Ord Grade Notes.

The second grade sold the most tickets to the art exhibit at the grade school, and a total of $50.55 was taken in, says Inez Swain, the principal. This money will be used to buy new pictures for several rooms in the building. About 80 tickets were sold.

A new family has moved to Ord, the Roy Larkins of North Loup bringing four youngsters to enroll at the grades, and two students to add to the high school. The grade school now has 201 students. Jackie and Billy Beck of Grand Island will attend school in Ord this month while their mother is here.

Stamp sales lacked 10 of being sufficient to keep the big Minute Man flag flying this month. There were 169 buyers, and 179 were needed, during the month of April. About $40 was taken in last week, and the first grade won the V banner. The week before that the fifth grade were the biggest stamp buyers, and the week previous to that, the third grade won the flag.

Eighth grade examinations will be held at the grade school on Friday.

As soon as possible they will move from the apartment upstairs at the Alfred Hill home to the former LeRoy Frazier residence, which was purchased recently by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noll. Ernest and Richard Piskorski Home Safe After 32 Months of South Pacific War

Home from the wars are two brothers, Cpl. Richard Piskorski and Sgt. Ernest Piskorski, after spending 32 months somewhere on the Pacific. They put on uniforms 35 months ago, and have gone through all their duty together since that time, serving in the same anti-aircraft battery. The boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Piskorski of Ord, arrived home Wednesday without a scratch to prove they were really veterans, and have until May 24th to spend with home folks.

After that Richard reports for duty at Hastings at the naval depot and Ernest goes to Chicago for recruiting service.

These are the brothers, down in the torrid tropics, who longed for gallons of their dad's good ice cream, made at the Ord Cold Storage plant. It did taste good when they reached Ord, "Everything tastes good here," as Richard said in an interview Tuesday. "That dehydrated stuff all tastes alike out there, there's no taste to it. But it keeps you from getting hungry, of course."

They really minded the heat. It was worse than Nebraska in August because it was so damp. Yet the nights were cold. The brothers have noticed the cool weather here. Richard caught a cold in San Francisco where he "couldn't get warm."

In their travels the boys have visited many islands. Among the larger were the Hebrides, New Zealand which they liked very well, Guadalcanal, New Caledonia, Peleiu and Vella La Vella where they held down foxholes for two months and where they saw the bitterest fighting of their careers. Many months were spent aboard ship, they estimate about five, in moving from place to place. They did not visit Australia, but they feel they have become acquainted with enough of the Pacific, which they didn't care for.

The first Christmas they received big gift packages from the Red Cross. The next Christmas they were busy doing some heavy fighting, and don't remember much about it, somewhere between Bougainville and Munda Islands. They saw each other practically every day.

'Way out there they received "dehydrated" magazines, with all ads removed, put out in minute editions, Time, Newsweek, etc. Most of their mail took at least a month to arrive, often longer, so daily newspapers rather lost their flavor in transit. Yet some of the fellows belonged to the Book of the Month club, etc., "we'd all read anything out there, whether we liked it or not!"

They noticed some changes in the States, too. Highways are pretty well shot, for instance. And their "little" brother, Martin had grown up to be six feet tall, they noticed, with Eddie not much shorter.

After the war? They don't know. Probably they will return to Ord. "I know I want to be my own boss," states Richard definitely. "Right now I'm feeling awfully lucky to be going to Hastings to be stationed, so near home, and Ernie is lucky to be going into recruiting service."

Richard graduated from Ord High in 1940 and Ernest finished his career there in 1941. Both boys were sharks at athletics, especially football.

Just before starting home they saw two other Ord boys, also famous Ord athletic stars. They were George Cetak and Alwin Stewart.

5th Invitational Meet Attracting 12 Squads to Ord

Chanticleers Defend Title but Given Slight Chance to Win in Classy Field.

A classy field comprising twelve or more track teams will compete Friday in the fifth annual Ord Invitational meet, which will be held on the Bussell Park athletic field, according to C. C. Thompson, Ord superintendent of schools, who has charge of entries.

Already entered are Burwell, Loup City, Broken Bow, Ravenna, Ansley, Genoa, Scotia, North Loup, Elm Creek and St. Mary's of Grand Island. The Bassett squad may be present and there may be other last minute entries depending on weather prospects toward close of the week.

The Chanticleers won the meet last season and are given only an outside chance to repeat, the chance depending almost solely on Work-horse Randolph's performances in several events.

The Ord Invitational meet will be held in only one class with preliminaries in the morning and finals in all events in the afternoon.

Troyer, sensation of the meet held at Kearney last week, will accompany the Ansley team to Ord. He pole vaulted 11 feet 7 inches, high jumped 5 feet 8 inches and placed strongly in the hurdles and shotput at Kearney, so his performance here will be watched with interest.

If the Bassett squad takes part they will put onto the field Nebraska's fastest 1945 sprinter, their boy having been credited with 10.2 time in the hundred and 22.2 time in the 220 this season.

At Kearney last week Ord scored only 10 points and finished sixth in Class A. Randolph took the pole vault with ease, a 10 foot 4 inch vault being sufficient to win the event for him. He took 3rd in high jump, Dworak placed 3rd in shotput and the Ord relay team took 4th to complete Ord's scoring.

Randolph's best vault of the season is 11 feet 4 inches, according to Coach Alex Cochrane, and he may meet his match this week in Troyer of Ansley, who competed in a different class at Kearney last Friday.

With the belated coming of warm weather this week, Randolph is rapidly rounding into his last season's form, however, and Tuesday evening ran the 110 yard high hurdles in 15.5 seconds, fastest time reported in the state this season. His vault and high jump performances were good also.

The Ord Invitational is the last meet of the season, except the state meet at Lincoln, for the Ord team, and Coach Cochrane is planning to enter a full complement of athletes in all events.

17c Subsidy for Dairy Farmers Now

Announcement made by the War Food Administration that a feed subsidy of 17 cents a pound will be paid to farmers for the butterfat they produce in April is good news to cream producers of Valley County. A subsidy of 10 cents a pound was paid for butterfat produced in the first three months of this year.

The payment of the April subsidy is in accordance with the provisions of an amendment to Senate Bill No. 298 extending the life of the Commodity Credit Corporation for two years.

Under the provisions of the amendment, the subsidy paid to producers of butterfat will now be based on the weighted average national subsidy on whole milk for each month. That is the per pound subsidy on butterfat paid to cream producers will be one-fourth of the production payments on 100 pounds of whole milk produced in the various regions throughout the nation.

Physical Exams for Another Group

Valley county sent another group of men to Leavenworth, Kansas, this week for pre-induction physical examinations. From Ord went Richard R. Wampole, Eldon C. Svoboda, and Albin L. Urbanski, and from North Loup Calvert B. Bresley.

Registrants who transferred to other local boards for examination included Milton R. O'Connor of Lincoln, Harold H. Rich of Minneapolis, Minn. and Orvis Ray Hill of Omaha.

Two young men who are not registered here but are now living in this locality reported with the group also. They were Jack W. Craft of North Loup and Carl W. Easterbrook of Arcadia.

News of V-E Day Expected Hourly; Hitler Is Dead

Premature Announcement Made Sat. Eve but Denied within 15 Minutes.

Official announcement that the war in Europe has ended may come at any hour now, and with a program already prepared Ord's observance of V-E Day is expected to start soon after the formal announcement is made.

About 7:00 Saturday evening a premature announcement to the effect that Germany had surrendered was heard over the radio. The fire siren was sounded, bells rung and business establishments started preparations to close. Just as the band was preparing to play came official denial of the news.

But now it seems certain that hostilities cannot continue long in Germany and Italy and the end may be only hours away and certainly not more than days.

Hitler is dead, the German radio has announced, and Karl Doenitz, admiral of the submarine fleet, has been proclaimed the new German leader. Berlin has fallen to the Russians. Troops in northern Italy are laying down their arms. Mussolini has been killed by Italian partisans and his body buried in a pauper's grave. Russian and American forces have met at many points in Germany and Austria. It does not seem possible that Germany can continue fighting and it is not denied by Allied sources that surrender negotiations are under way.

Mayor M. B. Cummins emphasized Wednesday morning that when the official victory announcement comes all business places in Ord are to close within one hour. If the announcement comes before 11 a. m., the V-E day program printed in last week's Quiz will be held at 2:00 p. m., in the high school auditorium. If the announcement comes after 11:00 a. m. the program will be held at 8:00 p. m. in the same place.

All business places will stay closed the rest of the day, whenever the announcement comes, and all taverns and liquor stores are asked to remain closed 24 hours afterwards.

Planes were dropping cargo to them in the mountains, and Eldon's squad was near the center of impact, so he was dispersing his men, standing up without regard for his own safety to see that they were protected. A cargo box hit him in the chest and he died instantly. He was buried in a peaceful little valley at Valdez, given a Christian burial in the presence of his comrades. One of the old members of the company, he was a good soldier and loved by every one in the outfit, writes his captain.

Wes Williams, 60, Suicide Victim Tuesday Evening

Hayes Creek Farmer Took Own Life with Rifle; Illness to Blame.

Wesley Williams, about 60 years old and a farmer in the Hayes Creek neighborhood, 6 miles east of Arcadia, committed suicide Tuesday afternoon by shooting himself with a .22 calibre rifle, according to Sheriff Bob Hall, who went to the scene to investigate the circumstances, along with Dr. F. A. Barta, county physician, and John P. Misko, coroner.

According to Sheriff Hall, the farmer drove his car to a point about 2 miles from his own home, and about ¼th mile from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jim Gray, and parked it atop a small hill.

Exact time of the shooting is not known but Mrs. Gray says that she saw her father's car there as early as 2:00 in the afternoon, but supposed he was looking at the grain in a nearby field.

About 5:00 Mr. Williams was found by a neighbor, also named Williams but not a relative, who was going to Loup City after alfalfa seed. Seeing a man slumped in the front seat of the car, the neighbor stopped to investigate and found that Mr. Williams had shot himself thru the head and was almost dead, though he was still breathing. Death occurred at 5:45 p. m. before the doctor and county officers could reach the scene.

Ill health is blamed for the tragedy by relatives. Mr. Williams had cancer of the face and had made several trips to a cancer specialist in Missouri, returning from there only last week. He did not feel that the treatments were helping him, his children said, and this probably was the reason he decided to take his own life, though he had told nobody he intended doing so and left no note at his home or in the car where he was found.

Since the death of his wife two years ago Mr. Williams and his son Lee and daughter Alice had lived together on the home farm. Another daughter, Mrs. Gray, lived a short distance away, and a third daughter, Mrs. Ed Hruby, is the wife of a soldier stationed recently at an Oklahoma camp but transferred recently to Georgia. Mr. and Mrs. Hruby were in Arcadia last week, leaving only Saturday for Georgia, and Mrs. Hruby was notified of her father's death enroute. She is returning at once and will arrive Friday.

The body is at the Frazier mortuary in Ord, funeral services will be held in Arcadia either Friday afternoon or Saturday, and interment will be in the Scotia cemetery.

$100,000 Airport Development Soon Prospect for Ord

Petitions Circulated for a Special Election, Gov't May Allot $73,000.

Development of an airport in Ord for public use to cost $100,000 or more is a definite prospect, according to members of the airport committee of the Chamber of Commerce, who this week began circulating petitions to call a special election for the purpose of voting a $20,000 bond issue to buy land for such use.

In matters of this kind the city must furnish the site, while the Nebraska Aeronautics Commission and the Federal Aeronautics Commission furnish the funds for improvements such as grading, draining, lighting, the buildings and equipment.

It is estimated that the cost of the land would be approximately $20,000. Of course all of this land would not be necessary for runways and remaining portions can be leased out for a cash income. Since the level valley land which must be used probably will be irrigated land, the anticipated income from this source doubtless would make the project self-supporting.

There is now federal legislation pending to allot $73,000 to Ord for an airport of the 2nd class, which is deemed sufficient for present and immediate post-war needs. However, to be eligible to receive this allotment, the city must first provide the real estate, title to which must remain in the city.

The Chamber of Commerce committee composed of George Allen, E. L. Vogeltanz and E. S. Murray have been working on this project several months and have had the district aeronautics association engineer and the secretary of the state aeronautics commission inspect several likely sites adjacent to the city.

A site should be selected which would have adjacent land suitable for expansion of the airport, and several choices have been designated that it is felt would be suitable for this use.

Many cities the size of Ord, it is pointed out, have already taken steps to acquire title to real estate for airport purposes, among them being Broken Bow, O'Neill, Wayne, Blair, Holdrege and Lexington. In all towns where special elections have been held, the proposition has carried by exceedingly large majorities and it is felt the election here will be no exception.

Committee members are having no difficulty in securing signatures, they report; in fact nearly everybody seems anxious to sign. The petitions will be presented to the city council when completed and the council will be asked to call a special election to authorize purchase of the real estate at the earliest date feasible.

Relatives of Iradell (Ike) Babcock have heard from him that he is in Oakland, Calif., in a navy hospital. He was wounded in Iwo Jima where he was serving with the marines and has been in Hawaii. His wound was a shrapnel wound in the arm which injured the tendons and made his arm useless. He hopes later to be in a hospital nearer home.

Rev. and Mrs. Hansberry returned Monday evening from Hallam and Lincoln, where they had spent the week.

Miss Mable Duremus of the state extension department gave a demonstration on preparing foods and fruits for the frozen locker at the school house Monday evening. About 75 interested ladies and a few men were present for her interesting demonstration. She spoke on the advisability of glass jars for locker use and on commercial containers also. Mrs. Switzer exhibited some pies, cookies, biscuits and chicken-a-la-king she had stored in her locker and a lunch was served from these. The many uses of the locker system seem to be taking first place with the ladies of this community.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

There's a man that I know, and he lives near you,
In a town called Everywhere;
You might not think he's a man from his hat
Or the clothes he may chance to wear;
But under the jacket with many a patch
Is a heart more precious than gold—
The heart of a man 'neath the coat of a boy,
A man who is twelve years old.

We never may know what the future will make
Of the boys that we carelessly meet,
For many a statesman is now at school,
And presidents play in the street.
The hand that is busy with playthings now
The reins of power will hold;
So I take off my hat and gladly salute
This man who is twelve years old.

How to prepare produce for Baby

Baby's ABC's start now with vitamins instead of blocks. Baby must get his or her full share in order to have a good start . . . and these directions will help you preserve all the nutrients necessary for Baby's growth.

PUREEING VEGETABLES AND FRUITS

Cut vegetables and fruits into uniform pieces; place in saucepan; add just enough water to create steam. Cover tightly; steam until vegetables and fruits are just tender, no longer. Long cooking destroys the nutrients. Cool thoroughly before pureeing. This prevents loss of vitamins through oxidation.

Press through special purcer, colander, or sieve with wooden spoon. Avoid stirring. Be sure to include what water is left in the cooking pan. There should be very little, but it is vitamin- and mineral-rich.

Store pureed products in covered sterilized glass or crockery jars in cold place. Prepare only enough for one day's supply at a time, as longer storage means loss of vitamins. Heat only enough for one meal at a time, as reheating is also destructive of the food elements. (Note: The same rules of vitamin protection apply to diced vegetables and pureed ones.)

CREAM OF VEGETABLE SOUP

½ cup milk — 1 to 2 tbsps. butter
½ cup pureed vegetable

Combine milk and vegetables (spinach, peas, carrots, asparagus, celery, string beans). Heat just to boiling and add butter. Makes 1 cup soup.

LIVER SOUP

¼ cup very finely ground raw carrots, celery and parsley — 1 cup water — ¼ cup (2 oz.) finely ground liver

Cook vegetables in water in covered pint saucepan until tender, about 10 minutes. Cool. Strain soup; puree vegetables. Combine and heat to boiling. Add liver, cover and simmer 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Makes 1 cup soup. NOTE: Do not soak liver. Any vegetable combination can be used.

Its Cheaper to BUY a Farm than to Rent

We have just listed, from one owner, a group of the finest farms in central Nebraska, ranging from 160 to 480 acres, most with A-1 improvements and all having plenty of buffalo and grama pasture.

We are authorized to sell these farms, for quick action, on a deal which no renter can afford to pass up: 10% down; balance at 4 to 4½ per cent interest, on 20 year loan. You only have to pay PART of the principal in the 20 year period.

These farms are all priced to sell, and when good money-making farmsteads can be bought at bargain prices, with only 10 per cent down, and with 20 year loans at interest as low at 4 per cent, we say that you can't afford to continue renting.

Surely this group of farms won't last long and we strongly advise you to come in quickly and talk the matter over.

++ Something Different ++

If the war lasts long enough perhaps May baskets will contain only flowers, as a May basket should.

Each war year finds less candy in them and more popcorn and peanuts, as harrassed parents strive to solve the May basket situation in a manner satisfactory to "little people."

oOo

As a matter of fact, it doesn't make much difference if sugar is short and Mother can't bake fancy little cakes and cookies for them, or fill them with toothsome homemade candy.

For about the time Sammy parks a basket carefully at the front door of his little friend and rings the bell and runs, likely the family hound gets to the basket first, or a good stiff Nebraska zephyr tips out candy, blossom and all.

Or Suzie runs so fast she spills most of it out of the pretty paper shell, before she gets to the porch steps.

Or some'pin!

oOo

I was glad Roger Miller spoke his poem in the Quiz editorial column last week, about youngsters of Ord wanting a swimming pool here, for I was about to give up, thinking perhaps I was the only Ord person who really pined for a pool.

Look out taxpayers, I'm after you again.

oOo

Concrete and cement aren't on priority lists; can't we get at that swimming pool this summer?

oOo

Prospective citizens are looking us over every day now: what are they thinking? Will they want to come back to Ord to live.

Every soldier and sailor who comes home on furlough, every wartime visitor, is a prospective inhabitant of our valley. If they are sufficiently pleased with what they see here, they'll want to return, and make plans to do so, for you can hardly name a field in which Ord does not have an opening for a good workman.

But every city and village in the United States is also short of good workmen. So when our young people decide to settle down, and establish a business and a home, they have a wide choice.

And they are going to choose the place that offers them the most. They are going to take a look at our schools, our homes, our institutions. They will look to see if our streets are broad and clean, if our homes and yards are attractive, if our recreational facilities are alluring.

The wide awake towns with the most to offer will attract the majority of these fine young citizens.

What can we show them?

A swimming pool would help.

Somehow or other these little county seat papers can't forget when time runs out, but just the same I would be sorry if it did not come every so often. New Cut Increases Brilliance of Diamond

Diamonds, the traditional "jewels of love" for engagement and wedding rings, are being given more brilliance and fire than ever before by a sensational new method of cutting called the "King cut." This revolutionary method of diamond-cutting gives the gem 86 glittering facets, compared to the standard "Brilliant" cut's 58 facets, which jewelers believed was the largest number possible.

To bring out all the beauty of the new "King cut" diamonds, outstanding jewel designers are mounting them in precious palladium, the modern matrimonial metal. The gleaming whiteness of this rare metal makes the 86 facets or tiny, light-reflecting surfaces of the "King cut" actually blaze with brilliance.

The 28 new facets added by the "King cut" process have been worked into the top and bottom of the diamond or, as jewelers would put it, above and below the "girdle" of the stone. Each little plane surface plays an important role in capturing the fire of the jewel, thus achieving a most brilliant cut.

Apple Storage

Low temperatures and relatively high humidity are two essentials for the satisfactory winter storage of apples. Without these two under control, success in wintering the fruit can hardly be expected. A temperature close to 32 degrees and humidity at around 80 per cent are about ideal for best storage. As the apple remains alive for some time after being picked, there are several changes that take place within it. Starches change to sugars, giving to the fruit its sweetness; an aroma and flavor develop which result in the characteristic taste of the variety; and waxes form over the surface which help check the loss of water. The apple also becomes softer and in time may become mealy. All these changes proceed rapidly when the fruit is held at a high temperature. A low temperature not only slows up ripening but also checks most causes of decay. If a variety will remain in good condition for four months when held at 32 degrees, this same variety will be in a good condition for about two months when stored at 50 degrees and for about one month when held at 70 degrees.

Cottonseed Flour

The protein of cottonseed flour is a good source of the nutritionally essential amino acids. It has a growth-promoting value approximately four and a half times that of wheat flour. It is well suited to supplement the proteins of certain other foods, particularly those of the cereal grains. It is estimated that about 36 per cent of the protein used for human consumption in the United States is furnished by cereal grains, chiefly wheat. Wheat flour is known to be deficient in some of the essential amino acids abundant in cottonseed flour. Addition of as little as 5 parts of cottonseed flour to 95 parts of wheat flour produces a mixture containing 16 per cent more protein than wheat flour alone, and a protein combination definitely superior in its growth-promoting value to the same quantity of protein from wheat flour.

Groom Handbag

Handbags of dark leather may be cleaned with a mild saddle soap solution such as is used on shoes and luggage. Dry with a cloth and let stand at room temperature until thoroughly dry. The bag should never be immersed in water or placed on the radiator or near heat to dry.

To protect the lining of your handbag, it's best to keep cosmetics in a special case, and if a pencil and pen are handbag necessities, keep the pencil capped and the pen top fastened securely. Brush the lining and pockets often to remove dust.

About twice a month, apply a neutral cream sparingly to the leather and wipe off with a soft cloth. Bags with torn handles, rips in the leather, and broken locks should be taken immediately to a leather repair shop for reconditioning. Some shoe shops will repair leather purses and bags.

New Cut Increases Brilliance of Diamond

Diamonds, the traditional "jewels of love" for engagement and wedding rings, are being given more brilliance and fire than ever before by a sensational new method of cutting called the "King cut." This revolutionary method of diamond-cutting gives the gem 86 glittering facets, compared to the standard "Brilliant" cut's 58 facets, which jewelers believed was the largest number possible.

To bring out all the beauty of the new "King cut" diamonds, outstanding jewel designers are mounting them in precious palladium, the modern matrimonial metal. The gleaming whiteness of this rare metal makes the 86 facets or tiny, light-reflecting surfaces of the "King cut" actually blaze with brilliance.

The 28 new facets added by the "King cut" process have been worked into the top and bottom of the diamond or, as jewelers would put it, above and below the "girdle" of the stone. Each little plane surface plays an important role in capturing the fire of the jewel, thus achieving a most brilliant cut.

Apple Storage

Low temperatures and relatively high humidity are two essentials for the satisfactory winter storage of apples. Without these two under control, success in wintering the fruit can hardly be expected. A temperature close to 32 degrees and humidity at around 80 per cent are about ideal for best storage. As the apple remains alive for some time after being picked, there are several changes that take place within it. Starches change to sugars, giving to the fruit its sweetness; an aroma and flavor develop which result in the characteristic taste of the variety; and waxes form over the surface which help check the loss of water. The apple also becomes softer and in time may become mealy. All these changes proceed rapidly when the fruit is held at a high temperature. A low temperature not only slows up ripening but also checks most causes of decay. If a variety will remain in good condition for four months when held at 32 degrees, this same variety will be in a good condition for about two months when stored at 50 degrees and for about one month when held at 70 degrees.

Cottonseed Flour

The protein of cottonseed flour is a good source of the nutritionally essential amino acids. It has a growth-promoting value approximately four and a half times that of wheat flour. It is well suited to supplement the proteins of certain other foods, particularly those of the cereal grains. It is estimated that about 36 per cent of the protein used for human consumption in the United States is furnished by cereal grains, chiefly wheat. Wheat flour is known to be deficient in some of the essential amino acids abundant in cottonseed flour. Addition of as little as 5 parts of cottonseed flour to 95 parts of wheat flour produces a mixture containing 16 per cent more protein than wheat flour alone, and a protein combination definitely superior in its growth-promoting value to the same quantity of protein from wheat flour.

Groom Handbag

Handbags of dark leather may be cleaned with a mild saddle soap solution such as is used on shoes and luggage. Dry with a cloth and let stand at room temperature until thoroughly dry. The bag should never be immersed in water or placed on the radiator or near heat to dry.

To protect the lining of your handbag, it's best to keep cosmetics in a special case, and if a pencil and pen are handbag necessities, keep the pencil capped and the pen top fastened securely. Brush the lining and pockets often to remove dust.

About twice a month, apply a neutral cream sparingly to the leather and wipe off with a soft cloth. Bags with torn handles, rips in the leather, and broken locks should be taken immediately to a leather repair shop for reconditioning. Some shoe shops will repair leather purses and bags.

Valley County to Tackle 7th War Loan Job May 15

$176,000 'E' Bond Quota Is 40% Higher than Ever Before, Causing Worry.

Next Tuesday, May 15, Valley county will tackle its most important job of the war—that of meeting the $351,000 quota assigned this county as its share in the 7th War Loan. While expressing confidence that the quota will be met, as it has been for each of the six preceding war loans, War Finance Chairman C. J. Mortensen admits he is slightly worried as to the manner of making the quota.

Most pressing problem, he says, is the "E" bond quota of $176,000 which is 40% higher than any such quota has been in previous drives. If the "E" quota is met or surpassed the over-all quota will take care of itself, he feels.

Deposits in Valley county banks are at the highest level in history, says Chairman Mortensen, and under these conditions there should be no difficulty in meeting all quotas if every person who has money on deposit will do his full share.

Total of deposits is almost $4,000,000 as compared with about $1,500,000 before the war. Of this total approximately $3,200,000 is on deposit in the two Ord banks.

People who have 3, 4, 5, 10 and 20 thousand dollars on deposit are going to have to bear the brunt of buying "E" bonds, he believes, as the quota is so large that little purchases of $25, $50 and $100 bonds won't do the job. Not that small purchases by people unable to afford larger ones aren't welcomed, but there will have to be many purchases of thousand dollar bonds to make up the total needed.

"Victory in Europe has come but the war against Japan is only starting and it is going to be the most expensive war America has ever waged," states Mortensen. "To minimize loss of lives we must provide our men with superior equipment and maximum supplies, and doing so will require the expenditure of billions of dollars. That is our share of the job, and we must not fail even as we know that our fighting men will not fail in their job."

The 7th War Loan drive will be carried on much as have previous drives, he says. Next Monday evening a committee will meet to fix township quotas, which will be announced immediately. Workers will then be appointed in each rural township. In Ord solicitation will be headed by Clark Weckbach; in North Loup by L. B. Nelson; in Arcadia by Harold Weddel; in Elyria by E. A. Holub. All these men are veterans of previous bond-selling campaigns.

In addition to the "E" bonds a number of other issues will be available including 2½ per cent bonds due in 1972, 2¼ per cent bonds due in 1962, 1½ per cent bonds due in 1950, ⅞ per cent treasury certificates due June 1, 1946, series F and G treasury savings notes, and series C tax payment notes. But the emphasis will be on sales of "E" bonds which are popular not only because they are available in small as well as large denominations but also because they can be cashed at any bank at any time.

Some time during the campaign a traveling U. S. navy bond show will be given in Ord but the exact date for this is not known. With this exception, no public meetings are planned and emphasis will be placed on door-to-door, farm-to-farm and voluntary purchase methods.

"It is inconceivable that Valley county people will fail in doing their share of this important task to hasten V-J day" says Mortensen. "To date 2,883 Nebraska boys have lost their lives in this war; perhaps 10,000 more have been wounded, are missing or are prisoners of war in the far east. It is our duty to them, as well as to the 100,000 and more Nebraskans who will take part in combat activities against the Jap to furnish the money that will let them do their task quickly."

Smoker for War Vets.

The Ord council of Knights of Columbus is planning a series of stag parties and smokers for all service men who return on furloughs or who have been honorably discharged. The first of these is to be held at the K. of C. hall Wednesday, May 16 at 8 p. m. No special invitation is necessary. Free to all World War II veterans and servicemen.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Roe, Mrs. J. H. Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Will Harvey, all from St. Paul, visited Thursday at the S. W. Roe home.

Unusual Decorative Theme Chosen by Ord Juniors for Annual Banquet-Prom Monday

Snow White and the seven dwarfs was the unusual theme chosen by the juniors for the junior-senior banquet Monday evening at the high school, and a fanciful scene of delicate beauty greeted the 164 people who attended.

A canopy of blue sparkled with stars. At the entrance and about the walls were white trellises across which trailed flowering vines of every color. At the west end of the auditorium stood a gray stone castle, and at the east end a pool held gold fish. The bleachers to the south had been made into green mountain slopes, with a small mountain stream tumbling down one of them, and towering peaks in the distance. Trees and flowers and small animals were at home there.

A low white fence across the stage on the north side was also ornamented with bright blossoms, and behind this fence Elmer Hall and his orchestra were seated, to play for the dancing.

The long tables were dainty with a big flower cup at each place for nuts and candy, a blue streamer down mid-table and colorful programs marking each cover. On the front of the programs sat Flower, the little skunk, amid many hand-painted flowers. Various woodland friends of Snow White were found on each table, also handwork.

The speech of welcome was made by Hugh Cahill, president of the junior class, and the response was given by Jim Finley, president of the seniors. "Heigh Ho" was given by Edwin Jirak, a cornet solo, and Shirley Martin read a poem, "The Poisoned Apple." "Prince Charming" was the title of the toast given by Darlene Whiting.

A girls' octette sang two numbers, after which Mrs. Barbara Dale Lahr of the faculty gave reflections of her days in Ord High, speaking on the topic "Mirror, Mirror."

A boys' quintet, costumed as the seven dwarfs, sang "Whistle While You Work", after which a few words of farewell from Toastmaster Cahill closed the program.

Ladies of the Catholic church prepared the banquet, serving fruit cocktail, chicken croquets, mashed potatoes, giblet gravy, scalloped corn, spring salad, rolls, butter, pickles, ice cream and cake, with coffee. Serving was done by 29 sophomore girls, dressed in Snow White blouses and bright skirts.

Junior class sponsors are Helen Kopecky and Rachel Shafer.

Councilmen Ask More Information on Airport Matter

Over 500 Names on Petition for Special Election but Deferred til June.

A petition signed by more than 500 Ord citizens asking that a special election be called to authorize purchase by the city of land for an airport was presented to the city council Monday evening by the Chamber of Commerce airport committee, which is composed of George Allen, E. L. Vogeltanz and E. S. Murray.

Estimated cost of the land is $20,000 which must be paid by the city, with an estimated $80,000 additional for improvements coming from state and federal governments.

After considerable discussion of the matter councilmen decided to defer calling a special election until after the June meeting, in order that more information can be secured on cost of maintenance of a municipal airport of this type. The city would be obligated to pay maintenance expense and before going ahead councilmen preferred to secure full information on what this expense might be.

The C. of C. committee was asked to write to other Nebraska cities where municipal airports are now in operation and secure data on maintenance costs.

Mayor M. B. Cummins expressed himself as favoring airport development but spoke in opposition to one section of the petition which would obligate the city to pay out of the general fund any expense for land in excess of the amount which could be raised by a 1 mill levy on property, which amount was estimated to be $15,500. The city has already obligated itself to pay off $25,000 in bonds that become due October 1, has undertaken a program of sewer building and street and alley improvement, and Mayor Cummins said he felt these obligations on the various city funds should take precedence over building of an airport, though he made it plain that he favored the latter providing it can be done with money raised by special levy.

Wednesday, however, this matter was cleared up when Senator John Doyle advised the airport committee that the legislature has passed with the emergency clause L. B. No. 208, which measure permits levies up to 2 mills for airport development. A 2 mill levy will raise ample funds for a port of the type contempated here, without dipping into the general fund, it is promised.

At the June meeting councilmen no doubt will set a date for the special election, as all said they favored giving citizens a chance to vote on the proposed development.

Other business taken up at the Monday meeting included a report of progress by Dr. F. L. Blessing, chairman of the committee in charge of opening alleys in the business district.

John Misko appeared before the council to ask that the city vacate the street which runs east and west along the south side of the lot on which his house is built, in Hillside Addition. The council declined to vacate the street but unofficially authorized Misko to fence off the street and make use of it until such time as it might be needed to serve a residential district which might in future years be built up to the west and south of the Misko property. James D. McCall also appeared to ask for action on his previous request that the city lower the grade on the street in front of his home and the council declined to act favorably on the request.

Jap War to Last 2 Years, Believes Sgt. E. Piskorski

Sgt. Ernest Piskorski, of the U. S. marine corps, who is home on leave after almost 3 years of service in the south and central Pacific areas, told Ord Rotarians Monday night that the Jap war will last 1½ to 2 years longer, in his opinion. "Unless the Japs give up," he added. The Japs aren't noted for giving up either, said this young Ord man who fought against them from Guadalcanal to Pelelleu.

Receiving supplies by submarine, Japanese garrisons are still holding out on many islands that were by-passed by Americans in their march toward Tokyo, he pointed out. For example, he said, the Palau chain of which Peleliu is a part, contains 120 islands, only 5 of which are now held by Americans. The Caroline islands are mostly in Japanese hands and even Bougainville, in the Solomons, is still the scene of fighting.

American casualties on Okinawa already total some 23,000 Americans, he pointed out, and the island hasn't yet been entirely captured. As Americans get closer to the Japanese home land the fighting will become even more bitter, in his opinion, and he definitely warned against thinking the Pacific war is nearly over despite what has happened in Europe.

Circus Attracted Big Crowd Friday

"Better than no circus at all but that's about all" was the way most people felt after seeing the Bell Bros. 3-ring circus which showed in Ord last Friday afternoon and evening. One elephant, some monkeys, a gorilla and several horses made up the animal part of the circus, and ring acts were about on a par with the animals.

A big crowd attended both afternoon and evening performances and since this is the first circus that has shown here in several years there was less grumbling over the quality of entertainment offered than would have been the case had local people been privileged to attend other circuses recently.

8th Graders Will Graduate May 24

Graduation exercises for the eighth grades of Valley county are planned for Thursday evening, May 24, at the high school auditorium, announces County Supt. Clara McClatchey.

A very interesting program, largely music, will be given. North Loup seventh and eighth grade students will provide a boys sextette and a girls sextette to sing and also two piano numbers. Audrey Koll, teacher of Vinton school, Dist. 23, has been coaching her students in an operetta, "Hiawatha," which they will present that evening.

The feature of course, will be the presentation of the diplomas to the boys and girls, a complete list of whom will be given next week in the Quiz.

Scoring heavily in the field events and garnering points in the hurdle events, distance runs and the relay, Ord scored 41 points to retain the championship of the Ord Invitational meet, the fifth running of which was held Friday at Bussell Park athletic field. Of Ord's total Ted Randolph made 20¾ points.

He also ran on Ord's relay team, other members of which were Stewart, Finley and Andersen.

Sgt. Lyle Norman Has Interesting Job, "Shoots Weather" at Liberal Air Field

A copy of the official post newspaper from the Liberal Army Air Field in Kansas tells about the work Sgt. Lyle Norman does as a weather observer and forecaster. With their charts and maps and delicate apparatus, they plot the whims of chance breezes or tornados, watch the growth of a thunderstorm or dust storm, and send out warnings insuring the safety of air craft flights.

Beginning in June, 1943 with a staff of seven men, about 10 more have since been added, but of these original experts, only Sgt. Norman remains to work as official observer and unofficial historian of the station.

Work at the weather office is divided into two categories, those of observer and forecaster. Technicians in the former class prepare local maps and also bigger ones, such as a B-24 would need for a cross-country trip from New Jersey to California. Once these maps are complete, it is the job of the forecaster to make them into a complete weather pattern. Such a job makes use of a vast amount of instruments. Available to weather personnel are four teletype machines on four circuits, a wind recorder, a barograph, and the theodolite which follows wind currents and directions. A picture shows Sgt. Norman using the theodolite.

The thermograph is used for temperature readings, and 10 or 15 smaller instruments for other tasks. Among them are the ceiling lights, a beam light shot out to measure clouds through the angle and through the use of trigonometry and the many rubber balloons used in conjunction with the theodolite.

Forecasts are made four times a day, sometimes oftener. Transmissions over the teletype are sent out every hour, over a circuit including 40 or 50 other stations. They also send out notices to airmen, in code, telling radio and lighting conditions.

SGT. LYLE NORMAN

"During bad weather we average about two phone calls per minute from people who want to know when it will let up", states Sgt. Norman.

About the most exciting time the station had was during the tornado about a year ago. The Liberal station was the first to report the tornado warning, which took about two minutes to transmit over the teletype circuit. "Afterwards, there was little we could do but watch", Norman added.

Three eight-hour shifts of two or three men are on duty. Sgt. Norman is chief observer, but he says "the job of forecaster is more difficult, because it involves greater use of calculus and physics in determining weather conditions, such as cold or warm front movements."

Accurate forecasts can be made 36 hours in advance, Norman added, with a possibility of extending this forecast to four days. Lyle is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Norman of Ord.

Two Veterans Get FSA Loans Here

The extent to which returning veterans of World War Two are getting into farming by means of Farm Security loans was brought out in the March report, Joseph W. Raemakers, FSA supervisor for Valley and Greeley counties said this week. That report showed that of the 102 new rehabilitation loans in Nebraska that month 12 were made to men who have been discharged from the armed forces during this World War.

The average amount of each loan to a returned vet was $1,572 in this state. In Valley County, two vets obtained FSA loans, averaging $1,897.

These loans Raemakers said, are made to furnish funds for discharged veterans to operate family-type farms, usually on a rental basis. Loans are based on what it takes to carry out well-developed farm and home plans, and are to be repaid within five years. The families maintain records and keep their farm plans up-to-date.

May Weather Cold but Light Moisture

Ever since May 1 temperatures have dropped nightly to near or below the freezing mark but little damage to vegetation has been noted, said Horace Travis, official government weather reporter, this morning. They are having to, for this May has been one of the chilliest on record.

Low point reached by the mercury Tuesday night was 32 degrees; Wednesday night it was 34 degrees. A light drizzle fell throughout Wednesday but it brought only .18 inch of moisture in Ord. A total of .34 of an inch was reported at North Loup.

V-E Day Observed Quietly Tuesday by Reverent Crowd

Stores Closed Early after President's Address; Prayer Program Held.

There was no wild rejoicing, no drunken gaiety, in Ord or Valley county Tuesday, after the official news came that Germany had surrendered unconditionally to the United States and its allies, England and Russia. Instead, a quiet sober crowd that filled the high school auditorium to over-flowing reaffirmed the determination of the people of America to finish the war against Japan before spending time and energy in celebration.

From Monday morning on the feel of victory was in the air but official news that the German war had ended came to Ord people as it did to the nation, in President Truman's brief address and proclamation at 8:00 Tuesday morning.

Every radio in the community was turned on at that hour for while everybody hoped and expected that the president's words would tell of final victory nobody was certain it would be so.

As soon as President Truman's proclamation had made it official, Mayor M. B. Cummins and members of the V-E Day committee passed the message around that stores were to close and that observance of the occasion would be confined to a meeting of prayer and Thanksgiving at the high school auditorium at 2:00 in the afternoon.

No siren was sounded, no bells were rung, there were no crowds on the street, and though faces held happy smiles, each person seemed to realize that victory over Germany meant only one more milestone passed on the long road to final victory over all America's enemies.

That was the theme emphasized and re-emphasized by speakers at the afternoon victory meeting also. These included, Sgt. Ernest Piskorski, home on leave after 32 months of fighting the Japs in the South Pacific, Ralph W. Norman, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mayor Cummins.

Every American must continue to buy war bonds, must save gasoline, must share food uncomplainingly through the rationing system, must help in the salvaging of paper, metals and other materials for war—these were the things that all speakers talked about, from Sgt. Piskorski who told in simple words how greatly the Red Cross and U.S.O. have helped him and his comrades to Mayor Cummins who pleaded feelingly for continued sacrifices by good citizens until the time when all American boys and girls can be brought safely home and all people everywhere can enjoy the Four Freedoms.

There was band music at this program, too, and group singing of the national anthem. Hilding Pearson served as master of ceremonies, introducing in addition to the speakers, Rev. R. T. Cordry who gave the invocation and Rev. C. F. McConnell who gave the benediction; Clark Wechbach, who led the crowd in repetition of the pledge of allegiance; Dorothy Auble and Mrs. Leslie Nash, who sang solos; and a women's quartet which sang 'God Bless America.' And the crowd of people stood together in a moment of silent prayer.

The program was over by 3:00, and people went to their homes quietly. Even then there was no public exuberance. Fewer cars even than on most war-time days seemed to buzz about the streets. Every business place and nearly every home displayed a flag. Business places remained closed, including beer parlors and liquor stores which were dark all day.

Tuesday evening the brilliant neon sign in front of the Ord Theatre blazed at full strength. It had been dark for three months during the dim-out which was relaxed with the V-E Day proclamation. Other lights, turned off during the dim-out, kept the theatre sign company. People who saw in them a symbol, hoped they were on to stay.

Mrs. Edith Tatlow hears from Pvt. Ralph Tatlow that he and several other members of the same battery, with a couple of guerillas acting as interpreters, were on patrol when a Filipino civilian told them there was a Jap patrol a few miles away, headed in the direction of their command post. The native guided them near the spot, and they spread out to surround the Japs, creeping up to find smoke. Upon investigating they found the whole Jap patrol in a small ravine, well concealed with good cover, where they could have held off the American patrol for an indefinite period. but all the Japs had killed themselves with a mine, starting a brush fire and setting fire to their clothes. The bodies of the dead Japs were searched for anything of military value, and several members of the patrol got Jap battle flags, bayonets, books, etc. as souvenirs. It will always remain a mystery why the Japs blew themselves up before coming in contact with the American patrol.

Pfc. Edward W. Oetken writes from somewhere in Germany on April 20, "Yes, I'm still kicking and boy was I glad to hear from you for over here we never get too much mail. I am glad that people like you back in Ord Nebraska sometimes think of a poor doughboy here on the front lines. We sure have been running these Jerries for a few days lately, we were riding on tanks and what I mean when we came into a town firing with tanks they sure get out the white bed sheets and give up. I have had some thrilling experiences and I've seen more country than I ever expected to see but if I never see another day of combat I'll be perfectly satisfied. I can't tell you just where I was when reported missing, but believe me I had my hands full. I have been awarded the combat infantry medal of which I am very proud. We have slept in some of the finest homes you can visualize and we also have spent many nights in a foxhole with water in it! Our division was the first infantry to cross the Rhine. I might have enjoyed the scenery but the Jerry 88's and planes made it uncomfortable for us. My hopes and prayers are with yours in wishing a speedy victory so we can all come home again."

FRESH PEAS Bright green, full pod . . . . . 2 Lbs. . . . 25c

Do you know this about Produce?

When you serve fresh vegetables, properly prepared, you are providing your family with required vitamins . . . using foods in plentiful supply, and best of all, offering them delicious, delicate flavor obtainable in no other way. Here are some tips on vegetable cookery that will pay you dividends in ease of preparation as well as flavor.

For strong-flavored vegetables, such as onions, cauliflower, etc., use sufficient boiling salted water to cover the vegetable; cook uncovered, drain, and discard cooking water, for it contains disagreeable sulphur compounds.

For spinach, Swiss chard, and other leafy greens, lift washed leaves into a large saucepan containing 1 to 2 cups rapidly boiling salted water, and cook rapidly, uncovered, turning greens once or twice with fork and spoon. Cook until barely tender. Drain and discard water, for it contains objectionable compounds of oxalic acid. Season to taste with butter or margarine, salt and pepper, and serve garnished with lemon wedges.

For red cabbage and beets, cook in small amount of boiling water to which ½ teaspoon vinegar or lemon juice for each cup shredded vegetable has been added, in order to retain bright red color.

Steaming: Place prepared vegetables in perforated inset of steamer, over rapidly boiling water. Sprinkle lightly with salt—about ½ teaspoon per pound of vegetable. Cover tightly and steam until tender. Season as desired, and serve at once.

News of Our Fighting Men

Joe Kovarik had a 10-day delayed pass, enroute from Roswell, N. M. to the Lincoln Air Base, which he is spending with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kovanik. He is flight engineer on a B-29, and will leave Ord, Wednesday, May 9.

John Hill, RM 3-c is now stationed at Londonderry, Ireland, writes Ray Hill from Loup City.

In a letter to his sister, 1st. Lt. Ernest C. James of the 238th Engineer Com. Bn., somewhere in Germany, sent his second bronze medal home. The citation reads "For putting up a 150 ft. bridge which could carry tanks in 1½ hrs. The fastest time a bridge of that length was ever put up in combat and under fire." Ernest thinks he is probably going to get to see Ralph some time soon. Ralph is in the Philippines now.

Mrs. Edith Tatlow hears from Pvt. THESE EVENTS LED ALLIES TO VICTORY—

The beginning of the gigantic life-and-death struggle known as "World War II" is generally set as September 1, 1939, the day the German armies rolled into Poland. Two days later France and England declared war on Germany.

Blitzkrieg tactics flattened Polish resistance in less than a month. Then began the half year of "phoney war" at the Maginot line. In the spring of 1940 German troops overran Norway and Denmark, forcing out the British. Early in May the campaign that frightened the entire world opened. Holland, Belgium and then France itself capitulated by the middle of June. Italy came in on Germany's side. The British expeditionary force barely escaped destruction at Dunkerque.

September, 1940, saw the massed air attacks on Britain by which Hitler hoped for a quick victory. The RAF held off the Nazi bombers until winter, when weather brought a slackening of attacks. That autumn of 1940 was probably the period of gravest peril to civilization in many centuries. Britain almost succumbed.

During the spring of 1941 Nazi troops smashed into the Balkans to aid the Italians, invading Yugoslavia and Greece. Bulgaria joined the Axis voluntarily. Germany controlled all of continental Europe excepting Russia by the middle of the year.

Without warning on June 22, Nazi armies crossed the Russian border in a tremendous drive.

As alarmed America prepared for defense, Japan attacked without warning at Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian islands and the U. S. was immediately at war with both Japan and Germany.

By mid-1942, American marines stopped the Japs on Guadalcanal. In Africa the British halted the drive on the Suez canal and counterattacked successfully. The Russians epic defense of Stalingrad stalled the German thrust into the Caucasus. The tide had turned.

In the fall American and British troops uanded in northern Africa.

The great Russian counteroffensive began in February of 1943. It rolled fiercely until mid-July, when the retreating Nazis stiffened and brought it to a standstill in central Poland. Meanwhile the air offensive from the British Isles was battering German cities and ports, preparatory to the invasion.

June 6, 1944, was the big day—the invasion of western Europe from England. After landing on the coast of France, American and British troops battled inland. Almost all France was under Allied control by November, 1944. Advance tank units were attacking on the German border by December. A substantial German counteroffensive was checked as the year ended.

On March 2 the American Ninth army reached the Rhine river. Within two weeks this great natural defense line was crossed. Racing tank corps smashed to the Elbe river, 30 miles from Berlin, and halted to await junction with the Russians. This signal event took place on April 27. Far to the south, American and Russian armies were roaring through Austria to seal off southern Germany. Organized resistance crumbled as German soldiers gave up in enormous numbers.

Japs Face Allied Power

We have won a war, but there is still another one to win. Before we can win the war against Japan, there is the gigantic problem of supply and moving the troops from the European theater to the Pacific.

The army estimates that 5,000,000 foot soldiers will be needed to defeat Japan. Our entire navy and air forces will be required. Some men will be released from service—the individuals will be determined on total service, overseas service, combat service and number of dependents. The bulk of the army will not be released.

Divisions will be regrouped to bring them up to combat strength. It will take several months to organize troops, crate and pack equipment before the units are ready to sail against Japan.

Some divisions will be lucky. They will be routed through the United States, while others will sail through the Panama canal direct to a Pacific port. Those landed in the United States will be given some leave.

About Four Months.

The divisions that sail direct to the Pacific will arrive about five months after V-E Day. It will take weeks after landing to check all equipment, for additional shipping to be available to bring necessary war material. Training for a new type of warfare must be undertaken.

Japan has 6,000,000 troops which have not yet met combat from our forces. They are calling up an additional million. They will be ready for us. She can raise another 2,000,000 when necessary. These have all had youth training.

After many years of standing still, Ord seems to be progressing. Houses to rent are in demand as they have not been for years, and there are waiting lists for owners to pick and choose from as they fancy.

Not for 15 or 20 years have houses been so scarce as they now are in Ord. Many people have had to buy houses to get a place to live, when they had no real desire to acquire property.

oOo

Dozens of moves have been made in Ord within the past year, as renters were pushed from one house to another, as new owners moved into their own possessions, etc.

Even remodeling has a modest boom in Ord. Here and there a roof is being replaced, a porch enclosed, bay windows or new kitchen being put in place as the Hugh Carson's are doing.

Will Zabloudil's have recently moved into a new home.

Ellis Carson's new home has taken shape so that roof lines can now be picked out.

Then there are several small buildings that have been moved from rural locations where they were unused, on to firm foundations in Ord, and are being converted into likeable liveable homes. When finished they will be attractive additions to the lots they occupy.

All in all Ord is getting fixed up, and not the least of the face-lifting jobs was fresh paint for a number of older homes.

Clothes for high-schoolers are so practical and pretty these days. Yes, I said pretty, thinking about the pastel sweaters and hair bows, the dainty white blouses kept that way by frequent washing. The practical touches are the brief woolen skirts, flattering to young figures (or lack of figures).

Of course there always has been and always will be a need for the goofy touch, such as the dangling shirt tails of flannel, the brightly painted red shoes.

Though it looks goofy too, to see pant legs rolled to mid-calf, there's a real reason for this.

If you ever got yourself caught on a bicycle sprocket, you know the reason for a rolled-up trouser leg of two.

There's a lot of bike riding these days, for every youngster has a job that keeps him hustling, barely allowing a minute or two for transportation to and from school. The war with its manpower shortage has put all our boys and girls to work, and very good it is for them, too.

It takes a quantity of serious planning to spend one of those great, big dollars he has earned himself. Such a dollar is much bigger than it is when Dad shells it out.

Grade School News.

School at the grade building has been an exciting affair as the end of the year draws nearer.

Friday afternoon all but 25 pupils brought excuses from home, so that they might go to the circus. So the remaining 25 students were also excused from school.

Tuesday morning a special convocation was held in celebration of V-E day. Nearly every grade furnished songs and recitations appropriate to the peace theme. After the singing was over school was dismissed for the day.

The fourth grade sold the most war stamps and bonds last week, and so this week the bright V flag hangs in that room. Stamp sales will be discontinued at school this week, so that books for the year may be closed and balanced, announces Inez Swain, principal of the Ord grade school.

Visitors at the grade school the past few days included County Superintendent Clara McClatchey, Mrs. L. A. Muncey, and Mrs. Jay Hackett.

Voting which pictures are favorites, out of the recent art exhibit, and which one they want to buy has proved of concern to all the children.

The end-of-school picnics are to be held as follows: kindergarten, first and second grades on Friday, May 18th; the third and fourth grades, Monday, May 21st; the fifth and sixth grades on Tuesday, May 22nd.

VICTORY IN EUROPE!

Germany Forced to Capitulate After Six Years of Fighting; Allies Face Big Job in Pacific

Eleven hard and bitter months after General Dwight D. Eisenhower's armies smashed through the ramparts of "Fortress Europe" to set foot upon French soil, Germany's once proud wehrmacht, weakened after six years of the bloodiest war in history, bowed the knee unconditionally to the Allied powers.

Offered to Russia as well as the U. S. and Britain after earlier futile efforts to split the Allies by approaching the Anglo-Americans alone, Germany's surrender took place at General Eisenhower's headquarters in the little red schoolhouse in Reims, France, at 2:41 a. m., May 7, with Lt. Gen. Walter Bedell Smith accepting Col. Gen. Gustav Jodl's capitulation. Later the surrender was ratified at Russian headquarters in battered Berlin, with Marshal Gregory Zhukov participating for the Reds.

These are the men—Roosevelt, Truman, Stalin and Churchill, who were responsible in directing the victory against Germany. Truman, committed to the Roosevelt foreign relation policies, together with Stalin and Churchill, will direct the United Nations in plans for world's peace.

Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz's order to German troops to cease firing came as a sort of anti-climax since the bulk of the Nazis forces already had laid down their arms in the face of the Allied avalanche. April 29, 1,000,000 Nazis surrendered in northern Italy and western Austria; May 4, another 1,000,000 gave up in Holland and Denmark, and on May 5, 400,000 quit in southern Germany.

As the stiff-necked German officers formally admitted defeat, neither they nor the beaten country's new ministers entertained any illusions as to the character of the Allied terms, with Foreign Minister Count Ludwig Schwenn Von Krosigk telling the people:

". . . . Nobody must deceive himself on the harshness of the terms. . . . Nobody must have any doubt that heavy sacrifices will be demanded from us in all spheres of life...."

Thus did the European war come to its end six years after the mighty German army, striking at the unprepared western powers, rolled through Poland; levelled the lowlands and France, and then turned back to the east again to challenge giant Russia.

As the Germans capitulated, behind them lay the remnants of a once all-powerful army, which, like Napoleon's, underestimated the vast steppes of Russia, and then found the U. S. and Britain gathering force behind its back; behind them lay Germany's blackened cities and shattered railway lines, pulverized by Allied aerial attacks; and behind them in the ruins of Berlin reportedly lay Adolf Hitler's dead body.

Because of the anti-climactic nature of the formal surrender, and also because of the premature announcement of the capitulation days before, some of the edge had been removed from the great event, with the result that the nation accepted the news with restraint. As Germany's fall was substantiated, people looked to the east, where the Japs still remain to be defeated and the entire resources of the navy and well over 6,000,000 troops may be needed to assure victory.

GEN. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER
"Man of the Hour."

With America scheduled to take over the occupation of central and western Germany and western Austria in accordance with Allied plans to maintain strict supervision over the country until a thoroughly democratic administration can be established, U. S. military authorities figure on the detention of 400,000 Yanks in Europe.

The first big break that signalized Germany's disintegration was the U. S. 1st army's surprise capture of the Ludendorff bridge spanning the Rhine below Cologne, permitting Lt. Gen. Courtney Hodges to build up a powerful bridgehead immediately below the vital Ruhr district and on the edge of the rolling plains leading eastward to Berlin.

As the 1st army's bold move threw the German command off balance, the remaining Allied forces in the west soon poured over the Rhine, last formidable water barrier guarding the heart of the reich. While British and Canadian troops struck out against eastern Holland and the North sea ports, the U. S. 9th army set about reducing the Ruhr valley while one wing of the 1st joined in the attack and another kept step with Lt. Gen. George Patton's famed armored columns dashing eastward across the reich. Meanwhile, the U. S. 7th and the French 1st armies drove into the Nazis' mythical redoubt in the Bavarian Alps.

As the American and British armies slashed through the German positions and turned to their rearward to isolate the enemy into separate pockets, the whole enemy's front lost its coherence, contributing to the disintegration of Nazi resistance.

With whole groups of German troops entrapped without hope of reinforcement, their defense varied, with the majority of the older, more practical men giving up upon being cornered while younger fanatics carried on in the face of overwhelming odds.

Meanwhile, the Russians had drawn up along the banks of the Oder river from the Baltic clear down to Silesia, while still other Red armies thrust eastward through Czechoslovakia and Austria. Once the Russians opened their all-out attack on Berlin, in the face of the Nazi collapse in the west, the giant pincer was near its close.

Twice taken to war in 25 years and twice defeated, with nothing to show but the anguish and suffering of conflict, the mass of the German people in American and British occupied territory accepted unconditional surrender with a stolidity that masked their inner feelings. East of the Elbe river where the Reds stood guard, however, the populace tread in apprehension over fear of reprisal for the Nazis' devastation of Russia in four years of bitter warfare. Previously, many of the people had tried to escape to the west, only to be turned back

A PROCLAMATION

Here is a partial text of President Truman's victory proclamation:

"The Allied armies, through sacrifice and devotion and with God's help, have wrung from Germany a final and unconditional surrender. The western world has been freed of the evil forces which for five years and longer have imprisoned the bodies and broken the lives of millions upon millions of free-born men.

"Much remains to be done. The victory won in the west must now be won in the east. The whole world must be cleansed of the evil from which half the world has been freed.

"For the triumph of spirit and of arms which we have won and for its promise to people everywhere who join us in the love of freedom, it is fitting that we as a nation give thanks to Almighty God, who has strengthened us and given us the victory.

Now, therefore, I Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Sunday, May 13, 1945, to be a day of prayer.

"I call upon my countrymen to dedicate this day of prayer to the memory of those who have given their lives to make possible our victory."

HARRY S. TRUMAN.

OFFICIAL WORD

When the real V-E Day came, most U. S. citizens got absolute confirmation of the news before starting victory celebrations. They remembered the false reports of Saturday, April 28, that had swept over the nation only to be climaxed by a White House denial of the peace rumor. Pres. Harry S. Truman said at that time that he had been in contact with General Eisenhower and that there was "no foundation" for the peace report.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

There is an increasing demand for honey bees in this locality. Many farmers would like to have bee colonies around, not on account of the sugar situation, but to pollinate crops, especially alfalfa seed crops.

Legumes can set seed only when honeybees or other insects visit legume flowers to get pollen or nectar. Wild insects may perform the task, but tame bees are more dependable. They can be placed where needed at the right time, and in sufficient numbers to do the job.

Agronomy specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture urge legume seed growers to arrange with beekeepers to maintain apiaries near their fields. They warn that there is a labor shortage of worker bees, which is threatening production goals for alfalfa and sweet clover seed.

Emphasis is being placed on honey production also, as a substitute for sugar. The developing sugar shortage may surpass the scarcity of meat in severity before the year is over.

Here in Valley county the average beekeeper gets about fifty pounds of surplus honey per hive, and perhaps a pound of wax. There is much demand for beeswax in war industries.

Hives of bees were used in ancient battles as a weapon to be thrown at the enemy. The products of bees are playing an even more important part in this war. All stray swarms found clustered on trees should be hived and put to work.

Christian Science Services.

'Adam and Fallen Man' is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 13, 1945.

The Golden Text is: "They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God" (Romans 9:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive." (1 Cor. 15:22).

Hazardous Ladders

Avoid ladders having rope, chain, or other makeshift spreaders. Be sure to place the ladder so that desired objects may be reached easily. If possible have another person steady the ladder while it is in use. Avoid standing on the top of a step-ladder; use one sufficiently high to let you stand at least two steps from its top.

Costly Equipment

Every time an American paratrooper jumps, $850 worth of equipment floats to earth.

Building Restricted by W. P. B. Orders

War Production Board, Kansas City Regional Office, asserted today that again this year, as in previous Springs, an unusual number of small construction projects are being started in this area in violation of Construction Limitation Order L-41.

Penalties are assessable for violations of the order and have been levied in a small percentage of cases where violations were found to be willful.

Penalties do not however restore to the fighting fronts the material which will continue to the end of the Japanese war to be vitally needed there.

It is true that the amount of labor and material required for one specific project may be small, but total requirement for all projects not directly contributing to the war are vast and that total of lumber and certain other construction materials is not available at this time except at the expense of war requirements Even if materials should happen to be available to owners without priority ratings construction is still prohibited by the order as a measure to channel labor into the war effort.

All possible provision is made in Order L-41 for the allowable use of construction material in view of the shortage which makes the order necessary. Expenditure up to a total of $200 for remodeling construction of residential or commercial projects is permitted. Above this amount application should be made for permission to begin any remodeling or new construction project deemed vitally necessary to the war, or civilian economy.

NOTICE TO ORD CITIZENS

Several complaints have been made to the Mayor and Council to the effect that certain persons are following the practice of disposing of their garbage by dumping it along streets or alleys, or on private property, within the city. This practice is made illegal by city ordinance.

If you are one of the persons who has disposed of garbage in such illegal manner, take notice that city ordinances provide that garbage must be hauled at least once weekly to the place designated as the city dumping grounds, and may be disposed of in no other manner.

It is a breach of good taste as well as of ordinance to dump your garbage on a public street or alley, or on the private property of another, and such dumping may constitute a health hazard. It doesn't matter whether it is garbage or rubbish, empty bottles, etc.—all such matter must be hauled to the city dumping grounds.

Take notice and govern yourselves accordingly, or you may face arrest and prosecution under the ordinance.

Ord Livestock Market

announces its offering for the regular weekly sale

Saturday, May 12

Sale starts promptly at 1:30.

Last Saturday's sale was a good one, with a large consignment of all kinds of livestock and buyers present from a big territory, which made for a good auction. Both sellers and buyers were pleased, which condition always pleases us.

SPECIAL SALE OF DAIRY COWS.

As a special consignment at our auction this week we will sell the Ayreshire Dairy Herd of Charlie Meyer of Burwell. This herd consists of 12 cows, of which 10 are registered and 2 are cross-bred. For the past 8 years the Meyer herd has been the heaviest producing herd selling to the Burwell Butter Factory. We have personally inspected this herd and place these cows in the same class as the Athey herd which we sold a few weeks ago. Several of the Meyer cows produce 6 to 7 gallons daily. These cows are 3 to 8 years old. Several are milking now and are mated back to a registered Ayrshire bull. Mr. Meyer is selling for the reason that his man is being inducted into the army and Mr. Meyer and his wife cannot look after the farm work and take care of the dairy herd too. Anyone wanting to see the herd may do so now at the Meyer farm, 2 miles east of Burwell. They will be in Ord by noon Saturday, at which time they may be inspected at our sale barn. Come early and look them over.

A 3-year-old registered Ayrshire bull also will be sold, in addition to the cow herd.

120 HEAD ALL CLASSES OF GOOD CATTLE.

140 HEAD OF WEANLING PIGS AND FEEDER SHOATS.

Also 10 Spotted Poland brood sows, mated to a registered Spotted boar. 1 Black Poland boar. Several sows with pigs at side.

6 HEAD OF GOOD FARM HORSES.

In the miscellaneous department we will sell a 1933 Ford V-8 with fair tires; several pieces of machinery; 185 rods of woven fencing; several posts and other articles.

When you have anything to sell, think of this market.

Our Fighting Men

PM2c Elton E. Walker is still stationed at Shoemaker, Calif., he writes his parents. His job is taking one bunch of soldiers after another to Seattle, Wash.

Cpl. E. Fowler, CRFC, of Ft. Riley, Kas., is visiting relatives near Burwell. He arrived Tuesday.

2nd Lt. Gerald Jirak arrived Friday night from Camp Howzle, Tex., and left Thursday morning after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jirak, his brother Edwin and his friends. He will be an instructor at that post for the next few months.

Lt. Loretta Mae Achen is now at Indiantown Gap, Pa., a replacement camp, she writes her mother, Mrs. Bess Treptow. She was recently home on furlough.

A regimental surgeon has many grim jobs in a war, but once in a while something happens to make up for a lot of the hardships, writes the public relations section of the 104th Timberwolf division in Germany referring to Major Kenneth T. McGinnis of Ord. Major McGinnis was recently told to investigate a captured hospital in the city of Halle, Germany. But no one told him that the patients consisted of 46 American prisoners of war, several British, Polish, Russian, Serbian and other nationalities. There were happy smiles and tears of joy on both sides. The American prisoners of war actually burst into tears, they were so happy to see a U. S. army medical officer. After seeing the condition the men were in, Major McGinnis went back to his regiment and told his men what he had seen, asking them to contribute anything they wished to the liberated prisoners. The response was overwhelming, and he returned to the hospital with a load of cigarettes, candy, K rations, toilet articles and other things these men had not seen for a long time. Just to see how happy the patients were to get these contributions was repayment enough for all concerned on that happy day. This Ord young man was given a bronze star early in 1945, word reaches here.

Mrs. Cecil E. Lockhart returned to her work last week at the AAA office after spending two weeks with her husband, who is stationed at Camp Maxey, Tex.

AS Raymond E. Vogeltanz has been moved from Randolph Field, Tex., to Brooks Field, Tex comes word to the Quiz office.

DeLysle Jeffers, AS, has been moved from Great Lakes to Camp Endicott, Davisville, R. I.

Lt. Joe R. Kovarik has moved from Roswell, N. M., to the air base at Lincoln, Nebr.

Sgt. and Mrs. C. D. Cummins are in Ord at present enjoying a 15-day leave. Sgt. Cummins is stationed at Camp Crockett, Tex.

Lt. (jg) Elliott McClure, who received his commission in February, was home on leave over the week end. He was traveling from Bethesda, Md., to Mare Island, Calif. His wife and little daughters are making their home here. Sunday afternoon late, christening rites for little Cammie McClure were held at the McClure home, following a large open house.

Word reaches Ord to the effect that Arthur Carlson has been promoted to the rank of 1st lieutenant. He has flown 27 missions as pilot of a B-24 bomber. Recently Lt. Carlson had a 7-day leave which he spent in Scotland. All his missions have been flown over Europe from a base in England.

Pfc. Guy Keep, who was in Ord a month ago with his family to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Keep, has been shipped overseas and is thought to have gone to China. He came home on furlough from Camp Barkley, Tex. He is a cook, and a good one. Mrs. Guy Keep is in Cheyenne at present, and will come to Ord soon, probably to stay for the duration.

Dr. F. L. Blessing hears from his sister, Mrs. Edwin Clements of Ontario, Calif., that Captain Robert McMasters is likely to be stationed at the Lincoln air field. Capt. McMasters is the husband of the former Jeannette Clements, elder Clements daughter.

Keith Kovanda is still in Mississippi, but is to go to Chanute Field, Ill., in June to begin training in cryptography, a type of military intelligence work in codes. He is still connected with the air corps.

Evelyn Kokes writes her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kokes, that she has been promoted, and is now a lieutenant, junior grade. She is stationed at the naval hospital at Treasure Island. Her brother, CPhM Ted Kokes, was based in New Guinea when last heard from but expected to be shifted at once. S. Sgt. Emanuel Kokes is still in the Philippines, where he is with a medical corps.

Sgt. Richard Kokes is home on a 15-day furlough. He arrived at the John Kokes home Monday morning from Ft. Belvoir, Va., where he is with the engineering corps. He returned about Christmas from 33 months overseas.

Sgt. Horace Johnson was in Ord from Saturday to Monday.

Old and New

In Middle America, churches often blend the Old World with the New. Mexico City's chief cathedral is built on the spot where an Aztec temple once stood. For the Christian edifice the self-same stones were used.

Swiss Cantons

Switzerland's 22 cantons were unified by a federal constitution approved in 1874. Cantons — the administrative divisions—keep local affairs largely in their own hands, and manage their national business through a two-chamber parliament to which they send representatives. In August, 1944, Switzerland observed the 653rd anniversary of confederation.

Devoured Shoes

When the ballerina Taglioni appeared in St. Petersburg, a group of Russian admirers purchased a pair of her dancing shoes for a fabulous price. They didn't stop at drinking champagne from the slippers, however. A famous chef was called on to cook the shoes, which were then ceremoniously devoured by the claque.

Funks "G" Hybrid

A good time to order those extra bushels you're going to need. Try a few bushels of our white hybrid. Pure white and an extra good yielder. Read Mr. Ed Krolikowski's statement in the Nebraska Farmer, April 7 issue. Mr. Krolikowski claims Funk's "G" No. 67 made 148.7 bushels per acre in 1944 at Cairo, Nebr. What has been done can be done again. Try a few bushels of Funk's "G" Hybrid.

Scholastic Honors to Lillian Geneski, Darlene Puncochar

Ted Randolph Is Winner of Haskell-Melia Award; Ord Commencement Tonight.

Lillian Geneski was introduced as valedictorian of her class Tuesday evening when 62 seniors took part in class night exercises at the high school auditorium. Darlene Puncochar was salutatorian of the class of 1945. Both girls made thoughtful talks. Lillian is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Geneski and Darlene the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Puncochar.

Lillian Geneski.

James Finley, president of the graduating class, acted as the master of ceremonies for the occasion. Marjorie Mulligan sang a dashing vocal number, "Begin the Beguine," accompanied by Audrey Koll. Evelyn Papiernik revealed the history of the class of '45 to the audience in a far from boring fashion.

Darlene Whiting played a mellow saxophone solo "Desert Song," with piano accompaniment by Marilyn Ollis. Lorraine Sperling gave the class prophecy, an interesting portion of the program.

Alice Blaha and Patricia Griffith sang as a duet the gay "Czech Dance Song." Their accompanist was Marjorie Mulligan. The class will was cleverly given by Norma Geneski, after which Carolyn Auble, Marjorie Mulligan and Patricia Griffith sang as a pleasant-voiced trio. Their first number was "Pierrot" and their second "Meet Me in St. Louis, Louie." They were accompanied by Marilyn Ollis.

The Haskell-Melia award, given annually to an outstanding student of great promise and all-around athletic and scholastic ability, was suitably presented by Mrs. Barbara Lahr to Ted Randolph.

In conclusion audience and graduates united to sing the "Star Spangled Banner."

Darlene Puncochar.

At baccalaureate services on Sunday at the high school Rev. Norman Ericson of the United Brethren church spoke to the young men and women who are finishing the twelfth grade of the Ord schools. He took as his text "Well done, thy good and faithful servant," urging every young graduate to use his ability to the fullest in the life that lies before him. Rev. Ericson illustrated his remarks interestingly. Rev. R. T. Cordry spoke the words of convocation and benediction for the services.

The commencement oration will be delivered Thursday evening by District Judge William F. Spikes of St. Paul, at eight o'clock at the high school auditorium.

To open the program the high school band will play a musical prelude, under the direction of Glen Auble. Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" will be played as a processional while the class of 1945 enters. Rev. Carl McConnell of the Methodist church will invoke the blessing.

Dorothy Auble will sing "Summer" by Chaminade, with accompaniment by Mrs. Sylvester Furtak. Mrs. Leslie Nash will play "Walther's Prize Song" from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger," with Mrs. Furtak playing the piano accompaniment.

The principal of the high school, F. L. Stoddard, will present the graduating class, and the president of the board of education, Dr. F. L. Blessing, will present the diplomas.

When his recruit training is completed, the seaman will be given leave.

The United States Navy school of music at the Navy Yard, in Washington, D. C., announces the graduation of Richard F. Koupal, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Koupal. His training has been intensive and included instrumental and choral training, ensemble playing and instruction in theoretical subjects, and also military drill, seamanship and athletics. Since the school's inception in 1935 more than 1,700 musicians have received diplomas and several hundred more have been sent as replacements to bands in the fleet.

S. Sgt. Lawrence Myers who was chosen as an honor guard for President Roosevelt's body, is a nephew of Mrs. M. McBeth of Ord, according to belated word reaching the Quiz.

Harold Portis, who is in service somewhere in the Philippines, and Mrs. Portis of North Loup are the parents of a son born Thursday at the Clinic hospital. The young man weighed in at six and one-half pounds. This makes two boys in the family. Dr. and Mrs. Henry Norris were in charge.

Weekes to Remodel the Clinic Hospital

Dr. C. W. Weekes has announced that in two weeks he will close the Clinic hospital for complete remodeling, repair and refurnishing, which will take about a month. During this period Dr. Weekes will take special work at the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn.

Plans for cutting through into the building east of the present hospital, thus utilizing the entire second floor of the building occupied by the Ord Hardware, as well as the second floor of the Auble Bros., Chase and Nebraska State bank buildings.

A new operating room will be built and equipped, new examining and treatment rooms equipped, a new kitchen installed, and extensive changes made in the private and ward rooms occupied by patients. New furniture will be installed throughout, the doctor says. Former Ord Man Died 21st of April from Wounds on German Battlefront.

Mrs. Verna L. Zentz received a telegram Friday from the war department stating that her husband, Cpl. Ervin E. Zentz died of wounds April 21. He was seriously wounded in action on the German battle front, April 13, being a tank gunner with the 7th army attached to 3rd Infantry division.

He entered the army June 26, 1944, and received his training at Fort Knox, Ky., arrived overseas Jan 7, 1944. Cpl. Ervin Zentz was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory Zentz, now of Minden, Iowa. State Sein Crew to Remove Fish from Covey Pond

Acids from Rendering Plant Killing Fish, So Will Sein and Replant.

Art Edmonds, deputy state game warden, came to Ord Monday to investigate a report that fish are dying in the old ice pond east of Ord, on the property now owned by Bruce Covey and located adjacent to his rendering plant. Acid disinfectants used in the plant are run off into the lake and are killing the fish, said the report.

After investigating, Edmonds telephoned Lincoln and ordered a state fish truck and seining crew to Ord, and it is planned to sein all fish from the lake Thursday and replant them in the river and in creeks adjacent to this city.

Many large catfish have been found dead on the banks of the pond, as well as bass, crappies, bluegills, bullheads and other varieties of fish, says Vern Andersen, deputy county sheriff, who assisted Edmonds in the investigation.

Catfish seined from the pond will be placed in the river nearby. Bass, crappies and bluegills will be placed in Dane Creek, Turtle Creek and other streams. It is thought most of them will live, as the rendering plant has been in operation only a short time and contamination of the water hasn't progressed far. When the fish are replanted, signs will be erected advising fishermen not to eat fish caught from the stream for a few days after the replanting, as it may take the fish a few days to recover from effects of the contaminated water. A few days in running water will make them edible again, says Edmonds.

Clyde Athey, 45, Passes Tuesday

Tuesday evening at the Ord hospital occurred the death after a long illness of Clyde Athey, 45, a well-known Ord farmer and dairyman. Funeral arrangements have not been made pending receipt of word from out-of-state relatives.

Mr. Athey was born Febr. 21, 1900 at Clay Center, Nebr., living there and at Nelson and coming to Valley county at the age of 12 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Athey. He had lived here ever since with exception of two years spent at Falls City. His marriage to Miss Bess Gates took place there on June 12, 1928.

For the past eight years Mr. Athey had lived on a farm north of Ord where he built up one of the finest milking herds in central Nebraska, being one of the largest butterfat producers of the Ord Cooperative Creamery association and selling whole milk to the Stewart dairy. This herd was dispersed a few weeks ago when Mr. Athey became fatally ill with cancer.

In earlier years Athey was an amateur baseball player of considerable fame and he was generally active in community affairs, popular with his neighbors and possessing a large circle of friends by whom he will be greatly missed.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his father, two brothers, Ralph, of Gold Hill, Ore., and Rueben, of Tekamah, and by a nephew, James Kucero, who lived in the Athey home.

Bond Buying Brisk in 7th War Loan; Rally Sat'day Eve

$40,000 in Bonds Already Credited; Quotas Set; Navy Show Sat'day.

Valley county's reaction to V-E Day has been a steady increase in the volume of war bonds being bought, according to War Finance Chairman C. J. Mortensen, and as the 7th War Loan opened Monday a total of approximately $40,000, principally in "E" bonds, already had been bought and credited to this county in the current drive.

A big bond rally will be held at the high school auditorium in Ord at 9:00 Saturday evening, May 19, with a travelling navy unit present to give brief talks and show movies. In charge of the bond unit is CPO James Aaron Pardo and others will include a coast guardsman, Alfred Parish; a marine, Robert A. Fisher; and a sailor, Edward Block. Each has decorations and citations for heroism and combat duty.

The program to be presented includes showing a film, "Story of a Transport," and the returned veterans will tell of their experiences in various theatres of war.

To encourage everyone to attend this show, Ord retail stores are staying open an hour later then usual Saturday and will not close until 11 p.m. It is hoped people generally will attend the bond show and then finish their shopping afterward.

Valley county has a big job to do in meeting its 7th War Loan quota of $351,000, which includes $176,000 in "E" bonds, the greatest E bond quota by 40% ever assigned this county. But with the cooperation of everyone Chairman Mortensen is confident the job can be done.

Monday evening the bond committee met and assigned bond quotas to each precinct, as follows:

Arcadia	$ 30,000.00
Davis Creek	8,000.00
Elyria	10,000.00
Enterprise	30,000.00
Eureka	5,000.00
Geranium	7,000.00
Independent	7.000.00
Liberty	5,000.00
Michigan	35,000.00
Noble	8,000.00
North Loup	30,000.00
Ord	185,000.00
Springdale	8,000.00
Vinton	8,000.00

In assigning over one-half of the county's $351,000 quota to Ord city and township, the committee paid people of this community a great compliment. Despite constantly enlarged quotas, Ord has continued to oversubscribe in each war loan, the last time making 188% of its quota. A few other townships, notably Arcadia, North Loup, Davis Creek and Enterprise, have usually made their quotas by small margins, but Ord has always oversubscribed to a great extent. In fixing quotas for the 7th War Loan, the committee cut down the quotas assigned to townships which have consistently failed to meet quotas and increased Ord's quota greatly, in the hope that every township in the county will meet the quotas assigned this time. Approximately 13% more bond buying is asked of the county this time over the 6th War Loan.

Reports of progress will be made, beginning in a week or two, and the bond committee is confident that the county quota will be met, large though it is.

Court House Repair Work Completed

Work on the platform and board flight of cement steps leading to the courthouse in Ord is almost finished this week, after having been ripped out once and started over by R. E. Bissell and Son of Kearney.

Originally the county board allowed $2,200 for the repairs needed, but the cement had been undermined more than appeared on the surface, and a more thorough rebuilding was needed, so the allowance is likely to be insufficient.

Another improvement was a substantial iron handrail placed up the center of the flight of steps, also making the steps safer to use.

Will Sell Poppies in Ord May 19th

Poppies to honor America's dead warriors of two World Wars will be worn in Ord on Saturday, May 19, according to Mrs. Mabel Colver, president of the local unit of the American Legion Auxiliary and Mrs. Cecil Clark, unit poppy chairman.

The poppies to be sold Saturday were made at the Lincoln Veterans' Hospital by disabled veterans of World Wars I and II. Making the poppies has helped these men earn money and has done a great deal to maintain their interest in life by keeping their minds and fingers occupied during the past winter months.

This year it is expected that more Americans than ever before will wish to wear the poppies as a salute to the dead soldiers and their bereaved families and as a financial aid to the living but disabled soldiers and their needy families. There is no fixed price for a poppy—whatever is given is welcome. The sale is conducted entirely by volunteers and every cent that is given for a poppy goes toward the rehabilitation of disabled fighting men and to the aid of the children of the dead and disabled.

In the poppy poster contest sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary in the grade school, the following were awarded prizes: Dorothy Rich, Charlene Blessing and Amelia Novosad in the fifth and sixth grade division; Sharon Hastings, Lorraine Dunlap and Ruth Ollis in the third and fourth grades.

Ord Chanticleers Win State Honors 2nd Straight Year

Win Class B Laurel with 24 Points at Lincoln; Randolph Wins Thrice.

Paced by Ted Randolph who placed first in high hurdles, low hurdles, high jump and fourth in pole vault the Ord Chanticleers became state champions in Class B for the second straight season at the Nebraska inter-scholastic track and field meet held Friday and Saturday at memorial stadium in Lincoln.

The Ord team made a total of 24 points, closest competitor being Crete with 16. Central City was third with 13 and Cozad fourth with 10.

Randolph's 16 points were alone enough to tie Crete but team-mates contributed 8 more to give Ord easy victory. Dworak took 2nd in shotput, Krikac 2nd in the mile run and Stewart 3rd in discus throw to make these points. Tolen, fifth member of the Ord team, tripped and fell on the first curve in the 880 race, and though he made a plucky recovery did not finish in the point column.

Ted Randolph's winning time in the 120 high hurdles was 16.1, in the 220 yard low hurdles was 24.3. He high-jumped 5 feet 10½ inches to win this event but in the pole vault, usually his best event, he was off form and vaulted only 10 feet 6 inches which was good only for fourth place. And in the broad jump he failed to qualify, though he has leaped 20 feet during the season and had he repeated this distance would have won second in the event. But young Randolph had a busy week end and scored more points than any other athlete entered in any class, so Coach Cochrane is not disposed to find fault because he didn't realize his potentialities in these two events.

George Dworak's toss of 41 feet 11½ inches was topped only by the 44 foot heave of Rod Johnson of Plainview. A Cozad boy edged out Krikac in the mile in time of 5:04.1. Stewart's platter throw of 120 feet 7 inches was good for 3rd in this event, which was won by Weiland, of Mitchell, with a throw of 140½ feet.

Class A winner was Omaha Central while Atkinson won in Class C and Talmadge in Class D.

A railroad's roadbed has a lot to do with travel comfort. A well-built roadbed does away with annoying, sleep-disturbing bumps . . . like a boat breasting a choppy sea. It gives you "smooth sailing."

The kind of gravel used for roadbed ballast is an important factor. Union Pacific uses a special, sturdy type of crushed granite which stands up particularly well under wartime's heavily loaded freight and passenger trains. Then, too, it acts as a "cushion," resulting in more comfortable riding and less wear on locomotives and cars.

Thus, even the ballast used on the railroad's roadbed plays its part in efficient, 'round-the-clock transportation of troops and essential battle-line freight over Union Pacific's Strategic Middle Route, uniting the East with the Pacific Coast.

Future "smooth sailing" over life's highway can be assured by holding tight to the war bonds we now have . . . and, as an extra measure of economic protection, buying as many more as we can possibly afford.

★ Listen to "YOUR AMERICA" radio program on Mutual nationwide network every Sunday afternoon. Consult your local newspaper for the time and station.

Will you hold a FAT-SALVAGE BEE for your country?

HERE IN AMERICA, when a neighbor needs help, it has always been the custom for all the folks to pitch in and give him a hand. Many a harvest would have been lost without the help of a husking bee.

YOUR COUNTRY NEEDS a fat-salvage bee right now! Millions of tons of fat have been used up to supply the thousands of battlefield and home-front needs in this war. And there's still a lot of war ahead!

A PLEA TO EVERY WOMAN! Our country is calling on you, the women in small cities and towns and on the farms, to save every drop of used fat. Your used fats are desperately needed to meet our country's requirements.

So scrape all pans and roasters. Skim soups and gravies. Keep your used fats in a tin can—any kind will do. Save meat trimmings and plate scrapings in a bowl; melt them down and add the liquid fat to your can.

When the salvage can is full, take it to your butcher. He'll give you 2 red points and up to four cents for every pound. If you have any difficulty turning in your used fats, call your Home Demonstration or County Agent.

Needed this year: 100,000,000 more pounds of used fats

Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry

Valley County's Quota Is $351,000!!!

Trade your folding money for fighting money!

Get in on the fight!

Pitch in with every dollar you can spare—proudly plank them down for twice as many bonds as you ever bought before!

Only when you do that can you look an American fighting man in the eye and say:

"Yes, son, I am doing all I can . . . producing all the food I can, and BUYING ALL THE BONDS I CAN!"

WAR BONDS PAY OFF IN THESE 7 WAYS...

1 The same Government security backs your War Bonds as backs the actual dollars you put into them.

2 You get $100 at maturity for every $75 loaned now.

3 You can get your money back any time you need it . . . in the meantime, you get safety and steady growth.

4 You have a backlog to renew farm buildings and equipment after the war.

5 Bonds will insure your children's schooling, or provide for your own security, travel, retirement.

6 Bonds go into a national nest egg that will help to assure post-war prosperity.

7 Bonds transform your love of home and country into action . . . you join personally in the biggest, most urgent War Loan of all—The Seventh!

The 7th War Loan Is On!

Yes, the Seventh War Loan is on right now.

There are new planes to be built, new tanks, new ships. All to bring the war against Japan to an earlier close.

Our fighting men will do their job. But we must do OURS.

And right now the most important job we have is to meet our personal quotas in the Seventh War Loan drive.

Those quotas are big. Uncle Sam needs 7 billion dollars from individuals. For this loan is really 2 in 1—by this time in 1944 there had been two drives. Well now—we've got a two-loan job in one.

But Americans have never failed to meet a War Bond quota yet—and we won't fail now. So find out what your quota is—and meet it!

The speech of welcome was given by Dan Lutz, president of the junior class, and the response was given by Bill Weddel, president of the senior class. Other speeches were N-avy, given by Junior Arthur; A-mbition, by Marvin Larson; V-ictory, by Rae Jean Brown; Y-outh, by Mary Mason and Sea of Life, by Mr. V. V. Bugbee. Then the seniors and guests were escorted to the high school auditorium which was beautifully decorated with a canopy of blue, white and gold with the Navy insignia covering the center light. At one end of the auditorium, a room was partitioned off with blue and white streams, and in big letters was written, "The Brig" and in the Brig were card tables lit up with floor lamps for those to play cards that didn't care to dance. In the northeast corner was a sandbeach with palm trees, a stream tumbling down from a rocky slope and a bathing beauty under one of the palm trees. To very soft music played by Beth Finecy, the page boys, Chas. Evans and Marlan Sell ushered the King and Queen, Allen Sell and Alfreda Collier, and their attendants, Allen Bellinger and Phyllis Anderson, up the gang plank on the deck, where they were crowned by Dan Lutz and Joyce Masters. The flower girls were Judy Beerline and Barbara Slingsby. The ten waiters and waitresses, dressed in white sailor uniforms danced the Sailor's Hornpipe. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Easterbrook sang a duet and a quartet, consisting of Mary Mason, Joann Masters, Dean Ritz and Franklin Christ, sang two numbers. This closed the program and the King and Queen led the first dance of the evening. Guests were invited to watch the crowning of the king and queen and by nine o'clock the bleachers were filled. The juniors and their sponsor, Mrs. Carl Easterbrook, deserve a lot of praise and credit for a lovely program and the work they did in their beautiful decorating.

Again, the words of Horace Greeley ring true:

GO WEST, YOUNG MAN, GO WEST!

• Not even in the promising days of Horace Greeley did the West have as much to offer young men, young industry and old industry imbued with the spirit of youth. For make no mistake, the West of today is not the West of yesterday. It still is, and always will be, an empire of vast agricultural and mineral resources and production. But it is acquiring a new role—that of an industrial empire.

During the past few wartime years, scores of industries have built, equipped or manned new plants throughout the West. Like the early settlers of Horace Greeley's days, they have liked what the West has to offer—its vast natural resources, its accessibility, its transportation, its friendliness, the alert spirit of its towns and cities, the eagerness of its people to work and go places. These are the things which have wrought industrial miracles in the West during crucial wartime. They will stand industry in equally good stead in the peaceful years ahead. That is why the West offers a real opportunity to expanding industry in the postwar period.

Transportation has played a vital part in every stage of the West's dramatic development. In helping to provide that transportation, the Burlington has worked and grown with the West for more than ninety years. Moreover, to its Industrial Department has gone the important full-time job of stimulating Western industrial activity.

We look forward, with eagerness, to a future of vastly more hand-in-hand work and growth.

AN ESSENTIAL LINK IN TRANSCONTINENTAL TRANSPORTATION

Give your pullets the Acidox Treatment. Acidox is given easily, in the drinking water, like Germozone. Because its acid is controlled, Acidox does not throw the birds off feed. Greatest loss from Coccidiosis is in the set back to the birds, and delayed growth and development. They need a medicine that will help them resist the disease and reduce death losses without upsetting them. Give them Acidox. A 12-oz. bottle, to treat 300 chicks for 2 weeks, $1.00.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Fuller 1st Valley County Boy to Win a Point Discharge

In Army 4 Years, No. Loup Boy Home to Stay; Had 100 Point Total.

North Loup—(Special)—Brown as an Indian, in perfect health and weighing only 2 pounds less than when he entered the army four years ago, T-4 Menzo Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fuller, came home Sunday and is home to stay. He is the first Valley county boy to win army discharge under the new point system, it is thought.

T-4 Fuller was inducted in July, 1941, and received his training on the east coast, specializing in mechanics for heavy vehicles. In February, 1942, he was sent to Australia and during 39 months in the south Pacific he saw service also in New Guinea, Netherland East Indies and the Philippines. During the entire period of his army service he never had a day's leave at home.

In March, after weeks of hoping for a rotation furlough, young Fuller wrote that he would soon be on his way but that it would probably take six weeks or more. Last week came a wire from him at Ft. Leavenworth advising that he was "out of the army."

T-4 Menzo Fuller.

When he landed on the west coast, says Menzo, he had no thought of a discharge but in counting up points found that he had 85 in service time alone and in addition had three bronze stars for participation in major campaigns, which counted for 5 points each. Only 85 were needed to make him eligible for discharge so he was soon out of the army.

Many soldiers were being discharged at Leavenworth, he says, but many soldiers who wanted discharges didn't have enough points to be eligible. He tells of one soldier who lacked only two points and who had been reassigned to military service when a telegram came telling of the birth of twins to his wife, which boosted his point total above the necessary 85.

T-4 Fuller is not decided as to future plans but has no doubt he will find use for his mechanical training; in fact, he already has had several good civilian jobs offered to him. For the present he plans to stay home and, among other things, enjoy his mother's cooking.

Next Paper Carload Going in Mid-June

Another carload of waste paper will be shipped from Ord about the middle of June says R. Clare Clement, county salvage chairman. Need for salvaged paper is constantly expanding and paper continues to be the most vitally needed war material. People are urged to save every scrap of paper during the next few weeks and see that the paper they save gets into the car when it is loaded.

Scoutmaster Needed by Big Ord Troop

Wanted—a Scoutmaster!

That is the current slogan of the Ord troop of the Boy Scouts of America and of the Rotary club, which acts as official sponsor for the troop.

LeRoy Frazier, who has been serving as scoutmaster, resigned recently and Field Director Lee Baker, meeting with the executive committee of the troop Friday, warned that a new scoutmaster must be obtained and the troop reorganized at once, or the Ord troop cannot take part in the summer camp at Lake Ericson which is scheduled to be held from June 10 to 17.

The Scout troop has about fifty members, is amply financed and has most of the equipment it needs, but a scoutmaster must be found or the work will have to be abandoned in Ord, temporarily at least. Qualified young men who enjoy working with boys and who are willing to help in the emergency should talk to George Allen or Dr. Blessing.

Bond Campaign Is Off to Slow Start, Only $50,000 Sold

$176,000 "E" Bond Quota Is Greatest Worry; Rally Lightly Attended.

Less than $50,000 worth of "E" bonds have been bought by Valley county people since the start of the 7th War Loan campaign, estimates C. J. Mortensen, county war finance chairman, and with a quota of $176,000 to meet on "E" bonds alone, the slow rate of sales is causing much concern to officials.

This county has an enviable record to uphold, won by having met all quotas in each of the six previous war loans. Valley county's record, points out Mortensen, is the best of any county in Nebraska having a quota of $100,000 or higher.

But unless people generally buy bonds at a faster rate in the 7th War Loan than they have done to date, this fine record will be lost.

Saturday evening the Navy department's traveling unit gave a splendid show at the Ord high school auditorium but it was lightly attended by only 150 people, many of them children. In addition to the movie, "Story of a Transport," which had been advertised, the sailors showed captured Japanese and German movies. Short speeches were made by personnel of the troupe and by local bond officials.

No further rallies are planned during the 7th War Loan and success in meeting the $176,000 "E" and $351,000 over-all quotas will depend on a lot of hard work by volunteer solicitors and the voluntary buying of bonds by citizens generally.

Next week it is planned to begin publishing the township standings, as compared to quota in each issue of the Quiz, but unless more bonds are bought in the next week than have been in the past, each township will make a sorry showing when the figures are revealed.

"Don't wait for a solicitor to call and ask you to buy bonds; instead go to your bank or post-office at once and buy all you can afford," is the request and advice of Chairman Mortensen. "It is a patriotic duty to buy these bonds and each person must himself decide how many he can buy; nobody else can tell you."

6,000 Fish Seined from Pond Thursday

An estimated 6,000 fish, principally bluegills, were seined from the Covey pond east of Ord by Game Warden Art Edmonds and assistants Thursday, and planted in creeks near Ord. A big 300-foot sein was used but the sein wasn't large enough to reach the bottom of the pond and many fish were not seined out for that reason. None of the big catfish known to be in the pond were caught in the net.

A large crowd watched the seining operations and Mr. Edmonds did not lack for volunteer helpers.

"Equipment for Tomorrow" was his topic and to the graduates and an auditorium crowded with their families and friends he outlined in interesting and impressive manner the "equipment" which he considers necessary for young people in the post-war world, this including education, good health, a keen sense of values, enthusiasm, spiritual development and a high personality quotient based on the Golden Rule.

Equipped with these qualities the young man or woman cannot fail, Judge Spikes pointed out.

The commencement program began with a musical prelude by the high school band under Dr. Glen Auble's direction and graduates entered to the strains of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" played by the band.

Jap Balloon Found Near Gables Ranch

Now it can be told that a few months ago a bomb-carrying balloon, of Japanese origin, drifted to earth and was found in the vicinity of Gables ranch on the Cedar river north of Ericson.

The pilotless balloon was made of treated paper and was of considerable size. Army and F.B.I. agents, apprised of the find, took the balloon into custody, warned residents who had seen it not to discuss the matter, and in personal visits warned the Quiz and other nearby newspapers not to print anything about it.

Today the war and navy departments released to the press the first news that similar ballons have been found at many points west of the Mississippi river and that Japan apparently made a systematic campaign of releasing these free balloons. No damage or loss of life resulted from them, it was revealed.

Some of the bombs carried by them may not have exploded and children especially are warned not to approach closely to any mysterious object they may find in woods or fields until its nature can be determined.

Police oficers should be notified if any such objects are found.

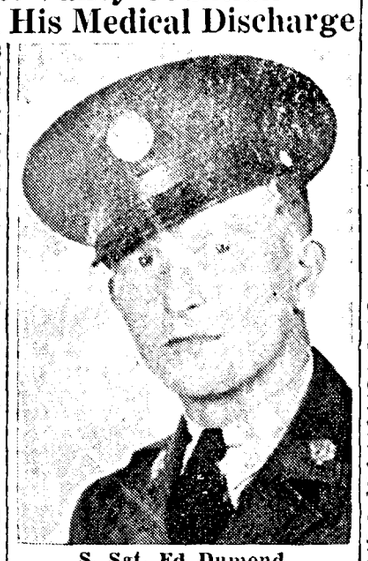
Sgt. Eddie Dumond, 1st Valley Countian Drafted, Given His Medical Discharge

Valley county's first draftee is home to stay, after serving his country five years and three months. He is Staff Sergeant Edward Dumond, who left Ord early in 1940, and has seen a good deal of the world since that time. He returned with a full assortment of ribbons and medals, among them three battle stars, good conduct, pre-Pearl Harbor, Panama-California, marksmanship and expert marksmanship. Dumond is 26 years old.

Edward, the son of Mrs. Hope Dumond and the husband of the former Fay Gregory, suffered a number of injuries during his ten and a half months overseas. He was shell-shocked, had a concussion, stomach and leg injuries, and also points out that he lost a good lot of curly hair. Though he was returned to the States on March 22 and has been in several hospitals since, he will probably not be able to work for some time to come.

The worst of this damage he suffered at the Battle of the Bulge. He was one of three men in a foxhole in the snow, and as the other two were taller, they shifted him to the middle position. When an "88" or something businesslike landed near the foxhole, it killed the end man who had traded places with Dumond and knocked the Ord man out. He never learned what happened to the third fellow. As the snow was too deep for trucks or jeeps, the unconscious Dumond was hauled six miles by sled, out of that area. He spent a month at a hospital in Belgium, and then four weeks with the Eighth



S. Sgt. Ed Dumond.

Field. Then he was sent to England and later came home by hospital ship, making the trip in nine days.

His basic 13 weeks of training were received at Camp Cooke, Calif. "Since then I've been cooking. A lot of the time I've been mess sergeant. I didn't get any medals for cooking, but the company commander was pleased; he called me one of his best cooks."

The young man is interested in cooking professionally. Particularly he likes to make salads, he says. But for the present he will rest and try to get in good physical condition. The salad-making will have to wait.

Mrs. E. L. Johnson of Ord is a grandmother of the returned soldier.

Tax Sale Tuesday Brings Good Prices

North Loup — (Special)—Fifteen vacant lots and residence properties in this village were sold at tax sale by County Sheriff Hall in Ord Tuesday afternoon, and about 50 local people attended, good bids being made on everything put up for sale.

The old baseball park east of town brought $220 per block and there are four blocks in the tract. The Eberhart property on main street, with less than $800 taxes against it, was bid in by George Eberhart, who lives in it, the figure being $1,675. The E. E. Davis house, also on main street, was bought at $1,655 by Alex Brown. George Maxson who lives in the house, also was bidding on it. The Springer house, where Mrs. Buten lives, had $245 against it and brought $390, this being bought by Clifton McClellan and others so that Mrs. Buten, who is an old lady and has lived there 15 years, may continue to occupy the house. Vacant lots brought all the way from $11 to $60.

Another place sold was the Leila Green house east of the school house, which is dilapidated but stands on a good building lot. Horace M. Davis, of Lincoln, was successful bidder on this, and it is understood he plans to build there and make his home in this village.

This is the second such tax sale held by the village, which has had a problem in meeting bills because taxes were not paid on much property in the village.

—Mrs. A. J. Ferguson returned home Saturday evening.

Funeral Service for Olof Olsson to Be Thursday

Popular Ord Business Man Dies at Home Monday after Severe Illness.

Last rites will be held for Olof Olsson Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the Methodist church in Ord, Rev. R. T. Cordry of the Presbyterian church officiating and the Pearson Mortuary in charge. Pall bearers will include Fred Kuehl, jr., Edgar Roe, C. A. Anderson, C. J. Mortensen, K. W. Peterson and Herb Nelson. Mrs. Mark Tolen will sing and Mrs. James Ollis will accompany her. The selections will be "Come Unto Him" 'from the Messiah, "Some Morning" and "Lead Kindly Light." Interment will be in the Ord cemetery.

Olof Olsson was born Sept. 19, 1904 in Ord, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ored Olsson, both of whom with a sister Clara, preceded him in death several years ago. He was raised in Ord, graduating from high school in 1920 at the age of 15 with a full quota of honors won in classrooms. He attended in the University of Nebraska, graduating in 1924 from the college of engineering with the highest grades ever made there.

He became a refrigerating expert and was sent to Maryland and many places to do this work. While stationed in Fort Worth, Tex., he met and on Febr. 16, 1930, married the former Joyce Dryden, bringing his bride to Omaha soon, and later to Ord, where the family home has been since that time. They have one daughter, Sharon, who is now nine.

Mr. Olsson came to Ord on March 31, 1931 and opened an artificial ice plant, later taking on the Storz beer distributing contract. He continued to do expert refrigeration work when necessary, and was called to many Nebraska cities by wholesale plants needing him more and more as the war abused old equipment. He worked long and hard, although he had not been in the best health for several years.

A few months ago he became very ill, and for several weeks had spent much time in hospitals in Ord and Omaha, where a kidney was removed. Thursday he was brought home from the Clarkson Hospital in Omaha and Monday morning at seven o'clock he died at the family home. Everything was done for him that could be, but it was too late to help him.

Surviving are his wife, his little daughter Sharon, his sisters, Mrs. Ivan Mattson of Kearney, Mrs. Walter Schau of Ogallala and Mrs. Charlie Mason of Ord.

Mr. Olsson will be greatly missed by many people, for he was a pleasant person with a fine sense of humor, a dependable friend, honest to a fault, and one of Ord's most prominent younger business men, a member of the Rotary club and of the Chamber of Commerce.

Ord stores will close from 3:00 to 4:00 Thursday afternoon during the funeral.

Rules on Flag Display.

The American Legion Auxiliary wishes to call the attention of the public to the proper method of displaying the flag of the United States of America. When suspended flat, either horizontally or vertically against a building or window, the blue field should be uppermost and to the left of the observer in the street. On Memorial Day, if flown from a pole, the flag should be displayed at half staff until noon, then at full staff the remainder of the day. The flag should ordinarily be displayed only from sunrise to sunset.

Monday's Moisture Total .82 of Inch

A total of .82 of an inch of moisture fell in Monday's storm says Horace W. Travis, which puts farm land in fine condition for corn planting if warm weather comes soon. North Loup had .76 of an inch.

Less than 10 per cent of the corn is in the ground due to the cold May weather, it is thought, and farmers are planning to plant at a furious pace as soon as weather permits.

Memorial Services.

G. A. R. ladies will hold memorial services at 11 o'clock Sunday in connection with the regular Sunday services at the Methodist church, announces Mrs. Cecil Clark, who is in charge of making the arrangements.

All service men and parents of young men who have been killed in action are asked to be honor guests Sunday, says Mrs. Clark.

Let's raise the money in the
MIGHTY SEVENTH

OUR FLAG flies once again over Corregidor. The cost was great in blood and pain, but our fighting men did not turn back. And on Iwo Jima, four thousand men—more and more—died to take the long step forward to Victory. Twenty thousand others suffered wounds. Yes, we're on the way to Tokyo!

At home, your contribution to Victory is measured in dollars. The Seventh War Loan is the biggest in America's history because seven billion dollars must be raised from individuals alone. That means you must buy more and bigger War Bonds.

This is really two great loans in one; for this time last year you had been called upon twice to subscribe in War Loans. As our fighting men raise Old Glory all over the world —let's raise the money back home!

ORD NEBRASKA

News of Our Fighting Men

Sees Nazi Atrocities.

Lt. Ernie James writes from Germany to his sister Edith, at Tekamah saying "You ought to see all the prisoners we are getting. I never thought there were so many Jerries in the country. It's nothing to be out on reconnaissance and come in with a few. I've caught about 30 and never fired a shot. They come out on the road and wait to be picked up. One day we were going along the road and three tried to stop us and get captured. We just waved them to the rear—no time. They are thoroughly beaten but the fighting isn't over.

"Almost every town has a concentration camp—even the little places. All the forced laborers live there. They are wooden barracks with wire all around them. Women and men are in the same buildings. These Jerries really treated the Poles, Russians and French nasty. Just believe all you have ever read about them and you can't go wrong. I've seen the forced laborers who have been beaten and starved and it isn't any joke. Also I saw one of the ovens they use—so that isn't a lot of propaganda. We were working near one in which the Russians were living, and every once in a while a couple of the Russians would bring in a Jerry soldier who was very much the worse for wear.

"Of course we take the prisoners—no questions asked. What gripes me is the casual way the civilians think of it. One asked me to do something about some Russians and Poles who were raising Hell with her home. The standard answer is 'You brought them here.' They seem to think that we should protect them from the foreign workers. After seeing what has happened I wouldn't raise my hand if I saw a Pole slitting a civilian's throat, and it has happened. You learn to overlook a lot.

"These forced laborers will do anything for us if they think it will help us, but if it might help the Jerries you can't make them lift a finger.

"I never thought people could be so barbaric, but I can only believe what I see. Incidentally, American soldiers who have been captured aren't immune—I've seen that too."

The letter was sent by Mrs. E. C. James, whose home is now at 1368 So. 33rd St., Lincoln. The family home was in Ord until recently and everyone will remember Ernest.

Pfc. Ernest Ruzowski.

Pfc. Ruzowski, son of Louie Ruzowski, is in the Marine Corps and is fighting on Okinawa Island, having formerly served in the Pelelieu campaign. Recently he was eating dinner and looked up to see Jack Messenger, Burwell boy with whom he chummed before the war. At the Ord Theatre recently a short film devoted to the Pelelieu fighting was shown and the Ruzowskis twice saw Ernest in the picture, once on the battlefield and once at the table eating. He had written them to tell them he was in the picture and to watch for it.

Serving in Germany.

Somewhere in Austria
April 30, 1945

To the Editor of the Quiz:

The other day I received the Ord Quiz and I sure enjoyed it very much. This is the first Ord paper that I have had a chance to see for several months. My mother, Mrs. Leininger is sending it to me, and the first paper that I received I saw where you gave me a write-up. You said that I would get the paper somewhere in France, but I have been clear across France, part way across Germany and am now in Austria.

I have seen a lot of this country and can say that it is really beautiful here. Right now I am in a beautiful house in the mountains. The mountains are covered pretty much with snow, which part of this just fell today and this evening. This country here looks a lot like the country near the Rocky Mountains in the states.

France right now is a very poor country, it seems like the Germans took most everything they had and their people also. The towns and cities are pretty well torn up and it will take them a long time to get their homes so they can again live in them. People that have not been here will never know what this is like to see a whole city in ruins. You see it in pictures but they do not show what you see here, like we see it. I think though that the German cities are torn up much more than the French towns are. Some of these German cities there is not a building left standing.

Easter Sunday I was in the city of Worms, Germany and at that time most of the city streets were blocked so that you could not walk through them. I do not believe that there was a building in that city that was left standing and it is one of the large cities of Germany, of course that is just one city, but there are surely a lot of others that look just the same way.

I have been in a lot of homes here and I never saw any better things than the people here have. They have chests in most of these places that have some of the finest linens that you ever saw. These things have never been used the same is true with the silver ware. The furniture looks like it was the best and it is nearly all new things. You would never know that these people were in a war. They do not seem to have to do without a thing, unless it is food and we do not find too much of that.

The people here farm every bit of ground that they possibly can. All of the farming is done in small patches and you see them doing most of it by hand. They do use some horses but mostly they use cattle to work with. You see a lot of farmers using one horse and one cow to plow with and they have little modern machinery here. They do have a lot of fruit and they also farm most of their orchards. The do not waste a thing here.

Tonight I heard a broadcast that told of the Germans trying to ask for a peace treaty. I certainly hope that this goes through and that this war soon comes to an end so that we can all get back home again. I think that this will soon be over as the German army does not have much territory left and are losing what they have pretty fast. They seem to have lost all holds in Italy at this time and they are giving up pretty fast here. We can not take care of the prisoners hardly.

The past few days I have seen German soldiers walking along the roads that we are travelling. They just turn themselves over to the Americans and then go back to the P.W. cage themselves. They do not have a guard on them, they sure do not want to keep on fighting. Most of these men are either old or very young.

I was talking to an American soldier that was taken prisoner by the Germans and he told me of the treatment that he had. He said that he was treated pretty good except for the food. They had soup mostly and that was pretty thin, and one loaf of bread a day for six men. He sure was glad to be free again. He told of getting Red Cross boxes and said that when they got them, they should have had one box for each man. They got one box for two men the first time, one box for about ten men the next time and the last time they got one box for about every twenty men. He said that they were told that the rest were burned up by our planes straffing the roads, but at the city where this camp, was located they found these extra boxes in the basements of some of the homes there.

I must close for this time, but I want you to know that I enjoy the paper and that I received it alright. You can use parts of this letter if you think it worth it.

Yours Truly,
Pfc. Merrill Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Cadek received a letter from their son Lumir this week. He writes he has been promoted from private first class to sergeant on Okinawa Island. He says the fighting is tough but they are progressing, slowly. He is with the 96th infantry.

Leland Dwight Finecy, seaman second class, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell E. Finecy of Arcadia is a trainee at the quartermaster school at Gulfport, Miss., having been assigned there on April 23. Finecy graduated from Arcadia high in 1943, after an active career in music and sports. He was sworn into the navy in April, 1943. He has had previous navy duty at Maryville, Mo., in the V-12 unit, with the V-12 unit at Fayette, Mo., midshipman's school at Notre Dame, boot camp at Great Lakes, Ill., and two months with the bluejacket choir at Great Lakes.

Lt. Dean Barta has recently returned from Chicago where he was sent for specialized training. He is now working as operational officer at the Grand Island air base. Counting up his points for discharge, he found he had 119, more than anyone else there.

Pvt. Dick Hughes.

Pvt. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hughes of Ord, is stationed at Camp Fannin, Tex. His wife is making her home here during his absence.

Pvt. James Everett Stewart.

Pvt. Stewart, youngest son of Mrs. Bernice Burrows, of Hood River, Ore., was born in North Loup on Dec. 12, 1918 but was living in Omaha when he was inducted into service and sent to Europe. His wife and two daughters live in Omaha.

Pvt. Howard C. Hanke, rifleman, whose brother Alvin lives in Ord, has been cited and awarded the coveted combat infantryman badge for actual participation in combat against the enemy in Italy. This decoration is given to the infantry soldier who has proved his fighting ability in combat. The badge is a silver rifle set against a background of infantry blue, enclosed in a silver wreath.

Pvt. William J. Novosad, jr., training with an infantry battalion at Camp Maxey, Tex., was awarded a bond for firing the highest score with the M-1 rifle. Officially he scored 193 out of a possible 210, writes his commanding officer.

Adrian Savage, seaman first class, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alois Savage of Rt. 3, Columbus, that he has been seeing considerable tough action off Iwo Jima. He has been on an aircraft carrier supporting the gallant marines. They have been within sight of the cone-shaped Minomi Jima or the double-peaked Kita Jima towering out of the sea, most of the time. He says "the Sargent boy" has seen invasions at Saipan, Palau, Leyte and Luzon and has some heartaches to remember. A Jap submarine and plenty of Jap planes have been disposed of satisfactorily. Adrian went into service 18 months ago and left the states in June of 1944. He is a grandson of Frank Dubas, who lives north of Ord.

The 7th War Loan Is On!

Yes, the Seventh War Loan is on right now.

There are new planes to be built, new tanks, new ships. All to bring the war against Japan to an earlier close.

Our fighting men will do their job. But we must do OURS.

And right now the most important job we have is to meet our personal quotas in the Seventh War Loan drive.

Those quotas are big. Uncle Sam needs 7 billion dollars from individuals. For this loan is really 2 in 1—by this time in 1944 there had been two drives. Well now—we've got a two-loan job in one.

But Americans have never failed to meet a War Bond quota yet—and we won't fail now. So find out what your quota is—and meet it!

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

For a Swimming Pool.

"Oakland, May 12. Dear Irma: I noted with particular interest that part of your column in the May 3rd issue of the Quiz wherein you again bring into public light the proposal of a swimming pool for Ord. You may recall that several years ago when you were putting in a weekly plug for the pool it was my privilege to commend you for your efforts. It is regrettable that there is no visible evidence commensurate with your fine public-spirited efforts, but no, there is no swimming pool as yet.

"I wonder why? I believe I could put my finger on the source of difficulty but not without putting the Mayor on the spot and I wouldn't want to do that. Do not the people of Ord realize their beautiful little city is a positive and valuable asset? Apparently not, or more consideration to increase the value of this asset would be in evidence. A city is no different from a business or a corporation in this respect. We admit it to be smart business practice to borrow money or issue bonds for an expansion that will increase trade to the extent of not only retiring the obligation incurred but making it possible to declare dividends. People are potential customers and customers increase trade, the object therefore is to encourage visitation to your community and therein it becomes not only a duty but a definite obligation of your City Administration to promote such civic enterprise as are beneficial to the growth and expansion of your City.

"We have just held a special municipal election here and by a majority of 6 to 1 it was voted to build not one, but five swimming pools, numerous public playgrounds and recreation centers, libraries, etc. It is not only a program of expansion but also a program of invitation.

"May I wish you luck and may success reward your efforts, however, viewing the results of past efforts you will pardon me if I remain pessimistic but nevertheless I am Sincerely yours, Alfred Wiegardt."

Card of Thanks—

We wish to express our thanks to all our relatives and friends for the beautiful gifts and cards we received for our wedding.

CAN'T KEEP GRANDMA IN HER CHAIR

She's as Lively as a Youngster—Now her Backache is better

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

First Talking Pictures

The first full-length all-talking picture was "Lights of New York," shown the week of August 20, 1928. Thomas Edison made experiments with sound and exhibited a film with phonograph accompaniment in 1913. "What Price Glory," and the 1927 version of "Seventh Heaven" included sound effects, and talking principles were used in "Don Juan" (1926), "The Jazz Singer" (1927), and "Tenderloin" and "Glorious Betsey" (1928).

Mark up another advantage Nebraska has over California—shaves and haircuts don't cost 75c and a dollar in this state.

It must be fun for a gardener to live in a place like Washington, D. C., where every little green snipping from a box hedge will quickly grow roots and become a bush in its own right.

Out in this country if you see a tree you know it is growing because someone wanted a tree badly enough to set it out and care for it. As a general thing, that is. Once in a while the willow fence posts take root but in most of Nebraska a gardener works for the privilege of making beautiful bushes and flowers meet the specifications in the seed catalogs.

oOo

Down in Grand Island Dr. Gelow is waging a one-man war on stray cats. "They destroy our beautiful bird life," says he, and he finds most people agree with him that this unfortunate situation should be corrected.

oOo

Dr. Gelow is looking better than he did a year ago, and feeling it too, thus making liars out of some of his very good Chicago friends and medical experts. They examined him carefully several years ago, shook their heads, went "T-chk, t-chk" with pursed heads, announced to Dr. Gelow that he hadn't long to live.

Seems to have been a slight error in their calculations.

oOo

One good reason for having your picture taken is to provide some good laughs in the future. For no matter how much like Mary Pickford you thought it looked when you first saw the proofs, there'll come a day when those stuffy pads jutting out on your shoulders, that one-foot-high pompadour on top your head, or that beaver-tail you're wearing down your back will make you double up with glee.

oOo

We think men's styles do not change much, but a journey through the family collection of photos will soon convince you otherwise.

Beats all how the men do get them changed though, they're so slow about it. They go to some drastic steps like lengthening a lapel a quarter-inch. Three years later some courageous tailor rounds that lapel in place of pointing it. Then the tailor has to find a man courageous enough to wear the new lapel!

oOo

Speaking of changing men's styles, War Two has done considerable. Probably the biggest change . . . causing men to get the idea that a neat trim appearance can be made without the aid of a coat.

Other changes . . . causing men to learn comfort is more important than a standard dress. Comfort such as V-necked shirts or comfort such as short in hot climates.

oOo

I was really surprised the other day to learn that five per cent of the women in the United States sleep "raw." I had no idea there were that many.

BACK FORTY

By J. A. Kovanda

A systematic method of determining land values has been worked out by our County Assessor Jason Abernethy. He calls it the Valley County plan for real estate classification and appraisal.

Abernethy's plan has been widely applauded by land experts throughout the state, including Governor Griswold. It is based on survey maps drawn by the Soil Conservation Service, which divide land up into seven different grades.

Abernethy has figured out the relative crop productivity for these grades of land. Factors such as distance to markets, all-weather roads, and schools have also been considered.

For arriving at values between counties he has based his figures on distance to Omaha or other shipping center, length of growing season, quantity of rainfall, and prevalence of hail. Irrigated farms are considered about on par with those receiving a similar amount of natural precipitation.

This new plan is a far cry from former hit-or-miss guesses as to what land was worth. It is said that much early appraisal of land was done by men riding around in buggies and looking at it from the highest hill.

A law just passed by our legislature provides for three-man real estate classification committees to be appointed by county boards. The value of such committees will depend on the ability of those appointed to serve on them. It is hoped that they will use the Abernethy plan, or some method similar to it, and arrive at a fairer set of values than has been established in the past.

Farm Accidents

Nearly 18,000 farmers were killed in 1943 through accidents on their farms.

Swanek and Pals Start Post-War Project in Assam, India, Build Sleek Automobile

An SOS Base Along The Stilwell Road — Five enterprising ordnance soldiers stationed at an isolated base in outer Assam, India, decided they had heard enough about ambitious post-war plans of Detroit car manufacturers and determined to introduce their own post-war model now—while it will do them some good in keeping out torrential monsoon rains and smoothing out rutted jungle roads.

An Ord, Nebr., soldier, Technician 3rd Grade (Staff Sergeant) Leonard Swanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swanek, Ord residents, is one of the quintet who tackled the job. First, Swanek and his buddies drew up hasty blueprints, then spent several days hunting among the scrap piles of salvaged vehicles gathering the necessary materials they would need.

Then followed three weeks of intense night work, while the five GI's hammered, bolted, assembled, welded, sanded and painted their masterpiece until "lights out" made them quit.

The finished product is a smart, sporty job, fresh and different in appearance. The motor is a standard jeep power unit from a salvaged vehicle, but the regular jeep chassis was extended two feet to accommodate the heterogeneous body. Hood and fenders are from a 1942 Ford, the doors of 1940 vintage. The top is tin sheet, neatly tailored to fit the sleek body lines.

Windshield and the steering wheel were contributed by a wrecked dump truck, rear window from a GMC cab job and front seat from an Army reconnaissance car. Dodge and Ford cars supplied the modernistic instrument panel and shock absorbers are GMC dump hoist springs. A conveniently placed starter button, within easy reach on the left pillar, is from an old Bren Gun Carrier.

About a dozen different vehicles and pieces of equipment contributed to the finished automotive marvel. "We even used a couple of air compressor parts," Swanek confided.

After overcoming all mechanical obstacles, the boys have run into a more formidable difficulty. So far they've been unable to secure permission to "road test" their 194? model on the famous Ledo Lifeline section of the Stilwell Road. All proving ground tests have been confined to their own extensive area with muddy, rutted roads.

Our Fighting Men

AS Rodney Rathbun has been recommended for platoon commanders school which he will attend for three weeks beginning May 28, he writes his wife. After finishing this training he will be assigned to train troops, helping them with a ten-weeks' course. He is located at San Diego.

PO2c Steve Carkoski came home Monday and has to report back to Little Creek, Va. on June 1. He has now been in the navy 19 months and was last home in February.

Jim Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Finley, left last week for naval training at the Great Lakes station, immediately after his graduation from high school. He was an outstanding sports figure in Ord and was president of his senior class.

Sgt. Ernie Piskorski left Wednesday for Chicago to report for recruiting duty with a marine corps unit, after spending a month's leave at home. His brother, Cpl. Richard Piskorski, left the next day for duty at the naval ordnance depot at Hastings. Both boys served for 32 months in the south Pacific.

Sgt. and Mrs. Corwin Cummins departed Friday for Galveston, Tex., where he is stationed, and they have an apartment. They had a pleasant visit in Ord, spending much time quietly with the family. Wednesday evening his sister Mrs. Clyde Baker got supper for members of the Cummins family. Friday night Mrs. Lowell Jones entertained the same group at their home and on Sunday before that Mayor and Mrs. Cummins had the family at their dinner table.

Dick Koupal, musician in the navy, left Monday for San Francisco, where after a brief hospitalization he will ship aboard an aircraft carrier. He came Wednesday evening of last week from Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norman have with them their son Carl, who has a 30-day furlough. He has been in the army five years, and in France for six months with the hospital corps. Recently he had an operation and has not recovered very fast. He returns from here to a hospital in Indiana for further treatment.

Marine Private First Class Melvin J. Moore whose mother Mrs. Norman J. Holt resides in Ord recently completed a course at the field telephone school at Camp Lejeune, N.C. Now he is qualified to install and maintain all types of telephone equipment used in the field by the marine corps. The eight-week course included the theory of telephony, electricity, maps and diagrams, ties and splices, switchboard operation and training maneuvers in the field. Those who attended the bond rally Saturday evening were pleased and surprised to find Melvin was one of the speakers. He arrived home that evening and will be here about eight days, returning to his same post. He does not know where he will be sent next, possibly somewhere as an instructor. Sunday he went to St. Paul for the day.

Bobby Haught, newly promoted to private first class, is on Okinawa he writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Haught. He is with the infantry. It is awfully rainy there, and he writes about being afraid of sliding in the ditch, but not of fear of the shells. He is with a medical corps.

Swanek and Pals Start Post-War Project in Assam, India, Build Sleek Automobile

An SOS Base Along The Stilwell Road — Five enterprising ordnance soldiers stationed at an isolated base in outer Assam, India, decided they had heard enough about ambitious post-war plans of Detroit car manufacturers and determined to introduce their own post-war model now—while it will do them some good in keeping out torrential monsoon rains and smoothing out rutted jungle roads.

An Ord, Nebr., soldier, Technician 3rd Grade (Staff Sergeant) Leonard Swanek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swanek, Ord residents, is one of the quintet who tackled the job. First, Swanek and his buddies drew up hasty blueprints, then spent several days hunting among the scrap piles of salvaged vehicles gathering the necessary materials they would need.

Then followed three weeks of intense night work, while the five GI's hammered, bolted, assembled, welded, sanded and painted their masterpiece until "lights out" made them quit.

The finished product is a smart, sporty job, fresh and different in appearance. The motor is a standard jeep power unit from a salvaged vehicle, but the regular jeep chassis was extended two feet to accommodate the heterogeneous body. Hood and fenders are from a 1942 Ford, the doors of 1940 vintage. The top is tin sheet, neatly tailored to fit the sleek body lines.

Windshield and the steering wheel were contributed by a wrecked dump truck, rear window from a GMC cab job and front seat from an Army reconnaissance car. Dodge and Ford cars supplied the modernistic instrument panel and shock absorbers are GMC dump hoist springs. A conveniently placed starter button, within easy reach on the left pillar, is from an old Bren Gun Carrier.

About a dozen different vehicles and pieces of equipment contributed to the finished automotive marvel. "We even used a couple of air compressor parts," Swanek confided.

After overcoming all mechanical obstacles, the boys have run into a more formidable difficulty. So far they've been unable to secure permission to "road test" their 1942 model on the famous Ledo Lifeline section of the Stilwell Road. All proving ground tests have been confined to their own extensive area with muddy, rutted roads.

Our Fighting Men

AS Rodney Rathbun has been recommended for platoon commanders school which he will attend for three weeks beginning May 28, he writes his wife. After finishing this training he will be assigned to train troops, helping them with a ten-weeks' course. He is located at San Diego.

PO2c Steve Carkoski came home Monday and has to report back to Little Creek, Va. on June 1. He has now been in the navy 19 months and was last home in February.

Jim Finley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Finley, left last week for naval training at the Great Lakes station, immediately after his graduation from high school. He was an outstanding sports figure in Ord and was president of his senior class.

Sgt. Ernie Piskorski left Wednesday for Chicago to report for recruiting duty with a marine corps unit, after spending a month's leave at home. His brother, Cpl. Richard Piskorski, left the next day for duty at the naval ordnance depot at Hastings. Both boys served for 32 months in the south Pacific.

Dick Koupal, musician in the navy, left Monday for San Francisco, where after a brief hospitalization he will ship aboard an aircraft carrier. He came Wednesday evening of last week from Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norman have with them their son Carl, who has a 30-day furlough. He has been in the army five years, and in France for six months with the hospital corps. Recently he had an operation and has not recovered very fast. He returns from here to a hospital in Indiana for further treatment.

Marine Private First Class Melvin J. Moore whose mother Mrs. Norman J. Holt resides in Ord recently completed a course at the field telephone school at Camp LeJeune, N.C. Now he is qualified to install and maintain all types of telephone equipment used in the field by the marine corps. The eight-week course included the theory of telephony, electricity, maps and diagrams, ties and splices, switchboard operation and training maneuvers in the field. Those who attended the bond rally Saturday evening were pleased and surprised to find Melvin was one of the speakers. He arrived home that evening and will be here about eight days, returning to his same post. He does not know where he will be sent next, possibly somewhere as an instructor. Sunday he went to St. Paul for the day.

Bobby Haught, newly promoted to private first class, is on Okinawa he writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Haught. He is with the infantry. It is awfully rainy there, and he writes about being afraid of sliding in the ditch, but not of fear of the shells. He is with a medical corps.

Michigan, Elyria, Noble Townships Have Made Quota

Ord, Usually at Top, Lags in 7th War Loan; 47% of County Quota Made.

Three Valley county townships have met or surpassed their quotas in the Mighty 7th War Loan drive and others are getting close to the goal but Ord township, usually at the top, is lagging with only 36% of quota made, it is reported today by C. J. Mortensen, county war finance chairman.

Michigan township, with sales totalling $7,525, has surpassed its quota of $5,000 by a whopping fifty per cent while Elyria township, with sales of $10,981.-25, is also in the clear. Noble township has equalled its $8,000 quota. All these townships fell down sadly in the 6th War Loan and apparently are out to redeem themselves, which they have already done in handsome fashion.

To date sales of all classes of bonds total $163,444.25, or 47% of quota, while "E" bond sales total $86,818.75, which is 49% of the "E" bond goal. The overall county quota which must be met is $351,000.

In making up the first report of bond sales by townships Chairman Mortensen points out that Davis Creek, with 76% of quota, and North Loup, with the same percentage, are in position to finish their drives quickly, while Geranium, with 72%, is in commanding position also. Other townships are lagging, poorest showing having been made by Independent township, with 1%, and Eureka township, with 2%.

Ord township was assigned a quota of $185,000, or more than half of the entire quota assigned to the county, so it has a mighty job to do and with sales of $66,755 is only a little more than a third of the way to the goal.

While expressing confidence that all quotas will be met, Mortensen and the other bond officials urge early purchases of war bonds. "Don't wait for 'the other fellow to do it'," is their plea. "It's a job that every person must share."

Tuesday night M. Biemond, manager of the Ord Theatre, put on a free movie for 7th War Loan bond buyers, with excellent results. Applications for war bond purchases were taken at the theatre and these are not included in the county report given below, which is complete only to the close of business at the banks at 4:00 p. m., Tuesday.

ODT Rejects Bus Service to Kearney

Ord will not have a bus service to Kearney for the present. The state railway commission was consulted and gave approval to the scheme, granting such rights to Wilford Williams of Grand Island who provides bus service for the North Loup valley. But the Office of Defense Transportation said no. Ord and this territory got along without a bus line to Kearney before the war, and must continue to get along without direct service until after the war. No gas or tires, said ODT.

So anyone wishing to go to Loup City from Ord now buys a bus ticket, starts to St. Paul, and rides to the Midway corner, there transfers to another bus bound for Loup City. To go from Ord to Kearney is likewise a complicated affair.

A new Pony Cruiser bus has been coming up the valley the past few days. The handsome new 20-passenger bus came from Detroit, and will be used especially for the Grand Island to Burwell run.

Beginners' Band Will Start Soon

Junior band will start rehearsals again Thursday night, May 31, at 8:00 at the high school.

The season's first public outdoor band concert will be next Wednesday evening, June 6. The city band, which presents these concerts, is open to any and all musicians who wish to take part. Recent graduates who may be home for the summer should feel welcome. Rehearsals will be held at 8:00 on each Monday evening at the high school.

Children Bought $2,205 in Stamps

The pennies and small change of the children of Ord spent on stamps and war bonds during the past school year really counted up. They counted and counted, to the splendid total of $2,205.95 spent during the first and second semesters to help Uncle Sam with his war. $1,065.05 in stamps and bonds was bought during the first semester; $1,140.90 during the second semester, according to books kept by Inez Swain, principal.

The sixth grade pupils bought the most, a total of $238.60. The third grade came next, with $173.70 in purchases. The fifth grade total was $166.55; the kindergarten kiddies spent $138.50 for their stamps; the fourth grade $128.35; the first grade $115.55; and the second grade $103.80 in all.

Geweke Building 2 Farm Elevators

Grain elevators having a capacity of 15,000 bushels of corn each, and costing approximately $6,000 each, will be built by Archie Geweke in the near future, one to be located on his home place in the Mira Valley district and the other on the farm occupied by Lloyd Geweke. The elevators will be used exclusively to store grain used in the Geweke feeding operations, in which 300,000 pounds of beef and pork are produced annually. Authority to build and equip the elevators has been granted by the War Production Board.

'Dutch' Burger, 58, Passes Suddenly

Lawrence Burger, better known here as "Dutch," died suddenly Monday afternoon at the ranch home of his brother, Archie, where he had been living for the past two years and assisting with the work. A sudden heart attack was responsible. He was 58 years old.

The son of Henry and Emma Burger, he was born in Sherman county Nov. 1, 1886 and moved with his parents to Ord at the age of 8, growing to manhood here. He attended the schools of Ord and later entered the cement business, which he followed the remainder of his life. For many years he was associated in business with the late William H. Moses.

Left to mourn are 3 sisters, Mrs. Elsie Draper of North Loup, Mrs. Gertrude Yocum, of Almeria, and Mrs. Nettie Sisson, of Port Angeles, Wash.; and two brothers, Archie Burger, of Almeria, and Herbert Burger, of Eugene, Ore.

"Dutch" was prominent in amateur baseball circuits for many years. He was an expert player and his reputation as a home-run hitter was known throughout this section of the state. His good-natured, loyable disposition won him countless friends and his ever-present good humor will be missed by all of them.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Pearson chapel in Ord.

Meet Thursday to Discuss REA for Mira Valley

Group Hopes to Get Electric Service Soon After War; Dale Will Speak.

A community meeting to discuss and plan preliminary steps for the organization of a rural electrification district will be held at the Valleyside school, District No. 10 on Thursday, May 31, 8:30 p. m. All farmers in the Mira Valley area are invited to attend. County Agent Dale will be present to outline the plans which are necessary to secure government action on the project.

The Valley County Extension Service board early this spring decided that development of rural electrification in this county presented great possibilities as a post-war project, because of the labor employed in construction and also the increased market it will give for many types of electric equipment for the home and farm. They instructed the county agent to spend as much time as needed to the development of this project. Similar meetings will be held in other communities where the farmers are interested in securing R. E. A. service and it is hoped to have the county completely organized by fall so that construction can begin as soon as materials are available.

The meeting at Valleyside has been called by Will Foth, Archie Geweke and others who are very much interested in getting electric service in that area and they are very anxious to have all farmers up and down Mira Valley who are interested in attendance at the meeting.

Goodhand Refuses to Pay $25 Fine and Goes to Jail

Ord Builder Obstructed Sidewalk, Is Charge; Refused Move Lumber, Fined.

For his refusal to pay a $25 fine levied against him in Ord police court, or to move the lumber and other building material which obstructed the street and brought the charge against him, Charles E. Goodhand, Ord contractor, went to jail Tuesday afternoon.

Last Friday he was warned by Chief of Police L. H. Covert to move the lumber off the sidewalk and onto private property, because it was blocking the sidewalk and causing a hazard both to pedestrians and traffic, but he refused to move it, claiming he had a right to the use of one-third of the street and sidewalk.

The building material is being used in construction of the store building on the south side of the square on which Mr. Goodhand has been working so long.

Given until Monday night to move the material, Goodhand failed to do so, and Tuesday he was arrested for violation of a city ordinance and the case was heard by Police Judge John Haskell in the city hall.

In informal proceedings Goodhand stated that he could move the material in 3 days, that he had ample space inside the building and in the alley at the rear on which to store it, and indicated that he would do so if given clemency. He pleaded guilty to the charge.

Judge Haskell then fined Mr. Goodhand $25 and costs of $4.65 but said he would remit the fine if the material was moved by Friday night of this week, which would give Goodhand the 3 days he estimated the job would take. But the contractor refused to pay the fine, said he would continue to refuse to move the material, and would go to jail before he would do either. Accordingly, Chief of Police Covert took him to jail where he will remain for eight days, getting credit on the fine at the rate of $3 per day, unless he changes his mind in the meantime and pays the fine and costs. Judge Haskell indicated he would still remit the fine, providing Goodhand moved the material within 3 days.

He was married June 5, 1940 to Elsie Orash, who survives him, together with a daughter Karen, age three, and a son Kenneth ten months, also his parents, two brothers in the armed forces, Wilbert at home and two sisters of whom Mrs. Botts is one.

Gets Campaign Medal.

Ellery Palmatier was given a citation and the Asiatic-Pacific campaign ribbon for services to the United States performed while he was a prisoner in a Jap concentration camp in the Philippines. He was one of 28 civilian prisoners so honored. The Asiatic-Pacific medal is given to all military personnel serving in that area but seldom is it awarded to civilians, so its possession is a great honor. Palmatier is in Ord at present, after a trip to California, and expects to return there in June for service in the Merchant Marine.

—Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sack have been Mrs. Sack's two sisters, Mrs. William Halterman from Bird Island, Minn., and Mrs. L. J. McDaniel from Bell, Calif. Cpl. Anton Hvezda Killed in Action

Ord Man's Son Somewhere in Germany, Died April 29; Memorial Sunday.

A telegram was received by the Mike Hvezda family from the war department at 4:00 p. m., Friday, stating that Cpl. Anton A. Hvezda was killed in action on April 29 somewhere in Germany. Further particulars have not yet been received.

Cpl. Hvezda was a gunner on a tank with the 20th Armored Division, under General Patton. He received his training at Camp Campbell, Ky., with exception of six weeks at Fort Bragg, N. C., shortly before he was sent overseas. While at Camp Campbell he received five medals for accurate shooting.

He was born in Valley county on March 30, 1923 and received his grade school education at Round Park and Longwood schools, graduating from Comstock high school in 1942. The family moved to Ord soon thereafter, and Anton worked for Stewart's Dairy, driving a milk truck on the route, and later was employed at the Jack & Jill store. He entered military service on March 12, 1943.

Left to mourn are his father, Mike Hvezda, who has been employed at the Grand Island ordnance plant since June, 1943, one brother, Edward, who is with the 23rd Photo Reconnaissance Squadron somewhere in Italy, and three sisters, Alice Panowicz, of Valentine, Agnes, of Ord, and Lydia Gregory, of Jackson, Minn.; also an aunt, Anna, who has been a mother to the Hvezda family since the death of their mother in 1926 and who played a major role in keeping the family together, as Anton was only 2½ years old when his mother died, He also leaves a nephew, Richard Hvezda, of Ord, and several uncles, aunts and cousins.

Memorial services will be held Sunday, June 3, at the Ord Methodist church, under auspices of the American Legion, with Rev. C. F. McConnell in charge.

No Meat Relief in Sight for Months

Having in mind the empty showcases in Ord meat markets, Joe Jirak, district salesman for Swift & Co., in speaking to the Ord Rotary club briefly Monday night, said that in his opinion there will be little more meat in evidence for the next 3 or 4 months at least. Set-aside orders for military and lend-lease are taking the bulk of federally inspected meats, leaving little for civilians, and local slaughterers are held down by the cut in their quotas which went into effect about May 1.

Until that time local markets, both of which do most of their own butchering, had plentiful stocks of both beef and pork at most times. But a cut of 25 to 50 per cent in their quotas for May left meat cases bare and at times during the month neither beef nor pork has been available, locally.

Jirak predicted a slight easing in cured and smoked meats for June but predicted the shortage of fresh meats will continue. Slightly larger slaughtering quotas for June will permit local markets to offer a little more fresh meat but not enough to supply demand.

Committee to Meet.

A meeting of the veteran's service committee has been called Tuesday, June 5, at 8:30 p. m., at the selective service office. Matters pertaining to the "G. I. Bill of Rights" will be discussed.

Upper Valley Had 5 Inches Rain, Ord Got but 1.82; Ord Dam Damaged.

Corn Washed Out, Flooded Under

Extensive damage to crops and crop land, to irrigation canals, Hardenbrook dam near Ord, and to small buildings resulted Sunday morning from a rain which varied from as much as 5 inches in the upper North and Middle Loup valleys to 1.21 inches at North Loup. Farther down the valley only a light rain fell.

For 17 hours water poured over the top of Hardenbrook dam, doing damage estimated at $3,000 which will require thirty days to repair with the force available, estimated M. S. Dodd, engineer-manager. He says also there is a break in the Taylor-Ord canal south of Burwell, on the Bleach farm, but only dirt moving will be required to fix it, and that no structures in the North Loup system other than Hardenbrook dam were damaged.

Temporary repairs have been made at the dam and water can be put into the Ord-North Loup canal whenever it is needed, Dodd emphasized. This canal was undamaged and so was the Burwell-Sumter canal, other than being choked with cornstalks and other trash which must be removed before irrigation water can flow freely. The Taylor-Ord canal will be repaired within a few days.

Damage to the Ord dam consisted of the concrete surfacing being torn out in the center section, an area about 100 feet wide by 20 feet deep, and a hole cut in the downstream side of the same section. This section did not break through, however. The damaged section has been isolated by building a two foot plank wall reinforced with sand bags and crushed rock, which it is thought will keep damage under control, barring another flood, until permanent repairs can be made.

Mr. Dodd is authority for the statement that water at Hardenbrook dam reached the highest level since the North Loup project was built.

The Middle Loup project suffered damage to Canals 1 and 2 but no structures were damaged, Dodd states.

At Ord the North Loup river reached its highest stage between 10 and 11 a. m. Sunday and began to recede about 3:00 p. m.

Low-lands east of Ord were flooded and Anderson Island park was under water to a depth of 3 or 4 feet. The Dworak slaughter house and the John L. Andersen home east of Ord were flooded.

At many areas throughout the county flood damage was done. Northwest of Elyria, in Eureka township, a rain estimated as between 4 and 5 inches fell and nearly all hill cornfield were washed out, while valley corn fields were buried under two feet of mud and silt. All will have to be replanted.

Henry Desmul reports 4 inches of rain at his farm and says that crop damage was extensive there. He reports that Mrs. Brown, in Liberty township, lost a new brooder house and 300 chicks and that loss of chickens, young pigs and calves was heavy throughout the west part of the county and in Custer county.

Apparently the worst of the storm swung east from the Broken Bow area, where $350,-000 worth of damage was done, and hit in the upper North and Middle Loup country, and on the Calamus. The Calamus river, which seldom reaches flood stage, was the highest in the memory of inhabitants of that region Sunday morning. Ericson also had a flood scare Sunday, due to heavy rains in the upper Cedar.

Extensive replanting of corn will have to be done all through this region. The storm was a real "trash mover" and consequently fences everywhere went down under the weight of cornstalks, weeds and trash which were forced against them by the torrents of water which burst out of drainage ways.

He can't ask you now!

• • • He's an American hero. After fighting bloody battles in the Pacific, he was home on leave two years ago.

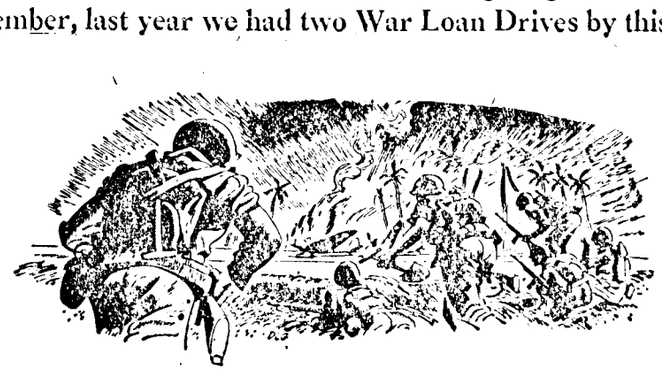
• • • You may remember seeing his picture. His name is John Basilone, Marine Gunnery Sergeant. He traveled all over America, urging every American to buy more bonds.

• • • He said: "You don't know—you can't know—how much it means to the boys out there when they hear the folks back home have just put another War Bond Drive over the top."

• • • They gave him the Congressional Medal of Honor and offered him a commission. He didn't want it. "I'm a plain soldier," he said. "I want to stay one."

• • • Well, he stayed a plain Marine—like Joe and Bill and the fellows down the street. He can't ask you to buy bigger bonds during the Seventh. He was killed a few weeks ago on Iwo, just after he had led his assault team to the edge of an airfield we needed desperately.

• • • We can't let him and all our other fighting heroes down. Remember, last year we had two War Loan Drives by this time.



The Seventh is our personal call to arms—two drives in one. That's why our quota is large.

• • • We must meet it—we will meet it—for the hero of Iwo—for Victory—for pride in America.

WAR BONDS PAY OFF IN THESE 7 WAYS:

1. The same Government security backs your War Bonds as backs the actual dollars you put into them.
2. You get $100 at maturity for every $75 loaned now.
3. You can get your money back any time you need it . . . in the meantime you get safety and steady growth.
4. You have a backlog to renew farm buildings and equipment after the war.
5. Bonds will insure your children's schooling, or provide for your own security, travel, retirement.
6. Bonds go into a national nest egg that will help to assure post-war prosperity.
7. Bonds transform your love of home and country into action . . . you join personally in the biggest, most urgent War Loan of all—The Seventh!

Buy TWICE as many War Bonds with your farm dollars in the mighty 7th WAR LOAN!

Florence Anderson Writes from Paris

Florence Anderson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Anderson, writes interestingly of her life abroad. She is now at liberty to tell a few details. This letter was sent to her sister-in-law, Mrs. George Anderson.

"The celebrating is over, but ah, Paris, always something and today was the third anniversary of the WACS so they paraded in strength down the Champs Elysees followed by the British WRENS and ATS, a colorful French band and the French women's outfit. It was a beautiful parade really and the girls looked wonderful in their new uniforms of battle jackets, shirt and new-type hat all of the lighter olive drab color, with their new yellow scarfs and gloves. We're close to the Champs Elysees so went out for a minute to see it.

"Doggone this hot weather, never did like it and about the middle of the afternoon my collar gets too tight, my necktie too tight and these heavy uniforms make me darned uncomfortable, but guess I'll live.

"Now that I can tell you more about things past they sort of slip my mind, but in case you're interested in how I got here many months ago, I left on the Pan American Clipper, had breakfast in New Brunswick, lunch in Newfoundland, dinner on the plane, went to bed and woke up early the next morning to have breakfast in Ireland. After breakfast we drove about 40 miles to another airport. I don't mean 'another' airport because the Clipper always lands on water, but at least we drove to a British airport where we boarded a British Airways plane which took us to Bristol, and then by train into London, arriving that night about 9:30.

"It was a wonderful trip but too short according to my way of thinking—I figured it up once, guess it was around 39 hours or so from hot Julyish New York to cool, damp London. Then flew over here from London last September 19. Have been here ever since and I'm ready to move just any time. I think I've done my sightseeing here, though, and I wouldn't have missed it for anything, despite the devilishly cold winter without heat and hot water. Guess I can't have everything."

The former Ord young woman is employed in the offices of the public relations division, SHAEF, under the jurisdiction of the war department in Paris.

MATCH THEIR SPIRIT in the MIGHTY

7TH WAR LOAN DRIVE

YES, despite their long months and years of privation and suffering, those gallant men, just released from filthy Jap Prison Camps, still have their good old fighting spirit. They're itching to get back into the fight and give the Nips a taste of their own medicine.

Let's show them that we're not quitting either! Let's match their spirit with our dollars! Let's make this MIGHTY 7th War Loan the mightiest of them all!

But to come even close to matching their sacrifices, everyone here at home must buy War Bonds until it hurts. Buy double or treble the extra War Bonds you've bought in any previous drive. Remember, this is really two drives in one. In the same period last year, you were asked to subscribe to two War Loans.

So let's go, Americans. Our hard-fighting Soldiers, Sailors and Marines are giving their ALL. The least we can do is to lend our dollars.

Make Your Money's Might..

Match their Fighting Might..

You're not asked to prove your prowess in death-dealing combat as these men are doing . . . for America and you. That's their job! Yours is to add the might of your dollars to the might of our fighting men.

TWO WAR LOANS IN ONE!

The mighty Seventh War Loan is the biggest yet. Last year you were asked to subscribe twice by this time. The least you should lend — if your income is $250 monthly or more — is $187.50. If your earnings are greater, your purchase of War Bonds should be increased in proportion.

Remember, too, that U. S. War Bonds are the world's safest investments . . . giving you $4 back, at maturity, for every $3 you invest in them.

YOU HELP THREE WAYS when you back up the MIGHTY 7th War Loan with every dollar you can afford. You help your Government. You help pay for the materiel needed by our armed forces to get the war over quickly and bring them home. You help yourself by providing for your future security.

ALL OUT FOR THE MIGHTY SEVENTH!

Swiss Cantons

Switzerland's 22 cantons were unified by a federal constitution approved in 1874. Cantons — the administrative divisions—keep local affairs largely in their own hands, and manage their national business through a two-chamber parliament to which they send representatives. The 7th War Loan Is On!

Yes, the Seventh War Loan is on right now.

There are new planes to be built, new tanks, new ships. All to bring the war against Japan to an earlier close.

Our fighting men will do their job. But we must do OURS.

And right now the most important job we have is to meet our personal quotas in the Seventh War Loan drive.

Those quotas are big. Uncle Sam needs 7 billion dollars from individuals. For this loan is really 2 in 1—by this time in 1944 there had been two drives. Well now—we've got a two-loan job in one.

But Americans have never failed to meet a War Bond quota yet—and we won't fail now. So find out what your quota is—and meet it!

For 14 days, while his platoon occupied forward defensive positions, Skala led carrying parties with supplies 1,000 yards over a route under constant hostile fire without suffering casualties. When subjected to severe mortar barrages, the sergeant several times, by exposing himself, maintained control and coolly led his men out of the impact area. Once Skala left his covered position to carry a wounded soldier 300 yards to a building and then helped a litter squad evacuate the man, under constant enemy fire. He has been serving with the Fifth Army in Italy, with the 361st Infantry of the very famous 91st 'Powder River' division. Skala, a truck driver in civilian life entered service in October of 1942. Pfc. A. J. Cochrane, jr. USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J.Cochrane, sr., of Ord fought aboard a U. So deadly were her big guns that troops encountered no enemy fire in the areas she covered, gun replacement back of the beaches being knocked out. On the morning of D-day a heavier fire was poured on the island, with smoke so thick it screened the invading trops. Every man was at his battle station many hours that day. Not until box lunches came from the galley did many of the fighters remember that D-day was also Easter Sunday, for packed neatly in each box was a bright touch of home, rainbow-hued Easter eggs.

Reviews New Book.

Frederic Babcock, editor of the Sunday book section of the Chicago Tribune writes, "As a native of Ord, and one who was practically raised on the Quiz, I thought you might be interested in the enclosed." He sent a review of the new book "Fighting Liberal" an autobiography of George W. Norris, whom he greatly admires. Mr. Babcock calls George Norris "the only true independent I have ever known" and says that the book could be read with tremendous profit by every student of political and social trends in America, and calls it "fascinating reading for every one." It was edited by J. E. Lawrence, editor of the Lincoln Star.

Mr. Babcock is thought to be a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. (Ernest) Babcock who made their home here for many years, and moved from here to Columbus.

Kingston of Arcadia has been presented with his fifth bronze battle star, significant of service in five major campaigns in the European theater of operations.

Emery B. Treptow, 20, of Comstock, has been promoted from corporal to sergeant, announces his commanding officer at an English base. Sgt. Treptow is an engineer and gunner on a B-17 Flying Fortress, making long range missions over the north Atlantic to gather weather data for future air and ground operations against the enemy. Emery is the son of Albert G. Treptow of Comstock. He was born in Burwell and is a graduate of Comstock High School. He entered the army in September, 1943, completing airplane mechanic's school at Amarillo, Tex., gunnery school at Las Vegas, Nev. and going overseas in March, 1945.

Sgt. Moncel Milburn of Fort Knox, Kentucky arrived Monday evening to spend a ten day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Milburn. He will report back to Fort Ord, Calif. for overseas orders.

Sgt. James Skala, 23, recently was awarded the bronze star medal for meritorious service in combat. For 14 days, while his platoon occupied forward defensive positions, Skala led carrying parties with supplies 1,000 yards over a route under constant hostile fire without suffering casualties. When subjected to severe mortar barrages, the sergeant several times, by exposing himself, maintained control and coolly led his men out of the impact area. Once Skala left his covered position to carry a wounded soldier 300 yards to a building and then helped a litter squad evacuate the man, under constant enemy fire. He has been serving with the Fifth Army in Italy, with the 361st Infantry of the very famous 91st 'Powder River' division. Skala, a truck driver in civilian life entered service in October of 1942. He has also been awarded the Purple Heart. His wife, the former Lilly Adams, lives in Ord.

Sgt. Douglas Giles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Giles returned home Thursday after serving 4 years in the seventh Cavalry. He is the first one to return to Arcadia by the point system. He served the past 23 months in the southwest Pacific. He wears the Philippine liberation ribbon, good conduct medal, combat infantry badge, three battle stars for the Admiralty Islands, Leyte and Luzon. He went in with the third wave when they established a beachhead on Leyte. He was in combat the last six months without relief and only got 23 nights of sleep. He said the happiest time he had while gone, was when he helped to liberate the American prisoners from the city of Manila. Sgt. Giles will help his parents on the farm, after he is rested and catches up on his sleep.

Pfc. A. J. Cochrane, jr. USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J.Cochrane, sr., of Ord fought aboard a U. S. battleship off Okinawa as she threw steel at the Japanese in a seven-day bombardment preceding the invasion. So deadly were her big guns that troops encountered no enemy fire in the areas she covered, gun replacement back of the beaches being knocked out. On the morning of D-day a heavier fire was poured on the island, with smoke so thick it screened the invading trops. Every man was at his battle station many hours that day. Not until box lunches came from the galley did many of the fighters remember that D-day was also Easter Sunday, for packed neatly in each box was a bright touch of home, rainbow-hued Easter eggs.

Pfc. Boyd Snodgrass, who was taken prisoner Jan. 16 by the Germans is now in Grand Island spending a 60 day furlough with his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Snodgrass. Pfc. Snodgrass wears stars for fighting in both the French and German theaters, the purple Heart for an arm wound he received the day of his capture, and a unit Citation badge as well as the good conduct medal.

Dan Jonak S 2-c who has been taking his boot training in San Diego was transferred to the Seabees and arrived in Arcadia Saturday morning for a five day leave. He will report back to Shoemaker, Calif.

S1c George Cox and Mrs. Cox and their little son Denny, who left Monday evening to return to Everett, Wash., after two weeks here were the inspiration for a number of friendly gatherings. Tuesday evening a big picnic was held at Bussell park, and Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horner entertained. Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cox of North Loup asked Mr. and Mrs. Erlo Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Horner and family in honor of the visitors, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bartz and Mr. and Mrs. Will Cox stopping later.

Pvt. Dorothy Albers of the WAC has been given a citation, an award for meritorious service, one of the few decorations women in the service can earn in this country. She now wears a green patch, with a gold wreath surrounding it. Dorothy is employed in Washington, D. C., and will celebrate her 21st birthday Monday.

Lt. Vernon L. Hybl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hybl of 1315 N. Clark, Grand Island, is spending a 15-day furlough visiting relatives and friends in Grand Island and Ord.

Pvt. Emanuel R. Smolik has arrived at Barksdale Field, La., from Kingman, Ariz. He will have duties as a mechanic at the base of the Third Air Force, where so many B-29 Superforts are located.

Pvt. Carl Weckbach continues to be stationed in Rome, where he has been since December. He is with the finance office since being classified for further combat duty, and has been in Europe over 20 months now. He is a son of Mrs. Ella Weckbach, and a brother of Clark Weckbach.

Capt. Arthur Auble will go overseas very soon, so on May 23rd his mother left for Boston to visit. She will stay with Mrs. Auble and the baby for a while after he leaves about June first.

Our Fighting Men

Sgt. Krikac on Luzon.

Sgt. Emil C. Krikac writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Krikac, describing some of his experiences on the Pacific. He says "Since you asked what its like I'll try to tell. I never knew how little I learned in geography at school, in fact I don't remember, but it all comes back to me now and I've even seen things the book forgot to mention. Such as bugs, insects, and lizards. Of course they aren't as bad on some islands, and talking about islands there are 7,000 in all, most of them very small. About 450 have an area of a square mile or more. From two to three thousand of them even have no name.

"When we finally got to Manila there for the first time I saw what destruction was like, the remains of the first real city of the Philippines. Many other cities are made from bamboo and wood, very few are made of cement. But buildings in Manila were constructed like our own.

"At noon we ate dinner at a restaurant and it was very costly. We went shopping a few minutes, and you can get a lot of things there that you can't get in the States, but you need a pocket full of dough. It's far from cheap.

"In the afternoon we went on a sight-seeing tour of the city. We had a good gulde to show us all the places of interest. He was a discharged guerilla lieutenant and worked as an underground agent. So he knew what he was talking about.

"We saw all commercial buildings, such as the postoffice, finance building, etc. All were destroyed completely. We visited the old Spanish city where the Japs made their last stand. The gulde had been a prisoner of the Japs there and he told us of the torture chamber there and showed us where it had been. There was nothing left.

"This city has a large wall running around it. Outside this wall was a golf course. We drove on the beach and most of the wreckage was cleared away. We saw the pier, drove on the beach for miles, it reminded me of the boulevard in Long Beach. The Japs had removed the center curbing and used the street for an air strip. We saw many universities, colleges and schools. They had about 27 universities.

"The most interesting sights to me were the athletic stadiums, each sport had one of its own. Baseball, basketball and boxing, swimming, tennis, track and a football field, all these in one group. This is where they held the Olympics one year.

"We drove past the "Philippine White House" which was untouched and very beautiful. We went into a prison where the Americans from Bataan and Corregidor were prisoners, now replaced by Japs. Also got a pass to visit the American civilian internment camp. We talked to one elderly fellow who told us about how they were treated by the Japs. What they had to eat and how the Americans drove them off. He had been there three and one-half years and he looked as if he'd gone through hell.

"Last but not least we visited the brewery and hoped for a drink of beer, but no, there was none to be had. No supplies. This ended our tour and we went back to the Red Cross building and had a refreshing drink. These are just a few of the places to be seen, there were many I haven't mentioned. What used to be a beautiful city is nothing but ruins.

"After supper we could'nt go home without having a drink so we went into the night club 'Intermezzo', stayed for a short time, enjoyed the floor show and danced a few times to American music. This ended our day."

What Our Men Did to the Nazis.

Among the 185,000 men and women of the Eighth Air Force congratulated on V-E day by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle were a number of young men well known in Quiz territory. Among this group were Sgt. Arthur J. Mason of Ord, Cpl. Albvin E. Holmes of Arcadia, Pfc. William T. Barry of Greeley, Pfc. Clarence Williams of Broken Bow, Cpl. Theodore Coffman of Broken Bow. Also 2nd Lt. Fred C. Coe, Cpl. Cecil D. Hanson, Cpl. Willard F. Clemens, and Pfc. Edward F. Proskocil. Said Doolittle: I wish to extend my personal congratulations and my heartfelt appreciation to every one of you for the magnificent job you have done. Each of you may be proud of your part in the defeat of Germany. I am proud of you."

The Eighth Air Force was the world's mightiest strategic bombing force. It could send 21,000 airmen in 2,000 four-engine bombers and 1,000 fighters over Germany at one time, a combat effort possible only through the support of tens of thousands of non-flying specialists. Since August, 1942, when combat operations began, the Eighth had dropped more than 700,000 tons of bombs on enemy targets, shot down 5,250 nazi planes and detroyed 4,250 others on the ground. Bomber gunners shot 6,000 German interceptors out of the air.

The Eighth dropped an average of a ton of bombs every minute of the last 12 months. They were first to attack Germany, and proved the feasibility of precision bombing of the Reich in daylight hours. As the Eighth grew in strength it was given the task of crushing the German air force, which had to be done before the Allies could invade France. Bombers destroyed thousands of enemy aircraft production centers and planes in the air and on the ground, then threw its weight against German railroads and oil sources, disorganizing transport military operations of the nazis, paving the way for the march of Allied armies across Europe.

Mrs. Dallas McDonald, the former Evelyn Pawleska, reports that her husband, Pfc. Dallas McDonald, has been with the mystery division on the western front. The "mystery division," the 12th armored "hellcat" division, was termed the mystery division as it was one of the few units taking part in the gigantic push which could not be mentioned by name for security reasons. Leading the drive to the Rhine cities of Ludwigshafen, Seyer and Germersheim, between March 18th and 25th, the 12th moved from 20 to 25 miles a day, taking approximately 6,000 prisoners and disarming half as many more.

Three ammunition dumps were captured, a regimental supply train, 400 horses, 700 trucks, an enemy hospital complete with patients and equipment. A locomotive and six cars, 20 tanks, 20 anti aircraft guns, 15 artillery pieces, 50 wagons were destroyed, an estimated 1,000 Germans killed, two planes knocked down and 12 nebelwefers or rocket guns were captured.

The 12th armored division began its career Sept. 15, 1942 at Camp Campbell, Ky., and later trained at Camp Barkeley, Tex. Pfc. McDonald has been in the service two years and eight months, and has spent nine months overseas.

2nd Lt. Joseph R. Kovarik has reported to his station for combat crew duty aboard the new large B-29 Superfortresses. Before entering the army Lt. Kovarik attended Ord High, and later was employed at the Naval air station at Almeda, Calif. He entered the army April 11, 1943, and is now a flight engineer. When the crew finished training at this station they will be ready for duty against the Japanese.

Mrs. Nell Helbig of Denver, arrived on the Tuesday morning bus and is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bartz.

Mrs. Cora Alberry, who has spent the winter in Omaha, returned home Sunday. The past few weeks she had been at Miller, with a daughter.

Alta Van Horn came over from Broken Bow Wednesday, where she has been teaching the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peterson spent Tuesday in Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wetzel and their little grandson, Dennis Palser, went to Grand Island Tuesday to meet Mr. and Mrs. Paul Palser, who have been on the west coast. Paul was with the Seabees and has been given a medical discharge. Mrs. Palser went to San Francisco early in March and left the little boy with her parents. They went to the home of Paul's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Palser, to spend the night, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schilling and Mrs. Howard Anderson of Scotia, spent Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Lou Stine, playing pinochle.

Mrs. Paul Gebauer of Hood River, Ore., who is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Max Klinginsmith, went to Ord on the Tuesday morning bus.

Friends of Dr. Hemphill will be very glad to know he is improving from his recent illness and plans to begin work in his office next week, for a time at least, being in the office only in the forenoons.

Mrs. Will Davis writes from Athens, Mich., to tell of the arrival of a granddaughter, their first grandchild, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Davis at Grand Rapids, Mich.

North Loup people have exceeded their quota of E series bonds in the 7th War Loan by more than $1,000 and sales are still being made. Tuesday night's total of E sales was $16,225, according to Selma Robbins at the Co-operative Credit Ass'n bank and a good part of the Series G has also been made. Since series E is the bond which has been lagging in sales, Miss Robbins, Ben Nelson and C. B. Clark, who are working on the bond drive feel well pleased that the sales have gone over the top. Both Mr. Nelson and Mr. Clark worked hard Tuesday to get the work done and deserve a good deal of credit for its success. Many had expressed their willingness to buy but were waiting for someone to call on them which seems unnecessary when all one needs to do is go to the bank or postoffice to get the bonds.

Cooking Bones

More calcium may be drawn from bones used in soup if the bones are broken in small pieces, then cooked with a mild acid, such as vinegar, which will help dissolve the calcium.

Depression Followed

It is a matter of historical record that the greatest relative price rise of the entire World War I period occurred after the Armistice, and that this inflation culminated in a severe depression.

Bonds for Farmers

They Are Safe, Profitable, the Least Help Civilians Can Make to War Effort.

BY H. C. FILLEY,

(Chairman, rural economic department, University of Nebraska College of Agriculture).

Farmers should buy war bonds because they are a safe investment. In the 154 years since Washington was inaugurated president, the federal government has always met its obligations. There have been brief periods when federal bonds have sold at a discount, but there have been other long periods when the same bonds have sold at a premium. Owners have always received the specified interest and full value at maturity.

No other bond that can be purchased today is better secured than are United States government bonds. All the wealth of the United States is a guaranty that the bonds will be paid. This wealth includes the fertile land tilled by American farmers, the equipment they use, the cattle grazing on the hillsides, the hay in the mow, the grain in the bin, the barns that shelter the livestock, the orchards, the forests, the factories, the railroads, the great cities, the coal mines, and all the useful goods that will be produced as long as the United States exists as a nation.

Farmers should buy Series E Bonds because they return a higher rate of interest than is paid by savings banks. In fact, deposit banks and savings banks would be very glad to buy federal securities paying as high a rate of interest as is paid on Series E Bonds. Although the rate seems low compared with loan rates of 20 years ago, it is not low compared with present rates by other investments. All things considered, an increase in value of 33 1-3 percent on the best secured bond that can be purchased is a satisfactory return.

Farmers should buy bonds to have funds for improvements and equipment after the war. Farm buildings depreciated during the depression and relatively few replacements have been built. Thousands of Nebraska farm homes are without running water, a sewerage disposal, electricity, and a central heating plant. Those improvements are expensive, but they aid in efficient production and satisfactory living.

Nearly every farmer is looking forward to the time when he can buy a corn picker, or truck, or hay loader, or automobile, or other essential equipment. Farm women are waiting for an opportunity to buy electric refrigerators, power washing machines, mangles, table silver, table linens, sheets, bobby pins, nylon hose, and a hundred other things.

To win a war requires not only men but munitions. The least we should do for the men on the fighting front is to supply them with the best ships, tanks, artillery, and planes that can be built. They must be well-fed and adequately clothed. The sick and wounded must be given medical care. All these things cost money, and the money must be supplied by those of us who remain at home.

Fortunately the citizens of the United States are well supplied with money and credits. If they wish they can buy the entire seventh issue of war bonds and pay cash. Money in circulation exceeds 25 billion dollars and a surprisingly large part of this money is outside the banks. In other words, it is in the pockets of the public. Bank deposits exceed bank loans and investments by about 22 billion dollars. Total bank deposits amount to more than 141 billion dollars. Income after payment of taxes totaled about $137,500,000,000 in 1944. Goods and services available for civilian purchase amounted to about $97,500,000,000. A large part of the remaining $40,000,000 should be available for the purchase of war bonds.

Bonds are one contribution which everyone can make to the war effort. Most Americans wish to maintain the American system and the American way of life. Few persons who have enjoyed the freedom of a republic would wish to live under Nazism, or fascism, or socialism or any other form of totalitarian government.

The purchase of a bond does not entail a sacrifice. It merely provides civilians an oportunity to aid the war effort. No one who wishes America to win can do less than to back the attack of the men who do the fighting.

Davis Speaker for Memorial Day

"Eternal vigilance is the price of freedom" stated Clarence Davis in his address at the annual Memorial Day services at the American Legion memorial plot at the Ord cemetery Wednesday, May 30. Mr. Davis added that Memorial Day has a three-way significance to us: in religion, in patriotism, and in tribute to the dead. He also said, "People will forget what we say here, but the deeds of our comrades who fought for freedom will live after them."

Mr. Davis pointed out the origination of Memorial Day soon after the Civil War and the customs of people in other countries in paying tribute to their dead. He said Memorial Day is one of the humanest holidays of the year.

Rev. Jeppesen of the Danish Lutheran church led the group in the invocation, after which the colors were presented by the American Legion with the aid of servicemen and veterans of this war. Directed by Dr. Glen Auble, the Ord band played "In the Cathedral" and the ladies of the G.A.R. conducted their rites, which included a poem read by James Ollis and "America the Beautiful" sung by Dorothy Auble accompanied by the band.

A girl's sextette sang "Recessional," the words of which were from a poem by Kipling. After the salute to the dead was fired, Jimmy Misko played taps. The singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" ended the program.

Commercial Storage

Commercial cold storage is divided into two classes. "Cooler" space temperature ranges from about 50 degrees Fahrenheit down to freezing, and "freezer" temperature from zero down. Additional freezer space requires more scarce materials than extra cooler space.

DON'T PLANT THAT CORN

until you have seen your dealer about

Old Nick's Seed Treatment

Old Nick's Seed Treatment protects seed corn from Pheasant, Moles, Mice, Squirrels, Crows, Wire Worms, or any other pest that attacks seed in the ground.

Hybrid corn is treated with Mercury Dust which is a fungus disease treatment, but it is not a repellant for pests that attack seed in the ground. Corn or garden seed.

No trouble to mix—it is in liquid form and you mix it right in your planter box.
