Applications for Insurance Refunds Coming in Steadily

Valley County Vets May Get As Much As $100,000 Dividends.

Applications for refunds on over payments on National Service Life Insurance are pouring into the office of John J. Wozab, county service officer, at the rate of 25 a day.

"These are just the early birds," Wozab told a Quiz reporter. "I don't expect the real flood to start until this week end. All in all, we should have more than 700 applications from this county."

Stresses Information Wozab stated that a veteran making application for refund on insurance payments should have three things: (1) Service Number (2) Insurance Policy Number (3) Veterans' Administration "C" number if any.

"Without those numbers an application will be held up—perhaps returned to the individual, by the Veterans' Administration," Wozab warned.

No figures on the amount of refund have been given by the Veterans' Administration, according to Wozab. However, it is estimated that the average veteran may get a refund of about 70 percent of the amount of premiums he paid on his policy, and on this basis it is estimated that total refunds of over-payments made by Valley county veterans will hit the $100,000 mark.

Posts Are Helping In other areas of the county help in filling out refund applications is being given by American Legion posts in North Loup and Arcadia. A number of forty applications have been processed so far at North Loup, the Quiz learned. Application forms are available at postoffices in Ord, Arcadia, North Loup and Elvira, Wozab's office in Ord and the Veterans' club in Ord.

Night Fire Burns Barn on Alderman Place Near Ord

Lightning Set Blaze Destroys Building and Contents Total Loss.

Fire, undoubtedly caused by lightning, completely destroyed the barn on the Lloyd Alderman place, southeast of Ord at about 10:30 Thursday evening. A heavy thunder storm was passing at the time, and there is no doubt the fire was set by a bolt of lightning.

Lloyd was sitting up at the time, as he is troubled with hay fever and did not think he could sleep if he went to bed. The daughter, Betty, first saw the blaze as it lit up her bedroom window, and her call attracted her father, who found the fire too far advanced to do anything with it.

The Ord Volunteer Fire department was called, but all they were able to do was to keep the fire under control by wetting down the garage, which probably would have burned. Burning shingles, blown by a high wind, scattered as far as the Emil Sedlacek place, some distance east.

Partial Insurance The barn, a building 40 x 50 feet in size, was a complete loss. Some hay was also burned, and all Mr. Alderman's shop tools, kept in a stall in the barn. Also lost were the cream separator and other milking equipment, and harness, bridles, and much other material.

No livestock was lost, as the horses had been turned out for the night and the cattle were in the pasture. Lloyd says the building and some of the contents were covered by insurance, but he was unable to state just what the loss would be, or whether all material in the barn was included in the insurance.

Head Coach Bill Glassford of Nebraska's Cornhusker football team is trying something new this fall and is bringing his 62 candidates for the 1949 Cornhusker Varsity squad to Curtis for a 16-day drill period on the Aggie gridiron.

Public Invited. The Curtis Chamber of Commerce, with the permission of university officials, has invited towns in the area to come and see the Cornhuskers while they are in Curtis. Glassford will hold practice sessions each morning and afternoon except Sunday.

They were particularly impressed with the agricultural and cattle raising development in Florida where thousands of acres of former waste cut-over timber land, and swamp land are being planted to permanent grasses for year-around cattle grazing. Another high point of interest on the trip was the Tennessee river development in the TVA area in northern Alabama.

Scouts Postpone Sod House Plans

Sod Too Crumbly, Must Find New Source to Assure Good Soddy.

After plowing out several strips of sod on the Cash Weiniak meadow Friday afternoon Boy Scouts of Ord were forced to give up, for the present, their plans to build a 12x24 foot sod house on the Mortensen farm north of Ord.

Chas. E. Palmatier, who was supervising the project, said the sod was unsuitable for use. Soil was too sandy, he said, and the sod crumbled too much under handling.

Preliminary tests of the sod, dug with a spade, had indicated its suitability but it crumbled under the breaking plow and by advice of Mr. Palmatier the work was stopped. Both horses and a jeep were tried as motive power on the plow by Mr. Weiniak, who had offered to donate sod for the project.

Weiniak suggests that another try be made later, in another part of the meadow. Leslie Nash, troop committee chairman of the Scouts, says attempts will be made to find suitable sod elsewhere. If it cannot be found a Scout house will be built out of other materials, perhaps from rammed earth.

All Motor Vehicle Drivers Licenses Expire Today

Drivers Must Take 2nd Exam. If More Than 60 Days Allowed to Pass.

All motor vehicle operator's licenses, commonly known as drivers' licenses, expire today, Sept. 1. The law does not permit the issuance of new licenses before this date, but a number of counties began issuing new licenses ahead of time, so County Treasurer Wilson and his assistant Dick Satterfiel began issuing them Monday of this week.

No penalty will be assessed for driving under the old license until 60 days have expired, which should give all drivers plenty of time to have their licenses renewed. After 60 days a new one cannot be issued until the applicant has passed an examination before the patrolman examiner.

In renewing the license, the old license issued in 1947 must be presented, signed by the holder. If the old license is lost, a duplicate must be obtained before the renewal can be issued. Licenses can be renewed by mail. All that is required is to sign the old license, and mail it with $2 to the county treasurer's office in Ord, if you are a resident of Valley county, or to the county seat of the county in which you reside.

Death Takes Mellor at Ripe Age of 89

Valley County in Pheasant Hunting Area of Nebraska

Ten Day Limit Made; Two Cocks Is Limit of Bag for Each Day.

A ten day open season on pheasants, starting at 11 a. m. on Friday, Oct. 21. Daily limit and possession limit to be two birds, both cocks. Shooting to stop one hour before sunset each day.

Twenty-five counties in which birds winter-killed during the disastrous blizzards of 1945-49 to be closed entirely to hunting.

There, in a nutshell, is the story of pheasant hunting for Nebraskans this fall, as decided Friday by the state fish and game commission.

Valley county is in the open season section, which is defined by the commission as follows: Starting at the northwest corner of Knox county and the Missouri river, thence south to the northeast corner of Wheeler county, west to the northwest corner of Garfield county, south to the southwest corner of Garfield county, west to the northwest corner of Logan county, south to the Lincoln county line, west to the northwestern corner of Lincoln county, south to the Perkins county line and then west to the state border.

No pheasant hunting will be permitted in Nebraska this year to the north and west of the above line. This ruling was made in accordance with the prevailing sentiment there that there should be no open season. Opinions here vary considerably among sportsmen and farmers whose land produces the birds.

S. W. Roe, six miles south of Ord, is of the opinion that there are more birds this year than last. He says: "Flocks of pheasants this year have a greater number of chicks than they had last year. Shelter for the birds is probably more complete there than in some other localities."

Will Koelling, living farther south in Davis Creek township, believes the birds are plentiful this year. He says: "There seem to be more this year than last on my place, and there are more in a flock than I have ever had last year, but they must have died in the winter."

Jim Gilbert, barber, says: "If they think we need these restrictions it's all right with me. They know and I don't. I have seen quite a few in the evening out along the Aradale road, some flocks of young birds."

Leonard Woods, county clerk, sees it from a different angle. He says: "There will be very few out-of-state licenses issued this year. People are not coming such a distance when they can take only two birds home with them."

Carl Dale, county agent, says: "It was about what I expected. The rule is all right, if hunters shoot cock pheasants only. There is usually a surplus of cocks, anyway." He says he plans to do some hunting and hopes to get his share.

Emil Fafeta says it is all right to limit hunters to two birds per day as it gives the birds protection. He adds: "The south half of the county is better than the north half. He adds: "There is a lot of cover and hunters can't shoot in the morning or evening. The two-bird limit gives outsiders no reason for coming in."

Misko - Olsen

Rev. Christen Jeppesen performed the 2 o'clock double ring ceremony. Mrs. O. A. Kellison was organist and soloist was Herman Elstermeier who sang "Because" and "O Promise Me".

Attending the bride were Miss Lila Hackel of Grand Island as maid of honor and Miss Delores Andersen of Central City as bridesmaid. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin with fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves, and off-shoulder neckline of marquisette trimmed with chantilly lace. The skirt, designed with three tiers of lace, extended to a three yard train. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a coronet trimmed with seed pearls. Nebraska Highway Needs Shown in Recent Engineering Appraisal

The size, weight and speed of vehicles using Nebraska highways must be controlled and standardized if there is to be efficient use of the state highway system. Further it is important that maximum dimensions and weights be consistent, one state with another. Only when such standardization is perfected can trucks and buses operate consistently from one state to another. Nebraska very nearly conforms to the standards set and adopted by the American Association of Highway Officials in 1946 at meetings held to determine the sizes and weights of various types of vehicles.

The maximum width of 8 feet which has been adopted and accepted as safe and proper will be in service in Nebraska for many years yet, especially on the 20 and 22 foot pavements. The time may come when these pavements will be widened, and possibly the width of vehicles will be widened, but this will not be for a long time yet. To offset this manufacturers are putting out trucks with greater length than in the past, and for the protection of highways, many of them are now putting more rubber under these larger truck bodies. It is probable that the width of trucks may never be increased, as the present width is as great as is commensurate with safety.

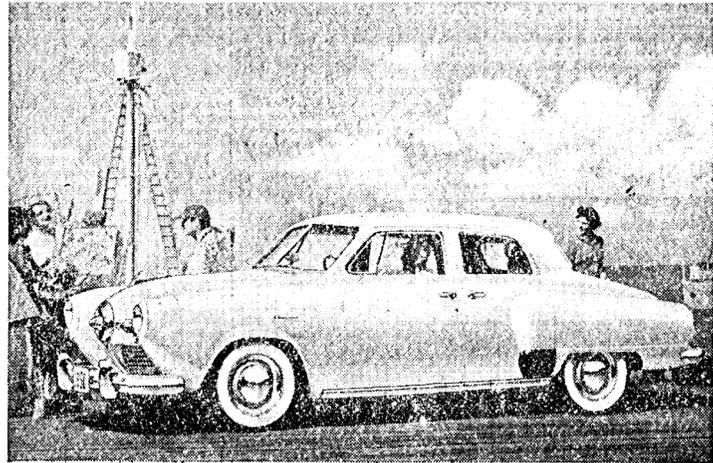

This width is also practical for use on city streets where the lanes have been established in width from 10 ft. to 12 ft. In the establishment of overhead clearances, the height of 12 1/2 feet has been generally adopted as the maximum for trucks and buses grade separation structures and other overhead obstructions are being made with this height in mind, and any increase in this height in the future would be difficult and costly to achieve. The maximum length of a vehicle or vehicles, is important for two easily understood reasons; first, the time needed to pass a slower vehicle is dependent upon the length of each vehicle. This has been found to be an important safety consideration. Second, the length, together with the type or combination of vehicle units, determines the amount of "off tracking", or the amount the rear diverges from the track of the front in making a turn. This is very important in design requirements and safety on long truck combinations. Generally speaking, for any given total length, straight trucks off-track the greatest amount in making a turn, with semi-trailers giving less trouble, and full trucks and full trailers showing the best performance. With the result that truck-trailer units usually are longest, with semi-trailer combinations somewhat shorter.

In this respect Nebraska differs from the national standard. The maximum length for a full truck-trailer combination in the state is 50 feet, which is the same as for semi-trailers, although the former could be ten feet longer without causing more inconvenience or danger in ordinary turning movements. The national standards permit full truck, full trailer combinations to be 60 feet in length. Another important element to be considered in the question of safety on the highways is that of axle loads for weight. All existing highways are so built that they are able to withstand the impact of loads up to a certain limit. After that maximum is reached, danger increases rapidly.

Highway design and construction have been developed through the years with an overall conception of economic balance between construction and maintenance costs on the one hand, and weight restrictions have been applied to axle loads for the protection of the highway surface, and a limit placed on overall loads for the protection of bridges. The legal load limit in Nebraska is 18,000 pounds for single axles. This conforms to "the national standard. This load is not sufficient to cause excessive damage to flexible or rigid pavements with modern design standards under normal conditions.

The Nebraska law recognized this fact by conforming to this maximum loading in the vehicle code. Yet from data obtained in the continuing truck-weight survey, the average number of axles with illegal loading rose from an average of one axle per eight-hour day for each station in 1936 to 33 axles per day per station in 1946. These loads, while relatively few in number, cause much damage to highways in Nebraska. This type of destruction may be evidenced in falling joints in concrete pavements. These joints are pumped to the surface after each rain, by cracked and broken slabs, by rolling and displaced surfaces of high-type bituminous mats.

The severity of these failures may be increased through other causes, such as subgrade conditions, inadequate design and poor materials. No rational design for pavement thickness of subgrade treatment can be adopted which accepts indiscriminate and illegal loadings. Economical construction and continued service demand weight law enforcement. The Nebraska public, including a large number of truck owners who conform to all loading regulations, cannot afford to build pavements which incur satisfactory service under all kinds of loads.

The total legal load, being dependent on the distance between the extreme axles, varies in Nebraska, as in the national standard, up to an axle spacing of 45 feet. Since the maximum overall length in Nebraska is 50 feet instead of 60 feet, the total load is not designated beyond 61,050 pounds, while the national standard allows up to 73,280 pounds. The Nebraska law provides for reduced loads when the subgrades are weakened by thaw. For the protection of road surfaces the state should make further use of this authority and the limits should be enforced.

David Butler, First Governor of Nebraska, Had Stormiest Career

David Butler, first governor of the state of Nebraska, had one of the stormiest political careers in the history of the commonwealth, and has been one of the most debated figures ever to hold Nebraska's highest public office.

In the first place, he was elected in 1866 by a margin of only 145 votes over J. Sterling Morton, his Democratic opponent, and as frequently was the case in early Nebraska elections the results were contested.

Once in office, Governor Butler was faced with the problem of transition from territorial to state government. Among the many vexing questions was the location of the state capitol and the principal state institutions.

Under Butler's leadership the commission chose the site that was to develop into the present city of Lincoln. Once the site had been selected, the Governor sparked a campaign to sell town lots, organize the functions of state government, and develop the new capital city.

Before long, however, he was in serious trouble with the legislature, and in 1871, just at the beginning of his third term, eleven articles of impeachment were preferred against him, the first being that he had appropriated to his own use some $16,000 of the school fund given the state by the federal government.

In 1877 the legislature relented of its action and adopted a resolution expunging the impeachment proceedings from the record. In 1882, after ten years' retirement from active political life, Butler was elected to the state senate as an Independent. He ran his government on the Union Labor ticket in 1888, but was defeated.

In 1877 the legislature relented of its action and adopted a resolution expunging the impeachment proceedings from the record. In 1882, after ten years' retirement from active political life, Butler was elected to the state senate as an Independent. He ran his government on the Union Labor ticket in 1888, but was defeated.

Under Butler's leadership the commission chose the site that was to develop into the present city of Lincoln. Once the site had been selected, the Governor sparked a campaign to sell town lots, organize the functions of state government, and develop the new capital city.

Before long, however, he was in serious trouble with the legislature, and in 1871, just at the beginning of his third term, eleven articles of impeachment were preferred against him, the first being that he had appropriated to his own use some $16,000 of the school fund given the state by the federal government.

Batting Records Compiled for Ord and Loup League

Beran and Johnson
Place Second and Third Behind Bellinger.

Baseball statistics for the Loup Valley league have been compiled, both for the league and for the Ord players individually. It is a matter of gratification to know that two Ord men, R. Beran and Johnson took second and third place in batting, with only C. Bellinger of Arcadia placing ahead of them.

Stanley Roy of Loup City, secretary of the league, compiled the data after the completion of the regular season. The list of leading league batters and their percentage follows:

C. Bellinger, Arcadia 500
R. Beran, Ord 469
Johnson, Ord 450
W. Ibsen, Miller 419
D. Harris, Miller 416
L. Harnagel, Miller 377
Duggins, Miller 360
Roll Jensen, Mason City 333
Korte, Broken Bow 309
C. Cox, Loup City 300
C. Harnagel, Miller 300

The records of the pitchers are of interest. Most strikeouts were made by Beasley of Arcadia, 140; Bill Novosad of Loup City was second with 139; Bob Korte, Broken Bow, 118; A. Sintel, Anselmy, 97; Weidner, Miller, 74; Dick Beran, Ord, 47; Ray Jensen, Mason City, 47, and Don Patrick, Ord, 44.

Comstock, ending the season at the bottom of the heap, failed to have a single batter in the 300 class. Monroe came nearest with a season average of 28. Team batting averages show Miller with 282; Anselmy, 210; Ord, 207; Mason City, 206; Arcadia, 201; Broken Bow, 192; Loup City, 192, and Comstock, 142.

Claris Bellinger, leading hitter, was at bat only 8 times, while R. Beran batted 49 times, and Johnson 20 times. The Miller batting average runs high because they had only one man in their lineup who failed to get a hit. Anselmy, second high, had only one, while the others ran from three to six.

The home runs were: Chub Harnagel, Miller, 3; Lee Harnagel and Walt Ibsen, Miller, and E. Staab, Anselmy, 2 each, and the following one each: S. Vaughn, E. Vaughn, Sterling, Korte, H. Dean and Graham, all of Broken Bow; A. Sintel and C. Staab, Anselmy; Brown and A. Bellinger, Arcadia; Dale Kreuger, Roll Jensen and H. Jensen, Mason City; and Rolland Moore and Jim Finley, Ord.

Colts on Slugging Rampage, Defeat Miller 11 to 6

1st Play-off Game Won by Ord; Arcadia and Anselmy Rained Out.

The potent bats of the Ord Colts beat out 16 safe blows Sunday, six of them for extra bases, and as a result the Colts downed Miller in the Loup Valley league's first play-off game, score being 11 to 6.

Miller's players did no mean job of hitting themselves, getting 11 safeties but after the fifth inning when Miller last threatened there was little doubt about the outcome.

Two of the Miller clouts were home-runs by Ibsen and Ord's star outfielder, Philbrick, robbed Ibsen of a third round-tripper in the third inning when he leaped out the center field fence and speared the ball with one hand in the most sensational play of the game.

3 Swats Each.
The Colts made only 2 bobbles afield compared with 3 by Miller and showed more strength at the plate, every player except Yall hitting safely at least once. Johnson, Dugan, with 3 hits each, led the assault while Dilla and D. Beran got 2 safeties each.

Winning Hurler.
Beran started for Ord and lasted until the 5th when Patrick relieved him, Beran getting credit for the win. Miller used four pitchers with C. Harnagel named as the loser.

The other play-off game scheduled at Anselmy Sunday evening with Arcadia as their opponent was rained out and will not be played until next Sunday. This means that Ord's next appearance in a play-off game will not come until Sept. 11, against the winner of the Anselmy-Arcadia clash.

Play Till Nines?
Under the double elimination system being used in the play-offs a team must lose two games before it drops out of competition, which means that the play-offs might continue for five Sundays. "We're going to stay in if we have to play the finals on Christmas eve," says Walt Douthitt, Ord manager, who sought vainly to have games scheduled for Wednesday and Sunday evenings and thus speed up the play-offs.

Box score of the Ord-Miller game follows:

Sherman-Howard Secretary G. Dilla Gives Averages

Shorty Ksionsek,
for 14 Games.

Sherman-Howard league secretary G. A. Dilla herewith presents batting and fielding records of all players in the league that played five or more games and had batting averages for the 1949 season.

Only North Loup and Scotia are listed below. Danneberg and Wolbach did not play the full 14 game schedule.

In checking over the records it looks as though "Shorty Ksionsek the speedy south paw short-stop for Ashton carries off the league honors for in the full 14 games he played he was at bat 57 times scored 14 runs and has a fine batting average of .421. His fielding record was good too as he only had six errors charged to him for entire season.

Jr. Dilla of Farwell takes the top spot in runs scored as he scored 16 runs out of his 48 safeties in 13 games played. Williams of North Loup and C. Johnson of Scotia both hold the top spot in fielding honors as they each have only one error charged to them which is good considering the number of chances handled. G. Jorgensen of North Loup is guilty of the most misplays as he was charged with a total of 13 errors during the 14 games he played in.

Home Run Hitter

Verlin Smith, rightfielder on the Ord baseball team, didn't hit the size of his hat during the Loup Valley league season. His batting average for the year was .060 and he wears a size 7 1/2 hat. But now that the season is over, watch him hit!

Against Burwell last Wednesday he got four for five, one a home run, for an average of .800. Against Miller Sunday he hit one for three for an average of .333.

Now his teammates are calling him "Home Run Smith" and are sure that he's out of his season-long slump and ready to continue smacking the apple throughout the play-off games.

Ord Invitational Golf Tournament a Great Success

Grand Island Men Wins Championship; Ord Men Winner of 3 Flights

The Ord Invitational golf tournament was played Sunday on the Ord course, and was a success from every point of view. The day was fine for the occasion, and Bud Shirley, in charge of the grounds, had the greens and fairways in the best condition for a long time.

Grand Island men ran away with top honors. Roy Lorenzen captured the championship, with Jim Trull as runner-up. Ord men did better, taking first in three flights; third in three and second in one.

Doug Dale won the driving contest by making the longest drive ever recorded on the Ord course, 278 yards. The local club furnished trophies and prizes for the tournament.

Winner of the first flight was Hilding Pearson of Ord, with Joe Baldwin, Ainsworth, runner-up. The second flight was won by Dr. P. L. Blessing of Ord, runner-up George Camaras of Grand Island and the consolation winner C. C. Thompson of Ord.

Winner of the third flight was Dale Masters of Ainsworth, runner-up Kenneth Ayer of Ord, and winner of consolation, Kerry Leggett, Ord. Bob Grove of Ord took the fourth flight, with O. Rettenmayer of Arcadia runner-up and Henry Bendis, Ord, winning the consolation.

Colts Lambaste Burwell 15-3

The Ord Colts wielded destructive bats in lambasting a Burwell team 15 to 3 last Wednesday evening under the lights at Bussell park. Dilla and Bill Anderson shared the pitching load for Ord and kept the Burwell boys under control throughout.

Verlin Smith led Ord's bludgeon attack, getting 4 hits in 5 trips to the plate, one of them a round tripper.

Junior Legion Boys to Omaha Tomorrow on Chartered Bus

Number of Fans Plan to Go Along; Room for More, Mgr. Heck Says

Ord's Junior Legion baseball team will leave Ord at 8 a. m. tomorrow for Omaha, where they will get to see the Little World Series baseball games, two of them, on that day. They will be accompanied by their manager, Bill Heck, who is responsible for the idea, and who believes they have earned the right to the outing.

Also going along are Bob Fuss, John Haskell, F. L. Stoddard and Ign. Piskorski, and others who have not yet indicated they will go. Heck says there is still room for several more on the bus. The cost of the trip is $6, including tickets to the two games. Persons interested should see him at once.

The boys who are making the trip are Ken and Paul Patrick, Duane Wolfe, Paul Stoddard, Harlan Jensen, Kenneth Clement, Dick Anderson, Kenneth Collins, Bob Dvorak, Don Geneski, Gerald Severson, Marion Geneski, Virgil Withervax, Buz Maurice, Richard Heck and Dale Falter.

Income Status of Farmers
Farmers are currently receiving the highest share of the national income on record. The net income from agriculture after deducting all producing expenses will be about 18 billion dollars in 1947.

Nelson, Beatrice, Races Visited by Ord's Hot-Rod Men

Win Share of Purses; Meet With Dust, Rain; Going Back Later.

Ord's hot-rod drivers, Jim Kucera, Gerald Warford, and owner Bob Lange went to Nelson Friday, where both drivers won a share of the purse money offered. They were partly rained out at Nelson.

Kucera was second in the time trials, second in the match race, first in the first heat race and third in the second heat race. Warford collected a couple of third places. The feature race was rained out.

They went to Beatrice Sunday, where Jim had trouble and did not do so well. He was fifth in the time trials, second in the first heat race, fourth in the second and fifth in the main event.

There was a fine crowd at Beatrice. The track was rough, but nobody got hurt. Warford won a first and two third places there. The boys plan to go to Neligh Saturday, and back to Nelson Sunday, with Beatrice or Hastings in sight for a week from Sunday.

At Beatrice the drivers staged a stunt for the "grandstand lovers," the people who like to line the road and watch the races free. After the time trials and when the driver's parade was on, they all left their cars, walked over to this bunch and passed the hat among them, getting about $2.80 apiece.

The races at both Nelson and Beatrice were sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and were most successful. The boys, both local and from other places are hoping that some organization decides to put on some hot-rod races here in Ord.

Sign of the Times.
The Chicago and Northwestern railroad is asking permission of the state railway commission to abandon its line, known as the Scribner and Oakdale branch. This line is not really a branch line, but a variant of the main line, which also runs from Scribner to Oakdale, but about 30 miles further north and through larger towns of West Point, Wisner, Stanton and Norfolk.

The railroad's contention is that the line no longer pays dividends, which is doubtless correct. Abandonment is being opposed by all the towns along the line, which include Scribner, Snyder, Dodge, Howells, Clarkson, Leigh, Creston, Humphrey, Corlies, Lindsay, Newman Grove, Bradish, Albion, Loretto, Petersburg, Raeville, Elgin and Oakdale.
A total of 18 towns are involved in the controversy over the retention of about 114 miles of railroad, once considered vital to the area, but now not even paying dividends. The cause is simple and the remedy is equally so, according to a lawyer from Newman Grove. He says the people must ship more by train and less by truck, if they hope to retain their railroad.

A few years ago the Hastings-Linwood line was abandoned and the tracks torn up, leaving nine towns without any railroad whatever. It is certain that, if these towns had the chance, they would welcome the railroad back with open arms—but they would probably continue to ship by truck. You cannot eat your cake and have it, too.

The reason the people of Nebraska are facing a monumental highway and traffic problem today is that too many shippers have turned from the railroads and are giving their patronage to the trucks. If that is the way the people want it, they should not object too seriously when and if the railroad company pulls up its tracks and quits running into their towns.

This is not the only case where abandonment of a railroad or the curtailment of service has been and is being asked by the railroads. The railroad failed recently in its attempt to curtail service over the Holdrege and Sterling, well known as the "High Line." At the present time the Omaha and Sioux City route is seeking to cut off its passenger service.

In some cases and to some extent the railroad may be at fault, but the real fault lies with the residents of the area, who prefer to ship by truck, even if it means abandonment of their rail lines. With the loss of the railroad will go the considerable slice of taxes the railroads pay in the counties in which they are located, and the public will have to make up the difference.

More Laws.
In the beginning, as we find it in Genesis, but one law was given Adam and Eve. That was not to eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. For convenience the fruit is generally referred to as an apple, but could as easily have been a coconut. The important fact is that they had but one law to obey, and they broke that law.
Later on other laws were added. The coveting of the Lord's favor by Cain, and the subsequent murder of his brother gave rise to two more general laws. In the beginning we find two important facts: Anything is lawful until a law is made prohibiting or controlling it, and there can be no law breaking where there is no law.
The first laws were formulated at Sinai, when the ten commandments were given. All present day law stems from the decalogue, and the Roman lawgivers, who unwittingly followed those same commandments in making their laws. As mankind rose in the scale of civilization more specific laws were required to govern and control his more complicated life.

Saturday, Aug. 27, 228 laws made by the Unicameral last winter and spring went into effect. Many of these were additions to laws already made, and some laws did away with laws then existing. However, it sums up to the sad fact that we now have more laws to obey than we ever had before.
Since the dawn of statehood, March 1, 1867, Nebraska legislatures have been adding new laws at every session, until today no one man has any idea of what all the state laws are. In fact, there are hundreds of laws that are never enforced, because nobody knows their exist.

This is a penalty we pay for our civilization. Native tribes, of which there are still a few left in the world, still live largely under the patriarchal dispensation and to the rule of the Ten Commandments. They may not enjoy all the advantages of civilization, but they are not hampered by a multitude of laws.

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

This week the Quiz received a very nice letter, giving the writer's opinion on a proposition of local interest and importance. There was nothing in the letter that anybody should take offence at, possibly its publication would do no harm. But one thing prevents its use in the columns of the Quiz. The letter was unsigned. The Quiz makes it a hard and fast rule not to publish, in whole or in part, any letters unless the writer's name is appended. This does not mean that the name will be published. We are glad to withhold the name upon request, but we must have the name. Also, the Quiz reserves the right to accept, or reject, any letters sent in for publication. Letters of a controversial nature or letters coached in abusive language have questionable value, and are often better left unprinted.

Some time ago the Quiz started a series of stories about people in this area who have reached the age of 90 years. The intention was to get a story and a picture about every person in the county or the Quiz territory beyond the county lines who had reached four score and ten. Perhaps we didn't make our plan clear. The fact is, to date we have told of three men who have passed the age of 93 years, and had a brief mention of a woman now past 92 years. No women have been mentioned although it is generally conceded that women live longer than men. We want more of these stories, one, if possible, for each issue of the Quiz. If you know of a person now past 90 who has not been written up, won't you please tell us about it. We will then get the picture and the story.

This county can boast of having at least three couples who have spent well over 60 years of married life together. Whenever a golden anniversary is celebrated, the Quiz wants to rejoice with those people, and we want to tell other people so that they may rejoice also. Fifty years of married life is unusual, but sixty or more years is truly remarkable. We try to keep track of all these anniversaries, but it is a monumental task. Here, again, friends of those concerned could help us by giving us a hint of what is going to happen, before it occurs, so that we will have a chance to get a real story.

So long as I am on the subject, perhaps I should remind you again of what is news, and also what isn't news. People doing the usual thing in the usual way isn't news unless the people are unusual. Then it may be news. People doing the unusual thing in the usual way probably is news. People doing the usual thing in the unusual way probably is news. But unusual people doing the unusual thing in the unusual way is always news.

Births, marriages and deaths are always news. So are sickness, especially serious illness, accidents and injuries. Fires are always news. Parties, picnics, friends or relatives visiting, people going on vacation, people attending conventions or celebrations, these are all news.

Sports of all kinds are news. Unusual happenings of all kinds, new and unusual crops raised on the farm, high yield of crops, arrival of new plant and insect pests, new and worth while use for old crops, new ideas for expediting work on the farm or in the home, these are just a few of the hundreds of items that go to make up a paper, and they are all important. If you have an item and question its news value, call the Quiz. It may be more important than you think.

The phone rang just now, and Mrs. C. E. McGrew, who has had much experience as a news gatherer and knows what news is, told me about the plight of Carl Barnes, who lives in the brown house near Highway 11, a short distance beyond the mouth of Davis Creek. It appears that Mr. Barnes ran afoul of a swarm of bumblebees while going about his farm work, and they ganged up on him. He was stung 5 times and his hands became so swollen that they did not even look like hands. The doctor used penicillin and the latest report is that Mr. Barnes is recovering nicely.

The above item came at just the right time to illustrate what news is. It is not necessarily news that the man's name is Carl Barnes, it is not news that he lives where he does. These details are incidental to what happened. The fact that he was under the doctor's care, that the doctor used penicillin, and the fact that he is on the way to recovery are details of news value. But the one outstanding detail of the whole story was his encounter with the bees.

Organ Recital

The organ recital sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood of the Seventh Day Baptist church given Thursday evening was attended by a large group of music lovers. Organist was seventeen year old H. Max Smith of Parsons, Kas. He is the young man who came to North Loup last summer with Roger Johnson for the conference to play the organ, was stricken with appendicitis and submitted to an emergency operation.

His program Thursday evening was in four parts. The first part consisted of selections by Bach; in the second part three numbers, one of them an original composition, were played. Lamentation, Adoration and the prelude to Act III, Lohengrins familiar bridal chorus made up the third part. Final division consisted of Fantasia by John Stainer, "By the Water of Minnetonka" by Lieurance, "Intermezzo" by Heinz Provoost and Schuberts "Ave Maria."

Max Smith is a musician of unusual ability and played all selections as one who knows his instrument. An electrical storm during the last part of the concert put the power off for a few minutes and the selections were resumed when the lights came back on.

While in North Loup, Smith was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Johnson. He is a student of Roger H. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Johnson, who is music director of the Parsons schools.

Peale who drifted in with a bloom-er girl team during that period. Watson later was a regular Kansas City triple 'A' catcher and the best I have ever seen locally. Peale was not quite so fortunate, a stocky lefty with everything, he was returned to Illinois to serve sentence for wife desertion. Like-wise Rondeau and Jonie Level came here from pro-ball of like kind.

That period saw the young local players starting under faster competition than they have faced since. It produced besides those from the town of Ord, Steve Finch, the best local fast-baller in my memory, Frusky Holman and "Jap" Davis at North Loup, and saw practically all the better players mentioned by you start their playing years.

I got a first hand look at most of those who were left when I began playing for North Loup in 1920 as a catcher. My last two years previous I had spent pitching for the lower Mira Valley team, whose opponents had frequently borrowed players from town. How successfully I pitched was incidental, the point is that every community that could raise it had a team and Sunday p. m. there was a ball game somewhere. It was our chief relaxation.

I spent 3 years with North Loup starting as a catcher with Glen (Doug) Barber in p. m. and as a pitcher in the day. It became clear that I could not successfully catch Steve Finch's speed. The next season (1921) I caught Steve all summer, and the following played short, caught and when Steve broke with the team pitched the balance of the season for North Loup.

I played for Mira Valley at catch and shortstop throughout those years as we played Friday and Vern Cook pitched. During those early years I pitched against many of the men you have referred to in your past articles and saw several good young players begin from all over the territory. Milo Daily of Loup City, Jimmy Groh, Tom (Ox) Murphy, Earnie Murphy and Curly, their brother, Dan Hayes, St. Paul, the Finckes and boys were old hands or young men coming into their prime. Dad Faulk, Buster Betts and Claris Bellingier are a few that I recall that you haven't dwelt on. When you say that interest was high that is the true and it applied wherever you went.

You have covered the next few years pretty thoroughly, but I do wish you would look up the description on the "Curley Clements" that played shortstop in that 1919 inning game when Steve Finch was the pitcher. Steve Finch and John Honeycutt both went the route. I'm a little bit curious about that fellow for I somehow got the impression that I played short for Ord that summer, and that I was the pitcher.

My recollection was that I caught some and played short some thru 1923 and 1924. Those years saw some pretty tough Sunday school games too, with N. L. Methodists furnishing plenty of fine work. Pitching for Mira Valley played as a catcher and I had the satisfaction of beating this team, although it was necessary to borrow "Swede" Collins to catch.

This S. S. League ran two years and during those years of play 2 or 3 really good boys played and I had the old ones who would not play Sunday-played ball. Some youngsters were Don Manchester, Dale Cress and Deane Oliver. Roy Hudson, who was good enough for any team was our star. All of these lads played high school ball with me in 1921. Cap Williams, Mira Valley who started at second, later became a first baseman for N. L. and a capable catcher for Mira Valley. He also pitched creditably on 2 or 3 occasions when we just turned out M. V. battery around and he pitched and I caught.

Country ball was more or less a hit and miss affair thru 1925, 26, 27, and 28. I was on the Ord team thru the second year. Rondeau ran it, 1927 I believe and certainly did not cover myself with glory, as I was neither in condition to play ball, or in a position that I felt I knew how to play, however, I did have the pleasure of playing against the House of Davids. I pitched against Al Mahon of St. Ed. who was given quite a lot of advance publicity by the St. L. Cards but I failed to deliver, and I sat on the bench beside Steve Finch and saw Earl Lang set down 23 Council Bluffs athletes on strikes in a twilight game at Earl's home. The sun was shining brightly and just too fast when the shadows got long.

Farm ball limped through 1928 if I remember correctly with the Spuds going good but with no definite set up. My summer play was mostly with N. L. as shortstop beside Floyd Hudson at second base. I also played some for Mira Valley at that position and pitched some the latter part of the season 1929 there, in spite of my "rheumatism" of 28. The next year the farm bureau league got under way and the season was very much a success. It is my belief that during my observation of local baseball, there was never a period when the farm teams and community base ball was so well organized or more generally interesting than it was then. Incidentally some pretty good ball was played, and while the league existed more and more of the good town players became members of some farm bureau team.

Notably, Bill Heuck, Coach Kretz, Bulger, Sheldon and Cap Williams. Some of the best were John Warford, Clyde Athey, Jess Livingstone (Now on the staff at the university) Armatis, Al Dittman, Haden, who went into pro ball the next year, Wayne Sheldon, Floyd Mattern, Mr. Williams, Pete Williams from 1930 on until Mira Valley quit the field. In 1936 I also threw for the Ord team for part of that year. Cap Williams was a real catcher! Any mention of baseball through those years that does not call attention to the fine box work of Wayne Shudon of North Loup would be very incomplete.

Comparing him with Finch, Kipp, Stinson, Durvey, or any of the others he deserves to be rated as the best. His type of ball game practically all baseball had come to a finish and softball was the vogue.

The Mira Valley team was represented throughout and at least one Ord team. I had the pleasure of pitching to Cap Williams from 1930 on until Mira Valley quit the field. In 1936 I also threw for the Ord team for part of that year. Cap Williams was a real catcher! Any mention of baseball through those years that does not call attention to the fine box work of Wayne Shudon of North Loup would be very incomplete.

Comparing him with Finch, Kipp, Stinson, Durvey, or any of the others he deserves to be rated as the best. His type of ball game practically all baseball had come to a finish and softball was the vogue.

Including the entire county and hired players, I would take Cap Williams and Bob Scott, catch Steve Finch and Wayne Sheldon, pitch; Bill Heuck, 1st; Floyd Hudson 2nd; Harry Selk, ss.; Buster Betts, 3rd; with Jonie Level and Ronnie my extras. The three outfielders named, with Freddie White, Glen Johnson and "Kelly" Barber added. Such a team would have trouble losing a ball game all summer long now, but would have found the old Scotia team able to make a good show of it.

Sincerely,
Geo. B. "Dutch" Clement.

George B. Clement Tells Fine Story of Early Baseball

Letter Is Not Intended for Publication, But Is Too Good to Keep.

The following letter was written by George B. "Dutch" Clement, Valley county baseball as much as in the county, and who has the ability to picture the game as he saw it through the years. The story last week ended the regular series, but this article is far too good to be omitted.

To The Editor of Quiz:

I have enjoyed following your series of articles about baseball in Ord and its surrounding territory, and recall most of the players mentioned, and believe I have a reasonably accurate appraisal of their ability and the conditions of playing at the game at that time.

I realize that you have had to hit the high spots, and that you have probably been hard pressed for a source of facts in many cases, and the statistical accuracy was incidental to the recalling of persons and the conditions of the times.

I note that you plan another article. May I suggest to you that Geo. Round Jr. was the person responsible for the Quiz write-ups during the years of the past you have just covered and thru the early part of the next. During that time Carl Dale promoted the Farm Bureau League which was unique in the field. The first one in the nation I believe.

Somewhere in the house we have the article that Geo. R. J. wrote for the Nebraska Farmer about that league. I believe you will also find Charley Lewis has score books on many of those games, also Clare Clement and Ed Lange, if it is not too much trouble to deserve that much research.

I have had the good fortune to play over a rather long period, having broken in with the old Mira Valley team July 4, 1914, when we played Springdale. Pitching for us was Ousby Betty, and his catcher was Willmore Grey. We had Ed Armstrong, Everett Petty, Bill Petty, Hank Williams, Howard Jones and Ollie and Bud Bell also played but I may be wrong about that. Many of these years you had to one the were "old men," for I was only a couple of months past fourteen.

As many of these fine old country teams games were played on Saturday my appearance with them was limited to the games played through out the night, as Ollie and Bud and many of the others did not play Sunday ball. Back to that first game, the Springdale lineup included Dave Arnold and Marion Cushing pitching, Ben Arnold catching, Wes Flynn, Les Flynn, Bill Heuck, all from Ord helped spike up the Springdale team.

I also recall the next summer playing against Fritz Vogeler, whom you did not mention, probably because he spent much of his superior talent through those years not because the local talent was so excellent (It was good) but largely because of the influence of the old Nebraska State League which contributed players for many of the games in the fall, at fairs and festivals.

You may recall pitchers Green of Grand Island, Riley and Everdon both who went to the American association, Theasin, an outfielder, "Chuck" Ward who was first string shortstop for the Pirates for years, and Watson and

Ord Municipal Swimming Pool Closed Monday

Manager K. Kovanda States Past Season Was Successful.

The Ord Municipal swimming pool ended its activities for the year Monday. Tuesday the pool was drained and cleaned and put in shape for the winter. A big water show from Lincoln had been planned, but it was decided to save the money and use it instead for landscaping the pool.

The Red Cross swimming program under the direction of Mrs. Joyce Grove was very successful. Fifty-two persons completed the beginner and intermediate swimming tests. Their ages ranged from the entrance age of 8 years up to 45 years. All were given Red Cross certificates. Duane Wolfe was the only one to complete the junior life guard tests.

Swim Parties Enjoyed
The last week there were three swimming parties. Saturday evening an all-Protestant party was held which was attended by 35. The preceding week St. John's Lutheran church of Mira Valley and other Lutheran churches of the area, were here for a district meeting, held a swimming party at which fifty were present.

C. Biemond held a swim party last week with a dozen young married couples attending. Mr. Biemond left an army surplus raft at the pool, about 14 feet long, and the kids had a lot of fun playing on it.

During the last month two baskets and a ball were added to the equipment, and many enjoyed playing water basketball. Due to the filtering system, it was found necessary to change the water in the pool only two times during the season.

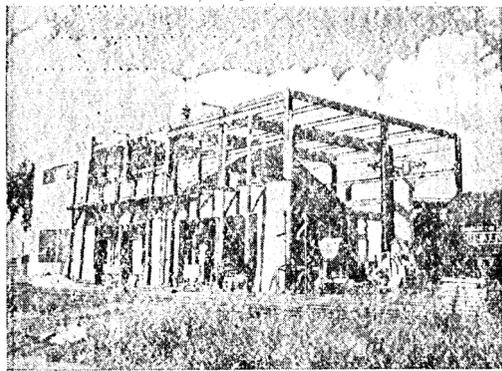

Mr. Kovanda has left for Lincoln where he is a sophomore in the school of law. He has made arrangements with the park board to manage the pool again next year, a fact that will be a source of gratification to his friends.

Burwell Stockman Wins High Honors

Orville Wilson, Burwell O.I.C. hog raiser, recently hit the jackpot when he shipped four of his hogs to the Midwestern O.I.C. show at Oklahoma City. With the four he won three firsts and a second, a record hard for any man to beat.

This week he has 26 O.I.C. hogs on exhibit at the Nebraska state fair, and will doubtless win many awards, as he won quite a number of ribbons on his showing there last year.

New Engine Housing Takes Shape

With nearly all steel in place, the new addition to the Ord light and water plant building is rapidly taking shape. Housing the new 1000 KW generator the city has purchased, the addition will look very similar to the plant addition constructed two years ago.

Hospital Fund Gains $500; Drive Continues

Another $500 was added to the Ord Cooperative Hospital Fund this week, boosting the cash on hand to $17,453.00. Another $1,000 stock purchase is expected by the hospital committee this week to bring the total to $18,453.00.

Meanwhile the drive for sale of stock continues, and hospital committeemen are confident that small individual purchases during the week will bring the total sales to $50,000. Stock may be purchased, or donations left at either of the Ord banks, or from any member of the hospital finance committee.

Veterans Respond Promptly to Call for Signatures

Signing Applications Rapidly, According to Officer John J. Wozab.

Monday, Aug. 29, was the first day in which applications could be made for refund on payments made by veterans for insurance, and arrangements were made to give all veterans who desired to sign up on and after that date.

This meant considerable work for the service officers of the three posts in Valley county, as well as to County Service officer John J. Wozab, who helped a large number fill out their applications, and who keeps a complete list as possible of all who sign, to use in future correspondence.

Not all veterans are qualified for refunds, but of those who were entitled forty signed up Monday night at North Loup, almost as many at Arcadia, more than that number in Ord, and quite a few at Wozab's office.

While there is no real hurry about filling out the application cards, it is suggested that all qualified veterans sign up as soon as convenient. The application must be made to secure the refund, and might be forgotten if delayed.

Douglas and Wife Buy Burwell Store

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Douglas have bought the Edgell Variety store in Burwell, located on the site of the former Clausen Bakery.

Mrs. Douglas will operate the store, while he will continue to act as instructor in his veterans training job in Ord.

Ord Junior Legion Attends the Little World Series Games

See Four Leading Teams in Two Games Played Thursday Eve.

Thursday morning 16 members of the Ord Junior Legion squad, two members of the Ord Midget team, their manager, Bill Heuck, and four ardent baseball fans, left Ord shortly after 8 a. m., enroute to Omaha and the two games of the Little World Series to be played there that evening.

Those who went were Ken and Paul Patrick, Richard Heuck, Dale Falter, Virgil Witherwax, Buz Maurice, Duane Wolfe, Paul Stoddard, Harlan Jensen, Dick Andersen, Kenneth Collins, Bob Dvorak, Don Geneski, Gerald Severson and Marion Geneski, all Juniors; Jimmy Douthit and Igo Piskowski, Midgets, and Jim Gilbert, Edwin Johnson, F. L. Stoddard and John L. Ward.

Most of the trip was made without incident, except for the need of changing a tire at Rising City, at which place everybody ate dinner. One driver brought the bus to Ord and made the return trip to Grand Island, another made the round trip to Omaha, and the first driver drove back from Grand Island late that night, or rather, early Friday morning.

Two hours were spent in taking in the sights of downtown Omaha before the game for the game to start, and then the bus took the group out to Omaha's new municipal stadium, which is well worth a story in itself. The main stands have a capacity of 9,000, and they were filled. All seats in the entire stand are as comfortable to sit in as theater seats.

The first game, called shortly after 6 p. m. was between teams from Wheeling, W. Va., and Atlanta Ga., and was won by Wheeling, 7 to 2. The game was fast and clean throughout, with very few errors or passed balls. Of interest was the fact that the players struck at very few bad balls, requiring the pitcher to put them over. Before this game was over, the huge battery of lights was turned on, making the field as light as day.

The second game found Oakland, Calif., arrayed against Cincinnati, Ohio, in what proved to be much the faster of the two games. It was a fine game all the way, with the exception of the third inning, in which Oakland ran in six scores, driving the first Cincinnati pitcher to the showers. The second pitcher did a fine job, but the lead was too much to overcome, the final score being 11 to 6.

The game finally ended at 11:30, and the bus left immediately for Ord, with most of the group catching a few minutes of sleep enroute. Grand Island and a change of drivers came at 3:30, and the bus reached Ord shortly after 5 a. m. The trip was well worth while not only as an entertainment feature, but also for the information and inspiration it gave the young ball players, who will be wearing Legion uniforms again next year.

Ord Chamber Will Plan Program for Rest of 1949

Important Committee Meetings to Be Held and Plans Discussed.

Several important committee meetings are being held this week, according to John L. Andersen, who recently resumed the job as secretary of the Ord Chamber of Commerce. It is time now to plan for the coming months, and well begun means well done, Andersen believes.

Meeting Wednesday morning of this week is the Christmas program committee, whose membership includes Bill Steen, Bill Heuck, Dean Misko, George Allen, John R. Sullivan, Mrs. Syl Papler, and Don Auble. The meeting is for the purpose of getting started on holiday plans.

Thursday morning the merchants committee will meet. In this group are Earl Klingensmith, chairman, Art Kroger, Jay Auble, Jay Brown, and Joe Ruzicka. Their meeting is for the purpose of working out the holiday program for the coming months.

Friday morning there will be a meeting of the membership and finance committee. This meeting is for going over the budget for the year, and several other matters of interest will be taken up.

Concert Group to Breakfast, Then Seek Members

Series of Concerts Aim of Association Headed by Mrs. Nash.

After breakfast together, the campaign for members for the Loup Valleys Municipal Concert association will begin Monday morning, Sept. 12, says Mrs. Leslie Nash, Sept. 12, says Mrs. Leslie Nash. It will close promptly at 6 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 17 and no memberships will be available after that deadline.

A staff of some 70 workers will call on prospective members during this week, each prospect to be visited one time only.

Persons not solicited may obtain their memberships at the campaign headquarters at the John Sullivan law office, phone 67. Those who plan to be away from home during campaign days may contact in advance any of the association officers: Hilting Ferguson, Mrs. Nash, John Galica, William Nelson or Mrs. Eugene Leggett of Ord, or Ward Pscherer of Scotia.

Memberships will be limited to the seating capacity of the auditorium. If this figure is reached before the closing date, the campaign automatically closes.

Great Artists Coming
The Loup Valleys association was formed May 3, 1919 to sponsor a concert series in Ord during the coming season, October through April.

Talent will be selected from artists under contract to the William Z. Rozan Municipal Concert company of Houston, Tex. Included are violinists, pianists, singers, a men's quartet and a string quartet.

Admission to concerts is by membership in the association only. No single admissions will be available. Memberships are of two types, adult and student, with dues $5 and $2.40 respectively, tax included.

Three concerts for the season are assured, and more will be scheduled at no additional cost if the funds from the membership drive allow.

A committee meeting of officers of the association will be held Friday evening at 8:30 at the Hastings-Pearson mortuary.

A representative of the Rozan company will be in Ord Monday morning to attend the ten o'clock rally-breakfast for campaign workers. The meeting will be held at the Masonic hall.

Sargent Will Build Community Hospital

A charitable organization has been formed at Sargent for the purpose of building a community hospital. Articles of incorporation have been prepared and have been filed with the secretary of state in Lincoln. The corporation will be known as the Sargent Community Hospital association.

The temporary board of trustees include D. C. Heller, K. W. Peterson, W. G. Biginal, Vencal J. Huss, Rollin Conrad and George B. Lebo. Persons contributing $25 or more will be eligible for membership. The new hospital will be located in Lundy park in the west portion of Sargent on a tract donated for the purpose by the late J. W. Lundy.

John Burson Case Retrial Ordered

The case of Nebraska vs. John Burson came up before Judge Spikes in district court last week in Burwell. The case was carried up from county court. After hearing the evidence the jury failed to agree on a verdict and the judge discharged them and ordered a retrial.

This is the case rising out of an incident which occurred during the blizzard days of last winter, in which Burson and an officer of the group assisting in clearing the snow in the Burwell area got into an altercation in which Burson is alleged to have struck the officer.

Richard Severson Services Will Be Held Here Sunday

Lost His Life While Operating Bomber in Hungary July 2, '44.

The body of Lt. Richard R. Severson is expected to arrive from Europe Thursday of this week, and services in his honor are to be held at the Ord Methodist church, 2:30 p. m., Sept. 11, with interment in the Ord cemetery. The Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will have charge of the service at the cemetery. Hastings and Pearson have charge of arrangements.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Severson of Ord, Richard was born May 21, 1918. He grew to manhood here, graduating high in his class in 1935. He lettered two years in basketball and football under Coach Helmut Brockman, winning honorable mention on the Loup Valley team and a position on the All Class A tournament team. He played the position of guard.

Severson attended Peru State Teachers college two years and had been at the University of Nebraska two years when he enlisted in the army air forces. He was graduated from the A. A. F. bombardier school at Midland, Tex., May 13, 1943. He was married April 10, 1944, to Miss Yvonne Moslander of Lincoln and went overseas shortly afterward.

Lt. Severson was bombardier on a B-24 Liberator bomber operating from Italy and was on his 23rd mission when his plane was shot down. He was at first reported missing and it was hoped that he might have parachuted to safety and been made a prisoner of war.

Dr. Gard Injured in Auto Accident Near Ord Sunday

Autos driven by Dr. George R. Gard and R. C. Winchester of Maiden Valley were involved in an accident Sunday evening at about 6:50 at the junction of the Maiden Valley road with Highway 11, just southeast of the Saunders alfalfa mill.

Dr. Gard was returning from his farm near Olean and Mr. and Mrs. Winchester came out from the Penas place, turning west ahead of him. Winchester swung over to the right to make the turn into the side road, and Dr. Gard, thinking he had moved over to let him pass, started to pass just as the other auto turned in.

The Gard auto turned around, went off the grade on the right hand side and rolled over, and was too badly wrecked to pay to have it repaired. The Winchester auto was not as badly damaged. Winchester was uninjured, but Gard suffered a badly bruised right leg. However, he has been about his work as usual this week.

Polio Foundation Conducts Special Drive for Funds

First Time in History an Autumn Drive Was Needed or Asked For.

With thousands of children and adults in hospitals over the country today as the result of widespread polio epidemics, and with many more cases likely to develop in the months just ahead, the national foundation for infantile paralysis has launched a special polio drive to provide funds that are needed over and above those raised in the regular annual drives.

It has been estimated that $11,500,000 must be raised to meet the national polio bill. With this in mind, a drive is being launched in Valley county to begin Thursday, Sept. 8 and continue for one week, in which time it is expected that the area will be covered by the workers.

Absalon Chairman.
The county organization has planned the drive here, has appointed workers in the different areas of the county, and expects to get the drive over in the time required. It is asked that all citizens cooperate by setting aside whatever they plan to give and having it ready for the workers when they call, or by turning it over to the member of the committee.

Since the departure of George Satterfield, chairman, the vice-chairman, Stanley Absalon, has been advanced to chairman, and is taking active charge of the drive. Other members of the county committee are Mrs. E. L. Kokes, secretary; C. J. Mortensen, treasurer; John L. Ward, publicity.

Committeemen are Mrs. George R. Ward, Mrs. Wallace Doe and Miss Minnie Holoun; Arcadia, Kermit Erickson and Mrs. R. S. Mettenbrink; North Loup, Ray Hill and Mrs. Igo Pokraski; and Elyria, Mrs. James Ivanski.

Mrs. W. Thompson Called by Death at Age of 82

She and Husband Were Residents of Ord for Nearly Half Century.

Helen Bellmore, daughter of James and Elizabeth Bellmore, was born December 16, 1867, at Hanna, Indiana. In the year 1888 she was united in marriage to Wise D. Thompson at Osceola, Neb. To this union were born two children, Pearl and Roy, both of whom preceded their parents in death.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson moved to Ord more than 45 years ago and had made their homes here since that time. They were well known in Ord, and made friends of all who knew them. Her husband, familiarly known as "Doc" Thompson, preceded her in death May 26, 1948.

She leaves to mourn her departure one grandson, Gordon Serley of Wallace, Neb.; one sister, Mrs. Harry Musselman of Osceola, Neb.; one brother, William Dellmore of Dix, Neb.; five great-grandchildren and one great-grandchild, besides many neighbors and friends.

Funeral services were held Friday, Sept. 3, at 10:30 a. m., at the Hastings-Pearson chapel, Rev. L. V. Hassell officiating. Mrs. Mark Tolson sang, accompanied by Mrs. O. A. Kellison. The pall bearers were Jack Pashaw, Jerry Petska, Walt Douthit, Len Covert, Charles Kingston and Anton Adamek. Burial was in the Ord City cemetery.

Valley Co. Girls to State Fair

Miss Katherine Helzer took several girls to Lincoln Tuesday to the state fair. The girls were Rita Wozniak and Adeline Dubas who will do a clothing demonstration and Joan Burrows and Shirlee Brown of North Loup who will take part in a food demonstration. Marilyn Benson is going to the fair with her parents to be in a dress revue.

Saturday Miss Helzer took the pupils of the blizzard winners of the clothing, homemaking and food groups to Lincoln. She took a complete costume belonging to Ellen Jean Poth and a school dress made by Jeannette Kokes.

In District Court

Saturday, Sept. 3, an affidavit for disobedience of restraining order was filed by Joseph Skoll against Lydia Kokes. This is the outcome of the dynamiting of a ditch two years ago for Lydia Kokes, which drained and ponded water on Skoll's land. This case was tried in district court and won by Skoll, a decision which was affirmed later by the supreme court when Lydia Kokes appealed the case.

Rotary Governor Talks Here Monday

Frank B. Morrison, McCook, district Rotary Governor, told Ord Rotarians Monday evening that the ideals of service to others as expressed in Rotary ritual were privileges every member should enjoy.

Morrison outlined methods used by Rotary International in promoting friendships among nations and suggested specific methods the local club might use in aiding international good will, through correspondence with members of a club in some foreign country.

Following the regular meeting, the governor met with Rotary committee heads to study the club's own problems.

Drivers Renew 960 Licenses in Week; Keep Clerks Busy

Crowds Rush to Renew Driving Permits Which Expired As of Sept. 1.

Business has been rushing at the county treasurer's office the past week, with the entire force busy most of the time making out new driver's licenses. With 960 issued as of 10 a. m. Tuesday, it is apparent that they have been going out at the rate of more than 150 per day.

The rush is expected to continue for some time to come, however, as it is estimated that there are fully 4,000 persons with driver's licenses in Valley county. In addition to the first week rush, it is expected that there will be a rush to get under the wire the last week of October, when the 60-day period for obtaining licenses comes to an end.

Cost Up to $2.50.

While extra help has been provided in many other counties, Lloyd Wilson and his assistants, Stanley Nolte and Dick Satterfield, have been taking care of all comers so far, in addition to handling the regular run of office business. Tuesday, with Dick away, the other two were finding plenty to do.

Instead of the former price of 70c, drivers licenses were selling at $2.50, but they were not the only items with an increase in price. Fees for recording mortgages, deeds, releases and other legal papers have been practically doubled.

All Fees Increased
New car rates for autos of 2500 pounds and under are $6 for the license, doubled from the old price of $3. Cars weighing 2,600 pounds or over pay $8 instead of the former $5. Transfers must pay the new rate plus transfer charges.

Increase in the county clerk's office include chattel mortgage filing fees increased from 25c to 50c; certificates of title on automobiles, up from 50c to $1; duplicate certificates of title up from $1 to $2.

Ord Residence Sells

The Ed Vine residence in south Ord was sold this week to Henry Adams for a price of $3500. Possession will be given October 1. E. R. Fafetta represented buyer and seller.

Light Plant Smokestack Is No More

The towering smoke stack of the Ord municipal light and water plant is nothing but a stub this week, with workmen rapidly removing the longtime landmark. This Swopes photo shows why the stack could not have been removed the easy way, by simply letting it fall. The space where the stack now sets will be covered by a building—part of the light plant expansion program.

Cooler Weather This Week Slows Corn Ripening

Two Weeks or More Before Frost Will Mature Big Crop.

Rain has been general over Central Nebraska during the past week, with a total of 1 1/2 inches in Ord, slightly less in North Loup, about the same in Arcadia, a little more in Burwell. Tuesday night rains of two inches or more are reported from St. Paul, Grand Island and Lincoln, where the state fair is in progress. The Howard county fair, which began in St. Paul Tuesday, is contending with rainy weather.

One of the finest corn crops in this area in years needs only about two more weeks before frost to assure proper ripening. With the exception of a few late-planted fields, all corn should be in pretty safe condition by then, in the opinion of a number of farmers contacted the past week.

Frost is a definite possibility any evening now, but is most likely to come about the time of the autumnal equinox. The average first frost over a long period of years comes about October 2. Last year the first frost hit here Oct. 8, but did little damage.

Little Replanted Corn.
However, any frost would mean little good to the replant corn in the area east and southeast of Ord. This failed to dry, and was still out in the field when the first blizzard came, Nov. 18. Much of it was still in the fields in the spring.

Today, with little or no replant corn to contend with, there is every reason to expect the crop to be harvested without difficulty. An added advantage is the fact that many of the fields are more free from weeds that they were last year.

Farmers have been busy putting up what will doubtless be their final crop of alfalfa hay. While much lighter than preceding years, the quality of the hay is far better than the other cuttings. Farmers contacted believed that there is more alfalfa in the stack this year than last.

Fall Pasture Good.
In some places farmers have taken advantage of the heavy crop in the stubble fields and have fenced them, allowing the cattle to use them for pasture. This means a considerable saving in feed, as well as a rest for the regular pastures.

Early sown winter wheat is showing up well, and should go into the winter in good condition, considering the number of fine rains that have fallen in the past three weeks. If the crop covers the ground well this fall, it is not likely to winter kill.

Bass Being Caught in Quiz Fishing Derby This Week

Two Prize Catfish Are Also Entered; Oct. 1 Prizes to Be Awarded

Catching bass seems to be the order of the day in the Quiz fishing contest, with three winning entries in as this is written, and a hint that there may be more to follow. Also, there are two entries of catfish which land in the prize column, one for catfish, and one for women.

The puzzling thing about the contest to date is: "What has become of the big fish?" With the exception of the catfish, which have been doing very well indeed, no really big fish, even for this area, have been turned in to date. Either there are no big fish or the people trying to catch them have been out of luck.

Big Fish Missing

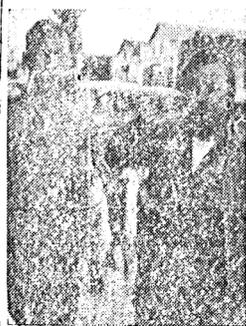

For example, the biggest bass in this week's report weighs 2 1/2 pounds. Somewhere there should be bass weighing five pounds or more, but nobody seems to be finding them, or, if they are, they are not entering them in the contest. Bluegills often weigh a pound or more, but the largest listed is 9 1/2 ounces. Crappies and trout often weigh two pounds, while the entries to date are around one pound.

It is not important, of course, whether the winning fish is extra large or not. What is important is the apparent fact that there are so few big fish. Anglers of this area should be vitally interested in the fact that fish are becoming scarcer as the years go by. Perhaps the toll taken by last winter's storms is the cause of the shortage this summer.

Three Bass Entries

Returning to the record: Monday Donald I. Ward and Reynold Loft, fishing near Hardenbrook Dam, each hooked a black bass which put them in the winning column for the time being, at least. Ward's fish weighed 2 1/2 pounds. Loft's, 2 lb. 6 oz. They were caught on rods, with small hooks and minnows for bait. Ward also caught another bass about 1 1/2 pounds.

The only data we have on the bass caught Aug. 31 by Emanuel Koputka, is the fact that the fish was weighed at the North Side Market, and weighed 2 lbs., 5 oz., which puts him in third place, behind Igo Piskorski, first entrant, out of the running. Better drop around, Emanuel, and fill out an entry blank.

Paul Geneski, fishing Friday, caught a 1 lb. 2 oz. crappie, the second entry in this class and only two ounces behind the entry of Mrs. Greeley Gebhart of Scotia. Paul should also fill out an entry blank. Without it we do not know what kind of tackle, bait, etc., were used.

Dubas Gets Big One

Last but not least comes the entry of Steve Dubas of Elyria, who adds a 12 pound, 2 ounce catfish to the list to land in second place behind Archie Bradt. Steve was fishing on his own farm, two miles above Elyria, with a rod and reel and a frog for bait. He was alone, Sept. 1, at 2:30 p. m. and started fishing about 1 p. m. He caught two more about 1 1/2 pounds each, and three weeks ago caught two weighing 1 1/4 pounds each.

August 31 Mrs. C. C. Dale was fishing about 11 a. m. at Hardenbrook Dam and hooked a catfish weighing 6 lb. 2 oz. She was using a rod and reel, with a frog for bait, and was fishing alone at the time. That extra two ounces puts Mrs. Dale in second place in the women's division. The bluegill and trout divisions show no change this week.

SCHOOL DAYS

Bring Lessons for Everybody

School days have taken over the easy realm of vacation. Hundreds of households in Valley county will have to adjust themselves to the discipline of school routine, of assuming added responsibilities.

Parents will be filled with dreams and desires for their children in a new world because these elders know and realize that school is one of the important factors in shaping the thinking of youth, and in training them for a bright and prosperous future.

A factor that parents must never over-look during school terms or vacation is the ever-present necessity for teaching the powerful lesson of thrift; of providing for their children's education by arranging an educational savings program that will safeguard their future.

Let the pride you have in your children be constructive. This bank will be glad to be of help to you.

These are big days in the life of Pete. He has started school! In the few brief years of his existence Pete hasn't had the time to learn all there is to know about life and living.

Ord Football Team Rounds into Shape As School Opens

Coach Peterson Says Squad Will Be More Experienced This Year.

With the opening game of football only 9 days away, Coach Dick Peterson is well pleased, with the way his boys are rounding into shape, but is not too optimistic as to Ord's chances when the boys square off against Holdrege in the opening contest on the home field Sept. 16.

Peterson has recollections of that battle of last year, which Holdrege finally won by a score of 12 to 6. He also has noted the fact that Holdrege has enough men back that their coach, Jess Keifer, can field a full team with the exception of one back, who saw action against Ord last year.

Ord has quite a squad of lettermen back, however, and a lot of promising material coming up. In addition, the team was strengthened materially this week by the arrival of three new men, Gerald and Roy Van Winkle are transfers from Burwell, where they played last year, and Lonnie Dye is a new man with plenty of promise.

Gerald VanWinkle is a back and a senior, while Roy is a lineman and a junior. Dye is also a lineman. Dale Richardson, has also reported back. He was a starting end last year. In fact, on paper the Holdrege-Ord game looks like another toss-up, a game in which anything can happen, and probably will.

Mason City Flyer Is Second in Bendix

Capt. J. E. Newman, Mason City, averaged 524.6 miles per hour to come in second behind Maj. Vernon A. Ford of the Air Force flying a Republic P-47 Thunderjet single engine fighter in the Bendix air races Saturday.

Major Ford averaged 529.6 miles per hour in winning. The cross-country race began at Murco, Calif., and ended in Cleveland.

Sherman County's First Polio Case

The first polio case in Sherman county was reported last week when Joel Allen Havlik, living near Ravenna in the south edge of Sherman county, was taken to St. Francis hospital in Grand Island. He is 11 years old and his condition is good, indicating that he should recover. Sherman is one of several counties, including Valley, with only a single case of the disease reported to date.

New Kind of Grass Is Considered Gold Mine

Intermediate wheatgrass is going strong in Sheridan county, according to information put out by Bill Stuart of the soil conservation service. It has many advantages over other grasses. It starts growing sooner after seeding. It is ready to graze a month ahead of other grasses.

It spreads from the roots, covering the ground completely. Livestock like it and thrive upon it, and it is seeded and harvested with standard small grain equipment. A photo of a field in Sheridan county shows the grass nearly shoulder high.

The crop was cut for seed and yielded 200 pounds per acre, worth 75c to $1 per pound on the present market. At that price the crop might be considered a bonanza. Like all grasses, it will not yield so heavy a crop until after several years.

C. C. Dale states that Harold Nelson had quite a crop of intermediate wheatgrass seed, and that he understood he made about $150 per acre from the crop last year. Henry Enger also has some acreage sowed, and Art Easterbrook of Arcadia is planning to seed 150 acres if he can find enough seed.

North Loup to Have Fair Six-Man Team; 7 Lettermen Back

David Alfrey Hopes to Make Showing in First Year Here.

David Alfrey is the new coach of the North Loup schools, replacing Bill Cook, who is now teaching in Atkinson. He believes that the school should make a good showing this year, but has no illusions of winning all the games of a rather tough schedule.

Seven letter men are returning to North Loup this year. They are Joe Babcock, Ronald Goodrich, Robert Hawkes, Russell Kerr, Merwin Myers, Gale Sintek and Dean Walup. All these men saw considerable service last year. Promising material includes Richard Hawkes, Duane Willoughby and Sam Jensen. One freshman, James Wilson, is repeating for early practice.

Ord and Arcadia Clash Sunday Under Bussell Lights

Winner Assured Berth in Loup Play-Off Finals, Hard Game Assured.

The Ord and Arcadia teams, each with a Loup Valley play-off win tucked under its belt, will clash Sunday night under the Bussell park lights in a tussle that is important in the league's race. Winner of this game will be assured of a spot in the final play-off game to determine the champion.

Arcadia won the right to meet Ord Sunday by beating Anselby Sunday night in one of the season's best games, score being 4 to 3. Though the Anselby slugger got 7 safe blows off Beasley, Arcadia took advantage of breaks and converted their 4 hits into runs to edge out the Anselby boys.

Two weeks ago Ord defeated Miller and stood idle last week while their next adversary was determined by result of the Anselby-Arcadia game.

Manager Walt Douthit will have to shuffle his line-up considerably Sunday night because Stan Johnson, catcher, and Don Wozniak, 3rd baseman, are both absent on vacations. Vail probably will handle the receiving job, with R. Moore taking 2nd, and Bob Stull, who has been on Ord's roster all season but hasn't seen action, will pitch the hot corner. Stull, a heavy hitter, has pitched and played both infield and outfield positions for Ord in previous seasons. He is an Ord boy but was away most of the summer and has been slow in rounding into shape.

If the Colts can get a few runs the league's ace chucker, Beasley, will stand a good chance to win. Arcadia will come to Ord confident of victory and their fast infield, plus the hurling prowess of Beasley, gives them an edge in the pre-game betting. The game will start at 8:00 and fans are advised to be there early to get a seat.

The other play-off game of Sunday will bring Miller and Anselby together in the afternoon at Anselby. Loser of this game will drop out of the play-offs, while the winner will meet the loser in the Ord-Man game to decide the second finalist.

Dig up Your $2.50; Driver's License Out

A second warning might not be out of place to all drivers who may possibly overlook the fact that new licenses must be bought within 60 days from Sept. 1, or the driver will have to take another driving examination.

Most drivers know a new license must be bought, but many of them are neglecting to buy their new one, which costs $2.50 this year, instead of the former price of 75c, in vogue since 1937.

Swatting Kings of Loup Valley League

Swat kings of the Loup league are these two Ord players. Beran posted an average of .469 for the regular season, with Johnson close behind at .450. Only one league player surpassed them, Claris Bellinger of Arcadia, who batted only 8 times and whose .500 average led the entire league.

Leggett's Returning
Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Leggett and Donald Craig, who have spent the past month at Cullen lake, Minnesota, are expected home tonight. Publisher Leggett, of the Quiz, writes that weather has become quite cold there and that fish are not striking at present.

Colts Take Tight 1 to 0 Battle at Sargent Tues.

Beran, Caldwell Stage a 9-Inning Duel, Allow Only 5 Hits.

The Ord and Burwell baseball teams hooked up in a thrilling game at Sargent Tuesday evening, the Colts winning 1 to 0 after making their only run on four walks and an error in the first inning.

Dick Beran went the route for Ord and allowed only 3 safe blows while his mates gave him fine support, holding Burwell scoreless. Caldwell, Sargent high school coach, was Burwell's pitcher and after a wild first inning he settled down to airtight pitching which allowed the Colts only 2 safeties.

The victory was Ord's second of the week. Last Wednesday night here they defeated Greeley 11 to 3, teeing off on Smith, the Greeley alldwo has been signed for next season by the St. Louis Cardinals. Patrick started for Ord and pitched well until relieved by Beran, who in turn gave way to "Giz" Richardson in the final inning. Patrick was credited with the win.

Farwell Game Off

The baseball game between Ord and Fairwell, originally scheduled for Sunday night but postponed to Wednesday because of a wet playing field, has now been cancelled, according to Manager Douthit. Continuous rains have left the field too wet and a later date could not be agreed on. Fans and players are hoping for warmer weather and a dry field for the Ord-Arcadia clash Sunday night.

Seed Rye

We have in stock a limited amount of good Balboa Seed Rye. Good seed rye is not plentiful and the amount is very limited. If interested we suggest that you get not feel that we will be able to supply more as we do to secure more of it.

Seed Wheat

Much of the wheat that will be used for seeding this year contains some rye seed and Mills and Grain men are making quite heavy discounts in the price where rye is prevalent in the wheat. We suggest that if your wheat contains rye that you market it and obtain a seed that is free from rye. We have some wheat that is free from rye and the price is reasonable. This wheat can be cleaned and treated with Semesan if desired. Sow the best seed possible. It will pay in the long run.

Fertilizer

There have been a few tests run using fertilizer on small grain and results have been very satisfactory. Possibly your farm needs a limited amount of Ammonium Nitrate or—it may need Superphosphate. In many cases a mixed fertilizer is being used and it is highly recommended for use in our section. We have Ammonium Nitrate in stock and also a very limited amount of Superphosphate and can deliver truck loads of mixed fertilizer in a couple of days.

Brome and Crested Wheat

We are in the market for Brome and Crested Wheat seed and will pay you a good price for clean seed. This is planting time for both Brome and Crested Wheat and we have cleaned and tested seed in stock. We believe that this cleaned seed is a much better buy than the seed uncleaned. Also believe that if you are not going to sow this seed this fall but plan to next spring that it will pay you to buy it now and carry it till next spring. Let us quote you on it.

Alfalfa and Sweet Clover Seed

There has been much speculation on alfalfa and sweet clover seed this year and we believe that the market is pretty well settled at this time. We are in the market for your alfalfa and sweet clover seed and are following the market as closely as possible. We believe that we furnish you with the best market for this seed in our section as you can bring in your seed and have it cleaned at no cost to you and get the full market for the clean seed that you have to sell. This might be a good time to buy your alfalfa and sweet clover seed that you want to plant next spring. Can sell you alfalfa at 45c.

Grains

The wheat market remains strong but the corn market is weak. Barley, Oats and Rye are all stronger than several weeks ago. We would appreciate a chance to bid on your grain that you want to move to market. Have for sale some good barley seed and oats. Good corn is not easy to get at the present price; but if you need corn let us make you an offer for corn delivered to your farm.

Proteins

Proteins remain high and there is not much prospect for cheaper prices very soon. We believe that any proteins that you need in the next two months is a good buy on the present market.

"It pays to buy from Noll."

Ord Has Been Lucky.

The people of Ord and Valley county have been lucky. One does not have to be a believer in luck to realize the fact that and community in these times with only one case of polio and that in a mild form, is fortunate. For many years the regular contributions for the cause of fighting polio have been gathered, but the area has been relatively free from the disease.

In many other places polio has been felt, and severely. In such places the amount required to battle the disease has been exhausted and the national foundation has found it necessary to send additional funds to carry on the work. When the national fund became dangerously low, counties like Valley with a sufficient reserve were asked for the loan of funds.

Responding to this request, the Valley County Polio organization recently sent a loan of $400 to the national foundation, as did hundreds of other counties. However, the need for funds is greater than could be supplied by these contributions, and it was decided to ask for an emergency offering for the cause of fighting polio.

This week workers will contact the people of Valley county for the purpose of asking contributions to this special fund, the first ever asked and the first ever needed in combatting this most crippling of all diseases. The people have been more than generous in the past. Thankful that our community has been spared largely, the people will respond to this call, as they always have.

Some time, it may be sooner than we realize, a means will be found to prevent this disease. The national foundation for infantile paralysis has endowed certain universities with funds in the past, which are being used for research. The cause is being sought, and some day we can live normal lives, secure in the knowledge that polio is being prevented before it can start.

Until that time comes, and even after it comes, the people of America must do their part by furnishing the funds necessary to bring this feeling of security to our land, and to keep it secure. Many once dreaded diseases have either been definitely put out of action in the past, or their effects made less dangerous because funds were furnished to fight them. Let us keep up the good fight by contributing liberally to the polio fund.

Sidewalks.

Since the first pioneers started the first towns in the west, sidewalks have been considered as a mark of civilization, and every place of business worthy of the name has a sidewalk in front. Of necessity, the first sidewalks were made of lumber, and they lasted for a longer or shorter period of time, depending on materials used and weather conditions.

Around the turn of the century concrete walks began to make their appearance, but, due to lack of uniformity in the cement and also in the mixing materials used, many of those first walks lasted only a short time and had to be replaced. A type of walk that had a vogue for a decade or two and is still in use in some places is the brick walk.

The wooden, or temporary walk, went out of existence a long time ago, except for temporary use. The only walks permitted in towns and cities today is some form of permanent walk, which is as it should be. Nothing is more dangerous to the well being of a community than an old board walk, with its dangers from broken boards and from disease germs hiding beneath it.

Speaking of dangers, modern sidewalks can be dangerous also. All permanent walks are laid so that they are even and safe to walk on, at the time they are laid. They stay that way for a time, but generally the blocks or bricks get out of alignment, and ledges develop to catch the toe of the pedestrian.

Young people may take a fall, get up and walk off with only a rumble of discontent. But as people grow older, the danger of serious results from such a fall increases, and all too often serious injury results. For such injuries the city and the property owner can be held liable, as has been proven by many a suit in court.

Frankly, many of Ord's sidewalks are terrible. It is not necessary to specify any particular place. Just take a walk for a few blocks, any direction, in any part of town, and find out for yourself. It must have been lovely walking around Ord on a moonless night during the wartime blackout.

It is a shame to permit such conditions when a few hours work in releveling could make so much improvement. It is unjust to the old people to make them risk life and limb every time they take a walk in the street. If the humps were in the paving instead of in the sidewalks, everybody would be squawking about it. Why not do something about it anyway?

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

I had the privilege of taking the trip with the Ord Junior Legion boys to Omaha Thursday to see the two most exciting games of the Little World series, as the final Junior Legion eliminations games were called. To make a real day of it, I got up at 4 a. m. and started a fire so as to have the water hot for doing the washing that morning, and got things going along that line before the bus came along.

While waiting for the bus I took my shiny club-wed cutter and mowed the sides of the irrigation ditch, just to keep in training. I waited at home for the bus, but it stopped down town for me, and we had quite a time getting together. Finally, shortly after 9 a. m. we were on our way to Grand Island.

Arriving there, the driver told that we would have about 25 minutes while the bus was being serviced, so we took in the town, most of us having a look at the Army Store in the same block, where we met Joe Flakus and Leon Dubas, who were busy waiting on trade. Four of the boys, I believe they were Paul Stoddard, Ken Collins, Gerald Severson and Don Geneski, bought some sailor hats, which had been tinted a bright yellow, and reorganized them so they would have the most striking effect. They wore those hats off somewhere they went, and they served to locate the boys when, and if, they were needed.

Starting out from Grand Island with a new driver, we soon overtook a long freight train ambling east, and gradually overhauled it until we had passed about half of it. Then the bus slowed down for Central City, and by the time we got through town the train was out of sight. It had taken us ten minutes to pass half of the train, and we never did see it again, as we turned east at the overpass. However we had time to take down the names of box cars and had a list of fifteen different lines when the train got away.

From Grand Island to Omaha we had a man deadheading and tried to gradually overhauled it as a quarterback for the Ord high football team. Would have got away with it, too, if "Pidge" had just kept his hat on. Somewhere beyond Osceola Fred Stoddard began to fiddle with the mechanism of the bus, and he gradually tipped back. He must have done something wrong, because something began to whack the bottom of the bus with a rhythm that had loogie-woogie backed off the map. The driver stopped and insisted every time he stepped out to read on one of them had come loose. However, we kept going until we reached Rising City, where we ate dinner while the driver changed the tire. After dinner Paul Stoddard and Ken Collins got lost and Severson was sent to find them and he got lost also. Finally they all showed up and we were off again.

Bill Heuck had started sitting in one of the regular seats, but found it cramped his style. Bill wasn't built to fit a bus, nobody. First he tried a seat on the opposite side, and found it was no better. He finally wound up by sitting in the middle of the back seat and letting his legs stretch half way down the aisle. Every once in a while he would have to draw them up to let somebody in or out of a seat. After quite a spell, it was about a quarter of three, I believe, we arrived at the new bus station at 15th and Farnam in Omaha. We had until about 5 o'clock to spend as we pleased, and Bill turned all the boys loose with the exception of the two midgets, Piskowski and Douthit. He went with them, "to look after them," he claimed, but the boys said afterward they had to look after Bill.

Ken and Paul Patrick were amazed at the number of cars running around everywhere, and said it must be Saturday, for the farmers were all coming to town. Harlan Jensen said he had almost as much trouble with his legs as Bill Heuck had, and solved the difficulty by hanging them over the back of the seat in front of him, to the discomfort of Dick Anderson and Bob Dwyer, who occupied the seat in front. But, as I started to say, the crowd scattered and went their several ways.

Stoddard and I started off together, he with some knowledge of where he was going, and I putting up a tall bluff. We went into Woolworths, locked the place over, and then Stoddard went through a door, and I followed, thinking we were still in a part of the same store. We wandered through miles and miles of corridors, looked at about everything under the sun, and finally went up a stairs and out into the street by the street from where we went in and, while we had gone into Woolworths, we came out of Brandeis. Fred knew what had happened, but it had me puzzled for a long time.

We got back to the bus depot and found Bill and the two boys. They said they had gone down to the Woodman of the World building, up to the top and had a look over Omaha. Then they went down to Brandeis and spent quite a while riding up and down the escalators. About that time along came Jim and "Pidge," who said they had spent the time riding up and down the escalators in the Brandeis store. When the rest of the boys got back, they all had something new to tell about. Said Richard Heuck and Dale Falter, "We went down to the Brandeis store and spent the time riding up and down the escalators."

Miss Dorothy Jean Kuhn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kuhn of Archer, and Earl Dean Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gould of Arcadia, were married August 24, in the Methodist church at Central City. The Rev. Dawson Mark performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 100 guests. Bridal music was provided by Miss Donna Higbee, Miss Jocelyn Weller sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly." The square yoke was edged in Chantilly lace, the sleeves were long, and the full skirt, fashioned with a lace edged peplum, fell into a three-yard train. A coronet of white satin, edged with pearls, held her fingertip length veil.

FOLKS take a look at those bumper-guard grilles - built as a unit and proof against "locking horns" - and say "Humm! Nice!"

They sweep their eyes over tapering fenders, with a suggestion of jet power in their after contours - and say, "That's for me!"

They eye-measure windshields that are 48% bigger and rear windows with 56% more area - and know without being told they can see the road up closer, both fore and aft.

So they say - "That's for me - IF!"

"What does it cost me to get this handy-sized dandy with the roomiest interiors ever found on a Buick Special?"

"What do I pay for high-compression, high-pressure Fireball power from a big Buick straight-eight engine?"

"What's the tag on that swell Buick ride, with coil springing, extra-wide rims, seats between the axles and all that?"

"And what about Dynaflo Drive - understand I can have that at extra cost - how much?"

Well, sir, the news is good. Plenty good. Because this honey's priced well under your expectations. It's a straight-eight that's priced under a lot of sixes - over the years your investment will be no more than for any other car.

So better not stop with looking. Better price it too - delivered at your door. Your Buick dealer will give you the figures, even demonstrate.

After which you'll do as others are doing - you'll get a firm order in.

Fifteen Days Left to Earn Prizes in Quiz Fish Contest

Two Classes Have But Two Entrants; Time to Get the Big Ones In.

The time is passing swiftly, and when you read this the Quiz, there will be only 15 more days left in which to get in those big fish which will entitle you to a share of the reward money. One hundred and fifty dollars is to be given away at the close of the contest, to say nothing of the fun of catching and eating the fish.

With the exception of the catfish division, the entries are rather small. There must be somewhere a bass that weighs 5 or 6 pounds, just waiting to be caught. There certainly ought to be a trout bigger than one pound. Where are the three pound crappies and two pound bluegills? Can't some of you ladies bring in a catfish or other kind of game fish weighing eight pounds or more?

The Quiz has put up the money, and it will be paid, whoever wins. But it doesn't look reasonable to have a whole summer go by without bigger fish being brought in. It does not speak well for the eight-county area in which the contest is being held, that bigger fish cannot be found.

Services Are Held Sunday in Honor of Lieut. Severson

Funeral services were held at the Ord Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 for Richard Severson, whose body was brought back from Europe. Rev. L. V. Hassell was the officiating minister. Mrs. Mark Tolson sang with Mrs. O. A. Kellison at the organ.

The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars had charge of the service at the cemetery. The pallbearers were Richard Rowland, George Krund, Emil Dargis, Harold Garnick, Emanuel Kaputka and Adam Dubas.

Frost, Yes or No? Observer Travis Not Quite Certain

Damage Apparent in Some Localities and None in Other Spots.

There seems to be some question as to whether the cold wave of Monday night brought a killing frost or not. Weatherman Horace Travis is not certain about the proposition, and said it might take a few days to determine the extent of damage done, if any.

The government thermometer located at the Travis home at 2121 M. street, recorded a minimum of 34 degrees. While frost can form at that temperature, it usually does little damage. It is also possible that the reading could vary a few degrees either way in different parts of town, and in the country.

Table with 3 columns: By Observer, High, Low, Precip. Rows for Thurs., Fri., Sat., Sun., Mon., Tues., Wed., Total for 1918, Total for 1919.

Down at North Loup, where Harry Gillespie is keeper of the weather, the same temperature was recorded as at Burwell, 31 degrees. Corn down the valley had a rather sickly look, but Steve Grohosky of Scotia, who drove to Ord Tuesday forenoon, said he did not believe much damage was done.

Earliest in 9 Years. If it was a killing frost, it was the earliest since away back in 1940, when 32 degrees and a damaging frost was reported Sept. 11, one of the earliest frost dates on record. Killing frost came on the following dates during the past 20 years, according to Mr. Travis's record:

1919, Oct. 11; 1917, Oct. 24; 1916, Sept. 29; 1915, Sept. 23; 1914, Oct. 12; 1913, Oct. 6; 1912, Sept. 24; 1911, Oct. 27; 1910, Sept. 11; 1909, Sept. 30; 1908, Sept. 19; 1907, Oct. 14; 1906, Oct. 5; 1905, Oct. 4; 1904, Sept. 21; 1903, Oct. 9; 1902, Oct. 10.

—Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Beranek and Doris Mae drove to Grand Island Friday evening to get Miss Vlasta Dusck of Long Beach, Calif., and Miss Phylla Dusek of Omaha.

Polio Drive for Special Fund Is Meeting Success

Public Is Responding to Call of Stricken; Need of Money Great.

The special drive for polio funds now under way is progressing nicely, and the results to date are encouraging. At this time no complete reports are in from any part of the county, but workers state that the public is responding to the call of the stricken.

However, the National Foundation stresses the fact that the need for funds is great. We in this section of the nation have been spared largely from the ravages of the disease, and for this reason should be more than willing to help localities where the epidemic is rampant.

Jay Reineke, 26, of Ericson, became ill the first of this week with polio and was taken to the Veterans hospital at Lincoln, where his condition is declared quite serious. His right leg and side are affected by paralysis, and he will have to remain in the hospital for six weeks to six months.

At present, Jay is the only new case in this area. The only case reported from Ord, that of Carl Osenkowski, has been cured, and Carl has been dismissed from the hospital at Grand Island and is now at home.

Reports from other places are encouraging, however. In Iowa the number of cases increased to fifty over the week-end. Monday a total of 80 polio patients were listed in Omaha. These are some of the less serious reports. They stress the need of raising funds at once to combat the disease.

Stanley Absalon, chairman of the Valley county polio organization, stated Tuesday that the drive here would probably be completed by Saturday night. If you have not as yet made your contribution, please do so at once, so that the books may be closed promptly at the end of this week.

William Nelson, Ord music instructor, announced this week the selections for drum major, baton twirlers, and flag bearer for the Ord band for the coming year. The band this year includes 58 pieces.

Six baton twirlers have been chosen. Their names are Any Christoffersen, Darlene Novosad, Rosalie Blaha, Sandra Norman, Carolyn Romans and Lucilla Christoffersen.

Glenn Eschliman has been selected as flag bearer. It is understood that the Ord band will be present and furnish music in the intermissions at all home football games, and will also match in formation between halves.

Three Fined for Elyria Fistfight

Arraigned in Valley county court Wednesday morning Dale Lindsay and Stanley Schneider of Burwell, and Daniel Augustyn of Ord, pleaded guilty to charges of disturbing the peace.

The offense took place Sunday evening at Elyria when Lindsay and Augustyn got in an argument. Marshal J. B. Zulkoski arrested Lindsay who bolted and made a get-away with Schneider in the latter's car. The trio were picked up Wednesday by Sheriff Bob Hall. Lindsay and Schneider are trucking potatoes in the Elyria vicinity, where Augustyn farms.

40-Hour Work Week Affects Railroads and Men in Ord

Burlington Closed on Saturdays, But Union Pacific Will Be Open.

The 40-hour work week recently put into force by Nebraska railroads has had some effect in Ord. D. L. Dilla, Burlington agent, stated Monday that the Burlington station will be open as before on 5 days of the week Monday to Friday, inclusive from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. and will be closed both Saturday and Sunday.

G. W. Finley, Union Pacific agent, stated that his road is permitting the 40-hour week to work on a cumulative basis. He works six days a week as before for a period of 3 weeks, and then gets a full week off, while the company sends in a substitute to take his place.

For this reason, the station, in so far as the public is concerned, will observe the same hours as in the past, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday to Saturday inclusive and then closed on Sunday.

Since the law went into effect, and before, there has been considerable objection from towns in the stock shipping areas, where it is claimed the Saturday closing would cause inconvenience to shippers who wished to ship stock on Saturday.

Mine Accident Is Fatal to Young North Loup Man

Dale Hawkes Dies of Injuries Received in Homestake Mine.

Dale Hawkes, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hawkes of North Loup, passed away at 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning at the Homestake hospital at Lead, S. D., where he was taken Friday after being injured while working in the Homestake mine, largest gold mine in the world.

Dale was barring down rock, at the 3350 level, when a large wall of rock and dirt estimated at two tons fell on him. Seeing it coming, he told his father, who reached his bedside early Saturday morning, knowing he was unable to get out of the way, he dropped his bar and rolled, but did not get out of the way. The other man working in the same level with him, had gone for a hose and was just returning when he heard the crash. He was uninjured. Dale was taken at once to the Homestake hospital where he was given every care. Both legs were broken between the knee and the ankle and the third vertebra in his lower spine was crushed which paralyzed him.

Dale Hawkes

Dale, Gordon Portis and Bus Thorngate went to Lead to work in the mine about the middle of August. All had been attending college and had decided to work the first semester and continue their college work after the first of the year.

Clifford Hawkes, George Warford and Walter Thorngate drove to Lead Friday after word came of the accident. Dale was conscious and talked with his father, even a short time before he passed away. Mr. Hawkes and George Warford came home Sunday. Mr. Thorngate, Bus and Gordon Portis came Monday, driving Dale's car. The body arrived Tuesday by train. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Methodist church, with Rev. W. G. Studer officiating.

Dale was born in North Loup February 26, 1928. He attended North Loup schools and in high school started in basketball and football. In 1945 he played center on the undefeated six man high school squad. After his graduation he gave 18 months service to his country, serving as physical education instructor in the Aleutians. Last year he attended Kearney college, and when at home helped with his father's produce trucks. A boy with a winning smile, he made friends wherever he went.

2 More Employees for Quiz Force

The Quiz force will be increased by two in the near future. Jack Sanders, of Norfolk, a journeyman printer, will start work next Monday. He and Mrs. Sanders will occupy an apartment at the George Hastings home as soon as the Wallace Doe family leaves for Colorado.

Second employe is Herbert Robertson, of Harvard, a linotype operator, who will report for work Sept. 26. He and Mrs. Robertson and their two children will live in a Petska house now occupied by the Hank Adams family, who are moving to their own home soon.

Constantly increasing volume of commercial printing made more employees necessary, says the Quiz management.

North Loup All Set for Annual Popcorn Days Celebration

Horse Show, Parade, Missouri Valley Barn Dance, Other Features.

Next week, Sept. 20, 21 and 22, will come the 18th annual observance of Pop Corn Days at North Loup, and the way plans are shaping up, it promises to be one of the best ever held. R. J. Schadel, chairman of the Pop Corn committee, has been busy most of the time for the past month or more getting everything ready for the show to begin.

Tuesday will be entry day, with no show during the day. In the evening, however, there will be a special attraction in the Pop Corn Bowl football game, which will bring together the six-man teams of West Kearney and North Loup. This has always been a popular contest since its introduction some years ago, and will doubtless draw a large crowd.

Big Shows Wednesday. Wednesday the program calls for a band concert at 1 p. m. followed by the juvenile parade at 1:30, the saddle horse parade at 2, the saddle horse show at 3, and a band concert by Rasmussen's band, stage show, picture show, carnival and other amusements from 4:30 on.

The evening show opens with a band concert at 7:30, Rasmussen's stage show at 7:30, the crowning of the Pop Corn Queen at 8, and dancing to Rasmussen's music, with both old and new time dances, the carnival and street entertainment.

Thursday will open with a band concert at 1, the parade of floats, led by the Pop Corn Queen, at 2, a band concert, south of the community building at 3, followed by free acts on the stage, also a broadcast over WNAJ, and the Missouri Valley Barn Dance program.

5 Bands to Play. A 7:30 band concert will open the evening's entertainment and will be followed by the evening show of the Missouri Valley group, which consists of 12 acts by fifteen entertainers, including some of the top-billed artists of the middle west. At 9:30 the Pop Corn Booster prizes will be awarded, and at 10 the big dance will start, with music furnished by the WNAJ orchestra.

There will be bands from Rockville, Scotia, Ord and North Loup, as well as Rasmussen's band. The Thomas carnival will be present with rides and shows. There will be bushels of free pop corn for everybody. The exhibits, always fine, will be open for public inspection all through the celebration.

Gambling Ban Brings Sharp Local Reaction; Clubs Comply

Commanders of Ord's Veteran Posts Say Civic Activity Must Cease

In a joint statement prepared Wednesday, Lloyd Zikmund, commander of the Ord American Legion post and E. R. Appling, commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, said that civic and charitable functions of the two posts would stop this week.

"Our only source of income has been eliminated," the statement read, "and with no money we can no longer take the lead in contributing to the welfare and improvement of the community."

Had Donated $30,000. The commanders' statement gave a long list of activities in which the two service men's posts have participated, ranging from various projects in the city and county. We did this because we felt that a home worth fighting for was also worth improving."

Among projects of the veterans' organizations in the past two years was the contribution of $10,000.00 to build the Ord swimming pool, more than $5000 for erection of lights at the baseball park. Other projects included sponsorship of American Legion and Midget baseball, Christmas parties for school children, and purchase of season football tickets for every child in Ord schools. Last official act of the Veterans' Club board of directors in their monthly joint meeting Monday was to purchase $1000 worth of stock in the Ord Cooperative Hospital.

District Judge Grants 2 Divorces This Week

Monday of this week District Judge E. G. Kruger held a term of court in Ord, in which he granted two divorces. Patricia J. Jensen was granted an absolute divorce from Howard Jensen on grounds of cruelty. There are no children, and no alimony was granted. The costs of the action are to be paid by the plaintiff.

A decree of absolute divorce was granted Loretta Arlene Kalkowski from Herbert C. Kalkowski, and she was given the custody of the four children. He is to pay the costs of the action, her attorney fees, and also to pay alimony. The cause was given as cruelty.

In the case wherein Joseph Skollik had filed an affidavit for disobedience of restraining order against Lydia Kokes, the defendant was given 30 days in which to show cause why she should not be adjudged in contempt of court for failure to comply with the court decree.

Slots in Veterans Club Vanish; Much Ado About Bingo

Norman Says Attorney General Did Not Make Laws Any Stronger.

"Slot machines were officially 'out' in Valley county this week, as the local servicemen's organization fell in line with Nebraska Attorney General James Anderson's edict that all forms of gambling in Nebraska were outlawed and must cease.

Slot machines in Ord were operated by the Veterans' Club, Inc., a joint venture of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. In Arcadia, machines were operated by the American Legion club in North Loup were dropped this week, the Quiz learned.

Veterans' Club Open. Although its main source of revenue was eliminated, the Ord Veterans' club will stay open, directors of the club said Wednesday. Decision to close or to continue to operate the club will probably be made by the board the first part of October.

Slot machines were not the only devices affected by Anderson's sweeping statement. The attorney general served notice that he had declared war on all types of gambling, including punch boards, pay-back pin-ball machines, lotteries, raffles, drawings, betting, he laid especial emphasis on bingo.

Officials on Spot. County Attorney Ralph Norman told the Quiz Wednesday that he believed "he was on the spot." Several religious organizations in the county have been operating bingo games, and at least three lottery-drawings are in progress in this area with prizes ranging from radios to deer for winners.

Commenting on the situation, Norman said, "Gambling has been unlawful in Nebraska for many years. The operation of slot machines, bingo games, raffles, punch boards and all other games of chance is unlawful and the fact that the Attorney General has given it a lot of publicity does not make it more so."

Liberal Attitude. "We in Valley county have taken a rather liberal attitude toward these things because we felt the people wanted it that way. However, in view of the position taken by the state officials, there is but one thing we can do and that is to put a stop to these activities.

"The veterans' organizations have been very cooperative about it and have removed slot machines from their clubs. We sincerely hope that anyone else sponsoring these things will also cooperate with us and not make it necessary for us to prosecute anyone.

"If the people of Nebraska want these things, they should let the state officials legalize and regulate them. Until this is done they are unlawful and that is all there is to it."

Is Bingo Gambling?

In Elyria, Father Leonard Ziolkowski, told the Quiz that he did not believe bingo could be called gambling unless it were played for money. "In the bingo games we conduct, there is no play for money, articles offered by ladies of the parish.

"We will continue to have bingo games here for non-cash prizes, unless the authorities tell us differently. Father Michael, whose geranium parish had scheduled a Fall Festival Sunday of this week, said that he did not know whether bingo would be played at the festival or not. Father Thomas Stodowski of Ord Catholic church told the Quiz cryptically, "In bingo it takes five numbers to win. Then you get a prize." He refused further comment.

At North Loup, officials of the Popcorn Days celebration scheduled for September 20-22 said they were calling a meeting of their executive board Wednesday evening to determine some legal manner of distributing booster prizes. The group has been conducting sales of tickets the past several weeks.

"If there is some legal way we can distribute these prizes we're going to do it," L. B. Nelson, spokesman for the group said. "Otherwise I suppose we'll have to give the ticket holders back their money."

—Wayne Hoon and Lorraine Harbeck, both of Sioux City, Ia., will be married Tuesday, Sept. 20 in Sioux City. Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoon of here.

School Gets Going in Ord With Good Total Attendance

Two New Teachers in High School, Three in Grades This Year.

The Ord schools are moving along smoothly now, with most of those who expect to attend already enrolled. Enrollment in high and junior high grades is about what had been expected from the school census. At present there are 67 seniors, 63 juniors, 61 sophomores, 74 freshmen, 29 eighth graders, and 21 in the seventh grade.

Last year, at the end of the first day's enrollment, there were 53 seniors, 71 juniors, 66 sophomores and 66 freshmen, the figures being substantially the same when school got under way. Then this year's figures given above will not be changed materially, it is believed.

The members of the school faculty and their duties are given as follows: C. C. Thompson, superintendent; F. L. Stoddard, principal and sponsor of the student council; J. A. Kovanda, vocational agriculture, Future Farmers of America, junior high coach; Richard Peterson, coach and general shop.

Maudie Holden, mathematics, sponsor 5th grade and Girls Social Service; Mrs. Dorothy Kovanda, dramatics, English, sponsor Theatians; Mrs. Helen Kokes, commercial, sponsor 10th grade, sponsor Tri-F group; Elizabeth Lukes, junior high mathematics and English, sponsor 7th grade, co-sponsor Girls Social Service.

Teachers in the grade schools are: sixth Mrs. Lois Strong; fifth, Mrs. Evelyn Jefferies; fourth, Lucy Rowbal; third, Ramona Kozak; second, Juanita Stansberry; first, Roberta Stansberry; combined first and second, Inez Swain, grade school principal; kindergarten, Irma Kim.

With the exception of five, two in high school and three in the Ord schools last year. The new teachers are William Gogan, Eunice Jensen, Ramona Kozak, Juanita Stansberry and Roberta Stansberry. Ralph Duda replaced Ed Jensen some time ago in charge of veterans training.

A convocation committee has been chosen with Joe Cupl as chairman, and William Nelson, Lucile Tolen, Irene Auble and F. L. Stoddard as the other members. Tom Williams and Richard Prien are custodians of the high school, and Robert Philbrick is custodian of the grade school.

Quite a number of changes and improvements have been made during the summer. Among new purchases have been two new pianos for the music department, and five new typewriters for the commercial room. It has been the policy to buy fifteen typewriters, or one third of those used, each year, but this is the first year since the war that the full number were available.

In accordance with the long-range repair program carried on by the school, about one fourth of the rooms were repainted during the past summer. This gives each room a new coat of paint every four years. Several of the rooms have had tile floors installed, and also venetian blinds. The usual amount of general repairing has been done.

In order that a comparison of the registrations in the various grades this year and last can be made easily, the list for the two years is given here:

Lightning Spills Milk at Arcadia

"Lightning strikes but once in the same place, we hope!" is the sentiment of the Lyle Lutz family this week. Lightning struck the yard pole at the Lutz home while Lyle and Dan were separating with the electric separator. Mrs. Lutz was also in the basement at the time. A ball of fire followed the stream of separated milk into the can blowing the bottom out of the can, burning through the linoleum and shooting pieces of the cement floor over the room. Dan had hold of the milk can at the time and was knocked flat to the floor in one direction and his father in another. Mrs. Lutz was not knocked down. The blinding flash seemed to burn their eyes and Dan was unable to see for some time, but outside of a ringing in their ears (for several days) and sore muscles, etc., they seem to have suffered no ill effects. The meter was knocked from the pole in the yard and most of the bulbs and fuses on the place were burned out.

Cougar Again Appears: Is Seen by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burrows, Thursday

Thursday evening about 20 minutes before sundown, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burrows were getting ready to fish from the north side of the river directly south of the McCostich place in Springdale. Mrs. Burrows had stepped out to the edge of the stream and happened to look across to an island out near the middle and perhaps 100 yards below, when she saw a large animal.

While she watched it went into the water and started to swim across to the north bank, changed its mind and swam back again to the island. By that time Guy had come to the bank and saw the animal, which walked around the point of the island and disappeared in the growth on the other side.

Their first thought was to come home for a rifle, or to notify the CAP men, but the near approach of night made this difficult. However, they decided that it would not be too safe to remain there and fish under the circumstances, so they came away.

Mrs. Burrows said the animal appeared to be about seven feet long from nose to tip of tail, and was larger than any dog she had ever seen. Its color and shape of head and tail showed it was a wild animal of some sort. It had the actions of a wild animal, and they are both certain that it was a cougar or mountain lion.

Mortensens, Zikmunds Return from Philadelphia

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mortensen and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Zikmund returned to Ord last week from two weeks' trips which took them to the national American Legion convention in Philadelphia and other points.

Both Ord men were active in Legion activities at the convention.
In addition, Mr. Mortensen served on the national finance committee.
Mrs. Mortensen was chosen national Child Welfare chairman of the 8 and 10 for the coming year.

Following the convention the Zikmunds went to Washington,
D. C. where they spent two days touring the national capitol. The Mortensens visited New York, where Mr. Mortensen conferred with officials of the Manufacturers Trust Co., his New York correspondent bank. They also drove to Port Bragg, Fayetteville, North Carolina, where they visited a nephew, Col. Charles Allen, commandant of the 504th Airborne division, which outfit was also honor guard for President Truman on his visit at the Philadelphia convention.

Mr. Mortensen reported the New York bankers' viewpoint was for an even higher level in commodity prices due to deficit financing by the national government. Unemployment went up again, they reported, and they felt nothing alarming in the international situation.

Mr. Mortensen said that he gained the nickname of "Deep Freeze Mortensen" from Nebraska delegates when they learned he had managed to attend an honor luncheon for President Truman, by borrowing a ticket from a Legion California delegate. Among people he saw were Gen. Harry Vaughn and John Maragon, both persons much in the public press the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Venell Sedlacek and sons Ronnie and Tommy were Monday afternoon visitors at the Emil Sedlacek home. Vencl said that during the freakish storm Sunday lightning struck a large hay stack and it burned.

John Way, Early Resident, Visits Relatives and Friends Here Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. John Way of Santa Cruz, Calif., stopped in Ord for a short time Sunday to visit with his cousin, Mrs. Bertha Mason. Mr. Way is a son of an early resident, D. C. (Cavanaugh) Way, and his mother and Mrs. Mason's mother were sisters.

Mr. Way left Valley county 53 years ago at the age of 14 years, and this was his first trip back. He is a veteran of the Spanish-American war, and spent four years in the navy, in Chinese waters part of the time. Mr. and Mrs. Way now live in the Santa Cruz valley but most of their life was spent in Hartland, Conn. They were on their way back for a visit with three sons and their families when they stopped in Ord. Mr. Way recalled the Milford building, which he said looked very familiar to him. In the John Galka Shoeshop building he thought he recognized his father's old furniture store, but he was mistaken, the former Harris carpenter shop, now torn down, being the building he had in mind.

Chanticleers Are Ready for First Game of Football

Will Play Hosts to Powerful Eleven of Holdrege Friday.

Coach Dick Peterson and his assistant, Rolland Moore, are rounding their first string into shape for the initial contest which will take place at the Ord Athletic field Friday evening, beginning promptly at 7:30, the first opponent to be Holdrege.

Ord will field a complete team of lettermen, and it is understood that Holdrege will do the same. As was the case in last year's tilt at Holdrege, it is expected that the breaks of the game will determine the outcome. Bob Hansen, who returned Ord's kickoff for a touchdown last year to give his team the edge in the 12-6 score, will be here.

Holdrege Strong. Others who will again face Ord are LaGrant Eckstrom and Bob Brown, backs, Donnie Sutton, starting center, Wayne Dahlgren starting tackle, and Norman Erickson, starting end. It is apparent that Ord's starting game will also be one of the toughest of a heavy schedule, one of the heaviest that the Chanticleers have ever undertaken.

Peterson gives his tentative starting lineup as follows: Left end, either Laursen or Heuck. Laursen is a senior, 5 feet, 11, and weighs 160 lbs. He has had three years of football and was a regular last year. Richard Heuck is 6 feet, 3, weighs 170 lbs. is a senior playing his third year of football, and shows a lot of promise as a defensive end.

Left Lettermen to Start. Frank Ahnbeck should look well at left tackle. He is 5 feet, 11, and weighs 170 lbs. He is a junior with two years experience, is quite aggressive, both on offense and defense.

Peterson's choice at left guard is Kenzie Clement, who is a senior, 5 feet, 8, and weighs 155 lbs. He is in his second year of competition, having been held out in his sophomore year by an ankle injury.

Gerald Severson will hold down the center of the line. He weighs 165 pounds, is 5 feet, 11, and played with the second string last year, although he saw quite a lot of service replacing Jim McKee. He will take over the position this year.

At right guard will be Richard Blaha, a junior, who is 6 feet tall and weighs 180 lbs. He is playing his third year of football and is strong for the spot.

At right tackle Jerry McMinden will be starting his second year of football for Ord. He was transferred here last year from Grand Island. He weighs 160 lbs. and is 6 feet tall.

Dale Richardson has returned and will play right end. He is a good receiver and will call the signals this year. He is Ord's heaviest man.

Ord's Backfield. In the backfield Dale Falter, who came up from the reserve squad last year, will handle the quarterback chores. He is 5 feet, 10, a junior.

At right half Bob Dworak, a senior, 160 lbs., 6 feet, will open the game. Bob was reserve tackle in his sophomore year and a back last year. Halfback will be his regular assignment this year.

Bob Moore, a junior, will play left half. He weighs 140 lbs., is 5 feet, 8, is playing his third year of football and has considerable speed.

Completing the first squad is Paul Stodola in his third year as fullback. He is a senior, 6 feet tall and weighs 170 lbs. He is aggressive, with plenty of drive and power.

Reserve Material. Reserve material includes Ken Collins, a senior weighing 145 lbs., 5 feet, 9, who plays left half and who will be playing a lot of ball.

Gerald Van Winkle, a senior transfer from Burwell, is a quarterback and is slated to see action. He weighs 155 lbs. and stands 5 feet, 9 inches.

Gerald Maurice, a junior halfback, stands 5 feet, 6, and weighs 140 lbs. He is a good defensive back. Walt Sowers, a sophomore, weighs 145 lbs., is 5 feet, 7, and is a fullback.

Don Geneski, a senior, is having his first year's experience. He is a senior, 150 lbs., 5 feet, 11. He is showing lots of promise and is very definitely an end. John Piskorski, a junior tackle, weighs 155 lbs., and is 5 feet, 10. He was not out long last year, but played fullback in junior high.

Doane Luddington is a 3 year man, a senior, weighs 145 lbs., and is 5 feet, 8. Marlon Geneski is a guard, a junior, weighs 160 lbs., and is 5 feet, 9. He has had no experience up to now, but is showing up quite well. Galton Allen, a guard, is playing his second year of football in his senior year. He weighs 145 lbs., and is 5 feet, 10.

Virgil Witherwax, a junior, is playing his second year. He weighs 155 lbs., is 5 feet, 8, and shows plenty of fight. Harlan Jensen, a senior is playing his first year of football. He is 6 feet, 2, weighs 160 lbs., and plays tackle.

Roy Van Winkle, a transfer from Burwell, plays guard. He weighs 150 lbs., is 5 feet, 10, 130th and his brother Gerald were unable to attend pre-season practice. Dick Andersen a junior tackle, weighs 155 lbs., and is 5 feet, 11. He probably will not see much service as a tackle on his neck is giving him trouble.

Paul Penas, a sophomore, plays end. He is 6 feet, 1, weighs 145 lbs., and has had junior high experience. LeRoy Iwanski is a sophomore, is 5 feet, 10, weighs 145 lbs., and has also had junior high experience.

Two juniors complete the list. They are Don Hanson, who weighs 135 lbs., and is 5 feet, 11, and Lonnie Dye, 145 lbs., 5 feet, 6. Dye will probably play in the backfield. Herb Spielman and two other officials from Hastings will referee the Ord home games.

All home games are scheduled to get under way at 7:30. The Ord high school band will attend each game, and play during the intermissions. The first inter-squad scrimmage was held Friday evening but was rained out after about an hour.

New Doctor Coming. Dr. Brannan, whose association with Dr. C. W. Weekes in the practice of medicine was announced in mid-summer, will arrive in Ord Sept. 18 to begin practice. It was announced Tuesday by Dr. Weekes' office. He was formerly located at Greeley but has been in the east taking post-graduate medical and surgical work for several weeks.

Muny Concerts for Ord Assured

Josh Wheeler, Baritone Comes Oct. 11; Drive for Members Good.

The membership drive of the Loup Valleys Municipal Concert association is going over very well report the workers, who began their work Monday morning after breakfasting together at the Masonic hall. About 15 attended, then went enthusiastically to their efforts after hearing the remarks of Miss Scheeler of Houston, Tex., who is representing the Roxan artists in Ord.

The membership drive is being well received everywhere the workers call. The campaign ends Saturday, or may end before if the capacity of the hall is reached sooner.

Committee Selects. A talent committee consisting of Rev. T. C. Siodowski, Mrs. E. L. Blessing and Miss Irene Aulsebrook met Friday with Miss Scheeler to choose the first of the three artists to visit Ord. They were unanimous in selecting Josh Wheeler, baritone, and ex-football star at Southern Methodist University.

Josh Wheeler is a "glory road" type of baritone and a great favorite with audiences, whether he sings operatic arias or the lighter songs he loves so much. Six feet tall, handsome, he has a big magnificent baritone voice to match his stature. He has been a great star with Fred Allen and made several service movies with Clark Gable, Josh Logan and others.

Season Ticket $6. Mr. Wheeler provides good, enjoyable entertainment and is certain to please those who see and hear him October 11.

When the drive for members ends Saturday, the artists for the other concerts will be chosen. There will be at least three concerts this season, and more if funds permit.

Adults pay $6 for a season's music; students, pay $2.40. There is no extra tax.

North Loup's schedule as it now stands includes: Sept. 16, at Pleasanton; Sept. 20, West Kearney, night game (Pop Corn Days); Sept. 26, open; Oct. 6, at Wood River; Oct. 10, open; Oct. 21, at Rising City; Oct. 26, at Cedar Rapids; Nov. 3, Palmer.

J. L. Arnold Returns to Ord-Scotia Charge

At the Evangelical United Brethren conference which closed at Kearney Sunday evening, J. L. Arnold was returned to the Ord-Scotia charge. A former pastor here, Miss Mamie J. Young, was returned to Miller. Another former Ord minister, W. W. Hartshaw, was transferred to the Amherst-Helvey charge.

11th Inning Rally Gives Arcadia 8 Runs, Ball Game

Teams Tied 1-1 at End of 10 Innings; Ansley Puts Miller Out.

When the regulation nine innings ended Sunday night, Arcadia and the Ord Colts were deadlocked in a 1 to 1 tie.

At the end of the 10th inning the game was still a stalemate. The 11th inning was a different story and Ord fans prefer not to think about it. At that point Don Patrick entered the game as Ord's pitcher, replacing Dick Beran, and it was one time when "The Old Reliable" didn't have it. Four Arcadia men walked. One got a life when hit by a pitched ball. Four more got base knocks and when the frame finally ended Arcadia had scored 8 runs, which also meant the ball game.

Fast Game Till 11th. Up to that tragic eleventh it was as good a game as any fan would want to see. Arcadia drew first blood in the third inning, Beray getting a walk, stealing 2nd, going to third on a sacrifice and scoring on Smith's sharp bouncer to Moore, which he fielded back in the grass, too far to catch the fleet Bray at the plate.

The score continued 1 to nothing until the ninth when the Colts tied it up on some fancy base running by Dilla, who got to first on an error.

Beasley in Top Form. Beasley turned in a top performance on the mound for Arcadia, allowing only 2 hits and whiffing 18 while giving no free passes. His long three-bagger in the 11th inning also started the Arcadia scoring spree.

Dick Beran did a good enough job pitching for Ord to please the most fastidious fan. He gave up 5 safeties but scattered them well while striking out 7. Patrick was named the losing pitcher.

Sensational was the fielding performance by Rolland Moore, playing 2nd and five assists, stopping everything that came within yards of his position, and although 2 errors marred his record they were on hard chances that might well have been scored as hits had he not covered so much ground and knocked down so many hard hit balls.

Vall's Work Pleases. Vall did a nice job behind the plate for Ord and cut down 2 runners with accurate throws to second base.

Arcadia deserved to win and they did win, but the game was far better than the lopsided 9 to 1 score indicated.

Sunday afternoon Ansley eliminated Miller from play-off play 9 to 3, which means that the Ord Colts now must play Ansley to see which team is to face Arcadia in the play-offs finale.

Largest crowd since the lights were installed watched Sunday night's game here, there being an estimated 1,700 people at the game, including children.

Dove Season On and Birds Said Plentiful

The open season for shooting mourning and turtle doves began in Nebraska Saturday and many Ord ninerds have been out sharpening up their shooting eye for late exploits against waterfowl and pheasants.

Doves are said to be quite plentiful here, though the cold wave Monday probably sent many southward. Late evening hunting near a water hole or roosting place is said to be most productive of birds.

G. W. Barber Dies

On July 7, 1886, he was married to Louisa Lois Davis. To them were born three children, Glenn Douglas of Susan, Calif.; Fern, Mrs. George S. Maxson, North Loup, and Dell Floyd, also of North Loup.

In the early days he was the only tinner in the valley and for a time went to Ord on horseback to work two days a week in a tin shop.

His work in North Loup has been varied. Among other things he has worked in the hardware store, grocery and dry goods stores. He was a band master both here and in other towns for many years and he was a traveling salesman for a time. He has served on the cemetery board as secretary for more than eighteen years and has been North Loup Village police judge for fifteen years, always trying to do each job accurately and well. His cemetery record book is said to be a work of art.

Throughout the years many a young person was helped by him in learning to play an instrument in the band.

About two months ago Mr. and Mrs. Barber celebrated their 63rd wedding anniversary. They have spent the last 54 years in their present home. During those years they have shared their home with more than a hundred people, both young and old.

He has been in failing health for several months but up to the last few days he has attended to all business matters that needed his attention. He loved good music and flowers and of the many lovely flowers brought into his home during the last weeks of his illness, he often said he would rather have them now and enjoy them than after he went upon the hill.

He is survived by his wife and three children, 13 grandchildren, 19 great-grandchildren and one nephew in New York state and by many relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon from the Seventh Day Baptist church with Rev. A. C. Ehret in charge.

Pallbearers were Cecil Severance, Aubrey Davis, Vernon Williams, George Clement, Riley Brannon and Glen Johnson. Honorary pallbearers were Otto Bartz, Merrill McClellan, Rolla Babcock, Arthur Stillman, G. L. Hutchins.

U. F. Davis, Will Schultz, D. L. Crandall, Dr. Walter Davis, James Ingerson, Homer Sample and Charlie Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cox, Mrs. Edward Christensen and E. T. Babcock sang and Mrs. Harlon Brennick was at the organ. Miller and Ashley of Scotia were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Ord-Ansley Game at L. C. Sunday

The baseball game between Ord and Ansley to see which team shall play Arcadia for the Loup league championship, will be played under lights at Loup City next Sunday, it is announced by Walter Douthitt, Ord manager.

He wanted to bring the game to Ord while the Ansley manager was equally determined to play it on the Ansley field. A compromise was agreed to, by which the game will be played on the neutral Loup City field. Play will start at 8:00.

The next game between either Ord or Ansley and Arcadia will come the following Sunday.

Since this a double elimination play-off, Arcadia, unbeaten to date, has two chances remaining to be champion. Either Ord or Ansley must beat Arcadia twice in a row or Arcadia will take first place honors and cash.

In U. S. Business.

The United States is not only going into business, but it is already in business in a far bigger way than most of us dream. For example, the amount of corn the government may be owning before long is more than 650 millions of bushels of the 1948 corn crop. More than 350 million bushels has outstanding loans on it, and the rest is under purchase agreements.

At a purchase price ranging up from $1.36 in Nebraska, this represents a total of about $500,000,000 at stake in this one commodity alone. Recently the market price of corn in Nebraska has been hovering around the $1.08 mark. Unless there is a radical upturn, the government is certain to own half a billion bushels of corn on which it will take a loss.

Corn is only one of the many crops on which Uncle Sam is guaranteeing a good return on the investment. Potatoes, for example, is one of the particularly sore spots. The trouble with spuds is that they cannot be kept from one season to the next, as corn can. They are certain to grow, or rot. This year there will be a tremendous loss on potatoes. The amount, in millions, that Uncle Sam is going to pay for all crops is not available, but it runs into the billions, and for one year's crop alone. If the present trend continues, support prices for the coming year will of course be lower, when they are made, but it is certain they will be much higher than the sale price when the crop matures.

It is interesting to look into the future and figure out what will happen. However, it is certain that today we are living in a government made prosperity. Farmers are getting a good return on their investment, especially as compared with what it might be if the support price were removed. Because of this fact, the mechanics are doing a good business because the farmer can afford to have work done, men in the mechanical field are finding plenty of work to do. At the present time there seems to be almost a perfect balance between labor and the work needing to be done.

Most statesmen are agreed that present high wages and prices cannot continue indefinitely. The concern of our economists is to prevent prices going down too fast and thus upsetting the entire economic system. A gradual drop in farm prices would mean that the government would have to take some loss over a period of years, a loss that could be borne. The one bright spot is the fact that politicians of both parties for both political reasons are determined that prosperity shall continue. Some have one formula and some another but the aim is to keep prices of farm products and wages up, and at the same time keep the selling price of manufactured goods up. It never has worked, but maybe it will this time.

Something Different

Neighborhood children tell a cute tale. It seems there was a lady who had a lovely flower garden.

It seems there was another lady who wasn't so lady, for she came over and begged a bouquet from the gardener lady.

And the lady who wasn't so lady took a lovely bouquet to the fair and won a prize on it! And the lady gardener isn't so lady when she expresses her opinion of the whole deal.

—OO—
This is a wonderful, lush time of year. The gardens are full of ripe beautiful vegetables that make meal planning a joy. The countryside never looked prettier than it does this fall, green and flourishing after our many rains.

No drab, dust-dulled landscape this fall. Instead, as the finest tangle of most colors up the sunnys, the landscape is a Joseph's coat for your delighted eyes.

One rich touch is the red of ripe plums, found in so many roadside brush pockets. These are the housewife's treasure, and as fast as the chains bring them home, she resolves them into handsome, ruby-colored jelly.

—OO—
As we sped through the Nebraska City corner of the state last week we saw orchards that looked hopelessly broken down by their crops of luscious big red apples. The trees, even though propped all around, seemed ruined by the excess weight.

Those apples. That cider. More yums. —OO—
Nebraska truly is a handsome state. Believe it or not, but in June when we crossed from Wyoming, rocky, gravelly and barren, almost on the Nebraska line we became immediately aware of GREEN... canyons and pines and grass, that beautiful country near Fort Robinson.

—OO—
This was such a cool summer that the swimming pool was not the necessity it sometimes is, still, it operated successfully. Rather skeletal yet, it improves every year. Next year let's hope there will be money sufficient to provide the spectators with benches or bleachers of some simple type.

The water, though, proved popular. And with landscaping around and between the two pools, the view is going to improve a great deal. You're going to enjoy looking at it all.

—OO—
Not too much trouble marred the swimming. A bit chilly, often. A little excitement when one couple was found swimming at midnight, minus suits.

A bit of a stir when one swimmer never had less than a $20 bill to offer in payment for his admission... reminds me of that old story about the lady who always got her lunch free for she continually "had nothing less than a $50 bill."

—OO—
Quite a few jolly swimming parties were successfully held at the pool this summer.

—OO—
I swore I wouldn't can a darn can this year. In fact that has been my theme song for several years. During the war I kept canning and winning the war and doing my duty until one year I had some 700 quarts of canning assembled. And you know, some way it got all the canning fever out of my system, and since that day I've had to force myself to give canning serious thought.

—OO—
But I did break down and work on some peaches this week. And I must admit, I'd forgotten the lovely pink color of the syrup, and the luscious fragrance that whiffs through the house.

—OO—
If you want to get into a first-class argument, bring up the canning subject in a group of women. All you have to do is inquire, casually, "What do you think is the best method of canning peaches?" —(or anything)— fill in to suit yourself!

—OO—
And the conversation dashes off at full gallop. Every woman present prefers her own method of canning and will defend it stoutly. —Ima.

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

One year ago today I was starting my first week with the Quiz on this present hitch, which will probably be my last. Not that I am thinking of quitting and there are no indications of getting fired. I retired once, but time pulls on a man when he has no steady job, so when Eugene figured he needed me again, I came back. Now I have been here a year, and it seems like a month. The time really really when you have something interesting to do, and it drags when you are on vacation. That is how it appeals to me, and I do not doubt but that others have found it the same way. It has been a year of great seasons, most of which are still in the making. A year ago the cold war was on, and it still is. The common man can see no difference, except that we are one year closer to whatever is going to happen. A year ago we were arguing about help for China and we still are. Last year there was talk of turning Japan loose on her own, and statesmen are still talking. A year ago there were strikes and threats of strikes and the pattern is the same today. As the Bible puts it, "Time has difference." Perhaps the reason is the same now as it was then: "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." What the country needs is not men in public service, but more public service.

—OO—
One year ago came the dedication of the Ord municipal flying field, and the naming of it, "Sharp Field." That was the culmination of long drawn out efforts by many enthusiasts who believed air travel to be the coming thing. Time has proved that their judgment was right. A year ago the City of Ord rejected the municipal swimming pool, claiming it was not up to specifications. It has since been repaired and was a source of much pleasure to the public during the past summer. One year ago the ZCBJ convention was held in Ord, with two hundred delegates from all over the middle west, and they all developed a high opinion of Ord. One year ago a former Ord man, James B. Ollis, was ordained to the ministry. One year ago five 4-H girls, Rose Marie Sevenker, Doris Mae Beranek, Clara Kusek, Rita Wozniak and Joan Burrows, earned the right to go to the Nebraska state fair, and went.

—OO—
But the picture was not all on the bright side, by any means. A year ago George D. Walker and Richard Nevrick of Ord, Clara Clement Holmes of Ord, Amos J. Hunt of Ord and J. R. Cook of Mira Valley all died to their reward. John Jurzenski of North Loup was hurt in an auto accident. Henry Bredthauer of Scotia died as the result of a heart attack. Five men were arrested for various infringements of the driving laws. Seven boys were charged with damaging a spillway on the Ord-North Loup canal. Two Broken Bow people were killed in a crash in Kansas. And John Ward started writing his What's Cookin' column.

—OO—
Now a few items on the serious side. According to Henry Stara, Pat Melia was fooling along the river recently, fishing, maybe, and he lost his glasses in the stream. Henry Stara, however, never lies about anything, so he was fishing there a few days later and landed a 12 pound bass after a terrific struggle. You guessed it. That bass was wearing Melia's glasses.

—OO—
Then there is Trucker Trout, who lives at Scotia and works in Ord, or rather in Ord of Ord. He has made a study of the manufacturing situation and has found that there is only one firm implement made that the manufacturers will not stand behind in operation, and that is the mature spreader.

—OO—
There was one thing used to tell about Smith Burrows, who used to live southwest of Ord, father of Raymond, Guy and Jack. He was a GAR and on one occasion he came to town and was greeted by one of his fellow servicemen about what on this order: "Hello, there, you cross-eyed, lantern-jawed, bowlegged old son of a gun!" That was too much for Smithy and he bristled up right away. "Listen," said he, "I want you to understand that I ain't old!"

—OO—
Miss Clara McClatchey gave me the material for a pretty fine story last week. It seems that Geneva Benson is teaching her first term in Dist. 28, better known as the Bible school, although it is not made of brick. She has a total enrollment of 17, and in that group are twins and triplets. The twins are the Knit Peterson children, Joan and Joe, who are 14 years old, and the triplets, children of the Raymond B. Bays, are 6 years old and their names are Bobby, Bonnie and Betty.

—OO—
Last week I told about that trip to the Little World Series in Omaha. This week I would like to make a few remarks from a different angle. It is now 45 years since I graduated from the same school. As we rode along I looked back to those days, and marveled at the advantages the young people now enjoy that in those days were denied to any but the wealthy. We didn't get a trip to Omaha. We ordinarily didn't get a trip anywhere unless we dug up to pay the cost. When and if we did go, we went by train, and we didn't enjoy the happy carefree life that a fellow lives on a chartered bus. We didn't have school jackets or sweaters. We didn't have much change to take along, and there was little to see and few places to go if we had been furnished with the price. I can't imagine a group of young fellows like that being turned loose in Omaha in those days without an older man to look after them.

—OO—
We were just a bunch of green, small town and country kids, and most of us had never been fifty miles from home in our lives. We didn't travel over half the state to football and basketball games and track contests or music festivals or oratorical contests or FFA meetings and judging contests. We didn't have organized athletics. We didn't have FFA or Vocational Agriculture, or music, or Home Economics. There was no commercial course or teacher's course. We had one course, the academics, and one choice, we could take either Latin or German. Our inter-school activities were confined to spelling, debating and dramatics. Perhaps we got the fundamentals better. The Lord knows we should have, because that was all we had.

—OO—
With all these added advantages in school life, there comes much added responsibility. I checked those boys over pretty carefully on that trip, and I wondered what our class of 45 years ago would have done if granted the same privileges. I am afraid we wouldn't have stood the test very well. Yes, those boys are taking it all in stride, and they are no worse, and in many ways a lot better, than we should be a couple of generations ago. The next time you get it in your head that the present generation is going to the Devil, better take a chance to be out with the gang, as I did, and you'll change your mind. The high school students of today are so far ahead of those of former years that comparisons are futile.

—OO—
Phony Roofing Gang Out Taking Orders
A gang known as the "Williamson" gang, posing as roofing experts in the area southwest of Lincoln were exposed in that area last week, and will doubtless be looking for business in new fields. The Better Business Bureau has issued a warning concerning them.

—OO—
Posing as experts they had been treating roofs with heavy oil mixed with kerosene and charging high prices for the treatment. This coating would wash off with the first rain, leaving the roof no better than before.

—OO—
Roofing work is a job for experts, and it is an easy job to be cheated on. The only safe way is to hire somebody whom you know you can trust, and then leave it up to him to do a good job. The same plan is a good one to use in any time of doubt.

—OO—
First Ballot Box Found in Ravenna
Edward Cronau of Ravenna ran across a real relic looking among his items of ancient vintage recently. It was the first ballot box ever used in Ravenna, the one that held the ballots of the town's first election.

—OO—
The town was incorporated in 1886, and the election at which the ballot box was used came April 3, 1887, more than 62 years ago. It was a box which originally contained nails from the old Cronau hardware store.

Price Support on Spuds May Go

Brannan Threatens Action Unless Farmers Agree to Controls

Secretary of Agriculture Brannan told congress this week that he plans to remove government price supports from Irish potatoes unless farmers agree to control marketing and production.

—OO—
The farm cabinet member wrote Chairman Elmer Thomas (D-Okla.) of the Senate agriculture committee about his plan to jank out the price props in order "to avoid waste and loss to the government."

—OO—
Brannan's letter noted that growers of California early potatoes, which are marketed between April 1 and July 15, had rejected a proposed federal marketing agreement in a referendum the last 10 days of June.

—OO—
These marketing agreements and orders usually operate on a state or area basis. Before becoming effective they must be approved by two-thirds of the farmers or producers. Under them the quality and quantity of products sent to market are regulated in an effort to get farmers a good market price. If this fails the government steps in and buys the product at support levels.

—OO—
Brannan says he intends to deny government price supports to the California early potatoes next year and in subsequent years, unless potato growers there accept the marketing and planting controls.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Dear Sir:
Please find enclosed my check for another year's subscription to The Quiz. I had intended to stop in with this on my recent visit to Ord but was kept rather busy by my many relatives there. I have heard so much concerning the citizens of Ord and the vicinity... and have read a great deal more about them in the Quiz that I needed only this trip to actually know them. I stayed in the home of Zack Greenwalls but was rather fortunate in being taken to see Fort Hartstuff, the former seat of my wife's family and also got to stay overnight at the farm of our uncle, Frank Augustyn.

—OO—
This was my first visit to a large farm and while I realize that the chores and administration of a big farm would seem pretty dull for most of the folks around Ord, I found it a most interesting experience... discovering many things that I never knew before. I have no doubt that my ignorance concerning cows, chickens, etc., was very entertaining to my relatives. And while it had to be the sad occasion of the funeral of my brother-in-law, Frank Banks, to finally bring me to Ord, I must say that my many in-laws made the time pass very agreeably indeed, so much so that I am looking forward to an early return to your city.

Sincerely,
DeForest B. Wright.

Death Comes to Vere P. Leonard, North Loup Man

Born in Mira Valley. He Had Lived There More Than 37 Years.

Vere Perry Leonard, son of Asa and Blanche Leonard, was born in Mira Valley, September 27, 1899, and died at his home in North Loup, only three weeks before his fiftieth birthday, March 15, 1922, he was married to Nellie Chabart, to whom were born three children, Arnold, teaching in Arapahoe, Nebr. Carol, who died in October, 1942, and Lester, in the United States air force, and stationed at San Antonio, Tex.

In March, 1923, he moved with his family to North Loup, where his home has been since. When young he joined the United Brethren church in Mira Valley, and when he moved to North Loup became a member of the Methodist church. For several years he was a faithful custodian of the church building. He was a member of the North Loup school board and performed his duties even after his health began to fail. Although in failing health for some time he did not give up work till a year ago. Since then he has been waiting patiently for the time to enter his blessed home.

Vere Leonard, though quiet and unassuming, will be badly missed in North Loup. Some who hardly knew him were heard to say, "I'll sure miss Vere, he was such a friendly fellow to meet." To be a friend to man seemed to be the chief aim of his life and he leaves many friends. He was preceded in death by his father, and a younger sister, besides his little daughter. Left to mourn his passing are his wife and two sons, his mother, one brother, A. L. Leonard of Madrid, Ia., two sisters, Mrs. Pearl Brecher of North Loup and Mrs. Evelyn Koelling of Naperville, Ill. Funeral services for Mr. Leonard were held Friday afternoon from the Methodist church in North Loup, with Rev. Carl F. Harbour officiating. A quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Babcock, Mrs. Nels Jorgensen and Roy Hudson sang "Going down the River, One by One," "Lead Kindly Light," and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Mrs. Ava Johnson was at the piano. Pallbearers were Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Knapp, R. H. Knapp, Harlon Brennan and Floyd Reddon. Mrs. Reddon, Mrs. R. H. Knapp, and Mrs. Stella Kerr cared for the many beautiful flowers.

Hastings and Pearson were the undertakers in charge of arrangements. All North Loup business houses and the schools were closed during the services as a token of respect for Mr. Leonard.

Missouri Valley Barn Dance Comes to North Loup for Pop Corn Days

North Loup Pop Corn Days always tries to get the tops in entertainment, and this year is no exception. The management, by speaking early, has managed to secure the best known group of entertainers in the entire middle west. The Missouri Valley Barn Dance, Sunday Get-Together, and the Good Morning Neighbor programs.

Ask a Midwesterner what his favorite form of entertainment is and he'll probably say a barn dance; ask him which barn dance and it's dollars to do-si-dos he'll say "The Missouri Valley Barn Dance." Every Saturday night throughout most of the year the entire talent staff of radio station WNAX—20 strong—piles into a chartered bus and heads for a different town in Minnesota, the Dakotas, Nebraska, or Iowa, where they put on a whole evening of Missouri Valley Barn Dance fun. And for miles around that town folks put on their gayest clothes, pile into the family car, and head for the big show to see in person the same folks whom they hear during the week on their radios. Even all last winter, the blizzards and ice didn't stop standing-room-only crowds from turning out for the hour-long broadcast and dance that follows it.

Old-time fiddling, square dance calling, folk, western, and romantic ballads, guitar, accordion, and banjo playing are all part of the program. Entertainers dress their Western parts by appearing in 10-gallon hats and real cowboy boots, with the gals specializing in the "Buttons and Bows" popularized by the song of the same name.

Two of the sweetest singers in WNAX's whole roster of stars are Judy and Jen, the Harmony Twins. A pair of blue-eyed brown-haired charmers, Judy and Jen's close harmony on popular ballads makes them as big a hit vocally as they are visually.

Judy and Jen were popular entertainers in Chicago-land before coming out West. There they worked with the Artists' Bureau of WLS making personal appearances on various musical programs.

While working in Fort Wayne, Ind., they appeared at the Iowa State Fair right along with Hoagy Carmichael, Olsen and Johnson and the Breakfast Club cast, with the programs being broadcast over the American Broadcasting Company. Although the gals spend most of their spare time on their music, Judy also puts in some time on oil collectors' item records.

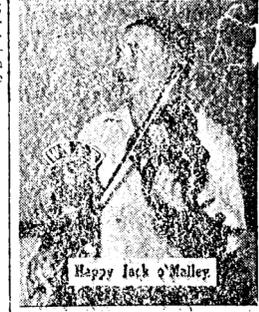

Happy Jack O'Malley, a veteran of more than 20 years on the WNAX airwaves, gives out with some of that toe-tappin' fiddle music.

Tuffy Dale

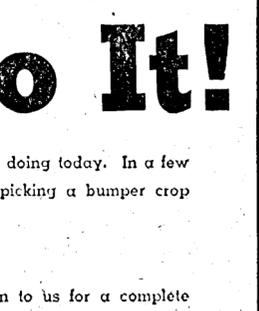

Happy Jack O'Malley, a veteran of more than 20 years on the WNAX airwaves, gives out with some of that toe-tappin' fiddle music.

Happy Jack made his first air appearance after he won an old-time fiddlers' contest with the station, and it was Happy who had the first commercial program on WNAX. Back in the 20's Happy, who used to be a bricklayer, would come right up to the studios in his mortar-spattered overalls, trade his trowel for a fiddle, and swing out with the waltzes and polkas still popular today.

Billy Dean

Among the entertainers who keep Missouri Valley Barn Dance proceedings peppy are Happy Jack O'Malley, old-time fiddler; accordion player Russ Luft and banjo expert, Zeke Martin; Leo Fortin and his trumpet; the Musical Normans, a comedy team; cowboy singer Billy Dean; and Eddie Texel with his bass viol. Newest and among the prettiest-singing members of the Barn Dance gang are Lee Jones and

Lee Jones

Here's the Results an Ord Studebaker Owner Had:

Trip Covered: 4415 Miles
Gas Purchased: 205 Gallons
Oil Consumed; None
Average Mileage: 21.5 miles per gallon

The owner reports: "The trip was made under all kinds of driving conditions—good roads and indifferent roads, mountain and level driving. A considerable portion of the trip was against prevailing winds. Our route took us through a number of large cities, and that cut down on our mileage considerably. Average speed on the road was between 65 and 70 miles per hour. The Studebaker performed perfectly and we had no trouble. In fact, on one stretch of 300 miles where we managed to skip city traffic we averaged a little better than 24 miles to the gallon."

Mr. and Mrs. Kuehl Visit Many Friends on Minnesota Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kuehl returned last week from a two weeks' trip into Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas. Going through O'Neill they visited with Tony Asimus. The Asimus brothers, Tony and Carl, have a monopoly over the west half of the city's business district with their implement building, garage, filling station, hotel and cream station. They are glad to see folks from Valley county and want to be remembered to their old friends and neighbors.

Registering at the Mayo Clinic, the Kuehls had a four day wait before Mr. Kuehl could see his doctors so they left for a sight seeing trip in and around Rochester and into Wisconsin and along the lakes of the Mississippi. The wooded area of both these states is beautiful but for every day living the Kuehls prefer the wide open spaces of our Nebraska prairie.

Leaving Rochester they drove to Marshall, Minn., to visit with their old neighbor, Mrs. Edw. Verstrate. She is busy caring for her farm and livestock and getting ready for her sale the middle of September, after which she will move into Marshall. While at Hot Springs Mrs. Kuehl saw the Evans Hotel where her father stayed while he helped build the railroad in 1890. The Kuehls enjoyed their trip and it being their first time away from home so long at one time. Mr. and Mrs. Hubert cared for the farm while they were gone.

How the Other Half is Living

Dallas Petersen of Burwell was kicked in the face by a horse last Tuesday. He was taken to the Burwell hospital, where he was found to be suffering from cuts and bruises and a broken nose. He is recovering nicely.

health contest as were named last year. They are Zella Mitchell and David Lederer, and they will represent the county in the state health contest.

to Fathers and Mothers

APPEAL FROM THE GOVERNOR:
This week, the Pledge of Safety, designed to promote good driving practices and therefore, the saving of life, is being introduced to the state. It is a program for our Teen-agers for our new generation of drivers. It is a vital educational project, a signal advancement to the cause of safety. I urge each father and mother or guardian of a young driver to study the pledge and to give his whole-hearted support to the program in his community. I urge each Nebraskan to help save lives—to make the future safer.

GOOD RIDDANCE

When "STEERING WOBBLIES" go to work, tires go fast! They're caused by wheels getting out of alignment or unbalanced. Their cost is uneven tire wear, blow-outs, loss of control. They're a problem! But here's the answer: Let us correct your car now with our scientific BEAR equipment.

Work Begins Soon on Section 'C' of Local REA Lines

James Hamilton, Superintendent of Construction, Here.

James Hamilton of Vardaman, Miss., superintendent of construction for the Burlington Construction company of Clarkdale, Miss., arrived in Ord Friday afternoon to make preliminary plans for starting construction of Section "C", REA, for the building of which the company was the successful bidder.

Mr. Hamilton has made arrangements to use the back room of E. B. Wozab's real estate and insurance office for their office during the time construction is under way. Miss Lillie Crawford is also here and will have charge of the office work.

Some poles for the job have come in over both the Burlington and Union Pacific lines. Those on the Union Pacific are being unloaded at the fair grounds, and those on the Burlington at a spot to the southeast of the Noll Seed company's large warehouse.

Hamilton expects to have work under way by the end of the week, and plans to start in the Ericson area, where a part of the "C" section lies. He will start the work with from ten to twelve men, but will have more on the job after the work is under way.

He came here from Black Duck, Minn., where his company had just finished building a transmission line. He spent last winter working in Oklahoma, and says he feels thankful that he did not have to work in the blizzard area of Nebraska.

Baseball Old-Timers Meet in Broken Bow

One of the rather unusual meetings of the year was called at Broken Bow Saturday and Sunday of last week when a group of baseball players of 40 years ago met to talk over old times. Present were members of the old Burwell Tigers, 1908, and the Arcadia Prairie Dogs, 1907.

Members of the Burwell group were John Beynon, J. R. "Dad" Laird, Paul H. J. Carothers, Roy D. Breeden, Mack Hunt, Tom Lanigan, E. P. "Chick" Gaines, Frank Armstrong and C. H. "Dad" Smith. Of the group, Beynon is the only one still living in Burwell.

Prairie Dog members answering the roll call included Jerry Kelly, P. J. Kelly and E. J. Daniels, all of Broken Bow, Harry F. Burnham of Sargent, Harry Bellinger of Arcadia, and Tom Freer of Burwell.

Veterans Told Formula for Figuring Insurance Refund; VFW Backs Midgets

The seventy veterans who attended the regular meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Tuesday evening at the Veterans' Club were told the official formula for estimating refunds they would receive on National Service Life Insurance.

The formula was explained by John Wozab, county service officer, who told the veterans that every person who took out insurance before reaching age 41 would receive a refund of 55 cents per month for each $1000 of insurance carried, up to a maximum of $28. Period to be covered is from the time the policy was issued until its anniversary date in 1918.

Will Get $300. An unofficial survey made at the meeting indicated that the average member of Ord post 7029 would get a refund of $300.

Veterans also heard a report from Wm. Heuck, manager of Midget and American Legion

Slowdown Reported on Drivers Licenses

The total number of drivers licenses reported sold up to 10 a. m. Tuesday was 2143, which shows a decided slowing up from the preceding week. County Treasurer Lloyd Wilson believes that there are about 1,800 more to be sold. At the present rate there will be a heavy last minute rush to buy licenses.

Treasurer Wilson also reports that quite a number of people seem to have overlooked the fact that the last half of their real estate tax is now due. It is delinquent after Oct. 1, and will start to draw interest after Nov. 1.

Time Extended for Polio Drive; Will End Here Saturday

Results Satisfactory in Valley County But Only a Few Days Left.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has extended the time of its special drive for funds for one more week. This would make the ending of the drive come today, Thursday, Sept. 22. However contributions will be received by the local committee until Saturday evening.

It is gratifying to note that so many have responded generously to the call for funds to fight this dread disease. It is believed that the public is thankful that this immediate community has been spared the horror of sickness, suffering and death, and that this is being reflected in the contributions being made to this worthy cause.

Stanley Absalon, Valley county chairman, has turned the work in Ord over to the American Legion auxiliary, and the women, under the direction of Mrs. Loren Good, president, are doing a fine job. They expect to have their part of the work completed by Saturday. No actual figures are available at the present time, but the city is responding heartily.

At North Loup receptacles have been placed in all business places for contributions, and the amount raised will not be known until the money is collected and counted. The campaign is moving right along in Arcadia, but results are not yet available. Conditions are the same in the rural areas, where the work is going on, but reports are not yet in.

Mr. and Mrs. Evert Bundy are the parents of a 9 pound 8 ounce son born Thursday evening at the Clinic. Dr. F. A. Barita was the attending physician.

Much Interest Shown in Plans Being Made for Pop Corn Days.

The North Loup Lions club met Thursday evening, and entertained all members of that day's boosters' trip who wished to come to the dinner. A large number took advantage of the offer, and a total of 46 meals were served, one of the largest groups ever to attend a club meeting in North Loup.

Present also as guests were Rev. Carlson of Hastings, district superintendent of the Hastings Methodist conference, a guest of Rev. Harbour; David Alfrey, North Loup's new coach, and Mrs. Alfrey, who teaches 6th, 7th and 8th grades, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thomas.

It was decided to entertain the ladies at a Halloween party some time late in October, and arrangements were left to the program committee. John Ward was called upon to give some of the highlights of the bus trip with the Ord Junior Legion baseball club to the Little World series in Omaha, which he did.

To Legion Meeting Attending a district meeting of American Legion posts at Ravenna, Wednesday are Lloyd Zikmund, John R. Sullivan, C. J. Mortensen, John J. Wozab, E. R. Apling, Dean Misko and Otto Neimeyer.

Dairy Breeders Planning to Hold Annual Meeting

The members of the Loup Valley Dairy Breeders association are planning to attend their annual meeting, which will be held Tuesday, Sept. 27, at 1:30, in the basement of Masonic hall in Ord.

C. W. Nibler, extension dairyman of the University of Nebraska, will show a picture. Dr. Dale Karre will give a few pointers on cows. Time permitting, there will be shown another interesting picture which is coming from the University.

360 Members in Ord Concert Group; 3 Programs Planned

Baritone Josh Wheeler Opens Series Oct. 11th at M. E. Church.

The Loup Valleys Concert association now has 360 members, the result of the membership campaign last week. Membership entitles the owner to attend all three concerts, the first of which will be given Oct. 11 at the Methodist church in Ord, when Josh Wheeler, handsome young baritone, will present a program of well loved songs.

The talent committee, Mrs. F. L. Blessing, Rev. Tom Siudowski and Miss Irene Auble, have chosen the artists for two more concerts also.

The second musician to come to Ord through the auspices of the Rozan Concert Artists of Houston, Tex., will be Betty Ruth Robbins, pianist, a graduate of the Juillard Conservatory. Miss Robbins was a great favorite at Stage Door canteen, during the war. She has made four successful European tours, one during the war with Lily Pons and Andre Kostelanetz. She made her musical debut at 18, and is a very glamorous young woman whom it is a pleasure to see as well as to hear.

Third of the series of musical treats will be given by Jean Beauvais, Brooklyn-born but raised in France. Her father was an orchestra conductor there, but the family returned to this country while Jean was in her teens. She features operetta music and French folk songs, and has been well liked everywhere she appeared. Dates for the second and third concerts will be given later, but all three will be presented at the Methodist church in Ord.

North Loup Wins First Football Game Friday Eve

Pleasanton's First Loss Since Pop Corn Game of Last Year.

Playing a superior game of football for the start of the season, the North Loup Challengers scored early and went on to win 26 to 12 at Pleasanton Friday night. It was no easy contest, as the opposition threatened at all times and were out-scored but not out-gamed.

Bob Hawkes scored the first touchdown when the game was just nicely started, going over on an end run from the ten yard line. A short time later Ronnie Goodrich took a pass from Hawkes and carried the ball about 50 yards for the second marker.

That ended the scoring for both teams until the end of the first half. Pleasanton scored twice in the third quarter on two pass plays. However, the Challengers were right in there pitching, and Russell Kerr scored on a short pass from Gale Sintek in the third. Dean Walkup took possession of the ball on an intercepted pass in the final quarter and ran it back fifty yards for North Loup's final touchdown. Long runs were also made by Bob Hawkes and Dean Walkup, all through the game, keeping the play mostly in Pleasanton territory.

The final score was North 28, Pleasanton 12. Boys who saw action included Russell Kerr, Ronald Goodrich, Duane Willoughby, ends; Richard Hawkes, center; Gale Sintek, Bob Hawkes, Mervin Meyers and Dean Walkup, backs.

Fritz Kuehl Victim of Freak Accident

Tuesday while watching the end of a cable being cut off, Fritz Kuehl was struck in the right side by a piece of the hammer which flew off. The missile went through his clothing and lodged in the flesh, but did not penetrate the abdominal cavity. The doctor probed for it, but failed to locate it. He may go to a hospital to have the metal removed.

Valley County's Early Frost Did Little Damage

Report About Same from Over Nebraska, But Some Corn Hurt.

Later reports from last Tuesday morning's early frost show that very little real damage was done by the cutting sections of Valley county, the only crop affected to amount to anything being corn, most of which was ready for frost.

In cases where replanting operations were necessary, damage was done, but such corn would probably not ripen normally in any case, and speeding up the process may tend to injure the corn by drying out, something that it did not do last year.

WEATHER table with columns: By Observer, High, Low. Data for Sept 19-21, 1949.

Reports from different areas of the state, as shown by the exchanges, shows that the temperature was quite cold in some spots, and warmer in others. A light frost was visible at St. Paul, where the mercury was seen half way between 32 and 33 degrees at its coldest point. No visible damage was done.

Apparently the cold of Sept. 13 did not reach as far as York, where the coldest reported to date was 43 degrees Sept. 1. There is no report of cold weather from Fullerton. At Greeley, late corn, tomatoes and other tender crops were hard hit by a fall to a low of 28 degrees.

Ravenna does not report a great deal of damage, although a low of 29 degrees is reported. Flowers are still blooming and fruits and vegetables are not harmed, it is stated. A white frost was seen at Palmer Tuesday morning, but little or no damage resulted.

Scotia also reports little damage from a light frost. The coldest reading in the immediate area comes from Loup City, which had 27 degrees. State papers report heavy frosts in the panhandle and along the western Nebraska. If this autumn follows the usual pattern, there is little likelihood of more frost before the last week of the month.

National Organization Formed for Highway 281

At Red Cloud last Wednesday night 250 delegates from six states met to form a national organization to boost for permanent improvement of Highway 281 all the way across the United States from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico.

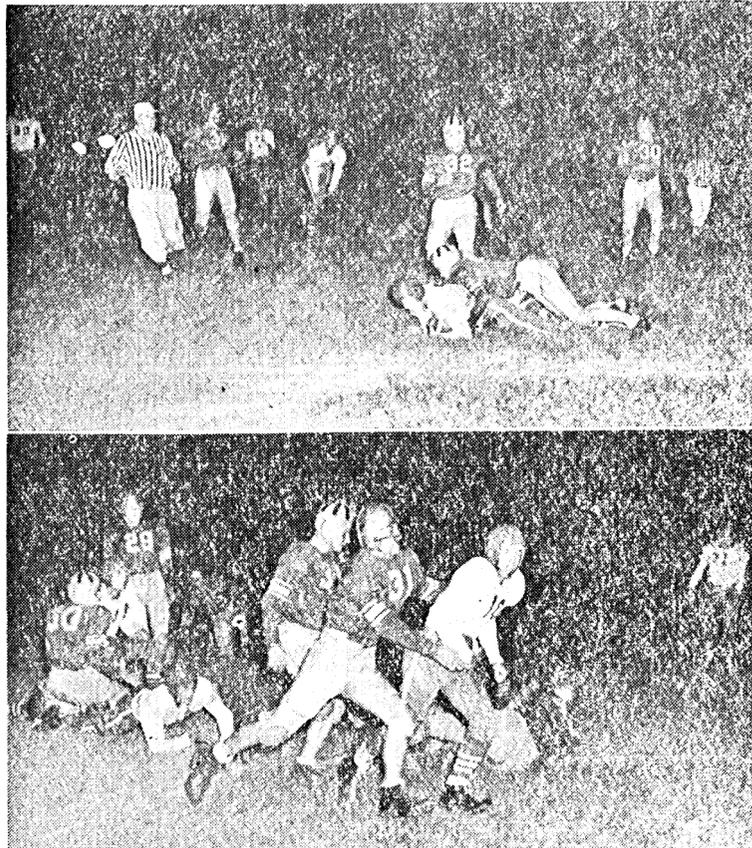

State Engineers and officials present at the meeting promised that they would do everything possible to promote permanent improvement in the highway. Delegates from Greeley were J. T. McCarthy, Harold Warner, John Snell and A. W. Riness. E. A. Ondracek of Greeley was named a member of the board of directors.

Opens Dental Office

Dr. Dean Barta, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Barta of Ord, has opened offices for the practice of dentistry at Wheatridge, Colo., a city of 4,000 adjacent to Denver, Colo., but not a suburb of that city. He has installed new equipment in a new building expressly built for that purpose.

Addresses Auctioneers

E. C. Weller, of Atkinson, was principal speaker at a banquet of the Nebraska Auctioneers' association held Sunday evening at Hotel Stratton in Grand Island. In the afternoon he was named one of the directors of the association whose president is James Webb, of Grand Island, well known here. Henry Rasmussen, St. Paul, was named secretary-treasurer.

Passes Set the Stage, Then Moore Scores Ord's Second T. D.

Farm Veterans Training Class Starts Oct. 3

Is Third in County; Two More to Be Added If Instructors Found.

Another training class for farm veterans will start October 3 at Ord high school, the third such class in the county. Other classes are now being operated at Arcadia and at Ord.

Emanuel Smolik will be instructor of the new class, which will be limited in enrollment to 25 veterans.

More If Possible. "Interest among farmer veterans in the county is high," John J. Wozab, county service officer, told the Quiz this week. "We have enough prospective students to form at least two—possibly three—more classes in the county if qualified instructors can be found."

"The instructor problem is our biggest one and I would certainly like to hear from any qualified instructors who might be available in the area."

Wozab said that the next class to be formed would probably be located at North Loup high school. Each class formed in the county brings in an estimated $25,000 yearly in direct cash benefit in the form of subsistence payments to students, he said, in addition to the instructor's salary, and rental paid the school for use of their facilities.

Traffic Survey in Ord Will Give City Dads Picture for New Set Ordinances

A survey of traffic conditions in Ord, now being made by representatives of the planning division of the Nebraska state highway department, will give city dads a broad scientific picture for use in revamping present city traffic ordinances.

The survey had been requested by the city some time ago when recurring instances brought up the need for a modern set of traffic regulations within the city limits.

Robert M. Stout, who heads the highway planning field crew now working in Ord, told a Quiz reporter that his report to the city council would cover every possible traffic problem.

"For example, our crew picks an intersection in Ord. This is first surveyed for any possible recommendations in removing natural or artificial traffic hazards, such as signs, trees and other impediments to view. Perhaps cars are being allowed to park too close to the intersection, thereby cutting down the vision of drivers. Perhaps a stop sign should be lowered or raised, moved to the right or left.

Check Stop Signs. "When this is done we make several hourly checks of traffic at the particular intersection, the check periods being at times of both congested and little traffic. We take a count of cars, the direction they are driving, and we note whether they are local or out of town cars.

"We pay particular attention to stop sign observance... and there is a great deal of variance here. Some drivers stop because they obey the law, others merely slow "Either my eyes have gone back on me or else I just saw a painted bird light in a tree by the Ford garage," said Vern Andersen to a customer the other day.

The two men walked across the street and gazed up into the tree. Sure enough, there was a large bird brightly colored in green and yellow.

One of the garage mechanics walked out and joined them. "Migawd when you start seeing things like that in Nebraska its time to swear off," said the mechanic. "I'm going to bust that bottle I bought this morning instead of drinking any more of it."

A few inquiries disclosed that the bird was a pet parrot belonging to Mrs. L. J. Auble, which had got out of its cage and was enjoying a flight around the neighborhood.

To Attend Education Association Meeting

Clara McClatchey, county superintendent, and possibly others from the Valley County Education association, will attend a meeting at Broken Bow Thursday, Sept. 22, at which schools will be organized at the afternoon and evening sessions. Four major items will be discussed: school legislation, professional relations, the program of the association, and the school curriculum.

Ord Drivers Conservative

"On the whole, from what information we have gathered in our first two days, one might say that the Ord drivers are of the average, law-abiding, conservative type," Stout commented. "The average speed of cars around the square seems to be from 15 to 17 miles per hour."

Present city ordinances slated for revamping, call for a maximum speed of 12 miles per hour. A check at Ord high school both in the period before school and during the noon hour showed that only a few students were violating traffic laws, mainly through excessive speed.

Stop sign observance is none too regular.

Report to Council

When the survey is completed, the full report will be made to the city council, Stout said. The report will carry what recommendations the experts can make to better local conditions but it will be up to city dads to do anything about it. The planning crew is loaned to the city without cost by the highway department.

Chants Look Good Beating Holdrege 19-7 in Opener

Ord Forward Wan Best in Years, Backfield Showing Promise.

The Ord Chanticleers got past the first foe on a rugged 1919 schedule Friday night when they defeated Holdrege 19 to 7 at Bussell park. The Dusters had been picked to win by Gregg McBride and other sports writers but the Chants' soon proved them wrong and kept control of the situation from the start, allowing a Holdrege score only late in the game.

Extian, of Holdrege, kicked off to Ord, Moore taking the kick. A sustained Ord drive carried to the Holdrege 2 yard line but the Chants lost possession as the quarter ended.

Alert Pair Recovers

A Holdrege fumble in the end zone on the first play of the second quarter was recovered by Laursen and Stoddard to give Ord a 6 to 0 lead. The try for point failed.

In the third period a kick blocked by Heuck was recovered by Ord, who cut 100's with passes. Dworak tossing to Richardson and Stoddard to Heuck, after which Moore went over from the 5 yard line. Falter's kick for point was good and the score became 13 to 0.

Later in the same quarter Paul Stoddard broke through the Holdrege line and ran 29 yards for Ord's last touchdown. The try for point failed. Holdrege's lone touchdown was made in the 4th period against an Ord team largely made up of substitutes and the final score was 19 to 7 when they converted successfully.

Outstanding was the play of the Ord line, made up of Severson center, Blaha and Clement guards, Adamek and McMindle, tackles, Richardson and Laursen ends. Backfield play, though it lacked the precision it will show later and often brought penalties for backs in motion, was generally good. Moore turned in some nice runs, as did Stoddard, and the all-around play of Dworak was especially good.

No Soft Spots

Ord's tackling was sharp and crisp and downfield blocking was good at times, sloppy at others. All in all it appears that Coach Peterson has a much better than average team coming up.

Next go will be Lexington, on the home field of the Minute Men. They overwhelmed Broken Bow 31 to 0 last Friday and will be favored over Ord. In fact Ord is likely to go into most of its games the underdog for the rugged schedule includes games against Gothenburg, Curtis, Imperial, Albion, Ravenna, Loup City and Broken Bow, in addition to Holdrege and Lexington, and there isn't a soft touch in the lot.

In the afternoon he was named one of the directors of the association whose president is James Webb, of Grand Island, well known here. Henry Rasmussen, St. Paul, was named secretary-treasurer.

Musical Groups Are Selected in Ord High School

Interest in vocal music among the students is about on a par with former years, and has always been an important adjunct to the music department. The students get their first instruction in music in the grade schools and are better prepared for their high school assignments. The list:

Loup Valley 4-H Clubs Make Fine Showing at Fair

Garfield County Well Represented; Bring Home Many Ribbons.

Kenneth Kirby of Burwell was the only 4-H club member from Valley county who exhibited stock at the Nebraska state fair. He showed an Angus steer and a Shorthorn steer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kirby.

On the Angus he won a red ribbon for second place, and on the Shorthorn he won a white ribbon for third place. Kenneth also won second in showmanship—preparation and handling the calf in the showroom.

Showing a litter of spring pigs, Jim Goff of Burwell, was first in the Spotted Poland China Futurity. He and his prize-winning litter of pigs had the honor of having their picture in the Nebraska State Journal.

The Bussells, Hampshire breeders living between North Loup and Scotia, followed their annual custom and exhibited their hogs at the Howard county fair instead of going to the state fair. They had 61 head on exhibit, and took about everything in sight, with 15 first places and 103 ribbons to serve as champions. They have been exhibiting at St. Paul the past 30 years, and this was the biggest herd they had ever taken.

Garfield and Loup counties were well represented in 4-H club work at the Nebraska state fair, the Goff brothers, Floyd and Jim, getting into the pictures in the Lincoln papers. The Quiz is indebted to Willis R. Thurber, extension agent for Loup, Garfield and Wheeler counties, for the following results for their members at the fair.

Alice Hiser of Garfield county rated a blue ribbon in the 4-H saddle horse show. Being a new event at the state fair, no higher awards were given this year. Alice was interviewed on the air Friday night and put on a test words for their fine palomino horses and the home town, Burwell.

Mary Wagner and Joan Breneman of Garfield county received a blue ribbon with their demonstration on Flower Arrangement. These girls had a beautiful demonstration and were the first team to be asked to set up their demonstration to appear on television. It was quite an experience for the girls and the rest of us who watched them on the screen. The girls interviewed by Mel Hansen of WOW and they did not overlook the opportunity to set up a chicken and wrapping for the locker. Joan Peters, Verda Replage, and Mary Wagner did nicely styling their dresses and Verda received a red, Mary a white, and Joan a white.

The competition was keen this year in demonstrations with 175 or more being given. The number of girls that took part in the state style revue was 105. Janice Baker and Irene Thomas of Wheeler county received a red on their demonstration on Washing and Ironing a Rayon Blouse. Over sixty demonstrations were given in the clothing divisions.

Henry Franssen, 76, farmer of St. Libory, narrowly escaped death at the Louis Ambroz melon stand corner last Tuesday. His pickup and a truck belonging to Roy McKoski were involved in an accident.

Mr. Franssen received three fractured ribs, facial lacerations and scalp bruises, while McKoski was unhurt. The pickup was damaged beyond repair, and the truck was also damaged extensively.

Carl Zeigler, 58, a former resident of Valley county, died recently at his home in Lava Hot Springs, Idaho. Zeigler was born in Estonia, Oct. 18, 1890. He came to the United States in 1916 and lived in Nebraska and Valley county until he moved to Idaho in 1935.

While living here he made his home for some years on a farm northeast of Ord. He is survived by his widow, a son and a daughter. The Quiz is indebted to Axel Jorgensen for information concerning Mr. Zeigler.

—Where would you look to see if someone had found your lost course.

Robert E. Glover Gives Telescope

Mrs. F. E. Glover recently brought to the Quiz a clipping from a Denver paper showing her son, Robert E. Glover with two other men and telescopes they built and donated to the University of Denver.

Robert built an eight-inch reflecting telescope, a man named Walton built a twelve-inch telescope, and these are used in connection with an eight-inch camera, the three instruments moving as one.

The donors, including the two men and several others who donated essential parts for the mounting and use of the instruments, were honored at special recognition night program.

1949 Is Good Year for Peach Growing

In the back yard of the John Kelly home in Ravenna some very fine peaches were grown this year, according to the Ravenna News. The largest of some brought to the office measured ten inches around. They were raised from trees which grew from peach pits.

The Bert Ammermans of Scotia picked more than a bushel of peaches from a tree in their yard this year, according to the Register. They were large and tasty, the first ever grown on the tree. The family also had some pears from a tree in their yard this year.

New Course at Oakland School

Something new has been added in the Oakland, Nebr. schools, beginning this fall. For the first time in the town's history a vocational agriculture course has been added to the curriculum.

Everything in connection with the course is new, a new building, new equipment and new instructor will all combine to give the students the best that can be obtained in that line. The new instructor, James A. Sears, holds a masters degree in vocational agriculture work.

Plans Approved for Bartlett Auditorium

The board of regents at Bartlett have approved plans for a new auditorium gymnasium for that town, according to the Wheeler County Independent. Bids for construction will be opened Oct. 7, and the work will begin within 30 days from that date.

The building will be 60 feet by 120 feet, with arched rafters of glued, laminated wood. The building will have a basketball floor of regulation size, 42 by 74 feet, and bleachers will seat 200 people on each side.

Band Recruits Meet Monday at Comstock

ATTEND CONVENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Armstrong left Ord Sept. 20 for the Broadmoor hotel, Colorado Springs, Colo., where they are attending the Guarantee Mutual Life Company's convention, Sept. 21, 22 and 23, as guests of the company.

It was in September, 1899, just fifty years ago, that the first building was moved into the village of Comstock by its founder, W. H. Comstock, from the town of Westcott. Frank Lemmon opened a grocery store in the building. As Westcott was on the west side of the river, some means must have been used in getting it across, but the method is not stated.

The date makes Comstock by far the youngest of the group of municipalities included in the area from St. Paul to Taylor on the North Loup to Sargent on the Middle Loup. For a youngster the town has done well and the citizens have ord it has made.

The scaling of the town was the result of the extension of the Burlington from Arcadia to Sargent, which had been founded some ten years earlier. A railroad was essential to a town in those days, which accounts for the abandonment of Westcott in favor of the more fortunately located Comstock.

The growth of the town was rapid, and in a few months businesses were added in the following order: Blacksmith shop, grain buyers' railroad station, lumber and coal stock buyer, hardware and implements, post office, Nov. 19, hotel, feed and sale barn, barber shop and dray business. All this happened between Sept. 25, 1899, and Jan. 1, 1900, a little more than 3 months.

Comstock enjoys a good farm trade on both sides of the Middle Loup river and from both Gustus and Valley counties. While smaller than other towns in the area except Taylor, its per year growth compares favorably with other villages, and other schools treat Comstock with respect in athletic and scholastic activities.

Freddie, (in the fur coat) would have saved himself a small bank account if he'd REMEMBERED to bring his car in for winterizing. A few minutes spent in checking tires, lubrication and ignition—another minute to charge his battery and fill the radiator with anti-freeze—and he'd hardly know it was cold outside. Don't tread in Freddie's footsteps. Drive in for winterizing today.

Notes of Interest to Farmers from County Agent Dale

Information in Regard to Hessian Fly, Also Fertilizer Application.

Farmers who have been waiting for the Hessian fly free date before seeding what may go ahead with their seeding operations now say C. C. Dale, county agent. The Hessian fly free date as announced by the Entomology department of the University of Nebraska was Sept. 19. As has been frequently mentioned before, little benefit can be expected by waiting until after the fly safe date, if volunteer wheat has been permitted to grow in the vicinity.

In response to inquiries regarding fall application of fertilizer to winter wheat, the best information we have comes from the Agronomy department of the Agricultural college. For a number of years fertilizer test plots have been conducted in the wheat growing areas. Nearest to Valley county and with comparable soil and moisture conditions, where these tests have been conducted is in south central Nebraska.

Dr. M. D. Weldon says that fall application of fertilizers does not improve the yield enough to be profitable in normal years in this area. Only in the south eastern part of the state has the application phosphate fertilizers been effective, and on the limy bottomlands further west.

Nitrogen fertilizers for wheat are most effective when applied in the spring after the wheat has reached a height of from four to seven inches. When applied in the fall much nitrogen fertilizer is lost before spring. The greatest need for nitrogen is during the spring when the plant is making its heaviest growth.

Gerald Warford Wins at Hastings Hot Rod Races

Lange's Hot Rod Look One First Place and Two Seconds in the Races Held at Hastings Sunday.

Gerald Warford, piloting Bob Lange's hot rod, took one first place and two seconds in the races held at Hastings Sunday. His was the second fastest car at the races, out of 21 entered. He came back winner of $72.50.

Gerald Shucks, high point man in Nebraska, had the fast time of 32.08 seconds for the half mile, and Warford made it in 32.05. Both were within a fraction of the track record.

Jim Kucera, who at the present time is second man on points in Nebraska, was in Colorado Sunday, and so his hot rod did not see action. He and Warford both expect to be at the hot rod races at Nelson next Sunday.

Some Interesting Data About Ord's Coming Opponents

The Chanticleers, Win or Lose, Have Plenty of Action Coming Ahead.

The Ord Chanticleers go to Lexington Friday in a game that promises to be tough. The show-up made by the Minutemen last week in defeating the Indians from Broken Bow is quite impressive.

The question naturally arises as to whether Lexington is good in piling up that 31 to 0 score, or whether Broken Bow had an off evening.

In any case, Coach Dick Peterson believes that it will be a very busy evening for his boys. He is hoping for a win, of course, but is not making any predictions. On the strength of that game last week, Broken Bow should prove much easier than Lexington when Ord plays there Oct. 14. The conclusion is that Broken Bow without Weston, is not what she used to be.

Imperial, Ord's opponent here Sept. 30, is pretty much of an unknown quantity, as little information is available at this time. Ord defeated them on their own field last year, and should win when they come to Ord to repay the visit, but you never know. They lost to Ogallala 6 to 0 last Friday.

Albion, where Ord will play Oct. 7, got away to a fine start by handing Stanton a 12 to 0 defeat Friday. Neither team scored, or had any scoring in the first half. Starting the second half Jerry Johnson kicked off for Albion and Dave Mullen fell on the ball in the end zone for their first touchdown. Albion worked the ball down the field for the second marker in the closing minutes of the game.

Little material is available at this time on Loup City, Ord's opposition for Oct. 21, but they have lost a stellar performer in Irvin Thode, and may not have too strong a team this year. Havenna, where Ord goes Oct. 28, has a squad of 23, including 10 lettermen. One of these is Edward Furtak, who once lived in Ord.

Gothsburg took a 25 to 0 lacing at the hands of Lincoln last week, which may, or may not, prove anything. They come to Ord Nov. 4. The final game of the season for Ord will be when the Curtis Aggies come here Nov. 11. The Aggies tee off against Cozad Friday of this week in what may prove to be a fast and furious battle.

Nebraska Central Asks Higher Telephone Rate

The Nebraska Central telephone company, with headquarters at Gibbon, Neb., is applying to the state railway commission for authority to increase rates to all subscribers on all of its exchanges. This company has exchanges at Comstock, Arcadia, Ansley and other Nebraska towns.

In a letter to the subscribers at these towns, the president, D. E. McGregor, stated that if the farmers in the territory would cooperate by paying their bills and supporting the company, their lines would be rebuilt, as grounded lines are practically useless in territory serviced by REA.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rysavy returned Saturday from a month's vacation in California. At Hayward, Calif., they visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rysavy and at San Jose, Calif., with the John Rysavy family, the men being brothers of the Ord man. They also enjoyed two days with their son Joseph who is in the navy and stationed at San Diego.

Many Visitors at the 48th Annual Pop Corn Jubilee

Exhibits Plentiful, Entertainment Fine, Parades Best Ever.

North Loup's 48th annual Pop Corn day celebration was off to a good start Tuesday evening and Wednesday morning, with exhibits being put in the agriculture hall and the community hall for the ladies canning cooking and fine arts.

The Thomas carnival company began to arrive Monday and by Tuesday evening rides were up and ready to go. An unusually large number of eating places were put up and the crowd was able to get something eat even if they couldn't play bingo.

The corn exhibit was large and of extra good quality Tuesday afternoon and more specimens were coming in. Thirteen major hybrid seed companies donated prizes of a bushel and a half of seed corn each, making a total value of more than one hundred fifty dollars in prizes for corn. Ed Burrows is in charge of the corn exhibit.

Mr. McCullough of Dannebrog has a nice exhibit of farm products, the same exhibit he took to the Howard county fair.

At the community hall with the fine arts exhibits is a display from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The field representative from Grand Island came to North Loup Monday to put up the display but it had been mislaid to North Platte and did not arrive till Tuesday morning. Since the field worker had another appointment for Tuesday, the display was set up by the local committee. Near the display is an opportunity to contribute to the infantile paralysis drive.

With plenty of entertainment for everyone, and all the free pop corn one can eat, with good weather the celebration should be better than ever.

Wednesday major events were the juvenile parade and the saddle horse show. The saddle horse show is in charge of Floyd Hutchins. The Rasmussen band and orchestra from Rockville furnished entertainment in the afternoon and played for the dance in the evening. North Loup high school band under the direction of Robert Williams, new music instructor, also played.

Thursday the Missouri Valley Barn Dance played from 7 to 11 p.m. W.N.A.X. will be on hand with their entertainment, a broadcast and they will also play for the dance.

The float parade will be Thursday afternoon and promises to be a good one.

Ord Livestock Market

Alfalfa and Sweet Clover

The Alfalfa seed market has shown some weakness in the last couple of weeks but it is still bringing very good money. Our market is very good compared with most markets and we will at all times pay you the very highest price for your seed, and we will clean it for you right here. You don't have to take it out of town to have it cleaned and you can see just what is cleaned out of it; our cleaning equipment is the very best obtainable. Let us make you an offer on your seed before letting it go out of town; you will probably make some money for yourself.

Brome and Crested Wheat

The brome market is about unchanged and the crested market is somewhat weaker than a couple of weeks ago. We believe that if you have grass seed to sell that it will net you more money now than it will this winter. If you have seed to sell let us look at your seed and make you an offer; we can use a couple of truckloads more of this seed. We can also use Western Wheat Grass seed as well as some Gramma or Sand Love Grass seed.

Grain

The Grain markets are a little unsteady this week and most of the grain men are a little uncertain as to what will happen to the grain market in the next few weeks. If you have grain to sell the market is still pretty good on most grains.

Bulbs

We have just received a shipment of Holland Tulips and Narcissus. These bulbs are very good quality and size. The tulips are $1.00 per doz. and the Narcissus are packaged 3 for $1.00. Order them now; ten different varieties of tulips and you may buy them as named varieties or mixed. We will start digging our Glad Bulbs in about four weeks and can make delivery on them just as soon as they are cured out a little. We have a very nice assortment of Glads and each variety is named and kept separate and you will not find very many mixed bulbs in the varieties. You may buy them mixed if you prefer.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Steve Finch Writes . . .
Escondido, California
September 12, 1949

Hello Dutch:

Well I couldn't resist the chance to write about your piece in the Ord paper. Very interesting. The articles in the Quiz were interesting even if they were a little wrong in a few places. I had forgotten a large number of the players mentioned but I thought of some good one that were left out entirely. Maybe you forgot some of the outsiders that came in to play a little such as Ed Zink, Smokey Miller, Pug Griffin. Well even at that they didn't do the Ord club too much good as their local players seemed to hold up the burden when it came to the clinch. Well George, I got a laugh out of your statement, but you forgot to tell how you used to catch my knuckle ball as it rebounded off the grand stand after going between your legs. What did you ever do with the apron you used to wear. Oh brother, you are very right about the Clements that played in that long game, with Ashton as I never played a game of ball with Curly Clements. In fact I never knew him. George, I have been watching the progress of those leagues there and it seems to me that the only thing that has kept them from being big averages. If you will stop and think how little a batting average really means on any ball club. The runs that are batted in are really what counts. Max West playing for San Diego, the Clements that came down from Pittsburgh. He was hitting .284 at the end of the first six weeks of play and had batted in 41 runs. Steve Mesner, another player from the same club was hitting .385 and had only batted in 11 runs. I think the Young players should keep their minds on the game as a game to win and look at the batting average later. I think Bill Heuck is doing a mighty good thing by taking hold of those young boys.

You mentioned Ed Mahan belonging to the Cardinals. Well I did get acquainted with Ed and he really belonged to the Athletics, but he didn't have enough weight to really last. Well, you have picked your club from the Valley now I will take it up. Of course this is really during my playing days and I got the Pacific Coast out of line so here goes. Rondeau 3rd, Selk short, Bill McMullen, 2nd, Bill Heuck 1st, Megrue catcher, Glen Johnson, Louie Welch, Freddie White, outfielders. Duryea, pitcher. Although I would just as soon bet against Duryea as anybody I still say he was the toughest in the entire valley. There were a few players such as Bellingier, who didn't handle the ball too fancy but I don't think you will recall seeing him miss very many and he got the Pacific Coast out in a hurry. Turpin and Hayslip from Anselmy can't be overlooked. Bill Heuck is the best target I ever threw to and he had an arm to go with it, but Megrue might have been a little more steady and strong. His hitters more. George, the only player I think I was ever really afraid of at the plate was Andy Jensen from Boelus. That man could hit anything I threw up to him and I knew it. I used to get a big kick out of Rondeau telling Bill Heuck he (Rondeau) looked better striking out than Bill did hitting. I suppose there are a few around Ord who remember "Dinah" Wright and Fred Conkey his catcher. I pitched a 21 inning game at the Burwell fair ground against Wright. He was really tough if he had his emery with him. Without it he was just another pitcher.

George, this may not be interesting to you but if it is and you think some body else would enjoy it you can give it to the Quiz. I would really like to hear from you you can spare the time. You know you can.

So Long,
Steve Finch

School Children Will Be Given Tilson Music Quiz

Wm. Nelson, director of music at Ord public schools has announced a musical appreciation and talent test to be conducted for children in grades four to eight on September 19, for the purpose of discovering untrained, natural musical ability of teen-agers of this area. The Tilson Music-Quiz is designed to give music supervisors an opportunity to classify the musical talents of pupils for an accurate record of their musical aptitude. By means of this test supervisors can more accurately advise school children which musical instruments they are best suited to play in school bands and orchestras.

Mr. Nelson has stated that the Tilson Music-Quiz to be held in Ord is the same test that has been successfully conducted in leading schools, colleges and universities and which has been demonstrated at educators' conference throughout the country.

This new test for gauging the natural musical talents of school children is presented on recordings and covers tone placement, music appreciation, rhythm and harmony, giving the supervisor a method of developing new talent and material for the instrumental programs in the schools.

When You and I Were Young

Ten Years Ago — Eldon Malin Noha, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Noha, died — Charlie Torgart, driver of Sam Hoffman's car, was the hero of the midwest races at the Valley county fair, which broke even after a final check-up on the safety of the terrific heat, the Ord school boys held their tax afternoons — Donald Miller and Ted Krason, pig club members, and Lonnie Nelson, baby beef winner, were guests of the Ord Rotarians — Repairs to the highway bridge at St. Paul were to force a detour on Highway 11 for two weeks. — G. C. Roberson was returned to the Ord Methodist church. A cooking school held in Ord by Miss Dorothy Gill was attended by one thousand persons.

Twenty Years Ago — The Oliver Twins, Carl and Cecil, had been married ten years, and had a celebration, being invited to the Harry Tolson home for the occasion — Pop Corn Days held at North Loup was pronounced an outstanding success. Paul Gard was winner of a tourney for boys held at the Ord golf course. The season of migratory fowl opened, but local hunters found the hunting very poor. — Vernie Andersen and Miss Vera Haught were married. Rev. R. C. Perry performed the ceremony. — Miss Florence Beard and Boyd Weedy were married at the Lincoln of the bride's sister, Mrs. Everett Tibbs. — Glen Auble won the Sunday golf event, defeating Marion Larson of Greeley.

Thirty Years Ago — Mrs. Falle Moller, one of the county's oldest residents, passed away at the age of 82 years. — Carl and Cecil Oliver, twins, were both married. Carl to Rachel Flynn and Cecil to Eunice Stroup. — Frank Sawdwy, 14, of Burwell was killed when the gun with which he was hunting was accidentally discharged. — Gladys Gudmundsen became the bride of Henry J. Enger, her father, Judge H. Gudmundsen, performing the ceremony. — Alexander Norman, one of Ord's best known attorneys over a period of many years, passed away at the age of 61 years. — The new clothing firm of Perryman-Hill was organized with P. C. Perryman and Alfred L. Hill as the members.

Forty Years Ago — The old Cernik building on the north side of the square was removed to the Woodbury addition. In order to get it out it was necessary to take down telephone and light wires, and confusion reigned for a few days. — Miss Hazel Rogers went to York to attend college there. — Yankee Robinson shows were billed for Ord on Saturday, and were to set up on the fair grounds, the only place big enough for them. — E. L. Johnson returned from a hog buying trip to Kansas and brought back shipment

Irene Fredericksen Wins Honors With Essay on "Americanism"

The following essay was written by a former Ord girl, Irene Fredericksen, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Jensen and stayed with Mrs. N. Norris and Mrs. Guy Burrows, and granddaughter of Pete Jensen who once lived north of Ord. She lives with her mother and step-father on a farm north of Cozad. She attended Ord high school in her freshman year and stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Burrows. She then went to Cozad, and worked her way through high school there doing anything she could find to do.

When the Tribe of Yessir visited Cozad not long ago she was chosen Queen. Recently the owner of an alfalfa mill at Cozad, offered to give her an unlimited checking account and send her through college.

My part in America's future will probably not be so great as others of my generation who will become great doctors, scientists, teachers, and statesmen. I have my own talents which sets me apart from others; I only possess a deep abiding love for my country. I would not exchange it for the throne of any King. I plan to become a secretary—a really good one—so that I can help my country.

By serving my country, I shall serve my country.

Life in America grants me privilege I would not enjoy elsewhere. I have the four great freedoms of religion, freedom of expression, press, and freedom from fear. I can move around freely when I please and go where I please. I can own private property. I can work for myself and not for the state as in Russia. I do as I please and not as I'm told, as in Italy. I think for myself, rather than have ideas pounded into my head as in Nazi Germany, and I can rise to any position for which my particular experience and abilities fit me, rather than stay in the same old rut, as Africa.

I am truly grateful for these countless opportunities and I realize it can't be all "take" and no "give," and that I have certain obligations and responsibilities, which an American citizen I shall try to live up to. I shall keep informed on candidates for public office and vote wisely, for it is by voting that the officials, who are in reality our servants, are chosen. Our country is a leading world power, she needs wise men to govern her, and your vote and mine each count toward seeing she has capable leadership.

I shall pay my rightful share of income taxes thus helping in a small way to defray the operating expenses of a great nation. I shall try to abide by the laws set forth by the constitution and the local ordinances of the city in which I reside. I hope to take an active part in community and youth affairs, for I know that people who live together have to work together, sharing the load, before they can achieve a smoothly run, united community or nation.

I shall endeavor to instill into my children a feeling of love and loyalty to their country, taking a tiny soul, loving it, caring for it, protecting it, helping to develop its character and personality so that it will be a person who is a credit to his family and country. It is a small task, but, with God's help, my children will be brought up to be good citizens.

I want them to know and to understand the American way of life and see how our democracy differs from Russia's communistic government, Italy's dictatorship, or England's monarchy, for, however their thoughts and actions are moulded today, so shall the future of our nation be moulded tomorrow. I want them to be able to stand on their own two feet, use logical and clear thinking, and learn to make their own decisions so they'll be prepared to take over the responsibilities of running the government.

The burdens we are shoving off on their slight shoulders are heavy ones and they'll need to use the intelligence, skill, an ingenuity they possess to shoulder them. I find a solution. I want my children to have a firm, unshakable belief in God, for perhaps, with His help, they can avoid the mistakes of their forefathers which have already plunged America into two bloody world wars.

I shall pursue the American dream which is simply a dream of a land in which life can be fuller, richer, and better for every man, with opportunities for each, according to his achievement. It is not a dream of expensive cars, yatches, or high wages necessarily, but one wherein each man and each woman can rise to the highest position of which he is capable and be recognized by others for what he is, regardless of the circumstances of birth. This is the American dream it is difficult for Europeans to understand for many of them are still bound to the age-old customs and traditions of their ancestry.

We Americans are progressive people. We are not content with things as they are, but we strive constantly to improve ourselves, our home, and our country. We are thankful for the privileges we enjoy, certainly, but that does not stop us from trying to enjoy more. We have set the goal we want to reach high, for we can always drop lower. I am proud to be an American. By taking my share of the load, being a good citizen, and raising my children to be good Americans, I shall play my small part in America's future today.

For today is my turn to guide the wheel which controls the government of America. My spirit is not bound to the monumental past any more than my body is bound to the tiny bed I slept in as a baby. The past—the sorrows, the triumphs, the joys—is not my cradle and now it cannot hold me, for I have grown too big. No, it is not I who belong to the past, but the past that belongs to me. America is the youngest of nations and inherits all that went before in history. I am the youngest of her children and into my hands is given her priceless heritage. I am bound to the monumental past for my children and for my children's children so that America's set of values and ideals will go down from generation to generation from now to eternity. My heritage is the whole majestic past and the shining, unblotted future. Protecting this heritage will be my part in America's future. —Irene Fredericksen.

Beverly Goodrich Chosen Queen of Pop Corn Days

Even this gigantic pile of popped corn doesn't hide the reasons why Miss Beverly Goodrich of North Loup was chosen Queen of the Pop Corn Festival there last week. She is the second of her family to be so honored, her sister Ersel reigning as Queen ten years ago. —Swopes Photo.

Pop Corn Days, '49, Finest in History; Record Attendance

Golden Jubilee Comes in 1950; Committee Is Now Planning for It.

Pop Corn Days, 1949, is now history, but all are agreed that the celebration this year was the greatest on record. The committee reports that they used 1,000 pounds of popcorn, 175 pounds of butter and lard, and gave out 20,000 sacks of the finished product. Joe Velcha and Bud Edwards did the popping, and John L. Ward handed out the pop corn, which was sacked by a number of boys, and older men during the rush.

The corn, donated by the Paramount Processing company, was hybrid hullless corn and was delicious. This year the pop corn committee bought a small building from Paul Goodrich, moved it to a village lot south across the street from the Community Hall, and the corn was handled there. This building will be used permanently for that purpose.

Golden Jubilee in 1950. While this year's celebration was advertised as the 45th celebration, it was the 49th and next year will be the golden anniversary. First celebration was held in 1901, sponsored by the North Loup business men, who wished to do something for the farmers, and this year there are more farmers than business men on the committee.

The Thomas carnival company were here with rides and concessions but the bingo stand which has always been a drawing card, was conspicuous for its absence.

Juvenile Parade. Parade and Saddle Horse Show were main features of the day. Juvenile parade was in charge of the Legion Auxiliary with Mrs. Adolph Hillwege the chairman in charge.

Winners were Baby buggies, first, Betty Jacoby, 2nd, Velma Barnhart; Sandra Barber was the only entry in the strollers so was given second place; Tricycles, Shelia Jeffries, 1st, Diane Wells and Denny Fox, 2nd; with doll buggies, Linda Williams was 1st; Beverly Jess, 2nd; Coaster wagons, Betty Lou Thomas, 1st; Jerry Dwyer, 2nd; Pets, Eddie Timmerman, 1st; Billy Drawbridge, 2nd; Bicycles, Wilma Vochchal, 1st; Patty Thorngate, 2nd; family groups, Mrs. Grace Jensen's children, 1st; Merlin Layher's children, 2nd; Miscellaneous, Paul Noyes, 1st; Robert Lundsted, 2nd. Each child who entered the parade was given an ice cream cone.

Music by the North Loup school band and by the Rockville band was on the program Wednesday afternoon and evening. The Mississippi Minstrel show, Quincey Wednesday morning was given late Wednesday afternoon and was very good.

A dance at the community hall followed the coronation.

Float Parade. Thursday big event of the afternoon was the float parade, with the North Loup, Scotia and Ord bands in the procession. The floats, many of them made with hand and dirt storm. This parade was sponsored by the Fortnightly club with Mrs. Harry Gillespie and Mrs. Frank Schudel the committee. Theme for the churches was a Bible scene. The Seventh Day Baptists won first with a realistic

Rural Setting Forms Background for Crowning the Pop Corn Days Queen

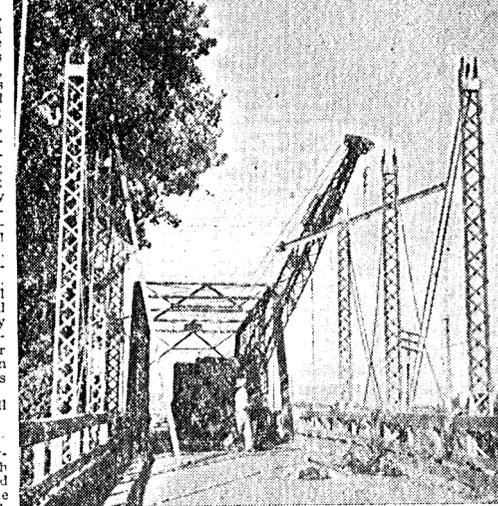

Main event of Wednesday evening was the crowning of Beverly Goodrich as Pop Corn Queen for 1949. The coronation was arranged by the Young Ladies club, with Maxine Copeland and Mrs. G. L. Carter in charge. A farm scene on the stage, with a large ear of corn, which concealed the queen kept the queen's identity a secret till the moment for the crowning. Delores Williams, queen of 1948, placed the crown on Beverly's head, with a presentation speech. Attendants were runners-up for queen and were Thelma Goodrich, Twyla Green, Eulalia Edwards and Betty Jo Velcha. A girls trio, Ila Roby, Beverly Knapp and Burdette Mulligan sang three numbers, with Barbara Hudson at the piano. The queens Louquet was yellow aster and was a gift of Mrs. Zabolouil of Ord. Attendants corsages were made by members of the club.

Queen Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Goodrich, a member of the 1949 graduating class of North Loup high school, and has lived all her life in North Loup. In school she was active in extra curricular activities, was cheer leader during her high school course, and was awarded the commercial medal given by the school on her graduation. At present Beverly is working at the state house in Lincoln in the child welfare department where she holds a secretarial position. The Queen's float led the parade on Thursday and was decorated by members of the Young Ladies club, who also had charge of the coronation.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parks and Lory of Broken Bow were in Ord Saturday visiting friends and relatives and on business.

Quiz Fish Derby Nears End With Last Day Friday

Still Time to Win One of the Prizes Offered, But Hurry.

The Quiz Fishing contest is now in its final stages, with only tomorrow remaining in which to qualify for one of the big prizes offered. The contest has been keen in some of the divisions, especially catfish, bass, and the women's contest, but there is room for improvement in the other three.

By looking at the list of winning entries to date below, you will note that, in two divisions, there are only two entries. There should be a chance to win in either the trout or crappie divisions with almost any kind of an entry.

If the fish story is short this week, just place the blame where it belongs, on the fishermen who failed to bring in any fish. If you want to get in on the prize money offered, do some fast fishing, as the referee will call the game over Friday evening, Sept. 30.

The standings: Catfish—Archie Bradt, Ord, first, 14 lb. 3 oz.; Steve Dubas, Elyria, second, 12 lb. 2 oz.; Edward Lacina, Ord, third, 11 lb. 10 1/2 oz. Lexington Gives Chanticleers a 12 to 0 Setback Triple Threat Man Beisner Kept Ord Busy on Defense.

The Ord Chanticleers went down to defeat but not disgraced before the powerful attack of a fine Lexington team in that city Friday evening. The Minutemen showed great improvement over last year, when they came to Ord.

Led by Beisner, triple threat man whose passing, kicking and running kept Ord in the hole most of the time, the Lexington crew had little to worry about, as the Chants were on the defensive most of the time.

Frank Adamek, one of the Ord outstanding linemen, was lost in the first quarter because of a knee injury, and this weakened the team both on offense and defense.

Ord started off well. They received the kickoff, and Stoddard made 9 yards through center. Moore broke away for 20 yards for a first and ten, and again for 15 yards. This gain was nullified by the following Ord holding.

This forced the Chants to punt. Stopped on the ground the first half, Lexington took to the air and scored with a pass from Beisner to the left end in the second quarter. The try for points was a failure, and the half was Lexington 8, Ord 0.

Ord kicked off to Lexington to start the second quarter, and the Minutemen scored in the third quarter on a sustained drive, with Beisner going over for the touchdown.

Ord's pass defense was weak against the fine passing of Beisner and the catching ability of his teammates. The game was a hard fought affair, however, and was marred by many injuries.

Ord's line played a good defensive game in the first and fourth quarters. Jerry McMindes, Kuntz, Cleland and Richard Blaha played well in the center of the Ord line. Richardson, Laursen, Heuck and Don Genski were able to turn in all end runs.

Stoddard and Peterson, more than the defense showed well in the backfield defensive chores.

Lexington lived up to its advance notice of having a tough team by walloping Broken Bow, 31 to 0. Broken Bow, not to be taken lightly, romped over Ravenna 32 to 0, while they were in the area.

Little damage was done. The corn is ripening nicely following the frost of 15 days ago, and there is little left in the gardens to damage. A few fields of late alfalfa are still to be cut, but these will stand a much heavier frost than has come to date.

Second Light Frost Wednesday Morning

A second light frost visited Valley county Wednesday morning, with a 32 reading at North Loup and about the same over the area. Little damage was done. North Loup Loses to Dwight, 20-40 in Tough Contest

Visitors Have Nine Seniors, Nineteen Good Men on Squad.

Playing an uphill game against a team that may well take rating in Nebraska 6 man football this year, the North Loup Challengers made a fine showing in holding the visitors to a 40-20 score Tuesday evening. Dwight came to North Loup with 19 men, five more than the entire North Loup squad, and with an imposing array of 9 seniors.

They were headed by Francis Trojan, triple threat back who made all-state last year, and by Julius Hotovy, who won honorable mention. The Dwight team is well trained and aggressive and sited through the North Loup line to stop most of their plays before they got under way. The game was marred somewhat by rough play which cost Dwight 45 yards in penalties, and North Loup 20 yards in addition to the usual offside losses.

North Loup won the toss and chose to receive. They were forced to punt, and after a few plays Trojan went 30 yards with perfect protection for the first score. He also passed to make the extra point. After several minutes of play in which neither side could get anywhere, Trojan went over for the second touchdown, but the point failed. A third touchdown followed shortly later, and the point made it 20 to 0.

North Loup's first counter came after the ball was placed on the Dwight 6 yard line because of unnecessary roughness. Hawkes kicked the two extra points to make the score 20 to 8. More rough play followed and Dwight was penalized 15 yards for clipping, but a 30 yard pass followed and their fourth touchdown made it 26 to 8 at the half.

Dwight collected 14 points more on two touchdowns and one kick for extra points in the third quarter. Near the close of this quarter, a pass, Hawkes to Meyers was good for 6 points for North Loup. In the last quarter Meyers intercepted a pass to put North Loup in favorable position, and Kerr went over for the final touchdown, Hawkes kicking another two points to make the final score, North Loup 20, Dwight 40.

The Challengers will go to Wood River Oct. 4 to play another highly rated team. The result should be a toss-up, with the hosts given a very slight edge because of their greater height. Wood River has almost the same team they used last year, and their greater experience may bring them victory.

Four Nebraska Counties Plan Redistricting

Miss McClatchey Says Plans Under Way Here to Head in November.

Friday Wayne county took the initial step toward redistricting its schools. Approximately one hundred rural and town school board members met in the court house to elect a ten-member county redistricting committee. The other counties which have already taken action are Jefferson, Pierce and Stanton.

According to the general plans set up by the redistricting bill passed by the recent legislature, this group will study the school problems of the county. If the committee decides redistricting is needed, such a recommendation will be presented at public meetings in the districts involved. The districts will then vote on the proposition presented.

Miss Clara McClatchey, acting in accordance with the provisions of the law has appointed a nominating committee, which will draw up a list of names. Later a meeting will be called at which it will be decided whether the committee shall be composed of 8, 7, 9, or 10 members. The county superintendent is a non-voting member of the committee.

Miss McClatchey plans to have a meeting late in November or early in December, to take action on the size of the Valley county board. This will give the nominating committee plenty of time to look over the available field and choose the most suitable names, and it will also give her time to complete her country school visits.

Hackel Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hackel of Lincoln, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary September 20 at their home in Lincoln, lived in Mira Valley since their marriage in 1899 until 1915.

Many of their relatives from here went to Lincoln last Tuesday to help them celebrate their anniversary. Those from Ord were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hackel, Miss Louise Hackel, Mrs. Katie Marks, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hackel and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hackel and sons, Mrs. Alma Bredthauer, Mrs. Clarence Fox, Mrs. Emil Foth, Mrs. Walter Foth, Mrs. Leonard Wells of Costesfield was also there. Mrs. Bill Schueters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hackel and Mrs. Rose Fuss of North Loup attended and those from Grand Island were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bredthauer, Mrs. Mary Bredthauer and Mrs. Mary Wohl. From Wood River went

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bredthauer and Mrs. Amelia Barber a sister of Mrs. Ben Hackel was there from York.

Emry Szmrecsanyi to Become Citizen

Another family of displaced persons is now located in this area, and are learning to take their place in the life of their community. They are Mr. and Mrs. Emry Szmrecsanyi and their sons, Emry Jr., Charles and Steven, ranging in age from 13 to 10 years.

They are now living in Burwell, where Mr. Szmrecsanyi is janitor for the Legion building. He was born in Budapest, then in Austria, but now in Czechoslovakia, and his wife Teresa, was born in Austrian Tyrol. For three years they lived in a camp for displaced persons at Bayerbach, Bavaria.

He talks pretty good English, Polish, French, Austrian and Bavarian and is well educated in his native Czech. The family arrived in Boston May 5. He says very few tractors are used in his part of Europe, because tractors would throw a lot of people out of employment and there isn't enough work for all that need it anyway.

He marveled at the size of the farms here and the very few people required to do the farming on them. He said that Europe it would take perhaps fifty people all the time to farm that much, and they would bring in as many more to work during the harvest. He is studying and looking forward to the time when he can obtain his citizenship papers.

Clyde Baker, clerk of the district court, informs the Quiz that most D. P. cases in the 11th judicial district are now handled through his office in Ord, which is a centrally located point, and the centralizing makes the records more easily available when needed.

Ord High School Band Plans Trip to Lincoln Meet

The Ord High school band is hoping to make a trip to Lincoln for band day, Oct. 22, the day of the Oklahoma-Nebraska football game. Thursday the band members will come down town in uniform at 3:45 at which time the business houses will be given the opportunity, if they so desire, of helping out in this cause.

—Tuesday the club which used to be the Study Club of the Women's Aid Society met with Mrs. Edgar Roe for lunch.

What Is Gambling?

From the time you are born until you die, from New Year's morning until the last minute of New Year's eve, from the time you get up in the morning until you go to bed at night and even while you sleep through the night, you are gambling. From the time you are born, life is a gamble. The next time you step outdoors or back indoors, you may find yourself face to face with death.

There should be no question about what gambling is; we all gamble. We are all taking a chance. If life were not a gamble, nobody would want to live. The one thing people want to avoid is certainty. The old saying is "There is nothing certain but death and taxes." These are two items all of us would like to avoid. Uncertainty makes for variety, which is indeed the spice of life.

The present hullabaloo about gambling is not against all gambling, but against illegal gambling. What makes the whole affair silly is the fact that bingo, raffles to raise money for the good of the community, are declared illegal, while pari-mutuel betting, one of the worst forms of gambling, is permitted by law.

In explaining his stand against bingo, the attorney-general states that it has the three elements necessary to all forms of gambling: it has the consideration, the money paid for the bingo card; it has the chance, the gamble that you may or may not win a prize; it has the prize, which is given to the lucky winner. If any one of these is absent, there is no gamble.

According to this explanation, the farmer is one of the world's worst gamblers. His consideration is, say, ten thousand dollars invested in land; another ten thousand dollars in modern machinery; several hundred dollars in seed; a lot of labor, gasoline or tractor fuel, and time; perhaps a large investment in fertilizer and time and labor to put it on; dusting or spraying to get rid of pests; harvesting and storing the crop; if any loss from insect pests in the field and mice, rats and spoilage in the crib or bin.

His gamble includes floods or lack of rain; hail or frost; deprivations from hundreds of members of both the animal and vegetable kingdoms; wind blowing his crop down; snow covering his corn in the field; stock getting into his crops, doing damage to them and sometimes killing themselves; fires burning up his fields of ripened grain; the chance that his crop might be stolen; the chance of being killed or injured by an overturned tractor or a runaway team.

His prize, in case he wins, may be a bumper crop, it may be a light crop, or he may barely break even. In case he loses, he gets nothing from his labor, his huge investment, the wear and tear on the land and machinery. To add to his troubles, he must pay taxes, whether he has a crop or not. He and his family must continue to live, to take their part in society, to make their contribution to some group while drive sponsored by some group every few weeks.

Yes, the farmer is one of the world's greatest gamblers, and he loves to gamble, or he wouldn't farm. The business man is a gambler, or he would quit the business, the laborer is a gambler, or he wouldn't take the chances he has to take in his work. In fact, we all like to take a chance, or we would gladly trade the uncertainty of life for the certainty of death.

The only way to tell what is a legitimate gamble is to consider all gambles legalized by law or custom as legal, and to consider all forbidden by laws as illegal. In the light of this reasoning, Attorney General James Anderson is justified in the stand he is taking. He says there can be no middle ground. While the majority of the people may see no harm in bingo, it is a game of chance in the eyes of the law, and must be barred along with all the rest.

A Job Well Done

The world would be better off if people passed out their bouquets to the deserving while they are living instead of reserving them to pile upon their caskets when they are gone. This week most of the officials of the North Loup River Public Power and Irrigation district are away, and may be pleased to be able to read a few words of commendation when they return.

The project, sired by dire necessity, and damned by many who would have done better to boost, has weathered the storms of criticism, has fought and is still fighting floods, canal breaks, vandalism and thousand and one petty irritations to which public organizations are subjected. It has been hampered all the way by insufficient funds, but has carried on through the years.

The year just closing has proved the old adage that we never have too much water in Nebraska. The rainfall to date is well above normal, and yet the farmers have been using water very much as usual. This year, more than ever before, the district has been able to furnish the water where and when it was needed, and in the quantity desired.

The job has been well done, so well done, in fact, that the management believes that it will be possible to shut off the water in the ditches by Oct. 1, instead of continuing until Nov. 1, as has been the custom in the past. This can be done, it is believed, with no hardship to any water user, and the water once used in November will be saved for next spring.

By shutting off the water a month early, the crew will be able to do a lot of needed work on the ditches this fall and get them in better shape to handle the job in 1950. It is easy to do a good job with the backing of everybody and plenty of funds on hand, but the district has carried on in the face of adversity. The gang should have credit for a job well done.

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

Every day and sometimes several times a day I see an auto number that intrigues me. It is that on the auto belonging to Dudley Hurbert of the Quiz engraving plant. Dudley should have the right to turn his car upside down if he wants to, as the number, 1591 reads the same either side up. And Dudley isn't the only fellow who should have the right to invert his transportation. Right across the street is the auto of His Honor, Mayor F. L. Blessing, who sports the number, 1111. While we are about it, there is the Joe Knezek car right in the same neighborhood, and he could invert number 1 very easily.

Those people up in Burwell and Andy Snyder in particular are not suffering from an insufficiency of optimism. Just a month after Nebraska's Big Rodeo ended for 1949, Andy had Frank Iwanski paint out the old dates on the signs on the buildings and fence, and had me up there painting in the dates for 1950. That takes a lot of nerve. At the same time are progressing, who knows but what rodeos will be outlawed by that time. Incidentally, most years I drag the last year's date over a week or so into the New Year, just the same as all the rest of you people do. This year I started using 1950, and on a big scale, 3 1/2 months before it arrives. The new dates, incidentally are Sept. 9, 10, 11 and 12.

In the old days it was understood that the first plants show effects of the frost were tomatoes, beans, pumpkins and quite a variety of flowers. For some reason nature reversed itself this year, at least in the North Loup area. The corn fields all around town were hit hard, and garden sals some to be doing about as usual. The flowers, especially, go right on blooming as though nothing had happened, and they seem to be more beautiful now than before the frost hit them, if it hit at all.

Ed Krikac of the Constock News came out with a good one last week in regard to the crack-down on gambling. It is so good that I take the liberty of using it verbatim in this column:

"Attorney General Anderson says he is going to clean Nebraska of all legalized gambling. This is well and good, but I am wondering how soon he's going to call the members of the game commission on the carpet for the drawing they held under his very nose a couple of weeks ago. I suppose all the big shots will say that this wasn't gambling, because the unlucky ones were returned their money. To me, a drawing is a form of gambling, and as long as they're cracking down, let's clean the state house first."

Attorney General Anderson, in explaining his attitude on bingo, said there were three elements required to make a gamble, the cash, or consideration, the chance, and the prize. The prize, in the above case, was the right to shoot a deer. The chance was two to one that he wouldn't get to shoot a deer. As to the consideration, at the time of the drawing every man had his money down. Therefore, at that time, the drawing had all the elements of a gamble. Further, every applicant for a license had more at stake than the money he paid. To him the prize of getting to shoot a deer was worth a lot more than the money he had at stake in his deer shooting permit.

This year nature has been prodigal in many ways and not the least of these is in the production of wild hops. Wild hops, incidentally, are the same as tame tops, except that they grow without cultivation and care. Hops are used in medicine, as well as in other ways. A hop notice has saved the life of many a young American afflicted with crop or some similar ailment. As a suggestion, why not take a trip in the next few days along the creek or the river and gather in a sack of the medicine that nature has so generously provided? You will enjoy the trip and have something worth while to take home with you.

Don't expect to get hops off every vine you find. Like mulberries, hops are divided into two classes, male and female. The male vines simply do not have hops this year or any year. But the female vines have more than made up for it this year. While you are about it, there is a plentiful supply of such common commodities as horse manure and catnip, both of which have their uses. Both, for example, can be made into tea, not for your personal enjoyment, but for the benefit of your general health, including colds. In pioneer days you could find bundles of both plants hung up to dry to the raft-

Nebraska Tavern Owners Refuse Sales To Minors

Nebraska law requires that retailers refuse to sell beer to anyone under 21. It is to the tavern owner's credit that, when in doubt, he does not sell.

To protect him against age misrepresentations, he is provided with "Sworn Statements" which doubtful cases must sign before making a purchase. Minors who falsely swear they are 21 years of age or over are subject to a $50 fine.

You Are Urged To Help Your Retailer

Do not ask him to sell beer contrary to law. And do not object when he insists upon proof of age. He is merely being a good citizen by operating his business legally and in the public interest.

The vets have given each time they were approached. And the money they gave could have been kept in their treasury toward a new building of their own, or toward some other use for their own group.

Then along comes the day of reckoning, and slot machines leave the local club rooms. And make it problematical whether the club can continue to operate, though it will try.

Locally, no-slots turned out to be a raw deal. The newly red-turned sumac is gorgeous, you'll really ch and ah if you drive out along Valley county's roads to see it.

Teddy points out that it would be prettier with some bright yellow with the red. After closely inspecting the roads for yellow, the brightest yellow we found—was painted on the Nebraska state highway equipment.

So we decided the state really should park a big yellow grader or Le Tourneau or something beside the reddest patches of sumac.

I am opposed to "Merit System" examinations and appointments, or rather, I am opposed to using the name, which is a misnomer. Why not state in the announcement that the examination is a plan to select one of a few for the job in which the vacancy occurs? That is what most examinations turn out to be.

The civil service reserves the right to select any one of the three highest in the examination for the appointment. If the one agreeable to the political boss in the town concerned lands in the three highest, a new examination may be called. If the service is not going to use the "Merit System," by all means give it some other name.

Something Different

The law is the law, and you believe in obeying it or you don't believe in laws. There is no middle ground.

Yet I can't help but feel the vet organizations in Ord got a rough break when state officers cracked down on slot machines.

For local veterans have given generously to good causes. Look at the money they handed over for making a swimming pool. Look at their donations for baseball field lights, and their latest donation, $1,000 to a community hospital fund.

Mr. Nelson has some corking good ideas. And a big band to try them on. No wonder they practice every morning.

There are a whole covey of lonesome parents in Ord whose youngsters have departed for schools in various cities. Awfully lonesome are Mr. and Mrs. Vegeltanz, since Rosellen left for St. Mary's in Kansas.

Not discussing it are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Tolen since Dick went to Hastings and Tom left for Lincoln.

At the Howard Huff home it is rather quiet for the three whom Dan left at home when he went to Lincoln.

Vernie Andersens' miss Betty like the dickens. Little Judy cried most of three days because she couldn't go to school too.

C. A. Anderson's last daughter left Saturday night for Denver and Colorado Woman's college. She left a three-some in a big lonesome house.

And we rattle around in this house, without Kerry.

I don't know whether it would be more difficult to have a big family depart, one after another with the years; or whether it would be tougher to have a one and only child leave home.

Quite a few families are enjoying a rare, delicately flavored dish of baked doves since the open season on these birds arrived a few days ago.

I hear Mrs. Harry Zulkoski does them beautifully, baking them in cream.

I hear the Rudolph Koupal family have enjoyed them for years. Mrs. Vernie Andersen bakes them, to the great pleasure of her family, including her father and sister, Mrs. Mike Kosmata of Caldwell, Idaho.

The meat is richer than you might suppose, and the flavor is considerably more delicate than, say, that of a young teal.

Didn't our high school band look as fine as it sounded Friday night at the football game with Holdrege?

No use talking, a t-a-all young man out there topped with a towering shako can really put those young musicians through their paces. And the five pretty baton twirlers looked all the better marching smartly behind him.

Of course I heard the usual young musicians' gossip: "Did you hear so-and-so? How he got off key? . . . etc. etc. . . and she was a whole beat off . . . and the way she marches slays me . . . etc."

They seemed surprised when I insisted the band really looked mighty fine as it marched.

A little like cutting off the dog's tail a bit every day, so it won't hurt so much? —Irma.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Wozab were Friday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kinginsmith at the Veterans' Club. Later they attended the football game and then viewed pictures that John had taken in Miami, Fla.

Nebraska Highway Needs Shown in Recent Engineering Appraisal

Speed is also an important consideration in the efficient operation of motor vehicles on the highways. The national standard establishes 45 miles per hour as the maximum speed for trucks with gross weights of more than five tons, while the Nebraska law permits a speed of 50 miles per hour at night and 60 miles per hour in the day time. In Nebraska the same speed limits are applicable to cars and lighter trucks, while the national requirement is only that speeds be safe and reasonable. This latter provision puts the proposition of safety squarely up to the driver of the vehicle, and puts him in a difficult position because when he sees a reasonable and safe speed to him may seem entirely too fast to the highway patrolman.

With adequate enforcement, Nebraska can be made free of and protected from vehicles of illegal limits and illegally loaded vehicles. Excessive speed, if this is done the public will profit from the more economical use of the huge investment already made in the highway, street and road systems of the state. The comment that the enforcement of these laws be stepped up, not only from the viewpoint of safety, but that of economy as well. It is also urged that, in the instance where discrepancies exist, the Nebraska law be brought into harmony with national standards.

Lack of uniformity of construction on roads with similar traffic requirements is one of the major problems to be solved in Nebraska. It frequently occurs in the highway system of the state. On the more uniformity and consistency in construction standards than there is on country roads or village streets, because in many cases the municipalities or the counties have used standards of their own devising without conforming to the state standards. The result of this practice is a random road network, weak in places and strong in others, where the driver is confronted with a variety of road conditions. In too many cases the present and future needs have not been recognized, and many deficiencies exist.

To be effective, a program to develop roads and streets in Nebraska must include the requirements of safe, efficient and economical motor vehicle operation. Standards which were conforming to the state standards. The result of this practice is a random road network, weak in places and strong in others, where the driver is confronted with a variety of road conditions. In too many cases the present and future needs have not been recognized, and many deficiencies exist.

In the determination of these standards, common sense considerations were used as the guiding principles. True economy calls for adequate design in each new facility. Without design any facility is certain to fall short of the accomplishment of some government agency. There is much truth in the old saying that "well begun is half done." A definite plan for any work to be done results in the work planned hazardously or in some cases, not planned at all. The overlapping of some government agencies, for example, is the result of haphazard planning, and is the cause of much needless expense.

A road system so planned will be adequate for the use to which it is put. State highways are designed and constructed, or rebuilt, to serve local as well as non-local drivers traveling at relatively high speeds for long distances. County roads are built and maintained to accommodate vehicles traveling shorter distances and at less speed than those on state and federal ful attention to his driving, not only on his own account, but because of conditions over which he has no control, the not too skillful driver coming in from the side street, the children who are likely at any time to dart out from parked vehicles, or the driver who may park his auto illegally.

Three basic elements are specified for road and street construction in Nebraska, pavement and shoulder widths, surface types and alignment. Bridge widths and capacities are also specified, but these unfortunately apply only to new construction, and bridges that do not conform to these standards will have to remain until they are replaced, or until they are specified as unsafe. Even then, people will and usually do cross at their own risk. Specifications in the city, although he travels slower, must pay much more care-portrayal of Moses striking the rock. Methodists were second with the scene of Jesus learning the carpenter trade. Clubs and organizations had a foreign country as a theme. In this group the Highway View club with Mexico was judged first and the Nolo club second with Scotland. In high schools, North Loup had the only entrant, showing the Spirit of '76. Grade and rural schools theme was a story and there were a number in this group, with district 42 placing first with Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs. Maxine Yak of Scotia is the teacher. North Loup schools were second with Jack and the Bean Stalk. In the advertising group, D. E. Bussell and Son were first, with their pigs and Schudel Motor Co., second with their display of Studebakers. Each entrant won a $2.00 first prize was $6.00 and 2nd $3.00. Judges were picked from out of town people. Following the parade the band played on the platform and a miscellaneous program was given.

Thursday Evening Events.
The main attraction after the massed band concert by Ord and Scotia bands was the Missouri Valley Barn Dance Band, from radio station W.N.A.X., Yankton, S. Dak. After the program they played for the dance at the community hall, where a record crowd extended. Thursday evening crowd was estimated at between seven and eight thousand.

Alfalfa and Sweet Clover.

The first of this week the alfalfa market appears to be very weak and as we have suggested a number of times we may see much lower prices for alfalfa seed. We believe that the volume of 1949 alfalfa seed crop will be so large that there will not be buyers for all of it. It would seem that holding seed till spring would be a losing proposition rather than a money maker. Sweet clover market so far has not shown the weakness that the alfalfa market has but sweet clover prices usually the trend of the alfalfa market. Still a fair demand for Brome and Crested Wheat at weaker prices. It looks now as if we would see lower grass seed prices.

Bulbs.

We have in our fall stock of fall planting bulbs and they are really very nice quality. Tulips in named varieties from Holland at $1.00 per dozen and Paper White Narcissus are 3 for 35c. Then we have a limited number of Hardy Hybrid Amaryllis they are 3 for $1.00. Come in soon and order what you need in bulbs for planting this fall. Then we will soon have our gladioli ready for fall delivery. We have a large number of named varieties and then we have a number of mixed bulbs. We would be glad to take your order now and make delivery as soon as they are cured out this fall.

Fertilizer.

Reports of tests made on the use of fertilizer in wheat test plots are available. Reports show that in many cases the yield of wheat was increased as much as 50c where fertilizer was properly used there was a net profit of from $10.00 to $15.00 per acre. Our land in this section has been yielding bumper crops and we are going to have to feed these fields if we expect to continue with those yields. It would seem to be a better plan to start using fertilizer now than to wait till the yields have decreased. We have on hand in our warehouse both Nitrate and Superphosphate for immediate delivery. Then we are taking orders now for delivery of Nitrate in November and next May. Place your order now.

If you have been having a lot of trouble with crabgrass in your lawn give your lawn a good heavy dressing this fall of Superphosphate. This has proven very effective in the past. We need to take better care of our lawns and feed them.

Grains.

We have taken a lot of grain the past few weeks but we are going to have to slow up a little on grain as we have several cars of popcorn to shell and some repairs to make in getting ready for our new crop of popcorn which will be coming in before too long. Call us before bringing in grain to see if we can take care of you.

Burwell Has Easy Go With Creighton

Raps Opponents 19-6 for Second Victory of Season

The Burwell Longhorns copped their second victory of the 1949 season, blanking Creighton 19-6 at Creighton Friday evening.

Creighton marched the opening kickoff all the way to the Longhorn seven-yard line, but Burwell held to take over and start a drive of its own. The drive paid off with Grunkemeyer reeling off the final 15 yards in an off-tackle slant.

Burwell scored again in the second period when Grunkemeyer touched down for five yards and a touchdown, and then plunged for the extra point which meant a 13-0 lead.

Creighton's only score was made on a 90-yard jaunt around end by Gentzler before the half, which ended 13-6.

Burwell counted once again in the third period on Newman's line back from the five-yard line.

Pass receiving of Glen Lytle and running of Grunkemeyer featured the offensive of Coach Rex Caldwell's Longhorns, while the defensive play of Newman, Sweett, Holloway and Alloway stood out. Gentzler was exceptional for Creighton.

Next game for the Longhorns will be with Ansley at Burwell next Friday.

Josh Wheeler Will Open Municipal Concert Season

Josh Wheeler, eminent, American baritone, will open the season for the Loup Valley Municipal Concert Association on Tuesday, Oct. 11, in the Methodist church auditorium.

Father Thomas Siudowski, chairman of the Talent Committee, reports that Mr. Wheeler was selected in view of his reputation for being a performer with the "audience touch." A pupil of the famous Metropolitan Opera baritone, Pasquale Amato, Mr. Wheeler is the possessor of a robust, rollicking voice. He is equally at home with lighter American melodies and operatic arias, and his program here will include numbers which his fans have demanded of him during his past seasons.

The American public has come to expect pleasant personality and attractive appearance in its singers, as well as fine vocal talent. Josh Wheeler fully meets these requirements. He stands six feet tall, is barrel chested and broad shouldered. Enjoying his audiences as much as they enjoy him, he performs with enthusiasm. His great voice is backed by all the strength and vigor of an athlete.

During the war Mr. Wheeler's reputation as a singer and actor brought about appearances in motion pictures with such other notables as Clark Gable, Robert Preston, Ezra Stone (radio's Henry Aldrich), and Josh Logan, director of Broadway's latest smash hit, "South Pacific."

Admission to the concert will be limited to those presenting Municipal Concert Association membership cards at the door. The concert will begin promptly at 8:15 p. m. Members are urged to be on time. Late comers will not be seated until the conclusion of the first group and will miss the opening numbers on the program.

Loup City Falls 12-6 to Albion

Cards Make All Points in First Half; Loup City Hot.

Loup City's Red Raiders ran into a mess of fumbles and penalties during a 12-6 defeat to the Albion Cardinals at Loup City Friday.

It was the season's opener for Loup City and the second win this year for Albion.

Loup City spent a large part of the first half running behind the goal lines, but lacked the punch to push the ball across.

Albion scored in the first few minutes of play after a Loup City fumble set the Cardinals up on the 26. Two penalties netted a first down before Danny Dufco plunged from the three to score.

The Cardinals made it 12-0 at halftime when a pass from Erwin to Carl Petersen clicked for the final seven yards and the second score of the game.

Loup City's score came at the end of the third period. After taking over on the Raider 30, Bennett ran to the 50 and then passed to Brown, who lateraled to Spotsnski for 27 more. Duffenderer hustled the ball to the three-yard line and Puncochar cracked off tackle for the touchdown.

The Raiders had the best of the statistics and might have earned a tie or win. The first half ended with Loup City on the Cardinal three-yard line.

Loup City gained 275 yards from scrimmage and had 16 first downs, while Albion gained 235 yards from scrimmage and had 11 first downs.

Puncochar, Spotsnski and Brown were outstanding offensively for Loup City and Rommorczeck and Vodehal were defensive stalwarts.

Broken Bow Celebrates
The city of Broken Bow staged a celebration last week, one given more or less on the spur of the moment, but one that several thousand persons enjoyed to the fullest. It marked the dawning of a new era for the Custer county capital. It started when Mayor Mel Ayres lighted a huge flare, officially marking the coming of natural gas to Broken Bow. This event is of special interest to the people of Ord and all the other towns in this area, for the same thing is due to happen in most of them some time in the coming year of 1950. It is now just 50 years since the first long distance telephone became a reality in Ord, and that half a century is fraught with momentous incidents. The people of Broken Bow were told by F. D. Whiteman, president of the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas Co., Inc., that gas would be piped into their city in 1949. The fact that it is now a reality proves that he is a man of his word. Mr. Whiteman stated that the towns in this area were on the agenda for 1950. Therefore we know that gas will come in 1950.

The expansion of any large business involves the expenditure of huge sums of money for necessary work and materials, and this outlay must be replaced from the profits of the enterprise over a term of years. The company had the faith to believe that expansion was justified, it is up to the users to merit that expenditure.

The public may look forward to the year 1950 with great expectations, and not the least of these will be the coming of gas. Recognized as a superior cooking and heating medium, it will create a decided change in the lives of all citizens.

Redistricting.
Along with the other counties of the state, Valley county will have the opportunity to alter the size, shape and boundaries of its rural school districts, according to the provisions of the enabling act passed by the 1949 session of the legislature.

There is nothing compulsory about the act, which is so planned that the majority rules. If the majority desires to rule. The first part of the work is the obtaining, by democratic means, of a redistricting committee. This committee studies the needs of the county and makes recommendations.

The committee holds meetings in the districts affected by any proposed change and it is up to the people of those districts to decide whether they want the change, or want to continue as they have in the past. The legislature went to great pains to make the law truly democratic. Nobody who has studied the present situation will argue that such a law is not needed. It may not be needed in all districts in the county, but it is needed, and needed badly, in some of them. For example, according to a plat of the school districts made a year ago, two county districts had no school at all, because they had no students.

Ten districts had so few students that they made arrangements to send them to other neighboring schools instead of having school at home. As a result, the school levy, in two cases, was nothing at all, and the school levy in the county districts varied from a high of 29.42 mills all the way down to a low of 6.01 mills.

The fact that a district pays no school tax except the prorated free high school tax is manifestly unfair. It might as well be argued that the other school taxes be excluded from school taxes because they have no children. The education of children is the task of the community and all should be required to pay a fair share of that expense.

Another reason why there should be changes in the school districts of the county is the wide divergence in property values in the different districts. Checking these values, we find that they vary from a high of more than $100,000 to a low of $15,000. This means that the low district has only one eighth as much property to base its levy on as the high one.

Whatever is done will be done by the people in the districts, and the majority will rule. Now is the time for the people to be giving the proposition serious consideration, so that, when the time comes to vote, they may be properly informed. To keep informed on current affairs is one of the chief duties of the citizen.

As a housewife I gr-r-r-rr my teeth over the dust that rolls up from this Arcadia highway! It's a tremendous work-maker for all the women who live within a block or two of the highway, as it enters Ord from the west.

Let's get this few blocks paved! Down with the DIRT!

Gene and I have been talking about how attractive the entrances to Ord SHOULD and COULD be made.

They're really unappealing now. If you don't believe me, drive out and come back into town. View with a critical eye.

Do we have neat, attractive approaches to our city? Do we have any welcome signs? Do we have any parkways? Do we have junkyards? Do we have weeds? Do we have dingy, worn, outdated signs? Do we have lots of dust?

Are the homes and yards along our highways so beautifully cared for? Some of them, yes.

In our travels, we come into a strange town, and what do we look for? A trim, tidy filling station, you'll say. And one with clean restrooms, if it hopes to entice you to stop there again. Isn't that right?

If it should be meal time, you look for a trim, tidy-looking place to eat. It must look clean, and you prefer it to look modern, don't you?

What do you suppose travelers who stop in Ord have to say about us? Perhaps we should investigate. Perhaps we could make Ord look more inviting to them, one way or another.

We wanted to go out and plant hollyhock seeds along the highway. Mout be agin the law, I'd have to find out.

But the first two or three people I mentioned it to said "I hate hollyhocks!"

That successfully flattened me!

he is tackled. The percentage of injuries is greater in six man than in eleven man, and the loss of a key man is more keenly felt, since one man counts almost twice as much in six man as he does in the bigger game.

The writer happened to run across a fact that should be of interest to the Quiz readers in regard to six man football. Advertising manager Ed Apking of the Quiz handled the pencil and kept score at the first game of six man football ever played. At that time he was publisher of a paper known as the Burning Banner and Belvidere News. Neither town was large enough to make much of a profit for a newspaper, so the two were combined under the one head, Belvidere happened to be the one of the towns engaged in that first six man brawl, and Ed naturally happened to be there pushing the pencil for his publication when the big fracas came to pass. But Ed has made some notes on the event, so why not let him tell it in his own words:

"Since the game was new, and the players were from schools that had never played football before, a combined Chester-Byron team played a combined Belvidere-Alexandria team.

Chester, coached by the originator of the game, Steve Eppler, had the advantage of better coaching and drilling, although Mr. Eppler had spent considerable time working with the Belvidere team to help them get started.

Belvidere, however, had one advantage in 6 man ball—they had a tall rangy, fleetfooted halfback, a red headed kid by the name of Jack Sloey, who, I believe, went on to make quite a name for himself in football at Doane or some other college of about the same size. Sloey ran wild that night and really had a big time.

"I like 6 man ball, and think it's a wonderful thing for the smaller schools. It's just as moving and spectacular as 11 man ball and in many cases a lot faster.

"However, under present rules, the team that has 6 good men can be overshadowed by a team that has one brilliant triple threat back and 5 mediocre men. If you have never seen a six man game, give it a try.

Quiz Files Indicate Comstock Was First Founded in September, 1899

There seems to be some question as to when the town of Comstock was founded. Last week the Quiz printed a story, based on one in the Comstock News, to the effect that Comstock is 50 years old this year, having been founded in 1899.

Since then Ernest Hammond of Merna claims this is a mistake, that the town was platted in 1898, instead of 1899. He stated that the first townsite was three miles south of the present location of the town and the first lumber for building the Dierks Lumber yard was unloaded at that point.

Because of the sandy condition of the soil there, the site was abandoned in favor of the present site, and Mr. Hammond had the lumber to the new location. He also helped build the first two buildings in Comstock, one of which was the old hotel building still standing on the north side of Main street.

Mr. Hammond is probably right, but the following articles found in old files of the Quiz will be of interest. The first is from the March 31, 1899 issue of the Quiz, and quotes from the Arcadia Champion of the week before, as follows:

"A corps of B and M surveyors arrived this week and are now at work surveying the line to Sargent. It is quite probable that this line will be extended to Sargent some time in the near future, but nothing is known of the company's intention. During the past week there has been a great variety of railroad stories in circulation, and people who are accustomed to such things just let them pass in at one ear and out the other. We believe, however, that Lew Stevens can furnish the most reliable information."

Quoted from the Arcadia Champion printed the week of Oct. 2, 1899:

"An extra force of 25 men arrived Monday evening and went to work on the railroad. The work will be pushed more vigorously in the future than it has in the past, and it is expected that Sargent will be reached by Dec. 1."

stock, which, while of interest, sheds no light on the town itself. The above items are all that appeared relative to the railroad or to Comstock in the Quiz for the year 1899.

Of interest is an item of correspondence from the town of Westcott appearing in the Quiz of April 1, 1898. "This town that has hitherto been going along rather slowly, is now booming. There are now three good general stores, two blacksmith shops, hardware and furniture store, livery stable, school house and fine new Congregational church nearly completed."

From the above it would appear that the town of Comstock was started in 1899, being established as a town on the railroad that was built through from Arcadia to Sargent that year. The town of which Mr. Hammond speaks was known by another name than Comstock, it is believed.

Rowse Buys Keown Farm

Floyd Rowse of near Burwell was the high bidder on the Clyde Keown farm, 2 1/2 miles south of Scotia, which sold at auction recently, the purchase price being $83.50 per acre. The Rowse family will occupy the premises after next March 1st.

Mr. Haskell then adds a personal story regarding Mr. Comstock:

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

There has to be the first time for everything, and one of them I have in mind is the Junior Legion baseball. I think of it especially because I had the good fortune to be a personal friend for a year of one of the three men who were responsible for Junior Legion ball in the first place. His name is George (Doc) Royal. I never knew where he came from, but he was in Hawaii when I got there, and he was still there when I came away. I do not even know what kind of a job he had, but I do know that he was what he claimed to be. Considering what Junior Legion baseball has done and is doing for the cause of the great American game and incidentally for Americanism, it is some honor to any man to have had a part in giving the game its start.

Doc was a man of ideas. The Legion boys wanted to raise $100 for some project, and could have raised it in a minute or two by passing the hat at a meeting (money was plentiful in Hawaii), but Doc had a different idea. He had a carpenter cut out a circular table top from plywood, 30 inches in diameter, had me paint an American Legion emblem on the top. The emblem, in case you never noticed, has just 100 notches around the outside. After the job was that far along, he charged one hundred of the boys a dollar apiece to have their names painted in those one hundred notches. Doc promoted the deal, and got the table top for his part of the work, and the Legion had its hundred dollars.

Speaking of Doc makes me think of another Doc, last name Norris. He was out west on a vacation trip recently, and sent me a card for Cockeye Dan. It was quite a card, showing, as it did, a small child in one of the familiar attitudes of childhood, and not liking the situation in the least. There was a reference to the days when bedrooms were unheated in the winter and of the sufferings one had to endure because of the lack of modern conveniences. It was a fine card, all right, and it took a fellow like Doc to figure out what to send and to whom to send it. The card occupies a prominent spot on the wall of the editorial office, where all who wish, may read and admire it.

Six-man football is becoming more popular as the years go by. This is especially true, since many schools are decreasing in the number of pupils and consequently in the number of boys available to play football. When the game first started one some fifteen years ago, it was considered as more of a joke, but it is rapidly coming into its own, and is being recognized for what it is, the one type of football possible in the smaller schools. Furthermore, it is in some ways a faster game than the regular eleven man game. It is a harder game to play, because, from the time he gets hold of the ball, the player is almost entirely on his own. He usually has to go his own way and get as far as he can, hoping that the ground will not be too hard when

New Victims of Polio Reported Over Nebraska

Daryl Anderson, 12, of Litchfield became Sherman county's second polio victim when he was taken to St. Francis hospital in Grand Island suffering from the disease. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Anderson, his condition is listed as good at the hospital. Sherman's first case, Joel Allen Havlik, 9, of near Ravenna, was discharged from the hospital, Sept. 9.

The case of Rolland Peters, nearly 7 of Schuyler, ended in tragedy when the boy died from the disease Monday, Sept. 19. Rolland's death was the 12th in an Omaha hospital from polio this year, and there were 53 cases recorded there as of Tuesday, Sept. 20. This was the first victim of the disease in Colfax county this year.

Vernon Pultz, 26-year old World War I veteran and commander of the Pilger American Legion post, was taken to the Veterans hospital in Lincoln suffering from polio. His condition was reported as satisfactory last week.

The condition of James McCorkindale, 10, of Laurel to the St. Joseph hospital in Sioux City, brought to 20 the number of patients undergoing treatment there. St. Vincent hospital reported a total of 23 polio patients.

The Oakland area has two polio victims reported. The case of Tommy Ryan, 11, is reported moderately severe, while that of two-year old Connie Wagner is satisfactory.

Janja Guyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Guyer of Overton, is in a Grand Island hospital with polio, which has caused paralysis of her right leg and partial paralysis of her right arm. She is one year old.

Christian Science Services
"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, Oct. 2, 1949.

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "Divine Science explains the abstract statement that there is one Mind by the following self-evident proposition: If God, or good, is real, then evil, the unlikeliness of God, is unreal. And evil can only seem to be real by giving reality to the unreal." (Page 470).

Nylon Garden Hose

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Mrs. Donald Brennick Writes.
Cashmere, Wash.
September 19, 1949
The Ord Quiz:
You will find enclosed a renewal subscription price for your good paper.

We are all well, Donald busy working as a mechanic at the local Schmitten Lumber Mill. The four boys are in school ranging from grades seven to the second. My mother was here for six weeks and we kept busy canning and having a good visit, taking trips to different parts of this locality, and she returned to the coast to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. Grace Lancaster of Snohomish.

My brother, W. G. Stanton came to get her, bringing Mrs. Bertha Eisele over here to Entiat to work. She looks real well, considering she underwent an operation over a month ago.

We see Mr. Fred Swanson occasionally, he being at home after spending so many weeks in the hospital, both Wenatchee and Seattle, following a stroke. Still has no use of the left arm, has to be helped by his wife when having to move about. We pass our Quiz on to him and he really enjoys it.

This locality was blessed with an abundance of fruit of all kinds. Grape and apple picking in progress now, pears already harvested—but quite a drop in price. From $110 last year to $30 this year. Most all the fruit took considerable drops.

Saturday morning this city experienced a terrific fire. The Wenoka Fruit Growers Union warehouse burned valued at $750,000, other fruit stored at $200,000. There were 75,000 boxes of Anjou pears and 35 cars of Bartlett pears destroyed, besides two cars of red Delicious apples ready to be shipped and four other refrigerator cars. It was built in 1909, parts of it being brick. Will put a lot of persons out of work, hiring from 150 to 175 people.

We have two storage lockers for our meat, fruit and vegetables just across the street. The grocery store was in great danger, as were the lockers, but even tho' the windows broke from heat of 125 degrees, also gas pump hoses melting, the store and contents were saved. My husband handled the mill's fire truck for 24 hours—Saturday and until 6 o'clock Sunday morning. Even after two days, it is still smoking and perhaps will for several more.

Didn't mean to write so much but could really enjoy a good visit in and around Ord. Anyone from there out this way, don't forget to look us up.

I especially enjoy "What's Cooking" and "Something Different" in the Quiz.
Hoping you have a good abundant season again, not too much cold and snow as in '48—and wishing I could be celebrating "Good Old Pop Corn Days" again.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Donald Brennick,
Cashmere, Wash.

How the Other Half is Living

Ira L. Livingston, rancher living southwest of Atkinson, died suddenly at his home Monday of last week from a heart attack. He was a butcher in Atkinson for many years, and was known as Holt county's biggest butcher, as he was 6 ft. 9 in. tall and weighed more than 500 pounds.

The Clay County fair featured something that used to be popular at the Valley county fair in by-years, a horse racing around the track hitched to a sulky. The idea, however, was to show a horse wearing the harness and pacing around the track without either sulky or rider, just to show how well a horse can be trained.

Sargent is to have storage for 100,000 bushels of corn when two buildings under construction are completed. Two huge quonset huts are being erected, one for the government, the other for the Sargent grain elevator.

In land we have five different 160 acre farms, some near town and one 9 miles away. Three have good improvements, the other two have useable improvements. Some terms on three of them and two would be cash by March 1, 1950. Several small tracts, one a fine 10 acre place, a lovely home. Some houses. Let's see what we have that would please you.
