Vol. 64 No. 15

More Hogs Here Than Last Year; Assessors State

County Valuations About Same as Last Year; Corn Supply Halved.

Valley county had over a thousand more hogs at assessing time this year than at the same time last year, a compilation of precinct assessor's figures made by county clerk Leonard B. Woods show.

At the same time, the county had a slight drop in the number of cattle, over a thousand less horses, and only half the corn on hand it had in 1945.

Valuations for the county remain about the same. In 1945 real and personal property was valued at $13,239,075, including around $900,000 valuation in railroad land and equipment. This year's total, without railroads is $12,335,815. If railroad valuations remain the same, as Mr. Woods thinks they will, total valuation for the county will be about $13,225,000.

The return of servicemen to the county is reflected in the number of schedules, 2,835 for this year with 2,599 last year.

Here are a few comparison figures:

Cattle, purebred	1945 607	1946 616
Cattle, grade	32,010	31,444
Horses	3,928	2,909
Hogs	11,695	12,825
Corn, bushels	435,330	229,015
Wheat, bushels	3,344	3,770
Oats, bushels	10,670	41,750
Barley, bushels	19,615	51,635
Popcorn, lbs.	1,104,150	915,000

Class A intangibles (bank deposits, cash, etc.) accounted for $1,214,235 of this year's valuation. Stocks and bonds totaled $257,010. Assessors found 856 head of sheep in the county worth $4,315. Poultry totaled 8,470 dozen, there are 176 stands of bees and 1,003 dogs.

The county's 783 tractors were valued at $238,520, and other farm machinery at $275,630. 2,401 motor vehicles were valued at $331,675 and two airplanes at $2,650.

Review of household appliances found 451 gas and electric stoves in the county and 504 refrigerators. 1,294 families in the county had power washers, and 1,178 had sewing machines. There are 203 sweepers in the county, 1,427 radios and 503 pianos. Only 62 typewriters and 19 safes, 28 cameras, 526 firearms, 135 bicycles and 764 watches were listed.

A total of 239 articles of jewelry were listed, valued at $7,975. Furs totaled 91 with a valuation of $4,985.

Merchandise stocks in the county were up slightly from last year, valuations of $214,345 being reported. Lands and improvements accounted for the major portion of the county's valuation, with improved land assessed at an average of 19.38 an acre, unimproved at 15.59. Improvements in land were assessed at $783,725. City lots and improvements were valued at $1,590,950.

Hoppes Continues As Mail Carrier

Monday was the day the new carrier was to start his run with the U. S. mails between Grand and Ord. However he failed to show up at the Grand street office and the postmaster notified the old carrier, Robert G. Hoppes, that it would be necessary for him to continue until the new man reported for duty or until other arrangements were made.

Hoppes handled the situation by getting another man and truck to haul the branch line mails as far as St. Paul, while he hauled the rest in the truck he has been using. In spite of the extra difficulty, Bob arrived in Ord only fifteen minutes behind schedule. The new man is named Glasser, and he is in the contract at $4,690, or 108 less than Hoppes had been receiving for hauling only part of the mail under his old contract. Of course Hoppes is receiving pay under his new bid beginning July 1. His many friends up and down the line are hoping he will be given the contract if Mr. Glasser fails to qualify.

Ordadians Hold Legion Election

Ordadians, Neb.: The following were elected to guide the destinies of the Arcadia Legion post for the year 1947: Commandeur, Harold Tuning; vice-commander, Lewis Drake; second vice-commander, Downing Round; adjutant, Lester Parnell; finance officer, Harold Weddel. The chaplain and sergeant at arms will be appointed by the new commandeur soon. Some time was spent by a discussion of the motor dance which the post will give, at which a new Case tractor will be given away. Out of a total membership of 87, there were present for the meeting.

Ernest S. Coats Declares War on Pheasants

Here are a party of hunters from the Nebraska Farmer in Lincoln whom Mr. Coats invited out to his farm in a futile effort to reduce the pheasant population which was eating two hundred dollars worth of grain annually on his farm in Vinton township until the drouth in 1934 reduced their numbers.

Bond Election at Arcadia Carried Tuesday, 2 to 1

Village Will Now Build Hospital to Cost $11,000.

By a vote of 101 to 49 the citizens of Arcadia decided Tuesday that they will build a municipal hospital to cost $11,000. The bonds will run for a period of ten years, payable at the rate of one thousand dollars each year and two thousand dollars the final year. However, should the board decide to do so, the remaining bonds can be retired any time after 1951. The bonds will carry 2% interest, and the entire issue will be bought by the Arcadia State Bank, thus keeping the entire transaction at home.

The village board will probably pass an ordinance next month setting up a hospital board with authority to act, much as parks and cemetery boards operate. John P. Misko of Ord is special counsel for the village in their bond issue.

Ord Lost Game at Mason City Sunday

Batting Averages and Standings Given for 7 Games.

About everything must have happened to the Ord baseball team when they crossed bats with the Mason City aggregation on the latter's diamond Sunday. Bill Novosad started for Ord on the mound, but gave way to B. Stull, who fared no better than Bill had. The final score of 12 to 2 shows that the boys from Mason City had their bludgeons working. Mason City scored their twelve runs with an equal number of hits, aided and abetted by five Ord errors. They also made five bobbles, while the Ord boys were garnering six hits, but managed to play good ball when Ord threatened.

Ord plays Arcadia Sunday on their home grounds, the change being made because earlier in the season Arcadia came to Ord for a game scheduled for the Arcadia diamond, which was not in shape for playing at the time. Including June 23, at which time the first half of the season was completed, Mason City had won 7 and lost none; St. Paul had won 6 and lost 1; Ord had won 5 and lost 2; Arcadia and Elba each had won 3 and lost 4; and Scotia, North Loup and Ericson each had won one and lost 6.

With this game the first half of the playing season of the Loup Valley League came to an end. Following is the team and individual batting averages of the Ord team thus far:

$60,000 Paid For Moehler Ranch by Franklin Man

B. W. Harrington of Franklin, Neb., paid $60,000 for the 2,040 acre Moehler ranch near Elyria, E. S. Murray, who handled the deal, told the Quiz today. The ranch has 300 acres of irrigable land and the balance is pasture. Mr. Harrington, who operates a serum company at Franklin, purchased the ranch for investment purposes.

Funeral Friday For Mrs. Cornell

Sadie Collison Lived Most Of Her Life In Ord And Valley County.

Sadie Matilda Collison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Collison, was born Feb. 1, 1903, at Elyria, Neb. As a child she moved to Ord with her family. There she spent her childhood and young womanhood. She graduated from Ord high school, class of 1922, and the following year took a commercial course at Lincoln.

March 3, 1935, she was united in marriage to Charles Willard Cornell of Ord. They spent the first four years of their married life on a farm north of Ord. Since then they had been residents of Polk county, living in Osceola the past four years.

Mrs. Cornell was a member of the Eastern Star, Mizpah Chapter 56, of Ord. Due to ill health for the past four years, Mrs. Cornell was unable to take part in church and social activities in which she had found so much enjoyment.

Mrs. Cornell is survived by her husband, Charles Willard, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Collison of Campbell, one sister, Mrs. T. G. Wright of Brainard, four brothers, Roy Collison of Los Angeles, Rudolph Collison of Bruning, Norman Collison of Farwell and Oliver Collison of Campbell. One sister, Fern, preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at the church in Osceola, Friday at 10 a.m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Randall. The body was brought to Ord, where services were held in the Ord Methodist church at 3 p.m., and the body was laid to rest in the Ord cemetery. The singers and pallbearers were from Osceola.

Burwell To Build New Water Tower

The village board of Burwell has voted to replace the present 50,000 gallon water tank with one with a capacity of 150,000 gallons. This should hold an adequate water supply for many years to come.

The board also let a contract for the construction of a building to house the new engine for their light plant to Bissell and Son of Kearney in the amount of $9,614.85.

Calif.-Nebraskans Plan Celebration

According to a notice received by the Quiz this week, some ten thousand former Nebraskans will gather in Bixby Park, Long Beach, Calif., Saturday, July 13, for their annual summer basket picnic. The word is sent by Paul S. Dieterick, president. The Nebraskans will register by counties. Lunches will be served on the grounds, and free coffee if you wear a Nebraska badge.

The day's program will open at 1 p.m., with music by the municipal band. W. M. Jeffers, retired president of the Union Pacific railroad and native of North Platte, will be principal speaker. His topic will be, "Pioneering in Nebraska".

Game Officials Visit Ord, Admit Pheasant Damage

Mohler, Miner, Here Monday to Interview Farmers; Hope Long Open Season.

Levi Mohler, director of research for the Nebraska game commission, and Harold Miner, conservation officer in the northeast district, were Ord visitors Monday and spent their time interviewing farmers who had written in to Lincoln to complain of extensive damage to crops by pheasants this year.

According to Mr. Mohler, Ord is the center of an area roughly 40 miles in diameter where pheasant damage centers and he admitted there is no doubt that farmers here have just reason to complain, as the pheasant population here is admittedly too heavy.

A long open season next fall is the best hope for preventing crop damage another season, he stated, but until the department's official survey is made in late July it will not be known how long the season will be.

Mohler said that issuing permits to individual farmers to shoot pheasants out of season on their own farms would not help matters greatly and said the department has no idea of adopting such a policy. Some pheasants are corn eaters, at this season of the year, but most are not, he said, and a farmer would be more likely to kill pheasants that are insect-eaters than ones that are damaging crop-eaters. The season of greatest damage is past, Mohler believes, and since more hunters than ever before are expected to be in the field this fall and naturally will visit areas where pheasant population is large, he thinks the situation will correct itself within a few months.

The game officials admitted they have received a flood of letters from this section of the state and that this was the reason for their visit. They also admitted that their interviews with farmers here had confirmed information contained in the letters and proved that rural Valley county is, to a large degree, hostile to the pheasants.

Letters reaching the Quiz from farmers, and personal comments by them prove that feeling against pheasants is rising. Some farmers say openly that they are feeding rock salt to pheasants and that this kills the birds exactly as it does chickens. Others say they carry a shotgun on the cultivator and take a crack at a pheasant whenever they have a chance.

Advertisements For Fair Book Needed

Advertisements for the forthcoming premium list and motor vehicle list to be published by the Valley County Agricultural Society in connection with the Valley county fair must be turned in by Saturday, July 6.

M. B. Cummins, advertising manager for the premium list said that forms for the book would close on that date.

Cronk To Attend Banking School

R. J. Cronk, cashier of the Nebraska State Bank in Ord will go to Madison, Wisc., July 29, where he will attend a banking school for two weeks. The school, sponsored by the Central States School of Banking will give research courses in banking, economics and monetary problems. Statement of the Nebraska State published on another page of this issue shows an added $10,000 in the surplus account since the last report.

North Loup Valley Bank Opens July 1, Ray Hill, Cashier

Co-op Credit Shareholders Receive a Dividend of Forty-Five Percent.

The new North Loup Valley Bank opened for business Monday morning, and the officers were busy all day taking care of depositors and greeting visitors. President C. W. McClellan, cashier Ray Hill and the full board of directors spent the entire day and evening at the bank. All the ladies were given pink carnations and the men customers received cigars.

Deposits for the first day at the North Loup Valley Bank were $78,000. Many beautiful bouquets were on display, the gifts of a number of other banks and business houses. Among them was a large basket of red roses from the National Bank of Commerce of Lincoln. A free picture show, "She Went to the Races", was shown in the afternoon and evening through the courtesy of the North Loup Valley bank.

The North Loup Co-operative Credit Association closed Friday night for liquidation, the result of an agreement reached by the stock holders at a meeting June 19. F. W. Robb of the state banking department was present Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday to assist the officers with their work.

Drafts for depositors, of which the association had 200, were made out with the monthly statement and given each depositor. These, almost without exception, were re-deposited in the new bank. A dividend of 45% was paid each co-op stockholder, making $4.50 for each ten dollar share held. A ten dollar share was held by depositors for each one hundred dollars on deposit.

Among the out-of-town banking men present Monday morning for the opening were Albert A. Held, executive vice-president of the National Bank of Commerce of Lincoln, H. H. Echtermyer, vice-president of the Livestock National Bank of Omaha, Clark Weckbach, president of the First National Bank of Ord, F. M. Robb of the state banking department, and Clarence M. Davis and E. L. Vogeltanz of Ord.

The first bank in North Loup was organized in 1882 and was known as the Loup Valley bank. Lee Love was president and George W. Post was cashier. The same year the officers were Lee Love and Sears Bros., and later it became John L. and Eaton S. Sears. In 1885 another bank was organized, on the south side of main street, with F. M. Rubley and B. F. Hake, directors, and J. H. Ager, cashier.

This bank liquidated in 1893 and Mr. Rubley went to a bank in Broken Bow. In 1895, the Loup Valley bank closed and North Loup was without a bank until 1900, when the Farmers State bank was organized. Promoters of this bank were A. U. Dann, Guy Dann, Samuel McClellan, O. S. Potter, W. E. Gowen and George E. Johnson.

A. U. Dann was president and Guy Dann was cashier. After five years the Danns retired and Samuel McClellan became president. George E. Johnson became cashier, and Robert Johnson was added to the list of directors. In February, 1906, L. E. Pugh became cashier, George E. Johnson was president, and the capital stock was increased to ten thousand dollars.

About 1910 the North Loup State bank was organized, with C. O. Earnest as cashier. They began business in the building which once stood just west of the Wellman store building, and stayed there until their new brick building was completed. This now houses the North Loup post office.

The same year the Farmers State bank put up a new brick building to take the place of the one they were then using, the building where Maxine's Beauty shop now is. That bank building is the one now being used for the new bank. In November, 1928, the North Loup State bank and the Farmers State bank, and the two were consolidated, with Paul Robinson as cashier and M. D. Earnest as president.

In 1932 this bank closed because of the depression and drought. For four years North Loup was without a bank. In 1936 the Co-operative Credit association was formed, and for the past ten years has served the people well, the deposits increasing from $14,000 four years ago to $102,000 last week.

But a credit association cannot fill all the banking needs of a community, so the new bank was organized. C. W. McClellan is president and Ray Hill is cashier. Mrs. Ruth Hutchins, who had been working part time with the credit association, will help in the new bank. The other officers are, Frank J. Schudel, vice-president, Ben Nelson, secretary and E. L. Vogeltanz, attorney.

Dead and Missing Honor List Given

The Quiz acknowledges receipt of the honor list of dead and missing in World War 2, as compiled by the war department as of June, 1946. From this list it appears that Nebraska lost a total of 2,978 men, divided as follows: killed in action, 1714; died of wounds, 243; died of injuries, 8; died, non-battle, 798; declared dead, 206; missing 9.

Douglas county leads in number of dead with 595, with Lancaster 233. Hall county comes third with 78. Low on the list is Banner county, with none, and McPherson and Arthur county with one each. Valley county has 15 listed officially, and Garfield county has the same number, Greeley has 16, Sherman has 14, Howard has 15, Wheeler has 2 and Custer has 47.

As a matter of fact, Valley county, and doubtless many other counties, actually lost a greater number than that, but a number of them were former local men who had enlisted from other counties and states and are accredited there. For example, Paul Carlson, first local man to die in battle, is not on the Valley county list at all, as he enlisted in California.

The names as they are given in the county roster, are: Howard D. Gilmore, John O. Hernandez, Anton A. Hvezda, Frederick B. Jensen, William F. Klanceky, Clinton M. Lane, Elwood D. Miska, Benjamin F. Morris, Julius Okrzeza, Theodore R. Philbrick, Harold A. Robertson, Richard R. Severson, Harold E. Twombly, Raymond E. Vogelanz and Joseph L. Wegrzyn.

Tax Levy Raised By City Council Tuesday Evening

Contract for Airport Grading Let for $5,700.

At the city council meeting last evening the council authorized the contract with Joe Kozenin, relative to the municipal aviation field. A representative of the state aviation department was present for the meeting.

The council fixed a levy of one mill to be used for aviation purposes and this, with other changes in the levy, raised the total levy about three mills, which will make available ample funds for all needs, it is believed.

The contract for grading the air field was let to the low bidder, Green & Grosbeck, of Des Moines, for $5,700, about three thousand dollars below the estimate. The amount left may be used to match federal funds for further improvement of the air field. The next low bid was $8,400 and the third was over $9,000.

Funeral Held Tues. For George Barker

Passes Suddenly While Seemingly in the Best of Health.

Funeral services were held at the Hastings-Pearson chapel in Ord at 11 a.m. Tuesday for George Barker. Rev. E. K. Harris, pastor of the Ord Christian church, officiated. Mrs. Mark Tolen, with Miss Ella Bond as accompanist, sang to beautiful solos. The honorary pallbearers were Pat Ray, Jim Covert, Dave Arnold, Verl Arnold, Irvin Merrill, and Glenn Johnson.

George Barker, son of Albert W. and Matilda Barker, was born June 7, 1884 in Greeley county, Neb., and departed this life June 29, 1946, at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Benson, in Ord. He was 62 years and 22 days of age. His death came as a shock to all, as it came suddenly while he was apparently in good health.

He grew to manhood in Greeley county, living there until he was 28 years of age, when he moved to Nevada, Mo. There he spent the remainder of his life until about a year ago, when he moved to Ord. He had been employed at the alfalfa mill since last January.

Oct. 21, 1914, he was united in wedlock to Ruby Carpenter. To this union were born ten children, five daughters and five sons, Josephine, Venice, Anne, Velma, Frances, Albert, Harry, Charles, Ernest and Sterling, all of Missouri. Three of his sons and two of his sons-in-law served overseas in World War II, all of them returning home safely.

Besides his children he leaves to mourn his departure his sister, Mrs. Benson, a brother, Jesse of Nevada, Mo., and a host of other relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. From Ord his body was taken to Nevada, Mo., for burial.

Death of OPA Has Little Effect In Ord; Prices Hold

Subsidy Elimination Boosts Produce Price; Retailers Pledge Help.

When OPA died at midnight Sunday, few if any spectacular changes were noted in Ord and Valley county.

Prices have not leaped. Rents are unchanged. Meat is still scarce.

Until Ord's Saturday livestock sale is held, no one can do more than speculate on the local prices of cattle and hogs.

Produce prices — butter, eggs and poultry remained firm the first part of this week. Elimination of the federal subsidy of 17 cents per pound on butterfat is expected to shoot cream prices to about 75 cents, although local buyers were still paying the former ceiling price of 58 cents Tuesday.

Ord retailers, without exception announced that they would "Take absolutely no advantage of the fact that price control has been removed." Prices on most all consumer items appeared to be stable, at least temporarily. Exceptions will be meat and butter, both of which will reflect the change from a consumer subsidy basis to a direct price.

"There never was any question of what removal of OPA control would do to rents in Ord," E. S. Murray, veteran real estate dealer, told the Quiz. "This area never has had a rent control with the exception of the natural control of supply and demand. I don't expect rents to rise at all, unless we have another influx of population."

Wm. Sack of the Sack Lumber Co., told the Quiz that he anticipated a small raise in coal prices ranging from three to five percent. "The coal we are receiving now has been billed to us subject to an anticipated raise in price ceiling. But we're not excited about a raise at all and see no need for a big one."

Prices of livestock — and prices of meat — at present are unsettled. Ord butchers, still struggling under slaughter quotas, were unable to forecast just what would happen. M. B. Cummins, owner of the Ord Livestock Pavilion stated that he too, would not predict what would happen.

"I think the market will be steady in a few days time," Mr. Cummins stated. "The first few days have seen order buyers taking the big percentage of cattle and hogs, with the packers apparently trying to hold a price line."

"I look for strong prices at our Saturday sale, but I don't expect anything spectacular. There's one thing now — that ceilings are off, buyers will bid what they think the stock is worth. And when that happens, we'll have a basis for a firm market."

"The death of OPA has been a very unsettling factor in the grain market," Bill Heuck, manager of the Farmer's elevator, told the Quiz. "We still don't know exactly where we are."

For illustration, and bid $1.90 a bushel for a small lot of corn today. Yet, at the same time, we're selling corn for $1.38. Of course, on a dollars and cents basis that doesn't amount to much since the only corn we have for sale is a few bushels for chick feed, and we can stand the loss in servicing our customers who raise a few chickens."

"As far as I can tell, prices of fruits and vegetables will remain firm. I rather expect bananas to be raised in price as they have been selling for less than apples right along," Ellis Carson of Carson's Market stated. "We're still holding the line on milk prices, although a raise about a month ago of one and a half cents a quart was not taken by this store."

"Here's a funny thing. Big oranges are scarce — small ones plentiful. But throughout OPA they have been selling at the same price — right at ceiling. But today, small oranges have dropped in price, big ones are up."

Rainfall Light During Past Week

Since the Quiz went to press last week only one rain has been reported. In Ord, Horace Travis reports .14 of an inch fell last Wednesday evening, with still less farther north. That evening H. L. Gillespie reports .63 of an inch for North Loup, which was nearer the center of the storm area.

Very little hail fell here or at North Loup, but the rainfall was much heavier a few miles south of North Loup, and was accompanied by a hail storm which did considerable damage to grain and corn. Much of the ripening grain was threshed out in the fields. The weather has been a few degrees below normal all week, an ideal condition for growing crops.

SATURDAY NIGHT FIRE

There's something about a Saturday night fire in a small town like Ord that overshadows all the drama of a 21 alarm fire in the biggest city in the world.

Strange statement? Perhaps—but even a grass fire in Ord has a full measure of genuine excitement, heart ache and display of selfless devotion to fellow men.

There's the scream of the siren, the streets are crowded with cars and people. Many firemen are busily engaged in caring for customer's needs for shoes, groceries, etc. Another may be putting the finishing touches to a motor repair job.

Business men turn firemen and hoof it to the fire station with unmeasured damage to the heart as well as arches, due to the unaccustomed speed. With the alarm hardly finished the firemen have grabbed a place on one of the trucks which are now on the move.

Then there are the chasers... cars which have ducked into drives and alleys and soon follow in the direction taken by the firemen. Parking places open up as shoppers forget their purchasing and follow.

Down to the south end of town they go. Many cars have joined the procession—car lights form a ribbon of light all the way back to the square.

Most of the time the fire fans don't realize what they're doing. The excitement of the chase is on them—they crowd around the scene of the fire—getting in the way of trucks and apparatus—getting in the way of the firemen who have been trained to do their job and who are responsible if anything goes wrong.

None of the firemen were injured Saturday night. None came home with a bad cold resulting from fighting fire in bitter cold with the water turning immediately to ice. None reported having torn an irreplaceable suit which he needs to wear in conducting his business as he returns from fire fighting to his business career.

Anxious wives are relieved to learn that the fire was just a small one and that hubby got home uninjured with his clothes intact, although ready for the cleaners and laundry.

And the firemen are volunteers. They do their job with the spirit and love of a sport, coupled with a deep sense of devotion to their community. The $3.00 poll tax they escape each year won't pay their cleaning and laundry bill. And then there's always the day when clothes are completely ruined and have to be replaced—or a doctor has to be called for an injury or a bad cold.

The firemen don't ask for much—just cooperation and an understanding of the job they have.

True—they want equipment now and then—but it's not for themselves they ask—it's to help them do a better job for their community.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

I am starting this fault finding department again, principally because I am peeved. The cause of the peeve? Well, I got a nice, long letter today from Oscar L. Nay and he seemed to take special pleasure in telling how well the bluebirds were biting and in what a short time he could catch the limit. I don't think it is fair for a guy fortunate enough to be able to spend the whole summer on Cullen lake, to rub in on one who is too lame to fish.

But I am serving notice on Oscar right now that my arm is improving and I may be able to get up there yet before the end of August and if I am, I will be glad to teach him some new tricks on how to snag those crappies and bluegills. Oscar had a lot of experience sniping the enemy in the first world war and he could have gained a lot of fishing experience had he remained here at that time. But, anyhow he has done real well for the limited amount of experience he has had and with me to coach him a few weeks, he might get to be quite a fisherman yet.

Another thing I am peeved about is people allowing their Quiz subscription to expire, then after I stop it, for them to send in their renewal and ask for the back copies they have missed to be sent. I notify everyone when their paper will be out, then I continue to send it, usually a couple of months, in the meantime sending them another notice before stopping it. Generally, when they have missed a couple of copies they send in a renewal. It would save me quite a lot of work if they would renew before the time is out.

And another thing, I have several Quiz admirers who do not take the paper but wait till the end of the week and send a nickel and ask me to mail one. It costs me 3c to mail the paper. The price at the office is 7c. They should send a dime if they want to have a copy mailed, tho' it would be much better if they would subscribe.

I have not had a garden for several years and had almost forgotten what a fine thing a good garden is. We really have a good garden this year and have been enjoying radishes, lettuce, beets, onions and new cabbage for some time and have several others in prospect for the near future. I do know we have new potatoes large enough to use, our tomatoes are blooming and our sweet-corn tasseling. We are freezing peas in the locker and string beans will soon be ready.

By the way I have invented a new kind of gravy which I call cabbage gravy. It is a twin to tomato gravy which I have told you several times how to make. Cabbage gravy is made about the same way. You first chop the new cabbage real fine, stew it in the skillet with a small amount of water until it is tender, then when the water is about steamed out, add some butter, milk and thickening and season with salt and pepper to taste, and there you are with one of the finest gravies that it is possible to make, at least next to tomato gravy.

The Missus bought a hundred baby chicks this spring and has had really good luck with them, though I call it more good management and care rather than luck. They are feathered out and weight a pound and we are beginning to look forward to the time when we can start eating them. We are going to eat all we can and can all we can't. We got buff rocks, an entirely different color than Herb Nelson has, just as a precautionary measure.

And now good people take a look at the date on your Quiz and if it expires this month or in July bring or send in a renewal. And the World-Herald is upping their price a dollar and if you bring or send in your renewal for that paper right away for another year you can save a dollar which to buy ice cream this hot weather. And both Life and Time magazines are raising their rates also and we can save you money on them the next few days.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

SAYS PHEASANTS EAT MORE THAN CHICKENS Cotesfield, Nebr. Mr. Leggett: Noticed your item in the Quiz, about the pheasants. It costs us more by quite a bit, to raise the pheasants out in the field, than it does to raise our chickens in the yard around the home, and no return for the pheasants. They take 10 acres out of 100 from me every year, counting 40 bushel per acre, 400 bushels. We can raise a lot of chickens on that much. There should be an all year bounty on them. It costs the nation entirely too much to feed them for what returns they get. As I understand the situation, it was the ammunition manufacturers that got them in here so that they could sell ammunition.

Payments Made on Legume Seeds

A premium incentive to encourage farmers to market alfalfa and red clover seed will be paid by the AAA on all seed sold to commercial dealers before Jan. 1. Emil Kokes, Valley county AAA chairman has announced. Seven cents per pound will be paid on alfalfa seed and nine cents per pound on red clover. The purpose of the payments, Mr. Kokes, says is to get seed into areas where a great shortage exists. That is the reason the farmer does not receive the bonus if he sells the seed to his neighbor or to another farmer.

Jablonski-Jonas

Pedestal baskets of rosebuds and greenery appointed the altar of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church for the marriage of Miss Josephine Jablonski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bolish Jablonski, to Harry Jonas, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Jonas of Burwell. The marriage was solemnized with a high nuptial mass at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday morning, June 25. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas Siodowski. Jean Veleba, who served as usherette, was gowned in pastel blue, fashioned with a flared net skirt and fitted bodice, accented by a heart-shaped neckline and bracket-length sleeves. A corsage of carnations and silver halo finished her attire. The bridal music from Lohengrin was used as the processional and the recessional was from Mendelssohn, played by Margaret Petska, organist. "Ave Maria" was beautifully sung by Dorothy Penas, a schoolmate of the bride. At the first strains of the bridal music the bridesmaid, Mary Fish, was the first to ascend, followed by Barbara Jablonski and Mrs. Mildred Jonas. Dolores Jablonski, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. Miss Mary and Mrs. Mildred chose gowns of pastel pink, while those of Misses Barbara and Dolores were of pastel blue. They also carried beautiful bouquets of carnations tied with satin bows to match their frocks. The flower girls, Marilyn and Virginia Konkoleski, cousins of the bride, were frocked in pastel blue marquisette. They wore halos similar to the bridesmaids and carried miniature copies of their bouquets. Floyd Kosmicki, cousin of the bride, served as best man, and the groom's men were Melvin Jonas, Otto Marek and Leonard John. All were attired in dark business suits with contrasting carnation boutonniere's. The groom chose a blue serge suit with a white carnation boutonniere. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of Battenburg lace and net over satin. The deep yoke of marquisette formed a high, rounded neckline and was edged with a ruffle of lace and long sleeves tapered from moderate fullness at the shoulders to deep points over the wrists. The skirt of accentuated fullness of lace with net was ruffled marquisette ended into circular three-yard train. The two tiered veil of bridal illusion was of train length and was held to the head with a miniature coronet of beaded pearls trimmed with chintilly lace. She carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons and white carnations, which ended in a large shower of pink satin ribbons and snapdragons. The bride's only ornament was a cross, a gift from the groom. The bride offered a special bouquet to the Blessed Virgin. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner and supper were served at the bride's home. Bouquets of pastel toned carnations and greenery were used to decorate the room throughout. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, which was baked by the bride's only sister, was ornamented with miniature blue and pink roses and topped with an exquisitely delicate figurine. Presiding in the dining room were Madeline Jablonski and Mildred Fish. In the evening the bridal pair were hosts at a wedding dance at the Bohemian hall, which was largely attended. Ed's Swingsters furnished the music. The newlyweds will reside in Texas, as the bride-groom is stationed there.

McCreery-Hartsaw

Miss Mary Josephine McCreery, sister of Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Glick of Fulton, Ind., was united in marriage to Rev. John Walter Hartsaw, of Ord, Nebr., at the Fulton United Brethren church, Tuesday afternoon, July 11, at 4 p.m. The double ring ceremony was read in the presence of approximately one hundred guests by Bishop Emeritus H. H. Fout, D. D., L. L. D. of the northwest district. Seven-branched candelabra lighted the divided chancel of the church, which was decorated with baskets of pink and white peonies. One basket was placed before the lighted altar. Mrs. Dorsey Stonehill of Brook, Ind., a former college roommate of Miss McCreery, was matron of honor. Carol Champ was the flower girl and Carol Coffman carried the bride's train. Ushers were Earl Gault and Vachel Walters of Ravenna. Preceding the ceremony Miss Ida Mae Good, daughter of the late I. J. Good, president of Indiana Central college, sang "My Task" and "The Future Lies Before Me". Miss Anna Mary Glick, piano instructor at Indiana Central college, niece of the bride, played appropriate bridal airs and the traditional wedding marches. "My Faith Looks up to Thee" was played during the ceremony. Following the benediction, as the bridal pair knelt, Miss Good sang, "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us". The bride, wearing white carnations, was dressed in a gown of white rayon marquisette and lace, designed with a sweetheart neckline, fitted basque and long, full skirt which terminated in a long train. Her fingertip veil was of white net, edged in lace and held in place with a crown of seed pearls. Mrs. Stonehill chose aquamarine blue net gown with matching veil. Her bouquet was sunburst roses. The little flower girl carried rose petals which she scattered. She wore a gown of blue net, and the train bearer was attired in a pink net gown. A reception was held after the ceremony in the church basement. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the serving table. Wednesday following the ceremony the couple left for Clairmont, Mo., to visit the groom's parents. Upon their return they will establish a home at Ord, where the groom is pastor of the local United Brethren church. Mrs. Hartsaw, who the past year has taught at the Soldiers and Sailors' Children's home at Knightstown, Indiana, will have charge of the art department in York college, starting the fall semester.

Health Dept. Urges Extra Precaution

The Nebraska state health department this week warned that July, August, September and October are the main polio months and asked parents to watch their children closely during this period. The department pointed out that in 1945, 120 polio cases were reported in the state, to date this year, two new cases have been reported. Parents were advised: 1—Avoid overtiring and extreme fatigue by children. 2—Avoid cold water when swimming on a hot day. 3—Postpone surgery of nose and throat for removal of tonsils and adenoids when possible during summer months. 4—Use extreme care with all water and milk, being sure they are purified. 5—Avoid visiting persons suffering from illness.

NORTH LOUP MAN ON ATOM BOMB TEST

Here are parts of two letters from Dean Fuss, son of Mrs. Rose Fuss who is a radio mechanic and volunteered for service with the ships which took part in the atom bomb test on Bikini. One letter was written June 7, the other June 20, and have items of timely interest.

Dear Mom: Well, I received your letter today. I had almost given up hearing from anybody as I hadn't received a letter since April. We arrived at Bikini last Saturday, exactly a month after we left Corpus. I came all the way out on the Avery Island, after they transferred us around at Pearl Harbor, they put us back on the same ships. On the way here I worked in the battery room. We had about 300 batteries to charge. It was a pretty hard job and I ruined a couple of pairs of dungarees on the job. When we got here I was transferred to the Coasters Harbor, along with nine other boys from Corpus. This ship is an electronics repair ship and we are called out on jobs to go repair radios, radar, etc. I like it pretty well except that they have me working on shipboard sets when we studied aircraft gear at school. We get to go on all the target ships. I have been working on the radar on a transport that is pretty close to where the center of the blast will be. We have all the gear on board fixed up perfect and the ship will probably be sunk in three or four weeks. They are going to aim at the Nevada when they drop the bomb. They have it painted bright orange, almost like an Allis Chalmers tractor. I was on board it at Pearl Harbor. They have a couple of Japanese ships here, also a German cruiser, the Prince Eugen. One of my pals is stationed on the Japanese battle ship, Nagato.

I haven't been on the island of Bikini yet but will go ashore in a few days for a beach party. They have them every day but we can only go every 4 or 5 days. We are on the other side of the date line so are a day ahead of you. We went right from Monday to Wednesday, when we were coming out. We will have two days the same going back. I hope we have two Sundays, so I can get more rest.

June 20—I received your letter today. It only took five days. I have been working pretty steady out here, even sometimes on Sunday. We get up at 6, eat early chow at 6:30 and usually catch a boat at 7:30 to go to work on some other ship. I haven't missed a day yet as far as work is concerned. I have been ashore on Bikini two times. They don't have much there, just a big tent where you can buy beer and coco-cola or you can sleep under the palms or go swimming. The swimming is not so good as at Corpus Christi, too much coral rock. It is really sharp and it is easy to get your feet cut on it. After they drop the atom bomb, they are going to send some radio controlled boats in to see if it is safe to come in. Then they are going to send in about 30 boats with some scientists etc. on, to raid back what they see. Well, I am going to be one of those boats to be sure that their radio keeps working. It ought to be pretty easy to keep one little set going but I'll bet we will really catch heck if they play out. So I'll be among the very first to come back in after they set the bomb off.

Today, I was helping another guy install an Arcl transmitter receiver on a tugboat. It is about the first set I have seen out here like we studied in school. I got pretty wet today going to work as the water was pretty rough and the spray kept coming into the boat.

The weather is not so bad here if you work outside, it usually runs about 85 but is pretty hot below decks. I think it was hotter back at Corpus Christi than here.

Well, that is about all I can think of now, so I will close. So Long. Dean.

—Miss Mary Miller left on the bus Tuesday afternoon for Salina, Kans., where she will visit friends. At Hastings she will be joined by Irene Auble, who will spend the weekend with friends at Wichita, Kans.

Wed at Ericson
 Helena Harris formerly employed at the Ord City Bakery but now of Long Beach, and Lyle Wescott, a member of the armed forces, were married Sunday afternoon at the Ericson Methodist church, Rev. Carl McConnell of the Ord Methodist church officiating. A reception was held in the church parlor immediately following the ceremony, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. As a part of the ceremony Beverly Whiting of Ord sang "Because". Mrs. Robert Noll played the wedding music. Also present from Ord were Mrs. James Whiting and Mrs. Joe Rowbal. Howard Harris, brother of the bride, was best man, and Lois Donner was bridesmaid. Mr. Westcott will return to his post July 4, and his bride will return to her work in Long Beach July 5.

Sawdeys Return
 Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Sawdey of Burwell were on the morning bus Monday on their way to pay a visit to the old home town. Mr. and Mrs. Sawdey went to California about eighteen months ago and shortly thereafter Dave secured a good job in shop 02, Hunters Point Naval Drydocks. He has been employed there continuously ever since, and expects to return to his work again in a week or ten days. Mrs. Sawdey expects to remain in Burwell for a longer visit. Dave says there is still plenty going at Hunters Point, which is one of the leading naval installations on the west coast.

Austin-Garner

At the home of the bride's parents, Thursday afternoon, Rev. R. T. Corby of the First Presbyterian church of Ord performed the ceremony that made Rae Jean Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Austin, the bride of Glen Dee Garner, son of Mid Garner. For her afternoon wedding the bride wore a silk jersey street length dress, a corsage of red roses. The groom wore a blue, pin-stripe suit. After the ceremony the bride's parents served dinner to the immediate relatives. The newly married couple went to Ericson on a fishing trip over the weekend. They plan to make their home in Ord for the present. The bride has lived all her life in Ord and was educated in the Ord schools. The groom spent most of his life here except three years when he lived in Laramie, Wyo. From there he was called into the army, where he spent three years in the service, two of which were overseas in the Pacific area.

—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Keep and Patty arrived Saturday from Long Beach, Calif., and are visiting in the Archie Keep home. Guy was discharged from the army June 6, after being stationed for a long time in India.

—David Borden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Art Borden of Burwell, was in Ord on business Monday. David was discharged from the navy last week after three and one half years in the service. He says that for once he was not tall enough. The limit in height for the navy is six feet four inches, which is exactly what David measures in his stocking feet.

—Mrs. Mary Palmatier writes relatives here that she is enjoying a visit with her son, Dr. Elmer Palmatier and family at Princeton, R. I. Dr. and Mrs. Palmatier have two children, Sheryl, who is now 4, and Roland, who is 1. Earlier Mrs. Palmatier visited with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lemon of Pifton, Ga., and is much enthused over the South. Before returning to her home in Denver, she plans to visit relatives and friends in Ord.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Eberhart returned Wednesday to their home at North Platte after spending a two weeks vacation in California. Wesley came on to Ord that day. This week he is going to Kansas City, Mo., to bring back a new trailer.

—Mrs. Anna Alfrey of Denver is in Ord visiting her brother, Joseph Prince, and sister, Mrs. Frank Zablouil.

—A card from Paul Laursen tells his mother, Mrs. E. Jund Laursen, that he arrived in Oregon safely and is enjoying his vacation and the scenery. He plans to work there this summer and return to Ord when school opens. He said it is still raining plenty in Oregon.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Andersen of Sidney, Mont., have been visiting their relatives, Mrs. Emilie Johnson and daughter, Marie, and other friends and relatives. Mr. Andersen is in poor health and his doctor advised him to stop farming for the present, at least. Mrs. Andersen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Frandsen who lived in this community years ago. Both died several years ago. The Andersens plan to take the Black Hills route home.

—Mrs. Frank Tuma of Cotesfield and Mrs. Billy Rysavy spent Sunday afternoon and part of the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Merrill. The men, Joe Rysavy, sons, Paul, Billie and Joseph and Mr. Tuma went to Ericson fishing.

—The Quiz is in receipt of a letter from Paul Waldmann of Burwell, thanking us for the plug we gave the farmer on the pheasant. He says all the farmers know that the pheasant is beneficial in reasonable numbers, but become a pest when they are too numerous. He says the farmers suffer enough from elements beyond their control without having to feed and harbor a bird which has become a pest. He hopes that the farmers can get some action in controlling the pheasant situation.

—Jay Brown, proprietor of the Ord Gamble store is in the Broken Bow hospital this week recovering from an eye operation. He is expected to return to Ord this week end or early next week.

—Dr. and Mrs. George Misko of Lincoln came to Ord for a visit over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Misko and family returned the first of the week to their home at Eaton, Colo., after spending a week visiting in Ord. These two families and Mabel Misko were guests at a family gathering in the John Misko home Saturday evening.

—Mrs. Maude Gould of Cleveland, Ohio, spent some time in Ord visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Norris and other relatives. She and Mrs. Norris left June 24 for Blair, where they planned to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lathrop and family until July 5. An interesting side light on Mrs. Gould's trip to Nebraska is that she made the trip from Cleveland to Omaha by airplane in 3 hours elapsed time, and that, had she known, she could have left Omaha immediately by plane for Ord, making the entire trip in four hours and forty-five minutes, as Bob Schmidt had been to Omaha and was returning to Ord at that time. As it was, she finally reached Ord 22 hours later by freight.

Thursday morning North Loup was out of water most of the forenoon. Harlon Brennick, water commissioner, had to tap a main in the west part of town and got up at four o'clock thinking he could get it done before anyone wanted to use water. He shut the valve at the tank, made his tap and connection and came back to the tank to turn the water back into the main in just 20 minutes, but the valve was stuck so the pipe had to be dug out and the valve which was broken had to be welded before any water was available. The few people in town who own a well were very popular. One lady carried a gallon bucket full of well water five blocks and got home with it just as the city water was turned back on.

We had the good luck to get the McClellan ranch sold. They had owned and operated it for over 60 years. But we will try the harder now to please you with anything smaller if that is what you want. Come in and let us talk it over. Have some real good deals in half sections, some quarter sections and some smaller, and some larger. Will try and please you.

One especially fine 80, just listed this morning. Almost level, extra good improvements and lots of them. One mile from town. Price $7500. Act quick—this will not last.

Here's a tip for vacationists: Whether you plan a weekend excursion or an extended tour to distant points, you'll find it a good idea to stock up first at Safeway. Fill your "take along" food needs quickly, easily and economically at our store near your home. You can make a real saving on your vacation expenses and get your favorite brands too.

How to plan for food on your vacation trip

If your vacation this summer is to take you on the highways and byways, you'll probably buy part of the necessities as you go. But if you travel to some of the more remote regions where fresh fruits and vegetables and meat may not be so readily available, then it's especially important to take a few supplies along. What you take will depend on where you're going and what you are going to do—fishing, hunting, pack trip, or camping; and where you plan to stay—cabin, tent or trailer.

FOODS TO TAKE ALONG—Slightly under-ripe fruits and vegetables which will ripen on the way, grapefruit, potatoes and onions, canned fruits and vegetables, will all help take care of the produce problem.

Bacon, smoked ham, dried beef and canned meats and fish will carry well and keep. Be careful about taking along fresh meats unless you have refrigeration. Even ham and bacon shouldn't be purchased very far in advance or in too large a quantity—especially if the weather is hot.

Include such packaged and prepared foods as pancake mix, biscuit mix, cereals, dried soups, beans, fruit. Don't forget salt, pepper, sugar, syrup, catsup, seasonings, paper napkins, matches, soap.

Canned soups, evaporated milk, pork and beans, chicken a la king, etc., in cans or glass help simplify vacation meals.

Other Bible citations include: "I am Alpha and Omega, beginning and the ending, the first and the last, and which is, and which was, and which is to come, Almighty" (Rev. 1:8).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To grasp the reality and of being in its Science, you begin by reckoning God as divine Principle of all that is. His wisdom; no truth is wise, no love is lovely, no life is Life of the divine; no good is, but good God bestows" (p. 275).

What is this day? A day for flags flying and Church picnics? It's far more than that! What is this day? A day for closed stores and crowded beaches? It's far more than that! What is this day? A day for parades and speeches? Yes—that's it. July 4th, the Anniversary of America's hard-won independence is a day for parades in honor of every democratic principle by which we live; a day for speeches to waken and reawaken us all to the fact that we best fight for democracy by working for peace.

Near Salamanca, N. Y., some passing motorists stopped to help a farmer put out a fire in his barn. They did their work so well the barn was saved as well as an adjoining house. Their efficiency was explained when the farmer found out his helpers were Assistant Fire Chief Bernard Swanson and former Fire Chief C. J. Beatty of Jamestown, Fire Chief Donald Sales, Lakewood, and Geo. Blackstone, Lakewood, chief of the fire department of Bard college. They were returning from a fire chiefs' convention.

Dana G. Horning, 50, of Watertown Center, N. Y., wound up in a hospital with a broken wrist when his daughter and son-in-law started out on their wedding trip. Unaware that he was standing on a line of tin cans attached to the car of the bridal couple, Mr. Horning went down for the count when the vehicle started.

Mrs. Addie Livesay, Centralia, Ill., a church organist who pulls the stops as efficiently as she did when she was an organist in Chicago a half century ago, still swings out "a little" with jazz at 84. But of boogie woogie Mrs. Livesay, who still teaches piano and organ pupils, says: "I can't play it at all."

John Moynahan, lock-up keeper at the Chicago town hall police station, was puzzled as he watched Midnight, the 7-year-old station cat, leap medly around the square room. "It looks like the end for Midnight," Mr. Mayahan told Detective Peter Harlib. Detective Harlib found Midnight had been nosing around a box of snuff a policeman had dropped.

Greenbacks came floating down "from nowhere" into fishing boats moored at Garibaldi, Ore. No one knows where the money came from. A short time before a plane had passed overhead. Tom Hess, a commercial fisherman, said he was eating lunch on deck when the bills dropped before him. He grabbed $16.

To Policeman James McNicholas of Philadelphia, the number 13 is lucky. Mr. McNicholas, whose name has 13 letters, comes from a family of 13. He is attached to the 13th police district and he has worn his present badge, No. 13, for 13 years. "And I've been luckier the past 13 years since I've worn this badge," he says, "Than I was previously."

It wasn't the loss of her $1,350 mink coat or of her husband's $50 watch which upset Mrs. Betty Port of Chicago, Ill. It was the bottle of Moment Supreme perfume valued at $55 and sent from a friend in Paris. It was taken by burglars who ransacked her apartment.

Undergraduate Thomas J. King of Yonkers, N.Y., moving a mattress from one dormitory to another got help from an unexpected quarter. Laboring under the weight of the mattress, Mr. King heard a voice offering assistance. He accepted without being able to see the donor. At the third floor, Mr. King told his helper: "Dump it anywhere, Bud." Turning to offer thanks, he found University President Dr. Harold W. Dodds mopping his brow.

Fire broke out in the Kansas City home of Leslie E. White, jr., spare-time hunter. Neighbor Eugene Holman rushed to it with his garden hose. When firemen arrived they found the fire nearly out. All of Mr. White's shotgun and rifle ammunition, including 1,100 rounds stored in the basement, exploded, and Mr. Holman was kept busy spraying among the flying bullets and shots. "I heard a lot of funny popping and puffing noises," reported Mr. Holman, "but I was too busy to wonder very much about it."

OPA Price Ceilings

are off as this is written. We have no idea just what the outcome of this will be, but we plan to hold our prices down to OPA Ceilings until we have to pay much more for replacements. At present, of course we are paying more for grains than in the past and the retail price of grains has to advance with the cost. We have a very large stock of items that we have bought while price ceilings were in effect and these prices will advance those prices till replacements are made.

Grains

We are in the market for your grain and will pay whatever the market will stand on them. At present the markets are quite confused and it will no doubt take several days to see just what they will level off at. But when you have grain to sell see us. The first time in months we have some cracked corn to sell if you have been in need of course grain for your chicks, we can supply you with a small amount.

Twine

We have on hand a good stock of guaranteed Mexican Twine. This is a very smooth running twine and we are sure that you will like it. Try a few bales of it.

Poultry Fountains

We have some very good automatic poultry fountains. They can be connected to a water supply system or to a barrel. They will pay for themselves in a very short time during the hot weather in increased egg production. Look them over.

Poultry Remedies

We carry a large stock of Dr. Salisbury and Gland-O-Lac Remedies. If you need anything in the line of Poultry Remedies, call us and let us furnish you with what you need. This is a good time to worm your chicks and get them ready for the laying house a little later.

Our Policy --

After the elimination of price control restrictions, June 30, we are doing business as we have the past many years, through-out controls and no controls, doing business on a margin consistent with good business judgment. Always paying the highest market price possible for grain, and always selling at a reasonable margin for the feeds and grain you have to buy.

GRAIN prices have jumped higher. If you have grain to sell it will pay you to get our prices.

We are in position to give you a good price for your grain and help you get trucks to haul your grain to market. It may be a good plan to get some grain sold on this advance in the market.

Cool Weather Makes Meat Important
Now that Valley county has been blessed with a fine general rain and the heat wave is broken, meat takes a new, important role in the meal question.

Cool weather makes people want something a bit more substantial in their diet—and that is where meat plays the big part.

Plan your meals around our choice cuts of home raised beef and pork. True, we've an artificial shortage right now, but at most times we will be able to take care of you.

And remember, shortage or not, we will never compromise the quality of the meat we sell.

Cool Weather Makes Meat Important

Now that Valley county has been blessed with a fine general rain and the heat wave is broken, meat takes a new, important role in the meal question.

Cool weather makes people want something a bit more substantial in their diet—and that is where meat plays the big part.

Plan your meals around our choice cuts of home raised beef and pork. True, we've an artificial shortage right now, but at most times we will be able to take care of you.

And remember, shortage or not, we will never compromise the quality of the meat we sell.

To Hold County Conventions At Ord On Thursday

Democrats Meet At 10 a.m., Republicans at 2 O'clock.

Thursday, July 11, is the occasion of the county conventions of both Republican and Democratic parties. As in the past, comparatively little interest has been shown, but it is hoped that there will be a good attendance at both conventions this year, the first to be held since the end of hostilities.

The Democratic convention is being called for 10 a.m., and will be held in the district court room. The county committee decided to select their delegates two from each voting precinct, regardless of the number of votes cast in the past. There are no official delegates from Noble, Springdale, Ord township or Ord first ward, since no names were written in these precincts.

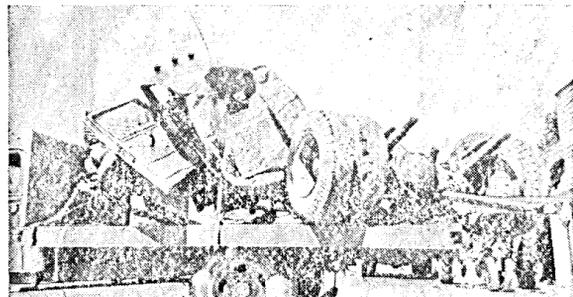

However, any persons present from these precincts will probably be declared delegates for the day. The following are the official Democratic delegates: Elyria, Ed Dubas, Al Radke, Eureka, Jos. Masin, Albert Kamarad; Geranium, James Wolf, Joe Suchanek; Michigan, E. E. Vodehnal, R. C. Kokes; North Loup, Clem Meyers, Sr., and Clem J. The Republican delegates were chosen at the rate of one for every thirty-five votes cast at the last election, with at least one from each township. Their convention will be called in the district courtroom Thursday at 2 p.m. The following are the names of the official delegates as determined by the vote at the primary:

Noble, Ed Hansen, John Kokes, Jr.; Elyria, Roscoe Garnick, Ed Dubas; Eureka, Edward Hulinsky, Mike E. Hulinsky; Geranium, Ed Waldmann, Joe Suchanek; Michigan, F. M. Worm Bros. Oil Transport Wrecked

Tuesday of last week one of Worm Bros. big oil trucks was wrecked on a bridge near Salina, Kan. The above photo by Swopes shows what happened to the tractor. The driver, Elmer Hooley, met with the proverbial Irish luck and is still alive, but is in a hospital at Salina with a broken pelvis. How he escaped death will always be a mystery. Evidently driving at quite a high rate of speed, Hooley had just passed a car while approaching the bridge. He got too near the edge of the grade and tried to pull back into the road, going across the grade and hitting the bridge on the wrong side. The tank started to telescope the tractor, then raised up and rolled on over into a field. The load did not catch fire, and was so little damaged that it was hauled on without transferring, but the tractor repairs will cost $3,000, Forrest Worm said. Hooley lay in the wreck for over an hour until another Worm transport and its driver, Charley McCall, arrived. Meanwhile at least one car had passed and did not even stop, possibly not seeing the man was there.

Fine Calves Sold In Ord Friday

Paul Rolsmeier was the consignee of 87 fine milking strain calves at a special calf sale held Friday at the Ord Livestock Market. Included in the consignment were Holsteins, Brown Swiss and Guernseys, an extra fine bunch picked up in the dairy territory in Wisconsin.

The top calves of the sale went to E. B. Stewart, the highest price paid being $62 for Brown Swiss. The low price was $29 for Guernseys, which do not seem to be so popular in this territory. The average price paid for the entire group was $39.55.

Mr. Cummins figures that about 75% of all the calves sold went to people living in Valley county, and all of them went in this trade territory. The bidding was very active, showing that the farmers are interested in improving their herds. These calves, picked from the leading dairy state of the Union, should prove a real asset to the community.

Death Came to Wm. A. Schauer Wednesday Morn

Well-Known Farmer Lived At Olean for More Than 45 Years.

In the passing Wednesday of William A. Schauer at an Ord hospital the Olean community lost one of its oldest and most popular citizens. He was not only a good farmer, but, what is more important, he was a good friend and neighbor, ever ready to help in time of need. Schauer was a farmer of the old school and tried many original ideas with success. Mr. Schauer was born May 6, 1873, at Bromberg in Posen, Germany and came to the United States with his parents May 8, 1888, settling in Madison, Nebr. He passed away at 6:45 a.m., July 3, 1946, in the Ord hospital after a long illness from heart trouble.

He was united in marriage to Helena Mueller April 21, 1894, and in the spring of 1895 they moved to Mira Valley, where they lived six years. They moved to Olean in 1901, where they have made their home since. He always lived on the farm and took a great pride in his chosen work.

Four children were born to this union, Antonia, who passed away in 1912, Mrs. Myrtle Kriewald of North Loup, William, Jr., and Mrs. Helen Jensen of Ord. Besides the widow and three children, he is survived by six grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Caroline Mueller of Walla Walla, Wash., and Mrs. Martha Linse of Portland, Ore., and one brother, Emil Schauer, also of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Schauer celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in April, 1944, receiving the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends. Mr. Schauer was a member of the Evangelical church for many years. He was a good husband and father and a respected neighbor and citizen.

Funeral services at the Methodist church in Ord Friday, 2:30 p.m. were conducted by Rev. Warren Studer of the Mira Valley Evangelical church. A quartet, Harry Foth and Orel, Merrill and Melvin Koelling sang. The pallbearers were Henry Rachuy, Ray Knapp, Carl Oliver, Harry Clement, John Urban and Devillo Fish. Hastings-Pearson had charge of arrangements. Interment was in the North Loup cemetery beside his daughter.

—Ellen Jeanne Foth was an overnight guest in the Lloyd Geweke home Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Covert Died Here Friday, Funeral on Sunday

Well Beloved Woman Had Many Descendants Living Here.

The hearts of hundreds of friends were saddened Saturday morning when word reached them of the death on Friday afternoon of Mrs. Nancy Covert, which occurred at her home a few miles east of Ord. Mrs. Covert had been in failing health for some time, but was able to be about her home until Wednesday, when her condition became serious and death resulted.

Nancy Melvina Wigent, daughter and only child of William H. and Mira Wigent, was born Sept. 27, 1868 at Hartford, Mich., where the first five years of her life were spent. In 1873 the family moved to Nebraska, coming by covered wagon and spending two months on the trip. They settled on a farm in Springdale, and this farm is the only farm in the community still belonging to the family of the original owner.

There Mrs. Covert attended rural school near her home and grew to womanhood. In September, 1884, she was united in marriage to Henry Covert, and to this union were born seven children. In 1890 the family moved to Teninah, Wash., where Mr. Covert died in 1910. In 1914 Mrs. Covert with her family of five children and two mother's grandsons returned to Nebraska and took up their residence on the Wigent farm.

There with the help of her oldest son, Clinton, she raised the children to useful manhood and womanhood. Besides her own family she raised three grandsons and had other grandchildren in her home much of the time. Through all the cares and responsibilities of raising a large family, caring for her home, and in many duties that come to a farm mother, Mrs. Covert found time to answer hundreds of calls for help in sickness or whatever emergency came to her neighbors and friends.

In 1930 Mrs. Covert moved to Ord and for a number of years she cared for her father during his declining years, giving him every care and consideration that her love could think of. Following his death in 1935, she returned to the farm, where she and her son, Clinton, have made their home. During the years when her health was failing she has been given loving care by her sons and daughters, who have done everything possible to make her life comfortable and happy.

Mrs. Covert was a member of the Ord Methodist church of the Degree of Honor lodge, and for many years a member of the Ladies of the G.A.R. and Rebekah orders. Left to mourn her passing were five children, Clinton, Leonard, James and Mrs. Ruth Thompson, all of Ord, and Mrs. Velma Jacobs of Racine, Wis.; eleven grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren; also a host of friends and neighbors who loved her through the years.

Funeral services, with the Hastings-Pearson Mortuary in charge, were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 from the Ord Methodist church. Rev. Carl McConnell officiated. The pallbearers were Verl Arnold, Clarence Pierson, Dave Arnold, Ed Timmerman, George Nay and Cash Rathbun. Music was furnished by Mrs. Mark Tolten and Mrs. C. M. Davis, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Noll. Burial was made in the family plot in the Ord cemetery.

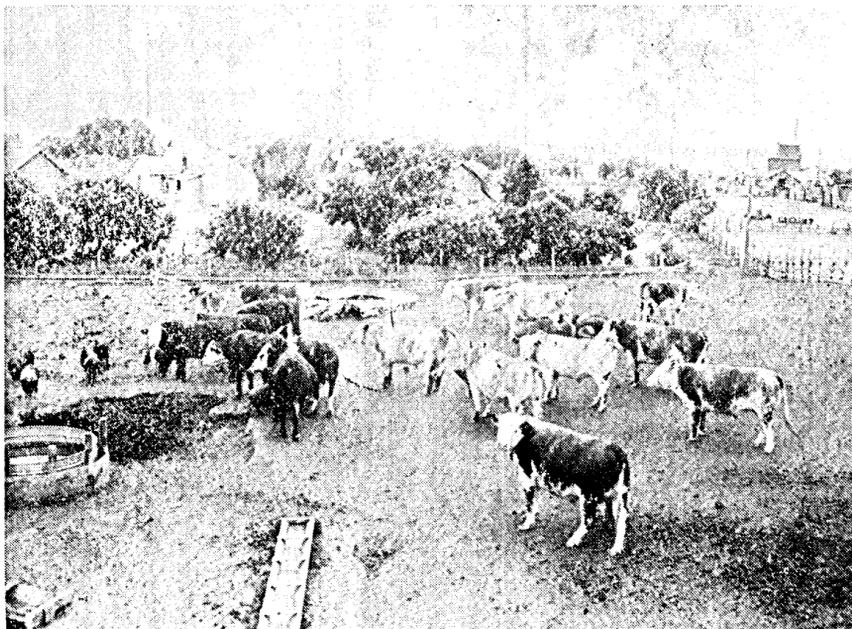

Legion Juniors Strike Winning Pace Past Week

Come Across With Wins Over North Loup, Burwell.

The Ord Juniors rolled over North Loup at Ord July 4 to give them two consecutive wins. Jack Koll, husky Ord third baseman, was the big gun for Ord, hitting four times out of five times at bat. John Hannah and Bill Anderson shared the pitching honors.

July 7 the Juniors took a thriller from the Burwell Longhorns, 14 to 13, Ord was trailing at the end of the third inning, 5 to 6, then banged 8 runs across the plate in the fourth. Jack Koll and Led Cochran were the heavy hitters for Ord. Roger Dahlin suffered a broken finger in the 7th, and Paul Stoddard is replacing him behind the plate. Sunday the Ord Juniors will journey to Ravenna, a team unbeaten in six games. The Ord boys are determined to break their winning streak.

Burdick Sells Fat Cattle at $300 Per Head

Nineteen head of fat steers brought better than $300 apiece on the Chicago market Monday, when a bunch that Charles Burdick of Ord had kept on feed for nine months, sold for that figure. Eighteen head brought $22 per hundred and the other one brought $21 per hundred. Top of the market that morning was $22.50, with 22,000 head on the market. Lloyd Parks handled the shipment for Burdick.

Burdick's shipment, mostly roan shorthorns, had an average weight of 1,500 lbs., and were as fine a shipment of fat steers as seen in an area where good cattle are the rule. —photo by Swopes

Mr. and Mrs. Barber Married Sixty Years

The sixtieth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barber of North Loup was celebrated at the July church social held Sunday evening at the North Loup Seventh Day Baptist church. For the covered dish supper, Mr. and Mrs. Barber were seated at an especially decorated table and all those who had birthdays in July were also seated there.

A large birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Barber herself, centered the table. Baskets of flowers centered all the tables and filled the windows. The program following the supper honored the Barbers, and opened with the singing of "This is Thy Wedding Morn", from the bridal chorus. Mrs. Jessie T. Babcock gave a brief outline of the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Barber, and group singing of familiar songs followed.

Mrs. Barber came to North Loup from Alden, Minn., and Mr. Barber from Scott, New York, where he had learned the trade of tinsmith as a boy. At some periods in the past sixty years he has been the only tinsmith in Valley county. He still maintains his tinshop, and scarcely a day passes in which he does not do some work for someone.

For many years he served as treasurer of the Seventh Day Baptist church, and for twenty years he has been treasurer of the North Loup cemetery association. He has the most complete scrapbook record in existence of the deaths and burials of people buried in the cemetery. For the past twelve years he has been North Loup's police judge.

During all the sixty years spent in the North Loup community, the Barbers have rendered many services to the public, chief of which is that their home has always been a home for the homeless. Only during the past few years when their health has begun to fail have they been without some one besides their own family in their home.

Mrs. Barber, in addition to making a home for her own family and for others, has helped at the birth of more than seventy babies. Mr. and Mrs. Barber have two sons, Dell of North Loup and Glen of Vallejo, Calif., and one daughter, Mrs. George Maxson of North Loup. There are also thirteen grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren.

—Mr. and Mrs. Louis Prince of Compton, Calif., arrived in Ord Sunday evening and will spend a week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Prince and other relatives and friends.

Ord Merchants Hold Price Line After OPA Death

Butter Rises to 77 Cents Stores Still Selling At 64 Cents.

Ord merchants continued to hold price lines on all lines of merchandise although death of OPA has given them opportunities to charge what they want. Gus Schoenstein, chairman of the Ord Chamber of Commerce retail committee told the Quiz that as far as he knew every store in Ord was cooperating to keep consumer prices as low as possible.

"The only price jumps I have seen around town are on replacement merchandise," he stated. "And some stores are in the peculiar position right now of selling an item at their old pre-OPA price, when at the same time they have a shipment of new stock in the back room consisting of the identical article which will sell for a higher price."

"There will be no price gouging in Ord," Mr. Schoenstein stated. "The Chamber of Commerce has gone on record to keep things in line."

Butter, on which farmers had been receiving a 17 cent subsidy jumped to the full price of the subsidy Tuesday. Retail butter in Ord is now selling for 77 cents, and wholesaling for 72 cents. Butterfat is 70 cents for No. 1 and 67 cents for No. 2. Eggs are still 30 cents.

Groceries in Ord who had secured large stocks of butter before the raise were still selling at 64 cents Wednesday. Others who were not so fortunate were charging the full price.

Ord eating houses have taken mark ups on certain items on their menus, mainly steaks and chops. Meals which had an average cost of 50 cents a month ago are now costing 70 cents.

—Los Amigos bridge club met at the home of Mrs. D. B. McOstrich, with Mrs. Paul Armstrong and Mrs. Alex Cochran as guests. Mrs. Armstrong held high score.

Two Airplanes Purchased by Locals; Eight Planes at Local Field Sunday

Two new airplanes, a Luscombe Silveraire, purchased by Ellis Carson, and a Piper Club, purchased by the Ord Aviation Club, arrived at the Ord airport Sunday. A total of eight planes were on the field Sunday, several owned by Joe Koinzen of Elgin, airport manager. The picture above, by Ed Swopes, shows five of the group.

Mr. Carson has secured the dealership for Silveraire planes in this area. The Ord Aviation Club, a cooperative group, is composed of Ellis Carson, Charles Baylor, Ed Swopes, Chet Travis, Ken Peterson and Al Baker.

High Quality Wheat Rolling In This Week

Yield Will Be Higher Than Expected; Weight Is High, Moisture Low.

According to Fred Clark of the Farmers Elevator, the 1946 crop of wheat really began rolling in from the combines this week. A few tried it last week, but the moisture content was 17 to 18 percent and the weight 56 to 58 pounds per bushel.

Grain is allowed a 14% moisture content without docking, and all wheat now coming in is well under that amount. Best testing to date is some brought in by Emil Smolik, which tested 61 by weight and 11.75 in moisture content. The highest yield thus far mentioned was some raised by Henry Rachuy, which is running well over 20 bushels per acre.

At one time earlier in the season it was estimated that Valley county wheat would do well to make 20% of a normal crop. Now it seems that the yield will be nearer 50%, and the quality is far ahead of what was expected. The grains are generally small but firm, and of good milling quality.

Wilson and Son report that wheat is still a little slow with them, but that they expect a rush from now on. The wheat is mostly being combined, the quality is generally good. M. A. Bodyfield of Ericson brought in some which weighs 60 pounds per bushel and is fairly dry.

J. F. Clayton of Noll Seed company, says they are getting in some wheat and that the quality is pretty good, running 59 to 60 pounds per bushel. Albert Jones has started bringing in wheat from his 400 acres which weighs 61 pounds and is of nice quality. Irving King's wheat is also running as high as 61. The wheat is yielding 18 to 20 bushels per acre.

Homemakers For State Will Be Selected Soon

Contests Now On In 100 Counties In Iowa And Nebraska.

The campaign to select the leading rural homemakers for Nebraska and part of Iowa started officially July 6, when farm women in 100 counties were given ballots to indicate their choice. These women will be selected on the basis of the following score card: Homemaking, 50%; agriculture, 20%; community service, 20%; special accomplishments in 1946, 10%.

County agents, home demonstration workers, and other local sources will have nominating blanks and information folders for distribution to all the women in the 100-county area. Nominations may be sent in any time before November 1. The executive committee has requested that nominations be sent in as early as possible so all candidates may be studied carefully.

The county committees will make final selection of the rural homemaker for their county. The winners will receive an expense-free, one-day program in Omaha as guests of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce. Nomination blanks will be found in this week's issue of the Quiz in the advertisement of the Nebraska State Bank.

—Alyce Weaver of Omaha has resigned her job there and is now in Ord staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Robinson.

This is the dam which has been built on a farm owned by Archie Geweke four miles south of Ord. It is one of the projects which the AAA county committee has approved for a part of the $117,000 available to the farmers in Valley county for soil building practices.
The farm on which this dam is located is badly eroded. The land is hilly and should have never been broken up. Since he has acquired the farm Mr. Geweke has succeeded in getting part of the land seeded back to grass.
The dam serves two purposes, it prevents erosion and furnishes water for livestock. Last week when the picture was taken the dam had backed the water up for about a half mile up the creek. A spillway is built on the left side of the dam which scarcely shows in the picture.
To build this dam it was necessary to move 7,030 cubic yards of earth. The dam is 249 feet long, 110 feet wide at the base and 20 feet high. —photo by Swopes

This dam is located in the pasture of the Kenneth and Merle Koelling farm nine miles southeast of Ord. Its primary purpose is to furnish water for livestock. Last year the cattle overgrazed the grass near the well in the pasture and left that part of the pasture more distant from the well almost untouched. By supplying another source of drinking water, grazing is more equally distributed over the entire pasture. The dam is built near a point where two small streams meet and backs up water for a considerable distance on each fork after a heavy rain.
This dam is 186 feet long, 113 feet wide at the base and 18 feet high. Its construction required the removal of 4,590 cubic yards of earth. —photo by Swopes

I met a most interesting man recently in the person of Darrell Sheldon, son of Lou Sheldon of North Loup, and home for a visit with relatives and old friends. Although he has been away from North Loup for 22 years, he still retains a high regard for the village where he got his start in life. The older people will remember him as a piano player of unusual talent, who played with orchestras in those days. At present he is doing well in the real estate business in Kansas City, Mo. He and his wife were on the last leg of an auto trip which had taken them several thousand miles all over the South and West, and he talked very interestingly of his travels.

An Ord young man, more recently of Grand Island, likes the old home town so well that he visits here twice a day every day of the week. After doing his bit for Uncle Sam, Harold Williams returned to the states, and reported to his dad, W. F. Williams, for a job keeping the PCT busses in running order. However, he did not stay long in that job, and recently he was promoted to the job of running the morning bus up from Grand Island. His tough experience as a driver in the service certainly comes in handy now, and the passengers certainly like the way he handles the bus. They went away as boys, but they came back men, ready to accept a man's responsibility.

While on the subject of native sons, it may be news to quite a number of Ord people that Darrell Watson, a native son was recently transferred from California to Grand Island, where he is in charge of the Sears-Roebuck store there. Most Ordites will remember Darrell, a son of Charles S. Watson, who lived much of his life here and received his education in the Ord schools. Maybe the reason some of our young men leave Ord is that they are going places, both literally and figuratively, and they are not without honor, except in their own home town. Why can't we accept our young lads as men, the way strangers accept them?

Harl Eyerly of North Loup, is an old man in years, but he keeps young by keeping interested in the things he enjoyed when a young man. The writer rode to Ord with him Saturday morning, and he insisted on leaving by 9:30 a.m., because he said the circus parade was scheduled to take place at ten o'clock. We got to Ord, only to learn that the parade would take place at noon. Shortly after 12:30 the big parade did show up, and everything they had to parade with was six elephants. Haven't talked to Eyerly since, but I will bet he was plenty disappointed. They could at least have had a band for his special benefit!

SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT.
By John L. Ward

In the early eighties the Ord Quiz carried the ad of Vogeler and Meyer, who were partners in running an elevator in Ord. As to whether it was the first elevator in Ord, and where it was located, I cannot say. I do know, however, that the Vogeler, was William Vogeler who was the father of the present generation of Vogelers, and the Mayer was August H. Meyer, who died in Burlington recently after an extended illness. This leaves only two former advertisers in the Ord Quiz who ran their ads about that time, A. J. (Bud) Shirley, who had Jersey Red pigs for sale, and M. E. Getter, who made wells on occasion. But that was well over sixty years ago, and people just can't live forever.

Verle Leonard of North Loup didn't formerly believe in miracles but last week a little incident converted him. Some time ago his son lost a fine wrist watch on the school grounds, and Verle ran an ad in regard to it. As a result a lot of the school kids fairly combed the school ground, but failed to find the watch. So one evening after he had finished his work at the North Loup Cheese company, Verle went up to the school grounds himself, and to his due course he found the watch right where dozens of younger and sharper eyes had failed to find it. The watch was a gift sent from Cuba by an older brother, and so was highly prized.

Another incident which originated in North Loup recently caused quite a lot of amusement and kept the storekeepers busy explaining matters. The two stores agreed to remain closed all day, July 4, and Mills Hill was delegated to see that a suitable ad was placed in the Quiz. However, Mills overlooked a bet, and the ad appeared eight days before the Fourth, and merely stated that the stores would be closed all day Thursday, which was the day after the ad appeared. So many of the Quiz readers were duly surprised to find both stores

North Loup Loyalist

MRS. ETHEL HAMER, News and Business Representative.

Following is a condensed report of the activities of the North Loup Public Library for the past year, ending May 1, 1946. Business meetings held, 12, also 5 all day work meetings, when books were mended, magazines repaired and other necessary work done.

About 1400 books and 1000 magazines were loaned during the year. The anniversary tea in November was observed in the usual manner by a special donation of books and a silver offering, and also an interesting program presented by the school children.

A popular feature of the library at present is the memorial shelf which contains the choicest literature, with books presented by friends and relatives in memory of a loved one. About 75 adult and 40 childrens books have been added during the past year. Among these are Non Fiction, Burma Surgeon Returns, Angel Mo and Her Son, America in France, Woodrow Wilson an I Knew Him, Time For Each Other, Fiction—The Gauntlet and Skinny Angel. Childrens' Happy Birthday to You, Who Likes the Dark, Once There Was a Little Boy. An appreciated aid to the library financially the past three years has been proceeds from the Jubilee shop, amounting to more than $400.00. The library board wishes to thank all who have contributed to its support in this capacity. The board extends a sincere welcome and urges every one in the North Loup community to share in the benefits of the North Loup Public Library, which is after all, your library.

Loren Spaulding, New Richmond, Wis., motorist, is going to get back the $1 he sent to Minneapolis, Minn., police. He wrote that although he had not been given a ticket for parking overtime in the business district, he felt he owed the dollar. Police returned the money and told Mr. Spaulding that there was no charge of traffic violations against him.

—Mr. and Mrs. Kent Ferris and sons, Robert and Marvin returned Friday from a five-weeks trip which took them first to Chicago, where they attended his brother Otho's wedding, then west to Yellowstone park, to Boise, down the Columbia river drive, to Seattle and Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, then home by way of Albuquerque and Denver. They traveled a total of about 8,000 miles and found quite good driving all the way, except coming home through eastern Colorado and western Nebraska, when they drove in rain all night. Except for numerous blowouts, which cost him four tires, the trip was delightful.

—Mrs. R. C. Austin left on the bus Sunday morning to spend a few days visiting her sister at Auburn, Nebr.

—Mrs. John Sevenker left on the bus Saturday morning for Wilber, to spend a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles Sebek and family.

—On the morning bus Saturday was Willa Joyce Achen, going to Hastings to pay a visit to her sister, Patricia, who is a nurse there.

—Our story of the visit of Mrs. Anna Alfrey of Denver last week, was correct, but not complete. She did not come alone, but was accompanied by Mrs. Lou Boulin of Denver, who will be remembered best as Mrs. Lou Benda. She left Ord some 15 years ago, and came back to visit again the scenes of her youth. She found quite a number of the old friends she had left in Valley county. Mrs. Alfrey visited her brother, Joseph Prince, and sister, Mrs. Frank Zablouil, and other relatives and friends here. The two ladies left for Denver Friday morning.

—Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Hartsaw returned late Friday night from their wedding trip, which took them south from Indiana all the way to Clairmont, Fla., to visit the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hartsaw. They made it a point to visit during their trip of nearly 5,000 miles every state in the southeast, there being 18 of them in all. They spent some time at Smoky Mountain park, which contains the highest mountains east of the Mississippi river.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kessler were the guests of Mrs. Daisy Paddock and son, Clyde for a picnic dinner July 4. Walter Paddock of North Loup came up for the day, and the daughter, Evelyn and family completed the group.

My Own Column By H. D. Leggett

With Eugene at Cullen lake and Rex Wagner in California I am liable to get this column printed again this week. Not that it matters much, for probably I am the only one who reads it carefully, though John Ward may look it over to see if I have mentioned him, which of course I wouldn't think of doing.

And that reminds me that John went fishing one day last week. He was sneaking out the back way with Mrs. Wards goldfish bowl under his arm, easier, he thought, then digging bait, when she spied him and yelled, "Come back here John Ward." Hastily hiding the goldfish bowl under a rose bush, John went in and meekly inquired what was wanted. You are not going down town looking like that," and she handed him a pair of nicely laundered white trousers, and cautioned him not to get them mugged, as he would have to keep them nice to wear to the state convention.

Not wanting to tell his wife that he was just going fishing for fear she would want to go along, he put them on, watched his chance to rescue the goldfish, and hiked for the creek. Luck was with him and he had caught ten or more rather smallish bullheads, when they quit biting" and he moved to another hole where he found a nice, grassy shelf near the water where he spread a copy of the Quiz to sit on and protect those white pants and he set his pail of bullheads on the bank beside him. He had no more than dropped his hook into the 5-foot deep water than his bobber started to move across the creek.

Leaving it go what he thought was the right length of time, John set the hook and the fight was on. He soon yanked a mammoth bullhead out onto the bank and like bullheads will, it let go the hook and John saw that it was so close to the water that it was going to get away so he did a high dive and landed on top of Mr. Bullhead, but dangerously close to the edge of the water. In doing so he upset the pail and the little bullheads all escaped into the creek, John lost his hold on a handful of grass and he rolled into the drink, thus releasing the big bullhead that he was holding down and it also escaped. John looked himself over as best he could, wondered how he would ever get the mud off his convention pants, started for home, going as much as possible via back alleys and instead of fish, they had bread and milk for supper.

I wish to thank all the ladies who have written to ask me to send them an autographed copy of my cabbage gravy recipe, but I just cannot take the time to write so many out, I am sorry.

If Bill Maupin should get elected to the Unicameral it will be necessary to double the seating of the galleries in order to accommodate all of those who want to see the show and it will be worth the price of admission.

People have long kidded the plumbers about having to go back after their tools when called onto a plumbing job. Well, the present day carpenters have an equally efficient method of killing time in that long unwinding white ruler that they use. I have had lots of demonstrations. The boss carpenter will lay his other tools down, reach down to the little pocket on the leg of his trousers where it is carried, pull out the unwinding rule, solemnly begin to open it up to its full six feet.

When his helpers see the boss start this, each helper drops his tools and reaches for his own rule and by the time the boss has the board measured, the helpers have arrived, opening their rules as they come, and the performance is repeated by as many helpers as there are on the job. Then each one begins slowly and solemnly to refold the rule. Very often by the time the rules are put away the measurement is forgotten and the whole expensive performance has to be repeated. Some 55 years ago when I was a helper on a barn job, the head man grabbed his square and did the measuring and forgot it in the time it now takes to get the unwinding rule open.

An Open Letter To Our Friends Who Buy and Enjoy Coca-Cola and Seven-Up

This is not a discussion of whether OPA should have been allowed to expire or of whether or not OPA should be revived. This is a discussion of how the expiration of OPA will affect you in respect to Coca-Cola and Seven-Up.

Restrictions Continued

The death of OPA will not make it any easier for you to buy Seven-Up and Coca-Cola. Government restrictions on and the rationing of sugar continue as before. No more sugar is available NOW for your favorite beverages than would have been available had OPA been continued. Another government agency takes up administering these restrictions where OPA left off.

We do not know how long restrictions will continue and until they are lifted you will not be able to buy as much Coca-Cola and Seven-Up as you might like. You may rest assured, however, that you will continue to get the same superior quality in the Seven-Up and Coca-Cola you are able to buy that you have learned in the past to expect.

Holding the Price Line

As to prices, we wish to say that we feel very strongly that every manufacturer and every seller should do his utmost to hold the prices of his merchandise to a reasonable level; to impose upon HIMSELF a reasonable price ceiling, if you please.

In our own business the price of Coca-Cola and of Seven-Up has been stable for a long period of years. The price was no higher in March, 1942, when price ceilings were imposed, than it was in March, 1940, or March, 1933, for that matter.

Our price is the same today that it has been for more than a decade and a half. Seven-Up and Coca-Cola have attained immense consumer demand because of superior quality and because they have been, and still are priced within reach of all people, down to the child with only a nickel to spend.

We have not raised our wholesale price since price control was abolished and we do not intend to do so. We take this stand in spite of the fact that we are caught between the upper millstone of governmentally reduced volume and the lower millstone of steadily rising costs of materials and operation.

Should prices of all commodities get completely out of hand, as they did following World War I, it is conceivable that we might be compelled to revise prices upward. Be assured, no such step will be taken unless we are driven to it. We DON'T believe prices are going to get out of hand. We believe the American people are too wise to let that condition happen.

Since OPA expired we have discussed the price situation with a great number of the dealers from whom you buy your Coca-Cola and Seven-Up. We have found that the overwhelming majority are as anxious to maintain present prices on Seven-Up and Coca-Cola as you, no doubt, are desirous of having them do so.

Sincerely yours, Coca-Cola Bottling Company Seven-Up Bottling Company

Valley County Wheat Showing Splendid Gain

Yield and Quality Good; Oats and Barley Will Make Fair Crop.

Valley county grain raisers are being agreeably surprised at the results of their harvesting this year. All small grain looked bad in May and early June, and some fields were tentatively written off as a total loss. However, now that harvest is on, it is being found that nearly all crops are well worth cutting, and many fields are showing fine yields.

The best report on wheat to date is a field belonging to Lowell Jones which was still being cut at the time this was written, but on which the estimated yield is 33 bushels per acre. The weight of this wheat is 62 pounds per bushel, as reported by both Noll Seed Company and the Farmers Elevator, to whom he is consigning it.

Fred Clark of the Farmers Elevator reports that A. J. Ferris had a yield of 353 bushels of good quality wheat on a 22 acre side hill field, making the yield about 16 bushels per acre. For it he received a check for $566.00, making the field pay him at the rate of nearly $30 per acre, which is a good return on almost any land.

Bob Noll reports all wheat coming in the past week of good quality, of good weight and low in moisture content. Practically all of it is weighing out at 60 pounds or better, some at 61, Emil Kokes had some at 61½, and the Lowell Jones field at 62 is tops to date. He says the oats they have received is of fairly good quality, but barley is 43 to 45 pounds, when it should be 47 or better. He has received no rye.

Wilson and Son report yields running all the way from ten bushels to twenty-five. The weight is 60 pounds or better, and the quality is much better than they had expected. The past week the moisture content has been very low, some cases as low as ten percent. For them barley is just starting to come in and they have received no oats to date. Also they have no rye.

The Farmers Elevator reports that, while much of the grain is being combined, a lot is being cut and is in the shock. Some of this has been threshed and is yielding well. Some oats has been combined this year, with good results. Barley is pretty good in some fields, with yields all the way from ten to thirty bushels per acre.

Ed Timmerman brought in some extra quality oats which weighed 35 to 37 pounds per bushel. Anton Sydzik had some rye which weighed out the standard 56 pounds to the bushel. Fay Patrick has some rye just ready to combine Monday, which is rather late for the rye crop. He expected it to yield about ten bushels per acre. Most rye fields were a failure this year, due to the open winter and the late freeze.

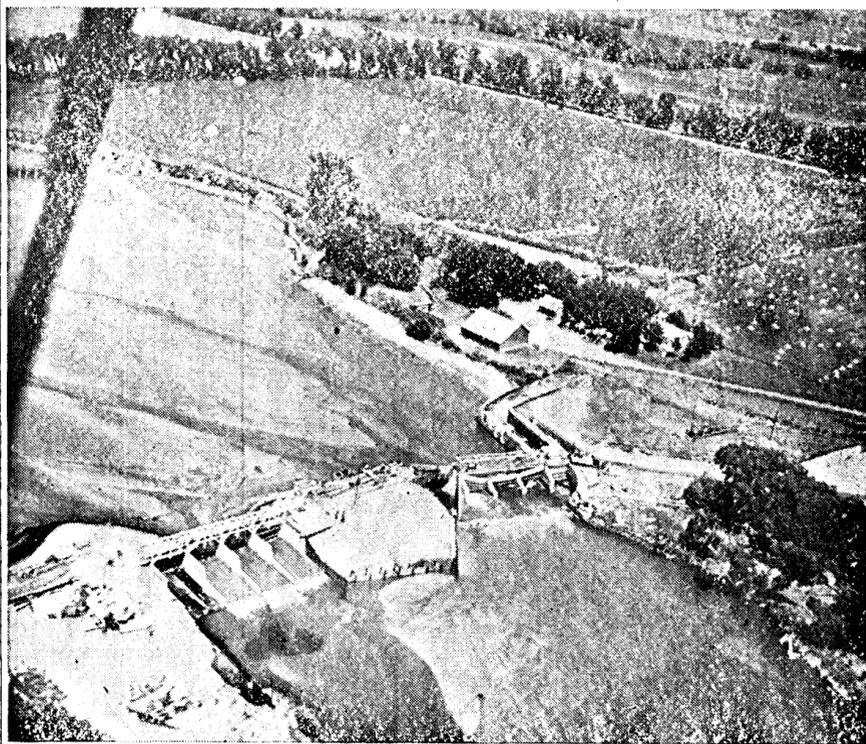

F. V. Haught Sells to Ivan Anderson

Freeman V. Haught has sold his express and light delivery business to Ivan Anderson. Since he took over the bookkeeping duties at Romans Transfer May 1, Mr. Haught turned over the delivery business to his oldest son, Bob. Bob will return to his school duties September first, and would not be able to take care of the business then. The younger son, Donald, will continue to handle his paper route as usual. Freeman has been handling the express business here for the past five years. Ivan Anderson is well known to most Ord people, as he formerly lived here. He was employed for several years on the section by the Union Pacific, and after leaving here had a similar job in Oregon. He and his wife and child returned from Oregon in April, and he has since been employed in the alfalfa mill. He is a brother-in-law of Frank Clark. At present they have rooms in the Dick Long home, and he has been trying for some time to find a house in which to live.

Loup Valley Dam At Burwell Breaks

More than fifty men have been working strenuous shifts since Sunday night when the spillway at the Loup river dam near Burwell washed out, and put an end to practical irrigation in this area for several weeks. M. S. Dodd, superintendent of the irrigation district hopes to have the break sealed with in a short time. The aerial photo by Ed Swopes shows the break in the spillway structure on the east end of the diversion dam. The smaller photo, below gives another view of the dam and shows the large storage area which is now a mud flat. The small dots along the road at the right are part of Mr. Dodd's sandbag crew. Hundreds of bags of sand were dumped into the nineteen foot hole left when the spillway washed out.

City Is Facing Real Emergency Getting Water

Facing Supply Problem Sand and Gravel Is Causing Trouble.

Since the emergency bridge was put in across the North Loup river last spring, the city has been having more or less trouble with the water supply. The depth of water at the intake just above the bridge is much less than it was, and as a result the pumps have been pumping a lot of sand and gravel.

City Manager George Allen says he believes that some of this sediment has accumulated in the supply line, thus cutting down the capacity. The pumps are being run as usual, in fact, more than usual, but the resultant flow of water is much less. The present is no time to make repairs or install the new pump, which is ready for installation, since the water supply must be maintained.

Mr. Allen states that the demands of water users have been heavier this summer than usual, and it has been increasingly difficult to keep an adequate supply on hand. He says a good rain would help the situation by making it unnecessary to use the water on yards and gardens. In the meantime everything possible is being done to increase the water supply.

As soon as conditions permit the intake pipe will be taken up and cleaned and the new pump will be installed, but this cannot be done until cooler weather arrives. At present no restrictions on the use of water are anticipated, but patrons are asked to see that no water is wasted. Cooperation with the water department should tide the city over the present emergency.

Hay Days Will Be Held Again

ATKINSON—After five years' abandonment because of the war, this "largest primary wild hay shipping point in the world" will hold a big "Hay Days" celebration again this year. Aug. 26 and 27 have been set as the dates.

The first "Hay Days" observation was held in 1940, diamond anniversary of the founding of Atkinson. The enthusiasm with which the event was attended surprised sponsors, who arranged an elaborate program for the 1941, and last, "Hay Days."

Features of previous celebrations included a historical parade, the world championship hay baling contest, and coronation of the hay queen. It is sponsored by a voluntary community organization known as the Balers' club, of which Charles Chace is chairman.

Ord Defeated by North Loup, 11-10

In a weird game at North Loup Sunday the Ord town team went down to defeat at the hands of the North Loup aggregation by a score of 11 to 10. All the way it looked like another victory for Ord and the team held a lead of 10 to 6 going into the ninth inning.

What happened then is something Manager Walt Douthit does not like to discuss. One hit combined with a comedy of errors and bonehead plays, enabled the lads from North Loup to tally five runs and put the game on ice. The gift was appreciated, and counts just the same in the team standings.

Weather Balloon Found at Hansen's

July 8 a weather balloon was found at the Bill Hansen farm. It had dropped in a field of growing wheat and so had escaped detection until the field was being harvested.

According to data found with it, this balloon had been released at the weather station at North Platte June 25, so it had been out two weeks when found. According to instructions the balloon was mailed to North Platte.

Local Talent For Loup Valley Fair

Premium Lists Ready For Distribution About First of August.

The premium lists for the 1946 Loup Valley Fair are in the hands of the printer and will be delivered to the fair board and ready for distribution about August first, according to the secretary, Carl C. Dale. A sufficient number are available for all interested persons in the territory, and every effort will be made to see that they are delivered.

An unusual feature of the fair program for 1946 is the fact that, aside from the auto races, the attractions will be practically all of local origin. It is believed that this will be beneficial to the fair in two ways, because most people are interested in seeing home talent perform, and most of the money paid out will stay in the community.

Everett Arnold, son of Leslie Arnold of Arcadia, will make a parachute jump from a plane each day in front of the grandstand. He is a former paratrooper with the 82nd Airborne, with 3 years experience with the paratroops. He jumped in Normandy on D-day, and took part in the airborne invasion of Holland.

Baseball will form a part of the entertainment. The Ord town team will cross bats on the first day with the fast aggregation from Greeley. On the second day the Ord American Legion Juniors will appear against a similar group from Scotia. These boys are heavy hitters, and the game will be a stellar attraction.

The calf scramble on the second day of the fair will attract a large number of young men. The fair association is buying a number of beef type calves, and Valley county farm boys who agree to feed out the calves as 4-H club members to show at the 1947 fair will be given an opportunity to catch and halter one of these calves. Each calf will become the property of the boy who is able to halter it and lead it out of the catching pen.

One of the attractions of the last day which is causing a lot of interest is the saddle horse show, in which a total of $206 in premiums is offered. This show will be held in the arena in front of the grandstands, and it is being predicted that there will be at least one hundred entries.

—Fredrick Schoenstein, 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schoenstein will undergo an operation for a brain tumor at the Clarkson hospital in Omaha next week. The little fellow has been unable to walk for about four months.

—Ellsworth Leonard cut the index finger of his left hand Sunday, and has been carrying it around in a bandage since then.

—Mrs. Clarence Davis and daughter, Beverly, are visiting her people at Springfield, S. D. Clarence took them there, returning home Sunday.

Republicans & Democrats Hold Conclaves Thurs.

County Delegates Are Chosen as Precinct Committeemen.

Thursday was the big day politically in Ord, for on that day both political parties held their county conventions and transacted the usual run of business to be disposed of at this time of year. Perfect harmony prevailed both morning and afternoon, and all business was disposed of in record time.

The democrats met in the district courtroom at ten a.m., with A. W. Pierce as chairman and R. W. Norman as secretary, both these offices being temporary. For the permanent officers the group chose Norman for chairman and Glenn L. Johnson as secretary. The county delegates were named as committeemen and women in their own precincts.

A resolution was adopted the essential features of which were that, since the successful conclusion of the war, the democratic way of life demands courageous and competent men in office and the democratic party has such candidates, for whom the convention pledged its wholehearted support. Due to the harvest there were only a small number present at the meeting.

The republicans met in the district court room Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. Temporary officers were Dr. F. L. Blessing, chairman, and Clarence M. Davis, secretary. Later on these same men were made the permanent officers, with Arthelia Ramsey of Arcadia as vice-chairman and C. W. Starr, also of Arcadia, treasurer.

A number of county precincts were not represented, but some, notably North Loup, Arcadia and Ord, first ward, were well represented. Quite a number of the delegates spoke when called upon, emphasizing especially the splendid prospects for a banner political year for the party in 1946. A warning was issued against the tendency of recent years to split the ticket.

In both conventions the procedure of having the county convention delegates act as precinct committee members was adhered to. Also the officers of the county central committees were given the authority to fill any vacancies that might occur in the committees. However, in the larger precincts the names on the republican roster are not always identical, the committee members for 1945 being continued in 1946.

Big Drop in Butter Sales Reported Here

Consumer sales resistance to the 77 cent local price of butter seems evident in the Ord area, with local stores reporting that butter sales have fallen way below normal. Retail sales of butter here are about one-third of what they were two months ago.

Ord grocers report some increase in the sale of butter substitutes. A great many consumers bought up small stocks of butter before the price raise which is believed to account for the big drop.

Ord's Juniors Are Heavy Batting Team

A study of the batting averages of Ord's Junior baseball team shows that they have the astounding team average of .450, when most senior teams feel lucky if they can average .300. At the rate they are hitting the ball the boys should cause plenty of grief to opposing pitchers for the rest of the season. Here are the individual batting averages:

	a. b.	r.	aver.
Cochrane	21	12	.571
Koll	21	11	.524

Nora Berrier Dies
Orin Kellison has received the word of the death last week in North Hollywood of his sister, Mrs. Nora Berrier, who formerly lived in Ord and will be well remembered here. Mrs. Berrier was born July 30, 1894, and was nearly 52 years of age at the time of her death.

She received her early education at Midvale, No. 15, and later attended and graduated from Ord high school. Her husband preceded her in death two years ago. She leaves three married daughters, all living in California, and two brothers, Orin Kellison of Ord and George Kellison of Glendale, Calif.

Dan Cupid Very Busy During June

According to the records in the office of John L. Andersen, county judge, the little fellow with the bow and the quiver of arrows had a busy time of it during the month of June, 1946. In fact, he was busier than usual for the entire six months ending June 30.

In June the Judge issued no less than 15 marriage licenses, which is a record in Ord for any month, it is believed. Checking back through the war years, we find that there were five marriages in June, 1945, six in 1944, only three in 1943, and 9 in 1942.

There were a grand total of 42 marriages in the first six months of 1946, as compared with 19 in the corresponding period of 1945. In fact, there were only 35 marriages in the entire year of 1945, or seven less than in the first six months of 1946. All of which indicates that Cupid was on vacation during the war, and is now making up for lost time.

Nebraska's Big Rodeo Expected To Set Records

Advance Seat Sales Heavy; Most Concession Space Sold.

Ed Sime, secretary for Nebraska's Big Rodeo, is having his hands full these days taking care of the high flow of correspondence in regard to the varying phases of the big show, which is scheduled for August 14, 15 and 16. This, the first show put on since the close of the World War, promises to exceed the record crowds of 1929 and 1930.

Today, with four weeks left until the rodeo opens, half the arena grandstand seats are sold, and more orders are coming in every day. The sale of these seats is a sure barometer of the interest the public has in the show, and they are selling faster and earlier now than for several years before the war, in fact, all will be sold out before the show opens.

The grandstand seats outside the track will not be placed on sale until later, but it is certain that the cowhands will contest before a capacity crowd. In line with the seating problem is that of furnishing accommodations for visitors who come from a distance and will want to remain several days. The housing problem is the one that the officials are finding difficult to handle.

In this connection Mr. Sime, President Manasil and the other officers are appealing for help from all the surrounding towns, as well as from those in the country who may have spare beds. It is certain that every spare room in a radius of fifty miles of Burwell will be needed to house the extra population during the rodeo. If you have spare rooms you are urged to notify Ed Sime, Burwell, giving number you can accommodate and price per room.

The executive board has arranged for one of the most interesting and expensive shows ever to be put on in Burwell, and they are certain that the public will be generous with its support, as it always has in the past. Offers of assistance in putting the show over are coming from all towns in this territory, but more help than ever will be needed to put the show over in 1946, and this assistance is heartily appreciated.

Ord Legion Will Sponsor Baseball

At a special meeting of Fidelity Post No. 38, American Legion, held at the hall Tuesday evening, plans were instituted for holding a baseball tournament at Ord in the near future, with perhaps six teams participating. The plan is to have teams from Ord and five neighboring towns enter this tournament.

As yet plans are very incomplete, but a committee has been appointed with authority to act, and they are contacting other towns this week. It is expected that all plans will be complete in time to give a full story in next week's Quiz. It is believed that such a tournament will be mutually beneficial to Ord and the participating teams.

County Men Honored

Kernit Erickson of Arcadia, who in June was elected head of the Grand Island Life Underwriters association, took over his new duties at a meeting of the group in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Grand Island Saturday. Quality awards given by the National Association of Life Underwriters were presented to Erickson, to Homer C. Sample of North Loup and to several other insurance men.

—L. D. Milliken has been out to his farm in the western part of the state for the past week looking after the grain harvest.

Foundation Now Laid for Ord's First Hangar

Erection of Building to Start Thursday; Ord Flyers Are Busy.

The foundation for the first hangar to be erected on Ord's municipal flying field was being laid Monday under the direction of George Allen, city engineer. As soon as the concrete is sufficiently dry, probably Thursday, erection of the building will begin.

Ed Swopes, who was absent last week when Examiner Barnett was in Ord, later flew to Elgin, where he took the written test for a private pilot's license. He then flew to O'Neill and received his flying tests and license from E. H. Barnett, private flying examiner.

The members of Ord's flying club will take turns each day during the World's Fair of Aviation and fly the company Piper Cub to Omaha. The dates for this fair will be July 18, 19, 20 and 21. As there are six members in the club, two will probably make the trip each day.

Bob Schmidt of Omaha drove to Ord and will spend a week here. His wife, the farmer Jerine Burrows, has been here for some time. Sunday Bob used the private license he recently received and, with Mrs. Burrows as a passenger, took a flight in Ellis Carson's Silverair.

Bud Auble and Ed Swopes will fly to Cheyenne, Wyo., July 25, to attend the Frontier fair days being held there at that time. Their special reason for going is that Bud's son, Elwin Auble, will be playing Sousaphone in the Union Pacific band, one of the fair's special attractions.

Jerry Petska took his check ride Sunday preparatory to taking his test flight this week under Mr. Barnett for the purpose of obtaining his private license. Last week Cork Biemond flew his father to Loup City to pick up some motion picture film. Sunday morning Vere Carson, Ted Slobazewski and Al Baker flew the company Cub plane and Carson's Luscombe to Elgin and back.

Rainfall Light for Ord and Vicinity

Weather man Horace Travis has little to report in the way of rainfall here for the past week. The only rain came late Tuesday afternoon and evening and measured 14 of an inch. The temperature for the past week has been sultry, but a little below normal, and corn is not suffering noticeably as yet. Mr. Travis believes that about the same conditions prevail at Arcadia.

North Loup and the southeastern part of Valley county was more lucky. In town the Monday night's rainfall measured .53, and that of Tuesday night was .56, or a total of 1.09 inches. This puts the corn crop out of any immediate danger.

While little rain fell here, the dampness in early morning has interfered with the harvest which is not yet half completed. In most cases about half the time has been lost this week where combining is being done. Where the grain is being cut and bound less time has been lost.

Ord Team Loses to Ravenna, Sunday

Ord visited Ravenna Sunday and the Juniors ouit their hosts by seven to four, yet lost the game by a score of 13 to 7. John Hannah, who pitched the entire game for Ord, was wild at times, but had the hit situation well in hand, while the Ord lads could not cash in on the seven hits, which were well scattered.

Except in the first inning, in which Ord gained a lead of three to nothing, the local team did not do so well. However, the infield consisting of Cochrane, Blessing, J. Stoddard and Koll, played a fine game, and P. Stoddard, catching his first league game, did a fine job. Blessing got three hits out of four trips to the plate, while Hannah got two out of three.

Ord Firemen to Hold Cow Dance

The Ord Volunteer Fire department has its plans complete for the Cow Dance which they will hold at the Bohemian hall Thursday, Aug. 1. The dance is being given to augment the funds already raised for the purchase of rural fire equipment, the amount of which is already well past the half way mark.

The firemen appreciate the courtesies extended them in regard to putting on this dance, especially the kindness of W. O. Zanger in making them a special price on the Hereford heifer which is to be given away to the holder of the lucky ticket on the night of the dance.

SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT.
 By John L. Ward

One of the things that I notice is very different indeed is the general arrangement of the Quiz office every time I come back to work. After being off for three months, I went back recently to find several new people at work, to find a number of machines in new locations, to find men changed around and handling different jobs than they held 90 days ago. The west wing, just being occupied then, is full to capacity, and no doubt the new east wing will be full in three months from now.

That is the way with the world. You cannot go away for any length of time and find everything as you left it when you return. If you do, you may be sure that no progress is being made. The Quiz was just a pup when I was born, in fact only nine months old. I remember when everything in the office was had set. Later on Haskell got in two of those marvels of mechanical ingenuity, the type-setting machines. The chief trouble with them was that they tied up too much type. Then came the linotypes.

Today the Quiz has three of them and they are busy all the time. Today, besides the old press on which the Quiz is printed, there are four hand fed and three automatic presses, and they are busy most of the time. Then there are all kinds of machines and gadgets, each with its own particular use. The Quiz today employs three times as many people as it did when I first came here to work ten years ago, and the next ten years will mean more than the past ten has. Yes, the Quiz turns loose a sizeable payroll every week, and it all makes for a bigger and a better Ord. Watch them both grow.

I remember hearing a noted lecturer in Ord many years ago, who pulled a clever "Bull" and got away with it. In fact, I sometimes think he may have intended it just the way it sounded. He said: "Too many people are making great plans for what they will do in the future. They are forgetting the all important fact that there is no future like the present". It might be well if we would all keep saying to ourselves: "For me there is no future. All that I am certain of doing is what I am doing now." The cemetery is filled with potentially great men who never got around to the job of becoming great.

A month or so ago we were bemoaning the fact that the wheat crop would be very short. In fact, some estimates cut it to about one fifth of a normal crop. Now the crop is being harvested, and we find that we are getting at least fifty percent of a crop, and what is more to be desired, the crop is of good quality, most of it suitable for making into flour. Yes, while we are talking about the cemetery, we might remember that a lot of people got there worrying about things that never happened. A lady friend worries because her hair is getting gray. Her husband worries because he has no hair.

A young man worries because he is bothered with athlete's foot. Some men have no feet at all, and they get along. A woman worries because she is 25 years old and not married yet, and her older sister worries about what she will cook to satisfy the appetites of her ten children. A married man worries because his wife is angry and won't speak to him, and his neighbor is thinking of getting a divorce because his wife talks all the time. A Scotchman worries because he has lost a nickel, and an Irishman worries because he has just lost ten thousand dollars playing the board of trade.

Frankly, there is nothing in the world worth worrying about. The world is only a temporary affair at the best, and it will all pass away some time. When that time comes, there will doubtless be a lot of people standing around worrying about where they are going to go and what they can take with them. If they only would make their preparations ahead of time, as we all have been warned to do, they would not have anything to worry about. But it seems that most people cannot be happy unless they have something to worry about. As for me, I'll now start worrying about what to write for this column next week.

Death Calls Two County Residents During Past Week

Mrs. Rosalie Smolik and Joe Mike Novotny Died Here.

Joseph Mike Novotny was born March 27, 1875, at Lucice, Czechoslovakia, and was 71 years, 3 months and 16 days of age at the time of his death, which occurred at 11:45 a.m. at a local hospital July 13. Mr. Novotny came to Valley county direct from his native land when he was thirty years old.

Ever since coming here he had lived on a farm north and west of Ord until 1942, when he moved to Ord. In 1905 he was married to Mary Margaret Mrazek. To them six children were born, Mrs. James Lipert of Plattsmouth, James, John and Mrs. Mary Koudek, all of Omaha, Mrs. Lillian Walshleger of Cassopolis, Mich., and one son, Joe Jr., who preceded him in death in 1938. Also 11 grandchildren, many other relatives and a host of friends.

All the children were present to attend the funeral, which was held Monday at 9:30 a.m. from the Ord Catholic church, Rev. Thomas Siudowski in charge of the services. The rosary was at the Hastings & Pearson Chapel at 8 p.m. Sunday. The pall bearers were Frank Kokes, sr., Charles Kokes, Joe Beran, John Parkos, Frank Bruha and Joseph Vala. Hastings and Pearson had charge of arrangements. Burial was in the Ord Catholic cemetery.

Rosalie Smolik Mrs. Rosalie Smolik was born Feb. 26, 1861, in Budjovice, Czechoslovakia, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Hanousek. She came to the United States at the age of 20 years, living in Hall county one year and then taking a homestead in her own name in Geranium township. In November, 1883, she was married to Joseph Smolik, and for a time they lived on her homestead.

In 1898 they moved on a farm near Woodman hall and moved to Ord in 1912. In 1918 they were forced to move back to the farm because of sons leaving for the armed forces. In 1924 they moved back to Ord again, where Mr. Smolik passed away in 1934. Six years ago she moved in with a daughter, Mrs. John Hruby, west of Ord, and 4 1/2 years ago she went to live with her son, Lou, also west of Ord.

July 1, Mrs. Smolik fell and broke her hip, and was brought to the Ord Hospital, where she passed away Saturday evening. She was a member of the Ord Catholic church, from which services were held Tuesday at 9:30 a.m. The pastor, Rev. Thomas Siudowski was in charge. The rosary was at Hastings and Pearson chapel Monday night at 8 p.m., they having charge of arrangements.

Six of her grandsons acted as pall bearers. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Mary Hruby of Arcadia, Mrs. Anna Klancek of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Clara Drozda; five sons, John of Sargent, Joe and Frank of Burwell, Lou of Ord, and Phillip of Wolbach; also 32 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren. One son, Rudolph, passed away in infancy.

THE throaty roar of the sturdy, two-cylinder engines of the John Deere Tractors goes on and on. Weary operators climb down, others take their places. Through dawn, dusk, and midnight—twenty-four hours a day—three shifts keep the tractors lurching down gullies, clinging to slopes, streaking along level terrain.

The scene is the testing grounds for the famous John Deere two-cylinder tractor. Here that tractor will get such continuous grueling operation as it would never receive in the farmer's possession.

When that test is finished, engine will be torn down, parts disassembled. Was there excessive wear on this part? Did any weaknesses appear? Could any part be improved? The answer to these questions—and many more that engineers ask—are all revealed by these exhaustive tests.

All John Deere farm equipment is subjected to similar searching tests in the field. It is a part of the over-all policy that guides the entire John Deere organization.

Rev. Samuel Mitchell officiated at the marriage of Irvin Steffan, and Thelma Jean Burton at the Methodist church in Scotia Sunday at one o'clock in the afternoon. Attendants were Miss Betty Burton, sister of the bride and Loren Steffan, brother of the bridegroom. Miss Shirley Oliver was maid of honor. The bride was given away by her father, John Burton. A reception for the immediate family and a few close friends was given in the church basement following the ceremony. The couple left for a weeks honeymoon in Denver. Both young people are well known in North Loup, but Mr. Steffan lived a few years ago in the district 46 neighborhood and attended high school in North Loup. He has been serving in the army but now has his discharge.

Seventy-Five Pound Boy Runs Tractor

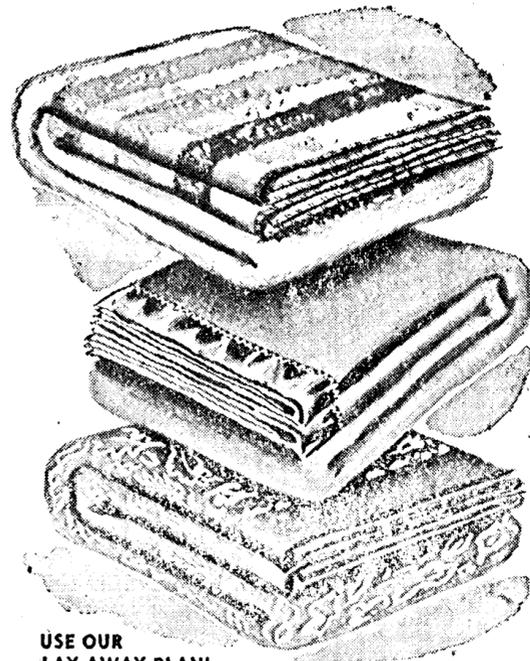

It will take more than a broken back to keep the eighty acres of corn on the Martin Rasmussen farm a mile northeast of Ord from being a bumper crop this fall.

That is, if the efforts of Mrs. Rasmussen, and their 12 year old boy, LaVerne mean anything. When Mr. Rasmussen fractured a vertebrae in his back after a bad fall May 20, his wife and son were faced with the job of seeing that the farm was cared for. And with a little help from the neighbors, they did the job.

The picture above, taken in the Rasmussen corn field shows Mrs. Rasmussen guiding an irrigation ditcher, while LaVerne, who weighs only 75 pounds, and barefooted as usual, runs the tractor. Mr. Rasmussen, his back in a cast, helps direct operations as best he can. Other operations on the farm include the care of 7 acres each of alfalfa and red top clover and 25 acres of small grain. LaVerne's dog, Pal, is his constant companion while he is in the field. L. J. Auble's bull dog, Toby, enjoys a stay at the Rasmussen farm occasionally, and insists on riding the tractor with LaVerne. —Photo by Swopes to the people who trade in Ord that with or without the O. P. A. our prices on retail merchandise will remain as low as it is possible to permit our stores to operate.

THE RETAIL MERCHANTS OF ORD

Here is our five point program to fulfill our pledge

- 1 Ord merchants have built a confidence well earned from their customers by offering in the past the best quality merchandise obtainable at the lowest price to draw trade to this town. This policy will continue.
- 2 Ord Merchants must depend on the repeat trade of their customers. To earn this repeat trade that has often extended over the life of a business fair dealing is foremost. To earn this repeat trade fair dealing must continue.
- 3 Ord merchants will refuse to deal with wholesalers offering hard-to-get items at exorbitant prices. Stores doing this are just trying to attract customers in an effort to fleece them on these hard to get items.
- 4 Ord merchants as in the past will in the future stand behind the merchandise in their stores. We will not misrepresent our merchandise to make a sale. Fly by night merchandise cannot replace known brand goods.
- 5 Ord merchants will carefully judge all merchandise before it is ordered and continue to keep their stores as well stocked as they are able with the goods that the customers want and need. When this crisis is over we want to continue to serve you.

Customers that continue to trade with merchants they know and trust will do much to ward off wild inflation. Merchants and customers working together can protect each other.

This dam is one of the three which has been built on the Emil Bonne farm nine miles southwest of Ord. These dams are preventing the enlargement of gullies which were developing rapidly in some of the larger fields of the farm when Mr. Bonne acquired it. The impounded water may also be used for livestock if so desired. This dam is 120 feet long, 60 feet wide at the base and 10 1/2 feet high. To construct it 1,170 cubic yards of earth were removed. —photo by Swopes

This picture shows another practice for which soil building payments may be earned, that of contour listing. This picture was taken on the Brickner farm six miles southwest of Ord. The place is farmed by Elmer Penas. Too often lister rows formerly formed right of ways through which the water rushed following heavy rains, getting to places where it did the corn no good and often aggravating flood conditions on the Missouri and Mississippi. These contoured furrows held the water which came in the heavy rains last week. It was absorbed by the soil where it will benefit the corn later. The fertile top soil is also kept from washing away. —photo by Swopes

OLD TIMES

Yes, it's just about like old times around our market again. Of course, we haven't hardly been able to keep up with the demand, but the way things are shaping up we'll soon be able to supply you with anything you want in the meat line.

Of course, one of the reasons that we haven't been able to keep up with demand is that we're pretty choosy about what kind of beef and pork on the hoof we buy. Our customers get only the best—it's none too good for them.

The war record of the 23-year-old twin Sebers, Byron and Bernard, is as follows: Enlisted in the air forces together, trained in Texas and Ohio, went overseas, participated in the Bismarck Archipelago, New Guinea and the Philippine campaigns, were awarded the same ribbons, were on Okinawa when the Japanese surrendered, returned to the United States, were discharged and returned to their home in Leavenworth, Kan., together.

Grains

With good supplies of grain going into the markets we are having a little lower prices on most grains than last week; but we will pay you the highest price possible for grains that you have to sell. It seems from the grain markets that supply and demand will take care of the price in pretty good shape. If you need trucks let us know and we will try to have trucks at your place when you want it.

Sweet Clover and Alfalfa Seed

We are in the market for alfalfa and sweet clover seed and if you have any to sell bring it in and we will treat you right on it. At present there appears to be a very large crop of Sweet Clover Seed this year and the large markets are bidding less than the former O. P. A. Ceiling price on this seed. There appears to be a very strong demand at present for alfalfa seed and the AAA payment makes alfalfa seed a very good crop.

Flour

We have a good stock of Mothers Best Flour on hand and the price is attractive.

Poultry Feeds

We are able to supply you with more grains for feeds. We have cracked corn, ground barley as well as whole corn, barley and oats. Our line of poultry feeds is very complete. Get your supply now.

Ord's Population Drops According To School Census

Reports Show 2,111 Reside Here Now; 2240 in 1940; 90 Less Children.

Even though a number of families are frantically looking for four walls and a roof to shelter them from the elements, the school census which was completed last week reveals that Ord has suffered a small decrease in population. The present population according to the school census is 2,111 while the 1940 federal census showed 2,240 people in Ord. Miss Viola Puncocar who took the census visited every habitation in the school district. She also secured the names of the persons living in the business district, those of men and women serving in the armed forces and others who are temporarily employed elsewhere, but the school census may possibly omit some names which are included in the federal census.

Checked Carefully

The list as compiled by Miss Puncocar has been very carefully checked by Superintendent C. C. Thompson who believes that it will be very difficult to find a person residing in Ord whom Miss Puncocar has omitted. Reports filed in the county superintendent's office show that in 1940 the school census listed 2,307 residents for the school district. The school district census includes some rural residents who would not be included in the Ord federal census.

The school census shows that Ord now has 500 children between the ages of five and twenty-one. In 1940 the school census showed 590 children. This accounts for most of the decrease in Ord's population during the last six years.

The school census for Valley county shows that there are 1,533 persons residing in the county between the ages of five and twenty-one years. There should be few old maids in Valley county in the future for the census shows there are 770 boys but only 763 girls.

Fewer Teachers

The school census shows a big drop from that of 1940 when the county had 1,994 persons between the ages of five and twenty-one. In 1940 Valley county had 118 teachers and in 1946 it had 102 teachers. Sixteen men taught school in Valley county in 1940 but by 1946 this number dropped to five.

A brighter picture is shown in the number of rural children who attend high school. The reports in Miss McClatchey's office indicate that in 1940 240 children attending high school in Valley county received free tuition while in 1946 the number increased to 302. In 1940 118 children completed the eighth grade in the rural schools of Valley county and in 1946 only 78 pupils were graduated from the rural schools.

In 1940 the total of the bonded indebtedness for all Valley county schools was $213,000. This year it has decreased to $151,000. In 1940 Valley county had 71 school districts. It now has 70 as the people in one district largely moved away and the land in the district was divided among the adjoining districts.

Salaries Low

There are 72 school houses in Valley county of which five are brick and the remainder are frame. Two of the brick school houses are in Ord and the other two are in North Loup and Arcadia. One rural school boasts of a brick school house.

In 1946 the average of the salaries paid the rural teachers in Valley county was $1,066.17. In 1940 the average wage of the Valley county rural teachers was $439.50. About a third of the rural teachers in Valley county in 1946 had only temporary certificates. Miss McClatchey reports. She believes that the low wages are largely to blame for this as it is hardly financially possible for the teachers to attend college for advanced training on their present or past salaries.

Dear Sirs:

I want to thank you for the fast results of having my Model A advertised in this week's paper. Yesterday, as soon as the QUIZ was out there in Ord I had a call about the car and before seven last night another party came from Ord and bought it. The Quiz surely gets the buyers. Thank you!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Henry Payton,
Scotia, Nebr.

Many Go to Omaha To See Air Show

Many Ordites were among the more than one hundred thousand people who attended the World's Fair of Aviation held in Omaha the last three days of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Swopes flew to Omaha to attend the show Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Al Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Carson, Vern Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jewett, P. O. Petersen, Calvin Petersen, Merritt Wright and Bill Wright attended the show Sunday. Other Ordites who took in the exhibition were Cork Biemond, Crawford Mortensen, Marguerite Wozniak, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hatfield.

John Norman Dies Of Heart Attack While in Theater

Ord Man Found Lifeless At Close of Sunday Night Show; Rites Tuesday.

John Allen "Brick" Norman died peacefully Sunday evening of a heart attack while attending the Ord theater. At the close of the show the usher noticed him in his seat and believing that he had fallen asleep discovered he was dead when he attempted to awaken him. Dr. Barfa was immediately called. It is believed that death came sometime between 10:30 and 11 o'clock.

"Brick" as he was generally known made countless friends in Ord who were shocked by his untimely passing. He had lived all his life in Ord and for the last fifteen years he had been employed in the Ord hotel.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon by Rev. K. Edgar Harris in the Hastings-Pearson chapel. Interment was in the Ord cemetery with Herschel McGrew, Bud Martin, Raymond Cronk, Thomas Williams, Hugh Carson and Freeman Haight serving as pallbearers.

John Allen Norman was born in Ord Nov. 17, 1911 to Alexander and Nina Norman. He attended the Ord schools and attained manhood here. He was baptised and made a member of the Christian church in Ord as a boy.

For many years he and his brother, Dale, have made their home with their blind and invalid mother doing all in their power to make her comfortable and happy. His father and a brother, Percy, preceded him in death. He leaves his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Ruth Anderson of Arcadia and Mrs. Hazel Hall of Ord, three brothers, Dale of Ord, Wayne of O'Neill and Ralph of Ord, and two half brothers, George of Omaha and Frank of Ord.

Ord Juniors Lose to Loup City 11-10

The Ord Juniors lost a hard fought baseball game to Loup City at Loup City Sunday by a score of 11 to 10. Ord out hit Loup City but too many of the local boys were stopped short of the home plate. Hannah and Anderson pitched for Ord. Dahlin was the heavy hitter for the local team.

Ord played its last league game with North Loup there Wednesday afternoon. To date Ord has won four games and lost five to rate third place in the league.

Dam at Burwell Defies Efforts Of Repair Crew

Dodd Hopes to Have Water In North Side Canal By Friday or Saturday.

The frantic efforts of the crew of more than fifty men who have been working night and day to repair the dam at Burwell since it broke July 14 were still unsuccessful Wednesday noon. M. S. Dodd, superintendent of the North Loup Valley Irrigation district told the Quiz Wednesday noon that work was progressing satisfactorily and that he hoped to have water in the Burwell-Sumter canal by Friday or Saturday.

Farmers whose crops have been suffering from the lack of water have left their work to aid M. S. Dodd, superintendent of the irrigation district, in his efforts to seal the break. About 5,500 acres under the Burwell-Sumter canal were left without water at a time when moisture was most essential for a corn crop, when the dam broke July 14.

Some of the corn is believed to be irreparably damaged. That on alfalfa ground suffered the worst. Corn which can not be irrigated suffered badly throughout the county for want of moisture. The leaves curled and in some instances burned white.

Hopes of a good rain early Tuesday morning failed to materialize. Ord experienced a few loud claps of thunder, a few flashes of lightning, but Horace Travis reports only .01 of an inch of rain fell. The heat was broken, however. The high temperature for the week was recorded Monday when the mercury climbed to 98 degrees.

Auxiliary Buys Equipment From Sale of Magazine Subscriptions.

On display in the window of the Fafaita furniture store are the hospital bed and the wheel chair which the American Legion auxiliary purchased through the sale of magazine subscriptions. This equipment is available without charge for the use of any one in the county needing such devices and may be obtained by making application for their use to the auxiliary.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be Aug. 6 and it is important that as many members as possible attend as delegates must be elected to attend the district meeting to be held in Scottsbluff Aug. 26, 27 and 28.

Loup City Boosters Coming

Loup City's Fair and Warmer Booster Club, promoting the Sherman County Fair to be held August 6-7-8-9, will be in Ord next Tuesday, July 30, at 6:00 p.m., according to Bill Vodehnal, secretary. The stop in Ord is a part of the Club's three-day tour of central Nebraska advertising the coming fair.

Ord Children Receive First Holy Communion

Shown here are the fourteen children, who received their First Holy Communion at the 7:30 o'clock mass in Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, the altar boys and the children who participated in the procession at the close of the religion vacation school Sunday, July 14. The pastor, Rev. Thomas Studowski officiated and delivered an inspiring sermon on the sublimity of the occasion. He admonished the children to receive the Holy Eucharist often and to keep very near to Jesus.

The ceremonies began with a procession led by the altar boys, followed by little girls in white formal and carrying gladiolas, little boys dressed in white suits and girls dressed in white capes and blue berets. The altars were beautifully decorated with white gladiolas donated for the occasion by Mrs. Jgn. Pokraka.

After mass the entire communion class was enrolled in the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The religion classes were conducted by Sisters Mary Borgia and Mary Fabian, both of Chicago, who are shown in the picture. The total enrollment was 110 and the children were very faithful in their attendance.

Rites for Frank Hasek Wednesday

Farmer Dies Friday After Illness of Two Years; Burial at Omaha.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Filipi of Clarkston Wednesday afternoon in the Ord Bohemian hall for Frank Hasek, who died at his home Friday morning after being in failing health for two years. Joseph and James Vasicek, Frank Polak, Frank Fryzek, Rudolph Kerchal, and Frank Adamek served as pall bearers. Interment will be at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the Bohemian National Cemetery in Omaha. Hastings and Pearson have charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Hasek was born Oct. 29, 1887 at Klucov, Czechoslovakia and lived to attain the age of 58 years, 8 months and 21 days. At the age of fourteen he went to Vienna to learn the shoe making trade and later followed this business in Prague.

When twenty years old he came to America and worked in the coal mines in Pennsylvania. Two years later he went to Omaha where he was married to Anna Kymil Oct. 1, 1910. Mr. and Mrs. Hasek made their home in Omaha until 1921 when they moved to a farm in Custer county. Later they moved to Valley county.

He leaves a widow, a son, Frank, who is in the army, three daughters, Mrs. Steffie Parkos of Ericson, Mrs. Sylvia Novotny of Omaha, and Mrs. Jean Svacina of Ord, eight grandchildren, a sister, Mrs. John Daupnik of Thurston, Nebr., and a brother Josef of Czechoslovakia from whom no communication has been received since the war. Two sons and a brother, John, preceded him in death. Mr. Hasek was a member of the Ord Z.C.B.J. lodge.

Butter and Cream Off; Demand Slow

Retail price of butter in Ord has dropped to 68 cents as compared with a high of 77 cents last week. Demand continued to be slow, and local manufacturers and retailers think the price will slide somewhat lower. Butterfat prices have dropped to 65 cents from the last week's high of 70 cents.

E. H. Barnett Is Tendered Airport Manager Contract

Lincoln Man, CCA Examiner Proves Popular Choice For Ord Job.

E. H. Barnett, Lincoln has been tendered the contract of manager-ship of the Ord airport and has verbally accepted according to Dr. F. L. Blessing, chairman of the city council committee in charge of the airport. "We think Barnett will prove a popular choice," Dr. Blessing told the Quiz. "He is not only a qualified instructor and manager, but in addition is a CCA examiner. Most of the boys here in Ord who have received their private license have been examined by Barnett. That means that most of the flyers in this sandhill area who want licenses will probably fly to Ord to take their final test."

"Barnett is a former automobile race driver, and will prove a valuable addition to the city in assisting with work at the annual Loup Valley fair. He is well acquainted with drivers and race track practices over the middle west."

The contract for manager-ship had been previously offered to Walter Koinzen of Elgin but was withdrawn when Koinzen found it impossible to move his residence and equipment here. Barnett, who is single, will shortly take up his residence in Ord. He is the owner of two planes, and will establish a flying school here, as soon as work on runways at the airport is completed.

Under terms of the council's contract, the airport manager is given the exclusive right to sell gasoline, service planes, etc. at the airport. From these sales the council receives three percent of the gross sales as rental, and three percent of the net profits on sales of airplanes. The rental fees will be used for maintenance and improvements at the airport.

Grading and packing of runways at the airport is proceeding on schedule. Foundation for the first hangar, a large Quonset hut purchased largely from donations by Ord business and professional men, is in place, and erection of the hangar expected shortly. Engineer's plans for the port call for the erection of a similar hangar about a hundred yards north of the first one, and an administrative and executive building about halfway between. A gravel drive connecting the three buildings and highway entrance and exits is also planned.

Rites Saturday for Mrs. Carl Schmidt

Death Comes to Ord Woman Thursday After Many Months of Illness.

Mrs. Carl Schmidt died in the Ord hospital July 18 after an extended illness. Funeral services were conducted in the Hastings-Pearson chapel Saturday afternoon by Rev. K. Edgar Harris. Mrs. Mark Tolson sang three of Mrs. Schmidt's favorite hymns with Mrs. Orin Kellison playing the accompaniment on the organ. Interment was in the Ord cemetery with Ed Zikmund, Anton Guggenmos, Albert Parkos, George Benn, Ellsworth Ball and Lloyd Wilson serving as pall bearers. The Rebekah lodge conducted the services at the grave.

Lela May Canfield Schmidt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Canfield, was born Oct. 29, 1887 at Bidwell, Ia. She lived to attain the age of 58 years, 8 months and 19 days. Mrs. Schmidt came to Ord as a young woman in 1909 three years after her parents had located in this community.

On Feb. 1, 1910 she was married to Carl Frederick Otto Schmidt. The Schmidts spent the years of their married life near Ord. Mrs. Schmidt was baptised and united with the Christian church in Ord of which she was a member for many years. Ill health which prevented her attendance at services did not alter her faith. She was an active member of the Rebekah lodge.

She leaves her husband, her mother, Mrs. Lillie M. Canfield and a sister, Mrs. Bessie Timmerman all of Ord, two other sisters, Mrs. Josephine Johnson and Mrs. Doretha Geseking both of Ottumwa, Ia., four brothers, Palmer Canfield of Ericson, Leslie Canfield of Long Beach, Calif., Milo Canfield of Burbank, Calif., and Harold Canfield of Terminal Island, Calif.

—Ben Eberhart took a vacation from his many duties at the Quiz plant last week and went to North Platte where he visited his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Eberhart. His son recently purchased an irrigated farm two miles southwest of North Platte.

Ord Wins From Ericson 13-7, Early in Game

Towners Make 13 Runs in First 3 Innings; Next Game at Scotia.

The Ord Towners scored 13 runs in the first three innings and then coasted to victory over Ericson here on Sunday, 13-7.

Ord scored four runs in the first, six in the second and three in the third to send R. Beran to the showers.

The Ericson team proved that they were still in the ball game when they pounced on B. Stull in the fourth inning for six runs.

D. Patrick replaced R. Beran on the mound for Ericson in the fourth and held Ord scoreless the rest of the game and giving them only one hit, striking out 10.

B. Novosad took over the pitching chores for Ord in the fifth inning and pitched some superb ball, striking out 11 in five innings.

Furtak led the Ord attack with three hits in five trips to the plate. S. Stull belted a round-tripper for Ord, while Fryzek and Barnes came through with doubles.

R. Beran and Foster clouted a double apiece to help the Ericson cause.

Next Sunday Ord will meet Scotia at Scotia.

Arcadia Nips Elba In Ninth

Arcadia scored one run in the last half of the ninth inning Sunday to down Elba 7-6 in a Loup Valley league game here.

The winning marker was scored by Gogan who beat out a perfect bunt to open the inning, then stole second and scored on Paben's single.

Arcadia jumped into an early lead with one run in the first and three in the second but Elba made it 4-2 with a two-run attack in the fifth. Arcadia got another in the sixth but Elba came back with four in the top of the seventh to grab a 6 to 5 lead.

Arcadia, however, knotted the count with a single run in the last half of the same inning.

U. P. Would Pull Off Sunday Train

Persons Interested Should Contact Commission By August 2.

An application for authority to discontinue the Sunday train from Grand Island to Ord has been made by the Union Pacific Railroad company. The state railway commission will hold a hearing on the matter Aug. 2 and persons interested in this application either in supporting it or opposing it should communicate with the railway commission before that time.

Railroad officials declare that they can effect a substantial saving by discontinuing this service. The principle service which the Sunday train renders Ord is on shipments of livestock to Chicago. Feeders like to have their stock arrive on the market early in the week and stock for the Chicago market usually leave on the Sunday train.

The hearing on the application of John E. Neylon of Lincoln to operate three airlines in the state, one of which would serve Ord has been postponed. The hearing was scheduled for July 24. Mr. Neylon has requested a longer time to prepare his application brief.

Flower Show At North Loup Will Be Held July 31

Growers Everywhere Eligible To Enter; Many Special Prizes Offered.

An attractive array of prizes has been provided by the members of the Fortnightly club for the flower show which they are sponsoring in North Loup July 31. The public is invited to attend the display. No admission will be charged for the show which will be held in the Community hall. The doors will be opened at 8:30 and all exhibits must be in place by noon.

The public is asked to view the display from 2 o'clock until 10 o'clock in the evening. Any one having any flowers is urged to bring them to the exhibit, which is open to every one. A short program will be given in the afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 8 o'clock. A different film will be shown at each program. Both programs will be followed by a ten cent tea. There will be a table of flowers for sale.

A gallon of wax and an ironing board cover will be given as door prizes. The person bringing in the most entries will receive a 24 pound sack of flour. The person bringing an entry from the greatest distance will be given two dollars in trade. The person entering the most unusual arrangement will be given some frozen foods. The person entering the most outstanding arrangement in the junior division will receive a box of candy.

The most novel exhibit in the junior division will rate a wave or a manicure for the person who entered it. The best arrangement by a man carries a prize of two dollars in trade and the best specimen or display by a man brings a dollar in trade. The sweepstakes prize will consist of nursery stock given by the Marshall nursery. The exhibitor with the highest number of points will receive this award. Two points will be given for each first prize received and one point for each second prize. A vase will be given as the grand prize. Ribbons will be given as first and second prizes in each section and $1.50 in cash will be paid for best exhibits in each section with the exception of Sections J and L.

The exhibits will be judged by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noll. The Nolls served as judges at the North Loup show last year and they were impressed by the quality and quantity of flowers entered in the show. Unless continued hot dry weather or a hail storm interferes the club members are expecting a much finer display than the one they sponsored last year.

SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT.

By John L. Ward

HOPE SPRINGS ETERNAL: I got quite a kick out of these two items in one issue of the World-Herald: "Three months after they first met, Mrs. Ella Brunt, 70, and W. H. Thrasher, 80, will be married Tuesday, at Warron O., and Akron, O. Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Wise, both 81, were honeymooning Monday after their marriage at the Summer Home for the Aged at Akron. They had been friends 64 years. He was married twice before, she once." Seems to me young man Cupid is getting careless, with his arrows.

I am rather glad the son is home for a short stay, as it will relieve me of the responsibility of providing fish for the family. This fishing is hard work, and it is almost impossible to find worms for bait. Besides, the way I fish is plenty hard on white pants. It is also tough on the fish to be caught once, get back into the creek and then have to be caught all over again, to say nothing of the little fish that get pulled out of the water every few days and then are put back in again to grow some more.

An interesting sidelight on the dam break at Burwell was told last week by Leslie Mason. They and other relatives were enjoying a picnic on the river bank on the Chester John place, and a group of them had been in swimming. After a while they all got out, and about that time the river started rising by leaps and bounds and was a couple of feet deeper in almost no time. If the swimmers had been caught out in the water it might have been a serious situation.

Maybe the reason a lot of people cannot catch fish is that you have to be smarter than the fish are. I have seen two people fishing side by side, using the same general type of equipment, the same kind of bait, fishing the same depth, and yet one will be catching all the fish, and the other will not be rewarded by a single nibble. A fish has a lot of pride, and, if he must be caught, he prefers to be caught by a man smarter than he is. If he were caught and eaten by some people I could name, he would never live down the disgrace.

Ord friends were shocked last week when the Saturday World-Herald carried the story of an Arthur Bailey, who was killed in an airplane crash. The item did not say anything about his being from Ord, but it did say that he married a Fairbury girl and that they had two little daughters. Thus it seemed probable that he might be the son of Mrs. R. C. Bailey of Ord. However, the name and other similarities were all a coincidence, and the Ord Arthur Bailey was safe in Chicago all the time.

This similarity of names reminds us that for years Burwell, Ord and North Loup each had a Frank Johnson in business, and they were in no way related. The Burwell Frank was in the hardware business, the Ord Frank in the drug business and the North Loup Frank in the general merchandise business. Today the Burwell Frank is a banker, the North Loup Frank is postmaster, and the Ord Frank has moved away and is owner of a drug store at Kimball, Nebr.

A generation ago there were four men living in Valley County whose names, taken together, made a very unusual combination. Many people will remember all of them, and part of them are still living here. Their names were John John, John Frank, Frank Frank and Frank John. The Franks are gone, but the Johns are still with us. About that same time, out in the Brace school district there lived George Kirby, Morris Kirby and George Morris. The Kirbys are still here, but I have lost track of George Morris.

I just knew that John Ward would some day attain fame, but did not know it would be in the farming line. The papers recently carried the story of John Ward of Litchfield, 19 years old, who won an award for his outstanding work as a farmer there. I am not certain, but I think I knew him when the family lived in Burwell. Anyway, my hat is off to the John Ward who could and did do something worth while and I'll him my share in the name when I get done using it.

My Own Column

By H. D. Leggett

When Eugene and HI returned from a week at Cullen lake last week they brought me a nice mess of Cullen lake bluegills and did we enjoy them? While eating them I resolved to forego garden and chickens next year, and go to Cullen about June 1st, and catch and eat bluegills all summer. I am partly indebted to Oscar Nay for those bluegills, as I understand he helped catch them. Our staying home this year partly because of having chickens and a garden to care for, reminds me that we have a dear friend who has said for several years that she was very anxious to visit us, but she always has an excuse. The latest excuse is that she can't leave the dog. Pretty flimsy excuse when she does leave the dog nine months out of the year while she teaches school in another town.

In writing for an autographed copy of my cabbage gravy recipe, an Ericson lady wants to know if I can tell her why Wheeler county dogs seem to hold the record for being the fastest runners in the country. My dear lady the reason is, that the trees are so far apart in the sand hill country.

Week after week we have stated in the Quiz that the minimum price for a want ad is 50c, yet every week some subscriber sends in an ad with a quarter and this week one lady said "Run it as many times the quarter will pay for." The price of Quiz classified ads is 10c a line (count 5 words to make a line) with a minimum of 50c for any ad.

I can't see what difference it makes, when I buy a pound of butter, whether I pay 77c for it, or whether I buy it at 60c and pay the difference to the government so it in turn can pay the farmer a bonus on his cream.

And it takes an army of pap suckers to run the bonus machine and get the checks out to the farmers. I am wondering if any of that help was pried loose when the bonus payments were stopped.

300 federal judges a pay raise of five thousand dollars a year. Still, there isn't a lawyer in the country who wouldn't be glad to take over the jobs at half what they are getting now, and considering recent supreme court scandals, the courts might be benefited by making a lot of changes. Of course this pay increase is only going to nick the treasury about one and a half million, which is mere chicken feed in the eyes of government spenders.

is not that sort of guy. He left Ord with his family 35 years ago and located at Santa Ana, Calif., and in writing to renew his Quiz subscription, he says he is still on the same job that he started on when he went out there. Ernie says he thinks he is going to get a steady job with the people he works for pretty soon.

Tom Borovka, usually down town twice each day, says he had to stay home all last week because his neighbor, Ben Eberhart was home on vacation and Tom says he knows how well Ben likes chicken and Tom has a lot of nice ones.

Filipino Palmist Foretells Death of Eldon DeHart Few Months Before He Was Killed in Battle On Luzon

The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. DeHart from a Filipino, whom their son, Eldon befriended during the Leyte campaign. The Filipino, who became quite attached to Eldon, was a believer in palmistry and foretold an early death for Eldon who was killed on Luzon March 13, 1945, after surviving many months of combat. The letter is written in the style common to the Filipinos, who use English of a construction different from that to which the readers of the Quiz are accustomed. Balud, Capoccan, Leyte, Philippine Islands. Dear Mrs. DeHart, Yes, I dearly received your most precious letter and only to find myself breathless when I read that part when you told me about Eldon's end. I would have had answered you at once, but only you could forgive me for the delay because I was too sickly at that time that it takes my nerves to write.

"A Nice Guy" Even though Eldon has left me alone without a word of parting that he is going to that other world, still I would be too glad to communicate with you and the members of his family because I know seldom in my life would I meet a nice guy like him and upon his manner and characteristics I could tell that he belonged to a well-to-do family not only that would play then a part of a sucker, no, just because we were very close and never did exchange any word that may hurt our one's feeling. As for me I dearly loved him even more than a brother and he loved me too like his brother.

ELDON DEHART

"Mamma" let me call you this just for his sake, I'll tell you that I was the guy he wrote you about. We met that one beautiful afternoon, when just by a coincidence we happened to be sitting near each other. I was on his right side. He looked at me surprised that I was wearing that blue silken pajamas with jungle boots and with a bandaged head. I stared at him, too, for I seemed to recognize him as my cousin. He hesitated to talk to me in English for he thought I did not know how to speak that kind of tongue, for he said English is only a copied dialect or language by the Filipinos. He asked me then what happened? Then I talked to him in English, explaining everything of what happened to me. He then was surprised why I live for two and a half months with four hatchet wounds over my head and a bullet wound through my breast when I did not have any hospitalization, no medicine and no balanced diet to sustain the blood and energies wasted due to lacerations in my body and the fatigue of hiding away from those brutal Japs. Then began our conversations and he then became so fond of me that he kept on telling me he will never find a man a friend though he may be an American or what like me.

Met in Hospital I don't know why we were together in that 58th Evacuation hospital for twelve days. Later on he was evacuated first and on all those days we dearly shared the joys and sorrows, the pains and agonies, together. If I missed to go to his ward he looks for me in mine and there I would introduce him to a pretty Filipina who for a time became an attendant in the Filipino ward. Then we shared the merry-makings we had and sometimes he would say, "Before I did meet you all the months I spent in the Pacific were full of my doom and now that I meet you I seldom feel homesick but never to forget my nice lovely girl in the states at nights."

We always played late in the library playing the ukelele and singing and playing checkers which sometimes he beats me and sometimes I beat him too. We bought candies in the PX. We dined together and if there be no other place we sat together on the ground. He even did offer to lend me some 80 pesos ($40) but I refused them all because I know that though I need it very badly but it would take time before I could repay him and as I wasn't very sure of his life so I told him to deposit that money in the bank.

Foresees Death I told him this way, Eldon, as I called him, if I will take that I can't repay you at once, it will be months yet before I am ready to work and earn money. Aside you might lose your life or you might get married because everyone of us will have our end and then where shall I return or repay the money you loaned me. He said, "Never mind have this for a souvenir if I be dead, if I be living I'll add you more than that". Then he got mad for I stood up and bade him good night for I was going to my ward. He forced the money to my pocket but I ran.

Yes, Ma, we were too close and loving. We understood each other's words. We got the same ideas and the same views. We had the same philosophy and the truth is we had always the same thoughts and backing up everything we had the same principles and his always coincided mine. Only he was handsome and white and an American and I am light brown and not so ugly but a heart-breaker is what my friends call me but not a handsome Filipino. Still I didn't find what was in him that was not in me. We got the same blood, got the same structure and brains. I told him about palmistry and the study of the face. I explained the significance of every feature of our countenance. Later he became so interested that he wondered where I got my knowledge about palmistry. Then he believed of what I told and he even told me I was leaving him when I told him that some day that he would have an accident. It may even be fatal if he will not have that dearest devotion toward God the Almighty. Let us leave this, Ma.

Describes Self Before I close let me tell you something about myself. My father's got one-fourth of his blood from our grandpa. That means to say that my father's grandfather was a purebred Spaniard for I got one-eighth. I am five feet four and a half inches tall, well-built, hair not so black but not brown, my skin is tan, eyes a little bit brown, regular features, education fourth year of high school, been in Cebu City, Manila, Cavite and around the big places of our island or country but I was a fool not to continue my studies when I had been making foolishness in my studies for six years so did just remain for the fourth year. My hobbies are horse riding, basketball, volley ball, baseball, swimming, deep sea diving without apparatus at 70 to 80 feet deep, driving automobiles, and carts and sometimes drink tuba, the native drink. I got a cute small wife five feet tall and a little bit whiter than I am, having a quart of Spanish blood and a full breed Malayan blood in her veins. We got a small daughter one year and nine months now.

Mamma, we are not used to living on this work charity basis before peace time but now we had to sacrifice the agonies God gave us for all my brothers got killed in this war and what is left is me and my kid sister. My father is too sickly and all of our lands have been sold only to spend for his own benefit. Nothing is left to us now. We got a ranch and a carabao pasture but the brutal and savage Japs killed them all for food. Land was sold because I want father to live with me and never to part from me. Mother was dead when I was eight. Let me say, not to boast, and not only a scuttle but that we were once a well-to-do family but now I could even hardly send you this little letter for stamps. I am struggling hard, always busy, but yet every hour, Mamma, every wink of my eye, almost every minute of the day I always remember Eldon, my dearest boy and I promise you I will never forget you all the members of the family. Jewels could not buy true friendship. The pangs of sincere friends and the blessedness of one's friendfulness will always remain in my poor heart than that is my dearest Eldon and myself. Never could I find a man like Eldon.

Money Received Mamma, allow me to call this name for dearest Eldon. I received the money you sent me, ten pesos and the equivalent is $5.00. I was glad and my wife also but that kind of money is not being received here now. There was at the back of it "Circulating Note." This kind of money is not used here now. Thanks for sending me it heartily, Mamma.

Let me know please if Eldon has got a brother, how many and sisters. I would like to have a snap shot or a photo of all of you with your nice home. I promise to send you mine as soon as I will have the earliest chance to have one taken with my wife if possible and daughter but I am afraid all of you will laugh at it as you know how a Filipino looks aside we have not the necessary clothing for it. I know simplicity is the best. Besides, I never did find any snap shot of my beloved wife that is better to look at. She became one of the loveliest girls in the town Fiesta, but as for me I admire her beauty. She is nice in manners and household works, but I don't think she is pretty and admirable to others. Because a husband is the handsomest in the world to his wife and the wife is the most beautiful to her husband but don't worry, Mamma, I will try to send you it when I get enough dough for it because picture taking is rare and costly here. Just imagine 74 pesos a dozen here. But some days I will send you it. But send me first yours, Mamma, and never forget Eldon's sweetheart too. Tell her I want hers too.

Sends Cloth Before I forget I promise to send you something of worth for Eldon's sister. I know it is costly but nice. It is a silken cloth made from pineapple fiber. One by one they are placed in the spinning loom and wheel and then woven into a piece of cloth. Then it can be made into a ball dress, or a shirt and can be used in a costume ball or barn dance. It may not sound nice to you, Mamma, but just for that because it is made by hand, a delicate work and soft and the remnants of our forefathers' work before the machine age came. I doubt if this will please you. Ask me anything and I will give it to you, any kind of wants, I will even if it needs the most of my life. I even did promise Eldon to give my life to him. I mean to defend him whatever and whosoever will try quarrel him or make any joke on him.

Asks for Cards Please Mamma, if it is not too heavy for you there buy me a dozen packs of Spanish cards there and I will pay the postage here. Tell me the cost of it there. I will refund you. I am sure it is only there you will find it because all of our stores have been burned. Please don't forget to send the most possible if you could. I know I will owe you a heart-felt gratitude but I will try to pay whatever you wish me to do.

Last but not least I and my wife extend our heart most regards to every body of you there. Our tears only fall if we can think of Eldon! Hoping you the best of health and wish you a long and happy life. And take me as Eldon! A million thanks Ma, Pa, Brod, Sis.

Yours sincerely, Tony

P. S. Please pardon me of my mistakes and penmanship. I am in a hurry for I got a job to be done all the hours of the day. Mistakes are always under your consideration. Same.

Weds Minister

Koelling-Walder

Miss Liola F. Koelling, daughter of Mrs. Lucy M. Koelling was united in marriage to the Rev. Gerald V. Walder, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walder of Blue Earth, Minn., on Saturday evening at eight o'clock.

The double ring, candle light ceremony was performed by the Rev. Walter H. Lenz, uncle of the bride and assisted by the Rev. Warren G. Studer, pastor of the Mira Valley Evangelical church and a friend of the bridegroom.

The inspiring setting of the chancel was a centered white cross adorned with pink gladioli and ferns, with a floral background of mixed flowers with gladioli predominating, candelabra illuminated the sanctuary when lighted by the two ushers, Hugh Walder and Kenneth Koelling.

Celloist, Orel Koelling, accompanied by Mrs. Reuben Cook at the piano played the selections, "Why Do I Love You", "At Dawning" and Schubert's "Ave Maria", as a prelude.

Preceding the bridal entry Harold Koelling, brother of the bride sang "Because". A duet, "I Love You Truly" was sung by Harold and another brother, Melvin. At the close of the ceremony, the couple knelt in consecration before the Cross as, from off stage, the selection "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Melvin.

To the strains of Lohengrin, the bride entered the church on the arm of her eldest brother, Merrill. She wore a gown of Battenburg lace and net over satin. The fitted bodice of lace and long sleeves tapered from moderate fullness at the shoulders to deep points over the wrists. The skirt of accentuated fullness of lace with net ended into a circular three yard train. The two-tiered veil was held to the head with a coronet of white satin. She wore a pearl necklace and matching earrings, gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of white carnations, in the midst of which was a purple orchid, a going away gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Koelling was attended by three cousins: Mrs. Quentin Lansman as matron of honor and Misses Viola and Angeline Koelling as bridesmaids. All were gowned in pink and carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and roses. Gloria Dawn Burson, flower girl, was frocked in a pink net formal over rose satin.

Rodney Walder, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. He wore a light gray suit in contrast to the blue chalk-stripe suit, chosen by the bridegroom.

The mother of the bride was attired in black crepe with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom chose navy blue bemberg sheer with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations and roses.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. A four tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, presented under the direction of Mrs. Elmer Hornickie, sister of the bride.

Out of town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Walter H. Lenz, Marilyn and Carol of Culbertson; Mrs. Quentin Lansman of Griswold; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walder and Rodney, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walder and Kathleen of Blue Earth, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Loper of Topeka; Gilbert Loper of Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. George Lenze and Orville, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Houtsky and Jacqueline Rae, and Miss rances Peterson of Elmwood, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. James Hoyt of Le Mars, Ia., and Angeline Koelling of Chicago, Ill.

The couple left for Oakwood Park on Lake Wawasee, Syracuse, Ind. They will also visit points of interest in Chicago. Upon their return they will establish a home at Kasson, Minn., where the bridegroom is pastor of the Evangelical church.

Burton-Steffen Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Steffen

Tiered lighted candles and baskets of gladioli and snapdragons adorned the Methodist church altar in Scotia for the wedding of Thelma Jean Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Burton, to Erwin A. Steffen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Steffen of North Loup. The lines of the double-ring ceremony were read by Rev. Samuel Mitchell Sunday afternoon at 1:00.

Miss Shirley Smith of North Loup played the bridal music from Lohengrin as the processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as a recessional. She also accompanied Jackie Lou Anderson, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always" preceding the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding gown a white nylon net designed with a fitted bodice ornamented with a soft shirring in the front and long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. It had a V-shaped neckline and a two-yard train. Her two-tiered veil of net was held by a lace heart-shaped coronet trimmed in orange blossoms. She carried an orchid on a white ribbon.

Miss Betty Jo Burton, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of pale blue marquisette fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and full skirt. The bridesmaid, Miss Shirley Oliver, of Shelton, cousin of the bride, wore a frock of shell pink net, designed similar to the gown worn by the maid of honor. The maid of honor and the bridesmaid completed their costumes with bouquets of yellow and red roses.

Jane and Wendell Scott of Grand Island, cousins of the bride, were the ring bearers. They carried the rings on white heart-shaped satin pillows. Marlene Kohler of Lincoln was the flower girl. She wore a floor-length white organdy dress and rose petals were strewn from a white basket which she carried. Lighting the candles were Mrs. Annabelle Kelly of Omaha, dressed in pink net, and Miss Heloise Christensen, dressed in blue net. They wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom was attired in a blue suit with a gardenia boutonniere. Loren Steffen served his brother as best man. He wore a blue suit with a carnation boutonniere. The ushers were Dean Bonsall, Verle McCaslin and Donald Hutchins.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church basement. The bride's table was arranged with a white cloth and centered with a tiered wedding cake, baked and decorated by the mothers of the bride and bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with white accessories, red roses forming her corsage, and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Howard Anderson and Mrs. Karl Ashley had charge of the decorations. Mrs. Verle McCaslin, cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book, and Dale Karre had charge of the gifts.

Mrs. Steffen is a 1941 graduate of the Scotia Consolidated Schools. She taught a rural school last year. Mr. Steffen was graduated from the North Loup high school with the class of 1937. He served with the United States army in the European theatre.

The newlyweds left Sunday evening for a wedding trip to Denver. For her going away outfit, Mrs. Steffen chose a white silk crepe dress trimmed in fuchsia with white accessories, and wore an orchid corsage.

After July 21 they will be at home on the Henry Bredthauer ranch south of Scotia. Mr. Steffen and his brother, Loren, have recently opened a garage in Scotia.

Birthday Dinner

Name was Wrong

The Quiz had the story of the parachute jumper who will perform at the Loup Valley Fair in last week's paper, and the story was correct in every detail except that it appears that the young man who will make the jump is named Edward L. Arnold, instead of Everett, as we had it. Carl Dale gave us the story, and he had his pipe in his mouth instead of in his hand. Anyway, he said Arnold is sure going to thrill Loup Valley fair visitors with a parachute jump each day, and that one attraction will be well worth the cost of the entire show.

Warning!

DON'T FOLLOW THE FIRE TRUCKS!

City ordinances specifically forbid this—when you rush to see a fire you are not only endangering your own life but that of fellow citizens. You are preventing firemen from reaching their job—if you run over a hose or block a hydrant, you are criminally negligent.

If you must go to see the fire—take your time. Wait until the firemen have had time to get to the scene and rig their apparatus. Drive slowly—you'll get there. Park your car at least two blocks away. And don't crowd up—you might get a free shower bath.

Remember—firemen and city officials have been instructed to carry out city ordinances to the full extent of the law. That means fines if you violate the law.

5 EASY STEPS TO BETTER CREAM—BETTER BUTTER—BIGGER CREAM CHECKS

USE A NEW DE LAVAL SEPARATOR

A new De Laval Separator will skim cleaner... earn more... and cost less per year of use. It produces smoother textured cream, best for churning, uncontaminated and undiluted. Cream tests do not vary. In short, a new De Laval Separator will quickly pay for itself and earn additional profits for years to come.

KEEP COWS CLEAN

Clean milk and cream begin with clean cows. Keep the flanks clipped and wash teats, udder and flanks with a clean cloth and warm water just before each milking.

COOL CREAM PROPERLY

Cream should be cooled promptly. This can be done by mechanical refrigeration or by a simple, homemade cabinet type of cooler utilizing a continuous flow of cold water.

DELIVER CREAM IN GOOD CONDITION

Cream should be kept cool until delivered to the cream station or creamery. During warm weather covering the cream can with wet burlap will aid materially in keeping cream cool while being delivered.

WASH SEPARATOR AFTER EACH TIME USED... IN 2 MINUTES!

Your De Laval Separator should be washed immediately after each time it is used. With the "wetting agents" now available at grocery stores and creameries it can be done easily and thoroughly in 2 minutes. Because of its design and construction the De Laval Separator is easiest to wash.

Every effort is being made to improve the quality of cream delivered for buttermaking. Poor quality cream cannot make the best quality butter—nor yield the greatest profit to the cream producer. Gravity setting and water separation methods waste butterfat and yield poor quality cream.

Observance of the five simple steps outlined above will result in better cream, better butter... and better income for you. Why not talk it over with us today?

Freddie Schoenstein Shows Improvement

The condition of Freddie Schoenstein, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schoenstein, was somewhat improved late Tuesday evening. Mrs. Betty St. John, his aunt reports. She returned about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning from Omaha where she visited Freddie. She said that he was alert and rested easier after she saw him.

Freddie submitted to brain surgery Monday morning. The people of Ord and others who have heard about his condition were most happy to learn that he was not afflicted with a tumor. Dr. Keegan, who did the surgery, reported that Freddie's condition was caused by a pressure on the brain which can be corrected.

The operation, however, was quite severe and Freddie required a blood transfusion following it. His father was the donor. Freddie is in the Clarkson Memorial hospital. The people of Ord are hoping that Freddie has a complete and speedy recovery, and are backing up the plucky little fellow with their prayers and best wishes.

Sons Home

Gerald and Edwin Jirak. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jirak were made very happy Sunday when their two sons both came home. The elder son, Gerald, is a second lieutenant and now on terminal leave after spending more than three years in the army, the last eight months of which were in Germany.

Following his graduation from high school last spring Edwin, the younger son, enlisted in the navy. He has now completed his boot training at the navy station in San Diego. Joe Kominick and Maynard Zlonke, both of whom entered the navy last spring, are also home on leave following their completion of boot training at San Diego.

Another Ord boy, Lloyd Lehecka, is expected home Thursday to visit his father, Vaclav Lehecka, and other relatives. He started his navy career the same time as the other boys but a case of measles put him a few days behind.

—Dr. and Mrs. Glen Auble, Mrs. Auble's mother and the Misses Irene and Carolyn Auble drove to Orleans Sunday where they visited relatives. Enroute home they stopped at Hastings where Dr. Auble attended to business matters.

—Dinner guests in the Dave Guggenmos home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Guggenmos and sons, Dale and Duane of Olympia, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Al Roigir of California, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guggenmos, LaVerne Brewster, Charles Jones and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Guggenmos and Jim, Mr. and Mrs. Botts and Miss Deane, and Bill Harmon and son. In all twenty-seven were present.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Merrill took a vacation trip last week. They visited his relatives at Geneva and friends at Lincoln, York and Grand Island.

Grains

Grain prices have been very uneven the past week. There is a lot of pressure to get grain prices down to former OPA ceiling prices and there have been some very sharp reductions. What ever you have in grain to sell, let us make you an offer. Just at the present time we have our elevator pretty full but we are getting a few cars to load and usually have room to help you out.

Sweet Clover and Alfalfa Seed

Alfalfa and Sweet Clover seed will bring you a good price this year and we are now buying some Sweet Clover seed. If you have some to sell bring it in and we will reclaim it and pay you all the market will stand.

Cattle Feed

Next week we will have a load of Beefmakr cattle feed in and the price will look right, the way most feeds are priced. If you can use a good heavy molasses feed in pellets, get a supply of this feed when it comes in. It is very good for feed yard purposes or for dairy cattle. This feed will cheapen your feeding costs quite a lot with the high priced grains.

Mothers Best Flour

We have a good stock of Mothers Best Flour in print bags. Arrange for a supply now, while it is available.

We can supply you with Ground Barley and Ground Corn at the present time; as well as all Foultry mashes.

Feeds

We have a stock of both Nitrate and Vigoro Fertilizers. Use some of this fertilizer on your garden and lawns this year. It will pay you.

It pays to buy from NOLL.

A proposed baseball tournament, scheduled to be played in Ord July 28, 29 and 30 has been postponed for several weeks, due to conflicting dates of teams in this area who were to have entered the tournament.

Grains--

Prices are somewhat lower on all grains except Rye, than they were at this time last week.

When you have Wheat, Barley, Rye, Oats, or Corn to sell we would be glad to have the opportunity to make a bid on it. We will always endeavor to give you the highest market price for any or all of your grain.
