend a new training school, after which Mr. Raemakers and concentrate on the important "raise more food" program. The small farmer has become a most important man, and he is going his three helpers are going to

Fire Damage $2,000 to Huckfeldt Stock

Burwell Firemen Fought Fire at Implement House; No Idea About Cause.

Burwell—(Special)—Damage estimated at $2,000 was done to contents of the V. H. Huckfeldt implement shop about 10 o'clock Monday morning when fire of unknown origin swept the building, burning office fixtures and supplies and damaging machinery and heavy equipment. This estimate does not include damage to the building, owned by Mrs. Carroll Walker, which will be heavy. Damage to the building's contents is covered by insurance.

Mr. Huckfeldt had been out of town on business and had just returned, stopping at the postoffice before going to his place of business, when the fire whistle blew. The mechanic in the shop was busy in the back room so the fire in the big building got a good start before it was discovered. The fire department led by Chief Clifford Anderson was on the job promptly but firemen were handicapped by dense clouds of black smoke which gushed out of the building, evidently from a large stock of binder twine which caught fire.

Burwell Postoffice to Get New Rating

Burwell—(Special)—The postoffice here, presided over by Mrs. Glow Fackler as postmistress, soon will receive a 2nd class rating, having had a big increase in business during the past year. The December quarter showed a gain of over a thousand dollars over the same quarter last year. Advance to a 2nd class rating will give the clerks civil service status, increase salaries generally and the Burwell office's allowance for clerk hire will be more than doubled.

Navy Commission to Arnold Tuning

Arcadia—(Special)—Arnold Tuning, athletic coach and superintendent in the high school here for the past 13 1/2 years, has been given a commission as lieutenant (junior grade) in the U. S. Naval Reserve and will report for active service Jan. 11.

Mrs. Tuning and their two sons will remain here for the present.

In Omaha Hospital.

Miss Sophie McBeth, proprietor of Sophie's Beauty Shop, is in an Omaha hospital for surgical treatment.

Long at Camp Robinson.

Randolph Long, who was recently inducted into the army has been assigned for training to the medical replacement center at Camp Robinson, Ark.

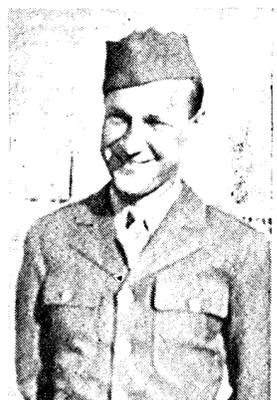

Bartz Family Have Three Sons, Also Son-in-Law, in the Service of Their Country

Sgt. Arthur Bartz.

Erwin Bartz.

Richard Bartz.

George Cox.

To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartz, of North Loup, goes the honor of having all their sons and a son-in-law as well serving in the armed forces, a record probably not equalled by any other family in Valley county. Sergeant Arthur Bartz is stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., Erwin Bartz is in the radio division and is an instructor at Fort Sill, Okla., their youngest son, Richard, recently graduated from a mechanics course and was sent to Santa Monica, Calif., for further study, and their son-in-law, George Cox, is a seaman 2nd class in the coast guard, stationed now at Big 4 Inn, Grand Falls, Wash. He enlisted last August.

Other members of the Bartz family are doing their bit for the war too. Mr. Bartz repairs tractors and farm implements at the machine shed of the Farmers Grain & Supply company while Mrs. Bartz and daughter Muriel do sewing, knitting, raise chickens and in season raise a big garden.

The first basketball game of the season will be played here on Thursday night with Burwell. Coach Elley has fifteen boys out for basketball, five of whom were first stringers last year. The schedule for the season is complete and is as follows: Arcadia, Jan. 12 at North Loup; Jan. 21 at Elba; Jan. 28, Ashton at North Loup; Feb. 2 at Scotia; Feb. 4, Taylor at North Loup; Feb. 9, Scotia at North Loup; Feb. 11, at Ashton; Feb. 16, at Danneberg; Feb. 18, Elba at North Loup. North Loup expects to participate in the class B tournament which will be held February 24 to 27. The place has not been decided on.

An athletic program for grade school girls has been started under the direction of Hazel Stevens. Girls meet on Tuesday and Thursday morning from 9:00 to 9:45 for volleyball, basketball and exercises. So far about a dozen girls are taking the program.

The hot lunch program at the school house will be discontinued this week as a WPA project but plans are being made to continue under a different setup. Some funds have been accumulated and with a slight increase in the charge made it is hoped to carry the plan forward at least through the cold weather. Possibly the mothers will be called on to assist with the preparation of the meal, taking turns at least one day a month. Mrs. Kerr and Bernice King, both WPA workers in the project, have received their notices that they are through, but Mrs. Petty, who comes down from Ord each day has not as yet had any such notice. An average of 100 children have been taking the lunch each day and this seems a worthy project, especially through the cold weather.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Elley returned Sunday from Deadwood, S. D., where they had spent the vacation period. Mrs. Bill Parker, a girlhood friend of Mrs. Elley accompanied them and will spend two weeks visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Wetzel and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wetzel and Dorothy were New Year's day guest in the Greeley Gebhart home near Scotia.

Roy Lewis went to Omaha on the Tuesday morning bus where he will enter University hospital for medical treatment.

Loila Koelling and Darlene Geweke left on the Sunday morning bus for their school work at Merrill and LeMars, Ia.

Geraldine Gowen returned to her work at the state university on the Tuesday morning bus.

Leonard Jacobs and Virgil Nolde are working at the Q. O. ordnance plant in Grand Island, driving each day.

Mrs. L. A. Athelthel and Mrs. Sylvia Brannon went to Ord on the Tuesday morning bus.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Willoughby and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hoepner spent Sunday in Grand Island with the Jim Colemans and Merrill Andersons.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Beebe and Charles spent Friday with the Stanton Finleys.

Lila Porter, popular teacher of the Olean district, and Donald Naeve were married at Falls City, New Year's eve. Mr. Naeve, the son of Mrs. Oyce Naeve is employed in the oil wells at Tarkio, Mo., but their home will be at Falls City.

Mrs. Eldon Sintek was a Sunday supper guest in the A. L. Sims home. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sims at supper Wednesday night were Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Babcock, Phyllis and Joe.

Sgt. Virgil Annayas has been transferred from a Victoria, Calif., to Sheppard Field, Tex. He is in the maintenance division of the air corps.

Maurice Williams who had spent the vacation period with Mrs. Elizabeth Harding returned to his home in Grand Island on the Sunday morning bus.

Burdette Mulligan, who had spent the week in Grand Island with her sister, Mrs. Eva Lewton, returned home on the Friday morning bus. This week she is staying with Mrs. Will Plate because the boys at home have the flu.

Soil District News

A tree shelterbelt is an essential good land use practice and will be continued in the future on those farms where it is feasible to have a shelterbelt.

A. E. McClymonds, regional conservator for the Soil Conservation Service, says, "because of labor shortages, it is anticipated that there will be a lull in shelterbelt planting during the war."

All new shelterbelt plantings will be handled by the Valley County Soil Conservation district, the district having taken over all of the activities of the Prairie States Forestry Project in the county. In addition to the shelterbelt plantings, farmsteads and feed lot plantings will be handled by the soil district.

Any assistance needed on shelterbelt plantings that have already been planted may be obtained by applying to your District Supervisor, the County Agent or the district office in Ord.

Nearly every farm in Valley county needs a planting of trees of some kind. Some of the reasons for planting trees are as follows: shade, fruit, nuts, posts, firewood, windbreaks, wildlife and erosion control.

The principal thing to remember when planting a tree or shrub is that it will need care. It must be protected from weeds the first few years. Trees need to be protected from fire, livestock and rodents.

My Own Column
By H. D. Leggett

I wish the party who took my green fountain pen off my desk Saturday would return it. That pen was given me a dozen years ago and I dislike to lose it.

My friend W. A. Anderson, 90 years old, tells me he is looking forward to planting and tending a good garden next year to insure having plenty of the good things that a good garden always provides, thus making more food available for the government. Few people of that age can do what he does however.

I recall that some 60 years ago my father sowed an acre of peas and we had a wonderful crop. No one in those days thought of canning peas and we had many of them. At the time we had a young lady from the county seat town helping with the house work, as my mother was not in good health.

My young lady said, "Let's pick a lot of those peas and take them to town and sell them." In those days we didn't have cars, didn't even have a light buggy but we did have a light spring wagon. So we picked several bushels of the peas and the girl, my sister and myself drove the eight miles to town and started peddling peas. We sold them, I recall at 10c a quart and thanks to the young lady who knew most of the people we called on, we sold all our peas and went proudly home. It was quite an industry while it lasted and we made several trips but the peas soon got too hard for use and the pigs were turned in to finish the harvest, which was the original purpose in planting the peas, and they do make wonderful pig feed. And my purpose in recalling this incident is to call attention to this splendid way to raise a good crop of peas for canning and for freezing now when the need is so great for such food. It is an easy way to raise a crop and a fine way in which to harvest the surplus.

With all the plans for rationing it seems unlikely that we shall have a repetition of the use of flour substitutes which did in the other world. Neither does it seem likely that clothing will be rationed, at least during 1943. But many things will be rationed and within sixty days many things that we are used to having will be unobtainable.

We get considerably riled because of strikes which slow up war goods production, but the fact is that considering the number of people employed the number going out on strike is a mighty small per cent. Industry for the most part has been doing a wonderful job. No doubt when the whole truth is known if it ever is, it will be found that government management or rather mismanagement has done the most by far to slow up the work and gum up the works.

The statement of Admiral Halsey that Japan will be licked before the end of 1943 is probably more a statement of wishful thinking than of fact. Best government thinkers and planners, men in high, inside positions, who six months ago were believing that it would take at least five years and probably longer to beat the Axis, now feel that Hitler will be whipped late in 1943 and that Japan may be beaten up before the end of 1944. This seems to be the most hopeful view that anyone is justified in taking at this time. Of course things have changed fast during recent months and it is conceivable that they could change ever faster during the next few months, but all government planning is now based on its taking at least a couple of years to finish the job.

High government officials agree that oil well wildcatting be increased and pushed, with the statement that more and more wells and oil are going to be needed. In the light of this statement one wonders why production in present wells has constantly been limited and we all wonder why many thousands of new wells are now capped and not producing. Surely such wells could be put into production much quicker and with less expense than could new fields be discovered and new wells drilled.

Oscar Nay says the reason that Fuson don't write stories for the Quiz any more is because Oscar, has something on his mind and he is trying to keep his calling attention to himself.

Did you notice in the papers the other day the story about the big party one of the high government officials threw, and an official who has a lot to say about our eating cheaper food and saving as much as possible? Yet at that party seven kinds of meat and four kinds of fish were served, with everything else that could be thought of that was expensive. The statement was made that it was not intended that the menu should become public. I wouldn't think they would want it to either. And stories in the paper also say that Washington people made the biggest rush of any city to stock up on canned goods when word was out that they were to be rationed.

Something Different

A novel Christmas gift, if there ever was one, was given to Dr. F. L. Blessing. His friend William DeHart brought him a dozen double-yolked eggs.

The valley county farmer says he has a number of hens which make a habit of laying these eggs, for which he finds a fine market in Lincoln!

A gift of extra value in these days of grocery rationing. Children are blossoming out in new soldier suits at every opportunity since Santa stopped. Tommy Price wears one, Byron Bartunek wears one, Bosco Jewett is another captain or something. I am not sufficiently well posted on uniforms to say which is which.

Seed catalogs and growing vegetables are going to get more place in the winter conversation and in the work schedule next summer than they have ever had. What with food rationing, you can expect to see families who never raised a radish before but simply stopped in at the neighborhood grocery for their supper ideas to be doing a real hoe-down. A new kind of hoe-down.

And then the ladies whose lily-white long-nailed paws haven't done anything more serious than hold a bridge hand for lo, these many years of desperate card playing... you can expect to find them in the kitchen, peeling and paring their days away next summer.

In which they still will be following Mr. Culbertson, the god of bridge, for hasn't he quit writing contract rule-books long enough to worry about peace terms? He has admitted he was brilliant for a number of years past so now he is going to try statesmanship, entering by a side door, as it were.

Well, that's all right, we all need a change occasionally. It will be good for us to learn less about how to play no trump and more about cut-worms and their ravages.

Can-openers wear out; that used to be a danger. But it won't be next year, I'll bet a herring.

BACK FORTY
By J. A. Kovanda

Cottontails and mice are gnawing the bark from young trees so we shall again list a number of repellents that are supposed to discourage such rodents.

1. A mixture of linseed oil and resin should keep pests away all winter. Melt the resin. Add 5 parts oil to one part resin. Apply while warm.

2. Mix an ounce of cayenne pepper to a pound of lard or other grease. Smear it on the tree trunks.

In their certificates of war necessity by January 10. In requesting that appeals be speeded up, Hons pointed out that temporary gasoline rations now being received through the local war price and rationing boards will expire shortly, and that there will be no extension of the temporary ration provision.

The Office of Defense Transportation is anxious to keep all farm trucks operating, and this can only be done, Hons explained, through correcting any inconsistencies in the original war necessity certificates.

Farmers who haven't received sufficient mileage or gasoline to conduct their necessary operations should get in touch immediately with their USDA War Board transportation committees, or with the ODT district offices, which will help them prepare their appeals for whatever adjustments are necessary.

The transportation committees of the USDA County War Boards, consisting of two farmers and three local business men, have been set up to instruct farmers how to handle appeals and seek adjustments.

Hons said the Office of Defense Transportation was hopeful of getting the adjusted certificates in the hands of all farmers, ranchers and others in the agricultural industry in this area by January 15.

The price of feed wheat still remains at 79 cents. We have ordered four cars for future delivery. It will be for Ord and North Loup. If sufficient interest is shown we will ship a load to Arcadia.

We were informed by telephone that barley could be planted instead of corn but this barley must be above your usual barley acreage. Corn is a crop we are urged to plant.

—The baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Heuncke has been very sick for several days past and cries and cries, apparently with a head pain.

—Charlie Stichter was a young-looking 80-year-old on Monday this week celebrating quietly at home. Mrs. Stichter fixed a fine duck dinner, even a birthday cake.

—Mrs. Wilmer Anderson spent the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ed Holub of Elyria as she usually does. Miss Luetta Keuhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kuehl, will stay with her for the present, attending high school.

—D. L. Patterson, who came from Seward a few weeks ago to work as a printer in the Quiz office, left Saturday night for Grand Island where he will be employed at the Q. O. ordnance plant.

—E. L. Hower, who worked several months in Kansas City, spent the holidays in Ord and has now gone to Hastings where he will be a carpenter on the big naval shell-loading base being built there.

—Elvin Hower has gone to work at Hastings at the defense plant there, following a few days at Ord with his family. He finished his work in Kansas City and is glad to be closer to home.

—Little Lynn Anderson is herself again after several days seige with pneumonia about a week ago. She is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Anderson. Blessing arrived on Thursday to visit at the W. S. Pickett home where his wife has been for the past two weeks. Dean plans to stay two or three weeks.

—Miss Sophie McBeth went to Omaha Sunday on the morning bus. She is going to visit her sister Mrs. P. J. Mella there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy came from Burwell to see her daughter, Mrs. Lytle, who lives south of Ord.

—Money to loan on improved residence property. Protective Savings & Loan Association. 39-8tc

—Money to loan on improved residence property. Protective Savings & Loan Association. 39-8tc

—Art Haberlan was a visitor at the home of his friend Ralph Misko from Thursday until Sunday. He came from Lincoln and is going into the army immediately.

—"Dutch" Blessing broke a bone in his hand while carrying mail last week and will have to let his substitute F. V. Haight, do the mail carrying for a week or two.

—Hugh Carson left last Tuesday for Omaha expecting his wife to have a furlough from WAAC service at Des Moines and join him there. He planned to return to Ord Tuesday this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walford and Elinor Rae went to Burwell Sunday to have dinner with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilson. Her sister, Mrs. Leroy Anderson and Mr. Anderson were also present.

—Miss Myrtle Auble, who has been working in Ogden, U., has been transferred to Omaha and left Sunday morning for that place. She visited her people in Ord the past two weeks. She will continue in a defense job.

—Mrs. Frank Long, who has been visiting her uncle, Frank Stara, left Thursday for her home in Chicago, to be on duty for her school work. Mrs. Long is at the head of the science department in high school. Mrs. Long was the former Antoinetta Stara.

—New Year's Eve about 11:15, Mrs. Irving Merrill received a long distance call from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Absolon from San Pedro, Calif., wishing them all a happy new year. They are getting along fine and she has been working in a dress shop during the holidays.

—Harlan Wyrick is a newly commissioned ensign in the navy, wife Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wyrick from Bartley, Neb. He signed Wyrick thinks he will be stationed in Boston for a time, and expects a short furlough soon when he will come home to visit. He grew up in this community.

—Lawrence Dendinger will go to Marysville Kas, to manage the Lee and Kelly store there, and not to Wyoming after all. The family left Wednesday for their new location, which is a distinct promotion for "Bud". Lorus Clough of Creighton Neb., came Sunday to succeed Mr. Dendinger, planning to move his wife and two children here a little later.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jay Auble and son Don plan to leave this Saturday for a visit with their daughters, Mrs. Irwin Underberg and family at Waukegan, Ill., and Miss Joycelyn Auble at Camp Grant, Ill. Joy has been ready to leave for overseas nurses' duties since Sept. 15. The girls are about 90 miles apart but train connections are not easily made so they are not together a lot.

—Out of town patients calling on Dr. Parkins the past week were Mrs. Otto Gebhardt, Cotesfield; George, Eugene, Dorothy and Phyllis Vanosdall, Greeley; Laurence, Herman, Greely; Mrs. C. A. Van Lund, Burwell; Leland, Christensen, Lincoln; Harold Poor, Burwell; Benita Garrison, Taylor; Beverly Baker, Ericson; Mrs. Oliver Johnson, Scotia; Mrs. Henry Krause, Burwell; Otto Elisk Burwell, Lowell Partridge, Burwell.

—Ed Fitzsimmons, who has been employed several months by the Quiz Engravers, left Tuesday night for Omaha and will hereafter be employed as an identification photographer in the ordnance plant at Mead. His family will remain here for the present but will join him as soon as he locates a suitable home for them. Jiro Kawata has returned to Ord from Denver and will take Mr. Fitzsimmons place in the engraving plant. He will again have a room at the Muncy home.

—Miss Christine Peterson came home Wednesday before Christmas and left Tuesday this week for school again at Lincoln. Dec. 15 she tried to get into the WAVES at Des Moines, but her eyes flunked the tests. She intends to give up her nurses' aid work and get a defense job soon. Her father Nell Peterson, also was home a few days at Christmas time. Leaving Pine Bluffs Wyo., he and his crew are building railroad fences toward Grand Island.

—From Flavia Twombly Schwarzel, of Meadville, Penna., comes an interesting letter in which she suggests that a June issue of the Quiz be devoted to the alumni of Ord high school, if nothing more than telling who they are and where they are. She suggests Fred Coe as a good person to take the census for the class of 1905 but Mr. Coe pleads off on the ground that he is too busy filling out the multifarious government questionnaires now required in the creamery business. The Quiz is willing to devote space to such an interesting feature if a historian can be found for each class. Mrs. Schwarzel says that her husband is working 7 days a week and walks 1 1/2 miles to work daily and that she is teaching. They are allowed only 3 gallons of gas per week, never do use their 5 pounds of meat weekly and have plenty of canned goods, canned by herself, so rationing isn't going to bother them much. A two-day rain is causing a flood in the low lands near their home, writes Mrs. Schwarzel.

They Serve in U. S. Armed Forces

Elder D. Mottl.
Seaman Mottl is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mottl and enlisted in the navy from a defense plant at Hartford, Conn., where he worked eight months. He has been graduated from Great Lakes Training Station.

Pvt. Joseph E. Weverka.
Private Weverka, son of John Weverka of Comstock, has been in the army about two months and is stationed at Buckley Field, Denver, Colo.

Pvt. Calvin W. Lee.
Private Lee, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee, of North Loup, is stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., where his address is 36378265 Co. M 136th Inf. APO No. 33.

Pfc. Wm. F. Klancecky.
Pfc. Klancecky is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Klancecky and his address is 37266289 Co. L 381 Inf., APO No. 96, Camp Adair, Oregon. He has been in the army since Oct. 19.

—Last year only about 100 children were taking part in the milk drinking program at the school; this year 150 are registered. Weighed when they began and weighed again last week, some children gained as much as seven pounds, several had gained six pounds and five pounds, most of them three or four pounds, since the extra milk was served. Business and Professional Women, who sponsor the free milk campaign, feel the milk at school is responsible for some part of this gain, and are more than gratified.

—Boy Scout Troop 194 had a jolly time Monday evening, when about 20 of them went to the ice pond for a sack lunch and skating party. Fathers who enjoyed it while acting as guardians were Vernon Anderson, Mark Tolen and County Judge Anderson. George Hastings, Jr., the scoutmaster, was unable to be present.

—Junior Petska has been transferred to Harlingen, Tex., he wired from the last-named place to his parents on New Year's day. He will now begin actual training in the army air corps, having finished basic work at a Florida post. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Petska.

—At the W. S. King home, both daughters came home for the holidays. Miss Mattie Grace leaving for her teaching at Oxford, Miss., on Friday and Miss Clara Belle departing for her schoolroom at East Chicago, Ind., on the following morning on the bus.

—Mrs. John Round and two small children are living at the army post in Kansas with Dr. Round, and they find army life delightful. Dr. Round writes he is getting a world of good experience at his hospital post there.

—Archie Bell left Wednesday last week for Evanston, Wyo., where he is employed by the Diamond Construction company of Grand Island. If he likes his work, after a few days, she will go there to join him, says Mrs. Bell.

Comstock News

Mrs. E. J. Crawford and Mrs. C. E. Cleveland entertained near relatives at a very lovely shower last Monday afternoon honoring a recent bride, Mrs. Maylon Granger. For entertainment, Mrs. Kenneth Myers, Mrs. Wayne Lewin and Mrs. George Travis composed several musical readings which Mrs. Myers gave, accompanied by Mrs. Travis on the piano. Games and visiting quickly passed the afternoon and the bride opened her many nice gifts. The hostesses served a two-course luncheon. Invited guests were the honored guest, Mrs. Maylon Granger, Mrs. C. E. Granger, Mrs. S. T. Stevens and daughter, Marlon, Mrs. Lillian Westcott, Miss Eliza Westcott, Mrs. Eva Simpson, Mrs. Wayne Lewin, Mrs. Allie Plock, Mrs. Ernie Matheson, Mrs. George Donahue, Mrs. Keith Bresley, Mrs. Mabel Dye, the Misses Mary, Evelyn and Betty Plock, Mrs. Kenneth Myers and daughter, Charlene, of Ainsworth and Mrs. George Travis of Broken Bow. An old fashioned revival will be starting Jan. 10 at the Assembly of God church, with Evangelist Charles Dale of Coldwater, Kas., as the main speaker.

Last Monday, Dec. 28, at ten a. m., in Ord occurred the marriage of Miss Lillian Proskocil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Proskocil, of Comstock, to Ben Tvrdek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tvrdek, also of Comstock. Valley County Judge Andersen performed the double ring ceremony. The couple was attended by Miss Evelyn Kamarad and James Proskocil, brother of the bride, and Miss Velma Florida and Doyle Bruner. The charming bride wore a full length dress of white satin and lace, gathered at the waist line and falling into a full train. Her corsage was of white roses and sweet peas. Miss Kamarad, maid of honor wore a gown of pink marquisette and sweet peas in her hair. Miss Florida wore blue taffeta. The bridegroom and his attendants wore dark suits. A wedding dinner was served to the immediate relatives of the couple at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Proskocil. Mrs. Rene Morse baked the wedding cake. In the evening a wedding dance was held at the Ellersick hall in Comstock, attended by a host of relatives and friends who wished the couple much happiness. Music was furnished by Johnnie Bowers and his orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Tvrdek are making their home with the groom's mother, Mrs. Frank Tvrdek, for the present.

The Comstock high school basketball team have two games for this week, the first to be played at Sargent on Tuesday evening, Jan. 5. On Friday evening they go to Ord where they will play their extra good team this year, nearly all the members of the squad being over six feet tall. Monday afternoon the town team will engage the high school team in a skirmish on the local floor. Comstock lost to Burwell at the last game they played before the holidays and won from Dry Valley at their first game of the season.

that store and elevator have ever had, if not the largest since 1929. They have shipped more grain from their elevators than they have in 21 years past. Scarcity of livestock, good white corn prices, are war-induced reasons for this.

Store clerks have been more difficult to keep, and more of them are needed than a year ago, says Heuck. But the nucleus of his staff remains. Deliveries have been cut 50 percent, of course, and may have to be cut more soon. The new rationing program is an unknown quantity as yet.

Next week more Ord merchants will voice their ideas as to the war and Ord. Watch for the article in the Quiz.

Ord Stores, Offices, Take Stock of War Changes as Second Year of Conflict Opens

to be urged to raise more and more and more food products, and will be given the funds to do it with.

Individual borrowers will have much more responsibility than in the past. They are not asked to fill out as many reports, for the program has been streamlined. Where the FSA office formerly sent in 5 duplicates, now a total of three is required. This helped to the extent of one stenographer, Miss Irene Makowski, who was transferred to the Grand Island office October 1. Her typewriter and desk are also to be sent elsewhere for use.

Darryl Bauder was the first loss in FSA personnel, and was replaced by Clarence Nolls, who is now at the army's Camp Phillips. Bauder is in Denver in the medical corps, a new corporal. He was in the Ord office about two years.

Raemakers was assistant supervisor in Ord nearly two years, then went to Broken Bow, and now heads the FSA office.

In County Agent Carl Dale's office war has also brought changes. In place of the famous 4-H clubs which have been the inspiration of so many farm youngsters, a boy or girl will now work under the supervision of his father or mother or another qualified person.

Then there are fewer people to serve, as the farms are sapped by war industry and by the army call. But many ambitious farmers bought places of their own in the past year or two, also.

Gas rationing means more meetings for Mr. Dale but farmers will not have to drive so far to attend them. Small meetings will be held in more localities.

Much more paper work is done, far more records kept. And many more people request bulletins and aid. They are particularly interested in balanced rations for their livestock, and want to know how to feed more protein to their hogs and poultry.

"Farmers are better off, of course; can't help but be," admits the county agent, "with better produce and higher prices."

James Ollis, in the Farm Loan office, secretary-treasurer, lost one employee to the army's aviation corps when J. H. Jacobsen quit his field work. Recently Mr. Jacobsen wrote he had been sent to Florida to officers' training school.

The work is a bit more exciting these days, Mr. Ollis thinks. His office takes care of four counties, Loup, Garfield, Valley and Greeley.

In addition, bonds are now to be sold from this office, so the new year adds other duties to the ones now performed by a staff of four.

Ed Liewer, who owns a liquor store, thinks the war has definitely affected his business. For one thing, the new tax makes him handle a lot more money for the profit concerned.

Then, many brands have left the market altogether, straight alcohol is gone, few gins remain. Whiskey is rationed; when certain popular brands are bought he must get a big quota of expensive stuff to get the popular makes. Only the most fancy wines remain to sell, for the government wants the raisins.

E. C. James says his business has been hurt a good deal. So many young fellows have gone to war, and "the government sells better insurance for those boys than the rest of us; they will insure against war wounds and death and we have a 'war clause'."

At Jessie's Cafe, Mrs. Dave Haught thinks there is not much difference yet. "Excepting I do twice as much work myself and work twice as long hours as I did before. No, there isn't any 'help' problem with me. I expect food rationing will make some changes, though."

At the Swift cream station operated by Freeman Haught, the war has made one family busier than bird dogs. When they went into this business a few months ago the family expected he would be out of trucking work entirely before long, but he continues very busy, so Mrs. Haught spends practically all of her time at the cream station. Lately she has had to hire an assistant.

Butterfat is higher in value now; then there seems to be a shortage of egg cases. So far there are enough cream cans. Chief difference noticed is in the amount of work done. With Mrs. Haught at the station, their young daughter Betty Jean has had to take on many home duties. Mr. Haught is also a substitute mail carrier, and Saturday found him replacing W. L. Blessing at this work. Yes, war is touching the lives of this family.

Mr. Cupl in his little shoe shop could not say much. A leather shortage is noticed, and rubber heels all "mark off" on the floors nowadays. Also, he is very busy, as everyone is making old shoes do much longer than before.

Peter Peterson Hears from English Cousin

The interesting letter printed below was received last week by Peter Peterson, of Route 1, Ord, from his cousin, May Cooper, of W. L. A. Hostel, Watton-at-Stone Nr. Hertford, Hertfordshire, England, and because it gives such a fine picture of British life during the war we are glad to print it this week:

Oct. 10, 1942

I expect this letter will come as a great shock to you after all these years, only you and Monty are always in our thoughts over here, and we wonder if you or Monty are in any of the forces, like all of us over here. First there is Bill. He has been in the army for two years and has been out in the middle east for the last 18 months. He seems to have been in all the battles except one and from that one most of the men never came back. Now once again they have started out there.

Then Len, my youngest brother, has been in the army for the past two months, first in Wales and now in Leicester. He is in the R. A. O. C. Bill is in the R. A.

I guess you have heard before this that Richard and granddad were bombed out of their flat in Camden Town, and have lived here with us. Richard was called up at the beginning of 1941. He went in the Tank Corps, and is now in India.

My father was enlisted at the very beginning of the war, as he was in the Territorials. He was invalided out owing to his health, was then seriously ill in hospital several months, then in March went back in for another operation but I must say now he is very much better.

Grandfather thought that he should be doing his bit so he went off one day and found a government job cleaning the new army lorries. Everyone told him it wouldn't be any good for him but he took no notice and went his way. For two years nearly he was there and then gave it up for his health. Once again he is well and now on the road looking for another light job.

Myself, I have been in the Women's Land Army for the past 14 months, and had a grand time. Plenty of hard work and plenty of fun. During the harvest we have had soldiers working with us and have traveled from Sussex to South Wales, from there to North Hertford. In South Wales I was doing forestry. Here in Hertford I have been doing general farming. In Sussex I was in a threshing gang. The job I have now is general farming and I like that far the best. Still I guess Monty and yourself know all about farming.

At the present moment I am home on sick leave. After falling from a straw cart and sustaining concussion and injured back. I have been home for three weeks and hope to be back on the farm next week.

I live in a hostel with 40 other girls and we all go out on different farms all around Hertfordshire. Then when we get home of an evening we have our dinners and then go off to make the best of the quiet life of the village. The nearest picture theatre is in the town 7 miles away. There is a small hall where we can go dancing that is only open when the soldiers are camped there. At first it seemed very strange being all those miles away from any amusements when back home we are only about ten minutes from anywhere.

They told us the next lot of soldiers coming will be the American soldiers. We have had also every other regiment there. So it is about time they came. Not that they will find much life for themselves. Don't forget to let us know what you and Monty are doing and if ever you go in and come to England don't forget your uncles and aunts are all very glad to see any of you."

County Agent Notes

Home-Canned Foods Exempt.

Home-canned foods are exempt from the provisions of the food rationing program that starts in February, Extension Agent C. C. Dale this week called attention to that statement, made by Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard in his radio address announcing the program. No one will lose the advantage they gained by producing and conserving food at home in 1943.

Commercially-canned food will come under the provisions of the program, and people will be asked to declare their supplies of commercially canned goods on hand. Some supply will be allowed when the food rationing books are distributed. The exemption means that Victory gardeners will be affected far less by the rationing program than will the people who raised no garden in 1942. Dale urged that people plan now for raising a garden during 1943.

Home Cure for Meats.

Farm people still can use the so-called "sugar cures" for meat, even though the Office of Price Administration has announced that no sugar will be allocated to consumers for meat curing. Syrup and other materials can be used in place of sugar in preparing the mixture.

Prof. Wm. J. Loeffel, meat authority at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, recommends 8 pounds of salt, 2 pounds of sugar, and 2 ounces of saltpeter per 100 pounds of meat. This may be applied dry or dissolved in 4 1/2 gallons of water.

Corn syrup, sorghum syrup, molasses, honey, or maple syrup can be substituted for the sugar. It is possible to cure meat without sugar, according to Loeffel, but the meat will be less palatable. Salt and saltpeter tend to harden meat, and sugar or syrup tends to neutralize this hardening action. Experimental work has shown that corn sugar or corn syrup actually produce a better cured product than cane or beet sugar because of its great moisture-holding power.

Another possibility, of course, is to use one of the commercially prepared cures which already contain sugar. Apparently the sugar supply for the commercial cure mixtures has not been limited to the point where the companies have much restriction on the quantity of the product that they can put on the market.

How to Live Long
How are you feeling? Is your waistline smaller than your chest? Do you sleep eight hours or more daily? Do you love a lot, laugh a lot and keep young in heart? If you want to live long you better do these things. So claims Richard Harrison in his "Fifty-one Steps to Long Life and Happiness." Others of the 51 steps are: If past 40 years in bed all day once a month. Sleep in the ray. Don't go to funerals. Cultivate poise. Don't let anything make you angry. Don't live in the past. Wear youthful looking clothes. Take one fast day a month.

NO INCREASE IN AMOUNT OF BUTTERFAT

It's natural to want to believe it—the idea that as cream sours its butterfat content increases—but it isn't so. Take the word of experts whose business it is to check up on such things. They will also tell you that this erroneous idea costs farmers many thousands of dollars each year.

Carefully controlled scientific investigations at the various agricultural colleges prove positively that souring does not increase the butterfat content of cream—it merely makes it look thicker and richer. These tests do show it is that normal, natural evaporation of moisture from the cream in the process of souring causes an increase in the butterfat percentage, but in the actual content of the butterfat. This fact is illustrated in the chart above.

Eighty pounds of cream testing 30 per cent butterfat represent a butterfat content of 24 pounds of fat. Four days later the same cans of cream weigh only 75 pounds because of the five pounds of water evaporated. Testing this lessened weight of cream shows that the percentage of butterfat is now up to 32 per cent. But this has made no difference in the total amount of butterfat in the cans. The 75 pounds of cream, while testing 32 per cent, still contain only 24 pounds of fat. The amount of fat in the original 80 pounds of cream and the reduced amount after evaporation is exactly the same—24 pounds.

It is seen, therefore, that the farmer who lets his cream stand too long near the kitchen stove or other warm place is the real loser. For certainly he cannot get for this type of cream the best prices. Very sour cream is always way off in flavor, and off flavors grade down the butter made from it. The smart farmer takes care to guard the flavor of his cream all along the production line. One of the best ways is by frequent marketing. Experts recommend delivery of cream three times a week in summer, and at least twice a week in winter.

Mrs. Charles Millsap and daughters were guests at the E. G. Breechbill home during school vacation. They returned to Grand Island Saturday. Mr. Millsap, a skilled machinist, left Sunday for Nevada where he has been promoted to a higher position. The family plans to move to Nevada as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made.

Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Mills invited the Goodenow family including Mr. Abbey and Mrs. Frank Kennedy and sons, to dinner on New Year's day.

Holiday guests at the Paul Schufeldt home were Miss Norma Schufeldt, who attends the Central College at McPherson, Kas., and Mr. and Mrs. George Segard and baby from Kearney. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Daniels invited Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson to dinner Sunday.

At the Claude Dent home New Year's day, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Worden. This young man has a good start in life for he weighed 9½ pounds.

Mrs. Pearl Howe and her son and daughter moved to Blair Tuesday. Mrs. Howe recently held a farm sale at her ranch north of town where the family has resided for the last 42 years. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Johnson of Petersburg are moving to the Howe ranch.

After the Christmas rush at the postoffice, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Fackler and Glen enjoyed a short vacation at the homes of Mr. Fackler's twin sisters. They first visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hurst at Orchard and later visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Petersen at Wayne. Mr. Petersen is employed by the municipal light plant at Wayne and Mr. Hurst is superintendent of schools at Orchard.

F. A. Johnson, granddaughter Julie Johnson, E. E. Troxell and Ruth and Mrs. W. L. Johnson of Los Angeles went to Neligh on Sunday to help Mrs. Mary Troxell celebrate her 92nd birthday.

Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Mills went to Witten, S. D., Saturday after Miss Lois Kern, who had been spending her vacation with her parents.

Relatives of Mrs. Emma Scherbarth who live at Ord visited at the Scherbarth home at Valley View New Year's day. Guests included Alvin and Hulda Hanke, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Graul and daughters and Mrs. Albert Petersen.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gross entertained at a dinner Sunday in honor of their son Roland, who is home on a furlough from Ft. Lewis, Wash. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Gross and children of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malicky and Miss Margaret Thiem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ansten Hald and daughter have moved back to Burwell. Ansten has been working at the bomber plant near Omaha for the last two months. Monday they sold their home to Mrs. Phoebe Boll and they are anxious to buy another place in town.

Miss Ellen Kozeal who works in Lincoln arrived Saturday evening for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kozeal.

Herman Frye and small daughter from Montana are visiting at the home of Mr. Frye's mother-in-law, Mrs. Anna Meyers. It is his first trip to Burwell since the sudden death of his wife who died Nov. 22 enroute from the Ord hospital to Hastings to consult a specialist in regard to sinus trouble.

A New Year's dinner was held Sunday at the C. E. Hiser home north of Burwell. Relatives from Arcadia, Taylor and Burwell were present.

Miss Clarice and Miss Dorothy Mann spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bredthauer of Scotia.

Word comes to Burwell relatives of the sudden death of Mrs. H. D. Rohde, who lived here for many years. The family now lives at Vale, Ore. Three of their boys are in the army.

Pvt. Tony Hovovka is home on a furlough. He is stationed at Camp Sill, Okla.

The drive for the infantile paralysis fund is getting under way in Garfield county. Mrs. H. A. Phillips, county chairman, called a meeting Tuesday afternoon for the committee, which is composed of Mrs. B. A. Rose, Mrs. A. C. Duncan, R. E. Leach, O. A. Norland and C. C. Scofield.

The Burwell Livestock Commission company held a large sale Friday. Buyers were here from many distant places and farmers were pleased with the prices received. Cars and trucks filled the streets and it made one of the busiest New Year's days that Burwell has ever had.

The Misses Nellie and Katharine Keefe returned to their work at Rawlins, Wyo., Tuesday afternoon.

DEADLINE JAN. 15TH FOR RATION BOOK NO. 1

The deadline for registrations for Ration Book No. 1 has been extended to Jan. 15, says Mrs. Grace Sprague this morning, and people who have not registered for this book before that date will not be eligible for Ration Book No. 2 when it is issued in February.

This book was commonly called the "sugar ration book" when it was issued last May 4 but other commodities have been added to it since.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Note: United States Internal Revenue stamps are required on real estate transfers at the rate of 55 cents for each 500 dollars consideration, or fraction thereof, except when the actual consideration is 100 dollars or less. When transfer is made subject to a mortgage or other encumbrance, revenue stamps are required only for the amount above that of the mortgage.

Rebecca in 'Ivanhoe'

It is an accepted fact that Sir Walter Scott modeled Rebecca in "Ivanhoe" after Rebecca Gratz, of Philadelphia, a Jewess who was noted for her beauty and intellect. An active and able worker in the cause of needy women and orphans, she founded the Philadelphia Hebrew Sunday school and directed it for 32 years. Scott never met Miss Gratz. She was the companion of Washington Irving's fiancée, Matilda Hoffman, who died before their wedding day, and Irving described her to him after Scott outlined the plan for "Ivanhoe."

Jr. Red Cross News.

Production of the quota of articles for use in Red Cross army posts or navy base hospitals is getting the attention of the Ord school folks. The work is included in various regular classes and has received a number of special work meetings of school clubs.

The assignments come from area headquarters and consist of items requested by hospital authorities for their sick rooms or convalescent quarters. They consist of articles ranging from bedroom slippers and jackets to games and reading materials. All of them are helpful in getting the ill service man back on his feet and dismissed as rapidly as possible.

Under the capable direction of Miss Krebs, home ec teachers each of her classes has started projects in sewing, using salvage material as much as possible. The work must be carefully done for Red Cross authorities send rigid specifications. The classes are asking for contributions from Ord homes of salvageable cotton material, sturdy, solid color, in strips 18 inches to 36 inches in width, even 12-inch width for a few items. They could also use remnant bias tape of various colors. Beranek's drug store has a deposit box for these articles.

In November the grade school students brought from their homes, gifts of sundry findings, as their share in the Red Cross kits being made by the Ord chapter for men going overseas: 192 needles, 72 safety pins, 12 spools of white and 5 spools of khaki thread, 49 cakes of soap, 12 pairs of shoe laces, outing flannel strips to make about 30 shoe-polishing cloths, and a boxful of buttons of various sizes in both white and khaki.

The Girls' Social Service club and the sponsors, Misses Helen Prouty and Elizabeth Lukes, voted to put in several work meetings, including the "housewives" which go into the kit bags. They added to the grade students' gifts such items as they needed to fill approximately 40, being short only on the 2-inch safety pins of which the supply was exhausted. They met at regular meetings and at noon lunch times to work.

The Camp Fire girls are being asked to help assemble the remaining buttons, etc., of which there are still quite a supply. The Junior Red Cross intends to put to the best possible use everything given by the students' homes. They will probably put in some meeting time at filling the little sewing kits, which are an item of greatest demand by service men. They are working on assembling reading-room materials for the hospitals, also.

The Girls' Social Service club started work now on making scrapbooks of cartoons, jokes, chaty daily columns, etc. The sixth grade room under the direction of Miss Lois Finley turned in quite a number of these books ready to be sent before Christmas.

Other immediate projects for the Junior Red Cross are the Victory Book drive for service reading rooms and gathering of silk and nylon hose for salvage.

Dr. and Mrs. Lee C. Nay report the birth of a 9½ pound boy Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hopkins.

Miss Verna Sobon is spending a week with her relatives while on vacation from her duties for Rev. Thomas Studowski.

Miss Josephine Wozniak went to Grand Island for the day on Tuesday, taking the bus down in the morning and home that evening.

Miss Agnes Brim came from Grand Island to spend the week end. She is employed in the ordnance plant there, and has a touchy job, handling TNT, but she likes it.

Supper guests at the Ed Naprstek home New Year's eve were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dworak, Mrs. Joe Cetak, Mrs. James S. Cetak and Sharon and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Naprstek and Joan.

Miss Beverly Davis, the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Davis, left Tuesday on the morning bus to return to her studies at the University of Nebraska.

Mike Seamon and his sisters Marie and Frances visited their aunt, Mrs. Julia Wozniak at Elyria last week end. On Tuesday Mike started the return trip to a California army post.

Mrs. Frances Seamon has been in St. Francis' Hospital for the past two weeks, suffering from a nervous breakdown. Her sister Mrs. Julia Wozniak went down Wednesday to visit her, taking the morning bus.

Mrs. Lee Nay received Christmas cards from two widely separated soldier boys this week. Horace Johnson sending greetings from Guadalcanal, the first direct word heard from him in nearly two months; while Arden Clark sent his best wishes from India, where he was recently shipped.

Mrs. Wilmer Anderson left Tuesday morning for Omaha to meet her husband, who took the "Rocket" from Chicago where he is in Uncle Sam's service now. "Bud" had a three-day leave.

Spiral, Croquinole

In a spiral wave (the original method) the hair is wound on long rods from the scalp to the ends. In a croquinole, it is wound on shorter rods from the ends to the scalp and is used for probably 90 per cent of the waves given today. A spiral requires 35 to 50 curls, steamed 10 to 15 minutes. A croquinole from 25 to 35 curls, steamed 10 to 10 minutes. The spiral is naturally better adapted than the croquinole to very long hair, and its chief use today is for this purpose, and for those who want the wave started closer to the scalp, which is possible with the spiral wave. It is also preferred for very fine hair by some operators.

Neighbor Finds Will Harrod, 67, Dead in His Bed

Garfield Co. Farmer Lived Alone, Evidently Taken Ill Wednesday, Died.

Burwell—(Special)—John W. Harrod, 67-year-old farmer who lived alone on a ranch three miles north of this village, was found dead in his own bed Thursday morning by Mike Shonka, a neighbor who had become alarmed because Mr. Harrod did not answer his telephone. Evidently he had died the previous day.

When Shonka went to the Harrod home to investigate after repeated phone calls had failed to get an answer, he noticed at once that livestock had not been fed and that Mr. Harrod's car was in the garage, so entered the house and found the farmer's body.

Dr. E. J. Smith was called and stated that Mr. Harrod had been dead for some time, possibly since the morning before, as the kitchen looked as though he had been preparing breakfast, had been taken ill and gone to the bedroom to lie down, death overtaking him as he slept. He was fully dressed.

Cause of death could not be ascertained as Mr. Harrod was a strong, robust man and apparently in good health, though he suffered to some extent from high blood pressure. About a week before he was kicked by a cow and injured slightly and Dr. Smith said that a blood clot might have formed as result of the injury to his leg and caused his death.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Methodist church with Rev. A. J. Hindman in charge.

Mr. Harrod was born May 5, 1875 in Hall county and was married in 1899 to Mary Mable Ballard, who passed away Jan. 22, 1942, at their home near Burwell. The Harrod family had lived in this community over forty years.

Five children are left to mourn, Clarence Harrod, of Burwell, Mrs. Edna Beyer, of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Eldora Evers, of Bozeman, Mont., Mrs. Helen Mann, of Lomita, Calif., and Mrs. Blanche Peterson, of Burwell. There also are four sisters, five brothers, eight grandchildren and other relatives.

2 High School Boys Placed on Probation

Two Ord school boys, Eldon Smolik, 17, and Ernest Rousek, 15, were placed on probation for an indefinite period Wednesday morning when they pleaded guilty in county court to a charge of petty larceny filed in connection with their theft of beer from Olof Olsson on Dec. 17. Judge Andersen also ordered them to make restitution of the value of the property, about $16.50, and pay costs of the action with money to be earned by themselves.

For driving with a license which had expired, Charlie R. Kingston was fined $1.00 and costs in county court last Thursday.

Farm Loan Ass'n to Hold Meeting

Directors of the North Loup Valley National Farm Loan Association have set Monday, Febr. 8, for the annual meeting of members.

According to James B. Ollis, secretary-treasurer, 166 Valley county farmers and their wives are members of the credit cooperative.

Mr. Ollis said a short meeting is planned this year to give the members every opportunity to make their trip to town count by taking care of shopping and other items of business the same day.

Russell Quits As Ration Chairman, Pearson Selected

Own Business Requires More Time, Says First Executive of Program.

Verne W. Russell, chairman of the Valley county OPA rationing board ever since the program went into effect a year ago, Monday tendered his resignation to Ign. Klima, Jr., county defense chairman, explaining in his letter of resignation that his own business affairs required more time than he was able to give them while serving as rationing chairman.

His resignation was accepted by Klima and Tuesday evening at a meeting of all three panels of the board he appointed Hilding O. Pearson to succeed Mr. Russell as general chairman.

"Mr. Pearson has accepted and I believe will be an excellent chairman," comments Klima.

First order of the new chairman was issued immediately, changing the hours of the local rationing office, and reads as follows: "In order that the chief clerk and her assistants may have time to prepare the many reports now being requested by the state OPA office, the local office will be closed all day Monday, Jan. 18 and beginning with Jan. 19 and thereafter the office will be open to the public during the hours of 10:00 to 12:00 and 1:00 to 4:00 daily. These changes are made necessary to give better service to the public."

Cpl. Milo Bresley Itching for Action

Corporal Milo Bresley was pumping the hands of friends and receiving hearty greetings last week while on 14-day furlough from his duties as an aerial photographer in the marines.

Enlisting in September, 1941, this was Milo's first visit home and he was happy to be back in Valley county. But he is eager to see some action: "I'm the only one trained in my group in Florida who has not been sent across," is his complaint.

His brother Dean took him to Omaha Thursday noon, and from there he went to Kansas City, going by train back to San Diego, where his particular job is developing pictures. Milo arrived a week previous, and enjoyed his visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bresley and others of the family.

Scout Committee Meets on Tuesday

The supervisory committee of the Boy Scouts of this city met Tuesday evening to discuss the Scouting problems. Members include Vernon Andersen, Bill Darges, Roy Randolph, George Allen, Keith Lewis, Mark Tolen, C. C. Thompson, L. E. Walford and George Hastings, the scoutmaster. Assisting them were Warren Allen, Eagle scout, and Cornelius Blemond, Life scout. Plans were discussed for the coming court-of-honor and other matters were planned.

Victory Corps to Be Organized in Ord High School

Will Prepare Students for War Production and Community Service.

Feeling that there is a war to be won; that high schools are a potential source of trained manpower; that boys and girls should be prepared for war production and essential community services, Superintendent C. C. Thompson this week announced a Victory Corps will be formed in Ord high school at once. This is done voluntarily, as suggested by Paul V. McNutt, manpower commissioner of the United States.

Of the faculty, Edgar Farley has been chosen sponsor for the new activity, which will be carried on during the second semester. Two new courses in physical education will be given, one by Miss Kidder and one by Mr. Tolly; a refresher mathematics course will be offered; and a course in war and post-war problems will be given by Mr. Farley in place of the present "commercial law".

Most other courses will acquire a new wartime "slant", Mr. Farley states. The new program will not be permitted to interfere with the cultural and social training which Superintendent Thompson feels is equally important.

High school students who will help carry on this new project include Robert James, George Cetak, Mildred Athey, Lillian Geneski, Avery Noll and Elizabeth Kovanda, who selected Elizabeth their chairman, and Avery the vice chairman at their Monday morning session. Triangular emblems in red and blue will be used, but no further uniform, they decided. The group voted to present the plan at a convention the last of this week, in the form of a round table discussion.

All students can qualify for membership in the general division of the corps; while the five specialized divisions are for junior and senior boys and girls who will undoubtedly expect to aid war activities after graduation. Each of the five fields is meant for the student who has special plans for after-graduation. Thus farm boys might wish to join the production division; commercial and teachers-in-training would enter the community service division, and etc.

Suggested service activities of Victory Corps members include any like the following: air raid warden service, book collecting, assisting in housekeeping or care of children for mothers employed outside the home, helping with farm crops, plane spotting, school safety patrols, Red Cross work, volunteer library service, selling war stamps and bonds, adding salvage campaigns, gardening and canning activities, taking part in nutrition and health programs, and many more.

Organization of clubs in first aid, camouflage, map-making and reading; plane, glider or ship model-building; marksmanship practice, combustion engine study, photography, radio communications and many another are suggested.

In fact, it is intended to give recognition to any work or play that might lead to helping war-efforts.

An enthusiastic response is predicted among Ord young people of high school age, many of whom have been begging for something to do that would help win the war. Now Uncle Sam has provided this work. A gymnasium work-out for Ord women will also begin soon, if a sufficient number of housewives and business girls telephone their names to 113 at the high school. Miss Lillian Kidder has offered to teach this course one evening a week, as a part of the physical fitness program of the government.

H. Losee Dies at Chico, California

From his home in Chico, Calif., comes word of the death of a Valley county pioneer, H. Losee, who died Dec. 16 at the age of eighty-eight. The Losee family lived in the western part of the county and went to California about 35 years ago. His wife died October 27 after a stroke suffered a couple of weeks before.

Township Meetings Held Next Tuesday

The annual township meetings, at which levies are voted and road overseers elected, will be held in all Valley county townships next Tuesday, Jan. 19. Each township board designates the time and place for the meetings. Ord township's meeting will be held in the court house at 2:00 p. m.

NORTH LOUP WINS GAME.—North Loup—(Special)—The Arcadia high school basketball team played here Tuesday night and the local team won, 16 to 14.

Only 32 Valley Co. Teen-Agers Registered Here

Only Boys Born from July to December in 1924 Were Asked to Register.

Only thirty-two 18-year-olds registered for selective service in Valley county during the recent registration period, it was revealed today by Miss Virginia Davis, clerk of the selective service board. However, only boys born from July 1, 1924, through December of that year were asked to register, boys born before July 1, 1924 having registered previously.

Helen Kokes Joins Waves, 4th in Service

The John Kokes family has about as many children serving the United States of America in its armed forces as any Valley county household.

Helen is desisting her school teaching in Omaha any day now for the WAVES. In preparation she had a small crest removed from her arm, and was absent from her schoolroom last week. She is teaching this week but with a temporary feeling about it all.

Richard writes home that he is moving from Alaska and will take a "water trip" but that he may not say whether it will be nearer his brother Ted who is stationed at Kodiak Island or to his sister Louise who is in California.

Another son writes from Texas that he does not like that hot place, and hopes to be transferred to Kearney soon.

Lillian, a nurse who was married a year ago and who lives at Pendleton, Ore., received a government questionnaire this week: perhaps she is wanted too.

One thing, the postman brings interesting mail every day from some far corner of the world. Tuesday this week was one of the rare days he had no letter for the John Kokes.

Davis Attorney for Nebr. Legislature

Clarence M. Davis has been appointed attorney for the enrollment and review committee of Nebraska's unicameral legislature, a position which lasts only during the session and pays a salary of $375.00 monthly, and left Wednesday afternoon to enter upon his new duties. His duties will be to check bills after 2nd reading for inconsistencies and the position carries much responsibility and considerable honor.

45% Electric Rate Discount Continued

At their January meeting last week the Ord city council voted to extend for another six months the discount of 45 per cent on electric rates when bills are paid by the tenth of each month. This discount has been in effect several months and has saved a large amount of money for electric users. Formerly a discount of only 33 1/3 per cent was granted for prompt payment.

Phones from Hawaii

Mrs. W. W. Haskell, who is 84, had the great pleasure of a long distance telephone visit with her grandson, David Lindberg, at noon on Tuesday, conversing about ten minutes. "And I could hear him as well as if he was in Ord," she exclaimed delightedly. They really had a dandy visit. David had been there about a year and a half when the war began, and sent word to Mrs. Haskell that he would talk to her Monday evening about 9:30, but the call could not be arranged so it was delayed until the next day.

Loup City Thinks 'This Is the Year'

It has been many years since a Loup City high school basketball team has defeated the Chanticleers but supporters of that school are saying "this is the season" as they prepare to accompany their fine team to Ord for a game Friday evening, Jan. 15. Undefeated so far, Loup City has its finest team in a decade.

The Chanticleers will take some beating, they demonstrated last Friday when they outsped Arcadia 40 to 14 after trailing 4 to 3 at end of the first quarter. The Ord second team won also, 30 to 15.

Farmers Mobilized for Greater Food Production in War

Crowd of 500 Eats Chili and Hears Production Goals for 1943 Outlined.

Fifty-six per cent more spring pigs and 46% more fall pigs than in 1942; 10% more cattle marketed for beef; 19% more eggs and 8% more chickens for food; 30% more corn and barley than in 1941; 54% more alfalfa seed and 121% more sweet clover seed—those are just a few of the production goals Valley county farmers are asked to meet in 1943.

Announcement of the goals was made Tuesday afternoon at a Mobilization Day program county-wide in scope held at the Bohemian hall in Ord. About five hundred farmers were present.

At noon hot chili and crackers was served to the big crowd by wives of Rotary club members, the Rotary club having under taken to provide the noon day luncheon. The chili was excellent as prepared by the Domestic Science club of the high school and there was plenty for everyone. Even late-comers who had previously eaten at home found themselves asked to partake of a steaming bowl of chili and few refused the invitation.

After luncheon there was instrumental music by a group from the high school, after which Clarence M. Davis took over as master of ceremonies and introduced Mayor M. B. Cummins, who in his usual sincere manner welcomed the farmers to Ord and expressed the pleasure of the Chamber of Commerce and cooperating civic groups at being given the chance to entertain them.

Highlight speech of the day was made by Edgar Farley, economics instructor in Ord high school, who made a patriotic talk that showed a thorough mastery of American history and of world economic currents. Few in the audience had heard Mr. Farley speak before but none will forget soon the clarion call to work for freedom that he gave.

Ray Lutz, Arcadia farmer, made an excellent talk and finished with a suggestion that the chairman of the meeting be instructed to wire Secretary Wickard that Valley county is "100 per cent behind the Food for Victory effort", a sentiment which was loudly applauded.

War's Impact Felt by Practically Every Ord Firm, Says Reporter Continuing Tour

Add to war's effect on Ord: Joe Blaha of Ericson received exactly $93.84 for eggs at the Jack and Jill grocery this Monday, taking home with him a goodly array of groceries as well as $89.04 in cash. Surely a considerable amount more than those eggs would have brought a year ago.

Said Manager Wachtrie, looking around the store, "Oh, yes, gum is hard to get, marshmallows and syrup are hard to come by, so are pork and beans." Beside him was a "yeast has gone to war" sign and on a wall was posted "How to use your sugar ration book to buy coffee."

In the past year Manager Carl Kotrc of this store enlisted and is now at Camp Callen, Calif., and a later manager, Emil Darges, has also been lost, caught in the draft. Emil is in the signal corps at Adair, Ore., and last week was able to write his parents, after a severe siege with infantile paralysis.

Then the former Food Center store has been re-arranged for self-service, under the direction of Mr. Kotrc. Other changes have been the employment of Eldon Wachtrie and Edward Twanski, and two young fellows who help Saturdays, Joe Kominek and Anton Hvezda.

Ellsworth Ball, jr., Re-elected Ch'man by Unanimous Vote

Supervisors Organize Tues. as Annual Meeting Opens; 3rd Term for Ball.

Valley county supervisors, opening their annual organization meeting Tuesday, suspended rules and by unanimous vote re-elected Ellsworth Ball, jr., to serve as chairman in 1943. It will be Mr. Ball's third consecutive term as head of the board.

Only one new member took his place on the board Tuesday, this being Evet Smith who succeeded Henry Zikmund. Members, in addition to Smith and Chairman Ball, are J. A. Barber, S. V. Hansen, Joe J. Jablonski, Charles Johnson and J. V. Suchanek.

Committee appointments were made by the chairman as follows:

Roads and bridges—Suchanek, Johnson, Hansen.

Buildings and grounds—Barber, Smith, Jablonski.

Budget—Jablonski, Hansen, Barber.

Settlements with county officers—Johnson, Smith, Jablonski.

Bonds between sessions—Hansen, Barber, Jablonski.

Claims—Johnson, Smith, Barber.

Appointments made by the board during Tuesday's opening session included Tracy Hamilton for highway commissioner, Dr. F. A. Barta county physician, Ign. Klima, Jr., budget authority, and E. C. Baird as member of the Soldiers and Sailors relief commission. A resolution not to pay coyote bounties was adopted.

All newspapers in the county were designated as official county newspapers and a resolution was passed to print proceedings of the board in full instead of by summary as was done last year.

The board is continuing its session today and Thursday.

L. Dow Harris Dies at Nampa, Idaho

Funeral services were held Jan. 5 at Nampa, Ida., for a former Ord resident, L. Dow Harris, who died there suddenly on Dec. 30 as result of a heart attack. Present at the last rites were Mr. Harris' youngest son, Max, who is in the U. S. army and stationed at Washington, D. C.; also his brothers, Ralph, of Sheridan, Wyo., and Miner, of Palmer, Nebr.; and his sister, Mrs. R. P. Flynn and husband, of Blair, Nebr. The older son, Lieut. Col. Aaron, is serving in the north African campaign and of course was unable to be present.

Mr. Harris also is survived by his wife, his mother, Mrs. Isabel Harris, of Palmer, and by another brother, Emil Harris, of Hastings. About twenty-five years ago the Harris family moved from Ord to Nampa, Ida., where Mr. Harris worked 15 years for the Windsor-Lloyd lumber interests and for the past ten years as secretary of the Nampa Business Men's Credit association.

He graduated from Ord high school in the class of 1904.

Brothers Store, no help has been lost unless it is Irwin Underberg, who left a year or two ago for Waukegan, Ill., where he is now a government inspector of instruments for planes. Formerly this son-in-law of one of the owners helped with watch repairing; now he assists Uncle Sam.

In the Auble store, where watches probably made up one-fourth of the inventory last year, this January finds one watch. It finds Dr. Glen Auble going weekly to Sargent and Burwell, where he is the only one to straighten glasses and similar work. Optical requirements are listed in the first ten essential ones, so no curtailment is met with as yet. Rumor says metal cases for spectacles will not be made after March 1, however.

Silverware is out, for there is neither plated ware nor sterling, both are used in war-vital ways. No new band instruments have been made for many months, and second-hand ones have real value. Alarm clocks are off the market entirely, for the war really needs this type of mechanism in quantities. In Chase's, a women's ready-to-wear shop, regulations regarding wearing apparel are more evident daily as clothes

If you can't get that — try this

Even though our food dealers' shelves are likely to take on the appearance of Old Mother Hubbard's cupboard during this wartime period, it is still up to the homemaker to keep the family fare in balance with sufficient vitamins, minerals, and other body-building indispensables.

FOR YOUR DAILY QUOTA OF VITAMIN A

... Look to your dairy products, eggs, sundry meats such as liver, heart and kidney, oily fish, leafy green and yellow vegetables. If one "A" food is not available, then turn to another.

GET YOUR VITAMIN B

... From whole grain cereals, enriched flour and bread, milk, eggs, liver, kidney, fruits, and vegetables.

YOU'LL FIND VITAMIN C

... In oranges, lemons, grapefruit, tomatoes and berries. Leafy uncooked vegetables, especially cabbage, can be called upon for "C."

MINERALS ARE SO NECESSARY

Calcium—Of course dairy products, especially milk and cheese, are the best source, but the pinch hitters are molasses, carrots, cabbage, broccoli, and dried figs.

Iron—Liver, heart and kidney are about the best sources of this all important mineral. But too, there's whole grain cereals, enriched flour and breads, lean meats, egg yolks and leafy green vegetables.

PROTEIN AND ENERGY FOODS

Proteins—These are the sustaining foods around which our menus are usually built. Meat, of course, is most universally favored. But when the family quota is exhausted, then think of the menu in terms of cheese, eggs, dried beans, and nuts.

Energy Foods—Somehow or other, we seem to get our share of these, so there's no need for worry here. Breads, desserts, potatoes, in other words, starches and sweets, are seldom neglected on any menu.

"SHARE THE MEAT" SO ALL MAY EAT

Your Government has requested that you and your family eat no more than 2 1/2 pounds of meat per person weekly. The Government recommends that the sharing allowance for children be figured as 3/4 pound of meat for children under six years; and 1 1/2 pounds per week for children from six to twelve years. Let's all cooperate.

PAINLESS GAS EXTRACTION

... WHEN TIRE AND GAS RATIONING WAS BEING PLANNED, WE GIRLS DECIDED THAT WE NEEDED A PLAN TOO. SO WE FORMED A "SHOPPING CLUB". WE ALL LIKE SAFEWAY'S METHOD OF MERCHANDISING SO WE PICKED A DAY EARLY IN THE WEEK AND...

... TAKE TURNS DRIVING OUR CARS. IT WORKS IN OTHER WAYS, TOO. IF YOU GET FOUR OF YOUR GIRL FRIENDS TO DO IT, YOU SAVE FOUR-FIFTHS OF YOUR GAS!

JUST WAIT 'TIL THOSE GAS MOURNERS IN MY NEIGHBORHOOD HEAR THIS!

OF COURSE NOT DARLING... WE GO TOGETHER IN ONE CAR AND ALTERNATE CARS. LET ME EXPLAIN...

ON THAT'S JUST A COINCIDENCE... THEY ARE JUST GOING SHOPPING. WE ALL DO IT AROUND HERE.

Valley County Meats Are Better

In Valley county we have as fine cattle feeders as there are in the world and for years it has been our policy to buy and butcher our meats locally instead of shipping them in from the Omaha packers.

Under the pressure of war we are now doing from necessity what we always done from choice, so the quality of meat we sell is unchanged.

When we buy and butcher Valley county-fed cattle we assure our customers of Grade A meats without any premiums tacked on. You'll like the meats we sell, now as always.

—Gerald Keim wrote his mother that he went to Hilo, Hawaii to spend Christmas, having four or five days' leave. He was the guest of forest rangers on the famous volcano, Mauna Loa.
—Miss Barbara Jean Carr has been ill with measles and has not returned to school since Christmas. Her home is on the Mainstem ranch north of Burwell; in Ord she lives in the Keith Lewis basement apartment.
—Mrs. Will Misko's mother, Mrs. Nora Kuehne, who is 83, has made a marvelous recovery. In a hospital a few weeks ago her life was despaired of; now she is improving a little each day, and sits up about two hours daily at the home of a daughter.
—Mrs. Harold Taylor returned Sunday from Omaha, having rented a nice house there. She and the boys, Deny, who is nearly three and Jon who is one and a half and their grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Taylor will leave today, Thursday, for Omaha. Harold has accepted a position in that city, and begun his new duties.
—Mrs. Merlin Hintze, formerly Rosalie Meese McBeth, writes from Omaha that her husband is about to go overseas. Mrs. Hintze will continue to be dental assistant to Dr. Shrader, Omaha dentist. Mr. and Mrs. Hintze were in Ord briefly at Christmas time, visiting her people, Mr. and Mrs. John Meese and other relatives.
—Mrs. Howard S. Busler of Philadelphia, Pa., was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. Glen Auble this week, planning to leave Thursday morning. She spent a week in Ord, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Auble and Mr. Auble at Cheyenne, Wyo., since Dec. 15. Arthur Auble is now a corporal, and is attending officers' training school.
—Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Turner and baby came up from Grand Island Saturday to spend the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Turner. It was Eldon's last chance to come for a while as he has enlisted in the signal corps of the U. S. army and in a week will begin a three months' training course at Milford, Nebr.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Parkos left last Wednesday for their home in Hastings after having spent the holidays with their son Ernest Parkos and family and other relatives. That evening Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Parkos and also Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ulrich were dinner guests in the Rudolph Kokes home. Sunday the Parkos' were dinner guests at the Adam Dubas home in Burwell.
—Mrs. Earl Christianson went to Cotesfield on the Thursday bus, having received word of the death of her sister's baby, that of Mrs. Earl Rasmussen on Wednesday evening. The three-months old baby was to be buried on Friday. Sad was the coincidence that the baby of Mr. Christianson's sister died on Tuesday night of the same trouble, a malady including cold, ear-ains and fever.
—Mr. and Mrs. John Nevrkla entertained at a dinner Sunday honoring their son Richard who was home on furlough from Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Present were Alfred Bartunek, James Nevrkla, Lew Zablouddil, Charles Zmrhal, Jimmie Turek, Anton Radil, Frank Novak and their wives and families, Mr. and Mrs. John John, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hohn, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cook, John Kosmatka, Dorothy Jorgensen, Leonard, Lumir, John and Mrs. Elder.

—Mrs. Clarence Pierson returned home Sunday after submitting to a goitre operation in a Hastings hospital three weeks ago.
—Sunter school resumed its school duties again Monday after a two weeks vacation during which all the pupils had the measles, except Gary Nelson.
—Mrs. R. C. Austin returned Thursday evening from Portland, Ore., and other points in Washington and California where she has been since October.
—Mrs. Mary Vavra, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Darges, is having a good visit with her sister, who arrived Monday from her Colorado home.
—Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Norris report the following births: An 8 lb. son to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hurlbert on Thursday, named Dennis Ray and a 7 1/2 lb. girl to Mr. and Mrs. James Skala on Monday, named Carole Jean.
—Mr. and Mrs. Harold F. Nelson and family enjoyed a roast duck dinner at the home of Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Walford, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walford and Mr. and Mrs. Rae Wilson came to visit in the afternoon.
—Miss Sophie McBeth was operated on at St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha Saturday by Dr. Murphy, and her sister, Mrs. P. J. Melia, writes she is doing fine. Miss McBeth had a tumor removed exactly like the one she had 15 years ago.
—Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cummins have received two of Corwin's latest letters with an Alaska postmark on them. His wife plans to return to Grand Island the last of this month, where her mother and sister live, and make her home there.
—Emil Darges has been able to write several letters to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Darges. He declares he has not been so very sick, but they think he is trying to reassure them about his attack of infantile paralysis. Anyway, everyone is glad he is improved.
—Mrs. Floyd Beranek and Mrs. Harry Zulkoski were shopping in Grand Island one day last week. Mr. Zulkoski writes from Camp Polk, La., that he is driving tanks there and is crazy about it. He finishes his basic training this Saturday and does not know where he will go after that.
—Victor Hall came from Holdrege Monday to attend the annual meeting of stockholders of the First National bank, which was in session on Tuesday. Monday evening all of the members of the James Misko family, who live in this part of the country were guests at a turkey dinner at the Ralph Misko home.
—Miss Pearl Victoria Hauptmann of Omaha, daughter of the late Mrs. Jessie Hauptmann of Scotia, and Pvt. Robert Richard Bisted, son of the late Morris Bisted of Brainerd, Minn., were married on Dec. 17 at the Omaha Gospel Tabernacle by Rev. R. R. Brown. The couple will reside in Omaha.
—Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Porter announce the marriage of their daughter Lila to Donald Naeve, the son of Mrs. Oyce Naeve which was solemnized Dec. 31 at Falls City. The bride was attended by her sister, Beulah, and the groom by Paige Arnold. The couple will reside in Falls City, where the groom is employed in the oil business.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS
Colby, Washington January 5, 1942.
To the editor of the Ord Quiz: Dear Mr. Leggett:
I'm writing to tell you that I joined the navy and that I will have a change in my address. I don't know now for sure what my address will be but I will write later and let you know.
I joined the navy December 19 and was sworn in at Seattle and was told to keep on working and wait for my call. Today I got my final orders. I am to report to the Naval Recruiting Station, Thursday, Jan. 7 to be transferred to the U. S. Naval Training Station at Faragut, Ida., where I will receive my navy training. So just as soon as I know my new address I will let you know so that I will get the Quiz: I didn't rightly know how valuable the Quiz was till I left home. Now that I am away from home the Quiz still reminds of all the people I know. Especially the people around Ord and Comstock. I've noticed the Quiz has quite a bit of Comstock news in it and I sure like that.
I was also happy to get a letter from Ed the other day. He is now at the Advanced Naval Training Schools on Treasure Island at San Francisco, Calif. He has been promoted to Seaman, second class. He says that he doesn't like the weather so good but otherwise he likes it fine.
Well Gene tell all the Quiz gang hello from me and I will write later when I go to Idaho.
Yours truly, Leonard Dlugosh, An old Quiz Kid.

Earl Barnes at Chaffie. Camp Chaffie, Ark.—(Special) —Pvt. Earl W. Barnes, who joined the U. S. army on December 4, 1942 at Ord, Nebr., has arrived at Camp Chaffie where he is assigned to the 14th Armored Division.
Pvt. Barnes is the son of C. S. Barnes. In civilian life Pvt. Barnes was employed as truck driver by K. W. Peterson.
Guardians Hold Meeting. The Camp Fire Guardians of Ord met last Thursday afternoon to discuss and plan for all the local groups the carrying out of the Camp Fire national Birthday Honor: "Serve by Saving." It is a most worthwhile program this year and gives credit for planned saving of money for war stamps and bonds, for saving material and salvage, for studying how to make clothes and equipment last as long as possible.
The guardians are meeting again to arrange the assignments for each group and to set dates for the various projects. The entire program is to finish with an exhibit and bazaar, though the work continues into Victory Garden time.
Jr. Red Cross Notes. Two more rural schools enrolled in Junior Red Cross since Jan. 1: District No. 20, Miss Josephine Fells, teacher; District No. 13, Plain Valley school, Miss Helen Warford, teacher. Each school has requested some assignment of Junior Red Cross work and started the Junior program.
District No. 54 and their teacher, Miss Lydia Mathausen, had a little benefit project that the Junior council wished to carry out and have handed in $1 to the county chairman to use for the coming War Relief fund or for production. This makes the second school in the county that well in advance of the March fund drive sent in a contribution, Miss Esther Anderson and Barker District No. 3 having sent in $8 late in the fall.

OBITUARY Mrs. Ed Wilmoth. The writer was privileged the first of this week, to read a short letter which our good, old friend J. E. Wilmoth, wrote to Oscar Travis, and which was the first we knew of the passing of Mrs. Wilmoth at her home in North Hollywood, Calif., on the 13th of December. The Wilmoth family lived in Valley county for many years and there are still a lot of people here who knew them, though they have been gone from here a long time. Her passing was doubly sad from the fact that their grandson, Robert C. Wilmoth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wilmoth, preceded his grandmother in death only three days.
Maydellon Shinn Wilmoth was born March 18, 1861 in Galesburg, Ill., and was married to E. J. Wilmoth December 26, 1878. Mr. and Mrs. Wilmoth spent the first two years of their married life in Wisconsin and Minnesota, then moved to Valley county where they pioneered and lived for 30 years. Their first home here was a sod house with a roof of willows and dirt and during the almost 65 years that they lived happily together, those early days were always remembered as the happiest of their lives. When they left Valley county they moved to River Falls, Wis., then to Sterling, Colo., where they went to be near their only daughter, Mrs. George Helbig who passed away in June 1937. Following her death they moved to North Hollywood to be near their only son Ray Wilmoth and that has been their home since. Her death came only a few days before they would have celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. She was laid to rest beside her grandson at the Forest Lawn mausoleum in Glendale.
By her many friends in Valley county Mrs. Wilmoth is remembered for her kindness and generous character. In the brief letter which Mr. Wilmoth wrote to Mr. Travis, and which was dated December 30, he said that if he lived six days more he would be 83 years old.

Robert C. Wilmoth graduated from high school in 1937 and had but recently finished his college course, completing the work in both instances with the upper ten per cent of his class. He was a brilliant student, a fine musician, adored by his family and liked by all who knew him, and had before him a life of great promise. Not remembered here because he was but five years old when his parents moved away, still, the many who knew his people and who read this, will sympathize deeply with his grandfather in their great loss.

My Own Column
By H. D. Leggett

We have all heard about "a chicken in every pot," but now a new one is being sprung. The powers that be in Washington now decree that there shall be a fish pond on every farm. The story in the Sunday papers says that simple plans are being prepared or have been prepared, which will enable every farmer to build himself a fish pond and the piece goes on to say that soon each farmer will be able to go out and snag two or three hundred pounds of fish every year right out of his very own pond right back of the orchard. The idea is of course, another means of providing food and I think it is a shame that the fish who thought up the scheme didn't have access to more of this kind of food some time back. The piece didn't say so but of course a new government department will have to be set up to look after this important new department. Thousands of employees will have to be found to teach the farmers how to feed the fish when the lakes are built. And it will take an army of guards to police the shores of the lakes to keep fish hounds like George Gutschaw, John Anderson, Guy Burrows and the like from poaching, or the farmer won't be able to save any fish for himself. Of course it will be at least a year before the small lakes can be built and sea-fished so they will hold water; fish can't live in such shallow places without shade in this hot western country so trees will have to be planted and grown; it takes several years to grow fish large enough for food and the war may be over before things will be ready. But if the idea takes, we might be able to get things in shape by the time the next war comes along. Anyhow it is a grand idea. The piece didn't say just whose idea it is but it sounds like Wallace. Anyhow it is an administration sea.

Ellsworth Ball says that Pat was two years old before they were sure whether he was going to be a man or a coyote, and that he was ten years old before they could round him up to get pants or shoes onto him. I suspect Ellsworth is just jealous because Pat has been able to get further in democrat politics than he has. Pat has run for congress and the best Ellsworth can do is to be a county commissioner.

I am mighty sorry this week to have to take quite a string of names off the Quiz list. But they expired December 15 and I wrote them several times and got no response. I don't want to try to force the paper onto anyone and, anyhow, we are on a strictly cash in advance basis and there is nothing else that I could do. But I do hope they will miss the paper enough to hurry back onto the list. It would save us quite a lot of work and expense if those who do want the paper would renew before their names are taken off the list.

I have reason to believe that what I prepared for breakfast one morning this week, is a little unusual and probably you readers wouldn't guess what it was. Well, it was fresh fish and pancakes. Mrs. Burke won't believe that fish and pancakes are a breakfast dish and she wouldn't even try it. I have often heard her say that she would try anything once but she drew the line at fish and pancakes. She says she likes bacon, ham, sausage or fresh meat with her pancakes, but fish, well she just said she had lived 82 years without it and was going to keep right on, so she ate her pancakes, then the fish. Better than fresh fish with pancakes for a breakfast dish, is salt mackerel but I didn't have the salt mackerel. Some swanky hotels serve salt mackerel and pancakes as a breakfast special and attract throngs of patrons who like it, and Oscar says fish and pancakes suits him fine. Some years ago Judge John L. Anderson was visiting us at Cullen lake and after eating a dozen pancakes and eight or ten bluegills, when urged to have some more, said, "No, I should have stopped several fish and pancakes back." So, if you want something different and real good for a breakfast change, try fish and pancakes. I am sure you will be convinced.

In writing to have a correction made in their subscription, C. E. Austin, formerly of this locality, says that they like it very much at Goldendale, Wash., where they are now located. A large lumber mill 3 miles from where they live runs 24 hours a day and employs many men and women and also located there is one of the largest dry ice plants in the country. Mr. Austin says they have very little wind there, they have some snow but he says a snowstorm always ends with a rain.

Under the title of Magic Hiram the Hermit sends me the following little poem for this department. It follows:

MAGIC.
If I could make with magic,
Like Merlin, long ago,
I bet I make with lots of fun,
Put on a right good show.
I shake my wand at Hitler
And say, "Adolph, make like ghost!"
Then I make you—"Make like air-dale!"
And Benito—"Make like post!"
I ain't mad to Hirohito.
For his race or his religion
But I make him—"Make like statue!"
Then, I make me—"Make like pidgeon!"

Something Different

One of the most interesting washlines in town is that hung out by my cross-the-street neighbor, Mrs. Ralph Hatfield. I believe she must be the official washer for the sweatshirts and athletic garments of the high school boys. Anyway, she hangs out an intriguing row of red shirts with hoods. Or perhaps brief basketball shirts. The wind makes them almost as lively on the line as they are when boy-filled.

Some golfers find a year-around game on the Ord links, playing all the milder winter days as well as the blowy autumn ones and soggy spring ones. The personnel of the group is nearly changeless, including Mark Tolen, "Tea-nus" Biemond or perhaps his son, Joe Jirak, Henry Deines, "Spot" Johnson. Once in a while one of them is missing, or Crawford Mortensen is added.

If Crawford isn't busy taking his regular-Sunday afternoon walk to the farm, which he rarely foregoes. And a pleasant, though healthful and practical way it is to spend a Sunday afternoon, taking a long walk, or playing golf.

A suitable way. And if ever one droplet of religion pours through your veins, the lovely outdoors and all its miracles inevitably bring thoughts of "God's Temple".

Probably for its size Ord is by far the most musical town in the state, and has been for many years. Young people have acquired an interest in music as they grew up, nearly all of them having a contact with some sort of music. Of these young people, a few continued to work with this new interest they found so absorbing.

From the long ago days when "Date" Auble and his wife taught their children nearly all the music they learned, and the days when Miss Ella Bond and her brother sang in a quartet at practically all public occasions is a far cry to 1943. But Ord's music interest has seldom wavered, and the Auble name and the Bond name are linked with good music yet.

Of the many Auble musicians, none has seemed more promising than Irene Auble, a freshman at Hastings college this year.

There her professor acclaims Irene as probably the finest drummer he has had to work with over many years. And there Irene has been given a chance to play tympani with the Hastings Symphony orchestra of 63 pieces.

Irene is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Glen Auble, who are indeed proud of her fine record.

Spending of music, I wonder if Henry L. Deines is willing to go to the enormous trouble of training and drilling local talent for an Easter presentation of "The Messiah" again this year? He is a genuine musician and one who understands its more delicate nuances, and Ord voices are lucky that he will coach them.

When Director Deines finishes training a choral group, the Broadway and hot-cha angle are neglected (thank goodness) for the sake of building musical moods to perfection.

And undoubtedly Ord and its musicians are better able to appreciate Mr. Deines' abilities than most towns Ord-size.

BACK FORTY
By J. A. Kovanda

Several farmers who tried raising white beans last summer were disappointed, but Warren Anthony has no kick coming. He grew somewhat less than an acre of Great Northerns on his farm in the Olean neighborhood.

They were put in with a corn planter, cultivated once, and never irrigated. The beans got weedy, and were blackened by an early frost. Yet, Mr. Anthony sold 600 pounds at a nickle per pound, and kept back all that his family could eat.

Next spring Warren Anthony intends to plant a couple of acres closer together. He used to raise them in Hall county on an island of the Platte, where the beans would yield as much as 22 bushels per acre.

Beans were a profitable crop last year in many spots along the North Platte valley. They flourished under irrigation, were cultivated and combined with out the use of any hard labor, and yielded over a ton per acre in some instances.

Meat shortages are boosting the prices of beans to new highs at grocery stores, as most shoppers have already found out. Beans are an excellent substitute for meat.

10th ANNUAL FUND-RAISING CAMPAIGN
THE NATIONAL FOUNDATION FOR INFANTILE PARALYSIS
Campaign Period: January 15th to 30th
Under auspices of Valley County Chapter.

Guided by the experience of nine previous campaigns and recognizing by this time the value of the work being done by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis victims, in every community, we should all be willing to again join our hands, in raising the funds necessary to further the fight against infantile paralysis with the least possible expense for the collection of funds.

Infantile paralysis, unlike many diseases, is not the result of any particular environment or act. It knows no boundaries and, like the master criminal it is, leaves nothing in its trail except the victims, crippled.

The greatest radio schedule in the history of infantile paralysis fund-raising campaigns is being planned for the 1943 appeal. From now on until the close of the campaign, prominent people and Hollywood celebrities will join hands, over coast-to-coast hook-ups, in the 1943 appeal for funds to continue the infantile paralysis fight.

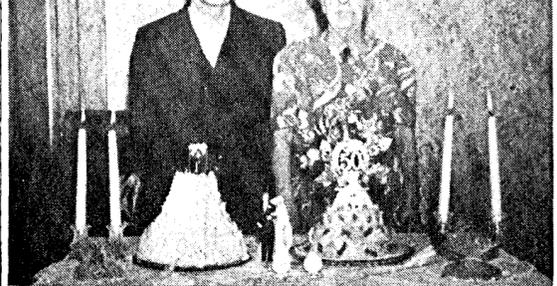

The famous Kenny Method of treatment of victims of the disease, and the facilities for training nurses in this method are now being made available in the Nebraska State Orthopedic Hospital in Lincoln. The benefits and results of research carried on by the National Foundation and American Medical Society, are now being made more and more available to us locally, because of what you have given, in the past.

Arrange a number of sports events, in your various local organizations, including schools, ladies clubs, civic organizations, etc. Organize bowling matches, basketball and card games or stunts to raise your share. HELP THE LITTLE CRIPPLES TO WIN THEIR VICTORY, so that they will not have to stand on the sidelines, while other plays. REMEMBER that one-half of all that you give will stay in the local chapter treasury, and is available at any time and in any infantile paralysis epidemic, or to help put some unfortunate victim on his feet.

Let's do it well, when asked to give to this cause. IGN. KLIMA, JR., Chairman Valley County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Burwell Pioneers Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John Herrick observed their golden wedding anniversary at their home in the west Burwell, January 4, with a reception for friends and a dinner that evening for a large group of relatives. The spacious living rooms were decorated for the occasion with wedding bells and white and gold streamers. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Lyle Meyers, and a grand daughter, Mrs. Herman Brockman, served refreshments. Many useful and beautiful gifts were received including a set of gold rings displayed in lovely heart-shaped ivory receptacles. At the dinner two large wedding cakes, one made by Miss Meda Draver and the other by Mrs. Edgar Johnson and Mrs. Herman Brockman, helped to make the table attractive. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Neil Woods and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurlbert and Opal, Mrs. Gertrude Sherard and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hurlbert, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Meyers and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brockman, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Brockman, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nightingale and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Johnson and daughters.

John Herrick was born in Iowa and moved with his parents to Clay county, Nebraska, when he was five years old. His wife, Minnie Hurlbert, also lived in Clay county at Ong, but they did not meet until after her family had moved near Burwell in Loup county and she returned to visit her grandmother. Later they were married at the home of her parents where members of the family have since resided. At present the Herricks daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Lindsey, live there.

The attendants at their wedding, Silas Hurlbert and Mrs. Della Butler Beckett, are living. Mr. and Mrs. Nightingale of Ord were also present.

John and Minnie Herrick established their first home at Ong, Nebr., and later took a homestead in Custer county. In 1907 they moved to the Hurlbert homestead and now own the place including 280 acres of land, where they lived for thirty years. In 1937 they came to Burwell to their present home.

The Herricks have two daughters, Mrs. Lee Lindsey and Mrs. Neil Woods, who planned the golden wedding celebration. They have one son Lloyd, who lives at Fort Worth, Tex., and was unable to be present. There are ten grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The Herricks are hard working, thrifty pioneers, who have experienced hardships, tribulations and privations, but looking back over their life together they say the joys and good things in life far outweigh the sorrows, and they were happy to celebrate their anniversary as Mr. Herrick's parents did a quarter of a century ago.

Stoddard; status of women, Mrs. Elmer Zlomke.

Mrs. Austin Hostess.

Mrs. R. C. Austin and Mr. Austin were hosts to the family at dinner Sunday, celebrating her return home after several months out west. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Austin and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Austin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Connor of Burwell and Mrs. Stella Austin of Burwell were present.

Supervisors' Wives Meet.

Wives of county supervisors have long wanted to meet and spend the day together while their husbands transacted Valley county affairs, but it was not until Tuesday of this week they really did it. Then Mrs. S. V. Hansen, Mrs. J. A. Barber, Mrs. Evt Smith and Mrs. Ellsworth Ball had a pleasant day together, attending the free lunch offered by the Ord Chamber of Commerce at noon. Other women were unable to attend. They pronounced the chili very good, and plan to meet again before long.

Honor Sheriff Round.

Wednesday evening Sheriff George Round was honored by fellow employees of the court house at a fine dinner party. Mrs. Round too being a special guest. The farewell dinner, marking the end of many years of faithful service, was attended by all Valley county officers of the court house, and was a seven o'clock affair at Thorne's cafe. It also celebrated the sheriff's birthday which was the next day, but just which birthday Mr. Round would not say. He and Mrs. Round were given a beautiful floor lamp with a special "black-out" base by the group. A good time was had by all, with speeches eliminated, and this also pleased Mr. Round.

Mrs. Long Hostess.

Tuesday afternoon the Women's club of Ord met with Mrs. Leo Long at her home in west Ord, the former Harry McBeth home. Mrs. H. E. McClure took charge of the program, looking it around the war mobilization talks from Washington heard on the radio at three o'clock. Her topic was "The Maker of History Speaks" and to each one present she handed a typed sheet of past and present famous names, asking for brief remarks about any of those named. An interesting round table discussion was the result. There was a good attendance.

Business Girls Meet.

Tuesday evening at Thorne's cafe, Miss Sylvia Iwanski and Miss Gertrude Patrick were hostesses to Business and Professional Women's club. Mrs. C. J. Mr. and Mrs. Vance Grabowski were business callers in Broken Bow Tuesday afternoon.

Sgt. Gene Matheson arrived in Broken Bow Thursday morning and was met there by Art Matheson. Later in the day relatives went to Broken Bow to get him. Gene was called home by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Glendora Matheson, who has been quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Higgins for the past two weeks. Gene is stationed near Aberdeen, Md.

Miss Norma Chalupsky came up from Grand Island Saturday for a day's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Chalupsky, Eva, and brother, Art, who arrived the first of the week from Cheyenne, Wyo., where he has been employed. He expects to be called into the army soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Holoun and family of near Ord were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Mary Hosek and Ethelyn. Mr. Holoun and Mrs. Hosek are brother and sister.

Mispah club will meet this Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Kay Shepperd. All members are urged to attend as the annual election of officers will take place at their meeting. Also bring needles and thimble for needle work.

E. G. Stone and O. W. Riddle took a truck load of hogs to Grand Island Monday. Rex Morris took the load down in his father's truck.

Sherman Matheson and daughter, Carol, arrived in Grand Island Thursday evening and were met by William Higgins and brought to Comstock. Sherman was called home by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Glendora Matheson. He is employed in an aircraft factory on the west coast and hence their home is in Hollywood, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller and small daughter, Patricia, of Broken Bow were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wait, remaining for the evening, at which time Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stone and Mrs. Seerley were also invited guests. Ice-cream and cookies were served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. James Wozniak and two daughters, Josie and Margaret of Ord were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. August Bartu.

L. F. Oxford came up from Ravenna Friday evening, where he has been managing the Dierks yard there for the past several months. The yard at Litchfield has been moved to Ravenna and Mike Caddy is now in charge, so Mr. Oxford will remain at home for the present.

Mrs. Jess Egly and Miss Wilma Drake were passengers on the bus Monday morning going to Lincoln, where Mrs. Egly was called by the death of a relative.

Walter Getchell was appointed village marshal by the town board and began his duties Saturday. The town has been without a marshal since the resignation of Frank Janulewicz last September.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stone entertained twenty relatives at a seven o'clock turkey dinner at their home Saturday evening, honoring their son, Sergeant and Mrs. Heber Stone. The table was lighted by candles and white roses and carnations adorned the room. The evening was spent visiting, which was interrupted by a charivari party of young people, who took the bride and groom for a ride in a trailer attached to a car, followed by the rest of the party. Coming back to the house, candy and cigars were passed out and the party broke up.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Haynes attended funeral services held in Sargent at the Methodist church for Mrs. William Bingham, of San Diego, Calif., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Benson of Sargent.

George Fretz was taken quite ill Sunday and is confined to his bed.

Hershal Johnson arrived on the bus Sunday for a short furlough with his parents.

Mrs. Mary Lewin was honored with a birthday party last Thursday when 14 ladies came to help her celebrate. A good time was had by all.

Russell Wardrop of Golconda, Ill., and Mrs. C. D. Wardrop and daughter of Ord, were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vencil Krikac, jr., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cienny and Kenneth Hoyt, who had been visiting the past two weeks in Elyria and Ord, returned home Friday.

Forrest Morris of Alda came up last Tuesday evening to be at the bed side of his mother, Mrs. Glendora Matheson, who is ill.

James Drake, member of the United States Coast Guard and stationed at Galveston, Tex., arrived last Tuesday and spent two days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Drake and family.

Mrs. Randy Brecken returned on the train Friday night from a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. James Jones, Mr. Jones and family near St. Paul.

Mrs. S. V. Emry was hostess to members of the Rebekah lodge at their regular Kensington last Tuesday with an all-day meeting. A delicious covered dish dinner was served at noon and the afternoon spent doing needle work and visiting. Cathedral tapers burning in a four candelabra on which snijax was twined and flanked by baskets of white carnations, arranged against a background of seasonal greenery, formed a holiday setting for the marriage of Miss Lucille Wait, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wait, to Sergeant Heber Charles Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Stone, which was solemnized on Friday evening, January 8 in the Methodist church. The 7 o'clock double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Merle Burres, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

As the guests assembled Miss Stevens played piano numbers and also accompanied Walter Haynes who sang two numbers. Miss Stevens also played the wedding march.

Miss Frances Bennett of Kearney, served as maid of honor, and best man was John Stone, brother of the groom. Richard Stone lit the tapers and George Haynes and Donald Leul acted as ushers. Mrs. E. A. Haynes had charge of the guest book.

Escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a street length dress of soldier blue crepe with black accessories, and wore a three-strand necklace of pearls, a gift of the groom. Her flowers were a corsage of white roses. The maid of honor was gowned in a moss green crepe, also with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

A reception was held at the home of the groom's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stone. Thirty-five guests were present and were seated at three tables. The bridal table was centered with a white tiered wedding cake, baked by Mrs. Maudie Smith. The other tables were centered by vases of white roses and all the tables were lighted by tapers. The three-course dinner was served by the ladies of the W. S. C. S. with Mrs. J. D. Rockhold, Mrs. G. L. Lutman, Mrs. M. F. Henderson, Mrs. S. V. Emry, Mrs. C. E. Cleveland and Mrs. V. Krikac, jr., in charge.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Gene Gilmore of Omaha, and Mrs. Ralph Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Miller of Broken Bow.

When Sergeant and Mrs. Stone left Sunday morning she wore a light grey wool dress, grey chubby and black accessories. They will live in Battle Creek, Mich., which is near Fort Custer, where the groom is stationed.

Both were graduates of the Comstock high school, Sgt. Stone graduating in 1936 and Mrs. Stone with the class of 1939. She later attended the Lincoln School of Commerce and was employed in both Lincoln and Kearney.

move-out and those made in war-days move in. For example a very tall woman has a bad time of it now, for the government regulates the length of every size of dress, and the width of hem it may have. To be sure, after signing a lot of papers and waiting nobody knows how long, extra-length dresses can be specially ordered, but how long all this would take is highly uncertain.

Clothes are standardized, and a size 16 has a definite skirt length, bust measure, shoulder measure, sleeve length, etc. Long-garled girls are going to have trouble.

"Nylon has gone to war" reads a sign telling of the substitution of rayon hosiery. Silk of course has also vanished. Furs are leaving the market, and fur salesmen are not expecting to call in Ord, they write.

Indeed no salesmen will call on dress shops, and instead buyers are to travel to marketing centers, such as the "Victory caravan" in Omaha which Miss Wilda Chase attended this week. There it was a scramble, with dozens of would-be purchasers for nearly every offering of the salesmen.

"Everything is hard to get," declared Hardwareman Louis V. Kokes, who has long been an institution on the north side of the square in Ord, discussing war troubles. "Stiff comes in dribbles; it is restricted; all the manufacturers are building for war needs."

Steve Carkoski left the Kokes' firm within the past few months, and although he is in civilian life, he is more than busy doing plumbing work in Newfoundland at the request of the United States authorities. Mr. Kokes' daughter, Irma, is also gone and is busy teaching nursing at St. Washington University in St. Louis. This leaves Mrs. Louis Kokes as the chief standby of her husband in the Ord store.

"Look here," and Mr. Kokes opened the front of a big crate to reveal a new white porcelain-covered range, a beauty and sold before it came... with an odd niche in the front where a thermometer should have fitted! He pointed out the lack.

No bicycles, and toys went in the Christmas shopping orgy. Yes, war has done things to the hardware business.

East a door or two, Varietyman J. R. Stoltz has plenty of headaches. There are so many items he can't get, but just must take what is sent. Not nearly so many salesmen call; usually salesmen swamp the place in January, but not in this gas-and-rubber-short 1943.

Retail sales are down, though shelves do not look empty. But staples, needles, pins, safety pins, bobby pins, everyday items are scarce, for manufacturers will not accept back orders and they have only a limited quantity from which to fill many orders.

The candy cases were largely empty, with a few cookies and cough drops on display, some "orange slices" and a scattering of sweets in a big case that used to bulge with candy. "We get a percentage of last year, and in January last year we had a good deal of candy on hand and did not order much," explained Mrs. Stoltz.

Kitchen ware is hard to get, egg beaters, potato mashers, things like that, and there are no new manufacturers' catalogs to order from, either. One order for 150 items was filled about half, before Christmas. Many shortages are only beginning to be felt; rubber goods, elastic, enamelware. "How are they going to fasten a baby's diapers without safety pins?" queries this Ord woman.

But people take it in their stride, she reports, they don't crab, but say "Oh, we can get along all right!"

Will Misko does not have nearly the leather stock usually inventoried in January, says he. He is having some trouble getting leather, but he still has harness to sell, and it is worth more. He has more business, but less hardware and leather to sell. Rope is frozen.

At the New Cafe, filling out the many forms is paining Miss Gertrude Knebel. She has been working at it some time, all this stuff about how many were served, but it is a big job. The many changes are going to make a good deal of trouble. She has not found much help-trouble as yet.

From Dworak's Meat Market, Joe Cetak has gone to war, having gone about six weeks ago. He is now in Louisiana, but would rather be in Ord, he writes. Frank Jobst replaces him. There is no meat to buy from Omaha, nearly all that is in the cases is locally butchered. Rationing is going to make a lot more bookkeeping, beginning soon.

There may be more business; also there is longer hours for everyone.

At Hotel Ord, corner landmark, Dick Teague says the hotel business has not been hurt yet, but they expect it to be soon because of gasoline rationing, etc. But on the contrary, October, November and December were three of the best business months of years past, just when Mr. Teague was kept the busiest as a member of the Valley county ration board.

Now steel and plumbing salesmen are altogether pulled off the road, and many other salesmen sadly restricted. Uncertain laundry returns from a bigger town meant the Teagues must buy many more sheets and pillow cases and other linens. 200 additional sheets to be exact. A sheet used to cost 70c for them, now it is about $1.29, and only 30 of them to be found in Grand Island, after Ord yielded practically none. Another odd change the war has brought... no more keys, extra keys for rooms. To cut the loss of carried-away keys, long wooden boards are fastened to each key now! "But they aren't quite long enough yet," avers Mr. Teague, "for some of these overcoat pockets are deep, and people are as forgetful as ever!"

Sporting Knives Wa

The Nebraska Wildlife Federation has undertaken the collection of hunting knives donated by sportsmen for use by American soldiers. "Our soldiers are fighting the Japs in the jungles of New Guinea and they need hunting knives to save their lives," writes Ernie Bihler, 220 Lefflang Bldg., Omaha, president of the Federation. "Every sportsman has a hunting knife which he uses once a year and our boys need a knife every day to protect their lives in fighting the Japs. The knife blade should be 4 to 8 inches long. All knives will be reconditioned before they are sent to the soldiers." Sportsmen are asked to send their knives tagged with their name and address to Mr. Bihler, who will see that they are forwarded to the proper authorities.

RELATION BETWEEN BEST BUTTER AND CLEAN SEPARATOR

hard to believe, but it's absolute: Washing and sterilizing cream separator every time it is not only means cream of the highest quality but also minimum amount of butterfat each separation.

thorough investigator, Dr. D. R. Silus, working in a dairy laboratory, found a simple explanation why the best cream and always come from the clean separators. The results are in the graphic chart above.

philus first separated milk absolutely clean separator. He relatively few bacteria in which was later churned in er. He left the machine unwashed and used it again for 36 hours. Now he found 36 many destructive bacteria counted when the separator and, the resulting butter out to be much lower in quality than a third trial in the unseparator after 60 hours. He found 480 times as bacteria in the cream as on trial—so many of them that the resulting butter was almost unusable. The dirtier the separator the higher the bacteria count, and the higher the bacteria count, the poorer the butter quality.

Other tests have proved that the amount of butterfat found in skim-milk when a separator is washed only once a day is greater than when it is washed twice a day. In some cases, the amount of butterfat lost was twice as great in the morning as in the evening. The reason was soon discovered: The separator had been washed in the morning and was clean when used in the evening; it was not washed at night and was used in its unclean condition for the morning separation. The small particles of curd and slime sediment adhering to the crevices of the separator how lowered the efficiency of the machine and slowed up the free flow of the milk and cream. This condition, which takes money right out of the farmer's pocket, is easily eliminated by the simple practice of thoroughly washing the separator as soon as the separating job is finished.

Survivors are his wife, four sons, four daughters, 16 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. The children are Charles and Ralph Hopkins of Burwell, Floyd, of Grant's Pass, Ore., Pvt. Frank, stationed at Fort Smith, Ark., Mrs. Fern Howell, North Loup, Mrs. Elizabeth Long, North Bend, Wash., Mrs. Ella Donston, Cheyenne and Mrs. Katie Conrad of Grant's Pass, Ore. At this time funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Horner were guests Thursday, at the Goodenow home.

The Junior class play, "I'm in the Army Now," was presented Tuesday evening at the high school auditorium before a large and appreciative audience. The cast was well chosen and each portrayed his part well. Ferrol Jean Thompson as Grumpy Robertson, an important member of the family gave an excellent performance, and Paul Conrad, the mischievous fifteen year old son of the family did equally well. Other outstanding players were Bill Thompson as Pa Robertson, easy going and good-natured, and Ruth Ann Cass as Ma Robertson, the worrisome wife.

Albert Joe Van Lund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Lund, who has been working in the shipyards on the coast for the last year, arrived in Burwell on Monday to visit his parents.

Mrs. Mae Eveleth's daughter, Mrs. Wildberger and Valda returned to their home at Deadwood, S. D., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and two daughters of Turlock, Calif., were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson and later visited at the home of Mrs. Tennie Conrad. Mrs. Harry Johnson is a niece of Mrs. Raymond Johnson and Mrs. Conrad. The California visitors came from North Platte Sunday where they were visiting other relatives, and Billy Wurl brought them to Burwell.

The New Century club met with Mrs. Raymond Johnson on Wednesday. The lesson, "Mobilizing the Home Forces for a Health Campaign" was presented by Mrs. Vere Shafer and a lively discussion followed. Mrs. Tom Shelton, Jr., was a visitor. Mrs. John D. Anderson left on Saturday for Farwell to care for her mother, who is ill.

ARCADIA

At 10:00 on Thursday morning, Dec. 31, 1942, at Loup City, occurred the marriage of Miss Leona Dietz and Lieutenant Gerald Murray. Father, Czajka performed a double ring ceremony. The couple were attended by a brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Murray. Also attending the ceremony were the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz and aunt, Mrs. Janulewicz of Loup City, and mother of the groom, Mrs. Fred Murray. Moving pictures were taken of the couple immediately following the ceremony. The couple then left for Grand Island and Kearney for a short honeymoon.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz of Arcadia. "Jerry" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Murray of Arcadia. He has been in the army over a year and just completed officers' training at Ft. Sill, Okla. He reported for duty Jan. 10 at Camp White, Ore. Mrs. Murray will remain here for the present.

Charles Hollingshead returned from Kearney Thursday, where he has been employed.

 First announcement of war goals was made by C. C. Dale, county extension agent, who listed them in percentages of increase over 1942. They included: Sows for spring farrowing, 56%; sows for fall farrowing, 46%; cattle for marketing as beef, 10%; milk, 1.5%; milk cows, 5%; eggs, 19%; chickens for meat, 8%; sheep and lambs, 4%; turkeys, 5%.

Dale suggested that every farmer look over the plans he has already made in the light of these goals and see if his plans provide or surpass the increases asked for. Despite shortage of labor and equipment, as well as of protein feed, he expressed confidence a 11 production goals will be surpassed. A survey of 110 representative Valley county farms just finished shows that farmers intend to raise 75 per cent more pigs instead of the mere 56 per cent requested, he stated.

On the credit side of the ledger, he said, are the desire of farmers to produce as much as they can when prices provide a profit margin over cost of production, also courage and individual initiative. Valley county people have fought drought, low prices and grasshoppers for years and the fact they are still here proves they have plenty of courage and initiative, he said.

Evan Hartman, director of the Soil Conservation District, was introduced and spoke about ways in which conservation of soil resources and water can be helpful in meeting production goals. "This war is different," he said, in showing that the emphasis now is on livestock and dairy production and that some land now in crops should be put back in native grasses for the sake of feed it provides. He also introduced directors of the district, Clayton Noll, E. O. Schudel, Henry Enger, Anton Welniak and Mr. Lutz.

At 3:00 the program was suspended while the radio talks of President Roosevelt and Secretary Wickard were in progress, both being brought to the audience over the loudspeaker system. Afterward R. Clare Clement, the AAA chairman for Valley county, talked on grain production goals. Over 1941 production a 30% increase in corn and barley is wanted, he said, but slight decreases are noted in wheat, oats, rye and grain sorghums. Among the war crops potatoes are greatly needed and farmers are asked to exceed the 1941 goals. A 1% increase in bean acreage is desired but biggest increases wanted are in alfalfa seed, 54% up, and sweet clover seed, 121% up. Anyone who plants his war goals will be allowed to overplant his corn and wheat allotments and collect maximum ACP payments, Clement said. The entire program will be explained to farmers at county and precinct meetings, it was emphasized.

The mobilization day program was planned by the USDA war board with cooperation of the Ord Chamber of Commerce, Rotary club, Cosmopolitan club, American Legion and the Ord schools, and the fine success it enjoyed was a tribute to the degree of cooperation given by members of all these groups.

Red Cross to Hold Its Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Valley county Red Cross is scheduled for eight o'clock, Monday, January 25 at the office of John Misko. A full attendance is desired for this important meeting says Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, county chairman.

Home nursing courses in a shorter, more streamlined form will be given soon, Mrs. Hilding Pearson having offered to teach the next one. The first meeting of this Red Cross nursing class will be definitely announced next week. If you wish to enroll, telephone 371 this week and tell Mrs. JOHN Misko. With doctors busier than ever these war times, every mother is urged to take this home nursing course and learn to carry out her doctor's orders more efficiently.

About 25 adults are finishing a first aid course in Elyria, taking their last lesson this Thursday from Miss Sylvia Iwanski and Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, their teachers. This is one of the most enthusiastic groups to study the subject to date, and bandaging is the hobby of the hour in that neighborhood.

Pfc. Tucker ... 30 Miles with Raging Fever

Pfc. Kenneth Tucker is a son of John Tucker, North Loup, and is at home now on furlough. What his buddies at Camp Shelby, Miss., think of this soldier is shown by the unsolicited letter which appears at the right.

Sir: Being a man not gifted in the art of eulogies or oratory in any form, I must beg your indulgence in this attempt at an open letter.

It's something of a duty, a pleasant duty, I'd promised myself to fulfill.

Being a normally peaceable man by nature, I'd always viewed wars with plenty of distaste, bewilderment and amazement.

However, as the course of human events wound it's hectic way along I found myself suddenly transformed from peace-time preparations to very warlike preparations in opposition to a race of people who should shine upon them and they alone.

All this lead to my being uniformed (along with thousands of other men) and being situated down here at the bottom of the map, viz., Camp Shelby, Miss.

Herein, for eight months, we have been inoculated with military stratagems, strenuous exercise and hard-boiled sergeants.

While down here I had the good fortune of meeting a man from your own locality who is a persistent reader of your excellent publication, The Ord Quiz.

I say good fortune, sir, because in the months of grueling, strenuous soldiering we've been doing down here, this fiery son of your nice Nebraska soil has taught me that it is possible to undergo 120 degree marches in the summer, sleep out in cold, wet bivouacs in the winter and still come up with a smile.

He is a man who has fired an anti-tank cannon with deadly accuracy, drove a jeep into and out of impossible places with a deal of skill and undergone a 30-mile forced march with a raging fever, refused to drop out.

This man was hospitalized after the march and barely escaped pneumonia.

Sir, I have reference to Kenneth Tucker, Pfc.

Knowing that in your capacities of serving your locality through the medium of your paper, you're interested in my people, I ask that you greet this man as warmly as is humanly possible and with pride for—

A soldier comes home on furlough. Very sincerely,
 Pvt. A. J. Kves

Mrs. Klima Died after Operation

In a Grand Island hospital on Wednesday morning, Jan. 6, occurred the death of Mrs. Matt Klima, nee Rosie Skala, at the age of 55. She had undergone minor surgical treatment and her death was sudden and unexpected. Funeral services were held at 2:00 p. m. Saturday from the Methodist church in Ord following a short prayer at the Hastings-Zimmund chapel by Rev. M. M. Long, who officiated. Mrs. Mark Tolen and Mrs. C. M. Davis sang three hymns, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Noll. Interment was in the family lot in the Ord cemetery.

Mrs. Klima was born at Humboldt, Nebr., on Febr. 24, 1887, and came to Valley county with her parents as a child. Her marriage to Matt Klima took place Jan. 29, 1906. To them three sons were born, Edward, of Hastings, Adrian, of Salt Lake City, and Lumire, of San Francisco, Calif. All except the latter were present at the funeral. Also left to mourn are her husband, five grandchildren and two brothers, John and Fred Skala. Two sisters preceded her in death.

Kindness and consideration for others were inherent traits of Mrs. Klima's character and she will be genuinely mourned by a host of Valley county friends as well as by the immediate family.

Frank J. Stara, 79, Found Dead in His Home Monday

Heart Attack Thought to Be Cause; Mr. Stara Lost Wife Last October.

Funeral services are being held at the Bohemian hall at 2:00 Thursday afternoon for Frank J. Stara, 79, whose lifeless body was found early Monday morning in a bedroom of his Ord home.

Since the death of his wife last October Mr. Stara had been cared for by a niece, Mrs. Chas. Masin, but she went to Omaha Sunday to attend the funeral of a relative and he was alone that night.

Mr. Stara was born May 1, 1863 in Bohemia, the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stara. At the age of twenty he came to the United States, coming directly to Ord which had been his home ever since.

His marriage to Louise Masin took place Dec. 6, 1892 and she preceded him in death Oct. 5, 1942.

Mr. Stara was a good citizen of the community and will be mourned by a host of friends. He was a member of the Z. C. B. J. lodge and was active in the social and fraternal doings of this organization.

At his funeral this afternoon pallbearers will be the same friends he chose at the funeral of his wife in October, being Joe Knezacek, Joe Rohla, Frank Benda, Rudolph Kersch, Martin Crosby and Joe Novosad. Madams Rohla, Knezacek and Benda will have charge of the flowers and music will be given by a duet, Mrs. Roscoe Tolly and Mrs. C. M. Davis, accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Noll.

Tuesday Coldest Day This Winter, Temperature -25

Weather "Caught Cold" Saturday, Snow Sunday, Cold, and Unsettled Ever Since.

Coldest day of the winter was Tuesday when the official morning temperature as registered by Horace Travis' government thermometer was 25 degrees below zero.

Last week was warm, with Friday's high reading 56 above zero, but a storm hit Saturday and the temperature slipped all day, low mark recorded being 12 above zero.

The usual train of troubles followed the cold wave and plumbers have been busy thawing frozen pipes, garage men busy towing stalled cars and highway workers active keeping roads open, for a high wind accompanied the snow and deep drifts formed in the low places.

Start Campaign Here to Get Hunting Knives

Valley county sportsmen who own hunting knives are invited to donate them for use by United States soldiers fighting in Guadalcanal and New Guinea against the Japs, the campaign being sponsored by the local chapter of the Nebraska Wildlife

Federation. The knives should have blades 4 to 8 inches long and should be turned in at the Kokes Hardware store where they will be on display in the window for a short time before they are sent to Ernest Bihler, of Omaha, state president of the Federation, for reconditioning and shipment to the soldiers.

In jungle fighting knives are their most valuable weapons against the Japanese, and since manufacture of hunting knives stopped some time ago the only ones available are those in the hands of sportsmen. The average hunter or fisherman uses his knife only once or twice a year whereas a soldier will use it many times daily and it may save his life.

Knives should be turned in at the Kokes Hardware at once, tagged with the owners' names. Local officers of the Federation are E. L. Kokes, J. A. Kovanda and E. C. Leggett.

Geo. Hastings, sr., Died Thursday at Home of Grandson

Retired Arcadia Merchant, Was Nebraska's Oldest Mason, Held Jordan Medal.

George A. Hastings, sr., 95 years old, died at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, Jan. 14, at the home of his grandson in this city as result of a stroke which he suffered the previous Monday night. Sunday afternoon the funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Arcadia with Rev. E. A. Smith, of Gibbon, in charge and burial was made in the family lot in the Arcadia cemetery, the Masonic lodge having charge of the burial rites.

Mr. Hastings was born in Woonsocket, R. I., on Dec. 7, 1847 and as a child moved with his parents to Milford, Mass., where he grew to young manhood and where his marriage to Medorah Summers took place. A short time later they moved to Davenport, Ia., where Mr. Hastings farmed four years and later operated a clothing store for one year. In 1884 they moved to Grand Island where he was employed by the Glover-Webble Mercantile company.

In 1885 John Wall and other Arcadia business men, seeing that village's need for a general store, offered Mr. Hastings a building lot free if he would come there and establish a store. He accepted and for forty-five years was a prominent merchant of the Arcadia community, retiring in 1923 at the age of 80. Until the last six months during which he lived with his grandson's family here, Mr. Hastings lived continuously in Arcadia and was one of the best-liked and most substantial citizens of that village.

In 1920 he became a stockholder in the Arcadia State bank, retaining his interests until his death and serving as a director of the bank for many years.

Mrs. Hastings passed away in 1915. To them four children were born, one son dying in infancy and a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Haywood, in 1930. Left to mourn are a son, Alfred Hastings, of Arcadia, and a daughter, Mrs. George Kinsey, of Holywood, as well as numerous grandchildren and other relatives.

Mr. Hastings was Nebraska's oldest Mason, joining the Montgomery lodge at Milford, Mass., in 1869. This was the lodge in which Paul Revere was a charter member. Mr. Hastings was presented by the grand lodge with a bronze Jordan medal upon the 50th anniversary of his lodge membership and with the gold Jordan medal when it was determined that he was the oldest Mason in the state.

By a host of friends he will be remembered for his fine sense of humor, his honesty and integrity, his keen sense of justice and his kindness to all.

Packages Banned for Shipment to Soldiers Overseas

Volume of Mail Exceeds the Shipping Space, New Rules on Packages, Newspapers.

Sending of packages to soldiers serving outside the continental United States, except under certain conditions, are banned in a new ruling issued Jan. 15 by the postoffice department at the request of the Secretary of War. Heavy demands for all cargo space for military shipments makes the new regulations necessary, it is said.

Hereafter no parcel shall be accepted for dispatch to an A. P. O. outside the United States unless it contains articles being sent at the specific written request of the addressee, approved in writing by his battalion commander. When permitted under this restriction, no parcel shall exceed 5 pounds in weight or 15 inches in length, or 36 inches in length and girth combined.

At the same time new restrictions governing the mailing of newspapers to A. P. O.'s overseas went into effect. No newspaper or magazine shall be mailed except by publishers to subscriptions already in effect, or where subscriptions are specifically requested by the addressee in writing, countersigned by his battalion commander. Such copies to individuals shall be accepted only from publishers who shall place on the wrapper a sticker or printed certificate reading: "Mailed in conformity with P. O. D. Order No. 19637."

The quiz list contains the names of more than 100 soldiers and under the new ruling it will be possible to continue to mail the paper to them each week by placing stickers on the wrappers which we will do. New subscriptions for soldiers overseas cannot be accepted except under the requirements outlined above.

Recognize Son in Photo from England

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Manchester, of North Loup, were pleased at recognizing their son in a photograph of a softball game in England clipped from a Chicago newspaper and mailed to them last week by Clyde Barrett, who is in the Veterans' hospital. Their son, Staff Sergeant Everett Manchester, has been "somewhere in England" since the 15th of last June. He is in the air corps doing office work in the photograph he was seen as catcher in the softball game and the wirephoto picture was so clear that all his friends who have seen it knew Everett instantly.

Sgt. Ed Sowers Home on Furlough

Sergeant Ed Sowers, who serves in the United States artillery, is at home this week on furlough. In the army four years, he has been stationed at a number of different artillery training camps, first as a cook and more recently as a mess sergeant. He came home on furlough from a training camp in Alabama. He is a son of Mrs. Harvey Sowers, Monday evening Sergeant Sowers was a guest at the Rotary club dinner.

Women's Gym Class Will Meet Thursday

The first women's physical fitness class, under the direction of Miss Lillian Kidder, will be held Thursday, Jan. 21 in the high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. From all indications it will be a very large class and Miss Iris Krebs has volunteered her services to assist in its direction.

The women are asked to wear or bring slacks, or shorts, or play suits and tennis shoes. Rubber soled flat shoes will be preferred.

Mrs. Kraulik Better.

Friends will be glad to learn Mrs. Frank Kraulik is improving a little since Friday though very sick yet. Her heart trouble is complicated with asthma, which bothers her a great deal at night. Miss Bess Kraulik has given up her work at the telephone office to be near her mother.

Mrs. John Beran of Lubbock, Tex., formerly Helen Kraulik, arrived two days ago and is helping care for her mother. A son, Leo Kraulik, came Saturday evening from Roy, Mont., and the visitors have been having a good visit with local members of the family.

Much-Traveled Man Is Raymond Blake

The old navy slogan, "Join the navy and see the world," certainly has worked out in the case of Raymond Blake, of Burwell, who is now on his way back to San Diego, Calif., after a visit with home folks. Assigned to a sub-chaser on convoy duty he has crossed the Atlantic to England, the Pacific to Hawaii and the Solomon Islands, has served in the West Indies and has made trips through the Panama Canal several times. He saw plenty of action against submarines on these trips, Raymond states, though he is not permitted to give details.

The sub-chaser on which he serves is 175 feet long, only 20 feet wide and has a crew of 51, or seventeen men to each shift. It is a very fast ship and carries enough fuel to cross the ocean and return. Apparatus carried by the ship can detect a submarine within a 40-mile radius, Raymond says, and can tell the speed and direction in which it is traveling.

Once he was in a navy group reviewed by President Roosevelt and high ranking naval officers on the eastern coast and was asked to locate a submarine, which they did in short order. Raymond says he was awed by the amount of gear aboard, he saw that day and wishes they could have taken several of the wearers on a real scouting trip.

Mrs. DeLashmutt Passes Monday

Wife of Calamus Rancher, 76 Years Old; Funeral Tuesday Afternoon.

Burwell—(Special)—Mrs. J. V. DeLashmutt, 76, passed away on Monday at the family home here after a long period of ill health and was laid to rest in Burwell cemetery Tuesday afternoon after services conducted by Rev. Loren Brown at the Congregational church.

She was born in Prague, Bohemia, on Nov. 2, 1866 and her first birthday was spent upon the ocean when she accompanied her mother, Mrs. Thomas Cinterhoff, and sister Mary to join their husband and father at Pittsburgh, Pa. Soon afterward they moved to Mills county, Ia., where she grew to young womanhood.

She was married March 9, 1882 to Jesse Van DeLashmutt at Glenwood, Ia., and in 1907 the family moved to a ranch on the Calamus river in Loup county, which was the family home ever since, though they also maintained a residence here much of the time. Mr. and Mrs. DeLashmutt were privileged to enjoy together two very special occasions, their golden anniversary and also their sixtieth wedding anniversary.

Besides her husband she is mourned by five daughters, Mrs. Grace Martin, of Omaha; Mrs. Esther Meyer, of Burwell; Mrs. Lucile Matthews, of Aurora; Mrs. Gladis Brown, of Nogales, Ariz., and Mrs. Genevieve Schnabel, of Phoenix, Ariz.; also by two sons, Clay of Sidney, and Paul, of Los Angeles.

Michael Schudel, 78, Drops Dead Monday

North Loup—(Special)—Michael Schudel, 78, a farmer in Riverdale for many years but more recently a resident of Scotia, dropped dead of a heart attack Monday morning while emptying his ashes. He had been in poor health for some time but had been feeling better lately. Besides his wife, Mr. Schudel is survived by three sons, Frank, Ed and Will Schudel, of this vicinity, and by one daughter, Mrs. Ed Blencowe, of Long Beach. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2:00 at the Methodist church in Scotia.

Sub-Zero Weather Hampers Firemen, Karty Home Burns

Thawing Water Pipes With a Blow-Torch Ignites Blaze, Walls and Roof Guttled.

Monday's sub-zero weather was directly responsible for the blaze which gutted the home of Mrs. Frank Karty on east L street and the temperature, which registered 10 degrees below the zero mark, also hampered firemen in their efforts to extinguish the blaze.

Water pipes in the house were discovered to be frozen and Mrs. Karty went to the basement, wrapped sacks and rags about the frozen pipes and was trying to thaw them with a blow-torch when the rags became ignited and spread to the building.

For the most part flames were confined to the walls and later broke through the roof, so the damage was quite extensive. Firemen used four hose lines in fighting the blaze but it was hard to get at the flames within the walls.

Fire Chief Rowbal's ears were frozen, George Vasicek had three fingers on one hand frozen, Alfred Albers and John Andersen had frosted hands and others suffered severely from the cold. Wet garments froze stiff and every member of the department was glad when the fire finally was under control.

Last Thursday the department was called to the Goodhand building and used chemicals to extinguish a small blaze in Mrs. Jean Whiting's rooms. A davenport, radio and other furniture was damaged. A short circuit in the wiring is blamed for this blaze by Fire Chief Joe Rowbal.

Three School Friends Reunited in Texas

Three pals of school days had a jolly reunion Sunday in a far-off spot, when Major Lee Chatfield took his family and Raymond Abernethy took his family to the home of a third friend, Kenneth Jensen, who is now established at Fort Worth, Tex.

Major Chatfield was transferred the Tuesday after Christmas from Lincoln, where he has long been active in R. O. T. C., training circles. He and his wife and children are at Weatherford, Tex., some 30 miles from Fort Worth. He likes his work but doesn't describe it.

Captain Raymond Abernethy and his family live some 50 miles from Fort Worth, where he is now busy obeying Uncle Sam too. Kenneth Jensen is not in service but is employed in a defense plant, so all three of the friends are war-conscious.

Mr. and Mrs. Jason Abernethy, Mr. and Mrs. John Chatfield and Mrs. Jensen's mother, Mrs. William McKay, were delighted to hear of the visit. The boys were high school pals and have remained friends through the years, but probably never planned a meeting in Texas!

Ray Hoobler Loses 18 Head of Cattle

Burwell—(Special)—Ray Hoobler, who lives west of Taylor but trades here regularly, lost eighteen head of cattle including all his milk cows last week when they broke down a coral gate while Mr. Hoobler was gone for a short time and got to a self-feeder in which was ground barley and rye for the hogs. The Hoobler family had been receiving a $35 weekly cream check. Several stock cows were among the cattle lost also.

Mrs. E. L. Gard Dies at Home in West

Dr. George R. Gard has received word of the death Saturday at Walla Walla, Wash. of his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. L. Gard. A sudden stroke was the cause of death. Mrs. Gard was about 60 years of age. Before her marriage to Elmer Gard she was Miss Della Brown, a sister of the late Charlie Brown. She left Ord about thirty-five years ago but many old-time residents will remember Mrs. Gard and her husband.

Camp Fire Girls Reclaiming Hose

The Camp Fire girls have started their work in the 1943 Birthday Honor: "Serve by Saving." The different groups have discussed the program and chosen what parts of it they may well do, according to the group age. One of their joint projects will be the canvass for silk and nylon hose which can be utilized in war production. This will not be a benefit project for the girls expect to give their efforts at inquiring and organizing as well as gathering of the salvage. They would appreciate all Ord homes gathering the discarded silk and nylon hosiery, washing them and having them ready. As soon as a date is set for the gathering the girls' groups will plan to divide the territory for the job.

Penney store manager, Keith Lewis, reports a box set out in the store now for receiving such hose as people care to bring uptown, especially the country folks. As soon as a significant amount is gathered the hose will be shipped to a baling center.

Silk hose are reclaimed for making powder bags, and nylon hose are melted down to original chemical liquid and respun for parachutes.

Loup City Makes Good on Threat, Beats Ord 23 to 18

18 Personal Fouls Called in Rough Game Friday Eve; to Broken Bow Friday.

Loup City basketball players boasted "this is our year" before they came to Ord to meet the Chanticleers and when the game was played Friday evening they made good their boast, beating Ord 23 to 18 in one of the roughest games ever played in the local gymnasium.

Eighteen fouls were called by Referee Kerner, of Grand Island, and that represented only a fraction of the penalties that could have been assessed, for Kerner showed a definite tendency to "let the boys go." The Chanticleers were not guiltless, for eight of the fouls were called on them while ten were levied against Loup City.

Anderson and Krolkowski were the big guns in Loup City's attack, scoring 10 and 9 points respectively. Krolkowski was ejected on fouls late in the third period or his point total might have been larger.

Wilson was high scorer for Ord with 6 points. Also in Ord's starting line-up were O. Hurlbert, Petersen, Vogelanz and L. Hurlbert, while others who played were Finley, Walker, Satterfield, Johnson and Randolph.

Ord's play off the backboard was weak, a tendency that has been apparent all season, but Coach Roscoe Tolly evidently believes his boys have solved the Loup City offense for he commented "we'll beat them in the tournament."

Weather permitting, the Chanticleers will go to Broken Bow for a game Friday night.

Ord Boy Stationed Near Death Valley

Doyle Hiner writes home about Camp Young, at Indio, Calif., where he is now stationed on an edge of the famous Death Valley. He says it is not unusual for it to be 120 F., there day-times, but that nights are actually cold. Food is excellent and he likes his work very much.

The former Ord boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hiner and a grandson of Mrs. L. L. Watson, is a private with a medical corps doing first aid work, and is in line for a hospital job soon, he thinks. He has only been in the army six months.

Last week he sent his grandmother and his sisters pillow tops which pictured the camp where he is now located, and they were glad to have this glimpse of Doyle's surroundings.

Seed and Protein Feed Shortage Are Noll's Worst War Headaches, Quiz Reporter Learns

"Onions are going to be the highest price ever known, I do believe, onion sets and onion seeds both. And carrot seeds are going to be scarce, I can see that coming," Ord Seedman Robert Noll stated with finality on Monday this week when asked what war was doing to his business.

"Oh, you'll be able to buy some type of each vegetable, probably, but you may not be able to secure the kind you wanted," he went on to explain.

A shortage of protein feeds he is feeling the most at present, with demand for protein feeds growing daily. "We put in our own mixing machine for them last fall because the feeding situation was so bad. Now we can't keep help to run it; you can bet we've lost a lot of our boys to the war."

"Willard Clemens was one, he went last January and was shipped overseas January 2 of this year. He is a mechanic, specialist in half-track vehicles. The army sent him to the White Motor company to study; he's

Miller, Thomsen, Found Guilty in Federal Court

Two Ord Men Convicted of Game Law Violations, Are Fined $300 and Costs.

Two Ord men, Dr. C. J. Miller and Emory Thomsen, were found guilty by a federal jury at Grand Island Saturday on a charge of hunting ducks out of season, contrary to federal migratory bird laws, and both were fined heavily by Federal Judge Donahoe. The fine assessed against Dr. Miller was $200 while Mr. Thomsen was fined $100. Costs totaled $81.20.

The alleged offense occurred Sept. 11, 1942, more than a month before the hunting season opened. Government witnesses testified that one of the defendants shot 14 ducks and the other 6 ducks. Arrests were made some time later by Clyde Licking, a federal game warden.

The defendants did not take the stand in their own defense but introduced character witnesses, among them being Ed F. Beranek, Fred W. Coe and Will Zabludil.

In assessing the fines Judge Donahoe reprimanded the Ord men severely, saying that in his opinion they had demanded a trial by jury despite being fully conscious of their own guilt. He said that their trial had cost the government at least $1,000.

Tom W. Lanigan served as attorney representing the Ord men.

G. Babcock Home Burns to Ground

North Loup—(Special)—About 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the Gilbert Babcock house located on the old Thomas place one mile north of town caught fire and burned to the ground despite efforts of the village fire department to save it. An overheated stove pipe is blamed for the blaze.

The house was a 6-room, two story home and was very old. The Babcocks with the help of neighbors got nearly all their household goods out but the personal belongings of Mr. Babcock's brother, Ike, who had a room on the second floor, were completely destroyed.

R. Rose Appointed Twp. Road Overseer

Reinhold Rose was appointed township road overseer and annual levies were adopted at the annual meeting of Ord township held Tuesday with a sparse attendance. Amount levied for general fund was $2,500, for road fund was $1,000 and for library fund was $1,600. At its meeting the first Monday in February the township board will appoint library board members and take up other business.

Soldier Telephones for News of Child

About 1:00 a. m. Monday Private James Skala, who is stationed at Camp White near Medford, Ore., telephoned long distance for news of his wife and new daughter, Carole Jean, who was born Jan. 11 in the Clinic hospital. Mrs. Skala, the former Lily Adams, and the new daughter are still in the hospital but are doing well, Private Skala learned.

good. Willard is Frank's son, you know. "We have extra help, off and on."

"But this protein feed business is bad. We contract to sell to ranchmen during the winter months, then we can't get it. There are so many government regulations to be met. So many shortages. One shipment of soy beans due in October just arrived this week."

Lots of farmers will put in more corn this year, with corn restrictions removed, thought this seedman. Possibly a promising new kind will be featured here, a waxy corn which it is hoped will prove a fine substitute for tapioca, no longer available from the cassava plant of the far east. Two carloads of this waxy seed corn were shipped out in December from Noll's. If the carload lots test out as the laboratory samples did, then waxy corn will be an item to raise. "It returned as much as $65 to the acre," explains Mr. Noll with pride. (Continued on page 3)

NORTH LOUP

WRITTEN BY MRS. ETHEL HAMER

At the Friends church in Denver on Dec. 25 at eight p. m., occurred the marriage of Martha Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Miller, of North Loup, to Sgt. Lowell Barnard, instructor at Lowrey Field air base. Rev. Norman Young, pastor of the church officiated and the couple were attended by Miss Ruth Young and a soldier friend of the groom. The bride grew up in North Loup, graduating from high school in '35. For several months she has been working for the Davis drug company of Denver. They have taken an apartment at 725 Lincoln St. in Denver, and are at home to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee and Mable Lee were in Grand Island Friday shopping and visiting.

Mrs. A. L. Millhollin was guest of honor at a no hostess party held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Allen Sims. The evening was spent playing cards.

Mrs. Otto Bartz won both the high score and traveling prize and Mrs. Jim Scott the low prize. Mrs. Millhollin was presented with a nice gift.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Millhollin were Friday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Thelin.

Mrs. Howard Anderson of Scotia spent Wednesday evening with her mother, Mrs. W. B. Stine, who was not feeling as well as she had been. Mrs. Stine has had a severe attack of the flu and does not recover as rapidly as she should.

Mrs. Bud Beebe is a new employee in the I. G. A. store, taking the place of Mrs. Eldon Sintek.

Mrs. Eldon Sintek and Mrs. Alva Smith and baby left Friday morning on the bus for Ft. Riley, Kas., where both their husbands are stationed and where they plan to stay for a time.

Mrs. Nora Randall of Omaha left for her home Friday, having been called here by the death of her mother, Mrs. Asa Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Brown of Grand Island were week end guests in the Josh Clement home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartz and Mr. and Mrs. George Cox were Thursday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cox.

Roy Cox, who had been near Stapleton on business, returned home Thursday for a visit with his son, George Cox, who is a member of the U. S. coast guard and is home on a ten day furlough.

Laurel Jean Van Hoosen was brought to the George Eberhart home from the Clinic hospital Wednesday and will stay there for a time to be nearer the doctor. Mrs. Van Hoosen is also there.

Jay Larkin, of Boulder, Colo., is here, called here by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs.

Effie Larkin. Mrs. Larkin has been suffering with kidney infection for some time, but is some better now.

Mrs. Ruby McGinley had word from her son, Leighton, late last week that he was leaving for active duty on a destroyer. His address now is in care of the postmaster, San Francisco.

Pork at 60c a pound and leaf lard, still in the leaf at 66c, milk at 36c a quart, eggs 25 for a dollar, six pounds of wheat flour for a dollar, are some of the prices paid by Dr. Grace Crandall in Chang Tsun, Lichwan, Kiangsi Province, China, according to a letter received by Dr. Crandall's sister, Mrs. G. L. Hutchins Saturday. The letter was written Nov. 18 and this, with one dated Aug. 11, is the first letter received since April although Mrs. Hutchins has had word through radiograms several times. Dr. Crandall, who had been very ill due to strawberries which she had eaten, is well now. All the light they have comes from a wick in a sauce of tea oil so Dr. Crandall says they retire early. Dr. Crandall had received some salary checks from the missionary board at home for the first time since coming to the new location and had been able to lay in some supplies for winter. Word from Shanghai for the first time since April said that Dr. George Thorngate and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis, all formerly North Loup people, and of the Seventh Day Baptist mission in China, had been booked for return home but the date had been indefinitely postponed. Enclosed in the letter was one from Dr. Thorngate to be given to Mrs. J. A. Barber and then sent on to his family in New York. He said that he was glad to have a profession for it gave him something to do, that the Davises had a splendid garden and were usually well.

Miss Hazel Leopold of the FFA office in O'Neill was a week end guest of Marcia Rood. Miss Leopold and Miss Rood spent Saturday with friends in Burwell, and Sunday Mrs. J. A. Barber was a dinner guest in Miss Rood's home.

Mrs. John Lee was hostess to the Junior Fortnightly club at her home Thursday afternoon. The lesson on current events was led by Mrs. C. D. Knapp. Mrs. Inez Burrows spoke on the farm mobilization plan and the remainder of the afternoon was spent playing bingo. Mrs. Burrows won high score and Mrs. Jim Scott low. Mrs. Lee's mother, Mrs. Larsen, of Ord, was a guest.

A. R. Gibson came over from Broken Bow Saturday and Mrs. Gibson, who had spent the week here caring for her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Barnhart, accompanied him home. Jim Vogeler, who had spent the week at Broken Bow came home with Mr. Gibson.

Mrs. Amy Taylor went to Grand Island on the Monday afternoon bus and from there she went to Crosbyton, Tex., to spend the remainder of the winter with her daughters, Mrs. Chas. Rowse and Mrs. John Williams and their families.

The weather the first of the week was quite a change from last week, the mercury Sunday morning went to thirteen below and Monday morning was 18 below. Many people who have oil burners had difficulty with their oil pipes being frozen and garage men were kept busy starting cars.

While on the way to Scotia Sunday evening, Dr. Hemphill skidded on the icy road as he went onto the river bridge, hitting first one banister and then the other of the bridge. Three fenders on his car were ruined, but he considers himself lucky not to have had a cold bath in the river.

Jay Larkin returned to his home in Boulder, Colo., Saturday.

Mrs. Alta Barnhart received word last week that her brother's wife, Mrs. Will Watson, had fallen and broken her hip and was in the St. Elizabeth hospital in Lincoln. Mrs. Watson has been suffering for some time with rheumatism and confined to a wheel chair, but recently was enough better that she was on crutches. She had written Mrs. Barnhart that soon she hoped to be able to do her own work again.

Beulah Porter came down from Ord on the Sunday evening bus after spending the week end at her home in Ord.

Mr. and Mrs. Erlo Cox and Mr. and Mrs. George Cox went to Grand Island Sunday night and George took the train to return to his work with the coast guard near Granite Falls, Wash. Mrs. Ernest Horner came down from Ord Friday evening and remained over the week end to visit her brother and Sunday Mr. Horner and the Erlo Cox families present in the Roy Cox home made the family circle complete except for the Hubert Vodehnal family of McCook.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Knapp, Mrs. Mervin Scott and Jerroline Sue were Sunday dinner guests of the Cecil Knapp family.

Dorothy Stevens, oldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Stevens was married Sunday, Jan. 10, to Harvey E. Anderson at the Evangelical church in Portland, Ore. Rev. Brown, pastor, officiating. Mrs. Anderson visited her parents here in November when her sister was married. The couple will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. F. H. Stevens and Barbara and Rosemary were released from quarantine for scarlet fever the first of the week and Rev. Stevens who had been staying with Rev. and Mrs. Hansberry and Phyllis and Calvin, who were at the P. M. Honeycutt home, are again at home.

The study circle of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church, met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. R. H. Knapp. Mrs. Ben Nelson had charge of the Bible study and Mrs. Knapp of the lesson on Women of the Caribbean. The work group of the society met Wednesday at the church and quitted.

Mrs. Mervin Scott, Mrs. Clifford Hawkes, Loyd Van Horn and Herman Dezel, who go each day to the ordnance plant in Grand Island to work and are on the night shift, had car trouble when they were ready to start home Monday morning and so stayed over.

A birthday and anniversary cake was received last week by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schultz from their daughter, Mrs. D. B. Milliken of Phoenix, Ariz. Both anniversaries occur on the same day. Mr. Schultz is eighty-eight years young and rarely misses a day making the trip to the postoffice for the mail and to the store for groceries. He also walks often to the farm just outside the village where his son Halsey lives.

Harold Portis was home from his work in Grand Island over the week end.

Adella Waller was a week end guest of Maxine Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Post spent Tuesday at the John Williams home on Davis Creek, riding out with Howard Manchester, when he went to the farm.

When Mrs. Bartz came home from church Sunday she was alarmed to find her kitchen door open and the kitchen floor strewn with ashes and going to the door she saw Mr. Bartz in the garage and the car which he had been trying to thaw out on fire. Mrs. Bartz called the fire department but when they arrived Mr. Bartz had the fire about out.

Wm. Tolbert of Grand Island was a week end guest of his son Don and family. Don Tolbert accompanied him to Grand Island Monday morning, returning in the evening.

Last week was the end of the semester in the North Loup schools. Honor rolls were posted for the grades. In the seventh and eighth grades those with perfect attendance records for the semester are Ila Gilmore, Charline Hoppes and Corrine Meyers. Honor students are Phyllis Babcock, Jacqueline Burrows, Ila Gilmore and Leland Van Horn. Fifth and sixth students with perfect attendance are Ervin and Joyce Cox, Evelyn Hamer and Clarence Brown. Honor roll students are Bonnie Babcock, Thelma Goodrich, Theresa Tolbert and Donna Lee Stine. In the third and fourth grades Carolyn Hamer has perfect attendance and Jimmie Clement, Carolyn Hamer, Rosemary Stevens and Sylvia Ingerson are on the honor roll. ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW —Mrs. George Hubbard is in Lexington, has not sent word when she will be home.

—Final clean-up of winter hats, now 25c and 49c for your choice of entire stock. Chase's, 43-1tc

—Ign. Klima, jr., went to Lincoln Sunday, attending to business with the legislature there on Monday and Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Watson are parents of an 8½ pound girl born Saturday morning with Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Norris in attendance.

—A. C. Wilson and his son Kenneth Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Rollin Dye, drove to Kearney on Sunday afternoon, as Rollin had phoned that his work there was finished. They returned that afternoon to Ord.

—Mrs. Joe Rowbal writes from California that Mrs. Billy Rowbal is in very bad condition. The younger Mrs. Rowbal was operated on Dec. 7 for adhesions and complications resulting from an appendectomy last spring. And all the Billy Rowbal children have chicken pox, so their grandmother is glad she went to Oakland ten days ago.

—Mrs. LeMoine Wigent received a cable from her husband on Thursday, announcing that he was "safe and well" in an unknown destination. Her last previous news from him was a telephone call the day after Christmas.

—Final clean-up of winter hats, now 25c and 49c for your choice of entire stock. Chase's, 43-1tc

—One table of house coats at one-half price. Chase's, 43-1tc

—Mrs. Frank Mottl returned on the bus Monday evening after spending a week in Omaha with her brothers and sisters.

—Sunday evening Dr. McGinnis was called to Horace on business; Monday evening he made a hurry-up call at Greeley.

—The property once owned by Wayne King, next door to Carl Sorensen, has been bought by L. M. Loft, and is being made ready for occupancy, and will be the Loft home very soon now.

—Lloyd McGrew was turned down by army medical examiners, and so he is continuing to work for the government on a project at Colorado Springs, Colo. He feels he is helping win the war in one way, at least.

—Mrs. C. J. Mortensen was housebound two or three days last week with a bad cold and throat. Tuesday night George R. Mann was a guest at the Mortensen home overnight, enroute to Lincoln after some legal work in a nearby town.

—Miss Sophie McBeth was able to leave an Omaha hospital Thursday and was taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. P. J. Melia. Mrs. M. McBeth says her daughter is feeling fine all the time, but she does not know when Sophie will be home again.

—Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Finley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Oliver and Greta, Mr. and Mrs. John John, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cernik, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kokes, Robert and Carolyn enjoyed Friday evening playing pinochle at the Ed Kasper home. Lunch was served at a late hour.

—Russell Wardrop of Golconda, Ill., and Mrs. C. D. Wardrop of Ord were supper and evening guests at the home of Adolph Kokes Monday evening. Mrs. Kokes accompanied Vencl Krikac, Mrs. Wardrop and Russell Wardrop to Lincoln Wednesday. They spent the afternoon with Cecil Wardrop at the Veteran's hospital.

—County Supt. Clara McClatchey drove to Lincoln Tuesday to attend the state meeting of county superintendents there on that day, Wednesday and Thursday, expecting to come home that evening. C. C. Thompson, superintendent of the Ord schools, also Mrs. Ben Rose of Burwell, were passengers, who had business affairs in Lincoln.

—Miss Clara McClatchey and Wesley Miska and two sons went to Omaha Sunday to get Mrs. Miska and bring her home. Mrs. Miska has had her foot in a new kind of cast there for some five weeks, due to a bone infection. She stood the trip home quite well, even though it was so very cold Sunday. Miss McClatchey says there was more snow here than anywhere else.

—Ed Fitzsimmons came up from the ordinance plant at Mead Saturday night to assist his family in loading their household goods and move to Omaha where he had rented a house. Mr. Fitzsimmons, who formerly worked as an engraver at the Quiz Studio, is in charge of dark room work in the ordinance plant's photographic department and also takes pictures of bomb cross-sections for inspection purposes. He likes his new work very much. The Fitzsimmons family occupied the former C. A. Anderson house which is now vacant and H. D. Leggett is seeking a renter.

—Mrs. A. J. Ferguson returned by bus Monday evening after visiting her daughters in Hastings since Thursday. Jane is bookkeeper at the Carter hotel there now, and Frank Pray is driving a big van for the Burlington. Mrs. Pray and Bonnie Jean are fine, says Mrs. Ferguson, reporting her little granddaughter will be two in April. While in Hastings, Mrs. Ferguson had a birthday which was duly celebrated on Friday.

—Ralph W. Norman went to Grand Island Tuesday morning to take part in a meeting of the Nebraska Bar association, which was considering the case of two Nebraska attorneys, in for disbarment for alleged violations of the code of legal ethics. One is a former Ord man, Elmer Gudmundsen of Hyannis.

—Sylvester Furtak telephoned his wife Sunday, and says he likes the army life and learning fine, so far. He is going to school at Aberdeen, S. D., at present. Mrs. Furtak has closed her house and moved to her mothers', Mrs. Joe Pecenk's, where she will stay for the present.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eberhart received a telephone call early Sunday morning from their daughter, Inez, who informed them that she had lost all of her personal belongings in a fire which destroyed the Madison, Nebr., residence in which she and another teacher resided.

—Mrs. L. L. Watson went to Arcadia to spend Friday visiting an old friend, bringing Catherine Trefren home for a visit. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trefren were dinner guests at the Watson home and took their little daughter back with them.

—Kent Ferris drove to Giltner Friday, taking Mrs. Helleberg, his mother-in-law, to visit her son Bill and family. Sunday Kent drove to Giltner again, taking Mrs. Helleberg's belongings to her.

Taploca has more uses than the familiar pudding. It goes into gums, adhesives, wood glues, and for cloth and paper slings. We have been importing about 350 million pounds of this taploca each year. It looks about the same in the field, and yields a little less, research at the University of Iowa shows. The Iowa men say it can only be distinguished from ordinary corn type by a stain test. Ordinary cornstarch stains blue with an iodine solution; waxy cornstarch stains a reddish brown, say the Iowa authorities.

Tests on this corn were to be run the first two weeks in January, so Mr. Noll is anxious to hear if it was satisfactory.

If so, Valley county may have big future possibilities in raising the waxy corn, he thinks.

M. B. Cummins, who works at being mayor of Ord in his spare time and concentrates on auctioneering as a business, found a typical war-day headache in the ceiling on five farm machinery items, namely, the tractor, two kinds of corn-binders, corn picker and hay-baler. How to sell these machines fairly when half a dozen farmers plead earnestly for each of them on sale? Well, one way Auctioneer Cummins plans to solve this dilemma is by requesting that "no owner of a usable tractor bid on one today; hold up your hands, please, you fellows who had one that would work last season!"

If he can help it, Mr. Cummins does not wish to let such wanted machinery be sold to speculators for reselling at a profit; he wants to sell to producers.

Yes, indeed, auctioneers have many problems to solve these days. Mr. Cummins' troubles included losing his son Corwin to the army, just as Corwin was developing into a really valuable contact man who brought in lots of business. But business increases steadily, it is the best in years. Putting Walter Noll in the office, where he is reliable and efficient has been a definite asset, thinks Colonel Cummins.

At the Koupal and Barstow Lumber company offices, Rudolph Koupal reports it is difficult to get material, all kinds seeming to be on many priority lists. Particularly he longs to be able to furnish material for brooder houses this year, with an ever-increasing demand for more chickens in view.

Nails are hard to get, says Mr. Koupal, and wire seems to be out of the question. One woman stopped in a few days ago and begged for a piece "about that long" . . . measuring off 15 or 18 inches with her hand. "I had to tell her no; we don't have even that much, not one bit of chicken wire!"

What will we do without chicken wire? Mr. Koupal is considerably puzzled, since the farmers are urged to raise more and more chickens, and are planning to cooperate by doing it.

"But I can't care so much about a piece of chicken wire after I read about those boys on Guadalcanal," he finishes with a smile.

At the Co-operative Creamery Manager Fred Coe reports the war is constantly felt: "We have a crisis a week."

"For example, beginning February first the government wants 30 per cent of all butter made in this country."

In the Ord creamery, the volume of business is some 30 per cent heavier, and there is one less employee to help carry on.

So naturally, those who are there are working longer and harder to get the work done. It is hard to get experienced helpers.

Farmers are pleased with the prices, most of them get sizeable checks now. Last week, one can of cream brought more than $19, recalls Manager Coe. Of course ceilings are preventing butterfat from climbing to the exalted heights it reached during World War One, still, prices are good.

Soon the creamery will begin to ship butter in paper boxes in place of the "butter tubs" made of wood so long in use. The wood just isn't. Farmers must get a permit to buy a cream can, that is another thing. The creamery has been having trouble getting cream cans but is in hopes some can be had a bit later. Every farmer plans to milk more cows this season, says Mr. Coe.

Dairying is by far the farmers' biggest crop in this country, and with the demand for more butter to send to Russia, more cream and butter, for cheese and other lend-lease needs, with the soldiers all across the globe needing butter, farmers are fighting the war as much as anyone, a trip through a creamery will prove. On every farm plans for more chicks to raise are already made, says Creameryman Coe.

At the C. E. McGrew Shoe shop, rows of shoes show Mr. McGrew is keeping busy, and that many people have decided to wear their old shoes another spasm. Costs are high, says Mr. McGrew, all his materials costing much more but being poorer quality.

Some materials have disappeared. For instance, this week he stitched the last sole with linen thread and had to thread up with cotton. First quality leather is unavailable; lots of needed boot-nails are unavailable too. Only black rubber—"the kind that tracks" is on tap for heels now; gone is all the better quality from the markets.

Prices for work are a little higher, Mr. McGrew states. But with costs higher, he breaks about even, not much difference.

Notice of Annual Meeting.

Stockholders of the Nebraska State bank will hold their annual meeting on Friday evening, Jan. 29, at 8:00, in the banking building, for the purpose of electing a board of directors and transacting such other business as may come before it.

Women Needed to Sew Muslin Slips

Wednesday this week Marvin Hershey, Red Cross field representative was in Ord conferring with Mrs. C. J. Mortensen, county chairman.

More than 200 yards of muslin arrived this week and Red Cross volunteer workers are asked to cut and sew girls' slips of this material, the garments to go to occupied countries where they are badly needed. Mrs. Horace Travis is sewing chairman and will be glad to have any one telephone her who wishes to do this work.

Mrs. Edward Gnaster, knitting chairman, has yarn for any women who would like to knit for the Red Cross.

Library Notes.

Are you having trouble with that 1942 Income Tax? The library has one of the new income tax books showing all the deductible items and how your report should be filed. This book has been advertised over the radio and in several magazines. Borrow it and study your business before making your return.

Biographies of more than 1850 writers who have, in a literary sense, flourished since 1900, are now available to the local readers in "Twentieth Century Authors", the 1577 page biographical dictionary of modern world literature just received at the library. In preparation for over four years, "Twentieth Century Authors", presents narrative sketches of more than 1850 world literary figures who have published in English since the turn of the century. Included with the American and British authors are the better known Russians, Germans, Frenchmen, Poles, Swedes, Finns, etc. whose writings have been translated into English. More than 1700 portraits accompany the biographies. Information about hundreds of these authors is nowhere else available. Every living author in "Twentieth Century Authors" who could be reached was invited to write his own sketch. Many who did not contribute autobiographies supplied biographical and bibliographical data. In addition to the biographies and portraits, each sketch contains a list of the author's principal works, with original dates of publication. A list of biographical and critical sources about each author is also given as a guide to further study.

We are having another Victory Book campaign and will receive at the library any book you wish to donate to the men in service. At the end of the campaign all books are sent to some camp to our men. Magazines are not wanted for in most cases enough of them are donated by the local organizations.

WAR PLANT HEADS PRAISE RETAIL BEER'S COOPERATION

Many people feared booming war industries and large army concentrations would bring serious social and recreational problems to over-crowded Nebraska localities.

But Nebraska was prepared. Adequate alcohol control laws and efficient enforcement prevented serious problems from arising. The Nebraska Committee of the Brewing Industry Foundation kept pace with its self-regulation efforts. In most cases, taverns and recreational centers absorbed the influx and still maintained proper control.

As a result, war plant heads and military authorities are well satisfied with conditions at retail beer outlets throughout Nebraska.

The fact that only three out of more than 2,000 retail beer establishments have been ruled "out of bounds" is strong evidence of successful control.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

A letter just received from our friend, Howard W. Foster, Hillsdale, Ore., asks that I be put on the Quiz list for 1943. People will get homesick for the old home town.

Mrs. Will Misko says there is one thing on earth that is more helpless than a newborn babe and that is a sick man.

Port Boquet says that a table-breasted suit does for a man what a maternity dress does for a woman.

It is a lot easier to decide to lose weight than it is to make the decision stick.

Oscar says that if the time would come for the meek to inherit the earth, that the taxes would be so high that they wouldn't afford to take it.

In spite of my having to take a few names off the list each week, the new ones going to the list of the Quiz all the time amounts to several times as many as those taken off.

Don't know how he finds out about things, but Walt Desch says a woman will spend five dollars a pair of stockings to make people believe she isn't wearing any.

Some people discuss the weather but more of them discuss the weather.

Cots of miners and war workers are striking for more wages and I wonder what they would do if the soldiers, on low wages and 24 hour a day service, would strike. I wish it were possible to clap every striker in the front lines.

A friend who went over to Wall on the same boat with Ward writes home that he got awful sick and tried to jump overboard. He was up just as he reached the head of the boat and was laying there on his back when a couple of ladies came along. Gathering their arms around them, they were sitting when John noticed them and said, "Go ahead ladies, jump right over me, if I see anything I will never live to tell it."

For the female cooks who for years have watched for my culinary inventions and tried them, must tell of a fine breakfast that I prepared Monday morning of this week. It was degrees below and I knew the graving studio across the street would be froze up and as a large amount of work came in on Sunday, I got up at 6 a. m. I went over and got the fire going. Of course I had a lot of time to spare before the usual breakfast time, so I cast about something to break the monotony of either sausage and apple cakes or bacon and eggs. I found a piece of cold beef, some pieces of cold baked ham, three slices of cold bacon, fish of boiled potatoes. I got a grinder out and put them through, put them into a mixing bowl, broke two eggs in, added in some cracker crumbs, salt and pepper, a little paprika, a dash of paprika, some celery and onion salt, and then thoroughly mixed and added them into good sized patties. Then I heated bacon in a skillet, put them in and set them in the hot oven while I set the table and put oatmeal on to cook and made coffee. We were about done eating, Oscar and I, when Mrs. Burke came out. She declined to try my patties, but she did ask how it was made and suggested that I write out the recipe, but there would be no use of that because in making it one has to be guided by what is available. But Oscar said it was fine.

Something Different

Not long ago a family pet was playing with a white chicken. The chicken had had his neck wrung and someone probably thought they were going to pick and dress him for dinner, when he disappeared.

The dog didn't eat the chicken, just flounced him and shook him and had a general good time.

Miss Inez Swain, whose veracity I would not question, tells of a time when a neighbor dog apparently brought home a roaster complete with two cooked fowls in it, fat and all, and set it on the back doorstep.

Some lady who apparently had set it out to cool must have thought there were thieves in that neighborhood, for who would think a dog could move a roaster without spilling all that meat?

Numerous inquiries got no claimant for the roaster.

Dogs are smart, no doubt about it. Many a dog owner has had a dog who picked up his dish or pan and moved it to where he, the dog, considered a more suitable spot for eating. Olsson's used to have a dog who always re-arranged the eating arrangements, putting his dish where he liked it best. He picked it up carefully and never broke his dish. Our dog Buck would pick up the handle of his kettle and carry it around in the front yard, where he would tip out the soup bone and spend a happy afternoon polishing the good-smelling bone.

Buck, our big Chesapeake, used to embarrass us by bringing home wood in his mouth. And each person who spied him bearing a heavy piece of timber homeward behind a member of the Leggett family invariably cracked: "Well, it looks like you have your dog pretty well trained!"

But what used to make me angry at Buck was when he would pick up a long branch in his mouth and walk behind me, as close as he could trot. Then he would ruin my stockings! And that was before they were as precious as platinum, too.

This year, with Victory gardens most important, dogs will probably have to learn to stay tied and at home more than ever before. For gardening isn't going to be a hobby or an accident this year; it is going to be done from necessity and in all seriousness.

Do you have your seed catalogs out and your garden plans drawn yet? Everyone is willing to help with them this year, the government has much material on them, the papers are full of it, the magazines have article after article on gardening.

Even the Hollywood movie stars are getting new publicity angles played up around Victory gardening, for I read about one of them who "planted a row of corn next to her garage, then made it effective with a row of feathery-topped carrots, with a row of beets in front of that," because the contrasting colors in the foliage of the vegetables was such a delight to her!

The whipping time should be between two and three minutes. It is a knack to know exactly when to stop, but it must be as soon as the density has been reached, or the cream is liable to turn into butter.

As many housewives know, the cream on top of milk can easily be whipped. The only difficulty is to remove this cream without adulterating it with the milk beneath. On the market there are several cream dippers, and in the cities where cream-top bottles are obtainable it is a cinch.

There is one catch to whipping the light cream. When whipped it should not be left standing for any length of time. After one-half hour it starts to "cry," or as it is called in dairy language it begins "weehing off," and separates into water.

Wait till warm weather, too cold to show land.

No Longer is Necessary

New York, Dec. 25—Housewives! A stone has been removed from your path! The whipping cream, which by now belongs to happy memories can "nearly" be had again.

For the past few weeks many of our big dairies have experimented to find a sure way of whipping the light cream. In their laboratories they have added everything from drops of lemon to the bitterness of their souls, and here is the result:

Dr. D. B. Hand of Sheffield Farms has come to the conclusion the best thing to add is—nothing.

There are, however, a few rules to observe. You cannot put your bowl on the radiator and start whipping. The cream must contain at least 18 or 19 per cent butterfat. The beater, bowl and cream must be cooled in the refrigerator to less than 50 degrees to leave them in the ice box

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

A bill to lower the butterfat in ice cream has been introduced, and will probably get by our uncameral legislature. The opposition claims it will hurt dairy farmers by giving less market for their product.

Nebraska has the highest butterfat requirement for ice cream of any state in the union. The bill would lower our minimum of 14 per cent to 8 per cent. Some states require as little as 6 per cent.

There is evidence that our requirement defeats its own purpose by being too high. It makes possible the influx of frozen foods said to contain competitive vegetable oils, such as "frosted malts," which cost less than ice cream.

Cheap ice cream is also smuggled across the border from neighboring states, whose butterfat standards are lower, and whose ice cream can undersell that produced by Nebraska makers. If the retailer gets arrested, the company pays his fine, and the black market continues.

Thus our high butterfat law works to the detriment of Nebraska agriculture and industry. Or it is made ineffective by some manufacturers who put more air in their ice cream.

Many folks do not like "boughten" ice cream because it tastes too rich. Almost toothsome and healthful ice cream can be frozen with 8 per cent of butterfat, especially for people who are overweight. Moreover, it may be sold at a price which more consumers can afford to pay.

War-time demands for butterfat exceed supplies, and a critical shortage of butter exists in most areas. Reducing the butterfat content of ice cream would release large quantities of Nebraska butter for use where the need is greater. For these reasons the writer has no quarrel with the proposed law, but believes it would be quite appropriate now.

County Agent Notes

Feeding Wheat to Hogs.

Due to the fact that several cars of surplus wheat held by the Commodity Credit Corporation have been shipped into the county a number of inquiries have been received from farmers about the value of wheat as hog feed. This wheat is sold to farmers at about the same price per pound that corn is costing, or even slightly less.

Experimental work in wheat feeding at the Nebraska College of Agriculture indicates that wheat has a little higher feeding value pound for pound than has corn.

In one trial it took 403 pounds of shelled corn and 40 pounds of tankage to produce 100 pounds of pork. In this same trial 393 pounds of whole wheat and 22 pounds of tankage produced the same gain. Where the wheat was ground, it required only 377 pounds of wheat and 25 pounds of tankage to do the job of making 100 pounds of pork. Ground wheat in this case was 4% more efficient than whole wheat, or in other words with wheat costing 80 cents per bushel grinding it for hog feed would pay where the grinding could be done for 3 cents per bushel or less. The reduced consumption of tankage is accounted for by the fact that wheat carries a higher per cent of protein than corn. It should be stated however that wheat alone is not a balanced ration and a protein supplement should be fed with it for best results.

In these experiments all grain and supplement were fed in self feeders. In other trials where wheat grains and supplements were hand fed, ground wheat was 25% more efficient than wheat fed whole. This was explained by the fact that where hogs are hand fed the competition at the feed trough is very keen and the hogs were likely to bolt the grain without chewing it sufficiently, and a large per cent of the unground wheat was swallowed whole, and not digested.

Soaking either the whole ground wheat did not prove to be a profitable practice in any of the tests.

Wheat in any form seemed to be liked better than corn and the daily consumption of wheat was greater, but this was more than offset by the larger daily gains.

Ground wheat fed in limited quantities and with a protein supplement has been found to be an excellent feed for brood sows.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Mrs. E. C. Leggett.

Dear Eugene: It is about time I wrote another letter, especially since I received three cards recently from people who told me how much better they like the Quiz with my letters in it. I received the issues of the Quiz for Nov. 19 and Nov. 26, the latter with one of my letters in it. They were very welcome, in spite of the fact that they came nearly a month late, in fact, on Christmas day. I note that the game is getting tougher and tougher as time goes on. It is somewhat different here, as we have two very interesting dailies, with plenty of advertising and subscribers to make them a going concern. They are the Honolulu Advertiser, now more than 75 years old, and the Honolulu News-Bulletin, which is younger, but the better paper of the two. They sell in the cantonment at a nickel week days and a dime on Sundays, and they certainly have plenty of advertising.

Almost every day I run across somebody from the states who knows somebody I do. This week Paul Hillig, who is employed in the sign shop with me, told me he knew a singer from Nebraska whom he considered one of the best he had heard. I asked him who it was, and, sure enough, it was our old friend, James Aagaard. He did not know him very well, but had heard him sing while on a concert tour. That must have been some time ago, but he classed him right up with Nelson Eddy and Kenny Baker. I am not throwing a line, I just want the home folks to know what real music lovers away from home think of the home town boy.

I recently met a Dutchman by the name of Fitzpatrick. He seemed such a fine fellow that I offered him the use of my camera. Today he stopped at the shop to find what kind of film to get for it, and we had quite a visit. I found that he was an old newspaper man, and that he owned one of the first deluxe Tasope outfits in Colorado. He had a fine business at Siebert, Colo., and was going strong when the drought hit. His town was in the dust bowl, and the weather just about broke him. That is the reason he is out here. His outfit is in the newspaper office of his sister at Craig, Colo., and he told me that she needed a man to handle the outfit for him, and told me he would guarantee me the job at good wages if I could get away. However, I didn't come here just to go back again, so the deal is off for the present.

Of interest to Ord people is the fact that he got acquainted with the Louls Kessler at Craig, in fact, had been a dinner guest in their home. There are doubtless other newspaper men working here, but Fitz, etc., is the first one I have met who would admit it.

A change in arrangements here just before Christmas took me out of paint shop No. 71 and into maintenance shop No. 09. It leaves me exactly as I was except that now I am shop foreman, with a nice little sign on my desk denoting the fact. I get just the same amount I did in the other shop, except that we are all eligible for a raise beginning last Monday, Jan. 4. The difference is more apparent than real in my case, since the five per cent tax deal goes into effect at once, and it is likely that our hours will be cut down. I am awaiting with interest my next check, just to see how the change affects it. At present I am buying fifty dollar bond for $37.50 out of each pay check, and sending the wife an order for $25 each week besides. I think I will have enough left after paying my expenses to take care of my 1942 income tax.

Well, I quit writing long enough to go to the postoffice and get my mail. I found there a Christmas card sent by the Ladies of the G. A. R., at their meeting Dec. 14. Those who signed it were Mrs. Ivan Botts, Mrs. C. E. Norris, Mrs. J. L. Holington, Mrs. Lottie Clark, Miss May McCune, Mrs. Cornelia Hohn, Mrs. Loraine Ferris, Mrs. Emma Hansen, and Mrs. S. W. Roe. They all added a word of cheer, and I wouldn't take a lot for that letter. From the post-office I went over to our one store, the Victory Store. There I visited with a man who asked where I was from. When I told him "Ord, Nebraska," he said: "I know a man in Honolulu who lives there and works here in the yards, who told me he came from Ord, Nebr." He did not remember the man's name, but told me he would get us together. I am sure it is not Gerald Keim, as this mused a family, but was a big man, about two hundred pounds. I can't seem to figure him out, but I sure am anxious to meet him.

I had a story I wanted to write to the Legion boys, but I felt that all the readers would be interested in it, so I will tell it here. The post here, Pearl Harbor No. 24, department of Hawaii, decided some time ago to put on a big Christmas party at $3 per ticket. It looked like a big job, and it was. But when the party was over and the smoke had cleared away, the report showed that well over one thousand tickets had been sold. That may sound big in the states but that is the way they do things over here, and they have the cash to do it with. Their skin may be all shades from black to white here, but under their hide there aren't any whiter people on earth. I think I told in my former letter that they subscribed five million in bonds on Pearl Harbor day, Dec. 7, when the goal had been set at one million. As a matter of fact, just to keep the record straight, when all the islands had been heard from, the total ran above eight millions.

We had wonderful weather during the holidays, but January first there came a change, and it has been raining for the past five days. I do not know how much water fell in all, but I am guessing it at ten inches. It makes the work unpleasant, especially for those who have outside work, but business is proceeding as usual. The streets were bad when we first came, but lately the contractor has completed most of the sidewalks in our part of town, and it is possible to get along fine most of the time. This morning, however, the flood waters came down a street between here and the mess hall, and it was knee deep all the way across. I knew of a shallower place and did not get in above my boot tops. The natives tell us this a most unusual rain (Californians please note).

The man in front of me in the mess line the other day was singing to himself as he was gathering up his food: "Praise the Lord, and pass the ammunition." A dusky waitress remarked: "Can't do it Buddy. There's no beans on the bill of fare." I can't imagine what she meant, but did that fellow's face get red. I met a colored man this morning who interested me very much. I had seen him before and noted that he enjoyed every bite of his meals. I asked him how long he had been here, and he said he was here eighteen months and right on the job the morning the Japs came. He was in the thick of the fight, and saw much of what happened, and he sure could tell about it. He is fifty-seven years old, and looks about forty. He said that nine out of ten men here were getting more money for light work than they ever drew in their lives, and that they didn't have nearly as good meals when they were at home. I believe he is about right.

Say, Eugene, I wish you would call up Mary Kucera Stara, wife of one Hank Stara, and tell her I said for her to kick said Hank where it will do the most good and get him started for Honolulu. He can do well for himself here, and I want to see him. Also, we have everything on earth here except a red-headed Bohemian, and with him the family circle would be complete. If he comes soon, there's an empty bunk in our room, if he doesn't mind an upper at lower rates.

I would like to acknowledge receipt of letters from the following since I came here: the Sorensens, Oakland, Calif., Alfred Wiegardt, also Oakland, Horace Travis, John L. W. Nelson, Auble Bros., Mrs. Vera Sanders, Oshkosh, Ben Eberharts, H. D. Leggett, the Will Miskos the J. T. Knezaceks and Emil Fafaita, who is still waiting for me to send him a wahine, the local term for woman. He wants a hula girl, of course. In addition I have heard from all my closer relatives, of course, including Mrs. Roe. I may not get to answer all your letters directly, but will if I can find time. I can read a lot more letters than I am getting. They will reach me eventually with just a 3-cent stamp on them, and that postoffice box will hold a lot.

The people who write me tell how they like my letters, and I will try to send at least two per month through 1943, the year in which we will see the Axis crushed, in Europe, at least, if I may be permitted a prophecy. Sincerely yours,

More Books Needed for Victory Drive

Have you a book you particularly like? Then be generous and take it to the library in Ord, to be added to the Victory book collection. If you like it advise Mrs. G. W. Taylor the chairman of the drive, then the soldier or sailor boy will like it also. So don't give your least desirable books, but instead, send your favorite books.

The Victory book campaign, conducted by the American Red Cross, the American Library Association and the United Service organization, opened on January 5 and will run several weeks.

The books are to be put at the disposal of men in camps and hospitals all over the world, in reading rooms and recreation centers where men in service can borrow them. Magazines are not asked for, but service men have repeatedly shown their need for a good book to read. So if you have a dandy, will you share it with the man who is doing your fighting for you, asks the Ord woman who is directing the local book collection?

All books given for this use are to be left at the Ord Township library. If you prefer to give money and ask that a certain book be purchased and given to the Victory Book campaign, Mrs. Taylor will be glad to do this for you.

Miss Mamie Smith, Ord librarian is chairman of the Victory Book campaign on behalf of the American Library Association. If you cannot bring your books to the library, she will be glad to see that your books are called for.

Gerald Lockhart Traps Big Beaver Too

Educational Trends Discussed by Group

An open forum at the high school Tuesday evening was attended by about 25 persons, representatives of various clubs and organizations of the community. Mrs. Edward Kokes was chairman of the meeting, which was called to discuss educational trends, as war affects them.

Fred L. Stoddard, principal of the high school, told of the newly formed Victory corps and its several branches. The Ord students are full of enthusiasm for the new organization and want to wear the gay insignia and take part in the activities. Most Victory corps activities are only slight changes in studies already going on, for example shop work, physical education, mathematics. Edgar Farley will teach a new course called "War and post-war problems". Miss Helen Prouty talked on mathematical requirements. The government labels these as "pre-induction training, under the Victory corps set-up."

"A boy or girl is supposed to be self-supporting and self-sufficient immediately after graduation, then his ideas as an upper-classman surely must be worth considering," stated Mr. Farley to the group, pointing out that there are sensible heads on these young shoulders. "These youngsters should be taught the real value of their government, the finest working of democracy the world has ever seen."

Democracy should have more emphasis, decided the group, which may be given in civics history and economics classes, such as the new class Mr. Farley will teach. State, national and local government should be not only understood but admired by the young citizen, who has heretofore been trained to take democracy for granted.

Dick Karre Auction Being Held Today

Stormy weather forced a postponement of the big Dick Karre auction sale scheduled for Monday but this sale is being held today (Thursday) starting at 10:30 a. m. Seventy-eight head of cattle, 6 head of horses and a vast amount of tractor and other machinery will be sold in this auction, which will be one of the largest of the season. Other sales scheduled in the next few days include the Leo Long sale on Jan. 26 and the Mrs. A. M. L. Peterson sale on Jan. 28.

Valley County Had No Fatal Accidents

The Nebraska Safety Patrol has commended Valley county due to the fact that records show this county had no fatal accident during 1942 as result of traffic.

Death toll due to traffic accidents was reduced sharply throughout most of the state in 1942, possibly as result of the slower driving done by most motorists.

Subscribers to Quiz. Mrs. M. L. Jensen, former Valley county resident, writes from Stuart, Neb., to subscribe for the Quiz. The Jensens have four sons and one son-in-law in the U. S. armed services, says Mrs. Jensen, and the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Jensen are operating a big ranch for Dr. Clark makes them feel also that they have a big part in the war.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

American flyers with the RAF are raining demolition bombs on Nazi cities today. These instruments of destruction so important in razing Nazi war plants, interrupting railroad transportation and other war objectives, range now unto several tons.

The 500-pound demolition Bomb is one of the lighter ones. Bands are attached to facilitate handling and the fins are not attached until the Bomb reaches the airfield, because bending would injure accuracy. They cost up to $500. Your purchase of War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan will help provide Bombs for our army. Let's "Top that Ten Percent."

Valley County Meats Are Better

In Valley county we have as fine cattle feeders as there are in the world and for years it has been our policy to buy and butcher our meats locally instead of shipping them in from the Omaha packers.

Under the pressure of war we are now doing from necessity what we always done from choice, so the quality of meat we sell is unchanged.

When we buy and butcher Valley county-fed cattle we assure our customers of Grade A meats without any premiums tacked on. You'll like the meats we sell, now as always.

LIFE'S Little TROUBLES

-CAN'T SLEEP-

No need to lie in bed—toss—worry and fret because CON-STIPATION or GAS PRES-SURE won't let you sleep. Be sensible—get up—take a dash of as directed, to relieve the pressure of large intestines on nerves and organs of the digestive tract. Adler-I-Ka assists old food wastes and gas through a comfortable bowel movement so that bowels return to normal size and the discomforts of pressure stop. Before you know it, you are asleep. Morning finds you feeling clean—refreshed and ready for a good day's work or fun.

At the regular meeting of the members of the Rebekah Lodge held Thursday evening in the lodge room there were 14 ladies present. The installation of new officers was to have been held but was postponed until next meeting. The usual business was taken care of. The next kensington meeting will be with Miss Gladys Nelson on Friday, Febr. 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ciemny, Kenneth Hoyt, Richard Stone and Mrs. Edmund Ciemny were visitors in Sargent on Sunday evening.

Glen Granger arrived in Broken Bow last Tuesday from Fort Crook on a week's furlough to be spent with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Granger. George Travis brought him to Comstock. They took him back to Broken Bow Tuesday to return to his duties.

We noticed an interesting bit of news in the Sargent Leader about a young man we know, being the son of Mrs. Luu Sorensen. His name is Walter Mills and he has been in the army since January 5, 1942 and was sent across in April and flew to New Guinea, landing by means of a parachute. The report came from New Guinea and was sent in by Murlin Spencer. It follows: "I watched a batch of Americans start out on an attack against a strong Japanese pillbox near a new air strip west of Cape Endaladere, today, one of the hottest afternoons yet seen in this jungle warfare. They included Pvt. Richard Fox of Cinebar, Wash., and Pvt. Walter Mills, of Carnation, Wash. They sat under the trees while the bombing mortars sought to soften the Japanese emplacement. When the mortar fire halted they calmly got to their feet and started forward, crawling on their stomachs through the high Kunia grass getting far enough to throw hand grenades inside the pillbox. The attack took place the latter part of December and was reported over the radio on Tuesday evening, Dec 22."

Our mild weather went on a rampage Saturday and gradually got colder until the thermometer registered 28 degrees below Monday. The ground is well covered with snow, which fell Sunday.

The Revival meetings held at the Assembly of God church in Comstock has been well attended until the cold weather started, which cut the attendance somewhat, but Brother and Mrs. Charles Dale, of Coldwater, Kas., who are holding the meetings, are enjoyed by all who come out to hear them. The Revival continues through this week.

Soil District News

Subsurface tillage, that is, working the soil with implements that disturb the surface very little, is a labor and money saver as well as a good soil and moisture conservation practice. The following story was related by a farmer a few days ago, "I subsurface tilled a 56 acre sweet clover field with a tractor and three V-shaped subsurface sweeps in two days last spring. With a plow followed by a harrow, it would have taken me five days to prepare the field for seeding. This practice saves a lot of labor, and labor hardly can be found at any price nowadays. Further, I figure that I saved 35 to 40 gallons of tractor fuel. There was no other preparation on the field."

Subsurface tillage, it was pointed out, loosens the soil so that it soaks up water very rapidly and reduces run-off while the vegetable material on the surface checks erosion. Everything that goes for more production of food and livestock must be considered this year. The conservation of labor, fuel, power and machinery go hand in hand with the conservation of soil and moisture and all are directly in line with the big job of the day—Production.

Science Charts Methods to Prevent Undesirable Flavors in Cream

Preventing off-flavors from developing in cream is the best way of getting the highest returns from it. According to federal rules, butter is graded first of all on its flavor, and off-flavors which cut the score—the price—are mostly those which come from the cream out of which the butter was made. Off-flavor defects in cream roughly fall into two categories: fermentative flavors due to the presence of bacteria, and flavors due to absorption of the cream of odors from the air food or to some derangement in the cow's normal functions. Only the former are touched on in the chart.

High-acid or rancid cream is the most common cream defect. Such cream is very sour to the taste and is suggested age and putrefaction. It is caused by the use of clean pails, dirty separator, improper cooling, by mixing warm and cold cream, or by holding at a high temperature.

Cheesy cream tastes and smells like aged cheddar cheese. Such flavor results from unclean utensils, dirty separator, low butterfat content, or holding cream for too long. Yeasty-foamy cream is fluffy in body and sharp in smell. Occurs most frequently during warm weather, which is favorable to the growth of yeast cells. Uncleanliness, failure to hold cream at a low temperature, and exposure of utensils and cream to dust-laden air, are the factors responsible for this condition.

There is nothing worse than an unwashed separator to seriously impair cream quality. The separator should be taken apart each time it is used and thoroughly washed and sterilized. And the same goes for all milk and cream utensils.

Sunday afternoon at the Leslie Westover farm home, the small dog belonging to the family, took a sudden dislike to Lee J. Garrison, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Garrison. The dog sprang at the boy, who was on the floor and bit him through the bridge of his nose. First aid measures were given and the child was taken at once to Dr. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Westover were entertaining the following guests when the accident occurred, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Rowse and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beat and Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Garrison and family.

Funeral services were held on Sunday at the Christian church for Mrs. W. B. Johnson, with Rev. Harold Milliken officiating. She was born in Montgomery county, Iowa and died at Lincoln, Nebr., after a few days illness at the age of 73 years. On January 26, 1888 she was united in marriage to William B. Johnson at Red Oak, Ia. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson moved to Valley county in 1888. Here they made their home until they moved to Burwell in 1925. After Mr. Johnson's death, his wife made her home with their daughter, Mrs. Blanche Wheeler. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Church of Christ at Burwell, belonged to the Royal Neighbor lodge and was a member of the Anti-Rust club. She was a devoted wife and mother whose every thought was for the comfort and care of those she loved. Her death will leave a vacant place in the community as well as in the family circle. Survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Blanche Wheeler of Lincoln, and two sons, Clarence Johnson of Burwell and William B. Johnson, Jr., of Compton, Calif.

Mrs. Vera Shafer left Thursday for Fort Meade to visit her son and his wife, Sergeant and Mrs. Wilson Shafer. Wilson has been stationed at Fort Meade for two years and is to be transferred soon. Mrs. Mortensen Again Heads Red Cross Activities

Annual Meeting Monday Even Resulted in Election of All Former Officers.

All officers of the Valley county Red Cross were declared unanimously reelected Monday evening at the annual meeting, with the addition of Mrs. Harold Weddel of Arcadia as a new vice chairman for the territory, serving as Mr. McClellan does at North Loup.

Mrs. C. J. Mortensen will again head the organization. Vice chairman will be Mrs. Weddel of Arcadia and C. W. McClellan of North Loup. Secretary will be Mrs. Wilmer M. Anderson, treasurer Curt Gudmundsen, home service chairman John Misko, first aid chairman Mrs. M. D. Tolen, victory book campaign chairman Mrs. G. W. Taylor, home nursing chairman Mrs. John Misko, speakers' chairman Mrs. Ralph Misko, junior Red Cross chairman Mrs. Edward Kokes, publicity Mrs. E. C. Leggett, production chairman Mrs. Emil Fafetta, knitting chairman Mrs. Edward Gnaster, sewing and cutting chairman Mrs. Horace Travis, war fund and roll call drive chairman Mrs. G. A. Parkins with Mrs. C. C. Dale assisting. Mrs. K. C. Lewis scrap wool chairman. Vernon Anderson is farm and home accident prevention chairman and George Satterfield is disaster chairman.

Treasurer Gudmundsen reported a total of $391.50 on hand after disbursements of $266.41. This included $19.04 paid out to service and ex-service men, $8.87 for civilian relief, $13.65 for first aid instruction, $8 for war safety, $3.66 for local projects of the Junior Red Cross, $12.75 for postage, travel expense and stationery, $53.50 for books, $7.50 for an audit, $141.44 for material for production and service kits.

Money received included $50.04 for books, $2.81 for refund on telegrams and freight, $3.52 percentage of war relief, $84.47 for production materials bought. The Junior Red Cross reported $23.87 in their treasury, in addition to figures above.

Arcadia delegates were unable to present their report or attend the meeting, so their figures are not available. From North Loup production chairman Mrs. Clarence Switzer reported 100 kits prepared, 15 sweaters and 15 pairs of socks made.

In Ord Mrs. Emil Fafetta reported as production chief; 62 sweaters, 32 pairs socks, 10 shawls, 9 helmets, 7 mufflers, 4 pairs wristlets, 200 kits made and filled.

First Aid chairman Mrs. M. D. Tolen reported 164 standard first aid certificates earned, 32 advanced certificates, 12 junior red cross certificates in first aid. A new class of 18 first aid students began work Jan. 22.

Home nursing chairman Mrs. J. P. Misko reported 110 graduates the past year, with eight classes conducted in Valley county, three of them at North Loup and two at Arcadia. A new class will begin soon, taught by Mrs. Hilding Pearson.

Home service chairman John

P. Misko reported work done for 36 service men, four ex-service men and 20 civilians. This did not mention the many letters, telegrams and other duties done to accommodate service men and their families.

Junior Red Cross chairman Mrs. Edward Kokes enrolled 1,011 children in 45 schools, 60 classrooms and four high schools. Five national and one international projects were completed, 22 more projects are under way. Cash taken in for war fund, etc., $17.13, cash for enrollments, $38.00.

Mrs. Keith Lewis, scrap wool chairman, reported a fine collection of wool. After the junior red cross took a quantity for afghan making, there remained about 100 pounds to be shipped away.

Hosiery, Old Keys, Copper and Brass Will Be Salvaged

New Kind of Drive Coming Febr. 13; Special Show at Ord Theatre.

Another special salvage day is coming to Ord on Febr. 13, on which date the Camp Fire girls of all groups are going to gather worn-out silk and nylon hosiery by going from door to door, while at the same time a special show is given at the Ord Theatre with admittance fee upon presentation of two pounds of old copper or brass in lieu of a ticket.

Old keys, old hosiery, copper and brass are the objects of this drive because all are vitally needed in the war effort.

The Camp Fire Girls will appreciate it if every housewife in Ord will sort out and wash all old silk and nylon hose and have them ready when the girls call on the morning of Febr. 13. The girls will also ask for any old or waste keys, trilling in themselves but which in aggregate will make a large quantity of fine metal for war uses.

More complete information about the special show being given by Manager M. Biemond of the Ord Theatre as a means of salvaging old copper, brass and bronze will be made available later but now is a good time for children to start collecting these items.

The entire campaign will be carried out on a non-profit basis, with organizations and groups donating net profits from sale of the articles donated to some worthy cause allied with the war effort.

Men Invited to Join Physical Fitness Class

A physical fitness class for men will be organized Monday evening by Roscoe Tolly and all men who care to do so are invited to take part in these physical training periods. This won't be simply a play-time but will furnish a real work-out for the men who join the class," Tolly promises. Anybody interested may see C. C. Thompson, Mr. Tolly, or simply show up when the class starts Monday evening at 8:00. Soft-sole shoes and some kind of a gym suit are the only requirements for joining.

Juniors Make Hit With 3-Act Play of Army, "She's a Soldier's Sweetheart"

A good big auditorium-stuffing crowd turned out Tuesday evening to enjoy the antics of the juniors as they rolled through their class play, three-act "She's a Soldier's Sweetheart." Ricky, the 15-year-old trying to learn all the tricks in the joke book, made a hit as soldier boy, and he struggled to lift chairs by one leg or cut paper with a dollar bill, and Roland Beran made a fine Ricky. He lifted the roof as Little Red Riding Hood.

Kip Larkin was the hero of the plot, and Junior Wilson was very satisfactory as the boy with too many girls. Luetta Kuehl as the dependable grandma carried a heavy role believably, even if she did have lots of trouble with her spectacles, the sofa pillows and her cooking!

Elinor Walford as the young ghost writer provided fun and charm and a little trouble for Kip, and did her part very well. Roberta Stoddard made a beautiful movie actress and finished her role in good style. Lillian Jelinek as the blue-eyed baby-talking girl friend made a hit, and her rival Paula was attractively played by Arlene Timmerman.

Loyal Hurlbert made a spry and entertaining grandpoo, and brought down the house as the big-eared wolf wiggling into a nightgown. Robert Volf was really good as the ambitious young press agent cooking up publicity for the young actress.

Lesser parts were done very well by Reva Lincoln as a screen writer, by Rosalie LeMasters and Hilda Lola in the same sort of parts, and by Don Auble and Wayne Hixon as soldier boys.

Two boy friends complicated affairs in the play, Richard Petersen and Robert Krason playing these parts. The set was an attractive living room, arranged by the public speaking class, with Hilda Lola and Deana Kokes in charge of properties. Posters for the play were made and posted by Charlotte and LaVonne Weyers, Bernice Parkos, Leona Volf, Vivian Setlik, Mary Fox, Jeanne Covert and Alice Swank. Hilda Lola was prompter for the play.

Ushers were attractive in their long pastel gowns, among them being Nadine Noll, Vivian Setlik, Marcella Iwanski, Mary Kirby, Alice Swank and Delores Greenwalt.

Miss Wilma Shavilk deserves a great deal of credit for again producing an evening of good entertainment for Ord people as she can be depended upon to do. Class sponsors are Miss Iris Krebs and A. J. Cochrane.

Before the curtain rose Mr. Deines and his high school orchestra pleased everyone with three musical numbers which were well applauded.

Mrs. John D. Moul Died January 21st after Long Illness

Respected Farm Woman 60 Years Old; Funeral Was Held Here Sunday.

After a long period of ill health, during much of which she was bedfast, Mrs. John D. Moul, 60, died Thursday, Jan. 21 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. James Covert, near Ord. Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:30 p. m. in the M. E. church here, with Rev. M. Marvin Long officiating. Music was furnished by a quartet which sang "The Old Rugged Cross" and "City Four-Square," and Mrs. Mark Tolan sang a special solo, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Pallbearers were E. Donner, Roy Nightengale and Earl Dent, of Burwell, and Bud Covert, Dave Arnold and George Nay, of Ord. Flowers were in charge of Mrs. J. R. Stoltz and Mrs. Leo Long. Interment was in the Ord cemetery. The Pearson Mortuary had charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Moul was born in York county, near Lushton, on Dec. 21, 1882, the daughter of Jacob and Adell Labart. She attended school at Lushton, attended York college two years and was married Dec. 24, 1901 to John D. Moul.

The Moul family moved to Valley county in 1906 and lived on a farm near Ord until seven years ago, when they moved to a farm near Burwell. To them three daughters were born, all of whom survive. They are Mrs. James Covert and Mrs. Herman Toben, of Max, Nebr. Three brothers, Otis and Harry Labart, of Lushton, and Louis Labart, of Saguache, Colo., and a sister, Mrs. Avilla Kleinschmidt, of Stratton, Nebr., also survive, as well as numerous other relatives.

At the age of fifteen Mrs. Moul united with the United Brethren church at Lushton but when she moved to Valley county she transferred her membership to the Methodist church of Ord, always engaging in the work with the different church groups. During her long illness she was patient and cheerful and until the last had faith that her condition would improve. She was highly esteemed as a neighbor and friend in need.

3-Valleys Tourney Starts Febr. 9th

Monday evening representatives from all towns in the 3-Valleys conference came to Ord to attend a meeting at the high school, purpose of which was to make plans for the annual conference basketball tournament.

It was decided to hold the tournament as planned on Febr. 9. At that time four teams will play at Loup City and four at Sargent, with the winning team in each group meeting on the evening of Febr. 12 at a place to be designated by the winner of the Loup City group.

Broken Bow plays Sargent and Burwell plays Ord in the 4-team tournament at Sargent the afternoon of Febr. 9, and the two winners will meet that evening. Ord is expected to win this sub-tournament handily, since the Chanticleers have already beaten two of the three teams involved.

Household Goods Ablaze on Truck

Burwell—(Special)—The Glow Fackler truck figured in a freakish fire Monday when a load of household goods he was hauling from Hull, Kas., to this village for the Joe Mapeka family was discovered to be afire when the truck was about five miles west of Lincoln. The household equipment was almost destroyed but only slight damage was done to the truck. Mr. Fackler was accompanied by George Zimmerman.

New Officers for No. Loup District

The North Loup River Public Power and Irrigation district at its recent annual organization meeting elected new officers, W. O. Zangger being chosen president, Herman a Grunemeyer vice-president, Frank W. Blaha treasurer and Guy Laverty secretary and attorney.

Two new directors were seated on the board, Clifton McClellan taking the place of the former president, Roy Hudson, while Dr. J. W. McGinnis succeeded Dr. F. A. Barta.

Six Sons, In-Law, in Armed Services

Giving their all to Uncle Sam are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jefferies, of Chico, Calif., formerly of the North Loup community, who have six sons and a son-in-law in the service. That represents the entire family, for the Jefferies' have but six sons and one daughter.

Four boys are overseas, two left Jan. 2 and the son-in-law is in Ohio. Donald, 28, and Vernon, 17, enlisted in the army air signal corps and are in training at Santa Rosa and Alameda, respectively since the first of the year. Staff Sergeant LeRoy Jefferies, 19, received 14 months training at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and went across in November, 1941. He was in the Pacific enroute to the Philippines when the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor.

George, 24, is a mechanic's mate, 2nd class, having enlisted in 1939, and was stationed in Pearl Harbor at the time of the attack. This was too much for the other two boys, Charles, 25, and Ernest 22, and they enlisted immediately. Recently the two, now a corporal and sergeant, had a reunion with LeRoy in Melbourne, Australia.

The daughter of the Jefferies', Edith, is with her husband, Technical Sergeant Gordon Cameron, who is stationed at Lockbourne army air base in Columbus, Ohio.

'March of Dimes' Plan Being Used to Raise Funds

Infantile Paralysis Campaign On This Week; Dances and Card Parties Being Held.

The annual campaign for the purpose of raising funds to support the program of the National Foundation for Prevention of Infantile Paralysis is on in Valley county this week, with Ign. Kilma, jr., as chairman and Mrs. E. L. Kokes taking an active part. Receipts for coin donations have been placed in business places, "march of dimes" coin cards are being circulated by Camp Fire Girls and others, and every effort is being made to exceed the quota assigned to this county.

Sunday evening a card party was given at Elyria, with funds going to the Infantile Paralysis fund, Monday evening a dance was given in Ord and part of the proceeds will be donated to this cause, and next Monday evening a "President's Birthday Ball" will be held at North Loup. Other communities are giving box suppers, pinochle parties, dances and other affairs to raise money for the fund.

Half of the money taken in remains in Valley county for use in providing special serums and expert treatment in the event that an epidemic should strike here. So far this area has been fortunate in avoiding the dread disease but North Platte had an epidemic last summer in which 92 cases developed and there is always the danger that Valley county may be stricken also.

The other half of funds donated goes to the national foundation, which maintains the sanitarium at Warm Springs and also supports treatment and research clinics in almost every state in the union. The new Kenny method of treatment, which is now available in Nebraska, is financed by the national foundation.

Survivors Not Mentioned.

In the obituary of John Hopkins which appeared last week in the Burwell department the name of one sister, Mrs. George Lindsey, of Springfield, Mo., and of one brother, Will Hopkins, of Ord, were omitted through error. He also left 18 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. Pallbearers were Fred Martinson, Joe Fajmon, Stanley Petska, Julius Iwanski, Frank Bartos and James Bratka, all neighbors of the deceased. Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Cram and Mr. and Mrs. Woods, of Burwell. Mrs. Hopkins and the family wish to thank everyone who helped them in any way during the illness and death of Mr. Hopkins.

Son Killed in Wreck.

North Loup—(Special)—A telegram was received this morning from Mrs. Delvin Green, Escondido, Calif., to Mrs. Carrie Green telling her that her son, Roland, 25 years old, had been killed in a train wreck. About nine years ago the older daughter, Dorothy, was killed in an auto accident and about 6 years ago Mr. Green was electrocuted.

67 Applications Are Now on File for Soil Conservation Work

Valley Co. Farmers Taking to New Service; Every Farm Needs Help, Is Belief.

Valley county farmers are taking to the service offered by the new Soil Conservation district like a duck takes to water, revealed the 1st annual report of the district filed last week by Clayton Noll, chairman and O. Schudel, secretary. Though it has been in existence only a few months the district already has worked out complete soil conservation plans for 12 farmers, has 67 applications on file and expects to work out about 36 detailed plans during 1943.

The district was established April 10, 1942 after a referendum on March 28 at which ninety-five per cent of farmers voting expressed themselves in favor of a district. It takes in all of Valley county excepting town and cemetery lots and comprises 362,240 acres.

Supervisors who serve on the governing board include Messrs. Noll and Schudel, Henry Enger, Anton Weiniak and Ray Lutz. Regular meetings are held at 12:30 noon on the first Saturday of each month. Actual field work of the district started Aug. 10 when Evan A. Hartman became work unit leader, with L. E. Walford and John E. Vanberg as technical assistants. Frank Fafetta helped with layout work during the fall, Kathryn Williams was employed as clerk for a time and Marion Wardrop has assisted as part-time clerk.

So far the only equipment the district has been able to obtain is five fresnos and one ditcher, because of war requirements, but this is being put to good use. Supervisors voted to charge 25c per hour for the use of each piece of equipment, as a maintenance charge only.

There are 1,050 operating units in the district, representing 361,998 acres of land, the district's records show, and it is expected that almost every acre in the district will need some kind of conservation practice. Contouring, planting more acres back to grass and many other good soil practices will assist in the war effort, it is believed.

The district is assisting farmers of the North and Middle Loup valleys in their irrigation problems, is holding educational meetings, has taken over all shelterbelt plantings and the furnishing of trees, and has a full program lined up for 1943. Supervisors have toured over work already done and it is their opinion that some very good practices have already been established. Farmers who have had work laid out and some work accomplished express themselves as being very pleased with the district's assistance.

Mrs. R. E. Crawford Passes in Hospital

Arcadia—(Special)—After an illness of three weeks, Mrs. R. E. Crawford, 69, a resident of this village eight years, died Sunday evening in the Ord hospital as result of a heart ailment. Funeral services are being held in the Hastings-Zikmund chapel at Ord at 2:00 Wednesday afternoon and interment will be in the Ord cemetery. Mrs. Crawford is survived by her husband, who is a blacksmith here, and by sisters living in California and Omaha. Before she came here Mrs. Crawford was a nurse in the psychopathic hospital in Omaha.

Income Tax Help Offered by Curran

Edward Curran, of Greeley, deputy collector of internal revenue for Nebraska, and his assistant, Mr. Emory, of Omaha, are in Ord this week assisting people in making out their income tax returns. They will be in the district court room until Friday evening and will gladly assist any citizen who wishes information or needs assistance.

3 Officers Speak to Ord Rotarians

Capt. Lee Huff, jr., and two of his administrative assistants, Lieuts. Fitzpatrick and Butcher, were guests of the Ord Rotary club at dinner Monday evening, while in this city with a convoy of sixty other officers on sand hill maneuvers out of Fort Crook. All three addressed the club afterward. Lieut. Butcher is being transferred to a new automotive school for women which is being opened at Plattsmouth by the war department, he said, and will be in charge of teaching 200 women to be auto and truck mechanics. When they complete a three months' course they will replace soldiers at various army camps in the Mississippi river basin, thus releasing the soldier-mechanics for duty on the fighting fronts. Lieut. Fitzpatrick is an anti-aircraft officer and he described the duties of the five divisions which make up this service.

Captain Huff is in charge of the convoy work at Fort Crook and has been in Ord several times previously.

Ord Outpoints Broken Bow, 36-26

Indians Lead at Half Mark but Chanticleers Came up Fast at Close.

The Broken Bow Indians lead the Chanticleers 14 to 12 at the halfway mark in their basketball game played in Broken Bow Friday evening, but when the final gun sounded Ord had overcome this lead and gone ahead to win handily 36 to 26.

Booth was Broken Bow's best player, scoring 14 points before he was ejected on personal fouls in the 4th period. Wilson also left the game by the same route but along with Petersen and O. Hurlbert looked best for the Chanticleers, with Severson starting on defense. Other Ord boys who saw service were Finley, Walker, Satterfield, Kovanda, Randolph and L. Hurlbert.

Friday night Ord plays host to St. Paul in an important conference game.

Annual Firemen's Ball February 2nd

The Harry Collins orchestra, from Grand Island, has been engaged to furnish music for the annual ball of the Ord Volunteer Fire Department which will be held at the Bohemian hall next Tuesday evening, Febr. 2. This is the 55th annual dance sponsored by the department to raise funds for its activities and as always it will be generously patronized.

On the dance committee are Asa Anderson, Sam Marks and Forrest Worn. Chairman of the ticket selling committee is Alfred Albers.

Named Witness Wrongly.

The Quiz was in error last week in naming Fred W. Coe as one of the character witnesses who testified in federal court for Dr. C. J. Miller and Emory Thomsen. Instead it was C. J. Mortensen. Federal court records also show that the $200 fine assessed against Dr. Miller was the heaviest fine ever collected in a migratory bird case in Nebraska.

Rev. Williamson Stricken.

Word has been received here that Rev. D. C. Williamson, of Axtell, Kas., is in a hospital, having suffered a stroke, and is in serious condition. He was ill several months prior to the stroke. Mr. Williamson is a former pastor of the Presbyterian church here.

Cotton Goods Scarcer, Elastic Vanishing and Ice Cream Flavors Cut to 3 — War Measures

The empty white face of the former Council Oak store is one plainly noticeable blemish in Ord's business district, no doubt due to changing conditions and perhaps the war. The Council Oak store has moved away.

Next door, at the J. C. Penney store, Manager Keith Lewis declares business is good, in spite of the fact that merchandise is hard to get. "Everything that can possibly help has gone to war," he says, "but we intend to do our best for the home folks with what we can get."

For instance, January white sales had a hollow sound this year, with sheets and sheeting practically nil. Mr. Lewis had just measured off the last yard of pillow cases left to sell! Cotton shortages are apparent, due to wartime demands of the armed forces. For instance, curtains are going to be more and more scarce, for the manufacturers are busy making mosquito nets!

Never thought of that, did you? House dresses are slow to come in, and stocks are limited, and so are cotton prints by the yard. Where dozens of bolts of gay material used to flash their colors invitingly, one of the finest

Ord's New Mail Service to Start Monday, Febr. 1

1st Class Mail Reaches Ord by Star Route at 8:07 Daily, Leaves 9:53.

New and improved mail service for Ord and Burwell will go into effect Monday, Febr. 1, according to a notice received this week by Postmaster A. L. Hill from the chief clerk's office at Omaha, and it is believed the new service will answer the many criticisms voiced for several months past because of the chronic late arrival of the Union Pacific's morning freight.

Starting next Monday all 1st class mail, newspapers, special delivery and special handling mail for Ord will arrive at 8:07 a. m. daily including Sunday by a star route from Grand Island carried by W. T. Kirby, the present contractor who has been driving the afternoon star route, which will be discontinued.

The truck will leave Grand Island at 5:15 a. m., reach Ord at 8:07 a. m., reach Burwell at 8:48 a. m., and will start the return trip from that place at 9:15 a. m., leaving Ord with out-bound mail at 9:53 a. m. and arriving in Grand Island at 12:15 noon.

At the same time the Union Pacific's freight train schedule will be changed, leaving Grand Island at 7:00 a. m. with parcels post and other classes of mail matter for Ord not carried by the star route, and arriving in this city at 9:50 a. m. if it is on time.

This train will leave at 5:00 p. m. with mail for Grand Island and reach there at 7:50 p. m. in time to make all east-bound and westbound evening mail connections.

Ord thus will have incoming mail in the morning only but will have two outgoing mails each day, one at 9:53 a. m. and the other at 5:00 p. m. except on Sunday when the freight train will not run and there will thus be no out-bound afternoon dispatch.

The present Ord-to-Burwell star route will be reversed making the trip to Ord daily, except Sunday, at 3:45 p. m. to bring mail for dispatch on the afternoon freight. Burwell's only incoming mail, as Ord's, will be in the morning.

The new system will have a number of advantages, chief of which will be regularity of the morning mail's arrival time, in the opinion of Postmaster Hill. Rural carriers will be able to start on their routes at an early, regular hour every morning, and rural patrons will again be able to know at what time their mail will be in their boxes. Business men will receive their mail earlier in the day. There will be two out-bound dispatches daily and air mail letters to both coasts will go approximately 24 hours sooner by going out in the morning.

Hereafter mail must be in the Ord postoffice by 9:30 a. m. to make the 9:53 dispatch and by 4:30 p. m. to make the 5:00 dispatch, Postmaster Hill warns. New collection hours will be posted on the mail boxes around town Sunday, so patrons may know at what time to place mail in these boxes for the quickest pick-up.

Displays in Ord now included a couple of dozen patterns, a large supply for these days. Overalls are hard to get. Last week a shipment of overalls, ordered in September for November delivery, at long last arrived. Before Christmas the Penney store was entirely without that good old standby, the work shirt.

Elastic is vanishing. Men's shorts now have a short piece in the belt, and soon will have no elastic at all to help adjust them. Shoe deliveries are slow, styles are stabilized. Fancy stuff and two-tone shoes have gone.

Of the Penney staff, only Hurlbert Fox has gone to war. He is in New Jersey, where he is a yeoman, third class in the coast guard, ending his first year in service in February. Glen Stroud takes his place in the Ord store.

At Beranek's Drug store, Floyd was finishing an order with "some stuff I copy in every time." "And get, sometimes, too," he related. The stuff was candy, on which no back orders are accepted.

"The war really has not hurt the drug stores much as yet," (Continued on page 3)

"Love Pirates of Hawaii," a two act operetta, was presented by the music department of the high school Wednesday evening in the community building and in spite of the severe cold a large crowd was present. The plot centered around the romance of Dorothy Dear, Marion Maxson, who was the daughter of a rich plantation owner who had placed his daughter in a private girls' school with Miss Primer, JoAnne Barber as teacher. Dorothy's lover, Billy Wood, played by Chopple Stevens, plans to come to see his sweetheart disguised as a pirate. Miss Primer intercepts the letter and when a band of pirates puts in an appearance thinks they are Billy's gang and captures them putting them to work as cooks. Miss Primer, typical prim old maid almost loses her heart to the pirate chief, Billy is caught and bound by the gang, escapes and brings the United States marines to capture the pirate band and rescue the girls. Choruses of Hawaiian girls and pirates completed the cast. Costuming and stage setting of palm trees and Hawaiian scenery added much to the play. All soloists were outstanding and JoAnne Barber was especially so, no doubt showing some inherent ability for many will remember when her mother was able to play a difficult part equally well. Lucinne Fisher acted as accompanist and Mrs. Elley was director. Between acts pupils from the third and fourth grades gave a pleasing exhibition of the Virginia reel and a sailor folk song and fifth and sixth grades sang seventh and eighth grades sang two numbers.

The Pinochle club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Otto Bartz with Mrs. Rasmus Peterson assistant hostess. Mrs. Emma Madsen won the traveling prize and Mrs. C. J. Goodrich the high score. All members were present.

Funeral services for Michael Schudel were held Thursday afternoon from the Methodist church in Scotia, Rev. Sheppard in charge. A large number from North Loup were present and three North Loup men, Otto Bartz, Clifton McClellan and Frank Johnson acted as pall bearers. Burial was in the Scotia cemetery. Mr. Schudel was born November 20, 1864, in Schaffhausen, Switzerland, and passed away at his home in Scotia at the age of 78 years, 1 month and 28 days. His father died when he was a young lad and he helped his mother take up the load in the responsibility in providing for the family. When about twenty years of age he came to America to make his home following a brother who had come to Grand Island, Neb., previously. He worked at various jobs in and around Grand Island for a few years. Later he went to Chicago where he worked in a lumber mill. While in Chicago he was married to Miss Marie Rebstock in 1891. To them were born four children, Edwin, Frank, William and Margaret. They lived in Chicago for a time but being a farmer at heart they moved to a farm near Chicago where they lived for three years and where the two oldest children were born. In 1895 they moved back to Nebraska settling on a farm three miles east of Ord, farming there for three years. In 1899 they bought a farm three miles northeast of North Loup and here he spent most of his active life. Always a hardworking and frugal manager, he was a successful farmer and stockman and prospered in his undertaking. On March 31, 1906 his wife passed away, leaving the four small children to the care of their father. These were trying times but he managed to hold the family together. On February 26, 1909 he was married to Anna Schudel, a friend of his boyhood, whose unswerving love, devotion to duty has made her all a mother could be, both to husband and children. In the spring of 1930 they retired from the farm to the present home in Scotia where they have lived in quiet retirement, still taking a keen interest in the farming operations carried on by his sons. Very seldom indisposed, his last illness came on swiftly and the suddenness of his passing was a shock to everyone, most especially to his wife who was a devoted companion. Surviving are his wife, three sons, Edwin, Frank and William, all of North Loup, a daughter, Margaret Blencowe, of Long Beach, Calif., five grandchildren and many relatives in Switzerland.

Mrs. Berta Barber, Mrs. and Mrs. Russell Barber and David and Donald Babcock were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barber celebrating Mr. Barber's and Russell's birthdays.

The Gilbert Babcock family are staying in the Jim Scott home. Arrangements can be made for a house to live in replacing the house which burned last week. The small house which has stood back of the Conoco filling station is being moved to the farm as a temporary dwelling.

Carroll Babcock was sick with flu at the Jim Scott home the first of the week.

Jeanne Barber was home from Kearney over the week end, coming Friday night and returning on the bus Sunday morning.

Donald Hutchins who had been attending school in Kearney, quit at the end of the semester and is helping his father on the farm.

Identical services at 11:15 a. m. Sunday at the Methodist church in North Loup and at Camp Shilo, Canada, made Albert (Buddy) Hoepner a member of the North Loup Methodist church. Chaplain Bain of the camp performed the service and Buddy answered the questions while here Rev. Hansberry gave the questions and Charlotte Jones acting as proxy answered them. The ritual used was the regular Methodist ritual and the service was very impressive. Mr. and Mrs. Hoepner were present and attended Charlotte. Buddy has received his private first class rating recently.

The board of directors of the co-operative credit association met Monday night and elected officers. Dr. Hemphill was elected president, A. L. Willoughby vice-president and Selma Robbins secretary-treasurer.

Derwin White has been in the army for three months and has had a promotion. He has recently been made a corporal, is located at Camp Adair, Ore., and is in the anti-tank division.

Walter Cummins is quite sick at his home near Cotesfield.

Wilbur Rowe spent Friday and Saturday in Loup City.

Marianne Whitford and Marcia Rood were Saturday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Lewis. Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Whitford birthdays were celebrated.

North Loup teachers who have been taking the special course given in Ord finished it Saturday and all feel well repaid for the time and effort spent.

In the spelling and ciphering contest held Friday afternoon between the grades the seventh grade won. In a spelling contest held later the fourth grade won, Connie Eberhart and Dale Hutchins being the champions.

The fifth and sixth grades have taken up debating and are learning a great deal about it.

The first and second grade take their language period on Friday afternoon for free reading period, each pupil choosing a story they like to read. The second grade are studying clocks and learning to tell time.

In the third and fourth grades the children are learning to fold paper and can make clever articles. They have finished their Eskimo unit and Mrs. Manchester feels well pleased with the work done in this for all students in the room made a passing grade. Their next unit is We Go Traveling.

The high school honor roll was given out Tuesday and has five names for the semester. They are Donald Babcock, Joan Barber, Lucinne Fisher, Marjory Harper and Marion Maxson.

Work on selections for the declamatory contest is started under the coaching of Mrs. Hayden. The date set for the contest is Febr. 17.

Ord Library Notes.

The American Library Association, the American Red Cross and the United Service Organizations are sponsoring another drive for books for the service men. Miss Mamie L. Smith, the librarian, has been appointed chairman for this county on behalf of the American Library Association and Mrs. G. W. Taylor for the Red Cross. The Camp Fire Girls, the Junior Red Cross and the Victory Corps will cooperate with the librarian in this drive.

What books do the men want? The officials of our army, navy and marine corps concerned with the library service to the armed forces have pointed out, on the basis of reports received from various Service Command headquarters and the offices of Naval Commanders, that certain books sent to them last year were unsuitable and that other desirable material had not been received in sufficient quantity to be effective. Conferences held with the army and navy special services officers responsible for library service indicate their preference for the following kinds of books:

- (1) The current best sellers (Book of the Month, Literary Guild and other book club selections) and the more recently published (1930 to date) popular fiction and popular non-fiction, in good physical condition.
- (2) Adventure and westerns, detective and mystery fiction, in good physical condition. (These are described by camp librarians and others as the type of books sought, and most read.)
- (3) Technical books published since 1935 in the fields of mathematics, machine mechanics and design, electricity, radio, photography, aeronautics, navigation, meteorology, chemistry, physics, shop mechanics, military science, mechanical drawing, architecture, etc.
- (4) Funny books—books of jokes, humorous stories, anecdotes, cartoons — and group games in good physical condition.
- (5) Pocket books, and other small sized editions of popular titles.

Why not get a pocket edition and donate it in honor of that son, brother or sweetheart. If your boy doesn't read it many others will and appreciate it just as much. I see some of the Ord stores are now handling these books. They are only 25c and are well worth the money.

If you cannot bring your books to the library, if you will notify Miss Smith or Mrs. Taylor, it will be called for.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW!

—Frank Tedrow came Friday to visit his brother, Jud. He lives at Osceola now.

—Miss Lucile Thornton of Kearney was a week end guest of her friend Marion Wardrop in Ord.

—P. J. Melia was in Ord on business last week end. When he returned to Omaha Mrs. L. J. Auble and Mrs. William Schudel were passengers.

—Mrs. Katie Conard of Grant's Pass, Ore., was a Saturday night guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mottl and Marie, of near Burwell.

—C. D. Wardrop continues to improve slowly at the Veterans' Hospital in Lincoln, says his wife who was down there about a week ago and plans to go to see him again soon. Miss Marion Wardrop did not go back to Kearney to college this semester but has taken a job in the Soil Conservation office in Ord.

—Miss Dolores Redfern went to Des Moines last week, where she passed the physical examinations and was duly sworn in the WAVES. She will continue her work in the PSA office in the basement of the postoffice until she is called, which may be some weeks.

—Dean Barta writes that he has finished basic training and been moved 50 or 60 miles to St. Angelo, Tex. He also reports that Evelyn Sharp had dinner with him and Miss Geraldine Noll one evening recently.

—Bob Gruber telephoned his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Round Sunday evening, having just arrived at Fort Robinson, Arkansas, where he will be stationed for eight or nine weeks.

—Bernard Randolph, a young son of Roy Randolph's, is a victim of measles this week.

—Miss Sophie McBeth thinks perhaps she will be permitted to come home from Omaha next week says her sister, Mrs. Guy LeMaster.

—Truman Gross and family will live in St. Paul hereafter, where he will work as a salesman for the National Farm Loan Association.

—Mr. and Mrs. Hal Pierce and baby daughter are expected this week end from Holdrege to visit their parents, the John Haskell and A. W. Pierce families. Mrs. Hal Pierce may stay a while.

—Mrs. Tamar Carson was sent to Wilmington, N. C. about a week ago, from Des Moines. She is Ord's only representative in the WAAC corps. She writes it is very green and pretty there.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson are parents of a 7 1/2 pound baby girl born at 8:30 Monday evening with Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Norris in attendance. Mother and baby are doing fine under the care of Mrs. Elliott Clement.

—Miss Maude Eastburn stumbled and fell from the front porch a week ago Tuesday, breaking a small bone in one leg. She is therefore housebound at the home of Mrs. Anna Nelson, and not too happy about it.

—Their daughter Ardis telephoned her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Zikmund of Ord Sunday evening to say that her husband, Dean S. Mitchell had passed his examinations as a warrant officer and will be transferred at once from Fort Riley, Kas., where he has been.

—D. A. Moser is slowly recovering from a bad session with the flu. Mrs. Moser also has a bad cold, but takes care of her husband and her daughter, Mrs. Holloway of Burwell. The daughter is convalescing after an operation at the Clinic hospital performed by Dr. Weekes about two weeks ago.

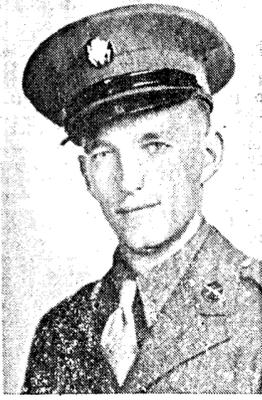

—Technical Sergeant Gerald Hatfield left Tuesday morning after ten days at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hatfield. He returned to the air base at Great Falls, Mont., where he does record work in the hospital, since he is in a medical detachment. He has been in the army 15 months now and is enjoying it and looking fine and fit.

—County Superintendent Clara McClatchey drove home from Lincoln on Thursday where she and Superintendent of Schools C. C. Thompson and School Board Member Dr. F. L. Blessing attended a joint meeting of school superintendents, county superintendents and board members. Mrs. Ben Rose of Burwell and Miss Dolores Redfern accompanied them to Ord.

—Bert Boquet has received word that his daughter-in-law, "Johnnie" Verstrate Boquet, has passed the examinations and is awaiting her call to become an army nurse. Until that time she will continue to work at Marshall, Minn. Her husband, Bert Boquet, jr., is nearly finished with his training at Milford and due to move soon, but has not learned his new location as yet.

—The Mira Valley Mutual Benefit club held its January meeting with Mrs. Edna Collins. The lesson on quick breads was given by Mrs. Walter Hoon and Mrs. Ray Peterson. They demonstrated the making of nut bread and cranberry muffins. There were served with the lunch served by Mrs. Collins and co-hostess Mrs. Ray Peterson. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Reuben Cook, Feb. 10.

In Armed Services

was young Mr. Beranek's conclusion after a moment of thought. Of course there is this trading in of old shaving tubes and toothpaste tubes, both like that. But all the many taxes are paid when the material reaches the drug store.

Perfumes are getting a bit scarce, in fact anything with any alcohol content is undergoing a change of formula. "And tell the ladies to save their lipstick and rouge containers, for there will be no more metal ones." Razors and razor blades are getting more scarce, for the army must be shaved. Perhaps the civilians will have long Civil-war type beards when that army comes marching home!

In at Jim Gilbert's barber shop has the war stopped there? American razors simply do not have as good blades as those made in Germany, said Mr. Gilbert, explaining that in Germany the blades were hand-tempered, while we insist on doing it electrically. Yes, razors are short, even for barbers.

But the barbering business is good in Ord, with more work than ever since one shop closed out.

Soap will be harder to get, this Ord man thinks, as defense centers and camps place such big orders for it, which are filled first. Steam towels and face towels are more difficult to buy and cost more, nearly double. Face towels are now $1.50 per dozen, he quoted.

The neat little stove in the Gilbert shop is not a wartime measure, but has been there other winters. Brushes? No more brushes: "Our lather brushes were made of some kind of seaweed they got near the Solomon Isles. It's out!"

They are trying to make a new type of brush, but so far have not done too well at it.

Has fighting a war done anything to the Ord Gamble store? Shipped out both the young managers, that's all. Virgil Cuckler enlisted 13 months ago and is now at Norfolk, Va., where he was one of the two instructors chosen from 499 students. Virgil is a radioman, first class, teaching Atlantic fleet schools. His wife is with him in the east.

And Harold has been planning to enlist for several months, now he will go in the draft next month, having sold the store to Jay Brown of Broken Bow, an oil station manager. Mrs. Harold Cuckler and baby will go to Broken Bow to be near relatives.

Since there is no hardware the store has branched into other fields for trade. There seems to be plenty of paint, auto parts, grease, and tires have opened up again, with a much better rubber situation than for some time past. Yes, the store will be there, only the two young owners have gone to do a little fighting.

The Bakery isn't as sweet as it used to be. Perhaps you heard the hubbub about sugar rationing. Then you know the frosting isn't as thick on the sweet rolls... but the Bakery has had a number of favorable comments on this fact. Fig Jam, apricot jam, dates, get harder and harder to get.

In the shortage list also are poppy seed, and pecans are short because the harvesters left for defense jobs. There is no caraway seed, a fact which will cause some tears and some howls of joy. All fountain syrups are scarce and getting more so.

The candy case is quite empty. Cigars too are becoming scarce, because the tobacco workers have taken defense plant jobs.

Ice cream is cut down to 65 per cent of its wartime sale. And before long American children won't be digging around on one foot while they try to decide what flavor for soon three flavors will be the array. No doubt they'll be chocolate, strawberry and vanilla!

What will this country do when there's no more vanilla?

Control Cattle Lice.
With butterfat selling at nearly 50c per pound can any farmer afford to feed cattle lice? Nebraska cattle are troubled with two kinds of sucking lice, or blue lice, and one species of biting lice, or red louse. The most common species found on older animals is the short-nosed cattle louse, which is a bluish-gray color and it has a somewhat broader body than the other two species. It is commonly found on the shoulders, the upper portions of the neck, forehead, throat, escutcheon and the base of the tail.

The long-nosed cattle louse, is narrower and a darker gray color. This species is found on calves and young stock but has also been found on more mature animals. This species is found in the same places as the short-nosed cattle louse, and on the withers.

The cattle biting, or red louse, has a red head and a yellowish body. While it is often found quite generally over the body it sometimes collects in groups around the base of the tail or on the withers and neck.

Injury.
All species cause an intense itching and the animals in biting the affected places, or in rubbing them, lose quite a lot of hair and large skin lesions often result. The constant annoyance created by the feeding of the lice and their movements over the skin tend to keep down milk production in dairy cows and reduce the daily gains among feed lot cattle. They also affect the appearance of the hides and the quality of the beef.

Control.
Cattle lice are generally most numerous during the colder parts of the year when it is not advisable to dip the animals and so other methods are usually resorted to. However, dipping in the fall before the weather turns cold will control the lice and prevent later infestations. This is especially true when there are large numbers of the animals to be treated.

Where the herds are small and where the animals are used to being handled, dusts, sprays, or washes may be used to good advantage. Sulfur, known to the trade as "wettable," 325-mesh or finer, is very satisfactory for killing the lice. As a dust it can be applied to the affected parts and rubbed well into the hair, including the tail. If a liberal application is given one treatment is enough to kill the cattle biting lice, the long-nosed cattle lice and many of the short-nosed cattle lice. Since the latter are more resistant two treatments are preferred, about 10 days apart. Usually one pound of this sulfur is enough to treat a 150 pound calf while larger animals may require more in proportion to their size. For small herds this powder can be applied with a hand duster or with a shaker-top can. The latter can be made by using a quart fruit jar with several holes punched in the lid. The main idea is to get the sulfur down on the skin.

Rotenone bearing powders are also very effective in killing the lice and may be applied as a spray, wash or dust. A very good spray, or wash, is made by mixing 1 1/2 ounces of derris or cube (containing 5% rotenone) with a pound of wettable sulfur in 10 gallons of water. The rotenone dust is prepared by mixing the powder so that it contains one part of 5% rotenone powder in 10 parts of wheat flour, talc or wettable sulfur. The latter will probably give better results because of the sulfur present.

The regular cattle grub wash, or dust, (rotenone and wettable sulfur) will kill all the lice it encounters. However, it is a little stronger than is necessary and, for lice, most of the cow's body must be treated.

FSA Offers Loans for Farm Production

Valley county farmers accepted the challenge of increased food production presented to them on Mobilization Day. It is the job of Farm Security to aid any farmer in attaining his part in this increased food production program. Loans are available for the laborer or anyone who has space enough to raise some food. If you cannot get financial help from the bank you are eligible for a loan through Farm Security administration if it is your purpose to contribute to the food production effort.

Mr. Leonard, state director of the Farm Security administration, stated at a recent conference in Grand Island—"Farmers face the challenge of food production. We must produce food because food is so vital for victory. Every extra chicken, every added pint of milk, every extra pound of pork and every acre of garden will remove the pressure on commercial food supply. When I tell you that the armed forces, lend-lease and our allies will take 50 per cent of the total vegetables packed next year, you can see how really important this production job is. We have a record of production and repayments in this region of which we can be proud. I know we will make sure in this region that no soldier in Northern Africa, or Burma, or the Solomons, is going without food because we didn't do our share."

No Recipe . . .
Can Be Better Than The Things That Go Into It

In these days when new Victory recipes are so plentiful, and housewives are constantly trying new dishes, it is wise to remember that no recipe, no matter how good it is, can turn out any better than its separate ingredients are to start with.

When you try a new Victory meat dish, be sure your meat is good to start with. If you try a new fish or seafood recipe, make sure the fish or oysters are strictly fresh and of good quality. Stringy, tasteless, cheese can spoil the best cheese dish.

One way to be sure of your ingredients is to get them from a reliable market. This market has been pleasing housewives for a half century; we think we can please you.

Social and Personal

If we don't call you for news, call us, phone 245. The society editor welcomes all social and personal items.

Mary Beranek Engaged.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed F. Beranek of Ord are announcing the engagement of their daughter Mary to Dale L. Bradley, son of Mrs. Edith Bradley of Lincoln. The marriage will probably take place this spring.

Mary and her pretty smile are known to everyone in Ord, for here she grew up, graduating from Ord high in 1938. Afterward she went to school at Lindenwood and the University of Nebraska. For several months she has been working in the agriculture department offices in the post office building in Lincoln.

Mr. Bradley is a football star, senior student and member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the University of Nebraska, doing advanced R. O. T. C. work. After the end of next semester he will be serving Uncle Sam somewhere, but is deferred until then.

Marquardt Relatives Here.
Sunday at the home of Mrs. Olive Marquardt and Mrs. C. C. Brown, dinner guests and visitors for the day were Mrs. Marquardt's sister, Mrs. C. E. Smith and Mr. Smith of Omaha, who brought Mrs. Marquardt's daughters with them. This included Mrs. Lynn Blakely of Kearney and her husband, and Miss Thelma Marquardt of Loup City. All returned to their homes that evening.

Hartmans Are Hosts.
Mr. and Mrs. Evan Hartman entertained at dinner Saturday evening, guests being Mr. and Mrs. Henry Enger, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fafetta and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walford. Later on, cards were enjoyed.

Jolly Juniors.
The Jolly Juniors met with Mrs. Leighton Conn last Friday afternoon, all twelve members being present to hear a program on personality presented by Mrs. Evan Hartman. Mrs. Darrell Noll is president of this group.

Mrs. Murray Hostess.
So and Sew club met Thursday with Mrs. E. S. Murray at her home, with Madams Ralph Douglas, Henry DeLias, Evan Hartman, Ignatius Kilma, Jr., and William Sack guests.

Sunday Club Meet.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vogelanz were hosts to the Sunday Supper club at their home this week. A guest was Mrs. Vogelanz' nephew, Lt. Stanley Smazal, who is enroute to Camp Hale, Colo., where he will be the doctor attached to a ski troop. He left his practice at Davenport, Ia., a few days ago, and stopped at Wahoo, Neb., to visit his grandparents before coming here.

Radio Bridge Party.
Wednesday evening the C. J. Mortensen home was the scene of the customary winner-loser party held by Radio Bridge members after each family has entertained the club. Winners included Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Barata, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vogelanz, Mrs. Albert Jones, Crawford Mortensen, Ed Holub and Olof Olsson.

Modern Priscilla Meeting.
Mrs. Christina Veleba was the hostess last Thursday to Modern Priscilla members, when pinochle was the afternoon social feature. Mrs. Lloyd Wilson made high score, Mrs. Nell Peterson low score, after which Mrs. Veleba served a nice lunch.

We have just received a shipment of furniture. Not as large a shipment as we would like, but we are glad to get even a smaller shipment, as furniture and floor covering is hard to get, yet there is one thing that will please you as well as us and that is that it is not higher in price.

Our shipment included breakfast room sets, dining room sets, bedroom sets, high chairs, baby beds and mattresses, kitchen cabinets and some very good mattresses, and many other items of furniture.

We also received a shipment of floor covering which we were much pleased to get. You will find a good assortment to select from. We have a good assortment of both felt base and inlaid in stock.

If you are interested in any kind of home furnishings, it will pay you to see us. If you want a bill of furniture, it will pay you to let us figure it for you.

Sprague Kincade Hostesses.
Business and Professional Women's club met Tuesday evening at Thorne's Cafe, Madams Grace Sprague and Clara Kincade the hostesses in charge. A book review by Mrs. J. A. Kovanda was postponed so that members could attend the junior class play. A check for $1 from the 40 and 8 group was received for the free milk fund. New members of the club this year, as shown by the newly received year books include Mrs. Mabel Colver, Mrs. Grace Sprague, Mrs. Carol Mortensen, Misses Sylvia Iwanski, Geraldine Noll, Gertrude Patrick, Viola Puncocar, Mary Frances Manchester, June Slover, and Miss Wilma Cochrane, who renewed her membership with the group after an absence. The club is acting as a sponsoring organization for a Burwell group which is eager to form a similar club in the near future.

P. E. O. Meets.
Mrs. L. D. Milliken was hostess Monday evening to P. E. O. ladies, when "social night" was held. Mrs. Alfred Hill was in charge of the music, asking Lois Severns and Marilyn Ollis to play piano selections. Mrs. James Ollis was director of some stunts with a military theme, furnishing fun for all. Mrs. Ralph Douglas in an old-fashioned gown played music of olden days on a phonograph carrying the music on the old style cylinders-records.

Alice Ollis Married.
On Thursday, Jan. 14 at the home of her sister, Mrs. Joe Yenter, of Seattle, occurred the marriage of Miss Alice M. Ollis to Carl Carlson, of Cordova, Alaska. They are spending a month in California and plan to return to Alaska as soon as travel conditions permit.

Klupal-Pesek.
Tuesday morning at his office in the court house Judge John L. Andersen united in marriage Miss Helen Klupal, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Klupal, of Gargent, to Louis E. Pesek, of Comstock. The newlyweds will make their home on a farm in the Comstock neighborhood.

Golka-Dlugosh.
The wedding of Miss Dorothy Golka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Golka, of Ord, to Joseph Dlugosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dlugosh, took place at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church at 9:30 a. m. on Jan. 18, the single ring ceremony being performed by Rev. Thomas Siodowski.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white slipper satin made with a long waist line and full skirt ending in a train. The bodice was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves, coming to a point over the hand. Her long veil fell from a coronet of lace and pearls and she carried a bouquet of pink and yellow roses.

Bridesmaids were Dorothy Penas, dressed in a pink net formal, and Pauline Wegryzn, who wore a pale blue silk organdy. Both wore corsages of roses in their hair. Attendants of the groom were Leon Golka and Adrian Golka.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the Frank Golka home for close relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Dlugosh will leave for Bremerton, Wash., where they plan to make their home.

Reunion at Krahulik's.
Sunday for the first time in 18 years the family of Mrs. Frank Krahulik were assembled and enjoyed dinner and the day together. Included were Leo from Montana, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Heacock and daughter, of Omaha, Mrs. Anna Parkos and son Elmer, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Krahulik, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mottl and Roger, Mrs. Carl Bouda and Mrs. Ign. Kilma, Jr.

Dr. Norris' Guests.
On Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Henry Norris entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Guy Jensen and Monte of Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beranek of Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burrows of Ord.

Birthday Party.
Friday Miss Sharon Mae Hansen entertained seven of her schoolmates for her seventh birthday. Games were played and refreshments served by Mrs. Hansen at the close of the party.

Another birthday party held Thursday was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wells, where Vernon entertained several of his classmates and members of the Cub group to which he belongs.

Pinochle Club Meets.
Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Jablonski of Elyria her pinochle club met, with Mrs. Joe Dworak making high score, Mrs. Will Zikmund the low and Mrs. Guy LeMaster travelling prize. Miss Edna Wertz substituted for Mrs. James Pelska. In two weeks this club will be the guest of Mrs. Will Misko.

Woman's Club.
Tuesday afternoon Mrs. H. Elliott McClure was hostess to the Woman's club, and a very fine program was presented on the topic "The Naturalist Speaks," by Mr. McClure. He declared his subject should properly be titled "Biological Hints and Misses", and exhibited many specimens to illustrate his remarks. Mrs. J. J. Brew was voted a member. Mrs. Evan Hartman was also elected to membership this season, and accepted the invitation. In two weeks the club will meet with Mrs. Edward Kokes, when Mrs. Mrs. Sylvester Furtak will take charge of the program.

Ord Officials to School Conference

Superintendent C. C. Thompson, County Superintendent Clara McClatchey and Dr. F. L. Blessing, president of the board of education of the Ord schools, attended a conference of similar officials in Lincoln last week, returning home Thursday.

At the convention sessions it was decided to recommend uniform teacher-school contracts, to be used throughout the state. This likely would eliminate such personal regulations for teachers as non-dancing clauses, stated Superintendent Thompson. Penally clauses of all types would probably vanish from this type of contract, and terms for release of teachers become uniform throughout the state.

Steps to discourage teachers from relocating during a school term were considered and such a bill will be written for the unicameral. It will be provision for revoking for one year the license of a teacher who "breaks her contract," and changes schools during the teaching season. Also, school boards will be forbidden to hire away teachers from other schools.

Attorney Ralph Norman has written to Attorney General Johnson for an opinion in connection with the case of an Ord teacher who left Ord and disregarded her contract with the school board a few weeks ago, but has not had an answer from Mr. Johnson. This is the sort of case that will be avoided if the unicameral legislature takes the action suggested by the educators at last week's session.

Emergency Loans Now Available

J. O. Walker field supervisor for the emergency crop and feed loan office announced today that "Food for Freedom" loans are now available.

The loans furnish credit to farmers to pay expenses and purchase supplies needed to plant produce and harvest special war goal crops victory home gardens, regular cash crops, feed and soil conservation crops and purchase or produce feed to increase the production of vitally needed dairy products, beef and pork.

The loan funds can be used to purchase seed, feed, tractor fuel and oil, machinery repairs, fertilizer and other supplies.

Mr. Walker states that a first lien on the crop produced or livestock fed is required as security. Farmers who are unable to arrange for credit from local banks, production credit associations or other local sources on reasonable terms are eligible to apply. The interest rate is four per cent per year and special arrangements have been made to have the loan funds in the farmer's hands within a week or ten days after the application reaches the Regional Office.

To obtain information on where to make application, farmers should get in touch with the County Agent, AAA county committee or Mr. Walker at O'Neill, Nebr.

Comstock News

Written by Mrs. Ray Wait

Robert Leul and Mrs. ph Bartu were co-hostesses of the Women's Service at home of Mrs. Leul Thursday afternoon. The meeting was held at two o'clock with ladies present, despite cold weather. The regular dinner was taken care of and S. Compton had charge of the devotionals. The remainder of the afternoon was spent sewing after which a lunch was served. The next meeting on February 18 will be at the home of Mrs. Vencel Krikac, Jr., with Mrs. Charles Cleveland assisting. The ladies of the Westcott church will serve their monthly dinner at the church Wednesday with a business meeting to follow. On the serving committee for this month are Mrs. Will Dowse, Mrs. Phillip Dowse, Mrs. John Dunbar and Mrs. O. A. Dahlgren. Everyone is welcome. The meeting of the Farmers Union Co-operative Grain and Livestock Association, which was to have been held Wednesday evening, January 20, has been indefinitely postponed because of the cold weather. Notice of the new date will be published. Although the hot lunch started this year under the WPA has been discontinued by that organization, the local school board thought it advisable to continue and the project will be under school management and pay from now on. Mrs. Mary Hokek continues as cook. About 50 pupils are fed each day.

The local high school are practicing on an operetta, "Bits of Blarney", which will be given on the evening of February 10, in the high school auditorium. The Pirates of Comstock high hewed another notch in the victory column Tuesday evening when they out-scored the fast Sargent Bulldogs by the score of 24 to 18. The game was a nip and tuck affair. Comstock went ahead in the early stages of the game and was never headed. The Pirates led 8 to 6 at the end of the first quarter; 16 to 10 at the half way mark and 18 to 12 at the end of the third quarter. The game was closely guarded throughout with both teams making hurried shots. The playing was exceptionally clean, and the officiating was excellent. The points were fairly distributed for Comstock with every player seeing action and getting at least two points. For Sargent, Hoobler with nine points and Chalupa with eight were the big guns. Petet was outstanding on defense. The Comstock town team had an easy time with the Sargent town team, the final score being 30 to 9. Comstock young men who played were C. Wells and Art Chalupsky, forwards; W. Haynes, center; W. Wells and Doyle Bruner at the guard positions. G. Haynes and Rex Mossis also saw action.

The Comstock Pirates motored to Arcadia Friday evening and engaged the Arcadia high school team, coming home with another victory, the final score being 28 to 18. It was a rather rough and tumble game, the floor being exceptionally slick and hard for any of the players to keep their footing. Leroy Wells made 7 points, Jamie Riddle 8 and Richard Stone 6. White of Arcadia was the outstanding player for their team. The town team game was easily won by Comstock by the score of 40 to 18. Kert Wells made 10 points for Comstock, W. Wells

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cienny, Mrs. Ernie Matheson and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. Bernard Hoyt and son Kenneth drove to Broken Bow on business Tuesday afternoon. W. F. Abbott of Sargent came to Comstock Tuesday and did some repair work on the Bert Ayres and Farmers and Merchants Bank oil burners. E. J. Crawford took him back to Sargent Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Anton Tvrdik and daughter, Elinor, went to Ord Thursday to attend funeral services for Frank Stara held there that afternoon. Mr. Stara was an uncle of Mr. Tvrdik. George Cleveland became ill in the night Tuesday and Wednesday a doctor from Broken Bow was called and he thought it advisable to remove Mr. Cleveland to the hospital. We understand he is resting easier. Charles Bartholomew rode one of his saddle horses down one fine day last week and visited a few days with the Ed Roths and with Mrs. Durham and Art. The last of the week he rode out to visit his daughter, Mrs. Anton Tvrdik, Mr. Tvrdik and family. He stayed there until Tuesday afternoon when he started for home. Mr. Bartholomew is well on in the seventies and that was quite a trip for a man his age. Will Dowse and son, Kermit, went to Sargent Thursday afternoon to attend the sale. Mr. and Mrs. Archie Cienny, Mrs. Hoyt and son Kenneth drove to Ord and Elyria Thursday morning where they attended to business and visited with relatives. Mr. Cienny and Kenneth stayed in Elyria at the home of Mr. Cienny's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cienny for the remainder of the week. William Reckling and Charles Cleveland drove to Broken Bow Thursday and Mr. Cleveland visited with his brother, George, at the hospital there. Dick Stone and August Bartu attended the sale at Sargent on Thursday. Ernie John drove up from Hastings Sunday night and spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dave John. He returned to work Friday morning. Mrs. John and Weir remained in Hastings. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moravec took their small son, Ernie to Sargent Tuesday and had a tooth pulled. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pliva accompanied them. M. F. Henderson drove to Broken Bow last Wednesday to get car repairs and attend to other business. Edwin Stone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone, is now in California at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stone and Joan. They live near Freeport, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Stone and another son, Jay, are now living at Crawford, Nebr. Mrs. Percy Speer will be hostess to the members of the Latter Day Saint Aid this Wednesday, Jan. 27. Miss Florence Setlek was taken to Ord last Tuesday where she was operated on for appendicitis. She is getting along fine and expects to be home the last of the week. The Douglas Grove Cemetery meeting that was to have been held last Tuesday evening has been indefinitely postponed. Manford Oxford of Westerville came Tuesday and called at the L. F. Oxford home. Mr. and Mrs. Max Stewart are the parents of a baby boy born last Tuesday, January 19. Mrs. Stewart was the former Miss Velma Waggoner. She is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Waggoner. Roy Hodgen, who has lived on the Oxford place in the Muddy Creek vicinity was a business caller at the L. F. Oxford home last Wednesday. He is having a sale and moving from that place this spring. The Rebekah lodge will hold their installation this Thursday evening at the lodge rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Caddy and son, Ronald, of Ravenna, drove over Sunday and spent the day visiting with their daughter and sister, Miss Wanda Caddy, who is staying with her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Oxford this winter and going to school. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller and two children of Walnut, were callers in Comstock Thursday. Mrs. Miller and children stayed here and visited with Mrs. L. F. Oxford while Mr. Miller went on over to Ord to attend a meeting of the DeKalb corn growers. Mrs. Nancy Wait is staying at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wait during the cold weather. Dr. McDaniels was called to Comstock Monday to see Mrs. Dunham who is not feeling so well. Mrs. Maudie Smith entertained for her son, Donald, who celebrated his birthday Monday. Mrs. Smith had a lovely seven o'clock dinner and besides the immediate family the Misses Louise and Dorothy Drake were present. Friends have heard recently from Walter Carpenter, a former Comstock boy, and he is now in Berkeley, Calif., and working in a bakery and likes his work fine. He has been there at the same work for a year now. He said he intended to enlist in the navy in the near future. His mother still lives at Muscatine, Ia. Rev. and Mrs. Dale, Evangelists at the Assembly of God church, are going to continue their revival meetings for one more week and are inviting everyone to come out and listen to the special music and songs.

FARMER LOSES 3 WAYS FROM UNCLEAN SEPARATOR

Separating cream by any other method than with a centrifugal separator results in the loss of from 10 to 20 per cent of the butterfat, the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture has found. This, together with the prospect of new separators to get, makes it imperative every farmer fortunate enough to own one to do everything possible to prolong its usefulness. An effective way to do this is to keep clean. Milk, habitually left in a separator, has a damaging effect on the surface of the several parts. So treat separator is sure to "act up" very long. Curd particles or tend to clog the bowl, making skimming impossible. A bad bowl causes an excess of milk to be forced through the opening, which results in a testing cream. The same film left on the separator serves as a breeding place for mold bacteria which contaminate the succeeding batches of milk and cream, lowering their quality and depriving the farmer of the higher price the best grade of cream usually brings. There is always the chance, too, that if enough mold and bacteria find their way into the cream, the whole batch will be rejected as unfit and the farmer will realize not a dime for his time and work. Good care means thorough washing and actual scalding after each use of all parts of the separator that come in contact with the milk or cream. The parts should also be rinsed again just before using—to remove any dust or dirt that may have collected on them since they were washed. Many farmers find it profitable to check on the efficiency of the separator once a month by a test of the skim milk. If the skim milk contains an excess of two hundredths of one per cent butterfat, the care of the separator has not been all it should be.

36 dairy heifers, consisting of 22 Guernsey springing heifers that will make real milk cows, 5 roan springing heifers, the balance lighter Jersey and Guernsey heifers. These heifers are from a real good dairy country, the Boise Idaho Valley. They will prove a real buy for the man who comes and buys them. There will be about 50 head of local trucked in cattle, consisting of bulls, cows, steers, heifers and calves.

Bring in your fat hogs. I know the price will please you. The more fat hogs we can get the better the price will be. We can sell any type of hog as high as anyone, bring your hogs in. Spring is getting near and I have had some inquiry for horses. While horses are not high the farmers that want them will give what they are worth. If you have some to sell bring them in, we have buyers for all kinds. If you want to buy or sell, be with us every Friday. All consignments bonded for your protection. Under state supervision. Government inspected (scales and health)
