

Attention: Valley County Real Estate Owners!

Statement by Ray C. Johnson, State Auditor

Reproduced are photostatic pictures of two receipts which have been issued to taxpayers in payment of real estate taxes in Valley county.

The receipt at right is strictly an unofficial receipt given to a taxpayer in payment of real estate taxes. The type of receipt used in this case, is one which could be purchased in most any printing office, stationery or drug store. Needless to say that proper credit for the payment of taxes in this case has not been recorded in the records in the office of the County Treasurer. In other words, the taxpayer has paid his taxes but the records do not show paid. We have been able to find a few of these receipts and have reason to believe more are in the hands of taxpayers. Do you have a receipt of this kind in your possession which was given to you in payment of taxes?

Treasurer's Office, Valley County, Nebraska

Form titled 'Received of' with columns for 'Taxes for 1900 and all Prior Years' and 'on the following described property'. Includes handwritten entries and a signature.

This receipt appears to be official and regular. We have been able to find a few receipts of this nature issued to taxpayers in payment of real estate taxes. The face of this receipt reads for year 1900 and prior taxes. On a few of these receipts which we have been able to find, the year 1900 has been changed by pen and ink or pencil to some other year as for example 1934 or 1935. The original receipt book from which these were written cannot be found and we have reason to believe it has been destroyed. The taxpayer on this receipt, while he paid his taxes according to receipt, has not received proper credit on the records in the County Treasurer's Office.

The victims in these instances were persons who during the drouth years and depression years were unable to pay their taxes; their property was about to be sold for taxes. To you who were in similar circumstances during those years and later redeemed from tax sale or foreclosure, make a thorough search to see if you have receipts of this kind. If you have receipts of this kind, send them to me or turn them in to Mr. Ralph W. Norman, County Attorney, so that we can make a proper accounting of this money and to see if you have received proper credit for the taxes you have paid.

Satterfield Had Community Respect; Friends Stunned At Perfidy Disclosure

Friends and acquaintances of George A. Satterfield had the highest personal regard for the former Valley county treasurer. The discovery of substantial shortages in his accounts shocked them all, many refusing to believe it. To the citizens of Ord, he was the ideal county official, a man respected in the community, and a devoted father.

Wednesday, they found the incredible evidence now coming to light that he may have taken his own life by setting himself afire. County Attorney Ralph Norman said suicide "is a very definite possibility."

Satterfield died in the Ord hospital January 22 of burns suffered the evening before in the Farmers State Bank at Sargent, 22 miles west of here. He had been cashier and stockholder since resigning as county treasurer last August.

At first it was believed an oil stove in the bank exploded. He was alone in the bank about 7:15 p.m. His clothes afire, he rushed into the street shouting for help. Flames were extinguished by

Frank Blaha New Chairman County Redistricting

Group Organizes and Holds First Meeting in Ord Saturday.

The newly elected redistricting committee for the schools of Valley county met Saturday afternoon at the county superintendent's office for the purpose of organizing.

Frank Blaha was elected as the first chairman, and Rudolph Kokes as the first vice-chairman. Miss McClatchey, county superintendent, acts as secretary and is a non-voting member of the group.

After the election the members spent the rest of the time reading and studying the new redistricting law. The first thing they decided was to get a map of the county large enough to show all the present farmsteads.

Has Big Job

To Ralph Norman, county attorney of Valley county, falls the big task of tracing down the scores or perhaps hundreds of false and irregular tax collections which still remain in Valley county.

"We have enough evidence in a number of cases to prove what we want," Norman told a Quiz reporter, "but only the vigilance of every individual land owner in the county will enable us to get the complete story."

To accommodate land owners who have reason to believe their tax payments have not been credited properly, Norman will set up special offices in the supervisor's room, next to the county treasurer's office.

Ask for All Records. "Those who come in are asked to bring all and every record of receipt they have, including cancelled checks," Norman said. "Some of the irregular transactions are so involved we will need every possible scrap of evidence to arrive at a satisfactory settlement."

New Teacher

Mary Beran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beran, started teaching district 74 Monday. The school is located a few miles north of Ord and was formerly taught by Mrs. Robert Benson. Miss Beran has been attending the University of Nebraska.

Shortage Found in Sargent Bank; Deposits Insured

All Accounts of Depositors Okay, Auditors Tell Quiz.

Discovery of a shortage in the accounts of G. A. Satterfield as cashier of the Sargent State bank, was made public, Wednesday.

W. D. Messenger, CPA, called in by Sargent bank directors, Friday, to check the bank's books, told the Quiz that no depositors' accounts were involved in the irregularities.

"There's no cause for alarm," he said, "since only funds belonging to the bank were involved. Any shortage is covered by our surety bond. In addition, all deposits in the bank are protected by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation."

Harry Heiliger, temporary cashier of the bank since Satterfield's death, said the shortage involved the bank's insurance agency, and as near as auditors were able to determine at this time, was limited to the $1000 transaction of which Quiz photographic copies appear on another page of this issue.

Loup District Is Approved by State Irrigation Dep't.

Will Bring Water to 72,000 Thirsty Acres at Sargent, Farwell.

The state irrigation department has approved the application for the Loup River Basin reclamation district, containing 72,000 acres of irrigable land. The district has 205,000 acres in all, of which the signers of the petitions represent 100,000 acres.

There are two divisions, the Sargent unit and the Farwell unit. The land lies in Howard, Sherman, Valley and Custer counties, that part in Valley county being a few sections lying to the east of Comstock.

The rest of the Valley county irrigable land, with the exception of Mira Valley, is included in the two irrigation districts now operating, the North Loup and Middle Loup districts.

Barbara Ann Hohman Saw Fatal Fire Start

Barbara Ann Hohman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hohman, who live 12 miles south of Comstock, was an eye witness to the fire in the Sargent State bank that proved fatal to George Satterfield. In the Quiz photo above, she is being interviewed by a member of the Quiz staff.

State Auditors Uncover $10,000 Shortage in Treasurer's Office

Clyde Baker, Lloyd Wilson, Given Full Credit for Expose

Their Suspicions Led to Special Audit by Ray Johnson's Staff.

Clyde Baker, clerk of the district court, and Lloyd Wilson, present county treasurer, were given credit by State Auditor Ray C. Johnson, Wednesday, for uncovering the first irregularities in the accounts of George Satterfield.

"Their suspicions prompted them to get in touch with my office, and following an interview, we started the search of the treasurer's records which led to the tangled trail of phony tax receipts," Johnson told the Valley county board in a special executive session.

The first irregularities were noticed by Baker in closing up a tax foreclosure case in which the

COUNTY WILL RECOVER

County Attorney Ralph Norman told the county board today, in their special session, that the county would not suffer a loss through the Satterfield shortage, except for emergency expenditure necessary for following the tangled trail of phony receipts, and non-credited taxes.

"The bonding company will repay any actual shortage in county funds," he said. "But, before we can sue them for recovery, we must know the total amount and be able to prove that this amount was stolen."

"Neither will any individual taxpayer suffer loss," he said. "As long as they have their receipts—good or phony—cancelled checks, etc., to show that their taxes are paid. The county board will meet in regular session, Tuesday, to consider recommendations of the state auditor for a special appropriation to reimburse the treasurer, attorney and sheriff for expenses involved in the search. Amount of the appropriation will be about $2000, the Quiz learned.

GEORGE A. SATTERFIELD.

Phony Tax Receipts Used by Satterfield to Bilk Taxpayers

Former Treasurer Also Dealt in Tax Sales, Johnson Tells Board.

A shortage of "more than $10,000.00" in the accounts of the late George A. Satterfield, former Valley county treasurer, was made known to the board of Valley county supervisors in a special session Wednesday morning at the courthouse.

The disclosure was made by Ray C. Johnson, State Auditor, who has been conducting a special audit of the treasurer's books since late November.

Stole in Two Ways.

In what Johnson termed a "most fantastic scheme" and the work of a "master mind" the auditor told the county board that the former treasurer had defrauded the county by two methods:

1. The actual stealing of money paid to him for taxes. In certain instances he took all funds, in other cases he took only part of the funds. To justify his books he issued bogus receipts to taxpayers.

Non-Profit Housing Corporation to Be Formed in Ord

Purpose Is to Build Low Cost FHA Homes for Sales, Rental.

A non-profit housing corporation whose purpose is to build attractive, modern low-cost homes for sales and rental in Ord with FHA-insured financing is being formed here.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the Housing committee of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening it was decided to organize such a corporation, under C. of C. auspices, as quickly as possible. The extreme scarcity of suitable housing here already has caused the city to lose several sizable pay-rolls and there is no chance to attract new industry here, or even to house suitable people already in Ord, unless some new construction is undertaken, it was pointed out at this meeting.

The plan is to invite 30 or more Ord business men to buy shares in the non-profit corporation to the extent of $300 each. Initial

Man Satterfield Succeeded Also Milked Treasury

Lafe Paist Resigned in 1927 When Audit Revealed Shortage.

defendant had been making small monthly payments to him to redeem his property. (The case was that of Mrs. Nina Norman, and the payments were made by her son, Dale, who has his cancelled checks to prove payment.)

"When these payments are made, I turn them over to the county treasurer and get a memo receipt," Baker explained. "When the amount became large enough to cover one or more year's taxes, a regular receipt was issued which I filed with the records of the court case."

History has a strange way of repeating itself.

The man George Satterfield succeed in office also had an irresistible temptation to pilfer county funds. Early in December, 1927, Lafe Paist, then treasurer of Valley county, handed in his resignation when auditors found his bank balance short in the amount of $3,000. The report of the shortage was made by the firm of an Boskirk and Remington, which was checking the books.

Paist was appointed by the county board to fill the vacancy. Shortage Mounted to $10,000.

The treasurer's office was closed pending further investigation, and the board accepted Paist's resignation. At first Paist insisted that the apparent shortage was due to an error and that he would be able to clear it up, but later reports showed his accounts were short, nearly $10,000. The auditor's report covered a period beginning with the administration of Irl D. Tolen in 1917 and continuing up to December of 1927. The auditors left but returned later to go into the books thoroughly, with the result that they found the shortage as given above.

Lafe Paist first became connected with the treasurer's office as deputy to W. L. McNutt in 1903, and he continued as deputy under S. W. Brown from 1905 to 1909. He was then elected to the office and served until defeated by Irl Tolen in 1914.

Tolen Demanded Audit.

Four years later he turned the tables and defeated Mr. Tolen, who insisted on a complete check of the office before he turned it

CLYDE L. BAKER

Failing to find receipts to close the case, Baker went to the treasurer's office to get the duplicate receipt. When a search of the office by him and Lloyd Wilson, former clerk in the treasurer's office who was appointed to fill the vacancy left by Satterfield's resignation in August, failed to turn up the receipt, Baker called Satterfield, at Sargent.

"The receipts there, I'll come over and find it for you," Satterfield told Baker. This was on November 5.

That day Satterfield came to Ord, dropped in at the treasurer's office at noon. Without pausing in the outer office he went immediately to the downstairs vault of the treasurer's office, and a few minutes later reappeared with the receipt.

(The receipt is pictured on this page. A makeshift from a 1900 tax book, it is labeled "phony" by the state auditor.) Satterfield gave the receipt to Baker, who accepted it. Later Baker and Wilson, in discussing the oddity of the receipt, went to the downstairs vault themselves to find the book the receipt was

County Board in Session Monday in Equalization

Discuss Reappraisal of County Property With Ohio Company.

The Valley county board met Monday as a board of equalization to discuss some features of the reappraisal of county properties recently completed by Wilkins and associates.

Since the work has not all been rechecked to date, no general report can be given out at the present time. All persons whose property valuation has been raised must be notified, and any protests must be heard before the report can be accepted as final.

Therefore, somewhere between the amount now known to be missing and the amount of wealth claimed by this man must be the true amount of missing funds in the Valley county treasury."

John Veleba, Defrauded. Johnson cited two specific instances of juggling of tax funds: "In 1915 C. M. R. John, farmer living near Comstock, came to the treasurer's office and paid back taxes on his property amounting to $1,975.00, for which he gave his personal check."

"Now here is where Mr. Satterfield became clever. He credited $1,232.82 of this amount to the county, and the record shows this amount was paid. But he kept $742.18 for himself. Mr. John got a receipt—the type you could purchase in any stationery or drug store—and apparently was satisfied."

"Again, on November 14, 1915, Joe Veleba of North Loup redeemed his taxes, and received a redemption certificate of $3,310.05. Only $205.03 of this amount was credited to the county, the balance went into Satterfield's pocket."

2. The use of county money in addition to his personal funds and stolen money to purchase tax sale certificates, thereby collecting interest belonging to the county.

The net loss to the county so far has been more than $10,000, Johnson said. "This is on various accounts that we have been able to check and re-check. But, at this time, we do not know how much the shortage will be—as there are evidently scores of other cases in the county where Satterfield accepted tax payments and issued bogus receipts."

Showed $30,000 Net Worth. "We do know that in checking records of the Sargent State Bank, and records of the department of banking that Satterfield had a net worth of from $25,000 to $50,000 without taking into account his real estate and life insurance."

"We also know that it is impossible to accumulate that kind of money on the salary paid a county treasurer.

Coal Shortage Is Here—Stocks Short

A leading coal dealer in Ord told a Quiz reporter Monday noon that a serious shortage of coal is more than just a possibility—it's a real threat.

"We still have some lump and nut coal," he said, "but we have no stoker or pea." Some people already have been forced to use yard screenings or pea coal in their stokers.

The Sack Lumber and Coal company had a carload of coal on the road, but the railroad commandeered the load when a transportation crisis developed in the north recently. Ordites may have to do a little shivering before the miners decide to go back to the pits.

passers by on the Sargent streets. Ord Quiz staff members and J. Harold Cowan of the Omaha World-Herald staff found an eyewitness to the "accident." Barbara Ann Hohman, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hohman who live 12 miles south of Sargent, said she was passing the bank at the time.

"I looked in the window," she said. "He was on his knees in front of the stove with his back to me. I saw him strike a match in front of himself. Then the flames shot up on his shirt. He tried to beat them out and rolled on the floor. I ran to get help. He ran outside as we got back."

The door of the stove was found closed. The fire was burning in the stove. There was no oil on the floor or walls or any evidence of explosion. Witnesses said Satterfield's shirt was thoroughly oil-soaked.

Earlier on the day of the "accident" Satterfield had called on friends at the courthouse here. He knew of the examination of his books by state auditors, but had not been questioned by them. The auditors were not working that day, a Saturday.

Shortly before noon that day he called at the First National bank of Ord, told them that he wished to draw $2000 in $20 bills, with the explanation that his bank at Sargent was short of this denomination and he would need them for the usual Saturday afternoon rush.

The First National had most of its cash under time-lock at that time and couldn't help him. So he went to the Nebraska State bank in Ord, which gave him the currency. Nebraska State bank officials were a bit puzzled here, for instead of giving them the usual bank draft or cashier's check for the currency, he instead tendered a check on a semi-personal account, the "G. A. Satterfield Insurance Agency," which he operated for the bank of Sargent.

Returning to Sargent, he re-deposited $1000 of the amount in the insurance account and deposited the other $1000 to the account of his son, R. M. Satterfield, a student at the University of Nebraska.

Harry Heiliger, Lincoln, a former Arlington, Nebraska, banker, now in temporary charge of the Sargent bank, told reporters that there was no necessity for the $20 bill transaction.

"The record shows that the Sargent bank opened that morning with $1720 in $20 bills, closed the day with $3000 in $20 bills. A currency shipment was also expected to arrive that day, which would have restored any particular denomination of currency they were short," he explained.

Bank records also show that Satterfield had drawn two $2000 checks before his visit to Ord Saturday morning but that only one had been cashed. The other check had not been recovered.

Satterfield came to Ord from Taylor, Nebraska, in 1922 as assistant cashier in the Ord State Bank. He was appointed Treasurer in 1927, was elected to successive terms with little competition. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Satterfield, live at Taylor.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, and a son. One daughter and the son are in college. The elder daughter for many years was a rheumatic fever invalid.

Friends described Satterfield as having "few really close friends, but no enemies."

A church member, he was not known to indulge in excesses, gamble, drink, or spend money recklessly. He was a luncheon club member, took part in community activities, though usually not as a leader.

He is known to have had considerable expense in connection with his daughter's illness.

His salary during most of his tenure as treasurer of Valley county was $2000 per year, raised a few years ago to $2200. As bank cashier at Sargent, he received $300 a month plus a percentage bonus which upped his income to an average of $500 a month.

Full story of the shortages both in the Sargent bank and the treasurer's office is not at this time available, and will not be known until an exhaustive check of records is made.

New evidence in the search for missing funds mounts hourly as the Quiz goes to press.

Phony Tax Receipts Used by Satterfield to Bilk Taxpayers

We find a suspicious entry on the tax books we then check through the cash book and receipt books. If we find nothing there, then we must interview the taxpayer personally to find if he has paid his taxes—and if so, the amount he paid, the kind of receipt he was issued, look at his cancelled check, if any. Many times the search is fruitless.

"Again, we are not only confronted with fraudulent entries, but lack of entries. In every case, these must be traced down to the taxpayer himself."

Johnson showed the county board a year 1900 tax receipt, photostat of which appears in another column of this paper, to illustrate another type of receipt issued by Satterfield.

200 Phonics Out?

"This receipt is numbered 200. We have uncovered bogus receipts Numbers 30, 40 and 100, from the same 1900 receipt book. Is it safe to assume that there may be as many as 200 bogus receipts floating around this county?"

The state auditor then told the board of the second method used by the former treasurer to defraud the county.

"It is against the law for a county treasurer to purchase or own tax sales certificates, either directly or indirectly. Satterfield purchased tax sales certificates—presumably with stolen county funds—in the amount of $20,914.65 from the same period of time from March 17, 1943 to January 1, 1949.

"Understand, he did not own all of these certificates at one time—as during this period he was continually buying and selling them.

"These, he purchased in the name of his brother-in-law, T. W. Moore of Taylor. I believe that Mr. Moore did not know of the transaction."

Johnson then showed the board photostat signatures of Mr. Moore obtained from Moore's driving license. "Compare these, if you will, with the endorsement on the checks made out to Mr. Moore when the certificates were sold."

"Note that his driver's license signature is 'Tom Moore,' written in a bold, free hand. On these checks the endorsement is 'T. W. Moore,' written in a fine hand. The letter 'e' in his name is written in a different style. And, above all, the checks are again endorsed by 'O. F. Satterfield,' with a very small 'G.A.S.' or special identification mark underneath.

"It is obvious to us that Satterfield not only forged his brother-in-law's signature, but that of his wife. I am convinced that neither of these people knew anything of the tax sale certificate deal."

Illegal Profits of $8,658.31.

Johnson told the board that Satterfield's transactions in tax sale certificates during the period mentioned above, resulted in a net profit to him of $8,658.31. In addition to this amount he collected $920.56 in interest.

Johnson's talk before the board, in a closed session attended only by board members, auditors, representatives of Ord banks and the Quiz, sketched in detail other minute evidence he and his auditors had gathered.

He made special emphasis of the whole-hearted cooperation he

Here Is the Disposition of the Mysterious $2000 in $20 Bills

Just why George Satterfield decided Saturday morning his bank at Sargent needed $2000 in $20 bills will never be known. (See Col. 1, Page 1.) Pictured above are ledger sheets from the Sargent State Bank showing first, the G. A. Satterfield insurance account, showing a $2000 check paid, a $1000 deposit made on the day he became fatally burned. At left is a $1000 deposit made on the fatal Saturday to his son, R. M. Satterfield's account. Sargent bank officials told the Quiz that a checkup of records disclosed two $2000 checks had been drawn on the insurance account, presumably for converting into currency at Ord, although only one check was cashed.

The personal accounts of both Satterfield's son and daughter were used for prior manipulations, bank records show. —Quiz Photo

March of Dimes' Ended Officially Tuesday, Jan. 31

Many Envelopes Still to Be Returned, and Quick Action Asked.

While the "March of Dimes" campaign ended officially Tuesday evening, January 31, there are still a large number of the contribution envelopes that have not yet been returned, and those having them are urged to send or bring them in at once.

The solicitors who had planned to canvass the business section have been unable to complete their work, and for this reason quite a few of the business places have not been solicited. Those who have not contributed may leave their envelopes to the treasurer, C. J. Mortensen, at the Nebraska State bank, or with the county chairman, Stanley Absalon, at the Variety store.

The committee hopes to be able to complete its work and make a report by the end of the week. Two reports coming in from the Quiz office show that the total collected at the Ord Theater for the polio fund was $127.33, and that the American Legion and Veterans of the Foreign Wars turned in $65.

New Trials Asked in Two Cases in District Court

Motions Filed by Both Parties in Lech-Larsen Case, also by Carter.

As a result of the findings of the jury in two cases recently in district court in Ord, motions have been filed asking new trials. In the case of Lech vs. Larsen both parties have filed a motion for a new trial, while in that of Carter vs. Foss and Edwards, Carter is asking for a new trial.

Davis Vogeltanz, Carter's attorneys, stated Monday that their reason for asking for a new trial was on the grounds that Mr. Foss, owner of the truck concerned in the collision, has assigned his right to bring suit to a third party, namely, the insurance company.

Neither party was satisfied with the jury's decision in the Lech vs. Larsen case, apparently. The jury in the case, after careful deliberation, found no cause for action. It is not known at this time when Judge E. G. Kroger will act on the motions.

New youth council members will be introduced. This youth council comprising two young people and one adult from each church will meet every month to plan programs and activities for all youth. At a recent meeting of the youth council it was the opinion that more activities of this type are desired by our youth.

The United Christian Youth Movement, which sponsors Youth Week, January 29 and February 5, is the cooperative youth organization of 40 denominations in the United States and Canada. Such groups as Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. are actively associated with it. All youth who will be invited and urged to attend this meeting.

Lafe Paist Resigned as Treasurer When Audit Revealed Shortage

over to Paist, and for the first time on record the finding of the auditors checked with the records of the treasurer to the penny.

It is thus shown that Paist was employed in the county treasurer's office as deputy or as treasurer for a period of 20 years. The amount he was short in his accounts figures not far from $500 per year.

The following week after the first report appeared in the Quiz it was stated that the amount of the shortage was then more than nine thousand dollars. County Attorney George Munn stated that Paist had not been placed under arrest because it was unnecessary, as he was ill and confined to his bed.

Paist Plead Guilty.

Monday, Jan. 8, 1928, Lafe Paist was haled into court before Judge J. H. Hollingshead and charged with stealing $10,000 of the county's money. He was represented by E. L. Vogeltanz and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge. His bond was set at $12,000, which he was unable to raise and went to jail.

March 1, Paist appeared in district court before Judge Bayard H. Paine and agreed to enter a plea of guilty to stealing $5,000 of the county's money. He was sentenced to from one to 21 years in the penitentiary, required to pay the costs of the prosecution and a fine of $10,000.

Paist made arrangements with the bonding company to make good the amount of the loss by turning over property valued at $10,000. Asked why he took the money, he gave the reason that he had operated the Ord gas plant for six years at a heavy loss, and that he took the money, intending to pay it back.

Released, Died Soon.

After Paist was taken to the state penitentiary he was given a job taking care of the books in the office, and proved especially valuable in this respect, as he was a fine bookkeeper. After a period of two to three years he was released.

After his release he and Mrs. Paist moved out to the west coast, where he died some time in the 1930s, the exact date not being available. His widow, Pearl Wagoner Paist, still lives in California.

Not far from the time that Paist was found wanting in Valley county, Frank Smith, who was treasurer of Garfield county was found to be short there in an amount of approximately three times that of Paist. He, too, was sent to the penitentiary, but the county lost little, as the bonding company made good nearly all the loss.

Trout Also Short.

Going back into the early history of Valley county, there is the case of Abe Trout, through whom the county stood to lose a large sum of money when he was treasurer in 1890. Trout was a good man, but a very poor bookkeeper, and he was as much surprised as the auditors when he found out he was short.

Trout owned a farm near Olean, now owned by Devillo Fish, and also eighty acres of land farther east, all of which he turned over to the county. For years the larger place went under the name of the "Poor Farm," as there had been some talk of keeping the county poor there. Funds obtained from the sale of the farm were used to defray a part of the expense of building the new Valley county court house.

BAKER, WILSON, CREDITED

taken from. They couldn't find it. (In reconstructing the case, Baker and Wilson recalled that November 5 was a chilly day and that Satterfield wore a bulky topcoat. They believe that at that time, he concealed the missing tax receipt book under his arm and walked out with it. A search is still being conducted for the book.)

They called the state auditor's office the same day, asking to talk to Johnson. Johnson was in the western part of the state at the time, but on his return asked Baker and Wilson to come to Lincoln and tell him the full story. Following a consultation at his home on Armistice Day, Johnson detailed men from his office to begin the search of Valley county records.

Miss Helzer to Head Red Cross Drive for 1950

Ed Armstrong, Valley County Red Cross chairman, has announced the appointment of Miss Katherine Helzer as the 1950 Red Cross Fund Drive chairman. In keeping with past Red Cross practice, the annual membership drive will be conducted during the month of March.

Miss Helzer has in turn named Mrs. Henry Benda as Ord city chairman for the drive. As in the past the Arcadia and North Loup branches of the Valley County Red Cross chapter will handle the solicitations in their own communities.

Mrs. E. C. Baird will act as chairman in the Arcadia area, and the North Loup chairman has not yet been announced. Plans for the rural solicitation are only in the formative stage and will be announced later by Miss Helzer.

Ravenna Methodist Church Destroyed

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the Methodist church in Ravenna Sunday evening, with a loss estimated at $25,000. Only a small electric organ was saved.

Variety Show Is Big Success

Last Thursday night a capacity crowd jammed the Ord high school auditorium for the music department's "Varieties of 1950." The show was one of the best high school performances in years and although definitely on the slapstick side, it was good entertainment and showed the talent and training of the embryo musicians to good advantage.

One of the highlights of the show, which was emceed by Dennis Knopik, was the pony chorus of six svelte lasses, who danced to the tune of "Oh, You Beautiful Doll."

A trombone duet by "Slush and Pump," known of the stage at Galen Allen and Paul Stordant proved to be rather more exciting than most trombone duets.

Any and Luella Christofferson, Carolyn Romans, Sandra Norman, Rosalie Blaha, and Darlene Novasad, drum majorettes for the Ord high school band, displayed several of the trick formations they have used with the marching band.

Keith Cook, who sings more like Sinatra than Sinatra does, warbled "Don't Cry, Joe" Donna St. John, a Frankie fan, swooned and had to be carried out on a stretcher.

Mr. Nelson recently formed a swing orchestra, "The Swing Kids," that is excellent. They held the spotlight in the best professional manner.

Small Crowd at Baseball Meeting

Ashton, Farwell, North Loup, Scotia, Wolbach, Elba, Palmer, and Dannebrog formed the circuit last year and some changes may be made this year. If any other towns are interested in a berth in the league this season, they should be represented at the meeting, says G. A. Dilla, secretary.

Former Elba Man Hunted Gazelle Wild Pig Shortly Before Visiting

Clayton L. Holm, son of Holger Holm of Omaha and a niece of Mrs. F. L. Blessing of Ord hunted gazelle and wild pig in Ethiopia only a few weeks before his visit in Ord Sunday.

Mr. Holm was general manager of the Harar Transport Co. of Ethiopia, an Abyssinian government owned truck and bus line, and resigned his job a short time ago to come to the U. S., to visit his parents and embark on a new enterprise—also involving an Ethiopian company.

He went to Ethiopia in 1946 as secretary-treasurer of the Ethiopian Airlines with headquarters in Addis Ababa, also a government owned firm, and took over management of the Harar Transport in 1948.

"Life in Ethiopia is rather hard to describe," he told a Quiz reporter Sunday. "In the first place, you have two widely varied climates, and even two topographically different countries. In the lowlands, nearest the sea, the country is swampy, moist and the climate is practically unbearable. And in the interior, where the escarpment rises from the plain at such an incline that our trucks climb 3,000 feet in 15 minutes, the air is fairly cool, dry, and quite pleasant."

Holm said that Ethiopia, which is inhabited largely by Copts rather than negroes, was making tremendous strides toward modern civilization. "New roads are going everywhere, some of them planned by the present government, others are extensions or repairs of the Italian roads (built under Mussolini) which fell into disuse during the war and reorganization period."

"We're putting in irrigation wells in the plains region—and also wells for the watering of cattle. New buildings, schools, hospitals are going up." Cattle raising is one of the nation's largest enterprises, Holm said, with an estimate of 25 million head of cattle in the country. Beef is one of the cheapest foods, filet mignon costing from eight to ten cents per pound at the markets.

"Of course there are other things that are higher," he said, "just as in any country in the post-war period. But generally, living conditions are very favorable. Common labor wage scale is 30 to 60 cents a day."

Holm ranks Haile Selassie, Ethiopian king of one of the ten smartest rulers in the world. "I don't believe that any other king or president could approach the job he is doing with his people. He's got it has been necessary to great real of foreign brain represented in engineers pilots, technicians, bank no one nation has a mo any one field. You find a French, Norwegian, S Italian, English, Swiss nationals all mixed together."

"Now for the first time beginning to get complete help," Holm said. "When came to Ethiopia it was ly impossible to hire C could read and write— collar class was prac terminated during the regime. The Coptic sc finally getting their gra us."

Hunting—especially big is the chief sport of for Ethiopia, and conditions according to Holm. "Yo just about any type of wish and lots of it," t Nebraska said. "The la before I started home four gazelle weighing a lbs. a piece and two which went better than The pigs had tusks mere inches long."

"Another time we bag foot lizard."

$25,000,000 FHA Loans Insured in 1949

In 1949 the Federal Housing Administration, in Nebraska, enjoyed the largest volume of business in its fifteen year history, according to Holger Holm, State Director. A total of 6,104 applications were received to insure loans on 4,453 single family dwelling units and 1,651 apartment house dwelling units. Loans were insured on 3,715 dwelling units for a total of $25,419,823 of which $20,468,550 was for purchase of construction of 3,033 single family homes. The remainder of $4,951,273 was for construction of 682 dwelling units in apartment house projects.

The above does not include loans insured for modernization and improvement of real estate, approximately 10,000 loans for several million dollars.

It would appear that the above volume will again be doubled in 1950.

Ord Coasts to Easy Win Over Ravenna

The easiest victory of the year came to the Ord Chanticleers, Tuesday evening, when they smashed a frightfully ragged Ravenna team, 54-22.

The Bluejays were completely outclassed by the Chanticleers right from the start. By half-time Ord had rolled up a ten-point advantage, 23-13, and shortly after the second half began the Ravenna squad went from bad to worse, with Kobschull accumulating four fouls and being benched until the fourth quarter.

The Chants hit the basket from all angles, but the Jays seemed unable to solve the Ord zone defense. Time after time the Jays would work the ball down the court only to toss the ball directly into the arms of a waiting Ordite.

The game was a real contrast to the Abilon tilt, played here last Friday, in which both teams battled furiously, with Ord finally winning out by one point. In Tuesday's game, the boys on neither team worked up a good sweat.

Penas garnered 15 points for Ord, and Kobschull was high for the losers with eight tallies. Officials were Fitzgibbons and...

Ord Edges Albion 35-34 Friday in Upset Thriller

Cardinal Attack Falters as Chants Play Cool Defense.

The Ord Chanticleers were giant killers Friday night when they managed to nose out the Albion Cardinals 35-34. It was the first defeat for the Redbirds this season, while Ord has been just a good average outfit, winning some and losing a few.

Using a zone defense that was hard to penetrate, Coach Dick Peterson's boys held Albion to a single point during the second quarter. After a 9-9 deadlock at the end of the first half, the half ended with the Chants out in front 17-10.

The lead changed hands several times in the last two quarters, although Ord managed to be ahead at 25-22 at the end of the third period.

With only four seconds gone in the game, Peterson sank a fielder for the Cardinals. Heuck tossed in a free throw for the Chants. Johnson then put the Cards in front 4-1 with a set shot. That three-point margin was the largest that Albion got during the evening.

Ord methodically worked the ball in time after time while disorganizing the highly touted Albion attack and with the game five minutes old the Chants had a narrow lead of one point.

After a time out, both teams stepped up the tempo and ended the quarter 9-9.

Falter did most of the scoring for Ord in the first period. He hit three field goals, Richardson made two gift tosses, and Heuck contributed one.

The Albion attack fell apart in the second quarter while Ord forged ahead with field goals by Richardson and Maurice and free throws by Falter and Penas.

After the half-time intermission, during which Coach Best must have given his boys the traditional pep talk, the Cardinals came to life. Attacking sharply, the Boone county boys brought the score to 25-22.

The last quarter was a grand melee. Ord was trying to stave off the Albion rush, and the Cardinals were playing their hearts out trying to pull the game out of the fire. They played a little bit too hard, in fact.

Eight fouls were charged to Albion in the last period, but Ord didn't capitalize on the chances of adding free points to their score. The Chants connected with only two of the eight throws.

It was in the last quarter, too, that referee Pulliam charged Coach Best with a technical foul and a few seconds later tossed Denlin, Albion forward, out of the game for unsportsmanlike conduct.

Perhaps a moral may be derived from the fact that Stoddard made good the free throw awarded Ord on the foul by the Albion coach. That was enough to account for the one-point margin by which Ord won the game.

Albion made good on six of 13 free throw attempts; Coach Peterson's lads hit 13 out of 27.

Officials were Beck and Gaines.

Loup City Takes Win from Arcadia

The Loup City Red Raiders topped the Arcadia Huskies 46-30 at Loup City Friday night.

The Raiders were tied with Arcadia at the end of the first quarter, 6-6, but forged ahead in the second and third periods for an easy win. Loup City was ahead 16-11 at halftime and had racked up a 34-19 tally at the end of the third canto.

Steve Spotanski and Paul Moritz each tossed in 12 points for the winners, while Mason's eight points was top for the Huskies.

D. O. Hawley of Arcadia Buried There on Sunday

Middle Loup Resident Since 1878, He Leaves Many Descendents.

Another old time resident of Arcadia has gone to his final reward in the passing, Jan. 26, 1950, of D. O. Hawley, at the age of 83 years, one month and 30 days. He was a resident of the Arcadia area for 72 years.

D. O. Hawley was born at Rawley, Ia., Nov. 27, 1866. He came to Arcadia, Nebr. and the year 1878, at the age of twelve. June 12, 1889, he was married to Hallie Begle. By this marriage six children were born. Two of which have preceded their father in death. There were two girls and four boys.

Mrs. Hawley passed away in 1915, Sept. 1, 1926. Mr. Hawley was united in marriage to Letha Weddel who is left to mourn his passing. Also to mourn his passing are his children, seven grandchildren, three great grandchildren and many relatives and a host of friends.

Mr. Hawley joined the Congregational church of Arcadia, July 12, 1903. In the year 1905 he served on the board of trustees. In 1919 he was elected as Deacon and he held that office for a period of 30 years in this church. He was also a member for several years of the Modern Woodmen of America.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Congregational church in Arcadia. Rev. E. T. Gunsolley officiated, assisted by Rev. C. W. Buehler. Carl Easterbrook and Mrs. Jean Williams sang two beautiful hymns accompanied by Mrs. Kermit Erickson.

Active pallbearers were, Merle Meyers, Dick Petersen, Sam Hill, Frank White, Henry Creemen and Curtis Hughes. Honorary pallbearers were Grant Cruickshank, C. C. Hawthorne, Art Armstrong, C. W. Starr, Ernest Easterbrook, Ray Hill, Leslie Arnold, Glenn Hill, Anton Nelson, Arnold Tuning and Jess Marvel.

Burial was in the family plot in the Arcadia cemetery. The Hastings-Pearson mortuary had charge of arrangements.

—Mrs. Anna Barnes, mother of Mrs. George Lint, suffered a light stroke last Thursday night but is getting along fine. Mrs. Barnes lives in Cotesfield but at the time of the stroke was in Taylor with another daughter, Mrs. Everett Satterfield.

Non-Profit Housing Corporation to Be Formed in Ord

Purpose Is to Build Low Cost FHA Homes for Sales, Rental.

For construction purposes, a loan of 90% of the combined value of house and lot can be secured which loan is guaranteed to the lender by the FHA, according to figures from Helger Holm, state director. Once the homes are built, individual buyers could borrow 95% of their value, under the owner-occupant provision, and thus secure title with a down payment of less than $500 and 30 years in which to amortize the balance of the loan. Since the loan is guaranteed by the government, purchasers would assume no individual liability beyond their down payment and an obligation to pay standard amortization payments of $40 to $45 per month, which including local taxes and insurance, very probably is lower than rentals being charged in Ord for less desirable housing. A purchaser could deed his property back to the lender any time without further liability or could sell subject to the FHA program. Any unsold houses will be rented and the loan amortized from this source.

The meeting was assured by E. R. Fafetta, of the Ord Finance company, that unlimited funds for FHA building are available from Prudential Life Insurance Co., which he represents locally in such matters. Shirley Norton, of York, formerly of Ord, is in charge of Prudential FHA loans in this district and will work with the Ord non-profit corporation in handling initial financing for this group and later individual financing for prospective buyers.

John L. Andersen, Chamber secretary, was instructed to have papers of incorporation drawn up at once. A campaign for 30 men willing to invest $300 each has been started and 10 have already pledged funds.

This plan of financing FHA housing projects has worked out well at Holdrege, where over 300 units were built; at Alliance, where over 60 were built; at Chadron, York, Grand Island, Blair and many other Nebraska cities.

Once the original 12 homes are built and sold the non-profit corporation might be dissolved, and $300 each returned to share holders, or it might continue with another unit of homes and still another as long as a need for housing exists in Ord, and as long as present FHA-guaranteed financing regulations remain in effect.

Anyone interested in FHA-guaranteed financing for larger homes than those planned by the non-profit corporation can get details from Emil Fafetta. Any owner-occupant can borrow up to 95% of total building cost on a $6,000 home with 30 years to pay; up to 90% on a $7,000 home with 25 years to pay; and up to 80% on homes costing as much as $16,000, with 20 to 25 years to pay. The Ord non-profit group will build only in the $6,000 price class and the units probably will be non-basement houses of 5 rooms and bath, the rooms including kitchen with breakfast nook, living room, 2 bedrooms and utility room. When finished they will be ready to move into, complete with either oil or gas heating plant, all plumbing, interior decorating, sidewalks, etc. Construction will conform to the rigid FHA requirements which include full insulation, all wiring in metal conduits, properly seasoned lumber throughout, fire-proof roofing, etc. Houses of this type are being built elsewhere in Nebraska for $6,000 and less, where builders' profits are not involved.

Housing committee members believe that for every home so built and occupied in Ord, the housing unit now being occupied by that family will again be on the market for rental. Latest C. of C. surveys indicate a shortage of at least 40 housing units here, to accommodate known needs only, and Richard Rowbal, housing chairman, believes that next summer will see the need intensified because of the coming natural gas pipeline through this section, enlargement of pre-construction operations on the Davis Creek reservoir and other reclamation

Win Over Albion Puts Chant Team Back in Ratings

McBride Brings Ord Back Out of Discard and Into 10th Place.

It must have been Ord's sensational contest in which the Chants won a split second decision over Albion that did the trick. Anyway, Ord climbed back into Gregg McBride's charmed circle and again assumed tenth place in his Class "B" ratings this week.

The defeat, 27 to 53, at the hands of Minden the preceding week dropped Ord out of tenth place, which they had held the week before. However, a defeat at the hands of the top team in Class "B" is no disgrace, and Minden is using some of the same stars that made them such a power in football last fall.

Minden has knocked off Class "A" Kearney in a season without defeat to date. Holdgrege disposed of Class "A" Kearney and McCook and lost only to Minden to land in second place. The others in Class "B" are Omaha Holy Name, York, Lexington, Kimball, Sidney, Pawnee City and Lincoln College View, in that order.

'Home Rule Plan' Is Given Approval at Lincoln Meet

State Reclamation Group by Resolution Favors Principle.

The Nebraska Reclamation association in its meeting in Lincoln the past week put its stamp of approval on the principle of "Home Rule" for the big Missouri river basin projects now under construction. The closing session adopted a resolution by C. Petrus Petersen of Lincoln, calling for the formation of a regional governmental unit of states within the Missouri basin.

The association went along with its resolutions committee in declining to take a stand on the diversion of water from watershed to another. But there was talk around convention headquarters that the Central Nebraska Public Power and Irrigation district and the Midstate Reclamation district might get together on the troublesome diversion issue.

A compromise between these two would make it possible to propose acceptable legislation at the next legislative session and also enable the Pick-Sloan plan to proceed on a mutually agreeable basis. The meeting concluded with the election of directors and the nomination of a Nebraska member for the board of the national association.

New directors for the state association include William A. Stewart of Lexington, Fred A. Seaton of Hastings, A. E. Dwehus of Dannebrog, John F. Agee of Lincoln, Joe Jarvis of Omaha, Tom K. Eason of North Bend. Re-elected to the board was H. G. Greenamyre of Lincoln.

Speakers at the final session were Governor Val Peterson and Harry E. Polk of Williston, N. D., president of the National Reclamation association. The governor pointed out that under federal law, public agencies have a priority, and this places the state in an enviable position, in that Nebraska holds the key to the development of the upper Missouri basin.

Mr. Polk commended the governor for his stand with respect to irrigation and reclamation, especially his assurance that Nebraska

Special Meeting Planned by Lions at North Loup

Public Is Invited to Hear Talks on Irrigation Plans.

Of more than ordinary interest will be the meeting of the North Loup Lions club Thursday evening, Feb. 2, at the North Loup Community Hall. First, since this is perhaps the most important meeting of the year, a full attendance of members is urged.

The first part of the meeting, from 7 to 8 p. m., is for members only and a chicken dinner is to be served, the chickens being furnished by the Stine Hatchery, an event which has become an annual affair for this enterprising firm.

A number of important items of business will be brought up in this meeting, including plans for the selection of the outstanding citizen for 1950. The new dishes purchased by the Lions for the Community kitchen will be used for the first time.

Will Discuss Big Lake. At 8 p. m. the doors will be thrown open to the public and facts concerning the Loup River Basin Reclamation district will be discussed by a member or by members of the reclamation staff at St. Paul. It is also expected that there will be a representative present from the Region 7 office at Grand Island, possibly Paul L. Harley.

In view of the fact that the state department of irrigation has approved the application of the Loup River Basin Irrigation district and that its development is thus assured, this meeting should be of special interest.

This approval envisions the development of the huge storage dam on lower Davis Creek. As the lake thus formed will be in the four counties of Howard, Sherman, Greeley and Valley, people from a large area will be directly interested.

Ticket to Contain Unusual Number Candidates in '55

More Vacancies Than Any Time for Several Decades

This fall, due to a combination of circumstances, more offices will have candidates for them than at any time in the four year term law effect, it is believed.

First, there are the regular county offices to be elected; next there is the county judge, election to usually comes in the pre-election year.

Finally, there will be candidates to be elected in five of the supervisor districts in Valley. In fact, the only office which no election will be supervisors in Districts 4, 3 Appointees Serving.

This condition of affairs about because of the fact Charles Clochon, county serving by appointment, place is up for contest at general election. The same of LaVerne Johnson, appointee in District 2.

Lloyd Wilson is serving as treasurer by appointment; this is the regular election that office, so voters will treasurer at the usual time.

To be voted on in November, will be the following county clerk; county treasurer; county superintendent; judge; county sheriff; county clerk of district court; supervisors of Districts 5, 7.

This makes Ellsworth and E. O. Schudel the only who are certain of their job the November election. is a lack of interest in election, it should not be for offices to be filled.

in America, ld have more to think that eck hidden away
n extract funds purposes. They believe that he ging down into time to come,

even though they know that the outgo exceeds the income.
The public in one way or another has been the recipient of public funds for the past 18 years, and quite a percentage of our voters have been raised to believe that the way to get anything done is to get the government to furnish the funds, or at least to have the government subsidize the project, which amounts to the same thing in the end.

Today when a man cries out against excessive federal spending, and suggests that the budget be balanced, it is like a voice crying in the wilderness. Few people even hear, and many of those who hear pay no attention. The prophets are not only ignored, but in many cases they are denounced as reactionaries.

In days gone by a man who spent more than he earned was classed as a spendthrift and he was headed for the poor house. If he gave bad notes or checks, he went to prison. Today a spendthrift government has put every man, woman and child in the United States in debt in the amount of more than $2,700, and still refuses to even try to balance the budget.

If this is allowed to continue, the government will reach the poor house just as surely as would the individual who spent more than he earned. It is time that thinking people awake to the realization of the fact that no man, or group of men called a government can spend itself into prosperity. It is time to begin putting back into the old sock at least a part of what we have taken out.

Invitation to Steal.

To elect a man to public office over a long period of years is inviting him to steal. Valley county electors have now had occasion to learn this to their sorrow three different times. The only reason these large defalcations occur in the treasurer's office alone is that it is the only office handling large sums of money all the time.

Three times in local history have treasurers proved unfaithful to their trust, in the case of Abe Trout sixty years ago, of Lafe Paist 23 years ago, and now in the case of George Satterfield. The pity of it all is that the last loss might have been avoided.

The Nebraska legislature passed a law in the 1920s which made a man eligible to the office of county treasurer for only two successive terms. It was a good law, and should have continued on the statute books. But it was removed, and for no good reason.

That law made it mandatory for Lafe Paist to step out of the office at the end of the year 1926. His deputy, Ted Brown, was elected in his place, but died from heart trouble within a month, and the county board appointed Paist to fill the unexpired term.

In appointing Paist to the office the board was technically within its rights, but in effect was violating the principle of the law which prevented him holding the office by election. In December of that year it was learned that Mr. Paist was short in his accounts.

The two term law would have done little good in the Paist case, but would have been of great value if continued in preventing the loss of funds that has been revealed here this month. The fact that three treasurers have stolen from the county is proof that the law is needed.

It also proves that it is unsafe to trust any man with large sums of money over a long period of time without having an accounting at least once each year. The knowledge that his record must be clean every twelve months would certainly serve to prevent theft.

Further, the treasurer, with as much work to do as any county official and with the added responsibility of handling large sums of money, receives about the same salary as other county officials, far too little for the risk he assumes.

The Quiz believes that three things should be done in respect to the office of county treasurer:

- 1. The two term law should be put back on the statute books.
- 2. The law should be changed to require yearly checkup of the office by a certified public accountant.
- 3. The salary of the county treasurer should be increased to a point where it is commensurate with the responsibilities he assumes.

These editors who write agin potato salad can pick a fight with me any day.

Potato salad, good potato salad, is a wonderful dish. It is one of my favorite foods, and I'll defend it any place, any time, even against J. E. Lawrence of the Lincoln Star, and that implacable old potato salad joster, J Hyde Sweet of the Nebraska City News-Press.
In my view, the only thing better than potato salad is more of the same.

Shoes with wedgie soles are a comfort: they give a feeling of firm support all through the bot-

But in this snow, I find a defin-

That little heel catches hold firm-

Last week I mis-called Jim Ce-ring to George's family! Which he has none, only a wife to date, a fact which Mrs. Joyce Olsson promptly called to my attention!

I beg your pardon, George, and yours, Jim. And yours too, Joyce.

It seems good to see the Frank Fafaitas in Ord again. "Very Natural," as Digger O'Dell would say.

It also seems very natural to see Luella and Spot Johnson on our streets, even briefly.

This column should sound bang-y, or at the least, thump, thump and more thump-y. For we are in the throes of remodeling. And early (eight) and late (until five) the hammers go thumping, as plumbers, carpenters, electricians, heating experts and even linoleum layers cope and go, haul and pound, lift and drop things, sometimes upstairs, sometimes downstairs, sometimes in the basement.

We took off sixty feet of porch, good chiefly for keeping a poor benighted housewife at her sweep-

We closed up one door and put it in another. We enclosed the garage and hope by some magic to

We're going to have different heating, and warmer, and more uniform. We're going to have walks where they never were be-

We took out a high-up tub on legs and put in a low-down one on the floor. Better for not falling, house here and there, and to replace some dandelions with bluegrass, maybe. My neighbor, Miss Helen Collins, will be glad to learn that: she battles dandelions from May 'til December, never giving them any quarter. (She wouldn't give them a dime, either)

Gene thinks I should plan a rose bed so I'd "have something to worry about."

I think that's just what I'd have.
I do not have green thumbs nor fingers.

What grows in our yard has to grow in spite of me.

Outlays Other Breeds

You owe it to yourself to learn about Hy-Line chickens. You'll find it profitable to know about the breed that for four consecutive years outlay all standard breeds at the Illinois Egg Laying Test.

No wonder more and more poultry breeders in this part of the country are turning to Hy-Line flocks. Hy-Line birds on the farm are the same as the Hy-Line birds that won the Illinois test. They're potentially high producers with excellent livability and low feed consumption.

It will pay you many times over to investigate the genuine Hybrid chicken that outlays all the standard breeds!

Popularity Growing

In 1942 only 91,600 Hy-Line chicks were raised. By 1949 however, this number had grown to around 10,000,000. That's right! Over 20,000 breeders have learned that Hy-Lines produce.

With all your production costs still going up, you have to be sure that you get as much profit per bird as possible. That's why we give Hy-Line Chickens our unquestioned endorsement.

There is only one explanation for the fast-growing popularity of Hy-Lines. They've been proved on the farm. They produce as a flock on the farm. Those birds in the record breaking flocks in the test program weren't especially bred. They're exactly the same kind of birds that you can buy from your Hy-Line dealer.

Jacobsen-Bredthauer

Gladiolus and snapdragons decorated the altar of the Zion Lutheran church for the wedding Saturday afternoon of Miss Alice Jacobsen of Elba and Wm. Bredthauer of Scotia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jacobsen of Elba, who attended the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Cecil Bredthauer, who also attended. Rev. A. H. Wagner performed the 4:00 o'clock candlelight double ring ceremony. Mrs. M. G. Williams was pianist and Miss Barbara Ashley sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

White nylon net over taffeta was worn by the bride. The gown was fashioned with a floor length full skirt, fitted bodice that fastened down the front and completed by a nylon net stole. Her tiara was of orange blossoms and illusion. She carried a pink nosegay with a removable corsage. The old tradition was carried out. The pearls she wore were a gift of the groom, her earrings were borrowed, her handkerchief was old, her something blue was a garter, and a penny in her silver platform sandals.

Mrs. Harrison Beck was her only attendant. Her blue gown was made like that of the bride. Her tiara was of blue nylon net. She carried a yellow nosegay with a removable corsage.

The bridegroom wore blue. His best man was Harrison Beck, whose suit was grey. Lester Jacobson, brother of the bride and Gerald Daily, cousin of the groom were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a blue and grey two-piece, light wool suit, and the groom's mother chose a blue silk crepe gown. Both ladies wore carnation corsages.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, near Elba, following the ceremony. A three course dinner was served to forty relatives and friends. Patricia Bredthauer, Loradel Holt, Barbara and Anna Pederson served the dinner. Gladys Rasmussen had charge of the guest book. ## Your Commentator

By Jim Larkin

February weather can seldom win our praise, and most of us could get along without it. But, except in Leap Year, this month has two less days, which is, perhaps, the one good thing about it.

The increasing number of special "Days" and "Weeks" is somewhat confusing. Thus, my office neighbor, Gardner Meyst, thinking that it was one way to observe the occasion, ordered a minced-ham sandwich for his lunch on Ground Hog Day.

KEN KEENE THE CORNER DRUGGIST

Looking at a bronze bust of Abraham Lincoln, which occupies a niche above the prescription counter, Ken Keene remarked: "A good way for people to observe the coming birthday of that man, would be to reread and think about some of his common sense remarks. One of his reasons for wanting to free the slaves was that he believed every man was entitled to get and keep the money he earned. And remember, he said: 'Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; is a positive good to the world. That some should be rich shows that others can become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise.' I hope that those people who seem willing to give up this privilege and freedom may find an Emancipator when they have lost these blessings. They will want one."

J. O. Brannan, traveling salesman writes: "More power to that rational thinker, Ken Keene. We need more of such logic." Thanks, Jack.

A cold morning, a slow fire in the kitchen stove, and a sleepy dad, formed a bad combination, according to a recent news item. Pops wanted to pep up the fire with a little kerosene, but being drowsy, he made the mistake of using gasoline. The house was hot in a hurry, but the family members were colder than ever as they stood outside and watched the blaze. Be wide awake when handling any inflammable products, and avoid using them to start or stimulate a fire.

DEFINITIONS IN RHYME

Deviation from a common rule, or irregularity. Is covered by a useful word, which is ANOMALY.

AMENITY—the quality of being agreeable; of pleasant disposition. Should move you upward in your job and improve your position.

Hot soup on a cold day is great stuff—if eaten. But it is very bad when taken externally—as the result of a pan of it being knocked off the stove. Keep pan handles turned to back of the stove.

YOU HAVE YOUR SAY

Some budding Indiana poet, with the modest signature, "I. C." sends a post card bearing this little couplet:

It looks like spinsters' hood for Tilly; She says that Valentines are silly.

(Readers: Your letters or comments are welcome anytime. Address: Jim Larkin, 757 N. Broadway, Milwaukee 2, Wis.)

The instance of St. Valentine's Day recalls a poignant boyhood memory. I spent my hoard of pennies for a gorgeous, lacy tribute to a girl so supremely supernatural that I could not bring myself to sign the message. Knowing this, my aggressive pal, "Red" Davis, told the fair one he had sponsored the salute, and he was rewarded with a chaste (and it must have been wonderful) kiss. Thus began my extra-curricular education.

Weather Changes for Better Over Past Few Days

Low Temperature Period Comes to End, May Not Return Soon.

Nobody seems at all put out by the sudden change in temperature which got under way, Sunday, and bids fair to continue for a few days yet, according to the long range report. The rise of the mercury broke a continuous period of 15 days during which the low reading each morning was either zero or below.

Typical spring weather has prevailed for the past four days with low readings of 18, 23, 28 and 30, and high readings of 48, 49, 46 and 45. These figures are comparable with the usual readings in late March or early April. The snow has practically disappeared, and the ground is thawing.

With a few more days of the same kind the ice may go out in the river, and if this should occur, the chances of severely cold weather is remote. This does not mean that there could not be plenty of snow. Farmers are hoping for wet snow or early spring rains to make up for the deficiency of moisture during the past four or five months.

Corn is still being husked in a few places and in fields where the work needs to be done with a team. All the mechanical corn picking was out of the way some time ago. The corn still left in the fields has not suffered from exposure to the elements as it did last year, and most of the fields have been gleaned, so there is very little wasted.

Three Ord men got to comparing notes recently and found that time has been slipping past at a rapid pace. The have been in Ord in business now for nearly fifty years, and in all that time they they have been the closest of friends. They are Drs. Taylor and Gard and Druggist Ed F. Beranek. Dr. G. W. Taylor is the oldest of the trio, although he is still a very active man. He first came to Ord and went into dental work back in 1901, and he is now doing dental work for the great-grandchildren of some of his first patients.

Born in LaPorte, Ind., May 1, 1877, he received his education there, and played football on the high school team. After graduation he spent one year studying dentistry at the University of Tennessee, and then attended the dental department of the University of Illinois for two years, playing center on the college football team.

After passing his examination he came to Ord and opened his first office in the rooms above the Ord Grill in 1901. He remained there until 1920, when he moved to new rooms above the present Ruzicka Hardware. In 1939 he moved his dental parlors to his home at 1726 N. street. He married, in 1904, the former Maude Laverty, and they have two sons, Wilbur, who is a merchant in Culver, Ind., and Harold, who is with the Hested company at Aurora, Neb. They have four grandchildren. Dr. Taylor recalls playing just one game of football after coming to Ord, and that was against Central City in the fall of 1903.

However, he helped out with coaching football for a year or two when Ord high was getting the game started. He was also interested in baseball and was a member of the managing board of the Ord team for several years.

Hospital Laundry Equipment Comes After Much Delay

All Rooms Now Ready for Patients; Some Items Must Wait.

The Ord Cooperative hospital is now much better equipped since the arrival and installation of the laundry equipment which was ordered a long time ago but arrived only recently. The laundry room is still lacking a few items, however.

As soon as the beds in the hospital are rearranged accommodations can be made for patients in every room. There is still a need for a few bedside tables, and three is only one crib. If anyone feels like donating a crib, the hospital certainly could use a few more.

The bassinets are all here for the nursery, and some of the laboratory equipment is here, but not all of it. A check of the register shows that the hospital has had 69 in-patients to date, as well as quite a number of out-patients who have come in for treatment but do not occupy a bed.

For reasons of economy the hospital is operating with as small a force as possible, and for this reason visitors are urged to come only at the specified visiting hours of 2:30 to 4:00 p. m. and 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. Visitors who for any reason cannot come at these hours should obtain permission at the office before going to any of the rooms.

Funeral Thursday for P. E. Pocock

Corn Storage Bin Space Available Near North Loup

Huge Quonset Built There and at Arcadia, Capacity 40,000 Bu.

At the corn storage site about a mile southwest of North Loup on the North Loup-Arcadia highway, a huge quonset building is being erected this week which will have capacity for the storing of 40,000 bushels of corn. The concrete foundation for this building was laid some time ago by a contractor from Kansas, who also laid the foundation for a similar bin in Arcadia.

The erecting contractors are Roy and Von Aildredge and Gerald Plantz all of Colby, Kas. They have the contract for the building of a large number of these bins in various parts of Nebraska. This bin will increase to about 110,000 bushels the total bin capacity at North Loup.

Dell F. Barber, who is in charge of the binsite at North Loup, stated this week that his eight plywood bins were filled to capacity, but that the 12 quonsets, each 20 by 56 feet in size, were not ready in time to be filled while the rush was on. He says there is plenty of corn available in the area to more than fill all the bin space.

Mr. Barber was in charge also of erecting the eight plywood bins last fall. These are all filled, and the plywood is bulging some in the middle, but there is no likelihood of it giving away, it is believed. The small quonset huts have plywood floors, and for this reason are not filled as deeply as the concrete floored bins will be.

The local PMA office has 94,000 bushels of 1948 corn in storage at the present time, and about 100,000 of the 1949 crop has been sealed on the farms. With such a supply of corn on hand, there is little likelihood of a serious corn shortage in case of a crop failure.

Company Finishes Erection Work on Section 'C', REA

Local Office Now Has 1200 Farms Served in County and Area.

The Delta Construction company of Clarksville, Miss., has finished all construction of Section "C" REA in this area. Most of the crew left for Mississippi Monday, leaving Supt James E. Hamilton, Bookkeeper Lillie Crawford and Charles Roper and W. L. McGee a few days to do the clean-up work, which was to be finished Wednesday evening.

Tuesday, Manager Hollands said that all the members on Section "C" would be energized this week, about 400 in number, and that this would bring to 1,200 the number of members now serviced. Plans are progressing for Section "D." Mr. Hollands said, but there is nothing definite to report as yet.

It will be remembered that it is now just a little more than a year since the first farms were energized in Valley county, the exact date being Sunday, Jan. 15. This means that members have been added at the rate of four every working day since that time, which is some record, last winter considered.

A. D. Robinson First Valley County Treasurer to Show Shortage in Cash

The Quiz, it appears did not go quite far enough back in its story of former defalcations in the county treasurer's office in last week's issue. There were four, and not three county treasurers whose books showed a shortage. Abe Trout was not the first of the group whose records were in arrears.

In justice to Mr. Trout it should be stated that he inherited his shortage. A. D. Robinson, who preceded him in office by four years, was the first man whose books failed to balance, but it seems that Trout took over the office and accepted the figures given him by Robinson, which later were proved incorrect.

The records in the treasurer's office were clear in January, 1884, when the new treasurer, A. D. Robinson, took charge. The records then showed a total of less than $7,000 on hand. The three commissioners who accepted Peter Mortensen's report were H. A. Chase, I. N. Swan and D. P. Davis.

Robinson held the office until January, 1888, and turned it over to Mr. Trout, who held it until

Quiz Honored by Association

Quiz Industries was signally honored this week when The Nebraska Newspaper, official publication of the Nebraska Press Association and the College of Journalism, University of Nebraska, selected the organization for a multi-page write-up of the growth and development of the Quiz and its associated divisions.

Dr. Wm. Swindler, head of the University of Nebraska School of Journalism, did the editorial work for the article, and Ed Swopes, of Ord, was engaged by the magazine to furnish pictures.

"The Ord Quiz has developed into a fabulous industry," Swindler wrote. "In a town of 2,400 population on the edge of the Nebraska sandhills is a publishing enterprise, centered around a newspaper plant, but extensive enough to embrace a variety of related activities, whose name is a byword wherever printing and engraving is bought and sold, from coast to coast and in various foreign lands."

The article, which takes up six pages of pictures and features in the magazine, describes the equipment and physical plant of the Quiz, individual interviews with E. C. Leggett and H. D. Leggett, executives of Quiz Industries, tells of the large number of magazines which come to Quiz for printing, engraving or both, and other features of the business.

Fact Finding Meet on Housing Called for Thursday Eve

Everyone Interested in Low Cost Housing to Come to K. C. Hall.

Everyone interested in low cost housing, either as a prospective buyer or tenant, contractor or builder, supplier or owner of lots on which houses might be built, is invited to attend a housing meeting being held at 7:30 p. m., Thursday evening, Febr. 9, at the K. of C. hall, in Ord, under auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber's housing committee has been investigating the possibility of building with FHA-insured financing and has a wealth of facts to present at this meeting.

Principle need now is to determine what Ord's housing needs actually are — how many people are prepared to make the necessary down payments to acquire new homes if such are built, how many will need more modern rental housing, what lots are available within present city limits on which to build, etc.

Tuesday evening the Chamber's housing committee, with Richard Rowbal presiding, held a well-attended and interesting meeting at which facts about FHA-insured financing were secured from Shirley Norton, of York, who finances such housing on behalf of one of the nation's largest life insurance companies.

His company will provide money for building any house approved by the FHA, up to the full commitment made by that organization, Mr. Norton told the committee, whether the approved application comes from an individual or from the proposed non-profit housing corporation here.

On a house approved for $7,500 valuation by FHA, his company will loan $6,700 to an approved individual building it for occupancy, he said, which is a loan of approximately 90%. Thus a down payment of $800 would be needed and the loan would amortize over a period of 25 years, including interest, principal, local taxes and insurance, with a payment of approximately $47.00 per month. To be approved for such a loan, an individual would have to show monthly earnings of approximately $160.00, Norton said.

A house given a valuation of $6,500 by FHA would qualify for a slightly higher percentage loan, with a slightly smaller down payment—perhaps as little as $600—and monthly payments to amortize it would be somewhat smaller, as would be monthly earnings required to qualify.

Norton was inclined to discourage building by a local non-profit corporation formed for that purpose. He has seen two such attempts made and both stopped short of completion of their announced programs, he said. People have different ideas on what they want in a house and it is better to let each file his own house plan and application for an FHA loan than to build a group of houses all alike and perhaps have them fail to meet the approval of prospective buyers, is his opinion.

Ord seems due for a housing boom this summer, regardless of how the present Chamber-sponsored program goes. E. R. Horner, local builder, who is just completing a 5-room house with attached garage and full basement to sell for around $7,250, says he will build at least five more homes in Ord this summer for re-sale. John Wojtaszek expects to build 3 or 4. A Grand Island contractor, Paul Abrahamson, is said to be interested in building 10 to 20 houses here under FHA terms, for resale.

Everybody interested in housing in any way should be present at the public meeting tonight. Information on building with FHA and GI loans will be available and the entire question of housing will be up for thorough discussion.

Chants Lead Loop With Four Wins

Ord and Superior, winners of the north and south division crowns in Trans-Nebraska football play, seem determined to add the basketball crowns to their trophy cases, as well.

Ord, with four wins and no losses, rules the roost in the northern circuit, while Superior is tied with Minden, in the southern division, with two wins and no losses.

Loup City, with a three and one record, is in second place in the northern division race; Broken Bow holds third spot with three victories and two defeats; Burwell has one win and two losses, and a hapless Ravenna crew has been walloped six times without tasting victory.

Sutton, Geneva, and Crete bring up the rear of the southern division caravan in that order. Only one conference game is

At different periods they lived at Seneca and Baileysville, Kans., and at Burwell, Kent and Pawnee City, Neb.

He is survived by his widow, and two daughters and one son: Mrs. Glen (Helen) Herbst of Kearney; Mrs. H. D. (Betsy) Leggett, Ord; and Willard Bloss of Wellsville. ### General Fund of County Lost $420 Loan to Weed Fund

State Auditors to Return Next Week for Further Search

The total loss in county due to the manipulations of late George Satterfield may be from $11,000 to $12,000, county attorney Ralph Norman told Quiz today.

"That's my estimate right based on actual amounts we were stolen," the county attorney said. "A further search of records is bound to bring at least a few more items to light."

Norman said that the latest closure was a $1200 dip into county general fund, made through a transfer to the weed fund 1947.

At that time, the newly granted noxious weed contract needed funds to purchase spraying equipment, vehicle and other equipment. They had money, but expected to have within a year through tax collections for which a nine-tenth levy had been made. On Oct. 18, the board of supervisors agreed to loan the district $1200 from general fund, the loan to be paid when tax collections were sufficient.

On August 23, 1948, the auditor of the weed district gave Satterfield a check for $1200 to burse the county general fund. Records of the treasurer show that Satterfield kept the amount on his cash book for about a year, then it mysteriously disappeared.

The county general fund never reimbursed. Within a few days of receipt the $1200, Satterfield purged this amount in government. Although auditors have a record of purchase of the bonds themselves have found.

Norman told the Quiz in response to the proclamation last week's issue of the around eighty persons had called his office to show their receipts. "Only one of these, S. shows evidence of fraud," Norman said. This receipt involves $586.00 payment of special assessments and interest in the Ord main outlet sewer.

Eleven tax transactions in fraud is evident or expected now being traced by Norman. Others are expected to be up when members of the auditor's staff return here week to complete their search of the county books.

Representatives of the Chesutes Bonding Co., which the county treasurer's bond in Ord Monday gathering information they could.

According to Norman, against the bonding company not be started until both the state auditors are paid they have determined the total to the county. "I don't want any trouble getting record Norman said.

Valley county supervisors their regular meeting Tuesday voted an emergency additional $1500 to the county athletic budget to allow him to hire additional help he would cover expenses such as phone calls connected with Satterfield case.

City of Wayne Raises Salaries of Officials

The city council of Wayne took a forward step last week when they footed an increase in salary to all the city officials. The present salaries were fixed back in a day when Wayne was a small town and the duties of its officials were light.

Today much more is required of a city official than in the old days, and the council realized this fact when they established the new wage scale. The law will go into effect in May, 1950, unless the state supreme court rules favorably on a similar ordinance now before it and permits immediate use of the new rate.

The new ordinance would give the mayor $500 per year, the councilmen $250 per year each, the treasurer $250, the city attorney $750, the city clerk $500 and the police magistrate $150. This is in line with a 1949 legislative act permitting councils to vote higher salaries.

Burglars Busy at Sargent Recently

Last week three Sargent business places were entered with the evident intent to rob, but the thieves got only about $10 in cash and a small amount of merchandise. The McGregor blacksmith shop was entered, but nothing seemed to be missing.

At Greene's Service station entrance was gained through a small window in the men's rest room and seven or eight dollars in change was taken. A small side window was broken in the Gunnarson Service station and a dollar or two was taken and a quantity of gum, candy and peanuts was missing.

Goff Spotted Poland Hog Sale Successful

The Spotted Poland China hog sale, held by Clifford Goff and Sons, of Burwell, at the Ord Livestock Market, Wednesday, Feb. 1, was one of the best ever held here. Buyer's agreed that the Goff offering was the best they had seen, and Mr. Goff said that, considering present conditions, the sale was the best he had ever held.

Sixty head of sows were sold at prices ranging downward from a top of $350, for an average of $180.88. Five went to Iowa, four to South Dakota, two to New Mexico, one each to Texas and Illinois, five to the territory adjacent to Ord, and the rest scattered over the state. ## Quiz Ranked Among State's Top Printing Plants, Report Shows

Quiz Industries, of Ord, has been ranked among the state's top printing plants, both in number of employees and volume of sales, according to a report issued this week by the Nebraska Resources Committee.

A total of 42 publishing and printing plants in the state have over 20 employees, according to the report. The Quiz, with 52 full and part time workers, ranks toward the head of this list.

Surprising to most people is the fact that printing and publishing is Nebraska's second largest industry, ranking second only to food processing. Manufacturing of machinery is in third place.

Last year the state's 450 printing establishments had 4,066 employees, paid wages amounting to $10,057,000, and added value by processing of $21,505,000.

145 Years Business Activity in Ord by Trio, All Still Active

He served three or four terms of the Ord school board, and he and Supt. Charles Bowers were the moving factors in getting Ord its new high school building, which is a credit to any community. He was president of the Loup Valley Agricultural society in 1917. He held the office of Grand Chancellor of Knights of Pythias in 1920.

Dr. George R. Gard comes second in order of age, but has been in business longest of the trio. Son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave A. Gard, he was born at the now defunct city of Kent, between Taylor and Burwell, Sept. 6, 1879. The family lived there until 1887, when they moved to Ord.

Gard was 8 years old at the time, so he got most of his education in the schools of Ord. He got his dental training at the Omaha Dental college, later taken over by Creighton. He took the Nebraska state examination in 1900 and came at once to Ord, where he opened private practice just fifty years ago.

He went back to Omaha and took a finish-up course in 1901. He opened his office here first in the upstairs part of Clements Bros. law office, later bought by the Marks sisters, and now occupied by Radl with his linoleum shop.

That building was a busy place in those days with the lawyers holding forth below, and Dr. Gard and Photographer H. G. Westburg occupying the upper floor. The doctor remained there until 1901, when Peter Mortensen completed the north half of the Mortensen block, the lower part of which is now occupied by the Ord Bakery and the Gamble store.

As soon as the rooms were ready Dr. Gard moved into one suite of front rooms upstairs, and Dr. C. A. Brink occupied the other suite. Here he remained until 1910, when he moved to the Firkins building, now the Auble building, on the north side of the square. There he remained until 1944, when he moved to his present location in the Ord Theater building.

Dr. Gard is married, and has one son, Paul, who is married and is farming near Olean. He is not sorry that he decided early in life to cast his lot with Ord. He has served on the Ord school board and on the city council, and one term as Ord township treasurer.

Dr. Gard did not go in so much for football or baseball, but he has been a golf enthusiast for many years, and on occasion he has played a round occasionally with his dentist friend, Dr. Taylor. In fact, both of them have played against the third member of the trio, Ed Beranek.

The third member of the group, Ed F. Beranek, was born at Carroll, Ia., and came to Ord with his parents when he was three years old. He lived here until he was ten, when the family moved to Schuyler.

Ed came back to Ord in 1900 and went to work in the drug store of J. E. Busch, whom many of the old timers will doubtless remember. His store was in the location where Ringling now is, and Mr. Busch owned about the finest set of counters and display cases in this part of the state at the time.

Yes, Ed and his long, curly locks came to Ord to start working in the drug business in 1900. Ed is still in business here, but the curly locks are gone. He worked three years for Busch and then one year for Earl Brink, and then bought Busch out.

He then went to Omaha where he worked for the Sherman Connell Drug company four years learning the business. When he passed the state examination came to Ord and on April 26, bought out the drug store of C. Luse, which was located where Osborn Shoe store now is.

He remained there until when acquired the location on west side where his store now and built his first building on site. Before that time the site had been occupied by a couple of little wooden buildings, relics of the pioneer days.

Jan. 29, 1919, came the fire which destroyed the Beranek Bailey buildings, and he lost building and stock. Fred E. Erd was running a drug store at that time in the building where Absalon Variety now is, and anek bought him out.

That spring he built his present store on the west side and there ever since. Beranek did some class ball playing in Ord the first time he was in and he has always been interested in all kinds of sports. He quite a collection of early sports pictures of which he is proud.

In 1913 Ed Beranek married Tillie Zilman. They have two children, Floyd, who married E. Norris, and who is in business his father, and Mary, wife of Bradley, who lives in Denver.

Many Win Degrees at State University

Ord is well represented by graduates at the University of Nebraska at the end of the first semester. A total of 600 students won degrees at the end of the semester in January, and five Ordites among them.

Dolores M. Greenwalt, Debra D. Mathausser, Lydia A. M. S. Son and Dolores K. Spedel all degrees of Bachelor of Science Education, and Eldon E. Matlter becomes a Master of Science.

Of special interest is the fact that three of the Ord graduates are members of the Emil Mathausser family. Eldon Mathausser, their son and Deloris is Ed's wife. Lydia is the former I. Mathausser and is the wife of Severson.

Dolores Greenwalt is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Green. Dolores Spedel is the former (Dot) Kokes, daughter of Mrs. Mrs. E. L. Kokes.

North Loup and Arcadia have a representative in the graduating class, and both received degree as Bachelor of Science Agriculture. The North Loup is Warren F. Brannon, and Arcadian is Richard J. G. brother of Bill Gogan of the high school faculty.

School Location Pose Interesting Problem

The Joe Spilnek, who lives on the Calamus river above Burwell had State Superintendent out there for an interesting discussion last week. Most of Spilnek land is on the west side of the Calamus in Dist. 20, county, but they live on the side of the river.

For this reason it is ten by the nearest route from Spilnek home to the school plain sight across the river. They were asking that their land be placed in Dist. 16 in Garden county, which is much nearer Supt. Reed has the matter under advisement.

Valley County Is Average in Levy

According to a report issued by State Auditor Ray Johnson, Valley county with a county levy of 4.51 mills is about average for Nebraska. The honor of being lowest in Nebraska goes to Fillmore county, of which Geneva is the county seat with 3 mills. Fillmore was third from lowest the two preceding years.

Under the new law a limitation of 5 mills was set on county levies, and only one county, Hayes, Hayes Center, county seat, ran above this, with a levy of 6.44
mills. Thirty seven counties levied the full five mills, while fifty-five came under the five mill limit.

Five counties make a one mill levy for rural road improvements, and 19 make levies for hospitals, court houses or jails. The only special levy in Valley county is one of .02 for the noxious weed district.

Ord Cagers Fall to Sutton, 44-34

The Ord Chanticleers lost at inter-sectional Trans-Nebraska basketball game to Sutton last Friday by a 44-34 count, after leading early in the game and fading badly in the last quarter.

Ord led 6-3 at the end of the first period, but at halftime the Sutton lads had knotted the count at 12-all. At the end of the third canto, Sutton held a slender 27-26 lead and outscored Ord 17-8 in the final frame to pile up the ten-point margin.

Untersher scored 14 points for the winners while Richardson was high for the Chants with nine points. Falter added eight tallies for Ord.

Mrs. Wellman Dies at Santa Barbara

Mrs. Mary M. (Linda) Wellman of 1128 Bath St., Santa Barbara, Calif., passed away recently at a hospital there. Linda Dowhower, as she will be remembered here,
was born August 1, 1881, in Ord, and graduated from Ord high school, class of 1899.

She was married to Clyde E.
Wellman and with her husband moved to Santa Barbara in 1918.
Mr. Wellman passed away in 1943.
Surviving relatives include a daughter, Mrs. Wilma Klein of Los

480 Farm to Be Sold at Auction

Because the business of running a bakery is "a lot more work than we thought," Hugh Carson is selling his 480 acre dry land farm north of Springdale at public auction, and will also place other farm holdings, north of the river, on the market.

"Running down these new fixtures really takes time," Carson said. "And we have a lot more items to get before we have a complete, modern place." Latest acquisition at the bakery is a self-contained electric grill for serving of hot dogs and hamburgers.

Ewing Men Killed in Plane Accident

Clarence E. Shaw, 43, and Albert J. Daniels, 37, were found dead in the wreckage of their light plane in a hayfield near Chambers. Shaw was an oil dealer and Daniels a trucker. Apparently they had gone out to spot coyotes.
They left Ewing about 4:30, at which time the coyotes are usually on the move.

They made a brief stop at a farm home near Chambers half an hour later. When they failed to return, planes from a number of towns joined in the search the next morning. The plane was found badly wrecked, both men were dead and their bodies were frozen.

were alive and well then at their time until the Week, which April. However, to be planning one this spring which we live the eye. Such of dead branch-shrubbery and loose rubbish can be done any more progress the beauty of accidentally, the in mind all such people live the lead in looking its best contrast be and others the people ter homes re-

It takes money to repaint and rebuild, and not everybody can afford to do these things. But all that is required to give a home that neat, orderly appearance is a little time and attention from day to day. Keeping everything in order is the most essential item in having a good looking home. There is the home, for instance, where the ashes are carried out and piled in half a dozen places in the winter, or, worse still, scattered all over the landscape.

By keeping everything picked up and in order, many of the home accidents which occur all too often may be avoided. Check over the local accidents of the past year, and you will be surprised to note how many were the direct result of something being out of place at the wrong time. Anyone who has got out of bed in the dark and who has fallen over some obstruction in the room knows just what is meant.

Another important argument in favor of neatness is the fire hazard point of view. Hundreds of fires are started every year from causes that could have been avoided if proper precautions had been used. The first warm day it might be well to check the chimneys and see that no cracks have developed during the winter. If they have, they should be taken care of at once.

During a protracted cold spell, and immediately after it, it is important to keep in mind that dead air is not necessarily warm air, and it certainly is not healthy air. Try opening the doors and windows for a short time the warmer part of the day, letting germ laden air out and fresh air in. Yes, start that spring cleaning program now, and you will be surprised to note how much easier the job will be when Clean-up Week arrives.

Locker Plants Burn.

Last week two unusual fires occurred in Nebraska, unusual in the type of building in which the fire occurred. No one would even imagine much danger of fire in a locker plant, where the idea is to keep the temperature down and not up. About the only heat needed in such a building is generated by the engine which keeps up the pressure.

In the first of these fires a locker plant and building at Dunning, Nebr., burned. It was a brick-veneered building and contained 550 lockers, and the temperature in most of the building must have been too cool for comfort, before the fire, that is.

In this particular locker plant a back room was used for the trying out of lard, and the lard was being made when the fire started. Somebody apparently became careless and did not watch the fire closely enough, probably lulled into a false sense of security because of the cold nature of the building.

As a result of that fire the owner or the insurance company, or both, took a loss estimated at $25,000, and the Dunning Fire department had a most interesting evening with the thermometer below zero. The only happy result was that nobody died in the fire, or was even hurt.

The other fire, occurred at Wayne, Nebr., where the fire hid from the firemen, who spent more time hunting for it than they did putting it out. Incidentally they probably did more damage cutting holes in the building than the fire itself did.

Like the Dunning fire, this fire was in a locker plant. To be accurate, the locker plant occupied the ground floor of the building and a beauty shop was located up stairs. When finally found, the fire was between the ceiling of the locker plant and the floor of the room above.

The fire in this case was traced to a boiler in the back part of the building which was used to heat the top floor, and the pipes were located beneath the floor. There was plenty of smoke, and they cut several holes in the ceiling and floor before they located the blaze.

In this case, also there was cause for congratulation, as nobody was killed or injured, and the firemen got the fire out with a property damage estimated at from $750 to $1000. The loss of the building would no doubt have meant ten times that amount.

Behind it all is the false sense of security a person is apt to feel when the building concerned is one with which nobody would connect a fire. No doubt all concerned felt that there was no chance of that type of building catching fire. But fire is no respecter of people or buildings.

A few years ago, when ice was put up in the winter and peddled through the summer, one of the most common fires of the times was the ice house fire. The ice would not burn, it is true, but the straw in which it was packed would, and did, burning the building with it and leaving the ice bare.

It is time the public recognized fire for what it is, Public Enemy No. 1. It is time that everybody use every precaution in handling fire. Fire causes greater loss in the United States each year than any other single agency. It is a good servant, but a heartless master. Keep it in its place.

What's Cookin' Ward's Column

This is no time to be telling fish stories, but there is one about Thearon Beehle that couldn't be told at a better time. It happened in December, after the cold weather had set in and there was plenty of ice on the streams. One day Thearon appeared on the west side of the square with two fine carp which he said he had caught. The proof was there, all right, because the fish were still alive. He said he had caught them by cutting a hole through the ice. He got away with the story with several people, but finally the truth came out. A fish truck had been in town that day with a lot of fine carp that had been seined out of a lake somewhere, and they were selling them out to anybody who wanted to buy.

The object in telling this is to show that Thearon is a fisherman, and like all true fishermen, he always tells the truth. To show to what extent he will go to make his stories true, he even asked the man who sold him the fish to "Throw them to me, please." Surprised at such a request, the man asked why he wanted the fish thrown at him, and Beehle, who cannot tell a lie, replied: "The boys will be asking me where I got these fish, and now I can truthfully say I caught them." By the way, winter caught carp are fine eating, but you have to know where the fish are spending the winter. After cutting a hole in the ice it is usually quite easy to get them to bite on canned corn.

Things are getting back to normal in some respects, at least. For a number of years now cottontail rabbits have been very scarce, probably due to the large number of coyotes, who depend on their food supply. Since the war extermination of the coyotes has been going on every year, until today their numbers are about back to normal. With the going of the coyotes the rabbit population has increased, and today there are quite a number in the county. If this increase continues, we may again see them in every clump of weeds and bushes in the country.

I was walking up the street one day last week after the snow, when I saw a rabbit come from the south, cross the street and disappear behind the buildings to the north. He came right down the middle of North Loup's busiest intersection. Apparently he makes his home under the lumber in the North Loup Lumber company's yard, which makes an ideal hiding place. There are a number of other bunnies in North Loup, and one of them came up to the back yard at the Lou Sheldon place early one morning to eat some pieces of pancake Mrs. Sheldon had thrown out for the birds. It will be a fine thing when they become sufficiently numerous to furnish a rabbit fry now and then.

Young people are always looking for a thrill, they tell us. Most of our highway accidents in which young people are involved are caused by excessive speed, indulged in because of the thrill it brings. Every now and then we hear the sordid story of some young fellow who commits murder or other crimes just for the thrill. It is the thrill of it that attracts young people into such sports as hockey, skiing, tobogganing, mountain climbing, auto racing and flying planes. There seems to be no limit to the things some young people will do for the thrill of having their hearts jump up into their throats.

Now here is a tip. If you want a thrill, one that will not endanger any life but your own, get out some morning when the thermometer is away down below zero and the wind is blowing the snow so you can hardly see where you are going. Get out before daylight and start out up the road, right into the teeth of the gale. Stay with it until you are so plastered with snow that you look like the rest of the landscape. Feel that peculiar tingle of your face that is the forerunner of frost-bite. After walking three or four miles under those conditions, get inside and warm up, but not too fast. Feel the resurgence of blood all over your body. If you have the intestinal fortitude to try it once you will agree that all other thrills in the world cannot compare with a battle with nature and the elements.

Something Different

Did I ever tell you about my mother? There's no one else like her" is the inevitable concluding remark of anyone who mentions her.

She has never been satisfied to keep house only, but has been a business woman too. From a family of builders, she has been especially interested in building houses, beginning by drawing the floor plans. Many is the evening I have seen her pondering "where to put another closet."

Every detail of the construction she minded herself, keeping the needed supplies on hand and the workmen busy. Often she would take a hand herself, if she wanted a certain color of stain on the woodwork, or a particular color in the bathroom. She would experiment until she got the stucco a pink that did not fade, though all paint experts assured her it couldn't be done.

When the house was finished she might sell it, or she might rent it, but it wouldn't be too long before she was trying to improve something else.

When one was finished she liked to exhibit it, and as we walked through it she would point out the errors. "Now this room is a little too long to be in the best proportion" . . . etc. Invariably these remarks she ended with "I guess the perfect house just hasn't been built."

For a number of years she has had heart trouble though it was almost impossible to get her to admit it. And for her to slow down seemed equally impossible. . . a fast pace was her gait, and that's the way she worked.

Card parties made her nervous and were a waste of time; "too many people gabbing" wore her out. But to sit down and work out a complicated schedule of interest payments wasn't wearing.

Once she was prevailed upon to take an interest in the Alliance Woman's club, a group of several hundred. It wasn't long before she became president and believe me things hummed. They put more money in their building fund those two years than they have before or since. They had quiz programs on current events long before the radio did.

Purebred stock is a great love of her life. She likes to look after them, though she isn't able. She says it relaxes her!

A year or two ago she wrenched her knee very badly. It swelled up and was painful for several weeks. How on earth did it happen, I inquired.

Why, there'd been a storm and she was worrying about some of her stock, and when she went out to her "farm" the barnyard gate was frozen in the ice. So she climbed the fence, falling as she went to jump down into the corral.

I proceeded to give her the dickens. "A fine thing," said I, "a person seventy years old trying to climb over that high fence! No wonder you got hurt!"

"And do you know what her rebuttal was?"

"I'll have you know I'm not seventy years old!"

She can be counted on for the unexpected.

So I suppose I shouldn't have been too surprised when she had to have an emergency appendectomy Tuesday night of last week.

Nobody knew she had an appendix!

—Irma.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

Dear Hearts and Gentle People, Who Live in my home town.

The writer of this song evidently did not have the Ord Quiz in mind when he penned these lines.

No, Mr. Leggett, I did not wish an extra copy of your latest edition. I felt that something unclean had entered into our home.

It's true, the news must be printed and the people warned, but was it necessary to smear the front page in this sensational manner? All of us are quite familiar with the faces of our county officials, and your star reporter, Ed Apking. Surely they are not front page copy.

You call yourself the family newspaper. You speak so proudly of your Quiz family. Then why was it necessary to crucify an innocent and suffering family? Couldn't it have been handled in a more dignified manner and a kinder one?

If Uncle Sam suddenly decided to make a sweeping investigation of the income taxes reported in Valley county, I am sure most of us would quake in our boots, because we too, had been dishonest in little things.

Our Master has said, "Let he who is among you without sin, cast the first stone."

Sincerely, Joyce Olsson

Six Cars Figure in Accidents in Storm Saturday

No Serious Injuries Reported When Many Autos in Collision.

What might well be classed as a "comedy of errors" occurred Saturday evening when no less than six autos figured in accidents at a point on highway 11 west of the Bud Knapp place. Apparently it was all caused by the snow, which was falling and blowing at the time and rendered visibility almost zero.

Dudley Huribert reached that point in the highway about 5 p. m., and was forced to drive off the road when a tire blew out. He left his car well to one side of the right of way and went for a wrecker to tow his car in.

Reynard Loft came up the highway at about 8 p. m., almost missed seeing the Huribert car until he was passing it. He backed up to render aid, if needed, found the car unoccupied and then was unable to start his own motor.

A Lincoln man came along about that time, gave Loft a push to start his motor. The Loft car, motor idling, was standing in the road, while the owner waited for the Lincoln man to get his car in the clear. Eugene Ingraham came along, passed the Lincoln car and drove into the back end of the Loft car, which he had not seen until too late.

The impact drove the Loft auto ahead, Reynard's head hit the back glass in the coupe and the glass cut a gash requiring two stitches to close. The front of the Ingraham auto was badly damaged.

Before the trouble ended an auto belonging to Lumir John and still another, owner unknown, figured in the mixup. Luckily for all concerned, nobody was seriously hurt, and damage to autos is covered by insurance. The incident brings home the fact that this particular spot on the highway is dangerous to travel in time of storm.

Furniture Store, Bank Destroyed in Sargent Blaze

Fire Strikes Early Monday Morning, Put Out After 3 Hours.

A three-hour blaze, early Monday morning, destroyed the Spooner Furniture Store and gutted the Farmers State bank, in Sargent.

The fire started shortly after 3 a. m., and volunteer firemen battled for three hours in freezing weather, before the fire was controlled.

Firemen were aided by snow, heaped on the roofs of nearby buildings, in keeping the fire from spreading.

The fire started in the Spooner building and spread to the bank through a hole in the brick wall of the bank, where water pipes had been laid.

The fire department had made every effort to protect the bank, but were stymied when the blaze spread from inside the building.

No official estimate of the damage has been given, but both buildings were rendered unusable. Part of the contents in the bank vault was undamaged.

The Abbott building, a brick structure adjoining the bank, was saved, as was the Milt Shettron Shoe Shop, a frame building next to the furniture store. Some smoke and water damage was reported at the shoe shop.

An early report credited David James, owner of a variety store, in Sargent, with turning in the alarm. At about the same time, Oscar Melham, Sargent merchant, noticed the fire and turned in an alarm. The night marshal, who goes off duty at five o'clock, reported that he noticed nothing unusual before he went home.

Jim Peterson, one of the firemen, was cut on the back of his hand when the glass broke from a door he was opening.

The bank was the same one in which the late George Satterfield was cashier.

Firemen said the conflagration might have been started by defective wiring.

Loup National Farm Loan Group Here Next Monday

James B. Ollis, secretary-treasurer, will present the credit co-operative's annual report.

Cummins Reports Three Land Sales

Farm land is moving in this section, reports M. B. Cummins, head of Cummins Realty company, of Ord. In the past week he has sold three places, two at private sale and one at auction.

The 160 acre farm of Josie and Charles Moravec was sold privately to Emil Bonne for $10,500; the 40 acre irrigated tract, owned by Wilmer Nelson, was sold to Carl Young for $8,000, at private sale; Ivan Anderson's acreage, in Scotia, was sold at auction to Louie Swanson, consideration being $4,000.

All these places were advertised in the Quiz and many inquiries came in about them, Cummins says.

Fined for Speeding

Valley County Community Song Group to Sing

The Valley County Community Chorus, under the sponsorship of the Entertainment Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, is soon to begin rehearsal on Alfred Gaul's oratorio, "The Holy City," for presentation on Easter Sunday night, April 9. This will be the third performance by the chorus, the first two being, respectively, the May Festival, and Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah."

Rehearsals are scheduled on Thursday evenings, from 8:30 to 9:30, beginning on February 16, and will be held at the high school, either in the auditorium or in the music room. Membership in the chorus is open to all persons over high school age who have had choral experience, either in school or in church choirs. Twenty students from the high school have been selected to participate in the production.

"There were 75 in the May Festival Chorus," remembers John Andersen, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, "and we hope to have at least that many this time."

As has been the custom, this will be an entirely local project, all soloists being chosen from among our own Valley County musicians. The chorus will be under the direction of Mrs. Leslie C. Nash, with Mrs. Don Edwards as accompanist.

County Fair Board Considering Light Question of Track

Cost May Prevent Use of Plan Noted in Quiz Last Week.

The idea advanced last week of the use of large racing cars for the Valley County fair in 1950 has been the subject of considerable discussion since that time. The idea was advanced by Jay Auble, a member of the fair board, and was his idea rather than the consensus of opinion of the board.

However, the board is looking into the proposition of lighting the large track, which would be necessary in order to run the big races in the evening. What they do will depend largely on the cost of the lights.

Meanwhile many comments are being heard by the man on the street in regard to the relative merits of big car and midget car racing. Each kind has its proponents, and they are talking about it. It shows that a large number of people are definitely interested in the Valley County fair.

While it is still a little early to state definitely what the entertainment will be this year, it is certain that the new fair board is working on the problem, and that they will bring to the fair the best entertainment consistent with probable receipts.

First Heavy Snow Brings Over an Inch of Needed Moisture

Snow Was Blessing to Winter Wheat and Alfalfa Fields.

The week of moderate weather came to an end Saturday when snow, sleet and rain began to fall, continuing most of Sunday. The temperature was above freezing point and much of the first snow melted almost as quickly as it fell, producing a high content of moisture.

Horace Travis, weather reporter, states that the total moisture for the period was 1.23 inches, and that there was 11 inches of snow on the level at the end of the storm. Fifteen inches of snow is reported from Ainsworth, but this probably meant little more moisture, as the temperature was colder there while the storm was on.

Horace Travis, Observer
High	Low	Precip.	Snow
Thurs. 43	22
Fri. 42	20
Sat. 32	20	.23	1 1/2 in.
Sun. 28	23	.57	6 in.
Mon. 24	14	.43	4 in.
Tues. 12	6
Wed. 36	0
Total for week.	1.23 in.	1 1/2 in.
Total precip. to date.	50	1.74 in.
Total precip. to date '49	1.23 in.
Total snow this winter	20 in.
Total snow last winter to date	45.7 in.

This was the first real snow of the entire winter, former snows coming a little at a time and disappearing in a short time. The snow is so heavy that most of it stayed in the fields in spite of a fairly heavy wind Monday and Monday night.

This should be a great help to the winter wheat and alfalfa, both of which have been badly in need of moisture. Mr. Travis stated that he feared a thaw now might cause much of the water to run off, as the ground is frozen deep and the water will not have much of a chance to soak in.

Fred Ulrich, who keeps his sand pumping rig working whenever the weather is fit, stated Tuesday that the sustained cold weather had frozen the sand and the ice in some places to a depth of 45 inches, which is about as deep as freezing ever goes in Nebraska. The freezing this year came without the usual blanket of snow to temper it.

Tracy Hamilton said Tuesday that all the county roads would be open for traffic by mid-afternoon. In some of the cuts on the east-west roads the snow piled up to a depth of 2 1/2 to 3 feet. The snow is unusually solid and hard to move, but temperatures have been much milder than might be expected.

Only 2 Trains Over Burlington Weekly

The Burlington railroad has cut its train service to Ord and Burwell to two trains a week, effective this week. Trains will arrive here from Aurora on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The Tuesday train will go back on Wednesday and the Thursday train will lay over in Burwell and return on Monday.

Fair Board Says These Grain Bins Must Go

A tense—but somewhat funny—situation has developed over the PMA grain storage program which utilizes land at the Valley county fair grounds on the east edge of the city of Ord.

According to information gathered by the Quiz, here's what happened:

In 1949 the PMA leased a tract of land from the Valley County Fair association, for the construction of a quonset building for grain storage. The structure was to occupy one acre of space.

But today, PMA-erected buildings occupy 2.8 acres of the best parking space at the county fair grounds, and the fair board decided that something must be done before the situation got out of hand.

The PMA had the option of buying the occupied land at the end of five years. But (and here is the gimmick) the land was mortgaged and the mortgagor didn't know anything about the five-year option clause. Complicated, isn't it?

So, at the meeting of the fair board last Wednesday afternoon, steps were taken to straighten out the tangled situation.

It was decided that inasmuch as the PMA had failed to fulfill terms of the contract (a contract that perhaps was void inasmuch as it was not signed by the mortgagor), no more grain storage buildings would be permitted. Further, the buildings already erected would be removed as rapidly as the grain stored in them was removed, in the normal course of events. And that's quite a long while.

"Hank" Benda, secretary of the fair board, had this to say about it: "There aren't any hard feelings, but there are some red about this thing."

Treasurer's Deficit Quest Continues

Item by Item Check of Tax Records Made by Attorney, Auditors.

A patient, item by item check of Valley county tax records, dating back to the time when former county treasurer, George Satterfield, took office, is now being made by Valley county attorney, Ralph W. Norman.

"So far we haven't found anything particularly outstanding, other than that uncovered before, but we've got to make sure of every last dollar stolen before we can report to the bonding company and get our money back," Norman told the Quiz.

Norman is being assisted in his search by Paul Kuhlman, C.P.A., and Cecil Way, deputy state auditor, who arrived in Ord, Monday, to complete the check of the treasurer's records. The two state men have been loaned to the county, without cost, by State Auditor Ray C. Johnson.

"I can tell you that we've discovered a few more items that look interesting from an investigation standpoint, but it will be several days before we actually know whether these represent further losses to the county," Norman said.

"In several instances we have found items like this, in which first the tax money was taken, then after a period of time, paid back. While this is juggling of the books, and contrary to law, no actual loss resulted."

"That's what is making this investigation take so long," the county attorney said. "The cleverness in the way the tax payments were juggled make an item by item check absolutely essential."

Bureau of Census Plans to Employ Ten Enumerators

Applications Wanted for Positions After Monday of This Week.

First Air Traffic Case Is Heard in County Court

Flight in Bad Weather Makes Pilot Guilty on Four Phases of Law.

Ord people no doubt have known that there is such a thing as traffic laws in the air as well as on the highway, but a case heard in Judge Ciochon's court Thursday was the first in Valley county involving the breaking of aerial traffic regulations.

At the instance of a representative of the state aeronautics commission, County Attorney Norman filed charges Febr. 9, against Cornelius Biemond for infraction of flying rules as of Dec. 19, 1949. Four counts were included in the charge, as follows:

1. Operating a civil aircraft over a congested area at an altitude of less than one thousand feet.
2. Operating a civil aircraft over other than congested area at an altitude of less than five hundred feet.
3. Operating a civil aircraft less than seven hundred feet above the surface free from clouds in other than a control zone.
4. Operating a civil aircraft outside a control zone and a control area at a time when flight visibility was less than a mile.

Mr. Biemond entered a plea of guilty to all four accounts, paid a fine of $12.50 on each count, together with costs of $4 and was released.

Many Buy Licenses as Deadline Near

Treasurer's Office Well Ahead of Schedule in 1949.

The county treasurer's office was a busy place Monday late comers anxious to get licenses before the deadline Febr. 15, 1950. The record that as of Monday evening more than 2,739 auto numbers had been sold.

The office estimates that should be about 3,500 licenses issued in Valley county, and expecting quite a last minute rush. Last year only about 2,500 licenses had been sold by Febr. 14.

Last year the deadline for old licenses was Feb. 14 and hundreds of auto owners not able to get to town to buy new licenses by that time, the dead drifts of snow.

The total number of licenses issued last year was 4,332, but included a large number of permits for new cars for cases the old numbers had been used. It is expected that more county people will be driving this year than last.

Wedding

Sims-Sommer

Miss Tryllis Jean Sims, daughter of Mrs. Albertina Sims and John P. Sims, and Kenneth Russell Sommer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Sommer, were united in marriage in a candlelight service which took place Feb. 5, at the Emmanuel Lutheran church in Denver, Rev. Henry G. Hartner officiating in the single ring service. The altar was banked with baskets of pink and white roses and potted palms, interspersed with lighted candles.

The attractive blonde bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose for her wedding a gown of white slipper satin, with a deep yoke and bodice of lace, long tight fitting sleeves which came to a point at the wrist and the bouffant skirt which ended in a cathedral train. Her finger tip veil of illusion fell from a coronet of rhinestones and seed pearls and was caught on each side by a white rose. Her bouquet was of white roses centered with a detachable pink rose corsage.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. James Anderson, who wore a gown of green satin. Miss Peggy Weinsheim in dusky rose satin and Miss Delores Weitzel in toast satin were bridesmaids. They wore bandeaux of painted daisies and mitts to match their costumes and carried cascade bouquets of roses. The groom's young sister, Donna Faye Sommer was candlelighter. She was dressed in orchid satin and had a wreath of yellow roses in her hair.

The groom graduated from Edgewater high school. He was attended by Donald Bradbury as best man. Ushers were Russell Hatfield and Ray Cole.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The bride's mother greeted guests in a toast ensemble with black accessories while Mrs. Sommer was attired in a wine suit with black accessories.

After a trip to Mexico and the west coast, Mr. and Mrs. Sommer will be at home in Montclair, Colo.

Attending the wedding from North Loup were the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Hillis Coleman and Wm. Vogeler.

Fox - Sundermeier

Baskets of white and pink carnations formed the setting for the wedding, Sunday afternoon, Feb. 12, of Miss Jeannine Fox and Virgil H. Sundermeier, at St. Paul's English Lutheran church, in Grand Island.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morris, of North Loup, and Mr. Sundermeier is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sundermeier, jr., of Phillips.

Rev. John B. Ruple solemnized the double ring ceremony, at 2:00 p. m. The songs, "With This Ring I Thee Wed," and "God Made You Mine," were sung.

Given in marriage by her step-father, the bride was attired in a white satin gown distinguished by brilliant iridescent sequins on the bodice. A French peplum starting at the front fully circles the waist and falls into a sweeping train of majestic splendor. The fingertip illusion veil was trimmed with orange blossoms and seed pearls. The bride carried a garland of red roses with gardenias. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Mrs. Rudolf Plate, jr., twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Merle Sundermeier, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical gowns of emerald green and peach satin. Each carried corsages of carnations on white ribbons.

Merle Sundermeier, brother of the groom, was bestman, and Rudolf Plate, jr., was the attendant. Clarence J. Fox and Henry Moeller were ushers. Larry Mirky, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, and Ruby Beck was flower girl. Candle lighters were Jeanne Meyers and Marie Obermeier.

The bride's mother wore an aqua dress and Mrs. Sundermeier wore navy blue. Both had corsages of white carnations and red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception and later a supper for the immediate family was held at the home of the groom's parents. A wedding cake, in the shape of a cross, topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered the table. A dance was held at the Liederkranz Hall in the evening.

Mrs. Henry Moeller cut the cake. Mrs. J. W. Mirky had charge of the guest book, and Mrs. C. J. Fox and Mrs. C. C. Morrison were in charge of the gifts.

LETTERS FROM QUIZ READERS

The Ord Quiz:
Another year has rolled around and it is time for me to pay you another $3 for the fine paper. It has been 12 years since I left Ord and in that time a lot of people have left Ord and a lot more have come there to live, so I don't know a lot of people there any more, but I still enjoy getting the Quiz. Ever since I left Ord I have wanted to come back and spend a week, but that opportunity has never come my way. Maybe some time I can come and visit you all. I recently built a new home here in North Platte and I really get a lot of enjoyment out of it. It would make me very happy if people who know me in Ord would call me up when they are in North Platte. I see them sometimes, but it seems when I try to find them they are gone. I enjoy John Ward's writing. Very truly yours, W. B. Eberhart, Box 681, North Platte, Nebr.

Dear Mr. Leggett:
Enclosed please find my check for next year's subscription to the Quiz. I read all of it each week, even the ads. I thoroughly enjoy its contents. Your very high rating recently reached its most deserving. Congratulations!
I hope Inna keeps her column printed regularly. She writes such heart-warming stories. She is so appreciative of "The Dear Hearts, and Gentle People of My Home Town." She and that song really express my sentiments.
I felt so grateful to you, when I read the name of my father in your "When You and I Were Young" items. He left many buildings and bridges, which he had constructed in Ord and vicinity, and he really loved the town and its people. He departed many years ago, but I know he is not forgotten. I thank you for bringing his name into print once more.
Very sincerely,
Marie Wentworth Jacobsen

Neb. School Board Association Meets at Grand Island

A number of Valley county people attended the meeting of the State School Board association held in Grand Island Feb. 8 and 9. Those going were C. C. Thompson, Leo Long, F. L. Stoddard, Hilding Pearson and Clara McClatchey of Ord and Martin Dunklau of North Loup.

The program was an innovation this year, with different groups having charge of the program each half day. These four groups were labor organizations, administrators, the state school board organization and the state superintendent's office.

Each group had charge of a panel discussion and many ideas of interest were developed. The session closed with a banquet at the Yancey hotel, with C. Petrus Petersen as the featured speaker. Mr. Petersen gave an interesting talk on the subject of education.

Gifts Received by Ord Hospital

More and more gifts and inquiries are being received at the Ord Cooperative hospital. Among them are a 12-piece beautiful china dinner set for the hospital staff, donated by the Ord Women's club; a standard baby scale for the nursery, donated by Mrs. Orin Kellisch; drinking glasses for the patients and nurses, donated by Mrs. Charles Palmatier; and a crib, by the Ed Apkins.

More oxygen equipment to supplement use of the firemen's inhalator is arriving Wednesday, a generous gift from the Legion Auxiliary. It will now be possible to administer oxygen on both floors at the same time. The new regulator makes it possible to connect a large tank to the incubator without endangering the baby.

Mrs. Darlene Herman, of Murdock, Nebr., a registered graduate nurse of Bryan Memorial hospital and now employed there in obstetrics, will arrive in Ord, Feb. 28, to begin work as superintendent of nurses, March 1st. She will replace Mrs. Charles Brannen, who left with her husband, Dr. C. F. Brannen.

Comstock Winner of Loups Tourney

At the Loup Valley basketball tournament at Arcadia high school last Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Comstock emerged as the winner.

In the first round, Comstock topped Scotia and North Loup rolled over Sargent.

The next evening, Comstock and North Loup played a game that was a real thriller. Comstock, headed by Gerald "Joe" Lenstrom, managed to stay out in front of North Loup most of the way, but could only pile up a narrow winning margin of 33-29.

In the other bracket of the tournament, Taylor and Arcadia drew byes, with Taylor going to an easy win in the semi-finals.

In the consolation game, North Loup coasted to an easy win over Arcadia, to earn third place in the meet.

In the finals, Comstock nosed out Taylor by a 35-32 score. It was the kind of game basketball fans like to see—between two fast, evenly matched teams. Both teams displayed good sportsmanship time after time and the officiating was top notch.

Comstock was hard pressed all the way. At one time the Pirates had a lead of six points, but fast action by Taylor trimmed the lead to one point. It was anybody's game right up to the final whistle, with the jammed auditorium rocking with the cheers of fans.

Fire at Beranek Pharmacy, Sargent

Ed Beranek of Sargent lost most of the skin from his left hand but saved the pharmacy from fire last week when he carried a flaming torch from the building. He was using the torch to thaw a water pipe.

It was the kind with a hose and nozzle and the nozzle blew off, the pressure sending out a six foot flame which set several small fires. The fire department responded quickly and put out the fire. Mr. Beranek is a son of Joe Beranek and a nephew of Ed Beranek of Ord.

Sherman-Howard Loop Organized for 1950

The organization meeting for the 1950 season of the Sherman-Howard baseball league was held at Farwell last Wednesday evening.

Last year's officers all were re-elected. L. D. Jamrog of Ashton is president; J. S. Summovich of Elba is vice president, and G. A. Dilla of Farwell is secretary-treasurer.

Wolbach, a member of last year's league, withdrew at this meeting from next summer's circuit. Cushing was voted in to fill the vacancy.

During the discussion of rules and regulations governing the conduct of league play, it was decided to end the season with a double elimination playoff with the four top teams taking part.

A schedule of 14 games, to be played on Sundays, has been drawn up, with opening games scheduled for next Sunday.

Commencement Speaker

Chancellor R. G. Gustavson of the University of Nebraska will be the commencement speaker at graduation exercises at Ord high school, Supt. C. C. Thompson announced this week.

Ord Trips Curtis After Slow Start

The Ord Chanticleers had a few bad moments last Friday night before they finally disposed of the Curtis Aggies, 46-37, in one of the more exciting basketball games of the season.

Coach Dick Peterson's proteges found themselves behind 3-0, with a little more than a minute gone in the first quarter. The Chants then got down to business and tied the game at three-all. The game was tied again at five, seven, and nine-all, before Ord managed to eke out a 13-11 margin at the end of the first stanza.

Ord Swamps Loup City Cagers 55-37

A red-hot Ord high basketball team tripped the Loup City Red Raiders Tuesday evening, 55-37. Led by Dale Richardson, who contributed 26 points during the game, piled up a lead of 39 to 17 at halftime.

As usual, though, Ord didn't manage to get the first basket—or even the second one. Loup City utilized a fast break to score four points in the first 30 seconds of play. The Chants came back strong, however, and passed the Raiders while the game was still young.

At the end of the first quarter, Ord had 20 points while Loup City had 11. Richardson hit the basket six times without a miss in the first quarter, and Penas controlled the rebounds under both baskets.

In the second quarter, Ord forged ahead, 39-17. Loup City came to life in the third quarter, but the game was too far gone for the Raiders to get back into it.

The third quarter score was 49-26, and the Chants coasted on easily to their win.

After the game, Coach Dick Peterson said, "The boys haven't been so hot at any time during the season. Now I hope they can just stay that way."

Game officials were Carver and Lee, of Grand Island.

Game Wardens Receive New Zone Assignments

A redistricting of the state into zones for which game wardens are responsible has been completed, the Nebraska Game commission announced Tuesday.

Under the new set-up, Warden Roe Meyer of Sargent loses Grant county and takes charge of Garfield and Valley counties, which were added to his district. Formerly, the counties of Hooker, Thomas, Blaine, Loup, and the northern half of Custer were in his jurisdiction.

One new district, number 17, was created in the re-zoning. It consists of four counties in the eastern end of the state.

Before he could get his hand out it was injured so badly that part of all four fingers will have to be amputated. He was rushed to the hospital.

Also in first round play, Bartlett and Amelia tangle Monday, at 10:00 p.m. Sargent, O'Neill, Dunning, Chambers, York, Arcadia, Loup City, and Brewster drew byes in the first round.

Second round play gets under way Monday, with Brewster meeting the winner of the Bureau of Reclamation-Lincoln tilt, at seven o'clock. Dunning and the Orchard-Spalding victor match baskets at 8:30.

In Tuesday's activities, York and the Ord Vets-Gibbon victor tangle at 7:00, followed by Chambers and the Answorth-G.I. Odd Fellows winner. O'Neill and the Bartlett-Amelia conqueror finish the day's action at 10:00.

See next week's Quiz for the results of early tournament play and the pairings for the semi-final round.

Admission to the games, February 19 through 24, is 25c and 50c, with charges for the finals on February 26, being 35c and 75c. Tickets for all 24 games may be purchased for $4.00, tax included.

Juniors Top Barr in Final Minute

After being behind most of the way, the Ord junior high Chicks nosed out Barr junior high (Grand Island), by a score of 39-38.

In the most thrilling junior high tilt of the current cage season, Bill Gogan's lads were tied with the kids from the third city at the end of the first quarter, 8-8. The Bulldogs cut loose with a scoring barrage in the second period, however, and were ahead 23-14 at halftime.

The Junior Chants came back in the third canto, and at the end of the period had narrowed the gap to 30-27.

At the official time out late in the final quarter, the game was deadlocked, 38-38. The pressure seemed to be a little too much for the youngsters during the fading seconds of the game, with both teams lacking the finesse to pull the game out of the fire.

Six personal fouls were called on the Bulldogs in the last two minutes, but Ord was unable to capitalize. Then, a technical foul was assessed against Barr, and with three seconds left, Bennett sent the ball swishing through the net for the victory.

Bennett and Wolfe each garnered 11 points for Ord, and Willman scored 12 for Barr.

IF YOU WANT Quality Chicks
Mondays and Thursdays Are February Hatching Days for Fairmont Baby Chicks Order Yours Today For An Early Start
RIGHT NOW is the time to start those chicks. Ask any commercial poultryman. An early start with a brood of high quality chicks pays off again and again.
Your best bet—if you raise poultry to show a profit—is to start this very month with Fairmont Chicks.
Just see why February-started Fairmont Chicks are such money-makers: (1) In July and August, they are in heavy egg production when prices are generally higher. (2) The young cockerels can be marketed for higher prices in May and June before the flush movement of spring chickens from the farm. (3) You get double use from your brooder house. No need to leave it idle when it could be earning money.—Start a second brood of chicks in May or June.
FINEST CHICKS AVAILABLE
We have a variety of breeds to offer you. All have been developed by careful culling and selection to the same high Fairmont standards.
Start Those Chicks This Week. Send a postcard for our price list today. Or better still, if you are within driving distance, come in to see us.

As it is with the snow, so it is with character. Some people seem to take on the characteristics of the snow. Their lives are spotless and beautiful. Their friends place them on a pedestal, far above the rank and file of the people. As a matter of fact, they may be no more entitled to credit than others. Many a spotless life has turned out to be a whitened sepulchre.
On the other hand, the neighbor who keeps busy at his task, doing the work the Lord intended him to do, is often overlooked. There is nothing about the common man to attract the eye. He shines only in time of need. He is too busy to put on the polish that is needed to attract the attention of others. He is the salt of the earth, the man who fights the battles in war, and who does his full part in the exigencies of peace. All honor to the average man!

By All Means, Elect Him.
Note: A newspaper story last week said that the people of Belgium were asking the people of the United States if they should choose Leopold to rule over them. This is in answer:

Yes, good people of Belgium, give your Leopold a chance to head your government again, but let him make a race for the job. Give him some competition. Put up a god common citizen to run against him. Then, if he wins, he will have reason to believe the people really want him. That is the American way, and it should work in Belgium.

After he is elected, inaugurate him with appropriate ceremonies. Put in his hand the scepter of authority, but be sure that he understands that he is the chief executive and that he does not run the legislative and judicial branches of the government as well as his own. Warn him that the power he holds derives from the people who gave it to him, and that they can take it away.

If he does a good job his first term, elect him for a second term. That, too, is the good old American way. But, for Heavens sake, do not elect him or even let him run for a third term. We did that here in America and our good old American way has been sadly out of focus ever since.

But, if you would have him follow the American way, let him consider the methods.
In time of plenty let him order the destruction of crops and livestock. We did, and the Lord took a hand that same year and spread famine throughout the land. Let him establish a national system of price regulation, and when your supreme court declares the system unconstitutional, let him pack the supreme court with men of his own choosing.

Let him spend your country into prosperity. If he is a success in this procedure, your country should be hopelessly in debt in a few short years. Let him establish endless bureaus to handle real or imaginary needs, and let these bureaus handle the work delegated by the constitution to the duly elected representatives of the people.

If you have proper faith in your Leopold you will continue him in office and let his successor continue his policies after he is gone. In due time you will find your governmental machinery in a hopeless muddle, and your people will vote to continue it that way until it falls.

Let this be your watchword: High prices for everything you have to sell, and low prices for everything you have to buy; High wages and short hours for all who toil, high prices and short hours for tillers of the soil; low prices for everything capital has to sell, and a decent profit on the investment; and above all, lower taxes, lower rents, cheaper homes, more and longer vacations.

On second thought, Belgium, perhaps you had better ask advice of a people better qualified to give it. Here in America we went along fine for 140 years but today nobody seems to know just where we are. Instead of giving advice we should be asking for it ourselves.

My Own Column
By H. D. Leggett

They say a man is getting old when he can whistle and brush his teeth at the same time.

Yes I will be glad to send in your subscription, new or renewal for either the World-Herald or State Journal.

You don't have to wait till December to order the Quiz sent to an absent son or daughter. They will enjoy it any time and when Christmas time comes they will still be on the list if you order now. Besides many important stories will break between now and then.

The following story is going the rounds. It seems that a certain Republican senator who was violently opposed to the idea of socialized medicine, went to a state where the plan was already in operation for the purpose of making a study of how it worked. He went to the hospital and upon entering the front door, he found himself in a room with two doors. Over one door was written the word "male" and over the other was written the word "female." Being a male he entered that door, only to find himself in another room with two doors. One was labeled "married," the other was labeled "unmarried." Being married he entered that door and found himself in still another room with two doors. One was labeled "Republicans," the other "Democrats." Being a Republican he entered that door and found himself back on the street again.

A regular Quiz subscriber got peeved at something the paper printed and said to quit sending him the paper at once, though he still had one week to receive it. Knowing how fickle some folk are I checked with the newspaper dealer where the man lives and was not surprised to find that he was the first customer to arrive when the next week's bundle arrived. Anyhow he bought one instead of borrowing from his neighbor as I fear some do.

In fact a long time subscriber told me recently that they had a neighbor who was sometimes over to borrow their paper before they got a chance to read it themselves and that sometimes they had to buy one at the news stand to have one for themselves.

When it was zero weather and windy a while back we talked it over and decided that we would get along without a garden and chickens in 1950 and buy such stuff as we needed in the market. But now the pretty seed catalogues and the pretty chick catalogues have started coming and the Missus said yesterday that maybe we had better get a few chicks to have some fries and while looking over the latest seed catalogue she asked what I thought of this tomato and that kind of string beans. I think I recognize the symptoms.

Ord Man's Father Dies on Monday at Greeley, Nebr.

Edward J. Martin Was 89 Years Old; Leaves Many Descendants.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church in Greeley Wednesday afternoon for Edward J. Martin, 89, Rev. A. Clyde Ehret of North Loup officiating. Mr. Martin died early the preceding Monday afternoon, after having been ill for the past three months with the infirmities of old age. Born March 27, 1861 at Manerky, Ill., he moved to Ceresco, Ia., and there was married to Miss Elizabeth Harris, Christmas eve of 1885. A few years later they moved to Madison, S. D., and three years later moved by covered wagon to Grand Island. There they sold the outfit and moved to Greeley in 1893. At Greeley Mr. Martin became engineer for the old flour mill, and also served for years as water commissioner. At one time he was representative of the Standard company. He retired from active work about thirty years ago. Mrs. Martin died about 25 years ago. A son, Charles, lost his life in World War I and two children died in infancy.

Surviving are four daughters and four sons: Mrs. J. F. Hepp of Greeley, Lou of Spalding, Lloyd of Lincoln, Mrs. Helen Musselman of Grand Island, Mrs. Leo Knutz of Caldwell, Ida, Mrs. Dorothy Steenson of Grand Island, Lyle (Bud) of Ord, and Harry of Los Angeles.

Private Einspahr to Army Medic School

Pvt. Albert Einspahr of North Loup, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Einspahr of Heartwell, is now a student in the medical technician procedure course at Medical Field Service School, Brooke Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Enlisted and officer personnel from armed forces installations throughout the world come to the school for technical and professional training in military medical service. Completion of this course qualifies graduates for duty assignment as technicians in military hospitals and medical units.

Something Different

Bud Shirley has the neatest, tidiest little workshop you could wish for, tucked away in his backyard.

And here, while the days are dull and cold, he makes dozens of birdhouses that sparkle up our park on the sunny summer days.

Every bird house is designed for specific occupants, for certain sizes of doors please martins, and certain other sizes please smaller birds or perhaps it is bigger birds. Each bird house is different, and Bud duly trims it with tiny porches and eaves, possibly with wind indicators.

Even on these winter days he has the park looking attractive, every bench and table painted a bright lemon color that is charming against the drabness.

Several Ord gardeners were alarmed last week when their spring bulbs began to sprout too soon. The balmy days had brought some foolish hyacinths to reach for the sun and air.

The ground really thawed.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Norton are taking a well deserved holiday, seeing some of the great southwest part of the United States. They are one pair who rarely go tripping, and have stayed home and worked long and hard. They found it a little difficult to leave Ord, but write that they are really enjoying it now.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Kosmata planned to go to Florida for some sun, but they didn't make it. They left Ord stopping at Lincoln to visit Elma and her young family. But Elma was seriously ill, so her father and mother spent about three weeks helping out, and then returned home.

The Asa Andersons tell that back in Lapeer, Mich., where they have been living for the past 18 months, there ain't no such thing as rushing out to shovel snow from your walks.

The city does it all, and it is charged against your property. Neat, hey?

Hey, Dr. Blessing! Could we do that too?

All at once there is considerable interest in building in Ord. The Abbles are starting a really nice addition to the city, high on that hill overlooking the big highway curve that sweeps into Ord from the southeast. When they get it ready, this is going to make a handsome building site for some lucky couples.

I suppose Ord really is due to expand east, down toward the fairgrounds, where it is level and easy to build without a lot of expensive lot-grading.

I can't get over how many white houses we have in Ord. Understand, I think nothing is more attractive than a white house against greenery.

But we have no other colors in our town, hardly a house that isn't white. You go out and look for one!

Last spring when we were in California I was so smitten by the colorful charm of Palm Springs, and I'm sure about half of it was the softly colored houses. They were every shade, peach and pink and rose and yellows and oranges and gentle blues and greens and oh, it was delightful.

Of course the palm trees helped to make it a dream picture.

I know this isn't Palm Springs and I know we don't have palm trees, but we could have colored houses!

—Irma.

Mrs. Rachel Garnick visited Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Ivan Botts.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Whipple returned last Thursday noon from a two weeks trip. They first went to Mesa, Ariz., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. John Dutcher and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Geise. LUBRICARE keeps your Buick livelier longer
JUST realize one thing, good madam, good sir—as you pilot your Buick down the highway past the parade of lesser cars, you are the secret envy of most other drivers.
So you owe it to this admiring audience to keep that wonderful Buick of yours purring at its proudest—gliding over the roughest roads as a car on a cloud, with never a squeak—lively, long-striding, staying that way longer!
And one of the easiest ways to do that is to wheel into our shop once a month—ask the man for our LUBRICARE—and here's what happens:
1 One of our trained Buick mechanics will lubricate your car as the factory engineers specify—covering many points never touched elsewhere.
2 While he goes over your Buick, he gives you an extra service only a Buick man can render. He inspects the entire car with a trained Buick eye—making sure you get lubrication plus Buick care.
3 When you get your bill, you'll find a delightful surprise—our LUBRICARE is more than a routine "grease job" alive, what a difference it makes!

Carson Raps Highway Plans; Wants Dept. Affairs Divided

Says Valley County's Share of Taxes Is $236,000 Yearly.

A charge that the state highway department is too cumbersome to accomplish more than halfway results and a sharp query as to the source of funds for promotion of the governor's highway program came today from State Senator Hugh Carson, of Ord, who represents the 29th district.

"The state paid $69,000 to an 'expert' who, after much ballyhoo, finally decided Nebraska needed more concrete roads. So far, the only thing accomplished is the hiring of a former newspaperman as 'management consultant' advisor on business matters whom the newspapers quoted Governor Peterson as saying 'Sailors would aid and advise both myself and State Engineer Fred Kleitsch,'" Carson said.

"To my way of thinking, all that happened was the adding of a high-salaried public relations manager to the highway department who will spend most of his time acting as campaign manager for the governor at the taxpayers' expense."

Carson, who introduced a bill in the legislature to provide a business head for the highway department said that "the legislature certainly wasn't thinking that this appointee should simply be another 'assistant' to the governor."

"It is very doubtful that the legislature would have passed the gas tax and registration fee increase had they not thought that L.B. 216 had passed. This bill provided for breaking up the state engineer's office into workable segments and putting a business manager over the engineer in the highway department," the senator said.

"Now, we're faced with the spectacle of a group of high-powered promoters touring the state, sending out thousands of pieces of literature, and maintaining an office and organization to insure the adoption of the $69,000 road study."

"I'd like to know just where these promoters are getting their money, and I think I can answer my own question."

"First of all, there's nothing in this study that gives the farmer a chance. The recommendations are for main line stuff."

"Then, when I add in the fact that Mr. G. Donald Kennedy, who was hired by the state for this study, and who received $30,000 from the state for his efforts, has reportedly taken a new job as assistant to the president of one of the big cement companies, I think I've got my answer."

Carson said that he had translated the cost of the governor's program into what it would cost his home county of Valley.

"State gasoline taxes, motor vehicle license fees and federal automotive taxes in the state amount to more than $38,000,000 yearly. Valley county has less than 1 per cent of the vehicles in the state, .623% to be exact, and our estimated share of this tax load is $236,740 per year."

"The governor and the other tax increase promoters are calling for a 20 year program, and if the present taxes continue for 20 years, my home county will pay $4,734,000. The same ratio holds true in other rural counties of the state."

"The assessed value of all the farm land in Valley county is $7,175,000, which means that with the new tax rates, we are mortgaging 66 per cent of the entire value of our farm land just for the purpose of completing the governor's highway program."

"I think the people ought to be informed just what goes on within the maze of big and little wheels in the highway department that do so much grinding of the taxpayer and produce so little. That would be a good project for the keen reporters of Nebraska's great newspaper, the World-Herald. If they would do the same job for the state that they've done for Douglas county and Omaha, all of us would benefit."

Swopes Studio Installs New Lighting System

A new photographic lighting system, described as one of the most modern in photographic use today, was installed by the Swopes Studio of Ord this week.

"It's going to be especially helpful to us in taking pictures of babies, and in general character portraiture," Ed Swopes told the Quiz. "Babies are my pet photographic subjects, but their constant movements and changes of expression make good picture taking difficult with ordinary studio lights. With the new lights I'll be able to catch each expression or change of expression instantly."

"Another important feature is that we can pose subjects with regular overhead lights. There'll be no discomfort from glaring floodlights."

School Committee to Receive Guide Books for Study

Guides for the members of the committee of school reorganization have arrived at the office of County Superintendent Clara McClatchey and will be distributed to the members of the board as soon as possible.

The guides include a total of 22 forms or studies to cover such items as population trends, pre-school population, trends in the number of farms operated, bus routes possible, distance from school, teacher training, indebtedness, per pupil costs and a number of others.

All this will have to be tabulated before the committee is even ready to start. At a meeting in Lincoln, last week, members were urged not to be in a hurry, but to spend a lot of time getting ready before any action of any kind is taken.

A report recently sent out by the state superintendent's office on salaries paid teachers in the state shows that Valley county is eighth of the 93 counties in the average paid teachers. The average here is $1545.18, the highest is $1800 and the lowest is $1260.

Highest in the state is Cheyenne county, where the average is $2130.21, the highest is $3000 and the lowest is $1710. In the surrounding counties, Custer, 54th, Sherman, 70th, and Howard, 79th, pay more than Valley county. Garfield county is $6th and Greeley, 89th. The state average for rural schools is $1683.09.

North Loup Lions Are Planning for Year's Activities

Enjoy Oyster Supper at Community Hall Thursday Evening.

Twenty-five members of the North Loup Lions' club met in regular session at the Community hall Thursday evening to enjoy an oyster supper planned by the dinner committee Mills Hill, Ronald Cress and Frank Hasek. The meal was greatly enjoyed by all present, and was followed by an interesting business session.

Brought up for consideration was the proposition of the "Outstanding Citizen of 1950," an idea which the club adopted in December. Details were left to the civic improvement committee with power to act. This group includes Bates Copeland, chairman, I. L. Sheldon, Cecil Knapp, Frank Hasek and Martin Dunkla.

The general idea is for this committee to contact all the other organizations in the town and community and have each of them appoint a similar committee to work on the idea through the year, and the committees will get together at the close of the year and choose the citizen of 1950.

Governor Calls Carson Stooze for Oil Firms

Says Statement About Road Program 'Drivel and Crankcase Sludge'

In a statement released Tuesday afternoon, Governor Val Peterson charged Senator Hugh Carson, of Ord, as being a stooze for petroleum companies and classified his statement as "plain bunk, crank case sludge and drivel."

"Ordinarily I have passed up such comments," the governor said, "but this statement impugns my motives."

"The fact is that the manner in which we proceeded to study and to find a solution to the highway problems of Nebraska represents one of the soundest processes of governmental procedure in the history of Nebraska. The Senator's statement is full of misinformation and misstatements. He states that Mr. Donald Kennedy, who directed the study, received $30,000 from the state. The fact is that the state paid to the Automotive Safety Foundation the total of $19,504.42 to cover the salaries and expenses of Mr. Kennedy and three other men. Carson's statement is grossly in error. Senator Carson's innuendo that Mr. Kennedy was a stooze for the cement companies and that he slanted the findings of the study in his favor is not borne out by Kennedy's recommendation that Nebraska build $53,820,000 worth of concrete highway construction as opposed to $121,200,000 of bituminous construction, a principal ingredient of which is, of course, oil."

"Senator Carson's figures with reference to highway user taxes for the state and Valley County are misleading in that he does not give his breakdown of the portion of the taxes going to the Federal Government, to the county and to the cities. The state receives less than half. The State Highway Department has nothing to do with the levying of Federal taxes."

Chants Romp Over Central City by 64-39 Margin

Peterson's Proteges Pocket 24 Points in Penultimate Period.

A big third quarter in which the Ord Chanticleers scored 24 points to Central City's four was the straw that broke the camel's back in a cage contest here in Ord Tuesday night.

Central City trailed by only seven points, 27-20 at halftime, but at the beginning of the third period, Ord took the ball down the floor six times for 12 points, before missing a shot.

Ord even broke this season's tradition by sinking the first basket of the game—something they have been unable to do through most of the season. The Chants were never headed. They ran the score to 9-3 by the middle of the first canto, and at the end of one period of play, the Chants led 13-5.

Central City narrowed the margin to 10-13 early in the second quarter, but with Dale Richardson leading the attack, the Chants came sweeping back and pulled away to a 21-10 lead midway in the quarter.

Once more Central City began a determined rally and had pulled up to within seven points of Ord at the half.

A sensational third quarter scoring drive by the Chants left no doubt in the minds of the spectators as to which was the better team. Richardson potted 11 points, Falter garnered three, and Penas and Maurice each contributed two.

It was the best quarter defensively, as well, for the Chanticleers. Only four points were tallied by Central City.

Rural Fire Truck Makes Long Trip to Dist. No. 29

Saturday noon the Ord rural fire truck was called to School Dist. 29, about 15 miles west of Ord. When they arrived they found the school building in flames, and were unable to stop the fire until it was a complete loss.

Mrs. Dollie Johnson, teacher, lives in a trailer on the school grounds, and was the first to discover the fire. However, the basement seemed to be all ablaze at that time.

The ten children who attend the school had a week's enforced vacation. Members of the school board were looking for a place to carry on instructions temporarily, and were trying to "beg or borrow" books and equipment until those lost in the blaze could be replaced.

Miss Clara McClatchey, county superintendent, said that it was hoped that school could be resumed—in temporary quarters, Monday.

Stanley May, 78, Dies at Hospital Early Sunday

Born in Poland, He Was Well-Known Ord Resident 40 Years.

His many friends learned with regret of the passing of Stanley May, longtime resident here, at the Ord Cooperative hospital early Sunday. For the past 40 years Mr. May had been a resident of Ord and in that time he was usually a busy man, with the exception of the past few years, when he felt he was no longer able to work.

Born in Kroka, Poland, in 1872, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert May, he came to America with the family and to Ord about 40 years ago. He worked on farms and later took up a job on the section with the Union Pacific, where, because of his strength and willingness to work, he became a valuable man. He also worked for Charles Goodhand. He continued this work practically until he retired.

He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Sophia Shelton of Dosworth, Mo., and two half-brothers and a half-sister, Frank May of Sargent, John May of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Mary Rohman of Los Angeles, Calif., besides a number of nephews and nieces.

The funeral is being held at 9 a. m. Thursday at Our Lady of Perpetual Help church, Fr. Thomas Studowski officiating, and burial will be in the Ord Catholic cemetery. The rosary will be recited at 8:15 Wednesday evening at the Hastings-Pearson chapel. Pallbearers will be Al Parkos, James Pelska, Jerry Puncocchar, Emil Sedlacek, Guy LeMasters, and James Wachtrle.

Governor Calls Carson Stooze for Oil Firms

Says Statement About Road Program 'Drive and Crankcase Sludge'

(Continued from Page 1) and nothing to do with the expenditure of money by the counties and cities. The important consideration is not the assessed valuation of the property in any county but the income of all of the people in the county.

"The Senator does not point out that the average Nebraska citizen drives eight thousand miles per year and that the increased highway user taxes which he will pay as a result will be $5.33 on gasoline and $3.00 more for a license plate, or a total of $8.33. These costs will be more than offset by reductions in car operating and repair expense items to say nothing of the added safety and comfort which it will bring to our motorists. In talking about Nebraska taxes, he neglected completely the fact that we enjoy exceptionally low state taxes, nearly $22.00 under the national per capita average and that in fiscal 1949, we had the lowest per capita state taxes in America.

"The main attack on the highway program since the day that the Highway Advisory Committee was appointed has come from the powerful petroleum interests, interests so overwhelmingly strong that they can and have made and broken governments the world around. For years the petroleum interests have fought increased taxes upon petroleum products throughout America. This, of course, is their privilege, but it is also the privilege of the people of Nebraska to determine how they will finance the cost of highway construction and maintenance.

"I have talked to the heads of big petroleum companies, and I know that they don't care what we spend for highway construction in Nebraska if we will simply put the taxes on something other than their products. Their purpose is to shift the tax burden from gasoline to the property or income taxes, and when that is done, it is plain to see who will be the loser. Highway user taxes are fair, but some people are selfish enough to want to evade paying for the use which they make of highways.

"The petroleum people have made sly, underhanded attacks on me for many months. I expect these attacks to continue. The fact is they have already contacted individuals to run for Governor against me. Further, they will seek to drive out of public life all the Senators who supported the recommendation of the Highway Advisory Committee.

"Ben Sallows is a fine, successful, public-spirited citizen of this state. He is well able to protect himself. If the Senator had taken the time to investigate before he talked, he would know that Mr. Sallows has not received one dime of salary or expense money from the state. I think it is too bad that he is to be the subject of such attack.

"Every highway in Nebraska is a farm-to-market road. We are currently making progress on highways, county roads, rural mail roads, and upon the improvement of city streets. Our roads today are the best in the history of Nebraska even though the need for further improvement is tremendous. Our Highway Department is made up of hundreds of conscientious, hard-working, relatively low paid public servants. If the Senator wants to attack them, that is his privilege. I salute them as fine public servants.

"More than that, some people have always tried to make the Highway Department a political football. In every instance, dispassionate and unprejudiced examination has found it to measure up to high standards of efficiency and economy.

"Because of the extreme importance of good roads to all phases of Nebraska life, I would be very happy to discuss or debate the road program in Nebraska with Senator Carson in any place in his district that he names. It would be ideal if we could get his entire constituency together at one time in order that all of the facts with reference to road building could be presented to them. I know that

Warner Loses Hand in Tragic Accident

Jos. F. Warner of Greeley suffered the loss of his right hand while operating a rotary snow plow late Monday afternoon of last week. He was given first aid and rushed to St. Francis hospital in Grand Island where his right arm was taken off half way between the wrist and elbow. The accident occurred in the alley in the rear of the Warner Locker plant. Mr. Warner was clearing the alley of snow drifts so trucks might get through, and was clearing snow from the machine when his hand came in contact with the whirling blades and was cut almost entirely off.

Fair Weather for Most of Week, as Bluster Fails

A fair grade of winter weather has prevailed throughout the entire week with the exception of Tuesday, when cloudy skies and spitting snow threatened to ruin the picture. However, the storm was of only one day duration, the snow was light and the only effect was to drive the thermometer down to 6 above on Wednesday morning.

The snow which came over the week-end last week have been melting from day to day, and most of it has disappeared with the exception of drifts along the fences and in the ditches. With more warm weather promised what is left should all be gone in a few days. Indications now point to an early spring, and some farmers are hoping to get to work in the fields by early March.

Hold Three Loups Vocal Festival

Nearly 450 songsters from high schools in the Loup valleys made the rafters ring at the Ord high school Wednesday. A full day of vocal music—and a little extra-curricular recreation—kept the students on the move from 9:00 a. m. until the middle of the evening.

Vocal group from Ord, Burwell, Loup City, Ravenna, and Broken Bow took part in the Three Loups vocal festival, with guest conductors Millard Cates and Gordon Ohlsson on the podium.

Ord Takes North Division Title

Ord's victory over Broken Bow Saturday night gave them the Trans-Nebraska northern division crown, and earned them a spot in the inter-divisional play-off game.

The game will be held here in Ord next Monday evening, but the opponent is not yet known. This rather unusual state of affairs is brought about by the fact that Superior and Minden are in a tie for the southern division diadem at present. The two teams will meet Friday night, and the winner will come to Ord Monday.

According to school officials here, the Monday date was chosen because most of the officials in the circuit are booked for the week, beginning Tuesday, at tournaments throughout the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinc Suchanek, Marlene and Raynal, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers in honor of Raynal's birthday.

Old World Skill

for Old World Flavor

The knack of sausage-making reached its peak in the flavorful food preparation in Europe. We haven't lost that knack here. We still know how to make sausages with that fine "old world" flavor.

The meats for our sausages are carefully selected from animals that have been fattened in our own feed lot. Those meats are ground with just the right amount of high grade spices to give the delectable flavor and goodness that you have learned to associate with the North Side market.

If you haven't become acquainted with our fine sausages, why not drop in today and take some home? You'll be glad you did!

Directors Chosen for County Farm Organization

Extension Service Re-elects Three to Serve Coming Term.

The annual meeting of the Valley County Extension service and the Valley County Soil Conservation district was held Wednesday at the Masonic hall, with 35 persons in attendance. Three directors were to be elected for the coming term, and E. O. Schudel, Henry Enger and George B. Clement were elected to succeed themselves. The holdover members are Floyd Bossen and Mrs. Leo Nelson.

No directors are chosen at this time for the soil conservation district for the reason that their elections are held every two years and usually in July. Also, the elections are held by the use of both mail vote and voting places. The present directors of the SCD are Fritz Kuehl, appointive member, Henry Enger and Harold Nelson, whose terms expire this summer, and E. O. Schudel and Harold Garnick, holdover members.

George Rounds Speaks

In the afternoon George Round of the Agriculture Extension service from Lincoln spoke on modern discoveries, such as the atom bomb, and their relation to improved methods being worked out in agriculture. His talk was well received and heartily applauded. He followed this with the showing of a film called the "Nebraska Idea," designed to put over the purpose of the agriculture extension service.

Covered Dish Lunch

A covered dish lunch was served in the hall at the noon hour, which was very much enjoyed. Also a part of the afternoon program was the report of Leslie Nash of the soil conservation service of work done the past year in the Valley county soil conservation district, as well as the work done for the entire period since 1912.

Leslie Nash Reports

Also included in Mr. Nash's report was a financial statement for the year, showing that a total of $22,822.60 was received from the district during the past year, mostly for rent of equipment. Of this $1,543.17 was spent for the salaries of two tractor drivers, one full time, the other part time. A total of $10,917.80 was spent on new equipment. The district bor-

The SCS sets up goals each year on the amount of personnel available, which in this case is three persons, and also on the number of applications for construction assistance. Mr. Nash made it plain that the service does not work with people unless requests are made for assistance. Mr. Nash's table of work done the past year is of special interest and is printed herewith.

North Loup Wins, Loses to Sargent Tuesday Evening

Sargent brought their regular and reserve teams to North Loup Tuesday evening, and got an even break, losing the first team game and winning with the reserves.

North Loup ran wild in the first team game, scoring almost at will to win by the largest margin they have run up this year, 73 to 26. Bob Hawkes accounted for 26 points for North Loup while Russell Kerr garnered 21.

The second team game, played first, was a close contest all the way with the visitors finally winning by a score of 31 to 26.

Loup City Topples Burwell, 31-27

The Loup City Red Raiders toppled the Burwell Longhorns by a score of 31-17 on the Burwell high school floor Friday evening. The Longhorns gained an early lead, and were ahead by a 5-1 score at the end of the first quarter.

By halftime, however, the visitors had gone in to a 7-7 tie with Burwell. The first half was a slow affair with very little good basket ball played by either team.

In the third period, though, the action began to pick up. Loup City began to apply pressure and at the end of the third canto was ahead 16-13.

In the fading minutes of the game, the Raiders ran up the count, scoring 15 points to Burwell's four in the final quarter. During the halftime intermission, the Burwell Girls Pep club presented a drill, led by Joan Brenneman. Belva Butcher was the drummer.

In the preliminary game, the Loup City junior high swamped the Burwell junior high by a 66-16 score.

Little Joe Lenstrom

Comstock Ace Has Scored 350 Points

Gerald Lenstrom, 5 foot 6 inch, 148 lb. senior, is sparkplug of the Comstock high school basketball team which last week captured the Custer County championship and previously won the Loup Valley league championship. Lenstrom has made 350 points this season.

Dick Pulliam, who refereed several games in which Lenstrom played, says the diminutive Comstocker is the best high school forward he has seen this season. He has recommended him for all-state honors.

An accomplished ball handler, Lenstrom isn't the type of player to whom team mates feed the ball for set-up shots. When he scores, which is often, it is usually after dribbling through or around the opposition, sometimes the whole length of the floor.

The Comstock team has lost only one game this year, to North Loup early in the season. In the Loup Valley tournament at Arcadia, Lenstrom made 66 points in 3 games. In the Custer county tournament last week he made 77 points in 3 games. His season's average is 19 5/10 points per game.

Lenstrom starred in both football and basketball throughout high school and is the kind of player any coach would like to have on his team. Practically assured of a Class D all-state berth, "Joe" may receive even higher honors if the recommendations of Pulliam and other referees and coaches are followed by the sports-writers who select Nebraska "all" teams.

The Custer County Tournament held at Anselmo, Feb. 13, 14 and 16, was won by Comstock. Callaway took second honors, while Arnold placed third. In the first round Callaway defeated Anselmo; Mason City took Anselmo; Comstock beat Meina, and due to bad road conditions, Sargent forfeited the game to Arnold. This put Calla-way and Mason City on one side and Arnold and Comstock on the other side of the bracket to play in the semi-finals Callaway had an easy evening with Mason City, but in the Arnold-Comstock game it was anybody's game. Arnold led Comstock by 8 points the first quarter, but during the second quarter, "Little Joe" Lenstrom scored 10 points, and at half time, the Comstock boys led by a score of 23-17. It was a see-saw game the last half, but Comstock was ahead by one point at the very closing moments of the game and was stalling, while Arnold's men were trying to stop this procedure. Lenstrom passed the ball to Griebel, who sank an easy lay up shot. Arnold took the ball and a man going at full speed threw the ball at the basket and it went through the net as the final whistle blew. However, Comstock won the game by a score of 41-10.

This put Comstock and Callaway to vie for honors in the finals. It was Comstock's game practically all the way, to win by a score of 49-38.

Arnold coasted through Mason City to give them third place. It was a very thrilling tournament, with good sportsmanship being displayed by everyone, and the officiating was top-notch.

Jerry Griebel

Broken Bow Falls to Chants, 49-33

The Chanticleers kept up their winning ways at Broken Bow, Saturday night. They spanked the Indians to the tune of 49-33, in a game which had been postponed one day because of an inability to get officials on Friday.

As usual, the Chants got off to a slow start, but managed to have a one-point lead at the end of the first quarter, 11-10. Penas did a big share of the work in that first period. He contributed two field goals and a free throw to the Ord cause.

By halftime, the Red and White was in front 22-17, with Richardson finding the bucket with a pair of deftly tossed field goals.

After the intermission, Richardson really got down to business. Five times he rang the bell with fielders, dashing the Indians' hopes of catching the Valley county boys. The Broken Bow attack faltered while Ord was racking up points in the third canto. Prescott got two points and B. Spencer did the same. But the handwriting was on the wall, with the score going to 36-21 at the end of the period.

Ord kept up a balanced attack in the fourth quarter, with everyone except Stoddard getting at least one field goal. Stoddard, who was having a bad night, fouled out in the last few minutes of play and scored three points during the game.

Richardson's 18 points—10 of them scored in the third quarter— took the evening's scoring crown. He was followed by Maurice with 11 and Penas with 10. For the Indians, Prescott, playing every minute of the game, garnered 11 points. His teammates, L. Spencer and Betz, each collected six.

Spalding Academy Rules Conference

Coach Eddie Coleran's Spalding Academy Shamrocks are the 1935 champions of the Cedar Valley conference.

The Shamrocks copped the honors Friday night by beating Primrose 54-10 in the finals of the conference tournament at Primrose. In other tourney games Belgrade whipped Wolbach 35-16 for third place, and Cedar Rapids down Spalding high 36-34 for the consolation round championship.

The last three games in the consolation round probably were as good as any seen in the tournament. In the semi-finals Spalding high had to go an overtime to edge St. Joseph's, of O'Connor 27-25, and Cedar Rapids took Ericson 48-46 in a rough and tumble game. And only two points separated Spalding and Cedar Rapids in the finals.

The Shamrocks moved into the finals by tripping Belgrade 37-34. In the other semi-final game, Primrose downed Wolbach 36-24.

Ord Teams Falter in Burwell Meet

The two Ord basketball teams entered in the Burwell townies' tournament both have been eliminated. The Ord town team was beaten by Burwell (1) in the first round, and the VFW five lost to York in the second round.

Pre-tourney favorites advanced, most of them very handily, in the annual Burwell town team tournament now in progress at Burwell. In early tournament activity, Burwell (1) downed the Ord town team by a 57-33 count, and Orchard overcame Spalding, 57-35.

Ainsworth moved by the Grand Island Odd Fellows, 65-42, and the Ord VFW nosed out Gibbon, 55-52, in one of the best games played so far in the tournament.

Cedar Rapids romped over Grand Island Seed, 52-25, and Burwell (2) edged Page, 38-36.

A highly touted Lincoln team lived up to advance notices by swamping the Bureau of Reclamation, 74-34.

In Monday night's play, Lincoln ran a steamroller over Brewster, emerging with a 93-27 victory. Orchard defeated Dunning, 51-35, the same evening, and Bartlett was forced to come from behind to top Amelia, 32-24.

Tuesday evening saw the Ord VFW team fall to a powerful York crew, 65-36. Ainsworth toyed with Chambers in fashioning a 61-27 victory, and O'Neill romped over Bartlett, 63-26, after overcoming an early rally by Bartlett.

Promoter Don Lynch of Burwell says, "The attendance, while it hasn't been bad, could be a lot better. Some of these teams really play some high-class basketball."

Cage enthusiasts are looking forward to the semi-final and final rounds which will put the best town teams in the state against each other. The finals will be held Sunday.

Why is a champion? The outstanding athlete instinctively knows what to do... does the right thing at the right time... makes very few mistakes.

Usually, he has attained leadership because of unusual ability to observe other performers—absorb the teachings of coaches—and put into practice the things he has learned.

Similarly, the tavern owners of Nebraska are trying to apply the methods of other successful taverns, absorb the helpful suggestions given by the brewing industry, and put this knowledge into practice.

Files of Basketball from Files of the Ord Quiz

first introduced playing indoors then, and very little inside playing was done before the fall of 1904.

The outdoor court was larger than the indoor courts of today, usually about 80 feet long and wide in proportion. Fouls were called for almost any possible misconduct and much of the time was spent throwing free throws. Any player could do the free throwing, and usually some certain man practiced at it until he was just about perfect.

Because it was a new game, about the only competition that developed that first fall was between different teams in the school. The second year North Loup, Greeley and possibly St. Paul became competitors. Also a group of Ord players won the displeasure of the superintendent; were not permitted to play for the school, and formed a team outside the school known as the Basketball Juniors. Games with them were not permitted, but were played anyway.

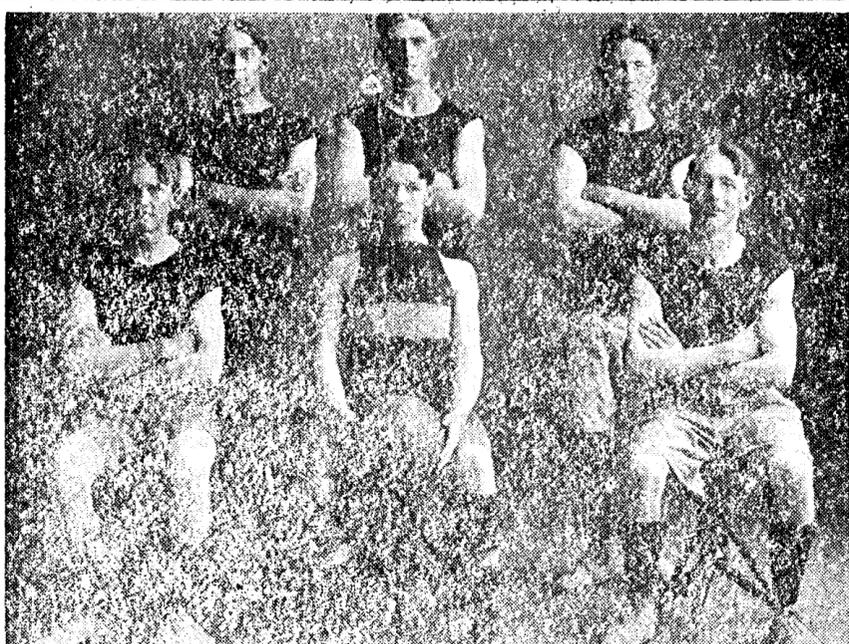

In 1903 play began to broaden out, although there is little in the files of those days to use for copy. A game was played that year against St. Paul and another against Central City, with Ord winning the Central City game, but losing to St. Paul. Also Ord high played the Ord Business college but lost to the older and bigger fellows.

It was about 1903 that some new players began to appear on the scene, among them Fred Coe, Russell (George R.) Mann, Ray Hamilton, Ralph Harris and Glen Millard. Also, there was much talk of taking the game indoors and playing it in the evening under the lights — electric lights were beginning to come into use at that time.

Speaking of Russell Mann, Class of 1905, Ord basketball owes much to him. Handicapped because he was short, he made up for it by his terrific speed and dazzling footwork. After graduation he taught the Springdale school and organized a Springdale basketball team which made it hot for both the Ord high school team and the town team for a year or two.

In fact, the only picture available for this first of the basketball stories is that of Mann and his Springdale stalwarts. There was an old building on the east side of the square just north of Earl's Clothing store that was vacant for a year or two, and the town team used it for practice and possibly a few games were played there. It was known as the Reithardt Opera house.

When the games began to attract a greater number of fans, the Wentworth Opera house, now the Veterans club, was used, and provided the most roomy court to be had indoors in those days. The Opera house was also used then for barnstorming troupes of actors, who usually got a good crowd in Ord. One of these

These Basketballers Played for Springdale and Ord

Going back over the roster of those players of the first four years of football, Russell Mann was without doubt the most versatile player, with flashy attack and stubborn defense. At center Grover Long, tallest of the entire group, was in a class by himself, and usually dominated the play at his position.

At throwing goals from the free throw line, Allie Pierce was one of the best, and actually threw 56 through the hoop one night (in practice) without a miss. He quit school before graduation, but continued to play with the basketball juniors and other town teams for several winters. To give some idea of the straits basketball was in in Ord high, only 7 boys graduated in the three years 1905, 1906 and 1907, and two of these, Floyd Robbins and David Squires, did not play.

Mainly because of the lack of material, Ord high school does not seem to have done much in basketball until 1907, at least, there is nothing said about it in the files of the Quiz. Beginning then it seems that there were at least teams active in the Ord town, the Ord High school and the Ord town team.

The name "Invincible" is used in connection with some team, but it is not clear whether it refers to the Springdale team or to the town team. The first game played that year was between Ord high and Springdale, and was probably played outdoors, the date being Nov. 2. The Quiz stated that Ord won, but the score is not given.

ed St. Paul Business college at St. Paul. It was one of the first games on record where the field was dominated by one man. The college had a huge fellow named Needham, who stood around near the St. Paul goal and made the baskets when the ball was passed to him over the heads of the other players. St. Paul won, 29 to 9.

Shortly after this a double bill was announced to be played at Ord, Ord high vs. St. Paul Business college, and Ord high third team vs. Springdale. For some reason not given the games were never played. The second team, Ord high school, played the St. Paul high school first team at the Wentworth Opera house Dec. 6. It was a rather poor game, worse than the score of St. Paul 32, Ord 25, would indicate.

That same night Ord high first team went to North Loup and played the high school team there in Woodman Hall, now the Legion building. The score was 7 to 12 for North Loup at the half, but Ord came back strong to win 29 to 14. The hall was about the largest building available for the game at that time, but was entirely too small with the ceiling so low that long shots were impossible.

No summary of games is possible for 1908, as the files are missing for that year. However, those who were here and interested at the time will recall that a number of games were played that year, and that Ord won her share of them. In the issue of Nov. 4, 1909, the Quiz tells of a basketball game in North Loup Oct. 30 which Ord won 15 to 11.

Of special interest is the fact that the trip to North Loup and back was made by automobile, probably the first in which that method of transportation was used. Nov. 11 two games were played in the Ord Opera house, Ord vs. St. Paul Business college. Ord girls won the first game, 18 to 11 and the Ord boys won the second, 29 to 28.

North Loup sent two teams to Ord Dec. 1. The North Loup town team won 37 to 30, while the North Loup high school lost to Ord high second team, 25 to 32. There was a very good attendance. The Ord high first team basketball girls gave a basket supper Dec. 10, presumably to raise funds for athletics. About this time Ord forfeited a game to North Loup because the freight left before the boys got to the depot.

The big game of the season found the Ord Invincibles, town team, pitted against the St. Paul town team in a game that was plenty, rough, according to the newspaper report. The Invincibles didn't get going in the first half, which ended 11 to 4 for St. Paul. Ord overtook their opponents in the second half, which ended in a tie. According to the rules of that day they went right on playing until finally Cushing, probably Marion, possibly Herbert, made a field goal and Ord won, 27 to 25. It was the first time St. Paul had been beaten in four years.

Sports were not as popular then as they are today, which probably accounts for the weak writeups in the papers then. Only once in the first decade was a lineup of the teams given, so that most of this installment the question of who played is largely guesswork. That one exception was a game played Nov. 30, 1906, between the Ord Invincibles and the Ord high school.

For the Invincibles Ralph Harris played center, Grover Long and Russell Mann forwards and Ord Twombly and Marion Cushing guards. For Ord high Howard Alvord played center, Miner Harris and Joe Aldrich forwards, and Milford Stacy and Ralph Battie guards. Herbert Cushing was referee, Christensen was umpire, first name not given, Supt. Howe and Harold Parks were timekeepers, and some Perkins was scorer.

The game, according to the Quiz, was featured by unnecessary roughness on the part of both teams, much of which was overlooked by the officials. The score at the half was 7 to 5 for the high school, but the Invincibles came back strong to win by a score of 17 to 10. No record was given of the individual scoring, but it is doubtful if Ord high has produced much better players than those old boys in recent years.

With the help of George A. Munn the writer has compiled a list of players who participated in games during the first decade. It is probably incomplete, since many failed to graduate in those days, and some may be overlooked. Those who played from the Class of 1902 were: Tutton Chaulton, Wayne Clements, Frank

Class of 1903: Charles Clochon, Stanley Dworak, Jacob and William Hoffman, Claude Homnold and John McAnulty. Class of 1904: Ed Armstrong, Cecil Charlton, Richard Canfield, Allan Clements, Dow Harris, Grover Long, Irl Tolon and John Ward. Class of 1905: Fred Coe, George R. Mann. Class of 1906: Ray Hamilton, Ralph Harris and Glen Millard.

Class of 1907, none. Class of 1908: Joe Aldrich, Ralph Battie, Herbert Cushing, Miner Harris, Milford Stacy and Otto Wirsig. Class of 1909: Clayton Burke, Francis Keating, Irvin Moorhouse, George Munn, Walter Noll and Joe Stara. Class of 1910 (played in 1909): Bob Noll and Fred Trimble. In addition Bud Auble, Marion Cushing, Allie Pierce, Ray St. Clair, Henry Misko, and probably others played, but did not graduate here.

As we get older, stress and strain, over-exertion, excessive smoking or exposure to cold sometimes slows down kidney function. This may lead many folks to complain of nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness. Getting up nights or frequent passages may result from minor bladder irritations due to cold, dampness or dietary indiscretions.

If your discomforts are due to these causes, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 60 years. While these symptoms may often otherwise occur, it's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!
