Selective Service May Still Call Men in 26-37 Age Group

But Younger Men Wanted by Armed Services; Big Group Going in June.

Leaving to enter the navy soon are Ronald Rose, John Edwin Christ of Arcadia, and James E. Stewart who transferred to Omaha. All three of them passed their pre-induction physical tests last month, reports Christina Petersen, clerk of the local draft board.

The following will report for pre-induction physical tests in June: Joseph Dayle Marr, transferred from Salem, Ore.; Vernice Leroy Wallin, transferred from Cambridge, Ill.; Robert D. Harding, transferred from Los Angeles, Calif.; and Robert L. Poulter, transferred from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Also included in this group are Joseph J. Lee of Arcadia, Edward Hlavinka of Grand Island, Richard Masin of Ord, Alfons W. Wehnlak of Hastings, Warren W. Philbrick of Ord, Florian A. Krason of Ord, Ted Ray Walahoski of Elyria.

And Ralph J. Zulkoski of New York City, Ray L. Vanslyke of Ord, Edwin L. Vavra of Ord; Loyal L. Hurlbert of Ord; Bernard Augustyn of Ord; Wilbur O. White of Arcadia; Frank T. Gaika of Ord.

Selective service officials point out that the most immediate need is for physically fit men in the younger age groups, who seem capable of the highest degree of efficiency under combat. The prospect for registrants ages 18 through 25 is military service unless they meet the conditions for deferment.

However if necessary to complete calls, draft boards have been authorized to call men 26 through 37 years from registrants who (a) volunteer, (b) delinquents, (c) those leaving agriculture without permission from the local board and (d) those who do not qualify for occupational deferment under present regulations.

Regulations for the younger age group are rigid and must be strictly adhered to, but have been relaxed as to eligibility for deferment in the 30 through 37 age group. It is necessary for employers to request deferment for these older registrants before it can be granted. Registrants 38 through 44 are not currently acceptable for induction by the armed forces, but must report to the board immediately any change of address or work.

Mason Funeral Held May 26th

Funeral services were held at the Frazier chapel Friday, for Herbert Edwin Mason, 73, who died very suddenly of a heart attack at his home in Ord last Wednesday. Rev. M. M. Long officiated and the American Legion had charge of services at the grave.

Born at Creston, Ill., on Nov. 27, 1870, Herbert Mason moved with his family to York county at the age of 9 and two years later came with them to Valley county which remained his home until death except for nine years when he lived in Iowa. In 1905 he was united in marriage to Bertha Cole of Cresco, Ia., and to them two children were born. His wife preceded him in death five years ago.

Mr. Mason was a veteran of the Spanish - American war, serving with Company B of the 2nd Nebraska regiment.

He had been in poor health for a long time, suffering from heart trouble and asthma, and for several months before his death had been confined to his home. For many years Mr. Mason, known to everybody as "Herb," was a daily visitor to the business section of the city and he missed these visits during the closing months of his life.

He is mourned by one son, Edwin E. Mason and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Watson, and six grandchildren, all of Ord; also a sister, Mrs. Lottie Craig, of Clark; and four brothers, Leslie, of Burwell; John, Lawrence and Seth, of Ord.

Pallbearers at the funeral were Bert LeMasters, E. C. James, R. C. Greenfield, Roger Benson, A. C. Bartunek and Tracy Hamilton.

Syl Furtak has been working for Western Electric company in Lincoln and returned home for the week end. He does not like his work, finds living conditions in Lincoln difficult, and after another week plans to return to Ord and permanently resume his painting and sign work.

Ord Girl Celebrates Birthday With Marines

Valley county friends will recognize Sergeant Lillian A. Kusek in the picture above, a daughter of Mrs. Frank Horn; beside her are Pvt. Mana Mae Jones, of Los Angeles, and Cpl. Miriam Wiener of Brooklyn, N. Y.

The three smiling young Women Reserves of the Marine Corps air depot at Miramar, Calif., were assigned to duty as stenographers at the depot headquarters office. They discovered their birthdays fell on the same date, and the occasion simply had to be celebrated with cakes and cokes.

All three of them received their basic training at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Lillian Kusek graduated from the Ord high school and then spent several years as private secretary in a prominent legal firm in California before enlisting as a lady marine in May, 1943.

Lt. Dunn Gives Memorial Day Address in Ord

Perfect Weather, Big Crowd, Make Annual Ceremony at Cemetery Successful.

Impressively beautiful were the Memorial Day ceremonies at the Ord cemetery on Tuesday morning, when many people and dozens of cars were collected under a brilliant blue sky and enjoyed real Valley county sunshine for the occasion.

Lt. Dunn of the Lincoln air base was the chaplain giving the address of the day. In a fine wartime speech he called on his hearers to continue toward the high ideals cherished in America. This is a young country and a strong one, said he, and the best is yet to be.

"Let us live up to the ideals we were taught as children," he urged. "We stand on holy ground, a suitable spot for our firm resolution that everyone shall enjoy freedom of speech, of person and of opportunity. The oppressed peoples of other lands have their only opportunity in the American way of life," he pointed out.

"And let us all be on the job in the little everyday ways; let's finish this war. Let's buy bonds, let us write often to our service men, let us do the little everyday things to help," he concluded his appealing patriotic talk.

Rev. L. E. Wilkins made the prayer of invocation to open the meeting, and the city band played a selection. Ladies of the G. A. R., had prepared a particularly splendid tribute, which was read by Ign. Kilma, Jr. E. L. Vogelanz introduced Lieut. Dunn, chief speaker, after which Mrs. Mark Tolen appropriately sang "America the Beautiful."

Following the salute to the dead, the band played "Star Spangled Banner," and the faint notes of taps were heard.

—Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Cromwell of Kimball came Sunday to visit at the home of their nephew, James Ollis and family.

American Legion to Canvass Towns in 5th Loan Drive

Weckbach, Thompson Will Meet with Legion Heads to Plan Campaign.

Clark Weckbach and C. C. Thompson, who have general supervision of Valley county bond sales in the 5th War Loan drive which starts Monday, June 12, meet with officials of the local American Legion posts Wednesday night of this week to plan their selling campaign.

The Legion, as part of its national policy, will assist to the utmost in the 5th War Loan.

It is planned to set up tight organizations of solicitors in Ord, North Loup and Arcadia, composed in each instance of Legionnaires, and do systematic house-to-house and store-to-store canvassing in each town. Each town will be divided into sections, the sections into districts, and the districts into blocks, with individuals given responsibility for each unit.

"We have a terrific quota to meet this summer," Weckbach said Monday, referring to the $354,800 quota assigned to Valley county. "It simply cannot be met with $18.75 bond purchases. With a county population of only about 7,000 this quota is going to require that an average of $50 in bonds be bought by every man, woman and child, or about $200 per family."

"Since some families won't be able to buy $200 worth of bonds it simply means that those who can buy $500, $1000, $2,000 or more must do it, or we won't be able to meet our quota."

The solicitors are going to be instructed that they must not take "no" or "maybe" for an answer from anybody, but must get a pledge, a purchase, or tangible proof that a purchase will be made during the drive from every individual in the county.

R. Clare Clement has charge of rural bond sales again and is lining up a corps of rural solicitors. Since people are very busy at this time of year and few have time to spend more than a day or two in bond selling, it is urged that farmers buy their bonds right at the start of the campaign. Banks will notify Clement when such purchases are made. Clement in turn will notify solicitors for that district who will be saved many unnecessary trips and much time. Rural districts are counted on for at least half of the $354,000 county quota.

By next week it is planned that the Legion organization for the towns will be complete, as well as Clement's rural organization, so the names of all solicitors may be published.

Teachers examinations will be given in the office of the county superintendent at the courthouse on June 3, in place of the high school. 10-1tc Clara McClatchey.

NOTICE. Teachers examinations will be given in the office of the county superintendent at the courthouse on June 3, in place of the high school. 10-1tc Clara McClatchey.

Our Fighting Men. Mr. and Mrs. George Allen have been informed that their son George has begun moving from the New Hebrides Islands to some unknown point. He was in hopes he could manage to get to Hawaii to see Gerald Keim, but now probably won't make it. Warren Allen is now stationed at Van Nuys, Calif., and is in hopes he can meet Corky Biemond and Dean Misko on some three day furlough soon, as they are stationed nearby.

Pfc. James Rybin came home last week after spending 30 months in Alaska and the Aleutians as a member of an anti-aircraft battery and will spend 2 weeks of a 20-day furlough here, the balance with friends in California, where he lived for several years before entering service in 1941. He saw service at Kiska, Attu, Dutch Harbor and other places in the Aleutians. Today Pfc. Rybin left for Kansas City to spend a few hours with his brother, Sgt. Eldon Rybin, who was to come from Camp Polk, La., and meet him there. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Rybin entertained 25 relatives at a picnic dinner in honor of Pfc. Rybin.

Don Dahlin, sailor, was home from Neah Bay, Wash., this week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dahlin.

H. Elliot McClure is undergoing boot training at Great Lakes naval training station, near Elgin, Ill. He has been made an apprentice chief petty officer and has 140 men to take care of at present.

—Rev. Thomas Siudowski was called to Chicago by the death of a sister there on Friday. He will be gone another ten days. Father Hegge of Hastings comes to Ord on Sundays to take charge in the absence of the regular Catholic priest.

Average Family Has 46.5 Pounds of Waste Paper Urgently Needed by U. S.

Households in this country now have 850,093 tons of salvageable waste paper on hand and available for collection, according to a report made public this week by the U. S. department of commerce, and this paper is urgently needed to help in winning the war.

For the average family this represents 46.5 pounds of waste paper of all grades that can be turned over to collection agencies.

If the national averages hold true in Valley county, and local salvage officials are convinced they do, there must be almost 50 tons of waste paper in the households of this county available immediately as salvage.

R. Clare Clement, in charge of salvage efforts, says another carload of paper will be shipped from Ord in the near future and he urges people to bring in their paper immediately. Collection depots for paper have been established in every town, he says, and paper may be taken directly to these depots. In Ord salvaged paper is being stored in the barn on the E. L. Kokes property.

It might be interesting to note the amounts of different types of paper that U. S. officials say are in the homes. They include 310,190 tons of newspaper, 390,415 tons of magazines, 89,024 tons of brown kraft, and 59,864 tons of all other types of waste paper.

Don't burn your paper or throw it away; pack it in boxes and when a box-full accumulates haul or have it hauled to the paper collection depot in your town, officials urge. Two million tons of waste paper must be salvaged quarterly during the rest of 1945 to supplement tonnage of pulp in sight from original sources, it is claimed.

Moisture Total in May Is 6.42 Inches

Closing Days Brought 1.14 More Rain; 50 to 65% of Corn Planted, Is Estimate.

Total rainfall here in May was 6.42 inches, according to final figures prepared by Horace W. Travis at noon Wednesday and unless more rain falls before midnight tonight this figure will go into the record books, making May of 1944 the wettest May in more than twenty years.

Since last week's report was given rains have fallen on the 25th, 28th, 30th and 31st for a total of 1.14 inches, which brings the year's moisture total to 15.93 inches.

Although only 35 of an inch fell in Ord Tuesday the territory west of town and Mira Valley to the south got a rain of flood proportions and creeks were running over their banks as a result. Late in the afternoon the Davis Creek neighborhood south of North Loup got an extremely heavy rain also.

Farm work is proceeding "between showers" but farm experts estimated Wednesday that 35 to 50 per cent of the Valley county corn remains to be planted. This varies in different localities, of course, with sand flat farmers having most of their corn in and river bottom farmers having only a small portion of their crop planted.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovando

The bee swarming season has arrived. If you see a stray swarm clustered on some tree and don't want them, it would be well to notify someone interested in putting these insects to work. They are especially needed to produce beeswax, which is a critical war material used in coating shells, airplanes, and hundreds of other products. A serious shortage exists.

Bee swarms that escape from apiaries and are not hived, usually find a home in the walls of some house. There they become a nuisance which cannot be removed without tearing off siding.

The demand for package bees is so great that southern producers are sold out a year in advance, and few folks can buy colonies on the market. Apiary supplies are also scarce, due to labor and lumber shortages.

Package bees outproduce common swarms because they are headed by young queens raised from superior stock. Stray swarms are usually led by old work-out queens, and make no surplus honey the first year. However, one swarm which we caught in late July of last summer filled two supers with honey in addition to stocking their ten-frame hive.

By way of comparison, a package of imported Italian leather-back bees which we installed in June, gathered five supers of honey. Our Caucasian colony made two supers of honey, and our three-striped Italians did about as well. The Carniolans and the golden Italians turned out no surplus. These package bees were all purchased about the same time.

For beginners who are afraid of getting stung, we recommend the gray Caucasians. They are almost as gentle as flies, and stand cold weather better than Italians. The golden Italians are not winter hardy.

Much of the honey on sale now is dark colored and carries a strong flavor. Some honey-corn syrup mixes may also be found

Ord Schools Lose Tolly, Will Coach Falls City Teams

Ord Athletic Mentor Signs a Falls City Contract to Succeed 'Jug' Brown.

Roscoe Tolly, instructor in athletics and manual training in Ord high school for the past four years with conspicuous success, announced this week that he has signed a contract to teach at Falls City for the 1944-45 term.

He will be director of athletics there succeeding "Jug" Brown and expects to move his family to Falls City in the near future.

In one respect, going to Falls City will be like returning home to Coach Tolly, for he was reared in southeastern Nebraska and received his education in Peru State Teachers college, only a short distance from Falls City. He also coached high schools of that section before coming to Ord.

When he came to Ord in the fall of 1940 to succeed Helmut F. Brockman it was conceded that Tolly had a big pair of shoes to fill, as Brockman had been outstandingly successful in restoring Ord to central Nebraska athletic supremacy. But Tolly was equal to the task and his record is fully as good as Brockman's and in some respects is better.

In 1940 his football team upset the Loup Valley favorite, Loup City, in the season's closing game, thereby tying for second in the conference. In 1941 his football upset Grand Island 7 to 0 in the opener, went on to win 8 games and remained undefeated, though tied once, winning the conference championship. This team scored 212 points to only 6 for its opponents. In 1942 the Ord boys made 158 points to 19 for all opponents, won six games and were tied three times but were not defeated. In 1943 his football team had its best season, winning 8 games, losing none and not being tied. They scored 180 points to 6 for all opponents and were 3-Valleys champions.

His basketball teams have been no less successful, winning a majority of their games each season and finishing each year as either champions or runners-up in their conference. Coach Tolly is responsible for a revival of interest in track here and this spring his team was Class B champion of the state.

Who will succeed Tolly as coach of Ord athletics is not certain but board of education members are hopeful they can employ a man who can also take over the manual training department. Tolly's assistant, Alex Cochran, admittedly is capable of handling the athletics assignment and may be assigned to the position but if this should be done it would probably be necessary to discontinue the manual training department.

At Falls City Tolly will receive a salary several hundred dollars higher than he was paid here.

Mary Miller Graduates. Miss Mary Miller, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller graduated last Saturday May 27 from the Colorado Woman's college at Denver. There were 113 girls received diplomas. Last year Mary was Big Sister chairman for the school, a member of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, president of the ski club and member of Delta Tau Kappa, honorary society. She received honorable mention for her contribution to various activities of the school. She expects to continue her schooling at the University of Nebraska next fall.

—Don Auble returned home Saturday from Omaha, having failed to meet the navy's physical requirements principally because of his foot, which was injured a long time ago and has never entirely recovered. The next day he entered Clinic hospital and had the foot operated on by Dr. C. W. Weekes in hope that the operation will clear up the trouble so that he may later get into the navy or army. He is now recovering at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Auble.

—Mrs. T. W. Shepherd came Monday evening on the bus from her Genoa home to spend Memorial day with her sister, Mammie Smith, and other relatives. She left that evening.

—Mrs. Lloyd Parks leaves on Wednesday for Loup City where she will visit for a week before going to Portland, Ore., where she will try to find an apartment and a job to suit her. She is the former Roberta Chase. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Parks will not go west for a few weeks, as he is busy remodeling the Charlie Burdick residence.

Inspections of the Quiz engraving and printing plants will take place in the morning. At noon dinner will be served in the Methodist church basement by ladies of that church and the afternoon meeting probably will be held there also.

on the market, but they are labeled as such. The best honeys usually have a white color, and are made from clovers.

Bees are wanted mostly to supplement sugar rationing. But they do far more good by increasing crop production thru pollination of flowers.

Goodrich and Mrs. Harold Hoepfer assistant hostesses. Since the guest of honor is soon to be a farmer's wife, the farm theme had been used in decorations. A miniature farm was on the table and gifts were presented from a small hayrack drawn by three year olds Karen Scott and David Barger dressed as Farmer in the Dell and his wife. About sixty were present and Miss Sims received many beautiful and useful gifts.

On Monday morning a trip to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hutchins at their invitation was much enjoyed. They have eighty-six varieties of irises. They range in color from pure white to deepest purple and wine shades with nearly every color in between. Mrs. Hutchins can tell the name of each one. Many of the roots came from the garden of Ralph Comstock in St. Charles, Ill., and are blooming for the first time. Besides the irises, the Hutchins' have many other varieties of flowers which will make their place beautiful all season. A well kept lawn, a newly painted house, fruit trees berry bushes and a fine garden make a trip to their place worth while.

Service Letters

From Anzli Beach-head.

From the Anzli Beach Head comes a letter from Calvin Ferris to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferris, beginning: "I got four letters from you last night, I was sure glad to read the home news, the mail hasn't been coming in so regular lately. I also got a Reader's Digest for April, and a Quiz.

"I think one gets a lot more out of his training over here after he has seen some action, one then realizes the value of what is being put in his head and will learn accordingly.

"I've gone swimming a couple of times here on the beach but now we can only go when accompanied by an officer and someone who has passed life saving standards.

"I wish I knew how much longer this war was going to last. Personally I am getting tired of it. I feel as though I've aged ten years since I've been here.

"I guess I can tell you now some of the places I've been and some of the things I've done. I first went across northern Africa in a box car, the less said for the journey the better. We ate cold C rations and were crowded 30 to a box car about half the size of those at home and were cooped up traveling for two days and nights. We never knew when we stopped whether it was for two minutes or two hours so could not wander far away. One had to wait off at a stop to relieve himself and get left in the middle of nowhere. As we started out he came a-running but wasn't fast enough.

"After a physical training period that was really rugged including hikes up a mountain usually 10 to 15 miles a day on a steep course and callisthenics for about two weeks we took off for Italy. We got shipped about like cattle until they decided where they needed us most. We first went up to the main Italian front close enough to see the artillery flashes, then came over the invasion here on the beach-head. We immediately returned from there and arrived at the beach on Tuesday morning, the 25th.

The Jerries were just beginning to get stirred up by that time and we were having our raids about every four hours. It was quite a sight and experience to first see the sky filled with tracers and then roaring of motors as a dog fight went on up in the air, then planes bursting into flames and diving to the ground. Night came and we moved into another area, however it was low land and we didn't dig foxholes. That night Jerry dropped clusters of flares which lit up the area like day. Later came boom, boom from three bombs in a row, not more than 75 or 100 yards from me, one about 50.

"I could hear mud and fragments flying all around. I was laying along a stream which offered some protection but it didn't seem enough. We heard someone groaning and I helped carry him to the ambulance, he got it in the leg. It was pitiful the way he groaned with pain. That wasn't the worst of it but it struck me the hardest, I wasn't used to it. I guess I could have laid down and bawled, I was pretty well discouraged. He later had his leg amputated.

"No one had to tell us to dig foxholes, next morning we went at it like moles. We turned in everything we were carrying but one blanket, raincoat and shelter half. Those days were rainy, cold and miserable. We moved then but all we had was cold C rations, we couldn't build a fire for fear Jerry would see the smoke, it was too cold to sleep and guns were blasting away to disturb us continually. We then got sent to the outfit we'd been assigned to, which was a relief.

We heard some bad stories coming from the front, and then came the Ranger's disastous attack, we were well initiated and plenty scared. But things began to calm down and as we advanced we picked up extra blankets to keep warm and other articles left along the roadside which we needed. We got U rations which was a change and had small gas stoves to heat up a good meal. In the dark we established an observation post in a house close to the front.

"The Italians were evacuated and we took up housekeeping, slept in beds and ate off tables, rounded up a milk cow for milk, chickens for eggs; Oh yes, a couple of hogs got left behind to be disposed of. Boy, those pork chops were good.

"The situation then changed more or less to defensive, with patrol clashes and shelling of enemy positions the object. The enemy banged away wherever he could see the most G. I.'s coming and going. We as observers of Jerry's movements, realized what could be seen through scopes and didn't do any moving around during the day and thus didn't receive so many close shells. The houses were almost fortifications, with walls a foot thick. Anything but a direct hit was practically harmless.

"One day the Jerries attacked through the area with tanks blasting our front lines, hitting every house. We got a couple of holes in our house but it only scattered plaster all over and filled the rooms with dust. They infiltrated down a stream in our flank and got in back of us, and our thoughts were pretty black. But the tanks ran out of ammunition or were driven back by the barrages of our artillery and a group of G. I.'s popped up from nowhere and cut off a large group of Jerries for prisoners and drove the rest back where they were.

"As you probably read in the papers they have stopped the large numbers of air attacks and are keeping the Jerries in their places. I couldn't write much more within censorship restrictions. With love, Cal."

A Letter from 'Boot Camp,' Huddy, the son of Harold Parks, now of Denver, writes an informative letter about boot camp days from Farragut, Ida., addressed to his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. George Gard. He lived in Ord as a boy.

"Aunt Breezie, I hear you have not been feeling so well lately, sure hope you get on top again real soon. I don't know what is going on in Ord. When I was home on leave, I read several issues of the Quiz, but there are very few names I recognize there any more.

"On Febr. 12 I boarded the regular troop train for Farragut. Each man had a seat and at night we all had individual berths about 18 inches wide. As mine was on the bottom, right over the wheels, I didn't get a great deal of sleep. We broke down above Casper, Wyo., and lost eight hours there, arrived here about 48 hours after leaving Denver. It was cold and 9:30 and after being barked at for 30 minutes, they finally put us up for the night.

"Next day we had our hair cut, and I mean cut, had clothing costing $132 issued to us, and were sent in a big cattle car to our camp. Boot camp lasted six weeks, the most work I ever expect to do in a like amount of time. Looking back on it I can see it taught us many valuable lessons but at the time it was really tough.

"After the first day or two the company commander picked the petty officers for the company and I was made company yeoman. It later proved to be a thankless and never-ending job but it gave me a little more confidence in myself as there were 140 men that were my responsibility to see that they were in their bunks at bedtime, see that their clothes were issued right, all tests were satisfactorily passed, etc. Anyway the job got done and I got the "honor man" rating for the group.

"Then came leave, it was swell and we finally got to go home. It was one of the best 10 days of my life and I really believe it is good for a family to be separated for a short time every few years to impress upon them just what fine folks they really are. The ten days flew by and I returned over the U. P. route, this time through Wyoming, Boise, a tip of Oregon and into Spokane.

"This is one of the most scenic railroad trips I have ever taken. The Snake river in Idaho is abundant with wild game and as the railroad parallels the river for hundreds of miles it is an ever-present source of new scenery. About 100 miles out of Spokane there is a place that looks like the Grand Canyon, numerous bridges 200 and 300 ft. high, a thrill to keep you on your toes. After four hours in our flank and got in back of us, and our thoughts were pretty black. But the tanks ran out of ammunition or were driven back by the barrages of our artillery and a group of G. I.'s popped up from nowhere and cut off a large group of Jerries for prisoners and drove the rest back where they were.

"After graduating from boot camp, everyone is sent to "outgoing unit", a sort of clearing house for all navy men coming out of boots, some going to schools, some to sea, etc.

"We were sent to new barracks and put in this pool. The first day about half of our company left, every day took its toll of the remaining men. Finally I got a call to report at the brig (navy jail) for assignment to the discipline department. I ended up working for the officer-of-the-deck in the main administration building. On board ship this man works directly under the captain of the ship. Therefore it is a very interesting assignment and we get in on every thing going on at this station. My job is mainly to handle discipline cases; I. e., men who have been absent, over-leave, AWOL and deserters.

"There are four of us acting as yeomen to the officer of the deck, working eight-hour shifts, then off for 24 hours. Last night I worked from midnight till eight this morning. Now I am off until eight tomorrow morning then work until four, the next day from four until midnight, etc.

"The scenery up here is beautiful and Lake Pend D'Oreille is right here also. It has 300 miles of shoreline and is 2,800 to 5,000 feet deep and is a beauty. There are wooded areas all around and we have seen as many as seven deer at a time on our hikes. I go to the lake every day I don't work the eight to four shift.

"Best regards to everyone and please write me a letter giving the news from there. Huddy."

Now Is a Good Time to FILL YOUR LOCKER FOR NEXT WINTER

Right now when most meats can be bought on a no-point basis is a most excellent time to fill your cold storage locker for next winter. While there is a present surplus of meat this condition is bound to change within a few months, in the opinion of most experts, and point-cost of meats may be higher than ever before.

Ask us what meats keep best in frozen storage and we'll be glad to plan with you for your fall and winter needs. The government encourages storage of meats in private lockers, to relieve the demand on public cold storage warehouses.

The 5th War Loan STARTS JUNE 12th

WE'RE hitting our stride in this war. Planes, tanks, guns, supplies . . . and men . . . are flowing in a tremendous stream. But more are needed. The crucial hour is at hand.

That is why Uncle Sam, in the 5th War Loan, is asking us to BUY MORE BONDS THAN EVER BEFORE. We must keep up the pace. We must match the efforts of our men in uniform. They are going at full speed. We can not lag behind. It's time to roll up our sleeves—in fact, to pull off our shirts.

The farmers of America have done a great job of Bond buying up to now. But yesterday's Bonds are today's exploding bombs and shells. Spent bullets can never be used again!

The 5th War Loan is the greatest Drive for Dollars in all history. Our individual quotas are bigger than ever—of grim necessity! So be prepared to buy more than ever before when the Victory Volunteer calls at your house.

Remember, the Victory Volunteer is working for Uncle Sam . . . not himself. He is helping meet an urgent demand for money to finance this war. Don't make him come again. Don't tell him you can't afford more Bonds. Be prepared . . . before he comes . . . to BUY MORE THAN BEFORE!

And Here Are 5 Extra Reasons for Buying More Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds will assure the funds to replace worn-out farm equipment, machinery, and buildings.
4. War Bonds will help win the peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

PERSONAL ITEMS

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

—Boy Scouts have presented $10 to the Valley county Red Cross within the past few days, announce local officials of the organization.

—Mrs. Hattie Baird came on Tuesday from Cambridge, where she has been staying with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Peyton, and family. She is now at the Harvey Parks home but expects to rent an apartment and spend the summer here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Andersen went to Kearney Monday to visit with the Henry Skeltons there. The two men had designs on doing some fishing at Lexington before the Ord people returned home Tuesday evening.

—From Omaha comes word that Eldon Langevin continues to suffer with acute arthritis in one arm and leg at his home. The doctor thinks it may take most of the summer to clear up. Mrs. Langevin is a sister of Mrs. Tolen.

—Mrs. Fern Anthony of Lincoln and Mrs. Floyd Megrue of Tekamah came for Decoration day at the home of their sister and mother, Mrs. C. C. Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Will Stanton came in for dinner with Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Marquard.

—Mrs. M. Coombs is seriously ill with kidney trouble at her home in Cotesfield. Her daughter-in-law Mrs. Archie Coombs told Ord friends when she came for Memorial day here. Mrs. Coombs senior is 83 years old.

—Mr. and Mrs. Axel Jorgensen and family are visiting her people, the Walter Jorgensens at Ord. They leave Wednesday afternoon for their Grand Island home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michalek and son Dick came Tuesday evening from their home at Scottsbluff and will spend a few days visiting relatives and friends in and around Ord and Burwell.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hatfield and son Roland came from their work near Cheyenne, Wyo., and spent the weekend with Ord friends, leaving again Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Misko and James, John and Sandra accompanied by Arvella Suchanek, will leave Friday for Omaha. Mr. Misko will leave from there on Red Cross service, going first to Washington, D. C. for two weeks training.

—Mr. and Mrs. Duane Woods of Cedar Bluffs have been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Woods. He left Sunday for home; she and the two children are going home today. She was formerly Dorothy Romans.

—A doubly satisfactory arrangement was made by the Cox family, new FSA people in Ord, and the Roscoe Tollys, when Mr. Tolly signed a contract to coach at Falls City hereafter. The two families traded houses. . . the Cox family will move into the one the Tollys have been occupying in Ord; and the Tollys will go into the Cox home in Falls City. This saves a great deal of worry all around, with rental property as scarce as it is.

—Mrs. John LaCornu and Diane came from Grand Island Monday evening on the bus to spend 24 hours with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Bradt. Her husband, Lt. Col. LaCornu, is a supply officer stationed in north Africa yet.

—O. P. Bell of Schaller, Ia., came Monday for a few days' visit in Valley county. Several brothers and sisters live hereabouts, and Mrs. James Ollis is a niece. He has been greeting friends in his usual jolly way.

—Norene Hardenbrook and Sgt. James Ryan came from Grand Island Saturday evening to visit at the home of her sister Mrs. Forrest Johnson and Mr. Johnson, returning to Grand Island Tuesday evening.

—Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Miller and Roger returned from Denver Monday morning where they had gone to attend the graduation exercises of Mary Miller. They went by train and had no difficulty getting reservations. While in Denver they visited one evening with Mrs. Hager and the Orville Sowl family. They are all in good health and like Denver very much.

Julia gives 4 tasty ways to use bacon

BACON! What a joy to have plenty of it available! And you know, bacon has many fine uses for lunch and dinner, in addition to time-honored "bacon for breakfast." Here are some suggestions which I hope you'll try: BACON CORNMEAL MUFFINS 1/2 cups enriched 2 tbsps. sugar flour, sifted 2 eggs, well beaten 3/4 cup yellow 1 cup milk cornmeal 1/4 cup melted bacon fat 1 tsp. baking powder 6 slices cooked bacon, chopped Sift and mix all dry ingredients together. Combine beaten eggs, milk and melted bacon fat, add to dry ingredients with chopped cooked bacon, stirring only enough to dampen flour. Fill greased muffin pans two-thirds full and bake in moderately hot oven (425° F.) about 20 minutes. Makes 8 muffins. LIMA BEAN & BACON CASSEROLE 2 cups lima beans 1 cup tomatoes (dry) 1/2 large onion Salt and pepper 6 slices bacon Soak lima beans, then simmer until tender. Season with salt, pepper, add tomatoes and finely chopped onion and place in a 2 qt. casserole. Add strips of bacon over the top and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 30 minutes. Serves 5 to 6. BACON-CORN PUDDING 4 strips bacon 1 tbsp. sugar 3 tbsps. bacon fat 1 1/2 cups milk 3 tbsps. enriched 2 cups whole flour kernel corn 1 tsp. salt 2 eggs, beaten 1/2 tsp. white pepper Fry bacon crisp, and crumble. Stir flour, salt, white pepper and sugar into bacon fat. Add milk slowly, cooking over low heat until mixture thickens and boils. Stir in corn, beaten eggs and crumbled bacon. Fill 6 greased baking cups, set in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 45 minutes. Serves 6. CAULIFLOWER WITH BACON SAUCE 1 lb. bacon Seasoning 2 cups white sauce 1 head cauliflower Broil or fry 7 slices of bacon until crisp. Cut in tiny pieces; add to white sauce (combine 1/4 cup enriched flour and 1/4 cup bacon fat, and add 2 cups milk). Season with salt and pepper and pour over whole cooked head of cauliflower on chop plate. Serve garnished with the additional slices of crisp bacon. Serves 6. 4-H CLUB NEWS

The Busy Bakers held their third meeting at the home of Mrs. Ben Mason on May 18, 1944 at 2:00 p. m. The president Norma Owens presided.

The demonstration team, Virginia Mason and Elinor Wibbels demonstrated how to make egg nog and white sauce. Later we had eggnog to drink and white sauce on toast for lunch. They were very good.

Mrs. Hagood, our leader is moving to Cheyenne, Wyo., the first of June and our assistant leader, Mrs. Mason is having to do bookkeeping for the Ford garage, so we will have to find a new leader.

Mrs. Hagood received our pins and song books earlier in the week so they were distributed.

Our next meeting will be held June 1st, at the home of Mrs. Ray McClary. The demonstration team will be Norma Owens and Arlene McClary.—News Reporter, Beth Finecy.

The Speedy Stitches had their first real meeting May 17, 1944 at the Ben Mason home. Our leader Mrs. Ray McClary was absent so our assistant leader, Mrs. Wibbels helped us with the lesson. We went over all lesson No. 1. It was on colors, characteristics and choosing your type.

We will have our next meeting May 24, 1944 at the Lowell Finecy home.

Rae Jean Bossen and Elizabeth Nygren are giving a demonstration on basting, hemming, stitches and french seams. Roll call will be "My favorite colors."—News Reporter, Elinor Wibbels.

The Busy Farmerettes 4H club was held at the home of Ila Fay Jobst, May 22, 1944. We had our demonstrations on cooking and home making. The cookies were judged by Betty Ann Spurling and Jeanette Kokes. They were very good. The demonstration on dry measure was given by Jeanette Kokes and was fine. Those that were absent are as follows: assistant leader Lorraine Spurling and secretary Dorothy Hokek.

The next meeting will be at the home of Jeanette Kokes, June 5th at 2 p. m. Dorothy Ann Hokek and Helen Ann John will bring cookies to be judged and Jeanette will make a chocolate cream pudding.—News reporter, Betty Ann Spurling.

The Jolly Young Maids held their second meeting at the Methodist church, May 24, 1944. Our leader, Mrs. L. E. Walford, gave us books and other new material.

A demonstration on "How to know color" was given by Maxine Wegrzyn and Sharlene Whiting. It was very interesting and helpful.

Kathryn Krlwald and Beverly Whiting were appointed for the yearbook committee. We also elected Beverly Whiting song leader.

At the end of the meeting Lois Severns played God Bless America and everyone sang.

Our next meeting will be held at the Methodist church. Betty Dunbar and Lois Severns will demonstrate the right clothes for you to wear. We will also start sewing our first garment.—News Reporter, Lois Severns.

The Hilltop Victory club has started an active club year, with two recent meetings. At the first meeting the following officers were elected: leader, Mrs. Floyd Chatfield; president, Agnes Urbanovskiy; secretary, Louise Ruzowski; treasurer, Everett Ruzowski; news reporter, Agnes Urbanovskiy; cheer leader, Emil Jella. The second meeting was held last Sunday at the home of Mrs. Chatfield where the members discussed the lesson and enjoyed lunch. The next meeting will be held on Sunday, June 4 at the home of Agnes Urbanovskiy.—Agnes Urbanovskiy, news reporter.

The Live Wires 4H club meeting was Tuesday, May 16, at the home of Beverly Goodrich. Miss Maxine Copeland was leader. There were seven members present. Pictures for the girls room were judged and Beverly Goodrich was placed first.

The next meeting will not be held May 30 being Memorial day. It will be May 31st at Jackie Burrows'. Members will meet at the home of Maxine Copeland at 1:15 p. m. to hike to the meeting.

A demonstration on how to mix muffins will be given by Jackie Burrows and Barbara Stevens.—Bonnie Babcock, news reporter.

The organization meeting of the Enterprise Lassies was held at the Valleyside school house May 18 at 2:00 p. m.

Mrs. Inez Burrows helped in the organization of our club. Mrs. Russell Hayden accepted the position of leader for the coming season.

Election of officers was as follows: president, Lorene Peterson, vice president, Marilyn Cook, secretary, Carolyn Foth; program manager, Ruth Bredthauer, song and cheer leader, Maxine Fuss.

We decided on taking "Summer wardrobe" for our project. The next meeting will be held June 2 at the home of Lorene Peterson.—Joyce Foth, news reporter.

My Own Column By H. D. Leggett

If Gov. Dewey of New York is nominated for president by the republicans, and it begins to look like he would be, it will be due to thoughtless frenzy rather than to thoughtful study of the candidates. But that is frequently the way the American people do things.

A common, everyday wood butcher used to be called a carpenter but now any pluggingly who palms himself off on the government as a carpenter is known as a "craftsman," though he may not know a saw from a bullroag.

Democrat key-noters charge the republicans with trying to make political capital out of the war and republican key-noters make the same charge against the democrats. Both are right of course.

Congress so often makes grandstand plays for the benefit of the dupes back home who vote for the congressman. Take as an instance the war information department headed by Elmer Davis. This department asked for huge sums but congress balked and for weeks the papers were filled with propaganda to the effect that the appropriation asked for would not be allowed and Davis talked of resigning.

There are an awful lot of people who never heard how Walter Chrysler made his huge fortune.

This is the season for greens and there is no dish that suits me better than a nice mess of common pig weeds properly cooked with pickled pork. And there are a good many other things that make good greens, spinach, in my estimation, being one of the poorest of the lot.

Some twenty million dollars worth of excess war material is being sold by the government each month and most of it is being sold at ridiculously low prices to Jews who are making great fortunes from the resale of it.

The Roosevelt seizing of Montgomery Ward in Chicago was probably the prize blunder of this administration. I heard an ardent new dealer defending it and he said, why not submit it to the supreme court, that would determine who was right. Sure, for Roosevelt packed the supreme court and can no doubt depend on that court to back him. If not then they are an ungrateful lot of pickers.

Personally I believe I would rather see the democrats win this year than to see the republicans elect a president with a divided congress, as would certainly be the case. At the end of the other war we were something like 47 billion dollars in debt. At the end of this war it is estimated that we will be 390 billion dollars in debt and this country is going to be in a heck of a mess. The democrats have been in charge and have built up the huge debt by such a spending spree as the world has never seen before and I believe they should be continued in power until the war is over and be allowed to see what they can do to untangle the mess. The public is not going to be pleased with the handling of the postwar situation no matter who is in power. Many of the wise men of the nation believe that the war could have been handled just as effectively, perhaps more so, with half the cost and later when the people realize just the shape we are in they are going to retire those responsible and keep them retired for a long time.

They keep fighting— You keep buying WAR BONDS

Something Different

Double-barreled irony: Olof Olsson ran a nail in one foot last week. It swelled a good deal and he was quite miserable and had to have an anti-tetanus shot, etc.

Only to hobble out of bed and stand squarely on another foot, running it well into the other foot. The air turned blue in hunks, and Ole had an awful time trying to decide which foot to favor as he limped.

Mrs. C. E. McGrew says the present recreation center, "The Roost" isn't Ord's first by any means, as she tried to start one many years ago when her boys were small.

Now if you really want to know about the battle of the ages, it's this: who gets her washing hung out first on Monday morning?

All joking aside, I've heard of Ord women who do their washing Sunday evening so as to hang it out at some such time as 4 a. m. on Mondays.

Then there was the Ord housewife who used to speed to hang out her first white sheet, to show the neighbors what was what.

Leaving this domestic banner waving victoriously in the wind, this proud blonde would go in to the house and get all beautified in a starched dress, painted her face, curl her hair, and then return in this glorified condition to hang out her washing!

Decoratlon day brings to notice once more the attractiveness of the Ord cemetery, as pretty and peaceful a resting place as there is in the United States.

And often have I thought before my hand blisters from digging them out of course... how bright and glittery are the dandelions. If we had to plant a seed and water it and worry about it to get one of those golden blossoms, we'd consider them another noble creation among flowers.

"And Mama, let's put these raisins in the scrap pile," the youngster announced, "cause you told me they were full of iron, didn't you?" —Irma

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

To the Editor of the Quiz: Mr. Ira Myers, your story in last week's week Quiz may be the truth, but why a man in such favored circumstances, in these perilous times should take that attitude, for failure to receive a large profit for last year's activities will be hard for some folks to understand.

It takes a big hat to cover a big head but a small hat could cover a lot of brains. I'm reminded of the man that said after a hard, severe winter he never wanted to see another winter like that and he did not, he died that summer.

When you sell that farm you may still get a job in the U. S. army, tail gunner or something like that pays a profit. I know some boys who are in the service not by choice but because the government said go, who are just as good farmers and cattle feeders as you ever were or hoped to be. You go to the west side of the courthouse lawn and count the names of the Valley county boys in the service. Everyone was once some loving mother's baby, who cared for him in his infancy, cared for him when he was ill, started him to school, and watched over him till he grew to manhood and now he is taken away, maybe never to return again.

While you are lying in your cozy bed dreaming of profits many a mother's pillow is steeped with tears, anxious over the welfare of her sons.

What father's eyes would not glisten with tears when he bade his soldier son farewell, and just then you step up to him and say how large were your profits? If he could speak at all under strained emotions, he would probably say, there goes my profits.

I suppose you are in favor of the boys fighting this war and paying for it, if they are lucky enough to get back just so they don't tax your profits now.

I do not know if you have sons in the service or not, if not, could you not let your heart strings blend in sympathy for those less fortunate. To quit now is a slap in the face of every father and mother of a boy or girl in the service. We cannot afford to let our boys and our neighbor's boys down now. Most of the boys are not doing what they are by choice, let's not fail them now, profits or no profits. Think it over, my friend, think it over. Yours sincerely OTTO R. LUECK, Arcadia, Nebr.

Must Back Fighting Men

Arcadia, Nebraska, May 2, 1944 To the Editor of The Quiz:

In last week's Quiz you published an excerpt from the Omaha Journal Stockman, in which a Valley county citizen "sounded off" to the effect that he was quitting the farming and feeding business, due to government restrictions and regulations. Now if the gentleman wishes to quit that is his privilege of course, but I wonder if he knows there is a war going on? And that it is up to the farmer to do his part to back up the fighting men?

What would happen if the farmers all decided to quit because they were forced to operate under a set of restrictions and regulations? Or what would happen if the boys who are fighting and dying to preserve a free America refused to continue because the conditions did not suit them?

Thank God, the most of the farmers are giving their best, and not complaining, and if the gentleman wants to quit and take a salaried job, no doubt the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith and the America First outfit would take him on.

Yours truly, PAUL OWENS Arcadia, Nebraska

LEGAL NOTICES

Munn & Norman, Attorneys. ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE. In the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF MARIE WELSH BLESSING, GUARDIAN OF THE ESTATE OF ALFRED E. WELSH, A MINOR, FOR LICENSE TO REAL ESTATE.

Now on this 29th day of May, 1944, Marie Welsh Blessing, Guardian of the person and Estate of Alfred E. Welsh, a minor, having filed her Petition duly verified, in the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska, for a license to sell the following described real estate of said ward:

The East Half of the Northwest Quarter and the West Half of the Northeast Quarter and the West Half of the East Half of the Northeast Quarter and the East Half of the Southwest Quarter and the Southeast Quarter of Section 21, Township 16 North, Range 11, West of the 6th P. M., in Howard County, Nebraska, and also the West Half of the Northeast Quarter of the Northeast Quarter and that part of Lots 1 and 2 lying North and East of the public highway and that part of the West Half of Lot 3, lying North and East of public highway, all in Section 28, Township 16 North, Range 11, West of the 6th P. M., in Howard County, Nebraska.

for the purpose of obtaining funds for the maintenance and education of said ward, and it appearing therefrom that it is necessary or would be beneficial to said ward if said real estate be sold.

It is therefore Ordered that the next of kin of said minor and all persons interested in said Estate appear before me at chambers in the Court House in the City of Saint Paul, Howard County, Nebraska, on the 30th day of June, 1944, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to said Marie Welsh Blessing to sell said real estate or a part thereof for the purposes above set forth.

It is further Ordered that a copy of this Order be personally served on the next of kin and all persons interested in said Estate by publication on each week, three successive weeks in The Ord Quiz, a legal weekly newspaper, published and of general circulation in said County.

WILLIAM F. SPIKES, Judge of the District Court of Valley County, Nebraska. June 1-31.

Munn & Norman, Lawyers. ORDER AND NOTICE FOR APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATRIX. In the County Court of Valley County, Nebraska.

In the Matter of the Estate of Frank Meese, Deceased. (State of Nebraska,) ss. Valley County,)

Whereas, Hazelle M. Meese of said county has filed in my office her petition praying that letters of administration upon the estate of Frank Meese, deceased, late of said county, may be issued to Hazelle M. Meese of Ord, Nebraska, whereupon, I have appointed the twentieth day of June, 1944, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the County Court Room in Ord, Nebraska, as the time and place of hearing said petition, at which time and place all persons interested are required to appear and show cause, if such exists, why such letters should not be granted as prayed in said petition.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED

Your War Bond Investment Is Your Investment In America

that notice thereof be given all persons interested by publication of a copy of this Order three successive weeks previous to the date of said hearing in The Ord Quiz, a legal weekly newspaper printed, published and of general circulation in said county.

Witness my hand and official seal this 25th day of May, 1944. (SEAL) JOHN L. ANDERSEN, (SEAL) County Judge of Valley County, Nebraska.

Sidney W. Smith, Attorney. Omaha, Nebraska.

Notice to Ord Citizens

The Street Commissioner calls it to my attention that it has been a custom in Ord for people to mow their lawns and dump the grass, along with other rubbish, in the natural drainage courses. In the past dry seasons this custom has not resulted in a great amount of damage but this season it is causing considerable trouble to the street commissioner and since it is contrary to city ordinance we are asking you to discontinue the practice in the future.

All of us have been thoughtless in this respect and let's cooperate now with the street commissioner so that natural drainage ways may be kept open, rain water may drain off promptly, and our streets be kept in better condition.

A large crowd attended the memorial day service held at the cemetery Tuesday morning. Many more people had been there earlier to decorate graves of their loved ones and the entire cemetery was full of flowers. Services were in charge of the Auxillary. Gary Hawkes and Robert Vogeler held the flag during the services.

Rev. Kelsey Hinshaw gave the address of the morning, speaking on "Day of Memories". Gloria Graff gave "High Flight", Bernadine Hellwege, "Flanders Field" and Alice Meyers the Gettysburg address. Barbara told of the significance of the flowers to the unknown soldier and her sister Rosemary placed the flowers on the monument.

Flower girls were in charge of Alice and Mary O'Connor and bouquets were placed on all veterans graves. All the flower girls stood around the newly placed marker for Sgt. Verne Stewart, lost in the European area, while a bouquet was placed by the stone.

The Nimble Fingers 4H club held their first meeting with their leader, Mrs. Neils Jorgensen, May 25. The club has five members. Thelma Goodrich is president, Janet Cook, vice-president, Betty Jean Graff, secretary, Delores Williams, treasurer and Kathleen Haught reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Layher of North Platte were weekend guests of Mrs. Layher's brother, A. L. Willoughby and Mrs. Willoughby.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Mason of Lincoln spent Tuesday with Mrs. Mason's mother, Mrs. Emma Madsen.

The Bryan Portis family were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Klinginsmith.

Mrs. Mike Kosmata and son Alan came from Grand Island Monday evening on the bus. She returned home next evening, leaving Alan to visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kosmata, and other relatives for a week or so. The Kosmatas will come to Ord about mid-June for two or three days before proceeding to Caldwell, Ida., where they will make their future home.

Mrs. Mark Tolen and Mrs. Archie Mason went to Broken Bow Friday to visit until Sunday evening with their people there.

Mrs. Henry Chipp's sustained a bad glass cut on her hand and is having a little trouble getting it to heal up. She is employed at the telephone office in Ord since her husband went overseas about two months ago. He is now in Italy, and she is making her home with her mother, Mrs. William McKay.

New security regulations issued by the government forbid printing the complete addresses of soldiers, as has been done in the past, though we are still permitted to tell where they are located, without telling their company, regiment, etc. This information was not available for the picture above except in the case of Pfc. Lukesh, son of Will Lukesh, of Washington, who is somewhere in the south Pacific.

The new regulations were issued for a two-fold reason—to prevent enemy agents from securing information about the location of specific regiments and divisions, and to reduce the volume of unauthorized mail now going to soldiers. Next-of-kin, sweethearts, valued cor-

Growing Crop
Last year 15 million bushels of soybeans were required for seed in the United States, whereas in 1917 a mere 15 million pounds sufficed!

Infection in Crop Refuse
Continuous cropping to soybeans is not advisable from a sanitation standpoint. While seed infection is of considerable importance in some cases, indications are that by far the largest source of infection is in the soil and crop refuse.

Holes in Smoke Pipes
Holes in smoke pipes are caused by rust and corrosion during summer months. As long as there is a fire in the furnace the smoke pipe will be kept dry and will not rust.

Don't Hold Up
Cements and fire-bricks often do not hold up as well as they should because they contain calcium orthosilicate, which crumbles into dust at ordinary temperatures, although it has a solid form at the very high temperatures at which cement and fire-brick are made.

Ord Livestock Market

announces its offering for the regular weekly sale

Saturday, May 27

Sale Starts at 1:15 P. M.

The market last Saturday on cattle, feeder shoats and weanling pigs was 75c to $1 stronger and on the feeder cows was 15c to 25c higher. I think this was caused by the broad demand. At the present time we have orders for 300 head of feeder shoats and it looks like we will have more demand than livestock. Next Saturday we will sell:

110 HEAD OF CATTLE.

This includes mixed yearlings, lightweight heifers, bucket calves, 3 young breeding bulls, 2 bologna bulls and the following milk cows: 2 roan cows, one 5 and one 3 years old, one a heavy springer and the other just fresh; one Jersey cow, fresh in March, all quarters good and giving 3 gallons of milk per day. These are recommended by us as being exceptionally good cows.

160 Head of WEANLING PIGS & FEEDER SHOATS
Also several wet sows.

4 HEAD OF GOOD WORK HORSES.

In the miscellaneous auction we will sell a 6-foot McCormick moyer, which has done very little mowing and is in A-1 condition; a cream separator in working order; a corn planter with 80 rods of wire; 32-volt electric farm radio, A-1 condition and works like new; and other articles.

If you have any livestock to dispose of bring it to our auctions, for demand is greater than supply and prices are good.

Vol. 62 No. 11

Last Rites Held in Ord Sunday for Mrs. M. Coombs

Virile Early Resident Whose Personality Affected Ord Passes at Cotesfield.

With the death of Mrs. M. Coombs at Cotesfield on June 1, another powerful name vanishes from the history of Ord. This small gentlewoman, probably had as much to do with the development of Ord's civic and cultural life as anyone who ever lived here, and through her home has been at Cotesfield for the past three years, the impress of her personality was strong here since that Oct. 21, 1882 when she came to Ord as a bride.

Mrs. Coombs was born Nellie Rowell, the daughter of William and Mary Rowell of Knox county, Maine, on Sept. 21, 1856. The first 16 years of her life were spent in that county, and there she received her education, also a year in the high school at Afton, Ia. At 16 her parents moved to Union county, Ia., and for 10 years she taught in the schools of that county and of Creston, Ia. An excellent teacher, she delighted in this work.

Following her marriage to Mingson Coombs, two children were born, Ralph, the older son, dying Sept. 8, 1895. Archie is superintendent of schools at Cotesfield, and to be near him Mrs. Coombs moved there three years ago. She was tenderly cared for by Mrs. Joe T. Moravec of that village.

Many years of Mrs. Coombs' life were spent in caring for invalid members of her family, her father, mother, brother A. C. Rowell of St. Paul, Neb., and her husband, until she felt that it was one of the chief reasons for her presence here.

She was a member of the Woman's club of Ord and president of it; she operated a furniture store many years, was a member of the WCTU, library board, school board, an organizer of the Unitarian church and worked actively for it as long as it existed in Ord. Though both she and her husband came from large families, she was the last living member of both families at her death at the age of 87 years, eight months and 11 days. Her son Archie K. Coombs is the only near relative left to mourn.

Last services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Pearson chapel in Ord and were attended by a tremendous crowd. Rev. H. A. McKelvey of Cotesfield officiated at the simple services. Mrs. Mark Tolen sang two songs. Pall bearers were C. J. Mortensen, George Munn, Sam Marks, Mark Tolen, Dr. George Parkins and Horace Travis. Interment was made in Ord cemetery.

Will Ship Paper Again June 24th

Another carload of waste paper will be shipped from Ord on Saturday, June 24 and a railroad car will be spotted here on Friday and Saturday of that week to receive paper, said R. Clare Clement yesterday. About half enough to fill the car has already been collected and is being held at collection depots in the towns of the county.

People are urged to collect as much paper as possible in the next two weeks and bring it directly to the car on the days named, either for donation or sale. Prices prevailing in the last drive will again be paid, with exception that mixed paper is down $2.00 per ton in price unless it is baled.

A small carload of scrap iron was shipped from here last week, Clement says.

Another salvage problem that requires immediate attention, it is said, is the need for milk bottles, pop bottles, beer bottles and other bottles on which deposit is required. People are asked to return to their dealer for credit all such bottles in their homes, as the container shortage is becoming acute all over the country.

Condition Most Serious.

Condition of Clarence Blessing was termed "most serious" Tuesday by his physician, Dr. C. W. Weekes. He is being cared for by L. L. Lakin, is entirely bedfast and under opiates at all times, and relatives say there is little hope for his recovery.

Mrs. Clyde Baker left the hospital Saturday a week ago, to be taken to the home of her parents, Mayor and Mrs. M. B. Cummins. She stayed there until Thursday, when she was removed to her own home and is making a splendid recovery, her friends will be glad to learn.

Two Pool Tables Installed at "Roost," Ping-Pong Table Too; New Hours Set

Young people belonging to "the Roost" are jubilant at the pool table situation. Dr. Rudolph Hama and James Bryson of Scotia have generously donated a pool table together with the needed balls, cues and chalk. It is in fine condition except for the covering, which will be replaced soon. Mr. Kasal has loaned a pool table for use in the center, and it too will be recovered if possible. Mr. Haskell and his able helpers went to Scotia to load the gift-table, which was most kindly brought to Ord by the truck of Mrs. Inez Burrows, Tuesday they were being installed.

Another ping pong table has been added, making four in play now. They have proved particularly popular, the only trouble being that there is a real shortage of balls. Ping pong balls must be bought on priority now, as Uncle Sam takes most of them.

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors on Thursday evening, Chairman Clara McClatchey announced the "artists" committee as follows: Kathleen Clement, chairman, aided by Mary Travis, Shirley Anderson, Hilda Lola, Roberta Stoddard and Joe Kominek.

Editors Choose Miner Harris as Loups President

Friday Night Rain Results in Small Attendance but Good Meeting Held.

Heavy rains all over central Nebraska Friday night and Saturday caused attendance at the meeting of the Loup Valley press association in Ord to be much lighter than expected but an enjoyable meeting was held.

Miner Harris, editor of the Palmer Journal, was chosen president of the district group to succeed J. L. Webster, of St. Paul and W. H. Plourd, editor of the Fullerton Journal, was elected secretary.

State association officials present included Nate Pont, of Stanton, president, Nancy Mahood, of Lincoln, secretary; Mr. Plourd, treasurer; Fred Zimmer, Hartington, Byron Vaughan, Blue Hill, Miner Harris, Palmer, and J. L. Webster, St. Paul, directors. This group held a meeting in the morning, prior to the convention of the Loup Valley district group in the afternoon.

Dinner was served in the Methodist church basement at noon with about 30 people present. Mayor M. B. Cummins gave a short but interesting talk by way of welcoming them to Ord.

Speakers in the afternoon included T. W. Ingoldsby, of radio station WOW, who discussed the present effect of radio upon newspapers and the effect that television and facsimile may have when they come into general use after the war. Facsimile is a new invention by which an entire newspaper is broadcast in a manner similar to wirephotos and recorded mechanically in the homes of subscribers on sensitized paper, so that it may be read like any newspaper a few moments after transmission. President Pont also spoke briefly.

Round table discussions were led by Fred Zimmer, F. M. Price, of the Newman Grove Reporter, and by E. C. Leggett. Reports were given by the state secretary, Miss Mahood, and by Guy Ludi, who is chairman of the association's legislative committee.

Several of the editors brought their wives and they were entertained during the afternoon in the home of Mrs. E. C. Leggett, who was assisted by Mrs. C. A. Anderson and Mrs. Asa Anderson.

Apoplexy Claims Eric Erickson, 70

Arcadia—(Special)—The community was shocked Tuesday morning at news of the sudden death of Eric Erickson as result of a cerebral hemorrhage. Although 70 years of age Mr. Erickson was still active in the work on his farm southwest of Arcadia and after a healthy breakfast Tuesday he walked to the place, which is farmed by Wes Hurlbert, expecting to help with some farm operations. While talking with Mr. Hurlbert he was suddenly stricken and died instantly. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Mrs. Iris Krebs Clark returned to Ord from Scotia this week for her three weeks of June work in the home economics field.

Valley Co. Must Purchase Average of $200 Family to Meet $354,800 Quota.

At least 100 Valley county people must buy $1,000 in war bonds each and Valley county families generally must buy an average of $200 each in bonds or the $354,800 quota assigned this county in the 5th War Loan drive cannot be met, warned Clark Weckbach, president of the First National bank and chairman of the selling campaign Tuesday.

The drive starts June 12 and continues through July 8 but all bond purchases made after June 1 and all purchases of "E" bonds made during the months of June and July will count toward the quota, he said.

Weckbach and his co-chairman, C. C. Thompson, are busy this week making final arrangements for the selling organization which will begin work Monday and both express confidence that Valley county people, spurred by the news of the invasion in which their sons are fighting and dying, will buy bonds at a rate that will quickly put Valley county over the top.

Tuesday evening Weckbach and Thompson were meeting with an Arcadia committee to complete plans for the selling drive there; Friday evening they will hold a similar meeting in North Loup.

In Ord bond salesmen are ready to begin work at an early hour Monday when personal solicitation will start in the business district. Ed F. Beranek and Keith Lewis will call on every firm on the west side of the square and streets leading west from it; C. J. Mortensen, Emil Fafelta, A. J. Auble and Glen Auble will take the north side; Ed Ghauser and Howard Huff the east side; Fred Cahill and members of the First National bank staff will take the south side.

The Ord banks promise loans at only 3% interest to individuals who must borrow money in order to buy bonds, which is the lowest rate of interest quoted here in many years. But most people, it is felt, have money on deposit or in hiding which can and should be used to buy bonds and it is such money that the government is most anxious to see invested in war bonds, since this money constitutes the greatest inflationary danger.

Ed Holub will have charge of bond sales in Elyria and promises a quick clean-up of his territory.

Chairman of rural sales, R. Clare Clement, said Tuesday that he is loathe to call 60 farmers away from field work for 3 or 4 days to solicit bond purchases, despite the importance of that task, and that he will first send a personal letter to each of the county's more than 1,000 farmers, urging that they voluntarily buy bonds to the utmost of their ability and early in the campaign. July 1 is fixed as the deadline for farmers to make voluntary purchases without being personally solicited. After that date workers in each precinct will call on those farmers who haven't bought and urge that they do so.

Supervisors Vote $29,600 for "F" Bonds Tuesday, City Buying $3,700 Worth.

On the eve and morning of the invasion of Europe by allied forces, the city council of Ord and the Valley county board of supervisors started the 5th War Loan drive off strongly in this county by authorizing sizable purchases of war bonds.

Tuesday morning Chairman J. V. Suchanek and other county supervisors appropriated $29,600 for the purchase of Series F bonds, which will have a maturity value of $40,000.

The previous evening Mayor M. B. Cummins and Ord councilmen voted to use surplus electric department funds to the extent of $3,700 for purchase of the same type of bonds.

Both groups have purchased heavily of war bonds in each previous war loan drive.

Quota of $354,800 for Valley county is going to be difficult to meet during the June 12-July 8 period and officials of the drive are hopeful that other political subdivisions will invest their surplus funds in bonds so as to reduce the total that must be bought by individuals.

Return from Alaska. Arcadia—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. H. Dale Park arrived Friday after spending 1 1/2 years in Alaska where Mr. Park was an engineer on the Alaskan highway and Mrs. Park worked in the offices of the Miller Construction company at Fairbanks and Edmonton. They plan to visit for a few weeks with Mrs. Park's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rettenmayer, and other relatives.

Leases Texaco Plant. K. W. Peterson is the new lessee of the Texaco bulk plant in Ord, taking the place of Henry Weigall who gave up his lease to enter the automobile business at North Platte.

Mrs. Edwin Ibrig of Chicago is in Ord visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kokes and other relatives.

Ord Man Elected to State Office

A. J. AUBLE.

Although he did not attend the annual convention of the Nebraska Jewelers association held in Lincoln last week-end, A. J. Auble of Ord was honored by election to the office of first vice-president, and presumably will succeed to the presidency next year. Mr. Auble has been active in association affairs.

Mrs. Fred Cahill Dies Sunday Eve after Operation

Ord Woman Active in Club and Church Circles Is Interred Tuesday.

Sad and shocking was the death Sunday evening, June 4, of Mrs. Fred Cahill, quiet, beloved Ord mother and wife. She had been in progressively bad health for many years, undergoing a minor operation some months ago. Wednesday she was again operated on, but her condition grew steadily worse and from Friday no hope at all could be given for her recovery. Her husband is owner of Table Supp- ly grocery store in Ord.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Ord Methodist church, with Rev. R. T. Cordry of the Presbyterian church officiating. Mrs. Mark Tolen and Mrs. Clarence Davis sang three songs with Mrs. R. E. Noll accompanying. Pall bearers were C. J. Mortensen, Dr. F. L. Blessing, Horace Travis, Lyle Milkien, George Allen and M. Biemond, with interment made in the Ord city cemetery. The Pearson Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Cahill was born in Dayton, Wash., the daughter of pioneer settlers, George and Arminia Crossler, on May 10, 1893, making her 51 years and 24 days old at her untimely death. Her mother died when she was five, and her father when she was a young girl. She was educated in that town. Grace Crossler became the bride of Fred Cahill in Dayton, Wash., on Nov. 15, 1914. To this union were born two sons, Fred, Jr., who is now with the armed forces of the United States in the south Pacific area somewhere, and Hugh Edward who is a young high school student.

In addition to her husband and sons, Mrs. Cahill leaves to mourn her passing two sisters, Mrs. Maude Debit of Winnipeg, Canada, who came to Ord for the funeral; also Mrs. Blanche Graham of Seattle, Wash., and one brother, Jesse Crossler of Salem, Ore. A brother, Ralph, preceded her in death.

From the time the family moved to Ord a few years ago, Mrs. Cahill was an active worker in the Presbyterian church. She had served as president of the Ladies League, and at the time of her death was chairman of the Dorcas circle, and a member of the church board.

She was also a member of the Eastern Star lodge, of So and Sew club and the P. E. O. organization. P. E. O. members attended the last rites in a body, and took charge of the services at the cemetery.

New United Brethren Preacher Is Named

Rev. Erickson is the new pastor of the Ord and Midvale United Brethren churches and will hold preaching services on Sunday for the first time. He comes from Minnesota and has not yet arrived. Preaching services will be held at the Midvale church at 10:45 a. m. and in the Ord church at 8:00 p. m. and other church services will be held at the usual times.

Rev. Longnecker has been pastor during his past year.

Mrs. John Misko and children arrived home from Omaha Tuesday evening.

City Utilities Earned $15,000

The electric and water departments of the city of Ord earned $15,000.00 during the last municipal year, according to the annual report submitted by Commissioner George Allen to city councilmen at their meeting Monday evening. This is considered exceptionally good, inasmuch as about $2,000 worth of repair work was installed additionally during this period.

Councilmen voted to invest $3,700 in War Bonds during the 5th War Loan drive, bringing to $75,000 maturity value the total of such securities now owned by the city. Other securities and cash on hand in various funds brought the city's total worth to $106,000, according to Mayor M. B. Cummins.

During 1944 it is going to be necessary to spend from $4,500 to $5,000 for cooling tower and equipment at the water plant, contracts having already been let for this improvement, but the cost will be paid out of cash on hand and will require no additional levy or issuance of bonds.

It was decided Monday night to gravel part of the streets purchasing 500 to 600 cubic yards of gravel for that purpose.

Temperature Drops to Chilly 42 Degrees

It takes all kinds of weather to make a season but Ordites felt that January in June was just too much when they awoke Tuesday morning to find thermometers registering 42 degrees, after a chilly night. The 42-degree record followed two days of cooler-than-average weather for the month of June. Last week's high temperature mark was 84 degrees and two rains fell in the latter part of the week, .20 of an inch coming Thursday night and .11 of an inch Saturday morning.

Rain was again falling Wednesday morning but the forecast for Nebraska was for clearing skies and warmer weather.

Dr. Weekes to Rochester. Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Weekes left Tuesday evening for Rochester, Minn., where the doctor will spend about three weeks taking post-graduate work at the Mayo Clinic. Twice recently he attempted to get away to take this work but both times was held here by need for his professional services.

Traffic Fines to Be Higher, Says Judge Andersen

State Patrolman Active Here, Files 6 Traffic Charges in Less Than Week.

Both Guy L. Smith, state patrolman, and County Judge John Andersen state that traffic fines are going to be increased if any more offenders are picked up. "There has been too much activity in my court," states Judge Andersen. "There is a period of grace for those whose drivers' licenses expire, and that's sufficient. The patrolman tells me that of 18 drivers he questioned, nine persons had licenses that had expired or were otherwise faulty. That's too many, so I'm giving warning; fines will be bigger after this!"

Tuesday afternoon Melvin L. Axthelm was brought before the judge on a "no license" charge, to be fined $1 and costs of $2.75. The state patrolman for this district checked him on June 4, and asked Ralph Norman to file charges.

Mr. Norman was also asked to file a "no license" charge against Richard Golka, 16-year-old, who was fined $1 and costs of $2.75.

A third case heard Tuesday afternoon charged Dale Hawkes of North Loup with failure to observe traffic directions. It is alleged that he had been given due warning that he had no flares, no flags, no rear vision mirror or lights, yet did not remedy the situation. A fine of $5 and costs of $2.75 will help his memory, the judge ruled.

On May 31 Ralph Norman filed a complaint that Lyle LeRoy Sintek did not stop at a stop sign on May 24. A fine of $5 and costs of $2.75 were assessed.

Gerald Barr had no license numbers, another complaint filed that day by Mr. Norman as acting county attorney states. This cost him a $5 fine and $2.75 in costs.

Guy L. Smith, state patrolman, filed a complaint against Dale Norman, alleging the Ord mailman had failed to renew his driver's license. A fine of $1 and costs of $2.75 were paid by Mr. Norman, also on May 31.

County School Heads Have Good Meeting

County superintendents of District 4 of the NSEA met in Ord Monday with Miss Clara McClatchey county superintendent of Valley county their hostess at her home. William Bloom, Dawson county official, presided as the chairman of the discussions.

The round table talk was chiefly about the shortage of teachers; about new legislation; and about the contracting of teachers by neighboring schools, a method by which one teacher teaches two schools, signing a contract for only one year at a time. Worthwhile ideas on these topics were heard, and all 20 of those attending voted it a most successful meet.

The visitors came from as far west as North Platte and Ogallala, and from Albion on the east. This is the largest district in the state, and the first time it has ever met as a district. Miss McClatchey entertained the visitors at dinner.

Allied Forces Are Fighting Inland on Long French Front

Casualties Claimed Light in Initial Landings; Allies Have Air Supremacy.

To most Valley county people the news that Allied forces had invaded France and established a beachhead 100 miles long came at breakfast time Tuesday morning, though a few retiring late Monday night heard the first news flashes at 1:00 a. m., and stayed up to listen to news dispatches that continued throughout the night.

A total of 4,000 warships and landing craft, under a protective cover of 11,000 airplanes, crossed the channel and made landings along the Normandy coast between Cherbourg and Le Havre.

The invasion began between 11:00 p. m. Monday and 1:00 a. m. Tuesday, central standard time, which is about six hours earlier than London time, and the actual landings therefore were made about daylight Tuesday morning.

Ord people took the news calmly and stores remained opened with business continuing as usual Tuesday but few were willing to stray far from their radios, which were kept open in most business places throughout the day. The loudspeaker at the Auble Bros. store kept people on the streets informed of events as dispatches continued to arrive.

The landings were made with much less difficulty and lighter casualties than expected and the Allied troops immediately began to fight their way inland, attaining a depth of 12 miles at some points during the day.

While no figures were released on the total number of men taking part in the invasion the supreme allied command stated that 60,000 air-borne troops were landed behind the invasion coast during the night and that troops landing on the beaches were fighting their way inland to points seized by the paratroopers. Fierce fighting was in progress at Caen, France, which is 9 1/2 miles from the coast.

Allied planes have complete air supremacy and flew 16,000 sorties on the initial day of the assault, encountering less than fifty German planes during the day. Air losses were placed at only 1 per cent. Loss of two destroyers and one landing craft in the first cross-channel operations was admitted.

Invasion of the French coast came a single day after American troops in Italy captured Rome. "D-Day" originally was fixed for Monday but was postponed by General Eisenhower to Tuesday because of severe storms over the English channel. The actual crossing was made in unpleasant weather and many of the soldiers were sea-sick.

Tuesday evening almost every radio in Ord was turned on when President Roosevelt read his "victory prayer" and people of this city joined with him in prayers for the soldiers fighting in France.

CHAS. E. SANDALL SAYS:

I AGREE WITH THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

"Unwise," They Say, "To Raise The Prohibition Issue When Unity Is Most Needed"

The Anti-Saloon League of America recently issued this statement concerning national prohibition:

"Since the war powers already conferred upon the President . . . enable the government to cope with unsatisfactory liquor conditions, we deem it unwise and unnecessary to raise the . . . issue of national prohibition at a time when unity is most needed. A decision upon such a far-reaching Federal policy should . . . be left (until) millions of men now in the armed forces can participate in the decision.

"For these reasons the League is not uniting in the appeal for the enactment of war prohibition legislation . . . at this time."

Paraphrasing the Anti-Saloon League statement, we believe Nebraska citizens generally subscribe to the following:

"Since the powers already conferred upon the Nebraska Liquor Control Commission enable it and other enforcement agencies to cope with any unsatisfactory liquor conditions, we deem it unwise to raise the issue of state-wide prohibition at a time when unity is so much needed. A decision should await the return of the thousands of Nebraska men now in the armed forces.

"For these reasons, Nebraska citizens should not support the petitions for state-wide prohibition through the initiative petition method at this time."

The liquor situation in Nebraska is entirely satisfactory to most citizens. This state has one of the best Liquor Control Statutes in the nation. We have a Liquor Control Commission which functions ably. Since ENFORCEMENT of this good law is all that could possibly be asked, every citizen should back up the enforcement authorities to the limit, and concentrate on winning the war . . . instead of raising a needless issue which would only distract our people and divide our war effort during what may be America's most crucial year.

Especially suggested by Miss Smith is "The Way Our People Lived", in which each of the eleven chapters tell of a different set of common people, their home and habits, dreams and troubles. Says the author, W. E. Woodward, "There is not one distinguished individual, nor a battle, nor a presidential race. I had a growing desire to tell of the growth of the American Nation in terms of everyday life. Well, I've done it." The action takes place in several parts of the country at various times over the past 300 years.

"The characters are fictional, talkative and pleasant, making a human, lively, vivid book", reports Miss Smith.

Do Your Share in the 5th WAR LOAN

Even as our sons, brothers and sweethearts are making sacrifices in the Overseas Invasion we on the home front are going to have to make sacrifices to do our share in the 5th War Loan.

Valley county's quota is over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars. It means that every home in the county must buy $200 or more in war bonds between June 12 and July 8.

We earnestly urge that YOU do your share, regardless of what personal sacrifice it may mean. Only in that way can we be sure we are properly backing the invasion.

The Ord Quiz PRICE & RATION GUIDE

NEW COMMUNITY CEILING PRICE LISTS: All Community Price Lists on dry groceries and related items have been revised and should now be in the hands of all Group 1 and 2 retailers. The new charts will be easier to read through the use of a larger type, thereby increasing their effectiveness. They must be posted in the store as to be plainly visible to and easily read by customers.

FATS—Your grocer will pay 4 cents and 2 red points a pound for household salvage fats and greases.

PROCESSED FOODS—Blue Stamps, War Ration Book 4, R8, S8, T8, U8, and V8 valid June 1. Blue Stamps A8 through V8 good for ten points indefinitely.

MEATS—Red stamps, War Ration Book 4, U8, V8, and W8 valid June 4. A8 Red Stamps through W8 valid indefinitely. All meats except beef steaks and roasts still point free.

SUGAR—Sugar Stamp No. 32 becomes valid June 16 for 5 lbs. Sugar Stamps Nos. 30 and 31 on last page of War Ration Book 4 are good for five pounds indefinitely. Applications for canning sugar must be accompanied by "Spare" Stamp No. 37 (not "Sugar" Stamp 37).

GASOLINE—"A-11" coupons now valid for 3 gallons each, but must last until June 21, 1944. "A-12" coupons become valid June 22, but must last until September 21. "B-3" and "C-3" and "B-4" and "C-4" coupons good for five gallons each.

FUEL OIL—You should return your re-application for 1944-45 heating rations to your local board today.

ley county farmers have done their share in every bond drive and will do so voluntarily again this time," Clement said. "But," he continued, "there are 25% who haven't done their share and among them are some who are most able to buy in large amounts."

Without mentioning names he cited the case of one farmer who has bought and paid cash for two high-priced farms since the war began, who has between 200 and 300 cattle on feed which have been increased in value $10,000 because of the war, but who pleaded poverty in the 4th War Loan and bought only an $18.75 bond.

"There are others just like this man and they're not going to get away with it this time, even if we have to let the facts be known and count on public opinion to bring them to do their duty," Clement said.

Pre-drive sales of war bonds have been very light and redemption of bonds bought in the past is higher than ever before, say the Ord issuing agencies, marveling at a state of mind which permits Valley county people to send 400 boys away to war, perhaps to be wounded or killed and surely to suffer and sacrifice, without themselves making sacrifices to the limit at home.

"In this drive we're being asked to loan—not give—our government $354,800, but that amount is only a drop in the bucket to what it will cost us if we fall in the invasion through failure to provide our fighting men with the equipment they need," says War Finance Chairman Mortensen.

War bonds are the safest and most secure investment any person can make, Mortensen points out, and in case of emergency needs may be cashed on very short notice.

Early purchases of bonds by the county and city will give the drive a good start; purchases by the railroads and other corporations credited to this county will help it along, but even so Valley county individuals are going to have to dig up $275,000 to $300,000, or about $10,000 per day during the time of the drive, to meet the quota assigned.

This means an average of $200 per family and since some families cannot possibly buy $200 worth it means that others will have to buy $500, $1,000 and more in bonds as they are able. "Figure out how many bonds you can buy—then buy twice as many," is the slogan of the campaign.

While the business districts of Ord, North Loup, Arcadia and Elyria are counted on for the bulk of this county's non-rural bond buying the residence districts will not be overlooked, it is promised by Weckbach and Thompson. Clean-up squads of salesmen provided by the American Legion will tackle residential districts soon after business sections are canvassed, to contact everybody who might be missed otherwise.

"We realize that everyone can not afford to buy $100 or $1,000 bonds and that the $18.75 and $37.50 bonds will help toward the total," the chairman says. "So if you can't find the money to buy larger bonds do your share anyway, no matter how small it may be."

If what you did for the war effort today was an easy thing to do, it isn't enough. We cannot hope to give as much as the boy who gives his life . . . but we can do our utmost!

For instance, if you haven't yet found yourself scheming and figuring on a way to buy extra War Bonds, it's a good sign you aren't buying enough!

When your neighbor calls on you during the 5th War Loan to ask if you'll increase your purchases, say "Yes" . . . even if it takes a lot of scheming and figuring afterward to pay for them.

That's the way our men are doing their part . . . in the Pacific, in Italy, in England. Ordered to attack, they do not first consult themselves to determine whether it's safe or convenient or comfortable. They're thinking of you at home. To protect you, they attack first . . . and figure out how to do it as they go.

Uncle Sam needs your dollars to finance this war and he needs them now! Not just the dollars you can spare but every dollar you can earn that you don't absolutely need for food, shelter, clothing and the operation of the farm.

War Bonds savings mean more to the average farmer or rancher than to almost anyone else. For they form a financial reserve indispensable for the profitable and efficient operation of his business. War Bonds are safe, they pay a good return, they're easy to buy. When they mature, they mean new machinery and equipment, new conveniences for the house, money for the children's schooling, funds for retirement.

The next time you pick up your paper or listen to the radio news, have a conference with yourself. "Am I doing as much as I can to help win this war? Am I matching what I can do with what the boys are doing over there? Am I investing every possible dollar in War Bonds today to make my future and my family's future more secure?"

Most of us haven't yet begun to do our best. Uncle Sam needs it now! BUY MORE THAN BEFORE in the 5th War Loan!

5 REASONS FOR INCREASING YOUR WAR BOND PURCHASES

1. The tempo of this war is hitting its highest point. Government expenditures for war are at the peak. MORE MONEY IS NEEDED . . . NOW!
2. In proportion to WHO HAS THE MOST MONEY, individuals are not buying their share of War Bonds. America must correct this situation.
3. War Bonds provide the farmer and rancher with the financial reserve he must have to survive the ordinary ups and downs of farming as a business.
4. Money will be needed urgently at a future date to replace and repair farm equipment, machinery, and buildings. War Bonds will provide it.
5. War Bonds are the safest investment in the world, return a good rate of interest, are easy and convenient to buy . . . from bank, post office, rural mail carrier or Production Credit Association.

Elect Officers.
Auxiliary meeting of the American Legion ladies on Tuesday evening was given over to the election of officers, who were then installed by Mrs. Carol Mortensen. Mrs. Mabel Colver was elected president, Mrs. Marguerite Dale vice president, Mrs. Rose Wardrop second vice president, Mrs. Elsie Furlak secretary, Mrs. Hazel Hall treasurer, Mrs. Lydia Fafaita historian, Mrs. Amelia Stoddard chaplain and Mrs. Evelyn Jefferies sergeant at arms. Serving the refreshments were Mrs. Frank Kasal, Mrs. Cecil Clark, Mrs. Pete Hollender and Mrs. Joe Vavra.

Michaleks Entertained.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Michalek and Dick were popular guests while in Ord, being entertained at the Leggett, Heuck and C. A. Anderson homes. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Heuck took them to Grand Island. The visitors returned to their Scotts-bluff home Sunday, taking Darrell Johnson with them to spend the summer and probably work out there.

Vogeltanz Are Hosts.
Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vogeltanz were hosts, honoring Lt. Dean Barta and his wife, with Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Barta also present.

Musicale Tuesday.
Several pupils of Mrs. Leslie Nash were heard in a pleasing recital at her home on Tuesday evening. Some of her fine musicianship was evident in the work of her young students.
Included in the first group of numbers sung by Roberta Stoddard, were these soprano selections: "I've Been Roaming" by Horn, "The Nightingale and the Rose" by Beck, and "Sonny Boy" by Curran. Mrs. Robert Noll accompanied.
Edwin Jirak, bass, accompanied by Marilyn Ollis then gave "A Ship for Singapore" by Walton, "Water Boy" a negro convict song arranged by Robinson, and "Mah Little Banjo" by Dichmont.

"Lieurance" "Wium," an Indian lullaby, began the next group of songs, followed by "Cossack Lullaby" arranged by Lester and "Well Touch the Strings to Music" Paladilhe's work as arranged by Remick. Marjorie Mulligan was mezzo-soprano, Dolores Kokes contralto and Mrs. Nash sang the soprano, substituting for Dorothy Penas, who was unable to be present. Marilyn Ollis accompanied.
"When the Roses Bloom" by Reichardt, "Could My Songs their way be Winging" by Hahn and "Piper June" by Carew were sung by Carolyn Auble, soprano, Audrey Koll accompanying at the piano.
The first movement of the "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven and "Country Dance" by the same composer were piano numbers played by Marilyn Ollis.

"Tanto Sospirero" by Berclini, "Shoes" by Manning and "May Day Carol," English folk song arranged by Taylor, were baritone songs of Don Auble. Mrs. L. J. Auble accompanied him at the piano.
In duet Carolyn Auble and Don Auble, soprano and baritone, then sang "Bess, You is My Woman" taken from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess."

Supervise the Roost.
Recreation center hosts in the past week have included Margaret Petska and Mrs. Carol Simpson Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Anderson Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tolen Saturday evening, Mrs. F. H. Kuehl on Sunday afternoon.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kovanda served as hosts, Tuesday evening Mayor and Mrs. M. B. Cummins were present, and Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Haskel were sponsors. Friday evening Viola Funcochar will be in charge.
The name of Mrs. Rudy Schneckloth was inadvertently omitted from the list of May sponsors.

Janitor service is also a matter of volunteer help. This week R. Biemond and G. Lashmett took the task of cleaning "The Roost."

Junior Matrons.
Friday Mrs. L. E. Walford entertained Junior Matron ladies at her home. Mrs. Forrest Johnson was a guest also.

Doris Dodd Is Ten.
Doris Dodd entertained 12 little friends on Saturday afternoon at her home, the occasion being her tenth birthday. Ice cream and cake were the refreshments served at the close of the afternoon, which was spent playing games.

The battle for the World is on!

Now that the chips are down... now that our men are writing decisive history with their blood... There can be no halfway measures for us.

The greatest battle in the history of the world must be matched by the greatest war loan in the history of the world.

That's what Uncle Sam says... the same Uncle Sam for whom your brothers and sweet hearts and husbands are fighting and dying this very minute.

They, in the front lines, are throwing in everything they have. We, behind the lines, must do the same.

Remember, this is the battle for the WORLD. Our world. And we've got to win it. That's why Uncle Sam expects every dollar, like every soldier, to do its duty.

Cpl. Edward F. Hosek has been moved from Randolph Field in Texas to Greenboro, N. C.

Sgt. Ed Hruby writes from Lamson Field at Ft. Benning, Ga. that he is sorta lonesome for good hometown news. It's really hot here in Georgia, but it stays that way nine months out of the 12."

2nd Lt. Joseph Kovarik who won his wings at Chandler, Ariz., and had his picture in the Quiz last week, is now at Randolph Field, Tex., where he is taking instructor's training.

Mrs. Ernest Hallock of Lincoln says her son Murray is now a private first class at San Francisco, where he does radar work, and is due for a furlough soon. Ralph Hallock lives in Grand Island, and she herself has been teaching a school east of that city the past few months. Both boys are married.

Ensign Leslie Clyde Nash will be graduated from naval reserve officers indoctrination school at Tucson on June 12, after completing 60 days of training. Before entering the service he was doing soil conservation work in this region. He received his A. B. degree in chemistry from Kansas State college at Hays, Kans., in 1935. His B. S. in agriculture at Manhattan in 1939, and also spent a year working on his masters' degree. He is a son of Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Nash of Pomona, Kans. His wife and children are making their home in Ord for the time being.

Pvt. Mervin Scott, somewhere in the south Pacific, has been awarded a battle star for being in a campaign. Mervin writes that he thinks they may all have a dozen stars if they give one for each battle they take part in. He is with the Engineer division and has been in the Pacific for more than six months.

Keith L. Dorsey of Arcadia has been promoted to sergeant, upon recommendation of his commanding officer. He is a member of the communications section in the Ninth Air Force Light Bomber group in England, having enlisted in December, 1942. His parents live at Arcadia, where he helped his father farm before enlisting.

From army headquarters of the European Theater of Operations comes word that Albert K. Wilson is a member of a newly formed band in England. It was organized less than two months ago by M-Sgt. Fred Richter, an army musician for 17 years, using men who were available. But there were no instruments, and a first search of the little English village brought out only enough ancient drums and bugles for a drum and bugle corps. But instruments are slowly being located for the men, and the band recently performed for the first time with the novel array of instruments available. The music made a great hit.

WAC enlistments during May for the Nebraska district exceeded the quota four percent, the Seventh Service Command reports. One of these enlistments was Mary Jean Bremer, who reported early in the month for induction, formerly being office manager for the K. W. Peterson Transfer Service.

"What I wouldn't give for some new track and a couple more trains!"

"You see, I've been adding to my railroad ever since I got it three years ago. Some of the first track I got is kind of bent and crooked in spots. A couple of my oldest trains aren't so good any more, either. Can't do anything about it now, though. They're not making any toy trains and track until the war is over."

The "grown up" railroads have their problems; too, Jimmy. It's no cinch to keep their trains and track in tip-top shape during these days when there's so much traffic to handle. They need new track and new trains, too. But as long as other war requirements have had prior claim on needed materials, they've done an outstanding job with the limited rations allotted them.

"Guess I'm pretty lucky, at that. Gosh, think of the fix I'd be in if I hadn't added new stuff when I could get it."

Here, too, Jimmy. Between World War I and II, the railroads spent $10,500,000,000 for equipment and improvements. That's why, today, they are able to handle the biggest job in transportation history.

"Dad and I have been working out new routes and connections for my railroad lately. We play like we have to get guns or tanks or soldiers somewhere in an awful hurry. Then we figure out the quickest way to get 'em there. Boy, do we make time!"

That's the game all the railroads are playing in dead earnest these days, Jimmy. They're handling both military and vital civilian transportation, the best and quickest way they know how. They're one big team; all pulling together to keep America's transportation the strongest in all the world. The Burlington is proud to be on that team. Because it serves 22 principal gateways and more than 200 interchange points, it is an essential link between railroads from the North, East, South and West.

AN ESSENTIAL LINK IN TRANSCONTINENTAL TRANSPORTATION

Mrs. Adeline Pascoe, Stewart and Patricia of Grand Island arrived Monday to spend a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Walker and other relatives. How To Hold FALSE TEETH

More Firmly In Place
Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, goopy, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at any drug store.

Bring your waste paper, magazines, cartons, newspapers, etc., to the Cramer building Friday and Saturday, June 9 and 10.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Ira Myers Answers.

To the Editor of the Quiz:

Three or four weeks ago while I was in Omaha a reporter from the Journal-Stockman met me on the viaduct and asked me if he couldn't take my picture. When this was done he then asked me how many cattle I had left on feed and if I was going to put any back in for this summer, and what he published along with the picture was exactly what I told him.

A week later here comes the same picture and item in the Ord Quiz. The week following that came a couple of letters one from Paul Owens and the other from Otto R. Lueck, both of Arcadia. Mr. Owens asked if I knew there was a war going on. Yes, Mr. Owens, I know there is a war going on and I haven't voted for it the last twelve years and I haven't been on the WPA or had my feet under the taxpayer's table, therefore I am not hankering to be there on account of the government running my business.

And Mr. Lueck stated that it took a big hat to cover a big head but a small hat could cover a lot of brains. Judging from the attitude he took it would not take a very large hat to cover his brains.

I am very much in sympathy with Mr. Lueck about his boy or boys in service. Too bad that politics and history doesn't have a heart, which we know they haven't because we proved it when we tried to change Thanksgiving. Now why don't you boys sing your little song to Lewis and other union labor leaders. Ask them what they strike for. We know it isn't because of too large a profit and I don't think the government or the boys across the seas had so many tanks, guns and planes that they were throwing them away like they were the farmer's products just because the farmer didn't strike. He kept right on working day and night. Just let a farmer talk about quitting and some new dealer will pop off right now. And if I am no better cattle feeder than you say I am, I don't see what little difference it would make toward winning the war.

I am not quitting to let the boys down overseas, I am quitting because the men that are running the O P A are not smart enough to run my business. I was in the first World War and if I could have had my way Hitler would not have been ready for another war for at least another forty years. But that wasn't the way Wilson and Chamberlain wanted it. I said when they stopped us that I would not be too old before I would have to do it again. In place of keeping them from preparing for war, we turned around and bought their products to help them.

Thank you Mr. Owens for your advice. When I get ready for that salaried job I won't ask your Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith and The America First outfit or you either.

Now when you boys go to the polls next fall to vote, think it over, my friends, think it over. Yours truly, IRA E. MYERS

Praises Press Fight.

June 2, 1944

To the Editor of the Quiz: I read the Quiz each week with the same enthusiasm as I did when I lived in Valley County, and when I turn to your private column, it is always with the feeling that I shall find something unusual. Thank Goodness, when Mr. Leggett was born they threw the pattern away. There will never be another with your subtle humor and your keen sense of the joy of living.

Come as it may, I am down here in New Mexico, with interests in Texas and Oklahoma as well, in that interesting part of the U. S. A. called "No Man's" Land, only now quite civilized and so much so, that even the bureaus may some day discover us. I hope not!

But to come to the point—go right along in your press fight for freedom and more power to you! Preach the curbing of extravagance, inefficiency, jealousy and greed.

There is a defense plant not far away, hundreds of feet of lumber was wasted by COMPETENT carpenters, who wanted a certain length of board, and always cut into a long piece and threw the scraps away. These were burned, enough to build a whole section of modern cottages. (We saved scrap.) They threw away thousands of pounds of nails. The plant was built with taxpayers money, but these taxpayers, if they would work there, must pay a union before they can be hired.

2 Smashing Rains Bring 1944 Total Moisture to 18.85

1 1/2 Inches Rain, Hail, Fell in Brief Period Sunday Eve, More Monday

Ord's moisture total for the year 1944 now stands at 18.85 inches and if rainfall continues modern records for rainfall here are due to be smashed...

Latest rains came Sunday and Monday evening, both smashing storms that saw a lot of rain fall in short periods of time.

Sunday evening Ord had 1 1-2 inches of rain in about an hour, with .28 of an inch coming later in the night.

Moisture total for June to date is 3.07 inches, Travis said. The Monday night storm hit the Arcadia community about 7:30 and 1.03 inches of rain fell in less than thirty minutes...

North Loup missed out on the Sunday night rain entirely but received a heavy shower Monday evening.

Eastern Nebraska has taken the brunt of the recent rainy period with as much as 7 1-2 inches falling in some localities Saturday and Sunday. The Elkhorn river was in flood throughout its entire length and creeks overflowed in the northeast and east parts of the state.

The Ord Theatre had no movies Tuesday night because the films failed to arrive, but the film truck got in about midnight Tuesday and the show will be given as advertised Wednesday night.

Several east Nebraska towns were under water, among them being Tekamah, Hooper, Scribner and Wisner. The city of Fremont was marooned with highways and rail lines closed in all directions Monday night and Tuesday.

Assistance Workers Here.

A meet of county assistance workers from several counties convened in Ord Wednesday, when Miss Emma Feith of Grand Island held a school of instruction. There were from one to three people from each of the following counties in the sixth district: Loup, Garfield, Howard, Wheeler, Sherman, Merrick, Nance and Valley counties.

4-H Demonstration Friday, June 16th

C. C. Dale and his helpers are busy arranging for the 4-H demonstration and judging day to be held here Friday, June 16, when three team demonstrations will be given at 10 a. m. and the afternoon judging program will begin at 1:30 p. m.

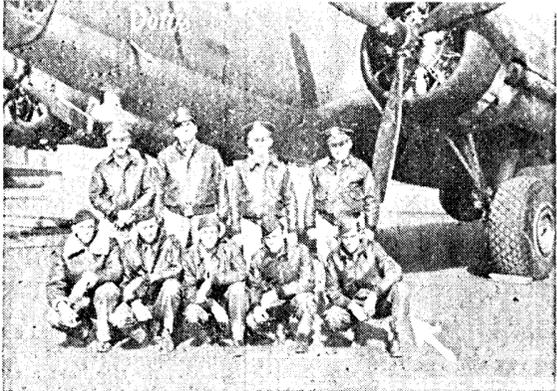

The judging and demonstrations are not contests but Valley county members and leaders will receive instructions on demonstrations and judging from Miss Allegra Wilkins and Mr. M. N. Lawritson of the agricultural college of the University of Nebraska.

Meetings are to be held at the American Legion hall. In the afternoon the boys will have their meetings either at the fair grounds or at some nearby farm.

Since there are some 350 lively 4-H club members in Valley county this year, a large attendance at the Friday meeting is expected.

Gus Schoenstein has been made home service chairman for the Red Cross, succeeding John Misko, who served several years in this job.

Sgt. Verner Bartholomew, of North Loup, Reported Missing in Action over Europe

Sgt. Verner C. Bartholomew, tall gunner on the Flying Fortress "Dottie" and son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bartholomew, former Riverdale people who moved to Shelby, Nebr., about a year ago, is reported by the war department to be missing in action over Europe since May 29.

Clarence Blessing to Reward Friday; Was 70 Years Old

Well-Known Ord Man in Ill Health Several Months; Funeral Held Monday.

Funeral services were held at the Pearson chapel Monday afternoon for Clarence Blessing, 70, who died Friday after a long period of ill health. He had been bedfast several weeks before his death.

Mr. Blessing was born March 26, 1874 in Cass county, Michigan, and came here in 1880 with his parents, Lorenzo and Catherine Blessing, settling on a farm in Michigan township where Clarence grew to manhood.

In 1901 the Blessing family moved to Ord and Clarence entered a business partnership with his brother, Alvin, which continued until Alvin Blessing's death in 1936.

Mr. Blessing passed away in 1941 and he was also preceded in death by 3 brothers and a sister.

To mourn are left five sons, Lorenzo Blessing, Ord; Ross Blessing, Los Angeles; Clinton Blessing, with the armed forces in Italy; Paul Blessing, Grand Island; Dean Blessing, an air corps lieutenant; also two daughters, Mrs. Opal Burrows, of Ord, and Mrs. Jeanette Miller, Grand Island. There are eleven grandchildren.

Palbearers at the funeral rites Monday were C. J. Mortensen, Dr. George Parkins, E. C. James, Sam Marks, C. F. Hughes and Theron Beehrle. Mrs. Mark Tolen sang, accompanied at the organ by Ella Bond.

Sponsors at the Roost. Sponsors at The Roost lately include the following: Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walford; Sunday afternoon Mrs. Mabel Colver and her mother, Mrs. Helvey.

Monday evening of this week Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jefferies were in charge; Tuesday evening Mrs. C. D. Wardrop and Mrs. W. E. Lincoln.

Wednesday evening, tonight, Mrs. Bob Hall and her daughter, Mrs. Carol Simpson will be sponsors; Thursday The Roost is closed all day; Friday evening Sylvia Iwanski and Mrs. Emily Lathrop will be guardians; Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. James Ollis; Sunday afternoon Mrs. F. L. Stoddard; and Monday evening of next week Mrs. Evan Hartman and Mrs. Jay Auble will act, reports Mrs. Mabel Colver of the supervisory committee.

Most of the people invited to sponsor the recreation center report they enjoy being there with the younger element very much indeed.

Band Concert Tonight. Last week the Wednesday night band concert had to be called off because of bad weather and Director Lockwood states that the program announced for last week will be played tonight.

Mrs. Boll of Burwell was a patient of Dr. C. J. Miller at the Ord hospital last week.

Salvaged Paper Will Be Loaded Starting June 22

Car Will Be at Burlington Dock Till Monday; Must Tie Paper in Bundles.

A railway car to receive salvaged paper will be at the Burlington dock in Ord from Thursday, June 22 until train time on Monday, June 26, said R. Clare Clement, county salvage chairman, yesterday.

Paper already stored at collection depots in Ord and other towns will be trucked to this car but there is not enough to fill out the car and it is of vital importance that everybody who has paper bring it in while this car is on the tracks.

Tunnell Leads in Illinois Sports

From Kewanee, Ill., comes word that Coach H. F. Brockman's men have just closed a blue ribbon sports year, not only contending for conference honors but for state honors in the major sports of football, basketball and track.

People having paper may bring it to the car and sell it or may donate it if they like, and proceeds will be donated to one of the war agencies. Even small amounts are wanted for a few pounds from each family in the county will mount up to a sizable quota when assembled in the car.

Anybody in Ord who has paper he is willing to donate, and has no way of getting it to the railroad car, may call one of the Boy Scouts and the paper will be picked up.

Teachers Hired by 21 Rural Schools in Valley County

68 Districts Will Operate, Situation Called "Alarming" by Miss McClatchey.

Only 21 rural schools out of the 68 which will operate in Valley county next term have succeeded in hiring teachers up to this time, said Miss Clara McClatchey, county superintendent of schools, Tuesday.

Admitting that the situation is "a bit alarming," Miss McClatchey said there are probably more teachers available than this sign-up would indicate but that some of them are holding off in hope of getting a little higher salaries by signing contracts later in the summer.

Schools with teachers under contract include: District 1, Ruth Cook; district 2, Mary Kirby; district 6, Mary Frances Manchester; district 7, Helen Kusek; district 13, Verna Vergin; district 14, Clara Jensen; district 15, Roberta Cook; district 17, Wilma Klanecky; district 18, Evelyn Jabonski; district 23, Audrey Koll; district 26, Wilma Vancura; district 28, Luetta Kuehl; district 30, Vivian Setlik; district 35, Minnie Melcher; district 37, Helen Chillewski; district 40, Leota Crosby; district 46, Belva Groelzinger; district 48, Frances Greenwalt; district 54, Frances Houtby; district 67, Marcella Iwanski; district 68, Marie Worm.

Salaries being offered by rural school boards range from about $95 to $125 or $130 per month, Miss McClatchey said, depending on the number of pupils, etc. During the depression years teaching salaries as low as $35 per month were paid in this county.

The latest word from Jerry Petska is making Ord people mighty proud of him. Shortly before the invasion started he was awarded the distinguished flying cross, says a letter written in May to his mother, Mrs. Jerry Petska.

North Loup Bond Drive Off to Good Start.

Ben Nelson, community chairman of the 5th War Loan drive at North Loup, said Tuesday that more than $27,000 in bonds have been sold there against a $35,000 quota and that less than 5% of the people have been seen.

Quotas have been established for every township in the county and the list below was furnished to the Quiz by Clark Weckbach, co-chairman of the drive:

Table listing bond quotas for various townships: Arcadia $30,000, Davis Creek 16,000, Elyria 29,000, Enterprise 24,000, Eureka 8,000, Geranium 18,000, Independent 16,000, Liberty 13,000, Michigan 18,000, Noble 18,000, North Loup 35,000, Ord 80,000, Springdale 16,000, Vinton 18,000, Yale 16,000, Total 355,000.

These quotas were set up on the basis of population, assessed valuation of personal property and value of real estate in the various townships, and each township will be expected to meet or surpass its quota.

Beginning next week reports on bond sales will be made by townships, with percentage of quota attained by each township.

In the $150,000 total bought early in the drive only purchases made at Ord were included and no doubt there are some purchases made at North Loup and Arcadia but not reported which would swell this total.

Regardless of where bonds are bought hereafter, they will be credited to the township in which the purchaser resides. Purchases made by the county, by corporations, etc., will be pro-rated among the townships but it is emphasized that the quotas above are for purchases by individuals.

Bond selling on an organized basis began in the business district of Ord on Monday but only one team, that of Ed Gnaster and Howard Huff, has reported to date. At close of the first day, having covered less than half of their territory, they reported sales of $6,000 worth of bonds.

Friday evening C. J. Mortensen and C. C. Thompson went to North Loup to organize the bond selling group there. Ben Nelson again heads the committee and will have as helpers Clarence Switzer, C. B. Clark, Jim Coleman, Bates Copeland and Harold Hoepfner.

At Arcadia last week Harold Weddel was named local bond chairman and will name his own helpers.

The bond drive is expected to gather momentum steadily as June progresses, with Chairman Clement of the rural division urging farmers to make voluntary purchases early and with organized selling now under way or beginning in each of the urban communities.

Saturday night a program of outdoor movies will be shown on the court house steps about 9:30 under the auspices of the American Legion. These films will show some of the actual fighting on various war-fronts, as well as production of arms in the war factories.

On July 6, it is announced, the Kearney Air Base will present an outdoor evening show in Ord and will have a display of arms and equipment, this exhibition being planned as the culminating event of the month-long bond drive.

Adrian Tolen Wins Another Promotion

Promotion of Major Adrian W. Tolen, executive officer for administration and services of the 17th bombardment operational training wing at the Grand Island air base to the rank of lieutenant colonel was announced this week by the war department, and Col. Tolen informed his grandfather, Frank Koupal, of the promotion by telephone Monday evening.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. Irl D. Tolen, now of Lincoln, Col. Tolen was raised here, attending Ord high school and later the University of Nebraska. He entered military service in 1940, was commanding officer of the Omaha induction station for several months and then transferred to the air corps. He served at Lowry Field, Colo., until January, 1944, and was then assigned to headquarters of the 2nd Air Force at Salina, Kas., and transferred from there to the 17th wing at Grand Island on April 15.

Joy Auble Promoted to First Lieutenant.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Auble were mystified at a Memphis, Tenn., postmark the other day, and a return address that of Cpl. J. Jacobs, now in Kennedy General Hospital there. Opening it, they read, "I happened to have the thrill of meeting a Nebraska girl while overseas, in a hospital at the time. We got a new nurse one morning, and began guessing where she was from. I said there was no guessing to it as the only place you see healthy girls like that and that type of talk was from the good state, Nebraska."

"When I asked her she said yes, from Ord. It happens that I have a sister living north of Ord, Mrs. Al C. Radke. I myself come from Chappell. When I was getting ready to return to the USA I asked Joy if she wished I'd write you folks. She is in the big general hospital at Brisbane, Australia in the best of health and I must say she is well liked for the good care she gives the boys after they return from New Guinea, the Solomons and N. B."

1st. Lieut. Joy Auble. "When you write her tell her she has a big thrill coming back to the States, when that Golden Gates comes in sight it leaves one speechless. However I'm getting along nicely and living in hopes of seeing home before too long. I was among the first boys to land in Australia and also on the Island of N. G. I have been away from home 29 months with 26 of them overseas. I must say there's no words to tell how happy I feel. I'll close now, hoping this finds everyone well and happy. A Friend of Joy's, Jackie."

32 Flying Fortresses Seen Over Ord Tues.

A group of 32 of the big Boeing bombers more familiarly known as "flying fortresses" passed over Ord on Tuesday, this being the largest flight of the big planes seen over this city since the war began.

They were very high and flying in a southerly direction, though of course their destination is not known here.

C. Goodhand Sued. County Judge John Andersen was busy Tuesday afternoon hearing a claim brought by the Massachusetts Bonding Company against Charles E. Goodhand for the sum of $369.28, which the bonding company claimed to have paid out in attorney's fees unnecessarily at the time the post office building was built in Ord.

HURRY UP, AMERICA! GIVE HIM YOUR ANSWER!

the Fifth War Loan Drive ends July 8th!

AMERICANS!

You in the factories. You in the offices. You on the farms. You in the homes.

You cannot—you must not—fail to get behind your fighting man in this supreme, heroic hour.

He knows what's ahead.

Bloody, bitter fighting... superhuman toil... hardship... pain... perhaps death.

He's facing it. He'll keep on facing it, as long as there's breath in his body and blood in his veins.

But he wants to know what's behind him.

And you have only a few days left to give him the answer.

That answer will be written in the final figures on the Fifth War Loan Drive.

For this is the crucial, the all-important Drive. Never has the need for War Bond buying been so great.

To make the Drive a success, you—and everyone else—must buy at least twice as many Bonds as you bought in the last drive.

If you haven't yet bought your full share, DO IT NOW! The time is short! Make YOUR supreme effort in HIS supreme hour!

Remember—a soldier, your soldier, is waiting for his answer. What will it be... from you?

- And here are 5 MORE reasons for buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!
1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
 2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
 3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
 4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
 5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

—Mrs. Darrell McOstrich writes that she and the family are now nicely settled in Kansas City, where they will probably stay for some time, as he is with Black and Veatch, engineers there. They are conveniently located on three blocks or so from his office.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe, Arlene, Maxine and Duane left Monday morning for Lincoln to attend the graduating exercises of their daughter Eleanor who has been studying nursing, and who was married to Edwin Hitchman about two weeks ago. From Lincoln the Wolfe family planned to go to Iowa to visit for a short time.

—Florence Anderson arrived Sunday in Grand Island and visited her parents the Albert Andersons and other relatives until Tuesday. After special training in New York City she expects to be sent overseas on a government assignment. She has been employed in California and in Washington D. C. for several years.

—Mrs. R. C. Austin's niece, Mrs. Florence Evans, left Saturday after visiting in Ord. She came from her home at Seal Beach, Calif., to Grand Island, and then to Arcadia where the Austins met her on Memorial Day. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Merrill Austin of Burwell, was an over-Sunday guest at the Austin home.

—Mrs. L. J. Auble says their daughter Ruthie left Thursday for Walla Walla, Wash., where her husband, E. C. Swopes, has been stationed. Ruth planned to stop in Ogden with her brother Elwin and his family for a day. She came here from Omaha.

—Mrs. Mabel Tedro is expected home the latter part of the week. She has been vacationing in California, and is regularly employed at the Brown-McDonald store.

—Rev. and Mrs. C. N. Ericson and their three sons arrived last week from Cook, Minn., and Mr. Ericson held church services Sunday for the first time at the United Brethren churches of Ord and Midvale. The Ericson boys are 2, 5 and 6 years old respectively. The family will make their home in the U. B. parsonage here.

—Mrs. L. L. Hunter came from Burwell on Monday for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. D. A. Moser, and to assist her in entertaining the Jolly Sisters club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. O. Hackel on June 9 and guests included Mrs. F. O. Johnston, of Central City, and Mrs. Wm. Harrison. A lovely tea was served in honor of outgoing officers. The next meeting will be a picnic the latter part of the summer.

—Oscar Nay returned to work in the Quiz office after a month's vacation spent at the ranch of his brother near Elgin, during which time he also had teeth pulled and new plates made by an Elgin dentist. Asa Anderson is on vacation from the Quiz staff this week and plans to spend most of the time with his father at Burwell. A new Quiz employee who arrived Tuesday from Ellis, Kas., is Jay L. Thompson.

—Mrs. C. S. Jones has gone to Peru where she will attend college classes this summer, renewing her teaching certificate for another three years. County Superintendent Clara McClatchey offers to give her an emergency certificate good for one year, but the Ord lady, cheerful and ambitious as ever, thought she preferred to earn the three-year certificate. Mrs. Jones has been teacher a good share of her life, and has many students who would testify she does not need to study teaching methods further.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

A few trees have come out with yellow leaves this spring. They need iron. In some places grass can be seen that has also yellowed from lack of this mineral, especially farther west.

There comes a time when soil fertility may no longer be restored by planting legumes and hauling manure. This adds nitrogen, but little else. A shortage of several other elements is beginning to show up.

The treatment for iron-starved trees is cheap and easy. One half pound of iron sulphate will turn the leaves green inside of a week. Mix the iron sulphate—better known as copperas, with an equal weight of sulphur. Pour it into a few holes, made about eighteen inches deep with a crowbar, near the tree trunk. Then wet the soil down.

A few fields lack phosphorus. One farmer declares it profitable to put treble superphosphate on wheat. This same treble superphosphate doubled alfalfa yields near Loup City; it is used by sugar beet growers in the Grand Island and Scotts Bluff territories.

The application of lime or calcium has greatly benefited a number of farms around Norfolk. In some parts of the state they find it pays to use ammonium sulfate on brome grass. Commercial nitrogen fertilizers have sometimes been profitable on truck crops and orchards in the southeastern section of Nebraska.

Most local soils carry sufficient minerals, and in some spots they hold a surplus. The need for commercial fertilizers may be determined by soil testing, or by trying them out on a small patch. Chances are that they will not pay out around here.

Do Your Share in the 5th WAR LOAN

Even as our sons, brothers and sweethearts are making sacrifices in the Overseas Invasion we on the home front are going to have to make sacrifices to do our share in the 5th War Loan.

Valley county's quota is over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars. It means that every home in the county must buy $200 or more in war bonds between June 12 and July 8.

We earnestly urge that YOU do your share, regardless of what personal sacrifice it may mean. Only in that way can we be sure we are properly backing the invasion.

LOCAL NEWS

County Superintendent Clara McClatchey went to Greeley Tuesday afternoon on business.

Mrs. Clara Hughes came from Clay Center on the bus Saturday evening to spend a month in the home of her daughter, Mrs. I. E. Davis and family.

Tonsil operations were performed last week by Dr. F. A. Barta on Mrs. Hazel L. Leach, of Hyannis; Virginia Kapuska, Elyria; and Irene Dubas, Burwell.

Miss Grace King returned last week from her teaching duties at Oxford, Miss., and Sunday a family dinner was held in her honor at the W. S. King home.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Larsen and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dahlin went to Grand Island Monday for the day. Sunday the Dahlins were dinner guests of the Larsens, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Adamek called that afternoon.

Mrs. Lloyd Parks left Grand Island Friday for Portland, Ore. to make her home there. Dolores Jablonski has taken a job at the Ord Co-operative Creamery and will spend 40 hours a week working there.

Mrs. Lloyd Wilson has been in bed with bronchial pneumonia. Dr. H. N. Norris is her doctor. A daughter is also quite ill. Joyce is a patient at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Mason while she has intestinal flu.

A baby boy was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Powers, of Burwell, with Dr. F. A. Barta attending. Mother and baby are being cared for in the Ord home of her mother, Mrs. John Nelson.

Misses Jean and Darlene Carlson were weekend visitors at home, bringing a friend, Mr. LaVerne Curry with them from Lincoln Saturday night. They returned Sunday evening to Lincoln. E. C. Carlson's father, Mr. E. C. Carlson, is expected, this week from California, and will spend the rest of the summer in Ord.

Roy Seversons are nicely settled in their new home in west Ord, a neat modern bungalow built by the late Tom Williams a few years ago. They have been spending the past week redecorating it and getting ready to move in. The William Goff family will move in to the Severson house at once.

The M. F. Kosmata family have been here several days visiting relatives and will leave this morning for their new home in Caldwell, Ia., where Mike will be in charge of the parts department for a large firm distributing farm machinery. He has held a similar position in Grand Island for the past six years, since leaving Ord.

Here from out-of-town to attend the funeral of Clarence Blessing on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blessing of Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blessing of Grand Island, A-S and Mrs. Woodrow Meiers of Omaha, Mrs. Ed Anderson of Grand Island, Mrs. Fred Bish of Clay Center, and 2nd Lt. and Mrs. Dean Blessing of Rapid City, S. D.

Mrs. H. B. Maxwell of Alliance, and son Gary have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Chase of Loup City for a week. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Maxwell and Gary, and Bert Chase's children Gwen and Paul were dinner guests in the Keith Lewis home in Ord. Mrs. Maxwell stayed in Ord and went on to Omaha with Mrs. Lewis next morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Pharis, of Minneapolis, visited last week at the Charles Blaha home where Mrs. R. J. Pharis and son Jimmy are staying for the duration. The Pharis' eldest son, Sgt. Bill Pharis of the Grand Island air base, and his fiancée, Miss Kathleen Quinn, of Grand Island, accompanied the Pharis' to Ord, returning by bus Friday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pharis left Saturday afternoon for Minneapolis where he is an instructor at the Dunwoody Institute for Men.

Service Letters

To the Editor of the Quiz:
Due to the simple fact that I haven't cluttered up the columns of your sheet for some time (John Ward has been doing my share too), I have decided that it is high time that I was getting on the ball.

First of all, I must heartily reprimand your fine sheet for two errors of like nature. I have tried many times, without success, to convince you good people in and around Ord that I have not, repeat NOT, seen Hank Larsen since his arrival in India. I have, however, had one measly letter from him, and that was nearly a year ago. Nor have I been fortunate enough to contact Joy Janssen, as was erroneously stated in a recent issue of the Quiz. I merely stated that I knew he was in this vicinity, and that I had received a letter from him, and we were hoping to get together ere' too long. However, (roses to you, me lads) I have seen Bill Baird on several occasions, and we have had some very enjoyable visits. There are a few other minor items which have been mentioned, but they pertain mainly to a time element, and you only missed by a few odd months in each case, so we will just pass them off as typographical errors.

As for this mysterious land of the fakir and the whirling dervish, I could write volumes on why a person shouldn't visit, what I don't like about the place, and what could be done to improve it. But, when it comes to writing the things I like about it, that is another thing entirely. I can honestly say that there is one thing I would like to see, and that is the coastline of India, viewed from the sun-deck of a steamer bound for America. Of course, during the 20 months that I have spent here I have almost become one of the people. I even speak the language like a native (Well, four words, anyway).

The climate over here is wonderful (?) especially during the monsoon season. You can nearly always manage to pick up a good case of "prickly heat", you know, the kind where little bumps stand out on your body like "fuzz on a pineapple." It is really a great place because you always have something to do. In the summer you scratch your "prickly heat" and wipe the sweat from your brow. In the winter you scratch the bug-bites you receive from the animal life which is so willing to share your bed with you each night (That is, they are willing, if you don't require too much room.)

It is very surprising the number of things you can get over here. For example, ivory, sandal-wood, beautiful wool, malaria, cholera, typhoid, dengue fever, lots of rain, dysentery and no sleep.

I must tell you the main reason for my being promoted to sergeant. It seems that there is one of the "ex-Valley county glamor girls" who is in the Marines, I won't mention her name but her initials are Lillian Kusek, who was recently made sergeant, so I went to the colonel I work for, poured my heart out to him with tears in my eyes, telling him how horrible it was to have an old schoolmate (a girl at that), in the Marines, who was always "pulling her rank" on me. So, he says, "All right, Joe, (we're very good friends but he hasn't learned my name yet) just to show you that my heart's in the right place I'll recommend you for a promotion. And what do you know! I MADE IT!

Incidentally I received a letter from Lil the other day and she seems to think that you should delete all the Polish names from your publication because one of her girl friends got wind of the fact that Lil has about 1003 first to seventy-first cousins in the county, so each time the local sheet arrives at her post, the girl friend always grabs the paper and circles all the Polish names, saying that there is another of Lil's cousins. It isn't the fact that this girl marks up the paper so badly that Lil can't read it, that bothers her. It is the simple fact that 99 times out of 100, the poor girl is right. What do you suppose can be done about this situation?

Well, in order to leave room for the North Loup news and Bob Noll's ad, I think I had better crash-land this thing. I know that I haven't said anything because there isn't anything to say, but I was in the mood to write a letter, so decided you would be the victim this time.

I am hoping with all my might that I will be sitting under the A. R. Clark's table for dinner on either Christmas or New Years. (Well, I can dream can't I?) So, until it once again comes your turn to be the outlet for my literary "instincts", I bid thee one and all a fond farewell!

Yours truly,
ARDEN CLARK
P. S. It isn't essential that you be crazy to get along in India, but it sure helps!
(And that ISN'T American Red Cross!) A. R. C.

Caledonia Mosquitoes Are Big as Hummingbirds!
From a New Caledonia hospital comes a letter from Don Counce, who married Dr. Kirby McGrew's eldest daughter. He writes to Mrs. C. E. McGrew "Your most welcome letter came today. Now I know where doctor gets his ability to write such nice letters. When he writes he makes everything seem so real. When I read your letter it was just like sitting in the big easy chair listening to you talk, that is when I could keep the mosquitoes from biting. We don't have 'em back in Nebraska, thank God. You have seen the humming birds, these darn mosquitos are that big! Well, almost."

"I think Lillian and Kirby will be back in Nebraska before too long. I sure wish I were back there. She wrote me about a part time job she has there, and I could just see her, the way she gets so excited over things like that. I wouldn't have her any other way, though she gets a kick out of just living. Kirby has just as much

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Kirby and Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Kirby and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Boyce and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jens Nelson, Jimmy Nelson and Verma Vergin.

Mary Ann Gnaster went to Farwell Friday to visit until Monday with her relatives there. Wednesday Mary Catherine O'Neill came on the bus to spend two weeks visiting her cousins, the Gnaster girls. Her home is at St. Paul.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

2547 Northwest Northrup St. Portland, 10, Ore. June 6, 1944. Friend Hank-

When I read in the Quiz that Jason would not run for vice-president, I folded up my own candidacy, as anyway, it had mostly accomplished its purpose which was to scare Mr. Wilkie out of the campaign.

Later on I contacted several persons who used to live in or near Ord and who have known Jason for a lot of years and they all seem to think that Jason has been terribly inhibited for years and could not bring himself to admit publicly, that he knew enough about vice to be a vice president even though he would probably admit that he is a lot of bother there as county assessor.

I contacted Mrs. Westburg who used to take pictures there and also Orin Mutter who did the same and then there was Ralph Staple, Ralph Martin, Floyd Williams and a lot of others and they all seem to think that it is inhibition that is gnawing on Jason.

Like the time that they first put shoes on Jason. They let him up on his feet there in my Aunt Nancy's kitchen and he just stood there on the kitchen floor all night and slept standing up, he thought he had been nailed to the floor.

Then Bill McLain tells about the time that Jason was brought into his court for stealing a horse and Jason had not intended to steal a horse at all but he just intended to steal a piece of rope and he carried that rope home and never knew that there was a horse on the other end of it until he got home.

Judge McLain ruled that Jason had been guilty of stealing the rope and made him return it but let him keep the horse. Jason used to get absent minded and think that he was still in Missouri and one time he caught a couple of twin girls about sixteen years old on their way home from school and tried to hitch them to a plow but one of them kicked him on the fur side of the back forty and that is the next time Jason was in Judge McLain's court.

Mrs. Westburg came to take pictures of Jason's bruises and so did Orin Mutter, just in the event that the case was ever brought into court—which it was.

Jason was so badly bruised that we sent for Old Doc McGrew and Doc could see right away that Jason had to have a blood transfusion and he typed Jason's blood and it was type K9P and Doc looked in his little black book and said "Hmmm, just two donors in these diggins with that type of blood, there is Eben Moss and then the other one is that blue nosed mule of Art Mensing's. Better catch them both," Doc said. "For we are going to need about three gallons of blood, that gal kicked Jason awful hard" he says.

Well, one posse started out after the mule and the other went after Eben but in the meantime Eben had a bad boll on the back of his neck and some of the family had started to treat it with turpentine and had just poured on a lot too much and it ran down his back. Eben started to run and howl just about the time the doctor's posse started after him and it seems he was running in a huge circle which was tangent on the bunk house of the Doran cattle ranch. Every time Eben would get to the ranch, the cow-hands there would catch him but instead of holding him for the doctor's posse, they would just turpentine him again and turn him loose—Elmer Hallock who was head of the doctor's posse, reported that they got close enough a good many times to hear Eben howl and once or twice they saw him jumping from one blowout to another but they never did catch him.

Anyway, Jason, when he learned of the transfusion and where the blood was coming from said he would rather have the blood from a blue nosed mule than from a democrat with only two legs so they gave up trying to catch Eben until later on when the mule got sick and had to have a transfusion.

Now three gallons of blood in Jason from that blue nosed mule could have a lot to do with the way Jason acted about politics and there is no telling how much worse he might have been if they had caught Eben.

Finally the case got into court and Jason was suing the family of the girl that had kicked him in the McKinley administration and Judge McLain ruled that even according to the Missouri code a feller had no right to hitch a gal to a plow unless he was married to her and here this was Nebraska and he was not even engaged to the gal. So the judge ruled for the defendant and there was quite an uproar in the court room and the judge just pounded on the bench with his mallet and yelled "Balliff, clear the court room and bring my fishing tackle". Hoping that you are the same.

OBITUARY

Erick Elmer Erickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Erickson was born at Harvard, Nebraska October 24, 1874 and died suddenly from cerebral embolism June 6, 1944 at the age of 69 years, 7 months and 13 days.

His parents died at an early age and as a child he was cared for by his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Swanson who resided on a farm near Eldorado, Nebr. Here in his boyhood days he learned to till the soil and do general farming in a good way.

When only a lad of 15 years he hired out as a farm hand to a Mr. Horace Duff, a farmer living near Eldorado, Nebr., and for eight years he toiled at a relatively low wage. But from these earnings and diligent saving he was able in due course of time to purchase an 80 acre tract of land in Clay county, where he established his first home.

On September 14, 1903 he was united in marriage to Anna R. Nordstrom of Arcadia, Nebr. In March 1911 he and his wife and family moved to their present home, south of Arcadia, where he resided for 33 years.

To this union were born five children: John, Kermit, Gene and Mrs. Ruth Frost, all of Arcadia, and Raymond of Dallas, Tex. Surviving besides his wife and children are a sister, Mrs. Mina Achord of Colorado Springs, Colo., and three grandchildren, Patricia Jean, Kermit Roland and Peggy Evelyn Erickson.

Mr. Erickson devoted his entire life to farming and stock raising.

On August 5, 1934 he was baptized and joined the Balsa Baptist church. He was true to the faith in the Lord and was ready to leave this world at the time of his sudden death.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. E. Johnson, pastor of the Balsa Baptist church, from the Arcadia Congregational church, Friday afternoon, June 9. The two hymns "Nearer My God To Thee" and "Shall We Gather at the River" were sung by Rev. Paul W. Travis of Monterey, Calif., and also the favorite hymn of the deceased, "The Great Physician Now is Near" was sung as a final tribute to the memory of his father by Kermit R. Erickson, with Miss Arils Johnson at the piano.

Pallbearers were his four sons John, Kermit, Raymond and Gene, his son in law, T. Sgt. Nile H. Frost and his neighbor and friend, Wes Hurlbert.

Burial was in the Balsa cemetery south of Arcadia near the old farm home.

The Hastings Mortuary had charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Arnold Ritz and little daughter went to Grand Island Saturday and her sister, Bethel Giles went to Central City.

Miss Freda Hunt, Mrs. Mary McDonald and daughter, Lilas were bus passengers to Grand Island Saturday.

Mrs. H. O. Cooley left Saturday for Minneapolis, Minn., where she will visit a few weeks.

Her daughter, Mrs. Julia Mayland of South Dakota will meet her there, and they plan to visit Rochester, Minn., before returning.

Mrs. D. R. Lee returned Sunday from Broken Bow where she and her son Alvin had been visiting at the Miles Lee home.

Arthur Easterbrook drove to Ansley Saturday morning where he met his daughter, Miss Doris Easterbrook and Miss Neta Bellinger, who have been attending Iowa State College at Ames.

Edwin Christ, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Christ left Tuesday morning for the Great Lakes, Ill., where he will take his boot training. He entered the navy as S-1-c.

Dale Sell heard from his friend Charles Ponce, telling him he enlisted last September in the navy and is now somewhere in the Southwest Pacific. He is married and has a little son. Charles was graduated from the Arcadia high school with the class of 1933. He says his youngest brother, Leo was a gunner on a Liberator and was reported shot down over Europe. His other brother Vic is in the navy but they don't know his whereabouts. The two younger brothers were graduated from Arcadia high school in 1936. Their mother, Mrs. Ponce lives in Franklin, Kans. The Ponce family will be well remembered in Arcadia, as Mr. Ponce had a butcher shop here until he was killed in 1938, when a tree fell on him at the Frank White farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould had a pleasant visit Saturday and Sunday from his father, Fred Gould and younger brother Otto and his new bride of Custer, S. D., and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gould and daughter of Alliance.

Mrs. Harry Rutherford and son and brother, Dick Nordstrom, of Funk, Nebr., attended the funeral of their sister's husband Eric Erickson, Friday. They returned home Sunday.

Cpl. Bill Murray of Orlando, Florida arrived Monday evening to spend a fifteen day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Murray.

++ Something Different ++
A really different gift was received by three small girls for their respective birthdays, when little Misses Yvonne, Peggy and Lynn Anderson, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Anderson were sent a new pair of shoes each by their grandfather, Harvey Hohn.
Mr. Hohn is now living at Coffeetown, Kans., but his tiny granddaughters in Ord have a firm place in his affections.
Such a firm place that he spent his shoe stamps to buy them just the pretty summer slippers he wanted them to have.
And greater love than this hath no man, that he spend his shoe stamps for another in this year of rationing, 1944.
Up at Burwell an unusual demonstration of kindness was made on Decoration Day. It seems a soldier lad, far away, received news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Fisher, only a few days before Memorial Day. And his buddies generously made up a purse of $100 to send back to Burwell—all of the money to be used to decorate the grave of Mrs. Fisher with flowers, on Memorial Day.
Though I have never been sure that spending so much money for flowers for graves is justified; it is a beautiful sight and it proves that the giver spent some money. What else does it prove? And what could be done about it?
Well, there are a lot of hungry people in the world. Flowers are beautiful but they haven't kept many persons from starving.
And the same thought that the flowers show could have done some genuine good in the world if that money had been sent, let us suppose, to Father Flannigan's Home for Boys. Or to a library to buy a book in memoriam. Or to any worthwhile cause, of which our world is so full.
What would be a good cause? Giving to the Red Cross. Buying something for a poor child, shoes we'll say. Even sending a comfort like cigarets to a soldier boy might do.
All of which doesn't mean I don't like flowers.
And it doesn't mean I would love to receive a bunch of radishes next time I am sick, either!
Mrs. Ella Weckbach says her two boys grew up across the street from Doane college—a great help to me because there was a pond where they spent most of their time, and since there were 14 boys in their gang it made a big difference.
We always had a yard full of boys, but not much grass. No, but we can all have lawns after our boys are grown and gone, if lawns are so important.
One habit Mrs. Weckbach and myself had in common—she had a little whistle she blew when she wanted her boys. When she blew the whistle they came at once.
My whistle is used for the same reason, and it too means "come a-running." But it is one of those permanent-type whistles, one of the pucker-up-and-blow styles, and is forever mine.

The new charts will be easier to read through the use of a larger type, thereby increasing their effectiveness. They must be posted in the store as to be plainly visible to and easily read by customers.

FATS—Your grocer will pay 4 cents and 2 red points a pound for household salvage fats and greases.

PROCESSED FOODS—Blue Stamps, War Ration Book 4, R8, S8, T8, U8, and V8 valid June 1. Blue Stamps A8 through V8 good for ten points indefinitely.

MEATS—Red stamps, War Ration Book 4, A8 through W8 indefinitely. All meats except beef steaks and roasts still point free.

SUGAR—Sugar Stamp No. 32 becomes valid June 16 for 5 lbs. Sugar Stamps Nos. 30 and 31 on last page of War Ration Book 4 are good for five pounds indefinitely. Applications for canning sugar must be accompanied by "Spare" Stamp No. 37, (not "Sugar" Stamp 37.) Stamp No. 40 good for 5 lbs. of canning sugar.

GASOLINE—"A-11" coupons now valid for 3 gallons each, but must last until June 21, 1944. "A-12" coupons become valid June 22, but must last until September 21. "B-3" and "C-3" and "B-4" and "C-4" coupons good for five gallons each.

FUEL OIL—You should return your re-application for 1944-45 heating rations to your local board today.

Geraldine Brown Reports on 4-H Club Week

Geraldine Brown of North Loup who has won a prize trip to Boys and Girls Club week at the College of Agriculture has written the following account of her experiences:

The twenty eighth annual 4-H club week was held May 29 through June 3. Almost three hundred club members and leaders from eighty four counties attended. The majority of these boys and girls were there on trips they won through achievement.

The girls in attendance had a rare privilege. They were the first occupants of the new foods and nutrition building since the army moved out recently.

Monday was devoted to getting acquainted and registration, and we also had the pleasure of meeting L. I. Frisbie, State 4-H Club leader.

Each morning we got up at 6:00, had breakfast at 7:00 and flag raising at 8:00. Until noon each day we had singing with Mrs. Tullis, discussion groups, speeches and recreation.

At 12:00 we ate dinner after which we had our classes and recreation until supper time. At 8:00 we had more speeches and 7:50 we had flag lowering, at shows. At 11:00 lights were out.

The Douglas County 4-H band played Tuesday evening.

Ray Turner, District 4-H supervisor for midwestern states, U. S. Department of Agriculture visited us during club week.

On Wednesday Dr. Black presented many very interesting thoughts.

Elaine Shuckins told of her launching of the ship E. A. Burnett.

We all signed the Clean Plate club pledge.

A thrilling and educational experience occurred Thursday when we visited the state capitol, museum and dormitories.

Thursday evening we were given a banquet by the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

Friday morning we went to South Omaha by train and visited the Swift building and a meat demonstration.

At noon we had a luncheon at the Livestock Exchange building.

In the afternoon we went to North side Omaha and visited Joslyn Memorial, seeing pictures in the auditorium.

At 5:30 we were given a banquet by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce in the WOW building.

At 8:00 we went back to Lincoln on the Zephyr.

Tired but well fed and thankful for this wonderful opportunity we left the campus for home on Saturday morning.

I wish to express my thanks to the Burlington railroad for making it possible for me to attend 4-H Club week.

Brief Bits of News

Woodman Hall. — This vicinity has had almost a week of cloudy, rainy weather. On this Monday morning the skies are still heavily overcast and intermittent rain has been falling. The weather man's promise for clearing weather seems quite improbable. Sunday's rain was quite heavy and a great deal of here, though, heavier rains were reported. Last week we were without mail for several days because of the condition of the roads.—David and Joann Waldmann stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ptacnik last week while attending summer vacation school at the church.—Lew Rejda vaccinated hogs for Thomas and Joe Waldmann last Monday afternoon.—The Geranium Catholic church was the scene of a double wedding at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday morning June 6 when Miss Edith Ptacnik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ptacnik of Comstock, became the bride of Gunnars Mate 3rd class Bernard Swanek of the U. S. navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swanek of Burwell and Miss Bernice Swanek, twin sister of Bernard, became the bride of Matt Turck, son of Mrs. Anna Turck of Ord. Rev. Michael Szczesny, the local pastor, united the two couples at a High Mass using the double ring ceremony. Miss Edith Ptacnik was attired in a navy blue and white street length dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. The groom wore the regulation navy blue uniform. The couple was attended by the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Radil. Mrs. Radil wore a beige street length dress. Miss Bernice Swanek was dressed in a light blue street length dress with white and black accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations. The groom was attended by his cousin, Emanuel Sedlacek and his nephew, Ernest Ulrich. The choir, accompanied by Mrs. Joe Suchanek at the organ rendered the St. Basil's High Mass. After the ceremony, wedding dinners were served at each of the bride's homes. Mr. and Mrs. Turek will make their home on the farm where Mr. Turek has lived with his parents. Mrs. Bernard Swanek will make her home with her parents for the time as her husband will be stationed at San Diego, Calif.—Paul and Gerald Krikac visited with Jackie and Donald Waldmann Sunday afternoon.—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waldmann, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Radil, and Mrs. Bernard Swanek took G. M. 3-c Bernard Swanek to Grand Island Saturday morning where he left for San Diego Sunday afternoon.—Jim Hrebec spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Hrebec, jr. of near Ord.—Tom Waldmann's drove to Comstock Sunday evening to meet Mrs. Bernard Swanek, who came from Grand Island on the bus.—Ed Visek came from Omaha and is visiting with Mrs. Sophia Visek and daughters.—Joyce Ruzicka is staying with Joe Suchanek's and attending summer vacation school.—There will be High Mass at Geranium Catholic church Friday morning June 16 at 8 o'clock, the occasion being the Feast of the Sacred Heart.—On Sunday June 18 a group of children now attending summer vacation school at Geranium Catholic church conducted by Sisters Maximilla and Marie of St. Joseph, Mo., will receive their first Holy Communion at 10 o'clock Mass. Summer school will not close with this ceremony as was planned but will continue for several more days to make up for the time lost due to bad weather.

PERSONALS

—Syl Furtak, who is employed by Furtan Electric in Lincoln, spent a few hours at home Sunday.

—Mrs. Charles Severyn left Thursday for Omaha after spending two weeks with her father, F. J. Dworak.

—Oscar Seardon of Grand Island is in Ord for a few weeks to work with the members of the farm security office.

—Visiting in Ord this week was Sgt. James Petska, delighted to be home after 15 months in the Pacific war area, who had a 30 day furlough, and came Sunday evening. His father, Lou Petska, who has been working in Grand Island, came to Ord too.

—Mr. and Mrs. Bert Needham, their daughter, and son Billie left Tuesday by bus for California where they planned to visit another daughter, Mrs. Virgil McBurney and husband and with other relatives and perhaps make quite an extended stay.

—Visiting in Ord Memorial Day was Mrs. Ed Timm of Oakland, Calif., who was accompanied by their daughter, the former Irma Timm, who now lives at North Platte. They went from here to Burwell to visit, says Mrs. E. L. Johnson. Mr. Timm was a barber here for many years.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Krikac were happy to have their daughter, Mrs. Roland Johnson and small son Larry Jean arrive Tuesday for a one-month visit. Their home is at Oakland, Calif., where Mr. Johnson works at the shipyards. Mrs. Johnson stopped in Kearney to visit her sister for a day, and Mrs. Roland and Rose went there to get her.

Our Fighting Men

Staff Sergeant William R. Miller, 22-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Miller of Rt. One, Ord, has been promoted to technical sergeant and awarded an air medal for meritorious achievement in combat over Germany and enemy-occupied territory. Announcement of the honor by Lt. General James H. Doolittle tells that the Valley county young man has participated in nine daylight bombing attacks on the continent this year with the 8th Air Force, his group bombing Berlin five times in daylight. Young Miller attended Ord high school and later helped his father farm.

T Sgt. Eddie Dumond and wife, the former Fay Gregory left Tuesday of last week for Muskogee, Okla., where he was transferred three weeks before after two years' service at Camp Cook, Calif. The Ord youth, first from this county to report for duty, has now been in the service for four years. He is a cook, and has been spending a furlough in Ord with his mother, Mrs. Hope Dumond, and his grandmother, Mrs. E. L. Johnson and other relatives.

T-5 Bert Boquet, jr., has been having a 19-day furlough from his work in the signal corps at Camp Davis, Calif. He will leave Ord Thursday morning, after a visit with his father and other friends. He spent the first week of his leave with his sister Dorothy, now Mrs. C. R. Englehart of Flint, Mich., who had just returned home from a visit to Ord herself. While in Ord Bert attended a firemen's meeting, and was guest of honor at a supper they all enjoyed at the Haught Cafe later that evening. He rather expects overseas duty before long.

Ed Oetken left Monday to visit his people at Dorchester, and expects to report for army service on June 18th. His wife will stay in Ord for the present, and his place at the Co-op Oil company station will be taken by Bert Boquet, sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman have not heard from their son Roland now for a month or more, when he was stationed at Exeter, in England. A seaman first class, he had been in service one year on June 13, and across since September first. Another son, Lyle, expects to be shipped from his post in Kansas soon, he writes them.

Relatives of Pfc. Emanuel Bruha are hoping that he will be home on furlough soon. He is completing a special course at Ft. Sill, Okla., on June 17, and has his application in for leave after that time.

Keo Auble writes that her husband, Dale Vallier, has been given a New York City address. If and when he is shipped overseas she plans to come home for a good long visit at the L. J. Auble home.

Cpl. Kersey E. Luedtke is now stationed at Foster Field, Tex., writes his wife.

Sgt. Emil Darges writes that he has been moved from Camp White, Ore., to Camp San Luis Obispo, Calif.

Valley County Leading State in Individual Purchase of Bonds

60% of the Way Toward Making the Over-all Quota; Ord Already Over-Subscribes Quota 40%; North Loup Has 88%.

Sixty percent of the way toward its $354,800 quota and leading the state in percentage of bonds bought by individuals is the proud record of Valley county as the 5th War Loan campaign went into its second week, announced C. J. Mortensen, war finance chairman for the county, Tuesday.

A total of $216,596 worth of bonds have been bought here, he said, which includes purchases by Valley county, the city of Ord and the Burlington railroad. Such purchases were allocated on a percentage basis among the various townships of the county.

Leading the way in the township race is Ord township, whose people have already over-subscribed their quota by 40 per cent, Mortensen said. Purchases by residents of Ord township total $131,915 and the quota was $80,000.

North Loup township, with 88% of quota already subscribed, is in second place in the township race. Total of bonds bought there up to Monday night was $30,822.

Other townships are trailing sadly and if all of them could make their quotas the county would be over-subscribed. The township record follows:

Table with 4 columns: Township, Quota, Bonds bought, Per cent of Quota. Lists townships like Arcadia, Davis Creek, Elyria, etc., with their respective bond purchase statistics.

Trailing in the percentage standings most sadly are Davis Creek and Geranium townships, with only 11% of quotas bought and this showing mostly attributable to their share of the Valley county purchase credited to them.

It is a rare privilege to be able to be of help in this time of our country's need, he said, for all the money thus invested will be returned to us by our government with interest after the grave emergency has passed.

Bank deposits in this county are now the highest in history, well over three million dollars, he pointed out, and it is in the best interests of all that a goodly part of these deposits should be transferred into government bonds. Most of the increase in deposits it attributed to high war prices which will not be with us forever, he said, and the holding of government bonds affording the war will act as a stabilizing influence so that we will not have the deflation and depression that followed the first World war.

Mortensen expressed confidence that Valley county people will meet their responsibilities to the fullest extent before the bond drive ends July 8th.

On Saturday evening of this week a war bond rally will be held at North Loup and movies will be shown at Community Hall under auspices of the American Legion. Three reels of films will be shown, 'On the Anzio Beachhead', 'The War in the Air', and another film of equal merit. Patriotic music and speeches will be heard.

On Friday evening, June 30, a war bond show and rally will be given in Ord by personnel of the Kearney army air field, starting at 8:30.

Clark Weckbach and C. C. Thompson, co-chairmen of the county-wide campaign, say they are much encouraged at the first week's report of sales. Ord township in which the city of Ord is included will double its quota during this drive, Weckbach predicts. "Why, we haven't hardly started yet here," he said Tuesday, mentioning the residential house-to-house cleanup that is going to take place as soon as solicitation in the business district is completed. The American Legion has promised to carry on this canvass.

Last Saturday evening a crowd of several hundred gathered on the First National bank corner in Ord to watch a program of movies shown under the auspices of the American Legion. The movies were flashed on the side of the Milford store building and included South American reels and war pictures.

Between films a talk on war bonds was given by Mr. Mortensen, who explained the reason for bond sales, outlined the types of bonds offered and the interest drawn by each, and said that he hopes Valley county

Janice Knapp Runs into Auto, Injured

North Loup—(Special)—Janice Knapp, six year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Knapp, was severely injured Saturday night when she ran across the street and directly into Roy Williams' car, which was moving. Mr. Williams having just started home. She was severely cut about the head, her left leg was broken near the hip and her lower jaw broken in two places besides which most of her front teeth were knocked out. Mr. Williams, who was driving at a very moderate speed, did not see her but heard someone scream and Mrs. Williams saw her. They stopped at once or Janice would have been more severely hurt than she was. Several little girls had been playing together and had grown careless of the traffic.

Janice did not lose consciousness, was taken to the lawn in front of the hardware and later Dr. Hemphill took her to the hospital in Ord. Sunday Dr. Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. Knapp and Janice went to Omaha where she was put in the Bishop Clarkson Memorial hospital and Monday her broken bones were put in casts. Dr. Hemphill and Mr. Knapp returned Monday afternoon but Mrs. Knapp will stay for a while.

An unusually bright child, Janice has always made many friends with her sweet smile and winning ways and she made many more Saturday night and Sunday by her fortitude worthy of a grown person.

Mrs. Mary Ulrich Dies in California

Mrs. Mary Ulrich died suddenly Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Viola Anderson, with whom she lived at Alhambra, Calif. A heart attack caused the death of the former Valley county woman who has many friends and relatives here, but who has been living on the west coast for nearly ten years.

Children left to mourn are a son Emil Barta, also Joe Ulrich and Mrs. Agnes Ulrich Frazier, as well as Mrs. Anderson and several grandchildren. Mr. Barta and Mrs. Frazier left Sunday for Alhambra, but did not expect that Mrs. Ulrich's body would be brought here for services, though arrangements were not definite. Mrs. Ulrich was 69 years old at the time of her death.

Catholic Summer Church School Opens Recreation Cented Pool Table Ready

"The Roost" will be decorated soon, say the enthusiastic young people on that committee, who met Thursday to discuss the designs and agreed some of them were excellent. They will meet Thursday at 2:30 o'clock to continue their work at the Roost. The pictures they paint on the walls will carry out the chancleer theme they plan. Several boys are investigating the cost and making of a big sign to hang out in front of the building, which will also be done soon.

The covering for the two pool tables arrived Monday evening. It cost some $40, which knocked the treasury of the recreation center to a new low. Frank Kasal volunteered his services on Tuesday afternoon and put one of the tables in first class condition. John Haskell and some of the older boys will re-cover the other table.

Sponsors who would serve at The Roost this week include Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Peterson Tuesday evening, Mr and Mrs. I. E. Davis Wednesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Lewis on Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Travis Saturday evening, Mrs. Clarence Davis on Sunday afternoon. Monday evening June 26, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gnaster will be present, Tuesday evening Mrs. Carl Sorenson, Wednesday evening Mrs. Esther Manchester, Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Bud Martin, reports Mrs. Mabel Colver of the supervisory committee.

The Ed Gnaster family drove to Grand Island Tuesday.

100 Young People Attended County 4-H Club Meeting

Girls' Class Held at Legion Hall, Boys Make Field Trips, Judge Livestock.

More than 100 lively young 4H club members and leaders attended the county judging and demonstration day held Friday, at the American Legion hall in Ord, under the direction of the Valley county extension service.

Workers from the agricultural college were Allegra Wilkins, M. L. Lawritson and Phyllis Dodge, former Valley county 4H club member and leader. Phyllis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dodge.

At the morning session three demonstrations were given by Jerrold Fisher and Wayne Barber of the Blue Ribbon hog club of North Loup, Margaret Christ and Margaret Siekmann of the Sew E-Z sewing club of Arcadia, and Jackie Burrows and Barbara Stevens of the Live Wires cooking club of North Loup. Miss Wilkins and Mr. Lawritson discussed each demonstration and pointed out the good points and suggested improvements where needed.

The girls' classes were held at the Legion hall in the afternoon, conducted by Miss Wilkins, Miss Dodge and Mrs. Inez Burrows, when cooking, clothing and canned goods were judged.

The boys accompanied by Mr. Lawritson and Mr. Dale drove to the E. S. Coats farm where a class of Jersey cows was judged, then to the C. C. Dale farm for a class of Hampshire hogs and to the W. O. Zangger farm southeast of Ord where they viewed and placed a class of polled Hereford bulls.

Both County Agent Dale and Mrs. Burrows, emergency assistant, who is responsible for the girls 4H work, expressed themselves as pleased with the fine attendance and interest displayed by the members present.

Both Arms Broken by Beverly Burrows

Beverly Burrows, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Burrows, has more than her share of bad luck. She will spend the next few weeks with not one but two broken arms in a cast and sling. Friday Beverly's little sister Karen was swinging on the swing at the Roy Randolph home, when Beverly decided to jump on and swing too, but she missed the swing. The fall to the ground resulted in two broken bones just above the right wrist and one broken bone in her left wrist, which was broken four years ago in much the same place. Dr. and Mrs. Lee Nay reduced the fractures. (Beverly would like it hinted that she enjoys company!)

Kearney Flyers Give Show in Ord

Kearney—(Special)—Personnel of the Kearney Army Air Field will take part in Valley County's Fifth War Loan campaign at Ord on Friday, June 30. A caravan of military equipment, a full military band, a dance orchestra, singers and speakers will be present. Approximately 50 persons will be in the group under the leadership of Lt. Clarence W. Edwards, special services officer.

The caravan will arrive at Ord in the afternoon and the concert and speaking will take place at the court house plaza. The band is under the direction of Warrant Officer Albert V. Hodges. Speakers, officers assigned to Kearney Army Air Field, will emphasize the importance of the current bond drive, Valley county's quota being $354,000. Nebraska's goal in the Fifth War Loan is $123,000,000. Previous campaigns have been very successful, and the last loan was heavily oversubscribed.

On display as part of the military caravan will be chemical warfare equipment, ordnance items including machine guns and other weapons, and demolition bombs and blockbusters.

NOTICE

Applications for free high school tuition should be filed at once, as the law says they are due by July first. If you plan to attend Ord high school next year and this applies to you, please take note. Clara McClatchey, county superintendent.

Mrs. Ed Johansen of North Platte is visiting her mother, Mrs. Agnes Wigent for about two weeks.

Bredthauer Buys 300 Cases Surplus Eggs at 5c per Case, Feeding Them to His Hogs

The hogs on the Arnold Bredthauer farm are enjoying a fancy diet this week—fresh eggs. From the War Food Administration in Omaha, Mr. Bredthauer bought and trucked to Ord three hundred cases of surplus eggs. They cost him only 5c per case, or a small fraction of a cent per dozen, and they were sold to him with the understanding that they could be used only as animal food. Most of the eggs were strictly fresh, Mr. Bredthauer says, some of them appearing to have been laid only a day or two before. He wouldn't be surprised, he says if some of them are Valley county eggs bought at the government support price of 27c per dozen, trucked to Omaha, and sold to him by the WFA at 5c per case. He must return the cases as soon as he has fed the eggs to his hogs, Bredthauer says. The cases are worth 30c each.

Brand Charge Costs Ira N. Myers $59.50

Ira N. Myers was fined $50 and costs, for a total of $59.50 in county court Friday when he pleaded guilty to a charge of transporting cattle without a brand inspection. The charge was filed by Deputy County Attorney Norman after an investigation conducted by a state inspector, Mr. Clark, and Sheriff Hall.

The complaint charged that Myers hauled eight head of cattle out of Valley county, which is a brand area, and into Hall county, which is not a brand area, for shipment out of the state, without having the cattle inspected for brands, as the statute provides for brand areas.

At the Quiz office after paying his fine, Myers charged that the brand law is very laxly enforced, that many Valley county feeders ship without the formality of a brand inspection, and that he bought his feeder cattle at Alamosa, Colo., where their brands were inspected and a certificate furnished him, and that he therefore supposed he did not need another inspection.

Burlington Buys Bonds

The C. B. & Q. railroad is subscribing $5,315,000 to the 5th War Loan drive and $10,000 of this amount has been credited to Valley county, says Ivan Davis, local agent. In addition Burlington employees are purchasing large numbers of bonds by cash subscription and through the pay-roll savings plan.

44 Inch of Rain Falls

North Loup got 44 of an inch of rain Tuesday evening but apparently was the only portion of the county to receive moisture. No rain has fallen during the past week and farmers have made full use of the dry spell by completing corn planting, getting started with the hay harvest and other work that has been delayed by June rains.

In Armed Services

Lt. Col. Adrian Tolen. Col. Tolen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irl D. Tolen of Lincoln, was promoted recently from the rank of major to that of lieutenant-colonel. He is stationed at the Grand Island army air field.

Ensign Nash completed his schooling and was commissioned two weeks ago at Tucson, Ariz., and after a short leave has gone to Florida where he will be stationed.

Mrs. Mark Tolen is undergoing medical treatment in the Ord hospital and may submit an application later. She has been in poor health several weeks.

10 Lbs. of Paper Monthly Is Quota in Salvage Effort

Paper Most Critical of All War Materials; Carload Leaves Here Monday.

When the war started the most critically needed of all war materials was aluminum, and Americans responded gallantly to appeals for salvage. Then it was scrap iron, and then rubber, and fats, and gasoline. Each time Americans saved and salvaged these critical materials. Now the rapidly-changing demands of war have shifted to paper and paper is the most critically needed war material of all at present.

Salvage quota established is 10 pounds per month per person for the balance of 1944, said R. Clare Clement Tuesday. Object of this paper salvage campaign is to salvage two million tons of paper during the rest of this year, to supplement dwindling supplies of raw materials. Every scrap of paper of every kind should be saved. Clement has appointed as auxiliary chairmen Mrs. J. A. Barber, of North Loup, and Rev. C. A. Busby, of Arcadia. If Valley county's 7,188 people salvage paper at the recommended rate there can be two carloads of paper shipped from Ord every month during the rest of the year.

First of these carloads is being loaded at the Burlington dock this week and will leave Ord Monday and be shipped directly to an Indiana paper mill converting salvaged paper into cartons for the shipment of military equipment abroad.

People may take their paper to the car and be paid for it at prices ranging from $12 to $26 per ton, depending on the type or grade, or if they have only a small quantity they may donate it and proceeds from its sale will be donated to some worthy war cause, Clement promises. In either event the paper is urgently wanted and needed.

See that it gets to the car before Monday noon for shipment. If you haven't been saving paper start to do so now. Burning waste paper is almost an act of treason, declare officials who know the needs of war.

Arrangements are being made to establish paper collection depots at points conveniently located in each town of the county. In Ord the old Henry Stara pool hall building will be used as a depot and people may leave their waste paper there at any time, Clement says. For the rest of this week, however, it should be taken directly to the car.

Whenever you can, carry home your purchases without having them wrapped or put in a sack, which will save kraft paper, the kind that is most critically needed. If you do have wrapping paper or paper bags save them for reuse or turn them in for salvage. Save old newspapers and magazines and tie them in bundles about 8 or 10 inches high for easy handling in the car. Save all other types of paper and paper products too. Pack mixed paper in paper boxes tightly and deliver it to the car or collection depot in the boxes, or fold paper cartons and corrugated boxes as an urgently needed as anything.

Not everybody could take part in the aluminum scrap iron and rubber salvage campaigns, for not everybody had these materials, but everybody has some paper that can be salvaged and used in helping the war effort.

Two carloads a month is Valley county's goal and it will need the combined efforts of everyone to reach it. Let's quit wasting paper and see how much of it we can save, until the emergency is over and the war is won.

OPEN YOUR DOOR AND HEART!

-the Victory Volunteers are coming to your home

WHO IS THE Victory Volunteer? He (or she) is someone in your community—probably a good neighbor—who is taking time from his work to put over the 5th War Loan Drive.

One of these volunteers may call at your farm soon—on the most important mission of the hour!

America has asked you before to do something more to smash Hitler and Tojo. But now, in this 5th War Loan Drive, you're asked to go all-out with every dollar you can scrape up—for war expenditures are greater now than at any time since Pearl Harbor. Double your War Bond investments. Invest—$200—$300—$400—more if you can.

Yes, it's that important. This war is mounting in fury every minute—as our fighting men plunge into the biggest and bloodiest battles of history. The men who fought and bled and died for you didn't hesitate. Only by answering "yes" to the Victory Volunteer—only by investing to the limit—can you come at all close to matching the spirit of our fighting men. For their sake—and for the sake of your own future—open your door and your heart!

5TH WAR LOAN DRIVE—JUNE 12TH-JULY 8TH

The 5th War Loan is the greatest "war call" ever sent to the American people. You will want to do your part. Buy all you can—the biggest bond you can afford. And then, when you think you've reached your limit—buy some more! Every dollar counts—NOW!

And Here are 5 EXTRA Reasons for Buying MORE Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds will assure the funds to replace worn-out farm equipment, machinery, and buildings.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Back the Attack!

Buy More Than Before!

Nobody needs to tell you that the fighting in this war has reached a crisis. But we've got to realize also that we face a similar crisis in financing the war.

Make no mistake, the 5th War Loan is the biggest, most vitally important financial effort of this war.

We can't afford to fail!

Now is the time for every American to go all-out... to make his supreme effort of the war. Buy DOUBLE the extra bonds you bought last time.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

So many complaints come in because I get busy or lazy and leave this column out that when it turned cool Sunday I decided to write it once more.

It was Shakespeare I believe, who said, "Talkers are no good doers." He must have been referring to women.

Again I must remind you that you can tell when your Quiz subscription is paid for by looking at the date after your name on the paper or wrapper. We send notices, but we would be saved many dollars and much time if people would send in their renewals a few days or weeks before their time is out. They neglect it, then we have to take the name off the list. One man was so peeved, when he didn't get the paper, that he came in and gave me a thunder. I knew his political proclivities, so when he got done blowing off I ask him if he was a New Dealer and when he assured me that he was, I told him it was the New Deal that was now running my business and almost every other business in the country. And I told him if the New Deal won again this time that in my judgment we would have many more rights taken away from us. But he paid up, anyhow.

Have you noticed how beautiful the Ord trees are this season? I remember Ord when there were hardly any trees and the few there were very small.

The other day when it was cloudy and sultry, Jud Tedro said we felt the heat because there was so much humanity in the air.

We used to hear people talking about their appendix operations but now it is mostly about their new store teeth.

I am unable to understand the justice of the government hog prices. A well known Valley county farmer took a load of hogs to Omaha the other day and when they were weighed, they were found to be just 4 pounds over the top price weight, so the powers that be took $2.10 per hundred off the price. And is that farmer disgusted. But the joke is that he had them ready to sell and wanted to sell them several weeks earlier but was unable to do so. I hear just lots of farmers say that they are closing out their hogs as fast as possible. They tell me that they would have been far ahead financially had they sold the grain and the hogs and saved themselves the work of caring for them.

I have invented a new dinner dish. For want of a better name and to be in line with the present administration, I call it B. H. P. H. and when the epicures hear about it, no doubt it will take the country by storm and be served on all leading menus.

Our Fighting Men

Pvt. Darold W. Petersen writes from Madison, Wis., of his marriage May 27, when he took Phyllis Mae Goodspeed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Goodspeed of Aberdeen, S. D., for his bride. Says he: "We were married in the University Student Presbyterian church at Madison at a double ring ceremony. The bride wore a grey-blue suit and her corsage was gardenias and rosebuds. Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Madison were attendants, the matron of honor wearing a grey silk dress and her flowers were rosebuds. Daryl Lint of Ord was an usher. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the James Taylor home. I met my wife while attending radio school in Aberdeen, and all her people live there."

Mr. and Mrs. Len Covert of Ord have received word of the marriage of their son, which took place June 7 at Abilene, Tex., when Pfc. Paul L. Covert was wed to Marie Maresh, also of Ord. Paul is in the field artillery, and his bride is working there. Both of them graduated from the Ord high school in the class of 1943, and are well and favorably known here.

The W. J. Vasicek family not heard from their son Lt. Richard Vasicek for three weeks or more, at which time he was on the east coast. They wonder if he has not been sent overseas for active duty, says his sister, Mrs. Arden Clark. A letter received from her husband Tuesday reports he is "fine and busy."

At the Roy Severson home guests have been Ft. Lutenant and Mrs. Eldon Benda and their small child, who came on Saturday from Topoka, Kans. and left Wednesday for Denver, Colo., where he will be stationed at Fitzsimmons General Hospital. He was a dentist at Scottsbluff before entering service a few months ago.

Sgt. Dean Misko is now at Camp Anza, Calif., and writes home that he is in a replacement pool, and will likely get sent over soon. He has been stationed at a hospital; and is now called a detachment clerk.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ferris received word from their son, Pfc. Melvern Ferris, that he is back in the United States from a tour of duty in the Alaska area and that he expects to be home on furlough between June 25 and July 5. He is now at Camp Shelby, Miss. A letter Tuesday from another son, Calvin Ferris, who is with the armed forces in Italy, says he was with the army that broke through from the Anzio beachhead and captured Rome and that he had enjoyed seeing the historic buildings of that city when his unit marched through in pursuit of the German army.

Lt. and Mrs. Dean Barta went from here to Atlantic City, N. J., where they are enjoying a grand two weeks' at the Ritz Hotel, a treat Uncle Sam provides all his flying crews after they have had a three weeks' furlough at home. This additional relaxation is supposed to take the edge off their nerves, and improve their physical condition generally. Free golf, tennis, swimming, the finest meals and sports, all are given to these young men who fight our sky battles so fiercely, often returning from 12 and 14-hour assignments over the continent of Europe so exhausted they must be carried from their planes. Lt. Barta and his crew expect to be sent back to England.

The Kasper and Hrebec families have been enjoying the furloughs of Pfc. George Kasper from Ft. Benning, Ga., and Cpl. and Mrs. Hrebec and little Marilyn Kay from Ft. Knox, Ky. Pfc. George Kasper returned to Ft. Benning on Saturday and Cpl. Aldrich Hrebec left Tuesday for Ft. Meade, Md. Mrs. Hrebec and little daughter will make their home in Ord for the duration. This is the first time that the Kasper children have all been together in two-and-one-half years. Pfc. George Kasper has seen service two years, nine months, 20 of them spent in Alaska and the Aleutians. Cpl. Hrebec has been an instructor at Ft. Knox for 18 months past. Both boys feel they will be going for a "boat ride soon."

Mrs. Dick Nelson reports that her grandson, Dale R. Hish, 21, has been promoted to the grade of staff sergeant. He is waist gunner on a Fortress at an advanced Italian base. He moved from Valley county with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hish, some 12 years ago to Illinois. He attended Virginia high school, worked at the Elwood Ordnance Plant, joined the army air force Jan. 9, 1943. He has completed 19 combat missions since arriving in the Mediterranean area. Hish and his fellow crew members have a rooster as a mascot, of which they are very proud.

M. Sgt. Ernest M. Methé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Methé of Kearney, Nebr., has served six months with the combat support wing, crack trucking organization somewhere in England. These skilled repairmen are the unsung heroes of the air service command, for they work in freezing weather, impenetrable fog to keep an increasing number of trucks delivering the goods to combat stations. Methé worked for C. L. Willoughby before his induction January of 1942.

WAC Mary Jo Raemaker is spending a few days furlough with her parents in Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raemaker. She came Thursday from an east coast station.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Peterson have received word from their son Don F. of his promotion to hospital apprentice, first class. He is now located at the navy hospital at Mare Island, Calif.

Pfc. Raymond Swoboda is home after three years spent in the Canal Zone of Panama, where he is on M. P. duty most of the time. He has a 23-day travel pass, and is to report at a Texas post on July 8. He is visiting his parents, the Anton Swobodas, and other relatives, having arrived Wednesday evening.

The wedding of Second Lieutenant George R. VanHouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Van House of Kenesaw, formerly of Ord who took Mary J. Grogan of New York City as his bride at a nuptial mass at ten o'clock Saturday morning, June 10, in St. Jean Baptiste church in New York City, will be news to Ord friends. Lt. Van House is in the ordnance department of the army, stationed in Chicago. His bride is a New York girl, active in Catholic circles and a USO hostess. She has spent all her life in New York, and a wedding trip to Salt Lake City and Denver was her first visit to the west. The newlyweds planned to stop at Kenesaw for the weekend of June 17 to visit his parents, and then go on to Chicago, where they will make their home for the duration. An older brother, Pvt. Charles Van House of Albany, N. Y., working with the engineering department of Albany for the army, his wife and sister of Montgomery, Ala., were his only relatives as guests at the wedding.

Our attention has been called to a road situation that in the past has been bad but with the heavy rains this spring, has become increasingly worse. This strip of road is the county road four miles west of Arcadia that is known as the county line road. This road for about two and a half miles north of the junction of Highway No. 57 has been practically impassable to nearly all types of traffic for the past three or four months. While it is not our intention to criticize the county board too severely for this condition of the road for we know they are operating under wartime conditions, still the importance of this road demands that their attention be directed toward it. This road was graded and graveled by the county several years ago and while the gravel was not too heavy it has stood up well during the dry years but rapidly went to pieces during the snows and rains of this spring. This road carries the main traffic up and down the valley and is also the bus and star carrier route. A little grading and gravel would be a great improvement to this piece of road.

Chan True suffered a rather serious fall last Wednesday evening at the hotel where he has been making his home for some time. A light is usually left burning in the upper hall way but for some reason was not on at the time and Mr. True in returning to his room from the bath room lost his bearings and fell down the stairway. Dick Peterson, another roomer, went to his aid and got him back up stairs to his room. Thursday he was taken to the Loup City hospital where it was found that he had fractured his right wrist. Dr. Amick reduced the fracture and Mr. True returned home, where he is recovering from the shock of his accident. Considering his age, Mr. True was fortunate in not being injured more seriously.

Sandra and Marlene, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman of Ord, are visiting this week at the Walter Anderson home. Mrs. Anderson is a sister of Ralph. Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Nina Norman and brother Dale of Ord were Sunday dinner guests at the Anderson home.

Mrs. John Marrow called her uncle, W. J. Ramsey Sunday from Berkeley, Calif., and wished him Father's Day greetings. She said her husband had been promoted to lieutenant (j.g.) and was somewhere in the South Pacific.

Mrs. Dick Foltz, nee Neva Roberts, of Napa, Calif., was a guest at the Alvin Haywood home Sunday and Monday. She has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Emma Roberts at North Loup, and expects to return to California Friday.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred E. Johnson and daughter Arlis, left Tuesday morning for St. Paul, Minn., where they expect to visit relatives and friends. Rev. and Mrs. Johnson expect to return in a month and Arlis will remain and visit at Milaca, Minn., then will attend Bethel Junior college this fall at St. Paul, Minn.

A picnic was held in the Arcadia park last Sunday honoring Lowell Bray, S. 2-c. Those attending were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bray, his sisters and brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Ted West and family of Mason City, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Evans and family, Mr. and Mrs. Avolo Bray and family of Loup City, and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bray and family of Gothenburg. Lowell returned to Farragut Monday.

Miss Orene Lutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lutz left on Tuesday morning for Grand Island where she entered the St. Francis hospital to become a cadet nurse.

Rev. and Mrs. Fred E. Johnson and daughter Arlis, Mrs. Esther Roe and Miss Alta Landon went to Edmoreburg Thursday to attend the Baptist Platte Valley conference, returning to their homes Sunday.

Mrs. John Andersen and children of Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Port Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Namon Bouna and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bouna came to Arcadia Sunday with baskets of food and surprised their mother, Mrs. Frances VanWieren on her 83rd birthday.

Mrs. Chas. Braden went to Loup City Wednesday where she will visit a few days with her sister, Mrs. Harry McMichael.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Beaver and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Nelson left Sunday for Fremont where they will attend the Nebraska Rural Letter Carriers convention. They plan to visit Omaha before returning.

Rev. C. A. Busby left Monday morning for Lincoln, where he will attend the Nebraska Rural Fellowship conference.

David Jonak had his tonsils removed Saturday by Dr. Amick at the Loup City hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Cruikshank and children, Max Wayne and Jan Dee returned to their home at Waseon, Ohio, Wednesday after spending a week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Cruikshank and Knight Dorsey and family. Miss Helen Cruikshank accompanied them to Grand Island and returned to her work in Evanston, Ill. A family reunion was had at the Grand Cruikshank home on Sunday with all their children at home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kinsey drove to Grand Island Sunday where they met their daughters, Mrs. Henry Kramer and Mrs. Phil Bowman and little daughter, Judy, of Chicago. David didn't come this summer as he is attending a military summer camp for boys between the ages of seven and nine. David spent last summer in Arcadia with his grandparents and will be missed this summer by his many little friends.

Mrs. H. S. Kinsey entertained ten guests at a bridge party on Tuesday afternoon honoring the birthday of her daughter, Mrs. Henry Kramer. She then took them to the hotel parlors for a six o'clock dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow White and daughters, Bonita and Jean, of North Platte, spent the week end in Arcadia with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch White.

Ph. M. 2-c Bill Gogan of Corpus Christi, Tex., was called home by the serious illness of his father. He came by plane to Omaha and arrived home last Wednesday. Mr. Gogan passed away Monday morning at the St. Francis hospital in Grand Island.

Dale Snodgrass returned to his work at Grand Island Saturday. Fred Stone and Ray Pesler spent the week end in Arcadia with their families.

A group of friends and former neighbors of Eastside Arcadia took their dinner and went to the Harold Miller home Sunday, west of town, and surprised Mrs. Miller on her birthday.

Mrs. Fred Christensen and daughter, Mrs. Sibley and Mrs. Harold Miller spent Wednesday with Mrs. Jim Gray east of town. The latter three went to high school together in Arcadia.

Miss Margaret Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Ward, and her friend, Miss Mildred Kershner of San Diego, Calif., are visiting a few days at the Harold Weddel home. Both of the young ladies teach physical education in the schools in Chula Vista, Calif. They are driving a friend's car through to Rochester, N. Y., and must be there by June 30, as both girls are doing camp counseling this summer at Camp Onanda on Canandaigua Lake, N. Y., sponsored by YWCA. They stopped a few days in Denver and visited relatives of Miss Kershner, then at McCook to visit Miss Ward's aunt, Mrs. Nell Taylor, who accompanied them to Arcadia. They plan to return to California by plane, where they will both teach this fall. Miss Ward lived in Arcadia when a small child.

Gale Beals of Taylor and his cousin, Dwain Molley of Broken Bow, are spending a week with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson.

Mrs. Wayne Ashworth and Mrs. Arnold Ritz were Grand Island passengers Thursday. Mrs. Ashworth will work again for the Bell Telephone company.

Mrs. H. W. True took her son to Loup City Wednesday where he had his tonsils removed by Dr. Amick.

Mrs. J. H. Marvel was hostess to the American Legion Auxiliary at her country home last Tuesday. She and her daughter, Mrs. Don Pilger, served a lovely 1 o'clock dinner to seven members and fifteen guests. Many members were absent on account of sickness. A big rain the night before didn't keep the ladies at home as fifteen of them hired a truck to take them out and come back later in the afternoon after them. It was just like riding on the top of one of those big sight seeing buses. Everyone enjoyed the six mile ride as the country is beautiful this time of the year and the hillsides were covered with blue-bells and other wild flowers. The afternoon was spent sewing carpet rags to be sent to the Veterans' hospital to be woven into rugs. The next meeting will be June 27, at the country home of Mrs. Leland Bauhard. In case of rain it will be at the home of Mrs. Bauhard's mother, Mrs. Wm. Gregory.

John and Bessie Murray left Arcadia Wednesday morning on the bus for Seward, where they went to attend the wedding of their niece, Dortha Hudson. They returned by way of Ansley the next day.

Mrs. C. D. Langral, who has a position in the school for the blind in Council Bluffs, was in Seward a few days visiting Miss Hudson and she says her daughter, Claudia, lives in San Francisco, where her husband, Thomas Brewer is stationed in the Patrol Coast Guard. Mrs. Langral also attended the commencement exercises at the state university this spring where her nephew, James Salach, jr., of Albion was graduated. The late Dr. Langral practiced medicine for a number of years in Arcadia.

Mrs. E. C. Baird was hostess to the two table pinochle club Thursday afternoon. Mrs. L. H. Siekmann was a guest.

Mrs. C. C. Hawthorne entertained a group of ladies Friday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Margaret Ballentine, who returned to her home in California Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hawthorne had for their dinner guests Friday evening, Mrs. Margaret Ballentine, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kinsey, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hastings, Mrs. Inez Lewin and Hal Cooley.

Thelma Goodrich of North Loup is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Elbert Sell and family.

Mrs. Chas. Hollingshead returned from Grand Island Friday and will remain in Arcadia for a while as she is expecting a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Archie Rowal of Chicago.

Kernit Erickson was a business visitor to Grand Island on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray McClary were in Grand Island Monday. Mr. McClary going through the clinic.

CHAS. E. SANDALL SAYS:

NEBRASKA MAY WELL BE PROUD

"What a Record! Out of 1799 Beer License Renewal Applicants, Only 14 Denied for Cause. Nebraska May Well Be Proud!"

This Committee has urged, time and again, that the greatest care be observed in granting licenses only to proper persons. Working closely with your able enforcement officials, we have helped in locating the undeserving. A checkup just made of retail beer license applications is very gratifying. Of 1799 aplicants only 14—less than 1%—were denied for reasons of improper conduct. From only 5 Nebraska towns were protests filed by citizens.

The beer industry joins the citizens of Nebraska in being proud of this record. And the State is to be congratulated on having splendid laws, ably administered.

ISN'T NEBRASKA'S GOOD LIQUOR CONTROL STATUTE, PROPERLY ENFORCED AS IT IS. THE SOLUTION TO THE PROBLEM?

Proceedings of the County Board

June 13, 1944, at 10:00 o'clock A. M.

Meeting called to order by Chairman with supervisors, Jablonski, Ball, Hansen, Smith Barber, Psota and Suchanek, and County Assessor J. L. Abernethy, and County Clerk Klima, present upon roll call.

The Chairman then made and announced the appointment of the following standing committees for the year 1944, namely: EQUALIZATION—Ball, Barber, Psota, Abernethy. COMPLAINTS—Smith, Jablonski, Hansen. LEVIES—Hansen, Ball, Barber, Klima.

First name in each group is Chairman of such Committee. The Board as a whole, then took up matter of reviewing, and examining Assessments as made and returned from the various precincts, for 1944, and heard complaints, during the remainder of the day until 5:00 o'clock P. M. at which time recessed to June 14, 1944 at 10:00 o'clock A. M., when again called to order with all members present, and same work resumed, throughout the day, until 5:00 o'clock P. M., at which time again recessed until June 15th, 1944, at 10:00 o'clock A. M., again called to order with all members present.

Equalization of assessments and receiving and considering complaints, was resumed and continued throughout the day, until 5:00 o'clock P. M., at which time it was moved that inasmuch as Board has set for three days for the purpose of hearing and considering complaints and/or objections, that any and all complaints and/or objections to assessments not on file at 5:00 o'clock P. M., this day be barred. Said motion duly seconded and carried.

After due consideration and deliberation, the Committee on equalization submitted the following report: TO THE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION OF VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA:

We your committee on equalization wish to submit the following report: Whereas this Board has sat for three days in review of all tangible, intangible, motor vehicle and real estate assessments as returned by the precinct assessors, we suggest that they be declared to be fair and equitable for taxation purposes for the year, 1944.

Respectfully submitted, (signed) J. A. Barber, H. E. Psota, J. L. Abernethy.

Upon motion duly seconded and carried, foregoing report was carried and foregoing report accepted as read.

After due investigation and consideration of complaints on file, the Committee on Complaints, made the following report, to-wit: TO THE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION OF VALLEY COUNTY, NEBRASKA:

We, your committee on complaints wish to submit the following report, on following formal complaints on file and endorsed as follows, to-wit: Complaint No. 1, Union Fire Insurance Co., complains SE 1/4 5-18-13, assessed valuation of $2275.00, as excessive considering present market. Endorsed: "No cause for complaint." No. 2, Claud E. Barber, complains Lots 2, 3, 4, Blk. 4, Pope Add'n. North Loup, is too high compared to similar property values in same location. Endorsed: "Value of property complained of is $225.00."

The Ord Quiz PRICE & RATION GUIDE

NEW COMMUNITY CEILING PRICE LISTS: All Community Price Lists on dry groceries and related items have been revised and should now be in the hands of all Group 1 and 2 retailers. The new charts will be easier to read through the use of a larger type, thereby increasing their effectiveness. They must be posted in the store as to be plainly visible to and easily read by customers.

AUTOMOBILES—Price ceilings on used cars in this territory become effective July 10. Call your local War Price and Ration Board for the ceiling price before making any purchase.

FATS—Your grocer will pay 4 cents and 2 red points a pound for household salvage fats and greases.

SUGAR—Sugar Stamp No. 32 became valid last Saturday for 5 lbs. of sugar. Sugar stamps Nos. 30 and 31 on last page of War Ration Book 4 are good for five pounds indefinitely. Applications for canning sugar must be accompanied by Spare stamp No. 37 (not Sugar stamp 37). Stamp No. 40 good for 5 lbs. of canning sugar.

PROCESSED FOODS—Blue Stamps, War ration book 4, A8 through V8 good for ten points indefinitely.

MEATS—Red stamps War Ration Book 4, A8 through W8 indefinitely. All meats except beef steaks and roasts still point free.

GASOLINE—"A-12" coupons, valid for 3 gallons each, became valid yesterday, but must last until September 21. "B-3" and "C-3" and "B-4" and "C-4" coupons good for five gallons each.

FUEL OIL—You should return your re-application for 1944-45 heating rations to your local Ration Board at once.

LOCAL NEWS

—Gould Flagg, who is in Ord several days each month on business, was here this week. The Flagg home is now at Lincoln.

—Mrs. Hans Anderson left on Thursday and will spend a few weeks at the South Dakota home of her daughter, Mrs. Reginald Beeghly. Don Anderson took them to O'Neill, where Dr. Beeghly met them and brought Barbara and Bette Lu Anderson on their return trip after a visit with their Aunt Ellen.

—Mrs. F. L. Blessing was called to Elba Tuesday morning by news of the illness of her mother. Mrs. Mark Holm had suffered a slight stroke, but was resting more easily by evening, and Mrs. Blessing returned to Ord.

—Mr. and Mrs. Guy LeMaster went to Columbus Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kauffman a day or two before they left Tuesday evening for their Nauvatoosh, Conn. home. Mrs. Kauffman was formerly Norma Mae Snell, and has been in Nebraska for several weeks dividing her time between Ord and Columbus, where her husband's people live. Little Pat Melia, age eight, who has been visiting in Omaha for two weeks with relatives, was brought to Columbus and returned to Ord with the LeMasters. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Melia.

—The Frank Krikac's daughter, Mrs. Roland Johnson, no sooner arrived in Ord than she developed the mumps.

—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Austin of Bartlett are the parents of a boy born June 13 at their home. He has been named Lon Raleigh.

—Mrs. Emma Swayze went to Burwell Tuesday, after spending a week at the R. C. Austin home following her release from the Clinic Hospital.

—Clark Weckbach accompanied Jim Petska to Greeley Sunday, where Mr. Weckbach joined the Knights of Columbus organization.

—Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Dye, Curt Wilson and Mrs. Bud Wilson went to Grand Island on Wednesday for the day.

—George Zabloudd brought his little daughter Janet in to town Tuesday to see Dr. Lee Nay. The little girl had injured her back some way.

—Frank Andersen has been in Ord for a week, helping a new Wilson & Co. man find a place to live for himself, wife and baby. Frank is headquartering in Lincoln these days, but finds it pleasant to greet Ord friends again.

—Ruth Milford went to Omaha to be gone several weeks on business. When she left Sunday she was accompanied by Mrs. Marion Cushing, who returned from there to Lincoln. Mrs. Cushing was to leave Tuesday for Chicago, planning to go on to New York City to see her daughter Mrs. Robert Aiken, who lives there while her husband ferries planes for the navy. Robert Cushing is professor of genetics at Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., and his mother will also visit him in the two weeks she is in the east.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Zabloudd arrived home Monday from a visit with his brother in Texas, stopping to spend a week with their daughter Addis, now Mrs. A. S. Hawkey, of Newton, Kans. She and her husband and family are well, and they had a fine trip, excepting that trains were so crowded.

—Mrs. Leslie Nash was alarmed to learn her train was almost the only one which passed through after the flooded tracks were repaired, and immediately after it passed the line was closed once more. "But I didn't know it until later, so I wasn't as frightened as I should have been," laughs Mrs. Nash.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Van House News.
Mrs. J. C. VanHouse writes from Kenesaw to Mrs. Leggett: "I am going to send you an account of the marriage of our son, who went into the service from Ord, that is was inducted while his home was Ord. Being as that was the place of residence of his parents at the time. And he was pretty well known as he had been with the Ord boys in Lincoln in 1934 and '35, Floyd Beranek, Harold Sack and George Allen, Jr., and James Milliken. Several of the boys visited us on different occasions.

"We are pretty busy here, J. C. especially. We have a nice home, but I haven't forgotten Ord and expect to visit it again as soon as travel is permitted after the war.

"Our five-star flag carries the most stars for one family in Kenesaw, our four sons and a son-in-law are in the service of Uncle Sam. Edward is a seaman first class, coast guard at Tampa; Pvt. Charles at Albany; Donald is in the navy, chief petty officer on a sub-chaser somewhere in Italy; Lt. George in the ordnance dept. in Chicago, Ill.; son-in-law Carl Lam-born of Lincoln is in the air-craft dept. somewhere in Italy."

No Ceiling on Debts.
From a well known Valley county person is the following letter from Meadville, Pa., who says "Enclosed is a picture of Ord Twombly's daughter Vesta, who recently graduated from Cambridge Springs tying for second place in the class. She received a $10 cash prize for having the highest average in English, took the state scholarship examination open to the upper five percent of the class and won an Allegheny College scholarship. This is renewable each year if her grades are in the upper bracket.

"She plans on taking up journalism, designing and public speaking.

"A few Sundays ago we had the pleasure of entertaining Keo Vallier and husband and hoped they'd come again but Keo writes he has been sent on a coincidence, their wedding anniversary and ours both fall on June 10.

"Sorry to see in this issue of the Quiz the death notice of Antonia Stara Long, as far as I know the second one to pass out of the 16 who graduated in 1905, Stella Morris the other one.

"Yes, I'm just as strong a Republican as ever and unless we want the debt ceiling raised every year and WPA, PWA and all the rest of the alphabet put in motion again every one best get out and vote it down this fall. Maybe some of you enjoy being told how many teaspoons of sugar you can have on your strawberries but I don't. The idea of one family having sugar to waste and the next one feeling guilty isn't my idea of a democracy." Flavia Twombly Schwarzel.

4-H Club News

The Merry Modernettes meeting was held at the Plain Valley school on May 23rd. We have 12 members enrolled, nine of which were present. Our leader, Mrs. Victor Kerchal, demonstrated the lesson on making a pin cushion to the first year seamstresses. The members taking summer wardrobe discussed making a slip. We also chose the name of our club. The second meeting was held June 13th at the school house with five members present. The leader demonstrated making a needle case to the first year seamstresses. The girls taking summer wardrobe are to have their slips made and material and pattern for their dresses at next meeting, which will be held July 6th at the Plain Valley school house. —Rose Marie Sevenker, news reporter.

The Happy, Handy, Healthy, Helpers held their first 4H meeting at the home of their leader, Mrs. McClure, Tuesday afternoon, June 13th. Eleven members were present. We judged cookies and made three kinds of cocoa, using syrup, honey and sugar. The latter was judged the best. We also discussed muffins and how to judge them. The next meeting will be June 20th at the McClure home at 2 p. m. —Joanne Kriewald, news reporter.

The Sunny Side Servants 4H club met Monday, June 5th instead of June 1st, due to the heavy rains. The meeting was held in the leader's car, because the leader and members could not open the school house door. Only three members were present. The next meeting will be June 29th at the school house. —Regina Augustyn, news reporter.

NORTH LOUP

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sims are announcing the marriage of their son, Sgt. William Gerald Sims, to Miss Norma Coombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Coombs, on June 3, in the Church of England, Vicar A. H. Barnes reading the lines for the single ring ceremony. The bride wore a royal blue dress with wine accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and was given away by her father. Lee Meade, close friend of the groom was best man. The groom grew up in North Loup, graduating from our schools in '38. He joined the armed forces in November, '41, and is a member of the 3rd armored division located somewhere in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Sims have had several letters the last week from Bill and one came Tuesday morning dated June 7, after 'D' day, so they know at that time he was still in England.

Mrs. C. G. Wilson and three children of Omaha were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vocke. Mr. and Mrs. Vocke went to Cotesfield to meet them.

Mrs. Ed Whalen and Patsy were Monday guests of Mrs. Alvin Krone and Mrs. Harry Vocke.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krone and Bonnie and Bob were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whalen.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Knapp and children Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson were Sunday evening guests of Mrs. Lizzie Knapp.

Mr. and Mrs. Nels Baker attended a family picnic in the Ord park Sunday.

War Bond Dollars Are DOUBLE DUTY DOLLARS

Growing Crop
Last year 15 million bushels of soybeans were required for seed in the United States, whereas in 1917 a mere 15 million pounds sufficed!

Spain Uses Mahogany First
The first known European use of mahogany was for the chanting desk, choir stalls, doors and for cases, shelves and desks in the great library, of the Escorial, begun by Phillip II of Spain in 1563 and completed in 1584. Its earliest known use in England was in Nottingham castle, built in 1680.

Infection in Crop Refuse
Continuous cropping to soybeans is not advisable from a sanitation standpoint. While seed infection is of considerable importance in some cases, indications are that by far the largest source of infection is in the soil and crop refuse.

Don't Hold Up
Cements and fire-bricks often do not hold up as well as they should because they contain calcium orthosilicate, which crumbles into dust at ordinary temperatures, although it has a solid form at the very high temperatures at which cement and fire-brick are made.

Kriewald-Barnes.

The Methodist church in North Loup was the scene of a very pretty wedding Sunday afternoon at 2:30, when Beckie J. Kriewald became the bride of William W. Barnes.

A bank of green fernery and flowers decorated the altar. The bride entered on the arm of her father, dressed in a long sleeved formal of white brocade organdy trimmed with pleated organdy with a long train and a three yard veil with beaded tulara.

The groom and his attendant, Charles Kriewald, brother of the bride, wore dark blue striped suits with white carnations as boutonieres.

Miss Gertrude Brown of North Loup and Miss Darlene Brown of Scotia were ushers and Miss Patsy Barnes of St. Paul, cousin of the groom had charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a blue flowered crepe while the groom's mother had a two piece light blue suit.

Both had corsages, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Vernon Thomas played softly before the wedding party entered.

She played Bridal Chorus by Lohengrin. Miss Charlotte Jones sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. Thomas.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. L. R. Hansberry. As a recessional Mrs. Thomas played Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Riverdale.

About thirty-five guests were present. Miss Gowen, Miss Brown and Miss Lella Bartz helped at the serving of refreshments of ice cream and cake.

The brides table was decorated in white with a four-tiered wedding cake with the bride and groom decorations that had been used at the 50th wedding anniversary of the bride's grandparents.

She wore her pearls and white slippers.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Kriewald and has grown up in the Riverdale community, graduating from the Scotia schools and then attending St. Paul business college.

For more than a year she has been employed as secretary at the Q. O. plant in Grand Island.

Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barnes of St. Paul and he grew up near that city.

An electrician by trade he is employed at the air base in Grand Island and they will make their home in that city.

The people of Riverdale went to the Kriewald home Sunday evening to give Mr. and Mrs. Barnes a chivari and were treated to ice cream and cake.

Out of town guests for the wedding and reception were the groom's parents, also Mr. and Mrs. Everett Barnes and children of Cotesfield and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnes, jr., of St. Paul.

HELL DIVING'S HIS JOB ..LENDING IS YOURS!

WITH guns blazing and a prayer in his stout heart, this American fighter is hell-bent on destruction of our enemies. HE is not thinking of how little or how much he's doing to help win the war. For him, the chips are down; but his fighting spirit is as high as the heavens from which his plane is diving.

Is it asking too much of you to back these men up by buying more, and still more, War Bonds? There can be but one answer. You'll find it in your own heart.

And remember, too, as you dig deeper than ever before into your pocketbook or cash surplus, that the Fifth War Loan must raise 16 billion dollars. It is the greatest financing drive the world has ever known... to back up the greatest invasion drive the world has ever known.

In cramped foxholes and disease-infested jungles, on sun-scorched beachheads—under and over the seven seas—other Americans are matching his courage. And their name is legion. They know that

And Here Are 5 MORE Reasons for Buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the war.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Back the Attack! - BUY MORE THAN BEFORE

Valley County-This Is It!

We are still a long way from making our Individual Quota in the 5th War Loan Campaign, which means that YOU and YOU and YOU have been letting someone else buy bonds but haven't been doing so yourself! The Drive ends July 8th. What are you going to do about it?

Climax War Bond Rally and Military Show!

On Friday, June 30 the Kearney Air Base is sending a Band and Entertainers to Ord, 75 or more, to help in putting on the biggest rally we've ever held. There will be music, vaudeville acts, speakers, a display of war equipment. Banks will be open before, during and after the rally to accept your bond pledges. Every citizen should be in Ord Friday evening, June 30. Equipment Display All Evening! Rally and Show Start 8:30 P. M.

He's doing his part . . . We must do our part!

For him the terrifying grand climax of the war is at hand.

The supreme military risk—bloody, costly in American lives.

Our boys know this. They don't have to read the heart-rending headlines or casualty lists to know what is expected of them.

They are in it.

They will see the grim venture through to the bitter, victorious end.

And if, for your boy, or some boy you know, the price of Victory is death, you can be absolutely certain that he did his part courageously . . . for the cause of Freedom.

For us, too, the terrifying grand climax of the war is at hand.

This supreme, desperate call for American dollars—16 billions of them—is to enable our fighting men to carry through the grim, bloody assault to a successful conclusion and Victory.

Not just American dollars—but the dollars in your pocket—in your savings account.

You must buy War Bonds—now! At least twice as much as you bought last time. If you are already buying Bonds on a pay-roll savings plan, buy EXTRA Bonds during this Drive.

Your Government is counting on you. Your boy—and your neighbor's boy—millions of them—are counting on you. Just as desperately as you are counting on them in this fateful hour.

► Don't let them down! Do your part—as they are doing theirs. Dig down, America—dig down deep! While there is still time. This is America's Zero Hour—Civilization's Zero Hour!

And here are 5 MORE reasons for buying EXTRA Bonds in the 5th!

1. War Bonds are the best, the safest investment in the world!
2. War Bonds return you $4 for every $3 in 10 years.
3. War Bonds help keep prices down.
4. War Bonds will help win the Peace by increasing purchasing power after the War.
5. War Bonds mean education for your children, security for you, funds for retirement.

Herbert Einspahr Commits Suicide with Gun Sat'day

Young Mira Valley Farmer in Ill Health, Depressed, Shot Self in Head.

Herbert Einspahr, 27, shot and killed himself about 8:30 Saturday morning at the Mira Valley home of his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Linke, it is revealed by Ralph W. Norman, acting attorney, who with Sheriff Robert Hall made an investigation of the tragedy. The young man has been in ill health and was quite depressed, relatives told the officials, but they did not dream that he contemplated suicide. While Mrs. Linke and another son, Albert, were milking Saturday morning Herbert got a rifle, went to his bedroom and shot himself in the middle of his forehead. Death evidently was instantaneous.

Nobody heard the shot but when Mrs. Linke and Albert returned from doing chores they found Herbert's body and called officers. The young man was born July 6, 1918 at Riverton, Nebr. His father died when he was ten years old. The family moved to Mira Valley about three years ago.

The Hastings-Zikmund funeral home had charge of the funeral rites which were held Monday with Rev. M. M. Long officiating and burial was made in North Loup cemetery. Pallbearers were Art Palser, Merle Edwards, Richard Palser, Nels Jorgensen, Carol Palser and Kenneth Day.

Recreation Center Proving Popular

Two pool tables are now in use at 'The Roost', Ord's recreation center, to the great delight of older boys, several of whom keep the tables in constant use. Frank Kasal donated the use of one of them and then went on to do the recovering of the top himself, one afternoon last week. The second table was given by two Scotchmen, Dr. Rudy Hamsa and James Bryson, and John Haskell and his boys helped put the new covering on it.

The four ping-pong tables continue to attract many players. From far-away Camp Anza, Calif., came a welcome gift of 15 new ping pong balls this week, thoughtfully sent by Sgt. and Mrs. Dean Misko. The Miskos read in the Quiz that ping pong balls were the bottleneck of the Ord recreation center.

Two of the ping pong tables are located in the basement, and are especially well liked with warmer weather. The car-am table is popular, and so is the marble playing table-game donated by the Ord Bakery, both of which are in the basement.

June memberships to the Roost were well subscribed, though most of the members are working at full or part time jobs this summer. But a steady trickle of customers proves the need for such a resort for the young people, and Clara McClatchey and the executive council feel the place is a real success.

Christians Enjoy Outdoor Service

About 50 Ord members of the congregation of the Christian church travelled to Burwell on Sunday at the invitation of the Burwell church, the two churches uniting to hold an open-air service in the Burwell park. After the church services a fine picnic dinner was enjoyed by everyone. Last year the Burwell people were invited to Ord for a similar morning service and picnic dinner; this was the return invitation. Rev. Milliken serves both towns, but has given formal notice that he will be leaving in September to continue his theological studies.

J. L. Claffin and Edwin A. Mitchell Pass at Lincoln

Both Were Well Known Early Day Ord Residents; Claffin Ran Ord Journal.

At Lincoln recently occurred two deaths of men formerly well known in Ord. Joseph L. Claffin, 85, died Saturday night after an illness of several years. From 1894 until 1904 he lived in Ord and published the Ord Journal, leaving here for University Place where he entered the printing and publishing business.

While living here he was active in the Methodist church and in anti-saloon work. He was a prominent citizen of University Place and served as mayor for two years. His second wife, Della, survives. Brief funeral services for Mr. Claffin were held here at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon, and he was laid to rest beside his first wife, who died in 1929.

Edwin A. Mitchell, better known here as "Tex", was the son of Samuel and Julia Mitchell and died June 14 in a Lincoln hospital at the age of 59. He leaves a wife and three sons. Funeral services were held at Friend and burial was in the Exeter cemetery.

Marvin Naprstek Dies. At Lexington last Friday occurred the death of Marvin Allen Naprstek, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Naprstek, former Ord residents. He was born in Valley county on Nov. 1, 1939 but for the past three years had been cared for by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Bolin, of Lexington. Besides his parents he leaves three sisters and a brother. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Naprstek of Ord are grandparents.

Mrs. Kaspari Dies. Mrs. Minnie M. Kaspari, 51, died at a Duluth, Minn., hospital recently after a long illness. She was born in Ord and lived here 18 years as a girl, her parents being Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kipling who owned the ice house and pond here at that time. Mrs. Emma Hansen of this city, is a sister. She leaves her husband, Emil G. Kaspari, 3 sons, a daughter and four brothers, Frank, Thomas, William and Edward Kipling, all of whom live in Canada. One of her sons, Robert was killed in north Africa and is buried in the British cemetery at Suez.

Disastrous Hail Storm Reported in Geranium Twp.

Small Grain Cleaned Out on Several Farms Along the Valley-Custer Line.

A disastrous hail storm Saturday night completely ruined small grain crops on the A. W. Pierce, William Nemeskal, McCarty and Tvrdik farms in Geranium townships and did severe damage on other farms in the Woods Park neighborhood. It was the worst hail storm suffered there in over 50 years, said Mr. Pierce, who stated that not even weeds were left standing on his place. The AAA office said Tuesday that the hail storm also damaged a corner of Liberty township but was most severe in Geranium along the county line and especially in Custer county just over the line. The Frank Dru-dick farm in Custer county was completely cleaned out of small grain.

The hail was accompanied in most localities by an inch or more of rain Saturday night but Ord got only a trace. This city received .38 of an inch in a smashing shower Monday morning. First 100 degree temperature of the summer was registered here Sunday and the temperatures have been generally too high for comfort the past week.

Car-load of Paper Shipped Wedn'day

Valley County Salvages 30 Tons in Week's Campaign, Much More Is Needed.

A car-load of waste paper being collected at the dock and scheduled for shipment Monday was held over till Wednesday noon when R. Clare Clement, salvage chairman, got word that another truck load was coming from Arcadia. Approximately 30 tons of paper were collected and shipped in this car.

From Arcadia came 8,000 pounds, from North Loup 7,300 pounds and from Scotia 3,500 pounds, balance of the car being collected in Ord or hauled in by farmers. Receipts from rural districts were light, Clement said, but he expected that inasmuch as farmers are so busy during the present season. Young people of the Methodist church worked like beavers Friday and Saturday and their collection of paper swelled the total poundage materially.

Paper salvage efforts will continue, Clement promises, and whenever anybody has any accumulation it should be taken to the salvage depot in the nearest town. The old Stara pool hall building will be used for this purpose in Ord hereafter.

Irene Auble leaves this weekend for Colorado Springs, Colo., where she has taken a summer time job at the Broad-moor Hotel, and also expects to have some leisure time to spend vacationing at nearby beauty spots.

Saving the Best in Fresh Vegetables

FEW FOODS are better to eat—and better for us—than fresh vegetables. And yet, it's surprising how easy it is to lose much of their food and flavor value in cooking. Here are a few hints on how to SAVE those goodnesses: FRESH vegetables (picked from your garden or bought at the store) should be washed quickly and stored immediately—vitamins and minerals are lost in soaking. MOST vegetables should be cooked rapidly in a small amount of water (but use plenty of water for greens and strong flavored vegetables, and cook them uncovered). SALT for flavor should be added when the cooking is started—do not use soda in cooking fresh vegetables. KEEP vegetables whole for cooking, if you want to retain the best nutritional values. SERVE them the minute they're cooked!

Vegetable Idea of the Week
CURRIED PEAS
2 cups fresh peas 2 tps. curry powder
2 tps. butter or margarine 1/4 tsp. pepper
1/2 tsp. salt
Shell peas and cook, uncovered, in rapidly boiling salted water to cover until tender, about 10 to 15 minutes. Drain. Add butter or margarine, curry powder, salt and pepper. Serves 4 to 6.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I can't think of anything else you'll need for your Victory garden, Judge... you've got pretty nearly everything."
"I think so, too, John. Ever get your asparagus patch going?"
"I gave that up last year, Judge. Tried it six years in a row with no luck. Just haven't got the right soil, I guess?"
"Well, I think you're wise, John... no use keeping on trying things you know won't work. Just like prohibition. State-wide prohibition has been tried in this country seventy-two times in the last ninety years. It has been adopted forty-seven times in the past thirty-three years and discarded everywhere except in three states. Same thing was tried in eight provinces in Canada and in Norway, Sweden, Finland and Russia but it was an admitted failure and universally abandoned.
"The reason is prohibition does not prohibit. All you get is bootleg liquor instead of legal liquor, plus no end of crime and corruption."

Clarice Warford Weds.
At the First Baptist church in Pasadena, Calif., on June 3 occurred the marriage of Miss Clarice Warford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Warford, of Ord, to Rex D. Morris, formerly a member of the U. S. marine corps who is now serving on the Pasadena police patrol after receiving a medical discharge. He fought in the battles of Pearl Harbor, Coral Sea and Guadalcanal and holds the naval cross, purple heart and a presidential citation.

The bride was graduated from Ord high school, taught 3 1-2 years in rural schools in this county, attended Hastings college and last year taught music and English in the high school at Hot Springs, S. D. Her husband is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Clay Morris, of that city.

Henry Adams Married.
Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mason, of Ripley, Okla., announce the marriage of their daughter, Marcelle, to Henry Adams, A. R. 7-2-c, U. S. N. R., son of Mrs. Sarah Lakin, of Ord. The wedding was in the naval chapel of Norfolk, Va., on May 15, and they are making their home at 406 W. 35th St., Norfolk, Va. The bride graduated from Ripley high school and attended Oklahoma A. & M. university. She worked in the state A. A. office at Stillwater before her marriage. Henry Adams, an Ord high graduate, has been in the navy over a year.

Reception.
Mrs. H. E. McClure hospitably entertained 110 guests at an informal reception at her home on Saturday evening between the hours of eight and eleven p. m., honoring her husband. He is on leave from Great Lakes Naval Training station, where he has finished his boot training and applied for service with the medical corps. Dr. McClure arrived in Grand Island Thursday evening, and was met by his wife, and they came home Friday on the bus. At supper time Saturday evening the Ord Boy Scouts were invited to the McClure home to visit again with their former scoutmaster, Mr. McClure.

Colonel Tolen Talks about Super-Fortress
Lt. Col. Adrian Tolen, native Ord boy and now an officer at the Grand Island base in charge of crews flying the B-29 bombers, was a guest and principal speaker at the Ord Rotary club's dinner Monday evening. He gave an interesting "off the record" talk about the new super-fortress used last week to raid Japan from bases in western China, and which will be used much more for this purpose as the war with Japan progresses.

The new planes are 1 1-2 times the size of the B-17, the original "flying fortress," and carry many times the bomb load, though details of bomb load, range and speed are military secrets. The planes cost about $1,500,000 each to build and are now in full production in at least four huge U. S. plane factories.

"You haven't seen the B-29s up this way yet," Col. Tolen said, explaining that so far they have flown only in about a 20 mile radius of the Grand Island base while practicing take-offs and landings. Grand Island people are familiar with their appearance, he said, for they are in the air every day over that city.

Another guest Monday evening was former member H. Elliot McClure, home on leave from the navy, who told about his experiences in boot training camp at Great Lakes.

Pfc. Lloyd L. Hoon Missing in Action

First soldier from Valley county to be reported missing in action since the invasion of Europe began is Pfc. Lloyd L. Hoon. On Saturday his brother, Walter Hoon received a telegram stating that Lloyd was missing in France. The young man was in the infantry, in a crack regiment which spearheaded the invasion of the Normandy coast.

Pfc. Hoon was born in Frontier county and grew up in the Arcadia community but for a few years before he joined the army Feb. 24, 1942 he had been employed at Morrill and in Wyoming. He was sent overseas last January.

Of course his brother is hoping that later word from the war department will show Pfc. Hoon safe.

Lee Christiansen Goes to West Point

Ord people will be interested in the good fortune of young Pvt. Lee Christiansen, who left Sunday after a six-day visit with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beranek. Young Christiansen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Christiansen, who moved from Ord to Neligh when he was nine years old, and now live at Vancouver, Wash., where the father is working in the shipyards.

The young man has been attending Amherst college at Amherst, Mass. for the past nine months. He entered service a year ago last spring, at which time he finished his sophomore studies at the University of Nebraska.

Lee was one of 90 students chosen at Amherst who will go at once to West Point to begin a three-year course of instruction, an honor and an educational advantage that is not for sale at any price.

Gets Bazooka Projectile.
Rex Jewett received last week from his friend, Master Sgt. Frank Knott, one of the projectile used by the army's famous tank-buster rocket gun known as the bazooka, and was exhibiting it to interested Ord people. Sgt. Knott is an ordnance expert stationed at Hammer field, Calif., but now on furlough at his home in Lincoln. In the friendly pre-war days he and Jewett engaged in many rifle and revolver target matches and he has visited in the Jewett home here.

—Mrs. Frank Kasal accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Joe Krcelik to Grand Island Monday to shop.

Boy Scouts wore grins that wouldn't wipe off as the week end approached for they were about to go to the Lake Ericson recreation grounds for their annual one-week Camporee. More than a hundred boys from Scotia, Litchfield, Broken Bow, Sargent, Loup City, Ord, Burwell and the nearby Ericson were in attendance at the district meet.

Their commands called for an elaborate commando hike sometime during their stay. George Allen planned to spend Sunday night and Monday with them. Mark Tolen Tuesday, Rev. Ericson Wednesday, John Haskell, Dr. F. L. Blessing and Forrest Worm will also go over this week. The Scouts left Monday, and will come home Saturday.

Lt. Satterfield Heard Over Radio

George Satterfield was thrilled Friday to hear the voice of his nephew, 1st Lt. Russell Satterfield, broadcasting on the John Vandercook program at 11:30 that morning, but more thrilled that the young man, age 23, had escaped disaster for the third time.

The young aviator is the son of Mrs. Florence Satterfield of Taylor, and was making his seventh or eighth mission over Paris. He is a navigator of a Liberator bomber. But the going was exceedingly tough, with "flak so thick the gunner was blowing it away."

The engines went from bad to worse, and the bomber radioed the home base that she couldn't make it. "Come down in the channel then, and we'll keep an eye out for you" was the encouraging answer, but the battered plane couldn't do that either. It came down behind the lines of the beach-head fighting. The crew had a fine view of a tank battle, but were too busy to appreciate the ring-side seats, and when they got on the ground again, picked up guns and fought with the busy infantrymen.

Eventually the crew got back to England with the navy, all the members safe and sound. The broadcast could be heard plainly here, and gave relatives of the crew great happiness, as the young men had been listed as "missing."

Before going into service, Lt. Satterfield was a student at Kearney college for two years.

—Wednesday or Thursday Mr. McGinnis plans to leave for his home at Maywood, Neb., after visiting about three weeks with his son, Dr. J. W. McGinnis.

Ord Stores Will Be Closed Monday and Tuesday, July 3 & 4

July 4th, a legal national holiday, falls on Tuesday this year, and in order to give Ord business men and women and their employees an opportunity to enjoy a short vacation which they have not been able to take thus far in 1944 and in all probability would not be able to take later in the year—shortage of help being what it is—it has been decided that the Ord retail establishments and other business places will close at the usual time Saturday, July 1 and remain closed throughout Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, July 2, 3 and 4, re-opening at the usual time on Wednesday, July 5.

Accordingly this notice is being given the widest possible publicity and we ask that you notify your friends, who might not otherwise see this notice, that Ord business places will not be open for business on either Monday, July 3 or Tuesday, July 4, while proprietors and employees enjoy a brief period of vacation and rest.

Filling stations, restaurants, etc., will remain open such hours as they usually are open on holidays.

Our Fighting Men

Home from Great Lakes naval training station on nine day leave are Seaman 2-c Carson Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Rogers, and Seaman 2-c James Flynn, son of the Frank Flynn.

Pvt. Albin Dobrovsky is in Valley county visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Dobrovsky. He has been transferred from Camp Lee, Va., and will leave Ord July 6 for a destination as yet unannounced.

Seaman 2-c C. D. Zlomke, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Zlomke, is here on a nine-day leave from Iowa State college at Ames, Ia., where he is a V-12 student and officer candidate.

Pvt. Mary J. Bremer writes from Washington, D. C., stating that she is with the Mayfair detachment of WACS from Fort Myer, Va., and is occupying the former Mayfair hotel as barracks and says it is an ideal assignment. Army life is grand, she says.

From Italy comes word that Bob Klima is a corporal now, officially. Months ago he understood he would be, and the title was used, but he has been moved so often that the promotion orders only now arrived. He writes his mother not to worry about him, and that he has good food.

Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Roy Lee Logsdon announce the birth of a son, Alan Lee, at St. Joseph's hospital in Denver on June 21. Mrs. Logsdon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Davids of Denver, former Ord residents.

Lt. Dean Barta is now in New York City, says his father, Dr. F. A. Barta, and Dean's wife is with him.

A-S Raymond Vogeltanz will leave Toledo soon, he has been informed. He is rather sorry, as he is fond of the attractive city, the University of Toledo with its beautiful buildings and campus. His father and mother arrived home Tuesday evening after a few days with him and report he looks just fine.

Bob Adamek and Mrs. Adamek are home from a California post, spending some time with relatives. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Adamek, and she is the former Bess Patrick of Ericson. Bob's mother is convalescing satisfactorily from a serious operation performed about two weeks ago by Drs. Miller and Smith at the Ord hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walker took their son, Hospital Apprentice Seaman 1-c Elton E. Walker to Grand Island Monday, where he caught a train to return to Camp Shoemaker, Calif. He has been in service a year on June 9, and is very enthusiastic about it. He arrived in Ord a week ago Sunday evening. While here he was entertained royally, Thursday evening at an ice cream party at the Will Hanson home; Wednesday evening at a dinner party at the home of his parents, with Shirley Hanson also an honor guest; and on Sunday, Shirley's birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hanson were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. George Walker and their family.

EM 1-c Junior Allen writes from Honolulu that he likes it there, and that the campus of the University of Hawaii looks much like the ag college campus at Lincoln. He is glad to be through with his job of censoring in the New Hebrides, but disgusted not to be in action. The George Allen's second son, Warren, has taken a swing shift job for four hours daily, in addition to heavy training at Van Nuys, Calif., where he is one of an aviation ground crew.

At the 8th AAF Fighter Wing Headquarters in the European area recently, Pfc. Edward F. Proskocil, of Elyria, was personally commended by Brig. Gen. M. C. Woodbury, commanding officer, for the initiative shown by him in the establishing and operation of this headquarters. Pfc. Proskocil is a son of Mrs. Anna Proskocil.

Cpl. Arthur Mentzer, who has been home on furlough for the past two weeks, is returning this week to Ft. Benning, Ga.

A card received Tuesday from Mrs. Earl Bartholemew, Shelby, gives the good news that the bombardier of the crew of Sgt. Verner Bartholemew's flying fortress has returned to England and written his wife that the entire crew was safe. He could not tell where they were or how he got back to England. Sgt. Bartholemew was reported missing in action over Germany on May 27.

Pfc. George Clark is now at Ft. Belvoir, Va., with the army engineers; and Pvt. Bud Clark, in the army about a month, is in the infantry replacement training center, says Mrs. Fred Clark. Mrs. Bud Clark is at Long Beach, Calif., and her sister Marlon Elmsner will arrive to take that apartment, then Mrs. Clark will go to Texas to be near her husband.

Pfc. Melvern Ferris will be home any day as his furlough began June 25th at a southern Mississippi camp. He has been in the Aleutian Islands for about two years, so he has really earned a good trip home. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ferris.

WAC Pvt. Mary Jo Raemakers left Thursday to return to Camp Edwards, N. J., after a furlough at the home of her parents in Ord.

Cpl. Milton Clement reached Ord Tuesday to learn he had become the proud father of a son, while he was enroute home. He has a 21-day furlough from his field near Tampa, Fla.

Seaman first class Roland Norman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman, writes he was up all night helping with invasion preparations at some English location, but was not in on the first fighting. He expects to be sent to the continent of Europe soon. He has been overseas since Sept. 1, and is a member of the Seabees.

Mrs. May Kamarad received official notification Tuesday that her son Paul Danner was missing in action. She had heard it unofficially some time ago.

Syl Furtak has not decided what he will do. As a veteran, he has some 60 days to make up his mind. He has a job in Lincoln but does not like it particularly.

LIFE'S Little TROUBLES

-CAN'T SLEEP-

No need to lie in bed—toss—worry and fret because CONSTIPATION or GAS PRESSION won't let you sleep. Be sensible—get up—take a dash of ADLER-I-KA as directed, to relieve the pressure of large intestines on nerves and organs of the digestive tract. Adlerika assists old food wastes and gas through a comfortable bowel movement so that bowels return to normal size and the discomforts of pressure stop. Before you know it, you are asleep. Morning finds you feeling clean, refreshed and ready for a good day's work or fun. Get Adlerika from your druggist today.

CHAS. E. SANDALL SAYS:

NEBRASKA IS PROUD OF ONE OF THE BEST LIQUOR CONTROL LAWS IN AMERICA

Director of the Brewing Industry's self-regulation program in Nebraska, prominent member of state bar, former county attorney, state senator, U. S. District Attorney during prohibition era.

Our State Liquor Control Law is one of the best planned and best executed in the United States. It is often considered the model by legislators of other states. When this law was drawn back in 1935 our Legislators studied the problem, acted with care and consideration. Time has proved their wisdom. Today conditions in Nebraska are very good, thanks to this law.

This Committee, which is concerned with the proper administration of this law, works closely with your law enforcement officers, aids wherever possible in maintaining the good conditions for which Nebraska is famous.

Good laws, well enforced, have been proved better than unenforceable laws—or the finest enforcement of poorly drawn legislation.

THE MAN WHO MOVED A MOUNTAIN

... didn't do it all at once. He moved a truck load at a time. And when he had carried off enough truck loads, the mountain was cleared away.

Of course the debt on your farm isn't a mountain. But it seems like one when it comes due all at once. And the best way to remove it is to pay it off a little at a time.

You can do that if you refinance with a Federal Land Bank loan. Payments are spread over 30 odd years. Each payment brings you that much closer to owning your own farm free of debt. You can pay up faster if you want to or you can let the loan run the full time without any costly renewal fees.

The interest rate is low—never higher than 4%, if you get your loan NOW.

Come in and talk it over. Let us help you move that mountain.

Bargains in Land

We still have a number of good bargains in farm land listed but these aren't going to last forever so if you want to make an investment or buy a farm home at pre-war prices you'd better act soon. This week we suggest:

4 extra good dry farms, not under the ditch, at right prices. Terms like rent.

Exceptionally good irrigated quarter of which 70 acres is now under ditch irrigation and 80 acres more can be pump irrigated. Ask to see this one.

200 acres, good set of improvements, 60 acres broke and now in cultivation, corn went 35 bushels to acre last year. Balance hay and pasture. Priced right now for quick sale at only $3,250.

Mrs. Will Moon Dies Saturday

Funeral services were held at the Frazier chapel Monday afternoon, Rev. Harold Milliken officiating, for Mrs. William H. Moon, 73, who died at her home here Saturday morning at an early hour. Pallbearers were Noble Ralston, John Mason, James Wachtler, Oscar Goff, Peter Hollender and Jess Worm. Burial was in the Ord cemetery.

Mrs. Moon was born Lucy Helena Craig at Colome, Mich., on Dec. 30, 1870 and at the age of five her parents brought her to Nebraska by covered wagon, settling here in Valley county, which remained her home until death. On Nov. 19, 1891 she was married to Wm. H. Moon, who survives her. To them were born four children, Sylvia Worm, of Ord, Angle Miller, of Hastings, Leona Ann Miller, of Ord, and William Moon, of Broken Bow. There also are eight grandchildren, of whom two are serving in the armed forces abroad, and six great grandchildren. A brother, Lyle Craig, of Clarks, also survives.

Her record of having lived continuously in Valley county since 1875 with the exception of 7 months spent in Oregon made Mrs. Moon one of the real old settlers of this region. During her long residence she made many friends by whom she will be greatly missed.

Hugo Players Here, Pleasing Customers

The Hugo Players, with genial Harry Hugo as manager and chief comic and much the same company of performers which traveled with him last year, arrived in Ord Sunday to fill a weeks engagement on the show lot south of the Bohemian hall. The Hugo show is packing in the customers as usual and giving them the worth of their money in clean entertainment, as it has been doing each summer for as long as the Quiz editor can remember.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Rowbal are looking forward to the coming of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Rowbal from Chicago for a visit. Archie works for Motorola company and has been gone 8 1-2 months. They will also spend some time in Arcadia.

Ord Stores Reveal Plans to Close on Monday, Tuesday

Owners, Employees Seize 4th as Chance for Only Good Vacation of the Year.

Retail establishments of Ord, as well as most service institutions and professional men and women, are seizing the opportunity afforded by the coming of July 4th on Tuesday and today announce plans for a three day holiday, closing Saturday night, July 1, and remaining closed until Wednesday morning, July 5.

Chances for vacations have been few and far between this year, with the help shortage what it is, and most stores are taking this chance to secure short vacations for the owners and their employees.

Stores of the city have agreed 100 percent to remain closed Monday as well as July 4th itself, says Emil Fafetta, who made the survey for the Chamber of Commerce. Filling stations will remain open the hours they usually open on holidays, as well as restaurants, soft drink parlors and other service places.

But for the most part Ord business establishments will be closed Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, while owners and employees take a well-earned rest. Some are planning short trips but most will spend the holiday close to home. No celebrations are planned in central Nebraska. There will be a band concert in Ord on the evening of July 4th.

Seek Reduction of Tire-Gas Cost on Livestock Hauls

Advisory Committee Outlines Steps to Save 5,000 Truck Miles in 12 Months.

An estimated 5 percent saving in truck miles will be realized in Valley county during the next twelve months if conservation measures planned by the Valley County Livestock Transportation Advisory Committee are followed, it was stated Monday by R. L. Forrest, of North Platte, district manager of ODT. This would mean a saving of 5,000 or more truck miles.

The committee is composed of Archie Geweke, representing producers, E. L. Vogeltanz, representing truckers, and V. W. Robbins, representing dealers.

There are six truck firms operating 13 trucks who haul livestock for hire in Valley county and in addition are 191 privately operated farm trucks, some of which are used for livestock hauling, the report says.

Truckers will not haul less than capacity loads and producers having less than truckload shipments will arrange ahead of shipping date, through a listing station, so trucks will be loaded to capacity. Truckers will exchange listings of shipments, will not operate when weather or road conditions are hazardous and cause undue wear on equipment and truckers will try to secure back-hauls from terminal markets. Livestock will be shipped to the nearest practicable market. Trucks will not be used for personal transportation. There are other points drawn up by the committee.

Grasshopper Bait Is Now Available

Valley county residents may receive grasshopper bait free of charge by applying at the mixing plant on the county fair grounds, says C. C. Dale, county agricultural agent. This is possible because of the action by the county supervisors in appropriating funds to take care of the handling of bait materials locally, and the fact that the U. S. bureau of entomology field force is mixing the bait. The bureau's mixing crew was here last week and mixed several tons of the poison bait.

Federal men will be back next week to spread bait on all the roadsides of the county. This work was to have been done last week but difficulty in securing parts for the bait spreaders forced postponement.

Despite the wet backward spring, Valley county has a big crop of young "hoppers" and they have already made their presence felt in many gardens and in some new seedlings of alfalfa. They are numerous enough to cause much trouble later if the weather turns dry. It is recommended that farmers secure bait now and spread it before the young grasshoppers have spread out from their hatching grounds into the fields. Bring your own sacks or other containers.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe and Duane arrived home Sunday after a vacation in Iowa and at Lincoln, where they attended the graduation ceremonies of their daughter Eleanor, now Mrs. Edwin Hitchman, who became a graduate nurse.

Loup County Passes Valley in War Bonds; Rallies Are Planned

Arcadia Planning Big Rally Sat'day Eve

With a total of $320,612 in war bonds already bought by Valley county people during the 5th War Loan drive, this county is within sighting distance of its $354,800 quota, gleefully announced officials Tuesday evening upon completing the percentage compilation for the week.

Ord township is still way out ahead in the percentage race, having oversubscribed its $80,000 quota by 127% for a present total of $182,062.

North Loup township also is going strong with total sales of $47,315 and its quota oversubscribed 35%.

The township making the greatest improvement in its standing since last week is Enterprise, which jumped from a percentage of only 36% to 102% of quota. Total sales in this township are now $34,418.

Davis Creek made a 31 point jump from only 11% to 42% but the showing made by most other townships is very disappointing. Arcadia township, with only 41% of quota subscribed to date, also has a lot of work to do but it is strictly rural townships which have the greatest part of the way to go. The percentage table follows:

Township	Quota	Bonds Bought	Per cent of Quota
Arcadia	$30,000	$12,297	41%
Davis Creek	16,000	6,643	42
Elyria	29,000	10,693	37
Enterprise	24,000	24,418	102
Eureka	8,000	2,462	31
Geranium	18,000	2,482	14
Independent	16,000	6,689	42
Liberty	13,000	2,595	20
Michigan	18,000	3,683	21
Noble	18,000	4,447	25
North Loup	35,000	47,315	135
Ord	80,000	182,062	227
Springdale	16,000	4,688	29
Vinton	18,000	4,633	26
Yale	16,000	5,945	35
	$355,000	$320,612

Clark Weckbach and C. O. Thompson, co-chairmen of the selling campaign, and C. J. Mortensen, county finance chairman, are counting on the big war bond rally in Ord on Friday evening, June 30, to put Valley county over the top.

Arcadia is planning a big rally Saturday night.

The Kearney Air Base is sending a caravan to Ord to help with this rally. The caravan will pass through Ord in the morning enroute to Burwell where it will appear at a bond rally in the afternoon, and will return to Ord about 5:30 and be here all evening.

There will be a full military band, a dance orchestra, singers and speakers, as well as a caravan of military equipment including ordnance items, chemical warfare material, demolition bombs, block busters, etc., which will be on display in the court house yard. The entire program will be given out of doors, the weather permitting, at the hour of 8:30 p. m. and will be moved to the high school auditorium in the event of rain.

Both Ord banks will be open during the evening to handle war bond sales and people who have not yet bought or who want to buy more bonds are urged to do so Friday evening. No matter where you live, your purchase will be credited to the township of residence and will help your township meet its goal.

Valley county was leading the way in the World-Herald contest in Group 1 until Tuesday when Loup county suddenly surged from 90th place to 1st place in a single day, buying 134% of quota. Harlan county also passed Valley in the standings, though Valley county bonds sold but not reported would put Valley back in second place. To win this contest Valley must buy at least 34% more than its $296,000 individual quota and Chairman Mortensen expresses confidence it can be done.

Truckers Applying for 3rd Quarter Gas

Truck drivers and operators are warned by Mrs. Grace Sprague, clerk of the Valley county rationing board, to apply at her office now for their third quarter gasoline rations. They must bring their certificates of war necessity and turn in un-used 2nd quarter coupons after which 3rd quarter coupons will be issued at once, Mrs. Sprague says.
