THE ORD QUIZ, ORD, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1946

Vol. 64, No. 28

Robert Kokes Is At Camp Lee, Va.

Dear Mr. Leggett:

I am writing this to get my address changed. I still get my copy of the Quiz from my other company but by letting it go that way it takes two or three days longer. I really should have let you know sooner as I have been in this clerk typist school a couple of weeks but I just never got around to it. One is kept so busy, always some inspection and some sort of formation.

I don't know if it's just that way in Camp Lee, but I guess it's the same all over. There aren't very many G. I.'s, who have a very good attitude toward army life. Most of us are looking toward one thing, and that is the day when we will be up for our discharge and heading back home again.

I met a boy from Arcadia about a month ago, and since that time he has been up to see me several times. He is just like I am, of course, anxious to see the Quiz. It just happened one Saturday afternoon that I got a copy of the Quiz about noon and he came up about 1 o'clock and believe me we read it from the headlines through the want ads.

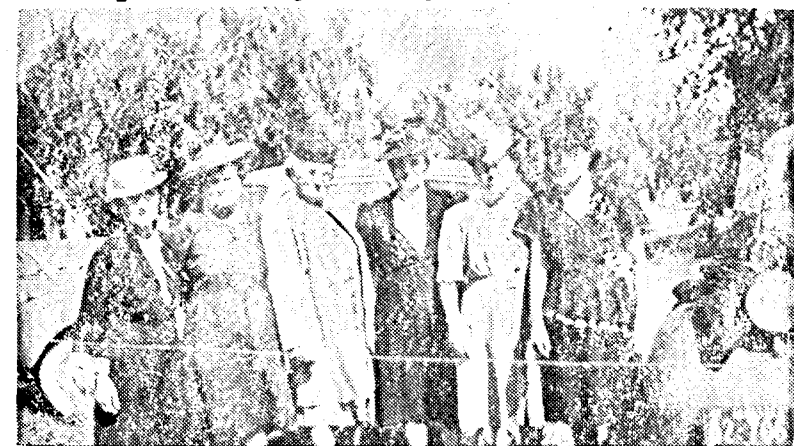

I don't know what they will do with me when I finish tech school, but I hope they will send me out of Camp Lee, and some place closer to home. Thanks again for your trouble. I am sending my best regards to all the people back home.

As ever,
Pvt. Robert A. Kokes,
59th Q. M. Training Co.,
Camp Lee, Va.

One Teacher Belongs to 3 Associations

Mrs. Margaret Tolbert, who teaches in District 24, is the first and so the only rural teacher in Valley county to become a member of the national, state and local educational associations. Miss Clara McClatchey, county superintendent, announces that fourteen rural teachers are members of the Nebraska State Education association and twenty-four have memberships in the local association. Last year there were 1,962 teachers enrolled in the N. S. E. A. in District 4, Ord, North Loup and Arcadia teachers always belong 100 percent and Miss McClatchey says that if all the rural teachers in Valley county enroll this year that the membership could be raised to the two thousand mark.

Pop Corn Days Bring Family Reunions

Every year former residents of North Loup from near and far return to the scene of their childhood for Pop Corn days, which is also a homecoming celebration. This year Floyd Wetzel made snapshots of two well known North Loup families, who reassembled for the pop corn fete.

Here are the six Knapp sisters, none of whom now live at North Loup. From left to right they are Mrs. Estella Parsons of Denver, Mrs. Lulu Walker of Arcadia, Mrs. Olive Peterson of Brooks, Minn., Mrs. M. D. Earnest of LaMesa, Calif., Mrs. M. B. Cummins of Ord, and Mrs. Roy Coleman of Littleton, Colo.

Pauline Mayo, who married a newspaper reporter named Jeffries, but uses her maiden name professionally, is an actress, who has trod the boards in many theaters throughout the United States and in England. In 1922 she appeared in London, while she was there on her honeymoon. At present she has largely retired from the stage to operate the Mayo School of Dramatics in Seattle where she has about 75 pupils. During the war she appeared in many army camps to help entertain the soldiers. At one time she taught in the primary room of the North Loup school and returned to find many of the little boys, who were her pupils are now grown up and taller than herself. She is impressed by the improvements made in North Loup such as the new school house, the community hall and the paving. Prior to this visit she had not been "home" since 1937.

A Good Time to Check Up on That

The Assembly of God group began excavation Thursday, for the basement of the church which they plan to build on their lot east of the parsonage.

The structure will be 28 by 48 feet and will be finished on the outside with the same material as the parsonage, according to present plans.

The Assembly of God parsonage is nearing completion. The exterior is now covered with white asbestos shingles, giving the home a very neat appearance.—Taylor Clarion.

Drives 800 Miles to Preserve 100% Rotary Attendance

With good Rotarians 100% attendance at meetings is a goal to be reached at all costs and Walter Kirtley, retired lumberman of Nebraska City, is no exception. Occupying a summer cottage this summer at Ericson where no Rotary club exists, Mr. Kirtley has been driving to Ord each Monday night to meet with the Ord club. He estimates that he has driven over 800 miles during the summer to keep up his 100% attendance record of 10 years.

Mr. Kirtley spent last winter in Mexico City and attended Rotary club there. Next Monday afternoon he will close his cottage at Ericson and leave for his home at Nebraska City to meet with his home club again.

Bean Harvest to Bring 13 Million

The North Platte valley's six-week bean harvest, which will bring farmers some $13,000,000 this year, is now in full swing as trucks after truck wheels into elevators up and down the valley to unload the "white gold."

Scotts Bluff county's share of the harvest, County Agent Wesley Antes said, will be about five and a quarter million dollars from 42,000 acres planted in the county this year.

On the basis of average yield of 30 bushels per acre, the average gross crop value per acre would be $148.50 for the grower.

When the "white harvest" is ended, some 2,000 cars of high quality beans, valued at $6,500 a car, will have rolled eastward out of the valley. Almost all the beans in this area are going to the east, with a few cars going to the southern states.

Rev. Arthur C. Core New Supt. of U. B.

The Rev. Arthur C. Core of York, newly elected superintendent of the United Brethren churches in the Nebraska conference, will be in the Ord United Brethren church for the service Sunday morning, Sept. 29. At 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon he will conduct the quarterly conference of the local church.

The tired looking man sat facing the judge. "So you want a divorce," said the latter. "Aren't relations pleasant?"

"Mine are," came the answer. "But her's are simply terrible!"

Well, we wouldn't suggest using a QUIZ want ad to advertise for a happy home. We urge you, with the knowledge that you'll be more than satisfied, to use want ads for almost anything else. Just phone 17.

Soldier Finds Alaska Weather Not So Bad

Sept. 15, 1946
Ft. Richardson, Alaska

Mr. Editor:

This is just a few lines to advise you that I have moved and wish to have my Quiz changed. At present I am stationed near Anchorage which is right in the heart of Alaska. I expect to be moved in the very near future up farther north to Ladd Field which is near Fairbanks.

Alaska reminds most people of cold weather but it is at present no different from Nebraska—I'll take Nebraska though. The country is really beautiful and in our time off we may check out rifles and ammunition and go hunting. I will close now hoping to get the Quiz before too long as I want to know what is going on back in Ord and especially the football scores. Incidentally our air corps team beat the civilians 33 to 0 today.

Sincerely,
Pfc. Floyd J. Shotkoski,
122nd A.C.S. Squadron,
A. P. O. 731
c-o Postmaster, Seattle,
Wash.

5 Pairs Of Sisters Teaching In County

Five pairs of sisters are teaching in the Valley county schools this year reports Miss Clara McClatchey, the county superintendent. Mildred Hayek teaches in District 55 and her sister, Irene in District 28, Wilma Klancey is the teacher in District 34 and her sister, Lillian, in District 71. Mary Fish teaches in District 33 and her sister, Mildred, in District 54. Mary Kirby in District 63 and Lila Kirby in District 2 are another pair of sisters teaching in Valley county. Minnie and Clara Jensen, sisters, both teach in the North Loup schools.

Clinic For Children At Broken Bow Oct. 5

A clinic for the benefit of crippled or defective children sponsored by the Elks' lodge will be held in Broken Bow Saturday, Oct. 5. A number of doctors, who specialize in orthopedics will attend the clinic to advise parents in regard to treatment for their children. Expert medical advice may be had free at this clinic. Parents interested in taking a child to the clinic are urged to consult the county assistance director, whose office is on the first floor of the court house. Transportation may be arranged for parents and children wishing to attend the clinic.

Barber Ralph H. Crabb, Bozeman, Mont., was shaving a customer when flames began crackling and smoke started pouring out of a restaurant next door. He went right on shaving the unwitting customer. The barber's unruffled faith in the fire department was justified. Firemen arrived and soon had extinguished the kitchen fire with chemicals. "Next," said Mr. Crabb.

Dr. McClure Finds Disease Carried By Birds In California

Several people in Ord were happy to receive copies of a mimeographed letter from Dr. J. Elliott McClure last week. Dr. McClure has had a very busy and interesting summer examining birds in the San Joaquin valley in California to learn if the birds are carriers of western equine encephalitis (sleeping sickness). He tells the details of his work in the letter.

Dr. McClure is employed by Hooper Medical foundation. The results of his work tend to prove that many birds are carriers of a certain type of malaria and he has been hired to carry on his investigation for another year.

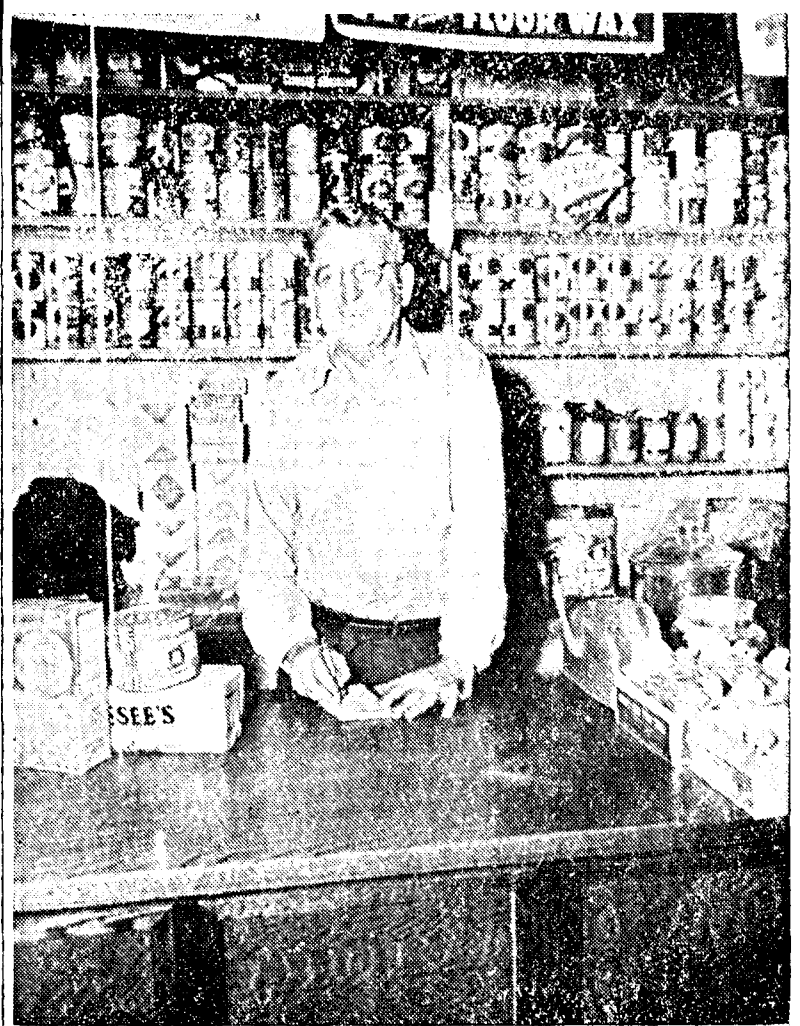

During the summer Dr. McClure and his assistant have kept records on the young birds in 800 different nests. They have studied 30 different species of birds, banded and trapped about 3,000 birds and taken about 150,000 blood samples from which smears were made for microscopic study.

The McClures have been living in a cabin near Bakersfield. He reports that it didn't get so hot there this summer and that thermometer readings seldom went over 110. The cabin, where they spent the summer is ten miles from town. It has no lights or telephone. The McClures got it rent free but found it more expensive to repair and maintain the cabin than it would have been to pay rent.

They have three acres of ground, no neighbors and the best swimming hole on the river, Dr. McClure writes. Several dogs make their home with the McClures as well as twelve different kinds of birds. He is making a study of what some of the birds in that locality like to eat. Dr. and Mrs. McClure and the two daughters have been inoculated for encephalitis which is quite prevalent in that section and for that reason Dr. McClure was hired to make this survey.

The elder daughter has started to school. She walks a half mile where she is picked up by a bus which takes her to school in a small town.

The latest word from the McClures is that they have to move. The Bakersfield attorney, who owns the cabin in which they have been living, wants to spend some time there himself before winter commences and he has notified the McClures to vacate the premises. And so Dr. and Mrs. McClure, two daughters, several dogs, and many birds are looking for a new home.

Ed Holub Sells Store in Elyria After 35 Years Behind Counter

Merchant Who Prospered While Others Failed Plans to Retire.

After spending thirty-five years behind the counters of his general store at Elyria Ed Holub is retiring. He has sold his store to Emanuel Kapustka, who saw many months of service with the army overseas. Mr. Kapustka took possession Oct. 1 but Mr. Holub will stick around until the first of the year.

As well as being the John Wanamaker of Elyria, Mr. Holub is also the postmaster, a position he has held for fifteen years, and considerable governmental red tape must be disentangled before he can be relieved of this position and Mr. Kapustka appointed.

Elyria's new merchant is no stranger to its citizens. He was reared in the community and related to many of the inhabitants. In Elyria he is popularly known as "Spud". In Ord where he has been working in the Sack Lumber yard, Mr. Kapustka is called "Cap". This nickname was acquired because he was an air corps officer. Mr. and Mrs. Kapustka will make their home in rooms over the store building.

Came from Schuyler

Mr. Holub came to Elyria as a young man. He was reared at Schuyler. He became interested in the town when his cousin went there to live after she married the town's banker. Mr. Holub and his brother, John, acquired the store in Elyria from Joe Bartos, who is now deceased. Mr. Bartos, was a brother of Frank Bartos, well known Garfield county farmer, who lives north of Elyria. Mr. Holub had a homestead in South Dakota which was traded in on the deal.

After a year the Holub brothers saw that there was not enough business in Elyria for both of them and Mr. Holub bought his brother's share in the store. John Holub now runs a store in Richland, a town in Sarpy county, which is much like Elyria.

Wife Doesn't Work

The second year Mr. Holub was in Elyria he married and brought his bride to live in the town. Mrs. Holub comes from Saunders county. Mr. Holub belongs to the old school of gentlemen who believe that a woman's place is in the home. He has never allowed his wife to work in the store. The hours he has spent behind the counter have been many and long but he has never shifted the responsibility of keeping the store on to his wife.

The Holubs have one daughter, Kathryn, who is now the wife of Dwight Johnson, Burwell lumber merchant. Of late years Mr. Holub sometimes allowed his daughter to assist him in the store.

Elyria gave promise of developing into a sizeable town when Mr. Holub came there. In the horse and buggy days, his store enjoyed a brisk trade and as many as three clerks were employed. Better roads and automobiles did not help business in Elyria. The farmers who formerly traded there were enticed to Ord or Burwell.

Elyria Fades

Elyria at one time had a bank and a lumber yard, but now has neither. One of its churches was moved to Burwell. The livery barn is now being wrecked by Frank Piskorski, who purchased it some time ago, and the lumber is being brought to Ord. The Burlington depot has been moved away and now serves as a Garfield county ranch house. The mill has been torn down and the elevator is inoperative.

During the years while the town was meeting with these reverses Mr. Holub continued to prosper. He has made friends with the people who have continued to patronize him even though they could do their trading in a larger town just as easily. Mr. Holub believes in carrying a complete stock. Until the war he was able to supply nearly all of his customers needs. He sells groceries, notions, piece goods, overalls, shoes, notions, paint, hardware, gas, drugs, and just about anything which a rural family would need.

He buys eggs and poultry and for 32 years bought cream for the Beatrice creamery. Since the war he has discontinued buying cream. He has had no help and found he had just too much work to do.

He watches his stock closely and only carries staple items. He likely does business with more wholesale houses than any three business houses in Ord.

Extends Credit

He also is almost unique in that he does some credit business. He has found that the vast majority of the people are honest and has sometimes had unfortunate people come in to pay bills which he had thrown in the waste basket.

Some smart Ord housewives now go to Elyria to trade. They have found that many items not obtainable in Ord stores can be purchased from Mr. Holub, and they go to Elyria to buy catsup, syrup, salad dressing, and other articles on the scarce side. (The reporter fergot to ask Mr. Holub if he had any nylons).

Mr. Holub is just about the only Bohemian who lives in Elyria, which is a Polish settlement. If racial prejudice ever existed in Elyria it was melted by Mr. Holub's friendly smile and genial personality. "I treat everyone as though they were my friends and eventually they become my friends," he declares. He speaks Polish in dealing with many of his customers. When he came to Elyria he could speak Bohemian which helped in the mastery of the Polish tongue.

Elyria's First Mayor

When Elyria was incorporated into a village Mr. Holub became the town's first mayor. Since becoming postmaster he has not taken any part in local politics.

The Holubs plans for the future are more or less indefinite. She wants to move to Omaha. He would prefer a smaller place such as Columbus or Fremont. They plan to travel and to build a new home. They are keeping their home in Elyria until they find a place to live.

Mr. Holub had worked hard. He opens his store at 8 o'clock in the morning and closes at 8 o'clock at night. Sunday is a busy day for him. Many people do their trading after attending church in Elyria. He believes in working hard and making his money and then retiring and giving another man a chance.

LIVE IN ALUMINUM

... and like it!

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT ALUMINUM SIDING...

And you will like it because it offers all the advantages of wood siding plus some that wood naturally does not have, it's...

- FIREPROOF
- WARP PROOF
- WEATHER PROOF
- LONG-LIVED
- VERMIN PROOF

After paint has been applied, the siding looks exactly like wood siding... and no sheathing is required before applying the aluminum either... the siding is available in 6 and 8-inch widths.

SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT, By John L. Ward

In a few weeks unless present plans miscarry, the Quiz will come out in a new form from the new press. In passing, I think a word of commendation is due the old Whitlock press that has done duty now for well over fifty years. In fact, I think that press is really older than the Ord Quiz itself, and it is high time it should have a rest. It is possible that it may be put into service again in the press room of a newspaper with smaller circulation, as it is still capable of putting out the news.

In the past sixty years, if it was used all the time, it has put out at least 3,120 issues. Over that time, let us say that the average circulation was 1,500. That would mean a total of 4,680,000 copies in sixty years. If the paper averaged ten pages, that would be 46,800,000 pages. If the pages averaged 7 columns, that would be 32,760,000 columns. If the columns averaged 20 inches, that means 655,200,000 inches of news material. But there are 35 words to the inch, so there must have been 22,932,000,000 words printed in 60 years.

Now that is something to think about when you blame the editor for making mistakes. We might go farther and state that there are an average of five letters in all those words and run the figures up into the hundred billions, but what's the use? If a good linotypist were to start at the age of 20 years and average a column an hour, 8 hours per day for about 300 days a year, it would take him quite a while to set all that type, 136 1/2 years, in fact, and he would be a real old man by the time he finished.

The Quiz started out April 6, 1882, as a five column paper, four pages boiler plate, and four more or less hand set. After several years it suddenly nearly doubled in size, going into a nine column paper in the late '80s. It was also published a long time as an eight column, paper of slightly larger size than the paper is today, as those columns were 14 ems, and the standard today is 12 ems. The old paper of seven columns was printed up to four pages at a time on the Whitlock, but the nine column paper was handled two pages at a time, in fact, only two pages were home print, and these took care of all the news and ads for the week.

Fifty or more people have fed that press during its lifetime, and it has outlived most of those pressmen. It would be interesting to be able to name all of them, but that is impossible, and it is equally impossible to name all the people who wrote news for the Quiz since it was founded. However, it is interesting to note that the paper has had but two publishers in nearly 65 years, W. W. Haskell for nearly 36 years, and H. D. Leggett for the rest of the time. Yes, the community owes a debt of gratitude to — that old Whitlock press!

Those katzenjammer kids, Johnnie Andersen and Eddie Swopes, have been at it again. John comes by it naturally, but Ed shouldn't act that way. It is hardly the dignified thing to do, for an artist. Last week John and Melvin Clement took Ed to North Loup to attend a meeting of Ordfellows, they being the oddest of the lot, and all the way, both coming and going the boys kept razzing Ed about this and that, keeping it up continually. Ed took everything good-naturedly, but, in his mind he was formulating a plan whereby he could get even with the arch-malefactor, John Andersen.

A night or two after the Judge Grove out to the airport just before supper time, and found Swopes there, warning up the plane. He extended the Judge a cordial, in fact, too cordial, invitation to take a ride. However John is a gullible soul, so he climbed into the seat and was ready for an enjoyable trip. It was his second trip in the air, and he thought he had enjoyed all the thrills of air travel, but he found he hadn't seen anything yet. Ed put him and the plane through banks and climbs and loops and rolls and he was a pretty sickly looking specimen when the ride was over. It was a cool evening, but John declares he pulled off his shirt and wrung water out of it.

Going back to the trip home from North Loup, John kept his speedometer at fifty per, the legal limit, and a car behind was gaining on him. Noting this infraction of the highway laws, he pulled out to the side of the road and signaled for the speeder to stop, which he did by swinging in behind the judge's car. The Judge and his party got out and the others did also, and John L. started in on a lecture on the perils of high speed on the highway, especially at night. About that time he found he was talking to another judge, Police Judge John R. Haskell.

John L. was equal to the occasion, however. Said he: "See here, John R. you may be a judge, but you are out of your jurisdiction now, and we are still in Valley county, so I can lecture all I want to." While the drama was being enacted, another car drove up and the driver asked if anybody was hurt. "Not yet," said John. "But somebody might be any time now." John R. has not had the opportunity yet to get back at John L. but here is hoping he does, and that we have an opportunity to tell about it in this column. It is about time that all us John L.s get all that is coming to us.

It is usually thought that white frost, be it ever so light, will have its effect on pumpkins, melons and tomatoes. The frost that came Saturday night was white, all right, and showed itself on the above vines, but the moisture was so heavy that it tempered the frost, and the vines showed very little effect. In fact, the frost will be beneficial in hastening the ripening of the crop. I understand that real damage was done in some places, but here in North Loup the effect was negligible. Most corn in this section is far enough along that a heavy frost would do very little damage.

Phillips 66 Expands Advertising Program

Vern Andersen, local distributor of Phillips 66 products in Ord said today that Phillips Petroleum Co. has expanded its advertising program to a point where it now includes approximately 1000 newspapers throughout the middle west, including The Ord Quiz.

During the past year Phillips has added a number of general merchandise lines to the conventional petroleum products sold through dealer stations. Household appliances such as refrigerators, radios and washing machines, hardware items, fishing tackle and sporting goods and stock remedies are among the products now being merchandised by the company.

Until the time when the manufacturers of these items are able to fulfill the demands of all dealers, Phillips newspaper advertising will continue to feature gasoline and motor oil, the company's principal products, Mr. Andersen stated. With full production of all merchandise predicted by the end of 1947, it is expected that the expanded advertising campaign will assure all dealers an adequate market for all lines of products.

Cornhuskers Games Broadcast by KFAB

Nebraskans will be able to follow their Cornhusker footballers all season long through the courtesy of the Champlin Refining Co. which puts out the Champlin Hi-Vi motor oil sold in Ord by the Service Oil Co. The Champlin Refining Co. has arranged for the broadcasting of all the University of Nebraska football games over Station KFAB in Lincoln. Many Ord people heard the broadcast of the game with Minnesota from this station last Saturday. These broadcasts will continue throughout the season.

Valley Fliers Will Meet Thursday Night

The Valley Fliers will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 3, at 7:30 o'clock in the offices of the county judge in the court house. All persons who are interested in flying are urged to attend. Farmers who are bothered with coyotes killing their livestock and poultry and who would be interested in encouraging fliers to hunt the six pests with planes are also urged to be present.

Club Women Study Lighting of Homes

Lighting in the home was the subject presented by Miss Mary Runnalls, extension specialist in home management to project leader of the extension clubs in Ord Friday. The lesson was given in the American Legion hall. Miss Runnalls spent Thursday in Arcadia where she presented the same lesson to the project leaders there.

FSA Explained to Catholic Clergy

Bishop Hunkeler and Priests Are Guests at Dinner in Ord Thursday.

A meeting of the Catholic clergy from Sherman, Howard, Greeley and Valley Counties and representatives of the Farm Security Administration was held in Ord in the Knights of Columbus club rooms Thursday. The priests present from these counties were Monsignor Muensterman, Father Jarzenski, Ziolkoski, Egging, Shumski, Szeszesny, Charko, and Studowski. Bishop Hunkeler of the Grand Island Diocese, Father Thees of West Point, Father Tschida of Kearney and Father O'Neil of Hemingford were also present. Personnel of the Farm Security Administration present were Hal Liggett, statistician, Ed R. Crowley, district supervisor, Floyd Raymond, Sherman and Howard county supervisor and Joseph W. Ramaekers, Valley and Greeley county supervisor.

This meeting was held to acquaint the clergy with the type of work that is being done by the Farm Security Administration. Ed R. Crowley opened the meeting. Mr. Liggett, gave a brief history of past FSA work and then the meeting became a round table of questions and answers.

Father Thees gave a short summary of FSA work in his county as directly concerning farm families in his parish. Bishop Hunkeler in closing remarks stated that FSA work, as outlined in the meeting, would be very helpful in Catholic rural life to keep farm families stabilized in the community in which they were born and raised.

Here's A Bit Of Sound Advice

COLD WEATHER COMING

We want to tell you now, frankly, that as far as we know there will be no danger of the fuel oil shortages that bothered us during the war years repeating. And at this writing, we don't think there will be a big price increase.

It's just good, sensible practice to have your fuel oil tank filled to the brim now, while the season is slack and our men have the time to service you properly. If you wait until the first cold snap when everything is rushed you may have to wait for delivery. Get the matter off your mind now—order your next winter's supply of fuel oil today!

This is the WEEK OF Our 11th Annual Calf Sale Friday, October 4

Come and see the fine calves which the Sandhills produce. We will have around 3,000 head, mostly high grade Whitefaces but there will be some Black Angus offered. Come early. The sale will start promptly at 12 o'clock. Valley County feeders intending to purchase stock are urged to bring their own trucks if at all possible. A lot of cattle will be moving next Friday and trucks will be at a premium. If you have one bring it to Burwell. Besides the fine offering of calves, we will also have 750 head of other cattle, including 200 head of heavy two and three year old steers, 150 of these from 950 to 1,000 lbs. coming from one rancher. We will also have 175 Hereford yearling steers, 125 Hereford heifers, and the balance of run will be wet cows, stock cows, fat cows, bulls and other feeder cattle.

Don't miss this cattle classic. Come Early — Stay Late.

Rebuild?

FOR HOW MUCH

It was a fine plant; and it cost a pretty penny! But it would cost twice as much to build now. So the accident which burned it out was an inflationary gremlin! Too bad the owner didn't have it properly insured to cover his major loss! How about you? Own property? Is it insured—properly?

Electrical SAFETY TIPS

DURING

NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

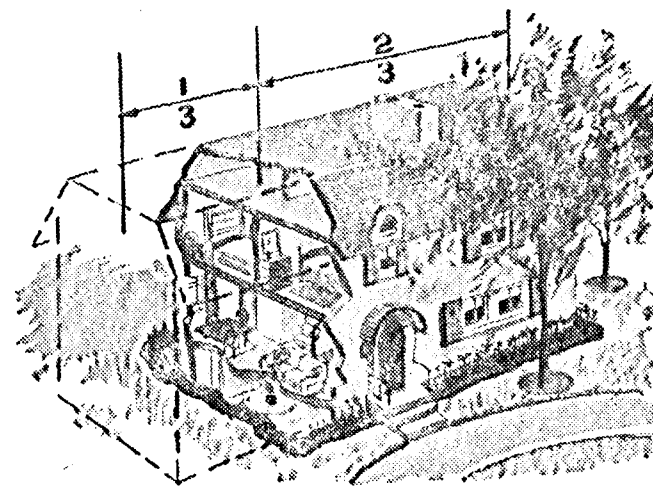

Permanent wiring, installed according to the National Electrical Code and properly fused is safe from fire hazards although frequently fires are blamed on defective wiring simply because no other origin is apparent. When a fire is traceable to electrical cause it is usually due to an improper installation and subsequent neglect or the misuse of electricity or electrical equipment.

Follow These Safety Suggestions

1. Have your wiring inspected to see that it conforms to the National Code or our local code or other recognized safety standards. Correct any hazardous condition.
2. Specify code requirements when making additions, alterations or repairs to your wiring.
3. Deal only with a capable, experienced electrician. Do not entrust wiring to an inexperienced "handy man" or the safety of the job may be impaired.
4. Never use a penny as a substitute for a blown out fuse. Fuses are current limiting devices, designed to cut off current before damage can be done if a short circuit or overload causes wires to heat. Pennies or fuses that are too large may allow wires to become hot enough to ignite insulation, possibly causing a fire. The right size for most household branch circuits is 15 amperes.
5. Use only appliance cords bearing label of the Underwriter Laboratories, which signifies compliance with rigid safety standards. Do not drive nails or tacks through cords, place them under rags or in contact with radiators or other heat sources.
6. Use only asbestos-covered cords with heating appliances.
7. Always disconnect an iron (especially a non-automatic) if you leave it standing on ironing board while you answer a phone or door bell.
8. Never put away an iron or other heating appliance while hot.

Not An Architect's Nightmare

No architect would build two-thirds of a home, then leave the rest out in the open. Of course, not! But it could happen. If your home were destroyed by fire, does your insurance cover all of the cost of rebuilding — or only two-thirds? Make sure of complete insurance protection.

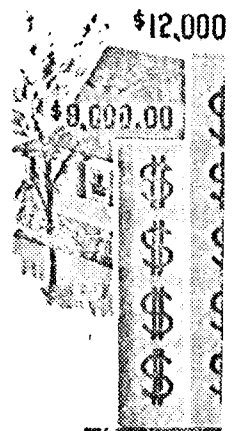

Eliminate fire hazards in your home. We will be glad to loan you the money to make your home fire safe. Have the work done NOW or as soon as you can get materials and repay in convenient monthly installments.

OCT. 6-12 FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

ORD Has a Splendid Record in Low Fire Loss. Help Our Fire Department

KEEP IT THAT WAY!

Every week should be Fire Prevention Week, but now before the heating season we suggest that you:

- Inspect your chimney, On top, in the attic and on down to the base.
- Inspect smoke pipes and replace old rusted ones and see that all connections and fittings are right.
- Protect walls and woodwork with asbestos if close to smoke pipes, clean soot and creosote from pipes and chimney, keep rubbish or fuel boxes away from stoves and furnaces.
- If you smell smoke, check immediately, and if in doubt call the fire chief or a member of the department. They'll be glad to help you check. Of course — if there's a fire — just pick up the telephone — tell the operator FIRE! and give your location.

and

- DON'T — throw kerosene or oil into your heating unit to hurry it along.
- DON'T — think because your chimney has been there 25 or 50 years without causing a fire that it is good. They do wear out.
- DON'T — overload your electrical system. If fuses blow out — find out why instead of putting in a larger one.
- DON'T — handle gasoline near a lamp or flame.
- DON'T — be careless, it can happen to you. In about 25% of all fires, the cause is unknown.

Guard Against Fire !

An inspection of your premises will be made by a member of the fire department sometime during National Fire Prevention week. Please cooperate with the representative and follow any instructions or suggestions he gives you.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP

In the Matter of the Estate of Luther McLain, Deceased. To all persons interested in said Estate, both creditors and heirs, take notice that William T. McLain has filed a petition in the County Court of Valley County, Nebraska, alleging that Luther McLain died intestate on January 15, 1941, a resident of Valley County, Nebraska, and being the owner of an undivided one-sixth interest in and to Lots 4 and 5 in Block 4 of Hillside Addition to the City of Ord, Valley County, Nebraska; that William T. McLain is the sole and only heir at law of the Deceased and is interested in said real estate as such. Said petition prays among other things that the allegations thereof be found true, and further prays for a determination of the time of the death of the said Luther McLain, a determination of his heirs and the degree of kinship and the right of descent of the real property belonging to the Deceased in the State of Nebraska, for a Decree barring all claims against said Estate, and for general equitable relief. Said petition has been set for hearing before said Court in the County Court Room in Ord, Nebraska, October 7, 1946, at 10 o'clock A. M. Dated September 11, 1946.

Auble Proposes Restoration of Fort Hartsuff

Plans for Making Historic Site into Park Told To Chamber of Commerce.

A plan for making Fort Hartsuff, which is located about three miles north of Elyria, into a state or national park were outlined by Dr. Glen Auble...

Their plan was to make the improved area of the fort available for a park as soon as conditions become favorable...

First W. P. A. Project

Dr. Auble pointed out that the building of the fort aided the settlers in more ways than one...

Seven or eight years after its completion the fort was abandoned as hundreds of settlers had poured into the North Loup valley...

Proposes Museum

The officers' quarters, which has been used as a farm house since the danger from Indians abated, is in a good state of preservation...

He proposes that several of the leading pioneer families of the North Loup Valley, such as the Goodenows, be allotted a room where the historical relics which they have kept throughout the years may be preserved for posterity...

Land Must Be Donated

Dr. Auble explained that according to Nebraska statutes no money can be appropriated to buy land for parks but that the state will maintain the parks after the land is acquired and given to them...

The committee found that buying the buildings of the fort was no simple proposition as they served as the farmstead of a 620 acre tract...

Entire Farm Bought

About two years ago the Augustyns, who had owned Fort Hartsuff for many years and had made their home there, bought another farm and offered the entire farm for sale...

Dr. Auble now intends to have a tract of about twenty acres, where most of the buildings stand, appraised by disinterested parties and he proposes to sell the land for that figure plus a small additional amount...

Johnson Sells After 27 1/2 Years in Bakery

Mr. Johnson Bought the Bakery from the Estate of Warren Draper

After operating the Ord city bakery continuously for 27 1/2 years, Forrest Johnson this week announced its sale to Marlin Taylor...

Bert Childers and the Melon Patch

Bert Childers put an ad in the Clarion the other day. Here's what it said:

"Planted more melons than I can eat this year. Stop by and pick as many as you want. All free."

As you can guess, plenty of folks sent their kids over and plenty of the parents came too. Stripped Bert's melon patch in no time. And as they went away, Bert treated the kids to lemonade, and offered the grownups a glass of ice-cold sparkling beer.

Naturally it puzzled some folks... but Bert explains: "It gives me a kick to share things when I can afford to—whether it's the melons, or the lemonade, or beer. I guess I just like to indulge my whims."

From where I sit, if we had more "self-indulgent" people like Bert—who believe in share and share alike, live and let live, this tired world would be a whole lot better off!

Announcement

I have purchased the general store formerly operated by Mr. Holub and will carry on the business in much the same lines as before — attempting to give a maximum of service and quality at the lowest possible price. The store will be known as the

MIDWAY MARKET

E. P. Kaputka
Elyria, Nebr.

Thank You!

Down through the years I have felt that the day was coming when I would step through the door of my store for the last time. Through those years I have stored up a deep feeling of appreciation for my friends and customers — the ones who made my business possible and successful. I want to take this opportunity to recommend my successor to you, and thank you all, from the bottom of my heart for your friendships.

Auble Proposes Restoration of Fort Hartsuff

Lake Possible
This much can be accomplished with relatively few donations. If public interest warrants it, he explained to the Chamber of Commerce that a lake can be built near the fort buildings which would supply fishing to visitors who come to see the fort. Dr. Auble said that by building a six foot embankment along the north bank of a small creek which flows through the grounds of the fort that a lake of about twenty acres may be formed.

Water for the lake would be supplied by the irrigation canal. Dr. Auble said that the lake would have an even depth of four feet and that the soil is a white sand which would make a fine beach. The lake would be stocked by the state game, forestation and parks commission.

Barnett Speaks
Gene Barnett, manager of Ord's airport, was introduced and made a short report of the work being done at the airport. He told the men that he and his helpers were working to complete the hangar, and as soon as it is finished he hopes to invite all the fliers from neighboring towns and cities to Ord for a breakfast. Mr. Barnett hopes to see a filling station, a cafe and some comfortable cabins erected at the airport where planes can land, be serviced and offered all necessary accommodations. He hopes to have the G. I. flight training program in operation in Ord very soon.

The matter of encouraging 4H baby beef clubs was presented by County Agent Carl Dale who pointed out that a very little had been done about the matter in past years as the boys were too busy during the war years and previously the shortage of money and feed had hampered the program. The matter of sponsoring a baby beef show at the Loup Valley Fair was referred to the agricultural committee.

An inquiry about the status of the swimming pool was made. President Vogeltanz appointed Ralph Norman chairman of the civic improvements committee to replace M. B. Cummins, who had resigned.

New Bridge
Leonard Woods, a member of the roads committee reported that Mr. Hodges of the state highway department, had been to Ord making a survey and that a new bridge might possibly be built this fall. The new span will be north of the present bridge and some of the curves in the present highway will be eliminated. The bridge contract will be advertised for the next letting according to Mr. Hodges.

Mr. Woods also reported that the roads committee had been working for the establishment of a highway to Greeley, commencing north of the river at Ord and going on east. The difficulty encountered was that several miles of the proposed highway has never been laid out as a county road.

It was also reported at the meeting that the highway to Burwell would be surfaced with a bituminous mat early next spring and the matter of getting the Ord-Ericson highway improved so that it could be used as a detour was favorably discussed. The Chamber of Commerce decided to protest the closing of the highway between Elba and St. Paul. The members expressed the opinion that the highway had already been closed entirely too long and that the improvement being made should have been completed. They expressed the opinion that the detour north of the river would not be suitable for winter driving.

RAY FURTAK MARRIED
Ray Furtak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Furtak of Ord, was married in Ravenna Sept. 19 to Miss Daisy Ahrens of Ravenna. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Macourek in the rectory of St. Marys church.

The attendants were Frank Ambrose and Mrs. Kenneth Young, both of Ravenna. The bride is a graduate of the Ravenna high school and is employed in the Ravenna bank. The bridegroom is employed in the jewelry store which his brother, Leonard, operates in Ravenna. He is a graduate of the Ord high school and spent three years in the naval air corps, sixteen months of which were in the Pacific theatre. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Furtak went away on a short wedding trip.

Urbanovsky-Janda Wedding Last Week

The county judge's office was the scene of the wedding of Miss Agnes Urbanovsky, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Urbanovsky to William Janda, the son of Charles Janda, which occurred Sept. 25. The double ring ceremony was performed by Judge John L. Andersen.

For the occasion the bride wore a floor length white satin dress, with a sweetheart neckline and a long train. Her only ornament was a three strand pearl necklace, the bridegroom's gift. Her bouquet was of red roses.

Miss Alice Urbanovsky, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor. Her dress was of aqua net. The bridegroom's cousin, Miss Vera Ruzicka, the bridesmaid wore a gown of pink net. Both of the bride's attendants carried colonial bouquets of asters and carnations.

The bridegroom, who wore a blue suit, was attended by Emil Mrkvicka in a blue suit and Ed Bruha in a blue suit. Joyce and Ileen Gibbons, nieces of the bridegroom, served as flower bearers and wore long white dresses. They carried small colonial bouquets of asters.

After the ceremony a dinner was held in the home of the bride's parents. A three-tiered wedding cake decorated with a miniature bridal couple served as a centerpiece. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Janda entertained their friends and relatives at a dance in the Ord Bohemian hall.

Bert Hansens Celebrate Golden Wedding Today

Today is a gala day for Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hansen. Thursday, Oct. 3, marks for them a half century of happy married life and they will celebrate the occasion in their home four and a half miles northwest of Ord. They will hold open house from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon and their friends and relatives are invited to call at this time.

Celebrates 18th Birthday

Miss Mary Ann Novosad was the guest of honor at a party Saturday night in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Novosad to celebrate her eighteenth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent dancing and popping corn. The guests were Mary Ann's schoolmates, relatives and neighbors. Toward the close of the evening Mrs. Novosad served lunch after which Mary Ann opened her many presents.

Mrs. Marks Honored
The regular meeting of the Doric chapter of the Eastern Star will be Thursday night, Oct. 3. At this meeting Mrs. Clara Marks, newly appointed grand representative of the State of North Carolina, will be honored.

Married in Kansas

Pvt. and Mrs. Eldon Cernik
 Miss Esther Taylor, daughter of Mrs. Lena Taylor of North Loup and Pvt. Eldon Cernik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cernik, were married Wednesday evening, at the Methodist parsonage in Smith Center, Kans. The Rev. W. M. Austin, pastor of the church officiated in the double ring ceremony. The bride chose for her wedding, a street length dress of light blue crepe with black accessories. The bridegroom wore his army uniform.
 They returned to North Loup Thursday and Friday went to Omaha. There Private Cernik departed for Baltimore where he is stationed at the Hollaberg Signal Depot. He had been home on a seven day furlough.

Thad Krason Weds
At 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, September 24, Miss Lorraine M. Cerny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cerny of Sargent became the bride of Thaddeus L. Krason, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ign. Krason of Ord, at a wedding ceremony performed in St. Mary's church in Sargent. The Rev. Michael Szeszeny officiated at the double ring ceremony.
The bride, attired in a satin gown ending in a long train and a long lace edged veil, and carrying a bouquet of pink and white asters, and a pearl rosary, a gift of the bridegroom, accompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage at the altar, entered the church to the strains of a wedding march, played by Mrs. Helen Huss at the organ.

Her maid of honor, Miss Alice Brim, wore a floor length dress of pink taffeta and a matching wreath, carried a bouquet of pink dahlias.

Mrs. Cecil Milburn of Riverton, Wyo., and Mrs. Helen Dix and two children of Topeka, Kans., arrived Friday for a week's visit with friends and relatives.
The Young Married Couples Pinochle club met Thursday at the Darr Evans home. The prizes were won by Donald Murray and Mrs. Elmer Armstrong. Mrs. Don Parker was a guest.
Mrs. R. P. McClary left Monday afternoon with her son, Harold, for a few days visit in Omaha.

Mrs. Una Crawford spent Sunday at the home of her niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Murray.
Mrs. Mae Klein Wed in California
Miss Mae Klein, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Klein, former Ord residents, who now live at Napa, Calif., was married in Napa Sept. 22 to Edward Wakefield of Vallejo, Calif. The ceremony was performed in St. John's church by the Rev. Bryan O'Rourke.
The bride wore a braid-trimmed wool frock of hyacinth blue complemented with a brown cloche hat and brown accessories. Pinned to her dress was a corsage of white tuberous begonias and she carried a white prayer-book with a blue handkerchief marker. She was given in marriage by her father, John Klein.

accessories. Both had corsages of gardenias.
The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake circled with white gladiolus and white tapers in crystal holders. The dining room decor was arranged with white gladiolus, stocks and carnations. Bouquets of pink and white flowers were used to ornament the living room.
When the couple return from their honeymoon trip, Mrs. Wakefield will reside temporarily with her parents while her husband serves with the army. She is an employee of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Happy Circle Club Meets.
The Haskell Creek Happy Circle club met in Ord Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Leonard Woods, with Mrs. Leon Woods as co-hostess. Nearly all of the members were present. Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

AN INVITATION TO Better Living

Frazier's attractive furniture store in Ord exists as an invitation to people to better living—more comfortable living—more satisfactory living. The home is the basic unit of the nation, and Americans want their homes to be wholesome, clean, attractive, and the shrine of their daily lives.

We invite you to partake fully of the better living exemplified by satisfying homes.

- The territory which we serve with a stock of the size and quality we have assembled extends far beyond the borders of this county.
- Our people "get around" and know furniture. They demand the best of practical, handsome and convenient furnishings such as the postwar mart provides.

When you come to our store to make your inspection, you may judge for yourself whether or not our selections for your enjoyment fully support our ambitions for this area. We think that you will be pleasantly surprised and pleased.

The demand for Home Furnishings has been large, and we have made deliveries to far-away homes in cities and farms as soon as stock items have arrived.

But we have assembled and have ready for your inspection and comparison one of the most complete stocks of good quality Home Furnishings in Central Nebraska.

The stock of Living Room Suites is surprisingly large.

Beside this wide selection, the array of Bedroom Suites, Occasional Chairs, Rockers, Floor Lamps, Reading Lamps, Tables, Stands, Mirrors, Pictures, Hassocks, Bedroom Rugs, Throw Rugs and other items will permit pleasing choices.

Our Living Room Rug display, while not large, due to the difficulties of purchasing, will appeal to your taste of appropriateness and beauty.

We have a good line of Children's Furniture.

Still Lots of Deer in Halsey Reserve.

Rumors to the contrary, there are still plenty of deer in the Nebraska National Forest at Halsey. During last year's open season 447 hunters killed 363 deer from an estimated population of 1,000 to 1,200 deer. Here is an interesting and proven fact about deer populations: in areas where deer are over-abundant (as they were at Halsey) they can be easily seen by casual observation. But lower populations can be sufficient for deer hunting while at the same time deer are not often observed without getting out and looking for them.

The 1945 deer hunt was conducted for one specific purpose: to reduce the number of deer in the Halsey area. Despite abundant sandhills grass the deer were endangering the trees. Deer eat grass when nothing else is available. Examinations of stomachs of deer shot last year showed grass to be the smallest item of diet, with buckbrush the most abundant. —Custer Co. Chief.

Jarusek Buys Ansley Paper.

R. C. Jarusek this week became editor and publisher of the Ansley Herald, having purchased the newspaper a short time ago from Guy B. Hixon.

Mr. Jarusek is a capable printer and publisher who will give Ansley a good newspaper and printing service. He learned his trade in this county with the Comstock News and has had other experience.

The former Ansley publisher has served his community for twenty-seven years, locating in Ansley soon after being released from service in the U. S. army in World War I. Mr. Hixon plans to take a needed rest and will visit friends and relatives in his home state of Iowa and other sections of the country. —Custer Co. Chief.

Hospital Bonds Will Be Issue in Howard County.

Voters of Howard county will vote on a $100,000 bond issue at the coming election, Nov. 5th for the purpose of constructing and equipping a County Community Hospital in Howard County. Petitions were circulated Saturday and Monday and more than five hundred signatures were obtained. These were presented to the county board of commissioners Tuesday afternoon and at that time it was decided to place the issue on the ballot at the coming general election.

Impetus for the campaign started with the board in charge of the Howard County Memorial Hospital in St. Paul, and with the help of other interested parties the petitions were circulated last week. Only the short length of time prevented the circulators from getting several thousand signers. —St. Paul Phonograph.

THE FOUR FREEDOMS
 It is hardly necessary to state who it was that advocated the four freedoms, as we all know. Among those four freedoms were as we recall them, freedom from want, freedom from fear, and freedom of the press. The idea took well, and many people actually thought we were to have those freedoms presented to us on a silver platter, without any effort on our part.

Recently in the Russian-Communist republic of Czechoslovakia and in the city of Indianapolis in the union-ridden republic of the United States, printer's unions have told publishers what they must not publish. Thus in two republics 5,000 miles apart in this one world, the hand of communism casts its shadow before. It is the beginning of the end of our boasted "free press."

The American publisher can still write what he pleases, although the time may come when even that privilege will be denied him. Yes, he can sit down to his typewriter and write what he honestly believes. He can get it printed—if the printer's union permits. He may influence the writing of his reporting and editorial staff—unless the American Newspaper Guild forbids.

He can get his papers distributed, provided the deliverers are not on strike. As a matter of fact, the publisher today has little freedom left, and he is losing that freedom rapidly. If this editorial were written for many of the daily papers in our larger cities, it would be impossible to get it published. There the unions figuratively look over the editor's shoulder and dictate what he must write.

In an ultimatum to the editors of Cas, a Czechoslovakian paper, the workers said they would refuse to set type for the paper unless guarantees were given that it would stop publishing articles of "Fascist" tendencies. To make certain it would not be published, the workers, according to the management, removed parts of presses.

Luckily not all unions are as radical as the one in Indianapolis. While there is still time, definite action must be taken to guarantee freedom of the press. Any organization which seeks to prevent the opposition from airing its views is un-American. Further, it is afraid that its program will not sell itself to the public on its merits. The American way is to study the merits of two plans, or systems or methods, and vote for the one preferred at the polls.

Nebraskans will have a chance to do that very thing this fall, when two widely divergent propositions are up for the commendation, or rejection, of the voters. So long as we are given an opportunity to decide for ourselves what we want, then the good old American way of life is still in operation. Let us see to it that we still continue to have the chance to express ourselves by the most potent weapon ever given to mankind, the democratic ballot.

-J. L. Ward.

SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT.

Our neighboring village of Scotia has a most enterprising group of business and professional men, and they participate in many activities during the year. One of them which is highly appreciated is the distribution of calendars over the territory at the close of the year. Last year they distributed them as usual, and the writer was lucky enough to receive one. It is hung on the wall in the kitchen, and has been consulted for checking the day of the week or month on many occasions.

A few days ago, when the first of October was approaching, the question came up as to which day of the week it came on. Everything indicated that it should be on Tuesday, but the old reliable Scotia calendar placed it on Wednesday. A check of another calendar showed that it should be Tuesday. After a lot of study it was finally found that the Scotia calendar was wrong, in that it had September equipped with 31 days. Luckily the remaining three months had been made as they should be, so the calendar is still in use.

Friday it was raining plenty, and Coach Bill Cook of North Loup did not like the idea of requiring his boys to play in the rain, so he called Shelton to ask for a cancellation or postponement. However, Shelton apparently felt that this was an easy game for them, so insisted on the game as scheduled, or a forfeit by North Loup. So to North Loup they came confident of a victory over the less experienced Loupers. What happened is now history. When the mud of battle had settled out of the sky after the final whistle, the score stood 44 to 6 for the home boys.

There is as much difference between six-man football and the regular kind as there is between baseball and softball, but don't think for a moment the six-man teams are softies. The play Friday was fast, almost unbelievably fast, considering the condition of the field, and at times nobody but the team with the ball knew where it was. The man who designed six-man football certainly did a great favor for the small schools. North Loup once played regular football, but today they could not play at all if it were not for the new game.

A little more in regard to old-time baseball. About a quarter of a century ago there was a baseball team known as Rosevale, Joint or Dry Cedar, and Frank Ball, a brother of Lil' Ellsworth, was its star performer on the mound. This team won fame from Spaulding to Sargent, from Atkinson to Loup City. They farmed all week for a living and worked overtime so they could take a half day off to play ball now and then. They were all good with the stick, and Frank could pitch good enough to win most of his games.

They had a feud on with an Irish team from the vicinity of Parnell, northwest of Greeley, and neither team would play on the home grounds of the other. Finally they agreed to have it out on the Greeley diamond. The day came and about everybody from Ballagh to Greeley was there. It was a hot game all the way, with the Joint gang winning out. A Polander named Joe Donahue didn't like the results, especially the pitching of Ball, so he decided to get him into a fight.

In some way he found out that Ball had a baseball in his jacket pocket, so he met up with him on the streets of Greeley and, in the presence of a number of other Irishmen, he accused him of stealing the ball from his team. Ball knew what was up, but could not start a fight, as he knew he would have to fight the whole gang. They were standing on the sidewalk, and just outside the chain where the farmers tied their horses was a fine, slimy mud puddle. Ball caught Donohue, who was a small man, by the collar with one hand and by the seat of the pants with the other, and threw him head first into the puddle. The spectators had to laugh, and so all danger of a general fight was over.

I had a second story planned about old time ball players from Joint, Springdale and Ord, and it was to be built around the late Jason Abernethy. I may write it sometime in the future, but I just can't seem to get into the mood for writing it now. I wish I had written it, and that Jason could have read it. I know he would have enjoyed it. Some years ago I wrote a poem, with Jason in mind, but I neglected letting him read it. If the editor permits, I think I will use it to close this column.

TO A BASEBALL PAL

My friend, we two have played the game
 In fair or stormy weather;
 We found much pleasure in the same,
 And had good times together.

We watched the ball curve o'er the plate,
 Or saw the fast ones sizzle;
 Sometimes we'd hit, sometimes we'd wait,
 And then strike out, a fizzle.

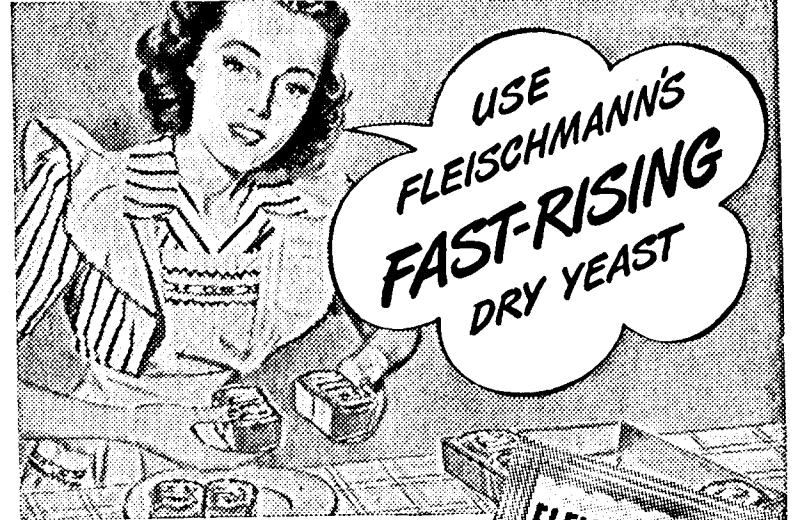

Since then in life we've done our part;
 Fate served us many a "dark one";
 But we played on with all our heart,
 And now and then we'd "park one."

So, to the end, we'll play the game;
 At last, when Death is serving,
 We'll swing our bludgeons, just the same,
 And try to hit his curving.

Two gunmen invaded Sam Cohn's tailor shop at Chicago and after forcing him into a wash-room started looting the establishment. They didn't stay long, however, Mr. Cohn told the police because pent-up steam began pouring from a safety valve on a pressing machine, apparently frightening the bandits. "It was a fine woosh and whistle," Mr. Cohn told police, "but it came too late. The bandits had taken $135 and two suits before the valve popped!"

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Going Fishing? Here's How!

To hear Willie Wells and Basil Strube arguing about trout fishing, you'd think it was more important than the atom bomb.

Willie favors dry flies, Basil pooh-poohs anything but wet flies. Willie swears by a Royal Coachman; Basil won't hear of anything but a Silver Doctor. And by the time it comes to steel rods versus bamboo rods . . . #IX&*!#!

But on Saturday, each got back from Seyard's creek with a catch that couldn't have differed by more than several ounces!

Each had used his favorite kind of fly, his favorite rod and his favorite place to cast. So over a friendly glass of beer, they allowed as how maybe they were both right . . . which is how so many arguments should end.

From where I sit, if we all respected one another's different opinions—whether about trout flies, or drinking beer, or voting, life would be a whole lot pleasanter.

Q...Who's Worried

over the "Right to Work" Amendment

A...Only the LABOR BOSSES

Labor Boss-Dictators have a right to be worried over the "Right to Work" amendment! Here's why: It would prohibit the "closed shop" through which they maintain a dictatorial monopoly on jobs and labor. It would permit each working man to be independent. The worker would not have to join a union against his will. He would not have to pay exorbitant initiation fees, or political and special assessments, if he didn't want to.

The Worker Isn't Worried! THE WORKER BENEFITS by the "Right to Work" amendment. Here's why: He can join or quit a union without fear of losing his job. He can offer objections to the way the union is run, to the levying of special assessments, or express himself in any other way without fear of being "disciplined" or kicked out.

He can work and earn a living for his family without being fired because he joins a union or because he refuses to join one.

The Farmer Isn't Worried! THE FARMER BENEFITS because the "Right to Work" amendment will be an aid to industrial peace. It will help him to more readily obtain much needed farm equipment. It will aid in the more orderly marketing of his products. It will bring about greater prosperity.

The Housewife Isn't Worried! THE HOUSEWIFE BENEFITS greatly. Industrial peace will mean a steadier income for her family. Necessary goods and services her family require will be more available. The workers in her family will have more independence.

The Public Isn't Worried! THE PUBLIC BENEFITS because the "Right to Work" amendment will bring about steadier employment, help build more industries—more jobs—and bring greater prosperity to Nebraska.

HOW UNION BOSSES CONTROL JOBS!

A Nebraskan from a small Nebraska city writes: "The job I worked on was a non-union job, but an A.F. of L. union forced a contract on my employer and then refused me membership in their brotherhood." This worker, a resident of Nebraska for 47 years says: "Now, I see my state letting a New York union step in and run my life . . . I want Nebraska laws for Nebraska men and women."

HOW TO VOTE
 There will be MANY ballots. You must be CAREFUL in your voting. The "Right to Work" amendment is identified as Constitutional Amendment 302. VOTE YES.

Your Wife Wants Electrical CONVENIENCES and COMFORTS NOW!

Ease and comfort can replace mother's drudgery when Electricity takes over. It can do a hired-girl's work easily and efficiently. An electrically operated automatic water system can pump and carry water for her. Electric lights can take over the monotonous, dirty job of cleaning and refilling kerosene lamps. Electricity can help her in many ways—money and labor saving ways like these.

Electric refrigeration can save her many steps up and down cellar stairs. It can help her save food and get better prices for eggs and cream.

No more back-breaking rubbing when an electric washer takes over. No more headaches caused from gasoline engine fumes. Electricity banishes wash day blues.

And, electricity makes ironing a pleasure. There is no need to wait. You can have electricity now. The entire family will profit from a Wincharger Electric System.

Book Tells About 2 Former Ordites

Biography of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Foght Written By Their Daughter.

A book has been written about two people, who formerly lived in Ord. The Quiz is indebted to Miss Mammie Smith, Ord township librarian for the following review of the publication, which is now on the library's shelves.

"The Skinny Angel" by Thelma Jones, is the tender biography of the author's totally unlike father and mother. They are Harold Foght and Alice Robbins Foght, who were reared in Ord. As many of the older Valley county residents will remember, Mr. Foght is the author of "The Trail Of The Loup".

Thorwald, as Mrs. Jones calls her father was a good but humorless school teacher. Alice was a merry, sympathetic, human being. The author relates the various problems connected with raising a family in a small, middle western community in the early 1900's under the handicap of a minute salary provided by her father as professor of rural schools in this area. The emphasis, however, is on her mother, the real backbone of the family, whom everyone loved for her gaiety and plump beauty.

"At least when I get to Heaven," she often said, philosophically, "I can be a skinny angel."

Being married to a schoolteacher was a great trial to the mother, especially when that school teacher was so firmly wedded to his profession as Thorwald was. He lacked her own infectious sense of humor, and insisted on keeping chickens in the attic. Her parents had pointed out that being a teacher's wife would be an education itself, and it was, Alice discovered, though hardly in the way they had meant.

This is a gay and human story, the portrait of a fun-loving and resourceful woman, and a record of American family life at its best. The author had promised to disguise her parents so completely that even Dick Tracy could not recognize them. But they were promptly recognized by readers as far away as Caracas, Venezuela.

Entre Nous club will meet on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Anderson.

P. E. O. Meets with Mrs. Murray Chapter BB P. E. O. opened their year Monday evening with a covered dish dinner at the home of Mrs. Earl Murray. Following the business meeting Mrs. Mark Tolens entertained the Chapter with many interesting and amusing incidents of her summer trip with her son Dick. While in New York, the Tolens enjoyed visiting with some former Ord P. E. O. members, Mary Koupal and Ruth and Martha Mae Barta.

Married in Denver

On September 18 late in the afternoon, Miss Loreen M. Meese, daughter of Mrs. Hazelle Heese, and Bud L. Burson, son of W. E. Burson of Denver, were married at a candlelight service at St. Frances de Sales Church in Denver, Miss Virginia VanHouten and Gene Gergen attended. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Gene Gergen. Mr. and Mrs. Burson spent their honeymoon in Colorado Springs.

Frank Maly Married

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maly The Methodist church in Ord was the scene of a double ring wedding ceremony Sunday afternoon Sept. 12, when Miss Mildred Mae Cone became the bride of Frank Maly. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cone of Burwell and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Maly of Ord.

The bride was attired in a white street length dress and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The maid of honor wore a dress of aqua and carried a bouquet of white carnations and chrysanthemums. Mrs. Maly was graduated from the Burwell high school in 1946. Mr. Maly is a farmer.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents Sunday evening. The newlyweds are enjoying a honeymoon in Omaha after which they will reside on their farm northeast of Ord.

McGrew Sisters-in-law Have Reunion in Burwell

Mrs. I. W. McGrew of Burwell was hostess at a luncheon in the Lemmon cafe in Burwell last Wednesday having as her guests her sisters-in-law, Mrs. O. H. McGrew of Pomona, Calif., and Mrs. C. E. McGrew of Ord and her niece, Mrs. Bill Lefferdink of Norfolk, who is the daughter of Mrs. O. H. McGrew. It has been many years since the Mesdames McGrews were together and the short time they spent together was most enjoyable for them. The children of the three ladies were nearly all born at Burwell or Ord and there never was a more hilarious bunch of cousins than the even dozen of McGrew boys when they were together. The I. W. McGrews had four children, the O. H. McGrews seven and the C. E. McGrews four.

The luncheon guests returned to Ord on the afternoon bus and Thursday morning Mrs. O. H. McGrew and Mrs. Lefferdink left Ord where they had been guests in the C. E. McGrew home for several days and went to Lincoln to visit relatives for about two weeks before Mrs. McGrew returns to her home in California.

While Mrs. Lefferdink was in Ord many people remarked about how much she resembled Mrs. Will Zabloudil and so a meeting of the two ladies was arranged. Their resemblance was found to be striking and each woman enjoyed meeting her double.

Theodore Herman Carl Schultz was born near Hamburg, Germany January 11, 1875 and departed this life at his home in Arcadia, Nebr., September 30, 1946 at the age of 71 years 8 months and 20 days. As a young man of 16, he left his birthplace and came to the United States, settling near Arcadia where he spent his entire life as a farmer with the exception of the last two years when he retired and moved to Arcadia. He was united in marriage to Emma L. Franzen March 8, 1906 and to this union six children were born, Henry J. of Arcadia, Herman T. of Anseno, Richard, who preceded him in death, Edgar E. of Arcadia and twin girls, Mrs. Dora Hawley of Arcadia and Mrs. Nora Anderson of Loup City.

Mr. Schultz had been in poor health for some time but bore his illness so patiently and uncomplainingly that he slipped out of this life with but one of his children at his bedside although all lived close by. Being a lover of home and family and a kind, sincere and thoughtful friend he leaves his wife, family, one sister, eleven grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives who regret his sudden passing. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Congregational church. Rev. VanderHeide officiated. Two beautiful solos were sung by Kermit Erickson accompanied by Mrs. Erickson. The pallbearers were Alfred Malm, Louis Summers, Louie Larson, Brady Masters, Wesley Swazie and John White. Burial was in the Arcadia cemetery. Arrangements were made by the Hastings-Pearson Mortuary.

Ord Auxiliary Receives Citation

The Women's Auxiliary of Fidelity post of the American Legion has received a citation from the state headquarters in recognition for the work it has done in the last year. The officers of the Auxiliary are shown above. At the left is Mrs. Harry Zulkoski, secretary, Mrs. Clark Weckbach, president, Mrs. F. L. Blessing, vice-president, and Mrs. John Wozab, treasurer.

The Auxiliary filled all the quotas made by the state and national headquarters. Contributions were made to the Christmas gift shop in the Lincoln Veterans' hospital. This shop opens early in November when hospitalized patients may choose gifts for all members of his family and if he is unable to go to the shop gifts are brought to his bedside so that he may make a selection. These gifts are beautifully wrapped and mailed without expense to the patients.

Another project is the sewing of carpet rags which are sent to the veterans' hospital where they are made into rugs by the patients who receive both financial and physical benefits therefrom.

The Auxiliary's quota for the educational fund for children of veterans was contributed. Some local welfare work has been handled and recently fifteen dollars was donated to buy prizes for the weekly bingo parties held in the veterans' hospitals. Many other various activities are supported.

At its last meeting committees were appointed to look after the details incidental to the Sixth District convention which will be held in Ord Oct. 22. The following delegates were selected to represent the local auxiliary, Mrs. Clark Weckbach, Mrs. Harry Zulkoski, Mrs. John Wozab, Mrs. Ross Allen, Mrs. Richard Rowbal and Mrs. Robert Hall.

The sessions of the Auxiliary convention will be held in the Methodist church. Mrs. Harry Zulkoski and Mrs. Frank Faleta were selected as pages to serve during the convention. Mrs. Edwin Jensen heads the membership committee which plans to complete its drive for new members a week before the convention if possible.

The registration committee is headed by Mrs. Cecil Clark. Assisting her are Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. Horace Travis and Mrs. Horace Johnson. Mrs. Clarence Switzer and Mrs. E. L. Vogeltanz comprise the courtesy committee. Mrs. F. L. Blessing heads the entertainment and flowers committee. The therapy committee is presided over by Mrs. Roy Severson. The refreshment committee for the dance which will be held in the Bohemian hall in the evening consists of Mrs. Herman Behrends, chairman, Mrs. Frank Sevenker, Mrs. Ed Kaspar and Mrs. Peter Hollander. Mrs. W. E. Lincoln and Miss Dolsie Waterman will operate the check stand.

Card of Thanks—

We wish in this manner to thank our friends and relatives for the many fine presents they gave us. We also wish to thank the ladies who prepared and served the very fine dinner and all those who helped to make the day a very happy one for us.
Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Mueck.

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

Who Gets Off Easiest— Men or Women?

Maybe you saw that poll on who has the easiest life—men or women? Of course, the men voted that the woman did, and the women vice versa.

It would be the same in our town—take any family. Thad Phibbs envies his Missus spending the day at home, with no hot office to attend to. And Sue envies Thad his luncheons with the boys; and his evening glass of beer with friends (while she cleans up the dishes in the kitchen).

Of course, none of it goes very deep. Thad knows way deep down that the Missus has plenty of work running a house; and Sue knows Thad's friendly glass of beer is well-deserved relaxation after a long hard day's work.

From where I sit, most husbands and wives may grumble now and then—but they know in their hearts it's a case of live and let live, give and take, that comes out pretty even in the end.

Joe Marshall

D-X Winter Change-Over Service

IS A CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Worry and work and delays—all because this car can't take cold weather. Isn't it tragic that the owner didn't believe the Weather Man when he forecast a hard winter? This motorist said, "I'll take a chance and hope for the best."

But here is a happy, carefree driver. No matter how cold the morning, off he goes with a singing motor, and all because he simply drove in for complete D-X Winter Change-Over Service. It's the sure way to protect your car this winter.

BETTER MEAT Makes BETTER MEALS

Many generations of Ord residents know what we're talking about when we say that the meat we sell is just a little bit better. More than half a century in Ord qualifies this market to know good meats, to know customer preferences, and to know how to serve you with the better kind of meat that makes for better, more enjoyable meals.

Yes, even in this period, when many meat markets over the nation are closing their doors, we have kept that same standard of quality. We invite you to visit our market.

Proceedings of the County Board

October 8, 1946
The meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Valley County was held on the above date with all members present on roll call.
The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved as read.
Bank reports read as follows: Nebraska State Bank, $26,799.06 on hand September 30, 1946; First National Bank, $72,751.50 on hand September 27, 1946.

The petition of E. O. Schudel, et al, asking that the road beginning at the Northwest corner of Section Nine (9) Township, Seventeen (17) Range Thirteen (13) and extending east four miles be designated as a County Road was presented.
Meeting recessed at 12 o'clock and reconvened at 1 o'clock with all members present. The petition of Fred Dowhower, et al, praying for the vacating of a certain road was presented. Said road being described as follows: Beginning at the Northeast corner of the Southeast Quarter of Section Thirty-six (36) Township Twenty (20) Range Fifteen (15) West of the Sixth Principal Meridian and extending one-half mile (more or less) south.

The County Surveyor was ordered to report on the same.
Motion made and carried that the report of the County Treasurer on Delinquent Taxes be accepted and placed on file.
The following Resolution was presented by Supervisor Smith:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, by the formation of the Valley County Noxious Weed District, according to Sections 2-910-951 as amended by the 1945 Nebraska Legislature, there is urgent need of funds for the purchase of equipment and materials to be used by the said District, and WHEREAS, it is too late to make a levy for that purpose, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the sum of $4,200.00 be appropriated from unexpended balances in the General Fund for the use of said District.

On roll call the above Resolution was unanimously adopted.
Motion made and carried that W. C. H. Noll be appointed to fill out the unexpired term of County Assessor, caused by the death of Jason L. Abernethy.

THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE "HOME" WHEN YOUR FORD NEEDS ATTENTION! EXPERT SERVICE GENUINE PARTS

Careful driving alone cannot insure safety. Unless your car is in good operating condition, there's danger ahead! Remember—many motoring accidents are due to faulty brakes. Do you know whether your brakes will stop your car within the margin of safety? The sure way to find out is to bring your Ford back "home" for inspection. Your Ford dealer's expert mechanics will check it thoroughly—including brakes, wheel alignment, tires, lights! As cars grow older, they require more attention to keep them rolling safely and maintain high trade-in value. With the return of many veteran mechanics, your Ford dealer can now offer you fast, expert service. He uses genuine Ford parts and saves you time and money on any job. Remember—Ford's out in front in service, too!

Married at Elyria

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Micek

Miss Wilma Vancura, daughter of Mr. Vancura Sr., became the bride of Sylvester Micek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Micek at a double ring ceremony and nuptial mass performed by the Rev. Leonard Ziolkowski at the St. Mary's Church in Elyria, Oct. 8 at 9 o'clock.

The bride was dressed in a beautiful floor length white satin dress with tight fitting bodice, with a net yoke edged with lace. It also had a satin scalloped peplum and double net skirt. The fingertip veil was held in place by a white beaded crown. The bride wore a three strand pearl necklace and pearl earrings, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.

Her attendants were LaVerne Janicek of Burwell, niece of the bride, and Doris Kamarad. They wore pink brocaded taffeta dresses with peplums and double net skirts. They carried white colonial bouquets.

The best man was LaVerne Jablonski, cousin of the groom and Edwin Vancura the bride's cousin was the other attendant.

Over fifty guests were served at the dinner and supper at the home of the bride's brother, William Vancura. A four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom served as a table centerpiece.

In the evening the bride and bridegroom entertained their friends and relatives at a dance at the Ord Bohemian hall. Music was furnished by Adolf Urbanovsky and his orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Micek will make their home on a farm nine miles west of Ord which his father owns.

The son who was born Oct. 7 and daughter and had the pleasure to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Axthelm in Santa Rosa, Calif., has been named Roger Bruce. Friday night Mrs. A. J. Ferris received a telephone call from her son-in-law and grandson and of hearing a reply from him. Mrs. Axthelm and son had been released from the hospital that day.

A YEAR AGO

This week we were advertising our famous home-made sausage as a fit accompaniment for cold weather breakfasts.

Times have changes a bit, but we hope that soon we will again be able to supply you with that pure, home-ground sausage. Properly seasoned, ground from tender young pork, it was a fine start for any day.

In the meantime, we're still keeping our standard of quality at the same high peak. What meat we have is the best.

Richard Vasicek Wed at Blue Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vasicek —Photo by Swopes

Richard Vasicek, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Vasicek of Ord was married in the Holy Trinity Catholic church in Blue Hill Oct. 5 to Miss Clara Conway, who is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Conway of Cowles. The Rev. A. J. Szmydt performed the ceremony and celebrated the nuptial high mass.

The bride was gowned in silk marquisette over a net and satin foundation. Her dress featured a bodice of brocaded taffeta inset with a sheer marquisette yoke and a full skirt swept into a court train. A cornet caught her fingertip veil to the head and she carried a white missal from which fell streamers of lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Conway attended her sister as bridesmaid. She wore a gown of blue with a matching net veil and carried a colonial bouquet. Glen Henry of Guide Rock was the best man.

Following the double ring ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother where places were laid for thirty-four guests. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Vasicek, a graduate of the Cowles high school, was formerly employed by Radio Station KHAS. Mr. Vasicek was discharged after three and a half years of service in the army.

Following a short honeymoon they will be at home in Longmont, Colo., where Mr. Vasicek will be employed at the Nelson studio.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Vasicek, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kasper and Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Urbanski, Mr. and Mrs. George Vasicek and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Adamek all of Ord, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Beranek and Mildred of Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Clark and Ray Jeanne of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Danker of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Conway and family of Campbell.

Bruha-Cernik Wedding in Loup City Oct. 2

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruha, Jr., of Ord announce the marriage of their daughter, Agnes, to Frank Cernik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cernik. The double ring ceremony was performed by County Judge, E. W. Mochnert, in Loup City on Wednesday morning, October 2. Attendants were Dorothy Bruha, sister of the bride, and Johnnie Lukesh of Grand Island, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. The bridesmaid wore a navy blue dress and a corsage of roses. They also wore a carnation tiara in their hair.

A dinner was served at noon at the home of the bride's parents with immediate relatives present. A three-tiered wedding cake served as a center piece.

After a honeymoon trip to the Black Hills, they will live on a farm southeast of Ord.

Cpl. and Mrs. Harry Jonas and Mr. and Mrs. Bolish Jablonski spent the weekend in Omaha where they visited the Jablonskis' daughter, Delores, who attends the Commercial Extension school there. They were also guests in the home of Mrs. Stella Zulkoski and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Platek.

Mrs. C. E. McGrew spent the weekend in Grand Island with her son, Lloyd. When she left Ord Saturday morning she had planned to go to Orleans to visit her son, Dr. Kirby McGrew and family. Her grand daughter, who is a hostess on an air liner, had planned to be home for the weekend. The flood in the Republican valley changed Mrs. McGrew's plans so she remained in Grand Island where she enjoyed the fall festival. Sunday morning her son was driving her about Grand Island following a late breakfast when a truck collided with their car while they were waiting for a stop light to change. Her son's car was completely demolished. Mrs. McGrew and Lloyd were taken to a hospital where x-rays revealed that they had suffered no injury other than shock. She returned to Ord Sunday evening.

The banks in Ord were closed Saturday as the day was Columbus day. Most of the Ordites went to Lincoln Friday evening and returned Sunday.

Rites for Wilson Bell Held Friday

Pioneer Citizen, a Former Sheriff, Lived in Valley County 62 Years.

Funeral services for Wilson Bell, who lived in Valley county for sixty-two years and was a former sheriff, were conducted in the Hastings-Pearson chapel at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon by the Rev. R. T. Cordry. Mr. Bell died in an Omaha hospital Oct. 7 following an operation. Interment was in the Ord cemetery with Ed Zikmund, Henry Geweke, Robert Noll, Theron Bechle, Will Lukesh and Lawrence Mason serving as pall bearers.

Mr. Bell was born on a farm near Monmouth, Ill., Nov. 13, 1865, attained the age of 80 years, ten months and 20 days. He attended school in Illinois where he grew to early manhood and in the fall of 1884 came to Nebraska with his parents.

For several years he was employed by Orson S. Haskell, who published the Ord Blizzard, one of the early day newspapers in Valley county. Later he established a home on a farm in Mira valley.

In May of 1898 he married Miss Ephie Stark, whom he took to live in his home in Mira valley. A year later a son, Archie, was born to them but the mother only lived a week after the birth of her son. Seven years later in 1906 Mr. Bell married Miss Sadie Ollis, who died two years later. He and his son continued to make their home in Mira valley for a number of years. Mr. Bell took an active interest in the civic affairs in his community and served as county commissioner for several terms.

In 1916 he was elected sheriff of Valley county and moved to Ord where he made his home with his sister, Mrs. Marion Gaggagen. After serving as sheriff he operated a feed mill in Ord for a number of years.

Since the death of his sister, Mr. Bell has made his home with his great nephew, Ellis Carson.

He leaves his son, Archie, of Ogden, Utah, two grand daughters, Miss Marie Bell of Ord and Miss Thelma Bell of Washington, D. C., three brothers, A. W. "Bud" Bell and John Bell of Ord and Oliver Bell of Schaller, Ia., a sister, Mrs. Anna Byington of Lincoln and a number of nieces and nephews.

Suffering Ends for Mrs. Henry Nolte

Funeral Sunday for Woman Who Cheerfully Bore Ill Health Many Years.

A life in which much suffering was cheerfully endured ended Friday when Mrs. Henry Nolte laid aside the heavy cross she had borne to assume a heavenly crown. Funeral services were held in the Hastings-Pearson chapel Sunday afternoon with Ralph Horn in charge. Interment was in the Ord cemetery with Nels Nelson, Harry Clement, Elmer Zlonke, Earl Dent, Lyle Witherwax, and Kenneth Denning serving as pall bearers.

Frances Alice Prosser Nolte, the daughter of Abraham and Jane Prosser was born Feb. 2, 1870 near Pella, Ia., and departed this life Oct. 11, 1946. When a small child she moved with her parents to Dallas, Ia., where she grew to womanhood. In her early childhood she suffered an accident and as a result she used crutches all the rest of her life.

She never allowed her disability to interfere with her usefulness on this earth and as long as her health permitted she filled her days with long hours of work. She taught school in Iowa until her marriage to Henry Nolte March 3, 1901. Six years following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Nolte made their home in Iowa and then they moved to Garfield county, Nebraska where they lived on a farm east of Burwell until July of 1915 when because of Mrs. Nolte's failing health they sold their farm and moved to Ord.

Thirty-five years ago Mrs. Nolte listened to the gospel and made her choice to live for God. Throughout the years she remained faithful and followed the way of the truth and light. To satisfy their love for children and to brighten their home Mr. and Mrs. Nolte adopted two children whom they loved and reared.

Besides her husband she leaves her son, Theron Nolte and her daughter, Mrs. Quentin Witherwax both of Ord, a sister, Mrs. Etta Campbell, a niece, Mrs. Leonard Butts and a nephew, Ernest Brandfas all of Burwell. Whenever Mrs. Nolte met a person she made a friend. Her bright and cheerful outlook on life was an inspiration to all with whom she came in contact. No blessing which came her way was ever too meager to be fully appreciated. Her friends will rejoice that her soul has been released to join Him whom she served on earth.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hoppes and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hoppes and son of Burwell were Sunday dinner guests in the home of Mrs. Dora Jorgensen.

Here are the three Vaney countians whose farms have been chosen for entry into the soil conservation contest which is sponsored by the Omaha World-Herald. At left is Fritz Kuehl, of Ord, the center man is Henry Janus, of Elyria, and on the right is Ignatius Pokraka of North Loup.

Rev. Haun Will Leave Ord Soon

The Rev. A. I. Haun will deliver his farewell sermon at the morning service of the Assembly of God church Sunday morning. After more than two years in Ord he has resigned his pastorate. The Rev. and Mrs. Haun will leave early next week for Greeley, Colo., where they will visit relatives for several weeks until they make a decision as to a new pastorate.

The Rev. B. B. Arnold of Casper, Wyo., will arrive in Ord Oct. 23 to replace the Rev. Haun as pastor of the Assembly of God church. He is a married man and the father of two children. The Rev. Haun states that he has enjoyed his work in Ord very much and that he has found the people to be very cooperative.

—Bud Bell, who has been critically ill in the Clinic hospital is reported to be much better following a blood transfusion. He is afflicted with anemia.

—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bilka of Burwell in the Clinic hospital October 9. The mother and baby are reported to be in excellent condition.

OPA Price Controls

OPA Price Controls on all livestock feed has been removed and it is pretty hard to tell just where feed prices will level off. We have advised for several months that you should stock up on the feeds available that you will need for this winter. It is now very evident that that has been extremely good advice as most manufacturers and brokers of Protein Feeds refused to price any feed as soon as these controls were removed. We believe that any time you can find protein feeds for sale that you should buy what you need. At present we have good supplies of bran and shorts, Poultry Feeds, Beefmakk, Dairy feed, 40% Hog Supplement Pellets, Oyster Shell, Shellmacker, Iodized Limestone. Come and see us for your feed needs.

Grains

We are in the market for grains of all kinds. Let us bid you on your corn, oats, barley and wheat. We have trucks available for bringing your grain to our elevator. If you need Corn, Barley or Oats, we will be glad to quote you.

Mothers Best Flour

We have white Mother's Best Flour in 50 and 25 lb. bags.

Tulip Bulbs

Our Holland grown Tulip Bulbs are here. Come in and get yours and plant them any time. These are large size bulbs and will give you wonderful flowers early next Spring.

Mrs. Alice Bower Writes Letter to Valley Countians

The Quiz received the following letter from Mrs. Alice Bower, who moved to Washington state where she resides at Mossy Rock after living 57 years in Valley county.

Dear Valley County Friends: I've been requested several times to write a letter for the Quiz to publish. I don't write so many personal letters any more. We are all OK. Allan Tappan was in the hospital a few days but is recovering now.

My sister, Addie Huntington and I went to Oakland, Calif., this summer for a five sister reunion. We all lived for many years in Davis Creek community. May and her husband have a fine home there. Julia Clark from Casper and Ona Van Kirk Abrahamson and her husband came from Superior, Wis.

We had a grand time for about three weeks. They took us to Yosemite park where the mountains, waterfalls, and big redwoods are. We were there four days. May's husband knows the park well and also Ona's son, Karl, and both men took us to all the points of interest. They also showed us all the interesting sights in around Oakland and San Francisco, such as the Golden Gate bridge, Cliff House, Fishermen's Wharf, the museum of live and still life and the wonderful flowers in the parks.

We crossed the Bay bridge every time we went to San Francisco but Addie and I thought that just for natural beauty it's hard to beat Washington. I also think there is a beauty about old Nebraska that one does not see out here. Every state has its beauty but to me the best thing about our Nebraska community was the friends whom we enjoyed there. I must close with good luck and best wishes to all our friends in Valley county.

Alice Bower.

SOMEWHAT DIFFERENT
By John L. Ward

In Brookline, Massachusetts, the self-styled "richest town on earth", political candidates mean what they say when they wage a clean-up campaign. Win or lose, all candidates get out the day after election and tour the town to remove their political posters and literature. The idea started as a paper salvage campaign in 1940, and has been continued since that time. The citizens like the idea so well that it has become a permanent feature. The Quiz should start a campaign to have the idea put into practice here. The Lord knows most candidates are homely enough to look at for three or four months, without having to gawk at them for that many years.

In this connection, I know a good one on Clarence M. Davis, who ran for railway commissioner some years ago. A long time afterward one of his cards, with his picture, was still adorning a post in an adjacent county. Two fellows drove by, and one of them said: "Is that fellow still running for office?" The other replied: "Yep, I reckon he is. He didn't make it last time, so he just left his cards up for the next time". At that, Clarence is a lot better looking than some candidates for office I have known, and I am not thinking about Judge Andersen, either.

The highway department has made it tough for would-be office holders. The law does not permit posters of any kind to be put up on the highways. However, this did not prevent Roy Cochran's posters from being posted all along some of the leading state highways in Nebraska the last time he ran for governor. Evidently the people didn't like the idea, however, as Cochran lost out that year. It is also unlawful to put up posters on electric light or telephone poles anywhere, and especially in towns and cities. Perhaps you have noticed that about the only place the candidates pictures appear any more is in store and office windows, and there by special permission.

After being away for some time, I dropped into the Quiz office recently and was struck rather forcibly by the fact that the place keeps changing all the time. As fast as more space is available, it is filled up rapidly by new machinery, at least, new to the Quiz office. This last time I had the pleasure of shaking hands with my old friend, Oscar Nay, who is starting in to learn the business— from the top down. Oscar is one of the best plant superintendents available, and the Quiz is certainly lucky to have him. John Hannah is still general foreman, and he has all he can do.

Another thing I couldn't help but notice is the fact that a large number of the employees are ex-service men. Beginning right at the top, Oscar Nay is a former army man. The navy has three representatives on the list: Ed Apking, advertising manager, Dick Stanley of Syracuse, who will have charge of the new Quiz press, and Jack Harvey of Taylor, who is a pressman. On the writing end we find Rex Wagner, who wrote for the Quiz both before the war and afterward, and my short hitch entitles me to American Legion membership.

The army was the choice of the rest of the ex-service men employed on the Quiz, and they come from several different towns in Nebraska. There is Bob Moore of St. Edward, who is a printer; Don Nielsen of Dannebrog, who is an operator; Willard Diederichs of Norfolk, who is an operator; and Ed Hvezda of Ord, who is a pressman. Last, but not least, is Frank Absalon, army, who is in charge of the photo engraving department. Almost two-thirds of the men employed by Quiz Industries are ex-service men, which is a fine showing, indeed.

During the recent damp spell, when some five inches of rain fell here at North Loup and more elsewhere, the writer had nothing else to do, so went to the creek for a try at the finny tribe. It was really too wet to expect any sensible fish to be feeding, and especially the sun fish, which are supposed to get their best biting on a sunshiny day. Believe it or not, the sun fish were really biting, and if they had all been big enough, the catch would have made a good string, even for Hank Leggett.

All of which reminds me that there is no accounting for what fishes, or animals or human beings will do under certain conditions. In a game I saw in Hawaii, the lead off man on the home team (area 3) hit safely four times in a row. In the final inning, with the opposing team one run ahead, two men on this same team came to bat and struck out, ending the inning and the game. A lot of the fans had money bet on the Area 3 team, and they just about mobbed the fellow who struck out in the pinch, forgetting the four hits he made that made a close game possible.

Area 3 had four such pitchers, and they all faced Dickey in one game. He obliged by getting a home run off the first two, a double off the third, and a hit off the last one. To give the pitchers a sporting chance, he alternated at bat, batting first right handed and then left handed. The score board was 400 feet from home plate and stood up in the air about 20 feet, and one of his homers cleared it easily. I have his autograph on a baseball, and I am rather proud of it.

Enough Food is no Accident

It is no accident that the largest crops in our history are being harvested this year when we, and the rest of the world, need them most.

In spite of war, loss of labor and little new equipment, the American farmer has again taken care of us and provided a life-saving surplus for abroad.

How do our farmers do it? How is it that only sixteen per cent of our people can feed all of us and go on breaking records in the face of circumstances which slow up industry?

There are three reasons: First, farmers work harder and longer than most other Americans. Second, they know how to make the best use of tools. And, third, they have a long-standing partnership with industry seeking to satisfy their urge to get more out of the land for the same labor. Farmers are still practicing the kind of enterprise that built America.

National thanks are due the farmer for the job he has done in the last five years. Universal respect is due him for his foresight in helping industry equip farms to meet a whole series of emergencies.

BUT... we should not crowd our luck, or the farmer's luck either. Too many farm tools are now worn out. Without new ones production may go down. Farmers need over eight hundred million dollars' worth of new implements and equipment. It is up to industry and labor to keep wheels turning to produce them, but any recurrence of strikes would prevent this.

America should see that the hard-working farmer gets what he needs.

The Naval Ammunition depot had the best team in the Hawaiian league, and no wonder, as they had Skeets George Dickey for catcher and Wayne Olsen as their leading pitcher. As ball fans know, both these men were on the Chicago Cubs roster until they went into the service. So it was no wonder that the team was the best. This team came to Area 3 one afternoon to play a regularly scheduled game. Olsen held the home boys to one single up to the ninth inning, and their team was out in front, 5 to 0. When the visitors took the field in their half of the ninth, Olsen put on the catchers outfit, and Dickey did the pitching. It looked like a real chance for Area 3, but those boys set them down in one-two-three order, and the game was over.

I have never seen a big league game, and I have heard a lot about one Babe Ruth, and how he could hit. About all the average pitcher could do with Skeets Dickey was to throw for the corners and pray.

Great new motor oil by Standard

Permalube

Removes the "goo"
Improves the go!

You get premium-plus lubrication

Here's why there's more go to your car when the "goo" is gone. There are no gooey deposits of soot, varnish, carbon, and sludge. There's nothing to interfere with valve and ring action and smooth, powerful piston strokes. You get a sweeter-running engine... a better-lubricated, longer-lasting engine.

Standard's great new motor oil, Permalube, gives you this premium-plus lubrication. It not only thoroughly lubricates. It cleans your engine and keeps it clean.

So, remove the "goo," improve the go! Change to Permalube, Standard's finest motor oil, 35c a quart.

"I never saw oil drain out so dirty!" "Good! That shows Permalube's been taking out the 'goo'!"

When you wash your hands, the drain water gets dirty. But your hands get clean! Same way when you use Permalube Motor Oil. The oil gets dirty. But the engine gets clean. The dirt is carried out of the engine when you drain out the oil.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

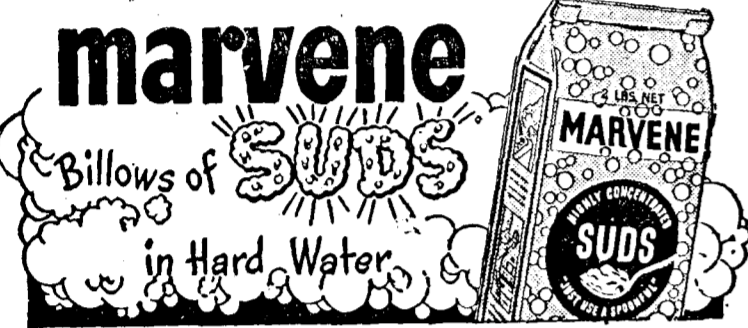

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's gives happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

TRAINED FOR THE JOB In a few days the citizens of this area will step into the seclusion of the ballot box to make important choices. All this in defiance of the statement: "It's in the bag for the Republicans again."

Perhaps the election is in the bag as far as Nebraska is concerned. Certainly a state that went nearly 70 per cent Republican two years ago, and since that time has been continually pestered by the swarm of New Dealisms and regulations "that abound—OPA, loose labor laws, indifferent and haphazard regulation of commodities to name a few, should even increase its percentage of anti-New Deal votes.

Granted that the Republicans will win—handsomely. Granted that practically any individual with a halfway decent background will be elected to a state office if he is running on the Republican ticket.

Perhaps this is as good a time as any to state that the Republicans are extremely fortunate—for in keeping with their tradition—they have selected candidates that are deserving of the high public offices which they seek.

Two men, specifically, stand out, and these two men are candidates for the two highest offices in the state—governor and lieutenant governor.

Val Peterson of Elgin has fitted himself for the job he seeks. Of rather humble parentage, he became successively a school teacher, a school superintendent, a newspaper publisher, secretary to a governor, and when war broke out, enlisted in the Army Air Forces and served in the China-India-Burma theatre of operations. He rose to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

Robert Crosby of North Platte, is commonly known about the state as a young man who is "going places."

Crosby chose a legal career early in life and backed up his education at the University of Nebraska with further training at Harvard. Entering private practice at North Platte, he was later elected to the unicameral legislature. His second term saw him elevated to speaker of the house—one of the finest pieces of recognition a man could have.

His career was interrupted by the war—he saw service in the Navy. As Lieutenant governor he will have further opportunities to be of service to the people of the state.

Two men of this calibre are an asset to any form of government. We, for one, are glad they're going to head our state government, for the next two years.—E. R. A.

ONE MUST GO

President Roosevelt did not live to see the end of the world conflict which developed during his tenure in office. It seems to be pretty generally understood that he and Josef Stalin were agreed on a number of facts relative to the peace to follow. On some of these points we evidently are still in the dark, since the late president cannot speak, and Stalin does not choose to speak.

However he did speak on one essential fact the past week, and it is pretty well established that Roosevelt did hold the same opinion with him. The conclusion these two world figures reached is an ominous one and the fact that they are agreed makes it the more ominous. They agreed that the two systems, the capitalistic and the communistic, cannot exist in one world. If this is true, then the world is in a bad way.

If the two cannot exist in the world at the same time, it follows that one must go. Lincoln said that our nation could not exist, half slave and half free. Stalin and Roosevelt agreed to the same thing, in substance when they agreed that the world cannot exist, half democratic and half communistic. For to us it seems that democracy is freedom and communism is slavery. When the rights of the individual are submerged in the rights of the state, then it is slavery.

The two ideologies are diametrically opposed. In one the state is supreme, in the other the individual is supreme. Here, we think for ourselves, there the state does the thinking for the citizen. Here we work at the job we prefer and get rich or go broke, as we choose. There they work at the job the state chooses for them, and nobody gets rich, because he is permitted to accumulate only a certain amount, and the state takes the rest. Oh, yes, it is a splendid system!

Stalin says that communism is the perfect system, but we have only his word for it. The people of Russia are not given a chance to express themselves. Last February an election was held in Russia, and ten million people voted. But there was only one ticket in the field, so of course that ticket won. From the democratic point of view, that election was nothing but a mockery, the gesture of a totalitarian government pretending to emulate the elective system of the democracies.

Thank God, we in America still have the two party system, and we still have the right to criticize those elected to office. Representative Brown has the right to accuse Secretary of the Interior Krug of using an army plane to electioneer. Senator Joe Guffy has the right to call Senator Wherry a Tri-State Mortician, whatever that is. Carroll Reece, Republican national chairman, has the right to ask President Truman to keep politics out of his discussion of the meat situation.

In Russia, how long do you think Reece would last if he were as frank in talking to Josef Stalin? Possibly long enough to assemble a firing squad, and the gun-toters are never far away. Brown and Wherry, not belonging to the party in power, would be sent to the salt mines in Siberia, and the "trouble" would be over. No, here in America we still have the right to say what we think, the CIO and PAC to the contrary notwithstanding.

Just study a few of Democracy's headlines: "Elks Hospital Drive Started". That could only happen in a Democracy. In Russia there are no Elks. "New Republic Editorship to Wallace". That is a democratic headline, as the magazine will have no censorship, and the so-called Russian republics have everything censored. "Ak-Sar-Ben selects Countesses". Don't laugh, folks. In Russia everybody is "Comrade". There are no titles, and such organizations as Ak-Sar-Ben are unknown. America may not be perfect, but, right or wrong, she is still "Our America"—J. L. W.

How to plan food for your Hallowe'en party

If what to serve at your Hallowe'en party is a problem, then here are some ideas that may be helpful to you.

HALLOWE'EN BUFFET SUPPER

- *Red-Hot Poker Roast
*Red Cabbage, Green Grepes and Almond Salad
In Pumpkin Shell Salad Bowl (Use pumpkin for pies, afterward)
Toasted Finger Rolls
*Mocha Gingerbread with Orange Cream Cheese Frosting
Coffee

*Recipe below.

RED-HOT POKER ROAST—Arrange 16 to 24 frankfurters side by side (allowing 2 frankfurters for each person); run string through top and bottom. Broil frankfurters; then tie them, curved side in, around mound of potato salad; press into salad so that it resembles a crown roast. Cut string to serve.

MOCHA GINGERBREAD with ORANGE CREAM CHEESE FROSTING—To a package of prepared gingerbread mix add 1 cup cold coffee and 1/2 cup pecans. Pour into an 8-inch square cake pan and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 45 minutes, or until done. To make frosting: Mash two 3-ounce packages of cream cheese with 2 tablespoons orange juice and 1/2 teaspoon orange rind. Stir in 1/2 to 1 cup sifted powdered sugar. Add a few drops of orange food coloring for a brighter color and more powdered sugar if a thicker frosting is desired.

Plus-Value Work Shoes

Always to be Found at Brown McDonald's

$4.98 to $7.50

For thirty-two years our organization has searched out, and visited, the best known and the most reliable shoe manufacturers in the nation—those who have a reputation for highest quality and most skilled workmanship. That's why we say that our work shoes can't be beat.

We Have Work Shoes for Wear Where It Is Wet

The uppers of these shoes are made from double-tanned leather — a leather which is the most resistant to water and soil acids of any leather tanned. And the soles are oil-treated, and welted to prevent seepage between sole and upper.

We Have Work Shoes for Wear Where It Is Dry

Under these conditions, a glove leather upper is the best buy. Glove leather is very soft and supple and gives perfect ease and comfort about the ankle. Cord soles are used on a shoe of this type and will outwear any other kind of sole available. They're the "toughies" of the sole family.

We Have Work Shoes with Molded Backs

This style of shoe has the back part of the upper cut all in one piece—eliminating the back seam. Very comfortable to wear and there are no seams to rip and need repairing.

If you have never worn our Work Shoes—give us a try

PHEASANT HUNTING IS FOR VISITORS;
DEER HUNTING TOPS; SAY ORD MEN

At least five Ord men are perfectly willing to let hunting visitors in Valley County have all the pheasants. The Ord men, Delbert Benson, Forrest Worm, Mart Beran, Ed Gnaster and Melvin Clement, would rather go deer hunting.

Not only, according to Melvin Clement, is deer hunting more exciting, but it also pays dividends. Mr. and Mrs. Clement were with a hunting party near Graystone, Colo., last week when Melvin spotted the antlers of a deer just coming over the mountain top. He waited until the deer came within range and then shot him through the shoulder.

Ed Gnaster and Mart Beran teamed up to bag their four-point, 200-pound deer near Wheatland, Wyo. Mart says he'll take deer hunting ten to one over pheasant hunting.

Prize hunter of the lot, however, was Delbert Benson. He was sitting in camp near Rifle, Colo., when he shot a five-point buck deer. Delbert's hunting companion, Forrest Worm, also bagged a deer.

—Visitors at the John Wozab home Monday evening were Mrs. Otto Pecenka, Mrs. Anna Parkos, Mrs. Mary Franci, Bess Franci and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Proetz of Miami, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Proetz left the following morning for their home in Michigan.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Psota - Williams

On September 22, Miss Audrey Betty Psota, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Psota of North Loup, became the bride of Worley W. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worley Williams of Grand Island. The single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leslie F. Sweetland, pastor of the Grand Island Presbyterian church.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church annex. Among those attending the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Psota, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Psota and Ronnie of North Loup, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Psota and Gary of Ericson.

Larsen-Wert

Miss Joy Larsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Larsen, and Dwayne Wert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wert of Hampton, were married Sunday, Oct. 20 at the Bethany Lutheran church. The double ring service was performed by Rev. C. Jeppesen.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a green pastel suit with brown accessories and a corsage of talisman roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Doris Johnson of Morehead, Ia., and Miss Loreen Rose, a cousin of the bride.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Keith Wert of Hampton, and Willard Stunkel of Lincoln. The wedding march was played by Miss Valborg Aagaard and Russell Pierce sang, "Some Sunday Morning".

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Masonic hall. Out-of-town guests at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wert and daughters of Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pierce and family of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Isaac and Peggy Ann of Polk and Herman Miller of Hastings.

After the reception, the couple left on a trip to Lincoln where they plan to attend the Dana College homecoming. Mr. and Mrs. Wert plan to make their home at Hampton.

Arcadian Married

A wedding of special interest to Arcadians occurred at St. Anthony's church in Forest Grove, Wash., Monday, Sept. 2. Miss Helen Marie VanDyke became the bride of Joseph L. Bridges. Mr. Bridges is the son of Mrs. Virginia Bridges of Gaston, Wash., who formerly resided in Arcadia.

Married At Burwell

Miss Lola A. Combs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Combs, and Russell W. Birch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Birch were married by County Judge B. A. Rose at his office in Burwell Monday, Sept. 30.

The bride wore a light blue street length dress and a blue hat with black accessories.

Sunday, Oct. 6, the bride's parents gave a wedding dinner honoring the couple. Guests attending the dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Combs, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Birch, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Birch and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Burson, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Birch and family.

Dinner Honors Houthys

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Prien honored the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Houtby, at a dinner in their home Sunday. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kueger and sons of Litchfield, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neumann, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Smith and children of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Houtby and daughters of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Houtby and daughters of North Loup and Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Sevenker and sons.

What Are The Facts About the Telephone Situation ?

EMPTY PROMISES NEVER SERVE ANY GOOD PURPOSE. EVERY PERSON WHO IS WAITING FOR A TELEPHONE — ALL THOSE WHO DESIRE ADDITIONAL TELEPHONE FACILITIES — AND THOSE WHO ARE IMPATIENT OVER SERVICE DELAYS — ARE ENTITLED TO KNOW THESE FACTS ABOUT THE SHORTAGES WHICH TELEPHONE COMPANIES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY NOW FACE:

1. During the war, additional telephone equipment, telephones, cable, wire, poles, and other vital materials could not be obtained in adequate quantities because of governmental restrictions, which were necessary to conserve materials for war uses and to insure that our armed forces would be supplied with the communication equipment they needed. Thus the war delayed, by several years, the normal expansion of facilities as well as the repair and replacement of existing facilities.
2. With the end of the war, use of the telephone for both local and long distance service was expected to decrease, and the wartime demand for new telephones was expected to diminish. What has happened has been exactly the opposite!
3. Today, the telephone companies are staggering under the biggest traffic load in their history, and the number of unfilled applications for service is higher than ever before.
4. Orders for needed equipment have been placed with the manufacturers and suppliers, who, as a result, are faced with an engineering and production problem without parallel in the history of the business. Because of shortages of material and trained personnel, deliveries are uncertain. The indications are that it will take at least three years to balance production and demand, and for some items five years may be needed.
5. The shortages of materials have been further aggravated by numerous strikes in basic industries, with the result that one after another critical item has been in short supply, making our job of meeting service demands still more difficult.
6. Everyone knows how difficult it is to build a house, or buy an automobile, a pair of nylons or a white shirt. Telephone equipment is just as hard to get, or more so. How soon this situation will improve nobody knows, but the indications are it will not be soon.

THESE, THEN, ARE THE CONDITIONS WHICH WE, LIKE OTHER TELEPHONE COMPANIES, NOW FACE, AND OVER WHICH WE HAVE NO CONTROL. WE ARE MAKING EVERY EFFORT TO MEET SERVICE DEMANDS, BUT THERE WILL CONTINUE TO BE UNAVOIDABLE DELAYS. IN THE MEANTIME, YOUR CONTINUED TOLERANCE AND UNDERSTANDING WILL BE HELPFUL.

Albert Ryan
Albert Smith Ryan, son of Mary and Lawrence Ryan, born at Exeter, Nebr., on May 25, 1877. He passed away at the University Hospital in Omaha, on October 19, 1946. Age 69 years, four months and 24 days. He was united in marriage on March 15, 1899 with Maude Hewitt of Nebraska City. Eight children were born to this union, three who died in infancy. The five surviving children are: Blanche Peterson of Redmond, Ore., Ethel Dalby of Arcadia, Lucille Cunningham of Vermonia, Ore., Donald Ryan of Oroville, Wash., and Dorothy Sherbeck of Buxton, Ore. There are five grand daughters and five grandsons. He is survived by five sisters and one brother, all living in California. He lived in Exeter, Nebr., until 1921 when he brought his family to Arcadia where he lived on the farm until about three years ago when his health failed, he and his wife moved into Arcadia. He was a patient sufferer during his many months of illness. Everything that loving hands and medical skill could do was done for him but he gradually became weaker until the end came. He was a kind and loving father and husband and will be greatly missed by his family and friends. Funeral services were held in the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Music was furnished by Kermit Erickson, who sang "Does Jesus Care" and "The Old Rugged Cross", accompanied by Mrs. Erickson. Services were conducted by the Rev. VanderHeide. Pallbearers were Len Campbell, Roy Norris, Port Dunlap, Herchal Sherbeck, Frank Franzén and Adam Hvezda. Hastings-Pearson had charge of the arrangements.

Dr. Fred Christ, Ernest Christ, Richard Dryden and Jess Beale of Hannibal, Mo., are spending the first week of hunting with Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Christ.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spidel and Edwin Christ of Lincoln spent the weekend at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Christ.

Arcadia Loses to Ravenna, 20-0
The Arcadia Huskies were blanketed here Friday night by a strong Ravenna eleven, 20-0. The Huskies "T" was much hindered by the muddy field, while Ravenna's passes and power smashes from a single wing carried her to overwhelming victory. A pass by Clark clicked for a score, and a center smash went over for another, Fries converted on one of them, to give the Blue Jays a 13-0 half time lead. At the beginning of the second half it looked as if the Huskies might rally, but they were stopped by a combination of mud and Ravenna linemen and the Jays took over to score again in a pass by Clark. Fries converted and the game ended 20-0.
Coach Swearingen was forced to substitute constantly throughout to game to rest his backs, since three of them, Moody, Pierson and Woody had been injured the week before.
The Huskies have an open date this week and Coach Swearingen believes his men will be in better shape for the game with Scotia, November 2. Loup City defeated Scotia 21-6 and the Huskies 12-0, so by all indications it should be a close game.

The Woman Society of Christian Service, will meet on Friday afternoon, October 25, at 2:30 o'clock in the church. Mrs. Win. Kingstom will have charge of the devotions, with Mrs. Ross Evans and Mrs. Martin Benson, as hostesses. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting. Come and bring your friend with you.

Two Valley County Boys Meet in Korea

Seoul, Korea Oct. 7, 1946 Mr. H. D. Leggett, Editor-Manager The Ord Quiz

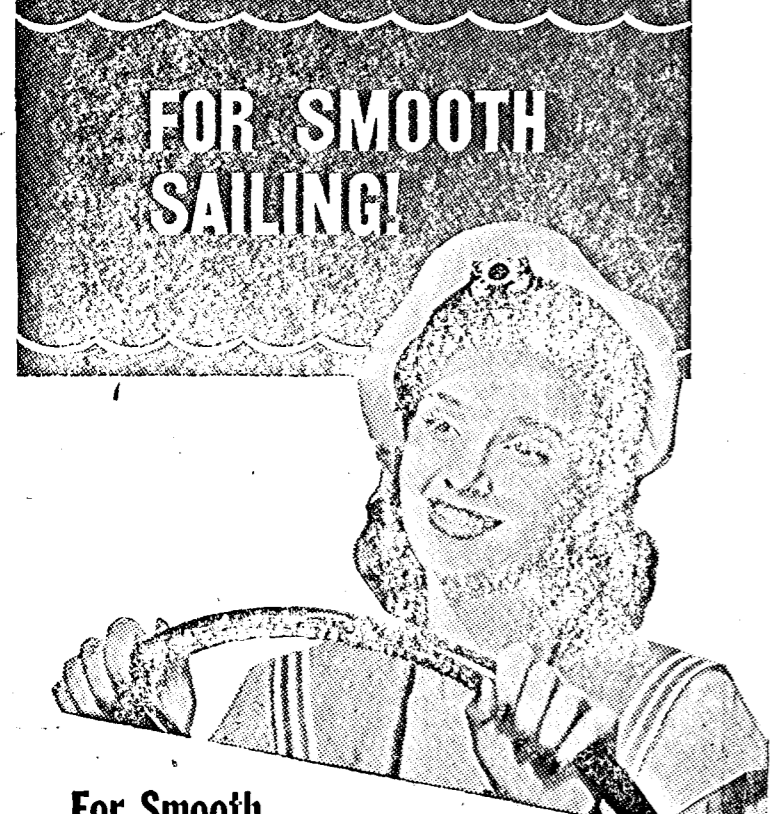

This is Sgt. William J. Blaha and Sgt. Martin L. Sonnenfeld writing to you at this time and enclosed is a picture of ourselves. We are constant readers of the Ord Quiz and enjoy reading it very much because it brings us closer to home and the news keeps us up to date of everyday activities around home. Of all the factors which brings spirit and sharpness to any outfit the Ord Quiz is the one thing which does more for the morale of us than anything else. We were inducted together and then were separated, and by sheer coincidence we have met in this organization. Sgt. Martin Sonnenfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sonnenfeld of North Loup, and Sgt. William Blaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Blaha of Ord, two well known local boys, both stationed in the occupation of Southern Korea. Sgt. Sonnenfeld, ass't chief clerk in the office of the division quartermaster has a job which pertains to maintaining of files, records, the quartermaster journal, preparation and proper channeling of correspondence. Sgt. Blaha the division quartermaster Class I ration Sergeant, handles all phases of quartermaster operations pertaining to supply. The supplies consist of rations for men and animals and other supplies consumed on a uniform daily rate. He also has to insure an uninterrupted flow of supplies throughout the division. Respectfully yours, Bill and Martin.

Lincoln Joint Sells 3 Valley Co. Farms

Three Valley county farms which the Lincoln Joint Stock Land Bank owned were sold at auction in the district court chamber of the Ord court house last Saturday morning. The land brought from $51.00 to $21.00 per acre. The Frank Golka farm of 320 acres, located about nine miles west and one mile south of Ord, was sold in two tracts. The improved quarter was bought by Emil Smolik for $51.00 per acre.

The Charles King farm of 400 acres, about ten miles southwest of Ord, was sold to L. V. Aldrich for $22.00 per acre. The Harvey Parks farm of 640 acres, located about five miles northeast of Ord was bought by Walter Stowell for $21.00 per acre. The Skala place which was advertised to be sold at the same time had previously been sold privately to Harold Burson, auctioneer J. C. Price announced. The sale was clerked by W. J. Boomer of North Loup and Mr. Howard from O'Neill.

Movie Star Bob Taylor Finds Good Hunting

It had originally been announced that the actor's plane would arrive at the Ord airport at five o'clock Friday afternoon, and nearly one hundred cars were waiting there for its arrival.

Instead, Barnett, Chuck Baylor and Dillo Troyer drove to Grand Island to greet the hunters and bring them to Ord.

Upon his arrival, Mr. Taylor insisted that he was to have no publicity and that there were to be no parties. He informed Mr. Barnett that he was here only on a hunting trip.

Guided By Angard

According to Barnett, the Hollywood men had a lot better luck than other Ord hunting visitors have had. Pheasants were plentiful, and during their one-day excursion, the men bagged twenty pheasants. Of these, Robert Taylor shot four.

Saturday morning's hunting trip took them east of Burwell with Barnett, Chuck Baylor, Cork Biemond, Jim Aagaard, Ellis Carson and Ed Swopes accompanying the party. They ate lunch in Burwell, where waitresses at the restaurant failed to recognize Mr. Taylor and refused to believe that the Hollywood star had actually been there. Saturday afternoon the men hunted southwest of Ord.

Taylor A Sound Sleeper

Taylor spent most of his spare time sleeping as they drove from field to field. He fell asleep the minute he hit the car. Barnett jokingly told the actor that when Taylor's current picture, "Undercurrent," played here he would sleep right through it. Then he remarked that Taylor must have a clear conscience to be able to sleep so soundly. To this Taylor replied, "Why shouldn't I sleep? I have an airplane to fly around in, my wife is working and I'm on a hunting trip."

Taylor and his party left Sunday morning for a hunting lodge at Aberdeen, S. D., where they will remain for a week. It's possible that they may come to Ord on the return trip to pick up their pheasants. After that, the group will fly back to Sacramento, Calif., and go duck hunting.

Only Six County Superintendents for Amendment

Among Top 12 Now

If you added $40 per pupil to our present educational expenditures, Nebraska would have the costliest education system in the nation, relatively speaking.

Even with our present expenditure, Mr. Haynes said, the U. S. Commissioner of Education, John W. Studebaker, ranks Nebraska among the nation's top 12 states.

Hitling at amendment proponent's claim that the proposal would equalize educational opportunity, Mr. Haynes said rural schools would receive scant benefits in comparison.

Nineteen per cent of the schools in Nebraska have five pupils or less, he pointed out. Under the amendment this type of school would be guaranteed $125. The city school room with 40 pupils would be guaranteed $1,000.

"Every educator knows that the cost of education in the two rooms would practically be the same with the exception of text books, etc." he declared.

The Dakota county superintendent also warned that the clause to "equalize educational opportunity" leaves $2,260,000 for the legislature to play with. This assumes that the levy always would bring an even $8,000,000.

Big 'Log Rolling' Fund

Mr. Haynes said no sane man could believe that an even $8,000,000 could be raised.

The average legislature would have to use a poor tax collection year to set the levy to raise "at least" $8,000,000. Mr. Haynes said. In 1936, a two per cent sales tax plus a healthy income tax would be needed to do the job. In 1945, a two per cent sales tax alone would have raised $14,500,000.

"On that basis," Mr. Haynes continued, "the legislature would have had a $9,000,000 log to roll to equalize educational opportunity." I personally am against that kind of large scale log rolling in this state.

He accused the amendment proponents of putting the "ham and egg" deal on the ballot because it was too "unreasonable" for any legislature to pass.

They figured the average voter would not take time to read the amendment, he said, and would vote "yes, merely because the amendment was called school aid.

Want A Car? Alaska Is The Place To Get It Says Ordite

If you want plenty of elbow room and good clean air to breathe, go to Alaska, advises Capt. William C. Garnick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Garnick of Elyria. Capt. Garnick, who is company commander of the 90th Quartermaster Railhead company of Task Force, Frigid, at Ladd Field in Fairbanks, thinks that Alaska would be an excellent place to live if you weren't in the army.

In a letter to his wife, the former Ord high school football star says that everything is expensive in Alaska, even on the army post. One can get a haircut in the post exchange for $1.50 and other things are priced accordingly. If you think meat is expensive at home, states Garnick, you ought to try buying it in Alaska. Restaurant and hotel owners there pay one dollar a pound for beef which is flown in from the states. Other food, however, such as cabbage, celery, lettuce, turnips, potatoes and cranberries, is grown right there.

Autos Not Popular

Cars are the only cheap thing in Alaska, principally because there is no demand for them. Native Alaskans have no use for an automobile because the gas is too difficult to obtain. As a matter of fact, Capt. Garnick says that the people there ponder more over taking a trip by car than by plane. He believes that Alaska is twenty-five years ahead of the United States in air travel.

As for the Alcan highway, declares the former Ord resident, travelers coming by car from the states report that the highway through Canada is just like a rockpile. However, when you reach the Alaskan border, the last 1600 miles are as smooth as glass.

Houses aren't easily obtainable in Alaska either. Capt. Garnick says there is a definite housing shortage. There is a tremendous amount of construction going on and the cities are filled to overflowing with civilian workers.

Likes Nebraska Best

Alaskans expect great things of their country. However, Garnick doesn't believe that it can be accomplished without a great deal of outside money, both government aid and tourist spending.

Alaska might be a sportsman's paradise to some, but Garnick declares he'd rather hunt and fish in Nebraska. There's plenty of fish and game in Alaska, but you have to have a plane to reach it. However, the Ord man managed to shoot his first moose and says he got quite a thrill out of it.

Wolf packs are the biggest danger our army has to cope with in Alaska. You can't enter the woods without being armed for the bear and wolves attack frequently. Even around the barracks, each man must wear his 45 caliber pistol at all times because of wolf attacks on the camp.

FOR

COUNTY ASSESSOR

Will Be Appreciated

My friends and neighbors have honored me by writing in my name on the ballot for county assessor. I do appreciate their gesture of good will and their confidence, and I will appreciate your support in the election next Tuesday. I have been a resident of this county all my life with the exception of five years spent in Garfield county. I am a retired stockman and farmer. I have no axe to grind—no favors to grant. If elected I will do my best to repay your confidence in me.—Charles Ciochon.

THE $40 QUESTION

Nebraska voters will probably say "No" to the controversial school amendment next Tuesday.

There has been a lot of stewing and a lot of hot arguments about this $40 question.

And the vote may be surprising to those who have been so fervent in their support of the bill.

Organized agriculture will vote against it. Union labor will vote against it. Followers of the Nebraska Taxpayers' League will vote against it.

The real $40 question is this: Where is the money coming from? It can't come from a property tax.

Here's another $40 question: Why is the money necessary? There's a glib answer to that: "Why, to raise the standards of our schools, of course?"

Now doesn't it seem reasonable that if the people of a community were not satisfied with the standards of their local school that they would make an effort to raise those standards?

Perhaps that's right. The New Deal set out to cure first the nation by spending a lot of money. And look what happened.

Just what is wrong with our schools? Ask the average school man and you'll get a lot of mumbo jumbo and talk about intelligence quotients, objective analysis (whatever that is) etc., and usually a statement that teachers are underpaid.

We have no argument with the latter statement. There are a lot of teachers underpaid. And a lot of them are overpaid.

Some day—probably not too far in the future—this same amendment may be presented to the people again. And at that time, this writer may vote for it instead of against it.

When I happened to mention the other day to a friend that Adam was a Jew, I started a tempest in a teapot.

This is the last week before the general election, and I am not going to do any electioneering, nor am I making any predictions as to the outcome.

That is one of the things that has made this the greatest nation on earth. That is one of the component elements that go to make up that precious thing we call liberty.

If I could see every one of you this week, I would like to ask you one question, not, "how are you going to vote?" but, "are you going to vote?"

In this light, voting ceases to be a privilege and becomes a duty. It is so easy to say that one vote cannot change anything.

We do not make monkeys of ourselves these days as we did in the good old days, for example, when McKinley and Bryan ran for President in 1896.

We kids could not vote, but we could go to town when the candidates arrived for a political rally, and we could carry a paraffine torch in the big parade.

The kids of today are different, or, are they? They go about their daily school work, and you would not think they knew, or cared, a single hang about the election.

However, I am inclined to the opinion that they know a lot more about the facts of government than we did, but are smart enough not to shout their knowledge from the house tops.

They give first place to their school work and expend their energies in shouting for the home team at football games, where it may do a lot more good.

But I'm betting that the average fifteen-year-old knows more about the record of our candidates for office than their parents do.

In my father's time a young man went all the way from Newcomerstown, Ohio, to Zanesville, a distance of 25 miles.

When he got back he said: "If she's as big all that way around as she is over there, we got a Hell of a big country!"

Now, a hundred years later, our young men have seen, collectively, every country on the globe, except Russia, and have a fairly good idea of how those countries are governed.

They had a chance to compare, and are ready to accept the good old U.S.A., with all its faults, in preference to any country on earth.

Not only that, but these same young men plan to have a part in correcting the faults in their country's government. More power to them!

Mrs. Cal Pickett of Tensleep, Wyo., takes no nonsense from rattlesnakes. On her way to the mail-box she saw a big rattler coiled in the path.

Mrs. Pickett grabbed the nearest thing handy, a five-gallon milk can, killed the snake and calmly got her mail.
